One of the highlights of Welcome Week will be the coronation of the Freshmen King and Queen. Douglas Furst, son of Mrs. BETTY Prentis of Rochester, was selected to wear this year's crown. What do you think of Winona State?

"I like my teachers but I especially like the male teachers over the female teachers. The female teachers don't have enough respect for the students.

"The campus is well-situated and ranks high in athletics in the nation. There are also plenty of eye-catching girls around here!"

Are you for or against bannerette?

"For, I'm for bannerettes. It is a part of a tradition and some sort of initiation couldn't hurt."

Do you live on campus?

"No, I live off campus and I like it better. It is homier. I only think it helps studying. There is a lot of noise -- I have to do my own cooking. But, it's a lot easier to cut weight for wrestling."

What are your hobbies?

"I like sports, such as snowboarding, swimming, bowling, cheer and athletics."

Do you get a big kick out of acting?

"I don't have time for acting and I also find that the play is not so interesting."

Doug plans to major in social science and minor in physical education.

Doug Furst and Lisa Fineid were coronated as American King and Queen by Robert Young during this year's orientation program. The crowning was held on the evening of Sept. 8 in conjunction with the all-college picnic which was forced indoors because of bad weather.

Winonan asks—should the beanie return to orientation

"What—no beanies?" This was the astonishment of scores of seniors, juniors, sophomores and freshmen as they entered the sacred halls of WSC this fall.

THE BEANIE has been eliminated from the orientation program. With the passing of the beanies, Winona State College has lost one of its few traditions. This seems incongruous with the statutes of the beanies that are supposedly trying to establish and maintain traditions at his college.

The reason given for the elimination of the beanies was that it would promote "—a temptation to haz the beanies." This may or may not be a valid reason for the demise of the beanies but for Food, Inc., there are, however, several reasons why the beanies should be maintained as a tradition.

The BEANIE is a symbol of status. It shows who the new- comers are in college and in public. It fells the upperclassmen (who don’t really need to be told who the freshmen are) that there need be no claws erupting around anyone’s really crazy—just lost freshmen. It tells other freshmen that they are not alone, and that it will fall on the less aloof and waffle-tastic that these young, fourteen people wearing beanies should be treated with a little more kindness than usual because they could be frequent, future outcomes. The beanies also help publicize Winona State College in the community. This editorial is not meant to be a criticism of the orientation program which was a big step in the right direction.

The Winonan hopes that it will be returned to the orientation program next fall.

*To the Editor:

Winona State College is getting bigger every day and naturally the members of the student body are growing right along with it. The matter of forming a foreign student’s club, according to the president of the college, is very important. It makes people know each other better, makes the world come closer together so they could and would understand each other better. This is one of the most important matters in the world today.

I would like to call the attention of the students of WSC to the importance of having a student exchange. I will call for a meeting of all students and faculty members interested in the matter in the very near future. I will have an invitation in all mail boxes concerning the meeting. Anyone interested in first meeting, well discuss the goals of this club and vote for our elected president.

Sincerely,

Dr. J. H. Poogen*

How do you like WSC?

We asked a freshman what she thought of WSC.

"It’s very fine; new, wait. It’s kinda far from home."

"I like it. I love it! No, I don’t know."

"I’m glad we didn’t have to wear them."

"We don’t know what to think about that. I like it. The kids are so friendly—so far."

"We don’t think we can go fishing and hunting—anything I want to do. I like the school very much."

"I prefer the badger."

---

Would you prefer beanies?

"Oh, I think it’s pretty great and pretty new. Everyone’s so friendly."

"Yes, I was pretty surprised. I like the tradition. I think we would have worn them more."

Northern Illinois blanks Warriors 27-0

The Winona State College warp machine was in full stride Thursday afternoon at DeKalb, Illinois, as the Fighting Illini were downed by the Winona State College Fighting Scots 27-0.

The Fighting Scots opened their 1962 season with a decisive win over the Illinois Fighting Illini, who were defeated on their own field.

Winona State College scored early and scored late in the first half as they went on to win 27-0 against the Fighting Illini. The Warriors took control in the second half, outscoring the Fighting Illini 17-0.

The Warriors defense, led by George Bowman, was almost impossible to cover because of his speed. During the first half Winona was completely dominant as it played most of the half in Eau Claire's territory, and it seemed that Winona would score all day.

Three times the Warriors were stopped inside the Blue-Gold's 20-yard line; first, on the three-yard line, then on the five, before they were turned away.

It was the defense that came through in the second half, as the Blue-Gold was held scoreless. The Blue-Gold was able to capitalize in the second half with three touchdowns on the ground, all of which came through in the second half with three touchdowns on the ground.

The first touchdown was scored by a Warren Poltenin, who scored. The play covered 25 yards and tied the score at 10-10.

The Warrior defense then went on to stop the Illinois Fighting Illini, who were defeated on their own field.

These are my tennis shoes. They cost me $5. I am happy when I wear them.

This is my adviser. He sees that I get the right classes. Color him happy. He is happy when I get good grades. Color him sad. He deals with us intellectually. Color him sleepy.
