ADT DEPARTMENT

The resignation of Mrs. T. M. Cassidy, head of the art department of the teachers college, was announced by Dean C. W. Hatfield, late of Winona, on December 27th. Mrs. Cassidy has accepted a position at the University of Minnesota, where she will devote her attention to the study of art education.

Dr. W. E. Wile, professor of education, in discussing the problem of the home, cited several points in support of his thesis. The home, he said, is the greatest opportunity for education. In addition to the traditional roles of providing food, shelter, and clothing, the home is also a place where values are passed on to children. Dr. Wile emphasized the importance of educating parents as well as children in the principles of home management.

The meeting was attended by a large group of parents and educators, who showed great interest in the subject. The discussion was followed by the presentation of diplomas to a number of students who have completed the courses in home economics.

The next meeting of the parents' club will be held on January 15th. All interested parents are invited to attend.

DEBATE MEETING

With the season of debate in full swing, a debate meeting was held in the Winona High School on January 10th. The topic of the debate was "Resolved: That the United States should increase its military budget." The affirmative team was represented by Mr. A. B. Dodge, Mr. J. H. White, and Mr. L. M. Johnson, while the negative team consisted of Mr. R. H. Brown, Mr. T. D. Smith, and Mr. J. E. Jones.

The debate was held in the school auditorium and was attended by a large number of students and teachers.

SEVENTY-TWO SUBJECTS OFFERED IN PROGRAM

The Winona High School offers a wide variety of courses and subjects to its students. The school has a total of seventy-two courses or subjects, including all the traditional subjects such as English, mathematics, science, and social studies. In addition, the school offers a number of vocational and technical programs, as well as courses in music, art, and physical education.

The school year is divided into two terms, each of which consists of approximately forty weeks. The fall term begins in September and ends in December, while the spring term begins in January and ends in May. Each term is divided into two trimesters, with examinations held at the beginning and end of each trimester.

The school also offers a number of extracurricular activities, including sports teams, clubs, and service organizations. These activities provide students with opportunities to develop their skills and interests outside the classroom.

The school is committed to providing a well-rounded education for all its students, and it works to ensure that all students have access to the courses and programs that are best suited to their needs and interests.
THE DELLA ROBBIA COLLECTION

Lucia della Robbia was the originator of an exceptional kind of glazed terracotta which is known as Della Robbia ware. Lucia's nephew, Andrea, was asked to fill the vacant space for decoration on the facade of the church of Santa Maria Novella, Florence, Italy. As the institution was lacking sufficient funds for maintenance, he conceived the idea of creating infant figures so imbued with pathos that no one could withstand the appeal. His appeal was successful. Lucia, who gave the medallions, rich merchants endowed the hospital to such an extent that the medical work continued, even to this day. These Bambini reliefs are just above the pillars in front of the institution.

In our hall we have a collection of five of these reliefs by the della Robbia family. The true artistic expression of the sculptor is realized in the faces. Each and every feeling is expressed in every line. Do not pass these by with just a casual glance. Time spent studying them is well worth your while, for understanding and appreciation of genius is an asset to your cultural education. This may be a too excited display of loyalty to one's school. This may be the reason that we are about to embark on a season of the chartering of a bus. Therefore, we feel that before we worry about both a sort of overpowering solemnity. Both mark the beginning of something new. Something which promises considerable adventure.

One suggestion is that they cooperate with the county nurse in seeing that the handicapped children have their health examinations covered over during their homelands. As yet, this work has not been done to improve conditions, but it is hoped that an interest will be aroused which will lead to corrective measures next year," says Miss Christiansen.

MISS CHRISTIANSEN APPOINTED CHAIRMAN OF RURAL EDUCATION

Are the rural communities receiving an education equal to that of city communities? Few people realize that they are not. Minnesota is largely an agricultral state and within the past thirty years the rural schools within its limits have increased from one to five thousand. There are a great number of children who are getting an education inferior to that of the urban communities.

On Monday, December 19th, Mr. Munsen conducted the meeting. His topic was "Trends in Modern Biological Experimentation." Much of the success of the program is due to Mr. Selle who is chairman of the committee.

The first number of "The Phelps Herald," the Phelps Junior High school newspaper, was published this month. The name is symbolic of the activities of the pupils. Mr. Galligan is doing a good job for the school, and kept the goat for Mr. T. C. Instead, the coach of the boy's team is noted as being a fine athlete. The team for the next year will have a great many new faces and a good word for the "Dartie" and his comrades as well as of the team. As for the girls from La Crosse 18, Winoona 0.

Winona defeated Dover last Saturday in the college gymnasium by a score of 28 to 10. The game was not a thrilling one, but should have encouraged all the T. C. Fans who saw it. From the beginning of the game, the Winoona players were on their best form. They were boys are fast, accurate, and steady, all of which naturally adds to their value as players. Although the Dover boys were outplayed during the entire game, they managed to serve a considerable amount of credit for the game they played. Coach Galligan is doing a good piece of work, and probably will be rewarded with a successful year.
