WINONA TEACHERS' COLLEGE PLANS

The Winona Teachers' College has announced plans for the coming year. The college will continue to offer a variety of programs aimed at preparing students for careers in education and related fields. The fall term will begin on August 27th, and the spring term will begin on January 28th. The college will offer a range of courses in subjects such as mathematics, science, social studies, and English. The college will also continue its efforts to provide students with opportunities for internships and other practical experience.

MRS. SANTA CLAUS APPEARS AT DINNER

Mrs. Santa Claus appeared at the Y. W. C. A. dinner on Monday evening, December 23rd. She was accompanied by Mrs. Lida Koontz, who played the role of Mrs. Claus's helper. The dinner was held in the college dining hall, and the proceeds were used to purchase gifts for needy children in the community.

JUNIOR HIGH WRITING AND PRESENTS PLAY

The Junior High writing department gave a Christmas play on Monday night. The play featured a variety of characters from the holiday season. The students wrote the script themselves, and the play was directed by Mr. Holzinger. The play was well received by the audience, who enjoyed the humor and the talent of the performers.

ORGANIZATIONS

The Y. W. C. A. held a meeting on Thursday evening, January 24th. The meeting was well attended, and the students discussed issues such as club activities and the upcoming social events. The meeting concluded with the election of new officers.

THE PARISIANS&lt;S

The Parisians, a social group at the college, held their annual Christmas dance on Saturday evening, December 24th. The dance was held in the college gymnasium, and a large crowd attended. The Parisians featured a variety of performances, including a dance by Mr. and Mrs. Whitford and a performance by the college choir.

WOMEN'S ATHLETICS

The women's basketball team continues to dominate the competition. The team has won all of its games so far, and it looks like it will continue to do so. The team's next game is against a tough opponent, but the women's team is confident in its ability to win.

FEAST OF THE YEAR

The Winona Teachers' College held its annual feast on Saturday evening, December 28th. The feast was held in the college dining hall, and the menu featured a variety of dishes, including roast beef, chicken, and vegetables. The feast was well attended, and the students enjoyed the food and the company.

FACULTY TEAM

The college faculty basketball team was defeated by a strong squad of players from the college at a game on Tuesday evening. The faculty team was led by Mr. Holzinger, and the game was held in the college gymnasium. The faculty team was able to keep the game close, but it ultimately lost.

THE PARISIANS' PARADE

The Parisians held their annual parade on Saturday morning, December 28th. The parade was held in the college grounds, and a large crowd attended. The Parisians featured a variety of performances, including a dance by Mr. and Mrs. Whitford and a performance by the college choir.

Are You?

As you get older, you can expect to have some of the effects of aging. Here are a few things to keep in mind:

1. Your skin becomes dryer and less elastic.
2. Your hair becomes thinner and may turn gray or white.
3. Your muscles become weaker and your joints less flexible.
4. Your sense of smell and taste may become less acute.
5. You may have more difficulty remembering things.

In an effort to prevent these effects, we have some tips for you:

1. Eat a balanced diet rich in nutrients.
2. Exercise regularly to maintain your muscle strength and flexibility.
3. Get enough sleep to help your body repair itself.
4. Stay hydrated throughout the day.
5. Take medication as directed by your doctor.

If you have any questions about these or other aging effects, please ask us. We're here to help.

THREE LUXURIOUS MOTOR CARS---- 21 PRIZES IN ALL!

TEN PER CENT COMMISSION TO NON-WINNERS

Candidates cannot lose in this campaign—that is impossible. If they fail to win one of the regular prizes, the Morning Leader will pay them 10 per cent commission on the gross amount of newspaper subscription money they collect on all New subscriptions, provided they turn in one or more New subscriptions each week from the time they start to work in the campaign. The campaign works both ways—a profit-sharing prize circulation holding campaign and a very good paying job. If you want an automobile or any of the valuable prizes we offer, enter your name. You can't lose.

Campaign to be short and snappy.

This campaign is not going to drag over a protracted period of time—the race ends, Saturday, March 11, 1922—this fact expresses the liberality of the plan and makes it easier for every candidate engaged in the competition for prizes. It means that within only 49 working days, a host of happy folks will be proud participants in the mammoth gift-giving enterprise.

The big campaign is just getting under way. $6,000 in beautiful prizes await the men and women who enter now. Your co-operation in extending the circulation of the Morning and Weekly Leader will be well rewarded.

In order to win you will have to get out and sell. Every prize is free. You need only gather votes to drive one of these cars to your home—All Votes are tallied Saturday, March 11th, 1922.

Grasp this opportunity today. Don't wait until others get ahead. Don't let an automobile slip away from you just because you neglected to enter in the Nomination Blank.
