SUNDAY NIGHT AT 8:15, theWSC Symphonic Band will perform its last concert of the year. Picture above are seniors members of the group, row 1, Beverly Grassell, Faith Hing, Paul Rizzi, Kevin O'Brien, and David Knight. Row 2, Bruce Wildes, Linda Hemming, Adeline Claeys, Linda Vinje, and Richard Buschmann.

Senators elected; new term commences

by Roger Ranninger

Elections for officers and representatives for the Student Senate held last week were not declared invalid and the election is now in office. The second election saw 613 percent cast ballots compared with 880 in the first.

Tom Dunlap won the seat of presideney given to him by Tom German last Tuesday. Dunlap won with 335 votes compared to Mark Nolan's 285, Rick Krueger 184, and 97 votes respectively.

Junior senators elected last Tuesday were Larry Niether, 1967, or have lost your permanent clearance card, you must notify the Data Processing Office, S222, before reporting to the registrar's office, S228. You may then pick up your materials from the indicated major department and take your advisor early so that you will be assured of getting in to see them to the correct department.

Although the high schools varied greatly in the percentages of their 1969 graduates attending college, the study found that, in all but one city, black students who did attend college were more likely to enroll in the local college than were white, college-bound students.

City-by-City Statistics

For example in Dallas, 26 percent of the Negro students sampled went to college, with 34 percent of the Negro students sampled attending Dallas County Junior College. Sixty-four percent of the white students sampled rolled in colleges, but only 17 percent entered the community college.

In Fort Worth, where 43 percent of the black graduates sampled went on to college, 51 percent of them went to Tarrant County Junior College. Only 31 percent of the white graduates who attend college went to the community college, although 85 percent went on to some college.

Similar finding were reported for San Francisco and Philadelphia.

A reaffirmation of the findings in St. Louis — where 28 percent of the blacks and 41 percent of the white college students in the local community college — was thought to reflect the fact that the college community college campuses.

High School a Major Factor

Another major finding of the study was that, while individual characteristics, academic potential, and family background are important determinants of college attendance, the data show very clearly that the high school from which the individual graduate, regardless of his race, is an important factor in the determination of whether he will go on with his education, and where.

Certainly predominantly black high schools which send most of their graduates on to college, the study said, sent very few to the local community college.

"Black schools with high college-going rates tended, on the other hand, to send a large proportion to the local community college," according to the report. "Certainly the college recruiters might want to change student from Norway, to the Philippines, and India.

The Winona State College Symphony Band under the direction of Dr. Donald K. Moedy will perform its 15th and final concert of the 1969-70 school year here in Somsen Auditorium Sunday at 8:15 p.m.

The concert will open with a brass fanfare, an excerpt from the music of the Roxy and Oxford Theatres in New York City. Also performed will be an overture written for band by Felix Mendelssohn, at the age of fifteen.

Featured solist for the Spring Concert will be Richard Ruehmann, senior music major, who will perform a concerto for solo B Flat Trumpet and Band.

This will be followed by a movement of Symphony No. 3 for Band by Vittorio Giannini.

Other original music for the Band idiom will be Martin Mailman's Liturgical Music for Band.

The program will also include arrangements for band. The first is a Scottish Folk Song, Ye Banks And Braes O'Bonnie Doon, a setting by Kenneth Griesinger. The second arrangement and final number on the program will be an English folk song, "The King of the Moss," arranged by Louis Callet.

The latter includes scoring for a harp which will be played by Jennifer Banks of Winona, Minn., eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Banks.

Winona State's annual international buffet dinner, host by the foreign student group, will be held on Wednesday evening, May 13, at six o'clock in the 600 Club. Musical highlights will be offered by the foreign student group, Miss Da- vidson, author of a newly released re- port on the project. The study was conducted by the American Association of Junior Colleges and financed by the Ford Foundation. More than 30,000 students were sampled.

Although the high schools varied greatly in the percentages of their 1969 graduates attending college, the study found that, in all but one city, black students who did attend college were more likely to enroll in the local community college than were white, college-bound students.

City-by-City Statistics

For example in Dallas, 26 percent of the Negro students sam- ple went to college, with 34 percent of the Negro students sampled attending Dallas County Junior College. Sixty-four percent of the white students sampled rolled in colleges, but only 17 percent entered the community college.

In Fort Worth, where 43 percent of the black graduates sampled went on to college, 51 percent of them went to Tarrant County Junior College. Only 31 percent of the white graduates who attend college went to the community college, although 85 percent went on to some college.

Similar finding were reported for San Francisco and Philadelphia.

A reaffirmation of the findings in St. Louis — where 28 percent of the blacks and 41 percent of the white college students in the local community college — was thought to reflect the fact that the college community college campuses.

High School a Major Factor

Another major finding of the study was that, while individual characteristics, academic potential, and family background are important determinants of college attendance, the data show very clearly that the high school from which the individual graduate, regardless of his race, is an important factor in the determination of whether he will go on with his education, and where.

Certainly predominantly black high schools which send most of their graduates on to college, the study said, sent very few to the local community college.

"Black schools with high college-going rates tended, on the other hand, to send a large proportion to the local community college," according to the report. "Certainly the college recruiters might want to change student from Norway, to the Philippines, and India.

The concert including a 10 minute in- termission should be about one hour in length and there is no admission charge.

World dinner now on tap

Winona State's annual international buffet dinner, host by the foreign student group, will be held on Wednesday evening, May 13, at six o'clock in the 600 Club. Musical highlights will be offered by the foreign student group, Miss Da- vison, author of a newly released re- port on the project. The study was conducted by the American Association of Junior Colleges and financed by the Ford Foundation. More than 30,000 students were sampled.

Although the high schools varied greatly in the percentages of their 1969 graduates attending college, the study found that, in all but one city, black students who did attend college were more likely to enroll in the local community college than were white, college-bound students.

City-by-City Statistics

For example in Dallas, 26 percent of the Negro students sam- ple went to college, with 34 percent of the Negro students sampled attending Dallas County Junior College. Sixty-four percent of the white students sampled rolled in colleges, but only 17 percent entered the community college.

In Fort Worth, where 43 percent of the black graduates sampled went on to college, 51 percent of them went to Tarrant County Junior College. Only 31 percent of the white graduates who attend college went to the community college, although 85 percent went on to some college.

Similar finding were reported for San Francisco and Philadelphia.

A reaffirmation of the findings in St. Louis — where 28 percent of the blacks and 41 percent of the white college students in the local community college — was thought to reflect the fact that the college community college campuses.

High School a Major Factor

Another major finding of the study was that, while individual characteristics, academic potential, and family background are important determinants of college attendance, the data show very clearly that the high school from which the individual graduate, regardless of his race, is an important factor in the determination of whether he will go on with his education, and where.

Certainly predominantly black high schools which send most of their graduates on to college, the study said, sent very few to the local community college.

"Black schools with high college-going rates tended, on the other hand, to send a large proportion to the local community college," according to the report. "Certainly the college recruiters might want to change student from Norway, to the Philippines, and India.

The concert including a 10 minute in- termission should be about one hour in length and there is no admission charge.

World dinner now on tap
The Winona is published weekly, exclusive of holidays, and examination periods by and of the Winona State University College Press.

The Winonan is published Wednesday by the Student Press at the Winona State College, Winona, Minnesota.

Second class mail privileges authorized at Winona, Minnesota.

Mail address: 151 W. 8th St., Winona, Minnesota 55986

[Contact information]

[Advertise]

[Subscribe]

The Winonan is the member of the Associated College Press.
Father Paul A. Goupil, Ph.D., noted authority on Black History and Black Culture, will deliver the final lecture of the Winona State Convocation and Lecture series for 1969-70, Thursday evening at 8:15 p.m., in Sommer Auditorium. Father Goupil has a Ph.D. in American History from the University of Ottawa and from the University of New Mexico in American Studies. He has been editor of several publications, columnist, lecturer, teacher in several colleges and universities, and recently, consultant and visiting professor in the field of Black Studies and Black Culture. He has also been nominated to all seminars sponsored by the National Foundations of the Humanities. Currently he is visiting professor of American and Black Studies at St. John’s University, Collegeville, Minn., and is active in the development of Black Studies projects at Stephens College and Webster College (Illinois), Oklahoma State University and Langston University (Oklahoma). Bishop College (Texas), and St. Augustine College (North Carolina). Father Goupil’s lecture will be open to the public. There will also be an informal discussion session with Father Goupil Wednesday afternoon, May 13, from 3 to 5 p.m. All interested students and faculty are urged to attend.

Father Goupil’s lecture was attended by about six hundred students and members of the convention who were interested. Numerous papers were submitted from various members. The five panels were to discuss and analyze papers submitted from various speakers at the convention. The discussion panel audiences were presented by Father Goupil Wednesday afternoon, May 13, from 3 to 5 p.m. All interested students and faculty are urged to attend.

LETTERS

1. I strongly resent being carted off to jail without being told what the accusation was.

2. I strongly resent being picked up because I was in the presence of Black students and the sheriff had for examination.

3. From that interview it strongly indicates to us that there is racial prejudice in the county and city of Winona!

To Dan Nysted — and all other confused WSC students:

-I hate to disappoint you but you will have to present your WSC student identification number, I.D. card, for examination. Your I.D. card number is your number on their validation card and on registration form. If you have any questions about these numbers, please feel free to come to the Audio-Visual Department.

Judy Wharton, A-V Assistant Secretary

The President and vice-President of the convention were Dr. Earl J. Kim of Washington State University and author Joseph A. Schlesinger of Michigan State University.

The convention began with a registration on Thursday, April 30. It was followed at 9:00 p.m. by a series of five panels made up of professors whose duty it was to discuss and analyze papers submitted from various members. The five panels were held simultaneously in different discussion rooms of the Hotel. The discussion panel audiences were composed of the participants of the convention who were interested in the topic being discussed. Numerous papers were submitted in competition for the honor of "Best Paper" which was awarded a $100.00 award.

The first general assembly of the convention participants occurred at 8:00 p.m. Thursday, Dr. Kim welcomed everyone who had attended and hoped that their involvement in the convention would be a profitable experience. Dr. Kim then turned the microphone to Louis J. Barke of Washington State University, St. Louis, Harold W. Chase, University of Minnesota; John P. Heinz, Northwestern University School of Law and John H. Schmidhauser, University of Illinois. These men discussed the topic "The Changing Political Role of the Courts." In the ensuing arguments, Dr. Schmidhauser contended that the Federal Court system is the direction of Attorney General Mitchell which were being used to repress political dissent in the U.S.

He believed that this action was part of Nixon's Southern Strategy to attract Southern states to the Republican Party. Later in that same session, Dr. Chase said that "Congress must face up to its responsibilities" to carry out the decisions made by the U.S. Supreme Court under the leadership of Chief Justice Earl Warren. A member of the audience pointed out to Dr. Chase that it took Congress nearly 86 years to carry out the reapportionment decision made by the Supreme Court Decision in "Baker versus Carr, et al.," One of the cases brought by Dr. Chase, that it took Congress nearly 86 years to carry out the reapportionment decision made by the Supreme Court Decision in "Baker versus Carr, et al.

Following the assembly the participants again dispersed to panel discussion rooms submitted for examination.

At 11 a.m. Friday the second general assembly convened and Dr. Kim introduced Dr. Karl W. Deutsch of Harvard University and President of the American Political Science Association. Dr. Deutsch spoke on "Coming Directions in Political Science." He stated early in his speech that "America must outgrow its naivete in the search for solutions to problems of our society. We must work with a constructive, cooperative, and democratic approach rather than destructive methods of solving problems. We have seen that the world is changing and now for we only have a few years to get the world to meet these constructive solutions.

W.S.C. held Friday evening with "Students, Faculty, and Politics: A Relationship," Here David H. Eversen and Roy E. Miller of Southern Illinois University presented papers on "Personality and Ideology" and "The Case of Student Power." The next paper was presented by Ronald R. Lindsey of the University of Wisconsin in Madison on "Student-Faculty Attitudes Toward the November Moratorium.

The convention closed Saturday, May 2 with panels dealing with such topics as Political Analysis and General Validity, "Judicial Behavior," "Comparative Political Development," "Political Action Patterns in International Organizations," "Great Britain," and the University Government." During the convention the writers were able to obtain an interview with Dr. Theodore Mills, Chairman and Head of the College of Education, for the Winona State College campus. Excerpts from that interview will be presented for everyone's enjoyment.

21?

IT

ti

pants of the convention who were discussed. Numerous papers were submitted from various members. The five panels were to discuss and analyze papers submitted from various speakers at the convention. The discussion panel audiences were composed of the participants of the convention who were interested in the topic being discussed. Numerous papers were submitted in competition for the honor of "Best Paper" which was awarded a $100.00 award.

The first general assembly of the convention participants occurred at 8:00 p.m. Thursday, Dr. Kim welcomed everyone who had attended and hoped that their involvement in the convention would be a profitable experience. Dr. Kim then turned the microphone to Louis J. Barke of Washington State University, St. Louis, Harold W. Chase, University of Minnesota; John P. Heinz, Northwestern University School of Law and John H. Schmidhauser, University of Illinois. These men discussed the topic "The Changing Political Role of the Courts." In the ensuing arguments, Dr. Schmidhauser contended that the Federal Court system is the direction of Attorney General Mitchell which were being used to repress political dissent in the U.S.

He believed that this action was part of Nixon's Southern Strategy to attract Southern states to the Republican Party. Later in that same session, Dr. Chase said that "Congress must face up to its responsibilities" to carry out the decisions made by the U.S. Supreme Court under the leadership of Chief Justice Earl Warren. A member of the audience pointed out to Dr. Chase that it took Congress nearly 86 years to carry out the reapportionment decision made by the Supreme Court Decision in "Baker versus Carr, et al.," One of the cases brought by Dr. Chase, that it took Congress nearly 86 years to carry out the reapportionment decision made by the Supreme Court Decision in "Baker versus Carr, et al.

Following the assembly the participants again dispersed to panel discussion rooms submitted for examination.

At 11 a.m. Friday the second general assembly convened and Dr. Kim introduced Dr. Karl W. Deutsch of Harvard University and President of the American Political Science Association. Dr. Deutsch spoke on "Coming Directions in Political Science." He stated early in his speech that "America must outgrow its naivete in the search for solutions to problems of our society. We must work with a constructive, cooperative, and democratic approach rather than destructive methods of solving problems. We have seen that the world is changing and now for we only have a few years to get the world to meet these constructive solutions.

W.S.C. held Friday evening with "Students, Faculty, and Politics: A Relationship," Here David H. Eversen and Roy E. Miller of Southern Illinois University presented papers on "Personality and Ideology" and "The Case of Student Power." The next paper was presented by Ronald R. Lindsey of the University of Wisconsin in Madison on "Student-Faculty Attitudes Toward the November Moratorium.

The convention closed Saturday, May 2 with panels dealing with such topics as Political Analysis and General Validity, "Judicial Behavior," "Comparative Political Development," "Political Action Patterns in International Organizations," "Great Britain," and the University Government." During the convention the writers were able to obtain an interview with Dr. Theodore Mills, Chairman and Head of the College of Education, for the Winona State College campus. Excerpts from that interview will be presented for everyone's enjoyment.
WINONA'S Softball Team Hosted St. Cloud State on Saturday, May 7 at 1:00 p.m. The WSC players won their second game of the season, beating St. Cloud by a score of 10-7. Their next game will be at home with La Crosse on Saturday, May 9 at 1:00 p.m. The game will be played at Franklin Field; come and support the team.

Members of this year's softball team are: Jodi Couzens, captain; Annette Nyehus, Joyce Paul, Cathy Cerny, Karen Rice, Jan Wilson, Marie Martinucci, Sarah Thorsen, Jane Barth, Jane Kleinman, Jean Pronschinske, Joan Calhame, Sandy Jensen and Coach, Miss Locks.

The women's extramural softball team hosted St. Cloud State College on Saturday, May 7 at 1:00 p.m. The WSC players won their second game of the season, beating St. Cloud by a score of 10-7. Their next game will be at home with La Crosse on Saturday, May 9 at 1:00 p.m. The game will be played at Franklin Field; come and support the team.

Members of this year's softball team are: Jodi Couzens, captain; Annette Nyehus, Joyce Paul, Cathy Cerny, Karen Rice, Jan Wilson, Marie Martinucci, Sarah Thorsen, Jane Barth, Jane Kleinman, Jean Pronschinske, Joan Calhame, Sandy Jensen and Coach, Miss Locks.

The women's extramural softball team will take part in their first tournament of the season on Saturday, May 7 at the University of Minnesota. Members of this year's team are: Cathy Moisilich, Mary Lindal, Giny Denugen, Becky Ring, Danielle Huelsen, Joan Myyer, Patti Wilson, Peg Sader, and coach, Miss Fricke.

Intramural softball started Wednesday, April 29 at 4 p.m. Masona Walters, chairman, has combined five teams into round robin play. Team standings as of April 29 are:

- Won Lost
- Les Petite Fillies 1 0
- Dugdell's Dames 1 0
- Team 5 1 0
- Fillippers 0 1
- Grub Nine 0 1
- Joanna Ostrem, intramural swimming chairman, reminds all women that the pool is open from 7:00 p.m. every Wednesday evening. Come and have a splashing good time.

Co-Rec volleyball is in full swing. Team standings as of April 29 are:

- 7:00 League WON LOST
- Guys and Dolls 6 0
- Boy's Bombers 6 0
- Faculty 4 2
- High Balls 4 2
- Ine's Army 3 3
- Denver's Dudes 1 5
- Road Runners 1 5
- 8:00 League WON LOST
- Rackets 1 0
- Butterflies of Love 4 2
- Kings and Queens 3 2
- K's 2 4
- Eliminators 3 4
- Dirty Doubles 2 3
- Potesas 2 3
- Vice Squad 3 2
- Hummers 1 4

Racketeers defeated by Peacocks

A non-conference tennis meet was held on the University of Northern Iowa at Sioux Falls, S.D., last weekend, and the Norsemen Relays were held at Decorah, Ia., on April 28, and brought home some new school records and a first place finish in a field of 14

Women's Captains: Cortney, Sarah, and Coach, Miss Locks.

The Norsemen Relays.

Iowa at Sioux Falls, S.D., on April 29 are:

- Team 1: 2
- Team 2: 1
- Team 3: 1
- Team 4: 1
- Team 5: 0

Co-Rec volleyball is in full swing. Team standings as of April 29 are:

- Won Lost
- Les Petite Fillies 1 0
- Dugdell's Dames 1 0
- Team 5 1 0
- Fillippers 0 1
- Grub Nine 0 1
- Joanna Ostrem, intramural swimming chairman, reminds all women that the pool is open from 7:00 p.m. every Wednesday evening. Come and have a splashing good time.

Co-Rec volleyball is in full swing. Team standings as of April 29 are:

- 7:00 League WON LOST
- Guys and Dolls 6 0
- Boy's Bombers 6 0
- Faculty 4 2
- High Balls 4 2
- Ine's Army 3 3
- Denver's Dudes 1 5
- Road Runners 1 5
- 8:00 League WON LOST
- Rackets 1 0
- Butterflies of Love 4 2
- Kings and Queens 3 2
- K's 2 4
- Eliminators 3 4
- Dirty Doubles 2 3
- Potesas 2 3
- Vice Squad 3 2
- Hummers 1 4

Racketeers defeated by Peacocks

A non-conference tennis meet was held on the University of Northern Iowa at Sioux Falls, S.D., last weekend, and the Norsemen Relays were held at Decorah, Ia., on April 28, and brought home some new school records and a first place finish in a field of 14

Women's Captains: Cortney, Sarah, and Coach, Miss Locks.

The Norsemen Relays.

Iowa at Sioux Falls, S.D., on April 29 are:

- Team 1: 2
- Team 2: 1
- Team 3: 1
- Team 4: 1
- Team 5: 0

Co-Rec volleyball is in full swing. Team standings as of April 29 are:

- Won Lost
- Les Petite Fillies 1 0
- Dugdell's Dames 1 0
- Team 5 1 0
- Fillippers 0 1
- Grub Nine 0 1
- Joanna Ostrem, intramural swimming chairman, reminds all women that the pool is open from 7:00 p.m. every Wednesday evening. Come and have a splashing good time.

Co-Rec volleyball is in full swing. Team standings as of April 29 are:

- 7:00 League WON LOST
- Guys and Dolls 6 0
- Boy's Bombers 6 0
- Faculty 4 2
- High Balls 4 2
- Ine's Army 3 3
- Denver's Dudes 1 5
- Road Runners 1 5
- 8:00 League WON LOST
- Rackets 1 0
- Butterflies of Love 4 2
- Kings and Queens 3 2
- K's 2 4
- Eliminators 3 4
- Dirty Doubles 2 3
- Potesas 2 3
- Vice Squad 3 2
- Hummers 1 4