Music concerts highlight end of spring quarter

The WSC Orchestra's spring concert was presented May 21 in Somsen Auditorium.

The featured soloists were Carol Greinwald who played "Piano Concert No. 1" by Beethoven and Karen Krusten who played "Violin Concerto in A Major" by Mozart. Both soloists gave excellent performances.

The orchestra, under the direction of Richard McClure, played two selections, "Overture" by von Weber and "Euphony No. 1 in C Major" by Beethoven.
With spring come the annual flower stealers who have the most scented rooms. This will solve the problem. With Greenwich Time every place will be tradition that The Wenonah runs an hour late. Some, as usual, will.
