Dick Nelson, Guest Artist, to Play Lead in Wenonah Players Production May 4

Alumnus Dick Nelson, now a student at the University of Min- nesota, will be guest star in the Wenonah Players production of Noel Coward's hilarious farce "Blithe Spirit," which will be presented on Saturday night, May 4, in Somsen Auditorium.

Dick will play the same role as he did in the University produc- tion of the play in January, that of Charles Condomine, British novelist in whose home the action of the play occurs. Dick will be remembered for his characteristic interpre- tation of the father in "Junior Miss," Wenonah Players production of two seasons ago.

The plot of the Coward farce centers around the home life of Charles Condomine and his charming second wife, Miss Lella. The latter role will be played by Sylvia Lelio, who was remembered for her performances as the Jewish school principal, Leona, in "Tomorrow the World" and as Mrs. Lott in "Junior Miss." For the second time she and Dick will again play character roles.

The leading character role, that of Madame Arcati, the "profes- sional crystal gazer" who succeeds in materializing the "little spirit" is being taken by Sylvia Lelio. Sylvia has played a suc- cession of character roles, the most notable of which is Auntie Jesus in last year's production of "Tomorrow the World." Lenore Breden has been cast in the role of Elvira, who has been materialized through Madame Arcati's suavity at the request of Condomine. This request was innocently made in the hope only of getting local color for a new novel which Charles is about to write. The results of this materialization prove very nearly disastrous for the Madame finds herself unable to continue on page 1, column 2

Peter Loughrey, R. B. LeMay, Resign As Teachers College Alumni Officers

by Stanley Brown

Mr. Peter Loughrey, president, and Dr. Ray B. LeMay, secretary-treasurer, of the T. C. Alumni Society, are resigning this year. They both will, however, maintain an active membership in the organization. Both men have given their time and effort in such a generous, self-effacing way that the extent of their assistance to the school has been little known except to members of the society and the faculty.

Mr. Loughrey first became associated with the school when he enrolled in Winona Normal in 1895. While in attendance there he was a member of the first football team the school ever had and captained the team in the years of 1897 and ’98. After graduating in 1900, Mr. Loughrey answered the call for teachers in the newly acquired Philippine Islands and taught there until 1904, when he returned to the United States via China and Japan. Since that time he has been associated with various sales agencies.

Mr. Loughrey has been a member of the Alumni Society since its founding in 1933 and has been president for the past 9 years. In addition to holding this office, he is past president of the United Spanish War Veterans for the state of Minnesota, president of the Winona Safety Council and a member of the Fire and Police Board.

Doctor Ray B. LeMay attended Winona Normal between the years of 1899 and ’97. Tall and trim, he was in the public schools of Winona and was instrumental in introducing manual training into the curriculum. In 1909 he moved to Tacoma, Washington, and was employed by the public schools to teach manual training. He has been associated and taught in Odessa, California. After teaching the summer terms of 1916 and ’17 at the Winona State Teachers College, Doctor LeMay started the practice of dentistry and has been engaged in that profession since that time.

Although Dr. LeMay has at various times been associated nationally in Minnesota, the Bradley Polytechnic Institute, the University of California, and the University of Washington, he still regards Winona State Teachers College as his Alma Mater.

Both Dr. LeMay and Mr. Loughrey have shown their faith in the college as an institution of learning by sending their children to the school.

The purpose of the Alumni Society, the organization to which these men belong, is "to promote a more intimate relationship between Winona State Teachers College and its alumni and to advance their mutual interests as well as those of the college itself."

Without-understanding the importance of scholastic ability, Dr. Raymond stressed the importance of desirable personality traits, mentioning such things as leadership, sociability, courtly personality, respect for public property, good manner, sound judgment of humor, originality, and friendliness.

The new members initiated were as follows: John Blod dell, Francis Hatfield, Rorba Shott, Albert Clifton, Nelda Myer, Charles Keys, Gerry Ryberg and Mary Neil.

Athlete's Feet

Mr. Kannel Speaks Up On Sports

Some faculty, several alumni, and a great majority of the men of the college have asked me to devote my column to a criticism of the athletic and general physical education organization of the college.

I am not so keen on criticism, but if criticism is not to criticise the support given this department by the various committees and boards of the college.

There is little or nothing, and has done little or nothing to encourage the enrollment of men in W.S.T.C. for the last ten years as far as I can gather from my own stay here, and from what I can gather from former students, students who make fine records here and are now making a success in the teaching profession. Only today, I was speaking with a successful coach from one of the nearby cities and an alumnus of this college. He said that he certainly would not advise any of his young men to enroll in the college. He is sure of course that as far as athletics are concerned, prospective athletes snicker when W.S.T.C. is mentioned.

Whether we realize it or not, sports have a place in college. The college does stand for fine scholastic records, but there is very little place for the fine athletic records as well. Some people seem to be interested only in athletics and play, ed. as a part of the school's curriculum. It is true that a lot of people are interested in that for the academic studies. A person competing in athletics or just playing in ed. is still considered a good citizen. It is "strong in body, weak in mind," I'm certain that the physical education department would like to see every student participate in the athletic events. The athletic records of these schools do much more to give the students and this department a better footing in the communities. The athletic events can give us a better name at the city and college.

The institution is going to lose some of its present enrollment, and would lose more if it were not so convenient that sports are offered. Why must we take a back seat to Mankato, St. Cloud, Benidit, and even to St. Mary's? I'm certain that the physical education department is going to take a back seat to the academic studies, and at least one other person will take another back seat. Our college athletic department should be the only logical thing to do. Not so!

The big drawback is this: most athletes have no idea of the true meaning of the college's curriculum. It is not to make the institution a desirable school to play. Theistration on the spur of the moment. That urge is governed by many factors, weather, studies, and at least one other person will take another back seat. A Student's View: the Compulsory Food Law

There are two extreme points of view on every question and somewhere between the black and the white lies the real truth. Therefore I believe serious consideration should be given to a few suggestions on the proposition of this bill.

The easiest solution to the problem is to make the food more wholesome and palatable. The line would then automatically form on the right with operation -should be given to a few suggestions on the real truth. Therefore I believe serious consid-

G.I.'s and Education

One of the many post-war problems resulting from the return of G.I.'s to civilian life is that of overcrowded educational institutions. Schools, which have just barely completed their current enrollment, are now being filled to overflowing with former servicemen who wish to further their education or start college to prepare for their future.

That some of these men are in school merely to fulfill some specific requirement can be inferred by the average age of the student body. This is all very fine, and we wouldn't mind it if it weren't for the fact that one of "the two extreme points of view on every question and somewhere between the black and the white lies the real truth.
