Not all the new faces at Winona belong to students. Among them are the new faculty members. William Bodden, junior high principal, comes to Winona from Central High School, Kalamazoo, Michigan, where he taught in 1953-54. He holds his Bachelor of Law and Master of Arts degrees, both conferred at Notre Dame. Mr. Bodden has two children.

Teaching the art classes at Phelps this year is Richard Hayes. Mr. Hayes has taken both his bachelor's and master's degrees at the University of Tulsa in 1955 and 1956. He has a 6 year old son, Charles. He and his family are living at Lucas Lodge.

Also at Phelps is Miss Ruth Sherman, the fifth grade supervisor. She earned her B.A. at Dakota Wesleyan, Mitchell, South Dakota, and her M.A. at the University of South Dakota, Vermillion. She has done graduate work at the University of Maryland, College Park and at New York University.

Mr. Edward Jackson is the new instructor in English and Dramatics. Before coming to Winona he taught at private schools in the East. Mrs. Ruth Hopf is a 1951 graduate of WTC who has done some graduate work at Colorado State and is teaching business education. She spent the last two years at Trempealeau, Wisconsin. She has two daughters, Pam, nine, and Pat, seven.

New Inter-Faith Group To Be Called Koinonia

Students from five denominations, representing three Christian groups on campus, met Thursday night, September 20, at Grace Presbyterian Church for the first meeting of Koinonia, a Christian student fellowship.

After a dinner, served by women of the church, a vocal selection by Gail Darragh which was accompanied by Sarah McGilvray. Then he called the freshmen class to stand, with each individual holding his or her hand on his or her heart, and repeat the following oath:

"I do solemnly swear to uphold the traditions of Winona State; to work to the utmost of my ability to make this homecoming the best in the history of the college; to support the football squad by attending the games and cheering for the team; to show proper respect for upperclassmen; and to work for an attitude of community cooperation here at Winona State.

You may also wish to wear our beanies, too."

Thoughts To Consider

What will be the result of the more human approach to the freshmen being tried this year at WSTC? Will encouraging the freshmen to work for an attitude of community cooperation pay off? Or, to put in another way, is having the upperclassmen work with the freshmen rather than work on the freshmen helping scholarship?

Of course these questions cannot be answered fully until both types of freshman indoctrination programs have been tested over a period of years, but these two points seem to:
1. Freshman initiation, as carried out last year, and in previous years was a complete flop as far as instilling the fresh with school spirit was concerned.
2. This year with a more realistic freshman policy, based on organized rules and procedures, there appears to be much more spirited work on the incoming activities and support of the students.

For example, the campaign for Homecoming queen exceeds all other campaigns in the school in recent years in number of candidates and enthusiastic support for those candidates.

Some Bouquets

While we are on the subject of Homecoming, it seems fitting at this time to give some much deserved credit to Ernie Butler and the rest of the Homecoming committee. Ernie has done a fine job of getting his committee organized and they in turn appear to be functioning well.

All the Homecoming committees are doing a wonderful job, but we would like to single out for special mention Billy Tomson and the publicity committee. Through their tireless efforts, all of Southeastern Minnesota is well aware of our TC Homecoming.

Christmas Vacation

Although the year has just started, some students are already talking about Christmas vacation. This talk is not just idle chatter, it is about the serious problem of students getting jobs during the Christmas vacation.

Last January the Winonan ran an editorial comment that those people who did the scheduling for Christmas vacation this year might at least consider the students who need the money that can be earned during the holiday rush.

Our words must have fallen on deaf ears, however, for we see that vacation doesn't start until December 21 again this year, thus leaving only two working days before Christmas.

Politicians Arise!

Considering the fact that this is the fall of an election year, the politicians on campus should really be making hay the next few weeks. We have noticed that the two political clubs got organized early this fall, but so far they haven't been too active in bringing the issues of the 1956 campaign to the Winona State student.

It would seem that there are enough gifted talkers in our college to provide some lively political debates for the student body. Foreign policy, farm parity, social security, and especially federal influence in education are topics that should be of interest to members of our college family. How about it Mr. Osborn and Mr. Bonov?

Frosh Election; Initiation Are First Council Business

Freshmen elections and initiation, the selection of cheerleaders, and nominations for Who's Who among the freshmen were among the issues discussed at the first Representative Council meeting which was held on Monday, September 17.

A committee was chosen to help with freshman elections.

The committee consisted of Marilyn Lewis, Charlene Bittle, Pat Severson, Carol Benedict, LaRae Sweeney, Jerry Tedrow, and Sally McBride.

President Minne Invites Alumni to Homecoming

The college family is growing. Up to June 1956, the college had graduated 11,583, all degrees included. That is the population of a good sized town.

But the size of the graduating classes will increase sharply from now on, as our enrollment on the campus has reached 921 with an added 300 in extension classes.

You of the alumni are cordially invited to the Homecoming events to meet your friends, to become acquainted with new students and faculty, and to take note of the building progress taking place.

We hope you will enjoy your visit to the campus and we urge you to keep in close touch with your Alma Mater during this busy college term in numbers and in its service to our state.

Nets Minne

President

Welcome Alumns

On behalf of the student body, I wish to extend a hearty welcome to you returning alumni.

We have done our best to make this Homecoming one you will long remember as we have improved some of the old functions while trying to add new ones.

While planning for this festive occasion we have tried to keep in mind the fact that Homecoming is chiefly for the returning grad, and we hope you will make yourselves at home here for the weekend of fun and relaxation.

If you have any comments on Homecoming, or the school in general, we would be glad to hear them since your wisdom can undoubtedly aid us in our constant effort to improve our school.

Bonow to Head Young DFLers

Daniel Bonow and Claude Kremer were elected to lead the Winona State Young Democratic-Farmer-Labor Club at a meeting of that organization on Wednesday, September 26.

Besides chairman Bonow and vice chairman Kremer, other officers elected were Sue Hennessey, secretary; and Darlene Radosek, treasurer.

One of the first official acts of the chairman was to appoint a membership committee. Those appointed to the committee were Alyce Crawford, Emil Guenther, and Bill Henderson.

After the meeting the executive board met and outlined the program for the entire year.

The officers of the club asked that anyone interested in joining should contact a member of the membership committee.

Next meeting of the YDFL will be Monday, October 8, in room 327 at 7:30 p.m.

Readers' Opinions

Dear Editor:

Is there any interest on the part of Winona State students in the forthcoming national elections, or does all this political silence on campus really mean that college students don't care who gets into office? Outside our ivy-covered walls, interest in political promises and defenses concerning such things as H-bomb tests, the disintegration of the draft, and parity support of farm prices are being buried with increasing fervor. I'd like to hear you say here that everyone of these doesn't in some way vitally affect his life. Yet, with elections only five weeks away, there has been no attempt by members of the student body to publicize the issues at hand, urge voting by those eligible, or create interest in the total campaign. Little has been heard from WSTC or other publications of issues that most obviously should bring this to the attention of the student body.

I challenge the political clubs or any concerned individuals to come forth with a program to bring this year's election issues and candidates before the student body.

Marie Miller Brings to TC
Memories of Atlantic City
by Elaine Tollefson

Marie Miller, Miss Minnesota of 1956, has had one of the most exciting and wonderful summers anyone could ask for. As most of us here at Winona State know, Marie spent some time in Atlantic City this summer where she was in competition with forty-nine other girls for the title of Miss America of 1956.

Marie and Barb Flanagan from the Minneapolis Star and Tribune flew to New York on Sunday night and Sunday night were guests at the Steve Allen show.

After the show Marie was introduced to Steve Allen and Skitch Henderson, and was asked to be on Steve's Wednesday night show following the pageant. Marie didn't appear on the show because she had to be back for school.

The following day, Monday, Marie found Marie in Atlantic City and busy with the pageant. Monday afternoon she and the other girls had their first of many sessions with the photographers, and Monday night was the first of the rehearsals at Convention Hall. Here many of the girls presented the other girls with gifts. Miss Hawaii gave each of them a lei of orchids, and Marie gave each of them a page of poems.

Tuesday was spent in rehearsals and later in the day the boardwalk parade. Wednesday night Miss California won in her pageant. With a blue and gold taffeta flag, and for the finale each girl wore a gold cape which she could keep.

The girls were constantly being photographed, and in one of the next issues of Life magazine there will be a two-page color photo of the pageant.

All of the judges for the pageant competition are well known figures. Some of them were: Bert Parks, M.C.; Glenn Ossar, Band leader; BeBe Shoppe, Julius LaRosa, grand marshal of the parade, Ted Mack, and Jacques Mercier, past Miss America.

Although Marie didn't gain top honors, she is now a member of Mu Alpha Sigma, the national society of Miss America contestants. She received a sorority pin and will receive a copy of the sorority paper, the Pin-Nacle.

Marie also received a hundred dollar scholarship. In all, there was $35,000 given in scholarships to the various contestants.

Marie had a terrific time in Atlantic City. It was an experience that will never be forgotten and she says she is most grateful for the opportunity to be able to represent Minnesota in the pageant, and it might be added that she did a very good job of it.

“Let Dragones Be Bygones” Is Warrior Cry

Editor Goes Out on Limb
Predicts Remaining Games

by Bob Brown

Even though our Warrior gridders are quite a bit stronger than last year, they will still have tough going to beat some of the teams remaining on the schedule. Let’s go down the schedule game by game and see what’s in store for Winona.

First of all as a bit of review, the Warriors now have a 2-1 record behind Stout and Bemidji and having lost to an outplayed Mankato team.

Now for the tough part of this story — let’s look at the games coming up and try to determine what to expect.

This Saturday look for a Winona win. First glance at the records (Winona 2-1 and Moorhead 0-3) would indicate that the Warriors should be stronger and the fact that this is a Winona home game (and Homecoming) should increase the Warriors chances.

The following week the Owmen will journey to Ashland to take on the Northland Lumberjacks. On the basis of last year’s game (Winona 47, Northland 20) and the result of Northland’s last game this year (lost to Oshkosh, 39-0) the prospects are good for Winona. A good following from Winona to Ashland on October 13 could just be the thing to insure a TC victory.

The last three weeks of the schedule will find the Warriors battling with three excellent teams.

On October 20 Winona will invade the St. Cloud Homecoming and attempt to help prevent the Huskies from taking their sixth straight league crown. The job will not be easy, though, since St. Cloud has an experienced team led by the conference’s MVP, quarterback Bob Jennett, Dick Kubes, and Kermit King Miller also did superbly on offense and defensive prow.

River Falls has a team that is potentially as good as St. Cloud, but the Warriors will have the advantage of playing the Falcons at home. The Owmen have four returning all-conference men on their team including halfback John Steffen, who averaged about 150 yards per game last year.

River Falls opened this fall with a 14-6 victory over stubborn Augsburg, but then followed this up by defeating a favored LaCrosse team, 39-7. In the LaCrosse massacre Steffen accounted for 238 yards and 4 touchdowns. LaCrosse coach Belfiori likes to beat Winona and he’ll have his team keyed up for the game, so make River Falls a slight favorite over the Owmen.

The last game of the season finds the Owmen entertaining Whitewater on Parents’ Day. Whitewater has a sound team that outscored the Warriors 47-21 and the result of Northland’s first game (Winona 47, Northland 20) and the Owmen’s high♡

Jerry Seeman breaks away for sizable gain in Mankato game.

Winona Shows Power But Still Loses 26-6

Despite the tiring effort of the long bus ride to Bemidji, the Warrior football team had enough energy left to beat the Beavers, 13-7.

Winona showed more spirit and determination in this contest than has been present on a Warrior team for a long time.

The game opened as defensive struggle as neither team could score in the initial period. Early in the second quarter, however, Jerry Seeman found a Bemidji weakness and connected on a pass to Jerry Ebert who toted the ball 35 yards for the first score of the game. Seeman made the conversion and WestCt led, 7-0.

Later in the second period the Warriors punched down to the Bemidji one yard line and Don Segermark carried the ball into the end zone where he fumbled and Al Svenningson recovered for the touchdown. The try for the extra point was no good, so Winona left the field at halftime with a 13-0 lead.

The third quarter followed the same pattern as the first with neither team gaining any advantage. In the fourth period the Bemidji split-T began to move and behind the field generalship of Rich Carter the hometeam scored and converted.

Bemidji threatened once more before the game ended, but Jerry Seeman intercepted one of Carter’s passes and the Warriors controlled the ball until the game ended.

Bemidji Bows 13-7

Winona State’s Warriors got off on the right foot for the 1956 football season, Saturday, September 15, when they defeated a good Stout squad, 26-13 at Mankato.

Cementing together a good steady offense and a hard charging defense, the Owmen were able to take full charge of the contest after the start of the second half, at which time the score was tied at 0-0.

In the second half Jerry Seeman, Dick Brown, Segermark, and Jacobs completed the Owmen’s 99 yards gained from scrimmage.

Outstanding backs have been mentioned, but the front line led by Mike Bertels, Bill Zethell, John Genga, Satter, Svenningsen, and Jerry Ebert also did an outstanding job.

WPE Purpose Cited — ‘Acquaint Members With the Profession’

“Women’s Physical Education Club is an organization to which all physical education majors and minors are expected to belong. Its purpose is to acquaint its members with the profession and to study the problems involved,” said president Gloria Ronnenberg.

Members of W.P.E. helped with the freshmen women’s medical examinations by passing out cards, directing traffic and other tasks which helped the physicians as well as the freshmen themselves. W.P.E. is also sponsoring a float in the homecoming parade with the W.R.A.

During M.E.A., a student group will meet in St. Paul to discuss the purposes of student physical education.

Jerry Seeman breaks away for sizable gain in Mankato game.

With “Let Dragones Be Bygones” as a battle cry, Winona’s Warriors will charge out on Maxwell field this Saturday at 2:00 p.m. all set to conquer the Dragones as they vie for conference honors with Moorhead for the second time in three years.

The last time the Warriors accosted Moorhead in a Homecoming game was in 1954 when Winona topped the Dragons-9. Then last year Moorhead turned the tables on the Warriors by edging Winona 26-13 in a great second half rally when the Owmen gained all three of their touchdowns in the final stanza.

This year the teams should again be pretty evenly matched.

Moorhead has a new coach, Loel Fredrickson, who is an advocate of the popular split-T formation, but the Dragones have many returners back from their 1955 squad.

Some of the standout players among them are: back, 207 pounds; fullback, Frank Leidenfrost and Al Holmes; a pair of 180 pound guards; Glen Anderson, more quarterback who weighs about 190; and Ken Wiebolt, a 6’4”, 230 pound fullback.

Moorhead opened its season this year by bowing to a tough Concordia team, 25-6. The following week the Dragons lost a heartbreaker to Northern TC of Aberdeen, 14-13. Then just last week Moorhead fell before powerful St. Cloud, 40-0.

On the other side of the picture, Winona has had an even split of wins and downs. After an impressive 26-13 triumph over Stout, the Warriors lost to Moorhead. However, as Coach Owen stated in the assembly Monday following that game, although the Winona gridders were outpointed in the Mankato game they played a pretty ball quite superior to Moorhead’s.

Then last week Winona journeyed north to Bemidji where the Warriors edged the Dragons, 13-7. Bemidji, a fighting Beaver team, 13-7.

Injuries and ineligibleity of key players hamper the Owmen somewhat as they face Moorhead, but the Warriors spirits are high and when co-captain Dave Mertes stated bluntly, “We’ll take ‘em” he seemed to echo the sentiments of the whole squad.

Freshmen Elect Class Leaders

Glenn Johnson was elected freshman class president in an election that was highlighted by close contests and light voting.

In a tight battle for the vice presidency, Norbert Mills emerged the winner, so he and Johnson are joined by Marie Kellogg, the secretary-treasurer, as freshman class officers.

Elected to the finance and social committees respectively, were Dick Thompson and Don Severson. Don Severson won the freshman post on the library committee and Beverley Lewis joins her sister Marilyn in the Representative Council as Bev was elected for the public relations committee.

Who will represent the freshman on the assembly committee is not known yet since two girls, Helen Larson and Kay Strand, tied for tops in theballoting for that office. This contest will be decided soon, however, at a freshman class meeting.

The new school building will be called Phelps-Howell Hall after William Phelps who first started the idea of a campus school with college for elementary scholar.

The basisement of the new building is to house a lunch room, a kitchen for food preparation, a service counter, and dish room — this can also be used for different assemblies and movies.

The new building will also have a small living room, ticket lobby, sick room, and bathrooms. One half floor above this there will be a kindergarten, craft room, teacher's office, storeroom, and bathrooms. There will be three class rooms each having an alcove for coats, a teacher's office, cabinets, and bathroom.

The next floor houses the distinctive feature of the building — an observation gallery that looks down over each classroom. This will be useful for an entire observation class.

The distinctive features of the structure are patterned brick, steel window frames, and stained glass. Appropriation for the building was made by the 1955 legislature — $300,000.

Men's Dorm

The construction of the new men's dorm at Huff and Sanborn Streets is, at the present, halted because of lack of steel.

The basement will have a basement and four stories above ground. It will house 150 students and be able to handle about 400 in the new cafeteria.

The second floor will have recreation rooms, food storage rooms, a boiler room, and a laundry. The third floor will have a lobby, office, reception room, and student rooms.

The remaining floors will be all the same — a corridor in the center of the hall and double rooms along the sides with a small lounge just off the stairway.

The dormitory is scheduled to be completed by September 1957 at a cost of $626,000.

Sonsen

A $200,000 rehabilitation project in Sonsen Hall is well along and was completed this month. The project consists of a power plant, electrical fixtures and wiring, building partitions, a girls' lounge, and a new bandroom on the ground floor off the King Street entrance.
WSTC Enrollment Exceeds Estimates

The enrolment of a college, as Dr. Nels Minne, president of WSTC sees it, is not merely a matter of increase or decrease. It consists of looking through many years, into the past and future as well as the present. Dr. Minne has compiled a graph which shows the relationship between the total number of eighteen year olds and the number of college students for each year since 1920, to be used as a basis for forecasting the enrolment of the coming years.

This year’s enrolment, 926 students on campus, 300 off campus exceeds the estimated number. Of the 926 on campus, approximately 300 are freshmen, and 600 are upper classmen. 58 of them are Master Degree students.

Next year’s freshmen enrolment will probably be 5% larger than this year’s enrolment, although there are many factors which may cause a change.

How WSTC students are mainly from the moderate income bracket, the economic level will be an important factor and the number of men drafted will also affect the final 1957 enrolment.

Voters’ Aid - Information on Candidates

In order to aid the voter in making his decision on which candidate to vote for, the Winonan is covering the back-ground information on each of the candidates.

Audrey Deters

Audrey was nominated by the LSA, and is a member of FTA, Bradford Club, Kappa Delta Pi, and WRA.

Maggie’s likes and dislikes both center around the Smog—she likes the new lights in there, but she doesn’t like dances there (or anywhere else) where everyone just stands around.

Jackie Fuller

An elementary and Spanish major just returned from a year of study in the Philippines. Jackie is being backed by the Young Republican Club. The activities she is taking part in are FTA, YWCA, Winonan, LSA, Kappa Delta Pi, Sigma Delta Pi, and she is a V-Teen leader.

Kappy Hammergren

Hailing from Cochrane, Wisconsin, and supported by the Wenonah Players, Kappy is another candidate that thinks that in general everyone is very friendly and down to earth here.

Kappy, who is vice president of the Young Republican Club and also belongs to FTA, Wenonah Players, Radio Guild, and Bradford Club, feels that our school spirit could undergo a change. She says, “We have a good team so let’s get together and back it up.”

Carol Mahlke

Carol is an English major and, appropriately enough, her campaign is being engineered by the English Club. She is vice president of the English Club, Historian for the Recorder of Kappa Delta Pi, and a member of Gamma Delta.

Miss Mahlke likes the sincerity of everyone at Winona State, and there are two things she would like to have eliminated—8:00 a.m. classes and post office boxes on ground level.

Shirley Marburger

Candidate of the “W” Club, Shirley’s activities include FTA, Kappa Delta Pi, and YWCA. Also active in the classroom, Miss Marburger has an elementary major with minors in art and library.

Shirley likes the friendly, sincere girls at the dorm and the entire student body. She says the campaigns have proven that the student body really does have enthusiasm. Shirley says that there really isn’t anything she dislikes about TC.

Barb Reuslo

FTA has chosen Barb Reuslo, a kindergarten primary major from Caledonia, as its candidate for queen. Barb is secretary of FTA, secretary-treasurer of WRA, and belongs to Bradford Club, YWCA, and Winonan staffs, Orientation Team, and Representative Council.

Barb likes the friendliness of the students and the interest the instructors have in each individual student, but she feels that the school spirit could be better, especially at games.

Gloria Ronnenberg

Gloria, a physical education major who was nominated by the Science Club and WRA. Miss Ronnenberg likes TC because it is a small college where it is easy to get to know people and she also likes the friendly individual instruction from the teachers.

Gloria feels that Winona State is low on school spirit and needs more social functions, but “things are picking up and the changes being made now are good.”

Olly Tovson

From Manchester, Minnesota, the YWCA candidate is Olly Tovson. Olly is publicity chair-man of Homecoming, vice president of both WRA and WPE, program chairman of Kappa Delta Pi, and a member of FTA, LSA, and the Wenonah staff. Olly is also student dean.

Everything about TC pleases Miss Tovson, especially Memorial Hall, but she is a little peeved about the cafeteria.

Wesleyans Hear U Psychologist

"Have you ever been hypnotized?"

That question was asked of Wesley Club members by Dr. William T. Heron of the Psychology Department of the University of Minnesota when he spoke to the Wesley Club on Thursday, September 20.

Six Wesley Club members were hypnotized and it is to be hypothesized that Dr. Heron was demonstrating the application of the new phenomena. Dr. Heron also explained the usefulness of hypnosis in the medical field.

At an earlier meeting of the Wesley Club Reverend Campbell of Austin spoke to the group.

Fuller Family Finds College Campus Cozy

A whole family in T.C.; two as teachers and two as students. And even more important, they, the Fullers, have just returned from a ten month stay in the Philippines where Dr. Fuller had a special research grant.

The most unusual experience during their stay in the Philippines was their visit to the graveyard on All Saints Day. Instead of the solemnity and prankerterousness (Halloween) that we have here, they celebrated by opening graves and dancing around the exhumed burial vaults.

The mausoleums are opened and lunches are served on the second floor, and you might find people folk dancing on the third. According to Mr. Fuller the Philippine mausoleums are more like homes than burial vaults.

While there, Mr. Fuller taught lecture courses in education at the Philippine Normal College in Manila. Besides his teaching which was the purpose of the grant, he also wrote articles for the college’s magazine, held a consultative position in the college, interviewed and screened applicants who want to attend colleges and universities here, toured and lectured in cities of the Philippines, and attended South-eastern Musical Festival.

Elaine and Jackie attended Philippine Normal College, taking only the courses offered that they could use for their elementary major.

Jackie auditioned a number of classes, did private tutoring, and wrote articles for the weekly and the daily paper.

Elaine became interested in folk dancing and became so expert at it, that she was asked to perform at the closing exercises of The Coconut Children’s Christmas pageant on the Ed Sullivan Show and for a party held in honor of Mazda Brando. Elaine said that she was so surrounded by socialites that she was unable to meet him.

Both girls enjoyed the social life which is more extensive than it is here. Jackie also enjoyed working with United States Information Service’s traveling bookmobile.

Mrs. Fuller didn’t stay home all the time either. In December (they had been there since July) she started teaching in naval base school across the bay and then during the summer did remedial teaching.

Now she is back here and teaching in Phelps while one of the teachers is on sick leave.

Instead of taking the shortest way home, they took a round the world tour.

Dr. Fuller believes that the purpose of the grant — to bring about an exchange and appreciation of cultures, were fulfilled. The whole family enjoyed and appreciated their stay in the Philippines but they were still very happy to get home.

Young GOPs Hear Speaker and Plan Autumn Activities

Mr. T. L. Lindroos, Winona County campaign manager for Senator Ancier Nelsen, spoke at the organizational meeting of the Winona State Young Republican Club.

Lindroos explained how he got interested in politics and how he went on to outline some of the Republican campaign ideas for the coming election. A point that Lindroos emphasized was the importance of young people in the political campaigns.

The Young Republicans are now at work on a non partisan campaign for Jackie Fuller as Homecoming Queen.

When asked for a comment on the activities of the YRL, president Olly Tovson said that the organization has put a lot of time and hard work into both those meetings and plans for the American way of life as well as a strong school spirit through building a float for the Homecoming parade.

Osburn also went on to explain the purpose of the YRL on campus. He said, “The club on this campus is primarily to comple-

Dr. Christenson received all three of his degrees at the University of Minnesota in 1950, 1952, and 1956 respectively.
