Richard's Hall 'fate' finally decided

by Roger Rasmussen, Editor

Winona State students may find themselves soon without convenient transportation due to the recent moves of the nation's railroads.

The new proposal called Amtrak whichlocates effective Thursday in Somsen 106. national information, contact Mrs. Marguerita Ritman in the Student Affairs Office in Somsen 106.

The Milwaukee Road offers two passenger trains daily — four on the Milwaukee Road and three on the Burlington Northern no longer offers passenger service as they are in a contractual agreement with the C.M.N. & P. to handle all passenger traffic. The aim of Amtrak is to improve passenger service and save it from extinction by helping defray costs and eliminating many railway passenger routes.

Pacifist Dr. Sibley to speak on topic of unilateral disarmament

Dr. Malcolm Sibley, the controversial University of Minnesota professor, will speak tonight in the Student Union at 7:45. His primary topic will be unilateral disarmament, the same topic which Dr. Dan Kheel presented in his April 13 presentation.

Dr. Sibley is a member of the University's political science department. A long-time pacifist, he has been actively engaged for many years in an effort to end war and promote individual and racial welfare. He is also critical of American capitalism and the technological and military aspects of industrial society which tend to isolate and alienate individual human beings.

Recently he has been very active in the anti-draft movement and would like to see the draft abolished. He is one of the hundred lecturers when the Roanoke University Activities Committee recommended not to allow him to speak on campus.

A Quaker, Dr. Sibley has had a hand in the publication of numerous books and periodicals among them "Conscription of Conscience," "Political Ideas and Ideologies," and "The Quiet Battle."

Senate pushes for 5 on APT

Discussions at the Senate meeting Monday centered around teacher evaluation and the Appointment, Promotion and Tenure Committee. It is felt by some Senate members that in order for a teacher evaluation to be effective it should have committee authority.

It was pointed out that faculty members may see this as an infringement of their territory and may fight it. With this consideration in mind, the Senate moved to attempt to obtain five student positions on the previous all-faculty committee. Included in the motion was the decision to temporarily abandon attempts for a student evaluation of teachers. This, however, does not mean that there will be no student evaluation of teachers.

In other business Nancy Lopac and Jane Gorman were appointed to the Housing Committee. Deet Nielsen had his complaint to the Publications Committee, and Lee Gartner was appointed as representative to the Common Market.

Wenonah Players stage kicky little play

Wenonah Players under the direction of Vivian Fiallo will be presenting Melwood's children's play "The Minutes to Morning" beginning May 20 and running through May 29.

Melwood's adventurous play combines surrealistic techniques, original dialogue, and pure fantasy and yet holds respect for intelligence and sheer imagination.

Rail transportation reduced

There are a variety of possibilities for interested students who wish to spend their summer involved in meaningful internships in the urban area. While these internships involve the use of work-study funds, it has been discovered that these are not generally available to State College students for off-campus employment. There is, however, other possibilities for taking funding (30-30 week) which are available if a student is accepted into an Urban Corps internship.

The Common Market office is working with the Urban Corps to facilitate the placement of State College students in the Urban Corps program. Students may apply for Urban Corps internships the same way they apply for other Common Market internship placements (i.e., through the use of the regular student application and advisor forms which are sent to the campus representative).

For further information contact Sharon Munson in room 203.

Internships available

by Jerome Christensen - Winona State Staff Reporter

The Mexico Center is affiliated with the University of the Americas, a non-denominational, Roman Catholic institution which offers a strong liberal arts program and a bilingual faculty. The student attending the AASCU Study Center has all of the privileges of a student regularly enrolled in the University of the Americas as well as some special advantages. These include: specially designed courses and seminars, choice of semester or quarter registration, the services of a full-time director are available; choice of on or off campus housing; various scheduled field trips and financial aids from his home institution.

Students wishing to apply must have completed one semester at their home institution and be in good academic standing. For additional information, contact Mrs. Marguerita Ritman in the Student Affairs Office in Somsen 106.

The "fate" of Richards Hall, the empty residence hall facing Huff Street, has finally been decided.

The Senates' "brainstorming" sessions in April to come up with some idea as to what to do with the hall. These sections, including students and administrators, resulted in creative ways to alleviate WSC's budget problems in the area of housing. Some of the points in the following plan for the building must be approved by the Board of Governors by May 16.

A "room only contract" will be made available to those students who wish to leave campus during the week. Marital contracts quarterly, and more quarterly contracts will be also made available to those desiring them.

Occupant eligibility will be limited to upperclassmen (those with six quarters or more credits) and those of legal age or over.

The hall, while being made over by floors, will also accommodate married students without children on one floor or part of a floor. Unmarried faculty or married faculty without children will also be eligible for occupancy provided they follow the same contract agreement as the students.

The north end of the corridors in the hall will be partitioned for the purpose of creating apartment-type arrangements. Doors between combinations of other rooms installed for the purpose of making additional sub-type arrangements if the demand for these rooms is the number available.

A cooking area in one or two areas of each floor will be established for use by people on the same floor. The idea is to promote community spirit among the users. These facilities will include an electric stove and dishwashing facilities.

Rental refrigerators will be made available to those desiring them. The rental fee for these is based on need; $25.00 per unit per quarter.

The electrical wiring in the hall is being assessed in view of the possible use of hot plates in the rooms.

The students, furnishing their own paint, will be allowed to paint their rooms. The college may (that's tentative) furnish the paint for the corridors and allow the residents to paint and decorate them as they desire (provided that the painting does not cause any waste or physical damage to the buildings).

The Housing Committee, the Student Senate, the college newspaper or whatever group might be interested, will be properly involved, should consider the possibility of promoting tighter restrictions and enforcement of housing code regulations.

The college will later take an official position on this plan. The charges for a "rooms only" contract are not available at this time as they must be approved by the State Board of College Administration. It is reasonable to assume though that they will be competitive with the cost of dormitory rooms.

Those who would like to live in Richards Hall next year are encouraged to sign up with Mr. Maurice in Somsen 106, Mr. Janssen in the Moore-Sharpe Hall, or Miss Woodard in Shannon Hall.

No. 25
To all the potentially active students of Winona State:

Looking towards the policy of the new Student Senate to offer to the student body positions on all currently incumbent committees. It has not been the policy of the student to fill these positions. Currently, there are many positions made on this campus happen in these committees. If you have a particular interest or gripe, join a committee. These committees meet generally, and are open to anyone who wants to associate with them. They are available in the Senate office.

The White House

TO THE EDITOR:

Nothing could be more gratifying than the knowledge that so many young Americans are taking such an active part in improving the quality of life in America. It is imperative that we make reparations for the wrongs we have done to our air, our land, our water, and our lives. The farsighted and walkers of life cooperate and work toget-ther toward this goal. None could be more rewarding than to examine and discuss the truth and futility that are involved in the policy of the government.

My personal congratulations to the young men and women who have decided to dedicate their talents and energies to the work of environmental protection and preservation. It is an investment well made in the future of our country.

Richard Nixon

TO THE EDITOR:

"What is the purpose of the Constitution if it can be violated at will by the state?"This is a question that we have been asking ourselves, and it has led us to the conclusion that the Constitution is indeed the law of the land.

Mr. Nixon.

The WSC Student Senate is presently considering the circulation of coursework improvement questionnaires. In order to aid in such an effort if it does not work, this writer hopes to shed some light on a problem he has encountered in various courses. The problem, to be solved by instructors who frequently fail to hold classes, by instructors who are often late for classes, and by instructors who engage in similar "irregularities." Any student who has experienced such problems either this quarter or last quarter, is asked to submit a statement to the writer who should include: 1) The nature of the problem, 2) The instructor in whose course the problem occurred, 3) The title, number, and section of the course, 4) The quarter during which the problem occurred, and 5) The frequency of the problem. These statements need not be signed so as to prevent any possibilities of retaliation from the instrucators involved. (Yes, things like that can and do happen.)

These statements should be addressed to the "Bramblebush" and can be taken to the newspaper house across from the Union, deposited in the Student "Gripe Box," or given to any member of the "Winonan" staff. Every effort will be made to solve the problems, and instructors will not receive printed reference unless the respective investigations have been completed.
