Un-Americanized Swedish student views city, twist

...by Mildred Andersen

Miss Andersen, a Norwegian-born Swedish student and teacher here at WSC. She came to the United States in 1939 and will stay until the first part of next summer.

Anita was born in Stockholm, Oct. 30, 1946, and has lived most of her life in Stcksberg, a town about five miles from Stockholm. While in Winona, Anita is staying with the family of Dr. G. L. Loomis.

I asked her how she met the Loomis family. "My sister was born at Winona in the A.F.I. program and she stayed with the Loomis family. Then my parents came over about two years ago to visit," she said.

WINONA IS a cute little town. It is very beautiful during the fall. The people are kind and friendly; I enjoy my stay with them. However, I am too Swedish for most of my American friends.

What does she miss most of all from home?

"My boy friend and the discussion about Swedish people. It doesn't seem to care much about what's going on, even though it's their business. The papers don't seem to write much about it either. The newspapers here are not as good as the American newspapers. I haven't been able to follow the situation here.

I think the Swedish language would be more difficult than the American language.

These are just some of the projects and some of the people who have helped the Student Commission.

The Student Commission has been very helpful to me. I am sure that you all appreciate their efforts as much as we have enjoyed representing you.

Our advisors, Mr. Voorhees, Dr. Augusta Nelson, Dr. S. Fruechte, Mr. Petrillo, have all done a fine job representing their classes and helping with many activities. Marilyn Schroeder has done an exceptional job serving as secretary. We would have been lost without her loyal and fine service.

The following four names have been added to the fall quarter honor roll: 2.36—Jonathan Agutu.

Blue Cross representative explains student health plan

Patsy Brower, representative of the Blue Cross, explained this plan to the Student Commission Feb. 13.

Msgr. Alexander Sigur and Dr. Gordon M. A. Mork, the Rt. Rev. Loomis family. "My sister was born at Winona five years ago on Valentine's Day. She was a member of the 4-H Club and played the piano. She was a very good student and loved to read. She was also very kind and helpful to others. She was always smiling and had a great sense of humor. She was a great role model for all of us."

She misses her family, her friends, and her home in Sweden. But she enjoys her time here at WSC and looks forward to the future.

The Winona: Under the direction of Jeanette Rehder, gave an engaging performance of "The Phantom of the Opera."

"An Imperson Call," this week.

The play examines upper-middle class social hypocrisy in the early 1960s. It exposes pretended respectability through the destruction of the household's integrity, Arthur Rolting, played by Jimc Klemmer, as Inspector Goool, portrayed by Paul Hillman. The cold social snobbery of this era was reflected through the character of Eddy Buring, portrayed by Genea Gurdish. Her reluctance to accept the spurned suitor, portrayed by Connor Bachmann.

John Davis played the part of a young, charming, sophisticated suitor who symbolized the intimations of a younger generation of this period. Birking's impossible, immortal son was characterized by Richard Heha and the maid was played by Sylvia Wedin.

All the actors gave convincing performances. Each role was portrayed with the spirit intended by the author. Credit for this, in part, must be given to the director for his fine interpretation of the work.
