Sheppard Jury Takes Luncheon Break, No Report on Progress

Sec. Of State John Foster Dulles, center, was in a cheerful mood as he returned to Washington today with Foreign Operations Administrator Harold Stassen, left, and Treasury Sec. George Humphrey. The trio had been attending the Atlantic Alliance meetings in Paris. Dulles told newsmen that "some very important decisions" had been reached at the parley. (UP Telephoto)

Foundations Deny Committee Charges

WASHINGTON (U)—Spokesmen for several foundations have hit back with such terms as "biased" and "filmy" at a House committee report accusing the giant tax-free groups of promoting a socialism of "far greater menace" at home than Communism.

The report was issued last night over the signatures of the three Republicans on a special five-member committee headed by Rep. Reese (R-Tenn.). One of them, Rep. Goodwin of Massachusetts, dissented from many of the conclusions, including the one that the foundations promote socialism.

Cut in Personal Property Tax Urged for State

ST. PAUL (U)—A personal property tax reduction aimed at attracting new industry into the state and encouraging present industry to expand is being recommended by the Minnesota Tax Study Commission.

The commission proposes a cut from 3 1/2 to 20 per cent of true value the assessment on manufacturing equipment and that inventories be assessed at 10 instead of 3 1/2 per cent. The new rates would conform with those on farm personal property.

In its report, the commission said it believes "that this will be of long range benefit to all of the people of the state, and that this will encourage the expansion of industry in the state, will increase the tax base, will create more jobs for people throughout the state and will enhance our economic welfare."

"This commission recognizes that the loss in revenue to local taxing units will have to be replaced by some new method of raising revenue."

Pope Has Brief Return of Hiccups

VATICAN CITY (U)—Pope Pius XII, now taking short daily outings in his private Vatican garden, rested "quite well" last night despite a brief return of his hiccups, a reliable source reported.

Judge Confident 12 Still Hope To Reach Verdict

By RELMAN MORIN

CLEVELAND (U)—Still deadlocked, jurors in the Sheppard murder trial ended the morning session today and went to lunch with no sign they are near a verdict.

It was the fourth day since they began deliberating. When they were excused at 12:08 p.m., they had more than 27 hours of conferences behind them, and had been sequestered 74 hours since last Friday morning.

Judge Edward Blythin made no effort to determine, by asking the foreman, whether there is now any possibility of agreement. He merely made his usual set speech, cautioning them not to discuss the case while they are out of the courtroom.

The judge said he will confer with lawyers on both sides today if the jury still fails to reach a verdict. He said he had not made up his mind, beyond that, what to do.

"We will talk with counsel on both sides and see where we go from there," the judge said.

As the possibility grew larger of a "hung jury," one unable to reach a verdict, Assistant Prosecutor Thomas Parrino said there is no doubt that Sheppard will be tried a second time.

If the jurors remain deadlocked today, Judge Blythin can ask the foreman how the jurors stand. And if he is told there is no hope of agreement, he can discharge them. This would necessitate another long and expensive trial.

Courtroom veterans were unable to remember any jury going so many hours without a verdict, or being held so long by a judge.

Judge Blythin told newsmen he does not consider it unusual that the jury is taking so much time.

"If they were convinced they could not agree, they would speak up, but I have not had a single question or communication from them."

The jurors took the case at 10:13 a.m. last Friday. When they were excused last night, there was no after-dinner session—they had been together nearly 56 hours, and actually deliberating in the jury room just over 24 hours.

Sheppard himself looks pale, drawn and unutterably weary. The state alleges that he killed his wife last July 4. His relations with other women, the prosecution argued, prompted the crime. Thus, the charge is first degree murder. Conviction of the charge would carry a mandatory death sentence unless the jury recommended mercy.

Sheppard steadfastly denies any guilt. He says a prowler broke into his home while he was asleep and beat Marilyn Sheppard to death. She was pregnant at the time.

Hays recounted in a separate news conference that the committee's 16 stormy public hearings called off by the GOP majority after only one profound witness had taken the stand. He said he believes it might be a good idea for the new Democratic-controlled Congress to hold a short set of hearings for the foundations to present their side of the case.

Reese, in a separate statement attached to the committee report, said further testimony was not taken because of Hays' "obstructive and harassing acts" at the hearings.

The GOP report said the foundations influence national policies through the power of the purse ("public" money because of the foundations' tax-exempt status) amplified through a host of "intermediate" organizations, such as information clearing houses and professional societies. It said professional foundation administrators, not the big-name trustees, wield the actual power.

Generally Desirable
However, it declared foundations generally are desirable and it said particular benefits have come from foundations in medicine, public health and science.

26 Perish in Italian Plane Crash in N.Y.

Salvage Crews Ready to Raise Sunken Craft

NEW YORK (U)—Salvage crews planned today to raise the wreckage of an Italian airliner that crashed into Jamaica Bay at the end of a Rome-New York flight Saturday.

Twenty-six persons died. Six others survived.

The Civil Aeronautics Board, which has been checking the crash near Idlewild Airport, scheduled closed preliminary hearings today.

Wreckage of the four-engine DC6B airliner was located yesterday by Navy divers, who reported it appeared to be in three main pieces.

They said the fuselage, in which 17 bodies are believed trapped, seemed to be intact but had flipped over, with its nose pointing out into the bay.

Bodies of nine crash victims already have been recovered. The last, found yesterday, was that of 12-year-old Rosalia d'Ugo, daughter of Mrs. Natali d'Ugo, Chicago.

One of the crash survivors said Rosalia had managed to get clear of the wrecked plane and he had seen her struggling in the water.

"I swam over to her," said Frank Messina, Mount Vernon, N.Y., "and put her on two seats which had fallen out of the plane and were drifting nearby."

The six survivors were in the rear of the plane and got out or were thrown clear when the tail cracked off. Two young students returned from Italy were uninjured and able to go home. The others were taken to hospitals.

Investigators said the plane apparently struck the end of a 2,000-foot pier with its tail as it approached the airport.

Mendes-France Wins Vote Of Confidence

PARIS (U)—The French National Assembly today gave Premier Mendes-France a vote of confidence—310 to 172—on his Indochina policies, thus clearing the way for a four-day debate on German rearmament.

The number of the Premier's supporters was sharply reduced, however, from his total on previous votes of confidence since he took office six months ago. On Aug. 10, he won a confidence vote on large special economic powers, 361 to 80, with 143 abstentions.

Goodfellows Drive in Last Week

Requests for help continue to Goodfellows as the drive enters its final week. Two of the letters follow:

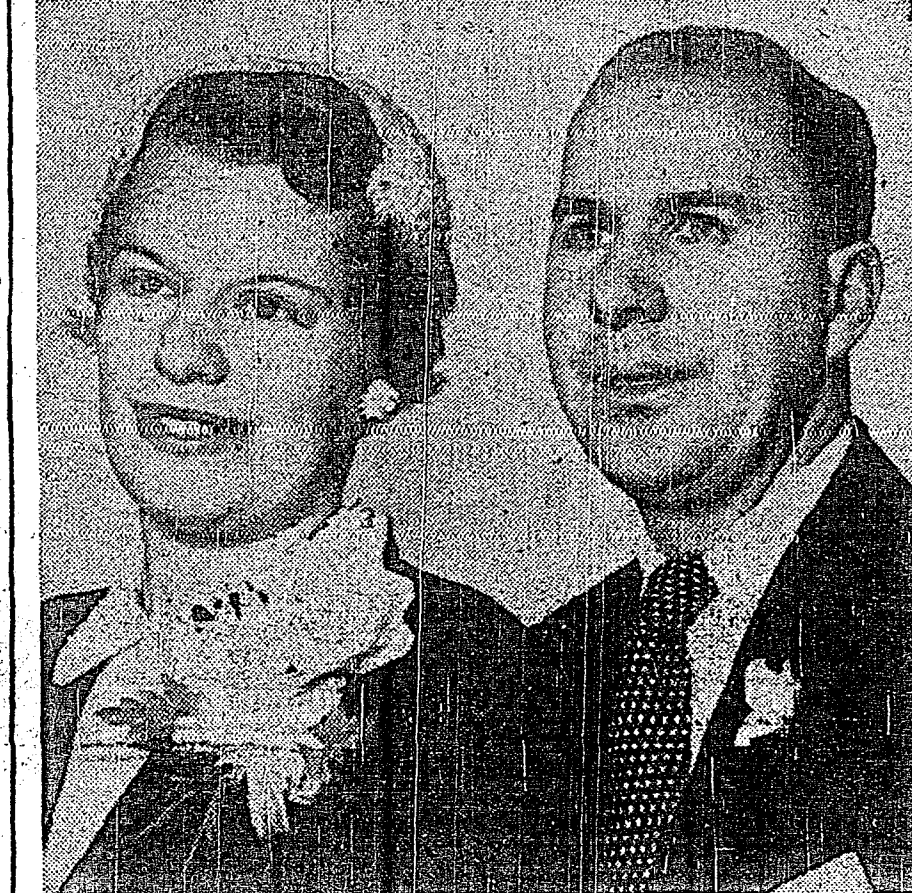

Dear Mr. Goodfellow:
I have been a widow for three years and have no income. I pay rent and have two children, one 7 years old and one 10 years old. I would like to have a pair of shoes for them. Thank you a lot, Mr. Goodfellow. They would like a pair of overalls, too.
Merry Christmas.
(Signed)

Dear Mr. Goodfellow:
I and my little girl who will be 2 soon are on relief, and we are wondering if we could get a snowsuit, size 2, and a pair of boots, size 4. Both of us are sick with sore throats, and right at this time we are out of oil, too.
We wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.
Sincerely,
(Signed)

These cases will, of course, be examined by the Goodfellows. These are only two of the many letters received by the Goodfellows. They are written by friends of families and by mothers whose children are in desperate need. Four hundred needy youngsters have received Goodfellows help. All Goodfellows money is spent on new clothing—warm snowsuits, overalls, mittens, whatever each needy child must have to face the winter. The children are taken to the stores where each one is fitted individually.

Hammaraskjold Plans Meeting Next Week

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (U)—U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold announced last night after a meeting with Communist China's ambassador to Sweden that he still plans to leave for Peking sometime after Dec. 26, but the exact date has not been set.

As Hammarskjold conferred at a luncheon with the envoy, Gen. Keng Piao, Peiping radio broadcast further legal arguments against the release of the 11 U.S. fliers China is holding as spies. The radio quoted a brief by a Chinese judge that the Korean armistice applied only to the North Koreans and the Chinese "volunteers" in Korea, not to the Chinese peasants and police the broadcast said had captured the airmen.

An official announcement from Hammarskjold said, his 2 1/2-hour discussion with Keng was on practical matters concerning his mission to China. The secretary general will seek the release of the American airmen and all other U.N. personnel still held by the Chinese since the Korean War.

U.N. Press Chief Wilder Foote said all details of Hammarskjold's China trip would be announced as soon as they have been settled.

He said no further meetings were planned with the Chinese before the secretary general's return to New York tomorrow.

The Peiping broadcast yesterday quoted Mei Ju-ao, a Chinese justice at the Japanese war crimes trials after World War II, as saying the case of the American fliers had nothing to do with the Korean armistice because the truce applied on the Communist side only to prisoners captured by the North Koreans and Chinese "volunteers."

This fitted in with China's contention that she officially was not involved in the Korean War.

In New York, Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., chief U.S. delegate to the U.N., said Americans should be cautious in their comment on the coming talks between Hammarskjold and Communist Premier Chou En-lai.

"Let us avoid doing or saying anything adversely against getting them (the fliers) out," Lodge said in a television interview.

Warns Nation On Ratification Of Paris Plan

Similar to Warning Given Paris on Rearming Germany

MOSCOW (U)—Russia today threatened to scrap the British-Soviet Mutual Assistance Treaty if the Paris agreements to reararm West Germany are ratified.

This warning was in a note handed to British Ambassador Sir William Hayter by Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko at the Foreign Ministry.

The text of the note was not immediately available but it was understood to be similar to a note given France last Thursday threatening abrogation of the French-Soviet treaty.

The Soviet Foreign Ministry called a news conference for this evening and it was believed the text of the note would be made public then.

The British-Soviet treaty, designed to run for 20 years, was signed by British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov in London, May 26, 1942.

It is a treaty of alliance, collaboration and mutual assistance aimed against "Hitlerite Germany."

The two nations pledged themselves to help rebuild Europe on the terms of the Roosevelt-Churchill Atlantic Charter, to negotiate with no German government that failed to renounce aggression, to avoid alliances directed against each other and to take "common action to preserve peace and prevent aggression in the postwar period."

Freeman to Ask 2-Year Budget Of $167 Million

ST. PAUL (U)—Gov.-elect Orville Freeman said today that on the basis of present plans, he will recommend a two-year budget of 167 million dollars to the 1955 Minnesota Legislature.

This would include an increased allowance for old age assistance. The present maximum is $60 a month. Freeman said he would recommend that this be increased to $65.

The budget total is about 10 million less than the total of requests of state departments. It is two million larger than the budget submitted to the 1953 Legislature by Gov. Anderson.

The 1953 Legislature finally voted about 154 million.

Estimated revenue from present tax sources is about 140 million. This means that additional revenue totaling about 27 million will have to be found to balance the budget. Freeman said he and his budget aides will be working on the revenue problem during the next 10 days. He declined to go into detail about possible new taxes.

The governor-elect said his proposed budget as it now stands contemplates only carrying on existing services, except in the welfare field.

There, in addition to increasing the monthly maximum, he plans to ask the Legislature to change the law to make it possible, in effect, for old age recipients to have more outside income.

Present law limits outside income to $100 a year. Freeman said he would propose that deductions occasioned by more income from the subsistence budget set up for individual old age recipients, rather than from the old age assistance allowance itself.

He said present limitations are causing real hardship, especially in the larger cities.

The old age assistance changes he proposed would cost an estimated $1,300,000 over the next two years.

Freeman refused to specify where the ten million dollar cut in department requests were made. He emphasized, however, that salary increases given state employees during the last two years would be continued.

Christmas Tree Can Be Hazard, Fire Chief Says

Official in Appeal To Winona Residents To Take Precautions

An appeal for all Winona residents to observe fire safety precautions during the Christmas holiday season was made today by Fire Chief Frank P. Witt.

Chief Witt especially emphasized that attention be given to electrical circuits as a fire safety measure.

"Each year a number of home fires develop because of circuits overloaded by additional lighting decorations," the chief explained. "Care should be taken, also, that 15-ampere fuses are used in fuse boxes."

He urged that cotton or any inflammable material be kept away from light bulbs and asked that the Christmas tree be placed in a holder that has a water container to prevent excessive drying of the tree.

"Waste paper from Christmas wrappings sometimes accumulates during the holidays and is a potential fire hazard," Chief Witt continued. "All such paper should be cleared away immediately and discarded in a suitable container."

He suggested that when persons leave the house for any period the Christmas tree and other decorative electrical lighting arrangements be turned off.

Chief Witt also asked that all electrical cords be inspected to insure that they are not frayed or otherwise in need of repairs.

"There is nothing more dangerous in a house than a dry Christmas tree," he said.

"When a tree is excessively dry the smallest spark can touch off a fire that has an almost explosive force," he reminded, "and for this reason we ask that the trees be removed from the house when it can be seen that the branches are dry."

Home Decoration Judging Dec. 26

Gale Hunn, chairman of the Winona Junior Chamber of Commerce's Christmas lighting contest, announced today that three judges for the annual affair have been selected and that they will rate Winona and Goodview entries Dec. 26, beginning at 7 p.m.

Hunn said that it is not necessary for residents to send in entry blanks for their outdoor displays but added that it would help if contestants called the Winona police department and listed their names and addresses.

Prizes for the contest have been donated by the Mississippi Valley Public Service Co.

Another annual Jaycee-sponsored event, Winona's person-to-person line to the North Pole serviced about 650 calls before area children to Santa Claus Sunday.

Youngsters from Homer, Minnesota City, Rollingstone and Winona used the service from 1 to 5 p.m. It was reported that Santa said the requests included almost everything imaginable. One boy asked for a hippopotamus.

Scenes Similar To This One are familiar in most Winona churches this week as Sunday School children portray in word and song the events connected with the birth of Jesus Christ. As teachers prompt and parents fidget, the tots recite memory verses from the gospels of Matthew and Luke and junior choirs sing Christmas carols.

Nelson School Addition Opposed By Some Voters

NELSON, Wis. —Opposition has been voiced to a proposed $72,000 high school addition here on the eve of a public vote on the issue. It is scheduled Tuesday.

Electors approved the referendum, 201-43, at a public meeting Nov. 22.

Mrs. Grant Seitz, Durand area housewife, says the opposition feels that the addition is unnecessary because of a falling enrollment. This is substantiated by a letter she received from G. E. Watson, state superintendent of schools dated Dec. 6. It states in part:

"According to information in our files, the maximum enrollment for the present year, as reported in the preliminary report to this office is 72. This means that the average daily attendance will not exceed 65. Then we have also been informed that a portion of the territory formerly served by the Nelson school has been placed in the Durand district, which means an additional loss of from 3 to 5 pupils."

"It is our understanding that there is a possibility that some territory may be considered for detachment from the Nelson district and attachment to the Alma district."

"All this adds up to just one thing; namely, that the enrollment in the Nelson high school will continue to decrease."

"I have discussed this with Mr. Page, Mr. Senty, and Mr. Kimball, who are in charge of building service, school supervision and district reorganization respectively, and they are of the opinion that it would be very unwise for the Nelson Union High School District to assume an indebtedness of such magnitude when there is no tangible evidence that the high school enrollment will increase to any great extent for quite some time to come."

"If any building improvement is made in the village of Nelson, we believe it would be for the improvement of the elementary school."

Earlier the State Department of Public Instruction revealed that the Nelson school would lose part of its state aids if certain shop and home economics facilities were not added to the curriculum.

The new addition would house shops and a home economics department beside a gymnasium-auditorium. A school census of the Nelson area revealed that there will be an increase in enrollment in the future, according to a local source.

Polls will be open at the school from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Remodeling the present gymnasium-auditorium into classroom space would cost an additional $18,000 to $20,000, according to estimates.

City Opens Two More Ice Rinks

Two more ice skating rinks have been opened for public use today, M. J. Bambenek, director of parks and recreation, announced.

They are the East Center and Athletic Park rinks where music and lights for night skating are provided.

The Lake Winona rink, also with lights, music and a concession stand, was opened earlier.

Bambenek said that the other rinks are still under construction and an announcement will be made when they are ready for use.

Watkins Trial Set to Start February 14

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—The J. R. Watkins Co. and several of its officials, charged with conspiracy to evade federal taxes on alcohol used in liniment production, will stand trial Feb. 14.

Date for the trial was set Saturday by Federal Judge Gunnar H. Nordbye who today had under consideration a defense motion to shift the site of the trial from St. Paul to Winona.

Defense attorneys contend the trial should be held in Winona because many prospective witnesses and some of the defendants are from that area.

The judge also took under advisement a motion by George MacKinnon, U. S. district attorney, to consolidate two indictments, one alleging conspiracy and the other alleging false statements to the government.

MacKinnon said the indictments are substantially the same. There was no indication when Judge Nordbye would rule on the motions.

'YM' Announces Holiday Activities

Holiday activities at the Winona YMCA got under way today with full day gym and swim schedules.

Christmas activities began at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon with the Hi-Y Club's toboggan party. After tobogganing at the Winona Country Club, the club members and their dates were scheduled to return to the "Y" for a lunch and dance.

Two tours are scheduled for the Preps (3rd and 4th grades) and Cadets (5th and 6th grades) during the school holiday. Tuesday, the group will tour the Federal Bakery, assembling at the "Y" at 1:30 p.m. On Dec. 29, the same groups will tour the fire and police departments. They're scheduled to meet at the "Y" at 1:30 p.m. to begin the tour. Swim parties will follow both tours.

The Cadets also will hold a swimming meet Dec. 28 at 1 p.m. with prizes for the winners.

Wednesday, an all-junior high school Christmas party will be held from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. The swimming pool will be open from 9 to 10 p.m. and the lounge and game rooms will be open throughout the evening. Dancing also will be featured with admission of 15 cents single or 25 cents per couple.

Big Cities Vote Tax Program For Legislature

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Two plans which would pump additional state revenue into the treasuries of Minnesota's larger cities today were being prepared for submission to the 1935 Minnesota Legislature.

The program was approved Saturday by the Nine Cities Revenue Committee, composed of representatives from Minneapolis, St. Paul, Duluth, Rochester, Winona, St. Louis Park, Austin, Richfield and St. Cloud.

They would:

• Raise the state tax on gross earnings from 7 to 8 per cent, distributing to communities all but 4 1/2 million dollars which the state would retain.

• Impose a surtax on income taxes, the proceeds going to all communities over 10,000 population.

Officials said the gross earnings tax plan would yield about $740,000 and would be distributed on a 75 per cent basis. Of that amount, Minneapolis would get about $400,000 the rest going to 22 other communities.

Similar plans have been defeated before by the Legislature, but city conferees believe the 1 per cent increase might be more acceptable.

A specific figure on the surtax plan will be hammered out before the plan goes to the Legislature by a city subcommittee. One plan discussed at the session would impose a 10 per cent surtax to be paid to the community where the taxpayers work.

Such a plan has run into opposition from St. Louis Park and Richfield, most of whose residents work in Minneapolis. Only Minneapolis, St. Paul, Duluth, Richfield and St. Louis Park were represented at Saturday's meeting.

Rochester Tax Higher in '35

ROCHESTER, Minn.—Taxes to be paid by Rochester citizens in 1935 will be higher by 3.40 mills, according to figures released by County Auditor Frances Underleak. The '35 mill rate will be 161.00 compared with 157.60 this year.

State and county rates are down, by 1.30 mills, but the city rate is up 2.40 mills and the Rochester school rate is up by 2.30 mills.

The state rate will be 9.15 mills in 1935 compared to 9.94 this year. The county rate will be 29.85 mills compared to 30.36.

Assessed valuations have held steady in Rochester. That means the "average" taxpayer with a $10,000 home (assessed at $1,800 with a homestead) will pay about $290 in taxes next year, compared to $283 this year.

The new, higher mill rate is levied on 1934 assessed valuations, payable in 1935.

Generous Donations To Salvation Army Baskets Reported

Winona residents contributed generously Saturday to the Salvation Army call for Christmas baskets, Capt. Charles F. Hall said today.

As examples of the volume of donations, he mentioned about 300 cans of peas, about 300 packages of desserts and about 2,100 pounds of potatoes.

Those who were missed in the Boy Scout collection may call the Salvation Army, he said, to arrange for a pickup.

Capt. Hall reminded that the deadline for filing application for a Christmas basket is Tuesday. A total of 125 have been cleared. He also noted the receipt of a $200 gift from the Elks lodge toward the purchase of food.

New Highway 12 In Future Plans

EAU CLAIRE, Wis.—An improved highway 12 is being planned for travelers between here and the Twin Cities, but it may be a while before it materializes.

The state highway commission has allocated $400,000 to be spent in 1935 for making surveys and drawing up preliminary plans for 70 miles of the heavily traveled road between here and Hudson, Wis.

E. R. Holm, division engineer, said the plans will undoubtedly include "considerable rerouting," but he added, "There's no money in sight now for actual construction."

Holm said the rejection, for the time being, of the proposal to build a modern toll road from Illinois to the Minnesota border was probably a major factor in spurring the commission to plan highway 12 improvements.

Child, 5, Injured In Fountain Accident

PRESTON, Minn. (Special)—Wintery conditions contributed to a head-on collision near Fountain late Saturday afternoon, according to Neil Haugerud, Fillmore County deputy sheriff, who investigated.

Marsha Reiden, 5, daughter of T. Marvel Reiden, 32, Fountain, was slightly injured. Reiden was driving west on a township road about seven miles east of Fountain when he met a car driven by Selmer Kinneberg, 51, Rushford, on a blind curve.

Drifted snow made the passable road narrow and contributed to the mishap, Haugerud said. Kinneberg's car was damaged an estimated $300 and Reiden's, $150.

Stoves Blamed For Fires at 2 Farm Homes

House Destroyed In Fountain Area, Another Damaged

FOUNTAIN, Minn. (Special)—Overheated stoves were blamed for two farm fires here over the weekend which destroyed one home and partially burned another.

The home of the Orrin Broadwaters, two miles west of Fountain, burned to the ground at 9 a.m. Sunday due to an overheated stove pipe. Loss is estimated at $5,000. Sheila Broadwater, 8, one of five children, discovered the fire when she left the barn where most of the family were doing morning chores. Her mother was at the chicken coop.

Since the family had no telephone, it was necessary to run to a neighbor's. Some difficulty was encountered in getting a call through to the fire department because of busy lines and lack of water hindered firemen after their arrival. Some of the family belongings were thrown to safety by the Broadwaters and neighbors. They will move into the Sundet residence in Fountain temporarily.

Fire also destroyed a lean-to addition on the Ray Daugherty farm, 3 1/2 miles west of here at 5 p.m. Saturday. An overheated stove in the addition was blamed. Flames were confined to the lean-to although the rest of the house was damaged some by smoke. Loss is estimated at several hundred dollars. The farm now is occupied by Bernard Daugherty, brother of the owner.

LA CROSSE, Wis. (AP)—A courageous mother who has only partial use of her lungs due to polio has received the only Christmas present she wanted—to be home for Christmas.

It had been more than two years and two Christmases ago since Mrs. Edith Halmarst, 38, had been home with her husband, Clifford E., and three children, Kathleen, 12, Clifford G., 11, and Robert, 6. She finally made it Saturday.

Mrs. Halmarst, a victim of bulbar and spinal polio since Oct. 7, 1932, is only a shadow of her former self. Her weight has dropped from 137 pounds to 80. About six weeks ago she was placed in a rocking motion bed "that makes you breathe." It gave her a new outlook on life. She said there wasn't another thing in the world she wanted except to be home for Christmas.

When she finally came home, she said "It's wonderful."

Employee's Death Reveals His Name

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Charlie Summers worked for one firm 59 years but it wasn't until his funeral that fellow employees found out that name was fictitious.

Thomas J. Dempsey gave himself the name on the spur of the moment when he came here from Quincy, Ill., before the turn of the century and got a job as a porter with the Lyttles Pharmacy Co. He climbed to head the firm's shipping department.

Dempsey's identity leaked out at his funeral last week. Company employees who attended the rites also met his wife, whom he hadn't mentioned.

Mrs. Dempsey said yesterday "we never cared to take the trouble to straighten things out."

Nationalists Fire On Communist Planes

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP)—Anti-aircraft and artillery fire sounded against yesterday's attack on the island of Chiang Kai-shek's 350-mile chain of offshore island bases, the Defense Ministry reported today.

Nationalist Chinese anti-aircraft opened fire when two Chinese Red Mig-15s roared over tiny Yikiang-shan Island, eight miles northwest of Formosa. The Reds apparently escaped without damage.

Tuesday Short One; Winter Comes Next Day

Warmer Weather Forecast as Fall Season Closes

Mostly cloudy skies are forecast for the Winona area Tuesday, but even if the weatherman is wrong, there would only be about nine hours of daylight as the shortest day of the year signals the beginning of the winter season.

Warmer temperatures are forecast for the area tonight and Tuesday before winter makes its official arrival at 3:25 a.m. Wednesday. The Weather Bureau forecast a low of 20 tonight and a high of 34 Tuesday.

The sun will rise at 7:37 a.m. Tuesday and set eight hours and 53 minutes later, a little more than half the 15 1/2 daylight hours of the longest day of the year, June 21.

Tuesday may seem like one of the longest days of the year to many Winonans, however, as stores remain open until 9 p.m. to accommodate Christmas shoppers. The stores also are open until 9 o'clock tonight, Wednesday and Thursday.

Saturday night, the mercury dipped to a low of 2 degrees, equalling the previous season's low on Dec. 6. The eastern part of the nation continued cold today, with freezing weather covering the Central Gulf states. Fraser, Colo., was the coldest point in the nation at -17 while Pellston, Mich., had -15.

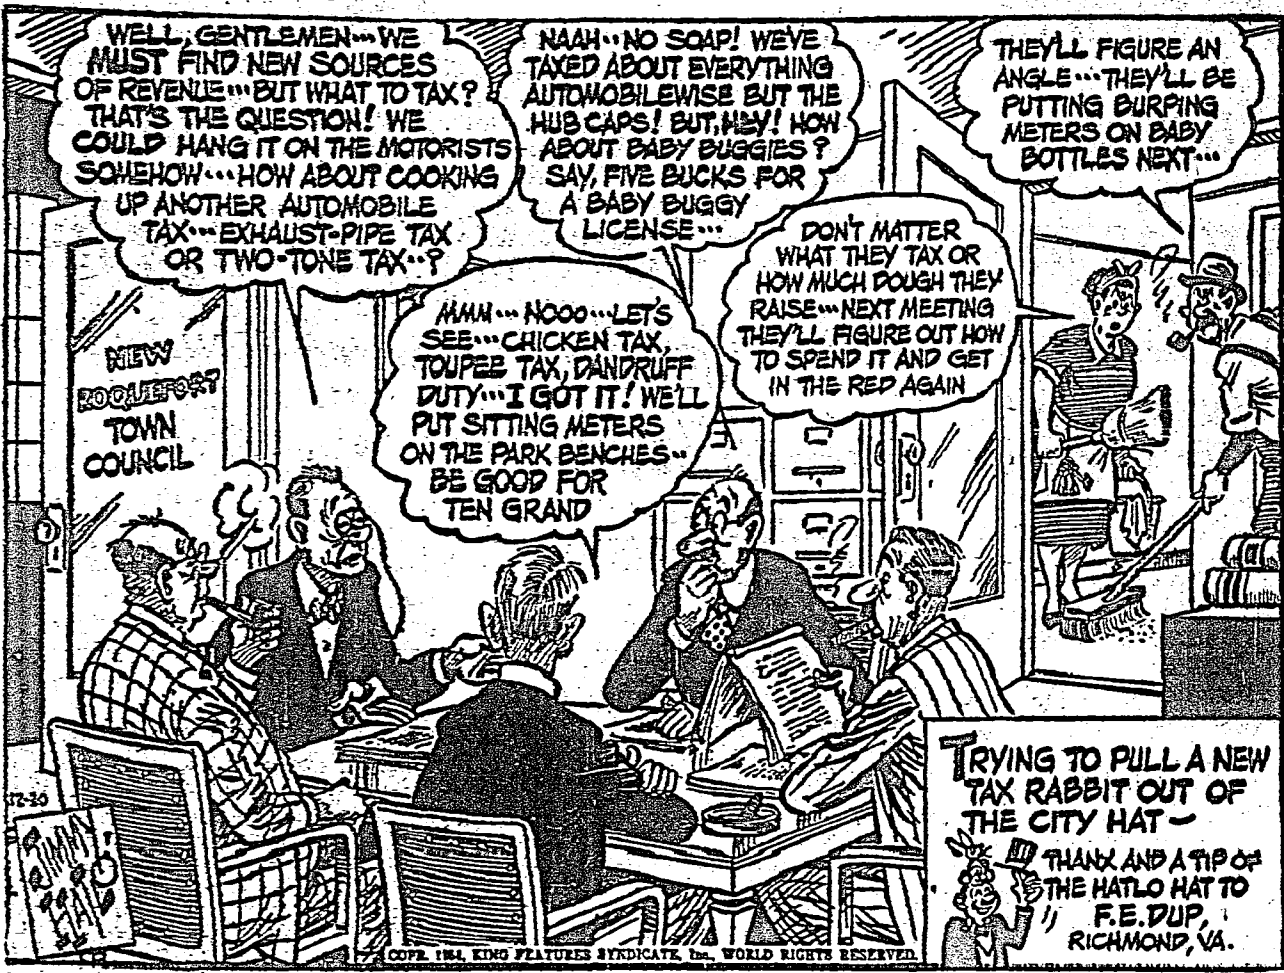

Parts of Wisconsin were receiving light snow today while Wausau, Grantsburg and Superior reported a light, freezing drizzle. Most major roads in the northern Wisconsin area were described as slippery.

2 Sailors Held In Death of Girl in Auto

MIDDLETOWN, R.I. (AP)—Margaret Louise Blanchette, 16-year-old Sunday school teacher, was raped and strangled in the rear seat of a moving automobile yesterday—a deed for which two sailors were held today.

Frederick B. Zimmer, 25, of Rochester, N.Y., a metalsmith I.C., was charged with murder. Seaman Clyde D. Brunfield, 18, also of Rochester, N.Y., was charged with being accessory before the fact of murder.

State Police Capt. Andrew Casey said Zimmer admitted he struck and strangled the Portsmouth, R.I., girl "when she began to scream" during the attack.

Casey said the two sailors had volunteered to drive the girl home from a pre-Christmas dance at the enlisted men's club at the big naval base in Newport.

Zimmer and Brunfield were arrested after a chase by Middletown police, who were unaware that anything was amiss in the car.

Sgt. Francis Vierra and Patrolman Lewis Perry chased the car into the harbor where the sailors failed to stop at their signal as they passed at high speed.

When the police cruiser caught up to the car, Vierra said, the sailors informed him they were taking "a sick girl to the naval hospital."

Vierra and Perry followed in the cruiser and when it failed to turn into the hospital driveway they followed it near the Navy's fleet landing.

The girl was then taken into the hospital and pronounced dead. Miss Blanchette was one of 12 children of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Blanchette. The father is a mill worker in nearby Fall River, Mass.

The victim occasionally taught catechism at St. Anthony's Catholic Church and was described by neighbors as "respectable and well-liked."

Hit-Run Motorist Halts Sailor's Trip
BOSTON (AP)—James Cahill, 24, a sailor from Wrentham, came all the way from the West Coast to spend Christmas at home for the first time in four years.

As he headed for a subway station for the last four miles to his home, he was struck by a motorist, who failed to stop after the accident.

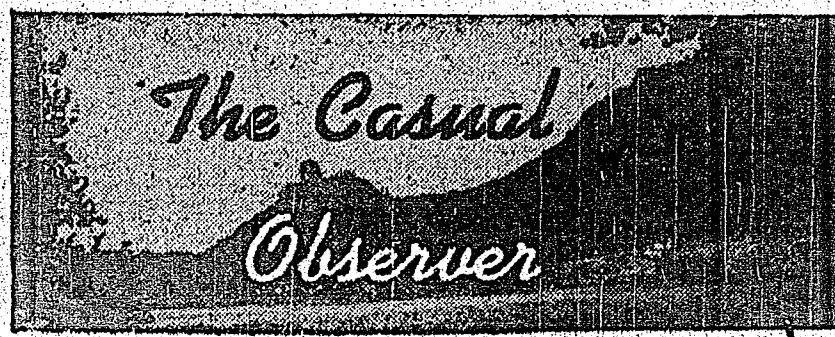

Cahill, attached to the USS Rendova, an aircraft carrier, was taken to City Hospital with internal injuries and a fractured left leg.

When Fruhrman went to the farm of Ernest Langseth looking for gas, Langseth told him he had none and then called police. Neighbors who were alerted that a shooting suspect was in the area, began telephoning warnings to friends.

When Fruhrman went to the Morris Haugrud farm to ask for gas, Haugrud met him at the door with a shotgun and asked him if he knew anything about the shooting. Haugrud said Fruhrman looked calm and said "search me if you want to."

Haugrud delayed Fruhrman for about a half hour, then gave him some gas. Sheriff Henkes, his son and a deputy arrested Fruhrman as he walked back to the car with the gas. They said Fruhrman seemed confused and surrendered without resistance. A gun and $159.95 in currency were found in the car.

Deputy Sheriff Emery Otne said Fruhrman was discharged from the Fergus Falls state hospital about a year ago.

By GRETCHEEN L. LAMBERTON
If you are still looking for a Christmas gift for that problem friend who has everything in the world here are a few more or less delicious ideas noted in recent magazines.

For $20.95 you can get a musical umbrella that plays "Singing in the Rain" when you open it. How gay to go stepping along in the rain to music!

For $16.95 you can buy a women's pink or blue terry-cloth romper suit, an "after-sun" suit, with pink or blue fox collar to match. Purrs the ad, "When you get out of your wet bathing suit slip into this divine fox-collared romper suit and charm all beholders."

For $50 a New York firm will send you a jaguar skin supposedly killed by Peruvian Jivaro Indians with blowguns. And for $99.50 a Wisconsin company offers a life size Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer for your lawn. Don't say I'm not trying to be helpful.

Last Sunday, our little Glen Mary valley looked like an old-fashioned Grandma Moses painting. Little boys in red muffs and overshoes chasing each other in circles in the fresh snow, little girls coasting down slopes, men chopping down Christmas trees and carrying them to the road.

In one part of our valley is a grove of pine trees planted by Robert Leicht about ten years ago. This year some of them are big enough to cut and he has given those of us who live in the valley permission to thin them out so that the smaller ones won't be choked out.

Friends of Glen Mary dwellers have been buying these beautiful fresh trees. On Sunday a crowd of young marrieds with their youngsters came out in the Ted Biesanz's big truck. The men selected their Christmas trees from the grove and cut them down while the children played in the snow. Then they packed fragrant Christmas trees and snowy children in the back of the truck and rolled off to town.

Last week was my mother's 80th birthday, and the whole family got together and gave her a bang-up dinner party at the Oaks. When I phoned her in the morning to wish her a happy birthday she couldn't answer the phone. She was busy shoveling the snow off the driveway, after which she came in and baked an angel food cake and mopped the kitchen floor.

I thought of the day last fall when I took my mother to see Miss Addie Price who recently celebrated her 96th birthday. Miss Addie came in from her garden where she was digging up potatoes and sacking them in ten-pound bags, and she and my mother had a good visit.

Said my mother, "My knees seem to be giving out. Yes, I'm 79 and really getting old."

Miss Addie made a sweeping gesture with her long arm. "Oh you young things!" she chuckled. "Why, you're a mere flapper. Wait till you get up in the nineties before you mention age."

Scouts at Lanesboro Sell 300 Yule Trees
LANESBORO, Minn. (Special)—Orval Amdahl, acting Lanesboro scoutmaster, has announced that local Boy Scouts have sold more than 300 trees in their annual Christmas tree sales project. Three trees were donated to the city for use at Community Hall Dec. 15 in a community Christmas concert.

Lanesboro's three other scouting organizations—Girl Scouts, Brownies and Cubs—all held annual Christmas parties and gift exchanges this month.

Dulles Back From 'Good' NATO Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles arrived back in Washington today from the North Atlantic Treaty Council meeting at Paris, which he said has made "very important decisions unanimously and in good spirit."

With Dulles aboard a Military Air Transport Service Constellation were Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey and foreign aid chief Harold Stassen.

Dulles was met by State Department aides, officials of several embassies and a group of newsmen.

Dulles, in an off-the-cuff statement, said he was glad he had had the opportunity in Paris to talk with British Foreign Minister Anthony Eden and French Premier Mendes-France. "That enabled us to exchange views on a good many matters," Dulles said.

"We did not try to make any decision, but it brought our thinking in line and was very useful."

Dulles called the North Atlantic Treaty Council session a "good meeting" and added:

"We reached some very important decisions unanimously and in good spirit."

It Happened Last Night
Gabby, Gary Cooper Now Shootin' on All Syllables

By EARL WILSON
NEW YORK—Gabby Gary Cooper was expounding about Bing Crosby.

Gary the Garrulous wasn't popping off but he was showing—that he's a two-syllable as well as a two-gun man.

"Darned old Crosby!" He lifted one foot on top the other foot. Both were on top of a coffee table.

"Never know what he's gonna do!" Bing'd just listed him as a very close friend on TV. "Coop" was pleased. "Remember 'um before he was in pictures."

"Made a little short Yosemite, about '32 or '33. Sittin' on a rock in the pine trees, singin'. Remember fellow at the studio likin' it."

"After that, he named the boy for me. First boy, Gary."

"Wanna belt?" Gabby Cooper stared at both feet. "Think I'll have one." He hopped out to the kitchen and poured.

"Bing takes them kids out to that ranch. Makes 'em work. Gives 'em high-bank wages. Nice buncha kids!"

"After that, the conversation turned. He was looking for a picture to follow 'Vera Cruz,' which he made in Mexico with Denise Darcel, Sarita and Burt Lancaster."

"I asked him if he was in good health."

"Purdy good for only being sewed up four times. That comes from actin' like a 24-year-old. Jumpin' off buildings and so on."

"Got a great surgeon. Sews me up with plain No. 4 quilting cotton thread. Got 200 on one side of me."

"Lippy Cooper was even telling me about his operation! He spoke of literature—a new book on his table, 'Pictorial History of the Wild West,' by James D. Horan and Paul Sann, New York newspapermen."

"Boys did a nice job," he said. "Givin' it to some people for Christmas."

"How about TV?" I shot the conversational works.

"Maybe, if they find something I could do as well as everybody else. For a couple years everybody looked like their face'd been run over by a truck."

"Remembering he was a cowboy. I asked him about horses."

"Well, I'd like to have a Rolls or a Bentley, but nobody can afford one in our business"—so I knew he'd thought I said horsepower instead of horses.

"Long now," said Gabby Cooper at the door. "Come up some time and we'll talk."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL
Jackie Gleason got that big Buick offer for Tuesday at 8 because they consider him "the hottest thing in show business" and the public "satiated" with other comics. Ex-Mental Patient Admits Killing at Pelican Rapids

FERGUS FALLS, Minn. (AP)—A former mental patient confessed here Sunday he had shot a filling station operator to death during a holdup Saturday night at Pelican Rapids, Minn., Sheriff J. C. Henkes said.

The sheriff said Donald Lee Fruhrman, 23, who lives in the Pelican Rapids area, admitted the fatal shooting of Rodney Gilbert, 30, following a holdup at a filling station on the main street of Pelican Rapids.

Henkes said Fruhrman gave no reason for the slaying or robbery.

Calmer Kiono, who stopped at the station just as Fruhrman was leaving, was grazed on one of his hands by one of two shots fired at him.

To Call Grand Jury
The sheriff said a grand jury will be called to consider the case later this week.

Henkes said Fruhrman stole two cars after the shooting about 9:30 p.m. The first car was found abandoned in a snow drift near Pelican Rapids, the second ran out of gas after going about half a mile.

When Fruhrman went to the farm of Ernest Langseth looking for gas, Langseth told him he had none and then called police. Neighbors who were alerted that a shooting suspect was in the area, began telephoning warnings to friends.

When Fruhrman went to the Morris Haugrud farm to ask for gas, Haugrud met him at the door with a shotgun and asked him if he knew anything about the shooting. Haugrud said Fruhrman looked calm and said "search me if you want to."

Haugrud delayed Fruhrman for about a half hour, then gave him some gas. Sheriff Henkes, his son and a deputy arrested Fruhrman as he walked back to the car with the gas. They said Fruhrman seemed confused and surrendered without resistance. A gun and $159.95 in currency were found in the car.

After four months of operation as an independent organization, the Air Force recruiting service tallied a personnel procurement average of 99.8 per cent according to S.Sgt. Al J. Schwaller of the Winona Air Force recruiting station.

Sgt. Schwaller noted that "while we were building towards an organization in July, we were also operational. Even with this handicap we managed to wind up July's recruiting efforts with an 88.6 per cent."

Since then the program gained impetus and in August the recruiting service wound up with 98.8 per cent. September netted 114.9 per cent and October's figure was 98.2 per cent.

About 8 per cent of men and 1 per cent of women are color blind.

Weather Radar Finds Popular Acceptance

Predicting weather is likely to remain a hazardous business always. Consequently, any instrument that can extend the weatherman's vision is likely to improve forecasting, even if no single mechanism can eliminate the errors of the prediction.

Weather radar, just emerging from the laboratories, is already finding popular acceptance because it can extend the meteorologist's vision by some 200 to 300 miles. Such vision can give the weatherman a pretty clear picture of what's immediately ahead.

Sets now in use have a range of 200 to 300 miles. But even in dense rain, they can penetrate 100 miles, and can distinguish between rain, snow, ice crystals and ice formations. A network of radar stations blanketing the country would enable meteorologists to trade information and report observations to an analyzing center, where special maps giving a running account of a region's weather could be prepared.

Carried in the noses of commercial and military planes, radar sets could help pilots steer clear of dangerous flying weather, and could help track down gales and hurricanes.

Private businesses, such as the oil industry, also have found a use for the weather radar sets, which only recently went into commercial production. Companies drilling for oil in the Gulf of Mexico have millions of dollars worth of equipment in use. An unexpected storm can cause severe loss and damage if it hits with the equipment in operation. But it is also costly to dismantle the equipment and suspend operations, especially if not really necessary. Radar sets, which eliminate unnecessary dismantlings and yet prevent severe loss of equipment, are a boon here.

These radar sets will not eliminate all errors, but they can help provide much more accurate meteorological data than has heretofore been available.

Farm Bureau to Lose A Fine Leader

The American farmer is losing a good friend in the resignation, announced last week, of Allan B. Kline as president of the American Farm Bureau federation.

Kline, head of the nation's leading farm organization since 1947, said he was quitting because of poor health. His successor, it is hoped, will continue to back the federation policies for which Kline was so effective a spokesman.

Chief among those policies was that of flexible farm price supports, adjusted to keep production within reasonable bounds and to prevent pricing American farm produce out of the world market.

The Farm Bureau in the past 19 months played a leading part in bringing the Congress back to an effective flexible support program—which won't actually take effect on the six basic commodities, by the way, until next year.

In a New York talk the other day, probably his last as federation president, Kline warned that "there are people today in government who would like to hold the reins that control farmers' economic destinies."

"Farmers will do a lot better if they will try to deal with farm policy themselves than if they abdicate either to government or to other national groups," he added.

That is advice that U. S. farmers—and their congressmen—might well keep in mind the next year or two, when "friends" of the farmer will try to renew the rigid price supports and heavy controls that have got American agriculture into the mess that's developed since the end of World War II.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

Two character actresses who had been great stars in their day were gossiping over a salad at Sardi's. "I've discovered the greatest makeup artist in New York," boasted one. "In five minutes he made me look like an old hag." "You don't say!" exclaimed the other. "What did he do? Change your perfume?"

Two little stores that highpoint the way kids are brought up in this superstitious age: 1. A mother, indicating disapproval of her young daughter's uncombed hair. "It looks like a mop," she concluded. The 10-year-old, in all sincerity, replied, "What's a mop, mom?" 2. A teacher, trying to make a class appreciate the wonders of electricity, declared, "Do you realize, children, that your grandmothers never could listen to ducky daylight serials on the radio while they did their household chores? Do you know why?" "Sure," piped up the son of an advertising man. "The sponsors weren't making soap yet."

Outraged Honor Develops Into War

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

NEW YORK — The issue of war or peace is always a dread and divisive one. It is rare, in modern times, that a statesman has willingly assumed the responsibility of starting a war; therefore all wars are called defensive and the people of each country involved in a war are led to believe that they have been attacked by a merciless enemy.

On the other hand, Hitler and Stalin both devised techniques of statecraft which made it possible for them to give the impression of desiring peace while conducting a war. The master of this paradox was Stalin who evolved the processes of penetration and infiltration as weapons of war in peacetime — weapons as effective as any constructed in an arms factory. American policy has often been confused by a failure to identify these techniques with the result that we have suffered some major defeats as in China, Korea and Indo-China.

BE IT NOTED THAT OUR principal defeats have been in Asia, not in Europe. The reason is that while our diplomacy has been concentrated on Europe, Soviet Russia's imperial efforts have been concentrated upon Asia since 1945. Furthermore, while our statesmen are familiar with European affairs and characteristics, they are tragically ignorant of Asiatic affairs and characteristics and have been misled by a group of experts who have tended to support either Russia or Communism.

Having said this, we might make a comparison. Great Britain, for instance, is not in a geographic position to court war. It is now the most vulnerable area in Europe. It can be bombed out of existence. It can be destroyed by both the offensive and defensive forces. The British therefore must favor every effort toward peace, short of conquest by peaceful means, because war can only mean total destruction.

This has nothing to do with the character, the courage, the history or the quality of the British people. It is a matter of geography, of the concentration of population and industry.

Red China faces different problems: Four million square miles in territory adjacent to Soviet Russia for about 4,000 miles, backed by a vast hinterland, capable of a low standard of living among a people accustomed to inadequate food supplies, without a notable concentration of industry anywhere in the country, and accessible to supplies from Soviet Russia without crossing an ocean.

Therefore while Great Britain cannot afford a war, Red China can risk greatly for the development and expansion of empire. Actually, Red China benefits by every move made against the "white" countries because all Asiatic nations, even the friendly ones, have a long history of umbrage from and antagonism to those European countries that in the past regarded all pigmented people as inferiors. It is as much a case of getting even, as it is Marxism or imperialism.

SUCH SITUATIONS in the past have made for war. Sooner or later, anger, fouled dignity, outraged national honor develop into war. It would appear that it is now the policy of Soviet China to twist the United States, to abuse this country, to create unnecessary sensations, all designed to establish the fact that we are afraid to fight. It may be small-boy tactics, but it is nonetheless outrageous and unbearable.

It will not be solved by scattering billions of dollars like rain over the paddy fields of southeastern Asia. It will not be solved by peaceful proclamations which can only encourage Mao Tse-tung and Chou En-lai to do more of the same. It can only be handled by some show of force because the Chinese have never, in their long history, responded to anything but force.

China has always been involved in wars, internal and external. Its reputation for peace comes from the writings of its philosophers rather than from the records of its history. But how does one employ force without risking a universal war? And is force to be used today or five years later?

These are questions of national policy upon which the future of our country depends, and they can only be answered by the President of the United States, whoever he may be, because upon him alone falls this heavy responsibility. If he makes too many mistakes in judgment, it will be very unfortunate because no historic mistake, of international magnitude, can be corrected except by war or revolution. If he is wise, our strength will save us.

Ridgway Shifts Stand On Protection for Chiang

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—An important shift has taken place in the clash between the State Department and the Defense Department regarding the question of U. S. armed intervention to protect Chiang Kai-shek. This debate involves the most important policy before Eisenhower at this time—possible preventive war.

Gen. Matt Ridgway, Army Chief of Staff, who previously sided with the State Department and fought inside the Joint Chiefs of Staff against any armed involvement over the Nationalist island of Quemoy, has shifted his ground a bit. He is now willing to have American planes and warships defend the Nationalist Tachen Islands.

These are 200 miles up the Red China coast from Quemoy and a little easier to defend. Quemoy is so close to the city of Amoy that a good swimmer can swim across. Tachen Islands, 15 miles from the mainland, are now being used as a guerrilla base for Chiang Kai-shek's frequent attacks on the Chinese mainland. However, this is not the chief reason why the Joint Chiefs of Staff want to defend it.

Their reason is that low-lying fog hangs over the Strait of Formosa in the early morning and would serve as a cover for a Communist invasion force seeking to reach Formosa. Taking advantage of this fog, the Red Chinese might advance on these island stepping-stones to Chiang Kai-shek's strong hold.

The long drawn out debate between the Pentagon and the State Department over these islands highlights the larger debate in Congress and inside the administration over the theory of preventive war. It also brings the debate right back to the same place it was during the Truman administration.

Sec. of State Dulles takes exactly the same position as Dean Acheson that the United States does not want to get involved in a war with China. He is so vigorous on this point that he even made a special trip to Formosa to urge Chiang Kai-shek to withdraw from these difficult-to-defend islands. Chiang refused.

He knew, of course, that the Joint Chiefs of Staff favor a much more vigorous policy of defending these islands, even at the risk of war. Other military men not on the Joint Chiefs of Staff go further, believe he should find an excuse for an all-out showdown with the Red China-Russian combine now while we are ahead in the race for a stockpile of A-bombs.

So far Eisenhower, faced with this difficult division inside his own official family, has sided with the State Department.

A battle of secret news conferences is raging along the Potomac. As a result, some of the President's Cabinet members are barely speaking to each other.

Sec. Dulles started it by meeting secretly with reporters to plug the idea of a big foreign aid program for Asia. During this conference, Dulles cast considerable aspersions on Treasury Secretary Humphrey's ideas of balancing the budget.

Foreign Aid Director Stassen then followed with an off-the-record press conference which also criticized Humphrey's penny-pinching attitude on foreign aid.

Last week Humphrey struck back at both Dulles and Stassen. He called his own secret news conference, said New Deal hangers-on in the State Department are behind the Aid-to-Asia plan, referred to Stassen as a wild dreamer who was battling to save his job now that the foreign aid program was due to expire July 1.

No wonder the President has appointed banker Joe Dodge as economic coordinator to see if he can't work out a single aid program. "Referee" would be a better title for Dodge's job.

Come Back As Animal? Which One?

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—In some parts of the world millions of people believe that after death they return to earth in the form of an animal. This idea has always fascinated me, particularly if one had a choice in the kind of animal he'd be in a future life.

Over the years I have given it a great deal of thought, usually on Mondays. Rainy Mondays are best, I find, for problems of this kind.

"If you had to be an animal, what animal would you prefer to be?"

It is a question that always will stir a lively conversation at a tired cocktail party, and arouses a suspicion in me that most people present secretly have a deep-seated desire to be something besides a human being—if only so they can avoid going to more cocktail parties.

The martini devotees all say they either want to be (a) a shaggy dog or (b) a talking horse. These seem to be the only kinds of animals they know anything about. Mention the possibility of becoming a talking rhinoceros and they clam up and walk away from you. You're out of their groove.

Most ladies coyly demur at giving their real views. They say, "Oh, a beautiful tiger," or "Oh, a lovely spotted leopard." But when pressed to the point of honesty, they generally admit they'd really like to be a genteel thoroughbred cat in a fine old well-kept home free of mice and run by people who didn't want any kittens.

Why a cat? "It's very simple," one lady said grimly. "The average woman has to struggle half her life to get a fur coat. It would be pleasant to be born with one on—and one that wouldn't go out of style."

(Editor's Note: Then why didn't she want to become a mink? All women are after mink coats.) (Boyle's Note: Well, that's the trouble with being born in a mink coat. You rarely get to wear it long yourself.)

Some men at cocktail parties say the only animal they would consider being is a lion. But a surprising number of fat fellows express an urge to be an elephant.

I pondered this for a long time before coming up with what I feel is the right answer: They merely have become fond of munching peanuts on the cocktail circuit, and don't want to lose the habit. It took me years of mulling to make a decision in my own case. A roaring lion? No. Roaring of any kind frightens me, and I can't see myself—doing it for my own pleasure. I hate raw meat, too. And can you imagine a bold lion, after dragging home the bacon, meekly asking his lioness, "Please, if you don't know how to cook pork, can't you at least hold a match under it for a while?"

Would Be Dog Being a mongrel dog, loved by a lonely child, does appeal to me. But it would be just my luck to come back as a trick-performing poodle, living in a penthouse on Park avenue and walked every day at the end of a leash held by some dippy blonde. No, thank you. One life on a leash in a doghouse off Park avenue is enough for me, but though it's been, I want change.

A milk cow is a wonderfully useful creature, a strolling factory in a leather cover. Switching from cigar—chomping to cud—chewing wouldn't be too much of a change, but there are other requirements and—well, to tell you the full truth, I was born ticklish. Yep, even on

THE WORLD TODAY

U.S. Deep in Debt Despite Economies

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Many an old man, tossed out on the street because he couldn't pay his rent, has spent the rest of his days reflecting mournfully on his folly with money in his early years.

Looking for dividends to keep him in his old age, he had invested his money long ago. Wisely, he thought. He learned too late his judgment was bad. He had put too much into one stock, not enough in another.

This country is still young, as nations go, with a lot of money. The Eisenhower administration, present custodian of it, is trying to avoid for the American future the fate which overtook the old man.

It is trying to economize to save money and at the same invest where it thinks there will be dividends in the long run. Both the saving and the investment are a guess and a risk.

In the 1952 presidential campaign the Republicans, talked of balancing the budget, they promised economy and they practiced it in many areas. But they still haven't been able to hit a balance.

The country is 278 billion dollars in debt now, most of it money borrowed to fight World War II and Communism afterwards. Balancing the budget would not wipe out the debt. It would only mean the administration had found a way to keep the debt from getting bigger.

Some presidential advisers — Treasury Humphrey and Joseph M. Dodge, former budget director — are pictured as stern partisans for more economy and a balanced budget, and for this reason:

That if the United States is to retain its power in the long fight against Communism it must be economically sound by living within its means and meeting its responsibilities within a balanced budget.

But there is another side to this tortured problem for the Eisenhower administration.

What does it profit to balance the budget if, in the end, the Communists win because this country, in its desire for economy, doesn't spend enough money in the right places, in the right ways, and at the right times?

This dilemma is illustrated in the decisions the administration is trying to make on military manpower and foreign aid, particularly aid for Asia.

The administration apparently doesn't think war likely, at least soon. President Eisenhower himself talks of the cold war lasting 50 years. Throughout that time the United States must be strong enough to deter aggression.

U.S. Farmers Hurt By Floods, Drought To Get Assistance

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower Saturday ordered into effect a program of aid to many farmers who have been hurt by floods, drought or soil erosion.

The White House described the executive order as an important step toward a "sound national program" for the development, use and conservation of the nation's soil and water resources.

The order authorizes the Department of Agriculture to give technical and financial assistance to organized groups of farmers living in small watersheds where floods, drought and soil erosion are doing serious damage.

the soles of my feet. Right now I'm in the mood to become a wild horse, galloping free on the open range, trailed by a herd of admiring fillies, and feeling the fresh breeze tossing my mane. Oh, that wind in my long proud mane.

Sparkman Says Democrats Can Beat Ike in '56

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.) said today Democrats can defeat President Eisenhower in 1956 if they write a "responsible record" on domestic issues in the 84th Congress.

Sparkman, the 1952 Democratic vice presidential nominee, said in an interview he expects that Democratic cooperation with the President on foreign policy and national defense will largely eliminate them as campaign issues.

"We Democrats can defeat Eisenhower or any other Republican nominee by writing a responsible record on domestic problems, by showing what a Democratic Congress can do," he declared.

"When the people vote their natural instincts, the Democrats always win. The Republicans win only when they can upset this natural inclination, as they were able to do in 1952."

"Since then, the Republicans have been destroying the confidence which the people temporarily transferred to them. They have destroyed it by not being able to carry out the promises they made in the campaign, promises which they knew they couldn't carry out."

Sparkman predicted a rerun of the 1952 contest which pitted Democrat Adlai E. Stevenson against Eisenhower.

Sparkman said that so far as he personally is concerned, he isn't a candidate for second place on the ticket.

Bathing Suits Topic In Cold Massachusetts

NANTUCKET, Mass. (AP)—Selectmen say they don't like the idea of bikini bathing suits on Nantucket streets in the summer.

Even as the blustery winter winds blew, the selectmen yesterday approved a proposed town by-law which says everyone over 12 must be covered "to a point midway the hip and knees" if they wander from the beaches.

Selectmen said they approved the proposal at this time of the year since it must be acted on at the Feb. 15 town meeting.

Alabama Youth Admits Clubbing Woman to Death

By RAY STEPHENS
BRINKLEY, Ark. (AP)—A 15-year-old Alabama youth who has admitted he swung the club which crushed the skull of pretty Mrs. Milton Fuller is in an undisclosed Arkansas jail today, waiting to be charged with first-degree murder.
Prosecutor J. B. Reed told newsmen yesterday he would file the information against Billy Ray Williamson here today.
The youth, who left a 16-year-old wife in Alabama, said hunger drove him into the unpretentious Fuller home, and that a weird sex surge spurred him into killing the young mother.
Mrs. Fuller was found dying early Dec. 12 in her blood-spattered bedroom. She had been hit twice with a four-foot stick of firewood. The blow crushed her skull. She died nearly five hours later at a hospital without regaining consciousness.

Budget System Called Out-Dated

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Planning Assn. says the government should plan its budget over a period of years rather than aiming at a balanced budget each year.
The year-to-year system is outdated, it said in a report, because it makes no provision for the heavy spending expected of the government when an employment falls.
It suggested that the President's annual budget message survey the trends for "a number of years" ahead, including expected revenues and spending needs. It said Congress could help by making public works appropriations "without stringent limitations" so the money could be spent when it is needed.

Two Killed in Chicago Blast

CHICAGO (AP)—Two Common-wealth Edison Co. employees were killed and five more were seriously injured last night in the explosion of a steam turbine in an electric generating plant.
A company spokesman estimated the damage to the 600,000-volt capacity plant at 10 million dollars.
The company said the crippling of the plant had no effect on power service during the night hours, but about 100 large industrial customers were asked to reduce their power use by 25 per cent for today.
The explosion was confined to the plant in southwest suburban Stickney. It tore a 12-by-12 foot hole in the 75-foot-high ceiling.
The dead were Clarence T. Jorgenson, 36, a shift engineer who was decapitated by flying metal, and George A. Thorsen, 34, a turbine operator.

Atomic Energy Foreseen as Power

WASHINGTON (AP)—A private consultant says atomic energy will be providing 45 per cent of the nation's electric power by the year 2000.
H. Dewayne Kreager, executive officer of the Office of Defense Mobilization until mid-1953, surveyed the A-power possibilities in a study prepared for the use of investor groups. He said his information came from nonsecret government and private industry sources.
He predicted that atomic-powered generators will become economically competitive with coal and oil-fueled plants by 1962.

CAB Continues to Screen Wreckage Of Miller Plane

MILWAUKEE (U) — Government probes today continued to screen the wreckage of the aircraft that carried businessman and sportsman Frederick Miller, his son and two pilots to death as funeral services were held for the victims.

Miller, 48, his son Frederick Jr., 20, and pilots Joseph, 39, and Paul Laird, 34, died Friday night after their plane crashed in flames while taking off from Mitchell Field here. The Millers were headed for a hunting trip in Canada.

Miller, advocate and supporter of civic progress and prosperity in Milwaukee, backed sports of all kinds. He was on the board of the Milwaukee Braves baseball team and the Green Bay Packer football team, and friend of the Milwaukee Hawks basketball club. As a student at Notre Dame he posted the highest scholastic record of a football player, and in 1928, under the coaching of Knute Rockne, captained the Irish team.

The Civil Aeronautics Board began its investigation of the crash Saturday. It continued Sunday as inspectors questioned residents in the area near the crash. The plane went down in a muddy field not far from a group of homes only a few blocks from the airport.

Fred G. Powell, of the Chicago office of the CAB, led the inspection team which he said completed its field survey Saturday. He added that the engines of the twin engine converted Canadian bombing plane were taken to a hangar at Mitchell Field and placed under lock and key. He said it probably would be Tuesday before the inspection was completed. He said the results would be forwarded to headquarters in Washington.

Officials planned also to listen to automatically recorded conversations the control tower at the field had with the plane. The information from the plane crew was not recorded.

Guns, Arrows Fail to Bag Sheep-Killing Wolf

PLANO, Tex. (U) — Well, they're after those sheep-killing wolves with bows and arrows now—and still no luck.

Timber wolves have been preying on sheep around here. A week ago yesterday 275 hunters' weapons staged a mass hunt: a hairy wolf.

This past weekend six members of the Dallas Field and Archer Assn. tried it. They used a "turkey" call that goes "wayah, wayah" to lure the prey but returned yesterday empty-handed.

Said I. L. Abernathy, "The high wind was probably the reason. You have to blow the call downwind, but in a high wind like last night the wolves picked up our scent. We saw a lot of eyes, but they never got close enough for us to bother shooting."

Advice on Health

Make Sure Baby's Toys Are Safe

By H. N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

With Christmas only a few days away, you'll probably want to buy some toys for that new baby.

Maybe he's your own, or maybe he belongs to a relative or a friend. But there's usually somebody's baby on every Christmas gift list.

Baby toys require some thought. While some are practical, and will be welcomed by the baby and his parents, others might prove injurious.

Of course, all babies like rattles, but the wrong kind of rattle can be extremely dangerous. Don't buy rattles filled with stone or shot. If the baby breaks or bites through it, he is liable to choke.

Some to Avoid

Toys with rough surfaces, sharp points or edges, tin toys or wooden toys that splinter easily should also be avoided. Marbles or small beads are not for babies, either.

Other toys on the "should not give" list are:

Loose-jointed toys with parts that might break off; toys made of lead or painted with ordinary paint containing lead; glass bottles of any kind; woolly, hairy toys which catch dirt and cannot be kept clean; toys that are so heavy the baby might injure himself playing with them.

And finally—and this probably will be a blow to Pop—no mechanical toys or trains which must be operated by a grownup. These may amuse the baby for a few seconds, but they'll soon bore him. Wait until he gets to be about four or five years old.

Toys a baby can enjoy without danger are safe plastic rattles filled with plastic materials, large rubber dolls, soft balls, unpainted blocks and even empty spoons. As for colors, an infant prefers red, blue, green and yellow. He likes strong, clear colors better than pale shades.

Those Are Good Choices

When a baby begins to walk, he'll especially enjoy some sort of toy he can pull behind him. A large rubber ball is an ideal gift for babies between one and two.

One more tip for parents. If your baby receives a lot of toys this Christmas, put some of them away immediately. You can give them to him when he tires of those you do let him play with.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

L. H.: Are stomach ulcers dangerous? Are cigarettes bad for them?

Answer: Stomach ulcers may lead to serious difficulty since complications may occur, such as rupture of the ulcer or even the development of a tumor in the ulcer location.

As a general rule, it is advisable that a person with stomach ulcers should not smoke.

Housing Scandal Report Issued; Probe Opposed

By ROWLAND EVANS JR.

WASHINGTON (U)—Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.) proposed today a "continuing and objective study" of the operation of government housing programs but said he could oppose any probe designed to "drag out a lot of dead carcasses."

Sparkman, a senior Democrat on the Senate Banking Committee, spoke out in an interview after release of a 140-page committee report which accused the construction industry of consistently misrepresenting to Congress "the existence of wrongdoing" in the huge postwar rental housing program.

The report, issued last night, assailed "a few greedy and sometimes dishonest builders . . . and incompetent, lax and sometimes dishonest FHA officials" as responsible for what is called multi-million-dollar "windfall" profits "at the expense of the American people."

The committee report summed up an eight-month probe of Federal Housing Administration programs.

That investigation was launched when the White House last April 12 announced the existence of widespread irregularities in the expired apartment building program and in the continuing home-repair loan program.

Sparkman was primarily responsible for having deleted from a preliminary draft of the report an accusation that housing irregularities were the "worst scandal" in history and that "windfall" profits would total one billion dollars if all projects were examined.

Instead, it reported finding 76 million dollars of such profits in 437 of the 543 projects it investigated.

These profits resulted from FHA-insured mortgages in some cases far greater than actual construction costs.

Pearl Bailey Suffering From Nervous Fatigue

PHILADELPHIA (U)—Pearl Bailey rested today, trying to recover sufficiently from a case of fatigue to play her starring role tonight in the new musical, "House of Flowers."

The show's general manager said the singer was near nervous collapse. She appeared only briefly in the Friday night performance and missed two shows Saturday.

A doctor advised her to stay off the stage at least until tonight.

TREMPEALEAU CO. CAL.
WHITEHALL, Wis. (Special)—The Trempealeau County Selective Service Board has received its January calls. Six are asked for induction and nine for physicals on Jan. 6.

Thrifty Man Saves Money for Thieves

BALTIMORE (U)—Charles Luckhart is a thrifty man, so he walked 16 blocks to a grocery store yesterday to get some cut-rate goods.

Walking the 16 blocks back home to save the bus fare, the 43-year-old man was set upon by three youths. He told police he was robbed of the bag of groceries and a wallet containing $40.

Stray Dogs to Have A Pup's Paradise

PINELLAS PARK, Fla. (U)—A dog's life around here is a pup's idea of paradise—this week anyway.

Three women are out rounding up all the stray dogs in this community, collecting dog food for Christmas Week feasts and for the weeks to come.

Peggy Davis, policewoman here, and Mrs. George England and Mrs. Joe Borders even plan a Christmas tree for homeless pups and if they are real good, like youngsters should be at this time of the year, the dogs will be put up for adoption.

Kaiser Steel Mill Idled by Dispute

FONTANA, Calif. (U)—The big Kaiser Steel Corp. mill has been idled by a dispute over the discharge of a workman.

The company fired the man—identified only as an officer of CIO United Steelworkers Local 288—for what was described as "failure to perform his work satisfactorily."

Members of the local struck Saturday in protest, and the plant, employing 5,000 persons, was shut down. The company termed the walkout a wildcat strike, saying the local went out without obtaining authorization from the steelworkers international.

Dave Melton, local president, said the local is standing solidly behind the discharged worker.

Mississippi Set for Vote On Segregation

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Mississippi will vote tomorrow on a proposed constitutional amendment designed to continue public school segregation and called by opponents "the most crucial issue to confront us in this century."

It would give the Legislature standby authority to abolish public schools if necessary to continue segregation.

The amendment, authored by the Legal Educational Advisory Committee and approved by the Legislature in special session, is an attempt to bypass the U.S. Supreme Court ruling banning public school segregation.

Proponents say the amendment is only a "last resort" which places in the constitution "a safeguard whereby we can insure our right to control and direct our school system."

Foes, who term it "the most crucial issue to confront us in this century," say it will give "the legislature life and death power over our public schools."

Both sides agree they want continued school segregation; they differ on methods.

The amendment is similar to those adopted by South Carolina and Georgia. It needs only a majority vote to pass.

2 Minneapolis Men Held for Iowa Robbery

CLINTON, Iowa (U) — Two men were to be arraigned here today on charges of armed robbery in connection with the holdup of an implement firm at De Witt, Iowa. Police identified the two as Lars Andrew Asland, 21, and Bruce David Appleton, 19, both of Minneapolis.

Los Angeles Paper Closes Plant

LOS ANGELES (U) — Approximately 450 Los Angeles newspaper workers were looking for new jobs today following suspension of publication by the Daily News, a morning paper.
Operations at the Daily News building came to a halt Saturday with the announcement by publisher Clinton D. McKinnon that the paper, undergoing financial difficulties, has sold its name, good will, circulation lists and features to the Times-Mirror Co., which publishes the Morning Times and Afternoon Mirror.
The suspension of the Daily News reduces the number of metropolitan papers in Los Angeles from five to four. The Daily News was the only Democratic newspaper in this field.
The Daily News said its circulation was 195,000.
McKinnon said funds derived from the sale to the Times-Mirror Co. will be sufficient to meet current salaries. However he said full severance pay for employees amounts to $800,000 and an audit of assets will be necessary before it is determined if any of this can be paid.

Cass Lake Man, 4 in Wisconsin Traffic Victims

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Ruben Gwin, 22, Cass Lake, was killed early Sunday when the car he was driving left a road near here. Six others riding with him escaped injury.

The death increased Minnesota's 1954 traffic toll to 610, 14 below the count a year ago.

The list of accident victims in Wisconsin during the weekend, which reports four persons dead, was led by a car-train crash in Milwaukee which killed two teen-agers.

James Gillian, 17, and Kenneth Jens, 15, were killed and two other boys were injured when their car struck the last car of a Milwaukee Road passenger train in the north portion of Milwaukee County Saturday night. All four youths were from the town of Granville.

Laverne Hodan, 17, of Adams, was injured fatally Saturday when she was thrown from the car in which she had been a passenger and was struck by the auto as it rolled over. The accident occurred north of Friendship on Highway 13.

A 54-year-old Wauwatosa woman, Mrs. Lenora Cairns, died Saturday of injuries suffered when thrown from her husband's car when it collided with another at an intersection.

Committee Sees Future Crisis in State Colleges

ST. PAUL (U)—A Legislative Research subcommittee, predicting a total Minnesota college enrollment of 70,000 by 1970, says a crisis in higher education is threatening the state.

In a report Saturday, the subcommittee said that because Minnesota's 17 private colleges prefer to remain small colleges, the increased attendance will fall mainly on publicly-supported schools.

The state's record attendance was 57,000 in 1947.

The report said if present proportions continue, the University of Minnesota's 1970 enrollment will be about 35,000, compared with 28,000 in 1947.

Enrollment at the state's five teachers colleges in 1970, it predicted would be about 9,000—almost double the 1953 fall attendance.

Plans to support the influx, the report said, "will have to be of a permanent, long-range nature, not only to provide facilities for known enrollment increases but to care for students resulting from a projected substantial increase in population."

The subcommittee said "alternatives to increased expenditures of state funds for higher education would have to be sought in higher tuition rates in public institutions and tightening of admission standards."

Office Equipment Thieves Sought

FAIRMONT, Minn. (U)—Thieves partial to office equipment today were being sought by authorities in two southern Minnesota and two northern Iowa counties.

A half dozen break-ins in the last five days have netted large numbers of typewriters, adding machines and other equipment. The first outbreaks were reported at Garner, in Hancock, Iowa.

The thieves then moved into Ledyard, Kossuth County, Iowa, and later were reported at Algona in the same county.

Saturday they moved across the state line into Kiester in Fairbault County. A filling station robbery at Fairbault in Martin County was believed the work of the same thieves.

State YRL Names New National Committeewoman

MINNEAPOLIS (U)—Dorothy Gimmetad, 26, Dawson, Minn., Sunday was named Minnesota national committeewoman by the state Young Republican League, succeeding Louise Miller, St. Paul attorney.

Miss Miller resigned Saturday following a dispute with Ramsey County officials of the YRL. Recently she was forced to give up her position on the St. Paul Housing Authority when the court ruled she was not a St. Paul resident.

Santa's Helper Flies Presents to Northwest Angle

PENASSE, Minn. (U)—Santa's gift bags will be overflowing on his first stop in the United States on Christmas Eve—thanks to a faithful helper in an old Air Force parka here in the Northwest Angle of Minnesota.

Youngsters bundled in warm scarves, a pet deer with a tinkling bell around its neck and a tail-wagging collie have been waiting on the shores of vast Lake of the Woods when the helper sets his plane down on the lake ice in the northernmost point of the country.

The helper is Don Hanson, 38, who twice a week has been flying mail bags bulging with reserve supplies for Santa to the isolated communities of Penasse, Angle Inlet and Oak Island.

There are about 100 persons, including about 30 youngsters, in the three small farm communities served by Hanson's flights.

"I know just about everyone up that way by name," Hanson said, "and they're a friendly, generous bunch of people. The coffee pot is usually on at every stop in the combination general store-post offices."

"I can always count on a bunch of youngsters waiting on the shore near the post office on mail days. They start waving like mad as soon as they spot the plane. Just before Christmas, many of them bring me a handful of homemade cookies."

"I usually get there during the noon hour, and they're out to meet me even if it's below zero."

"This year they haven't been disappointed—they're sure getting their share of Christmas packages."

The three communities are about 10 miles apart, located about 45 miles northeast of Warroad, origin point of the flight.

Higher Valuations Will Increase St. Cloud Taxes

ST. CLOUD, Minn.—Taxpayers of St. Cloud will pay more taxes in 1955—but not because of an increase in the mill rate on property.

Because, according to figures released by Stearns County auditor Frank Ramler today, the total city rate on homestead property in St. Cloud for next year will be exactly the same as it was for 1954—183 mills.

Valuation of property, however, both in the city and county, will be higher.

And, said Ramler, all city real estate with buildings on it will be subject to higher taxes payable in 1955 due to the 10 per cent increase in valuations on buildings ordered by state tax commissioner G. Howard Spaeth. The order was issued Nov. 15, 1954.

County valuations, it is pointed out, have been increased from $23,589,251 as of 1954 to $27,749,738 as of 1955.

Valuation of property in the city of St. Cloud for the three counties has moved up from $10,151,873 to $11,043,197 of which $487,509 resulted from the commissioner's order.

According to Ramler, the state tax rate here has been reduced from 9.94 mills to 9.15 and the county rate has been increased from 36.80 mills to 38.50 mills due to a hike in the needs of the welfare fund.

Taxes for the operation of the city government will be increased from 80.66 to 81.17 mills—mainly because of a "bonds and interest" item of 4.66 mills. The auditor's report shows that other city funds have been reduced to compensate to a large extent for the added millage for the large amount of bonds recently approved for issue here.

School mill rates in the city are reduced from 58.96 mills to 58.10 mills, despite the $1,200,000 building program now underway.

The entire levy for the city has been increased approximately $70,000 and that for the school district by $47,000.

There will be no change in the tax on vacant lots and the personal property rate will be the same on the 183 mills for homestead type property. But the additional rate on non-homestead property has been lifted from 4.66 to 5.22—making the total rate on non-homestead property 188.22 as compared to the previous 187.66.

Reds Push Ahead in Indochina

By JOSEPH ALSOP
Joseph Alsop has just made a secret trip into the Communist guerrilla area of Viet Minh. Mr. Alsop, who has long been an advocate of strong measures against the Reds in Southeast Asia, tells in this and succeeding dispatches how rapidly they are consolidating their gains. He says that the West must make a realistic estimate of the enemy's strength. His second dispatch will appear Wednesday.

SAIGON, Indochina — For an American nowadays, the Bamboo Curtain of Asia is far harder to pass than the Iron Curtain of Europe. But by a curious chapter of accidents, this reporter has just spent three days in the great Viet Minh guerrilla area which still forms a virtually independent state at the southern tip of Indochina.

The trip involved every apparatus of conventional romance from two gloriously moonlit nights chugging through Communist territory on a native canal boat to the inevitable false papers, which were needed to get back through the Curtain again. Yet these details were hardly noticeable. Despite the extreme shortness of the permitted time, the impressions produced by this experience were so vivid—one might almost say so violent—that they alone absorbed one's entire attention.

Perhaps it is tactless to say so nowadays, but my dominant emotion was a sort of horrified, helpless admiration for the Communist achievement—not of course for the thing itself, but for the courage shown, the incredible difficulties overcome, the sheer brilliance of the political-military feat.

Population 3,000,000
Here, after all, was a huge region with a population of close to 3,000,000 with no local war resources except its own production, with no hope of serious outside aid, situated at the southern extremity of Indo-China, as far as possible from the main Communist base in the north.

Here, in this plain of Camau, the Committee of the South (the ruling Viet Minh organ in Cochinchina) first raised the standard of revolt and fixed its capital nine long years ago. Such arms as they had got from the Japanese and a treasury of seventy-five piastres, or about five dollars in those days, were the sole tangible assets of the oddly mixed committee of Vietnamese Communists and nationalists whom Ho Chi Minh had chosen for the task.

But they had a political asset too. This delta of the Mekong had been a vast swamp until the French drained it, and divided it into great landed estates. The peasants in their palm huts had always lived in bitter poverty and without hope until the Communists gave them the land. Leaders took command in Indochina with the complacent boast that he would destroy the Viet Minh in a few months. French troops entered the plain of Camau and established 13 fortified posts. But although the Committee of the South had barely raised its banner, the guerrilla attack was so severe and sustained that the French forces soon destroyed their mud forts and departed.

From that day to this, when the local Viet Minh government is moving north under the terms of the Geneva accord, the plain of Camau has been what the Communists call "liberated territory." Once every year or so, a French "clean up" column would push into the region, burning and destroying as it moved. Always there were the air attacks that wrecked and wrecked again the little palm hut villages along the canal banks, and confined all road and canal movements to the dark hours of the night.

Army Organized
But there was never a moment when the Viet Minh did not run throughout the region. And as time went on, the Committee of the South, from its mobile palm hut capital in the Camau plain, came to rule over huge regions approximating rather more than a third of the whole area of Cochinchina, which Gen. Navarre told me last year the French "effectively controlled."

An army of something like 30,000 regular and regional troops was organized, trained and armed with captured French heavy weapons and small arms painfully manufactured in tiny, camouflaged local shops. And I have never seen smarter, tougher looking Asian troops than the few soldiers the accidents of my journey allowed me to inspect.

A permanent government was formed, complete with financial, economic, educational, health, propaganda and police services. Currency was printed, taxes were levied, and budgets were annually prepared. In short the whole mechanism of state power and regular administration was created out of nothing, in the nearly neolithic little muddy villages among the rice fields and in the very teeth of French military power.
I thought I even detected the first symptom of the ills to which all grown up governments are liable. I stayed, for my short visit, at the palm hut reception center provided for the families who were coming from all over Cochinchina to say goodbye to their soldiers going north. The cadre in charge (cadre is the Viet Minh name for any trained and indoctrinated official or party worker) was a pale, delicately dandified young fellow, it seemed hard to believe of all cadres to set an example, maintain contact with the peasants and eke out the tiny salary of rice that the Viet Minh government pays.

I was told he escaped the rice fields because he was an unusually expert fisherman with a net, but I still suspected that he was an early specimen of the great genus of bureaucratic careerist. I may have been unjust, however, for the dandified cadre was responsible for the absence of an official seal on my exit papers. And this paper gave me a rather bad hour of worry about what I would do if a sort of canal-side soviet of soldiers and grim security police looked at the passport in my bedding role and discovered I really was not Monsieur Muller, a wandering French journalist.

I wish I could report that the Viet Minh organization which I glimpsed in those three days was feeble, evanescent and hated by the people. But the record of its achievements in nine years all too clearly confirms my own short observations of the efficiency, power and popular support of this Communist built and Communist guided machine of guerrilla government. If we are not to lose the struggle for the world, we had best make a realistic estimate of the enemy's strength. And the foregoing merely summarizes the strength that I saw.

SPORTS Sidelights

BY RALPH REEVE

Personal Loss

The tragic death of Milwaukee brewery executive Fred Miller and his son hits us and sports fans throughout the whole Northwest area. I'm sure, with a great feeling of personal loss.

We never knew Fred Miller but met sports figures working for his company in public relations capacities and also had the occasion to deal directly with his company's public relations department.

Last fall the YMCA Quarterback Club secured films of the Cleveland Browns-Detroit Lions football title game through the Miller organization at no cost.

We and many other Winonans and fans in the area met such men as Clayton Tonnemaker, Bob Forte and others associated with the Miller firm.

And fans in the entire Wisconsin-Minnesota area have adopted the Milwaukee Braves, largely due to sponsorship of baseball broadcasts by the Miller organization.

A former Notre Dame football captain, Miller and his associates worked hard in the Milwaukee bid for major league baseball.

After the Braves moved to Suds, Fred Miller's interest did not wane in generating goodwill and fan enthusiasm.

We hope that Miller's death won't be marked by a change in the sports activity of his firm. Time will tell. At the time of his passing, we and countless other sports fans in this area, feel greatly saddened.

What Have We Here

Only one game remains on the local basketball slate before Christmas—tonight in Chicago with St. Mary's playing Lewis College.

Winona schools have compiled a nifty 18-9 pre-holiday record with Cotter's 11 mark the best winning percentage.

Winona High is 5-2, St. Mary's 7-3 and Winona State 2-3. Team by team, here are impressions:

COTTER—Off to a flying start... Coach Johnny Nett has a squad with height, scoring balance, driving ability and floor direction.

Some teams may have more of those commodities, in which case the Ramblers stand to lose occasionally the rest of the way, but count on Nett's netters to play good representative basketball.

Named a pre-season title favorite by SMCC coaches, we see nothing yet to indicate that opinion should be changed, unless that Lourdes and St. Augustine are better than figured.

The Ramblers beat St. Agnes with no trouble. That's not a help in determining the chances of the local five in the SMCC since St. Agnes has been passed regularly.

Lourdes and St. Augustine wouldn't be winning "upsets" if they beat the Ramblers because it doesn't look like there's that much ability difference. Yet, the Ramblers are the team most feared.

WINONA HIGH—Coach Don Snyder has his boys playing good, smart basketball. They're certain to improve on last year's Big Nine 3-7 record, must be rated the team to beat in District Three and one of the better teams in the geographic area the Minnesota State High School League labels Region One.

The big problem facing the Hawks is not their own limitations, but rather the fact they must play some truly great teams outstanding of which is Austin.

The Hawks have a tendency to fritter away big leads—i.e., the Logan and Rochester games. Balancing up that red mark is their ability to come back under pressure. So far, they have had it with the chips down.

ST. MARY'S—Winless in two conference starts and seven-for-eight against non-loop foes, Coach Ken Wiltgen's Redmen are going to be better. They have little chance now for Minnesota College Conference title consideration but they'll ambush a couple of teams with championship aspirations.

Wiltgen, stressing defense, is happy so far in that department. A key in offense is 6-7 center John Curran, who got 22 points although the Redmen lost to Chicago Branch, and 18 Saturday night against Illinois Tech in a 52-38 victory.

If that means Curran has found the scoring touch, the Redmen will be dangerous since Bill Skemp, Fred Sheridan and freshman Ken Jansen already looked good, scoring-wise.

WINONA STATE—Coach Lyle Arns' Warriors have yet to play their best basketball. Injuries to key players and addition of others at the winter quarter has prevented Arns from moulding the squad to its best effectiveness.

However, we think by the middle of January, opponents had better beware. Mankato, in the State Teachers Conference, has height and the brilliant Norm Ness to make it favorites.

The Warriors don't have the height and if they beat Mankato, it would be an upset. Against St. Cloud, Moorhead and Bemidji, however, they apparently stack up possibly better than the rest.

Wally Moon '54 'Rookie of Year'

NEW YORK—Wally Moon, the kid who filled a man's job for the St. Louis Cardinals, is the National League Rookie of the Year.

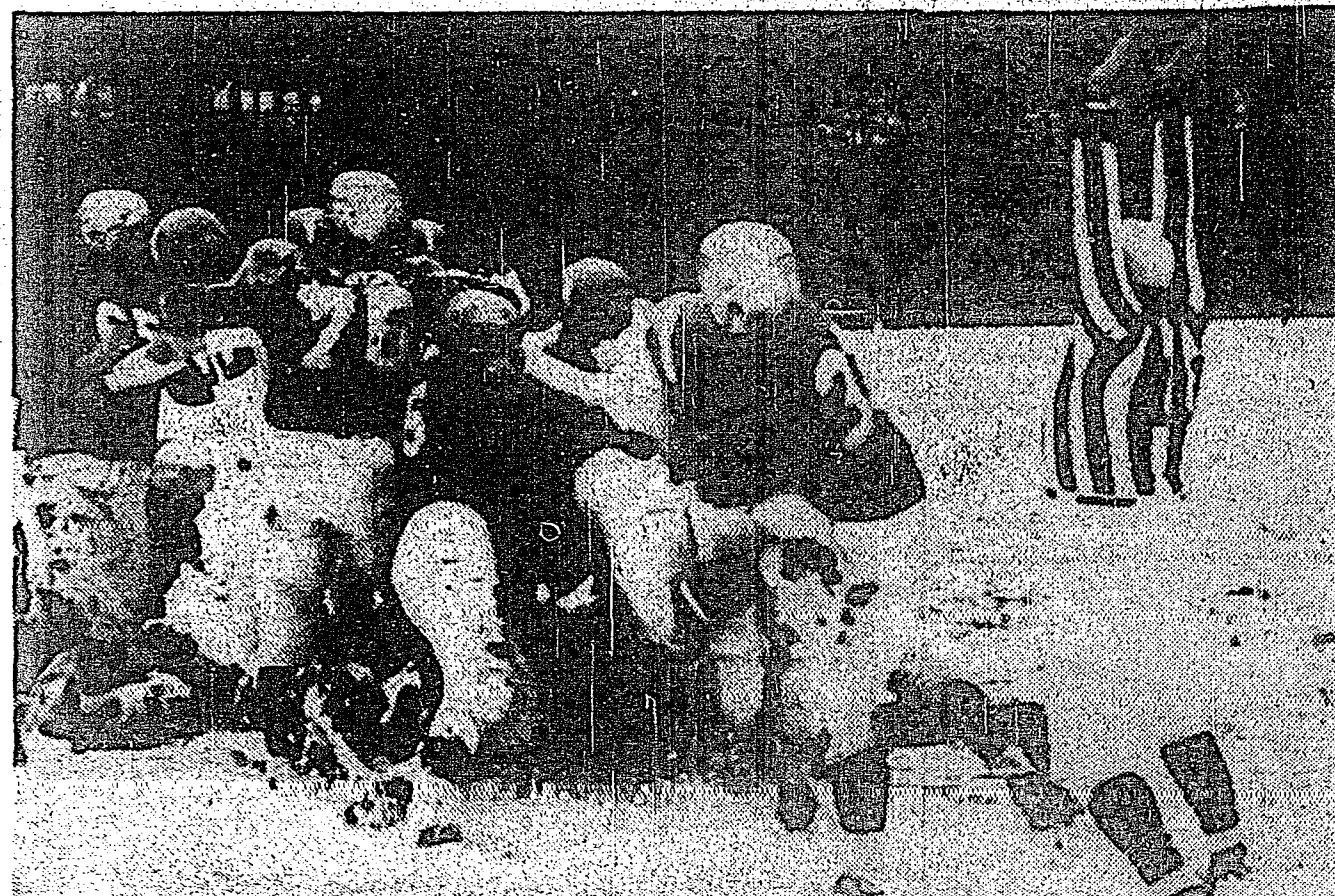

The 24-year-old outfielder was put on the spot from the start by the Cards, who two days before the season opened decided the time had come to replace their longtime right fielder, Enos Slaughter. Moon was the lad they picked to take over.

He rose to the occasion from the start, slugging a home run as leadoff man in the opening game. He kept up that kind of performance all season, finishing with 293 hits, scoring 106 runs and batting a respectable .304.

He collected 17 of 24 first-place votes in the balloting by the Baseball Writers' Assn. of America. The other seven votes were distributed among three other yearlings with Ernie Banks, Chicago Cubs' shortstop, the runner-up with four of them.

Two Milwaukee first-year men, pitcher Gene Conley and outfielder Hank Aaron, finished three, four.

One fellow helping take up space is the husky boy on the left, Detroit's Bingo Bingham, who is the largest man in pro football at a plus-300 pounds.

Lions Beat Cleveland

CLEVELAND—Buddy Parker's Detroit Lions defeated the Cleveland Browns for the seventh time in eight tries yesterday, and after the blizzard-swept game the rival coaches said:

Paul E. Brown — "We'd have liked a victory in that one, but we didn't get it."

Parker — "I wish that were the score of next Sunday's game."

The score was 14-10, and the Lions hit the airways for the come-from-behind touchdown in the last 50 seconds after it appeared the Browns had it wrapped up.

The game, except for the prestige involved, meant nothing, since each team had already clinched its

Bowling Clinic

By Billy Sixty

PITCHING HIGH
Add to the Push-away—If your ball is riding high on the head pin—too nose—then the almost unfailing cure is to increase the push-away. Get the ball outward, away from the body, to work it back into the groove, close to the body, where it belongs. It's an old failing, even among experts, to get "lazy" with the backswing. What happens? The push-away gets shorter. The ball, as the illustration shows, swings outward, away from the body, so that the aim already is too high at the head pin. From the angle of the backswing in the sketch, it would be impossible to hold the ball on the right side of the head pin, even with a sudden twist of the wrist to the right at ball release. Yet all bowlers get into the awkward position shown—because they get lazy, or thoughtless, and shorten the push-away. Push-away develops swing, and swing insures a groove. Carrying the ball? It's work, kills accuracy, takes the fun out of bowling.

Furgol Wins Havana Meet

HAVANA—Ed Furgol was off for a Florida rest cure for his ailing right arm today, packing along a $2,000 first prize check from the Havana Invitation Golf Tournament and his first victory since he won the National Open last June.

The Clayton, Mo., splinter, who has carried a withered left arm since a childhood accident, didn't seem to notice the injured right arm in the tourney windup yesterday. He shot a 67 over the par-72 Havana Country Club course, a 6-377-yard layout, for a 72-hole total of 273—15 strokes under par.

It wasn't the best round of the tourney for Furgol (he shot a 66 for runner-up honors opening day), but it brought him up from the field for a one-stroke edge over Walt Burkemo, Franklin, Mich.

Burkemo had putter trouble on the final green and watched a six-footer go astray, it gave him a 68 and $1,400.

Furgol never led in the four-day event until the final round and was playing despite intense pain in his right arm, injured during an Australian tour two months ago. But he licked his wobbly putting yesterday and displayed what he termed his best form of the year.

Al Bessellink, who had a three-stroke lead going into the final round, and Shelley Mayfield, the first-round leader with Tommy Bolt on a 65, tied for third with a 275 total, Bessellink, Grossingers, N. Y., played his best since injuring his right hand in a charity event a year ago, but blew up with a 73 on the final round.

Mayfield, of Chicopee, Mass., finished with a 70, while Bolt, of Houston, Tex., came home with a 71 for fourth place on a 276 total. Doug Ford, Kiamasha Lake, N. Y., was fifth with 277 while Harmon Barron, White Plains, N. Y., had to match Furgol's 67 to finish sixth at 278.

McGuire Puts Cage Clamps On Bob Cousy

The sizzling Fort Wayne Pistons are making the other teams in the National Basketball Association sit up and take notice as they bid for their first Western Division crown.

The sharp-shooting Pistons swept to their sixth victory in six games against the lovely Milwaukee Hawks Sunday night with an 87-82 win, increasing their first place margin to 5 1/2 games over the once-mighty Minneapolis Lakers.

Minneapolis, weakened by the retirement of George (Mr. Basketball) Mikan at the beginning of the season, dropped a 108-93 decision to Syracuse as the Nationals broke a four-game losing streak and maintained their Eastern Division lead.

The New York Knickerbockers took over second place with a 93-81 victory over the Boston Celtics and the Rochester Royals turned back the Philadelphia Warriors 92-79.

Vern Mikkelsen led the Lakers with 21 points, and he got scoring aid from Clyde Lovellette with 16 and Dick Schmitzer with 12.

New York scored 30 points in the third period and held the high scoring Celtics to their lowest point total of the season. Dick McGuire held Bob Cousy to 10 points, the lowest he has scored this season. Ray Felix paced the New York scoring with 24 points and Ed Macauley collected 19 for the Celtics.

Jim Yahnke Wins Bub's Sweepstakes

Jim Yahnke, below 200 in only one game and bolstered by a 255, won the annual Bub's Sweepstakes Bowling Tournament which concluded Sunday night at the Athletic Club.

Yahnke's 845 total was the highest four-game aggregate turned in by the 105 bowlers to participate the past two weekends.

Second prize money went to A. R. Hanson of Austin who trundled 817, while Fred Lipovetz of La Crosse, copped third with 805, concluding the list who soared over the 800 score.

Yahnke opened with his 255, the highest single of the tournament. He spared, got three strikes, spared and five more strikes. Then he had 187 with one error, 202 with one split and 201 with one error.

Hanson finished second to Yahnke not only in his four-game total, but with a 254 had the second highest single.

The Austin kegler sizzled to 650 his first three games. Going into the last game he had the highest first three games of the tournament. He dipped to 187, however, for his 817 total.

Hanson rolled 202-194-254-167. The two games that keyed his series, the 254 and 167, were contrasts in bowling. He opened with four consecutive strikes in the third game, spared, got a strike, spared and four more strikes.

In the 167 game Hanson had an error and two splits.

Lipovetz, the 59-year-old La Crosse bowler who took third prize money, is famous as the founder of the "700 Bowling Clubs of America."

He rolled 180-212-236-178. Before

St. Mary's Wins Consolation in Navy Pier Meet

Curran Leads
52-36 Triumph
With 18 Points

CHICAGO—The St. Mary's Redmen increased their season record to 7-6 by winning their seventh victory in eight non-conference starts. 52-36, here Saturday night against Illinois Tech.

Sophomore 6-7 center John Curran continued his improved scoring of recent games by high-pointing the St. Mary's effort with 18. Curran was the only player in double figures as Coach Ken Wiltgen used all of his players in the game.

Wiltgen, a defensive fundamentalist, saw his charges reach their peak performance of the year in that department. The Redmen limited Tech to 11 points in the first half.

The victory gave St. Mary's the consolation championship in the Navy Pier Tournament. Navy Pier won the regular crown with a victory over Chicago Branch in the finals.

Tonight Wiltgen sends his Redmen into non-conference action in the DeLaSalle High School gymnasium against Lewis College.

Minnesota Ice Rink Eye RPI Revenge

MINNEAPOLIS (U.S.)—Rensselaer Polytechnic, the tiny New York school which defeated Minnesota hockey last year, tries to do it all over again tonight in the first of a two-game intercollegiate.

In the RPI crew are nine lettermen from the team which was almost forced to apologize for showing up at the NCAA tournament last year, then licked Michigan and Minnesota in succession to win the championship.

If the Gophers were overconfident last year—although nobody has proved they were—they will be as high as the rafters for tonight's rematch.

"We don't need any artificial pumping up for this game," Coach John Mariucci said today. "The boys never wanted to win more. I don't mean there's any grudge between the teams played it clean last year."

Included in the Canadian lineup are All-America goalie Bob Fox and star forwards Gordy Peterkin, Mo Mosco and Frank Chiarelli.

Peterkin and Mosco, however, were injured early in RPI's loss to Boston College Saturday night and may not be in top condition. The champions have won three games, and lost two so far. Nine members of the team are Canadian-born.

But the stakes are really down for this game."

Besides defending the glory of midwestern hockey, Mariucci also wants to maintain Minnesota's current unbeaten record, hammered out in four games against Canadian junior leagues.

The Minnesota opposition tonight and again Tuesday night at St. Paul is still primarily Canadian, but hardly junior.

Top Comeback Role Awarded Ted Williams

Ted Williams, who may not come back to baseball any more, was voted today as having made the greatest comeback of the 1934 season.

The mighty slugger of the Boston Red Sox, generally recognized as one of the greatest of all hitters, gained the nod over another of the all-time greats, Bobby Feller, veteran right-handed pitcher of the Cleveland Indians.

The 42 sports writers and sportscasters who participated in the annual Associated Press poll spread their votes over 43 players.

Williams received 84 votes to Feller's 70. Vic Wertz, who did so well for Cleveland after the Indians had acquired him from Baltimore last June, was third with 52 votes. Joe Coleman, veteran Baltimore right-hander, was fourth with 49, and Sal Maglie, clutch right-hander of the New York Giants, was fifth with 29. Maglie led all National Leaguers on the comeback path.

The rest of the top 10 included Johnny Antonelli, Giants, 22; Larry Doby, Indians, 15; Mary Grisom, Giants, 13; Steve Gromek, Detroit Tigers, 11; and Jim Wilson, Milwaukee Braves, 8.

Those who voted for Williams obviously regarded the 36-year-old outfielder as still on the comeback trail although he returned from his second hitch with the Marines in August 1933. He went on a batting rampage in the closing months of the '33 season, hitting a blistering .407 in 37 games following that up with a spectacular .345 campaign in '34.

The slender slugger hammered 29 homers and drove in 89 runs although a fractured collarbone and an attack of pneumonia kept him inactive for six weeks.

Feller made a remarkable comeback last year, posting a 13-3 record following two ordinary years in which his combined total was 19 victories and 20 defeats.

Madison, Wis. (U.S.)—The University of Wisconsin basketball team is set to take on the second flank of a double edged invasion of southern schools after breaking off the lance of Louisiana State University Saturday night, 107-68.

Tulane, the Badger foe tonight, soaked up its first defeat of the season Saturday night when it lost to Northwestern at Evanston, Ill., 77-67.

The Badger victory Saturday night was a record breaker as for the first time in school case history Wisconsin posted a score of more than 100 points. Coach Bud Foster used two full teams and second string forward, Tommy Mack, hooked in the shot that put the Badgers over the 100 mark.

The 107 points are a new field house and scoring record. It surpassed the 82 points the Badgers scored at LSU a year ago and the 90 points by Indiana at Wisconsin last January.

COLLEGE CAGE

State Teams From Hoops To Holly

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Minnesota college basketball teams move from hoops to holly this week, bringing action to an almost dead stop after a weekend of furloughing.

St. Mary's plays at Lewis, Ill., tonight, and Emporia State at Duluth Branch, Emporia shifts to Bemidji, Minn., Tuesday night, and that finishes the week's schedule.

Otherwise it's vacation week. Serious action doesn't pick up again until Dec. 30.

Hamline absorbed an 80-79 overtime loss to Drake Saturday night after Jerry Port's field goal sent the game into an extra period.

Hamline's tallest men, Dick Donlin and Gene Auck, were on the bench with five fouls at the finish but even then the Pipers made a scrap of it against the undefeated Iowans.

Dave Tschimperl hit 19 points and Auck 15.

St. Mary's grabbed the consolation championship of the Navy Play tournament at Chicago with a 52-30 victory over Illinois Tech.

Johnny Curran collected 18 points for St. Mary's.

Gustavus Adolphus, however, failed in its consolation bid against Arkansas Tech in the NAIA tournament at Kansas City. The Gusties lost 73-69 despite a strong finish which almost overtook the winners.

Gustavus was without injured Jack Colvard for the second straight night. Johnny Patzward and Bill Patterson, freshman from Minneapolis, Gustavus with 18 points and Jim Springer added 16.

St. Thomas, leading by 18 points at one time, barely had enough left to shade South Dakota State, 63-61. Lou Shears dropped in 25 for St. Thomas.

Carleton bowed 60-49 to Lawrence Free throw proficiency, although dependable Laurie Slocum tossed in 17 points for the Carls.

St. Cloud whipped Emporia 77-71 in overtime with eight straight points down the stretch. The score was 65-63 at the end of regulation time.

Rog Westlund hit 29 points for St. Cloud.

HAVANA, U. S. — Wally Ulrich of Rochester and Austin, Minn., won $381.66 in the 72-hole Havana Invitation Golf Tournament which ended Sunday. His 72-hole total was 77-71-68-68—284.

Ed Furgol, Clayton, Mo., won top honors and $2,000 for his 66-71-69-67-272.

LET'S EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D.Sc.

Answer to Question No. 1.
1. Two women marriage counselors, Duvall and Moltz, compared 400 city and country girls, 14 to 24. They found them alike in happiness, wholesome sex knowledge, number of male and female friends, going steady and becoming engaged, and attitudes toward wives working and having children. More city parents administered inconsistent discipline, more city girls came from unhappy homes, and more of them smoked and drank.

Answer to Question No. 2.
2. False. Noses now are more ornamental (sometimes) than useful. "Spectrum Magazine" says prehistoric men had to use their sense of smell to find food and detect enemies. Good smellers survived, poor smellers perished. Not so necessary for survival today. A "small measurer" now helps doctors detect some diseases by the patient's breath or body odor.

Answer to Question No. 3.
3. Many people—especially women—spend thousands of hours on appearance but not ten minutes developing a "come-hither" voice. One TV star practices by repeating these phrases rapidly many times daily: "Six little thistle sticks," "Flesh of freshly fried fish," "yonder stands a long, slick, slim, slender sapling." Try them. Our booklet, "How To Be Popular," will help. Nonprofit, 15c (coin only) plus self-addressed, stamped envelope. Send to Dr. A. E. Wiggam, care of The Winona Daily News.

Sheppard Judge To Hear Second Murder Case Today

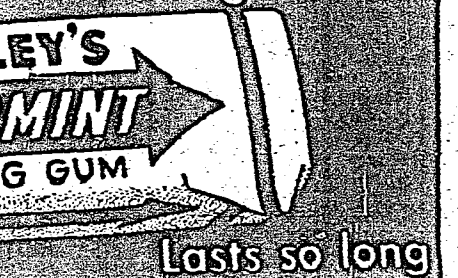

CLEVELAND (U. S. — Starting today, Judge Edward Blythin is serving in two murder trials at once.

One, of course, is the trial of osteopath Samuel H. Sheppard, charged with first degree murder in the bludgeon-death of his pregnant wife last July 4. Jurors in that trial try for the fourth straight day today to reach a verdict.

The other is the trial of Curtis Chaney, also charged with first degree murder in the fatal shooting of another man last Aug. 23. Curtis has waived a jury, and Judge Blythin is on the three-judge panel which starts hearing the case today.

The judge said the new trial can be recessed long enough for him to return to the other one in the event a verdict is reached.

The U. S. national debt is about 275 billion dollars.

FAIRLY SPOKEN

By MARGARET LATROBE

Alger Hiss will never "confess." From his pen will come no book, no story of high treason. Should he go before further senatorial committees, neither will any unfolding of espionage on high levels be uttered there.

Such testimony would be contrary to Hiss' basic character. One little scene is the tip-off. This occurred in executive session before his first trial, during questioning by the senators. Hiss was playing to the hit his role of the intelligent Harvard man, president of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, and former adviser to presidents of this nation. Not only was the interrogation a big fat bore to this "intellectual," but the politicians were making him late for an appointment.

Intolerable, really, did man. Ask, if he might interrupt the session, he said, "Would it be possible for one of the members of the committee to call the Harvard Club and leave word that I won't be there for a six o'clock appointment?"

Hiss belongs to the "intelligentsia" which was so well described by Bishop Sheen as a group "educated beyond their intelligence." Hiss' contempt for such "oversimplifications" as patriotism, loyalty, moral integrity is excellently shown by his haughty conviction that his "intellect" will win the final argument.

He will "dispel the great deception." (Which one, Mr. Hiss?) He will resolve "the myth," send the "fantastic inventions" of witness Chambers into their proper focus. He will relieve "the harassment of himself and his family," returning to his former place in government.

To accomplish this, he will rely on dialectics, which as every good Harvard lad knows, is logical development of pure sweet reason. Cold, sometimes fickle, reason. Hiss has based his life on the supremacy of the "intellect" and has assumed that his was superior to

Joe Low Sends Cards From Jolo by Lowe

BRIDGEPORT, W. Va. (U. S. — Joe Low, of Bridgeport, is having his Christmas cards mailed this year from Jolo, W. Va., by Postmaster Frank Lowe.

Station Gets News By Carrier Pigeon

BOWLING Green, Ohio (U. S. — Radio station WYBG goes on the air today—with news delivered by carrier pigeon. A dispute with the Northern Ohio Telephone Co. left Howard R. Ward, head of the newly constructed station, temporarily without lines to bring in Associated Press service. Ward, FCC construction permit says he has to be on the air by tomorrow. So he arranged to have his AP teletype machines installed in a department store at Toledo, some 20 air miles distant, and got the loan of about 30 pigeons from the American Homing and Racing Pigeon Union.
