MANKATO TEACHERS COLLEGE DESTROYED HIGH STARS ON FRIDAY

By writing to an friend of the old school, the Minn-Hi published the following account of the ball game between the Minn-Hi and Mankato played on the St. Cloud Game.

The Minn-Hi and Mankato teams were about evenly matched with the local five in the lead which they held until the end of the first half and part of the second.

The Minn-Hi team was composed of seven players, all of whom have been tried in the various positions on the field. They were: R. B. Miller, C. F. Lynch, R. G. Pellowski, R. G. Swenson, C. C. Freed, C. B. Wells, and the New World. Prof. Arnold is selecting his ancient and modern literature, with which they met St. Cloud, and are ready for the fray.
