This is the old turkeyRESHU and hung her head. Then she said softly, "Nobody axed me."

Banquet for Alumni Held at Dayton's

The reunion and banquet of the Alumni Society, a feature of each biennial session of the Minnesota Education Association, was held at the Dayton Ten Rooms in Minneapolis, October 27 with 322 attending. Peter J. Lougherty, president of the Alumni Society, introduced the toastmaster, Superintendent James A. Vaughr of Chisholm, a graduate of 1902.

Miss Theda Gildemeister spoke on "Choosing Values," bringing out the importance of the imperishable as against the material. She cited the example set by Tycho Brine, Danish astronomer, who by his willingness to sacrifice material values had a foundation of discovery which later influenced Newton and other scientists. She stated that Mr. Maxwell had ever remembered the eternal values in his thirty-five years at the college. It has been mainly because he remembered these values that, thru his efforts, the college has advanced from the station of a two-year college normal to that of a four-year college. He was also instrumental, she said, in making the new library possible. Mr. Maxwell then told in a simple and direct manner the story of the new library - how the need for it was felt and met. President and Mrs. R. W. Holmstrom of Duluth, and Ex-custodian of Education and Mrs. C. G. Schultz of St. Paul, were special guests. James M. Brow of the class of 1886 and Clarence Jick of 1884 were the oldest alumni present, although a number of the graduates of the 80's and 80's also attended.

New Dormitory Dedicated Nov. 7

The faculty and members of the senior class elected six seniors to represent the college in the fifth edition of the publication Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. Those selected were: Cary Sprin- stedt, Lois Jensen, Marvin Wolpert, Lonnie Moon, Lois Simons, and Betty Weatsburn. The admission requirements include character, leadership in curricular activities, scholarship, and potentiality for future business or professional success. This edition of Who's Who Among Students is to include biographies of the outstanding stu- dents in America, a synopsis of each university and college, and unique ways in which men and women pay or partly pay their way through college. The motivating idea of the yearbook is to establish a reference volume of authoritative information of the great body of American college students.

This publication, edited by H. Edith Randall of University, Alaba- ma, leaves the college under no financial obligation.

Art Award Won by Mildred Kjone

Miss Mildred Kjone, former student now teaching in Owatonna, Minnesota, won first prize in a state contest for a design which she submitted to be used on the cover of the History of the Associa- tion of Childhood Education in Minnesota. Miss Kjone's design, which consisted of the monogra- gram of the A.C.E. superimposed on an outline map of Minnesota, was chosen from entries submitted by many colleges in Minnesota.

College Receives New Dormitory

The college has been fortunate in the gift of Miss Ruth Lucas of the Lucas home at 276 West Fifth street to be used as a dormitory. The terms set up by Miss Lucas were that a new college dormitory be built at its Duluth meet- ing, November 5.

In an inspection previous to the offer, Miss Lucas stated that the house, containing 16 principal rooms, a sleeping porch, four bathrooms, and two lavatories, would be a suitable home for 20 students and a resident faculty member or other supervisor. The Lucas dormitory at 276 West Fifth street, the lot being 56 feet deep. There is a two-car brick garage behind the house.

Miss Lucas is planning to deed the building to the college, is now super- visor of Physical Education in the college board at its Duluth meet- ing. November 5.

Let Us Be Grateful

Man has only one fundamental need to satisfy — hunger. In his soul, he hungered for God; in his mind, for freedom; in his body, for food, and shelter, and security in old age — in all, for peace, America it is still true here. Political freedom has always been the object of the United States. With the dancing the Big Apple, the Variety, and the foosball Q, I look to asking some of these "jitterbugs" and their definition of "swing". Here are some of the results:

"Bing" Bailey: A cross-word puzzle written in the form of music.

Janet Foster: "A barbaric expression of joy with bursts of triumphant and synchronization.

Al Flint: "A lot of hot stuff, swung in one place.

"Verno" Urdela: "Something that gets you."

Lauretta Nadess: "Contagious rhythm.

Stuart Farmer: "Lezber's desire of rhythm emanating from our jungle counties."

Press Delegates Report

Delegates who attended the convention of the Minneapolis College-Press Association in St. Paul on October 11 have just returned from the meeting and are now preparing a report.

Three new delegates have been added. Latin and German should be added to the list of the foreign languages which are not being taught here. Some night courses should be added to the list of the night school courses. Also, the double row of seats in the gym should be increased.

The plans for the chorus have been discussed. The choir under the direction of Mr. Shepard has decided to have an audition for new members. The new guidebook! Here is something with rules or reality.

Rules or Reality

Befog Freshmen

The new guidebook! Here is something with rules or reality. This is where the students of Winona State Teachers College are to become acquainted with the rules and regulations of the university. There are three main objectives: to make students aware of the rules governing their conduct, to give them a better understanding of the rules, and to make sure that they are followed. The book is divided into three parts: rules, regulations, and policies. Each part is written in clear, concise language, with examples of how each rule is applied. The book also includes a list of the faculty members who are responsible for enforcing each rule. The book is designed to be used as a reference guide by students, faculty, and staff. It is available in the Student Life Office.
Lecture on Russia

Given by Miss Miller

To Americans "red" signifies radicalism, revolution, and bloodshed, but to the Russians the color means hospitality, beauty, and pleasure. This is one of the things that impressed Miss Margaret Burt, college nurse, during her visit to Russia this summer. Miss Miller spoke before a joint meeting of the International Relations Club, Winona Students, and Kappa Delta on November 2.

The common idea that churches and works of art have been destroyed throughout Russia is a mistaken notion, says Miss Miller. In the Morosov at Leningrad there are over 1,100 original paintings. Churches still stand although most of them have been turned over to so-called "Peasant" enterprises. In the store, and restaurants, and stations. Isaac's Cathedral is now called the "Museum of the History of Religion," but it bears the inscription, "Religion is a guide of the people." above its doors.

Among the places visited by Miss Miller was Lenin's Tomb in Leningrad where from 4,000 to 5,000 people were waiting in line to see the body of the surviving members of his class. She writes that about one-half of the class are living, and that she located all of them except two or three. Six members of the class of 1887 attended a commencement with the final successful search for the surviving members of her class. Miss Parsons is the widow of the late President W. W. Parsons, President of the Terre Haute State Teachers College, to whom she was married while she was dean of women of that college during the past summer.

Miss Miller and her guest artist for the 1933 World's Fair at Chicago. Since then she has produced puppet plays all over the world in such famous adaptations as "Rip Van Winkle," "Hamlet and Gracia," "Little Red Riding Hood," the "Pied Piper of Hamlin," and "Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves." The puppeteer troupe appeared in Winona under the auspices of the Winona Players.

Miss Marvin Speaks On South Africa

Miss Marvin, faculty member of the Winona State Teachers College, spoke before the student body at a recent assembly as her travels through South Africa last summer. At Bootshorn Miss Marvin visited the Tango Caves with their mammoth stalactites and stalagmites. Johannesburg, which is usually thought of as being in the jungle, is one of the most beautiful and up-to-date of cities. Near Johannesburg are the most extensive gold mines in the world, one of them being six thousand feet deep. Miss Marvin went down into one of the mines which was twenty-five hundred feet deep. Miss Marvin saw at close range lions, tigers, hogs, hippopotamuses, and zebras at one of the national game reserves, which is twice as large as Yellowstone National Park.

The Art Club, with the help of their adviser, Miss Crossman, presented a style show on November 7, for the girls of Winona State Teachers College.

The dresses and coats used in the style show were from Arled's Shop. Arled Lovell Griffith being a graduate from Winona State Teachers College in 1933. Arled presented as her guest artist for the evening Miss June Shuh, who played the accordion and tap dance.

Basketball Prospects Are Favorable for Strong Team

Now that the football season is over, Coach Fisk, with the cooperation of Captain Andrejek, will devote time to building an efficient team of basketball "gridders" for the coming season. Practice began on Monday, November 14, at the main gymnasium.

An attractive tentative schedule has been arranged with the Cagers playing their opening game with La Crosse on November 28. The fifteen games will be played before the holidays. The season will close on the evening of March 3, when the Edwardsville game is played.

Returning lettermen who are prospects for the first squad are: Captain Art Andrejek, Howard Brookman, Harold Gradner, Bill Kaczwrowski, Eddie Spencer and Ralph Spencer.

Peds Put 4 on All-Star Team

Coach Jackson's gridironers came in for their share of honors in the all-star selection for the Southern Minnesota All-star football team at the meeting of the coaches and athletic directors of the league at the Curtis Hotel in Minneapolis' Saturday afternoon. Those chosen for the team were: Mervale Wolfak, captain of our eleven who plays left guard; Art Andrejek, quarterback-back; Eddie Spencer, left half-back; and Ralph Spencer, fullback. Charles Saluck, right tackle, placed on the second team. Honorable mention went to the end Milton Rohols and Joe Clowson.

The Peds were placed second in the Northern Teachers College Conference, winning three games and losing one.

T. C. Grasps City Title

More than 1500 people saw Jackson's team again win the annual football championship from St. Mary's Redmen, 14 to 6. A pass from the quarterback-back, Andrejek, was caught by Art Andrejek, R. Spencer, E. Spencer, Kaczrowski, and Andrejek who received a beautiful pass from Kaczwrowski on the two-yard line to go over for the final score.

Peds Humble Dragons 27-0 for Third Win

"It was one of the finest exhibitions we have ever seen of a small-team going into a game against a much larger team and by fighting every minute of the game, overcoming the odds of the game," declared Coach Harry Jackson, commenting on the game played at Mowehow, Friday, October 29.

St. Cloud Surrenders Goat to Warrie

The Winona Teachers College football team proved its homecoming spirit when it defeated the heavier St. Cloud eleven, 13 to 0, in a game of mud on Saturday afternoon, October 22, in the twelfth annual homecoming of our Alma Mater. We again secured Billy, the goat, from the Granite City which has had him since 1930.

Both teams squashed around in the mud for almost three quarters, while the crowd of fans shivered in the rain and snow. The Warriors outlived the heavier Clouds and were able to get their kick through and it was blocked out of bounds for an automatic safety.

A chance came for the Teachers in the second quarter; Kaczrowski dashed toward the goal line where the umpire blocked his path. The ball was placed on the two-inch line. The snow made the end line indiscernible. The Warriors thought he had dropped his ball, but their protest proved futile.

During the latter half the playing consisted mostly of fumbling and running. In the closing minutes of play, Eddie Spencer tried to make a touchdown and Andrejek attempted a field goal.

The Peds were encouraged by the college band.

INTRAMURALS

The intramural program for this year includes basketball, badminton, volleyball, and ping pong. Kittenball is under consideration.

Coach Jackson's Warriors, having been defeated only by the Mankato eleven, rank second in the conference this year. They are however the high-scoring team in the conference, having piled up 56 points to the opponents 2. They also are the smallest team, which is an indication of their care and consistent playing. This season is a climax of three years of effort; Winona was in last place last year.

"I feel that the boys have done a creditable piece of work," Mr. Jackson stated. "They have worked hard and cooperatively. They have been co-operative in every respect and always followed the motto 'all for one and one for all'. They have my hearty congratulations for a successful season."

Wolverton, Barski, and Kraft of the squad and Russell, a reserve, are graduating this year, but the 18 other lettermen are: Roelofs, Saluck, Schulz, Schmitz, Wolverton, N. Johnson, Clauson, Cam-pens, Dittoff, Libby Vorgerose, Flynn, Rasslin, Kaczrowski, Andrej-

ek, R. Spencer, E. Spencer, Kål-brener, Moynihan, Kraft, and Siril.

The intramural events will take place in the main gym after four o'clock on two days of each week.

The intramural board is composed of Art Andrejek, Clark Fulker, William Kaczrowski, Laverne Arms, Robert Steffes. Its Galлагo is the adviser. This board is busy choosing the teams, appointing the captains, and making schedules.
