WSC concert band to plan program; public is invited

The Winona State College Concert Band, directed by William Schmidt, will present a concert this Sunday at 8:00 p.m. in Somsen Auditorium. Admission is free and the public is invited.

Music for a Festival, by Gordon Jacob, will be the featured number on the program. This unique composition, written in 1963, has ten alternating sections for wind band and orchestra. The brass ensemble will be followed by the percussion ensemble to create the unusual effect of spatial separation.

Members of the ensemble are: Trumpets: William Binsby, Media; Linda Rothschild, Winona; Cedric Rapida, Iowa; Leonard Furrington, A 1 m., Wisconsin; Douglas Wood, Winona.

Trombones: Richard Anderson, Northfield; Charlotte Bechdel, Viola; Lynn Huntington, Plainview. Playing Timpani will be Dennis Ance of Faribault.

Final review meeting scheduled for planning of high-rise dormitory

The Army National Guard is announcing a new officers candidate program for college sophomores.

The program, called "A New National Guard," has been distributed around the college. It states that "if you join the Army National Guard between Feb. 6 and April 5th, your military service time may be credited toward your college coursework immediately so that you can be listed on the student calendar.

The lectures and concerts committee announced this week that the Philharmonic Symphony, one of the foremost symphony orchestras in the United States, will present a special student concert in Somsen auditorium, March 14. The program, which begins at 8:15 and lasts approximately one hour, will consist of selections by such composers as Wagner, Tchaikovsky and Brahms. No final examinations will be scheduled during this time.

The orchestra is scheduled to present a full-length concert in the evening at Winona High School as a part of the Community Concert series. Renato Pani will conduct the 80-piece orchestra at the special WSC halftime performance.

The operetta entitled "The Nutcracker and the Mouse" will be presented by the Phelps Laboratory School, Tuesday, at 7:30 p.m. at Somsen Auditorium.

The main cast of characters includes: Richard Bayken, narrator; Beth Minnew, mother; Robert Everson, father; Sue Petri, Maria; Ronald Kamrowski, Fritz; Anthony Macer, the Mouse; Hoyt, Nutcracker; Michael Corcoran, Mouse King; and Richard Karmovski, Richard Heller and Franklin Pitch, mice.

The public is invited.

Moorhead nips matmen 20-16 conference meet Saturday

The largest crowd since the days of the Center High School Holiday basketball tournament was on hand to watch the 1,000 point mark. The game last Friday with Bemidji was another one of the season's highlights. The game was held in Rice. The game was played in front of a packed house.

The match couldn't have been more action-packed than it was. The box court was filled to capacity as the two teams met for the third time in the season. The Rams were victorious, 77-74.

Miles Kreuzer, the Rams' top scorer, hit 1,000 points for his career as a Warrior. He will be the NAIA national meet to be held in St. Cloud.

The Cowboys dropped into a close second with a 6-2 record. The Cowboys upset the Rams by an 86-54 margin behind Chip Schwartz, Jeresek's replacement. The Cowboys were unable to score against their SCI opponent last week. (Photo: Paul Hodge)
