Rumored WSC Transfer To Rochester Unfounded

"Minnesota" Draws State-Wide Interest

The Winona County Statehood Centennial Committee and members of the cast and chorus are rehearsing for the musical comedy "Minnesota," which will be presented on the evening of Saturday, Nov. 28, at the high school auditorium.

Playing leading roles from Winona State are: Dorothy Magruder, member of the faculty, Tiller; Tuffy, graduate student; John Bestlott, Andre; Marie Miller Carroll, Christine; Peter Lougheed, a transfer student; Deanna Harders, Julie; Tom Chandler, Cooney; Norb Mills, Ferguson; Randall Stuckel; Jerry; and understudied Jane Drenkahn, Tillie; Charlotte Grae, Latona.

This, the only Centennial production of "Minnesota" in the state during the year, is drawing audiences from a radius of 300 miles. It is the final event of students' interest during the Centennial year.

Overall producer and director for the show is Byron Holts, professional musician and composer from St. Paul. Stage Manager is alumnus Tom Stolman ('61).

Nineteen Chosen To Who's Who

Nineteen WSC students have been nominated to Who's Who. These students have been chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, general citizenship, participation in extra-curricular and athletic activities, and promise of future usefulness.

Their achievements will be included in Who's Who Among American College and University Students, to be published next spring.

"My Three Angels" December Run Announced

Weconah Players have begun rehearsals for their production, "My Three Angels," a three-act comedy.

The play is a comedy fantasy about three convicts, Joseph, Jules, and Alfred, who became practical and richly rewarding angels for a likeable French family consisting of father, mother, and daughter at Christmas time. The setting is French Guiana in 1910.

The characters in the play are Eliza D'Arch, Jim Brust; Emilie Ducott, Conrie Lander; Madame Parole, Nancy Fly; Marie Louise, Doris Jick; Joseph, Richard Goetsman; Jules, Neal Lang; Alfred, Clarence Curt; Henri, Randall Stukel; Paul, Duane Urba; and the Lieutenant, Dale Karow.

Production dates are Dec. 8, 9, and 10 in Somsen Hall auditorium. Director is Mr. Jacques Riedelberger.

Newman Convention Held Here

Winona State College Newman Club, with Father Joseph LaPlante as chaplain, was host Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 8 and 9, to the annual Region II Newman Clubs convention in the North Central Province. About 125 college students attended the event.

Registration was in Somsen Hall on Saturday at 7:30 a.m. followed by a meeting of the club presidents. The first general session began with welcome addresses by J. Scherber, general chairman, and by Father LaPlante, and a brief introduction to the workshops by Helen Backus, panel chairman.

The workshop consisted of panel discussions led by local and visiting Newmanites. Following the workshops there was a general assembly which summarized the day's activities. The day was concluded by banquet at the New Oaks. Convention activities were concluded on Sunday with Mass at the Cathedral of the Sacred Heart and breakfast at the Hotel Winona.

According to S. J. Kryzsko, president of the State College Board, and Dr. Nels Minne, president of Winona State College, rumors of a possible transfer of WSC to Rochester have little basis in fact.

There has been no mention of such a move, Dr. Minne said, in the official minutes of the State College Board.

Unofficially, they "may be talking about it, but they aren't saying anything for publication," added Dr. Minne.

The proposal is under no official consideration. The purpose of the Committee on Higher Education is to study methods for improving opportunities for higher education in Minnesota.

Moving to Rochester, it was contended, would enable the college to serve more of southern Minnesota and provide the college with plenty of land for future expansion.

This problem of lack of sufficient land for expansion is one drawback WSC faces. Its proposed plan of expanding its campus by 1970 to include an area of about 100 acres out of the Winona city area for the college's expansion would not have to pay more taxes to support the new college.

Mr. Kryzsko said that the Winona area residents should recognize the importance of the college to their area's economy and cultural life, and that therefore Winona should acquire land and offer it to the college for the college's expansion under the Federal Rural Renewal and Development program.

The college has been in existence here for 99 years," Dr. Minne said. "The reported move to Rochester is of concern to our area's economy and culture, many of whom are from the Winona area, and also to the entire service area from which our students come."

Alumni Tea Hi-lights MEA

The MEA convention held in Minneapolis, Oct. 23-24, included a Tea for Alumni of Winona State. It was held at the Curtis Hotel where about 250 alumni gathered for the event. Guests included Mrs. Lewis Schoening, President of the Alumni Society; Mr. J. J. Minne, Director of Services to Public Schools; Mr. Floyd Adams, Chairman of Public Services Committee; and Miss Louise Farner, Emeritus faculty member.
College Course Still a Bargain

“The college course is still a bargain,” writes Mr. David Barnett of the North American Newspaper Alliance in an article for the St. Paul Pioneer Press. According to the U. S. Office of Education, the cost of one year’s college education averaged about $1,600, but budgets have varied from $200 to $5,000 for the school year. Costs are increasing every year, and a college education now costs double what it did in 1940.

The bulk of college costs these days are not tuition fees, but the cost of living. Room and board are the biggest headaches to those on a shoestring budget. On the other hand students fortunate enough to own “luxury” credit cards will have no trouble financing automobiles, TV sets, and even private airplanes.

Mr. Barnett points out that two-thirds of men students and one-third of women students work their way through college, at least partially. And here’s an interesting revelation — women spend less in college than the average male.

While some college students receive scholarships, and these scholarships average a little less than $300 per year. No student, however, pays the entire cost of his education; part is provided through endowments, taxes, and other means.

Aftermath

Clearly, another approach to the problem of accidents is imperative. To accomplish this, no major change in attitude but only a slight refinement is needed. More emphasis must be placed upon road safety and an understanding of the rules of the road. Cars are a leading cause of death; if we can teach the people the importance of traffic regulations, we may be able to prevent a large number of accidents.

Education

The International Exchange Program of the Department of State annually offers from 20 to 30 grants for one year of graduate study in other American republics. This program is designed to increase friendship and understanding among the peoples of the Americas. One or more grantees from the U. S. are chosen by the National Education Association and Professional Standards meeting at Bowling Green, Ohio.

Student Interest Lacking

The motion picture, Bolshoi Ballet, shown at the State Theater on Nov. 11, was first-class entertainment. The State Theater management feels enough interest was shown in the film to warrant bringing more of this type of entertainment to Winona.

Although attendance was better than expected, the management expressed disappointment in the fact that the three colleges were not represented in the majority, while the picture had been booked because it was felt this kind of film would appeal especially to the students of Winona. Apparently it did not, and it's hard to see why the colleges did not show more interest in this excellent film.

Miss Berg, manager of the State, said there are tentative plans calling for about 20 per cent of college students to cover one picture per month of special caliber that might appeal to students.

This is a big opportunity for the students of Winona, and it deserves their fullest support.

Finals -?
Four Winona State College gridironers have been named to the All-Northern State College Conference team. A meeting of loop coaches picked 22 gridironers plus one utility lineman and utility back for the two honor squads.

Guard Gene Nardini and halfback Dick Brown from Winona State were selected for the first team. Brown is a holdover from the 1957 all-conference squad. End Chuck Schneider and tackle Amie Satter from the Warriors gained places on the second team. All four gridironers are seniors.

Nardini has completed his four seasons on the Warrior grid. At 210, 6 feet, he was one of the smallest linemen in a Winona State forward wall which averages 220 pounds. Nardini was probably the best all around guard in the conference, playing a top-notch game both on offense and defense. His hometown is Franklin Park, Illinois.

Dick Brown, all-conference back for the second straight year, began winning football awards as a prep at Winona High. As a high school gridman, Brown won honors on the Big Nine, Minnesota All-State and South team in football. He also made the Minnesota North-South All-State grid in his senior year of college ball at Mankato State.

Chuck Schneider, handpicked in the 1957 season after a knee injury in the first scrimmage, gained a first string spot on the Winona State team this year. Only a minor flub-winner last year, Schneider developed into a good wingman on offense and played a sharp defensive game. The 6-2, 200-pound end attended Iowa State as a freshman, then transferred to WSC. His hometown is Adams, Minnesota.

Arnie Satter turned in a good job this season at tackle for the Warriors although hit by several injuries during the season. An All-Hiawatha Valley Conference lineman at Kenyon, the 6-foot, 225-pound tackle played his first year of college ball at Mankato State, then came to Winona after a hitch in the service. He earned his first letter at WSC as an end.

Stan Kuzuzke, who prepped at Stewartville high of the Water Polo Conference, was a halfback choice on the second all-loop team in his freshman season for the Warriors.

Lowell Glynn, 5' 10", 180-pound Mankato senior, won the Glen Galligan award as most valuable conference player. He also won a spot as utility lineman.

The all-loop first team consisted of eight seniors and three sophomores. Benndi State dominated the selections with five players on the first team and another on the second squad.

A total of 25 cagers are candidates for berths on the 1958-59 Winona State squad, Gerlach said.

Eight lettermen from 1957-58 — plus two players who earned letters in previous seasons — greeted new Winona State basketball coach Joe Gerlach as preseason drills got under way officially at Memorial Hall.

A total of 25 cagers are candidates for berths on the 1958-59 Winona State squad, Gerlach said.

Among the eight lettermen from last season are four guards, two forward-guarders, one forward and a center. The four guards are Don Klinge, Bob Welch, Pat Marren and Erv Rickheim. Forward guards are Herb Espindola and Earl Baswell. Don Bohens returns at forward, and Jon Kaiser is back at center.

Other candidates include Jack Wizerczek and Larry Engel, both of whom lettered in previous seasons. Gerlach’s list also includes two players from the 1957-58 varisty who did not earn letters. Dave Frondzinski and Larry Garbus reported for drills Monday.

Gerlach said he had retained four freshmen after looking over the frosh crop in earlier tryout sessions. The quartet includes Jerry Geits, Plainfield; Fred Kline, Cochrane; Lance Johnson, Pipestone, and Allen Bronson, East Troy, Wis.

Gerlach also has two transfer students who are eligible to compete at the start of the season. Nick Stevens, a center, transferred to Winona State from Rochester Junior College and is immediately eligible. Bob Rojasby, who switched to Winona State from University of Wisconsin last spring, also is eligible. Rojesby, from Cochrane is a brother of Jim Rogneby, UW center.

Two other transfer students, who do not become eligible until the end of the first half of the school year, promise to be of considerable help to the Warrior cagers. They are Dage Sprute, who transferred from University of Minnesota, and Tom Cauknikus, a transfer from Iowa Teachers.

It was announced that Bill Morse, Winona State gridder and cager who lettered with last year’s basketball squad, will act as assistant coach and will not play this year.

The new Winona State mentor is expected to use all practice time available to acquaint himself with the squad in preparing for Winona State’s opener December 2, against Wartburg College at Waverly, Iowa.

Gerlach who coached last year at Stout State, Menomonie, Wis., said a complete WSC cage roster is not yet available.

News Notes

Wenonah Players

Wenonah Players was host to the Terena Players and the Bur- bage Players of St. Mary’s at a joint meeting held in Sem- mer Auditorium, November 5, at 7:30 p.m. The program featured a lecture entitled “Showmanship and Show Business Around The World” by Miss Dorothy Mag- nus, director of the college theater. Miss Magnus recounted her theater experiences during her trip around the world this past summer and showed colored slides. She was introduced by Neal Lang, president of Wenonah Players.

Following the program refresh- ments were served in the Snug. Committees in charge of the events were; reception, Neal Lang, Tom Chandler, Don Fos- burgh, Mary Kaye Nyberg; and food, Deanna Harders, Kay Way, Neal Lang, Yvonne McNallen, Marie Engrav, Jim Schultz, and Marlyce Nyberg.

About 75 members of the dra- matic organizations attended. Also present were Brother Ray- mond, head of the department of speech, and Brother Urban, of the faculty of St. Mary’s and Mr. Jacques Reidel- berger, member of the Winona State Speech department.

WSSA

Winona State Speech Associa- tion’s first dinner meeting was held in Richards’ Hall Cafeteria, at 6:30 p.m., Nov. 5. Speech major and minor were urged to check their winter registration held in Richard’s Hall Cafeteria, Kappa Delta Pi in the Phelps on the winter registration offer-ings on the winter quarter schedule. The meeting was presided over by Don Fos- burgh, president.

Kappa Delta Pi

Dr. Joseph Lanigan, St. Mary’s College, offered a philosophy society, spoke at the Nov. meeting of Kappa Delta Pi in the Phelps Laboratory School lunchroom.

He said many of us have been assuming a philosophy all our life, living with it without being intro- duced to it. To study philosophy one should connect it to some sub- ject with which you are familiar. Views on education, politics, work, life and good and evil are all fundamentally philosophic.

WRA

Margot Anderson’s team takes top place as WRA volleyball tournament play ends. Tournament play was begun on September 29 with four teams participat- ing, and play-offs for the champi- onship took place on November 17 and 19.

Members on the winning team are: Margot Anderson, captain, Daisy Morikami, Lorna Lajid, Ramona Chad, Laura Hoon, Alice Kuhlman, Ramon Ol- son, JoAnne Wilson, Jo Horton, Fran Wolfe, Jan Schwartz and Nancy Shlay.

Orchis

Miss Joan Burgess of the Uni- versity of Minnesota conducted the modern dance symposium in Memorial Hall on Saturday, Nov. 16.

Registration for schools at- tending was held from 9:00-9:30 a.m. The morning session con- sisted of practicing exercises and positions used in modern dance. Following lunch in the Smog, participants divided into groups. The various groups then had an opportunity to compose a dance to some musical selection. After the groups presented their num- bers, the schools presented the numbers that they had prepared.

The following schools had representatives at the symposium: St. Cloud State, Mankato State, University of Minnesota, and Winona State.

Gamma Delta

On Nov. 14-16, six members of Gamma Delta, Betty Bos, Marcia Best, Gloria June Johnson, Janet Schwartz, and Viccar Ronald, attended the fall conven- tion of the Lakes Region at Osh- kosh. At this convention they participated in many group meet- ings and discussions of the region, and election of new regional officers. Climax of the weekend was a banquet Saturday night. Along with LSA, the group viewed the film, Time and Eter- nity on November 20.

YWCA

At the Nov. 4 meeting of the college YWCA, two films were shown. A filmstrip “Answer for Asia” and the movie “Their Fu- ture Is Our Future” helped to show what the World University Service is doing to help the people of Asia help themselves.

A bake sale was discussed as a possible money-making project. However, further plans have yet to be made.

Bradford Club

Bradford Club held a supper meeting Nov. 13, its last meeting of the fall quarter.

A supper meeting is planned soon after the beginning of winter quarter, with a guest speaker from the University of Minnesota.

Bradford Club plans to enter a basketball team in the YMCA Church League this year.

Industrial Arts

Twenty-six members of the In- dustrial Arts Club toured the Peless Chain Co. on Tuesday, Nov. 11. Mr. Glen Fuglsby, club adviser, accompanied the group on the tour which included seeing how the various types and sizes of chain are made.

Lyle Linkow, president, said that this was the first of a series of trips that the club is planning to take. He explained that they hope to explore other local in- dustries, and then take a trip to some large industry outside of Winona.

Barry Nelson and Robert Stueve were in charge of arrange- ments for the Peless Chain Co. visit.

Class Ring Planned

Plans for a school ring for grad- uates of WSC have materialized. Rings are to be released through Joston’s of Owatonna. Ring samples and drawings have ar- rived and are available at Morgan Jewelers. The rings are original and will pertain to this college only. One side of the ring will have the school Torch of Learn- ing while the other side will have the Trojan Warrior Head. The ornamentation of both is in the school motto, “Virtute Et Armes.”

The plans are to have a purple stone (school color), a spindal ame- thyth in a Pawlett cut. The finish would be either gold or white gold, and it may be pos- sible to get the ring in either finish for $22.50 for a girl's ring or $31.50 for a boy's.

Former Student Displays Artwork

Mr. Richard Kluzik, the former Audrey Wood of Winona (’48-’49) is displaying 49 works of art at the Schilling Base Library for several weeks. The works in- clude oils, watercolors, cases, ink sketches and an unusually fine group of water and color ink combinations. According to Vir- ginia Wright, base librarian, the exhibit is one of the most interest- ing she’s seen.

The Kluziks are residing at 902 Cherokee Ave., Salina, Kansas. Sgt. Richard Kluzik is with the 10th Armament and Electronics Squadron. They have three young girls.

Alumni Notes
