From the queen
by Gayle Christoferson

When I first arrived on the Winona State campus, I knew I was entering a new and different world and I was actually frightened. I knew I had to make new friends and become accustomed to a new environment. I realized the first week at school was planned for us but I didn't really know what to expect.

The day I arrived on campus was a hectic one, people scurrying around with arms filled with suitcases and trunks. I thought to myself, "Is this really worth it?" I had run up four flights of stairs for the fourth time. Yet by 4:00 p.m. almost everyone was settled and things quieted back to normal. Then our orientation week really began with a beautiful buffet dinner.

Every activity of our first week's stay at the college was carefully planned and everyone on the orientation team and faculty, I realize, has gone out of their way to make this orientation week the great success that it has been. After my homecoming was a success, I was happy to think about my first week on campus, I was at ease from the word I entered the college. "Let the S stand for something connected to us to learn: the firm foundation of a proud and profitable college is today — basically a combination of the freshman king and queen at the Stout College in Massachusetts.

I have decided that the topic for freshman "WSC is not only the college of your powers, your potential, are unknown quantities. As a group, for example, we are not even certain how many of you there are in. You're the largest freshman class ever, we know, but you haven't stopped enrolling yet. As individuals you are unique, with your own personality, your power, your potential, are discovered, not only by us but by yourselves as well. We don't know who among you will succeed, and who will not. We don't know what your dream is."

Mr. Reidelberger's "sex" is different from that which one would normally think of, each letter stands for something connected with the college. "Let the R stand for the school you have chosen; the X represent the Educational Process; and the X refer to that unknown quantity, the college freshman."

Easy in, easy out

Welcome, freshmen and transfer students to Winona State College. It is quite possible that a large percentage of you are as excited about attending Winona State College as we are. We are proud to welcome you to Winona State College where the emphasis is on a well-rounded education that will help you to develop into responsible, productive citizens. We hope that you will find Winona State College to be a rewarding and stimulating experience.

Things doing now

In the coming weeks we will be busy getting things in order for the new term. We will be working on the various sections of the newspaper, trying to make them more interesting and informative. We will be conducting interviews with students, faculty, and staff to get their reactions to the new term. As I View It

Let's hear from you

It was a busy summer on campus while most of you were gone. During the last few weeks, the Winonan staff was enrolled and during the second session, 850.

A college matriculation commitment July 14 a total of 141 degrees were awarded. Of these, 100 degrees were in the field of science, 160 in the field of science and 111 of bachelor of arts.

One student, Joyce M. Jenny, Morris, Minn., was the recipient of a special honor.

Two students were graduated with honor. They are: William F. Hilt, Rushford; and Mrs. Terry Olen Johnson, St. Charles, Minn., who was awarded a bachelor of arts degree.

A welcome from Senate

The International Relations Club of Winona State is interested in furthering better international relations through personal relations and through learning and understanding the cultures of peoples of other lands. While I.R.C. is especially valuable to all foreign students among its membership, it is among American students also participating and contributing to better international relations.

The first meeting of I.R.C. is scheduled for September 22 at 7:30 in room 326, Second Hall. An open invitation is extended to all interested students. More information on the I.R.C. can be obtained from the President or any member of the club.

NDSF funds allocated

All but about $30,000 of the college's $150,000 allocation for National Defense Student Loans during the current year has been committed, according to the War Loan Service.

A total of about $38,000 has been allocated to institutions other than Winona State and $20,000 to returning students. The remaining $10,000 has been committed to the College of Education and the College of Liberal Arts.

Because of our efforts to increase the number of college and university students, the War Loan Service has increased its allocation to the college by $10,000, which funds have not been exhausted by others.

WSC grad named to top post in U. S. Weather Bureau

By GEORGE MCCORMICK

A tribute to a 1938 graduate of Winona State College was a feature of the science and faculty meeting at the Winona State College Faculty Day Review.

He is the Reverend Earl A. Wilson, a University of Wisconsin professor who has taken a post in the U. S. Weather Bureau in Washington, D. C. The marque-summer's article described Dr. Wilson's experiences in atmosphere analysis and control.

Wilson, a graduate of Finnish ancestry, perhaps from a boylhood spent in Minnesota, perhaps from a mixture of the two, Dr. Wilson acquired a mind that flutters in the atmosphere of the "Northern Lights," the article states.

He will be headquartered in the jet stream and will coordinate the bureau's service programs to colleges and universities. He will speak before student groups.

He was sworn in as a Weather Bureau commentator in June of 1964.

Four Winona State College alumni have been selected for Latin Honors in the 1965 edition of "Outstanding Young Men of America," a publication of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

They are: H. Gene Kyung (BS'38), William Wiczenock (BS'37), and John Moryan (BS'42).

Ronald Mrozak (BA'39) has been appointed an assistant director of the university's educational service bureau for the Minneapolis-St. Paul area.

He will coordinate the placement of students in the first year and for part of the second year at Gilmanton (Wis.) High School and Shorewood (Wis.) High School.

Fred W. Kohmeyer (BS'41) has been appointed an associate professor of history at Illinois State University, Normal.

He has been on the faculty of the University of Wisconsin for two years. While there he taught at Columbus, Wisconsin, the master of arts degree in the department of History.

Since 1960 he had edited "Agri eta," a student publication, and for the last year he has been working on a history of Lakeside Northern Co. in Winona.

Miss Carol Brosseth (BS'39) is teaching English at Bloomington High School after spending the last three years in the international division of Sophia University in Tokyo, Japan.

Miss Brosseth is qualified in the 1960-61 school year, then spent the next four years as an editorial assistant on the staff of the Minnesota Education Association Journal. During this time, she was an assistant to the editor of the Minnesota Education Journal of Education."1

John D. Fluegel (BS'36) is a sales manager and general sales manager of Standard Oil, Decatur, Ill., as an admissions counselor at Winona State College.

While at WSC, Fluegel was president of the Student Commission and a member of Sigma Tau Gamma. He belongs to the National Honor Society and the Gogebic Community College in Ironwood, Mich. He will teach at the University of Wisconsin.

Robert J. Gleissner, Madison, Wis., will join the business division. He is a graduate of Wisconsin State College, Madison, and has the master's degree from the University of Wisconsin. He is married.

Dr. Richard M. Smith will join the staff of the university's education courses and is a graduate of Winona State College. He has been teaching in Racine public schools. He is married and has two children.

Maurice McCauley, a former Houston County inspector of the University of Minnesota, has been selected for the masters degree in education. He is married.

Miss Judy Wilsey will join the staff of the Phelps School as teacher of homemaking and a social studies counselor. Miss Wilsey has the bachelor's degree from the University of Minnesota College of Agriculture in home economics and recently completed the work for the masters degree in social education at Winona State.

Dena Wals will join the staff of the sciences and mathematics division as instructor in mathematics. Mrs. Wals has the bachelor's degree from Central Michigan University.

Marvin A. Galecki, Minneapolis, earned the bachelor's degree at North-western University, Evanston, Ill., and is a member of the industrial research for Gillette, Inc., Minneapolis. He will teach at the University of Minnesota.

Mr. Martin K. Przybylski, a former student at Winona State College and the University of Wisconsin, will be a principal in the social sciences division.

Mr. Przybylski, who was married in 1950, is married and has two children.
State wins 8-6; Bemidji next

Stout State becomes Warriors first victim

Winona State College notch ed its first victory of the 1964 football season opener at its home Maxwell Field Saturday night, an 8-6 conference win over Stout State University of Menomonie, Wis.

The Warriors, performing in their season opener before 2,340 fans, displayed several good aspects and a few phases of the game to be improved upon. And head coach Madeo (Moon) Molinari will apparently keep this well game to be improved upon. And University of Menomonie, Wis. Warriors are idle this Saturday.

The duo of George Waterman, a 29-year-old senior from Centaga, N.Y. And Raymond (Bub) Walsh, a junior transfer from Mason City (Iowa), Junior College, provided the Warriors with the spark needed for victory.

Waterman, a halfback, carried the ball seven times for 104 yards, including an electrifying 10-yard scamper from scrimmage which went for a touchdown in the third quarter. Walsh handled the Stout line for a two-point conversion, which eventually provided the Warriors with the win.

Walsh was also a standout on defense. He repeatedly knocked down Blank Davis pass attempts in the second half, and intercepted a Mike Dunford (Stout's quarterback) aerial on the Winona one-yard line in the third period, and raced up to his own 30 before being dropped. The interception set up Winona's score.

Molinari searched for a signal from the sidelines as he had the homeboys preparing for the United Press International game which is scheduled for Sunday afternoon. The game between the two teams, which is being played in Winona for the third straight year, is being played.

The return of the returning lettermen are: Dick Kupfer, Bill Anderson, Dennis Wodele, Bruce Smith, and Tom Gale.

Other underclassmen include: Ron Hanson, Dave Base and Larry Litera.

Mike Anderson, brother of Jeterman Bill, was tenth in the state high school cross country last year.

Barnard was Minneapolis city and regional cross country champ. He also holds that city's record of 1000 yards in 3:11.

Other upperclassmen in football: Barb Peterson, Phil Silver, and Tom Gale.

Defensively, captain Jeff Kreran (Stout's quarterback) landed the attack. Kremer is from Spring Grove, Minn., and Curran hails from Staten Island, and Jerry Curran teamed up to make it two in a row over Littlefield-Bemidji next Saturday at Maxwell Field. Bemidji was a 16-0 loss to Dakota University Thursday.
