The Pow-Wow

Winona Normal School
ERWIN SHEPARD HALL
MENTIONED AS NAME OF NEW GIRLS' DORMITORY

During the general assembly period last Friday, the matter of finding a name for the new dormitory was brought up. Since the dormitory will be occupied next fall, it is desirable to select a name at this time. The first name that was suggested, namely, Shepard Hall, met with more or less approval by the students. A suggestion was then made to call it Inglis Hall in honor of Miss M. F. Inglis who in 1888 was manager of the old Normal Home, the first women's dormitory, and who did a great deal in behalf of the Normal school in its early days. This suggestion was likewise met with favor but the first name seemed the most popular. It was then suggested that instead of calling it merely Shepard Hall it should be called the Erwin Shepard Hall. The students then decided to let the matter rest for a few days and take it up at a later date.

Mr. Maxwell's Report to Council Appears in "School Education"

In one of the two editions of "School Education," the monthly magazine edited by former president Frank A. Weld, which were published during the recent Cleveland convention of superintendents, appears Mr. Maxwell's report to the National Council of Presidents of State Normal School. This report occupies a large amount of space in the magazine, and is entitled "Aspects of the Standardizing of Training Departments in State Normal Schools."

Pres. Dickerson Will Talk Before Educational Convention

Pres. O. M. Dickerson, formerly head of the history department in this school, will speak before the district convention of the Northwestern Educational Association to be held at Moorhead Normal school this week. He will discuss the general expansion of normal school work.

Miss Richards Entertains Graduates

Friday noon, at luncheon, Miss Richards entertained the young ladies who were graduated, in honor of Mrs. T. G. Winter, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Reed, Dr. Nimocks and Miss Slifer.

While we are in the business of selecting names etc., we might as well be thinking about a name for the athletic field.

Slogan Campaign Continues, Many More Needed to Judge From

Among the many contributions that were received in the contribution box, were several more slogans. The Pow-Wow is greatly interested in this campaign for a slogan and prints therefore a few of the ones that were turned in. The campaign is still on, and it is hoped that many more slogans will be contributed.

"Ignorance must be vanquished."
"Teach and live; teach so that you may grow."
"A Normal plan for a normal man."
"Serve, grow and accomplish."
"In years the oldest; in purpose the greatest."

ST. CLOUD WINS FROM WINONA IN FAST GAME ON Y.M.C.A. FLOOR 37-16

Being far superior in team work and speed, the St. Cloud basketball team defeated our own team by the score of 37-16 on the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium floor last Friday evening. The feature of the game was the remarkable work and excellent basket shooting of the St. Cloud team. Although our own men fought to the end, they were nevertheless outclassed by the visitors.

The game was opened by a lightning offense from the strangers. This was not stopped until the first half had progressed for several minutes, and then Gerecke rang up the first counter on a tip off for our team. This basket was a starter for several more made by Capt. Kreger. The ten point lead was thus reduced to a seven point margin at the end of the first period, when the score was 14-7.

The second half was equally as fatal if not more so, for our men. St. Cloud began another drive which netted them five baskets, all made in rapid succession. Our men still hung on with a grim determination, but their efforts met with no results. Baumbeck was substituted for Morrison, and Snyder for Gerecke, who was forced out of the game by having four personal fouls chalked up against him, all made on account of his having to use his body instead of his arms to guard his opponents, since he had recently suffered a dislocated shoulder. Beginning with the last eight minutes of play, the score was 28-14, and a final spurt made by our brother Normal left the final count 37-16. Carlson was the stellar performer for St. Cloud.

CAN'T WE HAVE MORE COOPERATION

Cooperation is a great thing. No one doubts that the least bit, but it doesn't do one much good unless one actually has it. It is just like trying to satisfy one's hunger by sitting at the table gazing peacefully on his dinner. The Pow-Wow being in need of cooperation is taking this opportunity in asking from every student, and member of the faculty. Perhaps each one of you would realize our need of it, if every week you were to take turns in editing the Pow-Wow. You then would see what a task it was, when as you sat at a typewriter trying to think of something to fill the yawning columns that stared you in the face, you decided to know when or what was going to take place, and be sent you around Robin Hood's barn to seek the desired information.

How can you help us? Here's the secret. If we ask you the date of such and such a party, tell us; if we ask you if so and so is either arriving or leaving school, tell us; if you have something up your sleeve that you want to give out as a surprise, tell us; finally, if you know any interesting bit of news, but you have promised "not to tell a soul, until it happens," tell us. You must be in all sincerity to please help us in this operation.

SEVEN RECEIVE DIPLOMAS
FRIDAY AT EXERCISES IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY ROOM

At half past three, Friday, March 6th, the graduation exercises were held for the winter term class of 1920, consisting of seven members. The program was opened by two songs given by the Men's Chorus, directed by Mr. Seaton. This was the first public appearance of this chorus and the music was much enjoyed.

The speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. T. G. Winter, of Minneapolis one of the prominent club women of this county. She surely gave one of the finest and most inspiring speeches given in the school for some time. Her topic was, "The New America," and those who heard her, felt that they had really caught the vision of what America ought to mean, and did mean, to America's loyal citizens, and what the future of the nation might be, when all the inhabitants are real Americans, in spirit as well as in name.

The Mendelssohn club sang two songs after Mrs. Winter's speech. These were followed by Director Somsen's speech to the young women, and the presentation of the diplomas to them. The group included: Loretta Armstrong, Evelyn Dotterweich, Mildred Honner, Laura Aftedal, Lila Sampson, Alice Sclater and Frances Williams.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION WILL ENTERTAIN SCHOOL FRIDAY

Everyone in school is most heartily and cordially invited to come with his pennies to the "Small Town Carnival," conducted by the Women's Athletic Association. The party will be held in the women's gymnasium, at eight o'clock. The Association is making most interesting plans, and when these materialize on Friday, the 12th, no one attending can fail to have a good time.

Admission will be a penny, as will entrance to the various booths. The proceeds will be used to satisfy the current expenses of the Association, which unlike most organizations in school, has no systems of membership dues, and has to earn the money which it needs, in order to pay its bills.

INTERESTING REPORTS GIVEN BY MEMBERS OF FACULTY WHO ATTEND N. E. A.

At the first chapel exercises after the return of those members of the faculty who had been at the Cleveland Convention. Such interesting reports were given of the convention that each one present felt as if he too, had received help and inspiration from its sessions.

GROUP PICTURES BEING TAKEN

The group pictures of various clubs and organizations to be in the Annual are being taken so that they may be turned in before the middle of March.

Miss Bartsch: What animal do we get pork from?

Pupil: Porcupine, Miss Bartsch.

ENTIRE CLASS OF WINTER GRADS BEGIN WORK IMMEDIATELY

With the exception of two of the ten students who were graduated last Friday afternoon, all of them received teaching positions before they were graduated. Saturday morning, two calls came to the office of the president for teachers for immediate service, so there will be no delay for any of the graduates in beginning their work.

"WENONAH," DEDICATED TO MISS SLIFER

The highest honor in the power of the Seniors to confer was given to Miss Mary R. Slifer, when by a unanimous vote they decided to dedicate their 1920 "Wenonah" to her in recognition of the unfailing help, encouragement and inspiration of which she has been the source, and to express something of their gratitude.

MISS MERGINS SINGS AT CHAPEL

Henrietta Mergins sang "By The Waters of Minnesota," a soprano solo, at chapel on Friday morning. She was accompanied on the piano by Miss Smith, and on the flute by Mr. Reed.

SCHOOL NOTES

Miss Doris Cronlidlo left school last Friday, not to return.

Edith Holmes left Friday for her home in St. Paul, to attend the wedding of her cousin.

Frank Barlow returned last week from a business trip to Beaver Creek Minnesota.

Miss Maria Ingberg of Lindstrom Minnesota plans to enter school the middle of the spring term.

Miss Grace Merryman leaves for Kenyon, Minnesota, to attend the wedding of her sister, Miss Ruth Merryman.

Several of the Normal students took part in the Parisian Frolics that were conducted by the Leon J. Wetzel post of the American Legion, at the Armory last Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

TRAINING SCHOOL CHORUS SINGS

The sixth and fifth grade chorus sang a group of songs, directed by Miss Hootman, at the regular chorus period on Thursday, as a demonstration, both of group singing, and two-part singing.

SENIORS PREPARE FOR CLASS PLAY TRY OUTS

The seniors are passing from one to another, a copy of "The Melting Pot," the drama which is to be the class play, so that they may be acquainted with it before the try outs.

It ain't the guns nor armament,
Nor funds that they can pay,
But the close cooperation
That makes them win the day.
It ain't the individual,
Nor the army as a whole,
But the everlasting teamwork
Of every bloomin' soul.

Rudyard Kipling.
WORK ON CLASS SONG PROGRESSING

Several sets of verses suitable for a class song have been handed in to Miss Smith, and the students specializing in music are composing various accompaniments for them. Considering the amount of talent, both literary and musical in the senior class, it is felt that this year’s song will be very fine.

“Did your wife scold when you came home so late last night?” “You don’t know what it is to have a wife who was once a teacher. She simply made me write a hundred times, ‘I must be home by ten o’clock.’”

WHO’S WHO?

Answer to last week’s picture. (Fern Rose.)

Because of the great amount of time that is necessary in making cuts for the pictures that appear in the who’s who column, we are unable to have one this week. However, we hope that this difficulty will be overcome, and we will be able to have a picture regularly.

WATSON, DID YOU GET THAT?

First they made us believe kissing was injurious to health, now they tell us hand shaking spreads diseases and advise the military salute. Next they will advocate the long distant hello!

“My, I bet I know what makes sister wear her hair bunched down over her ears.”

“Do you, Willie, what?”

“Yes, but I ain’t goin’ to tell, only if my ears were as big as hers, I’d let my hair grow and do it that way too.”

Mr. Stalcup (History I class): “What kind of money would you have in your pocket in 1775?”

Helen H.: “I. O. U’s.”

MY CLOCK

On a study hour night,
While trying to write
An essay as well as I could,
I paused for a space
To gaze at the face
Of my faithful clock where it stood.

My listening ear
Then seemed to hear
Some words ticktocked to me;
I listened again—
The message was plain,
Ticktocked in these words you see.

“Tick tock! Tick tock!
Ten o’clock! ten o’clock!
Your lessons not done! Not done!
Do not shirk; do not shirk!
Get to work; get to work!
Only so may the race be won.”

“Time does fly—yes, fly!
Hours and days passing by!
Use your time, or ’twill come
with a shock—
Time you’ve lost; you’ve lost!
Pay the cost! Pay the cost!”

Heed the warning of the clock!
Tick tock!
