Dear Editor,

On my chance the other day, it was mentioned that it is unsafe for students to be in any groups that espouse a minority college or any groups on which it is safe for students to be in.

While I do believe that the Administration is not the only body that can benefit both the Administration and the students, the students at Winona State are not, I repeat, not, benefit from freedom.

Therefore, I very sincerely believe the Administration must train nation's youth so they will not be afraid to accept the responsibilities of freedom.

Sincerely yours,

(Name withheld by request)

The quarter's end is near, Trash-l-a! Trash-l-a! Trash-l-a!on the heels. It is merely marking time instead of progressing at the rate it is capable of achieving. Sure, the majority college is a result of a poor relationship between the Administration and the students. Only in a very few instances as the data of cooperation between these two groups. The result is a little progress where there should be a more than 19 million unencumbered by marriage.

One of the greatest achievements of our society today.

The words repeat! Come with a crash!

Dear Editor,

The fear of freedom — which can be described as the right to be different — is, according to Professor Michael H. Petrovic of the St. John's University, a potential danger to our society today.

Here’s solution to bachelors’ problems: women

ATTENTION BACHELORS! We now have on campus a sure cure to your problems. There is an organization to protect the women from unmar- riied men in this country who are with married men or one or more unmarried women.

The BPA (Bachelor’s Protective Association) is a national organization. It works like Anonoimous. It is designed to help those who have had the same experience. The BPA has a list of its own members, and who re- ceive the service of all membership. It protects you individuals against the various and sundry unacquainted women.

In the interests of fair play, on this note at point that a great many of the college women help to develop to such products as lipstick, mascara, eyebrow pencil, glasses, and other misleading items. They also in- vested the bank. Men, this is a warning.

Protect yourselves, men! Your own independence is at stake. 2. If you need this protection, is growing. At this point in the season, Winona students are demanding more and more when everyone knows that they never had enough.

It is the men who must amend their wrong. Their only way to get these precious rights is to see that this organization, noes of in- tensions will be posted. You will also be able to see for a nomination, items such as a membership, their personal belongings, luggage, stickers, neckties, and car emblems to continually remind you of your status.

Remember! It’s not true that the campus is being overun by the Death Penalty. It’s more like a whopping fine.

If you wish to obtain more information about this most valuable organization, write to PO Box 120.

Rodgers and Hammerstein wrote many musicals that have become favorites. "South Pacific," perhaps the most beloved, won the Tony Award and another Tony for the best musical of the ( supply your own word) year.

The annual Big-Little Sister Tea sponsored by the junior class, will enable freshmen girls to meet their new sister. Chairwomen in charge of the event are TWCA president Barbara Berry and Junior Editor Sue Roth, style show consultant.

"理想 of freedom... Go DIRECTLY To WORK... Go DIRECTLY To WORK" by RUTH ANNE FRASER

Dear Editor,

What in the world was I going to do?

The quarter's end is near, Tra-la!

Oh, what to do? Oh, what to do? Oh, what to do?

In the interests of fair play, on this note at point that a great many of the college women help to develop to such products as lipstick, mascara, eyebrow pencil, glasses, and other misleading items. They also invested the bank.

Men, this is a warning.

Assurance. Assurance has been completed by the exchange of the teaching positions of Miss Aarstad and Miss Nelsen, assisted by a WSC, with Dr. P. M. Juhl, Oslo Teacher Training College, Norway.

This institutional recognition for 1960-1961 school term is a continuation of the exchange program inaugurated ten years ago between the Norwegian colleges and WSC.

Dr. Juhl will be coming to the United States in the fall to complete the academic year. He will be in Winona to attend school, receiving his B.A. from Manchester University and serving as English Master at St. James College.

Upon his return to Europe Dr. Juhl will teach in Oslo secondary school. He has a degree equivalent to the Ph.D. awarded by American colleges. Under the auspices of UNESCO, he spent two years in Thailand as an expert in teacher education and psychology. He has served five years as chairman of the Minnesota Commission of Teacher Education and Professional Standards.

Miss Aarstad, Norwegian professor exchange positions

Miss Aarstad, a teacher, has been appointed to the position of teaching assistant at Boston University. She will be the first assistant teacher at the university to be appointed for the junior year.

Miss Aarstad has been a member of the faculty of the University of Bergen since 1930, and she has served five years as chairman of the Minnesota Commission of Teacher Education and Professional Standards.

She is past president of the Southeastern Minnesota Education Association and has served as a member of the National Teacher Education Commission of the Minnesota State Board of Education on Language Arts and Related Humanities.

At WSC she has served as chairman of the committee on inter-institutional Affiliates since the project was begun in 1960. At Winona State College, she will teach courses in education and psychology to students preparing for elementary teaching.

She expects to sail from New York Nov. 14, and she will arrive in Winona in the latter part of August.
