Russ Bow to Ultimatum on Austria

U.S., France, Britain, United In Backing Diem

But Bao Dai May Have to Go as Chief of State

PARIS (AP)—The United States, France and Britain were reported united today in backing embattled Premier Ngo Dinh Diem as head of the South Viet Nam government. They apparently gave chief of state Bao Dai a new but possibly short lease on his job.

Soon after the accord was disclosed here, a complication arose. Saigon dispatches said Diem is asking France either to group its expeditionary corps in South Viet Nam at the 17th Parallel or withdraw it from the country.

The 17th Parallel marks the boundary between South Viet Nam and the northern territory turned over to the Communist-led Vietminh under last year's Geneva armistice. The French force of some 50,000 men now is based chiefly in the Saigon area, at Tourane in central Viet Nam and at Cap St. Jacques, on the coast southeast of the capital city.

French to Pull Out
The United States, France and Britain reportedly had agreed last night that the French troops should be brought home as the training of the Vietnamese national army progressed.

The three-nation accord on the future of the strife-torn Asian state was reported following a late night conference of U. S. Secretary of State Dulles, French Premier Edgar Faure and British Foreign Minister Harold Macmillan. Informal sources said the three agreed:

1. Bao Dai will keep his title, subject to the final decision of a freely elected Vietnamese national assembly. But the chief of state will remain in France, where he has lived for more than a year, and presumably will stop trying to influence the Saigon government.

Will Urge Elections
2. The United States will encourage Diem to hold speedy national elections for a legislative assembly. The Premier has been reported eager to set an early date for the voting, possibly in July.

3. The French and the Americans will urge Diem to broaden his government. Diem announced a new government Tuesday which includes representatives of the Cao Dai and Hoa Hao religious sects which previously opposed him. The French would like more members friendly to them.

The French previously opposed Diem, contending he was incapable of uniting the country in the face of the Communist threat from the North. The United States has backed him as a patriot and a strong anti-Communist.

China Pledges Troops to Russ

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—Communist China pledged today that she will fight alongside the Soviet Union and her allies if war is unleashed in Europe.

Peng Teh-huai, Red China's defense minister and deputy Prime Minister, made that declaration in the name of the Peiping government at a session of a Warsaw conference called to establish an Eastern defense organization to rival the North Atlantic Treaty Organization set up by the West. Peng also declared Peiping stands firmly for peaceful coexistence. He said his government is ready to negotiate on any international differences—including Formosa. But he warned that "to sober military adventures" it should be firmly understood that the current balance of forces hangs in favor of the "camp of peace and socialism."

Minneapolis Man Held for Car Theft

DES MOINES (AP)—William Roscoe Eyles, 28, Minneapolis, was returned to Des Moines from Forest City Wednesday on a charge of stealing a car here on May 2.

U to Graduate 2,426 Thursday

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—The 2,426 University of Minnesota spring graduates will take part in the traditional Cap and Gown Day exercises on the campus next Thursday.

Mrs. Robert C. Loftus took her four youngest children to the Salk clinic in Grand Rapids, Mich., Wednesday to get shots they qualified for because they took part in the evaluation of vaccine last year. Connie, 3, getting shot, suffered a severe polio attack last year and other members of her family gave blood specimens for study. Waiting to get their shots from Dr. John C. Morley, assistant city health officer, are, left to right: Christine, 4; Mrs. Loftus; Steven, 18 months, and Debbie, 6. Michigan is the only state going ahead with the vaccine program pending federal study. (UP Telephoto)

Dorgan sent the doll to the Dayton Daily News for delivery to Sherry, after he saw the Wirephoto and AP story in the News, telling how she was burned over 75 per cent of her body, and has already had 10 skin grafts, more to come. She is now in a Cincinnati hospital. (AP photo)

ST. PAUL (AP)—Gov. and Mrs. Orville Freeman will be hosts of the Minnesota Viking Tour to Norway, Sweden and Denmark, an expedition commemorating Paul Knutson's fabled voyage in 1350.

Leaving Minneapolis by airplane on July 23, the governor and his wife will first go to Oslo, Norway. Then they will continue to Stockholm, Sweden on July 28, to Copenhagen, Denmark on Aug. 1, and return to the Twin Cities on Aug. 5.

Aboard the plane also will be the controversial Kensington rune stone, allegedly inscribed by the Viking band near Alexandria, Minn., 600 years ago.

The tour will be conducted under auspices of the state of Minnesota, the Scandinavian Travel Commission and the Chamber of Commerce of Alexandria, Minn.

Bulganin Will Try to Drive Hard Bargain

Sen. George Warns Of Possibilities of Conference Failure

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower may find himself involved in harder bargaining than he seems to expect if and when he sits down with Russian Premier Nikolai Bulganin at Big Four talks.

Bulganin may well press a whole set of basic demands outlined in a new program for disarmament and ending the cold war which Moscow made public Tuesday night.

A word of caution against approaching any heads-of-state talks with "a defeatist attitude" came today from Chairman George (D-Ga) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. George, who had urged such talks at a time when Eisenhower was cool to the idea, said the administration should take the "strong initiative" in its approach.

Willing to Try

His comments were obviously prompted by Eisenhower's statement yesterday that his willingness to meet with the heads of state of Britain, France and Russia was based in part on "a vague feeling some good might come out of such a conference."

"One thing that is disturbing to me," George said, "is whether we are moving with any real conviction to take the initiative."

"We must recognize all the possibilities of failure in any such conference, but we should have a positive, not a defeatist attitude toward it. If we are going to accomplish anything in the world, we have to have such a positive attitude and I'm afraid we don't have it now."

Experts here believe that just as Eisenhower may urge Bulganin to use his influence to get a ceasefire in the Formosa area, so Bulganin may press Eisenhower to reconsider plans for the arming of West Germany.

In their new disarmament program, the Russians suggested various steps they said could be taken through the United Nations. They would, they said, readily try to promote them in four power talks.

Taking Hard Look

While there may be some genuine concessions in the disarmament plan, American officials are taking a hard look at these Soviet aims:

1. To get the bulk of Big Four forces withdrawn from Germany. Soviet troops would be pulled back a few hundred miles at the most; those of the United States to this side of the Atlantic.

2. The situation inside Germany thereafter would be handled by "strictly limited contingents of local police forces." This suggests that the Russians are trying to substitute "local police forces" for the 500,000-man military force which West Germany is supposed to contribute to the allied defense of Western Europe.

3. Far East questions would be settled "in conformity with the principles of sovereignty and territorial integrity." As the Communists would read that, it undoubtedly means Formosa should be given to Red China.

4. All trade discriminations should be eliminated—a point aimed at knocking down the embargoes which sharply limit trade to Red China.

5. The United States would give up the military bases it has developed over a decade in the Far East and Europe to create a barrier against expanding Soviet and Red Chinese power.

St. Peter Driver Killed by Train

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Paul Wagner, 71, rural St. Peter, was killed late Wednesday when his car was struck by a train at a crossing near Lakeville. He was riding alone.

Officers said the wreckage of Wagner's car was carried some distance before the engine could stop the Minneapolis, Northfield & Southern Railroad freight.

Wagner's death carried the state traffic toll to 168 compared with 215 a year ago.

Emil Tuma, 23, was crushed to death Wednesday at Webster in Rice County when he was caught between a truck and a loading platform. His death was not counted as a traffic fatality because it came in the shipping yard of the Webster Cooperative Creamery.

Tuma lived at Lonsdale, Minn.

Chuckling Stranger Costs Sailor $127

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—A brief friendship with a chuckling stranger he met in the bus depot here cost a young sailor from International Falls $127.

John A. Roslee, 19, was on his way home from boot camp at Great Lakes when he met the stranger. The man said he was also waiting for an International Falls bus and the two went for a walk to kill 45 minutes.

After meeting another man outside, the stranger suggested the three pitch pennies.

Roslee pulled out his billfold. The stranger grabbed it laughingly, took the money from it and stuffed it into his pocket. Still laughing, he took his hand out of his pocket and jammed something under the sailor's jumper.

While Roslee was pulling what turned out to be a wad of paper from under his jumper, the men ran away.

MAN SLAIN FOR $17

Milwaukeean Tells Of Casual Killing

MILWAUKEE (AP)—A calm, almost casual youth of 22, accused of the wanton slaying of a tavernkeeper in a $17 holdup, faces Municipal Court arraignment next Wednesday on a charge of first degree murder.

Ronald Riege waived preliminary hearing in District Court Tuesday about eight hours after being arrested for the fatal shooting of Carl Fischer, 45, at Fischer's White Elephant Tavern.

He was taken into Municipal Court for trial but his court-appointed counsel, Brooke Tibbs, asked for a delay "in order to determine what plea should be entered."

Dist. Atty. William McCauley told Judge Herbert Steffes that Riege already had indicated a wish to plead guilty to the murder charge and to one of armed robbery. However, Judge Steffes continued the case to May 18 and ordered Riege held without bond.

Taken to the morgue to identify Fischer's body, he said: "That's the man I shot."

He told detectives he had wanted to try out a .38 caliber automatic pistol he bought a month ago.

"You know how it is when you get a new car; when you get it out on the highway you want to see how it can do," he said. "Well, that's what I wanted to do with the gun."

He intended to rob the tavern and then go to work "to establish an alibi" but things went awry from the start.

He sat at the bar and ordered Mrs. Fischer to deliver the money in the cash register. But she was listening to the Milwaukee Braves game on the radio, and is a little hard of hearing, and did not comply with his demand.

Riege fired a shot into the back bar.

Fischer, who had been watching television at the other end of the bar, came forward "and I shot him in the stomach. I didn't want to hit him in the arm or leg. I wanted to kill him instantly."

Fischer fell to the floor moaning as his wife threw money on the bar. Riege picked up the bills, but when he saw the money was only $17, he said he was "fed up" and put him out of his misery.

An autopsy showed two bullets through Fischer's heart and two in the abdomen.

Acting on a tip, police arrested Riege at work. Thinking he had been identified by Mrs. Fischer, he readily admitted the slaying.

Riege drove a 1951 Cadillac, for which he owes more than $1,900; and a 1948 motorcycle with a $300 embezzlement.

He said his greatest thrill always has been to drive fast.

"But I won't be needing my biky anymore so if you know anyone who wants one I'll sell it for $450," he told police.

Other than getting four tickets for speeding, he had never been in trouble before and his mother said he had been a good boy.

Detectives said that when he asked her son why he committed the murder, Riege replied: "You wanted your board money, didn't you?"

Laughter Greeted 3 'Holdup Men'

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—Three young boys were in the detention home today after a string of holdups in downtown business houses netted them only the laughter of their victims.

The trio, 13, 14 and 15, made their first call at a bank and demanded money from a cashier in notes signed Al Capone, John Dillinger and Pretty Boy Floyd.

The cashier laughed at their demands and they left, next to call at a tobacco shop where again their orders to turn over money ended in laughter.

At a liquor store a clerk laughed and then called police. The trio was picked up by police who did not think there was anything funny about it and ordered the boys under lock and key until an investigation is completed.

Police said none of the trio carried any weapons. The junket began after the boys decided to skip school.

Agreement Will Clear Way for Early Signing

Independence Will Be Granted To Austrians

BULLETIN

PARIS (AP)—The Vienna deadlock broken, U.S. Secretary of State Dulles announced today he will fly to the Austrian capital tomorrow for the signing of the Austrian independence treaty.

PARIS (AP)—The Vienna agreement on an Austrian independence pact appeared to clear the way today for the treaty's signature by the Big Four foreign ministers this weekend. U. S. Secretary of State Dulles in Vienna had set a 12-hour deadline this morning for the agreement.

French foreign officials announced receipt of official word of the accord Austria has been awaiting 10 years. Without disclosing details, they said they were advised Russia gave way to the Western demand for revision of a controversial article in the draft.

Big Four Agrees On Austrian Pact

By LYNN HEINZERTING

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—The Big Four reached agreement today on an Austrian independence treaty. This was reported by informed Western sources in advance of a communiqué.

The foreign ministers of the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union will fly to Vienna this weekend to put their signature on a treaty the Austrians have been waiting for 10 years.

Ratification will mean that Austria will be free and sovereign for the first time in 17 years. Some 70,000 troops of Russia and the West will leave.

Agreement was reached after nine days of difficult negotiations which it was feared earlier today might break down. For the past three days the ambassadors of the four powers had been deadlocked on a Western demand that the Russians put into the treaty economic concessions granted the Austrians during talks in Moscow last month.

Western informants said the Russians finally gave way to the Western demand, thus paving the way for the actual signing.

Informed sources said the ambassadors decided to make the Soviet concessions an annex to the treaty. The concessions include return of the Zisterdorf oil fields and the Danube Shipping Co. to Austria.

British Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan scheduled a Paris departure for Friday for Vienna.

U. S. Secretary of State Dulles was expected to do likewise.

French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay had already planned to leave Friday for the Austrian capital.

Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov will arrive from a Communist conference in Warsaw.

U. S. Ambassador Llewellyn E. Thompson Jr. declared as he left the Allied Control Mission building, where the secret treaty meetings have been held:

"We are over the hump. The state treaty is practically concluded. I am very satisfied with the results achieved."

Austrian Foreign Minister Leopold Figl said as he left: "The state treaty will be signed during the next few days."

Earlier Figl had told the Austrian Parliament the treaty signing was close at hand. The Austrians had been worried considerably over the delay in reaching final agreement.

Search for the bodies was ordered abandoned Wednesday night after only a helmet had been found floating in the oil slick where the planes went down.

Durand School Addition Meeting Slated for May 20

DURAND, Wis. (Special) — A $300,000 school addition, to include 12 classrooms and a gymnasium, will be discussed by the Durand City Council and the town chairman of the towns of Durand, Canton and Maxville here May 20.

At that time a date is to be named for a school district referendum on the bond issue. According to a city official, this will be at least two weeks later than the May 20 meeting as the election notice must be published for at least two weeks prior to the poll.

As planned by the board of the city school system, the town chairman and the council, the addition would be financed by a $300,000 bond issue by the city with all taxpaying residents of the school district assessed for the principal and interest. Shaughnessy & Co., Minneapolis financing firm, has agreed to handle the bonds for $2,000.

Independence Man Freed in Death Of Tractor Driver

ALMA, Wis. (Special) — The state's case against Jerome Slabik, Independence, charged with driving with a high degree of negligence after a car-tractor accident in which the tractor driver was fatally injured Aug. 29, 1954, was dismissed Wednesday by Judge Kenneth S. White in the opening day of Buffalo County Circuit Court.

Slabik, driver of the car, had been charged in connection with the death of Glenn Schaub, 30-year-old Cream farmer, LaVerne G. Kostner of the Arcadia law firm of Fugina, Kostner and Ward, moved for dismissal on the grounds that the state had failed to show that Slabik had driven with a high degree of negligence.

Slabik and a passenger in the car that was traveling north on Highway 88, Jerome Besek, were injured in the mishap. Both tractor and car were demolished.

Called as witnesses were Besek, Traffic Officer Henry Zeichert, Hilbert Kaste, Roswell Schaub, William Balk and Hilbert Schultz, Dist. Atty. Gary Schlostein represented the state.

Following the dismissal, jurors were instructed to report at 1:30 p.m. today for the trial of Earl Douglas and others, a fishing law violation case.

In other action Wednesday, Val Guenther, charged by the state with breaking and entering filling stations, was granted a delay in trial but denied reduction of the $1,000 bond. His attorney, J. J. Gleason, requested that the case be moved to the end of the calendar. It was continued to the fall term.

Athletic Club Pays Old-Timers Tribute

The Winona Athletic Club, whose most strenuous sporting activities are cards, square dancing and bowling, vigorously applauded its old-timers and past presidents Wednesday night.

Some 250 members gave their heartfelt cheers for a past president, Henry Kowalewski, who entertained, as he said, with some of his old sayings and recitations, but there was enough enthusiasm left over for:

Mayor Loyde E. Pfeiffer, who reported that it had been suggested to him after his re-election in April, when he carried all of the city's 16 precincts even against a 4th Ward candidate, that he move from the 1st Ward to the 4th Ward.

Club President Henry Muras, who announced that the 1,076 members have given about $3,100 to supplement insurance payments after the $31,000 fire last fall.

Two priests—the Rt. Rev. B. A. Kramer of Kellogg, formerly of Winona, and a club member, and the Rev. Roy Litterski, an assistant pastor at St. Stanislaus Catholic Church.

The St. Mary's College dance band, which played new tunes for the old-timers.

Toastmaster D. C. Bambenek, who as Kowalewski said as he began his address at the end of the evening, could, and did, tell lots of stories he (Kowalewski) knew about the members.

The Athletic Club, said Kowalewski, is the finest, most unique, independent, nonpolitical, non-sectarian club in the country. It doesn't have to answer to any grand lodge.

The club is like the U. S. form of government, he said. "Any laws you make are for yourself."

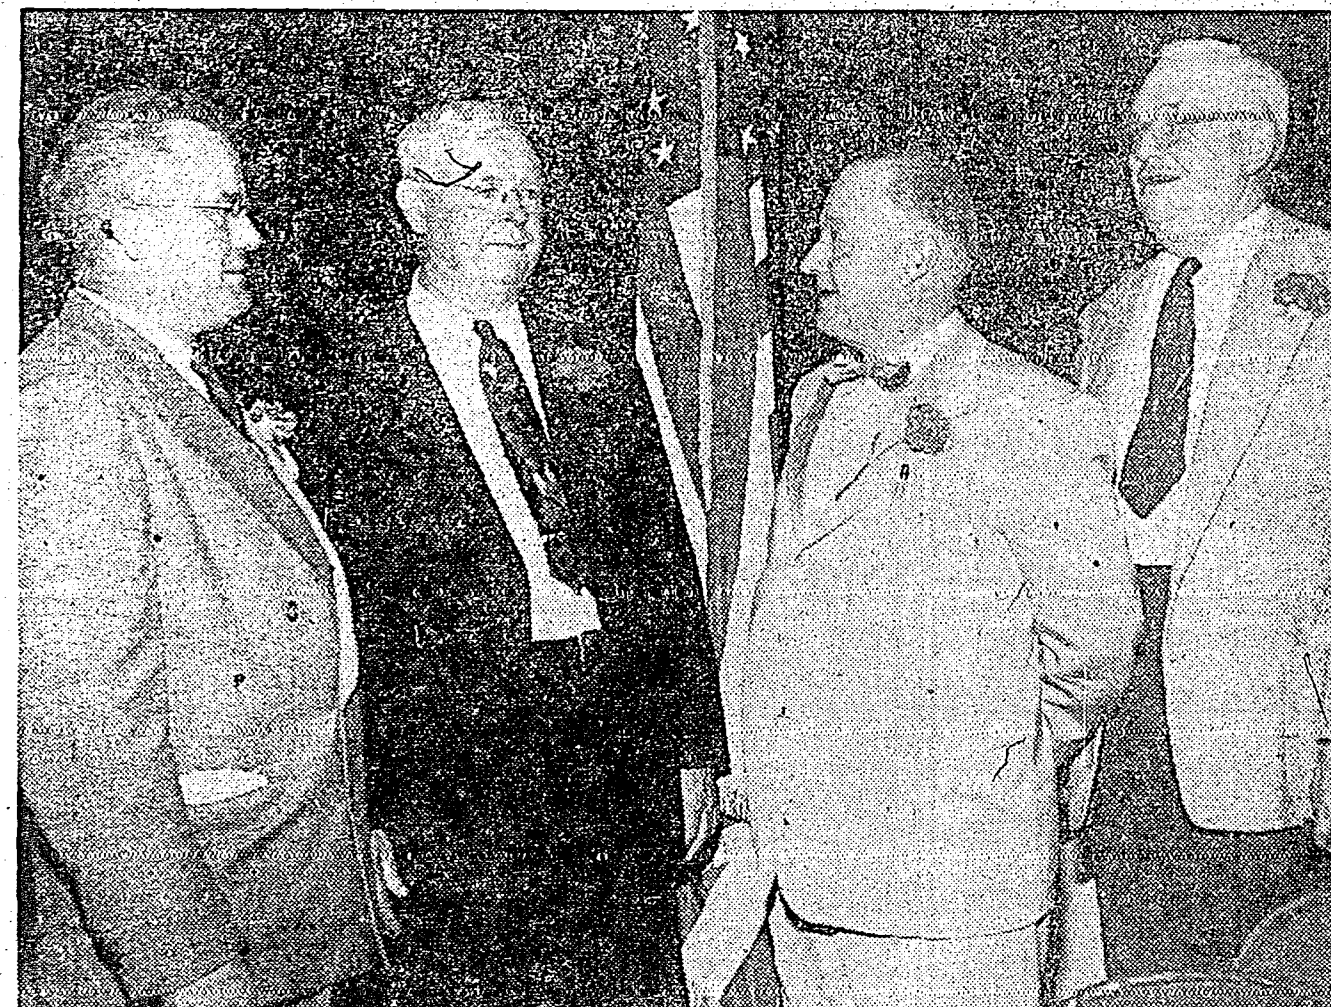

More than that, said the Hot Fish Shop owner, in extolling the club and the government, "It is only under this kind of government that this kind of club can exist."

"And it's all based on friendship. The richest man is the guy with the most friends — the kind you make, not the kind you buy."

Kowalewski said that the Polish who came to America brought their love of liberty with them, for even in 1791 the Polish drew up a constitution calling for a democratic form of government. But because it was too early for the times and for other reasons, the effort failed, he said.

In America democracy is exemplified in baseball, "where the humblest man can rise to become a national hero," he said.

Then, when Kowalewski finished, they all stood and sang "The Star Spangled Banner," vigorously.

Water Board Re-elects; Sets Higher Salaries

C. J. Borzyskowski Renamed President At Annual Meeting

The Board of Municipal Works Wednesday night re-elected all officers for another 1-year term, approved salary increases for the 13 water department employees and set a special meeting for the week after next to confer with a consulting engineer on the new reservoir project and open bids on a half-ton truck.

Re-elected were: C. J. Borzyskowski, 168½ E. 3rd St., to his third term as president; George A. Desrosier, 1219 W. Howard St., as vice president and G. O. Harvey, 470 W. Howard St., secretary. Borzyskowski, re-appointed to the board last month for his fourth 6-year term, has been president since 1953. He was succeeded as vice president at that time by Desrosier. Harvey, named to his second term as secretary, had been chief operator of the Johnson street pumping station for 16 years before he became secretary.

Follow Council Line
The board followed City Council procedure in increasing the salary of monthly employees $10 per month and boosting the hourly pay scale 5 cents to $1.35 per hour, except that 9 employees of the 13 were given adjustment raises, some upon completion of probationary periods and others based upon merit. The adjustments ranged from $5 to $25. Raises will add an additional $3,300 annually. All will be retroactive to May 1.

The new pay scale, listing the previous salary in parentheses is: Secretary $450 ($425); accountant $380 ($370); clerk $200 ($190); street crew foreman $340 ($320); assistant foreman $305 ($290); street crew (three men), two to receive $290 who had been getting $260 during a year's probation and a third, raised to $270 from $240 having completed six months' probation; chief operator $355 ($320); operators $305 ($295), and maintenance man, $315 ($300).

Salaries and other matters were discussed during the regular board meeting after the annual session.

Meter Checking
The problem of checking meters at homes and places of business was discussed after Harvey mentioned that the meter checking program has fallen behind due to the flushing of the city's mains and an increase in plant work.

There have been three flushings this spring. Mains in the past have been flushed twice a year.

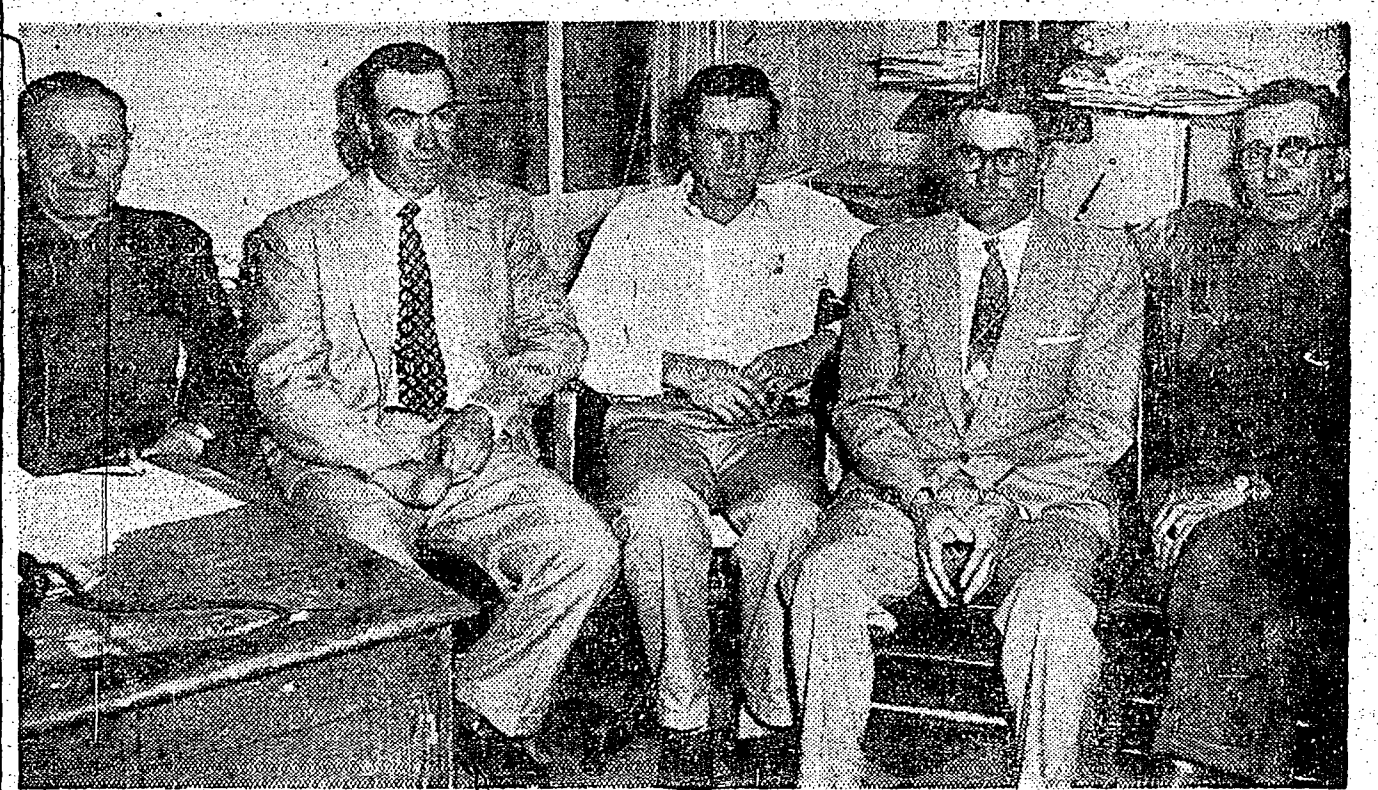

Harvey said that there are about 6,500 meters in use in the city. Some, he said, have been in service for 50 years without servicing, and many of these are "slow" and do not correctly record the flow of water.

Board members noted that repair or replacement of the inefficient meters could boost income and asked what is being done about it. Harvey pointed out that periodic reading of meters uncovers about 20 to 25 each time but a thorough testing program is time consuming because each meter tested must be taken to the water department shop.

Portable Testers
He added, however, that portable testing meters are available for about $30 to $35 and the board indicated they would like more information on the possibility of purchasing several testers. One tester would be required for each of the various size meters.

Expense of the program also was mentioned. Harvey said there are possibly a thousand of the older meters for which replacement parts are scarce and that new meters cost about $21 each. An expenditure of $21,000, members felt, could be compensated over several years by eliminating the revenue loss due to the inadequate meters now in use.

The board asked Harvey to procure information on the testers and also on the number of old meters now in use. He said that under the present system, about 800 met-

State Criticizes Winona County ASC

By EARL GILBERT
Daily News Area Editor

LEWISTON, Minn.—State agriculture officials sharply criticized the Winona County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee Wednesday for permitting "inefficiencies and mismanagement" in operating the government office here.

The criticism came after a four-month investigation of the local office following reports of an irregular corn loan transaction last December to Conrad Brandt, Warren Township farmer.

"The investigation cost the government more and turned up less than any in Minnesota since I took office," Clarence Palmby, state ASC chairman, told the committee in the office here Wednesday afternoon.

'Has Been Inefficiency'
"We are disgusted with the way this thing has been handled," Palmby continued. "There has been inefficiency by the office manager (Ray Schell, Rollingstone) and the field foreman (Clint Dabelstein, Winona Rt. 3). We're convinced of that."

"We are not going to remove them for you," he told the committee—Donald Rupprecht, Lewiston, chairman; John Papenfuss, Nodine and Alvin Herber, Rollingstone. "It is still your responsibility."

'We have no proof that anybody intentionally attempted to defraud the government'
Winona County committee today indicated today that neither Schell nor Dabelstein are to be dismissed. The irregularity came to light when the loan was being processed late last year by Duane Long, Stewartville, ASC fieldman for this region. It was in the amount of $3,891 on a yield of more than 120 bushels to the acre, a possible but improbable corn yield for this area, ASC officials said. It also was charged at the time that the moisture content of the corn was too high—22 to 25 points instead of about 20.5 as prescribed by law at that time—and that the corn had not been cribbed the necessary 30 days before the loan was granted. It also was charged that some of the corn was ineligible for a government loan.

Loan Paid Back
Brandt has since paid the loan back to the government.

The investigation of the local office has been carried on by a special agent from the U. S. Department of Agriculture out of Chicago.

Herber asked Palmby yesterday if according to the investigator's findings he thought the office manager and fieldman here were inefficient.

"I'll say as I said before," Palmby replied, "it is not what we would like it to be here, but position hasn't changed. You can't put your finger on it, but it is there."

"We hold the county committee responsible and I don't feel we're sidestepping our responsibility (as a state committee) in saying this."

Committees Agree
County committees agreed that this was correct, although it was the opinion of the majority that the manager and fieldman should not be dismissed on what evidence had been turned up.

Attending yesterday's session in addition to the county committee and Palmby were Long and Cyril Sackett, Stewartville, state committee man.

Two Parked Cars, Tree Hit by Auto; Driver Arrested

A car making a left turn at East 5th and Walnut streets Wednesday afternoon struck two parked cars, ran over the curb and crashed into a tree.

The driver, David LaCroix, 72, 262½ Walnut St., was arrested by police on a charge of driving without a license and forfeited a $10 deposit in municipal court this morning.

LaCroix was turning east on 5th street when his car struck a parked car owned by Edward Duane, 822 W. Broadway, veered across the street and struck the second parked automobile, owned by Alfred Berndt, 472 E. Howard St., continued over the curb and struck the tree.

Duane reported $350 damage to his car but damage estimates for the other two vehicles have not been filed at police headquarters. No one was injured in the accident.

Edward Balcoin, Selkirk, Minn., Canada, and Oliver Wick, 1775 W. Wabasha St., were drivers of cars that collided at East 5th and Vilas streets at 11:16 p.m. Wednesday.

Wick was driving west on 5th street and Balcoin, who reported $651 damage to his car, was traveling south on Vilas street.

Singer Gives Up Ghost to Sing For Herself

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD — Carol Richards is giving up the ghost from now on. She's going to sing only for herself.

The red-haired lovely from Rockford, Ill., has earned a nice living by acting as the voice double for film stars.

Does it come as a shock to learn that when Cyd Charisse opens her mouth to warble on the screen, it isn't really Cyd that comes out? It's Carol.

And when Vera-Ellen bursts into song in a movie, you're not hearing Vera-Ellen. That's Carol again, Hollywood, you see, leaves nothing to chance. If a screen beauty does not have a singing voice that will titillate movie goers, she is provided with one. Sometimes this use of ersatz talent can be carried to extremes.

Once Betsy Drake was cast in a musical called "Dancing in the Dark." Since Miss Drake is not a musical performer, both her singing and dancing were done by other girls. She did her own acting, however.

Carol Richards has performed as singing ghost for Cyd Charisse in "Brigadoon," "Deep in My Heart" and the unreleased "It's Always Fair Weather." She did Vera-Ellen with an accent in "Call Me Madam" and the childlike singing for Betty St. John in "The Robe." She performed a double chore in "Pretty Girl" in Spanish tones for Movita and plain style for Joan Caulfield.

Arkansas Town Holding Imaginary Bombing Raid

FORREST CITY, Ark. (AP)—Tomorrow is Operation Able for this east Arkansas town and about 20,000 persons from surrounding areas, escapes from an imaginary bombing raid, will rush in for refuge.

There will be three times as many "evacuees" as homefolks in this cotton country town of about 7,500.

The busloads of refugees will be volunteers recruited to help Civil Defense authorities learn more about problems encountered when a small city is called on to take care of a mob of civilians from a devastated area.

For a short time armed National Guard troops and police will patrol the streets of Forrest City, alert to any evidence of looters on a rampage. Fighter planes and bombers will roar overhead, offering air protection for fleeing civilians. Refugees will be fed and sheltered. Medical aid stations will be set up.

Blind unweaned grapefruit juice with apricot nectar and chill overnight. Nice as a breakfast starter!

Godfrey's Mother Set To Work for Sullivan

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Arthur Godfrey's mother, Mrs. Kathryn Godfrey, who's 76, was at El Morocco's "Mambo Night" the other morning, where she shipped a "grasshopper" and talked about her song-writing. When she was introduced, she called out, "Say I'm a producer—I produced a good son."

"Arthur's wonderful to me," she said. "For Mother's Day he sent me two dozen beautiful roses. On my birthday he played my song." Godfrey doesn't like her to visit his program, fearing she might be embarrassed. "Maybe Ed Sullivan would let you visit his show," somebody suggested. "O.K.," she said, "if he'd pay me $6,000 a week!"

Marie ("The Body") McDonald for years a platinum blonde is now daffodil blonde. She likes to say "Hello" and then hear them exclaim, "Who the heck was that?" I asked her what color her hair is now, and she said, "Whatever I grow," explaining that the new shade is natural. . . . The old one was a fake.

"Women have reached middle age," says Bill Hayes, "when their shoes pinch them more often than men do." . . . "On Broadway, when a fellow's told, 'Go thou and do likewise,' he says, 'Okay—where'll I find likewise?'" — Len Levinson.

Comedian Artie Johnson at the Blue Angel is hilarious with his song about Gussie the Gopher, the kind of a gopher the other gophers don't gopher.

Jockey Eddie Arcaro, who must be 5 feet tall, stood at a bar having a drink and looked down at Jockey Conn McGarry, who must be 4 feet tall. "Do you want your milk, son?" he asked. . . . Edith Adams and Ernie Kovacs met a rich family whose kids have Davy Crockett hats made of chinchilla.

Actually happened: A pretty and young B'way gal interested a columnist, who asked her to send him a brief resume of her life. "In other words," she said, "you want a short biography?"

Marilyn Monroe was at a party when somebody asked her age. "Twenty-six," Marilyn said. Hedda Hopper, overhearing, yelled, "Oh, don't ever tell your right age! Say 21."

ODDITIES IN OUR TOWN: The sign, "Child's Bar," in the 30s always makes me snicker. I have to walk back to it and say, "A saloon for children yet!" . . . The "Gene Krupa and Cozy Cole Drum School" on W. 54th . . . Circus Press Agent Beverly Kelly (a Delaware, Ohio, boy) who prefers Homburgs and even wears one under the Big Top. (Remember Dexter Fellows' flashy dress?) . . . Mrs. Ruth DuBonnet of the famous French wine family drinking Scotch. . . . The rich and chi chi Wm. S. Paley phoning the Stage Delicatessen to make a reservation for 4. . . . The Blarney Stone bar on W. 90th. I suppose the customers there don't get stoned; they say 21.

Freeman Praises Welfare Action

By Legislature

MINNEAPOLIS — Gov. Freeman praised welfare accomplishments of the 1955 Legislature in a talk Wednesday before the Lutheran Welfare Society at Bethany Lutheran Church, but added there are still many problems to be solved.

"Our Legislature," he said, "took constructive action to provide better care for our older people and for children who need special attention."

"Newly enacted laws will enable us to pay more for the support of the needy over 65. They will also encourage persons on old age assistance to earn a little more money because such earnings will no longer be deducted from the statutory maximum that can be received."

The laws of 1955 will greatly strengthen our program for the protection of dependent or neglected children. We have taken positive steps to prevent possibility of black market operations or the placing of children in adoptive homes without proper investigation.

"Mentally retarded children have too long presented a tragic problem. We have now taken steps to provide for the care of some of them now on waiting lists; and $1,675,000 was appropriated to begin a new 2,000 bed institution in Brainerd. An interim commission was established to study the problem of handicapped children and the services available to them."

"Many unsolved problems remain before us. In spite of serious efforts during the past session, Minnesota's child labor laws need substantial revision."

"One of the serious problems for which we must find a solution is that of adequate medical care for those on old age assistance without putting a constantly increasing and heavy burden on the state. Because of our aging population, these costs will continue to increase. A serious study of how to provide needed nursing homes for older people could contribute to the solution of this problem."

Father Begins Sentence In Daughter's Death

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Russell Tongay, swimming instructor convicted of causing the death of his daughter, was under orders to surrender today to begin a 10-year jail term.

The order was issued in Circuit Court here after the State Supreme Court refused to rehear his appeal.

Kathy Tongay, 5, died in 1953 after she dived, on her father's orders, from the 33-foot board. The child, with her brother Bubba, was one of the famed Aquanuts.

44 Top Firms Take Third of Profits in '54

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Forty-four of the nation's biggest companies made about one-third of all the profits reported by U. S. corporations in 1954.

The giants, by and large, had a more comfortable time than many a smaller company that found last year a trying period. During the business slowdown, the larger company could call on resources the small one often didn't have.

Financial reports for 1954—a period of highly mixed business experience with 334,000 business casualties—emphasize the trend in recent years toward bigness. But the big getting bigger didn't discourage newcomers. The Department of Commerce says 341,000 new companies started up in 1954, making the total in the United States about 4,200,000.

One stock brokerage firm, W.E. Hutton & Co., lists today 44 companies making in excess of 40 million dollars each last year in net income after taxes. It omits a 45th, Ford, from the list because its 1954 earnings aren't available. Ford's 1953 profits are estimated at 105 million dollars, however, and 1954 seems sure to have been at least as high.

The top 44 earners listed by the brokerage firm raked in a total of $4 billion dollars. This was 32 per cent of the total amount earned by all U. S. corporations reporting for the year.

Since World War I this trend toward ever increasing bigness has been notable.

Boyle's Column

Success Too Easy For Many

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—He sat there—the man across the luncheon table, small, dark-eyed, polite talking, with a whip in his mind.

The whip is the one with which he lashes mankind and himself for failing to dream as big as people can, and for not attaining the dreams they do have.

Asked when he was most happy in his life, William Faulkner, student of failure and recent Pulitzer prize winner, started off:

"Success comes too easy in this country. There are many ways to make money and they all spell success."

Faulkner may appear to some as the intellectual's Mickey Spillane. But his reverence is for a man like Thomas Wolfe, whom he calls the most magnificent failure of his generation, because "he tried to do more than flesh and blood could do. He tried to reduce the human heart into a paragraph."

"We measure greatness by the distance between the dream and the failure. We all fail. None of us match the dream."

Faulkner, who is a small man with obviously fastidious tastes, grew up with physical and literary blemishes, such as Wolfe and Hemingway.

"In our generation we were all failures. Myself, Dos Passos, Hemingway, Wolfe. Wolfe was the finest failure."

Faulkner, when asked how many books he has written, gives a vague answer.

"Somewhere between 18 and 22, probably 20." When asked how many books he has sold, he says he doesn't know but is going to ask his publisher about those things.

Faulkner is an extremely deliberate craftsman. Among other things, he has delivered the plot lines for 12 movies. The latest is "Land of the Pharaohs," a Warner Brothers picture.

After winning the Nobel prize for literature, he was given the Pulitzer award this year for his novel, "A Fable." This rather surprised him, since it was published a year before.

Faulkner, one of the most successful writers in America, has an outspoken antipathy for the bare bones of success.

"I was born to be a tramp. I was happiest when I had nothing. I had a trench coat then with big pockets. It would carry a pair of socks, a condensed Shakespeare and a bottle of whisky. Then I was happy and I wanted nothing and I had no responsibility."

I asked him what makes people grow old. He said idleness, boredom. It kills them. They die because they don't have enough to do.

"Doing nothing — sitting down and vegetating — is no good unless you can make it an actual occupation."

"There are people who can do without a job in this world and stay healthy, but they have to be used to it."

Asked what was his greater pleasure in life now, Faulkner replied:

"Thinking up an idea for a book before I realize this one really isn't going to be as good as I want it to be, either."

"This time you say I'll catch the answer to the whole riddle — why man is here—put it down in black and white so everyone can see it and understand. Before you can do this, you break the pencil and throw it away."

From the way he talks, you might get the idea his Mississippi farm is strewn with broken pencils — until you take a look at that book list.

Marines Hope To Block Cut in Corps Strength

WASHINGTON (AP)—Champions of the Marine Corps claimed a fighting chance today in their bid to have the House upset President Eisenhower's plans to trim that service's forces.

But they were less optimistic over the possibility of blocking planned cuts in Army and Navy strength.

The House scheduled votes late today on a series of amendments which would add $409,993,500 to a bill to appropriate $31,488,206,000 to finance the Defense Department for the fiscal year starting July 1.

As drafted by the House Appropriations Committee, the bill approves the President's program to reduce over-all military manpower by more than 100,000 during the year. The Army would be cut 87,000 men.

Leading the fight to prevent the cuts is Rep. Flood (D-Pa.), who told newsmen, "I don't think it's a good idea to cut military strength a single man below what we planned and financed for the present year."

A spot check of key House members indicated considerable support for Flood's amendment to increase the Marine Corps but less sentiment for his other proposals. Flood's amendments would give the Army $249,574,000, the Navy $31,940,000 and the Marine Corps $78,479,500 more than the committee recommended. They do not affect the Air Force, which would get a 5,000 personnel increase during the year.

Their effect would be to give the Army 1,114,000 men June 30, 1956, instead of 1,027,000; the Marines 215,000 instead of 193,000 and the Navy 672,000 instead of 665,000. In addition, the Navy would have an active fleet of 1,066 ships instead of the 1,001 provided in the President's program.

Reds Charge 6 Asian Soldiers Slain by Allies

PANMUNJOM, Korea (AP)—The Communists today offered the bodies of six Asian soldiers and said they were evidence of an armistice violation by an Allied patrol.

The United Nations refused to accept the bodies. U.N. officials accused the Communists of "manufacturing the evidence." They said the Korean Reds were trying to prove an armistice violation that never occurred.

The Communists said the six men were killed last week when a patrol tried to cross into North Korea.

A U.N. official said the bodies were so mutilated it was impossible to determine whether they were Korean or Chinese.

The U.N. also refused to accept a Korean, produced by the Communists, who said he was the only surviving member of the patrol and had been captured by the Reds.

The U.N. denied a Communist charge that the patrol had been sent into Red territory on a spy mission.

It refused to accept either the bodies or the "captured" Korean because there "is no proof whatsoever that they were United Nations personnel."

Warden Describes Overcrowding at Wisconsin Prison

WAUPUN, Wis. (AP)—Some 300 prisoners sleep in a factory dormitory or on cots in corridors of a cell block because of overcrowded conditions at Waupun State Prison, Warden John Burke said Wednesday.

"If trouble should develop we would have between 200 and 300 unlocked inmates on the loose," Burke told the State Board of Public Welfare at its meeting here.

His report to the board, which sets policies for administering all welfare institutions in the state, reviewed operations at the prison from September to May 11, 1955. Highlights of his report included: Prisoners do not like to be housed in the dormitory or corridors despite the fact some extra privileges go with the practice. The men prefer the privacy of a cell to rest, study and read.

Some men deliberately commit infractions of dormitory rules to get transferred to a cell.

The last escape from the institution itself was Christmas Day, 1947.

So far this year there have been three escapes from prison farms and camps. One escapee was returned, another is in custody elsewhere and the third is still at large.

Now Is the Time to Replace Your Old Mail Box

Some time during the first 15 days of May an inspection is made of all rural mail routes in the United States.

Postmasters are responsible for these inspections and the purpose is to note the extent of rural patron compliance with regulations covering mail box installation.

Right now is the time to replace that tired old, sagging, leaking mail box. An up-to-date overhanging installation not only helps your rural carrier get your mail to you in better time, but it greatly helps road maintenance men take the best possible care of the road to your farm summer and winter.

The Post Office Department spends $85 a year getting mail to each of the many millions of rural route patrons — an amount deserving the cooperation of recipient as well as of sender. Mail is always welcome everywhere, and the pleasure of getting it as well as the beauty of the farm and the countryside can be enhanced by attractive, well kept-up mail boxes, cheerfully painted and legibly lettered.

Your name on your box in plain legible letters at least an inch high helps more than just your mail man. It helps REA service men, doctors, veterinarians, county agents and extension workers, friends and callers.

Boxes that wind and rain, can penetrate may result in lost or damaged mail, and certainly add nothing to the appearance of either farms or their natural setting. By delaying the delivery man in getting to them and into them inadequate installations can be very costly. Highway crews grading roads, removing snow, cutting weeds, and engaged in other necessary maintenance, are hindered by poor mail box installations, helped and cheered by good substantial overhanging boxes well painted and lettered.

Millions of rural mail boxes outlining a million and a half miles of country roads throughout the United States, Alaska, and Hawaii, are the symbol of the great postal system which does so much to foster the neighborly teamwork by which America moves so steadily forward.

How About That Nice Pocket in the Driver's Door?

Jack Benny has a Maxwell—or had one until an absent-minded mechanic turned it into a Ford—but we had an Essex. And although we don't go in much for nostalgia we commend some of its attributes to Detroit, now that the automakers are trying to think up new appeals for the customers.

In the Essex days it hadn't gotten fashionable to bring the outdoors indoors. You had no panoramic view of the clogged parkway, but on the other hand you had privacy. The super-deluxe model even had window shades that could be drawn in cozy comfort, a thing not unappreciated when we and the world were young.

It also had a wonderful array of dials, levers and pushbuttons that made driving an adventurous act of accomplishment. Spark, choke, gas feed mixer, adjustable throttle, two pedals, a gear shift lever and manual window ventilation—all to be adjusted and synchronized with a wary eye cocked on the tachometer, the thermometer and the oil gauge. Only a B47 pilot can have any fun in these days of floating automation.

And then there's the matter of conveniences. The other day rolling down the highway the ten-year-old at our home watched us try to steer with one hand and reach clear across the front seat to get sun glasses from the right-hand glove compartment.

"Wouldn't it be a nice idea," said the little girl, "to put a pocket right there by the driver? You could put it right in the front door. There's plenty of room."

We started to explain about the nice, deep pocket they used to put in the driver's door in which you could cache glasses, gloves, maps, broken pencils, cigarettes and the directions to Aunt Ann's new summer place in the country.

But what's the use of old memories to the young, or past pleasures in the face of progress?—Wall Street Journal.

These Days

Ultimate Aim of Russians Constant

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

NEW YORK — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, on occasion, refers to the zig-zag policy of Soviet Russia, by which he means that it is a characteristic of their strategy that they weave back and forth, giving the impression, at times, of hardness, of threatening war and of conducting a peace campaign, of blowing hot and cold.

There is nothing particularly new in this method; other countries have employed it to their advantage. It does, however, make it extremely difficult to know with a degree of exactness where one stands in dealing with the Kremlin. Does it, for instance, mean anything to have an exchange of letters between Pres. Eisenhower and Marshal Zhukov? Does it soften the Russian to let him take a boy refugee who had courageously sought freedom?

IT IS IMPOSSIBLE to reach conclusions concerning current events without some knowledge of the past because whether a policy is zig-zag or on a straight line, its origin is somewhere way back and is related to a principle. The ultimate principle of all Soviet Russian or Communist Chinese activity is the world revolution, the mechanism for creating a Marxist world. No Communist who survives in any Marxist state dares to repudiate the concept of the world revolution. This Lenin laid down as iron law. The difference between Lenin and Stalin was that Stalin was a more practical, a more realistic personality. Paul E. Zinner, an authority on Russian affairs, makes the point:

"It has been conclusively enough documented that Stalin never renounced world revolution as an ultimate aim of Communism, nor did he ever proclaim the possibility of a final victory for Socialism without the revolutionary transformation of several, if not the majority, of the countries of the world. But under Stalin's direction the propagation of the world revolution has become a methodical project, less spectacular than Trotsky's brand of revolution might have been, and perhaps for that very reason deadlier . . ."

It might well be said that the reason that Malenkov fell and Khrushchev rose to supreme power was that Malenkov, to make himself popular after Stalin's death, emphasized a rising standard of living rather than the austerity of consecration to the world revolution. A happy, gay, Russian people, with full larders and fancy clothes, might not readily accept, even under duress, the sacrifices necessary for the world revolution. Stalin, only half a year after World War II was over, only a year after the Yalta conference, said:

"Actually the (Second World) War came about as an inevitable result of the development of international economic and political forces on the basis of modern monopoly capitalism. Marxists have repeatedly explained that the capitalist system of world economy contains elements of a general crisis and armed conflicts, that consequently the development of international capitalism in our time takes place not peacefully and evenly but through crises and war catastrophes."

THEORETICALLY WE WERE still allies then but already the world revolution was again uppermost in Stalin's mind; World War II was a temporary military involvement which might interrupt the world revolution but the basic target must ever be kept in view.

Even during the war years, the Russians acted in a dual capacity: As Russians they were in alliance with the western powers; as Marxists they proceeded with their world revolutionary activities by infiltrating even their allies and employing war-time propaganda not for war but for Communist purposes. It was an ingenious device and so skillfully done that their allies never became conscious of this dual role until it was too late.

This was the position before the Korean War and undoubtedly led to it. In a word, as one studies that war, from a political standpoint, it becomes conclusive that the military action in Korea was no accident, no whimsical marching into the fray by the North Koreans. It was part of a program responding to "a sense of urgency," to bring Asia within the Communist world. The Korean War, the Indochina imbroglio, the constant attack on Formosa, the risk of war with the United States, the attempt to set up a Chou-Nehru hegemony at Bandung are all part of the same labor in the direction of absorbing the whole of Asia into the Marxist world. That effort will not cease even if, as regards the United States, conflict can be postponed.

Governors Decide Ike's Political Immunity Over

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—They kept it to themselves, but Democratic governors made an important political decision at their secret session last week. They agreed to pin the blame on President Eisenhower personally for the mistakes of his administration.

This should mean an end to Ike's long political immunity, though Democrats on Capitol Hill are still nervous about criticizing him. They will start taking pot shots at the man in the White House. They agreed no longer to let him hide behind his subordinates when unpopular decisions are made.

The agreement was reached while an Eisenhower supporter, Texas Gov. Allan Shivers, sat in the room. No punches were pulled because of Shivers, who took it all in without batting an eye. He opened his mouth only once during the entire secret meeting, then to suggest where he thought the Eisenhower administration was most vulnerable.

"The farm issue," he remarked, "is unquestionably the weakest link in the Eisenhower administration."

That was Shivers' only contribution, one way or the other, to the political strategy session.

Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler reviewed with the governors Democratic gains since the 1952 election. Based upon the voting trends, he promised that the Democrats can capture the 1956 election by winning only one of four key states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois or California.

Lausche Regrets
The governors also grumbled against Ohio's Gov. Frank Lausche for high-naturing their private Democratic meeting. Lausche had boycotted the session with the crack that he wouldn't participate in destroying their host of the previous night, meaning Eisenhower.

"If Lausche aspires to the Democratic presidential nomination, he sure cooked his goose," snorted one governor.

On the other hand, Tennessee's young Gov. Clement emerged from the meeting with his political stock boosted. He impressed the other governors with his articulate, outspoken manner.

Most of the meeting was devoted to a discussion of finances. Butler also promised to supply the governors with campaign ammunition in the form of fact sheets, the Democratic digest and other research.

The session ended with the Democratic governors united as a powerful force inside the party.

Note: Commenting about Shivers' presence, one governor remarked afterward: "Some of us thought we had a spy in our midst. But we let our hair down in front of him anyhow."

Vaccine Control
If and when the Salk vaccine inoculations are resumed, as the public health service expects them to be, need for federal supervision and control will be all the more urgent.

This developed during congressional cross-examination of the day when Dr. Leonard Scheele, head of public health, and Dr. Chester A. Koefer, assistant to Sec. Oveta Culp Hobby, were sent by Mrs. Hobby to testify before the House Banking and Currency Committee.

Dr. Scheele in the past was reported as favoring federal control; but, loyal to his chief, Mrs. Hobby, he told congressmen: "Doctors don't need policemen standing by their sides."

Yet in almost the same breath he highlighted one of the important reasons for federal control—the limited production of the Salk vaccine. Another is the newness of the drug and the need for strict supervision of its manufacture. When Cong. Henry Reuss of Wis-

Senators Join In Urging End To Phone Strike

ATLANTA (AP)—Two U.S. senators have joined union leaders in calling on the Southern Bell Telephone Co. to agree to arbitration in its dispute with striking workers.

Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.) told the Senate yesterday that he sent identical messages to the company and to the CIO Communications Workers of America, urging arbitration.

He said President J. A. Beirne of the CWA replied that the union would agree to submit unsettled issues to impartial arbitrators recommended by the federal mediation service.

Kefauver added that he had not heard from the telephone company but hoped to have word soon.

Sen. Long (D-La.) supported Kefauver's stand.

"This strike has gone on too long," Long told the Senate. "It should be and could be settled." If the company "would negotiate in good faith, the strike would have been settled," he said.

Last night petitions were circulated by the CWA at Chattanooga to ask Gov. Frank Clement of Tennessee to urge Southern Bell to submit to arbitration.

Nation Well Stocked With Salk Vaccine

By H. N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

How much Salk vaccine is available?

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis estimates it has about 21 tons on hand for its mass inoculation program. Some 2,000,000 cubic centimeters remained after the extensive field tests last year. Another 25,000,000 cubic centimeters were ordered manufactured and stockpiled, awaiting evaluation of the test reports by Dr. Thomas Francis Jr. at the University of Michigan.

That's a total of 27,000,000 cc., or enough for vaccinating 9,000,000 children. Three shots of 1 cc. each will be given to immunize each child.

Pharmaceutical manufacturers have also been making vaccine for commercial use. With licensing of the vaccine, it will be available to your physician through the usual procedures.

Available Early

The Polio Foundation estimates that the commercial supply will be larger than that set aside for the free inoculations. Following the field trials last year, the Foundation advised manufacture of "as much vaccine as possible," so it would be available for use before this year's polio epidemic season. Stockpiling $9,000,000 worth of vaccine before its value was proven was deemed a calculated risk by the Foundation. Actually, it wasn't as much of a gamble as it might seem.

Preliminary Trials

For one thing, Dr. Jonas E. Salk had reported "encouraging results" in preliminary trials among children in the Pittsburgh areas.

For another thing, the Foundation didn't expect the vaccine to be perfect. No vaccine yet developed has proven 100 per cent effective. Dr. Francis' evaluation was not only to find out whether the vaccine worked, but also how well it worked.

Even if the vaccine proved effective in only 25 per cent of the cases, the March of Dimes Foundation was ready to go ahead with the mass inoculation project. If it curbed poliomyelitis paralysis and death by only 25 per cent, it was deemed worth the expense.

Damage May Run as high as $1,000, the owner of this car said after his car struck two deer simultaneously near the Whitman Dam on Highway 61. The driver, Dale D. McFeters, Minneapolis, was unhurt. (Glen McFeters photo)

2 More Dead Deer Bring Week's Total Here to 4

Two deer were killed instantly when they crashed into a car on Highway 61 south of the Whitman Dam Wednesday forenoon. Dale D. McFeters, Minneapolis, the driver escaped injury.

Coming up from the river side of the highway suddenly, the two animals—side by side—leaped directly in front of the speeding automobile. He was unable to avoid the crash, McFeters told investigating authorities.

These two large bucks brought the total of deer killed by cars along Highway 61 during the past week to four, according to Ronald Shager, local game warden.

Four youths from La Crescent hit a deer near Lamolite Tuesday night. Their car was damaged. Last Thursday night another motorist killed a deer near Dakota.

Damage to the McFeters car, which was towed to Winona, will be nearly $1,000, McFeters said. The deer were badly broken up. One had its two hind feet cut off. Highway workers buried the animals beside the road.

Signs reading, "Deer Crossing," have been placed along Highway 61 throughout this section. The purpose of these signs are to warn motorists to keep an eye open for deer and to travel at a reasonable speed, Shager said. Deer go from the bluff areas to the river to drink.

Mayor to Run Galveston 'Wide Open'

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP)—This island resort city's mayor-elect says gambling and prostitution are here to stay and that "the boys will be reasonable."

The mayor-to-be is George Roy Clough, 64. He talked freely with reporters yesterday about his plans after next Tuesday, the day he takes office.

Clough, radio station owner and operator, said he would call a meeting within 30 days of all Galveston's gambling bosses, including the Maceo syndicate chiefs, "because I think they are the cleanest operators in town."

Purpose of the meeting, he said, will be to set up a system of self-government for the gamblers. "I believe it's possible to put these fellows on their honor," Clough said. "I've found most of them trustworthy—and they pay their bills a lot better than some of their critics."

Clough called his plans a "sort of reform program." He added that he wants "the prostitutes out of the downtown hotels and back in the district." Reopening of post office street, Galveston's almost legendary bawdyhouse district, is on the agenda, he said.

Clough told reporters he believes slot machines are undesirable but that he has no objection to dice, cards and roulette because, "generally speaking, they are operated by reliable persons." Operators of policy games, tip boards and bingo, he opined, would be reasonable.

Clough Tuesday was elected mayor on a vote of 6,406 to 5,649 for Mayor Herbert V. Cartwright Jr., who was seeking a fifth two-year term. During the campaign

Clough charged that "the gambling payoff exists and is widespread."

"This town has too much payoff," Clough said. "If you take money from gamblers and prostitutes you don't regulate them—they regulate you." Galveston island is a mile off the Texas gulf coast and about 50 miles south of Houston. A four-lane causeway connects it with the mainland.

Marriage Comes First, Says Joan

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP)—Joan Crawford says she will retire from the films if it interferes with her marriage.

She and soft-drink tycoon Alfred Steele, who were wed Tuesday in a Las Vegas elopement, sliced up a double-tiered cake yesterday at her first Hollywood press conference since the surprise event.

"Nothing will interfere with my marriage," she told reporters. She nodded toward Steele. "He's the boss."

But Steele quickly added: "If she wants to continue her career, she certainly can." He said Miss Crawford's career will not end "if she's happy with it."

Postal Pay Bill Headed for Ike Veto by Monday

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—A quick presidential veto, perhaps by Monday, reportedly awaits a bill to raise postal workers' pay 8.8 per cent. Sen. Carlson (R-Kan.) said he is certain the Senate will sustain the veto if it comes.

The Senate passed the compromise measure 66-11 late yesterday and sent it to President Eisenhower. The House acted Monday 328-66.

Carlson said the President never had discussed a veto with him, but it was learned the White House has told key Republican lawmakers they can expect a veto message quickly.

Eisenhower, who favored a smaller raise, has said publicly only that he would study the matter carefully.

The 66-11 tally was far more than enough to override a veto, but Carlson said there would be many switches if and when the question of sustaining the President arises.

Yesterday, 37 Democrats and 29 Republicans supported the compromise. Eleven Republicans voted "No."

Carlson said he would be ready immediately with a 7.6 per cent postal pay bill if the 8.8 per cent measure is killed.

The President has let it be known he would accept an average 7.6 per cent raise, although he originally asked Congress this year for no more than 6.5 per cent.

The Fellowship luncheon and service is at the First Congregational Church Friday at 1 p.m. Mrs. Kalbrener continued, "She is a speaker who has been heard throughout this country and has an unusual viewpoint resulting from her experience in local, state, and national denominational work."

"If the family is as prized a possession as we believe it to be, then we must use our best efforts to strengthen it. We should all gain help for this from Mrs. Flebiger's Christian enthusiasm and vivid personality."

Remove the covering from 1 1/4 pounds braunschweiger liver sausage. Use hands to mold and shape it like a fresh pineapple. Brush surface with lemon juice. Serve on plate with crackers or potato chips and butter spreaders. To store, the pineapple may be wrapped in waxed paper or aluminum foil and kept in the refrigerator 2 to 3 days before serving.

Creative Work Presented at WSTC Pastiche

Original creative work of students at Winona State Teachers College in literature, art and dance was presented at the Pastiche at which the English Club of the college was host to more than 200 in the student union in Somsen Hall Wednesday evening.

A dramatic script in three scenes based on Lewis Carroll's famous stories about Alice, climaxed the evening which opened with a dramatic narrative, "Depends Upon What You Mean By Living." The author of the narrative, Lee Krogh, also presented it, holding the audience throughout its moments of despair and hopelessness. "Night and Day" offered in modern dance, an interesting, skilled sequence for 24 hours, from the moment of rising to a return to the dreaming. The hours at school, crowded streets, baseball in which comedy dominated the dance pattern, the lighter spring mood and the serenity at the close of the day provided the moods worked out in figure line and choreography.

Dancers under the direction of Miss Beulah Gregoire, were the Misses Nancy Blaisdell, Shirley Haakenstad, Mitzi Holmquist, Barbara Johnson, Fern Morschling, Barbara Plourde, Dolores Rihs, Patricia Simon and Olive Towsen of the class in modern dance. Alice and her co-cast members, the March Hare, the Dormouse, the Mad Hatter, the Gryphon, the Mock Turtle and Humpty Dumpty, provided humor, philosophy and subtle satire to intrigue the audience. Miss Harriet Long served as reader for the production, the script of which was written by Gene Renslow and directed by him.

Amusing liberties were taken in the writing with each of the characters rearing with both old and new lines. Miss Marcia Veir made a charming child of Alice; Lee Krogh, an emphatic March Hare; Carol Mahike, a delightful Dormouse; Mr. Renslow, a sophisticated Mad Hatter; Robert Goetting, a rough-and-ready type of Gryphon; Robert DeYoung, a most melancholy Mock Turtle, and Gordon Schleder, a pompous Humpty Dumpty.

Water colors and oils by students in the college art class in composition and by members of Kappa Pi, college art fraternity, were on display, viewed by the guests both before and after the program. Exhibiting were George Acheff, Sr. M. Caelan, Miss Colleen Fish, Miss Noel Grech, Don Lowrie, Mrs. A. H. Martin, Orrin Tubbs, Mrs. E. J. Holehouse and Frank Kelley. Miss Floretta M. Murray, head of the art department, is instructor of the class in composition, and adviser to Kappa Pi.

Technical adviser to the English Club for the program was David Davis of the Phelps School faculty at the college who also designed the clever costumes and setting for "Alice" and supervised the construction. A highlight of the exhibit were art works loaned by local citizens and firms for the Pastiche including ceramic ware and lithographs by Picasso and an Aubusson tapestry by Lurcat.

Dr. Augusta Nelson of the English department at the college, is adviser of the English Club, and was in charge of arrangements for the Pastiche, the third annual program planned to feature the creative work of the students.

Refreshments were served after the program. Students in charge of various arrangements for the evening were the Misses Patricia

WSH Seniors Give Smooth Performance

The subtle undercurrents of seriousness in John Patrick's comedy, "The Curious Savage" were climaxed in the closing act of the play presented by Winona Senior High School seniors in the school auditorium Wednesday evening under the skilled direction of Thomas Stoltman.

Innermost dreams of residents at the Cloisters, a place where haven is sought by those unable to face the realities of the world, were lived briefly in that act with Mrs. Paddy played by Sharron Jungmans achieving her masterpiece in the role of the beauty of the violin, Mary May enacted by Janet Backus reaching her heights, Florence played by Mary McConnon finding her "little boy" and Jeffrey with Edward Ellis in the part, as the skilled pianist.

All handled their roles with competence holding them within the limits of plausibility. Nancy Cribbs in the title role made real the elderly woman who in innocently trying to catch up with the dreams of her youth, is beset by the greed of her family and their lack of understanding. In retaliation, she uses their belief and their charge of her mental incapacity as a weapon to further her plans and protect herself. The selfish, small-minded daughter in the family, Lily Belle, was brought to life in her portrayal by Judy Herbert and the two sons, with their prominent-citizen fronts covering a like love of money, were enacted by John Sievers as Titus and Thomas Chandler as Samuel, both giving mature portrayals.

Patricia Knopik was a sympathetic, sure staff member in the part of Miss Willhemina and Thomas Jensen was assured in the role of Dr. Emmett of the staff at the Cloisters. An especially attractive set was used for the performance, costuming and make-up aided in the character portrayal and lights, sound effects and music added to the production.

On production crews were Jerry Young, crew chief; James Schulz, Gary Schmidt and Donald Foshburgh; lights; Philip Reed, crew chief; James Blake, Donald Angst, Linda Romstad, Patricia Bradford, Gerald Whetstone and Donald Stow, stage; Faith Ann Schmidt, Elizabeth Gird, Mary Gilbert and Judy Jeffreys, make-up; Janet Tuttle, Irene Stanek, Donna Liebermann, Carol Papenfuss, Marilyn Brink, Marilyn Ensrud and Mary Kay Hake, costumes and proprietors; Richard Wheeler, sound; Jacquelyn Pelofsky as student director.

Faculty advisers were E. S. Korpela, art work; Eldon Brandt, woodwork; Miss Ruth Pallas, ticket reservations; Mrs. Elizabeth Hughes and Edwin Spencer, ticket sales; Frank Bridges and Gordon Paschka, advertising; Davis Christenson, printing; W. G. Zilliox, ushers; and Milton C. Davenport, music.

World Affairs Panel Reviews Student Work

A panel of nine boys, students in the seventh grade, under the supervision of Mrs. M. J. Fleming of the Cathedral grade school presented resume of their work in the study of world affairs at a meeting of the Cathedral PTA at the school Wednesday evening.

The moderator, Philip Yakish, introduced each of the speakers and gave a brief background of the work that had been done in the class this past year, and then called upon each of the members of the panel to relate exactly what benefits each felt he had derived from the subject matter.

William Starzcki expressed the opinion that the work had fostered improved reading ability and taught the student to absorb what had been read which is a distinct help in all fields and Bruce Hartner was of the opinion that a taste for better reading materials had been cultivated; that news magazines had replaced the comic, his particular interest being in the news gathering and reporting end.

Terry Carol said he had become acquainted with many of the top writers of the day, men and women whose lives have been spent in the far reaches of the earth reporting the on-the-spot happenings each day.

Ernest Gernes felt one of the many benefits of the class was the opportunity for the students to learn to discuss current events and to express themselves easily and in a courteous manner and that the class gave each a broader respect for others opinions, an increased vocabulary and improved sentence structure.

Robert Wenger told of the contacts that had been made by the class through writing to many companies and requesting pamphlets and additional information on many subjects. Jet planes were also how the students had visited each of the recruiting offices in the city, and had learned about the various branches of the service.

Robert Stein spoke of the filing and clipping end of the project, of the necessity of keeping files up to date, and of the importance of being able to judge which items were the important ones and discarding the minor details.

Domestic issues, the ruling bodies of the United States and the members of the Supreme Court. He spoke also of the special study that had been made of speaker of the House.

National defense was the phase that appealed most to Michael Mrachek. The new weapons, guided missiles and the perimeter of defense which surrounds the United States were several of the points mentioned. The study of the geographic study of the country making up the Pan-American Union was commented on by James Allaire.

Two films were presented, "A Voice Shall Be Heard" and "Jet Power," the first on the Civil Defense set-up in Syracuse, and the other on the jet plane.

Six students of Mrs. Fleming also gave brief declamations on topics of current interest. Participating in were Charlene Peterson, Patricia Kapustik, Sharon O'Connor, Marilyn Rheingans, Judy Bambenek and Carol Buscovek. Their topics ranged from Dr. Salk and his polio vaccine to colonialism.

At the business meeting preceding the program, Sr. Christella in behalf of the school thanked the PTA for its contribution of $500 to the library project and also mentioned that 100 books had been donated by families through the Book Fair held at the school.

A nominating committee consisting of Max Steinbauer, Mrs. C. W. Biesanz and Luke Rowan was named. Mrs. J. G. Hoepfner and Mrs. Edmund Lee were in charge of the social hour.

Sheriff Cautions In Dealing With Itinerant Sellers

Rural Winona County residents today were urged by Sheriff George Fort to check carefully on any itinerant salesmen before entering into any sales agreements.

The sheriff said that he has received reports that a number of magazine salesmen and traveling painting contractors are soliciting business in the Winona area.

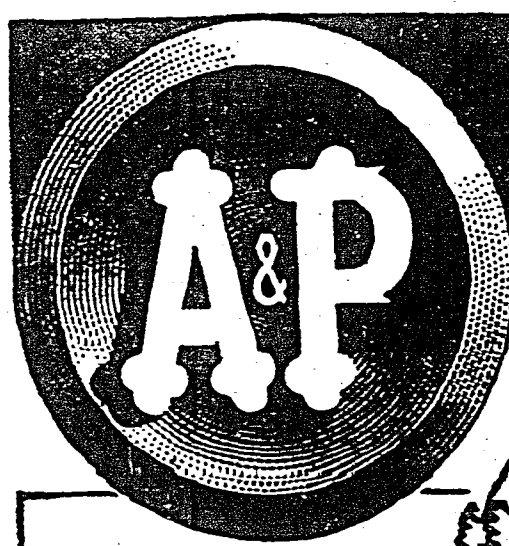

"Many of these people are trustworthy but frequently rural people are cheated by unscrupulous salesmen who either accept down payments and never fulfill the contract agreement or charge exorbitant prices for inferior work," the sheriff said.

He said that each year he received complaints from persons who report that they paid itinerant crews for painting work and that after the first rain the paint washed off.

Sheriff Fort asked that anyone who is approached with a sales offer check on the reliability of the salesman and offered the services of his office in this regard.

He especially warned against making any advance payments to any salesman whose identity has not been satisfactorily established.

Plenty of Holes
In Russ ProposalBy JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—You can drive a truck through the holes—two big ones—in the latest Russian disarmament proposal.

1. This country has established a ring of military bases around Russia with the permission of friendly countries. From those bases American planes could make instant retaliation on the Russians if they began an attack.

As part of its disarmament plan, Russia wants the United States to give up those bases. This is something Congress would never let the President agree to unless this country could be sure Russia was not able to begin a world war.

2. This country has insisted that for real disarmament—and real disarmament means destroying all atomic weapons all over the world—there could be no atomic war—there would have to be inspections teams in each country to be sure no atomic weapons were being concealed or made.

But in their disarmament proposals the Russians, while suggesting that atomic weapons be outlawed, are vague to the point of incoherence when explaining how these international inspection teams could check thoroughly enough to be sure there was not, and could not be, any cheating.

For those two reasons the Russian proposals will probably get no place although this country will give them attention. This country has to give them attention.

The Russians made good propaganda for themselves. Their disarmament offer no doubt looks pretty good to American allies who live closer to Russia, and a possible atomic war.

But the very proposals raise a question: Why did the Russians make them at this particular time? American officials here don't pretend to know.

Comedian's Wife Asks
$28,875 for Injuries

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mrs. Roscoe Ates, wife of the stuttering comedian, is asking $28,875 damages for injuries suffered in an automobile accident last Jan. 14. She and her husband filed the suit in Superior Court yesterday against Robert E. Brandon, oil company employee.

French Leave
Last Foothold in North Viet Nam

DOSON PENINSULA, North Viet Nam (AP)—The French were shifting the remainder of their North Indochina garrison to this evacuation peninsula today. Nearby Haiphong port was placed under a rigid curfew as the Communist Viet Minh prepared to take over the last French foothold in North Viet Nam.

French military authorities instructed Haiphong's 236,000 inhabitants to stay indoors for 24 hours beginning at 8 p.m. to prevent any trouble as the big port changed hands to Ho Chi Minh's forces. A spokesman for Cogy said all French troops would be southward bound by Monday. Then the Viet-minh will occupy the Doson Peninsula.

Motorist Sells Car
To Pay His Fine

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP)—Melvin L. James, 27, pleaded guilty in District Court yesterday to charges of driving an improperly registered car and driving without his eyeglasses. He told Judge Luigi DePasquale the car had caused him so much trouble with police that he sold it Tuesday for $8 in the hope it would cover the fine. Judge DePasquale obliged by cutting a $10 fine to $8.

WHITEHALL STUDENT

WHITEHALL, Wis. (Special)—David Wood, Whitehall, a freshman at Wisconsin State College at Eau Claire, has been named to receive a silver key pin in recognition of his activities on the college student publications. This year he has been a reporter on the college newspaper, the Spectator, and as an advertising salesman in the business department of the newspaper and yearbook. At present he is advertising manager of the Spectator.

New Coalition
Assures German
Rearmament Plans

HANNOVER, Germany (AP)—A new four-party coalition government in Lower Saxony state today assured Chancellor Konrad Adenauer the two-thirds majority needed in the Federal Parliament's upper house to carry through West German rearmament.

The coalition replaced a government dominated by anti-rearmament Socialists. The new lineup was assured when the Refugee party (BHE) agreed last night to join the Chancellor's Christian Democrats and two other pro-Adenauer factions in the state administration.

Police 'Brutality'
Wins New Trial
For N.Y. Lifer

NEW YORK (AP)—A federal court has ordered a new trial for a state prison lifer, saying New York City police committed "psychological brutality" in extracting a confession from him in a murder case.

Santo Camanito, 41, behind bars since 1942, was convicted with two other men in Brooklyn on the hold-up-murder of a Coney Island merchant. All three received life terms.

Camanito testified at his trial that the police coerced a confession from him.

yesterday on the ground that he had been "unconstitutionally victimized by officialdom."

8 in Family Die as
Car Goes Into Canal

MONTERREY, Mexico (AP)—Eight members of the Mexican family from Fresno, Calif., were killed yesterday when their car hurtled into a canal near here. They were returning home from a Mother's Day visit in Mexico.

The only survivor was the father, Ramiro G. Lozano, who was driving the car. Most victims drowned.

Lozano told officials he lost control of the car when his wife, nervous because of the speed, grabbed him.

Montana Man New Executive For Boy Scouts

Naming of Carl F. Bustell, Miles City, Mont., as Sugar Loaf District Boy Scout executive was announced today by James A. Hess, Rochester, Gamehaven area chief scout executive.

Bustell, 33, replaces Clint L. Hall, who resigned in February to enter the business field.

For the past three years, Bustell has served as district executive with the Yellowstone Valley Boy Scout Council, with headquarters at Billings, Mont.

A native of Red Lodge, Mont., he attended Eastern College of Education, Montana State College and the National Training School for Boy Scout Executives.

Employment with the Montana-Dakota Utilities Corporation followed three years' stint with the U. S. Navy during World War II.

Ike May Get Powers Over Salk Vaccine

WASHINGTON (AP)—A move was gaining momentum in Congress today to give President Eisenhower sweeping standby powers to clamp controls over distribution and prices of Salk polio vaccine.

Rep. Wolcott (R-Mich) said the proposal seems to be a "happy compromise" between contradictory demands for only voluntary guides and for drastic, compulsory and immediate controls.

He said he thought standby powers should be satisfactory to the Eisenhower administration, which has opposed federal controls so far.

Wolcott, usually a foe of federal controls, is senior Republican on the House Banking Committee, which is considering a wide variety of vaccine control bills.

Committee Chairman Spence (D-Ky) said standby controls "might well be the best solution," but he was not ready to commit himself yet.

Rep. Davidson (D-NY), another committee member, said sentiment for standby control powers is "very strong" among both Republicans and Democrats and he is convinced Congress will approve them.

These comments came today while the Public Health Service continued an on-the-spot recheck of vaccine manufacturing at the Parke, Davis and Co. laboratories in Detroit, the first of five manufacturers to be inspected.

2. Scheele agreed to go before the Banking Committee tomorrow to explain the situation further.

3. Some House members fired growing criticism at Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, secretary of health, education and welfare, who has general supervision over the Public Health Service, which Scheele heads.

4. A Public Health Service count showed the number of confirmed polio cases among children already vaccinated has risen to 62, out of an estimated five million children who have received the serum.

5. Parke, Davis and Co. said it has developed what it expects to be an improved version of the vaccine, and is testing it in De Witt County, Ill.

ROTARY SEES MOVIE
"The Great Adventure," a movie picturing various activities of Rotary International and stressing its graduate student exchange program, was shown at the Rotary Club luncheon at the Hotel Winona Wednesday noon. It is a part of the golden anniversary program of Rotary which was founded in Chicago in 1905 and advance publicity for the international convention to be held there this summer.

Labor Leader Racketeers Get No Pampering

DES MOINES (AP)—Atty Gen. Herbert Brownell said last night that 20 years of "Democratic pampering" of labor leaders' racketeering is being ended by the Republican administration.

He told 1,700 Iowa Republicans that the administration's war on "parasitic labor racketeers" is restoring the foundations of American political system.

The former GOP national chairman addressed the annual statewide $25-a-plate fund-raising dinner.

In an earlier press conference, he said, "I think the President will run again" in 1956.

He said in his speech that during the last two years the present administration has secured 70 indictments under the anti-racketeering and Taft-Hartley laws as compared to five by the Democratic administrations in the eight years before 1953.

He said the FBI has undertaken 1,400 investigations of possible violations of the two laws and are opening new cases at the rate of 50 a month.

Tot Switches From Cigars to Ice Cream

BETHALTO, Ill. (AP)—Earl Welton, 3½, has sworn off cigars and taken to ice cream instead. His mother Mrs. Earl C. Welton said he hasn't smoked for six days but "he has eaten about 20 ice cream cones." Word from a schoolteacher that he couldn't attend school if he smoked cigars brought about the reform, she said.

Boy's New-Found Fortune Shrinks

CHICAGO (AP)—The wealth of 8-year-old Michael Rice grew and shrank rapidly yesterday. Waiting outside a building while his father transacted business, Michael found a wallet containing $400. A few inquiries turned up the owner in a nearby store. He gave Michael a 50-cent reward.

Steelworkers Plan Strategy For Wage Fight

PITTSBURGH (U)—The CIO United Steelworkers mapped strategy today for a fight to secure a "substantial wage increase" in unprecedented simultaneous negotiations with six major steel producers.

The union's 170-member Wage Policy Committee approved the "substantial" boost demand of USW President David J. McDonald yesterday. McDonald declined to reveal the exact amount. Steelworkers now average $2.33 an hour.

The union has some 600,000 members in basic steel plants, and as many more in steel fabricating firms.

For the first time, talks will be held with six major steel firms concurrently. Bargaining with U.S. Steel Corp. is scheduled to begin June 7. McDonald said five other companies will start negotiations in Pittsburgh immediately afterward.

There was no comment from the companies.

A two-year contract with the steel companies, signed last year, permits reopening of discussions on hourly wages only this year. If no agreement is reached by June 30, the union will be free to strike.

Meet With Reds Hasn't Changed U.S. Vets' Views

MOSCOW (U)—The leader of nine American veterans of the 1945 U.S.-Soviet Elbe River linkup says reunion with the Russians hasn't altered the group's "right of center" political leaning.

The spokesman for the group—Joseph Polowsky of Chicago—told reporters here last night he and his colleagues "fully support the U.S. government's foreign policy," including West German rearmament. The nine arrived here Monday for a five-day visit as guests of the Soviet Union.

Polowsky made the comment after a rally with Soviet veterans in the Central House of the Soviet army. At the rally Russian Col. A. S. Zhadov assailed the "remilitarization of West Germany."

Reporters noted that Polowsky and his colleagues, who were on the stage during the meeting, frequently applauded the Russians' speeches. Asked later if he and his companions understood what they were applauding, Polowsky said they were depending on an interpreter.

VOICE of the OUTDOORS

The Great River Road

Highway 35, Wisconsin's link in the "Great River Road," the name recently adopted for the proposed Mississippi River Parkway, received nationwide publicity this week in an article mailed to every daily newspaper in the United States by the advertising agency that handles tourist publicity for Wisconsin Conservation Department. It stresses that Wisconsin built the first link of this road—a five-mile stretch between La Crosse and Trempealeau on Highway 93—and that the tourist need not wait for the parkway since Highway 35 today is "a hard-surfaced highway following the Mississippi closely from historic Prairie du Chien to Hager City, opposite Red Wing, and that other Wisconsin highways fill in the few gaps."

Emphasis is placed on two parks in this area—Perrot and Merrick—and on the historic and scenic wealth of the river area. It calls special attention to Trempealeau Mountain "the mountain that stands in the water." An unusual picture of the mountain, made by Merritt Kelley, Daily News photographer, from the top of adjoining Brady's Bluff during the rattlesnake hunt last Sunday, is reproduced today at the top of the column.

Historic sites such as Cassville, first capital of Wisconsin, Nelson Dewey Memorial Park, Fort Crawford and Villa Louis at Prairie du Chien which was "a thriving fur trading center in 1685, just 65 years after the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock," De Soto and Recreat, "where the Black Hawk war ended in annihilation of the Indians," are described in the publicity article.

River Zone Hearings
Two important river zone regulation hearings covering fishing in Mississippi River boundary waters have been scheduled by the Wisconsin Conservation Commission. Regulations for the Minnesota-Wisconsin boundary waters—Mississippi and St. Croix—will be at Ellsworth, Wis., at 8 p. m. May 25. The other covering the Iowa-Wisconsin boundary will be at Prairie du Chien at 8 p. m. May 26.

Minnesota's new commissioner, George Selke, says he will not let "personal opinions" outweigh scientific data in considering any changes in regulations. Through the years, sufficient data has been accumulated on river fishing conditions to assure the continuation of the sane rules now in effect. State fishery authorities should not be panicky because of the "ups and downs" in river catches. Food is the governing factor as the big catches of northern and walleyes this spring testify.

Dogs for Defense
H. C. Lohse, pioneer Winona dog trainer, brought back a bit of forgotten history the other day when he put on my desk a little blue book titled, "History of Dogs for Defense," and said, "read it."

It recalled the days early in World War II when Lohse and others in Winona were recruiting dogs for the Army and shipping them to training centers. If we recall correctly, about 65 dogs were sent to Fort Robinson. The book names several Winonians, including Mrs. O. V. Myers and Lohse, who took part in the program.

It is the story of how the dogs were recruited, how they were trained and maintained, and how they acquitted themselves on the battlefield. For example, there is the story of Chips, a former family pet, who passed his training with flying colors; who, the first time under artillery fire, seeing his master hastily dig a foxhole, quickly caught the idea and then and thereafter dug his own foxholes. Chips' heroic exploits were the pride of his battalion. If he could have worn a theater ribbon it would have shown eight battle stars and an arrowhead for assault landing.

Top Trout

Robert Nessler, St. Charles, started the trout fishermen talking Tuesday when he came into Mauer's at Elba with a six-pound, six-ounce brown, the top fish taken out of the Whitewater so far this season. It was alive when he entered it, so the fishermen gathered that he got it in the immediate Elba area.

Galesville Meeting

The Southern Trempealeau County Sportsmen's Club will hold its annual fishing party this evening at the Legion Club, Galesville. There will be entertainment, lunch, and many prizes will be awarded.

Ike Sets Up New Civil Defense Board

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has set up a coordinating board to plan for participation of all federal agencies in Civil Defense.

Climbers 'Shape Up' In Cold Storage Test

SEATTLE (AP)—Mountain climbers Dick McGowan and Fred Beckey slept for seven hours in a cold storage locker at 26 below zero with fans whipping up a 30 m.p.h. wind. They were testing sleeping bags they plan to use next fall in climbing a Himalayan peak. "It would have been just like home," said McGowan, "except for the smell of fish."

Three-Legged Germ Carrier Being Hunted

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—City health officials are looking for a three-legged cat. They've been authorized to shoot it but they'd rather take it alive.

H. C. Roberts, city sanitarian, said a woman stricken with diphtheria told him she had fed and petted the cat. Roberts explained if the cat is a diphtheria carrier it would be the first time to his knowledge a cat had been discovered carrying a disease peculiar to humans.

Religious Education Virtually Out in Argentine Schools

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Backed unanimously by the Senate, a bill eliminating Roman Catholic religious education in Argentine public schools went today to the House of Deputies. Approval there was considered certain.

The measure, first congressional move supporting President Peron in his six-month dispute with the church, was passed by the Senate yesterday. Peron supporters also have proposed a bill in Congress to cancel constitutional provisions making Roman Catholicism the state church.

Police yesterday announced the arrest of two more Catholic priests. This brought to 33 the number taken into custody since last November when Peron began accusing some churchmen of trying to undermine his regime.

SKILLET CLUB FOR MEN

By Frank Kohler

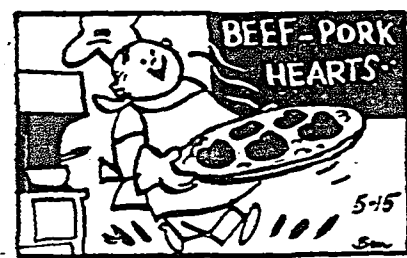

CLUB MEMBER DISCOVERS EXCITING HEARTS RECIPE

From the Tacoma News-Tribune Chapter, Mrs. Mildred LeMarsh advises us on a new way to cook hearts, either of beef or pork.

A beef heart will serve eight, each pig heart one. Have your butcher slice the hearts and put through the tenderizer.

You will require a breeding mixture, or cracker crumbs, or seasoned flour to turn the slices in. Then saute very slowly in bacon fat. It takes about 15 minutes for the first side, and about 13 minutes to finish off the other side.

This is an interesting budget idea, easy to do, and the result is good. It resembles "chicken-fried" steak.

Sydney W. Jackson, Buffalo Courier-Express Chapter, has another good man's dish in this casserole.

1 pound ground beef.
3 tablespoons bacon fat.
Beer.
2 medium onions, diced.
5 stalks celery, thin sliced.
1 small can sliced mushrooms.
1/2 box elbow macaroni.
1 can tomato soup.
Buttered toast slices.
2 tablespoons worcestershire.
Salt, pepper, MSG, garlic salt.
Break up beef in a skillet in which you have melted 2 tablespoons bacon fat, and saute until bits are lightly browned. Add 1/4 cup of beer and cook until the redness of the meat entirely disappears.

In a second skillet, melt 1 tablespoon bacon fat, and saute diced onion and celery lightly, then add 1/2 cup of beer and simmer 15 minutes.

Boil macaroni as instructed, in salted water for eight minutes after water has boiled. Drain. Mix macaroni, meat and vegetables, and add one can tomato soup and 1/4 of the soup can of water, and worcestershire and remaining seasonings to taste. Stir until all is thoroughly mixed. Bake in a buttered casserole at 325 degrees, uncovered, for 45 minutes. Stir after 10 minutes and again after 20 minutes so macaroni won't brown too much on top. Serve hot on buttered toast. You can use water throughout instead of beer—but the beer gives added zest.

Don't forget that it is the chef's prerogative to consume the surplus beer!

From Hammond, La., P. W. Brown sends us an excellent Quick Shrimp Creole, for four. You can use two cups of cooked shrimp, dried, for this if you have fresh shrimp available, in place of the canned shrimp.

2 cans (4 oz. each) cleaned shrimp.
6 strips bacon.
1/4 cup each of chopped celery, chopped onion, chopped green pepper and chopped fresh to-

Sweethearts of 53 Years Ago Marry

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Tom Kilshaw and Polly Shuttleworth Chapin, whose romance began 53 years ago, are honeymooning today. They were married in the Hollywood Lutheran Church yesterday and plan to make their home in Los Angeles. They were childhood sweethearts in England but lost track of one another in 1907 when Kilshaw went to Canada.

Last Christmas a friend in the couple's home town of Kendal, Westmoreland, England, sent Kilshaw a card with the address of his onetime sweetheart, who by then was a widow living in Palo Alto, Calif.

The plane carrying the card crashed, and Kilshaw almost didn't get it. But finally it came—water-stained and battered. Kilshaw went to Palo Alto and soon the romance was on again.

The bridegroom is a livestock auctioneer. He and the new Mrs. Kilshaw are both 68.

Tariff-Cutting Program Called Security Threat

By STERLING F. GREEN

(Fourth of a Series)
WASHINGTON (AP)—In the long debate over President Eisenhower's tariff-cutting program, one of the hottest arguments has revolved around a claim that the program might endanger national security by crippling industries vital to defense.

The administration rejected the claim. Cabinet officers testified that the strength and unity of the free world depends on a reciprocal, gradual lowering of trade barriers.

A year ago the jeweled watch manufacturers opened fire by stressing the "unique" skills of their workers in war and peace. Then coal, wool, machine tools, large segments of the electrical machinery, oil, chemical and other industries climbed aboard the defense-essential argument.

The arguments were not silenced by Eisenhower's personal assurance that no industry would be placed in jeopardy, nor by the fact that the bill retained a safety clause by which the President could block any tariff cut that would endanger defense production.

Specific Arguments

Those who prefer their protection written specifically into the law argued that:

Domestic shutdowns, caused by foreign competition, would so curtail production that the industry concerned would be unable to convert quickly to war production; its skilled laid-off workers would be scattered; and the nation would be forced to depend on foreign suppliers who in wartime might be cut off or who, in an emergency, might not choose to sell to us.

Also, Congress heard fear expressed that sizable portions of American industry would be driven overseas. Witnesses pointed to American car producers who already are building autos abroad and shipping them into the United States, and to manufacturers who have set up plants overseas to penetrate foreign markets fenced off from U.S. exports.

Witnesses disagreed, however, on the remedy. To the foes of the tariff bill, the trend was proof that the reciprocal trade program hasn't been reciprocal; our tariffs came down but other countries kept theirs up. To supporters of the bill, the trend proved the need for a reciprocal lowering of tariffs so that dollar-shy nations could earn dollars here and abandon their trade walls.

A coal spokesman warned Congress that if war broke out the nation "would go on a coal economy overnight"—but that the industry, with many mines closed and employment down to 50 percent, couldn't rise to the emergency for 8 to 12 months.

The bituminous industry, joined by John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers, centered its attack on imports of residual oil, the by-product of Venezuelan refineries. Coal men charged that residual oil is being dumped at Atlantic ports, devouring Eastern markets that once belonged to coal.

Kenosha Driver Killed as Car, Truck Collide

RACINE, Wis. (AP)—Othmar J. Weidenbrenner, about 35, of Kenosha, Wis., was killed Wednesday night when his car and a loaded beer truck collided at a Highway 41 intersection.

Police said that Weidenbrenner, on his way home from a fishing trip, was thrown from his auto and struck by the truck as it rolled over.

The truck burst into flames and was destroyed. The driver, Arnold R. Hicks, 30, Chicago, suffered third degree burns over two-thirds of his body. He was confined to a hospital here. He was unconscious for hours after the accident which occurred about 8 p.m.

Smashed beer bottles littered the highway, the main north-south route, between Chicago and Milwaukee, and in some places the broken glass was piled five feet deep.

Mrs. Bertha Tuttle, who has been a guest at the home of Mrs. Edith Helgeson has returned to her home at Kent, Ohio.

FAIRLY SPOKEN

By MARGARET LATROBE

"Nice doggie. Go 'way doggie!" Suppose the pooch is anything but a nice one, and is fixing to sample a bit of ankle rather than heed instructions to get going? The Civil Service Commission Appeal Board ruled the other day that a postman, set upon by a vicious canine, has every right to kick same or otherwise defend himself against frontal, sidal or posterior attack.

Which brings up the unpleasant fact that although dog may be man's best friend, sometimes, certain dogs scare the daylight out of people in a most unfriendly fashion, sometimes. And much as one may love his dog, what about loving his fellow man a little bit, too?

It seems to me that the professional "dog lovers" would promote the interests of kindness and understanding of our canine friends more by vigilant training programs, leashing and licensing regulations than by insisting that they be allowed to roam at will.

The citizenry in general will never come to love dogs by having flower beds trampled, shrubbery abused, garbage cans knocked over. Nor will muddled clothes, scratched car fenders and zealous barking convert timid guests into jubilant champions of animal worship.

Nuisances are perhaps trivial, to be overlooked. Vicious attack is quite another matter, and any postman or deliveryman or caller with legitimate business should not be subjected to the attentions of an irritable beast whose greeting has threatening overtones.

There may be some pleasure gained from possessing bulky breeds of dog who bark, bite and walk through plate glass doors when a toothsome guest rings the doorbell, but I don't see where, there may be some point in keeping six or eight dogs in a small apartment, but it misses the mark with me. Maybe some people think it cruel to restrict dogs to their own premises—"It's cruel to keep them penned." Which it may be, but it is also a fairly frightening thing to be accosted by a bellicose pooch, eager to prove he has all his teeth and tonsils as well.

No reason why we all can't love dogs. No reason why dogs can't love us—provided their owners are thoughtful enough to encourage the mutual admiration society. But meanwhile, if the mailman refuses to bring the bills and circulars, if the grocery boy won't set foot on the porch—don't blame them. Try exerting a little loving restraint on old Rover Boy. He may be dying to see what's in the mail, but going about it in the wrong way.

Possible Crisis Looms for New Italian Premier

By ALLAN JACKS

ROME (AP)—Premier Mario Scelba's first call on President Giovanni Gronchi today raised the possibility of an Italian government crisis. The new left-of-center chief executive has urged a greater role for the working class in political decisions.

Scelba was expected to offer the resignation of his 15-month-old Cabinet to Gronchi, who was sworn in yesterday. Such a step would be in line with tradition, but some parliamentary lawyers argued that the Premier was not obliged to take it.

Scelba planned to meet first with his Cabinet and his coalition party leaders to decide a course of action. Should he resign, Gronchi can either (1) refuse to accept, (2) direct Scelba to form another government, or (3) call on some other political leader to try.

If the President took the latter course, he could encounter a government crisis. Two small center parties which had been threatening to abandon Scelba's coalition said last night they would continue to support him, at least for the present.

The medal was accepted by Mrs. Gannett on behalf of herself and her husband. Gannett is confined to a hospital for treatment of a fractured vertebra.

Atomic Sub Set For Second Try

GROTON, Conn. (AP)—The atomic submarine Nautilus is expected to make a second try today at starting on its first long shakedown cruise. The Nautilus returned to her berth here yesterday after a steam pipe burst off Block Island, R.I. She had started on the cruise Tuesday with Adm. Robert Carney, chief of naval operations, on board. The spokesman said the pipe break occurred after Adm. Carney was transferred to another ship off Long Island for a flight back to Washington.

2 Gls Facing Courts-Martial

NEW YORK (AP)—Two American soldiers must face courts-martial for alleged pro-Communist activities while Korean War captives.

One is involved in an unprecedented murder charge.

The two are Sgt. James C. Gallagher, 23, of Brooklyn, and Cpl. Harold M. Dunn, 26, of Baldwinville, N.Y.

The 1st Army announced yesterday that both men, prisoners in North Korea for almost three years, must answer to charges of collaboration with the enemy and mistreatment and informing on fellow prisoners.

Gallagher is accused of "murder without premeditation of fellow prisoners of war." The number of alleged victims was not listed in the formal charge.

An Army spokesman said Gallagher and Dunn have been confined in the stockade at Ft. Jay, Governors Island. He gave no details of the alleged crimes. No trial date has been set.

Athletics Busy Swapping Talent At Deadline Time

By WILL GRIMSLEY
The Associated Press

The Kansas City Athletics, grabbing wildly for a winning combination, were busiest of all major league baseball clubs in fitting their rosters into size-25 contracts before the midnight deadline Wednesday.

From the start of the season until today the clubs could carry 40 players. Now they must get along with no more than 25, plus service returnees.

The eager A's bought two veterans—outfielder Enos Slaughter and pitcher Johnny Sain—from the New York Yankees. They acquired pitcher Ray Herbert from Detroit and outfielder Harry Simpson from Cleveland.

The day's other noteworthy activity included the outright release of left-hander Hal Newhouse by the Cleveland Indians. The 34-year-old Newhouse, on the left side of the American League, left, said he had been offered either his outright release or a place on the voluntarily retired list. He chose the former.

Here is the list of last-minute moves by major league clubs to get within the limit:

Kansas City Athletics—Optioned Don Bollweg and pitcher Charley Bishop to San Diego, optioned second baseman Forrest Jacobs to Columbus and catcher A. Robertson to Portland, shipped pitchers John Gray, Marion Franco and Ed Burroughs to Columbus for later disposition. Recalled infielder Hector Lopez from Columbus. Placed pitcher Arnold Portocarrero on the disabled list.

New York Yankees—Sold outfielder Enos Slaughter and pitcher Johnny Sain to Kansas City, sent pitcher Art Schabond to Baltimore, optioned pitcher Don Larsen to Denver, sent pitcher John Dixon from Kansas City to Denver.

Cleveland Indians—Gave pitcher Hal Newhouse his outright release, sent Joe Atwood to Indianapolis on option. Sold outfielder Harry Simpson to Kansas City. Baltimore—Placed pitcher Joe Coleman on the disabled list, optioned pitcher Don Ferrarese to Oakland, dropped pitcher Bill Miller unassigned, placed pitcher Arnold Portocarrero on the disabled list.

Boston Red Sox—Placed pitcher Owen Friend and optioned pitcher Bob Smith to Louisville, sent pitcher Joe Trimble to Hollywood.

Detroit Tigers—Released Steve Souchock to Buffalo, sent infielder Joe Mauer to Detroit, sold pitcher Ray Herbert to Kansas City, released infielder Roy Sano to Chicago.

Chicago—Previously reached limit. Washington—Previously reached limit.

Brooklyn Dodgers—Placed pitcher Tom Lasorda on the disabled list. New York—Asked waivers on catcher Mickey Gazzo.

St. Louis Cardinals—Optioned pitcher Al Grunwald to St. Louis, first baseman Tom Allen to Omaha.

Pittsburgh Pirates—Optioned pitcher Al Grunwald to St. Louis, first baseman Tom Allen to Omaha.

Philadelphia Phillies—Optioned outfielder Mel Clark to Syracuse, infielder Luis Ortiz to Seattle.

Milwaukee Braves—Optioned pitcher Ray Crone to Toledo.

Chicago—Previously reached limit.

St. John's Holds Unbeaten Record

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
St. John's clamped even tighter control of the Minnesota College Conference baseball race today with its seventh straight victory.

The Johnnies clubbed Macalester, 12-3, Wednesday with a 15-hit attack that included homers by Don Carlson, pitcher Bucky May and Dick Bays.

Macalester matched them in homers—two from Bob Specht and another by Ted Stephens, but couldn't do much with May other-wise.

May allowed six hits and struck out 13.

In a nonleague game on May 9, St. John's won 9-7 in a 19 hit game for singles.

Winona Teachers beat Stout Institute 5-1 and 9-3 to run its record to 11 victories in 14 games. Jack McGrath fanned 10 in the opener and Jerry Grinn struck out 13 in the second game.

Winhawk Nine Plays at 'Kato In Crucial Test

Coach Ed Spencer's Winona High baseball team faces a must-or-bust game at Mankato Friday afternoon in Big Nine Conference competition.

Four teams are currently tied for the Big Nine lead—Winona High, Rochester, Mankato and Austin. Games scheduled Friday night are the Hawks at Mankato and Rochester at Austin.

Spencer has nominated sturdy righthander Chuck Wally to pitch for Winona against Mankato. The Hawks lost a 3-2 game in nine innings to Rochester their last time out.

Also scheduled for action Friday are the Winhawk golf and tennis squads, both at Mankato.

Cotter High School hosted St. Augustine of Austin today at 3 p.m. and aimed for a repeat victory over the Shamrocks in the game.

Spartans Top Batting Race In Big Ten

CHICAGO (U.S.A.)—Michigan State's defending Big Ten baseball champions, currently tied with Northwestern for fourth place in the 1955 race still rank as the most dangerous slugging team in the loop.

The Spartans, who may upset Michigan's title hopes in a 3-game series with the Wolverines this weekend are leading the conference with a rousing .339 team batting average. Michigan ranks as runnerup with .311 and Ohio State's Buckeyes are third with .294.

Minnesota, which shares the lead in the Big Ten race with Michigan—each with seven victories and two losses—is the team fielding leader with an average of .372. That figure tops Michigan by a single point.

The leading Big Ten batter is Jerry Ranickie of Northwestern, who is hitting .448 in nine games. Chuck Mathews, Michigan State first baseman, leads in total hits with 15 and Dan Cline of Michigan in total bases with 23. Cline and Ray Collard, Spartan outfielder, both have driven home 11 runs.

Stolpa Wins 3rd VFW Pin Crown

Joe Stolpa's 174 average topped the VFW League for the third consecutive year. Al Voelker had 178 but didn't participate in enough games for the title.

John Buggs set a league record by not missing a league game or being late for four straight years. The Pottsville brothers, George, Ray and John, along with Richard Beranek, Ralph Bamnack, Charles Abts, Dick Stronkski, Bob Bundy, Ed Gryzbowski, Don Wood and Ted Suchmel bowled all 99 games this season.

An oddity was Bill Fraser's picking off the seven and ten on his first ball. He hit the seven on a cross-over and it bounced out of the pit taking just the ten. He had the rest of the pins bunched nicely for his second shot.

Roll-off for the league championship will be Monday, at 7 p.m., between Elmer's City Bar and Pozanc Trucking.

Arcadia Driver Found Guilty of Resisting Officer

WHITEHALL, Wis. (Special)—Joseph Thomas, 67-year-old Arcadia farmer, was convicted of resisting an officer but freed on a charge of drunken driving by a Trempealeau County Circuit Court jury Wednesday. The jurors deliberated an hour and 50 minutes.

Thomas was sentenced to pay a $150 fine plus costs or spend 90 days in jail. He was represented by Roman Feltes, Arcadia. It was the only jury trial scheduled for this term.

Thomas was arrested Oct. 20, 1954, in the town of Arcadia by Traffic Officer Maurice Scow, and entered a plea of not guilty to both charges in justice court. He had appealed conviction in that court.

Jurors were instructed to return unanimous verdicts on each of the charges by Judge A. L. Twesme.

Scow Testifies
First on the stand as the trial opened Wednesday morning was Traffic Officer Scow, who testified that shortly after 7 p.m., Oct. 20, 1954, he was informed in Arcadia that a southbound car was "weaving" along Highway 93. He said he followed the car for about half a mile and that it appeared to weave to the left of the center line so that nearly all of the car was across the center line, and he returned to its own lane. Scow said he turned on the traffic light and siren on his car and stopped the car across from the Arcadia Public Cemetery.

According to Scow, Thomas staggered, smelled of intoxicating beverages, and talked abusively and untruthfully. When informed that he was under arrest for driving while intoxicated, Scow said Thomas resisted him, saying that he had to go home for chores.

A scuffle ensued, Scow testified in response to questions by Dist. Atty. John C. Quinn, in which both men went to the ground. An approaching motorist whom Scow did not know, stopped and the officer succeeded in handcuffing Thomas.

He then brought Thomas to the county jail at Whitehall, where he was booked and placed in a cell. Scow testified on cross-examination by Feltes that he gave Thomas no tests for intoxication, but said Thomas stumbled up the steps into the jail from the jail office.

Earling Johnson, Whitehall, a highway department employee, testified that he was at the jail when Thomas was brought in. He said that Thomas staggered when he walked and smelled of alcohol.

Defendants' Witnesses
The evidence of the first witness for the defense, Dr. B. C. Dockendorf, Arcadia, was not received by the court.

Thomas was the only witness on his own behalf. He testified that as he left Arcadia, he could see a light from another car that bothered him as he proceeded south on Highway 93 toward his home. He said he thought he saw what was an accident or some vehicle to his left as he proceeded down the road, and when lights flashed and a siren blew he stopped as he thought the traffic officer wanted to discuss the "accident" with him.

He said Scow, whom he knew, came immediately to the driver's side of his car and put the handcuffs on his wrists. He said then the traffic officer began to push him around, and he became unconscious.

Thomas said the officer had loosened the handcuffs or moved them around so that they were more comfortable as they were en route to the jail at Whitehall.

Admits Drinking
On cross examination, he admitted being in the Bill Sobotta Tavern at Arcadia from "dinner time until 8 or 9 o'clock" but also said he had had no dinner. He admitted drinking, but he said he never drank so much that he could not control his car.

Members of the jury were: Lloyd Jackson, Town of Arcadia; Harold Edison, Town of Albion; Carl Pederson, Town of Ellettsville; Reuben Olson and Clinton Christanson, Oshtemo; Ernest J. Jodan, and Roy Bluske, Blair; Vernon Schaefer, Town of Hale; John Walek Jr., Town of Burnside; Fredric Brandt, Town of Dodge; Harold Gilmeister, Town of Gale and Curtis Anderson, Town of Hale.

Selling Pushes Market Lower

NEW YORK (U.S.A.)—Losses of as much as 4 points a share were marked up in the stock market today.

Selling pushed all sections of the market lower, although here and there selected issues showed resistance. Dealings were heavier than in recent sessions and volume for the day was found three million shares. That compares with 1,120,000 shares traded Thursday.

In mid-afternoon, most prices were moderately above their lows of the day and the market showed a tendency to rally.

Hay, Grain, Feed

DRY THIS YEAR'S Hay and other crops, baled, chopped or loose. No matter how hay is handled its better hay when mowed cured, the Louden Uni-Duct way. Beats a wet season-crop, goes into mow the same day it's cut. Regardless of the weather green color is preserved, leaf loss eliminated; feeding value vastly improved, saves up to 25 per cent grain ration. Pays for its cost the first year on 60 ton or more hay. LAFF-A-DAY

LET'S EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGUM, D. Sc.

Answer to Question No. 1
1. Doubtful. Sociologist Judson T. Landis points out that Dr. Kinsey lumps together college girls, women with broken or breaking marriages, women who were avowedly promiscuous, women who married late—32 to 35, who had had extensive premarital experiences. Lumping the latter three types with college girls, who, studies find, are 80 to 91 per cent virgins, surely does not represent the average "sexual behavior in the human female," as purported.

Answer to Question No. 2
2. Yes. Psychologist Weiss has shown that persons with strong hatreds are always in a state of high muscle tension. This is because we defend ourselves from attack with our muscles. Such people constantly have their muscles ready for fighting. In time, this sets up intense bodily pain—"psychogenic rheumatism." Other experts show anxiety, fear, and hate increase pains of arthritis. A good remedy is relaxation, best learned in our non-profit booklet, "How To Relax," 15c (coin only) and self-addressed, stamped envelope. Send to Dr. A. E. Wiggum, in care of The Winona Daily News.

Answer to Question No. 3
3. Psychologists Scodel and Musen, by technical methods, compared 27 positive-minded (authoritarian) students with 27 liberal-minded (nonauthoritarian) students in first year psychology. The authoritarian students were much lower in their ability to estimate how others felt toward them—had less insight, and had far less understanding of the other fellow than did the non-authoritarians. Wish I could tell you more about each group.

BEDTIME STORIES

By HOWARD GARIS

Uncle Wiggly and all his friends who had landed on the island in Frog Pond from the Amusement Raft, looked at Packy, the circus baby elephant. He had just finished playing baseball with Buster and the other animal boys. Then, on the main shore not far from the island, there was heard a rumbling sound. It was the noise made by the big circus auto trucks.

Then a man's loud voice had called.

"You must swim across Frog Pond and come back to your circus, Packy!" The name of the baby elephant was Packy. "Will you come back or must I send a boat to bring you back to your circus, Packy?"

The man's voice was rather cross.

"Oh, dear, what shall I do?" asked Packy of Uncle Wiggly.

"Do you belong to the circus?" asked the rabbit gentleman.

"Yes, I do. I was born in the circus," answered Packy. "I have been with the circus all my life. I just ran away to have some fun. And we did have some jolly fun, playing baseball; didn't we?" asked Packy of Buster, the Rabbit Scout.

"We sure did and your batting in home runs helped us win the game," answered Buster.

"You ought to give us a chance to play another game?" barked Jackie Bow Wow. "We lost the first game. But, Buster, if you will let Packy play on our team, I'm sure we can beat you."

"All right, I'll change sides," Packy agreed. But again came that man's loud voice from the nearby shore calling:

"Are you coming back to your circus, Packy, or must I send and fetch you? Answer me!"

"Oh, what shall I say?" asked Packy sadly of Uncle Wiggly.

"You belong to the circus, do you not, Packy?" the rabbit gentleman asked the baby elephant.

"Oh, yes, I belong to the circus surely enough. But it was such fun to run away and come to this island and play ball. If I have to go back to the circus, I shall have to do tricks in the ring. I shall have to stand up on a little stool. I shall have to rear up on my hind legs. I shall have to run around the ring with a monkey on my back. And I don't mind telling you, Uncle Wiggly, I went on Packy in a low voice, "I don't mind telling you that monkey tickles my back. I am very sensitive, for an elephant. Some people think we elephants have no feeling, but we have. I would much rather stay here, Uncle Wiggly and play with your boys and girls."

"They are not all mine," said Mr. Longears. "Only the rabbits are my children. The puppy dogs, the pussycats, the goats, the frogs and the squirrels are other children."

"Well, I love them all and I would like to stay here and play with them," said Packy. "Please let me!" Again the loud voice called:

"Packy, are you going to swim back to your circus or must I row over in a boat and bring you back from that island? Answer me!"

"Can you swim over to the mainland?" asked Uncle Wiggly.

"Shiver my bathing suit!" exclaimed Bosun. "I should say an elephant can swim all right, Cap'n Wiggly, sir. They can swim underwater with only the top of their trunk stuck out so they can breathe like through a snorkel tube. Sure Packy can swim; can't you, Packy?"

"Yes, I am a very good swimmer," admitted the baby elephant.

"Then, I think, as long as you belong to the circus, that you had better swim back to it," said Uncle Wiggly. "We would love to have you stay with us, Packy for the children love you. But we must all do what is right, and I think it is right for you to join the circus again."

Once more the man's loud voice shouted:

"Are you coming, Packy, or must I come and get you?"

"I am coming Ringmaster," answered the baby elephant in a little voice. "Ring Master is my circus boss," he explained. "Well, good-bye, boys and girls," went on
