Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., ranks among the foremost in the new generation of vigorous social historians," says The New York Times. In 1946, at the age of 28, he was the youngest historian ever to win the Pulitzer Prize when he received it for "The Age of Jackson," a book he had worked on before as a Henry Fels Fellow at Cambridge University, England, and subsequently as a member of the Society of Fellows at Harvard. Mr. Schlesinger's third book, "A Thousand Days," is a brilliant discussion of contemporary political and social problems, came out in 1969. "The General and the President," published in 1965, is a compilation of a series of articles pertaining to Mr. Schlesinger's membership in the Kennedy inner circle at the White House, which appeared in Life Magazine last fall.

Tickets for the faculty will be handled through the Audio-Visual Department. Student tickets will be available at the Somsen booth from 1-4 p.m. on Feb. 7-11. ID cards must be shown and the student is allowed only one ticket.

There will be 800 tickets available, no pick up early in the week. Tickets will be admitted without a ticket; and there will be no reserved seats.

"Out of courtesy to the speaker, the audiotorium doors will be closed at 7:30 and no one will be permitted to enter later.

College is more than books

College is more than booking. College should be a time in the person's life when he develops in as many ways as he possibly can. It should be a time when the young adult learns to live with other person's life when he develops in as many ways as he possibly can. That only learns how to dig worms.

College is more than moving from one dorm to another, or even commute. For the person who is only on campus come independent.

Here are some of the suggestions that have come forward. That is, the times willingly as they have reacted to student desire in the past. The social committee wants to use the students fees on activities that the students want. The social committee will change the times willingly as they have reacted to student desire in the past. The social committee wants to use the students fees on activities that the students want.

Consequently that year the Four Freshmen were brought in. Every holiday we have had big name performers on campus. That is, the times willingly as they have reacted to student desire in the past. The social committee wants to use the students fees on activities that the students want.

Time however the social committee is having a difficult time finding sponsors. Why? Apparently the students no longer need such a committee to help organize weekend activities. Apparently they are finding their own activities. Strange doesn't that such planning goes on the students there is "nothing to do." Or perhaps it is because this is a college campus and most of the students go home on weekend. Or perhaps it is because the students want to be entertained but are not willing to do any of the work.

One thing is for sure it is not the fault of the social committee. They have been doing everything possible to get sponsors and pro-vide activities for the students on weekends. They have put articles in the staff paper, and asked the Student Senate, Dornell Councils, and other student organizations on campus for suggestions as to how they could improve their service. They have asked if they have been sponsoring the wrong events.

There are some of the suggestions that have come forward. That is, the times willingly as they have reacted to student desire in the past. The social committee wants to use the students fees on activities that the students want.

Platteville is tankers 4th dual meet victim

Winona State’s twin swim team also came up with a victory during this past ultimately successful weekend for all Warrior athletic squads.

Coach John Martin’s poolmen swept past Platteville State in Memorial Pool Saturday by the score of 293-231. The win left the tankers with a well-earned 4-1 mark in dual meet competition this season. The Warriors only loss was dealt them by the powerful Macalester College swimmers Sage who captured a victory in both the 50 and 100 yard freestyle. Other Warrior firsts for Winona were by Tom Olson in the 100-yard butterfly event in Saturday’s swim meet held in Memorial Pool. (Photo by Paul Hodge.)

WRA team wins in ‘Kato tourney

The Women’s Recreation Association’s intramural basketball competition continued action last Wednesday evening. All teams were able to play again this week.

The present team standings are: Richlady. makers 3, Others 2.

A quadrangular in La Crosse last weekend, Winona State’s basketball team saw its luck change in the opening match at 123 pounds, and Rog Jehlicka at 130, both battle hard in the 90-pound individual and 300-yard backpackers. Tom Stever outscored the field in the diving competition with an impressive total of 102.3 pounds off the board. The Warriors 400-yard freestyle relay team was also victorious.

Wartburg spoils cagers win streak

After a protracted road trip last weekend, Winona State’s basketball team saw its luck change against Wartburg Tuesday. Coach Robert Campbell’s squad was riding high after returning from a tour of Northern Minnesota with victories over two NIC opponents, Moorhead and Bemidji. But the Warriors wildcat surged in the game at Waverly, Iowa, as the Knights hit for a remarkable 55 per cent of their shots and won the game 100-94.

Despite an eye injury sustained early in the game, Dave Meisner was spectacular against Moorhead last Friday. His 26 point output enabled the Warriors to continue their undefeated status for the season. Nearly 2900 enthusiastic spectators were on hand to witness the group’s second home contest.

Gary Peterson was next on the list for Winona with 15 tallies. Steve Drange, wrestling at 177 pounds, turned in an impressive 8-0 win to clinch the meet against Bemidji. The pair of wins extended the Warriors conference record to 4-2, good for third place in the NIC. The two victories also provided a much better example of the Warriors true potential in comparison to the form that had been exhibited by Winona earlier in the season.

The NEXT NIGHT also re- quired a comeback as Winona trailed Bemidji by eleven points at halftime. But hot outside shoot- ing by Anderson and Meisner kept the Warriors in the game, and they eventually edged the Beavers by the margin of 79-77.

Winona this season, and the host Knights hit for a remarkable 55 per cent of their shots and won the game 100-94.

The Knights had a come-from-behind victory over the Dragons in the closing seconds, 70-68. Supporting Meisner was Todd Anderson with 13 points and Mike Jerek with 10.

The pin was the 11th straight victory for the superior heavyweight John Zwolinski who provided a powerful climax to the match . . . and he did. "Shifty" took 45 seconds of the second period to pin his Superior opponent, who had been promoted to the varsity when the Viking’s regular heavyweight was suspended for scholastic troubles.

A quadrangular in La Crosse this Saturday is next on the schedule for Coach Gumer’s Wildcats. The Wildcats will have to contend with Whitewater State, River Falls, already a victim of Winona this season, and the host Indians.

WRESTLERS TOP SUPERIOR

Following a slow start Saturday night, the Winona State wrestling team fought back to defeat Superior State University last Wednesday evening. The victory enabled the Warriors to maintain their undefeated status for the season. Nearly 2900 enthusiastic spectators were on hand to witness the group’s second home contest.

Darrell Andrist was decisioned in the opening match at 123 pounds, and Rog Jehlicka at 130, both battled to a draw with their Superior opponents giving the Vikings an early 7-4 advantage.

However, Tom Simon, at 145 pounds captured a 6-0 decision, and freshman Jim Tannen- hime, the 137 pounder, came up with a crucial pin to erase Superior’s temporary lead. From then on the Warriors dominated the match.

Ray Wicks highlighted the next match with a brutal 7-1 victory over his opponent in 180-pound division. The sophomore from Decorah, Iowa, completely overpowered his partner, but couldn’t quite get the pin as the Superiorites continually found refuge by swimming out of the match.

Steve Drange, wrestling at 177 pounds, turned in an impressive 8-0 win to clinch the meet against Bemidji. The pair of wins extended the Warriors conference record to 4-2, good for third place in the NIC. The two victories also provided a much better example of the Warriors true potential in comparison to the form that had been exhibited by Winona earlier in the season.
