Freeman Picks Berg's Successor

Mendes-France Appears Before U.N. Assembly

Atoms-for-Peace Proposal Plays Second Fiddle

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — French Premier Pierre Mendes-France expressed the willingness today to hold a Big Four meeting in Paris next May—after ratification of the London and Paris agreements.

In an address to the 60-nation U. N. General Assembly, the French leader declared firmly that he was opposed to any meeting between East and West until the Paris and London agreements are ratified.

He said, however, that after the agreements are approved France would be ready to take the initiative in organizing the Big Four conference, which Russia has been pressing for.

Mendes-France told the Assembly that the proposals of Soviet Foreign Minister Vyacheslav M. Molotov for a Big Four meeting now are intended to hinder and divide rather than to solve East-West differences.

Approval of the American proposal for a peaceful atomic energy program was delayed in the Assembly's chief Political Committee by Russian amendments submitted late Saturday. Despite previous indications of East-West agreement, the Soviets suddenly revived their demand that the proposed international atomic agency be placed under the veto-hampered Security Council and that the door be left open to invite Communist China to the proposed scientific conference on atomic energy.

The United States and its six cosponsors of the Western resolution remained adamant in the opposition to both propositions. They appeared certain of the votes to reject the Soviet amendments, but negotiations with the Soviets continued.

Mendes-France last night called for continued Western unity and a defense of the German rearmament provided for in the Paris agreements.

Vishinsky Dies In New York

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Andrei Yanuariyevich Vishinsky, the once obscure Russian lawyer who became a foremost mouthpiece for the Soviet Union, died today. The Soviet deputy foreign minister, Moscow's chief delegate to the U.N., would have been 71 on Dec. 10.

Eelco Van Kleffens of The Netherlands, president of the U.N., announced the Soviet diplomat died of a heart attack. In bad health several years, Vishinsky remained in the thick of diplomatic storms here to the end.

All U.N. meetings were suspended for the day, and thus debate in the U.N. Political Committee on President Eisenhower's atoms-for-peace plan was postponed.

A Soviet source said Vishinsky collapsed and died early this morning at Soviet delegation headquarters on Park Ave.

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., said he saw Vishinsky as late as 11:15 o'clock Sunday night at a dinner given by Henri Hoppenot, France's permanent representative to the U.N. for French Premier Pierre Mendes-France.

In Fine Humor
Lodge said Vishinsky was in "fine good humor, laughing and talkative as always."

Lodge said he first heard that Vishinsky was ill when the announcement that the Soviet diplomat was indisposed was made in the U.N. Political Committee by A. A. Sobolev of the Soviet delegation.

Sobolev stood at his chair after the meeting was adjourned and a line of delegates formed to extend their condolences. Some of the Soviet representatives were wiping their eyes as they left the committee chamber and appeared to be stunned by the news.

Word of the death of Vishinsky—as famed today for his blistering oratory as he was in the 1930s as Stalin's blood purge prosecutor—spread quickly throughout the U.N.

While regular sessions of the U.N. were adjourned out of respect, the General Assembly adjourned.

Andrei Y. Vishinsky

ranged, to meet this afternoon in tribute to the Soviet delegate.

Once a member of the right-wing "Menshevik" minority-faction of Russia's revolutionaries, a faction hated by the Bolsheviks, Vishinsky fitted himself to the Bolshevik-majority-line and never deviated from the day he was accepted into the Communist party more than three decades ago.

Held Top Post
Vishinsky rose to fame as state prosecutor with a slashing, violent prosecution of old Bolshevik leaders in the Stalin blood purge of the middle 1930s. He went on to higher things, winding up as foreign minister.

He surrendered the top post of the Foreign Ministry to V. M. Molotov in March, 1953, in the Soviet government realignment which followed the death of Stalin, and he was appointed first deputy foreign minister. Last December, on his 70th birthday, Vishinsky's services to the Soviet state were recognized when he was awarded the Order of Lenin, his nation's highest award.

Vishinsky, better known to the world outside the Iron Curtain than almost any other Soviet figure, began to suffer declining health in 1949. His health frequently caused his absence from important occasions. In 1950 he had to go to a Czechoslovak spa to recuperate, but always he was back on the job when the U.N. was in session. He arrived in New York only last September at the head of his delegation to the U.N. Assembly.

Fulbright Sees Attempt to Stall McCarthy Case

Doubts Senator's Elbow as Bad As Reported

By FRED S. HOFFMANN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.) says he doubts Sen. McCarthy's elbow trouble is "quite as serious as we were led to believe" when the Senate last week suspended debate on censure charges against the Wisconsin Republican while he underwent hospital treatment.

"It seems to me," Fulbright said yesterday during a television interview, "that this delay is certainly consistent with an effort to prevent any vote at all."

Debate on the censure charges—which Fulbright helped initiate—was broken off last week until next Monday when Dr. George W. Calver, Capitol physician, reported McCarthy had developed "traumatic bursitis" after his elbow was injured in a Milwaukee handshaking accident.

McCarthy has been undergoing treatment at the Bethesda Naval Hospital. The hospital reported yesterday his condition continues satisfactory.

"This isn't the first time that he's reported to the hospital when he's in an embarrassing position," said Fulbright. He did not mention other instances.

Fulbright wasn't questioning Dr. Calver's competence or integrity, but that "there is an old custom in the Bethesda Naval Hospital that senators and congressmen make their own diagnosis."

Fulbright and Sen. Lehman (D-Lib-NY) voted against the 10-day recess, but 76 other senators approved.

The Senate is authorized to sit for this session only until Christmas Eve. If the vote on censure does not come by that time, the charges automatically die.

Sen. Watkins (R-Utah), who headed a special committee that recommended McCarthy be censured, said yesterday he doubts the recess "will have any effect on the final result." Speaking of a recorded program telecast from New York, he said the censure debate will "cool off some of the people who have been emotionally upset."

Meanwhile, a move reportedly was developing to substitute a new count — the alleged maligning by McCarthy of the Watkins committee — for charges now before the Senate.

The special Senate committee of three Republicans and three Democrats recommended that McCarthy be rebuked for allegedly treating a Senate elections subcommittee with contempt in 1952 and on grounds that he "repeatedly abused" Brig. Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker while the Army officer was testifying before McCarthy's Investigations Subcommittee last February.

Highway patrolmen said the car crashed into the rear of a pickup truck driven by John Gardner, 54, of Des Moines, about six miles north of Des Moines on State Highway 60.

The Beardsleys had gone to Ames to visit their youngest son, Dan, 20, a student at Iowa State College. They were returning to Des Moines when the accident occurred.

Ironically, they failed to find Dan at Ames as he was attending a movie. The boy said he first learned of his father's death from a news broadcast.

Beardsley, 53, a Republican and one of the early supporters of Dwight Eisenhower for the Republican presidential nomination in 1952, was the first Iowa chief executive to die in office.

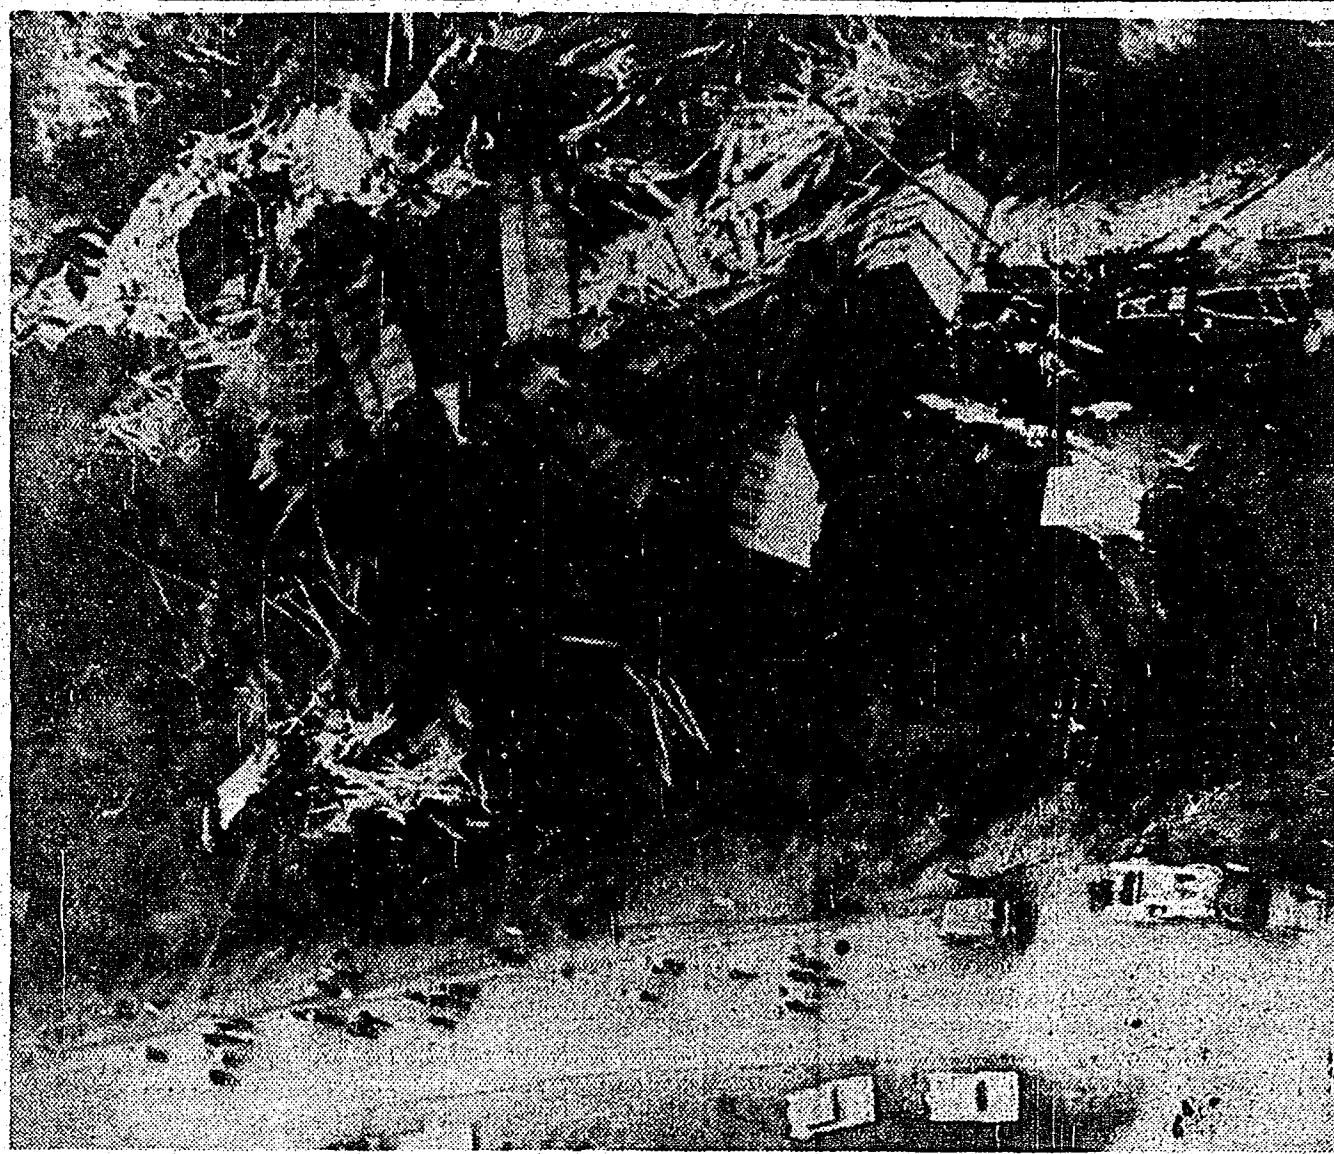

Beardsley's administration was active in promoting highway safety. He had formed the governor's official traffic safety committee, which included the heads of state departments having to do with safety, law enforcement and education, and promoted a statewide meeting of teen-agers last April to draft a safety program for young people.

Dead on Arrival
Highway Patrolman Glenn McDole said when he arrived at the accident he found Gov. Beardsley lying with his head in his wife's lap.

"Bill hasn't moved," he quoted Mrs. Beardsley as saying. "I found the governor's little white dog standing near the car, shaking all over," he said. "I put the dog in my patrol car."

An ambulance took the governor and Mrs. Beardsley to Iowa Lutheran Hospital, where Beardsley was pronounced dead on arrival. Dr. Lester Powell said the governor's death was caused by chest injuries.

Mrs. Beardsley was reported in serious condition with cuts, knee, shoulder and spine injuries and shock.

Iowa Governor Killed in Crash With Pickup

Gov. Beardsley

DES MOINES (AP) — Gov. William S. Beardsley was killed in an automobile-truck crash near here last night, less than two months before he would have completed his third term as Iowa's chief executive.

Highway patrolmen said the car crashed into the rear of a pickup truck driven by John Gardner, 54, of Des Moines, about six miles north of Des Moines on State Highway 60.

The Beardsleys had gone to Ames to visit their youngest son, Dan, 20, a student at Iowa State College. They were returning to Des Moines when the accident occurred.

Missouri Bookkeeper Admits Killing Girl

LEBANON, Mo. (AP) — A mild-mannered bookkeeper who developed an infatuation for his pretty 11-year-old niece admitted last night that he killed her. Then he lead officers on a 226-mile hunt for the body.

Police found the fully clothed body of Jeannette Earnest about four miles east of here in a pile of leaves just off U.S. Highway 66. The schoolgirl, missing from her Fort Worth, Tex., home since last Tuesday, had been shot in the right temple.

Her uncle, Thurman Priest, 48, of Grand Prairie, Tex., is charged with kidnapping.

Sheriff Bill Decker quoted Priest as saying:

"I was afraid the family was going to take the girl away from me. If I couldn't have her, no one else could."

The child's mother recently restricted Priest's visits with the girl. Officers said that during the 226-mile trip through Kansas, Oklahoma and Missouri, Priest sobbed hysterically several times. He finally directed officers to an oak tree grove and said:

"The body's out there."

He remained trembling in the car. Sheriff Decker quoted Priest as saying he had "struggled with the girl in the woods, blacked out and heard an explosion."

"The next thing I knew she was lying there dead."

After an autopsy, Coroner Stanley R. Palmer Jr. reported there were "no signs of criminal attack."

Until yesterday Priest, who was arrested Wednesday at Mount Vernon, Mo., had steadfastly denied knowing what happened to Jeannette.

The girl, who looked older than her 11 years, was taken Tuesday while waiting near a self-service laundry for her mother. Witnesses reported Priest had picked her up.

N.D. Man Dies In Minneapolis Hotel Room Fire

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — A North Dakota man died in a hotel room fire here early Sunday morning, and arson squad investigators were trying to learn today whether he had been smoking in bed.

The victim was identified as Dwight W. Anderson, 38, owner of the Anderson Clothing store at Watford City. He was found dead in bed at the Telemadge Hotel.

J. H. Elliott, the hotel's assistant manager, said he took matches and cigarettes from Anderson when he came in Saturday night. Night clerk Thorwald Hagen said the North Dakotan and a man later identified as Rollin Grand, 40, Minneapolis, entered the hotel about 4:30 a.m. Sunday.

About two hours later, Grand came out of Anderson's room and told the clerk the room was cold. Grand then left the hotel. Hagen went into the room, closed the window, and threw a blanket over Anderson, who was lying on the bed.

About 6:40 Hagen smelled smoke. He returned to the room and found the bed afire. After a futile attempt to quell the flames, he called firemen.

Bridges in Line For Senate GOP Policy Leadership

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Bridges of New Hampshire today was reported in line for chairmanship of the Senate GOP Policy Committee.

Such a move would fill two top leadership posts with Republicans critical at times of Eisenhower administration foreign policies.

Sen. Knowland of California, the GOP floor leader, has told friends he has no intention of giving up that job although he diverges from President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles over some aspects of international policies.

While Bridges has not publicly indicated his intentions, colleagues said there is little doubt he can have the chairmanship of the party's policy committee if he wants it. The present chairman, Sen. Ferguson of Michigan, was defeated for re-election.

Bridges, senior Republican in point of service in the Senate, was one of those who fought unsuccessfully against confirmation of Eisenhower's nominee for ambassador to Russia, Charles E. (Chip) Bohlen.

Knowland and Bridges are advocates of stronger action against communism in Asia than the Eisenhower administration thus far has been willing to undertake.

Asks Anderson To Appoint U. Professor

Arthur Naftalin Would Help Prepare Budget for New Year

By JACK MACKAY

ST. PAUL (AP) — Gov.-elect Orville L. Freeman today requested Gov. Anderson to appoint Arthur Naftalin, associate professor of political science at the University of Minnesota, as state commissioner of administration, on a temporary basis, to replace Earl L. Berg.

Gov. Anderson agreed to name Naftalin, whose appointment will become effective next Monday morning.

Berg, after a short conference with the incoming governor, promptly announced he would give his resignation to Gov. Anderson today.

During the week, however, Naftalin plans to work every day in close cooperation with Berg to become acquainted with his new responsibilities.

Native of Fargo
Naftalin, 37, a native of Fargo, N.D., now lives in Minneapolis. He has been teaching at the university since 1947. Naftalin, who was at the press conference when Freeman announced his choice, said he has requested a leave of absence which "conceivably could run up to a year."

Naftalin, who was one of the leaders in Sen. Hubert Humphrey's campaigns and helped drive Communists and fellows out of the Democratic-Farmer-Labor party after World War II, said it is his hope that the new post "will not take me from the university for too long a period."

"Mr. Naftalin is coming here at my request," Freeman emphasized "to help me out in making the adjustments in the new administration."

"He has not solicited the job. I solicited him. He is eminently qualified from both a practical and professional, as well as theoretical viewpoint. In addition, I have the utmost confidence in him. As one who has worked with him before in government, and whose ability and integrity are beyond reproach, I am very happy to have him as my first appointment even though he has consented to serve only on an interim basis."

Former Humphrey Secretary
Naftalin met Sen. Humphrey shortly before 1943 and became secretary to Humphrey when the latter was mayor of Minneapolis from 1945 to 1947. He writes a weekly newspaper column for a number of state papers and holds a doctorate at the university. He is also a director of the Minnesota Citizenship Clearing House, an organization devoted to efforts to induce young people to become interested in politics. He is married and the father of three children.

Freeman's decision to ask for a quick change in the administration commissioner's office, frequently referred to as "the state business manager," came largely as a result of Berg's failure to inform the new governor of a law that makes it possible to avert a four million dollar cutback in state administration.

Berg, commenting on the new move, said "I think that Gov.-elect Freeman has made a good selection."

"I believe that good public management will still be the future of Minnesota."

Explaining his reasons for his decision, Freeman said the appointment is "necessitated by the fact that the budget recommendations for the new biennium must be made within a few weeks."

Legislature Meets Jan. 4
The new Legislature convenes Jan. 4 and the governor's budget message generally is submitted shortly afterward.

"It is essential that representatives of the incoming administration have every opportunity during this brief period to examine the problems involved as thoroughly as possible," Freeman said.

"I am grateful, therefore, to Gov. Anderson and Mr. Berg for their cooperation in facilitating the changeover."

"This move is particularly important in view of the serious deficit in state financing about which conflicting statements have appeared recently."

"This crisis results from the fact that revenues have fallen short of money appropriated."

"The incoming administration is not responsible for this serious financial problem, but we will move immediately to deal with it as constructively and as thoroughly as possible."

8 Deer Hunters Die In Two-State Area

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

One Minnesota hunter was accidentally shot to death, another died of a heart attack, and several others were wounded as the 1954 deer season opened over the weekend.

Six men lost their lives in the woodlands of Wisconsin. Four were shot to death and heart attacks claimed two victims.

In Minnesota Hugh Klein, about 60, an Ironton barber, was accidentally shot while hunting near Cross Lake Saturday. Roy Wickland, sheriff of Crow Wing County, said Klein was using a flashlight to load his gun. Another hunter apparently mistook the light for a deer.

An inquest into Klein's death was to be held today.

Another gunshot fatality was Paul Stratton, 18, Duluth. He was fatally wounded when his own gun accidentally fired while he was hunting ducks on an island in the St. Louis River Saturday. The gun blast hit young Stratton in the stomach.

John Falk, about 60, Kelliher, Sunday was found dead in woods west of Kelliher, where he had been hunting with a son, Harry Falk of Brainerd, and other Brainerd men.

Mill City Dentist Wounded
Dr. J. A. Collins, a Minneapolis dentist, may lose his left arm as the result of a hunting accident Sunday in the Babbitt area, south of Ely. Dr. Collins' rifle went off as he set it down. Companions took him to an Ely hospital and he later was transferred to a hospital in Virginia.

David Yonderbroggen, 25, Bagley, was in critical condition in a Brainerd hospital with a wound suffered while hunting deer in the Bemidji area Saturday.

Lloyd Lindell, Cloquet, was hospitalized at Cook after he was shot in his right arm while hunting in a wooded area near Cook Sunday.

Frank Erceh, 43, Duluth, was wounded in the hip as he hunted west of Duluth Sunday.

Clarence Nelson, St. Paul, suffered a broken leg and foot when he fell from a rocky ledge near International Falls after shooting a deer Saturday.

Michael Wicks, 13, Moorhead, was critically wounded while hunting rabbits with a young friend near Moorhead Saturday.

Rolvaag Ready For Session as Senate Chief

By ADOLPH JOHNSON

(This is the fifth in a series on Minnesota's new state officials.)

ST. PAUL (AP)—Karl F. Rolvaag has no qualms about presiding over a body having a majority of members with a political philosophy different from his.

Rolvaag will take over in January as lieutenant governor. His first and principal job will be to act as presiding officer of the state Senate. Rolvaag is a Democratic-Farmer-Laborite, like all but one of the incoming state officials. Based on caucus attendance, the Senate will have 48 conservatives and 19 liberals.

"We'll get along," says Rolvaag calmly. "It will be just another problem in human relations. Every day we have, because of differing opinions, to make concessions and compromises to get along."

"There are some very able men in the Senate and I respect their ability though I may disagree with their political views."

Native of Northfield

Rolvaag, a native of Northfield and son of O. E. Rolvaag, famed novelist, recalled that he had been through some pretty hot sessions during his four years as state DFL chairman.

He doesn't expect his duties to end when the Legislature adjourns in April.

"For the first time in many years there will be a 'team'—a group of officials who can work together," he said. "I want to be of any assistance I can as a member of that team, to work with and help the other officials."

Rolvaag got into politics in 1945 during a "retirement" from Army duty. Since then he has served as Rice County DFL chairman, state chairman in the 1950 and 1952 terms, and has been a candidate for Congress three times. He ran in the 1st District in 1946 and 1948 and in the 5th in 1952.

He enlisted in the Army in June, 1941, the month he was graduated from St. Olaf College, Northfield, with special honors in history. He had been president of his senior class, played football, and served as business manager of the college literary magazine.

Served in Europe
For most of the next six years, he was in the Army, serving in the European theater as a tank commander in the 4th Armored Division. Combat wounds kept him in hospitals for nearly two years. He was awarded a Silver Star and the Purple Heart.

After being retired for a short period for disability, he was recalled for another assignment, before being discharged in 1947 with the rank of captain.

After the war, Rolvaag spent a year at the University of Minnesota for postgraduate study and then a year at the University of Oslo, Norway, to study Scandinavian political parties on an American Scandinavian Foundation fellowship.

He now is a partner in an insurance firm in Rochester. He is a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the American Veterans Committee and the Lutheran Church.

For relaxation, the Rolvaags and their two children, Paul, 7, and Kristin, 5, go to a lake cottage his father built in 1922 near Marcell in Itasca County.

Although goose quills were most often used for pens, the quills of hawks, swans, crows, eagles, owls, peacocks and turkeys also were used.

4 Commissioner Ballots Marked 'Questionable'

2 of 7 Precincts
Recounted; Tie
Might Be Broken

With two of seven precincts recounted by 11 a.m. today, there was a distinct possibility that the tie between incumbent Walter Schubert and candidate Paul A. Baer in the race for 4th district county commissioner may be broken.

Four ballots cast in the Nov. 2 general election were earmarked "questionable" this morning by attorneys and official counters representing Schubert and Baer. Two of the ballots were from Hart Township and two from Fremont Township.

"However," said one official, "we cannot yet say that these four ballots are 'contested.' We'll try to arrive at a gentlemen's agreement before officially contesting them."

An official county canvassing board, earlier this month confirmed election returns giving each man 665 votes in the election. Subsequently lots were drawn and Baer was declared the winner of the race.

Schubert, who has served on the county board since 1949 and whose term expires Jan. 1, challenged the canvassing board report soon after and asked for a recount of ballots.

Other than this morning's "questionable" ballots no mistake was found by officials in tabulation of votes from Hart and Fremont townships.

Any "contested" ballots will be presented before District Judge Karl Finkelnburg in the near future for a final decision.

Also present at today's recounting, besides designated officials, were Schubert and Baer. There was a possibility that the counting would be completed late today.

Action on School Segregation Put Off by High Court

WASHINGTON (U)—The Supreme Court today postponed arguments on how and when to end public school segregation. The arguments, which had been scheduled for the week of December 6, were delayed because of the vacancy on the court.

Judge John Marshall Harlan of New York has been nominated for the seat of the late Justice Robert Jackson, but Senate action has been put off until the new Congress meets in January.

A Senate Judiciary subcommittee decided last week to delay consideration of the nomination at the request of Sen. Eastland (D-Miss.).

Eastland said he wanted more time to obtain information as to Harlan's qualifications.

His request automatically put the matter over until the new session.

Proposed Budget At La Crosse Trimmed $83,048

LA CROSSE, Wis.—Pencil-wielding city councilmen have worked over the proposed 1955 city budget requests for six departments and the school board and cut a total of $83,048.

Biggest cut was $64,162.20 from the Board of Education's request for the city share of school costs.

Including the $83,048.38 in cuts, the council as a whole now has chopped a grand total of $80,292.68 from its tentative budget of $4,782,447.39 for city operation in 1955.

The Council meeting as a committee of the whole also:

Adopted an airport budget of $30,000 after cutting $280 from original $30,280 requests.

Adopted a $67,650 budget for the engineering department after adding $130 to the original $67,520 request.

Adopted a $302,732 budget for the highway department after cutting $12,958.18 from the original $315,690.18 request.

Adopted a $64,175 budget for the sewer department after cutting $400 from the original $64,575 request.

Adopted an $87,631 budget for the sewage disposal plant after cutting $5,400 from the original $93,031 request.

Adopted a $15,360.40 budget for land fill and refuse disposal without any change.

An across the board $200 yearly increase for 297 city school teachers was retained in the 1955 school budget by a compromise move which ended a three-hour long verbal tug-of-war in the Common Council.

The salary increase, costing $59,400 is scheduled to become effective Jan. 1, 1955.

The Council, meeting as a committee of the whole, eliminated a second salary schedule adjustment of $100 each for 297 teachers which would have become effective on Sept. 1, 1955.

The Council committee then approved $1,774,344.98 as the city's share of the 1955 city school budget.

Official Counters This morning began the task of recounting the 1,330 ballots cast in the Nov. 2 race for 4th District county commissioner. In the commissioner chambers at the county courthouse were, left to right around the table: A. N. Eustermann, Lewiston, court-appointed counter; Hale A. Stow, Winona, Walter Schubert's counter;

Voluntary Recall Of Air Reserve, Guard Authorized

Voluntary recall of prior service Air Force Reserve and Air National Guard personnel for four years' service starting with fiscal year 1955 has been authorized, according to the 957th Air Reserve Squadron, Flight "B" of which is located in Winona.

Officers of the Reserve squadron said there are opening for many specialties in the Air Force. There will be no skill-level substitution.

Grade limitations are in effect for those specialties now top heavy in rank. Prior service is defined as 90 days active duty or at least 15 months continuous satisfactory reserve or Guard participation in training category "A." Thirty days of the latter period must be in short, special or school training tours.

Airmen must volunteer for a 4-year tour of extended active and must have at least four years remaining in current reserve or Guard enlistment prior to recall.

Applications from the reservists and guardsmen must be submitted through proper military channels to: The Commander, Air Reserve Records Center, 3800 York St., Denver 5, Colo. If the application is approved, the airman will be enlisted as an Air Force reserve airman for a 4-year period.

Retired airmen may apply under other Air Force regulations but must volunteer for an indefinite period. Further information is available from T. Sgt. Eugene A. Faby, liaison non-commissioned officer, Room 312, Post Office building, La Crosse, Wis.

Fonda Finishes His Cruise With 'Mister Roberts'

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (U)—Henry Fonda has come to the end of a long cruise with Lt. (j.g.) Douglas Roberts, USNR.

When the actor finished his role as the soft-spoken, high-principled Navy officer in the film version of "Mister Roberts," it ended an association that began when Fonda opened in the stage play in December 1946.

I watched as Fonda went through one of his last scenes in the picture.

Roberts was seated on the afterdeck of the cargo ship when Doc, played by William Powell, came out to join him. The young officer told of seeing a huge task force sail by the night before. He showed Doc his latest wording of a letter he sent to higher authorities each week requesting for transfer to the shooting war.

"I'll get there, Doc," Roberts said. "I'll get there some day."

After the scene was over, Fonda talked about his life with Roberts. He had read the Thomas Heggen book when it came out, and he saw movie possibilities in the property. But he never suspected it could be made into a play. He was still unconvinced when Josh Logan teamed with Heggen on the script and Leland Hayward planned to produce.

"They had more faith than I did," Fonda remarked. "I never could see enough plot in the book for a play. But when I went east Josh asked if he could read it to me."

"I was just like an audience. I laughed, I cried, and I applauded at the end. I called Leland and said: 'This is for me. Get me free.' I still had a couple of film commitments to get out of."

He wiggled out of the film deals and started one of the most monumental attractions in the history of the American theater. He played "Mister Roberts" for three years in New York and then toured the nation.

Teen-agers Injured As Car Leaves Road Near Rollingstone

ROLLINGSTONE, Minn.—Two teen-agers were injured when their car dropped over an embankment on Highway 248, one quarter of a mile east of here, at 3:30 a.m. Sunday.

Sheriff George Fort said that Willis Gensmer, 17, Bethany was driving toward Rollingstone when he apparently fell asleep momentarily and the car went off the road.

The car traveled a distance of nearly 40 feet on the highway shoulder, Sheriff Fort said, and then dropped over the bank.

Gensmer suffered facial bruises and abrasions and a passenger in the car Willis Pasche, 19, Rollingstone sustained a sprained ankle. Damage to the car was estimated at $1,000.

9 Cities Revenue Committee Draws 2 Tax Proposals

ROCHESTER, Minn. (U)—Representatives of nine Minnesota cities and villages organized as the Nine Cities Revenue Committee Saturday approved in principle two proposals designed to relieve their financial plight.

Both proposals are planned for presentation to the 1955 Legislature.

One would authorize cities of the first and second classes and villages of more than 20,000 population to "levy and collect such taxes on persons, transactions, occupations, privileges and subjects within their corporate limits as they may determine."

This would not include tax on property on an ad valorem basis in addition to those now permitted by law.

Unresolved in connection with this proposal was whether persons should be taxed where they live or where they work.

A second proposal would authorize the same group of cities and villages to impose a surcharge on state income taxes. The group was unable to decide whether this should apply to corporations as well as individuals, estates and trusts.

Both proposals were referred to a drafting committee composed of Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth city attorneys and the attorney for the League of Minnesota Municipalities. The committee is to report at another meeting in Minneapolis in December.

The nine cities group is composed of Minneapolis, St. Paul, Duluth, Rochester, Winona, Austin, St. Cloud, St. Louis Park and Richfield. All were represented except St. Cloud.

Good Behavior Shortens Sugar Heir's Sentence

SANTA ANA, Calif. (U)—Jailers say sugar heir Adolph Spreckels II, 43, will get time for good behavior lopped from his 30-day jail sentence for wife beating.

He should be released about 8 a.m. Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, and should be able to eat turkey—instead of soup, the jail fare—for Thanksgiving dinner. Jailers said he is getting five days off for model behavior.

He was convicted of beating his former wife, Kay Williams, at his Balboa home last year and started the sentence in Orange County Jail Nov. 1 after appeals failed.

Women Replacing Michigan Policemen

JACKSON, Mich. (U)—Women are replacing Jackson policemen as parking meter checkers on city streets.

The City Commission has approved the hiring of women meter checkers as an economy measure in order to relieve members of the police force for other duties.

Unemployment Claims Up Over Year Ago

But Increase From October Small, State Service Says

Unemployment in Winona County during November is now exactly double what it was one year ago, according to Stanley S. Hammer, manager of the Winona office of the Minnesota State Employment Service.

The county total for unemployment claims stands at 274, compared with 137 in November of 1953. Claims in Houston and Wabasha are only slightly off the year-ago count, Houston County claims numbered 25 in November of 1953, 30 now; while Wabasha claims dropped from 26 in '53 to 12 now.

In Winona County, the November count is only nine higher than October of this year, but Hammer estimates a considerable rise after the first of the year.

"Lay-offs and completion of seasonal work will raise the unemployment figure within the next few months," said Hammer.

The influx of part-time help during the Christmas shopping season will not affect the December claim load, Hammer estimated. "Construction and factory workers don't do that type of work—the stores hire a lot of part-time college help," he said.

Two Charged, Two Injured in Wabasha Accident

WABASHA, Minn.—Double charges grew out of a highway intersection crash here early Sunday morning in which two women—one from Winona and another from Dumfries—were injured.

Mrs. Beatrice D. Ahlers, 25, Dumfries, pleaded guilty to driving without a license before Justice of the Peace Henry Kronebusch this morning and paid a $25 fine and court costs. She suffered cuts on the face when a car driven by Junior G. Ruff, 637 1/2 W. Broadway, Winona, crashed into hers at the intersection of highways 61 and 60 at 7:55 a.m. Sunday.

Ruff was charged with going through a stop light and will appear before Kronebusch later this week. His wife was cut on both knees. A child riding with them was uninjured. Both women were treated at St. Elizabeth's Hospital and released.

August Tietz, Wabasha police officer, who investigated, said that Ruff was traveling west on 61 and Mrs. Ahlers north on 60. Damage to Ruff's car is estimated at $300; to the Ahlers vehicle, $200. Mrs. Ahlers was alone.

A stoplight was installed recently at the intersection.

Garage Damaged In Sunday Fire

The interior of a frame garage at the Ray Brown residence, 525 Villa St., was damaged extensively by fire Sunday.

Discovered at 10:26 a.m., the fire is believed to have been caused by an overheated stove.

Firemen also were called to put out a fire in a car owned by William Samsala, 457 Eckert St., at his home at 5:13 p.m. Saturday.

A run was made at 10:55 a.m. today when an oil heater flared at the Harry Wenger home, 69 E. King St.

Use your telephone to help get things done in a hurry, and if you have party-line service, please remember to leave some time between calls—so someone else can call you, so others on your line can use the phone, too. Some other tips for good

Administration Will Oppose New Tax Cuts

WASHINGTON (U)—Sentiment within the Eisenhower administration appeared today to be running strongly against any new tax reduction next year unless business falters.

High officials of four federal agencies, which presumably will influence the shaping of President Eisenhower's recommendations to Congress in January, indicated in interviews that a final decision on tax policy hinges on business developments of the next several weeks.

But each said the state of government finances—a $4,700,000,000 deficit is expected by June 30—does not justify further business or individual tax cuts, assuming that the economic recovery is still on the upbeat at the turn of the year.

This probably means that the administration not only will oppose a further income tax reduction, advocated by a number of the Democrats whose party will control the next Congress, but will take a stand against scheduled reductions in corporate income and excise tax rates.

The corporate tax rate is due to drop from 52 to 47 per cent on April 1, under present law.

Several excise levies, including those on automobiles and gasoline, also are due for reduction next spring.

One of the officials interviewed said:

"We cannot afford any tax reduction in 1955. It is a pretty safe guess that the administration will oppose even the scheduled reductions."

Another official, pointing to the likelihood of lower federal revenues next year, said:

"Unless the business situation calls for relief, I cannot see how we can initiate tax cuts."

A third official said:

"If we get a strong economic expansion and this is the probability—it would seem inappropriate to reduce taxes."

The fourth hinted that agreement had been reached to defer the tax decision until the end of the year, when "economic prospects may have clarified a lot." He said he expected the production and job outlook to be healthy enough to do away with the need for new stimulation of the economy through tax relief. As did the others, he asked not to be named.

Joe and Marilyn May Reconciliate Differences

By EARL WILSON

SAN FRANCISCO—The folks here in Joe Di Maggio's home town believe that Joe and Marilyn Monroe will once again "set up house-keeping."

I learned that when I flew out for the world premiere of Marlon Brando's picture about Napoleon, "Desiree."

Shimmy-shaker Sheree North, Debra Paget, Tommy Noonan and others came from Hollywood . . . Yet everywhere I heard boasts that the city's long-time hero, Joe, will soon be having Marilyn reconciling with him if he's really set his mind to it . . . And they think he's grimly serious about it now.

"He's really romancing her now," is the word in these hills. Marilyn's been invited up here by Joe for Thanksgiving—and we hear she's going to New York in December, to be followed there by Joe a week later.

"What is it about San Francisco that makes so many people say it's the greatest city in the world?" I'd been asking.

For people who've lived in such paradises as Ohio, Texas, Pennsylvania and New England come here just a few months . . . and become undyingly loyal.

Maybe that loyalty's part of its greatness.

Farmers Form Beaver Creek Watershed Unit

CALEDONIA, Minn.—The Beaver Creek Watershed Association was organized in the city hall here Friday night.

Olaf Kijome, Arnold Onstad, Carmen Nohre, Silas B. Swenson, Albert F. Deters, Alfred Von Arx, Orville Omoot, Rudy Ranzenberg, Herbert Gerdes, George Bissen, Herman Bergsrud and Robert Wiste were named to a steering committee. More than 100 area farmers, county officials and businessmen attended. The Caledonia and Spring Grove commercial clubs were co-sponsors.

Speakers were Leslie Joerg, chairman of the Caledonia Commercial Club, who presided; the Rev. A. E. Engstrom, Trinity Lutheran Church, Spring Grove; Harold Poeschl, Soil Conservation Service farm planner; Orvin Strand, vice president of the Caledonia CC; Ervin Barth, secretary of the East Willow Creek Watershed, Fillmore County; Vincent Miller, Rushford, a member of the Rush-Pine Creek flood conservancy district board; Wayne Hanson, Houston County agent, and Harlie Larson, county agent, soils. He showed a film "Valley of Still Waters."

Members of the nominating committee were Howard Thies, chairman; Chester Nelson, Thomas Moen, Hollis Omsgard and Lawrence Wagner. Among those attending were John Goetzinger and A. B. Rosasen, members of the county board; Donald Keith, Caledonia; Boyde Anderson, Spring Grove; George Schoen, Houston; vocational agriculture instructors; Ray Walker, veterans instructor; John Rydberg, farm home administrator; Harry Schuldt, chairman; James McManis, vice chairman; and Ed Albrecht, vice chairman of the Root River Soil Conservation District, and George Moriarty, SCS. Refreshments were served by the two commercial clubs.

They brought us tons of delicacies. We crossed the Golden Gate Bridge next day to feast on crab—it's the season—at Sam's Anchor Cafe in the beautiful little spot of Tiburon. The seagulls and pelicans flew and dived nearby, and we saw a woman in a bathing suit, this November time.

It's real nice up here . . . and San Franciscans think Marilyn will probably be finding this out eventually.

Soviet Calendar For '55 Solves All Problems

By RICHARD KASISCHKE

MOSCOW (U)—The Soviet calendar for 1955 gives the people everything from historic dates to lessons on the evils of capitalism and treating snakebite with vodka.

And all this for 4 rubles ($1 at the official rate). It comes in desk-pad form and also can be affixed to a wall holder.

The calendar is printed by the State Publishing House of Political Literature and on its small pages, only a few inches square, you can read not only how a heroic Soviet milkmaid gets her cows to produce more, but a Russian view that New York City treats its poor badly.

The little calendar is political instruction for old and young in the best Marx-Leninist vein. It also has true-life adventure stories and even chess and checkers tips.

For all Soviet citizens—peasants or city dwellers who queue to buy milk—there may be inspiration in the account contributed on a calendar page by a champion milkmaid of the Moscow region. She says she increased production by improved feeding methods and "giving much attention to the upbringing of the young cows."

Farmers and city dwellers get instructions on sowing vegetables and cross-planting potatoes. And for evening relaxation they get crossword puzzles.

For Mama there are instructions on handling baby's laundry, cooking recipes and how to "curb children's caprices."

There are dozens of articles telling Russian children and adults how bad things are in the United States, and how much better they have it here in the Soviet Union.

The recommended "snakebite treatment" says vodka is "even better" than boiling water for washing the wound.

Drivers Not Hurt In Arcadia Accident

ARCADIA, Wis. (Special)—Two area men escaped injury late Sunday afternoon when their cars sideswiped on the Arcadia-Dodge road.

Involved were cars driven by Tony Thomas, Arcadia, and Lewis Pronschniske, Mondovi. Thomas, who was headed toward Dodge, met the Pronschniske car on a curve, sideswiped it and then lost control, an investigating official said. Thomas' car went off the left side of the road and smashed into a tree stump.

Neither man was injured. They were traveling alone. The Thomas car is extensively damaged while the Pronschniske damage was negligible. Maurice Skow, county traffic officer, investigated.

Olmsted County Farm Bureau Asks Tax Change

ROCHESTER, Minn. — The Olmsted County Farm Bureau wants "sweeping changes" in the Minnesota property tax system.

Meeting here Sunday, the group urged the action "because farm lands and property are over-assessed in comparison with city property."

By resolution, the organization also favored:

Solution to the farm problem without reducing production; limiting length of trucks on highways; requiring slow moving vehicles to display both red and blue lights for safety; and more severe jail sentences for drunken drivers.

The county group opposed school reorganization "in its present form" and a general sales tax.

Balloon's Message Brings on the Law

CHICAGO (U) — Ten-year-old Terry Stromberg tied a message to a gas-filled balloon a week ago and set it loose at her Chicago home.

"Help, please" the message read. She signed her name and added her address.

Yesterday a farmer found the balloon in a field near Grand Junction, Mich., 75 miles northeast of Chicago, across Lake Michigan. He notified Michigan state police who, in turn, radioed Illinois police.

Two policemen went to Terry's home.

"Oh, I'm okay," the girl said.

Red Stocking Appeal Slated

The Winona County committee for the annual Little Red Stocking appeal of the Children's Home Society of Minnesota was announced today by J. Russell Smith, chairman.

Residents of the county will receive the letters next week.

"The work of the society is very close to the hearts of many people in this community," Smith remarked. "This is the seventh year in which the society has received the backing of local county and state committees. Although Winona County's response to the Little Red Stocking appeal has been increasing from year to year, we realize that we have not done enough yet. As long as the society is compelled to turn away children because of lack of funds, we are challenged to increase our efforts."

This year the society celebrated its 65th anniversary as Minnesota's only nonsectarian private adoption agency. It has served more than 7,500 children.

"Let's join together," Smith appealed, "and really respond to the needs of Minnesota's homeless children. Won't it be wonderful if, in 1955, the society can take care of every child needing its services because we did our part this anniversary year?"

Members of the county committee are: Alta, Leonard Sullivan; Dakota, John Donehower; Lewiston, Miss Gertrude Blanchard; St. Charles, Noble Robinson; Winona, John Ambrosen, Joseph B. Bamber, Donald W. Blake, Ralph Boalt, Clinton W. Dabelstein, Miss Irene Garrigan, Dr. L. F. Johnston, Dr. C. R. Kollofski, Mrs. Ward Lucas, Mrs. William M. Markle, J. R. McConnon, James L. Schlafer, Charles W. ## Wisconsin Woman Shoots Husband to Death in Quarrel

MONTREAL, Wis. (U) — Leo Darin, 40, was shot to death in his home here Sunday and Iron County Dist. Atty. George Sullivan said a warrant will be issued today charging the victim's wife, Helen, in his death.

Sullivan said Mrs. Darin signed a statement in which she admitted she shot her husband "in a fit of anger" during a family argument.

Mrs. Darin, 33 years old, was held in the Iron County jail at Hurley. Sullivan said she signed the statement Sunday night but that he needed additional time to study it before he issued the warrant.

Darin was struck down by the blast from a 12 gauge shotgun as he stood in the living room of the family's two-story home. The charge hit him in the side at the abdomen and he died in an ambulance on the way to a hospital.

He was a surface worker for one of the ore mining companies in this area.

Two of the family's three children, Marilyn, 17, and 7-year-old Bonnie, were home at the time of the shooting but Sullivan said they were not injured.

Death Traps A Gambler

Night rain! Cruel rain! Clawing at the windshield. Streaking like crazy under the rhythmic swish-swish of dead wiper blades. Country needs rain? Sure! But not like this.

Homebound—alone—half-blinded—the driver slows to twenty. Then fifteen. Headlight glare pounds at his tired eyes. If only he could see for sure a little of the road! If only those were live, new wiper blades! His wife had urged him yesterday—again—to have a pair slipped on. Takes almost no time at all. But he forgot.

Rain drumming, drumming, on the roof of the car. Even side windows drenched blind. His car swerves sharply to a gust of wind. That does it! He'll pull off the road until the rain stops! But he can't see a spot. Headlights close behind him. A horn blasting. The threat of being crushed from the rear frightens him.

Why hasn't his serviceman suggested new blades? He sees him often. Blades don't cost too much. Let's see. Maybe a couple of bucks a pair. Could be more for curved windshields. He'd give twice that now—yes, or three times—or anything!

Now he knows! He has gambled his life against a mere two or three bucks. Seems stupid! Neighbor Jones, he remembers, carries in his car a spare pair of blades to slip on first time the old ones start streaking. Kinda smart! There's a service station somewhere ahead. Get blades there. A trucker's stop, with coffee and food. Could use a cup or two of coffee. How many miles?

Coming again! Those blurs of maddening light. Ridges of water streaking beneath his wiper blades grab that light. Twist it to fiery rainbows. He hugs what he hopes is his side of the road. The heavy truck roars past. His car shivers. Safe! Dear God! He missed that one! How long will it rain? He turns on the radio.

The rain slows to a drizzle. But the streaks are still there. Rain stops briefly. A snorting truck tosses a torrent of blinding road muck against his windshield. The muck streaks worse! He clutches the wheel. Stares wildly at weird patterns writhing on the glass. Looks like he's trapped. Trapped by his weather-beaten wiper blades.

More rain! Hard rain. More lights looming ahead! He braces himself. Dead blades! Streakers! Treacherous things. Very next chance he'll change them. Can't risk the wife and kids getting caught in spots like this. Wonderful pals, that family of his.

Twin balls of fire zoom closer. If only he could see! Pinwheels of blazing light tear at his tortured eyes. Blind him completely. He grips the wheel in panic. Sweat streams down his face. He screams a prayer as his car bounces off the mammoth truck and rolls.

"Funny thing," said the cop to the ambulance man. "When I first got to the car I thought he was talkin'. But it was the crazy car radio. Still runnin'. Our highway safety chief broadcastin'—telling us how wiper blades don't really wear out. Warnin' they all just sort of dry up. Look OK. But lose their bounce. Then start streakin'."

"This is it, all right," the cop went on. "Darndest feelin' I ever had. Poor devil, there in the car! His neck all twisted out o' shape. And me thinkin' he was doin' the talkin'. Pity he couldn't have heard it all—yesterday!"

Future Farmers a Cause for Pride

Amid all the commotion about juvenile delinquency, it should be noted that there still remains a large body of youth in which this nation can take pride. Too often they go unnoticed while attention is focused on the delinquent minority.

Representing the youths in whom this nation can safely place its trust for the future are the youngsters who recently won the Future Farmer of America awards for their achievements. The top award went to Burd Schantz, of Alburts, Pa., who in seven years built up his investment in farming to about $80,000.

Young Schantz, after his father died, converted his family's 65-acre farm, which had been devoted to poultry, into a mechanized dairy business. He bought his first registered Holstein heifer calf in 1947 with money earned from raising chickens, and now has 22 cows in addition to 1,200 capons, as well as acreage devoted to corn, small grains and pasture.

The other award winners were honored for achievements equally impressive. They include youths who, out of their own earnings, have bought partnerships in thriving farms; who, by persistence, have restored to productivity hundreds of acres once considered worthless; or who have electrified or modernized their farms.

These youths are representative of the 371,000 members of the Future Farmers of America. They certainly are reason for confidence in the future.

What Does Average American Think?

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

NEW YORK—The great profession of public relations is engaged in bringing pressures upon all of us to conform to notions which each side says represent majority opinion. If every time the phrase, "average American," is used one knew exactly what was meant, it would surely produce the evidence that there is no such creature, that most people think for themselves, more or less, and come to the very practical conclusion that we can only do the best we can in a very troubled and confused world. Certainly the recent election does not provide any guide to what the "average American" thinks about anything.

Alan Valentine, who used to be president of the University of Rochester and has held important positions in the government, recently wrote:

"Good citizens are recognizing that deference to popular opinion is their highest civic virtue, that he who questions the wisdom of the majority is unworthy of their tolerance, that private doubts cannot be harbored in democratic society. But there still remain, alas, intransigent reactionaries devoted to an outworn liberal tradition; there are still some self-opinionated descendants of Voltaire and Thomas Paine, and our universities still give asylum to perverse professors who are confirmed addicts of independent thought. Were it not for them, the nation might have already attained full cerebral standardization."

THIS I TOOK TO BE satire because it is in an article entitled, "A Modest Proposal For The Care And Use of Subversives," which is a reminder of Dean Swift's suggestion about eating babies to avoid famine in Ireland. Satirical as these sentences may be, the idea does prevail among too many of our citizens that because a government official says something, it is ipso facto true and should be accepted.

The citizen's problem, however, is not so much to accept judgments as it is to get at facts; what he is being fed, even in the news, is propaganda from a thousand sources. The "self-opinionated descendants of Voltaire and Thomas Paine" need not all be so-called liberals; they may be—and I think most of them are—conservatives who form a minority in a world that is moving toward socialism.

After the United States went to war, we were all told that we must love our ally, Russia. A propaganda that reached down to the elementary grades in the schools told of the wonders of Soviet Russia. Anyone who questioned the wisdom of this propaganda was called a Fascist, pro-Nazi, pro-Japanese, a Hitler-defender, an anti-Semite.

Then when the cold war started we were all supposed to change our minds like the Rockettes changed their steps. Suddenly, we were told how wicked the Russians really are. Now that "co-existence" is being thought of as a policy, we are supposed to think that when Stalin died, and Malenkov took his place, something suddenly happened to the Russian character and mentality which might make everything different. Presumably, when the Russians take their next step in the development of the Soviet Universal State, we shall be asked to change our minds again.

IT IS NOT SO LONG ago that this same kind of government propaganda was devoted to causing us to believe that Chinese Communists are not Communists at all but "agrarian reformers." I shall never forget listening to a businessman, who fancied himself as a great authority on foreign relations, telling me that he had it from substantial people that these Chinese Communists were not associated with the Russians at all; that they were only interested in land reform. When I told him about my personal experiences with these same Chinese Communists, from 1921 to 1931, he said, "Well, I have it from very substantial people that all they want is land reform." Then came the Korean War.

There is no greater pressure for conformity from the most ardent conservatives than from the government itself and to one who respects the memory of Voltaire and Thomas Paine, all intellectual goose-stepping is a mark of moral degeneration. When a congressional committee investigates subversion and espionage, it is not pressing for conformity it is investigating subversion and espionage, in which anyone may engage if he is willing to risk the consequences of violations of the law. There have always been men and women who forthrightly and courageously were willing to take that risk for what they believed to be true without hiding behind the Fifth Amendment or any other device.

ROSE BETWEEN TWO THORNS

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Cordon Bemoans Lack of GOP Funds in Oregon

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Lame-duck Sen. Cordon of Oregon held an urgent, private conference last week with Jim Murphy, national chief of the Citizens for Eisenhower Organization. With him was Oregon's national Republican committeeman, Jesse Gard. Cordon complained that his campaign for re-election had gone $28,000 in the red, and he

Murphy was anything but receptive. If he did that, he replied, he would also have to make up campaign losses in Michigan and West Virginia—which would cost $200,000 and more than the Citizens for Eisenhower could afford. Besides, Murphy added, the organization was folding up and moving its furniture out.

Angry Cordon claimed that Citizens for Eisenhower had promised to pay $750 to install telephones for the phone campaign—calling up people to get out the vote. The senator said he was able to get the phones installed for only $540, yet he hadn't received a red cent from the organization. Murphy retorted that no one had authority to commit the Citizens for Eisenhower for the bill.

Calming down, Cordon said he didn't really care about the $540. What he was interested in, he said, was collecting $28,000 to pay his campaign bills, again, Murphy refused to put up the money.

Cordon then gloomily reported that the Republican party had gone to pieces in Oregon. It would have to be "rebuilt one thousand per cent up from the precinct level," he said.

As the conversation ended, Committee man Jesse Gard looked around the room and remarked: "I hope Drew Pearson isn't listening."

Surrender Terms
Senators on the McCarthy censure committee have been mystified over the sudden bolt of one of their members, Sen. Case of South Dakota, over to the McCarthy side. During secret debates on the McCarthy censure resolution, Case gave no hint that he was not in full agreement with the other committee members. So it was a shock when he rose on the Senate floor to try to find an alibi for the man he had hitherto opposed.

When pressed later for an explanation, Case merely said he was under great pressure. But he refused to say why he was compelled to do what he didn't want to do.

However, here is the explanation: The McCarthy forces, got to Governor-elect Joe Foss in South Dakota, and he in turn notified Case that if he didn't reverse himself on censuring McCarthy, he, Foss, would run against him for re-election.

Foss is a popular war hero who led the Republican ticket in South Dakota and was partly responsible for pulling Sen. Mundt through to victory. He is also a strong McCarthy man. Case comes up for re-election in a scant two years, and if the new governor ran against him he might well be defeated.

That was why the senator from South Dakota suddenly reversed himself on McCarthy.

Ike's Alarm Clock
President Eisenhower has developed a unique way of stopping long-winded conferences. He tried it out the other day during the two-and-a-half-hour meeting between Democratic and Republican leaders when John Foster Dulles got involved in a long and tedious, intricate "briefing" on foreign policy.

As Dulles droned on and on, leaders of both parties began to fidget in their chairs. Ike recognized this and looked at his state

Belgians Want Arms For Germany

By HAL BOYLE

BRUSSELS (AP)—Leaves from a Belgian notebook:
The Belgian people are heartily in favor of rearming their big German neighbors, who overran them in two great world wars in a single generation.

Many visitors find this hard to understand. To the ordinary Belgian it is merely a matter of accepting the hard facts of geography.

The soil of Belgium literally has been reddened by the blood of millions of men through the centuries. Waterloo, Ypres, Bastogne—these famous battlefields are known to every American high school student. But any high school student here could name you a dozen more great battles fought in the area of Belgium, from Roman times until now.

Belgium in wartime is simply an accordion of anguish—squeezed back and forth by the armies of bigger powers.

That is why even Belgian underground leaders who fought fiercely against the Nazis now are in favor of rearming Germany," explained an American who lives here. "They know it is impossible to keep the Germans permanently disarmed, and they are in favor of any plan that will make all their big neighbors allies instead of enemies."

There are no signs of combat fatigue in Belgium, no exhaustion of the spirit, no frustrated sense of bitterness against the present, such as visitors sometime say they see in France.

A tidy people in a tidy country, the Belgians are bouncing into the second half of the 20th century with the eager resiliency of a rubber ball.

This small land, welding as it does the Teutonic and Latin strains of European culture, is a little living museum, crowded with the treasured masterpieces of the past. No country its size has so many historic objects worth picturing on postcards.

But while he admires these old glories, the ordinary Belgian isn't overwhelmed by them. He is almost as gadget-crazy as an American, and if his home doesn't have every labor-saving device on the market it is for only one reason—he can't afford them. But he is eager to try new things, and new ways of doing old things better.

The cleanliness of Belgium's ancient cities and small towns puts America's newer metropolises to shame. The grime of time has left a pleasant patina of age upon ancient buildings, but the streets and sidewalks are spotlessly clean.

Memo to any American mayor: Why not send the head of your local department of sanitation over here on an inspection trip to find out how the Belgians do it?

Belgium, more densely crowded than China, is plagued at present by considerable unemployment. But there is practically no emigration from the country.

The hard-working Belgian, if he is out of a job, prefers to stick it out in his own country until times improve. But there is no beggary.

In New York you see plenty of street panhandlers every day. In a week here I haven't encountered one.

The loneliest Belgian alive is perhaps former King Leopold, who abdicated in favor of his son, Baudouin. He never appears in public here, spends much of his time abroad.

The resentment of his people, stirred by Leopold's wartime re-

THE WORLD TODAY

Delay May Not End McCarthy Hearing

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Failure of the Senate in 1954 to reach a vote on censuring Sen. McCarthy wouldn't necessarily end the matter. The Senate could resume study of the problem as soon as the Democrats took over Congress in 1955.

It could be done by a simple majority vote on a resolution next year to take up McCarthy's case again. No doubt McCarthy's Senate friends would fight it.

Such a fight could delay the new Senate's legislative work for weeks. More time would be used if a majority approved the resolution and, in due course, got around to debating censure again.

A week ago the Senate seemed to have sufficient time to reach a vote. It came back Nov. 8 to consider censure and had until its deadline of Dec. 24 to finish up. But last week, after McCarthy went to the hospital with a bruised elbow and Congress' official doctor said he would not be fit to return to the Senate for at least 10 days, the Senate recessed until Nov. 29.

If he returns that day his friends, although he reportedly wants a vote, may filibuster to prevent voting before Christmas Eve. If there's no vote by then, there can be none in 1954. Several of McCarthy's friends have said there will be no effort to prevent a decision this year.

It's anybody's guess what the Senate will do if McCarthy or a doctor says he can't return Nov. 29.

This is why the Senate must vote by Dec. 24 or not at all in 1954:

Any legislation—a resolution comes under that head—offered in a Congress, ends with that Congress. It does not carry over into the next Congress.

On Aug. 2 the present Senate approved a resolution—No. 301—setting up a select committee to consider charges that McCarthy's conduct should be censured. The committee was headed by Sen. Watkins (R-Utah).

Any action the present Senate took on Resolution No. 301 would have to be completed before the 84th Congress took over. If the 84th wanted to resume the McCarthy case, it could do so only by a new resolution.

On Aug. 20, with its business finished for the year, the House adjourned. It could not return unless President Eisenhower called it back in special session. But on Aug. 20 the Senate was far from finished.

It would have to consider censure for McCarthy if the Watkins committee recommended that, as it did later. So House and Senate agreed that the latter could go on working but no later than Dec. 24.

The Senate could not continue debate on McCarthy beyond Dec. 24 unless the House came back and voted approval. Eisenhower would hardly call a special session just for that.

But next year's Senate could pick up the problem of censuring McCarthy if a senator introduced a resolution to do so and a majority approved.

He Loses by Inches, Then Tries for Foot

MAUSTON, Wis. (AP)—Donald Sharpe, 20, Sun Prairie, was wounded in an accident that added injury to his.

Sharpe's day was already spoiled Saturday before he bent down to pick up his partner's gun and was shot accidentally in the left foot by the weapon.

A few minutes before the accident, Sharpe had shot a deer but couldn't keep it.

A warden came along, measured the deer's horns, found they were a fraction of an inch shorter than the required minimum and confiscated the deer.

First aid treatment at a Mauston hospital fixed Sharpe's foot.

Screw propellers were first used about 1836.

Dr. Sheppard Trial Enters Sixth Week

CLEVELAND (AP) — While the murder trial of Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard entered its sixth week today, police investigated a former convict's story that his burglar pal may have slain the osteopath's wife.

Frail, mild-mannered Henry Fuehrer, 51, walked into a police station in a Cincinnati suburb yesterday and announced, "I've got something on my chest."

Then, officers said, he told of going to Bay Village on a burglary mission the night of July 3 and fleeing in panic after he heard yells, cursing and scuffling come from behind a house his companion had entered. Pregnant Marilyn Sheppard was found bludgeoned to death in her bed early in the morning of July 4.

Fuehrer was brought to Cleveland today for further questioning and to see whether he can identify the Sheppard house and a Cleveland bar in which he said he met his companion. He said he knew the other man only as "Pal."

Dr. Sheppard, on trial for his life, has contended his wife was killed by a tall, bushy-haired man who twice knocked him unconscious in a battle that raged through the house and down an outside stairway to the Lake Erie beach below it. The state accuses the osteopath of bludgeoning her to death during a quarrel over his affairs with other women.

Fuehrer described his companion as about 6 feet 3, a 200-pounder with "heavy, brownish-black hair."

U. S. fountain pen sales were about a million in 1950, but grew to about 42 million in 1953, plus about 122 million ball-point pens.

2 Badger Counties Report Increased U.S. Bond Sales

WHITEHALL, Wis. (Special) — Buffalo County residents have exceeded their quota for U.S. savings bonds but Jackson and Trempealeau counties are still short of their goals.

Purchases of E and H bonds in Buffalo County during the first 10 months of the year totaled $274,050, or 109.5 per cent of the quota for 1954. Jackson County, with purchases of $269,728 for the first 10 months, has attained 71.8 per cent of its quota.

October purchases in Trempealeau County were $49,165 and during the first 10 months of 1954, $455,773. That's 91 per cent of the goal.

Trempealeau County residents have during the first 10 months purchased 24.4 per cent more savings bonds this year than the same period last year; Buffalo County, 43 per cent more, and Jackson County, 4.9 per cent less.

For Wisconsin as a whole the increase in E and H savings bonds is 16.7 per cent over the purchases in 1953, and for the first 10 months is 81.3 per cent of the 1954 quota. It was reported that at the end of October over 40 million Americans held about $38 billion of E and H savings bonds, an all-time high.

Defense Raises Possibility of Sadistic Killer

CLEVELAND (U)—Could a "potential" lover with a sadistic sense of satisfaction have killed pregnant Marilyn Sheppard in a state of frenzy?

That was a question raised by Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard in a police statement read late yesterday at his first degree murder trial.

The 30-year-old osteopath is accused of killing his 31-year-old wife in the bedroom of their suburban Bay Village home last July 4.

The statement, which also touched on "other women" in the case, was read to the tense courtroom by Detective Robert F. Schotke, the first Cleveland policeman to reach the murder scene.

For the most part the statement, taken last July 10, had been a recital of events already disclosed. Then, as the slender officer read swiftly, these words suddenly jumped out:

Q. Do you know of any reason why someone else should have taken her life?

A. Possibly.

Q. Will you state the possibility?

A. Well, I don't know but I have heard of individuals who are maniacal enough that when they start something, and act like that, it becomes a compulsion, a means of satisfaction . . . or something of that nature. She has spurned lovers, potential lovers.

The courtroom suddenly became dead silent as the spectators tried to fathom the detective's hurried reading of the involved passage.

He went on without pause:

Q. How many of these potential lovers did she have?

A. Three that I know of and I am pretty sure more. I am certain that there were more.

Q. Have you told the police about the three and revealed their identity?

A. Yes.

A moment or two later the thin-haired police veteran finished reading the statement with a closing note by Dr. Sheppard that "hope you will give me the opportunity to give you additional information when and if I shall be able to remember or I find it."

Then Common Pleas Judge Edward Blythin called a recess and reporters closed in with requests for a look at the statement.

Later, the prosecution said it had no idea what Dr. Sheppard meant about the "potential lovers." But it insisted all three persons mentioned by the defendant had been "checked out completely and cleared."

The statement also revealed that police questioned Dr. Sheppard about his relationship with Miss Susan Hayes and Mrs. Julie Lossman.

Miss Hayes, a 24-year-old hospital technician, admitted she was intimate with Dr. Sheppard when he made a trip to California last March.

A short time after the Sheppard murder, Mrs. Lossman, wife of the owner of a motor sales company, also admitted to police that she had gone on "hugging and kissing" dates with the handsome defendant.

Freight Derails, Stalls 2 Passenger Trains Overnight

GREENRIVER, Utah (U)—Some 200 railroad passengers spent last night stalled in Utah and Colorado because of a freight train wreck that tore up between 200 and 300 feet of track.

Crews of the Denver & Rio Grande Western Railroad worked all night trying to clear the wreckage.

Thirty-eight cars of the 108-car D&RGW freight jumped the rails when this east central Utah town shortly before 11 noon yesterday.

Railroad officials said none of the five crewmen were hurt.

Stalled in Grand Junction, Colo., was the road's California Zephyr, westbound from Chicago. Tied up at Helper, Utah, was the east-bound Prospector.

4 Stores Damaged In Lock Haven Fire

LOCK HAVEN, Pa. (U)—A million-dollar fire that funneled through an old brick building and sent up billowing columns of smoke damaged four stores and for a time threatened an entire block of the main business section yesterday.

Some 300 volunteer firemen called from nearby communities battled more than seven hours before controlling the worst blaze in city history. At least 25 persons were treated at Lock Haven Hospital, mostly for smoke inhalation.

Two firemen suffered injuries when a ladder collapsed and when another ladder fell.

An undetermined number of families living in apartments above the four stores were routed.

Fire Chief Harry Kasey said the loss would be "a minimum of a million dollars" but declined to give any further estimate.

Sun-Powered Radio Transmitter Shown

CHICAGO (U)—General Electric Corp. exhibited a sun-powered radio transmitter the size of a pack of cigarettes at the annual meeting of the Radio Television News Directors Assn.

A selenium converter turns sunlight into electric energy and transmitters take the place of conventional electron tubes.

But the radio's effective range is only 100 feet. You can holler much farther than that.

Father Gives Child To Stranger He Met in Tavern
MILWAUKEE (U)—Donna Slusarz, 8, of Milwaukee, was home again Sunday but she isn't sure she wants to stay.

Her father, Andrew Slusarz, 33, gave Donna away to a stranger he met in a tavern Saturday, Lt. Clarence Burns, of the sheriff's department, said.

The father's chance acquaintance, Joseph Kolago, 48, drove Slusarz home. Slusarz introduced the man to his three children, Barbara, 5, Jenny, 3, and Donna. When he met Donna, Kolago remarked, "I would like to have a little girl like that."

"Go ahead, and take her — you can have her. I'll send her clothes along Monday," Kolago quoted Slusarz as saying.

Kolago told police he thought the man was joking, but when Slusarz insisted he drove the girl to his home.

When Mrs. Slusarz came home she asked, "Where's Donna?" "I gave her away to some guy," her husband replied.

Mrs. Slusarz picked up the telephone and called police. When detectives arrested Slusarz, Detective Burns quoted him as saying "If I want to give away any of my kids, I can. If you think you can put me in jail for that, go ahead and try."

Held in jail without charge, Slusarz said he had not intended to give Donna away "for keeps."

"It was just good experience for her to mix with strangers," he said. Meanwhile, Kolago had also called police and brought Donna home in tears.

'Up In Central Park,' Another Hit for St. Mary's

By MAY MURRAY
Women's Activities Editor

Take politics and love, with a dash of devil-may-care Irish, a strong peppering of graft and a topping of gay music and colorful dance and you have the recipe used to provide fare which titillated the audience at the presentation of "Up In Central Park" under the direction of Brother James Luke at St. Mary's College Sunday evening.

The musical satire by Herbert and Dorothy Fields with music by Sigmund Romberg, salutes the making of New York park on its 100th anniversary. Honored guest at a reception in the Cardinal Room at the college following last night's performance was Peter Campbell Brown, commissioner of investigation, New York City, who spoke briefly immediately after the play adding his bit to the play's appraisal of the political scene. He represented Mayor Robert Wagner of New York City.

The play is to be repeated today and Tuesday at 8:15 p.m. at the college by the Burbage Players of the college who are being assisted by the Teresian Players of the College of Saint Teresa.

Clear, effortless voices with rounded tone quality marked the leads in the play. Chorus work was balanced and zestful and exact diction added to the audience's enjoyment of the songs ranging from the melodic, lovely "It Doesn't Cost You Anything to Dream" to the gay 90's number "The Fireman's Bride." Special coaching of musical numbers was by Brother H. Paul.

Miss Ellen McCarty's lovely soprano starred in "Carousel in the Park" and in several duets with Edgar Stahl who played the New York Times reporter, John Matthews. Miss McCarty as Rosie Moore was the spark which set off the flamboyant finale of the first act in the music hall number, "The Fireman's Bride."

Smooth, strong voice Mr. Stahl displayed a smooth, strong voice in his numbers, offering solo work of exceptional quality in "When She Walks in the Room," "Close as the Pages in a Book" and "April Snow."

Another personality and another voice with clarity and ease was that of Miss Jone Starr and Bessie O'Canane.

Keep in Trim

Post Progress
Record to Aid
Your Dieting

BY IDA JEAN KAIN

Each shared experience helps to renew enthusiasm. Dieters offer this suggestion to overweights who are in need of encouragement: Keep a record of your progress, either in the form of a charted graph, a weight record, or pictures which show size changes. Keep such a reminder handy, either in your pocketbook or on the dressing table mirror. Some dieters post the progress record on the inside of the refrigerator or cupboard door. If placed where you can see it when the going gets tough, this serves to enliven your interest.

Reports from other dieters spur you on. Today's letter is from a woman who reduced in order to bring down her blood pressure and improve her health. Her words carry conviction.

"The doctor said if I would follow a diet and reduce my weight, which was 289½ pounds, I would also reduce my blood pressure, which was up to 264. In a year's time, I reduced 93½ pounds, and my blood pressure now stays between 130 and 145.

"I was in very bad shape with an arthritic condition. The doctor explained that I was aggravating two awfully bad knees by carrying almost 300 pounds with each step. Well, I am happy to say I am feeling 100 per cent better. All who know me say I look so much younger, not nearly my age, which is 59. I get around every day of the year. I feel fit at the end of the day. I never felt weak or aching while dieting for I ate well. I don't advise anyone to keep unhealthy flesh, for it slows you down and makes you miserable.

"I now wear clothing 11 sizes smaller, which alone is something to be happy about. This letter is just to say a sincere thank you for your daily column... thought you would like to learn of further good work you are doing."

I know from the letters that reports such as this one give encouragement to struggling dieters. Also, they are enormously heartening to this dietitian.

Many of you ask if appetite curbers and reducing medications make reducing easier. Sometimes they help an overweight to start reducing. However, from the majority of letters, it appears that when you reduce with a "crutch" of this kind and depend on it, the results are always temporary. When you make up your mind to reeducate yourself as to food habits, and learn to eat for normal weight—you do it for keeps! That's a real triumph.

Send long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for Energy Boosting Diet and Take Your Choice Diet. Address request to Ida Jean Kain, care of The Winona Daily News. Post card requests cannot be answered.

Her Streetcar Pass
Took Firemen for Ride

MILWAUKEE (U)—A Reedsville, Wis., woman was headed for the railroad depot Sunday to return home when she remembered she had not returned the streetcar pass she had borrowed from her niece.

A pedestrian suggested a police car might return it for her and pointed to a police and fire alarm box at a downtown intersection.

Police said the woman, Miss Mary Wheeler, pulled the fire alarm hook by mistake instead of using the police telephone.

Three engine companies, two truck companies, a fireboat, a hose company, a rescue squad and two battalion chiefs turned out.

Authorities said Miss Wheeler was not charged. At last report she still had the pass.

Grandpa's Run
Scores a Hit,
House Off Base

MORGAN, Minn. (U)—Grandpa got his 'gears' mixed up and knocked a two-story house off its foundation here Sunday.

Will Bohn, about 70, returned home after taking his grandson, Jerry Wagner, for a ride. Jerry's father, Marvin, picked the boy up and started off, expecting Bohn to follow in his car.

Instead, the grandfather put his car in reverse and barreled backwards down the street for 250 feet before slamming into the Otis Hopp home. The Hops were not at home at the time.

The impact knocked the six-room house off its foundation, crumbling part of the foundation where the car hit. A few boards were broken in the side of the house and power lines were snapped, causing flames to spurt from basement windows.

The fire department was called, but there was no fire damage. Bohn was not hurt. He said he had no explanation for what had happened.

The Casual Observer

By GRETCHEN L. LAMBERTON

THE other night some 40 people from the Winona area and several hundred from around Wisconsin witnessed a unique and absorbing form of entertainment at the indoor arena of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Dale in Onalaska. The world's foremost instructor of cowboys, Monty Foreman, showed movies of some of the top cowboys in the country—his pupils—performing difficult maneuvers with their quarter horses. With it he gave commentary and criticism and explained just what was well done and what was wrong.

Most of the "wrong" came from the fact that even expert riders changed the lead of the horse's front legs when turning a galloping horse but completely neglected the important lead-change of the hind legs. This meant that the horse's front and back legs were working at cross purposes, the horse was unable to use the proper hind leg as a pivot in fast turns, much time was lost and consequently fewer cattle were cut.

Monty explained how the front and back legs of a horse MUST change leads simultaneously or the result is like two dancers out of step and stumbling over each other. It means rigorous training for the horse and even more exacting work by the rider. These simultaneous lead changes are accomplished by a delicate combination of knee pressure, heel pressure and light but firm work with the reins, and when perfectly done it's a beautiful thing to watch.

These last few years Monty has taught the greatest cowboys in the country this difficult but very necessary trick, and the result is an amazing speedup in cow cutting. For the past two years Richard King who owns the great million-acre King Ranch in Texas (as well as several piffling little plots of two and three-hundred thousand acres) has hired Monty to train his cowboys in this art.

The pictures were fascinating. One saw the greatest cowboys in the west and south in action cutting out cattle, first in the old way with horses legs working at cross purposes, taking twice as much time to turn, pivoting awkwardly, losing many cows; then in Monty's "simultaneously lead-change" manner with horse pivoting swiftly and effortlessly on the inner leg.

It's a thrilling sight to watch a well-trained quarter horse neatly change front and back leads at command. Some of the pictures were incredible. There were movies of the greatest cutting horses in the U.S. cutting cows. Monty in the saddle simply dropped the reins and let the horse get the cow, charging it, blocking it, edging it deftly into the proper corner. And what a glorious game the horses seemed to think it was!

At the conclusion of the movies Monty mounted his black and white spotted horse and in the fenced-in indoor arena gave demonstrations of everything he teaches cowboys. Young Jack Brahnard, the Vern Dale's trainer, then put a promising young three-year-old buckskin quarter horse through many maneuvers, with Monty commenting and criticizing.

In addition to a number of members of the Valley Riders Club there were representatives from the Rushford Riders, Circle A from Spring Grove, the Chatfield Saddle Club, the Eau Claire Trail Riders, the Sparta Riders, the Cashton Saddle Club, and other Wisconsin clubs from farther away.

From Winona we noted Mr. and Mrs. Willard Woll, Tom Kidd; Mrs. Lewis Younger and Mrs. Nora Morgan with a careful of youngsters—Nancy Younger, Diane Mason, Gale and Allen Goetzman; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stein and Bob Jr., Mrs. Ed Holehaus, Don Gensmer, Mr. and Mrs. Cy Hedlund, Mr. and Mrs. R. Flathe, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Kloetzke, Mr. and Mrs. Carlus Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hahn.

From Wilson: Don Douglas, Edward Ebert, Elmer Elfman. From Minnesota City: The R. Chalmers family, Mr. and Mrs. J. Krage. From Rushford: Lyle Reishus, Eno Morken and Earl Anderson and wife. Also noted Judy Just of Harmony, Tommy Little of Eleva, Wis., Charles Wunderlich of Fountain City, the Art Lewis family from Cochrane, the Harold Kniegers of Sparta, the Guy Woodwards of Galesville, Dr. N. A. Moen of Cashton, Jerry Gilbert and Mary Anne McDonald of Black River Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Merkey of Antigo, Wis.

Psychiatrist Killed, Patients Checked In Hunt for Slayer

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Police here planned a check of records on all Veterans Administration patients examined by murdered psychiatrist Elinor M. Langton.

Dr. Langton, 52, chief of the Mental Hygiene Clinic of the Veterans Administration Hospital here for three years, was found dead Saturday on the rear floor of her car, parked in nearby Chester.

Found in the car was a belt which police said apparently came from an Army-issue coat. Investigators theorized that she may have been murdered by a veteran whose claim for compensation she had disallowed.

An autopsy showed there was a possibility Dr. Langton was still alive when her assailant left her. Dr. William Miller of the Fitzgerald Mercy Hospital in suburban Upper Darby, who performed the autopsy, said she may have strangled on her own salivary fluid and that a partial dental plate had slipped down into her throat. Her head and pelvic area were battered but she was not assaulted sexually, Dr. Miller said.

'Baldies' Advised Best Remedy Is Good-Looking Hat

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—A University of Michigan doctor says if your mother and father are bald and your head is taking on the proportions of a billiard ball, the only answer is a good-looking hat.

Dr. Thomas G. Jansen of the university's Medical School, says he recommends throwing away hair lotions and advises persons not to be misled by advertisements. "Just recognize the inevitable and adjust accordingly," says the skin specialist.

Advising women on home waves and dyes, the doctor says: "If you have noted any skin changes following the use of home waves or dyes it would be wise not to use them again. Severe reactions could follow continued use."

'Christmas' Still Present in Russia

MOSCOW (AP)—Down in southern Russia, 37 years after the Bolshevik Revolution, a little village is still called "Christmas."

"Somehow they never got around to changing the name," complains Komsomol Pravda, newspaper of the Young Communist League. Furthermore, the paper says, the people never got around to changing their churchgoing habits.

Autumn, after the harvest, is the traditional time for weddings in rural Russia and without fail, the paper complains, "there are marriages in churches—some of those getting married in church are even Komsomol members."

The paper quoted Maria Kudriatsova, district Komsomol secretary, as saying it was "only a habit," and asked: "Is it a good habit? No, it is bad. Must we fight against it? Yes, we must."

2 Escape as Bridge Collapses, Dunks Truck

TORONTO (AP)—Weakened by recent floods, a Toronto bridge collapsed last night and tumbled a truck 20 feet into a stream. The vehicle's two youthful occupants escaped.

Driver Bruce Logan, 21, said he saw the structure sag when his truck was in the middle. "I knew I'd never make it across," he said, "so I just hung on."

The truck landed upright with a steel girder on top, wedging the doors shut. The two youths smashed a window and scrambled up the bank. They suffered severe cuts and bruises.

Contrary to popular belief, most bats can see well in bright light.

Super Highway Plan Proposed For Wisconsin

U. S. Highways 12, 14 and 16 are among the Wisconsin highways proposed for a special class by Gov. Walter Kohler.

They would be built to meet superior standards of design and construction.

Gov. Kohler is expected to include the so-called 2,102-mile "arterial" highway proposal as one of his major recommendations to the 1955 Legislature. The idea is getting approval of major road user interests and has complete endorsement of the Wisconsin Highway Commission.

There are about 11,000 miles of road on the so-called "state trunk highway system." There are no classifications of state trunk roads under present law.

The 2,102 miles of super-roads would amount to about 18 per cent of the whole mileage for which the state accepts responsibility — out of about 90,000 miles of public road in the state — but those miles carry more than 40 per cent of all the vehicles on the system.

Harold L. Plummer, state road chief, has testified that the system could be built to planned standards during a 10-year period with an expenditure of $44 million dollars yearly above the spending now devoted to those roads. Such an additional budget could probably be accommodated within a 2 cent increase in the 4 cent state tax on motor fuels.

Some 450 of the 2,102 miles of arterial roads are classified as "interstate" roads under the federal government's aid program. Federal financing up to 80 per cent probably will be available for that portion, he said.

State's Share Set

Thus the state's portion of the super-road grid will amount to about 280 million dollars of the estimated cost of 554 million dollars, with 14 million dollars a year in new money required. Present state spending amounts to about 12 million dollars a year for those roads.

The roads proposed in the plan are U. S. 2 from Superior to Hurley, U. S. 12 from Illinois line to Minnesota line, U. S. 14 from Madison to La Crosse, U. S. 16 from La Crosse to Tomah, U. S. 18 from Prairie du Chien to Madison, State Highway 29 from Dunn County to Green Bay, State Highway 30 from Madison to Milwaukee, U. S. 41 from Illinois line to Michigan line, State Highway 42 from Manitowoc to Sturgeon Bay, U. S. 51 from Illinois line to Hurley, U. S. 53 from Eau Claire to Superior, State Highway 57 from Green Bay to Sturgeon Bay, U. S. 141 from Milwaukee to Michigan line, and U. S. 151 from Iowa line to Manitowoc.

Nationalists Say 2 Red Warships Sunk, 11 Routed

By SPENCER MOOSA
TAIPEH, Formosa (U)—Nationalist China claimed it sank two Red Chinese warships and routed 11 in a sea battle 12 miles southeast of the strategic Tachen Islands today.

The Defense Ministry did not say what type of Red warships was involved but they could have been armored junks, of which the Communists possess a great number.

In Tokyo, the Japanese coast guard reported that two Japanese fishing boats were machine-gunned and sunk by two unidentified gunboats about 20 miles east-southeast of the Tachens today.

Three Japanese fishermen were killed and three injured. Two other Japanese fishing boats rescued about 18 crewmen of the two boats sunk, coast guard headquarters reported.

The coast guard said it had ordered two armed patrol ships to investigate.

A coast guard report said, "some Japanese fishing boats have been warned to stay away from the area of Nationalist Chinese warships and today's incident indicates the fishermen may have closed in too much toward the coast."

Air force planes spotted the Red ships off the Tachens, the Defense Ministry said. Nationalist vessels sped to the scene.

Some of the 11 ships that escaped toward the Red China coast possibly were damaged, the ministry said.

Official quarters said it was possible the Reds had intended to make a sneak attack on the Tachens, northern anchor of Nationalist offshore bases 200 miles north of Formosa.

Only yesterday President Chiang Kai-shek warned that Red air attacks against Formosa were inevitable.

Jackson Co. Resident Returns From Europe

BLACK RIVER FALLS, Wis. (Special)—Miss Dorothy Hilton, Jackson County's first International Farm Youth Exchange student, has returned home after a five-month stay in England and Wales.

Miss Hilton, 23, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hilton, North Bend, will now devote two months to showing colored slides and giving lectures and telling of her experiences there. She gave up her position on the faculty of the Gale-Ettrick High School to make the trip which started in June.

The first of her illustrated lectures will be given for Jackson County residents at the Black River Falls High School Nov. 29 at 8 p.m.

Cordon Concedes Defeat in Oregon

PORTLAND, Ore. (U)—Republican Sen. Guy Cordon, who lost the Nov. 2 U.S. senatorial election in Oregon to Democrat Richard L. Neuberger by 2,462 votes, conceded defeat yesterday.

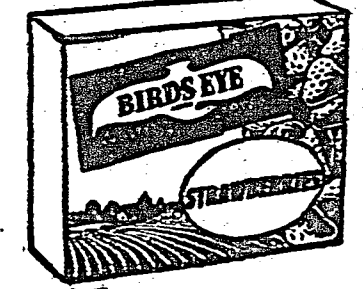

He sent Neuberger a telegram saying: "The people of Oregon have spoken. You face an onerous task, a tremendous responsibility. I wish you success."

The official canvass completed last Thursday showed Neuberger received 283,313 votes.

Russians Seem Resigned to German Plan

WASHINGTON (U) — The Soviet government apparently has concluded a policy reappraisal and decided against paying a high price — in either concessions or threats — to block Western rearming of West Germany, American officials believe.

Russia's latest moves to prevent the conversion of West Germany into a member of the anti-Soviet defense alliance are considered here obviously lacking in boldness and effectiveness.

This is taken to mean that in a sense the Soviet government is resigned to German rearmament. The interpretation is that the Kremlin may have reached this attitude because (1) it was unwilling to let Germany be unified on Western terms and (2) it was unwilling to threaten seriously use of military forces against the west.

U.S. Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen is due here from Moscow, probably tomorrow, for talks opening Wednesday with President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles on Soviet policy and the state of relations between the United States and Russia.

Dulles and French Premier Mendes-France announced Saturday that in their view the Western Powers should come through with "early ratification" of the agreements to make West Germany a defense partner. They thus rejected a public offer by Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov to delay a European security conference he has proposed provided the Western Powers were willing to delay ratification of the German treaty. Dulles and Mendes-France, winding up four days of talks here, said that once the treaties are ratified they would be ready to go into "adequately prepared negotiations" with Russia, but "not into improvised debates intended mainly for propaganda."

State Consolidates Little Plum School

PEPIN, Wis.—The Little Plum School District, Town of Waterville, was consolidated with the Pepin-Maiden Rock District last week by action of the state Department of Public Instruction. The action has been pending for 10 months since a petition for consolidation was circulated in the Little Plum district in February. This was approved by the Pepin-Maiden Rock school board but was turned down by the Town of Waterville board. The state department took the matter under consideration April 20.

Little Plum, which has operated as an independent district, will join Joint District 1, village of Pepin, and towns of Pepin and Maiden Rock.

Industrial Mobilization Program Nearly Complete

WASHINGTON (U) — A Senate-House committee says the nation is "a long way toward achievement" of its industrial mobilization program but cautions against any slip below "maximum readiness for any emergency."

In its fourth annual report on national defense production and controls, the Joint Committee on Defense Production said last night, "large expansions in basic industries have materially increased the country's capacity to produce both for war and for peace."

The committee also reported that minimum goals in strategic materials stockpiles have been reached in some vital areas. Of the 75 materials being stockpiled, it said, 30 are at the minimum levels while only 18 are at less than 50 per cent of established goals.

Listed as the scarcest of critical materials were nickel, tantalum, selenium, titanium and strategic mica.

Noting big increases in industrial capacity since the mobilization program was launched during the early stages of the Korean War, the committee said: "Private industry has stepped up its rate of plant and equipment expenditures to nearly 28 billion dollars in 1953 compared to 19 billion dollars in pre-Korea. This is in contrast with World War II when government funds accounted for more than 70 per cent of the plant expansions."

The committee said more than 155 billion dollars have been appropriated since Korea for military procurement and construction. Of this total, some $92,900,000,000 worth had been delivered as of last June 30.

During the 12 months ended June 30, it said, delivery of guided missiles increased 104 per cent, ammunition 23 per cent, ships 6 per cent, electronics 6 per cent and aircraft 5 per cent.

H-Bomb's Use Slated for Western Europe

WASHINGTON (AP)—Plans for the defense of Western Europe now appear to include the use of the hydrogen bomb on the battlefield, to provide a crushing, all-destructive force where tactical nuclear fission bombs or projectiles might be inadequate.

Recent generalized and laconic references by American military officials to utilizing whatever weapons and tactics are required to counter aggression have been sharpened by a comment from the deputy supreme commander of Allied powers in Europe, Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery of Alamein.

The British strategist says: "I want to make it absolutely clear that we at SHAPE (the Paris headquarters of the supreme command) are basing all our operational planning on using atomic and thermonuclear weapons in our defense."

"With us it is no longer 'they may possibly be used.' It is very definitely 'they will be used, if we are attacked.'"

Montgomery made the significant statement in a lecture at London last month. A copy of the lecture became available in Washington today.

Montgomery arrives in Washington this week during a visit to the United States. On Wednesday, he is scheduled to meet with Pentagon officials and later to fly to Augusta, Ga., to spend Thanksgiving with President Eisenhower.

N.D. Governor Gashes Head in Stairway Fall

JAMESTOWN, N.D. (AP)—Gov. Norman Brundage of North Dakota suffered a gash on the head and a slight concussion in a fall on a stairway in a restaurant here late Sunday.

The 62-year-old state executive was admitted to a hospital here, where a physician told friends his condition appeared not to be dangerous. However, the doctor said Brundage should remain in the hospital two or three days.

Deposed Naguib Won't Face Trial

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—Egypt's government has said officially it won't put ousted President Mohamed Naguib on trial.

Guidance Minister Maj. Salah Salem told a delegation from the Sudan yesterday that Naguib would not be tried because this might give the enemies of the state a chance to divide the country. The ex-president was deposed last week after the military government accused him of acquiescing in a Moslem Brotherhood plot to assassinate Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser. The plot failed.

The Sudanese delegation, in Cairo to appeal on Naguib's behalf, announced later it agreed that the Egyptian government's drastic action was "inevitable to safeguard the high interest of the state."

Naguib was born in the Sudan and is popular in the Upper Nile region. The Egyptians are trying to persuade the Sudanese they should link themselves with Egypt.

Church of England Seeks Change in Appointment Plan

LONDON (AP)—The Assembly of the Church of England has called for a change in the method of appointing its bishops and deans—a function in which Britain's Prime Minister has an important role.

A resolution approved by the Assembly recently said the present system "is open to objection and should be modified." It did not indicate what changes should be made.

A church spokesman said the resolution was considered at present only an expression of opinion and would not be pushed at this stage.

The Church of England is Britain's state church. The sovereign now makes the appointments on the "advice" of the Prime Minister. By custom, the Prime Minister first confers with the Archbishop of Canterbury, spiritual head of the church.

Like all prime ministers in the past 20 years except Neville Chamberlain, Prime Minister Churchill is a member of the church. Chamberlain was a Presbyterian.

The resolution objecting to the established appointment method was approved by the Assembly after Dr. Cyril Garbett, archbishop of York, told members it was wrong for a spiritual society to have its chief officers appointed by one who need not be either a churchman or a Christian.

He was joined by Lord Selborne, a prominent lay leader, who said there were fears that some future prime minister might not care about church appointments and might be open to bad advice.

21 Killed in New Tunisian Violence

TUNIS, Tunisia (AP)—French sources today reported 21 persons killed in a new clash between Tunisian nationalist rebels and French soldiers. The latest violence came on the eve of the anticipated announcement of a 10-day period of grace in which the rebels would be asked to lay down their arms.

The clash reportedly occurred in the Sidi Alche Mountains, about 25 miles north of Gafsa. The French said 20 guerrillas and 1 French soldier were killed, while 9 French were wounded and 3 rebels were captured.

The impending truce period was reported worked out last week in Paris by Tunisian and French officials.

Reports from Paris said the guerrillas would be treated as outlaws after the period of grace.

The surviving works of Aristotle mention about 170 species of birds.

BEDTIME STORIES

By HOWARD GARIS

Peetie Bow Wow was much surprised when he heard what his brother Jackie barked at him while the two puppy dog boys were in the cellar of Hollow Tree School. They were in the cellar because they had broken through the ice of the sliding pond and were wet and cold from the ice water.

Now they were dry, from having sat in front of the furnace fire, wrapped in some old dust cloths that Mr. Coke, the rat gentleman of the school, had kindly given them.

Now, ready to put back on again their own, dry clothes, Jackie and Peetie had wandered around the school cellar looking into different closets. Then, suddenly, Jackie, after opening one closet and barked something that surprised Peetie.

"What was it you said, Jackie?" asked Peetie as he looked at his brother, turning his head to one side so he could listen better with his left ear. There was a little water in Peetie's right ear, so he couldn't hear very well with that one. "What did you say, Jackie?"

"I said, Peetie," barked Jackie, "that I have found two Halloween goblins!"

"Oh, my goodness me sakes alive and a dog biscuit with chocolate frosting on it!" barked Peetie in surprise. "Two goblins? Where?"

"In this closet where Mr. Coke keeps his brooms and brushes," answered Jackie. "Come and take a look!"

"I don't want to," answered Peetie. "You look for me!"

"You aren't afraid, are you?" asked Jackie.

"Of course I'm not afraid! Why should I be afraid? What is there to be afraid of?"

"I thought maybe you might be afraid of the goblins, Peetie."

"Pooh! Fooie! Why should I be afraid of goblins? Didn't you say they were Halloween goblins?" barked Peetie.

"Yes, Peetie, I did. But Halloween is past. And if there are goblins in this closet, maybe they are real ones—you know, sort of left over like I wish you would come and look," went on Jackie.

"You can have my look," barked Peetie, walking back toward the warm furnace, with his dust rag baraboo trailing along the floor of the cellar. "Go ahead and take my look, Jackie!"

"No, I want you to come and look for yourself, Peetie. I want to be sure."

"Sure of what, Jackie?"

"I want to be sure that these are only Halloween suit goblins and not real ones. Please come and look," barked Jackie.

"All right, I will," bravely answered Peetie. He ran across the cellar and stood beside his brother Jackie, who was looking in the closet. In plain sight were what seemed to be two goblins. You know what goblins are, I think.

Just funny, jolly, make believe chaps who run around and have sport at Halloween. That's what Jackie and Peetie saw in Mr. Coke's closet—two Halloween goblin suits.

"I wonder why they are here?" asked Peetie.

"I don't know," answered Jackie. "But I think they—"

Suddenly one of the goblins seemed to reach out as if to catch hold of the little puppy dog boy.

"Oh, wow! Guffy!" barked Jackie. He started to run.

"What's the matter—silly?" growled Peetie.

"That goblin—it's alive! It's going to get me!"

"Don't be silly!" barked Peetie. "Ha! Ha! Ha! That goblin suit was just hanging on a broom handle. The broom tipped over and that's why the goblin suit seemed to be alive and jump at you!"

"Are you sure?" asked Jackie, slowly coming back.

"Sure," barked Peetie. "Look!" He showed his brother how the Halloween suit was caught on the broom handle. "But this gives me an idea, Jackie, boy!" barked Peetie.

"What idea?" asked Jackie.

"We're going to have a second Halloween!" answered Peetie.

"Listen!"

How the two little puppy dog boys celebrated a second Halloween will be told in tomorrow's story if the umbrella doesn't go out in the rain and get so wet that its handle turns soft and curls up like a pretzel playing tag with the wienerschnitzle.

One estimate indicates that America will have about five million college students in 1975 compared to about 2 1/2 million in 1953.

McNamara on All-Big Ten, Stamschror 2nd

J.C., Bolden Fall to Honorable Mention Spots

By JERRY LISKA

CHICAGO (AP) — Ohio State captured three berths, and six schools in all were represented on the 1954

All-Big Ten football team selected today by The Associated Press. Two sophomores, Purdue's sensational passing quarterback, Len Dawson, and Michigan's brilliant end, Ron Kramer, made the grade.

Besides the deadly-armed Dawson, the all-conference backfield had Ohio State's Howie (Hopalong) Cassidy and Minnesota's Bob (Big Mac) McNamara at halfbacks and Wisconsin's Alan (The Horse) Ameche at fullback.

Ameche was one of three repeaters from the AP's 1953 team. The two other holdovers were the guards in a 212-pound average all-star line, Tom Bettis, Purdue senior, and Cal Jones, Iowa junior. Paired with Kramer at end was Ohio State's 210-pound senior wingman, Dean Dugger. The other Michigan player honored was 218-pound tackle, Art Walker, a senior, while Ohio State's third All-Big Ten post went to senior tackle, Dick Hillsinski, the heaviest man on the team at 231.

Lightest lineman in the all-star array was Wisconsin's able center, Gary Messner, a 198-pound senior. Three players fell from top 1953 recognition, due to injuries and changes of team fortunes. Guard Jan Smid of Illinois was demoted to the second team, while halfback J. C. Bolden of Illinois and Le Roy Colborne of Michigan State dropped to only honorable mention. Injuries slowed both these stars of the 1953 co-championship teams.

BY RALPH REEVE

Answer, Please!

My roommate, John McCallum, said to me the other day, "A fellow called up while you were gone and wanted to know what team Ohio Graham played for. He sounded real disappointed when I told him the Cleveland Browns. . . . He probably lost a bet!"

Then John asked, "Do you get a lot of calls like that?"

Yup, we sure do, John. Every so often someone will call and ask a question to settle a bet and in cases like that, the caller usually says, "Here, tell my friend."

We got a call this season from a fellow with a dripping southern accent who wanted to know the score of the Clemson-South Carolina game. Sometimes fans are so eager for a result they get mixed up.

Friday afternoon, late, the phone rang and a man said, "How did Minnesota and Wisconsin come out?" We told him that they planned to play the game Saturday. "Oh my gosh," he said. "Today's Friday isn't it?" and hung up, embarrassed.

A wide variety of requests for information are made to newspapers. In Minneapolis one night a man called to find out the world's record for motorcycle uphill climbing. He found out, but I've forgotten since what it is. . . .

Later on that same evening a woman dialed and wanted to know the depth of Lake Miller. A fellow-worker facetiously suggested telling her to jump in and find out. She didn't have to resort to that however, because an outdoor writer was able to give an estimate.

Although we are busy in the morning and such calls sometimes interrupt writing a story when time is getting short, answering questions is interesting.

There are a large number of sports information sources. For organized baseball records, nothing beats the yearly Official Baseball Guide, published by the Sporting News in St. Louis. The University of Minnesota provides newspapers with a chart listing the score of every Minnesota football game since the sport was started at Gopherville.

Two valuable books which we plan to give to ourself for Christmas are the Encyclopedia of Sports and the Ring Record Book. The Encyclopedia of Sports is perhaps the most complete single volume of sports information.

The Ring Record Book is published yearly by Nat Fleischer and lists records of active boxers, present and past champions, title fights and miscellaneous data.

We keep files on local sports and results of area events. On questions concerning hunting and fishing, Lefty Hymes can usually provide the answer.

The city news staff also receives requests for information, sometimes nothing more than spelling of a word. The dictionary and World Almanac are two of any newspaperman's best friends.

With the help of record books, most of the questions get answered. And even if a puzzler comes in, it's fun trying to solve it even if we don't always succeed.

Here and There

Received a composite basketball schedule for the conference in which St. Mary's is a member.

The schedule came from the "Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Association" coordinator, Bill Haman. According to his version, which must be considered official, it would be MIAA. . . . A St. Paul newspaper calls it the "Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference," or MIAC, while a Minneapolis paper terms it the "Minnesota College Conference," or MCC.

For simplicity, our style will be "Minnesota College Conference," and "State Teachers Conference" for the circuit of which Winona State is a member. . . .

Bemidji Teachers may lose the services of cage star Red Caswell this season, who is slated to undergo an operation on an injured knee.

Ohio State and Southern Cal are scheduled to play in the Rose Bowl. We don't like the agreement between the two conferences eliminating the previous year's champion from playing in the Rose Bowl.

UCLA, Pacific Coast champion, isn't eligible this year. The Uclans beat Southern Cal 34-0 Saturday. Suppose Ohio State wins the Rose Bowl game. What does it prove? Pacific Coast fans will say it wouldn't have happened, had UCLA been the opponent.

Applying the same rules to other sports, the situation looks ridiculous. Suppose baseball moguls decided that the Cleveland Indians and New York Giants shouldn't have the chance to play in the World Series next year if they win pennants again?

Competitive sports are tests of ability and as such, a rule discriminating against ability seems out of place. . . .

One of Don Snyder's proteges, Macalester's Jim Berquist, who played for Snyder at St. Croix Falls, was named honorable mention on a Minnesota College Conference all-star team. . . .

Bob Haake was the only Winona member of the Minnesota freshman squad to play in Friday's intrasquad scrimmage. . . . Dick Brown and Phil Conway were squad members. . . . Brown, who suffered a broken nose earlier this season, was running at first team right halfback until he came down with an eye infection, caused by studying under a poor reading lamp.

A fellow on the scene at freshman squad drills this fall said, "Haake isn't as good a passer as Dick Larson from Roosevelt, or as good a runner as either Larson or Tom Uram of Hopkins, but he's got more guts than anybody on the squad. . . ."

A Rough Weekend

We expected trouble predicting outcomes of Saturday's games and the Earl of Gilbert and myself had rough sailing. Earl and I both missed four of the nine games on our slate.

All three of us picked Mississippi over Mississippi State, the first time this season we made predictions on games not even played. The two southern rivals play this coming Saturday.

Only Bob Eggleston, with seven correct choices, did a stellar job. Gilbert showed state loyalty by picking Minnesota to beat Wisconsin, but the Badgers showed Minnesota how to play football, making Eggleston and I both honest on that one.

All three of us correctly chose Ohio State over Michigan. Unanimous stumbling blocks were Northwestern's victory over Illinois and Arkansas' defeat by LSU. The results:

GAMES
Ohio State 21, Michigan 7 . . . . . 28-14

Gophers, Missing Cappelletti, Lose To Badgers, 27-0

By CHRIS EDMONDS

MADISON (AP) — The "Ameche era" of Wisconsin football is over. Big Alan (the Horse), the 210-pound Kenosha fullback who gained more yardage in Badger cardinal than any other ball carrier in collegiate history, concluded his fabulous four-year career Saturday seated on the bench in Camp Randall Stadium.

Actually, if he'd been needed, he probably would have been back in action. But Clary Bratt, Jimmy Miller and a host of other Badgers made short work of Minnesota's Gophers and Big No. 35 took it easy the final 20 minutes.

Wisconsin, as you know by now, whipped the Gophers handily, 27-0, to earn a share of second place with Michigan in the final Big Ten standings. Ameche, who scored two of the Badger touchdowns, came out of the game for the last time with some five minutes remaining of the third period. He was limping badly following a pileup and, although he refused immediate substitution, Coach Ivy

Williamson made it stick a few plays later.

It was obvious, when the game started, that Ameche's injured ankle still was bothering him. He didn't drive as he had for four years and, when he came out, had run only 26 yards, the lowest single game total of his career. But his final effort left him with a total of 3,345 yards, almost two miles, for his total career compiled by a collegiate football player.

The Badgers weren't bothered, though, by their hobbled Horse. Bratt and Miller took up the offensive slack and Bratt was the big wheel in a pass defense which left hardly anything to be desired.

Bratt, who like Ameche, concluded his playing days, set a new Big Ten individual record by intercepting four passes. The quartet of snatches, plus other aerial thefts by Bog Gingsgrass, Miller and Capt. Gary Messner, gave the Badgers a team total of seven interceptions. And the fact that six of the errant aerials were thrown by Gopher quarterback Don Swanson gave him a dubious distinction shared by several other conference passers in number of interceptions in one game.

Wisconsin put on only one sustained drive in winning its seventh game against two losses this year. In the first quarter the Badgers marched 70 yards in 12 plays, Miller contributing 53 on the ground and in the air and scoring the touchdown on a four-yard crack over tackle.

After that Wisconsin cashed in on breaks.

Bratt returned a punt 24 yards to Minnesota's 29 as the first quarter faded and Miller skipped 28 yards to the one on a buck lateral. Ameche rammed in for the score on the first play of the second period.

Two minutes later the Badgers were home again. This time Messner blocked the Quist's punt on the Minnesota 11 and guard Norm Amundsen grabbed the ball and carried it to the three. Again Ameche limped off the touchdown yardage.

Bratt's interception of Shorty Cochran's pass on the Gopher 16 set up the final tally, which he scored himself from four yards out three plays later.

Paul Shvako kicked two extra points and missed another. Buzz Wilson got the third.

Minnesota, handicapped by the absence of quarterback Geno Cappelletti due to injury, was almost pitiful. The Gophers gained only 19 yards in the first half—six on the ground, 13 on one pass completion. They did better on paper in the second half, winding up with 87 yards, but were hamstrung by the seven interceptions.

A 5-10, 170-pound senior, Lovas was a versatile and steady performer on this fall's Rambler squad which posted a record of four wins, two losses and two ties.

His coach, Johnny Nett, said his play this season justified selection.

"He was a dependable blocker and a sharp tackler," Nett pointed out. "Don is a very coachable type boy. He deserved it. He was consistent all season, someone we could depend upon."

Defensive ability was his strong point. He made half of the tackles in one game last fall."

Nett recalled how Lovas learned the plays at center in one day and played a topnotch game at that position against St. Augustine, after regular center Dale Welch came down with a knee injury.

Lovas also manned that post against St. Felix.

Lovas earned a football letter as a sophomore but was forced to sit out the season in 1953 with a heart condition, but he served as Cotter manager that year.

An honor student and president of the Cotter student council, he plans to attend college.

Hawks, Ramblers at Home; Redmen Journey to Bethel

Three Winona schools will trot the basketball hardwood Tuesday night and the trio of games includes home debuts of the Cotter and Winona High squads. . . . Coach Ken Wittgen sends his St. Mary's Redmen against Bethel College at St. Paul in the lidlifter for the Terrace Heights school.

Winona High hosts potentially tough La Crosse Logan in the Senior High auditorium in A and B squad games, while the Cotter Ramblers make their first start of the season against La Crosse Aquinas at the Catholic Rec.

Four starters are set on the St. Mary's team. They are senior guards Marty Coughlin, 6-0; Gene Biewen, 6-3; sophomore 6-7 center John Curran and 6-4 junior forward Bill Skemp.

Fred Sheridan, 6-5 junior forward, has an ankle injury and his spot may be taken by sophomore Dick Keuhl, or freshman Ken Jensen, who captained Wittgen's Chicago Loyola prep squad last year.

Cotter Coach Johnny Nett will have a starting lineup that includes a pair of regulars from last year.

Jim Danielson, 6-2, 200-pound forward, and 5-10 guard Dave Skemp are holdovers from last season's first five.

Newcomers to Cotter's top unit are 6-1, 185-pound forward Jim Small; Ken Plein, 6-2, 160-pound center, and 5-9 guard Don Dooney.

The game will give Nett an early idea of what his charges will do under fire, since he noted a lack of consistency in practice, although "They've looked real good at times."

In addition to the starting five, six more players who may see action are forwards Rich Brown and Dale Welch, center Dave Prondzinski, and guards Bob Hogenson, Ralph Dorsch and Roger Czaplewski.

Welch and Dorsch were members of Cotter's 1953-54 varsity squad. Prondzinski at 6-1 is the only reserve standing over six feet tall.

The 8 p.m. A squad game at the Catholic Rec will be preceded by a 6:30 B squad preliminary between the two schools.

Aquinas, with four lettermen back and two-time winners over Cotter last year, will give the Ramblers tough opposition.

Lettermen are guards Tom Larkin and Jerry Schubert and forwards Jim Schmidt and Dick Weisbecker. The only player over six feet on Aquinas' squad is 6-2 center Gene Brown.

Aquinas had a 50-50 season a year ago and is minus the services of Gary Larkin this winter. A cousin to Tom Larkin, he notched 277 points last season.

Don Snyder, Winona High coach, expressed plenty of respect for the Logan squad which tangles with his Winhaws Tuesday night in the Senior High auditorium.

"I have reports that Logan is really strong," Snyder said. "They have a forward who is rated one of the best basketball players ever produced in La Crosse, and naturally we are quite concerned."

Logan beat Cotter twice last season by 20-point margins. Of Tuesday night's clash, Snyder says, "We are definitely underdogs."

The Hawk mentor announced that Don Klage, letterman guard who has been sidelined with a football injury, will be in uniform for the game.

He said he would pick his starting lineup from a group of seven players — the five who started against La Crosse Central including forwards Jack Nankivil and Earl Buswell, center Bill Heise, guards Bill Hostettler and Chuck Wally, along with Klage and Bill Morse.

Snyder was pleased with the work in the Central game of Morse, a 6-1 senior guard who is up from last year's B squad.

"We expect a much tougher opponent in Logan than we had our first game," Snyder stated.

"I'm not satisfied with our progress as yet. As expected, we were 'roak' defensively although we improved in the second half."

"Our scoring ability hasn't been truly tested yet although we shot 49 per cent. But we got a lot of close shots. I don't know how we'll hit from outside."

"Free throw shooting will be a big factor this year with the new bonus rule. We were weak there against Central — 52 per cent, or only 13 out of 25," Snyder concluded.

La Crosse observers agree with the report Snyder received on Logan's colorful forward, Howie Latschaw.

A 6-1, 175-pound senior, he's tabbed as a boy who may go places. He scored 240 points in 17 games last season on 84 field goals and 74 free throws.

With "smooth-as-silk" actions, he's described as a Jim Polard-type player with a perky tendency to clowning.

The only other letterman at Logan is 6-0, 180-pound senior guard Chuck Horton. The three remaining positions will be filled by 5-10 Roger Latschaw, Howie's brother and junior running mate at forward; 6-5, 180-pound junior center Mike Kirkhorn and 6-0 sophomore guard Jim Lind.

Logan had a 17-4 season last year, losing in the tournament sectional finals to Tomah after leading by 10 points at halftime.

Browns-Giants Game May Settle Eastern Honors

By The Associated Press
The Cleveland Browns and the New York Giants, two of professional football's finest defensive clubs, collide at the Polo Grounds in New York Sunday in a game that should settle the wrestling for the Eastern Division title of the National Football League.

"They'll have a psychological edge," New York Coach Jim Lee Howell said. "They beat us last month 24-14."

Coach Hampton Pool of the Los Angeles Rams won't pick a winner but he calls the Giants the most improved club in the league.

"I couldn't believe the Giants were that good," Pool said. "They'll be tough for Cleveland. They'll be up. This is their 'must' game."

This was after the Rams had beaten the Giants 17-16 in a football melodrama yesterday.

The Browns for their part, turned in a great defensive effort in front of the Giants with 6-2 against the Giants' 6-3.

Detroit, after a bad scare, slipped by Green Bay 21-17 and took a firmer grip on its third straight Western Division championship.

In other games, the Chicago Bears took Baltimore 28-13 and the Chicago Cards thrashed Washington 38-16. San Francisco dumped Pittsburgh 31-3 Saturday night.

Twice yesterday New York fought from behind, led 16-10 at the half and might have pulled it out with a fourth-period field goal. But Agajanian's kick from the 42 bumped the crossbar and dropped back onto the playing field.

Black Labrador Top Retriever

WELDON SPRING, Mo. (AP) — Major VI, Black Labrador, that spent much of its puppyhood in a Long Island bar and sometimes retrieved empty beer cans, reigns today as the national retriever champion.

The 6-year-old male dog, owned by Mrs. Fraser M. Born of Southampton, L.I., N.Y., turned in a flawless performance to outclass five other finalists, including the defending champion, in land and water tests Saturday.

The trial was held at the nearby Busch Memorial Wildlife Area.

Mrs. Horn said Major VI was bought by her husband as a Christmas present but first had been purchased by a garage man for $25. She said that before she owned the dog it spent much of its time in a bar.

King Buck, owned by the Milo Kennels of Brighton, Ill., had won the title the past two years and was bidding for a record third consecutive championship.

Ray Stauffer of Sag Harbor, N.Y., handled the new champion. Thirty-three dogs were entered.

Rip's Bingo, owned by David Paper and Cliff Mortensen of St. Paul, Minn., also reached the finals.

Faribault Wins As Hunt Hits 20

FARIBAULT, Minn. — Gordon Hunt scored 20 points as the Faribault Falcons opened their 1954-55 basketball season with a 59-55 non-conference victory over a rangy Minneapolis Patrick Henry team. Faribault held a 32-24 halftime margin.

3 Redmen Named Honorable Mention

Bennie Palmerterre, St. Mary's football captain, was named honorable mention in the backfields of Minnesota College Conference all-star teams by Minneapolis and St. Paul newspapers.

St. Mary's guard Jerry Schutts was honorable mention on the Minneapolis selections, while guard Tim Kavanaugh got honorable mention on the St. Paul version.

Southern Cal and Ohio State Set for Rose Bowl on Jan. 1

By ED CORRIGAN
The Associated Press
The scramble for lucrative bowl berths was not over by any means today, but no matter how the final pairings line up the "natural" of the year won't take place.

The Rose Bowl is the only one of the four big postseason extravaganzas filled. It will pit twice-beaten Southern California against mighty Ohio State. UCLA, possibly the only team in the country capable of giving the Buckeyes an argument, played in the Rose Bowl last Jan. 1, and by Pacific Coast Conference edict, can't appear again.

As far as college football goes, that's a genuine tragedy. Both Ohio State and UCLA boast proud 9-0 records. Both are undisputed masters of their conferences—UCLA the PCC and Ohio State the Big Ten—and they rate the Nos. 1 and 2 teams in the nation.

If there was any doubt as to who was best in the PCC, it was dispelled last Saturday when UCLA clubbed the Trojans 34-0. Ohio State meanwhile, was winning its seventh Big Ten game, a 21-7 decision over Michigan.

Two other teams emerged with bowl assignments. They were Arkansas for the Cotton Bowl host and Nebraska as the visitor for the Orange Bowl. Both sneaked in the back door. Arkansas was beaten by Louisiana State 7-6, and Nebraska suffered a 55-7 pasting at the hands of Oklahoma. But a Baylor beat Southern Methodist 33-21 in a Southwestern Conference game. Since SMU was Arkansas' only competitor for the Cotton Bowl assignment, the defeat spelled doom for the Mustangs.

Baylor still can tie Arkansas for the league title, but the Razorbacks had the forethought to whip Baylor earlier in the season to clinch it.

Oklahoma, like UCLA is barred from appearing in the Orange Bowl two years in a row, the runner-up gets it this year. Oklahoma's victory over Nebraska gave the Sooners their seventh straight Big Seven title.

Kansas State was the only team that had a chance of overtaking Nebraska in the race for second place. Colorado beat State 38-14 and that settled things.

If Duke can get past North Carolina Saturday, the Blue Devils no doubt will get the Atlantic Coast Conference spot in the Orange Bowl. A vote is taken, but Duke will have a spotless record compared to one tie against Maryland.

Conversely, if the Blue Devils lose, Maryland probably will get the nod for the second straight year.

Should Mississippi win the Southeastern Conference championship by getting past Mississippi State Saturday, Ol' Miss will act as host team in the Sugar Bowl. Baylor has a good chance of being named the visitor.

The setting of the Southeastern race also will enable the Cotton Bowl selectors some wind in deciding the team to oppose Arkansas. Auburn and Kentucky, winners of their last five in a row, appear to have the inside track.

Wichita finally won Missouri Valley crown with a 20-0 victory over Detroit and probably will get a bid to the Gator Bowl. Any of the teams passed over for the Cotton or Sugar bowls can get the other spot.

The mythical Ivy League title still is unsettled because Harvard upended Yale, the leader, 13-9. As a result, Harvard won the Big Three championship (Harvard-Yale-Princeton) and this one is more important to the three teams involved than the league crown.

Notre Dame beat Iowa 34-18.

Wisconsin Deer Hunters Do Better Than Last Year

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Wisconsin deer hunters probing the timberlands and swamps had better luck opening day Saturday than during the first day of the 1953 season.

Jim Hale, of the state Conservation Department, said the kill in the northwest sector was slightly above that of a year ago, elsewhere the bag was about the same.

Hale's figures on the northwest, reflecting a check of 430 hunters in six counties, show hunter success was 4.4 per cent compared to 2.7 per cent a year ago.

A check of 90 hunters in nine northeastern counties showed the success margin was 4.3 per cent against 4.6 per cent in 1953.

A west central region check of 652 hunters showed 6.7 per cent against 6.2 last year.

And in the east central, with 189 hunters checked, the figures were 6.3 and 6.6.

It was estimated that 270,000 hunters were attracted for the opening day shooting.

Bub's Sweeper Tourney Slated

Dates for the annual Bub's Sweepstakes bowling tournament are Dec. 11-12 and Dec. 18-19, it was announced by tournament manager Bill Bell of the Winona Athletic Club.

The tourney at the Athletic Club, slated for two weekends, includes eight shifts each day and four games across six alleys.

Guaranteed prize for first place is $100 and the estimated prize fund this year is $1,600. Entry fee is $6 and includes bowling. Bowlers from the Twin Cities are barred.

Of the total prize fund, $100 is donated by the Peter Bub Brewery. Last year 64 bowlers shared in prizes. The tournament drew 247 bowlers with $1,842 received in entry fees, a sum of $1,090.50 was returned in prizes.

Winner last year was E. Grypham, La Crosse, who fired 821 for four games. Three others hit 800 or better, including Harvey Stever of Winona with 803 and Ernie Olson of Mabel, 800.

Bowlers may call 4408, Winona, or write Bill Bell, Winona Athletic Club, for reservations. Entries may be mailed to Bell at the same address.

700 Club Sets Singles Meet For Saturday

The singles tournament for members of the Winona chapter of 700 Bowling Clubs of America will be held Saturday, 7 p.m., at Hal-Rod Lanes, it was announced following the annual meeting of the local group Saturday night.

It was also announced that the 700 Club's team tournament will be held in January. The singles event will be a three-game tourney sweepstakes.

All of the officers were re-elected and Vern Mahaffey was named to the honorary list of Twin Keys. Officers include:

King Pin — George Vondrashek; Prince Pin — Andy Koller; Pin Boy and Scorer — O. P. Koetz; Guardia la Pin — Ted Mahlike.

Foul Judges (directors) — John Chudgel, Adolph Schreiber, Otto Blitgen and Don Gostomski; Turn Keys — William Bell, Harold Blitgen, Roger Blitgen, Vern Mahaffey.

Ameche to Play In Holiday Games

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Alan Ameche, the University of Wisconsin's football fullback, and collegiate football's greatest ground gainer, said Sunday he had accepted invitations to play in two post-season games.

He told a television audience during an interview here he will play in the annual North-South game at Miami and the Senior Bowl game at Mobile, Ala.

LEARN TO TEAL 'EM APART

Hunters Must Identify Ducks

By DION HENDERSON
AP Newswriters
Waterfowl hunting is fun, but not if you bring home a grebe under the impression it's a teal and have to live in the garage for a week while the house airs out.

This fall, when the taking of wood ducks was forbidden in the Mississippi flyway, a great many hunters discovered their duck identification system was a little faulty. Some learned by themselves, some were informed by the warden swooping over the edge of their blind.

One hunter even got his picture in the newspapers, proudly holding four swans. Biggest snow geese he ever saw, the caption said. The most expensive, too. He couldn't tell a swan from a snow goose.

Anyway, the casual duck hunter can help himself—and improve his fodder—by knowing the difference between birds in flight. You'll still make mistakes, but here's a handy guide:

First and foremost, the puddle ducks—wood ducks fly swift and straight, but their heads are humped up and they seem to be looking around at points of interest. Lots of white underneath. You can't see the splendid colors and crest of the drake unless he's close.

MALLARDS — Big ducks, underwings flashing white, head and neck carried slightly upward. Seem to fly a little slower because of size.

PINTAILS — Fast and graceful, with long necks; drakes' white. Can't miss the long tail either on the geese.

TEAL — The little guy with all the maneuverability. They can do acrobatics like doves, and there's an audible whistle to their wings.

DIVING DUCKS — They all appear to have a faster wing-beat in the air, and get up off the water like taxiing aircraft, instead of jumping aloft like mallards. Canvasbacks are big, flight is laboring but fast and powerful like geese. Drake has a long sloping profile, white body. In migrating flight, your neighbor may call them geese, but feeding they flap around irregularly. Redheads are shorter and darker on the wing, and less tasty in the pot than cans. Their flight appears hurried and wingbeat is faster. Bluebills (the scaup) are fast and erratic, fly bunched in large flocks. Frequently they'll land wide and swim in to your decoys.

These are rules of thumb that can help you if you're going to shoot. If the birds you see are safely out of range and you can't see anything familiar, do as duck hunters have done since the sport was young. Announce confidently: "Look at those bluebills go."

Your partner won't contradict you. It's likely he doesn't know what they are anyway.

Lakers Tounce Bullets, 116-85

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Syracuse is the hottest team in the National Basketball Association today and the most torrid player in the circuit is sharpshooting Dolph Schayes, who is scoring points in bunches for the Nationals.

The Nationals extended their winning streak to four games by defeating Boston 110-104 Sunday night and swept into first place in the Eastern Division over the Celtics.

The Fort Wayne Pistons continued to lead the Western Division as they downed Rochester 89-78 for their third victory of the season over the Royals. In the only other game, the Minneapolis Lakers tounced Baltimore 116-85 as the Bullets suffered their 10th defeat of the young season.

Schayes, an all-star forward last year, notched 39 points on 15 field goals and 9 free throws. He tallied 17 points in the Nationals' hot first period as they outscored Boston 33-21.

The Lakers, the defending Western Division champions, had five players in double figures with Vero Velsien leading the list with 24 points. He played the entire game despite an injured left shoulder which virtually made him a one-armed player.

Frank Selvy, leading NBA scorer was held without a basket for the first half but ended up with 12 points. The Bullets were paced by Ken Murray who scored 21 points.

McNamara Ties For Scoring Title

CHICAGO (AP) — Bob McNamara of Minnesota and Earl Smith of Iowa finished in a tie for first place in the Big Ten scoring parade with 66 points apiece.

Smith vaulted in a tie with the Minnesota fullback by scoring one touchdown against Notre Dame Saturday. McNamara was shut out by Wisconsin.

The figures include all games played by Big Ten teams.

Iowa Movies at Legion Tuesday

Moving pictures of the University of Minnesota-Iowa football game will be shown at the American Legion Memorial Club at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday.

One of the weekly series of Gopher football movies shown here through the sponsorship of the Winona chapter of the University of Minnesota Alumni Association, the program is open to the public and no admission will be charged.

Persons attending may use either the front door of the Legion Club or the side door adjacent to the parking lot.

St. Augustine Wins Cage Opener 61-43

AUSTIN, Minn. — St. Augustine started its cage season with a 61-43 warmup victory over St. Joseph of Mason City, Iowa, here Sunday.

Coach Marty Crowe used 17 players as the Shamrocks rolled to a 30-13 halftime lead. Junior forward Dick Jahr scored 21 points for the Aggies, members of the Southern Minnesota Catholic Conference.

A colorful history as a private in Uncle Sam's Marine Corps preceded Johnny Moochy's career as a professional wrestler.

Moochy, 240-pound husky from Balsam Lake, Wis., battles John Kostas, 235-pound exponent of Greco-Roman style wrestling on the one fall, 30-minute opening bout of tonight's Legion-sponsored card at the Red Men's Club.

Special event grapplers are Bill Cody, 225, Joliet, Ill., and Sir Alan Garfield, a 235-pounder from London. Booked for the hour, one fall main event are 265-pound Lu Kim of Manchuria and Bill MacMurray, a New Yorker who matches Kim's poundage.

Moochy has been making big strides lately in wrestling, but it's not surprising when you learn his background.

A private in the Marines at Guam at the start of World War II, he was captured three days after the sneak attack on Pearl Harbor and taken to Japan after a brief period in other prison camps.

Moochy was then hustled off to Umeda where stevedores were needed, and after one look at the amazing biceps and hairy chest of Moochy, the Japs were convinced he would more than fill the bill.

It wasn't long before Johnny became the ring leader of a group of prisoners who began pilfering all cars of the best food they could find. Bribes kept the authorities happy most of the time, but occasionally that didn't work and they got caught.

On March 16, 1944, Moochy was caught with a sockful of sugar, strapped against his body.

The sentry belted Moochy in the face and things exploded. Moochy knocked out the sentry, but other sentries heard the commotion and came running. They assailed Moochy, who really went to work. There were 18 knockouts in eight minutes and Moochy was still on his feet.

The Japanese commander wanted to punish Moochy but he escaped execution when officials said he was too good a worker to lose.

Since those days, Moochy has appeared throughout the U. S., Canada, Australia and New Zealand as a mat headliner. In Hawaii he was given the nickname, "Moochy, the Magnificent."

Matches on tonight's card start at 8:20 p.m.

Talk of Dodger Sale Persists

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—Despite all the denials being flung about, we are advised by a man close to the Brooklyn situation that there is every probability the Dodgers will be sold and moved either to Los Angeles or San Francisco within another year or two.

As the situation was explained to these ears, the Dodgers are making a certain amount of money where they are, but not enough that anything important is left for Walter O'Malley, the club's president and majority stockholder, after all obligations have been met.

Among the most important of these, we are told, is a large chunk of currency, more than $70,000, which must go annually to Branch Rickey in continued payment for the Brooklyn stock the Mahatma surrendered when he sold out to O'Malley and transferred his operations to Pittsburgh.

These payments still have seven years to go, and they serve to keep the Brooklyn prey constantly afflicted with the financial shorts, which is not a happy condition.

There is no handy way of increasing the club's income. Its home park, Ebbets Field, officially seats about 22,000 spectators, and there is no possibility of adding even one more chair short of abolishing the outfield.

This capacity serves nicely most of the time, but it becomes a most obvious drawback when a big series comes up against one of the contenders such as Milwaukee and the Giants. It prevents the Dodgers from ever playing to the great crowds of 50,000 or 60,000 which occasionally glut the treasuries of the rivals.

The land upon which the tight little park is situated, smack in the heart of Brooklyn and convenient to all forms of transportation, is held to be very valuable. During Rickey's regime the club also bought up a mess of surrounding property, some of it now being used as parking lots.

All this, we are reminded, adds up to a whole lot of money just waiting to be accepted and socked in the bank the moment O'Malley decides he has had enough of living in comparative poverty and consents to give the West Coast fans a break. Our man estimates that the Brooklyn president, a man of modest beginnings, might come out of the transaction with something close to three million.

Answer to Question No. 3
3. No. Everyone, says a speech authority, speaks the dialect or accent of his native region. "Harvard accent" is correct for Harvard students but is a dialect in northern New England and the Deep South—and to us Hoosiers! We each think the other "talks funny" or "affectedly." Good grammar and early travel helps acquire a sort of universal language.

Decline Foreseen
In New York City's
White Population

NEW YORK (AP) — The Department of City Planning estimates that by 1970 New York's white population will register a 20-year decline of nearly 720,000 persons but nonwhites and Puerto Ricans will more than make up the difference.

The department issued a report yesterday saying the city is expected by 1970 to make "a relatively modest gain of almost 700,000" despite a continued movement of its white citizens to the suburbs. It estimated the city's population by that year would reach 8,600,000.

Thomas to Donate
$10,000 to Crusade

NEW YORK (AP) — Norman Thomas, who has spent most of his life fighting for American socialism, plans to devote most of a 70th birthday gift of $10,000 to a crusade for disarmament.

The money, collected by friends and admirers, was given to Thomas yesterday at a reception in the Town Hall Club. Some 1,000 guests—including diplomats, labor leaders, authors, editors and clergymen—attended to pay their respects to the dean of American Socialists.

In accepting the gift, Thomas said he would devote most of it "to help the crusade that I believe has to be made—with people as well as governments—for disarmament."

Yugoslav-Russian
Relations Improving

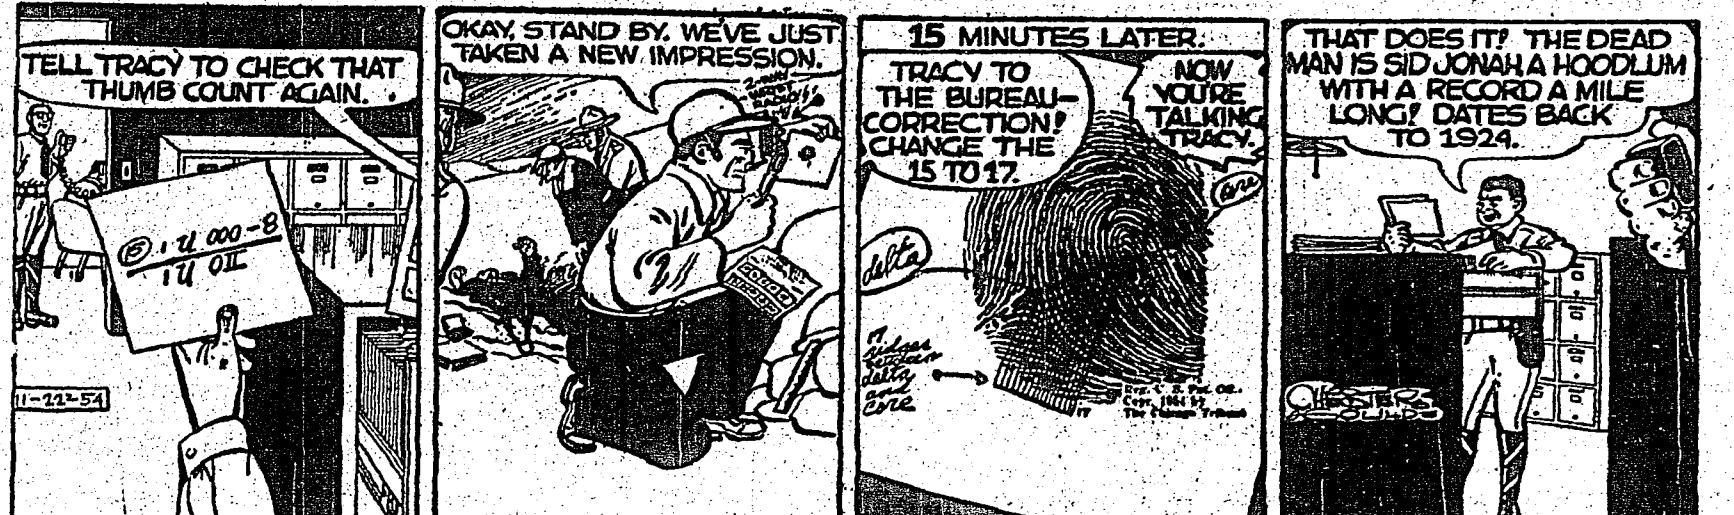

KOPAR, Yugoslavia (AP) — Yugoslav President Tito said yesterday that his country's relations with the Soviet Union are improving—but that does not mean he is drawing away from the West.

Denouncing any suggestion of a breach between his Communist government and the United States, Britain and France, the Yugoslav leader told a crowd of 25,000 here that the Western nations "proved at the most trying moment that they were our friends."

Tito voiced the hope that relations between Yugoslavia and Russia would "improve even more... on a basis of equality." He said his government would ignore any Western objections to "our negotiations for improving relations with the Soviet Union."

But Yugoslavia, he asserted, advises Russia and her East European allies "that we cannot improve relations with them at the expense of relations with the Western countries."
