The Purple and White continued its winning streak, winning the third basketball game from the Rushford High School, 41-7.

Four games played and four won is the record of our basketball team to date. Friday evening the students had a chance to see both the first and second teams in action. The second team played Wabasha in a fast tilt, winning only in the last two minutes of play. Up to that last few minutes, the visitors were in the lead by one point. The final score stood—Normal 10, Wabasha 9.

The lineup follows:

The second game, Normal First vs. Rushford was a little too one-sided to be exactly exciting. If it had not been for the visitors' snappy guarding, the score would have been a good deal more overwhelming than it was. Kreger showed his usual form during the latter part of the game, making a total of 11 goals. The game ended with Normal 61 and Rushford 7. The lineup was as follows:

VICTROLA USED IN CHAPEL

Chorus time on Wednesday was pleasantly occupied with several selections played on the Victrola. Because of the recent death of Maud Powell, the nationally famed violinist, Miss Smith thought it a suitable time to tell the chorus a few things about Miss Powell's work and life. The talk and the selections given were much enjoyed.

AN APPEAL FOR NEW MEMBERS

The Y. W. C. A. is still looking for new members. Most of the students who entered in September and also the teachers had an opportunity to join it then. Now we have many students who have entered since then and we want you also to have an opportunity to join us. Do not put it off until tomorrow, but join today.

For more information go to Grace Merryman, Mattie Brown or Evelyn Eldred. This is a school organization and we want all the students to be able to say that they are members of the Winona State Normal Y. W. C. A.

KINDERGARTEN CLUB PLANS SALES

The Kindergarten Club members are now working very busily in preparation for a sale which they will have in the near future. Many useful and inexpensive articles will be offered. Two meetings for work have already been held and the progress being made indicates that the sale will take place soon.

COUNTRY LIFE CLUB BEGINS WORK, PURPOSE WILL BE TO MAKE SOCIAL LEADERS

There is a universal call for the teacher, who is capable of entering into the community life of the locality in which she finds herself, to such an extent, that she becomes a vitalizing factor in that particular social process. To satisfy this demand by furnishing capable, efficient and willing social leaders, there is no more practical purpose than that of the Country Life Club.

Two requisites are necessary on the part of the members for the accomplishment of this aim: the same evaluation of individual possibilities of leadership and the willingness to work and co-operate. In the field of physical development the cripple may be excusable, but in the field of social leadership there is no cripple except the crippling of the mind. Edison was once asked for the formula of his success. "Two per cent of inspiration and ninety-eight per cent of perspiration" was his quick reply. We have the required two per cent of inspiration. Are we willing to furnish the ninety-eight per cent of perspiration? The measure of success which we may hope to attain in our Club this year will depend directly upon our answer to this question.

JUNIORS CHOSE COLORS

At a recent meeting of the members of the junior class, a representative committee was appointed to consult with Miss Speckman and choose the class colors. The class yell written by Charles Randall was adopted and is as follows:

Razzle dazzle, we got 'em on the run

Winona Normal Twenty-one.

Mr. French: Every four hundred years we gain a day.

Fifer: "Yes, yes, I remember now."

MR. GAYLORD NEARLY WINS PRIZE

Mr. Gaylord came to the rescue Friday at chapel hour, and nearly relieved Mr. Maxwell of a so-called "prize" which was promised to the person who could explain the reason why the girls' lockers in the west corridor of the first floor, were always open.

Mr. Gaylord's explanation of the sloping floor was followed by a statement from President Maxwell of the latches on the lockers that could

JUNIOR PARTY SATURDAY IS PROCLAIMED SUCCESS DECORATIONS UNSURPASSED

The members of the Junior Class proved beyond all shadow of a doubt that when it came down to entertaining the school that they were there! No one can deny that Saturday night's party was anything but a huge success from every standpoint. The lucky dances were given as a prize a large box of candy. Two such prizes were given. The decorations were the prettiest of any that have ever been hung in that gymnasium, according to several members of the faculty who attended.

Music was furnished by a Herrick's five piece orchestra. It was estimated that nearly one hundred and fifty couples attended.

The decorations consisted of rose and pale green, streamers hung from the balcony, lights, callings; in fact they were everywhere, hanging in graceful curves over the heads of the dancers, and onlookers. From eight of the lights red and green balloons were suspended within a few feet of the heads. The moonlight dance, in which streamers, and little paper hearts were flown from the balcony, was a beautiful spectacle to behold. These hearts very closely resembled huge snowflakes as they floated to the floor. The spotlight on the balcony lit up the entire gym, with its rays, and now and then fixed itself upon various couples, as they danced.

No refreshments were served. The reason being that the party did not last long enough to warrant them and that, according to the class officers, refreshments at a Normal party are in most cases unnecessary. However no one seemed very unhappy over this situation.

CHARLOTTE CARBERT GIVEN SURPRISE

One evening last week, Charlotte Carbert entered her room and found on her table a most beautiful birthday cake inscribed with her name. The donor of the cake was a mystery. All the other girls are hoping now that the same person will remember their birthdays, also.

Y. W. C. A. FURNISHES PROGRAM

The Y. W. C. A. furnished the regular Sunday afternoon program at the city building last week. The report given by Miss Crookshite at school was repeated there, as was the dance which Gladys Brown and James Waddell gave at the initiation in the fall.

be turned "with a twist of the wrist." These last words forced Mr. Gaylord to withdraw from the field of prize competitors, thus leaving the prize in the hands of President Maxwell. Should any one think he has sharp enough wits to win it, he may try to win out.
EIGHT GRADUATED FROM NINTH GRADE AT MODEL
SCHOOL JANUARY 23RD

Eight students were graduated Friday afternoon from the ninth grade at the Model School, President Maxwell presenting the diplomas, and Miss Gildeheimer giving the address to the graduating class. After the exercises the class Will and Prophecy, the former written by Margaret Keeler and the latter by Gretchen Wilkie, were read.

Following the exercises a reception was given in honor of the graduating class. Refreshments in the form of Neopolitan ice cream and wafers were served. The graduates are:

Florence Bareuther  Alice Schwarz
Lillian Broom  Margaret Keeler
Frances Brom  Ruth Dahl
Gretchen Wilkie  Annette Hines

In order to obtain the Class Prophecy failed, and we can therefore only print the Class Will at this time. The prophecy was, however, an excellent piece of literature and deserves honorable mention.

THE WILL

We the of the January class of 1920 of the Normal Junior High, being of sound mind and sound body, do hereby declare that the following bequests be made:

1. To Knute Nelson, in School Education.
2. To G. All the combined pep of the entire class, minus only the presence of those who were absent, we do hereby declare that the following bequests be made:
3. To William McDonald, these plants of ours so tenable, we do hereby declare that the following bequests be made:
4. To Janet Nelson, in School Education.
5. To Robert Bande, for the protection of his delicate ankles, we do hereby declare that the following bequests be made:
6. To Margaret Keeler and the latter by Gretchen Wilkie, were read.

They have assumed that they are better representatives of American interests than those who differ with them. It is simply a political catch-phrase, used for political purposes like so many other phrases we have had in the past.

"AMERICANISM"

"In respect to the definition of the term "Americanism," as lately used, all I can say to you is that it is a phrase that has been used on an extensive scale by those who have been opposed to the conventions of the league of nations. They have assumed that they are better representatives of American interests than those who differ with them. It is simply a political catch-phrase, used for political purposes like so many other phrases we have had in the past."

"--Kathleen, in School Education."

COUNTRY LIFE CLUB RESUMES MEETINGS, ELECT OFFICERS

Because of the absence during the fall term, of Miss Trites, the Country Life Club had not held any meetings. On Tuesday, Miss Trites called a meeting, which many girls attended. Officers as follows were elected: Cora Perry, president; Eda Dysthelet, vice-president; Keithleen McCaffrey, secretary; and Marguerite Carey, treasurer. It is planned to have, probably, eight meetings, and the girls feel that with the leadership of the efficient new officers, the Club offers most pleasant possibilities for good times.

The earliest mention of a landing transaction was when Pharaoh received a check on the banks of the Red Sea.
PLANS COMPLETE FOR SERIES OF RECITALS

Definite plans were made Friday afternoon by the Lecture Committee, for a series of three concerts to be given during the next two months. The first will be by the Zeoliner Quartette, on February 2nd; the second, on March 1st, by Carlo Fischer, cellist; Henry Williams, harpist, and a violinist; at present the latter's name is not known. Mr. Fischer and Mr. Williams were here last spring with Karl Scheurer, and both the student body and Winona citizens were delighted with them. Mr. Scheurer is not available for recital work now. The third recital will be by Harriet McConnell, contralto, who recently sang with the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, which is, of course, a sufficient recommendation for any soloist. However, here is another, for the Seniors. Mrs. Johnston heard Miss McConnell last spring in private recital, and was very enthusiastic about her.

The prices for course tickets will be $2.00 to the general public, and $1.50 to all students and teachers, both of the Normal and of the other schools in the city. Single tickets to individual concerts will be $1.00. At the price of $1.50 for a course ticket, or at a rate of 50 cents per concert, the students simply can not afford to miss this opportunity for hearing really good music.
