4 Free Fliers Rejoin Families In Hawaii Today

Chipper and Gay
Despite Two Years
In Red Prisons

By ROY ESSOYAN

HONOLULU (AP)—Four American fliers, chipper and gay despite more than two years of Chinese Communist brainwashing attempts, rejoin their families today.

Nine of their closest relatives, collected from across the United States in an Air Force plane, were scheduled to land at Hickam Air Force Base today.

The four jet fighter pilots—all captured in the Korean War—planned to be at the airport.

The men, Lt. Col. Edwin Heller, Capt. Harold E. Fischer, Lt. Roland W. Parks and Lt. Lyle J. Cameron, told of their prison experiences at a press conference last night a few hours after they arrived from Hong Kong.

They talked freely but balked on two points—whether they signed a confession to win their freedom and whether their planes crashed in Chinese or Korean territory.

They said they "played along" with Red attempts to brainwash them and pleaded guilty to Communist charges of "intruding China" and "provocative attack."

But, they insisted they remained unaffected by the Reds' attempts to sell them on life under Communism.

Asked about confessions, Fischer said good humoredly: "I believe I'll wait till I see my lawyer about answering that question."

Of where they crashed, Heller said, "let's let that question ride for awhile."

Maj. Gen. Story Smith, Pacific Air Force commander, struck a sober note. He told a small army of press, radio and television men: "We have four men here. There should be 15. Please keep that in mind."

Smith referred to 11 other American fliers still held captive by the Communists. The implication was that anything the four might say might be used against the 11.

The warning was clear. It may have been why the men talked little of their worst experiences and much of the lighter side.

The men themselves indicated there was still "40 or 44 American nationalists still in China," possibly including some Navy personnel. They said they had heard of a Navy plane shot down.

In Washington, the State Department said it believes the Chinese Reds hold 63 Americans.

The four freed men arrived from Hong Kong yesterday on a special Air Force plane. They will spend five days in Hawaii.

The men said they were "recovering fast" under the deluge of well wishes. "It's like being alive again," said Parks.

Former St. Paul Man Given Life For Kidnaping

BROOKINGS, S. D. (AP)—Hugo Arthur Dove, who has escaped the death sentence on a supreme court ruling Wednesday pleaded guilty to a charge of second degree kidnaping.

Dove, formerly of St. Paul, Minn., entered the plea before Circuit Judge Charles S. Hanson, Howard, and was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Attorney Thomas Mani, Milbank, representing Dove, said before the court convened, that he advised Dove to plead guilty.

Dove had been convicted of first degree kidnaping in 1953 and sentenced to die in the electric chair. The state supreme court set aside the death sentence and remanded the case for a new trial after declaring a portion of the law under which Dove was convicted as unconstitutional.

The charge grew out of an incident involving a nine-year-old girl

Dallas Building Collapse Kills 3

DALLAS (AP)—At least three persons were killed and eight injured when a downtown building collapsed on top of another structure last night. Rescue workers dug through the rubble today searching for others who might have been trapped inside in the wreckage.

Early estimates said as many as 15 might have been trapped in a music store and a combination

Red Formula May Be Key to Fliers' Release

WASHINGTON (AP)—American officials looked today to a formula laid down by the Chinese Communists themselves for hope of early liberation for 11 imprisoned U.S. airmen.

The formula came in two parts: 1. Last June 15 at the Far East peace conference in Geneva, a Red China spokesman told the U.S. delegation his government would consider "early release of prisoners with good records."

2. In last Monday's Peiping radio broadcast disclosing release of four U.S. jet fliers, the Communists said they had been "treated with leniency" and "deported" because they only were carrying out military orders, "admitted their crimes and expressed remorse."

Also, Indian diplomat V. K. Krishna Menon is reported to have told Western diplomats at New Delhi that the Red Chinese informed him only a small group of airmen were released because the United States had not permitted the return home of all Chinese students in this country.

The State Department apparently took this report into account.

Maniac Slayer Of Michigan Girl Hunted

Child's Body
Found, Evidence
Of Beating Noted

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP)—An autopsy showed today that little Jeannie Singleton had been attacked, beaten and apparently choked to death by a sex deviate.

The bruised body of the 8-year-old school girl was found late yesterday in a lonely pine woods 15 miles north of Kalamazoo.

Jeannie, left lame by an attack of rheumatic fever four years ago, was last seen 10 days ago resting on a curb a half block from her home here. She was returning from school. Relatives said Jeannie had a sunny disposition and "a smile for everybody."

She was the third little girl to die at the hands of a brutal killer in Michigan in the past four months.

A conference of law enforcement officers was called here today to intensify the search for Jeannie's killer.

"The killer is going to strike again, that's what we're worried about," said Glenn Hammel, Kalamazoo police chief deputy.

Five farm children, playing in an isolated area near the village of Doster, stumbled onto Jeannie's body.

Catlin to Try For Senate Seat Held by Wiley

MADISON (AP)—The speaker of the Wisconsin Assembly, Mark Catlin Jr., says he will seek the Republican nomination for the United States Senate seat now held by Alexander Wiley.

Catlin, 45-year-old Republican assemblyman from Appleton, announced his candidacy in a statement issued from his office in the Capitol Wednesday. He is an attorney.

Sen. Wiley, of Chippewa Falls, is the ranking Republican on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and served as its chairman in the last Republican Senate.

He said in Washington, when notified of Catlin's announcement: "It's a free country."

Wiley, who is 71, was elected to the Senate the first time in 1938. He was re-elected in 1944 and 1950.

Wiley was asked by a newsman if he intended to run for re-election and replied he has felt there should be "a moratorium" on political announcements "in these times, when we have so much to do."

President Eisenhower has said that some time after the first of the year would be an appropriate time to begin campaign announcements, Wiley added and declared:

"I guess that would be an appropriate time for me, too."

South Dakota Has Tornadoes, Rain

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Tornadoes, hail, heavy rain and violent electrical storms formed the weather pattern over northern South Dakota Wednesday night.

There was only one report of a tornado striking. That was on the Ray Binger farm east of Tular. The twister took the roof off the Binger home.

Funnel-shaped tornado clouds were sighted by Pierpont residents. Varied reports had the number ranging from one to three such funnels.

Southeast of Pierpont, at Webster, a heavy rain fell. Pierpont received only a light shower.

Hail fell in and around Redfield. There were no reports of damage, weather observer Francis Taylor said, because the stones were very small.

This Delivery Man Got 'Package Deal'

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Nicholas G. Cuccia, operator of a parcel delivery service, found himself on the receiving end Wednesday.

Triplet girls were born to Cuccia and his wife who had "thought it would probably be just one."

Mother and babies were doing fine. The Cuccias, who have a year-old boy, live in a small efficiency apartment with only one bedroom. "We're going to be hanging from the chandeliers," Cuccia said.

Warren was one of many persons on hand at Union Station to greet Stagg who returned to Chicago for the reunion of the 1905 U. of Chicago football team which he coached to the conference championship. ## Health Insurance Subsidies Asked

NEW YORK (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson said today the federal government should help to subsidize worthy private health insurance programs, step up its aid to medical research and provide for assistance to medical schools.

Stevenson, former governor of Illinois and 1952 Democratic presidential candidate, was a speaker for the formal dedication of the 10-million-dollar Medical Science Building of the New York University-Bellevue Medical Center.

In a prepared speech, Stevenson cited what he called "the developing public attitude" that "methods must be worked out for making medical service better available to all who need it, and this without crippling cost to anyone."

"The most promising approach to this problem of distribution of medical service," he said, "lies in the development of voluntary, private, prepayment health insurance programs."

"It is an important element in this prepayment insurance development that it represents a private, nongovernmental answer to a problem requiring government action," Stevenson said, adding:

"Certain barriers to its development must be broken down... in half the states there are restrictive laws, passed in haste, which prevent responsible private groups of doctors and patients from working out the effective prepayment plans they consider best."

"And it is recognized, fortunately by the leaders of both political parties, that some degree of government assistance in developing this new program is necessary."

Such assistance, Stevenson said, should be in the form of "long term, low-interest-rate loans to new prepayment groups and to subsidize part of the cost of comprehensive service to groups including some whose financial means are limited but whose medical needs are no less great."

"And it is imperative," he said, "that discussion (for improved distribution of medical service) not be frustrated by the familiar shouts of socialism that bedevil all forward steps in our country."

French Say Riot Deaths Greatly Exaggerated

PARIS (AP)—A French Overseas Ministry spokesman today described as "usual anti-French tactics" a charge that 5,000 persons had been killed in a week long rioting in the French Cameroons. He said the death toll at most was 15 or 20.

The charge was aired Wednesday in the United Nations in New York on petition by India's R. Jaipal.

Troubles broke out last week in the Cameroons when members of the Leftist Cameroons People's Union attacked posts held by French and African guards, French reports said.

The latest official reports reaching Paris from this territory 3,500 miles from France said 10 persons, most of them policemen, were killed and 60 injured.

Senate Begins Voting on Ike's Foreign Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate was called into session two hours early today to start voting on President Eisenhower's 3 1/2-billion-dollar foreign aid program.

Prospects appeared bright for passage by nightfall, sending the bill to the House.

A half dozen or more amendments, most of them seeking sizable reductions in the big authorization measure, seemingly faced an uphill battle. The Senate had already agreed to limit discussion to a maximum of two hours on each.

Sen. Ellender (D-La.) sought to reduce the over-all total upwards of 800 million dollars and require that in any military aid programs for free Asian nations some funds be provided by Britain, Australia and New Zealand.

Sen. Long (D-La.) has offered a companion reduction to cut up to one billion dollars from the total, leaving untouched only the proposed fund of 172 million dollars for technical assistance.

Other pending amendments would compel a greater portion of economic aid to be disbursed as loans rather than outright grants.

Sen. George (D-Ga.), chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee which did not make a single money reduction in approving the global aid measure, predicted defeat of a non-money amendment by Sen. Knowland of California, the minority leader. It would give John B. Hollister, who will become foreign economic director July 1, power to fire upper-grade employees in the Foreign Operations Administration without regard to civil service regulations. FOA expires July 1 when the economic aid program goes into the State Department.

George's committee struck that authority from the administration bill after Democrats charged it was a "jobs for Republicans gimmick."

The union still was pressing its guaranteed annual wage demand calling for year-around pay for workers laid off in slack production periods. The only Ford answer to this demand has been a combination offer to permit workers to buy Ford stock at half price, borrow during enforced idleness and get severance pay upon discharge.

A new Ford offer was reported to contain a plan for the company to augment present state unemployment compensation payments to furnish workers with continued income during periods of idleness in slack production periods.

Job Security Setup Basis of Revised Plan

Union Hopes for Agreement Before
Monday Deadline

By NORMAN WALKER

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit News said today the Ford Motor Co. has offered the strike-threatening CIO United Auto Workers a "job security" plan accepting the principle of the union's guaranteed annual wage demand.

The newspaper said it had learned this from "a high union official."

The News said the Ford offer entails a 55-million-dollar fund "unprecedented in industry."

"It appears to represent some of the thinking of both Ford's previous 'partnership in prosperity' offer and the union's guaranteed annual wage plan," the News said.

"It accepts the principle of providing for a Ford employee while he is out of work—the principle on which UAW president Walter Reuther insists."

Ford made the union a new offer Tuesday. Reuther said the new offer, requiring more union consideration caused the union to postpone a threatened strike from Wednesday midnight to next Monday.

Without describing the new offer, Reuther has said that it still left Ford and the union "far apart" on reaching a contract agreement. It was felt, however, that the UAW never would have granted the four-day contract extension unless it had high hopes that a contract agreement could be reached before the new Monday deadline.

The News said this was the gist of the Ford offer:

"Payment based on a percentage of each weekly payroll will be made into the fund."

"Under the plan, when a Ford worker is laid off he would draw his customary state unemployment compensation."

"When he had exhausted these state benefits, he would begin drawing from the company's job security fund. The size of the weekly checks from the fund were not disclosed by the union official."

With the emphasis in the auto industry negotiations previously on Ford's imminence of a show-down with GM-led to speculation that both major auto firms were almost equally under the union's fire. Few expected that both companies would be idled at once.

Walter Reuther, president of the CIO-UAW and the CIO itself, pledged in granting the Ford contract extension to Monday, that the UAW would stage a strike in Ford operations then if there was no "satisfactory" settlement.

The union still was pressing its guaranteed annual wage demand calling for year-around pay for workers laid off in slack production periods. The only Ford answer to this demand has been a combination offer to permit workers to buy Ford stock at half price, borrow during enforced idleness and get severance pay upon discharge.

A new Ford offer was reported to contain a plan for the company to augment present state unemployment compensation payments to furnish workers with continued income during periods of idleness in slack production periods.

Audie Murphy Hero to Nation But Son's All for Davy Crockett

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Ten years ago today on an Austrian airstrip, a general pinned the Medal of Honor on a Texas boy so young that he couldn't even grow a mustache.

The ceremony climaxed one of the most amazing fighting careers in American military history and made 2nd Lt. Audie Murphy the most decorated hero of World War II.

To get the nation's highest decoration, Murphy had staged a one man war with six Nazi tanks and waves of enemy foot soldiers. The citation is so amazing that no movie script writer would dare to come up with such a scene. Here's the official record:

The lone Texan, under fire from three sides, jumped atop a burning tank destroyer that could have blown up at any minute. In that precarious position, Murphy manned the destroyer's machine gun with such deadly accuracy that he not only stopped the German attack—he routed it in retreat. He killed 50 of the enemy while suffering a leg wound himself.

Murphy was a 19-year-old second lieutenant at the time. He had been given a battlefield commission for an earlier exploit, having enlisted as an infantry private when he was 17.

In an interview he told how he had once given away all his medals.

"I wasn't married and had no one to keep them for," he explained but added that since he now has married and become the father of two sons he has had the medals replaced. He has 25.

Is he a hero at home?

"Are you kidding? Like every other father in the country, I had to buy my three-year-old a con-skin cap. He's strictly for Davy Crockett."

Owatonna Fire Cause Sought In Court Here

Gas Station Worker Tells of Blaze on Explosives Truck

A fire in which a truck loaded with explosives and an Owatonna service station were extensively damaged last Dec. 4 was described in U. S. District Court here this morning by the driver of the truck.

Testifying on the second day of the trial of a $21,700 damage action brought by the Watson Transportation Co., Omaha, against the owner, operator and an employee of the service station, the driver, Walter Stulz, Omaha, told how the fire broke out after he had driven into the Welker Pure Oil Station to buy gasoline at about 4 a.m.

Sidney Welker, the operator of the station; the Pure Oil Co., as owner of the property, and the station's night attendant, Otto Wodrich, are named as defendants in the suit being tried before a 12-member federal court jury. The defendants have entered a counterclaim in the action.

John Mordant, Minneapolis, is representing the trucking firm; William O'Brien, St. Paul, the attorney for the oil company, and H. M. Lambertson Jr., Winona, and Joseph Moonan, Winona, for Welker and Wodrich.

Judge Edward J. Devitt is presiding.

Stulz Testifies

Called to the witness stand shortly before adjournment was called at 5 p.m. Wednesday, Stulz resumed his testimony this morning and was on the stand throughout the morning session.

The driver told of leaving a truck terminal near St. Paul, en route to Des Moines, Iowa, at about 2 a.m. and arriving in Owatonna a few minutes before 4 a.m.

Stulz said that he told Wodrich to fill the left tank of the truck.

The witness said that he saw Wodrich take the hose of the gasoline pump from the hanger and move to the rear of the cab.

Stulz testified that at the time the upper portion of the attendant's body was visible to him and it appeared to him that Wodrich was shoving the hose and nozzle between the rear of the cab and the front of the trailer toward the left gasoline tank.

He heard the sound of metal striking metal, Stulz continued, and the next thing he heard was a shout from Wodrich.

Saw Flames, He Said

When he looked around, Stulz said, he saw Wodrich jumping backward from the truck, holding the gasoline hose in both hands.

At that time, the witness recalled, flames were shooting out of the end of the nozzle.

Stulz said that he grasped a portable fire extinguisher and tried unsuccessfully to put out a fire which he found burning under the truck.

When he found that the fire was spreading, Stulz said, he ran across the street to a hamburger stand and called the fire and police departments.

In subsequent questioning by Mordant, Stulz stated that he had inspected the truck before he left St. Paul and found it in good condition.

He said that on Nov. 25 he had reported to the firm that the battery cover was loose and this cover was replaced before the next trip.

Cross-Examination

In cross-examination Lambertson asked whether Stulz didn't expect Wodrich to shove the hose between the cab and trailer to gain access to the left gas tank, and the witness replied, "No, I didn't expect him to throw or shove it between the cab and trailer."

He said that he expected the attendant to "place" the hose between the two units, walk around the truck, pick up the hose and carry it to the fuel tank.

Referring to a deposition made by the driver March 12 Lambertson asked if it was true that at that time Stulz had agreed that it was common practice for a station attendant to pass the hose between the cab and trailer and the witness said that he had said that.

Lambertson also read from the deposition in which Stulz was quoted as saying that under the circumstances the refueling operation was usually done in the way Wodrich had followed.

Another Station?

O'Brien asked whether Stulz knew that a Caron Service Station near Owatonna had been designated ed by the Watson company as an authorized refueling stop for its trucks and Stulz said that he was not aware of that.

O'Brien then asked whether the driver knew of a company rule that drivers should stand beside the fuel pump while tanks were being filled and Stulz said that he had "heard arguments pro and con" regarding the rule and acknowledged that he was in the truck while Wodrich prepared to fill the tank.

Stulz said that he was aware of company rules that batteries on trucks should be covered properly and of the danger of loose electrical connections or fuel leaks.

Wednesday Testimony

Seven persons who were at the fire scene were called as witnesses by Mordant Wednesday afternoon.

The first of these was Wodrich who began his testimony during the morning session and returned to the stand when the trial was resumed after a noon recess.

Wodrich said that after the truck had arrived at the station and he prepared to fill the gasoline tank he noticed nothing out of the ordinary, no one was smoking in the vicinity of the truck and there was no evidence of fire as he lifted the hose from the pump.

The attendant testified that he was instructed to fill the step tank on the side of the truck tractor farther away from the pump so he pushed the hose and nozzle across the space between the tractor cab and trailer.

Wodrich said that after he had pushed the hose across the space he intended to walk around the truck to the tank, remove the cap of the gasoline tank and insert the nozzle to fill the tank.

Hears 'A Puff'

He testified that he had shoved the hose across the metal plate and had just taken a step backward and turned to the south as he prepared to go around the truck when he heard "a puff!" and then saw "a big flash."

When he looked back, Wodrich continued, he saw a "big light" between the cab and the trailer, realized that a fire had broken out and pulled the gasoline hose from between the two units.

Wodrich recalled that there was a very small flame—"maybe 3, 4, 5 inches"—at the end of the hose nozzle.

He said that he stood beside the truck for a short time while Stulz sought to put out the fire with a hand fire extinguisher.

Then, Wodrich said, he went across the street to a hamburger shop to call the Owatonna fire department.

Asked whether there had been any gasoline in the nozzle when he pushed the hose across the metal plate between the tractor-trailer units, Wodrich replied that "there's always a little left; a teaspoonful, maybe. Might be a few drops to a teaspoonful."

Not Aware of Explosives

The station attendant said that at the time the fire broke out he was unaware of the fact that the truck was loaded with explosives and said that he did not notice the signs on the truck until later.

He was asked by Mordant whether before he pushed the nozzle toward the tank he had made contact with the nozzle and any part of the truck and Wodrich answered that he had not.

He added that he had never received instructions to make such contact.

Lambertson asked how long Wodrich had been employed at the station and the witness answered about 28 years.

In further questioning by Lambertson, Wodrich estimated that during that period he had serviced about a million vehicles that came to the station.

"As long as you held the hose there was no puff," Lambertson asked and Wodrich replied there wasn't.

"When you laid the hose down the puff came?" Lambertson continued. Wodrich said that was right.

O'Brien asked where the fire broke out and Wodrich said that it was on the left side of the truck.

Witness on Stand

Fred Hoffman, Owatonna, who was in the hamburger shop across the street from the service station at the time of the fire, was Mordant's next witness.

Hoffman said that he was just leaving the shop at about 4 a.m. when another customer shouted that there was a fire.

Hoffman said that when he looked out he saw a fire burning between the cab and trailer and on the pavement near the right front dual wheels of the truck.

The witness said that the flames were between 5 and 6 inches high and the fire was spreading toward the back of the truck.

While he was watching, Hoffman said, the driver ran across the street and told the eat shop patrons that they should leave because the truck was filled with explosives.

The proprietor of the shop, Le Roy Anderson, followed Hoffman on the witness stand.

Anderson said that when he looked out the circle of fire was near the left rear drive wheels of the trailer and was spreading.

Wodrich came to the shop, Anderson said, and asked that he call for the fire department.

After Stulz arrived and said that the truck was loaded with explosives, Anderson continued, he went upstairs and alerted occupants of second floor apartments.

Brief testimony was then heard from Mrs. Ann Riemer, who occupies a second floor apartment across the street from the service station.

She said that she was awakened by the fire sirens and, looking out, saw flames between the tractor and trailer and on the pavement.

Owatonna Fire Chief Edwin H. Slezak testified that the fire call was received by his department at 3:49 a.m. and that he arrived at the scene at about 4 a.m.

He said that as he approached the service station he heard an explosion, the entire truck was aflame and the service station caught fire a short time later.

After relating details of the firefighting Slezak said that the truck later was towed to a wrecking yard at Caron near Owatonna.

During his subsequent investigation, Slezak said, he inspected the truck at the wrecking yard and found that the cap on the right gasoline tank was gone.

He said that he checked inside the tank and found that there was between three and four inches of gasoline still in the tank.

Asked by Mordant whether the tank was bulged, Slezak said that he couldn't say that it was.

When he removed the cap from the left tank, Slezak continued, he found that the tank was dry and there was no odor of gasoline.

Cross-Examination

In cross-examination by O'Brien, Slezak said that his examination of the truck at the junk yard revealed that the fuel pump casting and the carburetor had been burned and melted by the fire.

He recalled that while his men were still fighting the fire at the service station he instructed one of them to remove the battery cable of the truck.

The other fireman, Slezak said, told him that he found that the cable came off with no effort. Slezak said that the connection had been burned in the fire.

Operating procedures at the station were described by Welker when he was called for cross-examination by Mordant.

He said that he had operated the station since 1946 under a lease from the Pure Oil Co., which owned the property.

Welker said that he believed that the nozzle on the hose which was used by Wodrich as he prepared to service the truck had been replaced several months before the fire.

He said that he could not remember when the hose had been replaced.

Dakota Girl to Undergo Surgery on Heart Soon

DAKOTA, Minn. (Special)—Heart attacks are considered hazards of adult life, but a 9-year-old Dakota girl experienced one a month ago which has hospitalized her for delicate major surgery.

She's Carol Jean Stout, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stout. He's mayor of this Winona County village.

It is now known that a blood vessel leading to her heart which should have been closed before birth still is open and is the direct cause of her serious condition.

Only surgery can correct the defect and Carol is at the Mary Cornelia Bradley Memorial Hospital, University of Wisconsin, Madison, where the operation is to be performed within the next 10 days.

Doctors are not certain of success, but have told the anxious parents that without an operation, Carol Jean's condition will undoubtedly grow steadily worse.

When she was stricken with a heart attack May 1, she was placed in a La Crosse hospital, but was transferred to Madison May 23.

At home in Dakota, five younger brothers and a sister find life different without their older playmate, and the parents, of course, find it lonelier not having her near enough to visit daily. They spent the Memorial Day weekend at Madison.

The Stouts moved here in August 1947 following Robert's discharge from the Infantry. He served with the 2nd Division in World War II and was wounded in action. At first he worked as a machinist in La Crosse, but now runs the village store once owned by E. L. Brown. He was named mayor at the election last winter.

Carol is a fifth grader at the Dakota school and her activities have been limited since birth because of the heart defect.

4 1/2 Inches Rain Falls In BRF Area

Water Runs Into Jackson County Courthouse Basement

BLACK RIVER FALLS, Wis. (Special)—A heavy localized down-pour, measuring as much as 4 1/2 inches in some areas, disrupted rail and highway travel here early today and flooded the basement of the Jackson County Courthouse and numerous business places.

Lightning struck a large barn on the Douglas Rhodes farm, 10 miles west of here on County Trunk C, causing a fire that destroyed the barn. Loss was estimated at $10,000, according to Assistant Fire Chief Al Young. No stock was lost but two silos were damaged.

The old barn, recently remodeled, was struck shortly before 6 a.m. Young, driving the fire truck, managed to get to the farm, but the heavy rain prevented the tank wagon from reaching the scene of the blaze. A wrecker was called to pull the tank wagon out of the mire.

Traffic Disrupted

Traffic on Highways 12-27 was disrupted by a washout near the creamery just inside the south city limits. A culvert over Coffee Creek became plugged and water flowed over the concrete highway, washing out a section 40 to 50 feet wide. No truck passage was permitted but some cars were allowed to pass along a portion of the shoulder. No rerouting was possible and water continued to flow over the washout. The tiny creek had not caused any trouble for 10 years.

Westbound traffic on Highway 12 was being halted at Millston while eastbound traffic was stopped at Merrillan. Telephone lines in the area also were damaged.

North of town, the Chicago & North Western Railway tracks were reported to be under 4 to 5 inches of water along Highway 54, between Black River Falls and Melrose, was under 3 feet of water in places. Trains were being rerouted. A bridge in the area southeast of Black River Falls was reportedly washed out.

In town, the basement of the Jackson County Courthouse was flooded with up to 4 inches of water in some areas. The swimming pool area was flooded. Streets through the city were subject to washouts as the drainage system was unable to handle the water that fell during a 3 1/2-hour period.

The Wisconsin Conservation Department headquarters reported a fall of 4.55 inches between 5 and 8:30 a.m.

Big Fall Concentrated

Fortunately, however, the rain was apparently concentrated in an area southeast of Black River Falls. Residents had feared that heavy rains to the northeast, in the Hatfield-Lake Arboretus area, might cause difficulties as the Black River flowed south.

THE MISSISSIPPI VALLEY Public Service Co. dam at the lake reported that no difficulties had been encountered. Only 1.2 inches of rain fell there and at Merrillan, during the 24 hours ending about 8 a.m. today.

Further evidence of the heavy fall south of here came as a reported 3.70 inches had fallen in the cranberry bogs up to 7 a.m.

Other areas receiving spotty heavy rainfalls today. The federal meteorologist at La Crosse said that rain at the airport there totaled only a quarter of an inch, while the downtown area, six miles away, received an inch of rain.

THE ZUMBERG AND ROOT RIVER areas had half-inch rains; all tributaries will rise in the next 24 hours.

THE BLACK RIVER at La Crosse will rise sharply, reaching 8.5 feet at La Crosse this weekend. After reaching near flood stage early this week, the Black at Galesville had dipped to 9 feet at 7:30 a.m. today, a drop of 1.3 feet in 24 hours.

AT DURAND, the CHIPPEWA RIVER had fallen more than a foot and a half, to 6.3 feet.

IN WINONA, 2.3 feet of an inch had fallen during the past two days, 11 coming between 7:30 a.m. and noon. The forecast indicated that occasional showers are expected to night and Friday, but it'll be warmer tonight. A low of 64 is expected with Friday's high should be around 80. It was 69 at noon.

THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER here had risen half a foot, to 6.4 feet, this morning, as forecast Wednesday. The stage is less than half of flood stage reading.

Never Suspected Harry White, Says Henry Morgenthau

WASHINGTON (AP)—Henry Morgenthau Jr. has told Senate investigators that during his long tenure as secretary of the Treasury he had no reason to suspect that Harry Dexter White was a Soviet spy. Morgenthau was a witness yesterday before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee. For about a year, with his cooperation, it has been examining the detailed diary he kept while a Cabinet member from 1934 until mid-1945. The portion of his testimony made public after the closed-door hearing dealt with White, a former assistant secretary of the Treasury, now dead.

Atty. Gen. Brownell asserted in a speech Nov. 6, 1953, that former President Truman promoted White early in 1946 after the FBI notified the White House that White was a Soviet spy.

Truman accused Brownell of "cheap political trickery." He said he had permitted the promotion of White to U. S. director of the International Monetary Fund so that White and others accused as spies could be kept under surveillance.

In subsequent hearings before the Internal Security subcommittee, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover testified that he had not agreed to such an arrangement and that it hampered the FBI's watch on White.

Morgenthau, who left the Treasury before White's appointment to the monetary fund post, said "no security agency, and no individual, ever reported or suggested to me that there was any doubt about White's loyalty."

Uranium Stampede To Hit California

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP)—A uranium stampede reminiscent of California's roaring gold rush days is expected to hit Kern River Canyon, 40 miles east of here, tomorrow morning.

Predicting an "explosive situation," Sheriff Leroy Galven has ordered 75 armed deputies into the canyon today. They have orders to confiscate all firearms.

Up to 3,000 prospectors may swarm into the area to stake a similar number of 20-acre claims when the land is opened for staking at 10 a.m. The area comprises some 60,000 acres.

Already located there are two mines. One consists of the Kergon claims, held by the Great Lakes Oil and Chemical Co., and the other is the Miracle Mine of the Wyoming Gulf & Sulphur Co. Miracle has shipped more than $4,000 worth of uranium 308. It is California's richest uranium strike.

Miracle also has been stockpiling ore pending settlement of a claims dispute which has resulted in widespread confusion among prospectors.

After uranium was found in the area, fortune hunters rushed in with the same enthusiasm which marked their search for gold a century ago. Stakes were pounded all over the rough hillsides, which form the west flank of the Sierra.

Tyrone Calls on Eva; Vot Vil Zsa Zsa Say?

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Dream Man Tyrone Power, Cincinnati's gift to the movies, astonished folks the other night by dropping into Eva Gabor's dressing room when she did "Justice."

Ty and Eva—who was looking very expensive in a chic housecoat—allowed a photographer, to shoot 'em sitting together on a chaise longue.

I don't want to start any family rows, but gosh, it was just a couple weeks ago that confident claim was being laid to Ty by another Gabor—sister Zsa Zsa, who said he romanced her in Hollywood.

Evenly ("Treasure Chest") West, the stripteaseur, will visit the Mays Landing, N. H., nudist camp. She will be wearing something—her shoes.

Esther Williams—swimming with the Aga Khan's wife, the Begum, at their castle near Cannes recently—said to her Begumship: "Why don't you swim under water?"

"I do my own hair and..." said the Princess.

"But if I designed you a cap," said Esther.

"I haven't a comfortable suit." The Princess tugged down her suit in the back as you girls will. "I'm long-waisted."

"Really!" squealed Esther. "The Esther Williams Swim Suit made by..." Esther got in a fast commercial—"is long-waisted."

"Where could I find one?" The Begum tugged down the other side in the back.

"Esther Williams could get you one wholesale!" said Esther Williams.

So Esther's sending her a suit, also clippings about Aly Khan's settlement with Rita Hayworth, because when the Aga asked about his granddaughter and Esther mentioned the settlement, the Aga said "What settlement?"

"He's paying the tab and doesn't know about it!" said Esther. Maybe since it's only a million or so, he's got it in his petty cash department.

Me and my crew cut! Seeing Eddie Fisher with a pretty blonde gal wearing sort of a Carol Haney haircut at "Seventh Heaven," I asked him, "Who's the chick?"

"Why, that's Mike Todd's girl—Evelyn Keyes. He's away and I'm minding her," he said.

"I'm so sorry I didn't recognize you," I said to Miss K. "But after all, you changed your hair."

"You should talk!" snorted Miss Keyes.

Hildegard Neff's mama doesn't know much English. Somebody brought Miss Neff one of those phony headline sheets, reading "Hildegard Neff Sings at Met." Mama Neff finally figured it out and stormed, "Met! Met! Vy are you singing at a meat market?"

Gopher Champion
Despite physical handicaps, Fred Schumacher, 47, Ridgeway, shown in working clothes in the adjoining column, is challenger today for the title of champion pocket gopher trapper in this area. So far this year Fred has trapped 242 pocket gophers. Last season his total was 640 of these pest animals.

Operating in the Witoka-Ridgeway area, Fred's services are in demand by farmers who desire to clean their croplands of the hard working gopher. His 30 traps are set nearly every day when gophers are working. In the picture he is carrying 12 gophers he picked up on a morning round of his traps.

Despite having two crippled feet and two crippled hands, Fred gets around fairly well. He is a good driver and gets around with his car.

"I have been trapping for farmers for the last two years," Fred told us today, "and have got pretty good results. I don't know of any other gopher trapper who took more pocket gophers than I did last year when I collected bounty on 640. In Winona County, the townships now pay five cents and the county 15 cents. It is all collected through the town clerk."

The average person who doesn't trap or associate with trappers, seldom sees a pocket gopher. It comes to the surface rarely or only when it seeks something green to eat. It spends almost its entire life underground in total darkness. It digs a great maze of underground passages, pushing the dirt to the surface in round mounds that make fields rough and cover up crops. A few gophers can completely ruin a patch of alfalfa, a lawn or a garden.

Built like a bulldozer, the pocket gopher is designed for its life. Short-legged and thick-set, it has no appreciable neck. Its ears are barely noticeable. Its eyes are small and almost sightless. Its forefeet, armed with strong, curved claws, are first rate digging tools. It can run backwards as fast as it can forward. Its tail is equipped so it works as a direction pointer. It uses its pockets not to carry dirt but to haul food. It is a great hoarder.

River Conditions
The Mississippi River in the Winona area will continue cloudy until the end of the week. Fishing generally will be slow throughout this area. Some of the backwaters may clear. The best fishing now is in these backwaters. There were only a few boats below the dams on Wednesday.

Since Saturday, the flow in the river has nearly trebled. Alma reported a flow of 31,268 cubic feet per second on Wednesday. The flow at the Winona dam was 36,500 Wednesday. Normal flow here is about 12,000 cubic feet.

Stage at the tailwaters at Alma had risen a foot and a half since Saturday, and at the Winona tailwater gauge three-fourths of a foot. It will continue to rise here. The Chippewa is now dropping. The gates at all dams have been hauled up slightly. However, water was held sufficient to restore normal pool stages over the district. Upper ends of the pools will begin to drop shortly as the gates are raised.

These conditions are not favorable for boat fishing. Carp

Hoover Defends Informants' Work As Necessary

WASHINGTON (AP)—FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover today described confidential informants in law enforcement work as "helpful citizens" and "potent weapons" in the war against crime and subversion.

"There can be no doubt that the use of informants in law enforcement is justified," he said. "The public interest and the personal safety of these helpful citizens demand the zealous protection of their confidence."

"Unlike the totalitarian practice, the informant in America serves of his own free will, fulfilling one of the citizenship obligations of our democratic form of government."

He asserted that to abandon use of such informants would be "to invite destruction."

Hoover expressed his views in a signed editorial in the monthly FBI's law enforcement bulletin.

He made no direct reference to some renewed criticism of the confidential informant system which followed the recent action of former Communist Harvey Matusow and other ex-Reds who have appeared as government witnesses in recanting testimony given under oath.

U.S. Report on Atom Effects Gets Cold Reception

TOKYO (AP)—A United States report on Japanese children born of mothers exposed to atomic bomb radiation 10 years ago said practically no malformations were observed.

The report, compiled by the U.S. Atomic Bomb Casualty Commission at Hiroshima, was read today at a radiation conference attended by doctors from 10 nations — not including the United States. It met a cold reception.

At the conference, sponsored by a group of Japanese doctors, Japanese already had reported findings on mutations of plants exposed to atomic blasts.

Airman Denies Taking Bribes in Clothing Graft

WASHINGTON (AP)—Air Force Capt. Raymond Wool, who denied taking bribes but said he filed false income tax returns, faces further questioning tomorrow about his activities.

The Senate Investigations subcommittee meantime recessed for today its probe of alleged graft in connection with contracts for the purchase of uniform equipment for the armed forces.

Wool handled some of the contracts as former head of the clothing branch of armed services procurement in New York. He now is stationed at Shelby, Ohio.

Wool swore yesterday he never received a $50,000 bribe from Harry Lev, a Chicago hat manufacturer, to swing to Lev a two-million-dollar contract for the manufacture of seven million white sailor caps.

"That I never got," he said, and added that he never received any payoffs from anyone.

Leon Levy, a Brooklyn manufacturer, had testified earlier that he was told Wool "got $50,000."

Wool did say he had filed federal income tax returns for 1951, 1952 and 1953 falsely reporting losses on a dress shop—Fran's, Inc.—which he and his wife had operated in Morristown, N. J.

Owning Slice of Business Means Responsibility

The stock fight for control of Montgomery Ward was one of the healthiest developments in the business world in a long time.

We do not refer to the outcome. We had no interest in whether Mr. Avery or Mr. Wolfson became boss of the big mail order house.

We are much more impressed with the fact that this fight illustrated to everyone that most U. S. business enterprises — including the so-called "giants" — are controlled not by single individuals but by a lot of people.

In the Montgomery Ward fight, the thousands of owners of the company chose up sides. The little fellows with only a few shares of stock found themselves courted by their hired man, who happened to be president of the company. Many shareholders realized for the first time that they actually OWNED this company. Their stock was not only something that brought a dividend check once in a while; it was evidence of partial ownership in one of the nation's largest business concerns.

The Montgomery Ward hassle should encourage broad stock ownership. It gave a lot of people an opportunity to see for themselves that owning a slice of a business firm means responsibility for its management.

Party Liner Gets Her Just Due

The party-line telephone nuisance has met her come-uppance. New York state now has a law to protect victims of the woman who will not yield the line for a minute in emergency. So when a man asked for the line to call the fire department because his barn was burning, and she replied, "Oh, let it burn," she was later called into court and found guilty. She said she "did not believe the barn was really on fire."

This indicates two evils of party line monopolizing. First, lengthy chatter which keeps other subscribers from getting fair use of the wire. Second, abuse of the emergency privilege by people who cry emergency when there is none.

Party lines cost less and in rural districts a company can provide party service where it could not give individual lines. Their use presupposes that all parties will show courtesy, fairness and not overstep their just right.

Cleveland Learns How To Win Bus Riders

The unending battle between public transportation and the automobile makes street cars and buses think up new devices to win customers. In Cincinnati the bus company has worked out a scheme in cooperation with the stores. They are featuring Downtown Discovery Days. Pink buses in the downtown areas, with guides, take their riders to special displays.

Work of local artists set up in a park is one objective. If it rains, a nearby office building is used. A large square in a central location will offer a flower show. The stores come in by presenting shoppers' contests with prizes. The program constantly varies.

All these serve to keep public transportation in the minds of the might-be riders. Public transportation, like every other business, finds it has to advertise.

Admiral Byrd Will Return to Antarctic

Next November Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd will embark on his fifth expedition to the South Polar regions. The purpose of the expedition is to establish three stations, one of them at or near the South Pole, as part of American participation in the 1957-58 international program of geophysical study.

It is impossible to imagine anyone more qualified to head the expedition than Admiral Byrd. In addition to his ventures into Antarctica he has led two expeditions to the North Pole and has added greatly to our store of knowledge about these forbidding regions.

In lectures and speeches made in the years since his last trip to the Antarctic in 1946 Admiral Byrd has told how important the polar regions are. He has long expressed eagerness to return for another go at the ice and the elements. That wish is to be gratified. His fellow Americans hope for him that this trip will be as successful and as fruitful as those made previously.

Nathan Hale 200th Anniversary Noted

By GEORGE B. SOKOLSKY

NEW YORK — On June 6, the 200th anniversary of Nathan Hale's birth will be celebrated in Coventry, Conn. Nathan Hale studied at Yale, joined the Revolutionary Army, was stationed in New York as a captain. The Revolutionary headquarters were on Harlem Heights. The city of New York, which was in those days downtown, was held by the British who were welcomed by the many Tories who preferred prosperity to freedom.

Nathan Hale voluntarily undertook to walk through the enemy lines and report to George Washington on conditions within the city and the general attitude of the people. He dressed as a Dutch schoolmaster, and with success he managed to get the desired information. Somehow he made his way to Long Island and was on his way back to Harlem Heights when he was caught, convicted of espionage and hanged.

HIS LAST WORDS ON the gallows were: "I regret that I have but one life to lose for my country."

Nathan Hale was a voluntary spy and informant. He is remembered in American history only for that and for his immortal last line. No other event in his short life—he only lived 21 years—is noteworthy of historical memory.

Had King George III won the Revolutionary War, many great figures in our history, who staked their lives, their property and their sacred honor, in the cause of the Revolution, would have been hanged. Among them would undoubtedly have been George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, John Hancock of the enormous signature, and such firebrands as Samuel Adams, James Otis and Patrick Henry.

But the Revolutionists won the war and Nathan Hale went down in history as a patriot who spied for a good cause and proposed to inform on those who were enjoying the hospitality which the rich New York Tories were showing the British.

NATHAN HALE's memorable last words used to be taught to children in our public schools so that they too would be impressed by the ideal of patriotism. In these days of greater wisdom, patriotism is eschewed as excessive nationalism and our children grow up without even knowing the name of Nathan Hale.

They also do not know about Gen. Benedict Arnold, the close friend of George Washington, who became a traitor.

So, there is the contrast, Nathan Hale, the heroic informant, and Benedict Arnold, the traitor. In these days of excitement over spies and informants, it is interesting to recognize that informants existed at the very beginning of our nation. There was no FBI but there were informants. And undoubtedly among them must have been the workmen of the "liberty boys," that voluntary organization, mostly of the newer immigrants, including many from Ireland. These women worked in the very homes where the Tories were entertaining the British and surely they remembered much that they heard and got word to George Washington and his staff.

HOW DOES ONE GET information without informants? Perhaps the current body of informants will band themselves into a society called "The Sons of Nathan Hale," who would then be their patron saint and give an historic halo to their activities. A few names of informants have become well-known, such as Louis Budenz, Elizabeth Bentley, Benjamin Gitlow, Herbert Philbrick, etc., etc. And there has, of course, been Harvey Matusow, who would by now have been expelled from such a society as unworthy.

But always there will be spies and informants and wherever there are statues or other memorials of Nathan Hale, at Coventry, at Yale, or in New York, there must be a reminder that the vocation of spying and informing is a risky one which may lead to death or the contempt of other men. The compensation is a self-satisfying emotion that one has done something for his country that others would not do. The young man or woman who infiltrates the Communist party for the FBI, and there are many of them even today, is taking all the risks that Nathan Hale took and while death may not come on the gallows, it may come, as it did to Carlo Tresca, from a bullet on a city street. But it is worth it if the country needs that kind of anonymous work.

And as long as Americans are to be found who will risk greatly for their country, we shall be a strong nation.

Congress Has Been Slow To Probe Polio Confusion

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—So far Democratic chairmen of congressional committees have barely scratched the surface regarding the polio vaccine confusion and near scandal. They have talked a lot, summoned high-powered witnesses, but done little real probing.

Important congressional investigations are carried out not by calling in bureaucrats but by digging into files and using the power of the subpoena.

And where children's lives are at stake, the Democrats who head these key committees should not be making speeches but getting to the bottom of things.

A newspaperman does not have the power of subpoena, nor a battery of investigators financed by the taxpayer. However, based upon my own limited ability to investigate, here are some fundamental questions which I suggest the appropriate committees dig into:

1. Why were the Cutter Laboratories licensed? The laboratories of Cutter in Berkeley, Calif., did not produce any Salk vaccine in the 1954 field trials. Yet when it came time for the Public Health Service to approve vaccine for nationwide production, Cutter came up with a batch of vaccine. Who did they produce this? Could they have borrowed it from another company?

Rumor has been rife inside the Public Health Service that Cutter has high connections inside the administration. Vice President Nixon has denied that he intervened for them. These rumors may be completely untrue. In fairness to Cutter and to Nixon and the public, witnesses should be called and records subpoenaed to ascertain the truth.

2. What tests were made of the Cutter vaccine? Also, what tests were made of other vaccines?

Under the Biological Control Law, passed in 1902, the government has the power and duty to inspect every company that sells biologics in interstate commerce. The law also requires every company to be licensed, and the license can be issued only after the company passes strict safety, purity, and potency standards. The same law states that no company can keep out a public health inspector at any time of the day or night.

Therefore the question arises, where were public health inspectors when Cutter was making his vaccine?

The question, unfortunately, can be answered in part by congressmen themselves. They have cut the Public Health Service so low in past years that it has lacked the money to send many inspectors into the field. The money now being used for a belated inspection is deficit-spending which will have to be voted next year.

President Truman bought Congress to get more money for the Public Health Service. Mrs. Hobby and President Eisenhower did not. Regardless of Congress, Mrs. Hobby's public health doctors under the 1902 law were directly responsible for inspecting and licensing the Cutter Laboratories. And Public Health, regardless of money, should have leaned over backward, because Cutter had previously been convicted in 1949 of failing to sterilize a saline solution.

The conviction was secured by the Food and Drug Administration, which has been stricter than Public Health, though it deals with less dangerous drugs.

In the earlier 1954 field trials of the Salk vaccine, three tests were made — one by the drug companies, one by Public Health, one by Dr. Salk himself. This time there was only one test — by the drug companies. Mrs. Hobby's public health doctors took the written biological reports of the drug companies on their face value, made some spot checks, that was all.

3. What has been the cooperation of the drug industry?

When Dr. Salk last year asked some of the big drug companies to begin preparing for the manufacture of his vaccine, he could get only one — Parke Davis — to cooperate. He knew the manufacture was difficult and delicate and would require advance experience.

However, the drug companies, with one exception, did not get into the act until Basil O'Connor, head of the Polio Foundation, placed $9,000,000 worth of orders with them.

Assured this profit, they did not assign all their vaccine to the Foundation which made the profits possible. They sent 500,000 cubic centimeters first to their own customers. Cutter vaccine, for instance, turned up from Mexico to Arlington, Va., before the Polio Foundation got its own order filled.

Senators and congressmen should find out why.

4. What has been the result in human tragedy?

At this writing, 88 families have had one or more children come down with polio after the first Salk shot. And the figure may be greater by the time this appears in print. In most cases the questionable Cutter vaccine has been used.

What hasn't been announced is that nonvaccinated members of another 32 families have caught polio from the vaccinated children. Again the Cutter product was chiefly involved. In Baltimore an eight-month-old mother died from polio shortly after one of her children had been inoculated.

But the human tragedy must also be measured not merely in deaths and illness, but in uncertainty. A great discovery to save lives and remove the awful parental dread of the summer has been transformed into continued dread, continued uncertainty. Investigating congressmen should ascertain who was responsible.

In Canada, the Dominion government, which received exactly the same advance information on the Salk vaccine as Mrs. Hobby, began months ago to prepare for the current polio season. They pooled all orders in one laboratory at Toronto University, distributed the vaccine free under governmental regulation, and most of the children from 5 to 6 have now been inoculated. There have been no cases of polio resulting from the Canadian vaccine.

Girl Performer Squeezes 8 Years Of School Into 3

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Margaret Gregory, 32, who spent her early years riding a unicycle in her parents' vaudeville act, will be graduated from Syracuse University Monday after squeezing eight years of education into three.

"I never had a chance to go to school," she says. "We were just never in one place long enough. But mother did her best to teach me the three R's."

When the red-haired collegian gets her bachelor of arts degree, it will culminate three busy years in which she has completed normal four-year courses in both high school and college studies.

An Ordinary Man Misses Quite a Lot

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (U)—The World is so full of a number of things, why is it a guy can be over 40 and still never in his life have—

Met a fellow who has been struck by lightning?
Eaten a pomegranate?
Encountered a color blind woman?

Hit the jackpot in a slot machine, or won the daily double at a racetrack?
Learned to wear a raincoat on the days it rains, and to leave it home on days when it doesn't rain?

Found a can opener anywhere in the world that will open two cans in a row?

Had a cigarette lighter that will light one cigar in a row without running out of fuel?

Owned a fountain pen that will light above water?

Located a laundry that will sew back on the buttons it rips off?

Spent a day at the beach without getting sunburned?

Found a pearl in an oyster?

Opened an envelope and had an unexpected check fall out?

Opened an envelope and had an unexpected bill fall out? (after 40 you expect every envelope to have a bill in it.)

Been left money by a stranger—or a close relative?

Met a wife who approved of every member of her husband's family?

Known a man who, if really pressed, wouldn't concede he was a better Christian than his neighbor?

Found an extra shoe lace in his drawer when a shoelace he was wearing broke?

Heard of a woman who didn't believe her husband secretly liked to wear a tux?

Been offered a seat on a bus by a lady shopper when his feet were really hurting on the way home from work?

Signed an insurance policy application without wondering if it wouldn't turn out to be his death warrant?

Felt a genuine yearning to live his life over again?

Learned to spell etiquette — let alone practice it?

Been able to live like the Joneses, try as he will?

Bought a new car that really pleased everyone in the family?

Taken a vacation from which he returned home actually feeling like a new man?

Found a razor blade that would give him 10 good close shaves?

Seen a rainbow on a day he really felt blue?

Been asked his views in a public opinion poll?

Refused to buy a set of encyclopedias without having a guilty feeling afterward that he had ruined his children?

Reached the end of a month without borrowing lunch money from his wife?

Known a year in which he didn't brood over whether he wasn't missing something in existence he should be getting?

If you are over 40, and all (or most) of these questions apply to you, well—don't worry. You're normal. You've just led an ordinary life in an extraordinary world.

U.S. Propagandists Should Come Home

By PAUL HARVEY

NEW YORK—Yankees come home! I'm not referring to the men who are doing a job over there. I'm referring to the ones who aren't. Our paid propagandists. Playboy pollyannas spreading liberal ideas in liberal doses with a liberal bankroll.

These civil service pitchmen have cost us 75 million dollars a year for seven years. Another 75 million this year. For what? To finance plush overseas establishments for federal press agents who are unselling capitalism to a hundred million new customers every year.

They're losing us friends at a dollar a head.

"Yankees Go Home!"

These signs are splattered all over the world where we've set up baronial mansions equipped with typewriters, built-in ash trays and hot and cold running radio transmitters by which we try to force-feed the foreign populace with half-baked boasting.

We have no more right to stuff our way of life down their throats than they have to thrust theirs down ours. They resent it. I don't blame them. I would, too!

Transparent propaganda translates "baloney" in any language.

The most famous, or infamous, propagandist of our times — Dr. Paul Joseph Goebbels — couldn't make a dent with his line outside the Third Reich.

Seventy-five million a year, every year, trying to win friends and influence people, and for all our efforts we wind up with a glib invitation to pack up and get.

"Yankees Go Home!"

That's what the signs read when they're being nice about it. When not, the bricks fly and the home-made bombs are hurled — and the first target on the list . . . is invariably the United States Information Center.

I'm remembering Tehran and Cairo and Ankara and Baghdad. They get mad because they can't work out an oil agreement with Britain and what do they do? They start tossing rocks at Americans.

We're sticking our blue noses into red-blooded business and sending out with black eyes.

We don't have to tell the world we're living in the best place on earth. They know that already.

Take a look at the applications for admission to this country. So many people wanting we have to put barriers in their way — quotas on immigration. Even that does not stop the more intrepid. By the millions, they're squeezing in through the back door.

We hire professional horn-tooters to distribute Hollywood films which imply every American has a series of wives, an assortment of cars and a penthouse.

They tell the peasants of rural Europe how every American has a refrigerator, a mixer and a self-winding wrist watch.

This is supposed to make them love us!

Look at it this way: How do you feel when you hear of some Farouk or Ali who collects assorted wives and is worth his weight in diamonds?

You resent him.

Hungry men feel the same way about us and for the same reason. Our best bet is to close these open-door godhouses and stop advertising our ego. Stop telling the world's people how they should live and show them instead.

Bob Nuxhall, who won his first two decisions pitching for Sunbury, Pa., in the Class B Midwest League, is a brother of Cincinnati pitching ace Joe Nuxhall.

TEHRAN, Iran (U)—Soviet troops were expected to hand over the remainder of 11 tons of gold today in part payment of Iran's war claims.

Tehran newspapers said the Russians hauled six tons of the metal—worth $5,040,000 at the official U.S. price—across the frontier yesterday for loading into heavily armed Iranian Army trucks.

Under a claims settlement Russia and Iran signed last December, the Soviets agreed to pay

Set Protocol Arranges Date For Princess

By JAMES F. KING
LONDON (AP)—Like to date Princess Margaret?
There's a set protocol on trying to arrange a date—and how to behave if you succeed—according to a new book published here this week.

It sounds simple enough as outlined by journalist A. Noyes Thomas in his "The Queen's Sister." Just telephone Margaret's lady in waiting at Clarence House, where the princess lives, and say: "I am wondering if Her Royal Highness would care to join a small party I am giving on (you name the date) at the theater (you name the show) and afterwards at supper at the (you name the night club)."

The lady in waiting jots down the details. In a couple of days you'll be told whether the princess can make it or not—usually not.

If you happen to be one of the young men who has acquired Margaret previously, the procedure is a little different.

First call the lady in waiting. Then:

"Good morning," comes a lilting, musical voice. "How are you today?"

"Thank you, ma'am, very well. And you?"

The royal voice will then inquire bluntly. "Have you an invitation for me?"

"Ma'am," says the young man, "I am thinking of arranging a small party for the theater and for supper afterwards."

You name date, place and guests.

"Oh, not so-and-so, surely," the princess may say. "He's such a bore."

Once an acceptable substitute is named. "Well I'll try to fit it in. I'll let you know. I'd love to come."

There's plenty of bustle making arrangements with plenty of flowers.

When seated in the theater, the escort asks on behalf of his guests, "Ma'am, may we have permission to smoke?"

Permission is always granted and Margaret usually takes one of her own cigarettes and uses a long cigarette holder.

At the night club, the party is discreetly led to a side table.

"What would you care for, ma'am?" asks the host.

Her favorite menu—iced melon, consommé, smoked salmon and veal cutlet—"just one please."

The first dance goes to the host but the princess is careful to ration out the others to each young man in the party.

In the early hours, usually around 2:30 a.m., the princess is likely to say, "I think I had better be going."

She never carries any money and her lady in waiting tips the woman attendant in the powder room 10 shillings ($1.40).

A few days later the young man gets a letter from the lady in waiting:

"Her royal highness has commanded me to thank you for a most pleasant evening."

Police Holding Man Claiming to Be Witch Doctor

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Police are holding a man they say claims to be a witch doctor.

Bunco squad officers said Florentino Morales, 54, has been treating ailing Los Angeles residents with an assortment of equipment including black candles, effigy dolls, black silk scarves and plaited hair switches.

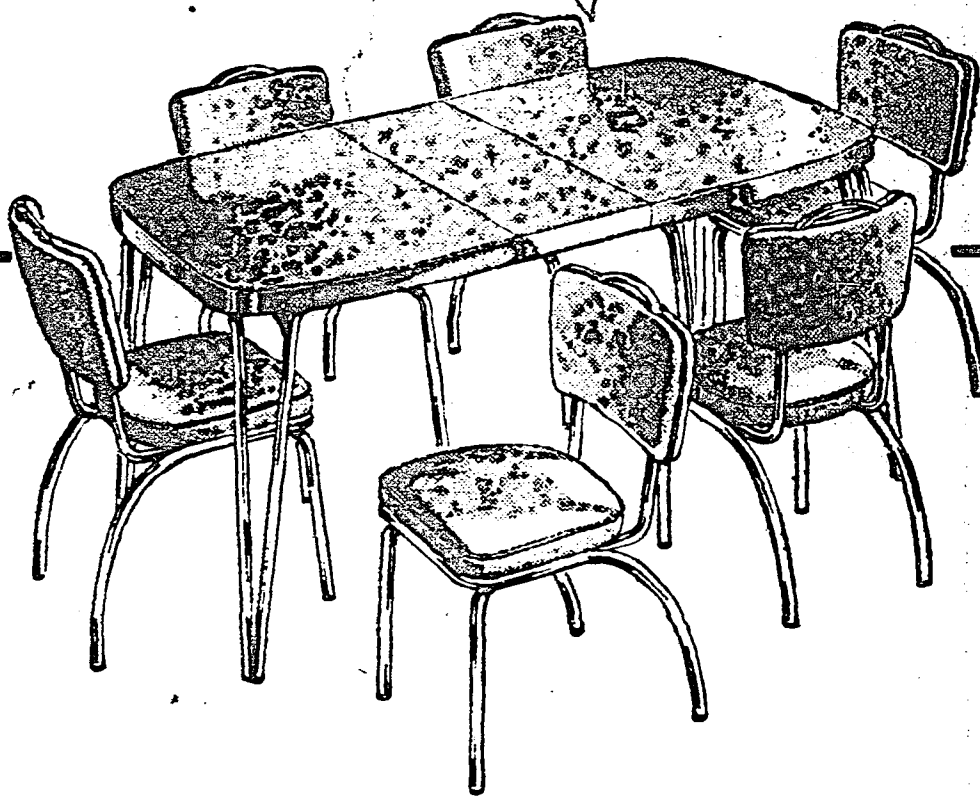

He was arrested after an ailing housewife said he agreed to cure a pain in her chest for $300 with a treatment including a candle-light ritual dance.

There are about 150 species of maple trees.

Unified Air Command for U.S.-Canada

MONTREAL (AP)—The chief of Canada's air force strongly implied here yesterday that there has been a military decision—but no political action—to guard North America with a unified U.S.-Canadian air defense command.

The Canadian commander, Air Marshal C. R. Slemmon, told visiting U.S. and Canadian aviation writers that Canada's Air Defense Command and that of the United States already are moving in the direction of a single, over-all unit.

Headquarters for Canada's air defense is at St. Hubert, near here. The U.S. Command operates at Colorado Springs, Colo.

"All the planning, development, selection of weapons and all the

Frenchwoman May Have Unofficial Flight Record

PARIS (AP)—Jacqueline Auriol, the fast-flying daughter-in-law of the former French president, has flown a French Mystere turbojet fighter at what may have been a new pace for women.

She was clocked unofficially at about 712 miles an hour. The world record for women is 670 miles per hour, set in 1953 by Jacqueline Cochran of the United States.

Aviation sources said the flight was only a test. Necessary timing devices were not in place yesterday.

decisions are aimed at the ultimate position of a supreme command and everything that goes with it," Slemmon said.

He added that while there has been military action in this direction, "the decision has not been taken politically—but it will be taken."

State Farm Income Holds Own in U.S. Comparison

By RICHARD P. POWERS
WASHINGTON (AP)—Minnesota farm income is holding up relatively well.

Latest figures from the Agriculture Department show that Minnesota farmers received $346,985,000 in cash income in the first three months of this year. That is just $678,000 less than their total for the first three months of 1954.

The department said that for the nation as a whole cash receipts from farm marketing dropped about five per cent for the first three months of this year compared with the same period of 1954. The monthly totals for Minnesota farmers: January 1955, $133,561,000 and January 1954, $135,375,000; February 1955, $115,806,000 and February 1954, $113,477,000; March 1955, $97,618,000 and March 1954, $98,811,000.

The other day Sen. Edward J. Thye (R) was tending to his affairs in his office when a man walked in with two yellowed photographs.

Looking intently at the senator, the man said didn't he remember Earl Gildersleeve? In no time at all the two were pumping each other's hands and slapping each other on the back.

They hadn't seen each other for 37 years. The last time was in 1918 when they were buddies in France in World War I. The two pictures were of Sgt. Ed Thye—a round faced, sturdy looking youngster—and of Gildersleeve, a contractor, was then from Dodge Center. The two met at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., in 1917 and they went to France together. Both were later commissioned.

Gildersleeve, now 58, lost track of Thye, now 59. "The first I heard of him since France was a few years ago when I was attending a dinner in Chicago and someone mentioned Gov. Ed Thye of Minnesota," Gildersleeve said. "I said, why I know Ed Thye. We were together in France."

Thye, who had lost all his war pictures many years ago, kept the two his friend brought in.

Freshman Rep. Coya Knutson, (D) of Okla. raises her eyebrows at some of the parliamentary devices used by her colleagues.

"Lawmakers really can look silly by some of the stall tactics they use," Mrs. Knutson said.

"While debating the Alaska-Hawaii statehood bill, the 'antisl' asked for quorum calls about every hour. It takes at least 30 minutes to complete one. With all the legislation still pending, it just isn't fair."

She said it reminded her of stalls near the end of a basketball game. Sen. Thye has written Veterans Administrator H. V. Higley suggesting that Ft. Snelling be considered as headquarters if any move develops to consolidate the Ft. Snelling and the Denver district offices of the Veterans Administration.

"I reached a strong conviction that disruption of the activities at Ft. Snelling and removal of personnel and records to Denver would not be in the public interest, would not result in economy and increased efficiency, and would not be justified as a sound administrative move," Thye wrote Higley.

Thye said it was apparent that rumors of possible relocation of the VA district office at St. Paul had had an adverse effect on the personnel in the Ft. Snelling office.

Thye said there would be more advantages to having a combined office in the Minneapolis-St. Paul area than at Denver in event of a consolidation.

Thye voted to sustain the veto by President Eisenhower of the postal pay increase bill but urged the Senate to move speedily with passage of a pay increase satisfactory to the administration.

Thye contended the vetoed bill had several inequities and would discriminate against large groups of postal employees such as rural carriers and special delivery messengers.

Sixty nations have resumed normal diplomatic relations with Japan since the San Francisco peace treaty was signed in April 1952.

Biggest Brown Swiss Show Held in Rain

By EARL GILBERT
Daily News Area Editor

RUSHFORD, Minn. — Despite steady rain and chilly winds, the Brown Swiss breeders of Canton 1 (Southeastern Minnesota) held their most successful show here Wednesday on the Rushford Library grounds.

"We've had shows at the state fair which couldn't equal this," said Harold Searles, extension dairyman at the University of Minnesota, after judging the 59 entries, most Brown Swiss ever shown in this section of the state. Actually, 80 animals were entered but because of inclement weather not all were transported here.

Guy Smith, Houston, swept honors with a three-year-old cow, Mary Ellen Queen, and a bull calf, Pleasant Nook Pat. Both were named champions of their class and grand champions of their sex group. Nellie Smith, Guy's daughter, showed the cow and won top 4-H honors and the senior and grand champion awards.

Senior Bull Champion — Erwin Michael, Garvin Heights, showed the senior bull champion, Contour Acres Zeke, while Margaret Markegard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Markegard, Rushford, topped the largest class, heifer calves, with Kinsmaid Lady C. B.

Between 70 and 80 farmers and their families vied with Searles in a judging contest, divided into junior and senior divisions. They graded the show animals on cards which were then compared with the extension specialist's selections. Junior champion judges were Willard and Elroy Gaedy, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ewald Gaedy, Ridgeway, who finished one-two. Judy Fenske, Dover, was third.

Arnold Lanz, won the senior event with Ewald Gaedy runner-up and Glenn Schultz, Houston, third. All of the winners received Swiss bells.

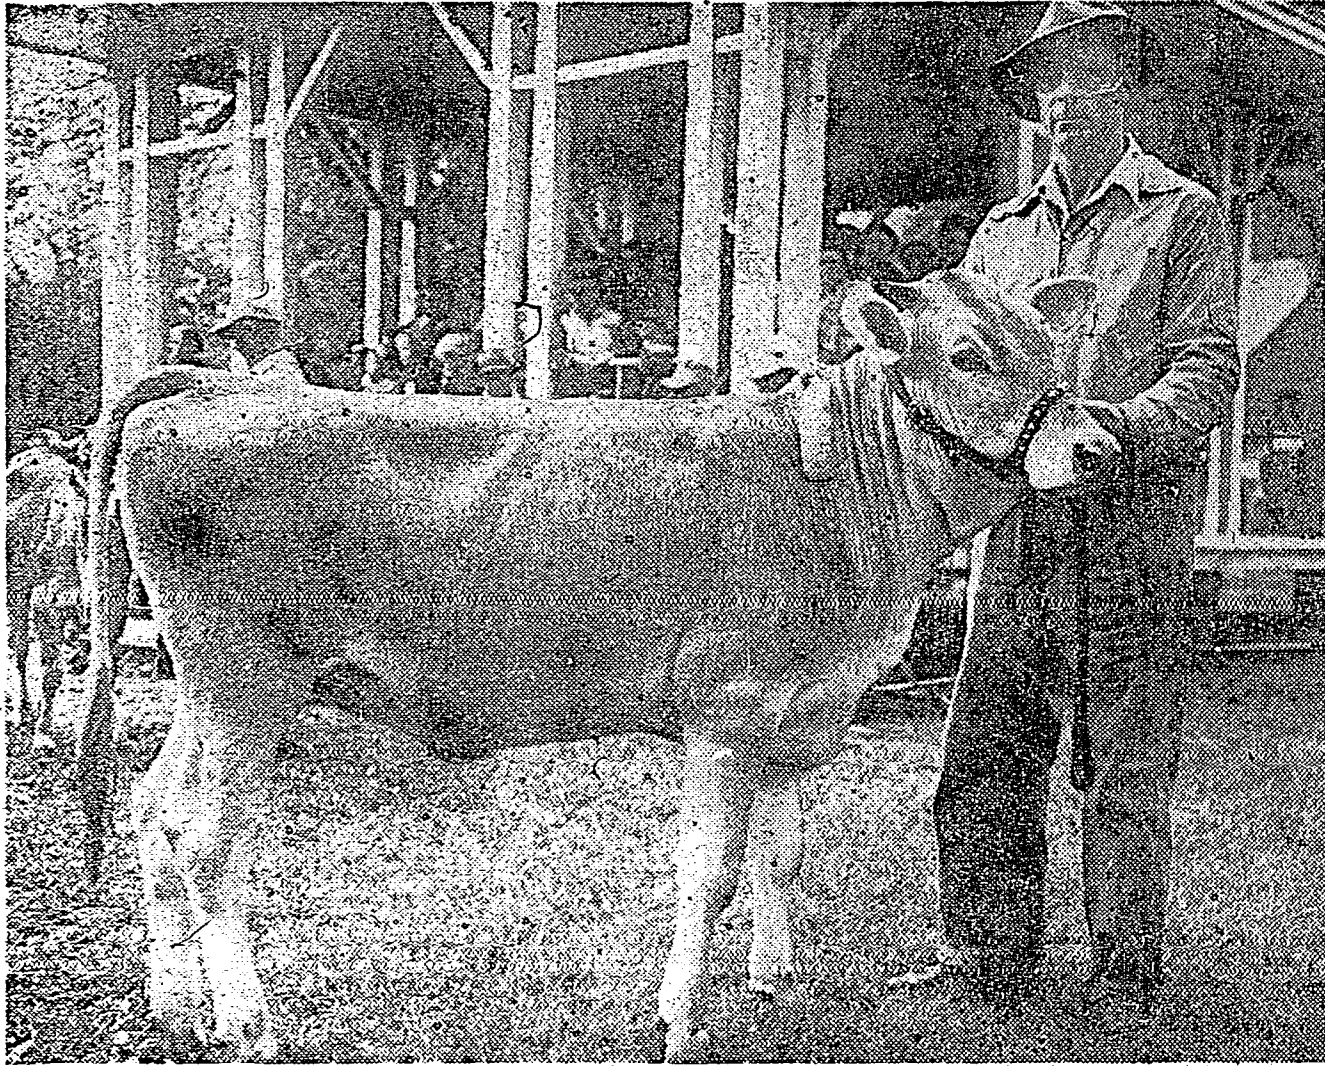

Marvin Kruse, Brown Swiss Cattle Breeders of America fieldman, assisted Searles and presented all junior exhibitors a Brown Swiss T-shirt. Show champions received trophies.

Commercial Club

At a noon lunch in the library basement, Ewald Gaedy, president of the canton, introduced Alton Morken, president of the Rushford Commercial Club, which arranged the event here and provided some of the refreshments.

Morken stated that the Commercial Club would like to tie in a dairy promotion with the show in 1954 if the Brown Swiss breeders agree to it.

C. A. Choate, Winona, state president of the Brown Swiss breeders, presented 4-H awards for 1952-53 to Orval Swenson, Mabel, Paul Beranek, Hokah, Loren Bierbaum, Elyote, Elroy and Elverna Gaedy, and Mary Alice Smith, Houston,

Top Brown Swiss Heifer and junior champion at the annual Canton 1 show at Rushford Wednesday was Kinsmaid Lady C.B. entered by Margaret Markegard and shown by her father, and Margaret, Jane and Rachael Markegard, Rushford. Stanley Swenson, Mabel, received a Swiss bell.

Kenneth Markegard, Rushford. Spectators used the band shell, background, as shelter from steady rain. (Daily News photo)

Kruse announced the dates of coming events including the state picnic at Sleepy Eye July 6 when the junior organization will hold its first annual meeting. The 75th national meeting will be held at Springfield, Mass., the birthplace of the American Brown Swiss group.

County agents assisting with arrangements were Milton Hoberg and Harold Karlie, Fillmore County; Wayne Hanson, Houston County; and Gordon Anderson and Carroll Lodahl, Winona County.

Canton 1 includes those counties in addition to Wabasha, Olmsted, Goodhue and Mower.

Plainview Woman Wears Rings Again

PLAINVIEW, Minn. (Special)—Mrs. John Weinrich of Little Valley is wearing her wedding rings again—for the first time in more than two years.

She'd lost her diamond wedding and engagement rings in February of 1951. A frantic search had failed to turn them up. Last week her husband was cleaning up the yard beside the trash burner when he saw a glittering object partially covered with dirt. It was the rings—still locked together with a safety catch.

Mrs. Weinrich still doesn't know how they were thrown into the incinerator two years ago.

Gerald Gjerdrum Takes Florida Girl as Bride

White gladioli and chrysanthemums were decorations at the candlelight wedding of Miss Nancy Thomas Brodmerkel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas Brodmerkel, Jacksonville, Fla., and Gerald Dale Gjerdrum, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Gjerdrum, 1710 Gilmore Ave., May 28 at 7:30 p.m.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Vance Gordon in St. John's Presbyterian Church where an arch of leather leaf fern extended above the kneeling cushion and white ribbons marked the family pews.

Mrs. Dana Peterson was organist and Asa Gardiner, soloist, sang "Melody of Love" and "Whither Thou Goest."

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of white Chantilly lace over satin. The molded bodice was finished with a scoop neckline outlined in applied lace flowers, and tiny sleeves. The floor-length skirt swept into a wide chapel train with a border of applied flowers. Her veil of bridal illusion was caught to a bandeau of lace.

She was attended by her sister, Mrs. John Robert Nork, Jacksonville, as matron of honor and the Misses Karen Sutton and Sharon McGraw, as bridesmaids.

The matron of honor wore a blue gown with taffeta bodice and tiered lace skirt and the bridesmaids wore identical gowns in pink and lavender. They wore small hats of matching flowers. They carried baskets of Shasta daisies.

Frederic Mahlie, Winona, was best man and ushers were Townsend Brodmerkel, Jacksonville; Paul Duke, Jacksonville, and Harlan Simpson of West Virginia.

Back home and once again on the diet, she has regained the six pounds. She is again storing water. Being allergic to milk and cheese, this overweight follows a diet quite low in protein. The solution is to increase the protein in the diet and have a complete protein food at each of the three daily meals — an egg every morning; at lunch a second egg, a serving of fish or lean meat, or a large serving of cottage cheese; and a serving of lean meat at the evening meal. Also it would be helpful for her to temporarily cut down on salt in order to combat water retention. Avoiding the use of salt at the table is usually sufficient.

We hope our mystery dieter will keep us posted. Send long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for Scientific Wonder Diet. Address request to Ida Jean Kain, care of The Winona Daily News. Post card requests cannot be answered.

Keep in Trim

The Case of The Paradoxical Pounds Solved

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Everybody loves to solve a mystery. This one might be called "The Case of the Paradoxical Pounds." Just as in all exciting "whodunits," the bulk of the evidence in our story is pointed away from possible offenders. But let's get along with the mystery . . . which, by the way, is a true account.

"I had a queer experience lately. At the beginning of the year I was put on a diet so that I might lose 20 pounds. In the next two months I lost only 4 pounds. Then we went on our vacation, and in the 18 days following, I lost 6 pounds. Now we've been home three weeks and I have gained the 6 pounds back."

"Here's the irony . . . on vacation I ate like a horse and just relaxed. Now I'm home, work like the dickens, diet strictly — and gain. What do you make of it?"

The solution is not so elementary, but here we go . . . In the 2 months on a diet, our overweight lost only 4 pounds. According to the diet she was following, she should have lost around 15 pounds. We feel sure this overweight stayed on the diet fairly well, else she would not have taken the trouble to write.

"This being true, there can be only one explanation — water storage. As fat is removed from the cells, often times the cell membranes become distended with water, so registration of weight loss is postponed until the water is released. Obviously this dieter stores water as fat is lost."

While on vacation, even though she was overeating, the change in her diet plus increased protein caused the stored water to be released from the tissues. Since water actually weighs more than fat, the total result on the scales showed a loss of 6 pounds. This 6 pound loss was due to previous dieting efforts, the registration of which was held up by water storage. Had this dieter during vacation switched to high protein without "eating like a horse," her loss in pounds would have been dramatic.

Back home and once again on the diet, she has regained the six pounds. She is again storing water. Being allergic to milk and cheese, this overweight follows a diet quite low in protein. The solution is to increase the protein in the diet and have a complete protein food at each of the three daily meals — an egg every morning; at lunch a second egg, a serving of fish or lean meat, or a large serving of cottage cheese; and a serving of lean meat at the evening meal. Also it would be helpful for her to temporarily cut down on salt in order to combat water retention. Avoiding the use of salt at the table is usually sufficient.

We hope our mystery dieter will keep us posted. Send long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for Scientific Wonder Diet. Address request to Ida Jean Kain, care of The Winona Daily News. Post card requests cannot be answered.

It's Strawberry Time. A refreshing dish is the above spring fruit salad with strawberries and chunks of fresh pineapple combined. Wash ½ head of lettuce, dry thoroughly, tear into bite-sized pieces and place in salad bowl. Arrange 1 pint sliced fresh strawberries and 2¼ cups fresh pineapple wedges over the top. Sprinkle with 1 tablespoon sugar. Toss with 2 tablespoons French dressing. If not counting calories, serve with a sour cream dressing made by combining 1 cup sour cream, 2 teaspoons sugar, 1 teaspoon fresh lemon juice and 4 marshmallows, diced.

'Travelog' Theme of WSH Annual Banquet

Theme for the annual banquet for the senior class of Winona Senior High held Wednesday evening at Central Lutheran Church, was "Travelog." Approximately 235 attended, including special guests and members of the faculty.

Decorations were keyed to the theme. Tables were decorated with knapsacks and various small vehicles of travel. Placecards were small knapsacks and the favors, were miniature knapsacks in a variety of colors. On the wall behind the head table was a "Success Unlimited" train, bearing two typical seniors to their destinations in life.

2 Winona Colleges To Share in Grant From Standard Oil

ST. PAUL, Minn.—The College of Saint Teresa and St. Mary's College, Winona, are among 14 Minnesota colleges which will benefit from the third annual $150,000 grant by Standard Oil Foundation, Inc., to state associations of private colleges in 14 Midwest states in which the firm operates.

The distribution to Minnesota will be $20,000. Other colleges sharing in it are Augsburg, Carleton, St. Benedict, St. Catherine's, Scholastica, St. Thomas, Concordia, Gustavus Adolphus, Hamline, Macalester, St. John's and St. Olaf.

In all, 145 colleges will share in the grant. Dr. Robert E. Wilson, Chicago, foundation chairman, said the state associations have saved the time of college presidents by eliminating need of multiple solicitations. In addition, he said, they aid corporate executives by solving the problem of trying to evaluate and select individual institutions.

Dairyland Sets Record Sales
LA CROSSE, Wis.—Record sales totaling 6.3 million dollars were reported at the annual meeting of Dairyland Power Cooperative here Wednesday.

John E. Olson, president, told more than 400 delegates from Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois and Iowa that cost per kilowatt-hour was reduced 10 per cent in 1954 to the lowest point in Dairyland history.

Installation of a new, ultra-modern generator at the Alma station by late 1956 is expected to drop this figure even lower. John P. Madgett, manager, said. Another factor in dropping costs is the high level of consumption which is steadily rising.

H. C. Blumentritt, Chester, Minn., and Everett Redd, Woodbine, Ill., were elected to the board of directors. All board officers were re-elected.

A contract for superstructure work at the Alma station will be let in the next few days, a co-op official said today. Piping and electric contracts will follow later this summer.

Two Extremes In Reaction to Court Ruling

ATLANTA (AP)—Two extremes in Southern reaction have come to light in a bitter dispute over the U. S. Supreme Court's ruling against racial segregation in public schools.

At Fayetteville, Ark., where Negro and white pupils have already been integrated, the superintendent of city schools said "we feel we have done the right thing."

At Summerton, S.C., the Board of Education has decided to close all schools, if necessary, rather than mix the races.

Summerton is in Clarendon County, origin of one of the five cases which resulted in the court's decision against segregation.

Officials of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People planned to meet in Atlanta Saturday to decide what action to take under the Supreme Court's plan for implementing its ruling.

The Fayetteville schools claim to be the first in a heavily populated area of the South to integrate white and Negro pupils.

The integration started last fall when six Negroes enrolled in the formerly all-white Fayetteville High School. School officials said there have been no incidents and few objections from Fayetteville residents.

Fayetteville is in northwest Arkansas where there are few Negroes.

J. D. Carson, chairman of the Summerton School Board, said "we will keep the races separate and if we have to close the (white) schools, we'll close."

If any Negro applies for admission to the white school when the next term starts, we'll just close down the school."

Research Ship Starts 6-Month Arctic Trip

HALIFAX, N. S. (AP)—The Royal Canadian Navy's 6,500-ton research ship Labrador sailed yesterday for a six-month Arctic voyage, on which a score of Canadian and U. S. scientists will make surveys for North America's new radar defenses.

The expedition will complete beach surveys in the Davis and Hudson Straits regions preparatory to the landing of men and supplies for building the eastern end of the U. S.-Canadian distant early warning radar system.

SKILLET CLUB FOR MEN

By Frank Kohler

CRAWFISH BISQUE AT ANTOINE'S?

WHY NOT HAVE IT AT HOME? CRAWFISH BISQUE—and our deep gratitude to that stalwart Skilleteer, Gene Knobloch, of Thibodaux, La.

This is a wonderful thing, and the crawfish, or "mud bugs," are to be found almost throughout the United States and Canada. They are elegant when properly prepared, but unfortunately, too many people only use them as bait for hungry fish.

Wash 15 to 20 pounds of live crawfish in a large tub with hose until clean. Drain and wash again. Wash a third time in heavily salted water and drain, then wash once more. Carefully pick out any dead crawfish.

Bring water to a boil in large Kettle or wash tub, add 1 box of "crab boil" or mixed pickling spices; four large onions, sliced; one green pepper, sliced; 10 to 12 cloves peeled garlic; two lemons, halved; three celery stalks and tops; salt, pepper, and cayenne. Boil about five minutes, then dump in live crawfish and bring to boil again. Cook, well covered, for 20 minutes — test for doneness and don't overcook. Remove kettle from heat and let stand five minutes, then drain and cool.

Boiled crawfish are eaten by breaking the head from the tail, removing top part of tail, then, by pinching the tail with one hand and pulling the top peeled part with the other, the tail is easily cleaned.

Like shrimp, the black vein is removed. If you're adept at it, the vein comes out in the peeling process.

Save enough heads to make about six per person, and clean and pick them. Make a stuffing for the heads as follows:

2 tablespoons flour.
4 tablespoons cooking oil.
1 clove garlic, minced.
1 large onion, chopped.
Bread crumbs.

4 tablespoons chopped parsley.
1/2 green pepper, chopped fine.
4 hard-boiled eggs.
4 cups parboiled crawfish tails.

Season with salt, pepper and tabasco to taste. Serve in soup bowls with the stuffed heads, and white rice on the side. Mr. Knobloch serves this as a stew — it may be thinned down to serve as a soup by adding water.

"In the Deep South of Louisiana, M'sieur le Crawfish is King," he says. "Gourmets sigh over him. Fishermen love him, children delight in him. He's the harbinger of spring — the source of many a sunny afternoon's recreation!"

U. S. Denies Owing German Builders Money

BONN, Germany (AP)—The U. S. Embassy has denied German government claims that the American armed forces owe German contractors a string of unpaid bills.

The German Finance Ministry charged yesterday that 292 firms were owed the equivalent of more than 4 1/2 million dollars for work done for the Americans. It said as a result many of the firms were in financial straits.

An embassy spokesman said all approved bills are normally paid within 10 days.

The ministry may refer to claims made for extra work done, or unexpected costs, he said, adding such claims have to be adjudicated.

For the liquid part:
3 tablespoons cake flour.
3 tablespoons cooking oil.
1 clove garlic.
1 large onion, chopped.
3 stalks celery, chopped.
1/2 green pepper, chopped.
4 cups parboiled crawfish tails.

(Save fat from heads and tails). Brown flour in oil, add chopped garlic, onions, celery and green pepper. Cook together a few minutes. Stir to prevent burning. Add one quart water and cook until all seasonings are well done. Add cleaned, chopped crawfish tails and fat and cook about 15 minutes longer, then test tails for doneness.

Season with salt, pepper and tabasco to taste. Serve in soup bowls with the stuffed heads, and white rice on the side. Mr. Knobloch serves this as a stew — it may be thinned down to serve as a soup by adding water.

Farmers Testify Wheat Program Hurts Rotation

BALTIMORE (AP)—Three farmers have testified in Federal Court their opinion that the government's wheat-crop support program throws crop rotation out of gear.

They joined two Ohio farmers yesterday in attesting to what they said was the unpopularity of the program.

The five were defense witnesses at the second day of a hearing before Judge Roszel C. Thomsen of the government's motion for an injunction against Westminister farmer Louis Shafer and his three sons.

Frederick A. Feaser of Taneystown told the court today he has 19 head of cattle and needs wheat for straw and manure. He was allotted only 12 acres for wheat for the 1953 crop, he said.

"I couldn't make out with that kind of allotment," Feaser said he told the county committee. The next year they gave him 52 acres, but Feaser said he needs 60-70 acres of wheat to keep his rotation system going.

Another Carroll County farmer, C. Wilbur Stonesifer, said he "can't rotate" because he only got a six-acre wheat allotment on his 82-acre farm.

Earlier yesterday, Rolla M. Myers of Attica, Ohio, testified he was "refused" his right to vote on quotas in the last referendum because the committee which allotted acreage didn't give him enough to make him eligible to vote.

Farmers Testify Wheat Program Hurts Rotation

BALTIMORE (AP)—Three farmers have testified in Federal Court their opinion that the government's wheat-crop support program throws crop rotation out of gear.

They joined two Ohio farmers yesterday in attesting to what they said was the unpopularity of the program.

The five were defense witnesses at the second day of a hearing before Judge Roszel C. Thomsen of the government's motion for an injunction against Westminister farmer Louis Shafer and his three sons.

Frederick A. Feaser of Taneystown told the court today he has 19 head of cattle and needs wheat for straw and manure. He was allotted only 12 acres for wheat for the 1953 crop, he said.

"I couldn't make out with that kind of allotment," Feaser said he told the county committee. The next year they gave him 52 acres, but Feaser said he needs 60-70 acres of wheat to keep his rotation system going.

Another Carroll County farmer, C. Wilbur Stonesifer, said he "can't rotate" because he only got a six-acre wheat allotment on his 82-acre farm.

Earlier yesterday, Rolla M. Myers of Attica, Ohio, testified he was "refused" his right to vote on quotas in the last referendum because the committee which allotted acreage didn't give him enough to make him eligible to vote.

Polio Vaccine Available for 200,000 More

WASHINGTON (AP) — First shots of Salk polio vaccine were available today for 200,000 more school children and the Public Health Service said new supplies "will become progressively available."

The service announced last night the clearance of 200,000 cubic centimeters of unused vaccine previously distributed by Pitman-Moore Co., Zionsville, Ind., and Wyeth, Inc., Marietta, Pa. That amount, once cleared, had been held back from use since May 7 when inoculations were halted for a safety check.

The release was the first since May 15, when supplies previously distributed by Eli Lilly & Co. of Indianapolis were cleared a second time. Similar action had been taken on May 13 on vaccine made by Parke, Davis & Co., Detroit.

BEDTIME STORIES

By HOWARD GARIS

Uncle Wiggly was surprised that an elephant from the circus had come to look for the runaway Frisky.

"What is your name, if you please," the rabbit gentleman asked of the new elephant.

"My name is Mumbo," was the answer.

"How did you get that name?" inquired the rabbit gentleman.

"It was given to me by the circus manager," was the reply.

"When I first joined the circus I had no name. Then the manager said I looked like an elephant that lived many years ago. His name was Jumbo. He was one of the largest elephants ever to be with a circus."

"When the circus manager first saw me he thought I might grow to be as big as Jumbo. But he didn't want to give me that name, so he called me Mumbo."

"Are you going to grow to be as big as Jumbo was?" asked Buster.

"I think not," answered Mumbo. "I think I shall always be a small elephant, like Frisky, even after I grow up from a baby elephant. But I wouldn't want what happened to Jumbo to happen to me."

"What happened to Jumbo?" asked Bunty, who was putting a curl into the hair of her doll Priscilla, by winding the doll's hair around a stick. "Is Jumbo with the circus now, Mumbo?"

"No, he isn't," answered the new elephant. "Jumbo, many years ago, not knowing what he was doing, stood on a railroad track. Along came an engine and bumped into Jumbo. That was the last of Jumbo."

"Where did he go?" asked Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy.

"He went where all good elephants go," answered Mumbo. "He died. His skeleton is now in the American Museum of Natural History, New York City."

"I think Jumbo must be very proud to have his skeleton bones in a museum," said Buster the rabbit scout.

"Perhaps he is," answered Mumbo. "Anyhow, my name is somewhat like his and I am proud of it. But this isn't looking for Frisky."

"It certainly is not!" exclaimed Uncle Wiggly. "We must go look for Frisky. Why didn't the circus man come to look for him?" the rabbit gentleman asked Mumbo.

"Because he thought that Frisky would run away and hide as soon as he saw the manager," answered Mumbo. "Frisky is funny. Every once in a while he gets tired of doing circus tricks with me and the other elephants. Then Frisky runs away."

"He has often come to see me," said Uncle Wiggly. "Frisky likes to play checkers. He taught me the game until I had to jump."

"Did Frisky make you jump a checker?" asked Mumbo.

"Well, in a way he did," answered Uncle Wiggly. "But I really made a big jump, out of my chair, when I was stuck by a silver on the chair. I jumped and scattered the checkers all over."

"That must have been some jump," said Mumbo.

"It was," said Uncle Wiggly. "But it was my turn to jump. Jingle looked at her sister Jangle, but she did not say anything about the pin that she stuck in her daddy's leg. And Jangle didn't say anything, either. Perhaps it was just as well to forget the pin.

"But now we must look for Frisky!" said the rabbit gentleman. "I suppose, Mumbo, the circus manager thought that Frisky wouldn't run away if you came after him."

"I guess that is what the manager thought," admitted Mumbo. "But have you any idea where we should start looking for Frisky, Mr. Longears?"

"I have no idea," answered Uncle Wiggly.

"I have!" suddenly exclaimed Nurse Jane.

"Where should we go looking for Frisky, Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy?" asked Mumbo as he waved his trunk in the air. "I can't smell Frisky," he went on. "Generally we elephants can smell each other. But I don't smell Frisky at all. I don't know where to look for him."

"Look for him where there are June roses!" said Nurse Jane.

What did Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy Wuzzy mean? We shall find out in tomorrow's story if the ice cube can find a snowball hiding under the milk bottle so they can have a game of tag.

Lottery Leads To Arrest Order

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — A Yale alumni club has been ordered arrested on a charge that it operated a lottery on a fund-raising outing. A retired state Supreme Court justice won a new car in a drawing.

State's Atty. Albert S. Bill, a Yale man himself, charged last night that the Yale Club drawing was illegal because of a state lottery law strongly upheld in 1938 by the Supreme Court justice who won the car.

The outing was held in Simsbury May 18 to raise money for a Yale scholarship fund. Retired Justice William M. Maltbie bought a ticket to the outing but did not attend. He said he did not know there would be a drawing. He plans to sell the car and give the money to the Yale Scholarship Fund, he said.

Government estimates indicate it costs from $13,000 to $55,000 per classroom to build new public schools, depending on location.

Robin Roberts Insures Phillies Against Last-Place Finish

By ED CORRIGAN
The Associated Press
Without collegiate-looking Robin Roberts, the Philadelphia Phillies could give the Pittsburgh Pirates a good run for the National League cellar.

But so long as Robin persists in

ROBIN ROBERTS
Eight Victories So Far

winning 20 or better games a season. The Phillies have won 20 or more games the past five years and 1935 will be no exception if he continues at his present pace.

The Phillies have won just 19 games as they ride along in seventh place, and Roberts has won eight of them, including a neat six-hit 3-1 decision over the Chicago Cubs last night.

For a time, it appeared that the Michigan State alumnus might not make the charmed circle. He shattered a 3-3 mark on May 7, leading the pace for a 20-game winner. But in less than a month, he has won five games and shows a fine 2.30 earned run average.

The only teams he hasn't beaten are St. Louis and Cincinnati and that little matter should be taken care of during current western invasion of the East.

In fact, the Phils themselves seem to be snapping out of the doldrums. They've won 9 of their last 11 games, and although they are just above the Pirates in the standings, they are only four games behind the third place New York Giants.

After the Phils scored two runs in the fourth, it was merely a matter of Roberts protecting the lead, which he did with no particular trouble. Ernie Banks hit a home run for the Cubs in the fifth for their only run.

Elsewhere in the National League, the Brooklyn Dodgers trimmed the Milwaukee Braves, 11-8; the Redlegs whipped the New York Giants 5-2, and the Cardinals slapped down the Pirates, 6-2.

In the American League, the Cleveland Indians shut out the Baltimore Orioles, 5-0; the New York Yankees won a doubleheader from the Kansas City A's, 3-1 and 6-1; the Chicago White Sox edged the Boston Red Sox, 4-3, and the Detroit Tigers blanked the Washington Senators, 9-0.

Duke Snider was the big gun in the Brooklyn victory, hitting three home runs and narrowly missing No. 4. His fourth try hit the right field screen and he had to settle for a double. Once before, Snider hit three home runs and just missed a fourth. He now has 15 home runs for the season.

Neither starter—Carl Erskine of the Braves nor Gene Conley of the Cubs—was around at the finish, what with all the bombarding.

The Redlegs got one of their rare well pitched games and aided by home runs by Ted Kluszewski and Roy McMillen, had no trouble with the Giants. Joe Nuxhall held Leo Durocher's men to five hits. Nuxhall had a four-hit shutout until the ninth when Willie Mays hit a homer with Don Mueller on base.

Luis Arroyo tossed his sixth victory against no defeats for the Cards. Arroyo was backed by a 12-hit attack. Ken Boyer and Bill Virdon each collected three hits for the winners.

The Orioles didn't have a chance against Early Wynn. The Cleveland ace set them down with four hits. The Tribe is three games behind the Yanks. Cleveland scored three times in the first inning and from there on it was a cakewalk for Wynn, although Al Smith hit an insurance home run with one on in the second.

Johnny Kucks stopped the A's in the first game for the Yanks, although he needed help from Tom Morgan in the ninth, and Whitey Ford went all the way in the second game. Neither team got a hit until the sixth inning of the opener. Irv Noren singled home Andy Carey to break it up in the ninth. Carey had a three-run homer in the nightcap.

Ted Williams went hitless in four trips to the plate in the Boston loss to Chicago. Sherman Lollar produced the big blow for the Phils, a three-run homer. But they still needed a single by Chico Carasquel in the eighth to score the winning run.

Lefty Billy Hoelt tossed his second straight shutout for the crippled Tigers. He held the Senators to only two hits while his mates collected 10 hits. Jack Phillips, substituting for the sore-kneed Ferris Fain at first base got three.

NEW YORK (U)—Twenty years ago today an era ended.

Babe Ruth hung up his spikes for good.

It should have been a day of celebration. The Babe should have stepped down proudly, the cheers of the crowds that once idolized him ringing in his ears.

But it wasn't to be that way. It was more like a tragedy. He had played his last game May 30 against the Philadelphia Phillies. He went to bat only once and did nothing, so he retired to the clubhouse. That was the last time the Babe's name appeared in a major league box score.

He was with the Boston Braves at the time vice-president, assistant manager and sometimes player.

His sight was failing and he was hitting only .181 when the end came. It came slowly, though.

It wasn't until three days later, June 2, that Ruth officially ended his baseball career—and he was beaten to the punch.

Officially, he quit. But he admitted later that he was fired by Judge Emil Fuchs, president of the Braves.

Standing in the clubhouse, he told a boy to ask Fuchs to come see him. He told the boy to inform Fuchs he was quitting. He had gone as far as he could.

A few minutes later, some newsmen trooped into the clubhouse and Babe asked them what was up. They said they were sorry and he asked them why. They told him he had been fired.

"So I got fired before I could quit," he said later.

That was a stormy season, that 1935, for Babe. He signed with the Braves and years later admitted it was a nightmare. He played only 28 games.

Ruth's last day of glory was in Pittsburgh when he stroked three home runs, including the only ball ever hit over the right field roof in Forbes Field. It was only the fourth time in his career that he had hit three home runs and he was proud.

Pep Gesture During Fight Wins Approval

BOSTON (U)—Willie Pep the boxer today was hailed as Willie Pep the sportsman as a result of his fourth round technical knock-out of Joey Cam of East Boston.

Pep opened an inch and a half gash over Cam's left eye midway in the third round of their scheduled 10-rounder at Boston Arena last night—then danced away to avoid hitting his bleeding opponent.

The 2,486 fans on hand roared approval of Pep's gesture which was seen also by a national television audience.

Cam went back to his corner at the end of the round but the fight was stopped before the bell for the fourth sounded. The cut was deep and required four stitches.

"I could tell right away it was a real bad cut," Pep said afterward. "I didn't want to take advantage of the kid. He's a good tough kid but I don't like to win fights that way."

Pep didn't know whether it was a punch or a butt that opened the gash, but when the two broke from close quarters in the third, blood was streaming down Cam's nose which Pep had reddened in the first round.

On the Massachusetts scoring system in which 10 points is awarded to the winner of a round and 10 or less to his opponent, Referee Eddie Curley and Judge Joe Santarpio had Pep leading 30 to 27 when the bout was halted. Judge John Norton had it even, 29-29.

The victory was the 189th for the veteran Pep who is twice former featherweight champion. He's lost seven and drawn once. Cam's record is 32-6.

Danny Dinoff of Detroit made two holes-in-one within 10 days at suburban Redford Municipal Golf Course. They were on different holes.

3 Homers for Duke Snider As Dodgers Top Braves 11-8

BROOKLYN (U)—Duke Snider was pretty near a ball team all by himself Wednesday night as he smashed out three home runs and a double to lead the Brooklyn Dodgers to an 11-8 slugfest victory over the Milwaukee Braves.

In all the first place Dodgers belted six homers off five Milwaukee pitchers and Snider's double missed going over the wall for a fourth round tripper by a scant six feet. The Duke took over the major league home run leadership with 15 and became the first National League player this season to get three in one game. The trick has been turned by three American Leaguers.

Pitchers Gene Conley for Milwaukee and Carl Erskine for Brooklyn, who fought it out in two earlier beautifully hurled 12-inning games, were both scarred by opposing batters. Neither was around at the end. Gene, who took a 7-1 record into the game, was the loser. Erskine was the winner and in their personal series Erskine now holds a 2-1 edge.

The Dodgers bounded off to a quick two-run lead in the first inning as Snider hit homer No. 13 right after Pee Wee Reese had hit one out of the park. They were the first and second of three homers Conley served up to raise his total for the season to 16, high in both leagues.

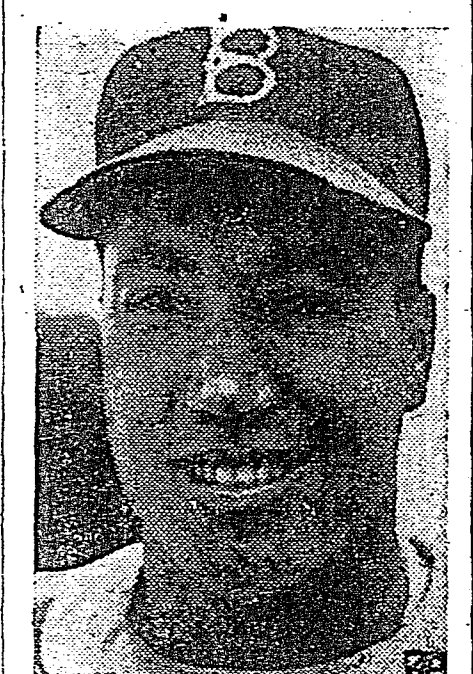

The Braves had opened the game by getting a run in their share of the first on a walk to Chuck Tanner and singles to Henry Aaron and George Crowe. The Braves got the lead back in the second on two runs. Bobby Thomson tripled, Del Crandall doubled and Bill Bruton hit his first single, in all Bruton had a double and three singles in the 12-hit Milwaukee attack. Brooklyn had 13 hits.

The Dodgers drove Conley to the shower in the fourth with a six-run rally and then Jackie Robinson chipped in with a homer. Erskine singled and Junior Gilliam walked and Reese singled to drive in another run.

That was it for Conley and Roberto Vargas was called in to face Snider. The Duke almost blew him out of the park with a homer that cleared a parking lot in back of the stadium. Roberto was shaken and filled the bases. Ernie Johnson took over the pitching and got the final out.

By the time the sixth inning rolled around the Dodgers were still looking for hits and runs. Johnson walked Reese and it was Snider at the plate again. And again he did it—homer No. 3 for the night and it sent in two runs.

Well in the sixth, and trailing 10-3, the Braves built a rally. Joe Adcock, batting for Johnson, walked. Bruton got another hit and Tanner walked. Reese fumbled Aaron's grounder and a run scored. Johnson

Charges Against Fairmont Ball Team Manager Dismissed

FAIRMONT, Minn. (U)—Charges against Jim McNulty, manager of the Fairmont baseball team and operator of a tavern here, of selling beer to a minor were dismissed in justice of the peace court here today.

City Atty. Charles Zierke said the charge against McNulty was filed by the city and was signed by a police officer.

Zierke said a 17-year-old youth from Armstrong, Iowa, had signed a statement saying the baseball manager sold him 3.2 beer in the McNulty tavern May 18. According to the city attorney, an 18-year-old Fairmont farm youth signed a statement saying he was in the Iowa youth's car and saw him come out of the tavern with the beer.

Zierke said today the Iowa youth refused to cross the state line to testify at the justice court hearing and that the Fairmont youth refused to testify on grounds it might incriminate him.

Perky Patton Leads Yanks in British Tourney

ST. ANNES, England (U)—Nine of eleven Americans and four out of five Walker Cup players stormed through the fourth round of the British Amateur golf championship today to set up a series of show-down matches in the fifth round this afternoon.

The U.S. Walker Cup team, with amazing Billy Joe Patton again showing the way, lost only one of its members, Dale Morey of Indianapolis.

The usually steady Morey lost his touch on this windy day at the Royal Lytham and St. Annes course and was beaten 2 and 1 by England's Alan Slater.

Patton routed Jack Jones of England, 5 and 4, and set the pace for teammates Joe Conrad, Bruce Cudd and Jimmy Jackson. Cudd was the only one who had a hard match, conquering Arthur Walker of South Africa on the 20th hole.

Advancing with them were former Walker Cup player Jimmy McHale of Wynnewood, Pa., young Don Bisplinghoff of Orlando, Fla., James K. Bernard Jr., of Westboro, Mass., George Coleman of Miami, Okla., and Barton J. Bridgeford, 65-year-old retired banker of San Francisco and Paris.

The fourth round victories set up three all-American matches for the fifth round this afternoon. Walker coppers Jackson and Conrad come together, Patton meets Coleman and 21-year-old Cudd meets 20-year-old Bisplinghoff.

Shrake Joins Chiefs Tonight Against Twins

DeRose Scheduled To Pitch; Leach Hitting at .429

Joe Shrake, St. Mary's College pitching star, will be in a Winona uniform tonight when the Chiefs play the Owatonna-Waseca Twins in a Southern Minny League game at Community Field, Waseca.

The addition of Shrake to Winona's pitching staff should be a big help if the little lefthander can come anywhere near equalling his college record this spring when he faces Southern Minny batters.

Manager Emil Scheid said today he would have starting pitcher Carl DeRose backed up by Shrake and righthander Bob Umfleet.

Shrake had an 8-2 record this spring in the Minnesota College Conference, and over a three-year period compiled a mark of 19-3 while hurling for the Redmen against league foes.

This spring he pitched 78 innings, gave up 53 hits, struck out 93 and walked only 18. His earned run average was a microscopic 0.873. In addition to his pitching chores, he did well in the hitting department for the Redmen.

He batted .324 in conference play and had two home runs and three doubles.

Tonight the Chiefs will attempt to right a two-game losing streak in 11-2 and 8-0 losses to Mankato which found the Chiefs' batting average fall to .231 as a team.

Only Bill Leach and Bert Tracy, among the regular performers, are batting over .300. Leach is clouting the ball at a .429 pace in five games, while Tracy is hitting .369. They are followed by Don Miller, .294, and Al Radsavage, .288. The averages really slide after that with Stan Sharkey hitting .188, Jack Triplett .182 in three games, Emil Nascak .118 and Sid Langston, Nascak on to provide power this season, only .105.

Following tonight's game at Waseca, the Chiefs play a makeup game Saturday night at Fairmont with Jim Lawler scheduled to pitch. The Chiefs then return home Sunday to face Waseca-Owatonna at Gabrych Park.

The Chiefs will be at full strength within two weeks, but will get player help within a week as Scheid said today third baseman Emil Kammer and outfielder Jack Davis from the University of Missouri are due here Tuesday.

Shortstop Jerry Kindall from the University of Minnesota is scheduled to arrive June 9 and catcher George Gleason, June 12. Second baseman George Smith is due in about June 14 to replace Miller who goes into the service.

Robinson Goes, Crone Returns To Milwaukee

BROOKLYN (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves announced Wednesday night after losing 11-8 to Brooklyn that righthanded pitcher Humberto Robinson has been farmed out to Toledo and Ray Crone recalled.

Crone had great success with Toledo after leaving the Braves earlier in the season. He was slated to rejoin the Braves today and is expected to pull starting assignments within a few days. Robinson went down on 24-hour recall. He sparked with the Braves in spring training and turned in one fine exhibition game against the Dodgers. The 150-pound Fan-manian posted a record of 2-0 with the Braves.

The Braves were expected to announce another farm deal today. Bonus rookie John Edelman was expected to show up after failing to arrive Wednesday. Pitchers Roberto Vargas probably will be sent down.

Sheboygan Hires Kimberly Coach

SHEBOYGAN, Wis. (AP)—Robert Root, coach at Kimberly for the past three years, was named Wednesday as head football coach at Sheboygan North high school. He succeeds Marvin (Red) Peterson, who resigned several months ago. Root, 37, was graduated from Oshkosh State College and also had coached at Necedah, Weyauwega and Kiel.

Sweikert Races At Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—Bob Sweikert, winner of the 500-mile Memorial Day auto race at Indianapolis, has been added to the field that will start in the 100-mile grind here Sunday.

Sweikert, Speedway City, Ind., will drive the same pink John Zink Special he pushed to victory last Monday.

Tom Marchese, race promoter, said all of the first 10 finishers in the race except Jimmy Daywalt, are entered in the race here. The closest battling race in the major leagues occurred in 1931. Chick Hafez won the National League title with .3489, while Bill Terry had .3486 and Jim Bottomley hit .3482.

49 Games, 87 Home Runs for Millers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The rich got richer and the poor got poorer Wednesday night in the American Association as the league's three top teams downed second division clubs.

First place Minneapolis spanked its Twin City rival, St. Paul, 8-3 while second running Toledo out-slugged Charleston 11-7. Omaha downed Denver 5-4 on Gerry Thomas' homer in the last of the ninth.

Louisville, the only first division club to lose, dropped to fourth place when they lost a 5-3 decision to Indianapolis.

ering fashion as the leaders smacked a half dozen homers. They now have hit 87 in 49 games. Jim Constable, pitching with two days' rest, took the decision.
Toledo ran its current victory streak to six, blasting out 15 hits against the Senators, who have dropped 21 of their last 26 games. Pete Whisenand had a homer for the winners.
Omaha's victory over Denver came in another home run hitting contest. Dick Tettelbach and Lou Skizas had circuit blows for Denver, while Ed Phillips and Dick Schofield joined Thomas in hitting round trippers for the Cardinals.
The win hopped Omaha over Louisville into third place, and gave the Cards a 3-1 series edge over Denver.
A Matt Batts' three-run homer in the ninth provided the winning margin for Indianapolis as the Indians bounced stumbling Louisville again.

Bill Skowron, first baseman for the Yankees, bats and throws right handed. But as a football star at Purdue he was a left-footed kicker.

LET'S EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By ALBERT EDWARD THOGUM, D. Sc.

Answer to Question No. 1

1. Psychologist W. H. Sheldon shows that the tall, string-bean types (ectomorphs) have long, drooping stomachs which empty slowly and lack vigor, resulting in light, finicky appetites. The round, roly-poly boys (endomorphs) have stomachs that hang high, are vigorous, and empty quickly, resulting in early hunger. The handsome, athletic types (mesomorphs) eat well but not as often as the endomorphs. Endomorphs are the jolly boys and best providers. So, girls, take your pick.

Answer to Question No. 2

2. Only when the one after money pretends it is for love. It's an easy fraud, because love can be pretended more easily than any other emotion. However, often a rich woman falls in love with a poor man, knowing he returns only friendship. Nothing wrong with that, or with a poor girl marrying a rich man who knows she does not love, but who hopes to win her love after marriage. She's just a lucky girl. What kind of mate do YOU want? practical tests of personality, emotional maturity, and love. Send 15c (coin only), and self-addressed, stamped envelope (name city and state) to Dr. A. E. Wiggam, in care of this newspaper.

Answer to Question No. 3

3. Psychologist Harvey Lehman, writing "Help Them Achieve Early," shows that the big urges of life come between 18 and 25, when enthusiasm runs high. Nearly all great achievers began doing important things in these early years. Lehman, S. L. Pressey and the late Noel Keyes have shown bright students can easily finish the grades by 11, 12 and 13; high school by 14, 15, and 16; and college by 18, 19 and 20. But, says Lehman, we make them spend their creative years "getting ready to achieve."

The bargain race horse of 1954 at Monmouth Park was Punkin Vine, winner of the $25,000 Choice Stakes. He cost owner-trainer George Howell only $750.

FAIRLY SPOKEN

By MARGARET LATROBE

Misquoted, maligned—or enlightened by your daily newspaper?

Two interesting personal opinions appeared within days of each other recently on the subject of newspaper influence. One from the Hon. Abraham Ribicoff, governor of Connecticut, and the other from one of Mr. Minot (Mickey) Jelke's defense attorneys. Gov. Ribicoff had the highest praise for press coverage of "basic problems facing this country," adding that he was surprised how much information he already had about issues discussed at the recent governors' conference in Washington, simply by having read about them in newspapers.

But brother! What a different tune from the Jelke lawyer whose unenviable task it was to defend Mickey in one of the most unsavory cases to hit court in a long time.

"Newspapers," he said, "have made it impossible for him (Jelke) to get a job." Newspapers, eh? Was that who I guess he meant that press reports of the prostitution case were responsible for side-tracking future employers from Mickey's door. Assuming, of course, that young Mickey should be made available for "outside" employment. (At present writing, it looks as though certain tasks will be assigned him within the confines of the pokey.)

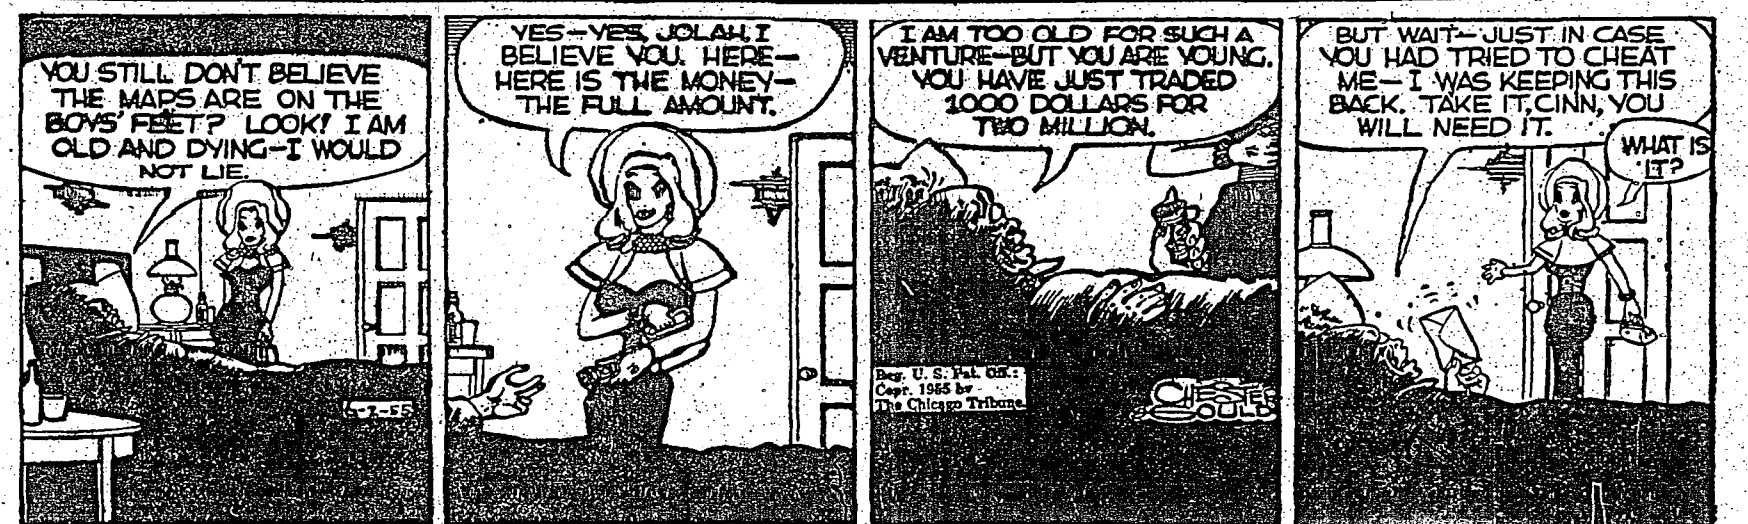

It appears to me that Jelke is a bit late in showing interest in gainful employment. At an age when most young men are putting in hard licks on their first jobs, this chap wasn't aware of the long lists of "Help Wanted" items in his daily paper. Close attention to business opportunities outlined there might have been more rewarding than his chosen line of work, and might too have caused
