DECIDING GAMES FOR WINONA FIVE COMING ST. CLOUD RETURNS 17th

A number of very important games on the basketball schedule are still to be played. The most important games, from the standpoint of rivalry, are soon to come and it is very possible that Winona will still come out on top. The games played thus far have been with teams somewhat out of our class but they have given the team some very valuable experience which could not have been obtained if weaker opponents had been chosen.

On the 10th, the team travels to Faribault to battle our ancient rivals of the Shattuck Military Academy. The defeat that Shattuck administered to us last fall in football still lingers in our memory and a victory in basketball now would partially even the score. The team is determined to duplicate the Mankato game and bring home this very important victory. A still more important game is to be played here on the 17th, when St. Cloud comes to try to repeat the first game played at St. Cloud. Winona will be more than determined to win this game for many reasons. In the first place, a victory over our most deadly rival, St. Cloud, would be much the same for us as the victory in basketball against a Yale-Harvard game. Then there is a possibility that the Teachers College championship of the state is at stake. In addition a victory for Winona would clear up a number of defeats given by St. Cloud in the past.

The last games on the schedule are to be played on the 23rd and the 24th, with the Rochester Junior College and the Mankato Teachers College, respectively. These games are return games and will be staged on foreign floors. The battle with Rochester will probably bring the closest, if the first results can be used as criterions. In any case, we are expecting favorable returns from both games.

SPELLING TEST RESULTS SHOW LARGE IMPROVEMENT

"These are the times that try men's souls" or at least the souls of those who are now struggling with the 7:55 spelling class. This class is the result of our much-discussed spelling tests which were given in chapel recently. Although it has proven necessary to have such a class, the results of the test are very gratifying. Despite the fact that the range of marks was from 100 to 37, our school has the high average of 55.

A special test was given at 3:15, Thursday, Jan. 25th, for those who could not take the test in chapel.

Of the total number taking the test, there were 52 perfect grades. This is a record of which our school can be justly proud.

EXCELLENT PROGRAM OF ONE-ACT PLAYS GIVEN BY WENONAH PLAYERS

An interesting and highly artistic program was presented by the Wenonah Players Club, Friday evening, February 2, at the Masonic Temple. The entertainment consisted of three one-act plays of unusual merit. The first of these was "The Wonder Hat," a Harlequinade with the scene laid in a moonlit park. A magic slipper which made all men become infatuated with the wearer and a wonder hat which made the wearer invisible, furnished many humorous situations, all centering around the love affairs of Columbus. The cast was as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Character</th>
<th>Actor</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Harlequin</td>
<td>Eileen McGuire</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pierrot</td>
<td>Annette Hanna</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Puncinello</td>
<td>Scaphine Martin</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Columbus</td>
<td>Beatrice Peters</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Margot</td>
<td>Ethel Gieves</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

This play was followed by "Overtures" by Alice Gerstenberg. It showed the sham and insincerity of the modern woman by contrasting her with her more primitive and emotional self. The cast was as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Character</th>
<th>Actor</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Harriet,</td>
<td>Elizabeth Shackle</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Hetty,</td>
<td>her primitive self</td>

FOURTEEN IN CLASS TO BE GRADUATED MARCH 9th

Friday morning, January 26, two students Laura Petthoff and Irene Winter, were graduated. Bishop Wesley Burns of Helena, Montana, was to have spoken at the exercises but as he was unable to be here at the appointed time, Mr. Maxwell took his place and delivered an address on the individual character. He brought out the important phases of character, the moral, the physical, the social, the intellectual etc., and developed each in the order of its value.

Those to be graduated on March 9th have been announced as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Class</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Nellie Baig</td>
<td>Amy Cross</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Loyd Peck</td>
<td>Pearl Hammer</td>

<td>Nina Leightly</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Eva Husby</td>
<td>Haughman</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Margaret</td>
<td>Dorothy Nehring</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Monroe</td>
<td>Ovilia Nissner</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Marcella</td>
<td>Regina Simmer</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Peterson</td>
<td>Minnie Thiele</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Eunice Wirt</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

On April 30, Mary Gray Thorne will be graduated.

S. E. M. E. A. ANNOUNCES A STRONG PROGRAM

The destruction of the Main Building at the Winona State Teachers College will not lessen the effectiveness of the program planned for March 15, 16, and 17, Friday and Saturday at Winona. The Educational Association was supported by resolutions passed by the Teachers College and the Winona Association of Commerce. The program will be held at the remaining college buildings, the New High School, the Masonic Temple, and the Armory.

Speakers

A long list of educational leaders is announced for the general and round table programs. Among them are: U. S. Commissioner John J. Tigert, Washington, D. C.; Dr. J. Paul Goode, University of Chicago; Miss Theda Goldenweiser, Winona Teachers College; President Charles McKenna, Normal School, Ypsilanti, Michigan; Professor Hugh Graham, Professor Francis Gross, and Professor August Bogard, Terasen University, Winona; Professor John Guy Fowler, Madison, Wisconsin; President J. C. Brown, St. Cloud Teachers College; Professor Albert B. Morris, Miss Margaret Cooper, Mankato Teachers College; Professor W. H. Burton, President G. E. Maxwell, Winona Teachers College; Dr. Stuart Adler, Winona Clinic; Professor Homer J. Smith, University of Minnesota, and Mr. P. C. Tonning, Deputy Commissioner of Education, Minnesota.

THE WINONAN
OFFICIAL STUDENT PUBLICATION OF THE WINONA STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1923.

EDITORIAL
The selecting of the staff of the school annual, The Winonan, has now been completed. There are several things which both they and the school at large may rightly expect from the student body. The staff will undoubtedly do its best work but here as in the majority of school affairs, active student cooperation is imperative. The students naturally desire a good annual but perhaps not all see the necessity of their own efforts. You will be asked for various material, pictures, jokes, and literary work, and it is possible that you may make the all too familiar response of "Let George do it," but such an attitude is not going to secure an annual of which you can be proud. For the Seniors this will be a memorial of your college life; for the Juniors it will be valuable experience toward similar work next year. In every way then it is to your advantage to make this response the fullest and the finest possible. There is excellent material this year from which to build an annual—get busy and help it get out.

Dramatic Club changes name, adds new members
The "Winonan Players" is the new title of the Teachers College Dramatic Club. For a number of years the organization had simply been called the Bash Dramatic Club, but when it was decided to secure passes for trips, the question came up as to what initials should be put upon them. Many names, old and new, were suggested, but "Winonan Players" was chosen as having special significance as an organization of this school. Accordingly, the letters W. P. were placed on the pins, which consist of a gold mask and saber. The semi-final try-outs for membership in the club were held in the Training School January 16. Three applicants, Helen Duttweiler, Gert Wall, and Charles Vermilyen were successful and were pledged January 18. Initiation will probably take place soon.

Juniors plan party
To all appearances the Junior party, scheduled for February 24th is to be one of the biggest events of the year. All plans are shrouded in mystery and all that can be learned is that social, decoration, and refreshment committees have been appointed and are now at work. The Seniors await the affair with much interest.

WINONA QUINT LOSSES SEVEN GAMES; WINS TWO
An almost unbroken series of defeats has marked the beginning of the basketball season at the Winona State Teachers College, but with each defeat comes the satisfaction of knowing that the team has made a good fight against opponents of superior caliber. "Old Man Hard Luck" also seems to play a part as in fully half the games lost, Winona has outscored her opponents during the last half but has been unable to overcome a commanding lead piled up earlier in the game. The team does not seem to "get going" until too late in the game, but if this defect is overcome, and the last game seems to show that it has been, serious trouble is in store for future opponents.

In only two games out of nine played, has the team been able to chalk up victories, against the Alumni on December 20, and Mankato Teachers College on February 3. The season was opened with a game at Eau Claire but proved disastrous as far as the score was concerned. Winona out-played Eau Claire in the second half but this sudden improvement could not reverse the result. Another one-sided game was suffered in the La Crosse game when the team had a revelation of excellent basket shooting but nevertheless gave La Crosse one of the hardest battles of the season. Our hardest defeat to bear, however, came at St. Cloud. The final score was 24-17 and only partially evidenced the superiority of the game. St. Cloud had a fine team, having defeated Macalester, the conqueror of the University of Minnesota, but Winona showed a team nearly as good, and when the final game is played at Winona, the result may very possibly be reversed. St. Cloud entertained the Winona team at a party after the game and showed her visitors a fine time.

The personnel of the team has been Nelson at center, McCaffery and Chinski at forwards, and Pellowski and Riser at guards. This combination has been working smoothly of late, and with improving ability in locating the basket, should prove stiff competition for the remaining teams on the schedule.

The team came out of its slump on Feb. 3 and sent the Mankato Teachers College team home on the short end of a 32-10 score. The game was quite close for about the first ten minutes, but it was soon evident that Winona would not have any great difficulty in winning from her sister college. Our team showed superior ability in shooting, teamwork, and defensive play; in fact, it excelled in all departments of the game and the score represents fairly well the relative strength of the two teams.

There was no outstanding star on the Winona team and more effective team work was therefore the feature. Apparently the team had found its shooting eye because a larger number of baskets were made than in any previous game. However, some improvement can still be made, and for several easy trips were missed. Chinski played a good floor game and cleverly evaded the Mankato defense several times. McCaffery and Nelson did much of the scoring besides playing a hard fast game. Rosser and Captain Pelkowski did some very effective guarding as can be shown by the low score of Mankato. Coach Everts used substitutes quite freely after the score began to get one-sided. Among these, Wall and Streiff showed to good advantage; Streiff, dropping in a very neat basket soon after he got in the game.

Not only did the men race but the women of the college also held a meet of their own. The results of this meet were as follows:

200 yard dash: First, Luella Meyers; Second, Muriel Gorder; Third, Eva Welch.

440 yard dash: First, Meyers; Second, Warner; Third, Helstrom.

CREDIT: Must be given Mankato for the clean, sportsmanlike game that she played; not a personal foul was called on the team. Winona did not do so well but nevertheless the game proved to be clean throughout.

COLLEGE WINS HONORS IN WINTER CARNIVAL
The Teachers College took an active part in the Winter Carnival held in Winona January 18, 19, and 20. A half holiday was granted on Friday, January 19, in accordance with the plans followed by the other institutions of the city. The college turned out "en masse" for the parade and gained honorable mention from the judges. The Teachers College section was especially impressive with the purple and white head dress supplied each marcher, the float, and the drum corps.

Besides taking part in the parade, the school was represented by a number of athletes who competed for skating honors. A men's team composed of Wall, Pothoff, Sontag, Zimmerman, Larson and Gross won first place in a relay race with St. Mary's College. Wall, "the leading man" for the W. S. T. C., was able to gain a commanding lead over his opponent and thus enabled the team to victory. This lead was somewhat lengthened by the rest of the team and Gross, the last racer, crossed the line far in the lead. For this victory, each member of the team received a silver medal from the Carnival Association.

The results of the meet were as follows:

200 yard dash: First, Luella Meyers; Second, Muriel Gorder; Third, Eva Welch.

440 yard dash: First, Meyers; Second, Warner; Third, Helstrom.

Winona Security: First, McCaffery; Second, Everts; Third, Pelkowski.
S. E. M. E. A. ANNOUNCES STRONG PROGRAM

Special Features

A number of especially attractive features vary the speaking programs. These begin on Thursday morning with a Subject Conference in Reading, an illustration of work in the different grades with discussion by training school teachers. This part of the program has been commended in the past as very helpful.

Thursday noon a luncheon under the auspices of the Association of Commerce, which men of the Association are invited to attend, will give an occasion for the citizens to hear Dr. J. Paul Goode, one of the best speakers for such occasions in the country.

Although arrangements have not been completed, yet it is expected that the Kiwanis Club will similarly entertain Dr. John J. Tigert on Friday, March 10.

Miss Dorothy Waterman, of the Physical Education Department of the Teachers' College, will present a group of young women in aesthetic and folk dances.

Delightful music will add to all the general programs.

Festival Program

On Friday evening there will be a splendid program of music which will be presented by the Winona Boys' Municipal Band of sixty players under the direction of O. W. Reese, a concert by the MacPhail trio consisting of Lora Lulsdorf, contralto, Mrs. Margaret Gilmor MacPhail, piano, and Mr. William MacPhail, violin, and an address on "Qualities of Merit in Teachers" by John J. Tigert.

The MacPhail Trio will also give an afternoon concert for the children of the community.

The program has been so arranged that there are very attractive features and addresses on each of the three days.

Round Tables

The chairman of the round tables, which will hold their meeting Friday afternoon, two o'clock, March 10, have built full and strong programs. Arrangements were made so that each of the twelve round tables will have some big speaker but it was also arranged that many class rooms will similarly entertain Dr. John J. Tigert, and others. This part of the program has been estimated that the cost of the whole production will amount to about one hundred dollars.
McCaffrey—"Do you like indoor sports?"
Streiff—"Yes, if they go home early."

Mr. Owens—"What is a mechanically written letter?"
Dahl—"One that is typewritten."

A—"What do you expect to be when you get through College?"
B—"An old woman."

Mr. Sandt—"Why are you late?"
Kuba—"The class began before I got here."

Little Jack Horner sat in a corner,
Writing his final exam.
Working his bluff, he looked on his cuff,
And said, "What a bright boy I am."

Sib. says:
I love its gentle warble,
I love its rapid flow,
I love to wind my tongue up,
I love to hear it go.

Mary—"Did you ever take chloroform?"
New Student—"No, who teaches it?"

Jennings—"Why is an engineer different from a teacher?"
Tonjy—"I do'no."
Jennings—"One minds the train, the other trains the mind."

First—"I think he dances like a miser."
Second—"How's that?"
First—"Pretty close."

She—"Why do they put corn meal on the dance floor?"
He—"To make the chickens feel at home."
Whiz—"Don't you feel a little chilly? Hadn't you better have something around you?"
Bang—"Well, wait till we get a little farther out in the country."

N.—"Oh, don't you just love driving?"
G.—"Sure, but we're in town yet."

Lives of Seniors all remind us
We can strive to do our best
And departing leave behind us
Notebooks that will help the rest.

Streiff—"I've been studying my Psyc. for tomorrow."
McGuff—"What's it about?"
S.—"The author hates dreadfully to tell."

Mr. Stalcup—"Where are the Philippine Islands?"
B. L.—"I dunno, but I think they're somewhere out in the ocean."

Of all sad words that were ever "spoke,"
The saddest are these—"another stale joke."
