Public School Needs Placed Before Eyes of People of Bit City

In connection with the opening of public schools throughout the nation, the National Association of Educational Officers has recently returned from a tour of inspection in various parts of the country. The schools visited included those in large cities such as New York and Chicago, as well as rural areas.

On Friday last Tuesday for the scheduled meeting, the members of the association gathered in the large auditorium of the school. The results of the inspection were then discussed in the presence of the educational authorities. The visitors expressed their high appreciation of the work being done in the schools.

Students Should Give Paintings to College Friends Before Leaving for Miss

The Winona Normal school is particularly fortunate in the number of its graduates, both in the number who are employed and in the number of them who are successful. The school has a long history of producing high-quality graduates, and this year is no exception.

A NEW USE FOR CANCELLATION

Checkbooks, cash registers, and many other devices used in solving problems. There are now developed new methods which can be used in these devices. These methods are based on the idea of a "check" and a "register". Each check contains a number which, when used in the register, allows the device to work properly. In this way, the device can be used to solve problems in a much more efficient manner.

Normal Oldiories Hold Happy Reunions While Institute Has Sessions

Normal Paved by Former Students

Two different reunions were held at the Winona Normal school last week. The first reunion was held on the campus, and the second reunion was held at the institute. Both reunions were well attended, and the students seemed to enjoy themselves.

"Halliday's Restaurant" in Honor of Miss Esther Barter

The Winona Normal school recently honored its former student, Miss Esther Barter, by opening a restaurant in her honor. The restaurant, located on the campus, is named "Halliday's Restaurant" in her honor.
