2 comic operas opening tonight

Two one-act comic operas, “La Serva Padrona” by Giovanni Pergolesi and “Gallantry” by Douglas Moore, open in Somsen Auditorium Thursday, May 17, to highlight parents’ weekend. Musical director is Richmond McClure and stage director is Jacques Reidelberger.

Shows tonight, Friday and Saturday will be at 8:15 p.m. (Cont. on P. 4 Col. 1)

Dr. DuFresne to parents: ‘We covet your interest to the benefit of students’

As President of Winona State College, it gives me great pleasure to welcome parents and prospective students to our campus. We feel that the college is going to be an extremely important part of the lives of the students as the years go on, and there is no doubt that your presence here and your interest in the college and in your sons and daughters encourages us to work even harder to make our contribution as great and as profound as possible.

Winona State College is one of the fastest growing colleges of its type in the country, and is looking forward to a bright and prosperous future. We are rapidly evolving a staff and facilities which are second to none, and our programs of study and curriculum in general are undergoing constant surveillance and upgrading for the purpose of keeping them in line with current developments.

The vital parental role

Nature has put on her best, and Winona State has done the same to welcome our honored visitors for Parents’ Weekend.

As you walk around our campus and in our buildings, see where your parents were first introduced to this institution. This is a moment for a minute to reflect on the impact college has on the world.

While one of the most affluent nations, we have people coming from all corners of the world to learn in our colleges and universities, to take back to their own people a bit of this land of hope and promise, where we try to give each an equal opportunity.

Without colleges, and without educated people, the United States could not be the leader it is today. Throughout our long history, education has always enjoyed top priority. As soon as settlers raised their homes and secured the land, they built two things: a church and a school. This is mainly due to the future generations is what has always made it strong.

You are here, looking at such an educational institution. As the college board in the west, the Winona State College is a long and glorious history. But we do not try to rest on our laurels. In this age of space travel, nuclear warfare and a host of other challenges, the institution of learning, high school, college and university, or graduate school, looms as a larger and larger force on the continue as a constant in the world of change.

While the professors teach will change, the fact that they do teach makes the United States a living and growing society. It is one of the most important functions that can be interested in bettering themselves through education that the world would die.

So, as you view our campus and look into our classrooms, please remember that your parents, and my parents, have made this all possible. To you, we say, from the bottom of our hearts, Thank you.

OF BORGEN: Gorges earns prize for creativity

The Sylvis B. Riemer Award, established in 1962 by Adolph Borgen, a Winona State graduate, to be given each year to a faculty member, is given for creativity in writing and in the theater.

For the second time since it was established, the Sylvis B. Riemer Award has been offered to a senior in theater.

Mr. Borgen, the winning student, has been selected for the prize. He is Victor Gangl whose work was noted in a production of a number of women who did not have the time the tickets are given out.

The open houses will allow parents to visit their sons and daughters, secretary - treasurer; and Shirley Kress, secretary - treasurer.

Area speech festival slated today

A hundred colleges and universities in the adjoining five states have been invited to send students to participate in the Festival of Extemporaneous Speaking to be held on the Winona State College campus this afternoon and evening (Thursday).

FESTIVAL participants will be limited to students presently taking beginning or introductory courses in public speaking. "We expect a limited response to our invitation," Professor Judson told this reporter. "We hope that our students in the several sections of Speech 118 will benefit from the stimulus of matching the effectiveness of their public speaking against speakers from other colleges."

Winona State has received a $96,000 go-ahead from the State College Board for the extension of the student union and food service.

In addition, the proposed remodeling of two residence halls, Morey and Shepard, is under study.

The building allocation includes $344,600 for the extension of the food service and $419,000 for the student union.

The project architect, Erckert & Carlson, has completed the preliminary drawings, and it is assumed that bids will be asked in July so that construction can be completed by September, 1968.

The expansion, which will be eastward, will increase floor space by 60 per cent. About 2,000 seats will be in the dining room, but the kitchen will remain the same. In the original building, it was designed to serve the addition.

On the lower level of the student union, space will be provided for a snack bar, student store, lounge, recreation area and private conference rooms.

The new addition is Phase II. A Phase III in the future will move southwest.

The proposal for Morey and Shepard halls is to remodel or remove the two buildings. The plan is to take the two halls out of operation next year, when the new high-rise can accommodate the increased demand for on-campus housing.

Since the expansion in on-campus housing is not keeping pace with the enrollment, another high-rise is planned for the future.

Finances committee allocates $97,833

A total of $97,833 has been allocated by the finance committee for the 1967-68 school year.

The money has been allocated on the basis of activity fees paid by the students. Projected figures are 3,016 full-time students and 4,737 part-time students fall quarter. 2,086 fall and 4,753 part-time students winter quarter, and 2,764 full-time students spring quarter, and 4,767 part-time students that quarter.

The board authorizes $963,000 addition to student union

Summer, weekend work set

PEACEFULLY WATCHING . . . A Winona police officer customarily holds his nightstick at last Saturday's Peace March, but there were no serious incidents at the anti-war demonstration.

Students and faculty members from the three local colleges participated in the march from Levee Park to Central Methodist Church. The march culminated in a rally at the church, with Rev. Gerald Caswary of St. Mary's College, Prof. Arthur Wilke of WSC, and Prof. William Hill of the College of St. Teresa speaking. A few adolescents threw eggs at the marchers. (Photo by Bill Kraus.)

New fantonie to herald 3-day events

"Fantonie for Parents' Weekend," written especially for the whole weekend, by William Schmid, Winona State College music instructor, will be heard at various intervals throughout the weekend.

The fantonie, Schmid said, will be used to introduce the opera, and all major events on Saturday. It is scored, he said, for three trumpets, three trombones and a snare drum.

HIGHLIGHTS of several of Leonard Bernstein's works will be presented in the courtyard on Saturday of Parents' Weekend.

The concert, lasting about an hour, will be presented by the concert choir, concert band, Madrigals and brass ensembles. The brass will accompany the choir for a number.

The band, directed by William Schmid, will do "Concertino for Percussion and Band," with six percussionists. It is a modern number by Clifton Williams. The band will also do highlights from Bernstein's "West Side Story."

THE CHOIR, directed by Richard McCluer, will do highlights of Bernstein's "Candide."

Sunday, William Schmid, Leonard Purrington, Michael Tents and Winona State, and Glenn Riske will present Music for Trumpets and Organ at Central Methodist Church.

The music will be a variety of pieces, two classical concerts, and several modern examples of writing for the trumpet and organ.

SCHMID, Purrington and Tents will all be on the trumpets, and Riske will play the organ for the recital.

Accounting major courses changed

Accounting majors will encounter changes, according to Dr. Warren Marley, chairman of the Business Division.

The revised major, he said, has the approval of the Minnesota State Board of Accountancy, so that students who graduate from Winona State are immediately eligible to sit for the Certified Public Accountant Examination.

A Master of Business Administration also has been submitted, he went on, and has been approved by the committee. The committee will probably set it in June, and until then, action can't be released.

In the Accounting Major, three new courses have been added. They are: Business 460, Advanced Income Tax Accounting, four quarter hours, and Business 497 in a prequisite; Business 480, Accounting Systems, four quarter hours, and Business 340 or the consent of the instructor are required to gain admittance to this class; and Business 450, CPA Problems. It is also four quarter hours and the major must have at least 24 quarter hours in accounting or the consent of the department to enter the class.

The new accounting major, Dr. Marley pointed out, requires only one of the new courses, Accounting Systems. The new accounting major is:

'24 graduate returns after Ohio service

CATHERINE McCAFFREY, Class of '24, has returned to Winona. In June, 1966, she retired from teaching in the public schools of Akron, Ohio. While teaching she completed work for her bachelor's degree at the University of Akron.

ALICE BECHTER, Class of '23, has retired from teaching in the public schools in Minneapolis to live in her new home at 1223 W. Broadway, Winona. Her birthplace has been sold to Winona State College and is being used temporarily by the very active music department.

The Alumni Association of Winona State College has received a contribution from Mrs. Robert Muller, formerly Ellen Behnken.

Richard W. Macley, class of '39 with a Bachelor of Science degree, received a Master of Arts degree in teaching of mathematics from Western Michigan University.

Rudolph C. Andersen, class of '37, is taking his second tour of Europe this summer. He plans to see more of Denmark, visit Sweden and the Arctic Circle. Also, he hopes to find a fifth cousin in his stay in Norway.

REARRANGING CARDS . . . As the opening of the new library nears, the cards in the card catalogue are rearranged. From left are: Mrs. Janet Judd, librarian, Paul Johnson, Barbara Banfield, Mr. Edward Jacobsen, head librarian, and Janet Prudhoe. Members of the collegiate club will be guides for special tours during parents weekend, May 20, from 11:00.
FRIEDAY'S GAME saw Winona push past two runs in the bottom of the ninth in a story-book finish which gave Rick Smith a relief victory. Smith pitched one inning in relief of Chip Schwarts.

St. Cloud picked up four runs in the fifth inning for a 4-1 lead, but the Warriors kept pecking away, whittling the lead down to 4-3 going into the ninth.

In the ninth, the Huskies blasted a lead-off home run off Huskie pitcher Parks to tie the score, and the rally was underway. Hank Zacharlas and Chuck Goe- rash both walked as St. Cloud's pitcher tired, and Denny Morgan stroked a 9-4 pitch between sec-second and third. The throw to the plate was a split-second late as Zacharlas slid across home plate.

SATURDAY'S doubleheader looked like Black Saturday for the Warriors, as the twin losses dropped Winona to second place.

St. Cloud batters rocked the Warriors' two winningest pitchers, Jack Benedext and Denny Iverson, for four home runs. The Huskies built up a 6-4 lead in the three innings that Benedect worked in the first game. Four of the six hits he gave up were for extra bases.

Schlofield relieved Benedect in the fifth, giving up a run on a pair of walks and a fielder's choice. Rick Smith then pitched 2⅓ innings of perfect ball to fines in three separate innings, but scored only in the third, when Al Concom and Pat Bojad each drew walks with the sacks full.

St. Cloud's starter in the second game, Jack Peterson, threw noloel ball for three innings until Concom's leadoff double in the fourth broke the ice. Zacharlas followed with a single to right to drive in Concom and the Warriors had their only lead of the afternoon. But the Huskies bounded back in the fourth against Iverson, pushing across three unearned runs. He gave up a solo homer in the sixth, and a two-run home in the seventh. It was Iverson's first loss of the season, his record is now 5-1.

Coach Grob's squad wins up NCAC this weekend with three-game series at Mankato. St. Cloud is at Moorhead where they must lose two of three to enable Winona to cop another league title.

Netmenstop Eau Claire, record 7-5

The Warrior tennis team topped Eau Claire's 7-5 Saturday to finish out the dual meet season with a 7-5 record.

Craig Thornton opened up the afternoons matches with a 6-3, 6-4 win over Eau Claire's O'Brien, their consistent first singles winner. Dick Nelson sewed up second singles for State with a 6-3, 6-4 win.

The Warrior baseball team capitalized on a rally to beat St. Cloud 9-4 Friday, but slipped to second place in the NIC with two losses in Saturday's double-headed match at Gabrych Park, 7-2 and 6-1.

St. Cloud's Huskies are now 18-2 in NIC play, a game ahead of the Warrior's 3-3 mark.

The Warrior golfers bomed Stout State 17-1 last Friday, but came out fourth in the Honeywell Invitational Collegiate golf meet on Saturday.

Jim Huetli and Tom Nelson both fired 71's on the par-72 course to lead the attack against Stout. Roger Flahbich turned in the next lowest score for the Warrior linksmen with a 73. Dave Hecke and Jim Stout both finished at 77, with Stout's best efforts coming from Ken Urck at 78.

COACH MOLINARI'S crew is now 10-2 in dual competition, but they did not fare quite so well against the tough competition at Minneapolis. The Warriors finished fourth of nine teams entered, the next lowest score for the trio was a 10-2 in NIC play, a game ahead.

Meanwhile, Al VonBargen was smashing to an easy 6-1, 6-3 win over Youngberg and
