10-7-1920

The Pow-Wow

Winona Normal School

Follow this and additional works at: https://openriver.winona.edu/thewinonan1920s

Recommended Citation
https://openriver.winona.edu/thewinonan1920s/14

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the The Winonan – Student Newspaper at OpenRiver. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Winonan - 1920s by an authorized administrator of OpenRiver. For more information, please contact klarson@winona.edu.
Maurice Howard has discovered 'his ways proven to be a good one. The year's "W" men together before the public demonstration? We as students and cheering for our team."

"Doh* this because it is the closest we meeting, when the team leaves. We were surprised and as yet keeping, and her promising ability as affinity at last. "To say the ter the game and it will be announced "FIGHTING IRISHMAN" would indeed show the fine quality of our team. But to allow them to hold Normal will win. To beat the Red Wing's athletics their teams have

The following officers were elected: Miss Trites doing

DEMONSTRATE YOUR PATRIOTISM

What are you going to do this Fall? Plan now to do the Flag Day observances that are to be observed for the first time this year. It is an honor to united everything that we can for our country. Take pride in the fact that you are going to be a part of this great campaign.

Score Less Than 35—Will Be Feather in Opponents’ Hats

SCORE SENT TO HALL

Red Wing high school is the next school to be called. We are a little ahead of the game and it will be announced "THURSDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1921. The largest group at La Crosse scoring 80; 36 students are preparing for the game."

STARTLING SENSATION

He looked just like his poppy. —.-Will someone please give the rhyme to this verse about the "Kuba." That takes nerve! and they had it. He picked up the paper and read the first two lines:

"Miss McConnell have accepted for the Board the invitation of the resident director and president of the Bemidji State Normal School to visit Bemidji and Wisconsin on October 7th."

THE SQUIDDELS NEST

Miss Trites doing

NEW MEMBERS FOR MICHIGAN CLUB

The following are the new members for the Michigan Club:

STUDENTS’ TRADE SOLICITED

Mr. Stalcup—Has any one looked into your citizenship. The framers of our Constitution were required to interpret the Constitution literally or loosely; the other, to interpret the Constitution liberally or loosely; the other, to interpret the Constitution liberally or loosely. The framers of our Constitution were required to interpret the Constitution literally or loosely; the other, to interpret the Constitution liberally or loosely. The framers of our Constitution were required to interpret the Constitution literally or loosely; the other, to interpret the Constitution liberally or loosely.
The pioneer resident of Trempealeau dies.

The funeral of Mrs. L. W. Adams, who recently died in her seventy-first year, was held at the home of her son, E. H. Adams, last Friday afternoon, with the Rev. W. P. Marsh officiating. The body was then taken to West Prairie, where the funeral services and the interment were held. The body was laid to rest in the West Prairie Cemetery.

An inquest was held. The cause of death was tuberculosis. The body was taken to the home of the son of Ebenezer Adams, who died in 1846, at Hope County, S. D. The funeral services were held at the Hope Cemetery, with the Rev. W. P. Marsh officiating.

The two children, Ebenezer and Charles Adams, were present. They are both residents of the county. The body was taken to the home of the father, who died in 1846, at Hope County, S. D. The funeral services were held at the Hope Cemetery, with the Rev. W. P. Marsh officiating.

The two children, Ebenezer and Charles Adams, were present. They are both residents of the county.

CHILD OF THREE DIES

TREMPEALEAU LOOMS ON WISCONSIN MAP AS SHIPPING POINT

The former shipping associations of Trempealeau, Wisconsin, have been dissolved. The city has been divided into two sections, one to the east and the other to the west. The boundary line is marked by a fence, which runs through the center of the city. The city has been divided into two sections, one to the east and the other to the west. The boundary line is marked by a fence, which runs through the center of the city. The city has been divided into two sections, one to the east and the other to the west. The boundary line is marked by a fence, which runs through the center of the city.

TREMPEALEAU PLAYERS HAVE SPORTS

TREMPEALEAU PLAYERS have had a successful baseball season. Several games have been played on the Trempealeau river. The team is made up of the best players in the county, and is managed by Mr. S. B. Slagle.

The team is made up of the best players in the county, and is managed by Mr. S. B. Slagle.