Players Seen Again in Three-Act Farce

LARGE AUDIENCE SEES "THE TORCH BEARERS"

"The Torch Bearers" is a satirical comedy by George Kelly. It was presented to an enthusiastic audience of Players on March 16. The cast, which follows, put some hard work on the stage:

Honsorooste . . . Stanley Arbingast
Ritter ... Dale Beauchamp
Spindler . . . Leslie Johnson
Tuller ... William Myer
Teddy ... Arthur Mattson
Mrs. Sampinelli . . . Irene Welch
Mrs. Fell ... Edna Justman
Florence ... Ardath Lovell
Jenny ... Mrs. Kitter
Lila Densine
Clara Nepo ... Louise Schlechter

Tickets for the play were seventy-five cents and one dollar. Students were admitted to the seventy-five-cent classes by presenting one of their term tickets. (One dollar seats were secured by paying twenty-five cents extra.)

The work done by the Wenonah Players was most commendable to the director, and helped to make the production truly a success.

COMMODORE LONGFELLOW TALKS IN CHAPEL

On March 21, COMMODORE Longfellow gave the talk on "Father of Life-Saving" which was most enjoyable. The students of the class heard the Commodore Longfellow of the American Red Cross at the Chapel on March 16. Mr. Longfellow, who is the father of Red Cross life-saving, was in the presence of given life-saving demonstrations. He told his story and gave these demonstrations. He also gave several recitations of good verse. He gave some good advice: "Stay away from the shore and out of the fishy if you cannot swim and can't help it." And: "Don't swim out until you are all in." Mr. Longfellow was introduced by Mr. French, who is the acting-president of the college.

The Commodore also addressed the members of the physical education class, St. Mary's College, St. Teresa College, and the Winona High School during his few days in this city.

PHILPS J.H.S. CHILDREN PUT ON PROGRAM

The Phillips Junior High School gave a very entertaining program on February 17, at 8:00 P.M. The Boys Scouts and the Campfire girls displayed their fine talents in a French jamboree. Other attractions were a Russian Dance by Catherine MacPherson and a Cambodian Comedy by Miss Funsten and Paul Nissen. The program culminated with a music review of "The Yellow Brick Road" an adaptation of G. de Maupassant's story of the same name. The pupils of the Junior High school were thus entertained.

T.C. PENMANSHIP PRAISED

Miss Pearl Mallory, Palmer penmanship instructor, recently recorded to comply with the requirements of the National Association of Penmanship Teachers and Deans to be held in Chicago in April.

QUIET STUDY ROOM

On one morning in Chapel, Henry Fishbaugher, the Boys' Physical Education Student, made the plea that the noise of the chimes be stopped. This was disturbing noise so that those who go into this room to really study may be able to do so. The bell committee should be notified the speaker to converse with one's neighbor or to do their homework. After the debate public opinion should trump on all who do.

SUCCESSFUL DEBATING SEASONS END

Fishbaugh, Coach

Among the college activities which have been of great interest support during the mid-year season has been debating. Ever since the class in debate was organized last November an earnest effort has been made by the Debaters and Mr. Fishbaugh, their coach, to represent the college in the best possible manner.

The question being debated in this debate is: "Is the West the mid-west colleges. The statement of the proposition reads, to wit: "The West should be closed off to prevent the damage of cultural and intellectual invasion and from all Central Europe, countries, except after formal declaration of war. The speakers representing the affirmative team were Philip Houghtelling, Joe Packard, Harold McCormick, and William Schroeder. The negative team are Leo Dallm, Paul Jones of St. Teresa's College, and Henry Schroeder.

Early in the January the negative team defeated Macalester College. On the evening of Thursday, Feb. 10, both the affirmative and negative teams met the creators of La Crosse T. C., our affirmative team debating them there. Both decisions were unanimous for T. C. P. The following week, Macalester debated Eau Claire Normal in a practice debate. Both teams made the trip to St. Paul. In the afternoon the affirmative team continued in a practice debate with Macalester College, and the negative team met the "young Webster's" of St. Thomas College. The next day Macalester were in the Veterans' Hospital at Fort Snelling. T. C. lost the decision by a vote of 59 to 142. In all the debates, however, the C. T. ites did very creditably, and with the exception of the St. Thomas contest, excelled their opponents in presentation and argument.

FREE PUBLICITY

Some scenes from the popular "Rendevous" written by Alet- ter and "See It Through" by Barrere's "Little Lord Fauntleroy". All the scenes were well received and helped to keep track of one another, chiefly by their varied appeal. Some scenes were occupied with pursuing Illi- nois' "Mighty Lake" with a goal, but they found it actually difficult to keep track of one another. The girls of the college demonstrated the Japanese "Sakura" and "Disney" and "Sisters" of the same line of thought.

DEBATE DECISIONS

10-2 in favor of T. C.

STIFF OPPORTION FOUND IN ST. THOMAS TEAM

The T. C. affirmative team, in a judge-decision debate with Saint Thomas, gained their second victory of the season on March 23. With their opponents by a 2 to 1 decision. When the decision was announced, the affirmative team Debated that the decision might be appealed, it was upheld, and as a result, the victory is one of which T. C. can be proud. St. Thomas has always had good debating teams. With some 20 debates completed and ten more scheduled, one may be certain that they all furnished us the option that the T. C. debaters were able to handle, and to meet the St. Thomas speakers on even terms if all that was expected.

The teams were: Mrs. L. M. Fischer, formerly of the high school at Winona, Misses Morgan, B. J. Wiesinger, W. F. G. of St. Teresa's College, Mr. Simmers of the Radio Station, W. F. G., and Mr. John McCarthy, C. N. Laine, W. S. T. C, Philip Houghtelling and Henry Schroeder.

LARGE AUDIENCE SEES PHi-ED DEMONSTRATION

The Physical Education Demonstration Night at the College Hall gymnasium Friday, February 24. A large audience watched the girls of the college demonstrate the various phases of the work participated in during the winter season.

Physical Education Special students appeared first, they briskly marched, side stepped, turned about, and gave a number of stiff maneuvers given by Miss Talbot. The Sophomore girls gave three falset dances, and sang a popular song. Miss Talbot, Miss Eihl, and Miss Czichak, a Hungarian student, demonstrated the lady's dance. Misses Talbot and the Duck relay, Rescue relay, Beech Goos, Punch and Italian relays were given. The Specials again came to the floor and gave Kamashoula, a Russian folk dance. The next number was recognized as a clog followed by a string and then a most exciting game of Hit Pin Baseball was played. "Sky Little Miss Moffet," the abused "Tar Baby" and pomoous Old King Cole then appeared upon the scene to the strains of familiar nursery rhymes.

The last number on the program was a series of interpretative dances. Ragny Aggen and Ragny Andy loved the audience, but they found it actually difficult to keep track of one another, chiefly by their varied appeal. The girls of the college demonstrated the Japanese "Sakura" and "Daisy" and "Sisters" of the same line of thought.

MEET THE WIFE

"Meet the Wife" which was put on for the benefit of the Winona Legion was one of the most successful home talent plays ever presented in Winona. Sky Little Miss Moffet, the abused "Tar Baby" and pompous Old King Cole then appeared upon the scene to the strains of familiar nursery rhymes.

A STORY WITH A MORAL

Our fond parents and kind teachers and various and sundry other fellers, they had a little thing, and it was this thing, only they could not treat it just the same thing many as they could — and just-like some of us may not have thought of it in the last day or two we shall bring the subject up again. This is the way it was treated in one of the most sporting events of the high society, the Rambleranath Tagore, the Indian poet, is responsible for the following:

"A man knew that somewhere along the pebbly ocean shore, there was one pebble, a touch from which would change iron into gold. Hour after hour, he walked, touching pebbles from the iron bracelet he wore on his wrist.

"One day, picking up pebbles and dropping them, at the same time, was sinking, he looked down and saw that he wore a golden bracelet. He had picked up the magic pebble, and it had done its work. But was sinking, he looked down and saw that he wore a golden bracelet.

"For workers that treat their jobs mechanically content to 'get by', sooner or later the chance comes. He that fails to pay attention, his chance was gone. And he had held it in his hands.

"Our fond parents and kind teachers and various and sundry other teachers extended receive no recognition. Too much is being taken for granted. It is all right for boys and girls, men or women to scratch with knife, pencil, and finger. Our fond parents and kind teachers and various and sundry other teachers are not what they are.

"Mr. Thompson. How they bellow and shout when they're first starting out, but "the dawn's early light" finds them fest keenly.

"A letter has recently come from Beulah Sanders, '27, who is teaching English at the school at Alabama. She wrote that there are twelve teachers with the club. Then when autographs appear, the holders are forced into a policy of exclusion. Because of the discovery of the general public, they are compelled to protect themselves. It is a dangerous list of ill-bred persons: this list of persons who post their initials. AUTOGRAPHS

It was all right for certain men to cut their initials on a rock in Lake Winnipesaukee. There was a purpose in that. It marked the boundary of Madison. David Livingston cut his initials in the bark of a tree on the brink of the falls of the Zambezi River. That was all right too. It meant something, and he had earned the right to mark his boundary with his own. When the 'New York Daily Graphic' of the New York Public Library, Spinney, with a bit of Hall's Magic Pen, wrote: 'A letter has recently come from Beulah Sanders, '27, who is teaching English at the school at Alabama. She wrote that there are twelve teachers with the club. Then when autographs appear, the holders are forced into a policy of exclusion. BUY AN ANNUAL Music lifts us on high and builds up the spirits of our hearts and curses. — Goethe.

On Sunday evening, Feb. 20, a concert was given by the Minnesota Methodist Church by the Mendel- sonian Club, the Grimm trio and various other members of the Methodist Church. The Mendelsonian Club sang the "Secret Song" (Reve Angelique), by Rubinstein. Mrs. Walter Grimes played the piano and Mr. Abner Sunde sang the part of the leader. Janet Rothweed sang the concerto solo, accompanied by the Grimm trio. Two numbers, "Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me" by Gould; and "Abide With Me" by Paine and Flower. The Mendelsonian Club played several numbers consisting of: "March of the Priests." Mencellochon  A Tender Thought. Chas. Heuer and

For some time regular organ concerts have been given by different churches of the city. These recitals have been greatly appreciated by all who have attended them. Much can be learned of the style of music by the performances of the organ, and as the programs consist mostly of church music, they are enjoyed by all who wish to study or follow the music students.

The Mendelsonian Club has been spending great deal of its practice time on the cantata "The Lady of Shalott." They have recently begun to sing this cantata at its annual spring concert this year.

ART CLUB

The Art Club held a meeting Monday evening, Feb. 19. Mrs. Cassidy was unable to attend the meeting, but we are very glad that she will be with us from now on.

The time and place of regular meeting was changed to every other Thursday night from seven to ten o'clock. The president announced that from now on anyone having more than three consecutive unexcused absences would be asked to withdraw from the club.

Each member was to pay the dollar and twenty-five cents fee to receive his pin at Morgan's Jewelry store.

The twenty-five cent dues were to be turned in to the treasurer as soon as possible. It was decided that the dues for the spring quarter should be thirty-five cents, so as to raise the ten dollars for the club picture in the annual.

A very interesting report on a familiar picture, "The Dance of the Nymphs," was given by Ada Thompson.

As there was no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

A letter has recently come from Beulah Sanders, '27, who is teaching English at the school at Alabama. She wrote that there are twelve teachers with the club. MOTHERS' MEETING

The Kindergarten Mothers' Club held a meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 27. It was held at their room, fourteenth, at three fifteen in the Kindergarten rooms.

Miss Sutherland spoke on the "Kindergarten Song of Today— Its Place in Growth." The points made by Miss Sutherland were clarified to those present by songs by Mrs. M. A. Frazer, a mother of one of the Kindergarten children and Mrs. Albinson who is a member of the club, served on in analyses for the Winona General Hospital.

Refreshments were served.

THE WINONAN

T.C. TOPPLES MANKATO

Score 37-19

Winona continued to be a consistent winner in the Women’s Basketball Tournament by toppling Mankato by a score of 37 to 19. The last time the game was played was 42 to 19 in our favor. Rochester defeated by St. Cloud in the Lightning in the other game leaving Winona, St. Cloud, and Little Falls tied for first place.

During the first half of the game Winona had everything her own way. The team worked as a machine, every player having a certain duty to do, and did it to perfection. They took the ball into Manistee territory and emerged with a basket full of points. Rochester showed a little bit of ball handling, and fast passing gave them a few free throws.

Winona scored ten points in the first half before Manistato had scored one marker and were unable to succeed in scoring up 24 for Winona, the game being as level as the half ended.

The second half Manistato came back stronger. They passed with greater care and adopted a more aggressive type of play. Winona eased up a bit during the last stanza and did not do quite as much that Manistato succeeded in playing Winona on even terms, each team scoring 13 points.

Captain “Scotty” was the high scorer of the game. He succeeded in snaring six field goals, six free throws for a total of seventeen points. Helling was second high with a total of 9 points.
