Ike Fears Atomic Bomb 'Holocaust,' Asks Full Support of Both Parties

Stafford King Asks Simplifying Of State Methods

Duplicated
Procedures
Termed Costly

By JACK B. MACKAY
ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Twenty-six recommendations aimed at simplifying government procedures that would "prove beneficial in both efficiency and economy to the financial well being of the state" were laid before the Minnesota Legislature today by State Auditor Stafford King.

The auditor told the lawmakers he had made similar pleas in biennial reports to previous legislatures, but that no action had been taken.

In urging changes in some administrative and accounting procedures, King said:

"It is extremely doubtful that any man or group of men in business for profit could long survive if forced to pay the price of government's detailed, costly and often times duplicated procedures. 'The state of Minnesota, of course, does not stand alone in this respect, but if the costs of good government are to be reduced, administrative and accounting procedures, together with the vast amount of required paper work, offer the greatest opportunity—and a most constant one.'"

Earnings Cited
King pointed out that the state has benefited by a 1949 law which authorized the state to invest money not currently needed in bonds or certificates which must mature within three years.

Under this authority, he said, investments had earned $4,820,903 for the general revenue fund between date of passage of the act and June 30, 1954. He said the state has maintained total investments of such moneys ranging from $4½ million to 121 million dollars.

King recommended elimination of legislative dedication of funds and appropriation accounts, a reduction in the number of funds, and separation of the activities of the Executive Council, the State Board of Investment, and the Board of Pensions. The latter three agencies now have one secretary who presently is Charles Foster.

Other recommendations made by King:

Sufficient money should be appropriated for central payroll disbursement division in the auditor's office.

Regulatory boards and commissions should be consolidated, with all receipts credited to the general revenue fund, and all disbursements made under appropriations in the same manner as all other departments.

Bond, Interest Fund
A single bond and interest fund should be authorized, thereby eliminating 15 debt funds and even larger number of specific tax accounts.

The attorney general should be required by law to approve all state contracts as to legality, as well as to form and execution.

Refunds of less than one dollar should be discontinued.

Appropriations for expenses of district court judges, sheriffs, and judges' retirement, for aid to agriculture and poultry associations should be made for a two-year period rather than for each fiscal year.

More efficient procedures for handling state loans should be provided.

Appropriations sufficient to pay state employee merit increases, terminal leave, temporary help, and overtime should be made.

The State Agricultural and the State Historical societies should be placed on the same appropriation basis as the University of Minnesota.

Democrats May Reopen Peress Investigation

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Daniel (D-Tex.) said today he will move to touch off a new investigation of the case of Irving Peress, the Army major whose promotion and discharge have been a prime target of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.).

Furthermore, Daniel said, at least 25 senators of both parties will join him in sponsoring a resolution which would place the Senate on record as believing that the full story "should be made public."

Peress, an Army dentist, was given an honorable discharge after he had invoked the Fifth Amendment in refusing to answer questions in an Army personnel form concerning communism. His case was a major issue in the McCarthy-Army hearings.

Sen. Mundt (R-S.D.), who presided over them, said in an interview he regards the Daniel resolution as a firm notice to the Pentagon, Mundt said he will be one of the co-sponsors.

"It sort of signals," Mundt said, "that if the Pentagon doesn't voluntarily release the facts about who was responsible for the promotion and discharge of Peress, one of four Senate committees certainly is going to move in with a new investigation in an effort to find out."

The army, he said repeatedly, the case was badly handled and that about 30 persons were involved in it.

The Army disclosed yesterday that John J. McManus, the major who signed Peress' honorable discharge papers and who later was released from active duty, has applied for a return to duty. The Army said the application is under study.

Neuberger Assails Character Attacks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The wife of a Republican senator walked out last night on a speech by Oregon's new Democratic Sen. Richard L. Neuberger assailing "character assassinations" in political campaigning.

Mrs. George W. Malone, wife of the senior senator from Nevada, boarded and then left the crowded Presidential Room of the Staller Hotel while Neuberger was speaking.

Neuberger, sworn in yesterday as a senator, shared the speaker's platform with Vice President Nixon and New Jersey's new Republican Sen. Clifford P. Case at the annual congressional dinner of the Women's National Press Club.

Neuberger said a "distinguished member" of the Republican party engaged in below-the-belt tactics in the 1954 campaign.

He named no names. Some Democrats have accused Nixon of such tactics. The vice president listed Neuberger as a "left-wing" candidate at Pocatello, Idaho, last Oct. 25.

Nixon did not join in a burst of applause which greeted Neuberger's first reference to "character assassinations." He did join in the handclapping at the end of Neuberger's talk, however.

By that time Mrs. Malone—known to friends as "Katie"—had left the room, declaring in audible tones:

"I've had all I can take."

Outside, she had a verbal tiff with Mrs. Marie Mesta, the party giver often called the official hostess of the Truman administration.

Red Premier, Hammaraskjold Begin Talks

Hopes for Release of 11 Americans

TOKYO (AP) — U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold met today with Red China's Chou En-lai and presumably went right to the point of his trip halfway around the world—the 11 American airmen the Reds convicted of espionage.

Peiping radio made the briefest acknowledgment of the meeting, saying only that Hammarskjold met Chou, premier and foreign minister, at 3 p.m. The broadcast pointedly omitted any mention of the purpose of Hammarskjold's trip.

Chou and Hammarskjold first met yesterday when the U.N. official paid, a courtesy call shortly after his arrival by plane. They met again at a cocktail party and then at dinner last night.

U.N. sources have said Hammarskjold expects to wind up the conversations with the Chinese Communists this weekend and head back to the United States.

Margin Hike Puts Curb on Rising Market

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.) said today the Senate Banking Committee "probably will make a study of the continued sharp climb in the stock market" which went on for more than a year up to the current break.

NEW YORK (AP) — Another round of selling hit the stock market this morning, but many shares soon staged a comeback.

There were some rather severe losses in early trading, but brokers noted indications that the great majority of Americans who now own stocks were holding fast.

The sell-off at the start was expected—a carryover from Wednesday's sharp decline, the worst in 4½ years. Some market observers expressed surprise, however, at the strength in selected issues—Republic Steel was ahead $1.25, Western Union $2.25, New York Central nearly $1 and Climax Molybdenum $2.

The ticker again ran behind in reporting transactions, both during the downturn and the recovery. First hour sales were a huge 1,020,000 shares.

The rousing bull market in stocks suffered its worst setback in 4½ years yesterday as the Federal Reserve Board increased the amount of cash necessary to buy stocks on margin.

The board's action had little effect on the millions of Americans who now hold a stake in the market, but Wall Street analysts called it the immediate psychological factor in the stock market break.

Share prices fell at the start, improved a bit around midday, and then slumped sharply in the late afternoon. By the end of the session, losses ran to around $5 in some areas.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks dropped to $152.40, down $3.40, the worst decline since June 26, 1950, when the Korean War started. Volume piled up fast as the ticker fell as much as 15 minutes behind in reporting transactions.

For the day, turnover totaled 4,640,000 shares, largest since June 27, 1950.

The widest losses were posted by stocks that have been in high favor lately. Republic Steel fell $4.62, Kennecott Copper $4.50, Anaconda Copper $2.87, Du Pont $3.12, General Motors $3.62, Bethlehem Steel $4.62 and Standard Oil (N.J.) $2.37. Amerasia Petroleum closed down $5.50 after having declined more than $10 at one time.

While brokers said the boost in margin requirements from 50 per cent to 60 per cent undoubtedly brought on the break, many said once again that it's high time the market underwent a good-sized correction.

Cut in Services Not Too Stringent

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's armed services appeared today to face a somewhat less stringent belt tightening than was in prospect a week ago.

Top House Democrats let it be known that a strong national defense, rather than a balanced budget, would be their primary consideration in guiding appropriations in the new Congress.

And President Eisenhower, in a letter to Secretary of Defense Wilson made public late yesterday, accepted Pentagon proposals for continued reduction in personnel strength, but mentioned force levels slightly above those originally proposed.

Eisenhower said he contemplated an armed force strength by next June of about three million—or 60,000 more than the Pentagon had proposed. He said it would not be wise to fix a "rigid" target for 1956, but he thought a "goal" of 2,850,000 could be aimed at—"with any further material reductions dependent upon an improved world situation." Wilson had suggested a 2,815,000-man level by June 1956.

At the Pentagon the word was passed that a "resurvey" since manpower goals were announced Dec. 20 resulted in the 35,000 increase for 1956. The Army, which would bear the sharpest reduction, apparently would get about 25,000 of the 35,000.

Speaker Sam Rayburn told the House yesterday he disliked levying taxes, then added:

"But looking the world in the face like I must today and seeing the dangers that lurk for our freedom and our opportunities, as long as times are like they are I am going to vote to levy the taxes and to appropriate a sufficient amount of money to make our country so strong that no international desperado will dare attack us."

Rep. Cannon (D-Mo.), who will head the House Appropriations Committee, said in an interview today, "We must decide to cut out spending on things that, while desirable, are not essential at this time." Cannon put his emphasis in air power. He said appropriations must be tailored to meet the need for a military machine that "can strike back effectively" at Communist aggression within 12 hours.

"Neither the Army nor the Navy could reach Moscow before the war was over, but an adequate air force could," Cannon declared.

Runaway Teen-Agers Returned to Homes

BISMARCK, N.D. (AP) — A boy and a girl, detained by police here Tuesday were turned over by police Wednesday to their respective parents and returned to their homes in Bovey and Coleraine, Minn.

The two, 17, and 14, were found asleep in a parked automobile here. Police checked on the occupants of the car in the belief they might have been affected by fumes from the motor.

The missing men were identified as Maj. Jean S. Pierson, Danville, Ind., commander of the crashed plane.

Capt. David O. Crump, pilot, Albemarle, N.C.

1st Lt. Matthew Genery, Lakewood, Ohio, observer aboard the plane which returned to the air base.

Highlights Of Ike Talk

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here are some salient recommendations in President Eisenhower's "State of the Union" message:

"Unhesitating cooperation" between the White House and Democratic-controlled Congress.

A tireless search for a "more just and durable peace."

A military program emphasizing air power and new weapons.

Extension of the draft; a powerful military reserve.

No tax reductions in 1955; perhaps some in 1956.

Continuation of the flexible farm program.

Measures to expand international trade and investment.

A health program, including health reinsurance.

"Affirmative action" toward relieving the school classroom shortage.

An increase in the minimum wage, to 90 from 75 cents an hour.

70,000 public housing units in the next two years.

4 Men Missing In Collision of 2 B47 Bombers

LAKE CHARLES, La. (AP) — Planes and ships searched the Gulf of Mexico southwest of here today for four men missing after a B47 Stratojet bomber collided with another B47 and crashed.

Missing were the three members of the B47 which crashed and a crewman who parachuted from the other bomber, which was able to return to the Lake Charles Air Force Base last night.

An unidentified ship was reported to have sighted wreckage at the scene, about 30 miles southeast of the Texas-Louisiana boundary, but there was no report of any survivors.

The bombers were on a training mission. Capt. George Spotswood, public information officer at the base, said the cause of the collision was not known.

The missing men were identified as:

Maj. Jean S. Pierson, Danville, Ind., commander of the crashed plane.

1st Lt. Rodney P. Eggleston, Lederland, Tex., observer aboard the crashed plane.

Capt. David O. Crump, pilot, Albemarle, N.C.

1st Lt. Matthew Genery, Lakewood, Ohio, observer aboard the plane which returned to the air base.

Warns Russians Still Rely on Military Force

Democrats Pledge
Backing on Foreign Affairs Problems

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower appealed today for bipartisan harmony and told the new 84th Congress both parties are "on trial" in the free world's struggle to win enduring peace and prevent an atomic "holocaust."

In a State of the Union message noting the shift in control of Congress from Republicans to Democrats, the President declared America's personal income after taxes is "at a record level."

As for the international situation, he said that during the last year "there has been progress justifying hope, both for continuing peace and for the ultimate rule of freedom and justice in the world."

"But sobering problems remain ahead" and they require continued heavy spending—two-thirds of the entire federal budget expected to run about $4 billion dollars—to buttress the free nations against any Communist aggression, he said.

"The massive military machines and ambitions of the Soviet-Communist bloc still create uneasiness in the world," he said. "All of us are aware of the continuing reliance of the Soviet Communists on military force, of the power of their weapons, of their present resistance to realistic armament limitation, of their continuing effort to dominate or intimidate free nations on their periphery."

"Their steadily growing power includes an increasing strength in nuclear weapons. This power, combined with the proclaimed intentions of the Communist leaders to Communize the world, is the threat confronting us today."

"To protect our nations and our people from the catastrophe of a nuclear holocaust, free nations must maintain countervailing military power to persuade the Communists of the futility of seeking their ends through aggression."

The President's prepared 7,800-word message, carried nationwide on television and radio, contained no real surprises. Much of the legislative program he outlined for the year ahead already had been

Ike Asks Democrats to Give His Farm Program a Chance

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower expressed belief today that farm programs inaugurated by his administration promise better times for producers and he urged the Democratic-controlled Congress to give them a chance.

Outlining these measures in his message to the State of the Union, the chief executive said "we are headed in the right direction" toward "greater stability and sustained prosperity" for agriculture.

"I urgently recommend to the Congress that we continue resolutely on this road," he said.

Eisenhower's plea was made against a background of demands from some Democratic farm leaders among the lawmakers that the new Congress repeal the keystone feature of the GOP program—a system of flexible farm price supports enacted by the last Congress after a bitter battle.

The flexible program authorizes reductions in government price guarantees on major crops when supplies are large, to discourage production, and to increase them when supplies are small to encourage production. This program replaced a war-born system of high, rigid price floors.

The President proposed no new broad farm legislation, he told Congress, however, that he plans to submit later recommendations designed to improve the lot of low-income farmers and to strengthen federal drought and flood disaster aid programs.

Other measures by which the President said his administration has bettered farm conditions include broadened programs designed to move government-owned farm surpluses into consumption and inauguration of production control measures aimed at preventing production of new surpluses.

He said government surpluses worth over 24 billion dollars were moved into use at home and abroad during the period of February 1953, through November 1954.

Present surplus holdings amount to about 7 billion dollars.

The President said that because of such steps "farm production is gradually adjusting to markets, markets are being expanded, and stocks are moving into use."

"We can look forward," he added, "to an easing of the influences depressing farm prices, to reduced governmental expenditures for purchase of surplus products, and to less federal intrusion into the lives and plans of our farm people."

On the matter of helping low-income farmers, Eisenhower said he has had "careful studies" made of this problem and will use them in formulating his later legislative recommendations.

The President indicated that he will seek greater sharing of the costs of disaster aid programs by the states. Under last year's emergency drought program, the federal government bore most of the cost, although efforts were made to get financial participation by the affected states.

Road and Bridge Fund in Black, Auditor Reports

County's Balance Out of Red First Time Since 1951

Winona County's commissioners were jubilant Wednesday after receiving County Auditor Richard Schoonover's annual county funds statement, which showed that a $170,000 deficit in the road and bridge fund (in the red since 1951) has been eliminated. The fund begins 1955 with a $6,168 credit balance.

Total county funds balance is on the credit side of the ledger, too, showing a balance, as of Dec. 31, 1954, of $282,747. That figure represents the total of balances in all eight of the county revenue funds.

A breakdown of Schoonover's statement includes:

1954	1955	Balance
Road & Bridge	$ 292,394	$ 5,168
Revenue	218,564	101,974
Welfare	138,482	75,897
TS Sanatorium	10,058	15,736
Building	21,866	6,660
Food Relief	75,001	25,291
School Tuition Tax	166,765	281
School Transportation	21,866	12
Total	$1,064,293	$382,747

*The road and bridge fund owes the building fund $50,000, leaving a cash balance in the road and bridge fund of $6,168.

The controversial road and bridge fund has been strictly a red ink user, since the county closed its business Dec. 31, 1951. Books at that time showed the fund to be $170,345 in arrears after posting a $21,291 credit balance the previous year.

Reason for the sliding balance sheets lies in part in the mill rates. At the beginning of the calendar year 1950, the road and bridge fund was $72,701 in the black. The mill rate for that fund during 1949 had been set at 15 mills.

Down to 7 Mills
Taxpayers protested what they called a "bo-ho" balance and demanded that the mill rate be slashed, so county commissioners cut it more than half, reducing the rate to 7 mills for taxes collectible in 1950. At the close of business in 1950, the balance had been reduced to $21,231.

Commissioners, however, decided that the 7-mill rate was too low after the fund showed the $170,000 deficit at the close of 1951, and upped it again to 15 mills. The rate stayed at 15 until taxes collectible in 1954, when the county board again increased it, this time to 18 mills, which is 2 below the 20-mill ceiling. It's 18 mills again this year.

As of Jan. 1, 1953, the deficit was $115,515. A year ago it was down to $39,556 and now is finally out of the red.

Legislators Raise Questions on Paying For Freeman Plan

ST. PAUL (U)—Most members of the Minnesota Legislature agreed today that Gov. Orville Freeman gave a good picture in his inaugural address of the things that need to be done, but a number raised questions about how to pay for his program.

Here are some comments: Sen. Archie Miller, Hopkins, conservative leader: "He gave us a very clear picture of what needs to be done in the state, but mentioned no method of raising the necessary money. I have pledged him the cooperation of our group in trying to carry out his program. I promised him there would be no spiteful political actions on our part."

Rep. Fred Cina, Aurora, liberal majority leader: "I think that the governor certainly has analyzed the condition of the state in the short time he had had to do it. His analysis is good. He laid out the problems that are going to confront us, and the program he laid out is certainly one that shows he has his feet on the ground. If the Legislature puts it into effect it will benefit all of the people. It is a good program, and a sound program."

Sen. Gordon Rosenmeier, Little Falls, conservative: "I am sure he wants to do the right thing but it will be ultimately for the Legislature to decide what can be done without too great a burden on our people."

Sen. Harry Wahlstrand, Willmar, conservative: "It was a very able address. I thought he covered the picture very well, but I think he took in too much territory on higher education. I don't think we have the means to subsidize junior colleges."

Sen. Walter Burdick, Rochester, conservative: "He laid out a wonderful program—it could be carried out, but I don't know where we are going to get the money."

Rep. Roy Dunn, Pelican Rapids, former conservative majority leader: "Where are we going to get the money? He left us with no suggestion as to where the money was coming from to meet the recommendations he is making."

Rep. John A. Hartle, Owatonna, conservative: "It was a fine presentation. Certainly all those things are needed. The Legislature will do everything possible to achieve them within the limits of the ability of the people to pay."

Jack Frost V And His Frosties are ready for all kinds of weather during Winona's 1955 Winter Carnival that begins two weeks from Friday. (Of Carnival time, "The Old Farmer's Almanac" warned, "Thaws a while, but don't smile, it storms begorrah today and tomorrow.")

Ruling over festivities of the 3-day carnival will be George Graham, center, wearing a white

Hospital Releases Man Injured in Fall at Station

Gordon R. Clossway, 48, 831 W. Sarnia St., was to be released from the Winona General Hospital this afternoon after receiving treatment for an eye injury suffered in a fall Tuesday evening.

He injured his left eye and suffered facial bruises and abrasions when he slipped over an icy bank adjacent to the railroad waiting room at Winona Junction at about 9 p.m.

Awaiting a Burlington train which he intended to board for a trip to St. Paul to attend a pre-inaugural reception for Gov.-elect Orville C. Freeman, Clossway apparently stepped outside the small structure, slipped on the rain-slicked bank and fell approximately 15 feet down the rock-and-brush-covered bank.

Shortly before the train was due to arrive at the station at 8:40 p.m. Clossway took a cab from the downtown business district to Winona Junction.

The driver accompanied him to the waiting house and then returned to the south side of the tracks. When the train, which was late, was heard approaching the driver looked toward the waiting house and failed to see him.

The driver and an acquaintance went across the tracks, looked down the bank and saw Clossway lying there.

Bleeding from face cuts, Clossway asked that the cab driver take him to the hospital where he was admitted at 9:15 p.m.

Wednesday there had been erroneous reports that the injuries had been suffered in an East 3rd street cafe.

Employees at the cafe said that Clossway had not been in the place at any time during the day or evening.

Youth Killed as Car Misses Curve Near Pine City

PINE CITY, Minn. (U)—A young Army veteran who had been out of the service only a month died today after the car he was driving left a road and rolled for 400 feet in the ditch.

George R. Ruzicka, 21, who lived on a farm near Henriette, died in a hospital here about two hours after the accident between Pine City and Mora.

The fatality was Pine County's fourth this year, and raised the state's 1955 highway death total to 19, more than double that during the same period in 1954.

Ruzicka and an older brother were the only occupants of the car that missed a curve and hit the ditch. The brother, whose name was not immediately learned, was hospitalized here with injuries suffered in the accident. His condition was not believed serious.

20c Bounty On Gophers Seen in '55

As one commissioner put it Wednesday, "Those darn gophers are in for it now."

It was pocket gophers the commissioner was talking about as he predicted an upsurge of action on the hunting front after the Winona County Board of Commissioners upped the bounty rate on pocket gophers to 15 cents each.

The gopher edit was included among a list of seven yearly resolutions commissioners passed Wednesday during the second day of the board's annual meeting.

In the past, bounty on pocket gophers had been set at one nickel, with some townships adding a second nickel for each of the critters caught. Bounties on the animals cost the county about $500 during 1954 (that represents about 10,000 dead gophers); but commissioners decided Wednesday that a nickel wasn't a big enough enticement to send county hunters after them.

To Add Nickel
The increase in bounty was made with this specific stipulation: That each township, village or city must add another nickel to the 15 cents before any bounty will be paid, bringing the actual total on the pests to 20 cents. (Traps cost 40 cents, so after two gophers it's all gravy.)

Other bounties set as part of a single resolution are: Common gophers, 3 cents; woodchuck, 15 cents; rattlesnakes, $1; crows, 10 cents; gray and red fox, $3, and cub, gray and red fox, $1.

In another resolution, commissioners set the bounty on locating rust-producing barberry bushes at $3.

The Winona County Veterans Service Center was approved for 1955, with a maximum figure the office can cost the county set at $5,000. Up to and including the first $5,000 of expenses incurred by the service, city and county funds will split the cost 50-50. Anything over $5,000 and up to the $7,500 yearly limit will be paid by the county.

Other funds allowed in three separate resolutions Wednesday were: $2,000 to the county auditor as an incidental fund; $2,500 allowed for upkeep and maintenance of Farmers Community Park (the Arches), and $500 to the county attorney as a contingent fund.

Final resolution passed by commissioners approved seven county banks as legal depositories for county securities during 1955. They are: First National Bank, Merchants National Bank and Winona National & Savings Bank, Winona; Aurora State Bank; Security State Bank, Lewiston; First National Bank, St. Charles, and the First National Bank, Rollingstone.

Ike Again Asks Congress to Give Hawaii Statehood

WASHINGTON (U)—President Eisenhower renewed today his plea that Congress grant statehood to Hawaii and delay similar action affecting Alaska.

The House approved Hawaiian statehood last year but the Senate, largely on the votes of its Democratic members, insisted on combining both territories in one statehood bill. The measure died when the House Rules Committee refused to approve a Senate-House conference to seek compromise.

Woman's Handbag Has Edible Contents

DETROIT (U)—When a man snatched Mrs. Virginia Ranson's purse last night, she gave police a detailed description of what was in it.

Minutes later, Robert Butler, 40, was arrested after a chase. He had a woman's purse on him. And in it was everything Mrs. Ranson had listed—including a ham sandwich.

Butler, held for investigation of armed robbery, sighed: "I didn't even have time to eat the sandwich."

School Transfers Granted by Board In Wabasha County

WABASHA, Minn.—Highway resolutions and the ever present school turmoil occupied the Wabasha County commissioners Wednesday.

They adjourned their annual meeting at 4 p.m. and will meet again Feb. 1.

Once again the commissioner meeting had to be transferred to the courtroom to accommodate visiting delegations for and against school land set-off petitions.

Six requests for transfer were granted—all to the Plainview consolidated district. They were asked by Arthur Schneider, district 82-80 acres of his Hoosier Ridge farm, including the buildings and personal property; Earl Jacobs, Winona County district 90; Mrs. Elizabeth Costello, district 92; Martin J. Melvin and Francis Klees, districts 58 and 98 and Philip Welti, district 85.

10,000 Asked
The state board of allotments will be asked to grant the county a special $10,000 allotment to match federal funds in constructing a bridge over the Zumbro River at Hammond. Minimum wages on federal aid secondary projects were set at $1.25 per hour, skilled labor; $1.05, intermediate and 95 cents, unskilled.

Bert Pinsonneault, county engineer, was authorized to make road signs for the county system with the machine purchased for this purpose last fall. He also was given authority to use county equipment to assist those in distress, for clearing township and municipal roads and streets upon request and to assist them with construction.

The wage scale for county highway employees was established. Rates for hire of farm equipment and rental rates for county equipment were set. The engineer will post county road weight restrictions between March 1 and May 15.

Papers Designated
The Plainview News was named official county paper for 1955 and the Wabasha County Herald alternate. County bank collateral for depositories was approved and bounties were set at $3, adult fox; $1, cub; $3, locating barberry; 3 cents striped gophers; 10 cents, pocket gophers; 15 cents, woodchucks, and $1, rattlesnakes.

Dr. E. C. Bayley, Lake City; John Roland, Mazeppa, and Conrad Schadt, Lake City, were named to the county board of health; Schadt, Mrs. Daisy Pfeiffer, Mazeppa and Arthur Gray, Lake Township, to the county extension committee. Schadt will serve one year; the others were reappointed for 3-year terms.

Appropriations were made in the following amounts: $6,250, county extension office; $3,500, county nursing commission; $500, soil conservation committee. Bonds for county officials were set and approved.

Planes Can't Find 'Unusual Object' Flying Over Illinois

CHICAGO (U)—Officials of O'Hare field near suburban Park Ridge said a jet plane had been dispatched at 5:10 a.m. (CST) today to investigate reports of an "unusual object" flying over Northern Illinois but had found nothing.

A field spokesman said Illinois State Police had telephoned that they had received reports of an unusual object moving in the sky.

An F8D all-weather jet of the 62nd fighter interceptor squadron was sent through the area. The pilot, Capt. Leroy W. Svendsen of Chicago, said he found nothing but that "the planet Venus was unusually bright" this morning.

A field spokesman said light from the planet might have "bounced" from cloud to cloud, causing what might appear to be a lighted, moving object.

Radar stations in the area saw nothing on their screens, the spokesman said.

Winona County Tax Delinquency 1.28%

Winona County's 1954 board of audit tax report, released by County Auditor Richard Schoonover and County Treasurer Arthur W. Dorn and reviewed by county commissioners Wednesday, showed that residents of the county are delinquent in their 1954 taxes to the tune of $48,946.16. That's 1.28 per cent of the levy.

Last year at this same time, county taxpayers had brought in all but $28,568.28 of their tax bill.

Taxes collected at the treasurer's office through Dec. 31, 1954, amounted to $3,394,239.84. That figure includes some past tax delinquencies.

Amounts of money yet to be collected range all the way from $28.179.24 in the city of Winona to but $2.08 in Saratoga Township. Total country taxes still to come in are $15,766.92.

Figures in the accompanying table, however, do not include a special power and light company tax, assessed by the state tax commission. Actual 1954 levy, collected in 1954, is $3,428,597.23, as opposed to the figure given in the table.

Schoonover explained that in addition to the delinquent amounts listed in the table, a 10 per cent penalty fee is now in effect and has been in effect since the tax books were turned over to him the first Monday in January. One dollar in costs will be added to each description of property for taxes paid after Feb. 1 and 6 per cent per year interest will be attached to each amount, beginning the second Monday in May.

The board of audit's report showed a balance of $1,601,501.18 in the county treasury as of Oct. 31. Of that figure, amounts were deposited in six banks and the office in the following amounts:

Cash in safe and drawer—$3,005.35.

First National Bank, Winona—$490,499.64.

Merchants National Bank, Winona—$490,498.06.

Winona National & Savings Bank—$490,411.03.

First National Bank, St. Charles—$54,661.41.

Security State Bank, Lewiston—$45,697.07.

Altura State Bank—$28,728.82.

The above deposits were as of Oct. 31 and are not likely to be the same as this time, since money has been drawn for the November tax settlement ($1,403,987) and for regular bills paid during November and December.

Weather Wet in Eastern U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The wet weather which has dampened most of the mid-continent this week moved into wide areas in the eastern third of the country today.

Rain fell in a wide belt from the Texas coast northeastward to the lower Great Lakes, the Ohio Valley and the Appalachians. Freezing rain, sleet or snow pelted sections of New York state and northern Pennsylvania.

Only other precipitation was in the interior areas of the Far West. Skies were cloudy or partly cloudy in other sections of the country.

Mild weather continued in the South and as far north as the lower Ohio Valley and central Appalachians. Brownsville, Tex., was the warmest spot with 68.

Temperatures were above normal in most areas east of the Mississippi River but colder weather headed into the Midwest and Great Lakes region. Low mark early today was 11 below zero as Glasgow, Mont.

Triple Amputee, 3, Shows Walking Skill

BOSTON (U)—Bright-eyed Constance de Stasi, who is not quite 3, thrilled several onlookers yesterday merely by climbing a flight of stairs. She is a triple amputee.

Her left leg, right foot and right hand were amputated when she was 13 months old because of a rare blood circulation condition.

She smilingly demonstrated the artificial limbs developed for her by Joseph Avenel, head of the amputee department of the Liberty Mutual Insurance Co.

Avenel said she behaved as a normal child as soon as the limbs were fitted to her: "She ran, jumped, climbed and sometimes fell down."

River Dragged For Missing Harmony Man

Clifford Anderson Sought After Car Is Found Abandoned

LA CROSSE, Wis.—A young Harmony, Minn., father is the object of a search by La Crosse police and firemen after abandoning his car here and leaving two suicide notes, according to authorities.

Firemen are dragging the Mississippi River near here. One of the notes, supposedly written by Clifford Anderson, indicates that he intended to drown himself.

Bloodhounds, owned by George Brooks, La Crosse, traced tracks to the La Crosse side of the river bridge and police stated today that the "dogs indicate he could be in the river on the Wisconsin side."

La Crosse Patrolman Frank Rindler found the abandoned car on Highway 14-61 on the west side of the Mississippi River bridge near the entrance to Lower Pettibone Park at 7:40 a.m. today. Its windows were frosted, indicating, according to police, that it could have been left there any time since Wednesday.

Anderson left his home in Harmony Wednesday morning to pay bills in La Crosse. His family has not heard from him since. Friends said today there was little apparent reason for a suicide.

Notes left in his billfold, found in the car, and on the seat indicate he was going to "do away with himself." La Crosse police stated. The note in his billfold was addressed to his wife.

When Anderson failed to show up for work at 10 a.m. today, Wednesday was his day off. More county authorities were notified. They and La Crosse authorities are conducting the investigation.

Anderson is in his mid-20s. He left a note in his home before leaving Wednesday, stating he wouldn't be home for dinner and wishing his wife a happy birthday, which was yesterday. His two children are Donald, 4, and Kathryn, 3.

Hanoi Slowly Becoming Communist City

By JEAN PIERRE LEFEVRE

HANOI (AP)—This capital of North Viet Nam slowly is modeling itself on the Communist pattern after weeks of difficult adaptation.

Bulldozers, trucks and swarms of coolies are busy demolishing the former Square of the Governor General in the center of the city to build a "Red Square."

The Communists have received long Russian-made gray cars — mostly Zims. With the Molotovs — the Russian-made trucks which the Vietminh used during the war — Hanoi again has traffic jams.

For a few weeks before and after the arrival of the Red administration Oct. 10, Hanoi was a dull city. Some of its inhabitants had left for the country in fear of troubles after withdrawal of French troops. Those who remained did not leave their houses. The streets were deserted.

Everybody seemed eager to demonstrate a deep humility to please the Communist leaders. Most men put on khaki Chinese-like suits. They let their beards grow like the Ho Chi Minh.

Tailors were among the first to reopen their shops, but for a long time displayed only uniforms in their windows.

Now that they are a bit more accustomed to the Communist regime, men and women again have donned their traditional colorful costumes.

The new regime, however, is one of austerity. When the French

Leslie Caron Hopes to Quit Pixyish Roles

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—No more the wait for Leslie Caron.

At least she hopes she can escape from the pixyish gamine she has become noted for in movies. "That kind of role has been good for me," she reasons, "but I would be too limited if I stuck to it. I've got to grow up sometime."

The little French doll is getting her wish in her next two assignments. She now is appearing opposite Fred Astaire in the musical reworking of "Daddy Long Legs," the pleasant piece of sentiment that once starred Mary Pickford (1919) and Janet Gaynor (1931). She ages from a girlish 18 to a mature 22. Though the early portions show her as a French orphan in typical Caron style, she gets more glamorous as the story progresses. She even has a sultry dream sequence in which she displays her legs Dietrich-style.

Her next role will be even more grown-up.

"Jean Renoir wrote a play for me," she said. "He said that he got the inspiration after he saw me in 'Lili.' I read a few pages of it when he first started working, but I didn't think I would ever be able to get away from MGM to do a play."

"Later he finished it, and I found it very exciting. The studio had nothing for me to do, so I pleaded with them to give me some time off. I think it is stupid to keep actors under contract and not let them keep working. Especially when it costs the studio nothing. They decided to give me the time off, just as they did last year when I danced with the Ballet de Paris. They are very nice about it. But I admit that I have to fight like a devil to convince them."

She Splits Wood at 92

BLAIR, Wis. (Special) — A woman who splits her own wood, carries it upstairs, does her own cooking and housework is Mrs. Mary Otterson, Blair, who celebrated her 92nd birthday New Year's Day.

Mrs. Otterson lives upstairs, while her oldest daughter, Mrs. Nettie Anderson, occupies the downstairs apartment. Mrs. Otterson's husband, Mr. O. P. Otterson, died in 1909.

Of Mrs. Otterson's six children, three are living. Her other two children are Mrs. Amanda Larkin, Minneapolis, and Mrs. Carl O. Peterson, La Crosse. She has six grandchildren, 36 great-grandchildren and seven great-great-grandchildren.

Her eyesight fails her somewhat, she knits part of the time.

"I have many things to be thankful for," was the comment of the aged woman, "one of which is my keen memory."

Her parents, Osmund Oakland and Malinda Swenson Oakland, came to this country from Norway and homesteaded in Trempealeau County. Mrs. Otterson was the third child of a family of four girls and five boys. Her husband died in 1909.

VOICE of the OUTDOORS

Wetland Sticker

The Winona Rod and Gun Club is one of several score of such groups in this state now selling "Save Minnesota Wetlands" stickers. Reproduced above is one of the stickers being used in the campaign. The North Shore Game and Fish Club of Long Lake, Minn., is one of the promoters of the plan.

Funds derived from the sale of the buttons go to the Minnesota Game and Fish Division to supplement state and federal money used in this purpose. Minnesota is a pioneer in this wetland program and already has expended more than $200,000 acquiring marsh areas that would have been drained.

At its buffalo dinner at the Red Men's Club Jan. 19 the Rod and Gun Club will feature this wetland program. David B. Vessal, Minnesota's superintendent of wildlife development, now in charge of this wetland project, will be the speaker.

Incidentally, the Rod and Gun Club at its meeting Monday evening recommended to Gov. Freeman the appointment of Dick Dorner as conservation commissioner to succeed Chester A. Wilson who has resigned. Dorner, we understand, has received a lot of voluntary endorsements from clubs all over the state.

This club also recommended to Winona County representatives amendments to waterfowl hunting laws to eliminate the present detached motor rule and make the law uniform with federal and Wisconsin laws to prohibit leaving boats in hands and decoys overnight or unattended.

Frostbites
With winter fishing the predominant recreation in this area and sub-zero weather due in the weeks immediately ahead, the following discussion of frostbites supplied by Ted Kesting of Sports Afield is timely.

Frostbite isn't as simple an ailment as you might think. Frostbite is an injury to tissues caused by exposure to temperatures below freezing. The damage happens because the blood vessels close down either partially or totally, cutting off nourishment to the tissues affected. This results in either partial or total death of the tissue. Severe frostbite cases become gangrenous and you lose a finger, toe or an ear.

The first sign of frostbite is a grayish or whitish patch on the skin, a sort of blanching. This is usually numb, but not always.

Proper clothing will prevent most frostbite. But clothing itself cannot generate warmth. Clothing keeps us warm by trapping body heat and preventing it from escaping. It's an insulator. You can take advantage of this in two ways: 1) wear clothes that trap many small pockets of air in the weave or pile of the fabric and 2) wear multiple layers of clothing so you'll get air spaces between layers.

Avoid overdressing. Too much clothing makes you sweat and wet clothes conduct heat away from the body. If you are sweating profusely, loosen your clothing or remove a damp inner garment.

If you do get frostbite, here are the basic first aid measures:

- 1) Get out of the cold and into warm shelter.
- 2) Use body heat to warm the part. Never use external heat warmer than body heat. If the frostbite is on your face, ears or body, cover it with a warm, un-gloved hand. If your fingers are frostbitten, place them inside your shirt up against your body. If a foot is frostbitten, remove your shoe and sock and put the foot against the body of another person. Never rub snow or ice on frostbite. Never rub at all.
- 3) If the skin is broken, cover the area with a sterile dressing. Don't use strong antiseptics.
- 4) Take warm food and drink.

Gunman Can't Wait To Rob Supermarket

SIDNEY, Ohio (AP)—A gunman who couldn't wait his turn to get to a cash register last night robbed a supermarket of $492.

Police said he walked to the head of a long line of shoppers with a can of coffee in one hand and a pistol in the other.

Judy Bryan, 19, cashier, said he told her, "Keep still and you won't get hurt."

After scooping bills and change from two registers, the man walked out with many customers unaware of the robbery.

It Happened Last Night

It Seems the Stars Have Kids Like Ours

By EARL WILSON

HOLLYWOOD—I'm always a little surprised that Hollywood stars tell stories about their kids—just like people.

Esther Williams and Ben Gage mentioned to us at Chasen's their son Benjie's skepticism about Santa Claus.

"Daddy," he wanted to know, "did you ever see Santa Claus?" "Well, no-o-o," Ben admitted. "You see, he always comes pretty late."

"Did anybody ever see Santa Claus?" persisted Benjie. "I guess not," confessed Daddy. "Like I was saying, he's always so late arriving, and he's got to go to so many places, and he travels so fast."

"Then," said the movie-conscious son, "if nobody ever sees Santa Claus, how come he dresses up in all those crazy costumes?" Esther told the B. W. and me that she always seems to be having a baby while she's making a picture. This doesn't seem to interfere with her productions—or her production.

"They should be great swimmers," said Ben. "They all learned to swim at about minus 4 months."

We were invited to drop in at the Humphrey Bogart's. Bogie was helping mind the kids until Lauren Bacall came home from the studio.

Just like in our house, Papa Bogart told the little girl, Leslie, and son Stephen, "No television!"—and just like in our house when we say that, we still had television.

Stephen was lying down on the floor inside a leopard skin in front of the TV set. "Hey, Stephen!" Bogie shouted—and then, "Hey, Steve!"

Steve gave no sign of hearing. He went on watching Captain Video. "Hey, Sam!" yelled Bogie. At that the little boy turned and said, "What, daddy?"

Groucho Marx spoke most proudly of his daughter, Melinda, 8½, who'll appear on his TV show with him Jan. 13 in a scene from Gilbert and Sullivan.

"She's a real actress," Groucho assured us. "My daughter sings lyrics not one word of which she understands."

During rehearsals, when she was having trouble following the words, they told her to watch her daddy and do what he did.

"Why should I?" she said. "I can't understand half of what I'm saying myself, and I can't understand anything daddy says." Melinda Marx, anyway, seems likely to become an actress.

Red Skelton, who boasts of how ornery his children are, recently had his own and some other children on his TV show.

"It was a good idea," Red told me. "I scared my own children. I gave 'em the idea that if they don't behave I can always get another kid."

Narcotics Case Against Hormel In Second Day

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The state today continued its attempts to convict young George Hormel II, scion of the meat-packing family, of possession of marijuana after presenting testimony charging that he and a fellow musician smoked marijuana cigarettes together on several occasions.

The Superior Court trial yesterday was enlivened by definition of terms used by marijuana smokers.

Robert (Iggy) Shevak, 35, key prosecution witness and former string base player in Hormel's jazz trio, told the jury that "to make a score" meant to be able to buy marijuana or other narcotics. He also testified that he and Hormel once smoked a "roach." A "roach," said Shevak, meant a partially smoked marijuana cigarette that had been saved from a previous occasion.

Models for dies which are used in making machinery often are made of mahogany.

Panama Police Hold American In Murder Plot

By LUIS NOLI

PANAMA (AP)—Panama police held a 34-year-old U.S. citizen in connection with Sunday's slaying of President Jose Antonio Remon as they questioned at least 70 suspects in the gang-style murder.

Police said they picked up Martin Irving Lipstein, tentatively described as a school teacher from New York—at the airport 24 hours after Remon and two other men were gunned down at Juan Franco race track. Three others were wounded in the cross-fire between the assassins and Remon's bodyguard.

Authorities said they had released another U.S. citizen, Roy Bettis, 38, a native of Waukegan, Ill., who is employed by the Canal Zone administration but lives in Panama City. Bettis was questioned about the activities of one of his truck drivers on the night of the murder. National Guard headquarters said they had no information against Bettis.

News of these developments came after police announced that ex-President Arnulfo Arias, one of the first arrested, had been moved to national guard headquarters in Chiriqui province 200 miles west of here.

Cops Just Sit, But Freeway Is Safer

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—The Gulf Freeway, also called the Houston-Galveston Expressway, is being turned into one of the area's safest thoroughfares instead of the most deadly as formerly.

Houston Traffic Lt. L. H. Ellison said it was all because of eight motorcycle officers conspicuously posted along freeway overpasses during rush hours.

That's all the cops do — just sit there looking ready for speeders.

"We're not out there to give tickets," one said. "We just want to be seen."

GOOD FEEDING

by KARL WERSHOFEN
PICKWICK MILLS
Pickwick, Minn.

PASTURE, SILAGE, hay and grain rations are the cheapest feeds for producing milk in the order listed. You should feed farm grains and protein concentrates according to milk produced and type of roughage on your farm.

FEED SILAGE when pastures become short during late summer. This prevents loss in weight and helps hold milk production high during fall and winter months. Winter feeding requires plenty of high quality silage and hay for profitable milk production. Where possible, cows should be fed hay free choice along with all the silage they will clean up twice daily. Feed silage immediately after milking. If only a limited amount of either hay or silage is available, limit daily feedings so that it will last throughout the winter feeding period. Keep clean fresh water before cows at all times. Use heaters to keep water above freezing in winter.

CHOOSE A LOW-COST, economical ration like Occident 32% Dairy Concentrate or Occident 32% Dairy Balancer to keep cows in top condition during the strain of high milk production. These scientifically proved feeds boost the milk-making power of your home grown grains like nothing else. They give all the protein your cows need . . . plus vitamin D and important minerals, including trace minerals which are vital to top milk production.

COMPLETE FEEDING directions for these feeds are on the back of the sack tags.

Advice on Health

Influenza Virus Has 3 Strains

By H. N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

Like the common cold, influenza itself is seldom, if ever, fatal. But the influenza virus can do a lot more than merely make you uncomfortable and maybe miss a couple of days' work.

The virus — there being at least three strains, A, A Prime and B — can make you susceptible to serious influenza by damaging the cilia in your nose and throat.

The cilia are tiny hairs lining the upper air passages. They trap the germs you breathe into your bodies. An infection gains a foothold in your lungs when this filtering process is damaged.

I think you can readily see that the flu can easily lead to pneumonia if you don't take the proper precautions.

Many times you have probably mistaken a bad cold for influenza. I doubt that any disease is misdiagnosed so frequently as influenza.

Symptoms More Severe

The symptoms are slightly more severe with the A virus than with the B. The kind of infection present, however, cannot be determined by the symptoms alone.

The disease usually starts with chills. You might have a fever, lose your appetite and feel sick to your stomach. You might vomit. You'll probably feel tired and have sharp headaches. Your muscles are apt to ache, your face will be flushed and maybe you'll be constipated.

Rarely will your temperature be above 100 degrees. Your fever will be the highest on the first day. After that, your temperature should subside.

Symptoms like those of a cold may also be present. You'll probably sneeze frequently, and have a harsh, dry, metallic cough. There will be little sputum, however. Your nostrils probably will be congested.

The beginning of all these symptoms is almost always very sudden. Luckily, if there is no secondary infection, influenza attacks only last about a week.

No Specific Cure

While we doctors have no specific cure for influenza, you should call your physician as soon as you are stricken, so that he can keep a watchful eye on your progress. At the first sign of pneumonia or other secondary infection, he can administer antibiotics or sulfonamides. These are not of much value in treating influenza, but they can prevent pneumonia from taking over.

There are vaccines, too, which will help protect you from the influenza virus. I'll tell you about these tomorrow, and also give you some instructions on what to do if you catch the flu.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

J. B.: I have been told I have an anal fissure. Is there a cure for it?

Answer: An anal fissure is a condition in which there is a break in the mucous membrane of the anus.

For a cure, the doctor may either apply such preparations as silver nitrate to the fissure, or perform a simple operation for it.

Downtown Bureau May Add Events To '55 Schedule

The Association of Commerce Merchants Bureau may add an expanded promotional program for 1955 after reviewing the success of the schedule of activities sponsored by retailers through the bureau here last year.

The promotions committee has received a number of suggestions and will make a report at the Feb. 1 meeting.

The 1954 promotional program ran up a deficit of $31.04. Cost of the program was $3,019.79; receipts, including $300 from the Steamboat Days steering committee were $2,888.75.

The program last year included February Dollar Days, a spring preview, Steamboat Days, the Half-a-Day, Half-a-Dollar picnic and sale, August Dollar Days, Back to School promotion, Greater Winona Days, street decorations, Christmas parade, free movie day, dedication of the new white way and merchants' night at Gabrych Park. Expenses also included advertising special store hours and miscellaneous expenditures.

Officers Installed

About 27 merchants attended the meeting at Hotel Winona Tuesday night when new officers were installed. They are K. L. Gunderson, who succeeds L. E. Palm as chairman of the bureau, and Irving Gepner who succeeds Gunderson as vice chairman. Also introduced was Lester O. Peterson, president of the A. of C. board of directors, who complemented the bureau for the aggressive program during 1954 and invited the new chairman to attend as many board meetings as possible. The bureau members expressed appreciation to Palm for his administration of retail activities during 1954.

Present for the meeting were H. R. Hurd and C. E. Linden, members of the Hiawatha Valley Advertising Club. Speaking of "mass" advertising media (radio and newspaper), they pointed out that advertising programs coordinated with general merchandising are more effective when the individual merchants devote more time to advance program planning.

The merchants also reviewed the open night schedule followed during December and found that most members were pleased with the results. However, there was some mention of possible additional Monday night openings and others offered remarks indicating opposition to keeping the stores open on Saturday nights until 9 p.m. Remaining open only until 6 p.m. was mentioned as a possibility.

Store Holidays Set

Store holidays for 1955 will include Memorial Day, July 4, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day and New Year's Day, 1956, with stores closed from noon to 3 p.m. on Good Friday.

Car Kills Boy In Eau Claire

EAU CLAIRE, Wis. (AP)—Six-year-old Arnold Allen Johnson of Eau Claire was killed by a car here Wednesday as he ran across Highway 53, within the city limits.

Lodge to Attend London Meet on Atomic Controls

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., chief U. S. delegate to the U. N. plans to go to London late in February for a closed meeting of a U. N. disarmament subcommittee, informed sources reported today.

They said the United States wants an experienced and high-level diplomat at the complex talks on arms regulation and control of atomic energy.

If the talks run more than three or four weeks, they said, Lodge's U. N. deputy James J. Wadsworth will probably take over from Lodge. Wadsworth handled the disarmament subject in U. N. assembly debates last fall.

The assembly instructed the U. N. Disarmament Commission, of which Lodge is chairman for January, to set up a five-nation subcommittee again to discuss proposals for regulating conventional arms and controlling atomic energy.

The five nations who will take part — United States, Britain, France, the Soviet Union and Canada—held similar talks in London last spring.

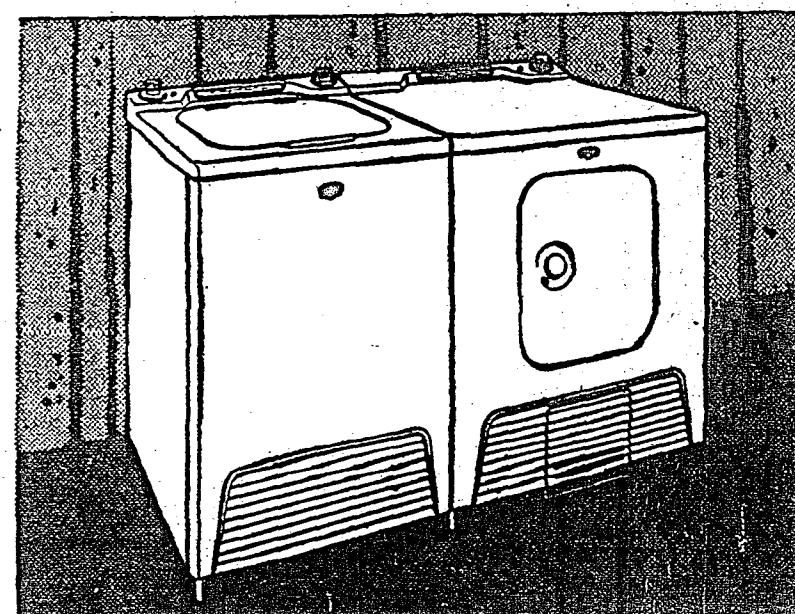

bor Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day and New Year's Day, 1956, with stores closed from noon to 3 p.m. on Good Friday.

Tabled was a communication from the Retail Merchants Federation urging opposition to the order that discontinues 3rd class direct mailing privileges on urban mail routes on March 31.

The merchants decided to continue standard policies providing for control of solicitation of money and merchandise and sale of advertising in 1-time publications. It was felt that the control program has saved merchants here quite a bit of money although there have been some violations.

Consideration also was given to sponsorship in February or early March of a sales clinic for sales personnel. The matter was referred to a committee for further study with a report due at the February meeting.

Expert Says Nickel Won't Enrich Him

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP)—B. F. Rimmer read in the Corpus Christi Caller of an expert coin collector visiting here with a 1913 liberty head nickel valued at more than $10,000.

Rimmer quickly called the newspaper. "I've one too!" he exclaimed.

Expert J. V. McDermott of South Milwaukee, Wis., convinced Rimmer the nickel was a phony. The date on many 1910 and 1912 liberty heads have been illegally altered to appear as 1913 coins.

Only five 1913 liberty head nickels were made and the whereabouts of each is known.

U.S., Canadian Officials Explore Trade Questions

WASHINGTON (AP)—Half a dozen Cabinet officers from the United States and Canada got together today in a one-day exploration of thorny questions of trade and tariffs.

The discussion, likely to bring no hard-and-fast conclusions, revolves around the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) sessions reopening today at Geneva, Switzerland.

C.D. Howe, Canada's trade minister, came back from the Geneva session when it recessed for Christmas with gloomy predictions. He said negotiations were going badly and he could not rule out possible collapse of the 37-nation agreement covering about 80 per cent of free world trade.

He was reported in a happier frame of mind when he arrived in Washington last night, however. With Howe are Canadian Foreign Minister L. B. Pearson and Finance Minister Walter Harris. Their American counterparts at today's meeting were Secretary of State Dulles, Secretary of Agriculture Benson and Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey.

The Canadians requested today's conference in an attempt to gain U. S. support for a reduction of import curbs under GATT.

Democratic Spoils Include Key Committee Assignments

Democrats will claim one of the sweetest prizes for winning control of the Senate in November's election—and Republicans will pay one of the bitter penalties for losing—when Senate committee assignments are handed out this week.

Posts available to Democrats will increase from 99 to 112, while Republicans—who had 112 committee assignments in the 83rd Congress—will have to make do with 99.

Twenty-six Senate committee vacancies—17 of them on major committees—will be filled by the Democrats. Republicans will have only nine vacancies to fill, and only three of these will be on major committees.

Beyond that, four Republicans will have to be "bumped" from their committees to get the minority party down to the "player limit." If seniority precedents are followed, Herman Welker (Idaho) will be dropped from the Agriculture Committee, Barry Goldwater (Ariz.) from Banking and Currency, Charles E. Potter (Mich.) from Government Operations, and Joseph R. McCarthy (Wis.) from Rules.

New committee assignments will have to be found for Welker and Goldwater, but Potter and McCarthy still will have the allotted two posts each after being "bumped." In addition, Democratic and Republican leaders will have to assign seven "new" senators from each party to two committees each.

As the picture looks today, Democrats will fill the following vacancies on major standing committees: Agriculture, one; Appropriations, three; Banking and Currency, two; Commerce, two; Finance, two; Foreign Relations, two; Interior, three; Judiciary, two.

Republicans will have one vacancy on each of three major committees: Appropriations, Armed Services, and Interior.

On committees with fewer than 15 members—roughly classified as minor—Democrats will have these vacancies: District of Columbia, one; Government Operations, two; Post Office and Civil Service, two; Public Works, two; Rules, two.

Republicans will have vacancies on these minor committees: D.C., one; Labor and Public Welfare, two; Post Office and Civil Service, two; Public Works, one.

This analysis is based on three assumptions: Extension of the rules in force in 1954; reassignment of Sen. Wayne Morse (Ore) to the committees he served on during the 82nd Congress, Armed Services and Labor and Public Welfare, and a Democratic majority of one on each committee except the two on which Morse will hold seats, where Democratic and Republican strength will be equal.

Even so, the lineup of vacancies may differ slightly from the figures above, since some current members of committees may seek transfers to other committees.

The Democratic Steering Committee and Republican Committee on Committees map the main course of a senator's career when they assign him to committees. Assigned to Finance or Appropriations, for example, he probably will specialize in money matters. If tapped for Interior, he may, in time, win a reputation as an authority on natural resources and Indian affairs.

Specialists in some fields wield more influence and win more headlines back home than others. A senator from the conservation-conscious Pacific Northwest ordinarily would prefer assignment to Interior rather than Banking and Currency. Timeliness, as well as regionalism, is a major factor. Between the World Wars, assignment to Armed Services wasn't much of a prize. In 1955, when proposals for revamping the draft and reserve systems will hold the spotlight, this committee will be powerful, newsworthy—and sought after.

The process of drafting committee slates is largely mechanical, depending on seniority. Freshman senators usually must be satisfied with minor assignments, although Democrats decided two years ago to give every newcomer one important post. Old-timers get first choice when vacancies occur on the politically glamorous committees. Other factors considered include members' preferences, previous experience, as well as geographical balance of a committee's membership.

After completion of computations and horse-trading early in January, the Democratic and Republican conferences—composed of all senators of the respective parties—will ratify the assignments. The majority and minority leaders will present the rosters—including chairmen, who ordinarily are the members who have served longest on the committees concerned—to the Senate. The Senate will elect the slates, and the 15 standing committees will go to work shaping the laws that will govern 163 million Americans.

On the average, an investment of $12,605 is required to put a man to work in an industry. Businesses do not invest that kind of money in states where taxes are high unless there are substantial offsetting advantages.

The holidays are over now... The Christmas trees are gone... And as we face our daily task... We have to carry on... We have to punch the clock again... Each morning and each night... And get sufficient sleep to keep... Our thinking clear and bright... And yet we should look happily... Upon that working scene... For there is nothing easier... Or smoother than routine... We merely do what we are told... And do it every day... And at the hour specified... We gather in our pay... And as the calendar moves on... Beneath the moon and sun... ## Ladejinsky Case Top Political Issue

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

NEW YORK — The case of Wolf Ladejinsky concerns a public official once employed by the Department of Agriculture and subsequently by the Department of State. His most recent position was as chief of the Far Eastern Division of the Office of Foreign Agricultural Relations attached to our embassy in Japan. That office has now been transferred to the Department of Agriculture by Act of Congress, in which agency it will be the Foreign Agricultural Services.

The State Department is satisfied with Ladejinsky's services and praises him for his work. He has been screened by State for security purposes and has not been found unsatisfactory. The Department of Agriculture finds Ladejinsky inadequate and is not satisfied with his security clearances.

THE LADEJINSKY CASE has been boomed up into a major political issue. The Department of Agriculture's case, so far as the public is concerned, rests on two indisputable facts:

1. He was once employed by the forerunner of Amtorg, a Russian trading agency which has also served as a cover for espionage;

2. He has some sisters still living in Russia.

The presentation of the case against Wolf Ladejinsky by the Department of Agriculture has, thus far, been amateurish and discredits the anti-Communist movement and the system of screening more than it harms Ladejinsky. If the Department of Agriculture cannot produce a better case, Ezra Taft Benson, who is, in my opinion, the ablest man in our cabinet, ought to admit that he has been misinformed and he ought to apologize to Ladejinsky. If Mr. Benson has a better case, he ought to state it now.

In all the material I have read on subversives and Communists since 1917, I have never quite seen the equal of a statement by John Glen Vassity, the Agriculture Department's security chief, which reads:

"WOULD YOU WRITE articles critical of the Communist government if close members of your family were living in Russia and you knew the tactics the Communists use?"

"It is doubtful anyone would do it unless he had reason to believe his family would not be harmed."

Does Mr. Cassidy know anything of human idealism, of martyrdom for a belief, of a faith that transcends personal interest? Does he know anything of the history of the Mormon Church, for instance? Ezra Taft Benson is a Mormon and he could tell Mr. Cassidy of the sacrifices, the suffering of the early Mormons who were driven by fanatical opposition from place to place until they reached the wilderness of the Salt Lake region. Did those men think of safety and body comfort any more than some of my ancestors did when they buried themselves into the auto-da-fe rather than desert their God and their ideals? None of these men and women ever gave a thought to what their idealism might do to their relatives. Apparently Mr. Cassidy never heard of that.

I do not know whether Ladejinsky is an idealist, is competent to be our agricultural representative, or whether he has a worse record than has been disclosed. But when Mr. Milan D. Smith of the Department of Agriculture quotes from a letter from George N. Vitt to establish the wickedness of Wolf Ladejinsky, it is necessary to inquire into the bona fides of Vitt as an expert. In the vast literature on Communism and anti-Communism, George N. Vitt's name does not appear as a qualified expert. There is no evidence in his letter to show expertise. It is said that he is a White Russian who fled from the Bolsheviks in 1919. His letter says:

MR. L. MAY BE 100 per cent innocent, but facts from his past speak against him. Thus, for the sake of Uncle Sam he must go, as unjust as it may be to him personally if he is innocent of Communist connections or sympathies.

What kind of vicious tripe is this? Are we to punish the innocent as well as the guilty? No matter what one thinks of Senator Joe McCarthy, he never offered this as a test of subversion.

Anti-Communism is the most important cause before the American people today. This cause must not be corrupted by indecent attitudes, by ignorance, by self-serving vengeance. And it is the active anti-Communists who must take up the cudgels against such statements as those made by Cassidy and Vitt, if their efforts are not to be discredited.

Federal Support of School Lunch Program Under Fire

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—A secret report is on its way to President Eisenhower's desk urging him to curtail the school lunch program. The report is written by the commission on intergovernmental relations, formerly headed by Clarence Manion, who was replaced by Meyer Kestbaum, head of Hart, Schaffner and Marx, after Manion resigned over the Bricker amendment battle.

The commission, which is supposed to improve government efficiency, has taken a strong stand through its subcommittee on education against spending federal money for the school lunch program.

Though acknowledging that the "school lunch program is beneficial to the health and welfare of school children," the report urges local financing and concludes: "The program is not a federal responsibility. Federal participation should be gradually tapered off."

The secret report also recognizes that "years of depression and war have left a grossly inadequate school plant," yet in the same breath, it recommends that "The general conclusion is that federal aid is not necessary for either current operating expenses for public schools or for capital expenditures for new school facilities."

The commission's solution is to let the states and local communities put up the money for school construction "in accordance with the will of their citizens."

This would mean unequal educational opportunities for American youngsters, the commission acknowledges, because of "differences in fiscal ability among states."

However, the report observes hopefully: "Those differences have been narrowing considerably in the last two decades, but they are still substantial. Efforts to narrow the gap should aim at raising the economic level and the capacity of the less wealthy states rather than subsidizing them. Existing disparities have been and can continue to be ameliorated by the prudent use of the progressive federal tax system."

Backstage Fight
These drastic recommendations stirred up such a battle behind the scenes, however, that almost half the presidential commission absolutely refused to sign the report. One member, Atlanta's school superintendent Paul West, was so sore that he put out a sizzling minority report blasting the majority recommendations as "a futile attempt to reverse the course of American history."

"There is no doubt that our state and local tax structures need overhauling," writes West, "but here again the (majority) report wishes to engage the people in a theoretical debate while postponing the solution of a more pressing problem—adequate education for children and youth who will grow into adulthood while we reform our tax structure."

West was joined in his backstage fight by such distinguished educators as Roy Simpson, California's superintendent of public instruction; The Very Rev. Mgr. Thomas J. Quigley of Pittsburgh; Oscar E. Harbord, chairman of the St. Louis school board, and Carl J. Megel, president of the American Federation of Teachers. They frankly considered the majority recommendations as a threat to the nation's educational future.

On the other side, the majority signers were led by Adam S. Benson of Salt Lake City and Roger A. Freeman of Olympia, Wash., both prominent educators in their home states. They also were joined by ex-Gov. Alfred Driscoll of New Jersey, Pres. Henry Wriston of Brown University and A. Boyd

$5,000 Car Hard to Live With

By SAUL PETT

(For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (U)—A friend of mine has a problem which is relatively rare but quite human.

His problem involves an expensive automobile—not how to pay for it but how to live with it.

You see, my friend Don lives in a small, middle-class suburb. There are very few $5,000 cars in town.

Don runs his own business, which provides a comfortable income. Still, it's not a big type income. But Don's wife's uncle has such an income, and the cars to match. He's so proud of his four-wheeled light cruisers he'd be extremely pleased if his favorite niece's husband owned one.

Old Car Dying
And so it came to pass that Don's old car was dying with the shakes and shudders. To replace it with a new model of the same brand would cost almost $5,000. So his wife's uncle said, "You can have my '54 car for $3,000," which, as every boy on a scooter knows, is a bargain. Without thinking, Don said, sure, he'd take it.

Since then he hasn't been sleeping well. He and his wife have had some heated discussions. But she insists he can't back out of the deal now because it would "hurt uncle's feelings."

Helen, their eldest child, insists, "I positively will not be driven to school in that car. Everybody will say we're trying to be too fancy."

Don has measured and re-measured his garage. While the car is shorter than the Queen Mary, it positively won't fit his garage.

Don has tried to prepare the neighborhood by apologizing in advance. "But you see, it was such a good buy, I couldn't pass it up. After all, it's a great car, easy on gas for a big job, smooth-riding, double the horsepower of my old heap."

While he believes this, Don is still uncomfortable. Just what will the neighbors think? Will they make jokes about the trunk being big enough for a kid's playroom?

Will he feel silly still collecting a half buck from his car pool riders—a man who could afford such a car? Will his church group expect his contribution to be doubled?

Most important, will Don's wife try to live up to the car? Will she insist on a mink stole?

But all things considered, Don has decided to accept the car and make the best of it.

Could you be that brave?

Mrs. FDR Meets Grandson on Plane
KANSAS CITY (U)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt flew here yesterday from St. Louis and told of a chance meeting on the plane.

"I noticed this little boy a few seats ahead kept peering back at me," the former First Lady said. "I thought to myself he looked a lot like Rexie (Elliott Roosevelt's stepson)."

"Then he hesitantly called back to me, 'Grandmama?'"

"Sure enough, it was Rexie. His mother and father had put him on a plane in New York Tuesday for Phoenix and he had been caught in the fog in St. Louis."

"We visited all the way to Kansas City."

PAUL HARVEY NEWS

U.S. Must Keep Arms at Ready

By PAUL HARVEY

(This column, written by the noted news and radio commentator, will appear in The Winona Daily News each Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.)

NEW YORK—For a quick start on a cold morning you need a rich mixture. That's why you adjust the carburetor. Richer, it takes more gas, but you're willing to pay the price for the extra power you need for smooth running.

When summer comes you can lean the carburetor down again. Save fuel.

When we know what's coming we can prepare for it. Save ourselves. A man out to run a mile in four minutes walks to the starting line.

The United States and Russia are unequally handicapped in the current arms race.

We must be ready to strike at any moment. World War III will be decided with the men and equipment which are presently available on the day that conflict begins.

We must be ever ready because we don't know when that day may be.

The Soviets, on the other hand, can gear their preparation to a specific timetable because they know it is they... who will name the day.

Despite this handicap, the United States is keeping abreast. And we're ahead in the critical development of guided missiles. Intercontinental guided missiles, capable of spanning the oceans with an H-bomb in the warhead.

We have yet to conquer the problems of metal fatigue under the excessive heat generated at tremendous speeds, but we're getting there. Already today, for research and development, we are spending more on missiles than on aircraft.

In 1954 we spent ninety-two million for missile research. Three times what we spent on aircraft research. And we spent half a billion on missile procurement! In this strenuous race we have to run with a rich carburetor the year around. It's more expensive, but we are running against both our adversary and the clock, since we have no idea where the goal is.

The tape may be a hundred yards away... or a dozen miles. A month... or many years.

Russia may pace herself. Conserva her strength. We must maintain top speed from the start, for it may be only a hundred-yard dash and we must not be overtaken at any point.

This month President Eisenhower is going to ask us for a record "peacetime" military budget to keep us strong plus three billion dollars worth of hardware and help for our friends.

I do not know how long we can hold our own before we collapse from sheer exhaustion of this unequal contest.

But sometime between here and there... sometime before we gasp our last or slip on an economic banana peel perhaps the technological genius of free Americans will provide the one final weapon of annihilation... one total weapon which, without fail, can obliterate a nation.

Then we may stop running... And—resting a heavy finger on a hair-trigger, sit back and enforce peace.

If the Good Lord keeps entrusting those who love him with big-ger weapons... it is not for our destruction... But for our deliverance.

THE WORLD TODAY
WASHINGTON (U)—What does it profit a man to save his money if he can't protect it from an enemy?

In a nutshell that's what many Democrats say they want to know about the cuts which President Eisenhower proposes for the armed forces.

His administration, particularly Secretary of Defense Wilson, is in for stiff quizzing by the Democrats who took control of Congress yesterday. Judging from what they've said, they will ask:

Is the administration, for the sake of economy, reducing the armed forces to a point where they can't protect this nation's interests?

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.) says he's afraid he's looking at "bargain-counter defense." Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont.) says he's afraid the country's vital military strength may be lost in the name of economy.

And Rep. Vinson (D-Ga.), who will head the House Armed Services Committee, says he will call Wilson before him for a full explanation.

It was Wilson who started the ball rolling Dec. 20 with the announcement of a big reduction in the armed forces, particularly in ground troops. Why the cut? Less fear of war in part, Wilson told newsmen.

This wasn't what Secretary of State Dulles told newsmen several days later when they asked if the military cuts were the result of less fear of war. That wasn't the reason, he said.

He said improvement in weapons meant the military forces needed fewer men. This apparent conflict raised this question:

If one said one thing, and one another, what was the real reason? Was it to save money?

Reduction in ground troops meant this country would be less able to throw in troops against the Communists if they attacked anywhere in the world.

The United States might retaliate with air power but unless native troops were available to stem the Red assault where it occurred, air strikes might not be enough.

The crisis in Indochina last year was recalled. The Communist-led Vietnamese were tramping the

Polio Dinner Proceeds to Exceed $1,000

A generous, jovial 230 Winonans sent auction prizes upwards and participated in hat and dress designing competitions Wednesday evening at the New Oaks to bring proceeds of the annual March of Dimes dinner near or past the $1,300 mark of last year. The dinner is sponsored each year by the Soroptimist Club of Winona.

Exact proceeds of the dinner and fund-raising program following the dinner have not been determined as yet. A special dinner menu was arranged by Chef Walter Kuby at a reduced price so that $1 of each ticket could be a part of the net profits.

More than 90 merchants, business firms and individuals contributed prizes including orchids, a charcoal grill, a glass coffee urn and warmer, cases of whisky, a mink collar, an imported hand-hooked rug, a ceramic hen and rooster set, an automatic toaster, hams, a cocktail shaker set, a portable radio and a bushel basket of fruit, all sold at Chinese auction.

The March of Dimes birthday cake brought $122 in a Chinese auction, each bidder contributing the difference between the prior bid and his bid, and the cake going to the bidder at the time an alarm bell, previously set for a certain time, rang. Mrs. Siebert Crohn won the cake which later was cut and sold at 50 cents a slice for the benefit of the polio fund.

A baseball autographed by members of the New York Giants went to William F. White after bringing $30 in a Chinese auction. Donations listed: One orchid corsage was contributed by its original purchaser for re-auction and a case of whisky was donated by its original purchaser for a resale which brought an additional $40.

Free Parking Ticket. A "free parking ticket," donated by the Winona police department was purchased at auction by Mrs. Dwight Chappell. Other winning purchasers were Lloyd Ozmun, R. W. Miller, Mrs. Siebert, Walter Kelly, Walker Woodworth, Dr. R. H. Wilson, Miss Floretta M. Murray, Miss Marjorie Woodworth, Miss Evelyn Taraldson, J. Russell Smith, Dwight Chappell, James Jeresek, Oscar Lindstrom and Dr. A. H. Maze Sr.

A glass and dimes project resulted in prizes going to Earl Poole and A. R. Ehlers.

Preceding the program, Mrs. Fae Griffith, club president, introduced Donald Winder, county polio chairman. Mrs. Frank Subject, March of Dimes campaign director this year, Edward Allen, director of ceremonies, Mayor, and Mrs. Loyde Pfeiffer, Miss Harriet Kelley, chairman for the March of Dimes dinner and program; Miss Leona McGill, program chairman for the evening; Mrs. Winder, Miss Jeanne Reince, Miss Minnesota, who assisted Mr. Allen for the evening, and Mrs. Allen.

A major portion of the success of auctions and audience participation program was due to the hard-working master of ceremonies who was nearly minus a voice after about three hours of work, offering articles to be auctioned, raising bids and offering a running commentary on the stunts and contests.

Jack Frost, George A. Graham, and his Frosties, Roger Schneider and Lloyd Ozmun, after being introduced by Mr. Allen, thanked the Soroptimist Club and praised the polio campaign efforts.

The program opened with an exhibition by the Winona Twirlers, Joyce Peplinski, Phyllis Kowalczyk, Susie Lord, Betty Ersig, Nancy Ciszak and Edna Bundy.

Dress Designing Contest. Ability to pick up beans with a straw and carry them, relay-race style across the room, brought a prize to Mrs. Lloyd Ozmun. Others competing were Dr. P. A. Mattison, Joseph L. Orlovski, Miss Evelyn Taraldson, Mrs. Edward Allen and Fayette Ehle.

In a "dress designing" contest in which contestants were furnished with a supply of crepe paper and pins, first prize went to Mrs. Harry Young and second to Mrs. James Jeresek. Other contestants were Mrs. E. M. McLaughlin, Mrs. William F. White and Mrs. C. Paul Venables. Judges were Jack Frost, William J. Thurow and E. L. Hittner.

Men designers, Dwight Chappell, Jack Curtis, Jack Leaf, Arthur Cunningham and A. R. Ehlers, competed before Dr. Elizabeth Nydegger, J. R. Smith and Jay Martin for prizes in fashioning the newest in spring hats. Mr. Curtis' model won the nod for first place from the judges.

Dinner music was played by Miss Janice Michels, organist, and Henry Burton's orchestra played later in the evening.

Boutonnieres furnished by Winona florists were sold by Winona royalty, queens and attendants from the Winter Carnival, the Steamboat Days and WSTC Homecoming—the Misses Sandra Munson, Marlene Fernholz, Nancy Gynild, Judy Murtin and Arlene Martinson.

"Stake-your-claim" boxes brought added funds in a special sale. Assisting members of the club with the auctions, with the claims boxes and other events were volunteer Winonans and many of the guests at the party. Merchandise for the claims boxes also was furnished by local firms and persons.

Patrons Announced. Patrons and patronesses for the evening were the Messrs. and Mmes. Cecil Baldwin, A. J. Bambenek, D. C. Bambenek, Joseph B. Bambenek, Ralph Boalt, Dwight Chappell, J. R. Chappell, Karl Conrad, William Galewski, J. M. George, M. A. Goldberg, James

Betty Jane Nash Becomes Bride in Illinois Ceremony

Lighted candles in candelabra and Christmas greens decorated the sanctuary of the Methodist Church at Rochelle, Ill., for the wedding of Miss Betty Jane Nash, daughter of Dr. E. G. Nash, 423 W. Wabasha St., and John David Cornelius, son of Mrs. D. R. Cornelius, Birmingham, Ala., and the late Dr. Cornelius, at 4 p.m. Dec. 20. Dr. G. R. Keppin performed the ceremony.

White satin bows marked the front pews and large baskets of white snapdragons and chrysanthemums were on either side of the altar. Frederic Harris, organist, played a prelude of music and the traditional wedding marches and David Proff sang "O Promise Me," "At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer." Both are of Rochelle.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. G. R. Hoesley, Winona, as matron of honor. Her two bridesmaids, Bonnie Jean and Betty Jane Hoesley, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Hoesley, were accompanied by flower girls, Woodrow Swartzbaugh, Rochelle, was best man and Claude Haselton and William H. Beck, Rochelle, ushers.

A gown of French imported Chantilly lace over satin in ballroom length was worn by the bride. Accordion-pleated nylon tulle formed two tiers beneath the full overskirt of lace which was finished with scalloped edge, the dress was designed with a jewel neckline trimmed with seed pearls, and long sleeves. The bride's veil of silk illusion fell from a half-hat of Chantilly lace over satin with seed pearl trim. Her flowers were a cascade bouquet of red roses and stephanotis.

The matron of honor wore a bronze-green velvet in a ballroom-length gown with draped bodice, cummerbund effect at the waist, short sleeves and full skirt. She wore a matching velvet headpiece and mitts, and carried a cascade bouquet of red roses.

The flower girls were in white nylon frocks with puffed sleeves and full skirts, and wore white satin in Breton caps trimmed with beads. They carried small colonial bouquets of Garnet roses and pom-poms.

A reception was held in the church parlors when the wedding cake encircled by smilax and red roses, centered the table. Greenery, candles and silver balls were used as other decorations. Guests included the bride's father, Dr. Nash, and Mr. and Mrs. Hoesley and children, Carol Lynn, Bonnie Jean and Betty Jane, Winona, and Mrs. Cora Widmyer, Homer.

After a wedding trip to Wagon Wheel Lodge, Rockton, Ill., Christmas in Winona, and a stay at Norway Lodge near Cable, Wis., the couple is at home at 821 4th Ave., Rochelle. The bride attended Winona Senior High School, is a graduate of Winona State Teachers College, and attended Beaver College, Jenkintown, Pa., and has been teaching in the Rochelle Central Junior High. She formerly taught in the Baudette High School and in the Rochefort American High School in France.

The bridegroom attended Birmingham schools, and was a member of the Merchant Marine. He recently completed two years of U. S. Army Service, 16 months of that time in France.

Parties were given for the bride-elect by her bridge club with Mrs. Ray DeCoursey as hostess and by Mrs. Manuel Rocha in Rochelle. Mr. and Mrs. DeCoursey and Mr. and Mrs. Worley Hawthorne entertained at dinners for the couple in Rochelle and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bradbury at a dinner at Maxon's Manor, Oregon, Ill.

John D. Cornelius and His Bride, the former Betty Jane Nash, daughter of Dr. E. G. Nash, 423 W. Wabasha St., are pictured above following their wedding. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. D. R. Cornelius, Birmingham, Ala., and the late Dr. Cornelius.

Keep in Trim

Resolve You'll Wear Perfect Dress Size

By IDA JEAN KAIN

The most exultant letters come from dieters who can once again slip into their right size dress.

"The day I could wear size 16 again was the happiest day of my life!" is the blisful theme. This size incentive can enlighten your interest while dieting. To bring your goal closer, aim first at your next smaller size.

Through a scientific sizing system developed by the trade in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Commerce, under the direction of Mansfield Lorie, the number of pounds from one dress size to the next has been determined. Scientific sizing is based on structure and body measurements. In small sizes there is a 10 pound difference; in medium sizes, 12 to 14 pounds; and in large sizes, there are 16 pounds between sizes.

There is a weight range within which you can wear a certain size dress. The manufacturer's dress size is within two to four pounds of the top limit at which a woman can wear that size. The number of pounds to your next smaller size depends on how near you are to the top weight limit on your present size. If you are crowding the seams or having your present size altered larger, you will need to take off the standard number of pounds plus an extra 3 to 5 pounds before you fit the smaller size. But there are no more pounds between sizes coming down than there were going up!

Enlightenment on the size score can keep you from giving up when your goal is within reach. An overweight size 20 complains that even though she has taken off 12 pounds, she still cannot get into size 18. Four or five more pounds off will let her ease into size 18. It's not knowing that is discouraging.

On the measurement score, in women's sizes the standard difference is two to two and a half inches through the control measurements—bust, waist and hips. That is, there is a two inch increase through the bust and hips with each increase in size, and a two and a half inch increase through the waist on the larger sizes. In misses' sizes through 16, the difference is one and a half to two inches from one size to the next in the control measurements. With this information, you know where you stand.

India Studied by Congregational Woman's Union

Devotions based on verses from the book "Channels of Devotions," highlighting the "Appreciation of Other Races," were given by Mrs. E. D. Sievers to open the January meeting of the Woman's Union of the First Congregational Church Wednesday afternoon.

The program for the afternoon was introduced by Miss Grace Chadwick, a member of the program committee. Members of the afternoon study circles presented a panel on "The Attitude of the Peoples of India Toward Communism and the United States." The discussion leader, Mrs. S. A. Boyd, introduced the speakers and posed the questions for the discussions.

Mrs. A. E. Meinert gave the historical background of India, paying particular attention to "what is found in the culture and the past of India to give it a bulwark against the inroads of Communism and the things that will further its growth."

She stressed the dominance of beliefs and taboos in the lives of all the peoples and pointed out how a growing national pride is changing many practices.

The question given to Mrs. Harry Jackson, the second speaker, was, "Can India solve the immense problems of hunger, disease and illiteracy in time to ward off Communism with its promise of a super-solution?" Mrs. Jackson told of what the West and Christian leaders would like to do and have tried to do to help India.

She compared conditions of housing, transportation, health, food and government and concluded her discussion by saying that it will be many years before India is satisfactorily self-sustaining.

Mrs. P. A. Mattson was asked, "Is India really aware of the menace of Communism and what are the people going to do about it?" She said, "India does recognize it as factors subject to Communism, but doesn't believe it will be overcome by it."

"The government is trying to ward it off internally by pledging itself politically to democracy in government, increasing literacy of its people, improving economic standards and increasing life expectancy, improving social conditions and controlling industries through government ownership. All of these improvements are slow moving. India sees herself as a neutral area between East and West."

Mrs. Boyd opened the panel to discussion of questions from the floor and summed the study up with a challenge to members to be alert to world conditions as they were developing and to keep watch over forthcoming conferences between countries to discuss world problems.

At a brief business meeting preceding the program Mrs. Howard Packard, president, made the following announcements: Jan. 13, the annual church dinner with tickets available at the coffee hour Sunday and reservations to be in by

Humphrey, Judd Call for Security System Review

By RUSSELL BRINES
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) and Rep. Judd (R-Minn.) said today the case of Wolf Ladejinsky proves a need for a thorough top-level review of the Eisenhower administration's security system.

In the merry-go-round sequence of events to which they referred, Ladejinsky was twice given security clearance by the State Department, then fired by the Agriculture Department as a security risk and most recently hired by the Foreign Operations Administration (FOA).

FOA, which runs the foreign aid program, hired him Wednesday at $11,800 a year for a tough anti-Communist job—running a land reform program in Red-threatened Southern Viet Nam. Three weeks ago the Agriculture Department removed him as agricultural attaché in Tokyo on security and technical grounds.

The new appointment came after White House intervention but Secretary of Agriculture Benson insisted he made the "correct" decision in dismissing Ladejinsky. At a news conference, the secretary strongly supported the aides who advised him to do so.

But Sen. Humphrey said "those responsible" for Ladejinsky's ouster "should be called to task, because they have shown immaturity of judgment... they acted in haste."

Humphrey said in an interview that, despite Ladejinsky's re-employment, he would press for a congressional investigation of the dismissal because "it appears that, instead of one security program, we have several."

Rep. Judd called in a statement for a "re-study and a re-evaluation of our whole security system... at the highest levels."

Today however, the New York Herald Tribune in a Washington dispatch by Walter Kerr said it was learned that Benson has recommended to Eisenhower a "high-level, bi-partisan review of the entire federal security system."

Park-Recreation Schedule Listed

Both the East and West Recreation centers are open daily afternoons and evenings for adult and youth programs.

WHITEHALL, Wis. (Special)—A check for $1,350 from March of Dimes headquarters in New York has been received by the Trempealeau County Chapter, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Olson stated that the other 50 per cent of 1953 March of Dimes money will go to national headquarters. Olson explained that the chapter is currently providing March of Dimes funds, in whole or in part, for the care of two patients stricken during the past year, in addition to 13 patients from previous years.

Boots, Shoes of Missing Woman Found in River

MUKWONAGO, Wis. (AP)—The search for Mrs. Rose Planinshek in the Fox River near here was given renewed impetus with the discovery Wednesday of a pair of women's boots and shoes, identified as belonging to the missing West Allis woman.

Waukesha County Sheriff Michael Lombardi said finding of the boots and shoes "indicates the body will be in the river."

The 32-year-old housewife has been sought since Monday when her car was found with its nose in the river at the bottom of an embankment at the Highway 15 bridge.

McCarthy Mail Investigation Will Be Closed

By JOE HALL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. George (D-Ga.) said today he does not think a Senate probe of a 1952 "cover" put on the mail of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) turned up "anything the attorney general would regard as serious."

George, who served on a special two-man committee, which conducted the investigation last month, said he does not believe anything further will be done about the matter.

McCarthy, in a separate interview, said he wants the matter referred to the Justice Department. He termed the check on his mail "a vicious violation of law."

The special committee's report condemned the use of "mail covers" by any Senate committee and recommended that the Senate refer to the Justice Department the testimony it took. However, the committee took no position on the question of whether such "covers" are legal.

Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich.), the other committee member with George was defeated last November.

Their report was filed with the secretary of the Senate Dec. 3. The parliamentarian said the report will remain in the secretary's possession unless the Senate votes to send it on to the attorney general.

A "mail cover" is an investigative technique in which a government agency asks a postmaster to furnish it with information on the addressee, return address and postmark of all mail received at a certain address. The special committee was told it is used often by the FBI.

The check was put on McCarthy's mail and that of some of his associates for three weeks in 1952 by a Senate elections subcommittee which was investigating his financial affairs.

BLACK RIVER FALLS, Wis. (Special)—Magazine salesmen who were picked up here New Year's Day night for soliciting without city approval have failed to appear in justice court and it is assumed they will forfeit deposits made.

Seven were arrested by Police Chief Al Young after several housewives complained about the solicitation. Ike Hollenbeck, justice of the peace, expected them to appear here early this week.

In the meantime, the city council passed a new ordinance Tuesday night to control solicitations here. It will require all peddlers or transient merchants to secure a license from the city clerk.

Pay Raise for Congressmen, Judges Sought

WASHINGTON (AP)—A move to give members of Congress and most federal judges an 80 per cent pay raise got top priority rating today in the House Judiciary Committee.

And if Committee Chairman Celler (D-NY) has his way, the House will have an opportunity to vote on the legislation within a month.

"It will be passed too," he said in an interview.

Celley, who introduced the pay hike measure at the opening of the new House session yesterday, said he will ask the Judiciary Committee to consider it within the next few weeks. House leaders don't want to delay action on the bill until next year, when all House members are up for election.

Separate legislation to raise the pay of postal workers and all other federal employees by perhaps 5 to 10 per cent is scheduled for early consideration by the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee.

The new bill would make the pay of members of Congress $22,500 annually, exclusive of a $2,500 expense allowance. Congressmen now receive $12,500 plus the $2,500 expense item.

Justices of the Supreme Court would be raised from $25,000 to $35,000 with the chief justice receiving $500 more than the associate justices, as he now does.

Circuit judges, Court of Claims judges and judges of the Customs and Patent Appeals Court would be boosted from $17,500 to $25,000. District judges would receive $22,500, a raise of $7,500.

Judges of the Customs Court and the Tax Court would be raised from $15,000 to $17,500. U.S. attorneys and their assistants would be given salaries based on the size of their districts and their duties, the range being from $12,000 to $20,000 for the attorneys and from $6,000 to $15,000 for their assistants. Their pay now is fixed by the attorney general.

Job Placements In Minnesota 157,500 for '54

ST. PAUL (AP)—The State Department of Employment Security found people for 157,500 jobs last year, Commissioner F. W. Nichols said today in a preliminary to his annual report.

Of the placements, 70,500 were in agricultural jobs, a mark 11 per cent of the time high for this category set in 1949 and 13 per cent above 1953.

The 87,000 non-farm placements was a sharp drop from 1953 although 75 per cent of them were for regular, full time employment. More than 11,000 were put into clerical and sales positions. The agency's Minneapolis office filled 65,000 jobs, St. Paul 18,500 Duluth 8,100 and the balance was scattered among 30 other offices in the state.

Nichols said 20 per cent of the non-farm placements were in manufacturing plants with another 24 per cent going to wholesale and retail trade firms.

Third New Brunswick Quadruplet Succumbs

Handshaking Stint 'Not So Bad,' Says State's First Lady

ST. PAUL (AP)—"It wasn't so bad, surprisingly," This was the comment of Minnesota's first lady, Jane Freeman, after she had shaken hands with well-wishers for 3½ hours at the Capitol reception.

Later, at the inaugural ball Gov. Orville Freeman remarked that the 4,000-odd handshakers had literally "worn off" his wife's right hand glove.

Crowds gathered at the rotunda an hour ahead of schedule to glimpse and salute the state's first Democratic-Farmer-Labor governor in 16 years.

Meanwhile, some 3,000 who had paid $5 a couple to attend the inaugural ball began to arrive at the Prom Ballroom. Gov. and Mrs. Freeman led the grand march at 11 p.m.

Flanking the state's first couple were Lt. Gov. and Mrs. Karl Rolvaag and other state officials.

Gordon C. Yock Stepping Down as State GOP Chief

ST. PAUL (AP)—Gordon C. Yock says he will not seek re-election when his term expires Jan. 29 as chairman of the Republican State Central Committee. He has held the post 14 months.

Yock, from Clara City, said he was confident there would be no difficulty in finding a leader competent to provide the necessary unity and leadership for the party.

"I trust my decision will aid in the re-building of the Republican party in the state," Yock said Wednesday night. "I have enjoyed serving as state chairman and my close association with the retiring Gov. Anderson."

Yock pointed out that a nominating committee is at work seeking candidates for party offices, with at least two nominations requested from each district.

"I am confident this will reveal experienced people from over the state who will be worthy of consideration for positions of leadership in the party," he added. Yock said he stood ready to "serve in the ranks and lend my support to whoever succeeds me."

State Liquor Sales Slump Blamed on Tax

ST. PAUL (AP)—Liquor taxes currently are "so repressive" that sales in the state will be down 100,000 gallons in the next two years, Dudley C. Ericson, liquor control commissioner, said Wednesday night in his biennial report. Ericson said that sales over the nation have been declining for the past decade. He said current taxes of $10.50 per gallon by the federal government and $2.75 by the state are largely to blame.

In 1954, all types of alcoholic beverage taxes yielded the state $14,385,637, with wine and beer sales showing increases.

Polish Refugees Face Charge Of Blasphemy

NEW BRITAIN, Conn. (AP)—A man who exhibited wounds in his hands and feet and claimed he was Jesus Christ was among four Polish refugees facing blasphemy charges in City Court today. All four claimed to be 2,000 years old.

Police said John Tschaplinski, 50, when arrested yesterday, was wearing a crown of thorns, causing him to bleed from the head, and wore a loin cloth made from a diaper.

A seven-foot wooden cross with four spikes and a stack of $20 bills were found in his kitchen.

Police said they had taken him into custody several weeks ago after he was found passing out $20 bills at the New Britain General Hospital, but they released him after questioning.

Arrested with him yesterday were Mieczyslaw Majewski, 38, who was wearing a black robe and had a long beard; and two women, Antonia Suszko and Ding Karanowicz, about 50. Police said all four came here three years ago and lived in the same tenement.

They are not known to be members of any religious sect here.

Bemidji Reports 2 More 'Suspect' Diphtheria Cases

BEMIDJI, Minn. (AP)—Two new suspected cases of diphtheria have been hospitalized here, bringing the total to seven. The other five are proven cases. All are doing "fairly well."

"We do not have an epidemic at the present time—we have a few cases of diphtheria," said city health official Dr. J. K. Hartjken. Dr. Hartjken said city schools and public gathering places would remain open, but that a half dozen new cases would constitute cause for closing schools.

The health officer said the city's mass immunization program should be completed by Saturday. Already some 40 per cent of the city's 10,000 population has received toxoid injections.

The two new diphtheria suspects are Aron Lien, 33, Pinewood, and Harold Melhus, 28, Bemidji. They were hospitalized late Wednesday.

Benson Reports To Congress on Dairy Problems

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Benson Wednesday outlined in a report to Congress three general methods which he said the government might use to stabilize producer prices of milk and dairy products.

Although he outlined in detail each proposal, the secretary made no recommendations as to which he believed should be employed.

The report was submitted to the lawmakers at the request of the outgoing Congress which expressed dissatisfaction with the present dairy price support program, marked by downturns in producer prices and vast government purchases of dairy surpluses.

The three general methods set forth in Benson's 113-page report are:

(1) Use of controls to prevent productions of price-depressing surpluses.

(2) Purchase by the government or some other agency of a portion of the supply which would be withheld from the market for the purpose of bolstering prices.

(3) Use of government subsidies to assure dairymen desired returns.

The government now employs the second method—that of purchase of surplus supplies.

Benson said use of subsidies—a major feature of a controversial farm plan advanced in 1949 by former Secretary of Agriculture Brannan—would cost the government considerably more than the present program. But he added that the outlay to the nation as a whole—in the form of dairy prices plus taxes to finance government cost—would be no greater.

Under the subsidy method, dairy prices would be free to drop to lower levels, than at present, when surpluses existed. The government would pay dairymen the difference between the average market price and the support rate.

The report said that the subsidy method, by allowing consumer prices to drop, would permit the whole production to move into consumption rather than a part into government surplus stock as at present.

The secretary estimated a subsidy program would cost the government about 350 million dollars a year at the present rate of production, with prices supported at the present rate of 75 per cent of parity, and $1,225,000 if at 90 per cent of parity.

Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices declared by law to be fair to farmers in relation to prices they pay.

No figures on the cost of the present program will be available until the government finally disposes of its current surpluses. However, the program cost 77 million dollars between April 1 and Oct. 31 this year. The cost reflects sales at prices much below those paid under the support program.

In discussing the production control method of preventing surpluses and depressed prices, Benson said "difficult administrative problems" would be encountered if this approach were used, because fully 1,500,000 farmers would be affected.

He said controls could be obtained by use of sales quotas, limitations on cow numbers or by rationing feed.

Houston Co. Board Asks Equipment Bids At Feb. 9 Meeting

CALEDONIA, Minn. (Special)—The Houston County auditor, Miss Dolores Hauge, was authorized to ask for bids on equipment rental and a 2-ton dump truck and box as the annual meeting of the board of commissioners came to a close late Wednesday.

The bids will be opened at the next meeting of the board, Feb. 9. Before adjournment, the commissioners appointed Robert E. Lee, Caledonia lawyer, to assist L. L. Roerkohl, county attorney. No county pay is involved.

A delegation from Hokah Township met with the board for the second straight month asking improvements in County Aid Road 28. No action was taken on this or a request by Harold Poeschl and George Moriarty of the Soil Conservation Service for a man to replace Harli Larson in the local office. Larson now is assistant county agent.

Commissioners George Bissen and A. B. Rosanen were named to the Evergreen Rest Home committee by Chairman John Goetzinger. He assigned the entire board to the road and bridge committee.

Houston County Sends Six to Armed Forces

Uranium Hunters More Trouble Than Rustlers

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Hold on there podner, the West isn't so wild any more.

The rustlers are fewer and less deadly. The diamondback rattlers are no great threat to honest cattlemen. And the coyotes are just pests.

But doggonit, podner, these fellows prowling around with those Geiger counters are enough to run a poor cattleman plumb loco, the ranchers say.

The prospectors hunting uranium cross the fences, dig in the pastures and roam over the ranches without saying a word to anybody. And because of a law passed in 1919, the ranchers can't bother them.

The Texas Legislature in 1919 gave landowners who had bought land from the state the right to lease land for oil and gas. The state wanted a one-sixteenth royalty. The landowner could get that much or more, just so long as the state received one-sixteenth or half of any amount more than that.

But the 1919 Legislature hadn't heard about uranium and didn't worry about such minerals. Neither did the ranchers.

So the rights for minerals other than oil or gas belong to the state. And prospectors fan out over the ranchlands every weekend.

Movie Candy Machine Refuses to Let Go

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Lynn Pruitt, 6, put her nickel in the candy machine at the movie yesterday but no candy came out. She put her hand in the little door.

Her hand didn't come out either. Her father, Charles Pruitt, banged on the machine.

The usherette banged on it. So did the manager. So did the fire department when called upon.

Finally they took the side off the machine and freed Lynn's hand. The machine turned out to be empty, but the manager found two candy bars elsewhere for Lynn for being a brave girl.

Hammaraskjold Can Speak With Firmness

By MAX HARRISON
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Red China's Chou En-lai should find Dag Hammarskjold a modest, old-school diplomat who uses the polite language of diplomacy, but who can speak with firmness when the occasion demands it.

As the U.N. secretary general announced before he left New York, he was not going to Peiping to beg for anything. But he was fully aware that important international interests were involved as well as the personal interests of the 11 American fliers he sought to have freed.

That is why he decided to go to Peiping personally instead of resorting to a less dramatic course, such as a written appeal.

As Hammarskjold sees it, the main function of the secretary general is to be a "denationalized spokesman" for the U.N. as a whole, one who can speak to governments with frankness, but at the same time remain neutral.

Since becoming secretary general almost two years ago, the former Swedish diplomat has carefully avoided lining himself up with either the Communists or the West.

His predecessor Trygve Lie resigned after he offended the Communists by branding their attack on South Korea as aggression. Lie himself acknowledged that his usefulness had thereby been impaired.

Hammarskjold began his administration by concentrating primarily on Secretariat problems. Recently, however, he has devoted more and more time to quiet behind-the-scenes talks with top diplomats in an effort to ease world tension.

His trip to Red China is his first spectacular venture.

Hammarskjold, 49, and son of a former prime minister of Sweden, is well grounded in diplomacy. He served on many missions abroad before coming to the U.N. as secretary general. His last post in Sweden was minister of state.

One of his Swedish colleagues once called him "a master of compromise." More than once since coming to the U.N., he has demonstrated the aptness of this description, but in Peiping he finds himself in a new role.

As secretary general of the U.N., he has no authority to compromise or bargain. His job in Peiping is to sell the Chinese Communists on the idea that it will be to their interests and to the interests of the world to release the American fliers and other U.N. personnel.

IKE

announced by the White House or disclosed by other sources. Much of it was a renewal of previous requests not granted by Congress.

Eisenhower held out no hope for tax cuts this year and repeated that he wants postponement of excise and corporation tax reductions now scheduled for April 1. They total about three billion dollars yearly and both Democratic and Republican leaders have predicted Congress will vote a postponement.

The President said he is hopeful the reductions can be made next year.

He called for emphasis on modern air power in readying the nation for any attack, and for "reduction of forces in certain categories"—an obvious reference to the cuts planned in Army, Navy and Marine manpower.

Asks 90-Cent Minimum
On the domestic front, there was a formal call for hiking the 75-cent minimum wage to 90 cents an hour. That would mean a pay raise for 1,300,000 workers now covered by the minimum wage act who are earning between 75 and 90 cents an hour.

So far as the general administration program is concerned, the new aspect this year is that Eisenhower must count even more heavily on the Democrats—now in control of Congress—for a big measure of cooperation in getting it enacted.

Democratic leaders already have pledged cooperation in the foreign policy and national defense fields, and the President noted today that he has "already . . . expressed assurances of unreserved cooperation" in those areas.

There has been no such exchange of pledges on domestic issues, but Eisenhower declared that "the strength of our country" requires teamwork on a broad scale.

Must Avoid Paralysis
With Democrats and Republicans alike casting an eye ahead to the 1956 elections, Eisenhower put it this way:

"Our quest for peace and freedom necessarily presumes that we who hold positions of public trust must rise above self and section—that we must subordinate to the general good our partisan, our personal pride and prejudice. Tirelessly, with united purpose, we must fortify the material and spiritual foundations of this land of freedom and of free nations throughout the world.

"As never before, there is need for unhesitating cooperation among the branches of our government. At this time the executive and legislative branches are under management of different political parties. This fact places both parties on trial before the American people.

"In less perilous days of the past, division of governmental responsibility among our great parties has produced a paralyzing indecision. We must not let this happen in our time. We must avoid a paralysis of the will for peace and international security."

The President's message was divided into three main parts keyed, he said, to the three main purposes of the federal government: "First, to maintain justice and freedom among ourselves and, to champion them for others so that we may work effectively for enduring peace;

"Second, to help keep our economy vigorous and expanding, thus sustaining our international strength and assuring better jobs, better living, better opportunities for every citizen;

"And third, to concern ourselves with the human problems of our people so that every American may have the opportunity to lead a healthy, productive and rewarding life."

He told the new Congress, "We shall have much to do together; I am sure we shall get it done—and that we shall do it in harmony and good will."

Then he called for action in these fields:

Foreign trade—A gradual reduction of "certain tariff obstacles to trade," by the United States as well as other nations, to "assure broad benefits to our own and other peoples." In a special message to Congress next Monday the chief executive will renew his call for a 15 per cent cut in American tariffs over a three-year period—a proposal shelved by the Republican-run 83rd Congress.

Foreign aid—Without any specific mention of plans to call for economic aid to free nations of Asia to help thwart the threat of Communist aggression, Eisenhower said, "There is a growing will to improve the living standards of all men." Such aid, he said, "promises us allies who are strong and self-reliant . . ."

National defense—Eisenhower said the United States must maintain powerful military forces because "there is no present alternative." He said those forces are designed for defensive and deterrent purposes alone and "are able instantly to strike back with destructive power in response to an attack."

He cautioned against placing too much reliance on any one kind of weapon, and against preparation for only one kind of warfare. That, he said, simply invites an enemy to resort to other methods.

In saying the forthcoming military budget emphasizes the importance of modern air power and new weapons, he said such a policy "assures the maintenance of effective, retaliatory force as the principal deterrent to overt aggression."

Defense legislation—The President called for extension of the selective service law to permit the continued drafting of men for two years of service; for selective pay increases and other benefits for servicemen to cut down rapid turnover which "seriously weakens the combat readiness of our armed forces and is exorbitantly expensive"; and for congressional approval of a new military reserve program to be set forth in a special message Jan. 13. Under the plan, youths would be permitted to volunteer for six months of training, then serve nine years in the reserve.

Internal security—Eisenhower pledged, "We shall continue to ferret out and destroy Communist subversion" in this country. He said, "an improved and strengthened security system is in effect throughout the government." The new system has been under fire from some Democrats for months.

Industrial mobilization—The President asked for a two-year extension of the Defense Production Act and of certain war powers keyed to defense production.

Turning to the economy at home, he said first that 1954 "was one of the most prosperous years in our history."

He painted a rosy picture of business activity, production, employment, and said consumer spending is at a record level, along with personal income after taxes.

"So, today, the transition to a peacetime economy is largely behind us," he said. "The economic outlook is good."

Juvenile delinquency—The President sounded for the first time a call for federal legislation to "help the states to a better and more timely job" in preventing and dealing with juvenile delinquency. He said he will submit specific recommendations later.

He set forth this domestic legislative program:

1. He promised "government eficiency and economy" as essential to steady progress toward a balanced budget. The administration has abandoned hope of balancing income and outgo during the fiscal year starting July 1. Eisenhower's budget for that year—as well as his foreign aid program—will go to Congress Jan. 17.

2. Plans for a 10-year coast-to-coast highway construction program will be outlined in a special message Jan. 27.

3. Authorization of a "firm program" of 35,000 additional public housing units in each of the next two fiscal years. The 83rd Congress voted that size program, halving Eisenhower's 1954 request.

4. Creation of a federal reinsurance program to bolster and expand private health insurance plans. That program, shelved by the 83rd Congress, called last year for an initial contribution of 25 million dollars by the federal government.

5. A special message Feb. 15 will outline plans for "positive, affirmative action" to help overcome a shortage of school classroom facilities.

6. Eisenhower urged Congress to "that we continue resolutely" with the new policy of flexible farm price supports approved last year. He also said he will submit recommendations later for dealing with the needs of low-income farm families.

7. Revision of the Taft-Hartley labor law, shelved by the 83rd Congress.

8. Pay increases for members of Congress and the Judiciary, as well as for civil service and postal workers, the latter to be accompanied by an increase in postage rates.

9. A constitutional amendment lowering the federal voting age, now 21.

10. Statehood for Hawaii.

11. Extension of the Small Business Act, due to expire next June.

12. Creation of an office of coordinator of public works in the executive office of the President.

Eisenhower touched only briefly on civil rights in his message. He said that "in the areas of federal responsibility, we have made historic progress in eliminating from among our people demeaning practices based on race or color."

New Coating Protects From Grease Stains

NEW YORK (U. P.)—If grease doesn't hurt your stove and detergent don't harm your washing machine, there's a good chance they're coated with epoxy resins, one of the newer wonders of the chemical laboratories.

Discovered by scientists of Devoe & Reynolds Co., commercial production has climbed from 500,000 pounds in 1946 to an estimated 15 million in 1954. And industry sources expect output to double in the next few years.

Epoxy resins look like maple syrup in their liquid state and like amber in solid form. But use them in surface coatings or paints, in making plastic tools, or as adhesives and you'll quickly discover their characteristics: Outstanding toughness, low shrinkage and a high degree of chemical resistance.

"Epoxyes cost twice as much as almost any other resin commercially available," says J. L. Rodgers, manager of the bonding department of the Bakelite Division of Union Carbide & Carbon Corp. "But nothing else has got as much for the money."

Rodgers says the biggest use at present is in coatings for refrigerators, ranges, washing machines, lawn furniture, factory walls and the like. Epoxyes will resist anything from vinegar to caustic chemicals. They also will stand up under humidity and corrosive atmospheres and can take plenty of abrasion and impact, says Shell.

Epoxy resins are being allowed with other plastics or mixed with fillers to make tools for industry. It's estimated that auto makers spent seven million dollars in 1954 for assembly welding and checking fixtures, inspection gauges and other tools made of epoxy plastics. Rodgers says epoxyes are ideal for assembly fixtures because they don't expand or shrink appreciably with changes of humidity. Epoxy plastic tools can be made more quickly and more cheaply than steel tools and weigh only about a third as much, he adds.

G. M. Rice, sales manager for Ren-ite Plastics, Inc., Lansing, Mich., estimates epoxyes reduce delivery time by 70 per cent and production costs by 50 per cent for automotive tools, jigs and fixtures.

Shell Chemical says that as adhesives, they'll grip anything in sight—wood, plastics, glass, metals, rubber.

"Who is Sylvia?" Well, as of now, Sylvia is Princess Djordjadze. For the former Lady Ashley, blonde, beautiful femme fatale Sylvia, has added the fifth link to a chain of circumstances by wedding Prince Dmitri Djordjadze, who works at a Manhattan hotel.

The eventual number of links in Miss Sylvia's marital slave bracelet is her business. As befits the fifth run-through of the rice and old shoe routine, at least there was no nonsense to the effect that "This is forever, darling," as is customary from much-marrieds of the Hollywood persuasion.

Now and then, a lady with the will to live and wed dangerously may acquire one titled breadwinner, but only one. King, ex-king, duke, marquis, earl or viscount. Even a lowly baron isn't to be sneezed at by the altar-bound.

While most girls would be content with just one of such an august number—not Miss Sylvia. In her marriages, she has tried to make a wedding tour right through the peacocks.

As an oil man recently said—"In the oil business, the path to the executive jobs of our biggest companies leads through Venezuela's fields." So, too, has the London stage been the stepping stone toward a titled marriage for many an actress. Bea Lillie and Adele Astaire found it so. Gertrude Lawrence and Tallulah Bankhead each had lords of the realm clamoring for their hands in wedlock.

Princess Sylvia, after a turn or two before London footlights, married Lord Ashley. From this unhappy beginning her adventures began attracting world spotlights and headlines when she wed a knight of silent flickers, Douglas Fairbanks Sr. Then came Baron Stanley of Alderley and the King of Hollywood, Clark Gable.

Who is Sylvia? Although she clung insistently to the title "Lady Ashley" during frequent interims of single blessedness, I guess that Sylvia is definitely Princess Ashley Fairbanks Stanley Gable Djordjadze. And if you find this succession confusing, run out and consult a pronouncing dictionary for "Djordjadze" while there is still time.

Meanwhile, congratulations and best wishes to the newlyweds. Let's hope for a smooth matrimonial sea and a good rice crop. You can never tell when another hand-ful will be needed.

30 Workers Leave Building Minutes Before Explosion

KEWAUNEE, Wis. (U. P.)—Thirty men left a building at the Kewaunee Engineering Corp. Wednesday five minutes before a large air compressor tank exploded, tearing the structure apart.

No one was inside the compressor building at the time of the explosion and no one was hurt.

Walls of the 30 by 40 foot concrete block structure were pushed out and the roof blown off. The blast sent one end of the tank through the wall and shattered windows in other buildings at the plant. The blast was felt several blocks away.

State's First Congresswoman Takes Office

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Coya Knutson (D) Wednesday became the first woman from Minnesota to serve in Congress.

A firm believer in high price supports for farmers, Mrs. Knutson said the farm issue was one of the major factors in her win over Rep. Harold Hagen (R) even though the latter also favored high supports.

"I will work for a return to the 90 per cent supports and will vote for it if I have the opportunity," she said in an interview. The only member of her family here to see her sworn in as a member of the 84th Congress was her son, Terry, 15, a sophomore at Oklee, Minn., High School. Mr. Knutson is ill and was unable to make the trip.

Seating of Mrs. Knutson changes the House lineup for Minnesota to five Democrats and four Republicans. This is the first time in many years that the delegation has not had a Republican majority.

Mrs. Knutson, who has had four years experience as a state representative in the Minnesota Legislature, indicated she was in no rush to make her first speech in the House.

"I am in no hurry to jump the gun," she smiled. "I want to look around a little first."

But she has accepted an invitation to make a speech outside of Congress. It will be before a meeting sponsored by the New York Council of Churches in the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church here Feb. 10. She will speak on "Farm Problems as I See Them."

The first visitor received by Mrs. Knutson from Minnesota was Ben O. Littlecreek, Itasca State Park Indian. The second was Mayor Trotzman of Bernadji.

Mrs. Knutson has requested membership on the House Agriculture Committee, but has no assurance that she will get it.

Asked whether she intended to support President Eisenhower's foreign policy, Mrs. Knutson said: "I hope to keep foreign policy bipartisan and they can count on me every time I think that they are right. However, I am not committing myself in advance."

She said she favored emphasis on economic foreign aid rather than primary reliance upon channeling military goods to friendly countries.

Bill to Repeal Old Age Lien Law Introduced

ST. PAUL (AP) — A bill to repeal the old age lien law was introduced in the Minnesota Senate Wednesday by Sen. Herbert Rogers, Duluth.

This is the law which requires persons receiving old age assistance to give the state a claim on their property for the amount of assistance they receive. Such claims may be collected after the death of old age assistance recipients.

Sen. Rogers also put in a bill to increase the maximum old age assistance allowance from $60 a month to $65.

CHOCOLATE DESSERT NEEDS NO COOKING

The Winnipeg Free Press Chapter is ably represented by Mrs. J. W. Sim, with a very good dessert that requires no cooking except melting the chocolate—"Chocolate Squares."

1 1/2 squares unsweetened chocolate.
1 cup confectioner's sugar.
1/2 cup butter or margarine.
2 eggs, separated.
1 teaspoon vanilla.
1/2 teaspoon salt.
14 graham crackers.
1/4 cup chopped pecans.
1/4 cup grated coconut.

Melt chocolate. Cream butter or margarine with sugar, add beaten egg yolks, melted chocolate, vanilla and salt. Beat egg whites stiff, and fold into first mixture. Stir in nuts and coconut. Mix well. Arrange nine graham crackers in an 8 in. x 8 in. pan, and spread the chocolate mixture over. Crush four or five graham crackers and sprinkle over the top. Chill thoroughly, at least four hours, preferably overnight before serving. Gauge your slicing by the size of the bottom crackers, and you'll get nine servings. This will keep well.

You can make this even more impressive by sprinkling chopped pistachio nuts over the top in place of the crushed crackers, too. It is a right fine dessert.

Cheese-Crab Sandwiches are a favorite of Edward W. Paro, Evanston, Illinois. For four:

1/4 pound cheddar cheese.
1/4 pound butter.
1 can crabmeat.
4 hamper buns.
8 strips bacon.
Dash tabasco or cayenne.

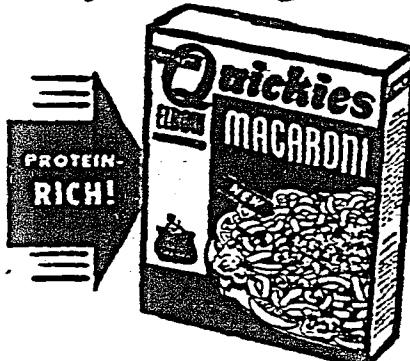

Let cheese and butter stand at room temperature until soft, then cream well together. If cheese is aged and hard, grate it finely first. Drain and pick crabmeat and break into bits, and mix well with the cheese and butter, and season to taste. Cut rolls in half and spread the mixture thickly on the 8 halves.

Broil until a golden brown. Serve two halves to a customer, and garnish each plate with two strips of broiled bacon. A tossed green salad is recommended by Mr. Paro with this tasty item.

From the Worcester, Mass., Gazette Chapter Mrs. A. P. Dart sends her Fried Rice, which has a bit of the Orient about it.

1 1/2 cups long grain rice.
2 lean pork tenderloins, diced.
4 medium onions, diced.
1 green pepper, diced.
3 eggs, lightly beaten.
5 tablespoons soy sauce.
2 tablespoons butter.
Use pre-cooked rice if you wish, or wash and boil regular rice in browned, then stir in the onion and green pepper, cover, and let simmer and steam until pork is tender.

When just ready to serve, scramble the eggs in a second skillet, and mix the cooked rice in with them, then combine the egg and pork mixture, add soy sauce, and stir all together and serve hot. In general, no additional seasoning will be required. Send your favorite recipe and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to The Winona Daily News and

Practical Nursing Training Described

It has been found that practical nurses can do 40 per cent of nursing work in our hospitals, relieving registered nurses for other work, Miss Lois Galer, director of the School of Practical Nursing at Winona General hospital told the Rotary Club at its luncheon at the Hotel Winona Wednesday. Winona's school, Miss Galer said, is a community project, being supported by the Winona General Hospital and the Winona Board of Education. Ten students are enrolled.

She said the cost to the student is low since the hospital furnishes board, room and uniforms. During the early training students get five hours classroom work and three hours floor experience. During the last six months, students get six hours of floor training and two of classroom work.

Nationally the program has helped extensively in the nurse shortage caused by greater demand for registered nurses and armed forces requirements, Miss Galer said.

Ed Buck was introduced as the 64th member of the club, Don Lovas of Cotter High School and Roger Benson, Senior High School, were introduced, as the student guests for January.

Hawks Challenge Austin Here Friday Night

"How badly are you going to beat Austin?"

After a moment of silence, Winona High Coach Don Snyder said, "Oh, boy, we're going to try it!"

Arranging his thoughts, Snyder said of Friday night's Winona High-Austin game in the Senior High Auditorium:

"We're really happy to have the opportunity to play one of the real powers in the state."

"Playing a team like Austin is an inspiration and a challenge. We had good spirit, a good attitude and a good practice Wednesday."

Then, after another moment of reflection, he said with emphasis, "It can be done, you know!"

From the conversation with Snyder, one thing is apparent—the Winona High Hawks don't plan to roll over and play dead when they meet Austin in Friday night's Big Nine conference feature game.

Austin, with a squad of basketball-playing griffins, was a unanimous choice among loop coaches for the role of title favorite this season.

Coach Ove Berven's Packers, defending Region One and Big Nine champions, boast a front line of three players standing 6-5 or over. High scorer and returning All-State forward Jerry Olson is 6-6, while center John Root and forward John Lightly both are 6-5.

Olson is averaging 23 points with 140 in six games. His 39-point total against Minneapolis South is an all-time Austin record, breaking by six the mark of 33 by Dave Weiss, who later played at the University of Minnesota.

Another big Olson night was 33 points against Rochester. Austin scribe Tom Koeck calls Olson "the best prep basketball player we've ever had."

Austin's probable starting guards, Tony Maus and Terry Meyer, both stand near the 6-0 mark. A pair of lanky reserves are Wayne Gaughran and Jon Webber, both 6-5.

A promising prospect and returning member of Austin's state tourney squad, 6-3 O'Dis Halverson, has played in only one game. A knee injury suffered in football postponed his bid for great things Berven expects from him this year.

The Packers go into the Winona High game undefeated in six games. The Winhawks, 5-2 on the season, lost to Red Wing and La Crosse Logan, the latter in a non-conference game.

Austin's victims this season, and the scores are as follows: Minnetonka 62-34; Minneapolis South 69-53; Minneapolis North 58-45; Rochester 75-62; Albert Lea 60-48 and Edina-Morning-side 60-52.

In only the Minnetonka game did Austin breeze to an easy victory. The Packers were pushed by their other five opponents and got a battle from Rochester in particular.

The Rockets led Austin 37-35 at halftime and outscored the Packers 24-22 in field goals. Austin won the game with a 31-14 edge at the free throw line.

Encouragement to smaller teams was gained from the Rochester game since the Rockets' tallest players are 6-2 and 6-3. Winona High beat Rochester 59-57 in the final seconds after leading the Rockets 40-25 at one point.

Snyder didn't name a starting lineup for the Austin game. But from past games it's reasonable to assume Bill (H-Bomb) Heise will man the pivot position with Earl Buswell, Tenold Milbrandt and Jack Nankivil working at forward positions along with Chuck Wally, Bill Hostettler and Don Klage at outcourt posts.

Heise is 6-2, Nankivil 6-2 and Milbrandt 6-3. Buswell, Wally and Hostettler scale about six feet even with Klage about 5-10. Heise has been the top scorer in games to date with a hard-to-block fadeaway jump shot counting for most of his points. Improved tremendously since he first donned a first team uniform a year ago, he's an important part of Winona's crisp offense.

Milbrandt, Buswell and Nankivil all indicated scoring potential in games to date, while Wally and Hostettler showed insurance against a possible Austin zone defense by hitting consistently on long shots in the Cotter game Tuesday night.

The 8 p.m. varsity game will be preceded by a 6:30 p.m. B squad game.

Other Big Nine games booked Friday night include Albert Lea at Northfield, Rochester at Faribault and Owatonna at Mankato, Red Wing hosts St. Paul Central in a non-conference game.

Platteville Tips Warriors 79-71

Polus Hits 21 In Ped Defeat

PLATTEVILLE, Wis. — The Winona State Warriors lost their second game of the season to the Platteville Pioneers here Wednesday night 79-71 despite a concerted effort that found the Warriors leading 57-56 with 10 minutes left.

With only three minutes to play Platteville held a 60-59 lead and went into a stall. Larry Marshall and Ernie Vogler, who deployed the control game, gave the Pioneers their final cushion with free throws resulting from Warrior fouls attempting to break up the stall.

Winona's Pete Polus took scoring honors for the game with 21 points on 10 field goals and a free throw. He was one of four Winona players in double figures.

Center Gil Regnier had 13 points, guard Dave Smith 12 and forward Lee Paul 10.

Platteville jumped to a 10-4 lead at the start but didn't score a field goal the first five minutes as the Warriors threw up an effective zone defense.

Winona came back and led 18-16 with 10 minutes gone, holding a 36-35 halftime margin in a see-saw battle.

Platteville rallied and pulled up to a 50-41 gap but the Warriors, sparked by Polus who thereupon in the jump shot, scored 12 consecutive points to go ahead 53-50.

Winona's 57-56 lead was broken by forwards Royce Reeves and Ron Elnerson who started hitting from outside. Then when the game moved into the final stages, Platteville went into the stall that provided it with the seven-point victory margin.

Before Platteville jumped away for good the Pioneers held a six-point lead in the fourth quarter but reserve guard Craig Currier whittled the gap with a pair of long two-handed set shots.

Winona outscored Platteville on field goals 27-26 but the host team made 26 free throws, eight more than the Warriors mustered.

The game concluded activity for Winona State for 10 days. Next game for the Warriors is Jan. 15 at Mankato in the State Teachers Conference opener. Winona goes into that game with a 2-7 non-conference record.

Warriors Tip Lakers, 106-85

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Milwaukee Hawks, seemingly mired in the Western Division cellar, are perking up in the National Basketball Assn.

The Hawks jolted Fort Wayne, Western Division leaders, 97-92 Wednesday night, for their third straight victory and fourth in their last five games. Milwaukee now has a winning record of 30-20.

Once again it was Bob Pettit, former Louisiana State All-American, who stole the scoring spotlight from his sharp-shooting teammate, Frank Selvy. The 6-9 rookie caged 33 points—27 in the second half. Pettit had scored 36 in Tuesday night's conquest of Rochester.

In other games the Philadelphia Warriors broke a four-game losing streak with a 106-85 victory over the Minneapolis Lakers and the Rochester Royals overcame a 19-point deficit to whip the New York Knicks, 103-85.

The Warriors led most of the way as they piled up a new team scoring high for Philadelphia's Convention Hall. Neil Johnston's 24 points paced the victors' attack. The Royals put on a second half scoring outburst that buried New York. Rochester outscored the Knicks 57-33 in the last two periods, to post its fourth consecutive home court triumph. Rookie Tom Marshall topped the Royals with 18 points.

Lou Stinger, former infielder for the Chicago Cubs, is now the manager of the Boise, Idaho, club in the Pioneer League.

Wykoff-Cotter Tilt Booked For March of Dimes Jan. 12

By RALPH REEVE
Daily News Sports Editor

It will be homecoming Jan. 12 for Coach Harry Sheff of Wykoff when he brings his team into Winona to oppose Cotter High in the annual Winona March of Dimes basketball game at Memorial Hall.

Sheff was sports director at the Catholic Rec. during the middle 1940s and in the March of Dimes game he'll be opposing a team which makes the Rec its home stamping grounds.

The Wykoff-Cotter clash, announced today, completes the card for the 1953 polo benefit double-header. Cochrane and Winona High open next Wednesday night's festivities with a 7:30 p.m. encounter.

The Wykoff-Cotter game is scheduled for a 9 p.m. tipoff. Wykoff is 5-2 on the season and Cotter has a 4-2 record. Only losses suffered by Sheff's sharpshooters were to Aurora over the holidays and to the Winona State B team in Wykoff's first game.

Sheff, in addition to being president of the District One Coaches Association, has a team that heads District One standings to date with an all-victorious conference record.

The Wykoffs have averaged 63 points a game to opponents' 50. Victories include a 69-46 win over Peterson, 85-61 over Elkton, 66-29 over Preston, 60-42 over Spring Valley and 69-54 over Tower-Soudan. Wykoff lost to Aurora 65-50.

Before the season opened, Sheff said:

"The boys are eager and raring to go. Win or lose we will have a lot of fun. Wykoff is the best basketball town in this part of the state!"

Top scorers currently are forward

Ron Eickhoff with 149 points for a 21.3 average, forward-guard Barry Schroeder with 85 points and a 12-per game mark and forward Ken Nash with 112 points in seven outings for a 16-point per game mark.

Last year that trio scored 1,107 combined points in 24 games. Schroeder had 378, Nash 362 and Eickhoff 367. Few will dispute Sheff's claim that the Schroeder-Nash-Eickhoff tandem was the highest scoring front line in the state last year.

A possible fly in the ointment for Wykoff next Wednesday night is that Nash was injured in an automobile accident Tuesday night and may be slowed down against Cotter.

Nash was riding in a loaded cattle truck which turned over near Grand Meadow on the way to Austin. He and the other occupant broke windows to get out of the cab.

"This guy wraps a leg on me," Sheff said, "I don't know . . . he was the fastest boy on the squad and the best dribbler. I hope he's ready to go Wednesday night!"

Other starters on Wykoff's team are 6-4 Eddie Zimmer at center and 5-11 Lynn Kidd at guard. Schroeder is 6-2, Eickhoff 6-0 and Nash 5-11. Zimmer holds the District One high jump record.

Last year Wykoff compiled a 21-3 record and has rolled up 115 victories while losing 67 under Sheff's tutelage the past nine years.

Wykoff may shade Cotter slightly in the height department although the Rambles can start a front line including 6-2 Jim Danielson and 6-2 Jim Small at forwards with 6-3 Ken Plein at center.

Cotter's guards—who started against Winona High—Dave Skemp and Rich Brown—are both under six feet but both are good drivers and good shots. Neither team can be rated the favorite. Cotter, with a cold night against Winona High Tuesday night at Memorial Hall, should be back in form Wednesday night.

Wykoff also had tough slodging its first visit to Memorial Hall, losing to the Winona State junior varsity 47-39. "It was just one of those nights," Sheff says.

How about your other loss, Harry, to Aurora? "They had a 6-7 center," Sheff said, "and he killed me!"

Wykoff doesn't expect any fatalities Wednesday night, but then neither does Cotter. To use the sports vernacular, the game should be a barn-burner.

The St. Louis Browns of 1953 were either slow or conservative. They stole only 17 bases in 154 games.

Drive Against Racketeering in Boxing Possible

WASHINGTON (AP) — There's a "strong possibility" a Senate committee this year will conduct a drive against racketeering in boxing much along the lines of the crime hearings by the Kefauver committee five years ago.

That was the word today from Sen. Magnuson (D-Wash.), an ardent sports fan who quarterbacked for the University of Washington Rose Bowl team in 1926.

Magnuson said in an interview he is considering such hearings in his new role as chairman of the Senate Commerce Committee.

"First I want to discuss the situation with our senators and get their views," he said. "But I know there is a strong possibility we will take a good look at boxing to see if we can turn up evidence of organized racketeering."

Magnuson said he has long been concerned over what he termed invasion of the sport by "racketeers and other shady characters."

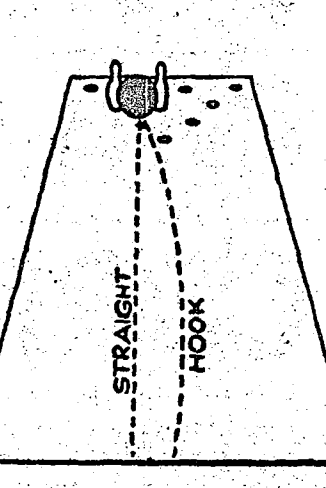

"In the old days, though," he said, "only a relatively few persons saw the fights. They were in small arenas and most of the spectators were men. But boxing is now in everybody's home. Everybody sees the fights, father, mother and the kids."

"Kids are growing up being taught good sportsmanship. But when they see the fights and the wrestling matches on television, I feel certain they start wondering what's the use."

"One day they may start thinking they might as well fix it up and put on a show just like the wrestlers."

THE 4-5 SPLIT

KILL THE BREAK

On Contact Splits — Converting ball-and-pins splits, such as the 2-7, 3-10, 4-5, 5-6, 7-8, and 9-10 calls for skill akin to threading a needle, yet top-fighters seldom miss them. Nelson Burton of St. Louis in his prime gave odds on the 3-10 (baby) split. With his wide backup (reverse) ball he had a perfect angle.

My suggestion in snooting the splits named is to move to the left of alley-center for left-side leaves, and to about alley-center for right-hand leaves. Also reach out as far as possible for accuracy. Feel like you're going to knock down the pins with your arm. Reach will also kill hook-break on the ball by causing it to "take" spin farther down the alley, a point well to remember when rolling on a surface that is slow and takes a fast right-to-left break. Sketch shows the 4-5 split angles, the delivery being well to the left of the runway with a hook, and to left-of-alley-center with a straight ball. All splits and spares get easier — with practice — after you learn the proper angles.

SPORTS Sidelight BY RALPH REEVE

Colorful Coaches

Besides bringing in two fine area basketball teams, the Jan. 12 March of Dimes doubleheader at Memorial Hall also will be keyed by the appearance of two of the most colorful prep coaches in these parts.

Coach Harry Sheff of Wykoff is a nervous type who covers up his inward agony with a steady flow of quips and wisecracks. Coach Ralph Leahy of Cochrane is a guy who lives and dies a thousand deaths during a game, no matter if his team is leading by two points, or by 20 points.

We remember observing Sheff a year ago when Spring Grove beat his Wykoff team 53-51 before a packed house at Caledonia.

A towel is standard equipment with Harry on the coaching bench. He waves it when he's happy, tosses it in the air when he's jubilant and wraps it around his head when the battle is going rough.

Spring Grove, the game before playing Wykoff, scored 106 points against Preston. Sheff, Grover mentor Ade Christensen, officials Ed Spencer and Bill Hargreheimer and yours truly were conversing before the game.

Harry eyed Christensen and said, "I almost called this game off when I heard you scored 106 points . . . Instead of that I scheduled a practice and be darned if my boys didn't roll up 91 points in 32 minutes!"

Sheff let that sink in before giving his punch line. "Of course, I didn't have anybody scrimmaging against them . . ."

During the late stages of the game, with Wykoff trailing, Harry signaled a time out. Walking back to the bench, he was told by Spencer, "That's your last time out."

Sheff heaved a doleful sigh, then shrugged his shoulders. "Well, I squeezed every last drop of blood I could out of those poor kids," he said. "Strategy got 'em this far—they'll have to go the rest of the way by themselves!"

We had a little run-in with Harry last football season. After Wykoff won its first game, we quoted Harry in our Saturday story as saying, "We won this one and we're going to win the rest or I quit!"

Harry didn't appreciate that because he didn't figure on planning a job-hunting trip with winter coming on.

Harry's football players must have believed him, however. They went right out and closed the season with five straight victories.

When the season ended we called Harry and asked, "Do you forgive us?" Harry quoth, "You're forgiven!"

Incidentally, Wykoff's football achievement last fall was remarkable. Only in its second year of football, and with one of the smallest schools in District One, Sheff guided his Wykoffs to a 5-2 record.

Rounding the Bend

My boy, Milt Nielsen, sure pegged Herbie Score when he called him, "The best pitching prospect I ever saw . . ."

Those of you who buy baseball's Bible, The Sporting News, saw Score's picture on a big first-page cartoon acclaiming him the outstanding minor league player of 1954.

Although Minnesota lost to Northwestern 74-72 in the opening Big Ten game, I think we'll agree the Cornhuskers are way above pre-season expectations. . . . Bill Simonovich is really shaping up and right now must be 100 per cent better than the majority figured he would be.

We're sold on "Boots" after his performance in the Dixie Classic . . . He scored good the first night, then made only four points the second night and we figured he couldn't stand the strain of playing two nights in a row.

But he knocked that theory out of the window by coming back the third night with 24 points, playing against North Carolina State's double-post tandem run by a pair of 6-9 and 6-10 boys . . .

Dick Grammer continues to be brilliant and Eau Claire's Chuck Menced is playing the great ball he displayed as a sophomore . . . Those who say Minnesota has possibly the best two-man outside scoring threat in the U.S. in Garmaker and Menced can't be far off . . .

Note to bowlers: We'll remind you we have to have your score sheets before 9 o'clock the following morning . . .

If they come in later the standings and age-type summaries won't be in the paper . . . I think you'd rather see the standings in the day after you bowl than two days to a week later.

We'll run them the day after if you get them in on time, otherwise not at all . . . We have to have rules to make it work. That's the way it has to be.

Cochrane Nominated to 'Little 16'

MADISON (AP) — Nominations of outstanding state high school basketball teams were announced Wednesday night by the Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association tournament publicity committee, preliminary to the opening of the annual prep cage rating series.

Fifty-five Big Sixteen schools—those with an enrollment of 275 or more, and 57 Little Sixteen schools, were nominated.

newspapers, radio sports announcers and coaches made the nominations and will continue to report weekly until tournament time in mid-March.

The ratings were adopted in 1945 to stimulate interest in the annual state tournament at Madison, including only those schools affiliated with the WIAA.

Stevens Point, last year's state champion, was nominated to the Big Sixteen, despite the fact it has won only five of nine games this season. Five schools, Algoma, in the Big Sixteen and Cochrane, Mishicot, New Glarus, and Wilton, of the Little Sixteen, have won eight or more games and are undefeated so far in the season.

H-BOMB

SECRET WEAPON . . . They say the Austin ball club has got some "big guns." Shucks, that's nothing—Winona High boasts a most destructive weapon in 6-2 center Bill (H-Bomb) Heise. This photo montage shows Heise erupting out of the mushroom clouds from the famous H-bomb explosion. Now Bill knows why Merritt (One Shot) Kelley made him shoot that jump shot over and over, and the boys of United Press Telephone now understand why our wire editor, Carol Rogge, requested a picture of the H-bomb explosion. And thanks be too, to engraver Larry Alston who whipped up this zinc engraving. (Daily News Sports-UP Telephoto)

Giants Get Mueller To Sub for Mays

NEW YORK (AP) — As a sort of afterthought, the New York Giants announced yesterday that they had signed an outfielder named Don Mueller for the 1955 season. Evidently, someone in the world champions' organization got to President Horace Stoneham and convinced him that Willie Mays, great as he is, will need a little help.

As we like to reconstruct it, the conversation between Stoneham, speaking from his winter home at Phoenix, and his assistant here in charge of contracts must have run about like this. Horace, still dreaming of that catch Mays made in the first game of the World Series, was a trifle irritated at having his favorite reverie interrupted.

"If it isn't important," we hear him snap, "don't bother me. I've got important things on my mind."

"But Boss," pleads our contract man, "don't you think we ought to be doing something about Mueller? I was thinking maybe we might even give him a little raise. He had a real good season."

"A raise! What'd that guy do to deserve a raise? I thought I told you if there were going to be any raises give 'em to Willie."

"You did, Boss, and we've already given him a good one. But Don's going to notice if he doesn't get one too. Maybe you didn't notice, but he was out there in right field every day, just like Willie was playing center, and he didn't hurt us at all. Did you realize he got seven hits in the series?"

"If he did, they must've been pretty little hits. I know that Willie hit 41 homers for us during the season and I'd like to know how many this guy you're howling about got."

"He didn't do so good there, Boss. He only got four all year.

But he got 212 hits, which was more than any other batter in the league, and he struck out only 17 times. You'll have to admit that's pretty good. And another thing you might not have noticed, he had a better batting average than Willie going into the last game of the season. He finished only three points back of Willie's .345."

"Well (somewhat mollified), if you really feel that way, go ahead and give this Millard, or whatever his name is, a little hike. From what you say, I guess he didn't hurt us any. I'd still like to know why my manager never said anything about him to me."

"That's just it, Boss. Don's been around steady ever since 1950, but Leo never gave him a regular job until last season. Leo was always looking to find some big guy who could unload home runs into those right field stands. But now, he thinks like I do that Don's a good man to have in the lineup."

P.S.—The metropolitan press, obviously as confused about Mueller's worth as was Stoneham, estimated that the mysterious outfielder will receive anywhere from $20,000 to $28,000 for his services next season. They agree only that he is 27 and might have a fine career ahead of him if he keeps out of Willie's way on fly balls.

Sugar Ray KO's Rindone in 6th

By JOE FALLS
DETROIT (AP)—For 10 exciting seconds, it was the Sugar Ray Robinson of old—swift, sharp and deadly.

In that brief burst, the 34-year-old former middleweight champion swarmed over Joe Rindone, of Boston, and scored a knockout at 1:37 of the sixth round last night to successfully start his comeback.

As a howling crowd of 11,973 urged him on, Robinson floored the inept, confused Rindone with a flashing series of lefts and rights that made one wonder why Sugar Ray ever left the ring.

But before that, the sleek New Yorker was cautious and uncertain, showing obvious signs of his 30-254-160-133-607.

Carl Defense Freezes Out River Falls

Hamline Wins Over Washington Of St. Louis

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Carlton's basketball team stood up for the defense today — the first time anybody has done it against River Falls of Wisconsin.

The Carl Wednesday night froze what had been a 101-point-a-game scoring average for the Wisconsin team with a decisive 84-59 victory, ending River Falls' run of four straight triumphs.

Carlton had pretty well discouraged River Falls' scoring tendencies in the first half, with a 43-37 lead, but the Midwest Conference champs threw up a tremendous defense in the second half to check River Falls with 22 points over the last 20 minutes.

Carlton, meanwhile, was bagging 41 points over that stretch to breeze in. Laurie Slocum hit 26 points for Carlton, running his nine-game season total to 213. Hank Wells had the same number for River Falls.

Hamline, meanwhile, halted its skid by whipping Washington of St. Louis on the road, 63-58. Dave Tschimperle pumped in 19 points for the Pipers and Dick Donlin added 11. Hamline, leading 34-27 at halftime, matched Washington from the field but had five more free throws.

Mayville Teachers used a Big Three scoring punch to whip Bemidji Teachers, 84-70 at Ada, Minn. Bill Brady notched 23 for Mayville, Dick Nielson 20 and Luther Aamold 17. Bill Wirtanen and Red Caswell had 16 apiece for Bemidji.

YOU'RE LUCKY. A SPIRITED MOUNT CAN BE VERY HANGEROUS FOR A BEGINNER.

HOW'D YOU KNOW I'M A BEGINNER?

OBVIOUS, MY BOY. FOR ONE THING, YOU TRIED TO MOUNT FROM THE WRONG SIDE.

ARE YOU TRYING TO KID ME? HOW COULD A HORSE KNOW WHICH IS HIS LEFT SIDE AND WHICH IS HIS RIGHT?

LET'S EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D.Sc.

1. DO PARENTS OFTEN ROB CHILDREN OF AN IMPORTANT PART OF MARRIAGE? YES ☐ NO ☐

2. DO PEOPLE GET MORE INFORMATION FROM RADIO OR FROM NEWSPAPERS? YOUR OPINION

3. CAN FEAR OF HIGH PLACES BE CURED? YES ☐ NO ☐

Answer to Question No. 1
1. Yes, by giving them too much—in money or material things—to start on. The parents want the children to have an easier time of it; to start, not from the beginning, but with as many as possible of the necessities—even with some of the luxuries. The children are thus robbed of the happiness of creating their own homes. Actually, even the act of buying a set of dishes together draws a couple closer. Certainly more so than having the entire table set for the parents.

Answer to Question No. 2
2. Interviews with large groups of students revealed that only 42 per cent had heard the radio on a given day, while 98 per cent had

BEDTIME STORIES

By HOWARD GARIS

For a little while Mr. Butter, standing in the doorway of the cellar of Uncle Wiggily's hollow stump bungalow, watched the rabbit gentleman walking on his new shoe shoes. Mr. Longears, finding the snow too deep for him to walk or hop on with his regular paws, had made himself some snow shoes out of old feather dusters with the handles sawed off.

The rabbit gentleman tied the old feather dusters (without handles) on his hind paws, and started to walk on the snow.

"Watch me, Pat!" he called to the goat gentleman grocer. "You are going to be surprised."

"I'm watching," bleated Mr. Butter. "Tell me when the surprise gets here."

"You will see it if you keep on watching," answered the bunny uncle.

So, for a while, Mr. Butter, standing in the cellar doorway, watched Uncle Wiggily. The rabbit gentleman seemed to be doing very well. He stepped along on the crusty snow, near his bungalow and did not sink down as he would have sunk down if he had not been using feather duster shoes.

"I think I have seen enough," bleated Mr. Butter to himself. "Wiggie seems to be doing all right. I think I shall make me a pair of those funny snow shoes. Maybe there are some more old feather dusters down here in Wiggie's cellar. I'll look."

So the goat moved back from the open cellar door and began rummaging in the cellar for more old feather dusters.

Uncle Wiggily kept on walking on top of the snow.

"Oh, ho!" said the rabbit gentleman to himself. "This is a great success! Neither Nurse Jane nor Pat Butter believed I could make snow shoes out of old weather dusters. I think I have surprised them!"

The two surprises had not yet taken place. But something else happened, as I told you at the end of yesterday's story.

About the time that Pat Butter became tired of watching Uncle Wiggily walking on the snow, and began to look in the cellar for old feather dusters to make himself snow shoes, Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy had finished cleaning the Christmas tree room.

"I think I shall look out of the
