BULLETIN
Appropriation Bill Passed by Solons

Contrary to current rumor, $790,000 was voted to Winona State Teachers College for the summer session, the largest vote ever given to the institution. This vote passes the bill through both houses of the state legislature in the longest overtone session in the history of the state.

Of the total sum, $780,000 is to be used for the construction of a new fly. Ed building. The remaining $40,000 is to be used for 40% of the necessary land.

Dr. Nels Minne, president of the Winona State Teachers College, is the most enthusiastic of those people from the county who supported the bill.

DONALD HEANEY

Let’s introduce our student of the month, Don Heaney, and follow him through a typical school day. Don gets up early in the morning-says it is the most beautiful part of the day. First hour in the morning you see him dashing off to his observatory and to even help out with the teaching grade mathematics. Then down to the Industrial Arts Department to check the film and to see that the cups are out for coffee and see that the windows of the train will picture if the windows of the train will be snow-balled. That was a year ago and the dormitory will be opened this September, the vacation out put for the near about hours of work.

The students contributing the greatest amount of labor hours have been doing the best job academically, too. “Getting the best grades in the college is easy” says a statement as this from a girl with 175 hours of work. “...and the dorm isn’t for girls. But it’s good for the college and that means it’s good for the students.” These students have little time to think about the dorms, then. They are too busy working to think about transfers. And the Reader’s Digest is doing their recruiting now.

Let’s Pretend

Two more flips of the desk pad give bear. It is a sharp realization that there are only five weeks left of this regular school year. When we return to school, Los Angeles and Hollywood, possibly a stay on Catalina Island, San Francisco, New York, Washington, Denver, Chicago, and Seattle. Colorado is a grand state for vacationing because of its many Rocky Mountain parks, a few nearby lakes, and gardens, famous springs, Royal Gorge, and quiet mountains towns. Others of us must consider the intellectual atmosphere of the East, starting, perhaps, with the Pocono Mountains, the Finger Lakes, the Hudson, the Adirondacks, or even the beautiful areas of the West, and then back up by way of Birmingham, Huntsville, or Chicago.

We might even branch out to picturesque Mexico where we can get a tremendous advantage of vacation travel. The other visit might be made to our southern neighbors and some of their major cities such as Mexico City, Havana, Santiago, Chile; Buenos Aires in Argentina; and Rio de Janeiro in Brazil. Canada is full of historic places such as Quebec and Montreal, and for those who like paved roads, parks, and lakes that are the joy of every fisherman. Are you aware that Europe is back in the running, and it’s possible

My Life As A Teacher by John Frazee is the first of three volumes that are scheduled for publication this fall. The first volume is comprised of almost 200 pages of text, while the second and third volumes will be published in the spring of 1950.

The first volume is a personal narrative of Dr. Frazee’s work in education, covering most of his career. It is interspersed with humorous anecdotes about many distinguished teachers. The second volume is a more detailed account of the author’s teaching career. It is interspersed with humorous anecdotes about many distinguished teachers.

Dr. Melby Warns Against Driving Commies Underground

In a discussion of the communist movement in this country, Dr. Donald C. Melby, dean of the College of Education of New York University, warned against driving the communist leaders out of the country by declaring those persons affiliated with the movement subversive. He said the following three methods employed today in the U. S. in dealing with the communists: "Witch-hunting," or the movement in which communists and the participants are "hunted down"; spending money, such as the funds expended on the Marshall plan; and preparation for war.

The most effective way of countering communism, stated Dr. Melby, is to offer a better idea to replace communism, such as democracy. He believes that young people should be encouraged to teach because of the opportunity afforded them to wield dynamic influence in the way of democracy.

He concluded his discussion by saying, "It is the duty of all citizens of this country to build democracy, to build the health services and other services such as electrocardiogram, photographic record of the heart's action, basal metabolism, and x-ray are given if the examinations indicate necessity.

Assembly Program Features Debate

The Federal Government Should Aid Education" was the issue which was debated by members of the St. Mary's and St. Mary's College debate team at the regular Monday morning assembly conducted on April 4, at Somsen Hall.

Participating in the de-

The Teachers College team won the debate and defeated the University of Wisconsin College of Education team. The T.C.'s team took the affirmative while the St. Mary's team took the negative. A flip of a coin decided which team was to take the affirmative.

The Teachers College team recently returned from a debate tourney at the University where they placed ninth in the nation. The T.C.'s season record lists 13 victories and 9 defeats.

Study Uncovers Many Student Health Aids

Of the benefits received from the activity fee perhaps one of the least familiar yet most helpful is that offered by the Student Health Service. In charge of this service is Miss Margaret Miller who has eight years of training behind her: three of nurses training qualifying her as a registered nurse, three for her bachelor's degree, and two more for her master's.

All the various health services available to the students are entirely financed by a percentage of the quarterly activity fee. These services and equipment are paid for by the state.

Students first become aware of the services of the Student Health Service after entering college when they get a physical examination. This examination includes such routine examinations as height, weight, posture examination, blood test, urinalysis, examination by an ear nose and throat doctor and also a general medical doctor. If this examination shows a need for further examinations or tests the student will receive them as part of the health services. Regular health services such as electrocardiogram, photographic record of the heart's action, basal metabolism, and x-ray are given if the examinations indicate necessity.

SPRING SPORTS BEGIN AT T.C. GOLF

Westfield golf course was the battle field last Friday for Winona's little two men. The weather was excellent for the golfing, and the young men and women from Winona were looking to avenge things in the three-way affair with La Crosse and River Falls. The host will be looking to avenge things in the season's opener on the course with a good showing in the next few weeks.

This year's team is comprised of an experienced group of players. The team has high hopes for the season and is looking forward to a successful year.

The match Friday found Charles Beaver of Stout as medalist and with a score of 74. The team, with only a few letter-men back, hopes to improve on last year's performance.

The Tennis Team has the honor of boasting the first minor spring sport victory of the season. The team hopes to keep up the good work and improve on last year's performance.

Cathedles’ Feats

By John D. O’Brien

Baseball is here! Under the ideal spring weather, the king of summer sports has taken its rightful place on the fields of dreams across the country.

On their invasion of Iowa and Missouri during the Easter vacation, the baseball Warriors rapped up three victories; among these was a solo-hit triumph scored by Andy Swota.

The Ped stickers have been showing their might at the plate already. In their first four games, three played away on foreign diamonds and one at home against La Crosse, they blasted out forty-three hits. That averages eleven hits per game, an astounding batting record for any team in any league.

In these four games, they faced thirteen opposing pitchers, which means that they spread plenty of grief and consternation among the mound staffs of their opponents. La Crosse used four pitchers, because although they only gave up eight hits to the Winona batsman, the first two innings alone were a bit of difficulty finding a way in.

The Warriors have their own “murderers row” at the plate this season. Every man on the team, with a bat in his hand, is a potential extra-bases hitter. This fact was graphically proved in the first home game against La Crosse. In that contest three doubles and three homers were rapped out.

Of the 43 hits the Warriors collected in the first four games, sixteen went for extra-bases. They blasted six doubles, four triples, and six four-baggers.

OVER THE FENCE CLUB

Three members of the Winona team joined the “Over the Fence Club” in the recent game with La Crosse. Catcher Marty Lee is heading the home run parade with three roundtrippers to his credit. Next comes Shortstop Sonny Dahl, who has belted out two. Duluth, the third member of the happy-trio, has one to his credit and is glaring menacingly at the outfield. It won’t be long before he comes up with one, too.

The fans and students are eagerly awaiting the opening of conference play. Tomorrow’s game with River Falls teachers will be the Warriors first contest played in the newly formed bi-state league.

Members of the new loop are: Winona, Mankato, St. Cloud, Eau Claire, Stout, and River Falls. Winona, champions of the Minnesota Teachers College conference last year, will certainly be a power in this new league this spring.

Notice to all students and fans: Be sure and be on hand next Friday for the St. Mary’s game! The time has come to arrange a pair of baseball doubleheaders.

SPRING SPORTS SHORTS

Robert: “Daddy” Stark, Ped pitcher, is going to play ball for the new Winona Chiefs this summer... Sonny Dahl, who recently had a bone operation performed on his ankle, wears a specially-built shoe that enables him to keep hustling at his shortstop position.

A thrilling march in Winona at V.F.W. Park! That was the first game of the city league played at W.S.T.C. last Sunday.

Our old friend, Bill Lynch, the genial owner of the Silver Slopes Ski Lodge, is taking a few courses during his slack season... The Poland-born Andy Swota is now the pro at Westfield golf course here in Winona... One of the T.C. baseball team’s most loyal and ardent fans is Mrs. Lyle Arm, wife of the Ped diamond manager. The first home game of the season wouldn’t have been quite complete without leather-legged Earl Schell in the grandstand...

Reliable sources have it that Delbert Gantenbein, who is a well-known athlete around his home-town, New Albin, Iowa, has accepted a lucrative pro contract to play in New Mexico below the Mason-Dixon line. Our best wishes to you, Del, we all know that you’re a grand sportsman and a great ball player from the word go... Walt Schumacher, Warrior gridiron stalwart, hasn’t taken part in any major sporting events lately... except the G.I. Ball, but we’ll set his name down here again just on general principles... Must thirty out for this month.

Winona Scalp Indians

Strength at the plate was the deciding factor in the Warrior’s decisive 11-0 victory over La Crosse last week.

The Ped batsmen slammed out five runs, and sent La Crosse’s starting pitcher, Johnson, to the showers in the first inning.

The game, originally scheduled to be played at La Crosse, was held in Winona at the West End Park. La Crosse reported wet grounds, so the contest was transferred here. Encouraged by the perfect weather conditions, the Winona Indians blasted out eight runs, including three home runs.

Arch Stark, starting pitcher, was awarded the victory. With the Warriors leading 18 to 3 in the fifth inning, Stark got on base by being hit on the foot by a pitched ball. Coach Lyle Arns sent Mahlke in to run for him, and Scan Prokopowicz finished the rest of the game on the mound.

In the last four innings, Prokopowicz was nicked for three runs on three hits; and in the eighth, Phil DuBois lofted a mighty three-run home run that nipped an Indian rally and retired the side. Nag Radtke covered second well; he sent Mahlke in to run for him, and Ray Swota played his usual sparkling game on the mound, at all, of the Warriors were good.

Marty Lee’s homer, his third in four games.

In the fifth, Winona showed three more runs over the plate. A walk which brought in the winning run, Anderson’s choice by Anderson, set the stage for the second La Crosse run; it was a terrific smash to deep centerfield. Dahl could have walked home from third.

Benedict, third Indian pitcher of choice, was sent in to face the showers shortly after this. Benedict pitched remarkable ball while he was in there; he makes his pitches’ on the blackest of the way to the plate. Schroeder finished the game on the hill for La Crosse, retiring eleven of the twelve men to face him.

Anderson made a sensational catch in deep centerfield, and, in the fourth, he fed a pop in to DuBois at third that chopped an Indian rally and retired the side.

Nag Radtke covered second well; he sent Mahlke in to run for him, and Ray Swota played his usual sparkling game on the mound, at all, of the Warriors were good.

Freshmen . . . . . . Folies

Ah, Spring! When a young man's fancy turns to thoughts of baseball, tennis, track and field. The freshmen fellows on the tennis team, such as Jim Dresser and Tom Anderson, are getting ready to learn that several girls from the dairy college are practicing on the tennis courts regularly. There is some competition for Jim and Tony in a tennis match.

In the last issue of this paper we told you about a female student who has to rise especially early in the morning, but now we learned that Challberg isn't the only early riser. Caryn, the freshman, and Harald, the sophomore, have to really beat the sun in order to get to school from Lewiston every morning.

Someone asked what happened to the debating team. Well, the last formal debate was held April 18th between Harold Esmann and David Christenson against the Northwest champs from St. Mary's, Edward Allen and John Clayton. It seems the two St. Mary's boys needed some competition before going to West Point.

As this column has mentioned before, we are having the Northwest for the men and the Dairy college for the women. The freshmen will try and beat the seniors this time.

Cupid Strikes T.C. Campus

With the annual arrival of spring comes the parade of diamonks and the sound of wedding bells for many T.C. students. Books and studies are momentarily forgotten, for Dan Cupid has scored a ballets.

T. C.'ers Claire "Rusty" Thompson and Rodger Robb said "I do" on April 18, and were followed by Violet Bittner and Marvin Bauser, who were married April 20.

Other recent weddings include those of Pat Ulom and Jim Kowalecki, and Catherine Fort to Len Martin. A June wedding is in order for Mildred Ann Byrne of Winona and Lawrence "Sam" Wieczorek, a T.C. senior, on June 13.

Three senior elementary majors who have been displaying their personalities are Verla Smith, Dorothy Hannon and Hazel Hel- lock. Verla is engaged to Dave Wilson, a 1948 T.C. graduate, now studying for his master's degrees at the University of Minnesota. Dorothy's fiancee is Oest Weimann, a former student at the college now enrolled at the Minneapolis Business College, while the man in Hazel's heart, Phil Egtvet of Austin, we predict the elementary field will attract more and more T.C. girls in the near future.

When asked who he was engaged to, Jim Laffy replied, "No, but I still have hopes. I just bought a jar of Pond's!"
