FOOTBALL PROSPECTS
BRIGHT; FIRST GAME
HERE SEPTEMBER 30

The outlook for the 1922 football season is very uncertain. With only three better men, Captain Gross, Risser and McCaffrey, Coach Everts has the task of developing practically a new team. However, the squad of about twenty-five has a number of very promising men, who have had much experience in their high school days. Although the majority of these new men may lack experience and knowledge, they easily make that up by their enthusiasm and determination which they show on the field every afternoon in falling on the ball, hitting the dummy, and practicing signals.

Only a day remains until the first game with Cotter High School and then the men will get a chance to show their wares. Just who will play is a matter of speculation, but it is likely that almost everyone will be in the fray for a little while. For the backfield, Coach Everts has a good supply of men to choose from. McCaffrey, regular half-back from last year, is out again with all his usual pep and seems practically assured of a berth this year. Captain Gross can also be used as a halfback man but it is felt that his presence up in the line at center is needed more than it is at full-back. Passell, one of the new men, is making a name for himself as a line plunger and an open field runner. He is heavy and fast and will make a dangerous man for all opposing teams. Chinske, another new man, although light, is showing up well both as an offensive man and on the defense. His regular position is quarter, where he will probably play this year. Some of the other backfield candidates are Lund, Kline, Mitchell, Streiff, Snyder, and Bourne. At center Gross is the best bet that he may change off with Risser or Zimmerman. At guard, Risser, with his previous experience, is likely to fit in again. The other guard position is open to J. Mitchell, Sommman, Pelling, and Wahl. The tackle positions are still uncertain, but Eliot and Zimmerman are the most promising with Rosau, Pothoff, Sebo, Benson, and Walsh as the other candidates. The wing positions are likewise uncertain with Larson, Mitchell, Bourne, Lund, Snyder, Sonntag, and Streiff for candidates.

The squad is completely equipped. Our athletic field is in the best condition that it has ever been with a fine new growth of grass over the entire gridiron. With these ideal conditions, the men working hard every afternoon, let’s have the complete backing of the students throughout the football season. If this comes to pass then Winona will surely beat her old rival, St. Cloud. What Say!

HOME-COMING DATE
SET FOR NOV. 11

The initial homecoming day of the W. S. T. C. has been set for Nov. 11. On this day the College football team will face our old rival, St. Cloud, on the college field.

Of course this is looking a long way into the future but since this is the first homecoming our college is to experience, lets make it worth while. It takes time to plan and prepare for anything that is to be a success, and we surely want to make this a GO. It is something that a few committees put together and several organizations can make it a success; it is something that every one has to get behind and push. Every organization and every individual will have to do a big share.

A new proposition like this always must face a gauntlet of questions; “What’s the big idea?” “What is the purpose?” “What are we going to do?” Well, what we will do will be to put the W. S. T. C. on the map. How will we do it? The first thing will be to BEAT ST. CLOUD. Have a record breaking crowd out watching us do it, advertise the event, tell your friends about it, let every one know what is going to happen. It will be the best chance you have to show your real school spirit. Juniors come to the front and show your colors. Let’s start to organize our forces and prepare and arrange for the details of the event. Let’s see if we can put it across with some enthusiasm and pep and (Continued on Page 2)
THAT GAME

Tomorrow the football team makes its initial appearance of the year in a scheduled game. It is not the most important game of the year but it is the first. For the past two weeks twenty-seven men have been hard at work to make this game and the others to follow result as we know they should. You know the impetus a successful start can give to the achievement of a more successful conclusion. Be at the game tomorrow and do your share toward furnishing that impetus. There will be no taller contact on the home field until the Shattuck game October 21st and you want to see the team in action before that time. Be on hand tomorrow early, and show what kind of baking you are going to give this team throughout the year.

NEW BUSINESS MANAGER

Due to the resignation of Ethelbert Sandel who is attending the University of Minnesota, it was necessary to elect a new Business Manager for The Winonan this year. Avery Barr was selected unanimously by the staff and has already proved his qualification for the position. He has had experience in work of this nature and is sure to put forth his best efforts to make a busy and prosperous year.

MU-EPSILON-NU

The Mu-Epsilon-Nu Club is an organization of the men students. Last year the need was felt for an organization of the men to promote good fellowship so the club was formed and the name Mu-Epsilon-Nu chosen as the Greek symbol for the letters M. E. N. This "good fellowship" spirit showed up last year, when we entertained Shattuck Ball Team at the Tastie Shop, when we had our picnic, and especially at our regular meetings.

This year we have twenty-eight prospective new members. From all indications this new material will be of great value to the school, when properly organized. The initiation of the first group of ten members on Tuesday evening is another proof that this is a live and prosperous organization.

Come fellows and get well seasoned with good fellowship for that is the stuff by which we will remember our college days.
MENDELSSOHN CLUB TRYOUTS COMPLETED: RESERVE LIST

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club held its first meeting of the year and elected the following officers:

Inez Zehblad, President
Delpha Kuhl, Vice-President
Clar Miller, Secretary
Susan White, Treasurer

The club is the smallest organization of W. S. T. C., but it is big in spirit. The plans which are already in the making are bigger and more numerous than ever.

Besides the regular work of the club, they intend to get acquainted with the Home Economics people in this city and elsewhere and occasionally there will be speakers present at their meetings to talk to them about different problems.

October 4, the club members plan to go on a hike to some place of beauty where they will eat the appetizing supper prepared by the department.

DORMITORY NOTES

Mrs. E. D. Hubbard and son Clayton of Rochester, visited Alice Hubbard on Sunday.

Mrs. White of Maiden Rock, Wis., visited with her daughter Grace on Sunday.

Get acquainted parties were held in all the dormitories last Sunday for the purpose of exchanging acquaintances. Quiet hours were not observed.

The Red Wing girls have formed a club called "Red Wing Club" comprised of twelve members. The purpose of this club is to hold social gatherings once a month.

The following girls have spent the week end at their homes or visiting friends and relatives:

Irene Hessleberg and Florence Bergstrom at Red Wing; Alice Anderson and Ethel Edmunds at LeRoy; Grace Miller and Lilla Buckingham at Weaver; Luella Meyers and Bernice Larson at Hudson, Wis.; Vesta Phillips at Elgin; Alma Lund and Myrl Pomeroy at Wabasha.

Miss Alice Payne was called home last Friday because of the death of her father. Miss Payne lives at Wabasha.

Mr. Bernard Halle of Springfield, Ill., and Mr. Peterson of Minneapolis were guests of Fern Peterson and Esther Elde last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Laughlin of Owatonna visited their daughter Mary on Sunday.

Miss Heimso and friends of La Crose visited Miss Heimso Sunday afternoon.

Miss Ethel Corcoran of Rosemount and Hugh Callahan of St. Paul visited here Sunday, guests of Ruth Corcoran and Mary Erwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Woolley and family of Rochester visited Alice Jane Sunday.

Initiations have been quite numerous in the "Dorms," especially at Shepard Hall. There doesn't seem to be anything more thrilling than to come to one's room and find it in an upheaval. Beds "flapped," chairs and dressers draped, dummies made out of almost nothing, and everything out of its place. Sybil, the life of the dormitory, had a trick played on her. Her room was transformed into a palace, similar to that of the Emperor of Abyssinia, dedicated to "Sybil, the Great." The Seniors who did the work deserve credit for their artistic ability while the Juniors deserve a pat on the shoulder for the spirit which they showed upon being initiated.

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A., one of the most active organizations of W. S. T. C. has already begun work and the plans for the year will no doubt interest many of the students.

This organization plans to assist as librarians at the city end library, help at the Day Nursery, assist in the city Y. W. C. A., plan parties and good times for the working girls of Winona, and coach games at the city Y. W. C. A. As soon as possible this organization will organize a bible study class that will hold regular meetings. The social event for this fall will be a picnic and later in the year a party.

A membership committee of ten has been chosen and this committee will try to meet every girl. If you happen to be the girl who is missed you are asked to see one of the committee so you too can become a member.

Officers of Y. W. C. A.

Delphine Anderson, President
Helen Wilkins, Vice-president
Marion Bagley, Secretary
Bernice Svenson, Treasurer
Ann Saari, Social chairman
Nellie Bung

KINDERGARTEN CLUB

At five o'clock on Friday, September 8th, the Kindergarten Club held its first meeting of the year in the Kindergarten rooms, under the direction of the new advisor, Miss Anne Saari, Miss Sutherland, Miss Shumate, and the last year's club members were pleased to see the twenty-six fine new members of the club. A committee of four to meet with Miss Sutherland was appointed to nominate candidates for the secretary's and treasurer's offices for the year 1922 and 1923.

After this appointment the members busily began to get acquainted. They played their "Get-Acquainted Game" in which everyone was introduced to everyone else. After that, to prove that they were acquainted and to prove that they were real kindergartners, the girls and the teachers played a nice, jelly little hide-and-seek.

At six o'clock there being no further business the meeting adjourned.

COUNTRY LIFE CLUB

Everyone enjoyed the meeting of the C. L. C. last Wednesday. The program consisted of talks by President Maxwell, Miss Hulet, and Miss Christiansen; a violin solo by Helen Welch; and community singing accompanied by the ukulele played by Miss Frazier. Approximately sixty new members joined the organization which aims to foster such work and play as is possible in rural schools. The spirit of good fellowship and friendliness promises a year of great activity. Miss Christiansen, the new rural supervisor, is the advisor of the club. The officers for the year are:

President: Miss Potthoff
Vice-President: Miss Hulet
Secretary: Miss Glyn
Treasurer: Miss Christiansen

Mary—"Life of a man."
Stalcup—"Now then, what is an autobiography?"
Mary—"Why, a life that runs on alone."
