State Building Commission to hear of needs Friday

The Legislative Building Commission will meet at Winona State Friday morning to hear a report of needs so that these needs may be later studied by the 1967 Legislature, according to Dr. Nels Minne, college president.

When asked what the request would include, Dr. Minne stated, “We will be asking for funds to continue campus expansion, which means purchase of additional property for future building sites.

This includes the area bordered by Sabin, Main, and Huffy Streets and the railroad tracks to the south.

The campus development plan which we have started here in 1965 was based upon the concept of a compact campus clustered around an academic area close to the library with residence area close to the college and public service and union.” Dr. Minne explained.

“There will be ease of going from one building to the next. We have been trying to maintain a separate campus for the residence for us to go and another campus for another.

STUDENTS also have easy access to the shopping, business, and part-time employment areas in the community,” he further commented.

Campus growth from this point will require that many of our future buildings will have to be multistoried in order to maintain this compactness.”

The first multi-storied building is the one now planned for the 14-story high rose dormitory.

IN PLANNING ahead, predictions of needs are dependent upon two factors, enrollment and the expansion of the campus. The new officers in the recent building programs expects in June or July to be cut in order to make the connection to the old building. The library is scheduled for completion early in 1967.

“This will be an integrated library facility with old and new functions readily related. It will be a center for the climate control to assure year around comfort.”

FIVE STATE COLLEGE FACULTIES REQUEST WINONA INVESTIGATION

The State College Board will consider a request of the faculties of five state colleges to investigate allegations by Charles Mourin, Board member, made concerning the faculty here.

The Inter-Faculty Policies Committee, a full investigation of allegations made concerning the Winona State College faculty, with a report of the investigation to be made public.”

The ORIGINAL request for a "full-scale investigation," was made by the Winona State College Faculty association last week. Subsequently, according to the resolution passed yesterday, the executive boards of the faculty associations at each of the five state colleges gave support to this request.

Republicanchiefs election invalid

The junior class elections held last Friday were invalidated by the Student Senate at its Tuesday evening meeting.

The decision was made because election procedures were not followed, as prescribed in the Student Senate constitution, because candidates name was misprinted, and because of other difficulties.

The NEW election will be held June 2.

Letters to the Editor

Letter to the Editor: Parents' Weekend

To the degree the three groups—administration, faculty, and students—continue to work together, the Student Senate will take time away from their regular activities, and come to Winona for Parents' Weekend.

This weekend parents from Minneapolis and the surrounding states will be among some 4,000 who will visit Winona for Parents' Weekend.

Parents Weekend is an ideal time for achieving these ends. With the stereotyped image of the so-called "too busy parent" today, it is gratifying to recall the large number of parents in Winona last Friday, May 13, who were determined to see the direct knowledge in the institution of higher learning.

Once the students open the doors of their dorm rooms to studying and learning, then the faculty and academic fiction must respond to the problems and questions raised by the students.

The parents who participate in Parents' Weekend are students, faculty, and administration in a full role. They are a state administration, equipped for the primary task of preparing students, development as a TOTAL human being and the secondary responsibility of providing an education that is based in knowledge in an area that will be the most effective job slot in our society.

This writer finds that in this dialogue Winona State can unchain itself from the burden of the legal ballot, we feel the court is not in the position to decide the how and the procedure of the election. The ballot was objectionable because one candidate's name was incorrectly spelled to the point of misinterpretation. The ballot was objectionable because one candidate's name was incorrectly spelled to the point of misinterpretation. Japanese student speaks at honor society initiation

Thirteen students were formalized into the Gamma Tau Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi recently at Kryzsko Commons.

The students are: Marilyn Stubitz, Winona; Sharon Dewall, St. Paul; Earline Finn, Decorah; Susan Frisch, Minneapolis; Kathryn Johnson, Fitswater; Vicky Leffler, Le Center; Jonelle Milliam, Winona; Darlene Peters, Plainview; Barbara Stewart; Edwina Wolfe, Winona.

At THE BANQUET which was held after the initiation for the new initiates, alumni, members and guests, Miss Hiroko Kawakatsu spoke. She is in her second year at Winona State and is from Kunitama, Japan.

Each student wishing to enter a college or university must take an examination. However, only 30% of those taking the exams are allowed to enter. Once you have passed this exam and are in college, there is no coursework; it is easy to graduate. Not like it is here in the U.S. said Miss Kawakatsu.

Three clubs win Fralic awards

Phi Delta Ego, Phi Sigma Epistle, and Circle K all won awards at Lake Park last Saturday during the Spring Picnic Forever.

Circle K won the first two contests of the night, the canoe paddler and the paddle boat race; Phi Sig took first in the wheelchair race, tug-o-war, and pie eating contest. Phi Sig won the three legged race and egg toss.

Newman holds retreat, elections

Newman Center activities recently have included a three-day retreat over the weekend of April 29, and the annual Newman Convention held the weekend of April 22.

Because of the success of the retreat, two more are tentatively being planned for next year in October and April.

Fifteen men were initiated into Sigma Tau Gamma, national social fraternity, at Winona State College Friday, bringing the total Winona State membership to 70.

The new initiates include: Robert Buckingham, Savage; Robert Mainen, Collingswood, N.J.; Bruce White and Gary McDowell, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Michael Weimer, Princeton, Ill.; Jay Benzen, Houston; Gary Nissen and James Postum, Winona; Rick Stried, Beekman, N.Y.; Ronald Clare, Cannon Falls; Gary Hirschler, Rochester; Kurt Kojala, Plainview; Richard Johnson, Hastings; Wayne Gergen, Randolph, and John Elder, Bloomington.

The new initiates were inducted in formal ceremonies Friday at Holinger Lodge.

Newman’s annual convention was held with 37 Newman members staying at a Methodist retreat. CHRISTIAN living was stressed and shown by giving and sharing with others. Father Olsen, Chaplain, guided the conference meetings and student discussions based on the theme of the retreat, love.

Because of the success of the retreat, two more are tentatively being planned for next year in October and April.

Miss Zimmerman is the chaplain of Sigma Tau Gamma chapter at Winona State University.

Fifteen new initiates have been chosen for membership in the Theta Xi chapter of Phi Delta Phi national fraternity, a national social organization.

SHE represents all Sigma Tau Gamma chapter chapters in Iowa and Minnesota, province 16 of the fraternity.

Since she is a social science major: “it’s the practice teaching at Winona State University secondary school.”

Mankato bows to Warriors

State's baseball team, after seeing their on the road losing streak extended to eight games, rebounded to dump Stevens Point in the second game of a double header at Stevens Point.

In the opener, Stevens Point lashed out for four runs in the fifth inning, overcoming a three run deficit, to dump The Warriors. The Pointers dropped two of three to the Pointers. Roepke hurled a sterling one hit shutout in the first game, winning 3-2.

The game was played on a 90 mph breeze.

The next game on tap for the Warriors will be against Huron State on Wednesday evening.

State to host NIC track meet

Winona State College will host the Northern Interscholastic Conference track meet this Saturday, at Jefferson Field.

Preliminaries will be run in the morning and the afternoon, with the finals in the events scheduled under the lights.

New athletic director named

Wade, Stone set track records

Winona State's thinlinec broke two records and tied a third in the 3,000 meter Invitational track meet held last week.

PETE WADE, who had previously tied the old school mark of 9.9 seconds in the 100 yard dash, set a new standard of 9.8 seconds, in the preliminary runnings.

ROBERT STONE garnered the other record as he bounded through the high hurdles in 15.4 seconds, shaving the old record by a tenth of a second.

The 44 yard relay team tied the school record with a time of 44.4 seconds. The team is composed of Bill Anderson, Lee Ruem, Ron Stoneman, and Wade. Wade scored the only team point for the Warriors when he placed fifth, due to a bad start, in the 160 yard dash. No team results were kept.

Sig Tau will award trophy

Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity will present the James A. McCarty Memorial Scholarship Award May 21.

The award will be presented to the college man participating in intramural softball who can meet the qualifications of sportsmanship, character, desire, attitude and ability.

THE RECIPIENT will be selected by the league umpires and captains prior to May 21, but the winner will not be announced until that time. The trophy is on display in the student union.

WRA opens softball action

The Women's Recreation Association's intramural softball competition continued action last Wednesday evening. Because of rainy weather, all games were held inside Memorial Hall gym.
