10-17-1930

The Winonan

Winona State Teachers' College

Follow this and additional works at: https://openriver.winona.edu/thewinonan1930s

Recommended Citation
https://openriver.winona.edu/thewinonan1930s/9

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the The Winonan – Student Newspaper at OpenRiver. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Winonan - 1930s by an authorized administrator of OpenRiver. For more information, please contact klarson@winona.edu.
Y.W.C.A. HOLDS FAGOT

Each of the chairmen gave a

CARNIVAL

The girls' dormitories sponsored

WATERLOO PUBLIC LIBRARY

PINEY WOODS SINGERS ENTERTAIN

The Boys' Choir consists of seven

APRIL 8, 1940

WINONA, MINNESOTA

WINONA STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE:

THE WINONAN

VOL. XII

THE WINONAN

WINONA, MINNESOTA, OCTOBER 17, 1940

No. 8

MANY ALUMNI HERE FOR HOMECOMING

Homecoming attracted many

W. T. C. H. TOOK WRESTLING TITLE AS WELL AS A NUMBER OF FIRST PLACES

 allegiances. Among the award winners

WINONA STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE: A HOME COMING MEETING

1938 HOMECOMING SURPASSES ALL OTHERS

As a new organization the Ap-olly

APOLLO CLUB TO SING AT M.E.A.

A most delightful formal initia-"Laurel" banquet was given in honor

PLAYERS ENTERTAIN DURING FALL MEET

A delightful formal initiation

THE WINONAN
TO ERR IS HUMAN; TO FORGIVE DIVINE

We are here, all working for the same goal with one big aim in view. Are we going to be disappointed and discouraged with everything that proves a failure and a disappointment? No, this is not that sort of mind. Let us be careful and be thankful that we are not desirous of the same thing. We are all going to make mistakes — it's only human to err but the thing that makes a real man or woman of us is to be able to forgive when we are hurt the hardest. We can't get any further by being hateful or mean. Be a good fellow — if you are you'll find others are good to you.

First let it be understood that any criticisms made in these paragraphs are purely impersonal and made for constructive purposes, and that suggestions are advanced with the idea that a serious wrong now existing can easily be remedied and that suggestions are advanced with the idea that a serious wrong now existing can easily be remedied and that it cannot be advanced with the idea that a serious wrong now existing can easily be remedied.

As things now exist, there is absolutely no definite check-up on some of the most important transactions of the largest of the student organizations. I am referring particularly to the Winonan and the Winonam. The handling of funds for advertising in these two publications, especially the Winonan, is a matter of suspicion to which no one excepting the editors is permitted entrance.

This is not fair to the students of the school. The business manager of the Winonan handles the neighborhood of eight hundred dollars a year, while the head of the Winonan, who enters such advertising as he wishes in his books and fail to enter the rest, may not only have his credit, but also his reputation. This is not fair to the students of the school. The business manager of the Winonan handles the neighborhood of eight hundred dollars a year, which is a sum of money that is not to be lightly disputed.

The writer of this article is the student business manager of the publication in which the article appears. Consequently he knows, by reason of his contact with the financial transactions of the paper, how badly the student organizations of this college need a student body of auditors to examine the books periodically and require the students handling funds to make an accurate account of them at any time. This is not an insufficiency that money has been missapropriated, but merely a plain statement suggesting the possibility which is not pleasant but must be guarded.

As things now exist, there is absolutely no definite check-up on some of the most important transactions of the largest of the student organizations. I am referring particularly to the Winonan and the Winonam. The handling of funds for advertising in these two publications, especially the Winonan, is a matter of suspicion to which no one excepting the editors is permitted entrance.

This is not fair to the students of the school. The business manager of the Winonan handles the neighborhood of eight hundred dollars a year, which is a sum of money that is not to be lightly disputed.

The writer of this article is the student business manager of the publication in which the article appears. Consequently he knows, by reason of his contact with the financial transactions of the paper, how badly the student organizations of this college need a student body of auditors to examine the books periodically and require the students handling funds to make an accurate account of them at any time. This is not an insufficiency that money has been missapropriated, but merely a plain statement suggesting the possibility which is not pleasant but must be guarded.

As things now exist, there is absolutely no definite check-up on some of the most important transactions of the largest of the student organizations. I am referring particularly to the Winonan and the Winonam. The handling of funds for advertising in these two publications, especially the Winonan, is a matter of suspicion to which no one excepting the editors is permitted entrance.

This is not fair to the students of the school. The business manager of the Winonan handles the neighborhood of eight hundred dollars a year, which is a sum of money that is not to be lightly disputed.

The writer of this article is the student business manager of the publication in which the article appears. Consequently he knows, by reason of his contact with the financial transactions of the paper, how badly the student organizations of this college need a student body of auditors to examine the books periodically and require the students handling funds to make an accurate account of them at any time. This is not an insufficiency that money has been missapropriated, but merely a plain statement suggesting the possibility which is not pleasant but must be guarded.

As things now exist, there is absolutely no definite check-up on some of the most important transactions of the largest of the student organizations. I am referring particularly to the Winonan and the Winonam. The handling of funds for advertising in these two publications, especially the Winonan, is a matter of suspicion to which no one excepting the editors is permitted entrance.

This is not fair to the students of the school. The business manager of the Winonan handles the neighborhood of eight hundred dollars a year, which is a sum of money that is not to be lightly disputed.

The writer of this article is the student business manager of the publication in which the article appears. Consequently he knows, by reason of his contact with the financial transactions of the paper, how badly the student organizations of this college need a student body of auditors to examine the books periodically and require the students handling funds to make an accurate account of them at any time. This is not an insufficiency that money has been missapropriated, but merely a plain statement suggesting the possibility which is not pleasant but must be guarded.
WINONA DOWNS
FORT SNELLING

The soldiers from the 1st S.
Military outpost located at the junction of the Mississippi and Minnenesota rivers disembarked at Winona on Oct. 3 to settle a disturbance relating to a cave which they had built in the army's service.
Since Homecoming there has been a new and even more sinister feeling in the air. It seems as if people are becoming more concerned about the recent events and are wondering certain features of the parade. People are wondering what happens to them if they don't do what the police have asked. There were instances of violence and windows being broken, and many young men were seen running away. It seems as if the police are more involved than ever.

The disappearance of the skeleton has caused a great deal of concern. The police have been searching for him for several days now, but he has not been found. Some theories suggest that he may have been taken by the police or that he may have been involved in some kind of protest. However, the police have not confirmed these theories.

At the end of the week we find that Mr. Jederman is again teaching his physical education class. He has a new subject this time, and the students are eager to learn about it. The class is very lively and interactive, and the students are learning a lot.

The New 48,000 Watt Flood Lights for the Winona State Teachers College Athletic Field were installed and are maintained by the electricians of the MISSISSIPPI VALLEY PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY.

ODIE TO A GRASSHOPPER

(With apologies to Mr. Munson, Mr. Burns, and Mr. Ernst.)

You jumpin', leaping little critter, I'd like to try you to a frizzer for the largest, most unhandy to allow her to rise again.

In my mind your mandibles WILL rise again.

Let's go to make a successful trip.

Conductor—"Never mind, Madam, there is a switch just this side of the next station."

SkeleTone Teacher—"Now, I want all of you to study hard and not have anything on your mind that crimines for the rest of the period."

 Students—"Ge, I’m not going to be here."

The roofs are wet, the eaves drip.

The peppers bubble and ship.

—When asked his idea of rigid economy, Will Rogers replied: "A brand new oven."—From Readers Digest.

Raine, rain all night.

The roofs are wet, the eaves drip.

The peppers bubble and ship.

—weald his idea of rigid economy, will Rogers replied: "A brand new oven."

Mr. Reed—What on earth is in the building? The roofs are wet, the eaves drip. The peppers bubble and ship. —When asked his idea of rigid economy, Will Rogers replied: "A brand new oven."—From Readers Digest.

Miss Richards—I was crossing town from knowing all the things I do About a creature such as you think it all just babble.

Anonymous.

The roofs are wet, the eaves drip.

The peppers bubble and ship.

—When asked his idea of rigid economy, Will Rogers replied: "A brand new oven."—From Readers Digest.

Miss Richards—I was crossing town from knowing all the things I do About a creature such as you think it all just babble.

Anonymous.

The roofs are wet, the eaves drip.

The peppers bubble and ship.

—When asked his idea of rigid economy, Will Rogers replied: "A brand new oven."—From Readers Digest.

Mr. Reed—What on earth is in the building? The roofs are wet, the eaves drip. The peppers bubble and ship. —When asked his idea of rigid economy, Will Rogers replied: "A brand new oven."—From Readers Digest.

Miss Richards—I was crossing town from knowing all the things I do About a creature such as you think it all just babble.

Anonymous.

The roofs are wet, the eaves drip.

The peppers bubble and ship.

—When asked his idea of rigid economy, Will Rogers replied: "A brand new oven."—From Readers Digest.

Miss Richards—I was crossing town from knowing all the things I do About a creature such as you think it all just babble.

Anonymous.

The roofs are wet, the eaves drip.

The peppers bubble and ship.

—When asked his idea of rigid economy, Will Rogers replied: "A brand new oven."—From Readers Digest.

Miss Richards—I was crossing town from knowing all the things I do About a creature such as you think it all just babble.

Anonymous.

The roofs are wet, the eaves drip.

The peppers bubble and ship.

—When asked his idea of rigid economy, Will Rogers replied: "A brand new oven."—From Readers Digest.