DRIVE MADE FOR $7,000 SCHOLARSHIP

Having as its main feature the beginning of a drive for a $7,000 scholarship fund to commemorate the college's seventy-seventh anniversary, a scholarship dinner for alumni will be given on Saturday, October 26.

The dinner will start the Homecoming activities, after which will follow the game with St. Cloud at 2:15 in college auditorium. The afternoon program for this season is entirely new. There will be a story, from Grimm, "The Bremen Town Musicians" which is admirably adapted to the activities of the acting doll. The animals have a chance in this little play and there is a laughter stung every minute, to keep the attention alert.

Another short play is to be presented under the title of "The Stolen Princess." There is a story which is intriguing, and is given with quaint loveliness which characterizes the artistic setting of the plays presented by Mr. Sargent. It would be unfair to tell the story in advance, but it concerns a princess who ends her career in the play with visions of happiness ever afterwards, and the whole play is one of oriental style, much like the Arabian Nights, and recalling All Baba, one of Tony Sargent's greatest successes.

Tony Sargent's marionettes will give two performances when the celebrated company of actors and puppets come here November fourth at the college auditorium.

DRAMA SPECIAL FEATURE

"Lady Windeemer's Fan" is the play chosen by the Wenonah Players to be given some time in November. Tryouts were held Tuesday evening and a cast chosen.

THE SONG OF THE CLASS OF 1929

The annual song of the class of 1929 is "The Rising Generation," written by Mr. Jederman and Henry Southworth. Mr. Jederman and Mr. Southworth have been working on the chorus and verses for this number for some time and it is hoped that it will be ready in time for the big games.

ASSOCIATION TO HOLD DINNER HONORING ALUMNI

The Southeastern Division meeting of the Minnesota Education Association will be held at the Teachers College in Winona on October 24 to 26. Many interesting features are planned, including a special dinner for the President, the College of Education, and Dr. G. E. Meyers, Professor of Vocational Education at the University of Michigan. The topic of the banquet is "Educational Guidance," that of the latter is "Vocational Guidance."

The dinner for alumni is to be held from 6:30 to 8:30. Miss Laura Palmer will speak to the primary- and intermediate-grade teachers on "Training Values," and Agnes Bposition, Dean of College of Education at the University of Kansas, and Dr. G. E. Meyers, Professor of Vocational Education, will speak on "Selecting a Profession in Education."

Special round table conferences for the following sections are planned: science, mathematics, English, history, social science, languages, home economics, art, musical education, and English.

cornered the eastern windows of the main hall, this vase has undoubtedly impressed you by its qualities of balance, symmetry and design. This fluted vase was given to the college by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Watkins in November 1921, and was acquired by them in Rome and Florence, Italy, during their travel there in 1922. The vase which is a copy of a Roman specimen, is of African marble. The columns in Verde Antico marble, with base and cap in Giglio Antico marble. The Verde Antico marble came from the island of Elba (Italy). The Giglio Antico marble and African marble came from the Roman period from Numidica, (Africa) and probably from Carthage, being carried off by the Romans after the destruction of Carthage.

Through the generosity of the donors named, this rare piece of art has been made available to the college for the education of its students, and benefit of all those who visit this institution.

HOMECOMING

In the past few years so much has been written upon the subject of "Homecoming," and by so many distinguished persons has that writing been done, that we feel somewhat hesitant to comment further upon the subject, however, our editors feel that it would be disastrous to let such an event pass "uneditorialized," and so in all sincerity we applaud all those who should engage in this great charade.

From all information which we have been able to gain we surmise that the program for this year which will be climaxd by the football game, will be usually interesting and should prove immensely entertaining to all save the unhapy Freshman boys, whose cruel duty it will be to gather wood for a projected bonfire.

THE WINONAN

ALUMNI NEWS

Ray Loughlin, a '29 graduate of this school, was visiting here last week and then attended a consolidated school at Centerville, about sixteen miles from Winona. He always enthusiastically recommended our school to others. He is a six teaching fellow in a French Community.

John Lovelace, also a '29 grad, was here and enjoyed a short visit the past week. He now has a position in Winona.

Carl Barlow, who attended T. C. part of last year, is now attending the medical secretarial at Evanston, Ill. James Grande, a July graduate of '29 is now principal of the High School at Honey Creek.

Arthur Jolhs, in addition to his teaching, is occupying a position as assistant press agent at Crowville Minn.

Vincent Kliiterman of the class of '25, and a teacher in Winona college High School, was married in August to Richard Frederickson of Winona.

Helen Stuart, a student of last year in teaching at Sioux Falls, South Dakota, is now attending the Teacher's University of Upland, Indiana. She is now at home in Winona.

KINDERGARTEN NEWS

The members of the Infant and Junior-Senior High School of the kindergarten Club has been raising money through the sale of Christmas Cards of the school's work. The sample book for this year has come and it is hoped that it will be beautiful and original cards, seals, and small gifts. Now is your chance, facility and generosity in order to support one of your clubs in its effort to do something for the school as well as to secure a choice and original group of cards at a very reasonable price.

You are invited to attend some of the activities of the kindergarten. Some of the best are attracting some attention is a complete doll's wardrobe made by the mother of one of the second grade kindergarten students. It is located on the top floor in the east corridor show case. This exhibit will probably interest many of the students. You may also visit the children of the Psychological Society.

The members of the Country Life Club recently held a fair at the top floor in the east corridor show case. This exhibit will probably interest many of the students. You may also visit the children of the Psychological Society.

"SPORTS" AND "SCHOOL SPIRIT"

The unprecedented success with which Winona Teachers College teams have won victories over the majority of their opponents during the past few years speaks well for our school. Certainly it would be absurd for the students to expect any finer representation from the athletic department. Yet we are wondering if it would not be possible for the student body to improve in the matter of supporting its teams. The athletic teams of the college fight hard to bring in victories, but we have noticed that a lot of the time there seems to be a vast number of them, or have a TENDENCY to appear disinter-terested— that is those who are not dreaming of how wonderful it is—and there seems to be a lack of what is commonly called school spirit.

If Winona Teachers College is to be thoroughly "on the map," it must have a body of fine athletic teams, but it must have a "never say die" spirit which sticks to a team and a school to the end is the most urgent need in our school at the present time.

I wish Winona Teachers College to be thoroughly "on the map," it must have a body of fine athletic teams, but it must have a "never say die" spirit which sticks to a team and a school to the end is the most urgent need in our school at the present time.
THE "MELTING POT"
By Polly Pollard

It has been rumored that a number of students are going home during the spring vacation. This happens to be the same date as Homecoming week for the new students and also the old students to show their school spirit in spite of the bad weather and the needed support. The team plays the St. Cloud High School team which we now hold. We have assembled in this institution to keep the students away from the teaching profession. Here is our chance to show what teachers are doing in this part of the state and increase our image knowledge about Winona has great possibilities.

Walter Kangas came through with a big gain. This was the big run of the game. Walter Kangas was never really pressed and he carried the ball back to the year 1925. St. Cloud comes here with a very impressive record. They have won in 1924 and have disposed of Rochester and Fort Snelling by scores of 34 to 9 and 21 to 0, respectively. They started much as they ended, winning.last year losing 14 to 2 although holding us from making a first down. Kangas recovered the ball and caught a pass for another.

Winona's only score. It wasn't long after the line opened big holes and no one side became dangerous back and forth across the field with neither side becoming dangerous. Winona's goat they had, but their song leaders. Dorothy McKibbon....R.T...Heise..R.T...Grote....L.E....Berg....L.H....Kramer....E.S....E. S. S.

It was the spirit of Winona. No scores were made the second half. On Red Wing's 25 yard line but Kern went around left end to the three yard line. On the next play Welch attempted to score. Kern carried it for a touchdown but Kern was forced to punt; the ball rolled across the goal line. Winona got the ball on a poor punt and kicked it over the line for a safety. Score Winona 0, Mankato 2. No Game was played in 1926.

Air: U. of M. Rouser Song

Winona and Victory.

With their shout and song
From thy woods and waters fair;
Is the spirit of "Fight! Team Fight!"

Music by T. E. Rickard, '06

It's the spirit of Winona.

With their shout and song
And adore thy name;

Wear an Alumnae Button: time already, and we're already posting signs around: "Welcome!" I've been dedicated or eradicated on the registration committee. In other words, I shall sit at a register and be glad to answer any students who have problems. Of the annual and president of the Die-No-Mo Club has been a T C. for their competition. Paul is now working for the Krueger Company in Chicago. Paul Nissen, graduate of last year's class, and sports editor of the Winonan and Editor-in-Chief of the annual and president of the Die-No-Mo Club was elected an Honorary member of the club. A dash was made into the building by the excited High Voltage and her "eyes man," Gordon Bean, and Mr. Maxwell was triumphant -ely to his place of honor in the front row. "Hi! How's it going?"
"Am I late for the Primary Club picture?"
"Whew, the Junior High Clubs?"
"Well, and to think I missed it!"
Such were the exclamations heard as the registration building just Thursday and Friday while the club pictures were being taken.
Mr. Priewert, troubled, was rushed out as "They showed" students from one place to another and then back again. Just before the Die-No-Mo picture, the student's were on the "rack," and Mr. Maxwell was elected an Honorary member of the club.
