Tension Lessens In Berlin Crisis

By EUGENE KRAMER
BERLIN (AP)—East-West war over Berlin appears less likely than a year ago but look for new periods of crisis and tension ahead.

That seems to be the feeling of both Berliners and some Western officials.

Two reasons are heard why war seems more remote than in 1961. One is that Soviet Premier Khrushchev apparently takes more seriously than he did a year ago Western determination to defend West Berlin and its access routes. Khrushchev has withdrawn his deadline for signing a peace treaty with Communist East Germany and has not rattled his missiles recently.

The other reason is that the status quo in Berlin is more bearable to the Communists than the situation that existed a year ago. Then thousands of refugees each month, including many technicians, teachers and students, were pouring out of East Germany through West Berlin. The satellite regime was threatened with collapse.

The Communists raised their border wall through the heart of the city in August. That dammed the tide of refugees to a trickle, solving their most critical problem.

Some quarters expect new tension over Berlin early this year, particularly if the Communists find the West firmly opposed to concessions in the diplomatic probe now starting.

Some observers believe negotiations over Berlin could be long delayed in starting or break down along the way.

The Communists then could be counted upon to boost tension. The easiest way to manufacture a new crisis would be for the East Germans to harass traffic along the access routes to West Berlin across East German territory, or to interfere further with traffic between East and West Berlin.

The Western Allies do not recognize the East German regime as a legitimate government. They insist that the Soviet Union take full responsibility for the satellite's actions. Moscow, in its campaign to get East Germany recognized, shows increasing reluctance to do this.

Some observers predict any new Berlin crisis will include a strong Communist pitch to the growing bloc of neutral and African-Asian countries. The Reds would try to shift complete blame for the new threat to war on the Allies and create new pressure for the West to make concessions to avert war.

Russ Fail to Offer Any New Berlin Proposal

By LEWIS GULICK
WASHINGTON (AP)—Preliminary reports indicate Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko did not offer any new Kremlin position on Berlin in his conference with U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson, informed sources say. But a sudden change had not been expected.

The officials said they expect Thompson will be instructed to meet Gromyko again fairly soon in an effort to find a solution to the explosive problem.

President Kennedy, who was kept informed in Palm Beach, Fla., of the Moscow developments was described as believing it important to keep open the diplomatic contact with the Russians.

Thompson's first dispatch was said to have been a brief resume of Tuesday's initial conversation. A lengthier account was expected to be available today.

State Department officials intended to study it carefully for any slight change in Gromyko's position which might point the way toward a new approach to the seemingly deadlocked dispute.

After Thompson's complete report has been gone over thoroughly, new instructions will be dispatched to him on undertaking a follow-up session with Gromyko.

Gromyko's reported reiteration of the Kremlin line on Berlin did not come as any big surprise here.

The pattern of discussions with the Soviets in the past is that at the outset both sides expound their known positions.

Portugal Threatens to Quit U.N.

By LUIS LUPI
LISBON, Portugal (AP)—Premier Antonio de Oliveira Salazar said in a speech prepared for delivery today Portugal "will surely be among the first countries to leave the United Nations organization."

"Meanwhile we shall refuse them our collaboration in everything that is not in our direct interest," he declared.

Reporting to the National Assembly and to the nation, the 72-year-old dictator criticized the United Nations, the United States and Britain for their failure to come to Portugal's support when India invaded Goa, Damao and Diu last month.

Referring to the U.N. mission of safeguarding peace, Salazar said he believes "we have the right to hear whether our presence and our collaboration are already useless in the United Nations."

"Even if we do not, I do not know yet whether we shall be the first country to abandon the United Nations, but surely we will be among the first. Meanwhile we shall refuse them our collaboration in everything that is not in our direct interest."

That statement was as near as Salazar came in a 10,000-word speech to suggesting direct action on three possible moves diplomatic sources here had expected him to announce as an aftermath of the loss of the Portuguese Indian enclaves.

They were possible withdrawal from the United Nations, revocation of the century-old British-Portuguese alliance and refusal to renew the Azores Island air base agreement with the United States when it expires this year.

The premier spoke as security officers still hunted the remnants of a rebel band that launched an unsuccessful New Year's Day revolt against Salazar's government. The Army Ministry accused the underground Communist party of planning and leading the uprising.

Ice Forms on Florida Fields

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Ice formed on bean fields and 19 cars piled up on a foggy highway in the Miami area today as winter slapped Florida for the third time since Christmas.

Miami's airport temperature skidded to 38 degrees, a record low for the date. The previous low was 49 degrees in 1957. Miami Beach also recorded a record low of 45 degrees, 8 below the 1957 mark.

Grocers sent up airplanes to spray crops with sulphur dust and kept their smudge fires burning. Sulphur dust raises the temperature and the planes stir up cold air hugging the ground.

Despite the freezing temperatures—a low of 31.4 degrees was reported—grocers said beans, squash, strawberries and tomatoes came through in fine shape.

California Socialite Found Slain

Mrs. Doris Bowman

PACIFIC PALISADES, Calif. (AP)—Police sought clues today in the mysterious slaying of a pretty young socialite who was brutally beaten in her $100,000 home and then dumped into a water-filled tub.

Doris June Bowman, 32, willowy honey-blond mother of three and a community leader in this swank Southern California seacoast town, was found dead Tuesday. She was the wife of Dr. Frank Potter Bowman, 39, medical director for the Southern California Edison Co.

A neighbor who brought one of Mrs. Bowman's children home from nursery school shortly after noon found her fully clothed body in the tub. Dr. Bowman was summoned home from his office in downtown Los Angeles.

Police said an intruder apparently hit Mrs. Bowman several times with a blunt object, dragged her 40 feet from the kitchen into the bathroom and put her body in the tub. She was wearing blue capri pants and a black blouse.

Investigators said the house was not ransacked. Bloodstains and fragments of teeth found in the house showed that Mrs. Bowman had battled for her life. Bloodstains on the bathroom basin indicated the killer took time to wash before fleeing. Blood smudges were found in several places, including near the front door.

A watch on Mrs. Bowman's wrist was stopped at shortly after 10 o'clock. Neighbors said they had seen no strangers during the morning, nor had they heard any sounds of a struggle in the house. The doors were locked and there was no evidence of forced entry.

There was speculation that Mrs. Bowman may have surprised a prowler bent upon burglary but homicide Sgt. Virgil A. Peterson, in charge of the investigation, commented: "We have no leads, no suspects and can find no motive for the crime."

TROOPS FLYING TO GERMANY

Air Brigade Test Planned

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Affairs Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—The posting of two more U. S. Army battle groups in Germany will provide the makings of an air-transportable brigade that could deal with trouble in the Middle East, Africa or elsewhere.

The Army high command has wanted for some time to create independent brigades in West Germany and on Okinawa for such a purpose. The Okinawa-based brigade would be intended for use in the Far East and Southeast Asia.

The Pentagon announced Tuesday that three battle groups of the 4th Infantry Division, totaling about 6,000 men, will be airlifted to Germany for a NATO exercise from Jan. 16 to Feb. 12.

Two battle groups will remain there after the end of operation "Long Thrust II" for additional training as elements of the Army Strategic Reserve in Europe. The third will return to Ft. Lewis, Wash.

Later, reportedly after several months, the two battle groups will be rotated back to the United States and replaced by other units of the 4th Division. In all, the 4th Infantry has five battle groups.

The Defense Department said these elements would be available for use in an emergency.

Funds for two independent trouble-shooting brigades are said to be included in the new defense budget soon to go to Congress.

Army leaders have been thinking in terms of paratroop units for such an assignment.

Sources indicate the battle groups to be sent to Germany later this month might be used as an interim "fire brigade."

They noted that although these are conventional infantry, they can be lifted quickly over thousands of miles.

About 100 transports will fly the 4th Division troops from Washington State to Europe. The battle groups will be accompanied by artillery, armor and other support elements.

Taking part in the movement will be 10 of the 15 advanced C130 jet transports owned by the Military Air Transport Service.

Excommunication For Castro, Aides

VATICAN CITY (AP)—A high Vatican prelate said today that Fidel Castro and certain officials of his regime have fallen under automatic excommunication.

Archbishop Dino Staffa, a leading expert on canon law in the Vatican secretariat of state, said excommunication had been incurred by Castro and all Cuban officials responsible for "impeding and imprisoning" Roman Catholic bishops in Cuba.

The statement by Archbishop Staffa was not a formal announcement but was given in reply to a newsmen's question.

Archbishop Staffa, who is secretary of the Vatican's Sacred Congregation of Seminaries and Universities, said the excommunication had been incurred without formal announcement by the Vatican.

He said announcement of excommunication in these cases is normally made by the Pope himself. Vatican sources speculated that Pope John XXIII had made no announcement in an effort to

Will Permit Earlier Release Of Guard Units

32nd Warned Not To Expect Return For Several Months

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President Kennedy ordered today the immediate formation of two new Army divisions, expanding the service to 16 permanent divisions.

The Palm Beach White House said the activation of the two divisions would permit the release "later this year," with no time specified, of the 32nd and 49th National Guard Divisions which were called to duty last Oct. 15 in the armed forces buildup precipitated by the Berlin crisis.

One of the new regular divisions, the 1st Armored, will be activated at Ft. Hood, Tex. The other, the 5th Mechanized Infantry, will be organized at Ft. Carson, Colo.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said Kennedy approved the action at meetings Tuesday and this morning with Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson and the nation's top defense officials.

He said it was the first item of business on this morning's agenda, after the joint chiefs of staff flew into Palm Beach from Washington for the preparedness talks.

Qualified sources said the two National Guard divisions summoned to duty should not anticipate returning home for at least several months. The 32nd of Wisconsin, is training at Ft. Lewis, Wash., and the 49th of Texas, at Camp Polk, La.

The Guard divisions, the announcement said, "will be released later this year as the international situation and the readiness status of the two new divisions permit." In the meantime, it added, the 32nd and 49th will continue on duty as a key element.

Concerning the Guard divisions, the temporary White House declared:

"The quick and effective mobilization of this force has demonstrated in unmistakable terms our determination to resist Communist aggression."

Many Reservists called to uniform in the 1961 buildup were assigned to the National Guard divisions to fill out their units.

Both the 1st Armored and 5th Infantry will be activated under the new Army divisional structure announced by Kennedy last May. In a message to Congress, today's announcement recalled, the President "stressed that greater firepower, mobility and flexibility would be achieved."

The 1st Armored will be the first of its type organized under the new concept, known in the Pentagon by the initials ROAD.

It will contain six mechanized battalions and four tank battalions, comprising 15,500 officers and enlisted men.

The 5th Infantry, as a mechanized division, will consist of two infantry battalions, six mechanized battalions and two tank battalions. Its projected strength is 16,119.

Kennedy charted a session with the joint chiefs, Vice President Johnson, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, Deputy Secretary of Defense Gilpatric and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, the chief executive's personal military adviser.

The latter four flew here Tuesday afternoon and conferred with Kennedy in the living room of his vacation estate and over the dinner table.

With the new divisions, the regular Army will be composed of nine infantry divisions, five armored and two airborne.

The new 5th Infantry will have a manpower increase of 2,371 over the size of present infantry divisions.

FISHY SITUATION . . . Sea lion, right, which has been appearing at dock of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Noone in Ocean City, N. J., turns up at the dock to accept a handout of fish from the Noones. Mrs. Noone is at left, with fish-holding hubby next to her. Al Sheridan, of Island Park, N. Y., who thought the sea lion might be his missing pet, arrived at the dock for a look. "It looked like my sea lion," said Sheridan. The sea lion fled back into Great Egg Harbor Inlet. (AP Photofax)

Calls for Fish Handout

Friendly Sea Lion Off New Jersey

OCEAN CITY, N. J. (AP)—Candy, the capricious sea lion, has appeared — and disappeared — again.

The animal who has been playing hide-and-seek with humans since Christmas flapped its flippers at the dock of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Noone Tuesday.

The Noones knew what the sea lion expected. It had first appeared at their dock last Thursday and eagerly accepted a fish handout. They followed the same procedure Tuesday. They rushed out and bought $7.50 worth of fish for their voracious visitor. Then they made a quick telephone call to Al Sheridan of Island Park, N. Y.

Sheridan, a fisherman and boat builder, had read about the friendly sea lion and he said it was probably his pet, Candy. Sheridan said that Candy, whose appetite for fish is boundless, disappeared into the Atlantic Ocean two months ago when a school of his favorite food swam by.

He said his pet apparently has been wandering tramp-style up and down the Jersey coast accepting free lunches.

Sheridan climbed into his station wagon and headed for Ocean City as soon as he received the Noone's call. Back at the dock, the animal gulped through the fish dinner supplied by the Noones.

When Sheridan arrived, he took a handful of fish and went to the dock to try and persuade the happy-go-lucky sea lion to return to domesticity.

But Candy, if it was Candy, also is contrary. It took one look at Sheridan and plunged back into the salt water.

"It looked like my sea lion," Sheridan said.

The Coast Guard offered aid to the disconsolate Sheridan. It supplied a boat which carried Sheridan and the Noones up and down the lagoon, beaming a searchlight under the docks. No sea lion was found.

Townpeople say the sea lion probably was the "Christmas seal" that arrived in North Wildwood, 15 miles south of here, the day before Christmas and accepted a fish handout before padding away.

DEAR ABBY:

Can't Hear Wife Raise Her Voice

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: We would like your opinion on a subject that has caused a lot of discussion around our office. One of the men who works here claims that in the 20 years he has been married he has never had a fight with his wife. He says she has never argued with him, questioned him or disagreed with him. Furthermore, he claims he has never heard her raise her voice. IS this possible?

CANT-BELIEVE IT

DEAR ABBY: It's possible, but most unlikely. Perhaps there is something wrong with his hearing.

DEAR ABBY: My daughter is a very mature eleven-year-old. About a week ago she started wearing an identification bracelet a boy at school gave her. In her crowd it means she is "going steady."

This afternoon I got a phone call from the boy's mother. (I have never met her.) She said she was terribly upset to learn that her son had given my daughter his I.D. bracelet and she wanted my daughter to return it. She said the bracelet was a "good" one, and a birthday gift, and she didn't want anything to happen to it. I told her that my daughter did not STEAL it, it was given to her and, furthermore, I did not run my daughter's life and I hung up on her. Did I do right?

SORRY NOW

DEAR ABBY: You should be. No eleven-year-old is old enough to "run her own life." Tell your daughter to return the bracelet, and the sooner the better.

DEAR ABBY: My grandfather, who has been ill for quite some time, is expected to die at any moment. Is it necessary to have my grandmother's relatives to the funeral? If they do attend it is necessary to have them sit in the pews reserved for relatives?

They are such rough and ignorant people it would embarrass us to have them sitting with the relatives of my grandfather. In other words, the whole family is ashamed of them. However, we will do what is right.

JUST WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: A funeral is not a "party" that one attends by invitation only. Your grandmother's relatives have a right to attend, and to sit in the pews reserved for relatives.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "LOVED AND LOST": Your letter reminds me of an old Chinese story: "One tear met another tear floating down the river. The first tear said, 'I am the tear of a woman who lost her lover.' The other tear said, 'I am the tear of the woman who got him.'"

Buffalo to Collect $1,595,636 in Taxes

ALMA, Wis.—A total tax bill of $1,595,636 on all real and personal property in Buffalo County is now in the hands of local treasurers for collection, according to County Clerk Gale Hoch.

The total tax bill is $124,063 higher than last year.

State taxes in Buffalo County are up $337 over 1961; county taxes are $18,200 higher; aggregate school taxes are $75,394 more, and the aggregate of municipal taxes is $27,941 higher than last year.

SCHOOL TAXES comprise the largest amount, $742,942, which is the sum of all taxes levied by all school districts covering Buffalo County property. This does not include money levied by the county board for county aid to schools, as provided for in the statutes, nor does it of course include state aids and transportation aids from both state and county.

The county tax bill spread over each of the 17 townships, one village and four cities of the county, totals $547,676. This, the school and state taxes are apportioned on equalized or full values of the municipalities.

State taxes totaled $9,884.

The total of all monies raised by the towns, villages and cities for their own governmental operation plus the tuition, transportation and other fixed charges they must pay is $286,553.

Also listed in the more than $1.6-million tax bill are the following totals, apportioned to the individuals owing them: Special assessments, $6,525; delinquent utility taxes, $1,378; Woodland Law tax, $208; Forest Crop tax, $113; occupational grain tax, $284, and beekeepers taxes, $68.

TOTALS TO BE paid in the municipalities are: Towns of Alma, $49,437; Belvidere, $58,493; Buffalo, $60,004; Canton, $64,342; Cross, $54,476; Dover, $81,071; Gilmanston, $83,810; Glencoe, $78,956; Lincoln, $62,827; Maxville, $45,932; Milton, $33,026; Modena, $65,030; Mondovi, $62,652; Montana, $64,143; Naples, $63,393; Nelson, $87,534; and Waumandee, $80,961.

Village of Cochrane, $55,937.

Cities of Alma, $79,313; Buffalo, $32,513; Fountain City, $92,301; and Mondovi, $239,166.

Buffalo County taxes are based on the 1961 equalized valuation of $49,429,960—over $14 million higher than the 1960 valuation.

Food Conference Called by Freeman

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman Tuesday announced a conference on "food and people" here Jan. 10 to discuss ways of making better use of the nation's farm abundance in helping the needy at home and abroad.

Freeman in sending invitations to leaders in agriculture, business, industry, labor, civic and consumer groups, asked that they attend and give their views.

He said the nation must have a comprehensive program to maintain a strong and progressive agriculture.

Court Test Of Support Act Planned

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—A court hearing was set Tuesday on an Iowa request that a Minnesota man be compelled to provide support for his mother, now receiving old age assistance in Iowa.

George M. Scott, county attorney, said he was seeking the court test to determine whether a reciprocal law, enacted to force fugitive parents who have left their families to contribute to their support, may be made to apply to the elderly as well.

Scott explained that the Minnesota version of the law, enacted in 1953, is known as the "fugitive pappy" statute and was principally aimed at gaining support for abandoned children. He said he had an informal ruling from Minnesota Atty. Gen. Walter F. Mondale that support of parents does not come under the present state law.

The hearing Jan. 29 will be on a demand of the Iowa Board of Social Welfare that Stanley Maschino, Minneapolis, be made to contribute to the support of his mother, Mrs. Carrie Elizabeth Maschino. She is now getting old age assistance as a resident of Rockwell City, Iowa, in Calhoun County.

Scott said it was the third such request his office has received from Iowa authorities since Dec. 1. He said he understood the requests followed an opinion of the Iowa attorney general that the support act could be made to apply to parents as well as children.

The test here will be conducted by Judge Theodore Knudson.

Northern States Joins Suit Against Electrical Firms

CHICAGO (AP)—Ten Midwest utilities filed 78 separate damage suits Tuesday against major manufacturers on a variety of products they accused of price-fixing.

Filed in U.S. District Court, the suits seek treble damages of undetermined amounts for alleged overcharges on a variety of products purchased by the suing firms.

Named defendants in virtually all of the complaints were General Electric Co. and Westinghouse Corporation. Some 26 other firms that manufacture electrical products also were named defendants.

Most of the suits ask for an accounting of damages and award of treble the amount so determined. Some of the actions also seek injunctions to halt the alleged price-fixing practice among the defendant firms.

Ten of the suits were brought by Wisconsin Electric Power Co., Milwaukee, and named General Electric, Westinghouse and 21 other firms as defendants. A subsidiary of Wisconsin Electric, Wisconsin-Michigan Power Co., joined in eight of the suits.

A batch of 56 suits filed on behalf of 8 utilities named 28 manufacturers defendants, including Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Co., Milwaukee.

The plaintiffs in the 56 suits are Interstate Power Co., Dubuque, Iowa; Iowa Southern Utilities Co., Centerville, Iowa; Lake Superior District Power Co., Ashland, Wis.; Madison Gas and Electric Co., Madison, Wis.; Northern States Power Co. (Minnesota), Minneapolis; Northern States Power Co. (Wisconsin), Eau Claire, Wis.; Northwestern Public Service Co., Huron, S.D.; and Wisconsin Power and Light Co., Madison.

The third group of 12 suits was filed by Wisconsin Public Service Co., Milwaukee, and named 27 defendants.

All the suits allege the plaintiffs were charged artificially high prices for products as a result of a conspiracy among the defendant firms to fix and maintain prices in restraint of trade in violation of the Sherman Antitrust Act.

Council Kills Motion to Drop Broadcasts

The City Council voted 3-4 Tuesday night against discontinuing broadcasts of its committee of the whole session by Radio Station KWNW.

Third Ward Ald. Clarence Tribell, who made the motion, said that he thought broadcasting of the formal session might be all right, but he opposed broadcasting of the committee of the whole session in the committee room.

(IN THE COMMITTEE session, discussions occur, at the end of which the Council reconvenes in the courtroom and takes formal actions again.)

In general there is little or no discussion during the beginning and ending formal discussions.

Broadcasting of the first formal session and the committee meeting, but not of the final formal session, was begun last May with Council approval, but not unanimously.

SAID TRIBELL in making his motion to discontinue broadcasting of committee sessions: "I'm not a performer as some of you are. I'm not going to rehearse anything I'm going to say up here."

He said that newspaper coverage of the meetings is sufficient. It's the only city body whose meetings are broadcast, he said, and wondered whether any governmental body in Minnesota permitted it.

His motion was seconded by Ald. Henry Parks, 2nd Ward.

Voting against it — for broadcasting — were Mrs. Mary Masyska, alderman-at-large; Mrs. Muriel Ollom, 1st Ward (she thought the decision was one for KWNW to make); Daniel Bamhnek, 4th Ward; and Lloyd Deilke, 2nd Ward.

Harold Briesath, 1st Ward and Council president, joined Ald. Tribell and Parks.

Howard Baumann, 3rd Ward, thought an ad should be printed asking people to vote on the question. James Stoltman, 4th Ward, said he would go along with the majority. Neither voted on the issue.

MAYOR R. K. ELLINGS, who doesn't have a vote, said he favored the broadcasts. He said that they keep the meetings from being secret.

(Reminded later by a reporter that all Council meetings have been attended by a reporter, the mayor said that he didn't mean that the meetings would be secret without radio, he meant that aldermen have to be more careful what they say when there's a broadcast. There's no chance of going "off the record," he said.)

(In actual practice Council committee meetings, which are not broadcast, have increased since the advent of microphones.)

It was pointed out to Ald. Tribell that even if broadcasting were discontinued the two local radio stations could send reporters (only one does). President Briesath added that the public may also attend the committee of the whole meetings.

Lamoille Driver Begins Jail Term

A Lamoille man who pleaded guilty to charges of drunken driving and no driver's license started serving a total of 90 days in county jail today.

Chauncey T. Fitch, 33, appeared before Goodview Justice Lewis Albert this morning. Fitch was sentenced to a fine of $100 plus $5 costs or 60 days in county jail for drunken driving and a fine of $25 plus $5 costs or 30 days for driving with no license. In addition, the license plates of Fitch's car were ordered impounded.

Deputies John Schneider and Elroy Balk arrested Fitch Tuesday at 11 p.m. one mile east of Ridgeway on County State Road 12.

Class at Hayfield

'We're City of Stop Signs,' Lament of Council Members

Is it enough for the chief of police to say that he would like to see stop signs at an intersection or should he explain why?

The City Council is split on the question, but most of them feel that he should explain.

Two weeks ago they heard a proposal to stop Johnson Street traffic entering Wabasha Street in the Winona State College area.

Aldermen thought it was a good idea but asked 4th Ward Ald. James Stoltman, chairman of the parking and safety committee, to get the opinion of Chief of Police George Savord.

He approves, Ald. Stoltman reported Tuesday evening.

Second Ward Ald. Henry Parks wanted to know how many ac-

County Board Elects Paul Baer Chairman

Winona County Attorney S. A. Sawyer recommended two changes this morning in a proposed county radio equipment maintenance contract with Motorola Communications & Electronics, Inc.

The contract would provide maintenance of county radio equipment at half the present cost.

Sawyer studied the contract at the request of the county commissioners who had objected to a clause making the county liable for taxes imposed on Motorola in connection with the local service. Sawyer proposed dropping this clause and another clause concerning notification of Motorola if maintenance were interrupted.

Sawyer said it would be better if the county could be obligated to make such notification only once — to the proposed subcontractor, Communications Service.

The contract was submitted to the county board Tuesday afternoon at the start of the board's annual meeting by Robert J. Mueller, Rochester, Southern Minnesota sales manager for Motorola Communications & Electronics, Inc. The contract was also discussed by Fred G. Picha who will establish Communications Service, his own firm, at his home, 310 W. Sanborn St. Picha would provide the service as a subcontractor for Motorola.

Picha is communications officer for the Winona police department. Under agreement with the city and county, Picha maintains county radio equipment for a flat $235 monthly fee plus parts. He intends to resign from the force about March 1 to establish the firm.

Under the proposed contract, Picha would maintain the county's radio equipment for $117.40 a month plus parts. Of this cost, $81.10 would be for the County Highway Department's seven mobile units, one base station and one remote control unit, and $36.20 would be for Sheriff George L. Post's four mobile units, one remote control unit and one receiver-monitor.

PICHA SAID after his meeting with the county board that the city Board of Fire and Police Commissioners had tentatively agreed to a Motorola contract with service provided by Picha. His new firm will do installation and maintenance of communications systems, radar and industrial electronics.

The county board was sworn in by Rollie D. Tust, county registrar of deeds.

Elected chairman was Paul Baer, Fremont, 4th District. He succeeds Adolph Spitzer, St. Charles, 3rd District. Re-elected vice chairman was Leonard J. Merchle, Winona, 1st District.

Commissioners approved 1962 operation of the Veterans Referral Center under the same arrangement with the city. The city and county each pay $4,000 for a total of $8,000. The county pays the cost above $8,000 but not to exceed $12,000.

Some commissioners inquired about the cost of this arrangement to the county. But County Auditor Richard Schoonover said the county-city arrangement, carried out under a special law, costs the county less than service centers in other counties operated solely by those counties.

THE BOARD appropriated $2,500 for the auditor's incidental fund and $2,000 for the county attorney's contingent fund. Appropriation for payment was the county's $1,428.98 share of Utica Township's 1961 poll bill.

An annual $150 appropriation was made for the $3 barberry bounty. No one has claimed the bounty in three years. The bounty is for location of rust-producing bushes.

Approved was an annual personal property inventory totaling $252,250.82 for these county establishments: Courthouse and jail, $80,773.43; highway department, $166,280.12, and engineering department, $5,206.27.

County Engineer Gordon M. Fay received annual authorization to ask the State Department of Highways for engineering and technical services which the county pays for.

UNDER A RESOLUTION passed by the board, contractors engaged in the county's federal aid secondary projects must continue to pay these minimum hourly rates to their highway workers: Skilled, $2.60; semi-skilled, $2.10, and unskilled, $1.75.

In a letter to Spitzer, Gov. Elmer Andersen urged commissioners to attend a meeting at 10 a.m. Monday in the Rochester State Hospital auditorium concerning the fallout shelter survey being conducted there had been at the intersection. Ald. Stoltman said he didn't know.

Ald. Parks said, "We're getting signed to death." It suggested that the problem at that particular intersection could be solved if parkers were required to park back from the sidewalk crossing.

Council President Harold Briesath said that he would favor signs if there had been an "excessive number of accidents" at the intersection. "We're a city of stop signs," he lamented.

"Why not make an arterial out of Wabasha," 3rd Ward Ald. Clarence Tribell asked.

(Recently stop signs were returned to Winona State College approaches to Wabasha, also with approval of the chief.)

Ald. Stoltman was irritated. He said that two weeks ago the Council had said it would go for the signs if the chief did. Now when he does, you won't, he told his fellow aldermen.

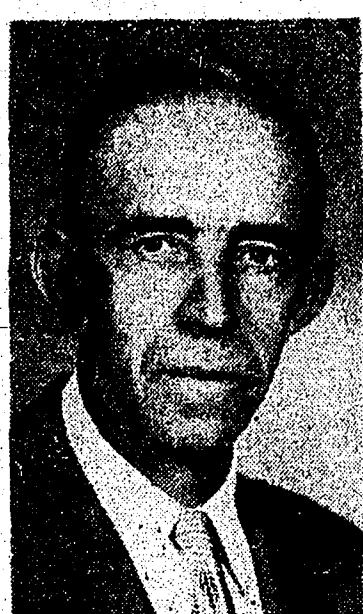

"We don't always have to take one man's recommendation," said Ald. Tribell.

"The chief said there were numerous accidents" at the Johnson and Wabasha street intersection, said Ald. Stoltman.

Second Ward Ald. Lloyd Deilke, supporting him, said the high accident rate was "inherent" in the chief's position.

The result of the discussion: Ald. Stoltman is to get an accident frequency report from the chief.

What will it show: Two accidents in all of 1961.

Paul Baer

ducted by the Army Corps of Engineers. The survey seeks to find and mark shelter areas in existing buildings and to determine where protection can be increased at reasonable cost.

The county board is seeking a successor to Harold W. Phil, St. Charles, who has resigned as county civil defense director because of failing health.

Keep Walks Clean

All But 11 of 7,000 Sidewalks Shoveled

Police checked sidewalks in front of 7,000 homes after the last snow and found only 11 which weren't shoveled as required by law.

They made the check by driving by, 4th Ward Ald. James Stoltman told the City Council Tuesday evening.

The 11 property owners were notified of their delinquency by letter and now all have shoveled their sidewalks, the alderman proudly reported on behalf of the police department.

They should have checked businesses, too, 3rd Ward Ald. Howard Baumann indicated. He said that the sidewalk on the west side of Liberty, at 2nd Street, wasn't shoveled once last winter and hasn't been shoveled this winter yet either.

Ettrick Man to Be Candidate for Badger Assembly

ETTRICK, Wis. (Special)—Oscar T. Strand, Ettrick, has announced that he will be a candidate this fall for election to the Wisconsin Assembly from Trempealeau and Jackson counties.

Operator of a garage and service station at Frenchville three miles south of Ettrick, Strand also for the past 15 years has been a salesman and a service man for a milk machine company. For several years he has served as treasurer for Trempealeau County Democratic Party. He is first vice president of the Ettrick Lions Club; vice chairman of Gale-Ettrick High School parent-Teacher Association; a deacon in Ettrick Lutheran Church, and first vice president of the Northern Wisconsin District Lutheran Brotherhood.

Married and the father of two sons, Strand was born and reared on a farm in the Tamarack Valley. He leans himself a liberal Democrat and said if elected he will work for a revision of tax distribution.

Chatfield Man Pays Fine for Bad Check

A Chatfield man charged with issuing a $5 check with insufficient funds Nov. 9 pleaded guilty before Goodview Justice Lewis Albert Tuesday.

Doyle Wait, 43, paid a fine of $25 plus $5 costs and $5 to make the check good.

A warrant for his arrest was issued from Justice Albert's court after Louis Lagamier, Lanesboro, signed a complaint saying Wait had issued him a bad check drawn on the First State Bank of Rollingstone. Wait was arrested Tuesday at 11 a.m. by Deputy John Jensen.

Smoke and Soot Survey Ordered By City Council

A citywide smoke and soot survey has been ordered by the City Council.

It was voted Tuesday night on recommendation of 2nd Ward Ald. Lloyd Deilke and will be done by Building Inspector George Rogge, who doubles as smoke inspector.

Ald. Deilke said this would be a good time to make the survey, during the peak of the heating season.

His motion provides that the inspector take "appropriate remedial action and report back on findings."

The 2nd Ward alderman had other municipal problems on his mind to begin the new year, among them:

Parking in the Winona State College campus area—The alderman read a letter from President Nels Minne, who reported that the college parking committee is studying the problem with a view of using college-owned land for parking and securing student cooperation. The letter was referred to the parking and safety committee.

Parking meter poles at the post office—Heads have been removed and now the poles should be removed, too. This also was referred to the parking and safety committee.

TRAFFIC SIGNALS for Main and Huff street intersections with Sarnia Street, as suggested by a Daily News editorial—Fourth Ward Ald. James Stoltman said both intersections are good ones, but the most important one is Broadway and Mankato Avenue. Traffic counts will be made at the two Sarnia Street intersections. Mrs. Muriel Ollom, 1st Ward, said that as for the Huff Street intersection it would be more important to widen Huff Street. Ald. Deilke said that this has been deferred with the possibility that the state might re-route Highway 43 over it.

Second Ward Ald. Henry Parks had a traffic comment, too. He said that the new traffic lights at 5th and Main streets are not synchronized with others. Fourth Ward Ald. Daniel Bamhnek, chairman of the engineering committee, is to check with Electrical Inspector George Jensen, but the alderman noted that it takes time to develop the synchronization. Council President Harold Briesath, who has a business at the intersection, said that traffic jamming has been reduced.

(Jensen said this morning that the three signals on 3rd Street are interconnected with wires, so that they can easily be synchronized, and the 4th Street signal is connected with the signal at 3rd and Main streets. However, there is no interconnection between the signals at 4th and 5th and between 5th and Broadway.)

(That means they have to be synchronized mechanically and this is difficult if not impossible, Jensen said.)

(As of now he said that the synchronization going north is good but it's poor for motorists going south.)

(He added that the 3rd Street signals are set for a speed of 15-18 miles an hour.)

FOURTH WARD Ald. James Stoltman reported for the second time that Fire Chief J. L. Steadman doesn't want longer rubbish burning hours. He said that the present 5 p.m. beginning isn't rigidly observed and to make the hours longer will just make them more difficult to enforce.

Third Ward Ald. Howard Baumann, chairman of the finance committee, said that the employees who spent money for the Christmas ad—chiding the aldermen for not giving a raise next May 1—would have spent it more wisely by giving it to the Goodfellow.

A motion was passed to begin legal action against Winona Marine if it hasn't paid money owed the city by Jan. 15. The firm, operator at the municipal marina, hasn't paid its $1,000 annual rent, or the city's split of the slip rentals, for 1961, nor has it paid its $75 a month rental at an airport hangar since storing boats there Oct. 1. The city also is requiring that by Jan. 15 it file a financial statement as required by its lease for the marina.

In other business, subject to ordinance, Pleasant Valley Dairy, 179 E. 4th St., was given one one-hour parking stall on its north side and two on its east side. The owner said that all-day parkers are preventing his customers from parking near the store.

Mrs. Mary Masyska, alderman-at-large, wondered when lights go off in the morning. She said that in her neighborhood lights are going off about 6:45, when it's still dark. Mrs. Muriel Ollom, 1st Ward, chairman of the lighting committee, said that many of them are turned off automatically, others manually.

(W. W. Tolleson, sales manager of Northern States Power Co., said this morning that there are numerous photoelectric cells in the city, each controlling a varying number of lights, and that special conditions in the area of the cell might cause premature or late switching. On the other hand, in a manually controlled area there may be a human error or an error in compiling the "on" hours. These "on" hours are based on official dusk to daylight schedules.)

Dynamite Found Under Culvert

Half a case of dynamite was found cached under a culvert a mile north of Minnesota City Tuesday afternoon by two youngsters.

Sheriff George Fort said Deputy Helmer Weismann located the dynamite and a 25-foot fuse under a culvert on the Burley Road near Minnesota City.

There were no exploding caps near the dynamite but a "good solid blow" might explode the dynamite, Sheriff Fort said.

An investigation is under way to determine who left the dynamite there. Sheriff Fort said no construction work was being done in the area.

Dale Pearson, Minnesota City, called the sheriff's office at 3 p.m. The youngsters are Wayne Pearson, 13, and Robert Pearson, 10, 216 St. Charles St.

State Dept. Denies Plan for Guatemala

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department has denied that the United States made a deal to help Guatemala gain British Honduras in return for Guatemala's help in Cuba's abortive invasion of Cuba.

The denial was made by press officer Lincoln White Tuesday after reports that Guatemala's President Miguel Ydigoras, in a New Year's eve radio-television speech, had said that in return for Guatemala's help in providing training sites for Cuban invasion forces the United States agreed to use its good offices in settling the Guatemalan-British dispute over British Honduras.

Delores Schiller Named Chief of Hospital Nurses

Miss Delores Schiller, a former supervisor at Winona General Hospital, this week returned to the hospital as director of nursing succeeding Mrs. George Jackson who retired last Oct. 31.

Miss Schiller, whose mother, Mrs. Margaret Schiller, lives at 1927 Gilmore Ave., most recently has been a supervisor at Minneapolis General Hospital.

She was a general duty nurse here from November 1947 to September 1948, for 4½ years was supervisor on the 11 p.m. to a.m. shift and then served as house supervisor on the 3 to 11 shift before she left Winona General to return to school. She obtained her bachelor of science degree in nursing education at the University of Minnesota in 1955. She received her master's degree in nursing administration at the university last year.

Miss Schiller had been a member of the staff of Meeker County Memorial Hospital, Litchfield, before returning to Winona in 1956 as general duty nurse and clinical supervisor of the School of Practical Nursing.

The following year she went to Denver, Colo., and in 1958 became assistant instructor and clinical supervisor at Minneapolis General.

BROADFOOT SWORN IN . . . A Winona area man, Grover L. Broadfoot, left, Mondovi, was sworn in Tuesday at Madison as new chief justice of the Wisconsin Supreme Court. He succeeds Chief Justice John Martin who has retired.

Myron Gordon, right, Milwaukee, was sworn in by Justice Timothy Brown, center, as associate justice. Justice Broadfoot was honored during the ceremonies by a group from the Tri-County Bar Association, which includes Trempealeau, Buffalo and Jackson counties. LaVerne Kostner of Arcadia and John McGalloway of Fond du Lac, former state bar president, delivered the main addresses.

Broadfoot told about 300 persons at the ceremonies that he achieved the post of chief justice by having "sufficient health to outlive better men." He said there was no real need for the ceremony, but he appreciated it because "every one likes honey better than vinegar."

At the winter meeting of the Tri-County bar group at Wally's at Fountain City Saturday, Justice Broadfoot will be presented with a javel.

'Toy' Gun Damage Near $1,000

Estimating damage done by air rifles (BB guns) at nearly $1,000 in 1961, police today urged parents to try to control the use of such "toys" by their children.

Windows are the chief victims of such vandalism.

Capt. Donald Berg of the juvenile division warned that violators of state laws and city ordinances governing the use of BB guns are guilty of a misdemeanor.

Police plan to enforce the law more rigidly in the future. Emphasis will be chiefly on illegal use of the weapons. Confiscation and fines are the usual penalty.

Because of the destruction to property and the danger to other people, police urge parents not to allow their children to use BB guns except under their direct supervision or to use them in an unsafe place or manner.

State law provides that no minor under the age of 14 shall have in his possession or under his control any firearm or airgun except when in the immediate charge of his parent or guardian.

In addition, no person may sell, give, loan or furnish a firearm or airgun or any ammunition to a minor under 18 without the written consent of his parents or guardian, a police officer or magistrate.

NEW PEPIN COUNTY OFFICERS

County Clerk Martin Pittman, left, is shown swearing in Joseph H. Riedner as Pepin County district attorney, Ryan Laue as county judge, and Thelma Pfeiffer as court reporter. Riedner, former judge, and Laue were appointed to their new offices by Gov. Gaylord Nelson, both succeeding the late Earl McMahon, who was district attorney and county judge-elect when he died in November. Mrs. Pfeiffer has been associated with Judge Riedner 21 years and has been registered in probate, clerk of the County and Juvenile courts plus court reporter the past 16 years. The ceremonies took place in the courthouse at Durand Tuesday. (Louise Miller photo)

After 33 Years Failing Quits As Dairy Inspector

For the first time since 1928 the city of Winona will have a new dairy inspector this year.

Dr. George S. Failing, who has occupied the post 33 years, submitted his resignation to the City Council Tuesday evening. It is effective March 1.

In resigning, he expressed his appreciation for the opportunity to serve, and the Council, in accepting the resignation, did it with "regret" and thanks for his service.

President Harold Briesath said that an effort should be made to secure a replacement by Feb. 1 so that Dr. Failing's successor will have a month to familiarize himself.

There seemed to be agreement that the man should be a veterinarian, as Dr. Failing is—Mayor R. K. Ellings said so, for example.

The dairy inspector is a part-time job, but it pays $362.50 a month.

Despite the fact that the field appears to be limited to local veterinarians, the Council nevertheless decided to run an ad asking for applications.

Stolen Rochester Car Sought Here

Rochester police have asked Sheriff George Fort and other law enforcement officials to be on the lookout for a car stolen sometime Monday night from the Mayo City.

The car is a 1962 Chevrolet Impala, aqua in color, its Minnesota license plate is number 7M-204. A portable radio and topcoat also were in the car, which was taken sometime between 9 p.m. Monday and 7:30 a.m. Tuesday.

It Happened Last Night Bacchus Shor Is Back Again

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Bacchus, whom all of you brighter students will remember as having been the god of wine before Toots Shor took over, was reliably reported to be drinking himself into a stupor-out of jealousy over the opening of Toots' new $2.5 million temple dedicated not only to the grape but to corn, barley, rye, potatoes, and even sour mash.

Iowans Fight To Keep 103rd Reserve Division

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — Iowans are preparing to battle a cut in the nation's reserve forces which they fear will wipe out the 8,000-man 103rd Infantry Division, the Army Reserve unit for Iowa, Minnesota and a part of Wisconsin.

Military sources here have learned that the Defense Department is nearing a politically touchy decision to examine all of the 10 Army Reserve combat divisions, which would include the 103rd.

The department, the sources say, would leave all of the 27 National Guard combat divisions intact, including the Iowa-Nebraska 34th Infantry Division.

The Army originally had planned to disband a number of National Guard divisions as well as Army Reserve units. But this plan immediately ran into strong opposition from National Guard officials.

U.S. Indian Population On Increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Indians of the United States can no longer be considered vanishing Americans, the Bureau of Indian Affairs reported today.

During the past ten years, the Indian population has been growing faster than the U. S. population as a whole, the bureau said. However, it still is far less than it was when the white man arrived.

Historians estimate about 850,000 Indians were in the area now occupied by the United States when Columbus stumbled on the western hemisphere in 1492 on his way to India.

The blessings of civilization almost proved the undoing of the red men, as smallpox, tuberculosis, whiskey and wars of extermination steadily reduced their numbers to less than 250,000 by the end of the 19th century.

From that low point the Indians have been making a steady comeback with the 1960 showing 509,147, of whom 285,000 live on reservations. This does not include 14,000 Indians living in Alaska, since the Alaskan Indians weren't counted in the pre-Columbus estimate either.

Between 1950 and 1960 the annual rate of growth for the Indians was 2.5 percent compared with 1.7 percent for the U. S. population as a whole.

The population surge was achieved with considerable outside help, however, with the result that only a small minority of today's Indians have the unadorned blood of their ancestors flowing in their veins.

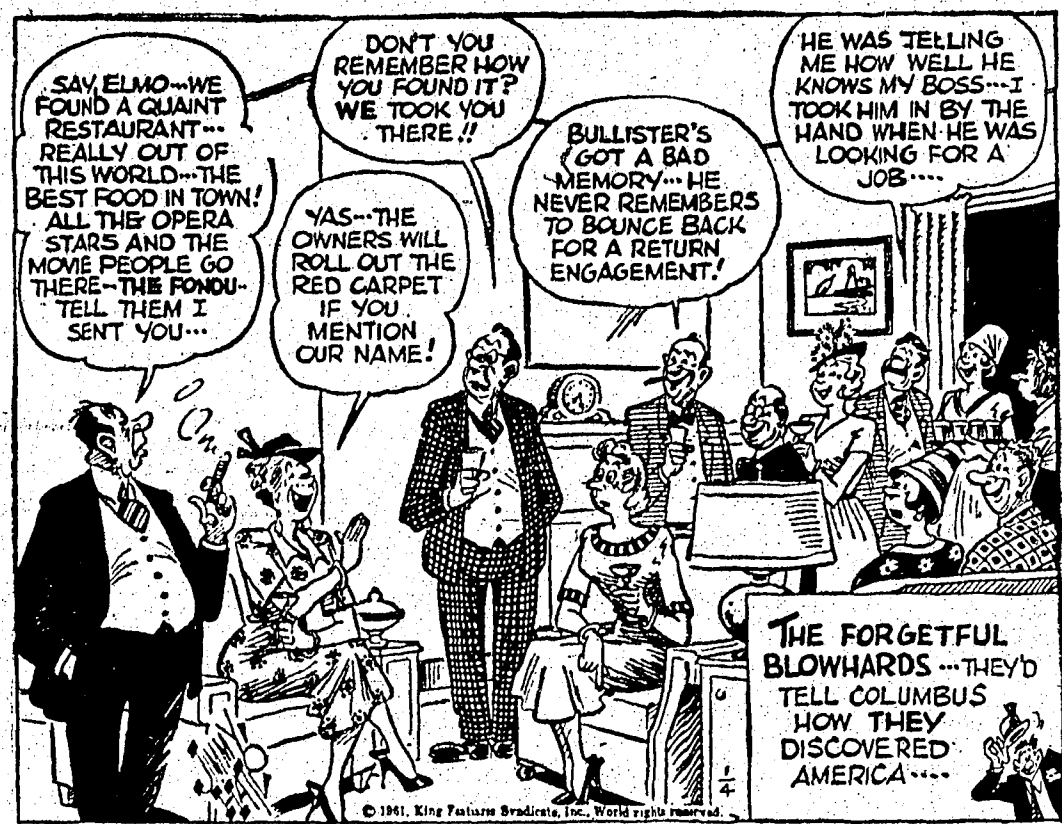

Noted Painter Found Dead in Backyard

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y. (AP) — Surrealist painter Kurt Seligmann, 61, was found dead of gunshot wounds in the snow in the backyard of his retreat home here Tuesday.

Police said that at his side was a rifle that his wife said he used to shoot animals stealing bird feed.

The Swiss-born painter had served on the faculty of Brooklyn College. He maintained homes in New York City and Middletown.

VOICE OF THE OUTDOORS

Maybe a Winner
Top dolphin in the private boat division of the eighth annual Boynton Beach, Fla., Chamber of Commerce fishing tournament, now under way in Florida waters, is the fish displayed above. It was caught by Paul Watkins, 123 E. Wabasha St., off the Wild Rose captured by Dale Brown, in the checked shirt. The fish weighed in at the tournament dock at 45 pounds.

"The fish was about as long as Paul is tall," William B. Watkins, now of Boynton Beach, but formerly of Winona, writes, in commenting on Paul's catch. Bill himself is a top fisherman. Paul's picture, the one above, was featured in the tournament news bulletin as the fish of the last weekend. Photo by Stan Sheets.

Locally, fishing was centered on panfish, which was slow in most areas. The ice was reported as generally safe. Fishermen were driving on it with cars in many areas, including Straight Slough off Prairie Island, Spring Lake at Buffalo City and on the Trempealeau lakes.

No large northern or walleye were entered in any of the local catches. There were some big sunfish and crappies running nearly two pounds.

Many fishing shacks were moved onto the ice along the river over the weekend. The Minnesota fish house license which sells for $1 was due Jan. 1. The number must be on the outside of the house as well as the name and address of the owner.

Wisconsin requires no fishing house license. However, the law states that the name and address of the house owner must be printed plainly on the outside of the fish house. Minnesotans who have fish houses on the Wisconsin side of the river in the river zone must have a fish house license.

The river regulation reads in part: "The door of any such enclosure shall be equipped with a latch which shall permit the door to be readily opened from the outside at all times while the shelter is occupied. Residents of Minnesota or Wisconsin angling from fish houses shall comply with the law and regulations of their respective states relating to licensing and identification of fish houses."

Frontenac Park
Notice of the annual meeting of the Frontenac State Park Association at Nyholm, Red Wing, at 6:30 p.m. dinner, Jan. 8, reached our desk today. It was signed by William A. Dibble, president.

Donald K. Lewis, Minnesota Museum of Natural History, will talk on the flora and geological features of the park. U. W. Hella, state park director, will talk on the park's progress.

With the development of Highway 61, this park is growing in importance. It is bound to develop into an attractive camping spot, as well as a vacation park. The experience of the Prairie Island Park here, a similar project, shows that such parks are not just

Portugal Hunts 16 Rebels for Part in Revolt

By HAROLD K. MILKS

LISBON (AP) — At least 16 rebels who took part in the abortive revolt against Premier Antonio Salazar's regime remained at large today as the government pressed a hunt for them.

Authorities claimed only about 40 men took part in the attempt to seize the army garrison at Beja early Monday. Officials clamped tight security measures on known avenues of escape along the Spanish frontier in efforts to round up remnants of the gang. All police and military units remained in a "state of precaution."

The government said two insurgents were killed and 22 captured — including the two leaders of the band — in the uprising which collapsed after a three-hour gun battle with troops of the 3rd Infantry Regiment stationed in the Beja barracks.

Thousands of persons lined a 75-mile funeral route Tuesday as a cortege bearing the body of Lt. Col. Jaime Filipe da Fonseca, the army undersecretary, moved from Lisbon to Fonseca's home town of Leiria for burial.

Fonseca rushed to Beja after hearing of the revolt and was shot when he walked into the barracks and demanded that the rebels surrender.

Authorities said the captured conspirators would face prison terms of from 4 to 20 years if convicted, in addition to the loss of political rights and indefinite security surveillance.

One of the captured leaders, Capt. Joao Maria Paulo Varela Gomes, was reported near death after undergoing three operations and removal of a kidney. The government said the other rebel leader, Manuel Serra, was captured heading for the Spanish border.

Both had long opposed the 30-year-old Salazar dictatorship. Serra recently returned from Brazil and a self-imposed exile stemming from a 1959 anti-Salazar plot.

In Sao Paulo, Brazil, Capt. Henrique Galvao, the Portuguese rebel leader, declared that the unsuccessful Beja revolt was "a victory although not a decisive one."

Galvao led the band that captured the Portuguese liner Santa Maria last January.

He said the Beja incident was "the logical sequence of the revolutionary process for freedom."

"Nothing will deter the development of this process," he vowed.

U2 Jet Crashes in Mississippi

PICAYUNE, Miss. (AP) — A U2 jet aircraft—the same type which was downed over the Soviet Union in 1960—crashed in the dense Pearl River swamps near Picayune Tuesday night.

The pilot, Capt. Charles P. Stratton, 32, was reported safe early today by authorities at Keesler Air Force Base, Miss.

Capt. William N. Orr, deputy public information officer at Keesler, said Stratton was perched in a tree "and he's okay."

Stratton's home is in Detroit, Mich., but he, his wife and two children live at Laughlin Air Force Base, Del Rio, Tex.

Rescue parties from the Air Force and the Coast Guard entered the swampy area at daybreak.

Orr said the U2 was attached to the 4080th Strategic Wing at Laughlin AFB. It was on a flight from Del Rio to Birmingham, Ala., and return.

The plane, in flames, crashed about 9:30 p.m. Witnesses reported seeing the fiery crash from as far away as New Orleans—75 miles south-southwest of Picayune.

Windom Flower Store Robbed
WINDOM, Minn. (AP) — A robber threatened a teenage girl with a knife Tuesday and escaped with $40 in cash from the Windom Floral Co.

Susan Bressler, 14-year-old daughter of John Bressler, the owner, said the man was dressed in a grey parka. As he approached her, he pulled the knife and scooped the money from a cash register. He then cut the telephone wires and fled.

Police said it was possible the robber was on foot and might still be in the area. He was described as about 5-8 and weighing near 150 pounds.

NASON ON EDUCATION

Better Handwriting For Better Grades

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed.D.
Professor of Education,
University of Southern California

The pretty girl swimmer executed a "full twisting forward one-half-a-half" into the pool and climbed out to wild applause. She smiled and bowed, the very picture of the Child of Accomplishment.

But was she an Accomplished Child? Not really. Her grades were too low for college and, strange as it seems, a major part of her scholastic difficulty proved to be lack of physical coordination!

Privately and tearfully, the pretty girl who was acclaimed at pool-side complained to me:

"I'm great in the water. But in the classroom I'm an awful stupe. I write like a 10-year-old—and not even as well as some of the 10-year-olds I know."

OUR PRETTY little swimmer is not alone in her problem.

Probably half of the students in junior and senior high schools and universities have neglected their handwriting practice to a point where it is affecting their grades. Are you one of them? Here is a simple test to find out:

—Does your mind go blank when you start to write?

—Do you get a cramp in your hand after writing for several minutes?

—Is it difficult for you to think ahead and write at the same time?

—Do you tire easily of writing and give up?

—Can you tell the story or test answer better than you can write it?

Teaching Machine Discussion Set At Winona State

Teaching machines — designed to let the student do routine work on his own, thus giving the teacher more time for individual attention — will be discussed at Winona State College today at 7 p.m. in Somsen Auditorium.

T. C. Engstrom, director of the state department of instruction, and several staff members of the state department of education will talk about the purpose, psychology and programming of teaching machines.

SEVERAL teaching machines have been obtained on approval by WSC. They will be on display tonight. They will be available for use by students and faculty during most of January in Maxwell Library under adequate supervision.

Dr. Allan Sturges of the WSC division of education, who is making the arrangements, said teachers will never be replaced by machines, whose purpose is to enable teachers to do a better job.

ONE KIND of teaching machine available is the TEMAC, which looks much like an ordinary notebook on the outside. Inside there is a mask-like device which covers the answers to questions the student checks the accuracy of his response.

With immediate answers to check his learning process plus page references to textbooks, the student gains "psychological reinforcement," a basic concept of teaching machines, Dr. Sturges said.

—Do you make frequent spelling errors due to carelessness?
—Do you alternate between lettering and cursive writing?
—Is it easier for you to express your thoughts with a typewriter?
—When you finish a test, do you say? "I knew the answer as soon as I turned in my paper?"
—Do you raise your pen or pencil from the paper in the middle of words?

IF YOUR answer is "yes" to any of these questions, then you need practice in handwriting.

Here is a plan of practice I suggest you follow for good results:

• Sit in a comfortable position with your arm on the table.

• Choose one or two sentences and write them again and again, filling a sheet or two of paper.

• After the second writing, switch the center of your attention from what you are writing to how you are writing. Try for well-formed letters and properly spaced words.

• Hold your pen or pencil so that it is comfortable to you. Be careful not to squeeze the pen or bend the fingers too much.

• Train your hand to write easily and well, by keeping your attention on the formation of each word.

• Continue with the same sentences for at least 15 minutes. You should fill at least two more pages.

• If your writing ceases to improve and becomes jerky, stop practicing for a time. The poorer handwriting indicates your hand has become tired or your attention has wandered.

Follow this practice program each day and your class notes and themes will soon become more legible, your test grades will be higher on written examinations—and, who knows, even letter writing may become a pleasure!

Robert Kennedy Hits Bankrolls Of Crime Kings

By LOUIS G. PANOS
WASHINGTON (AP) — One of Robert F. Kennedy's biggest satisfactions in his first year as attorney general came from "hitting the big-time operators of organized crime in their bankroll," he said today.

The bankroll, he emphasized in an interview, consists of receipts from gambling.

Another source of pleasure in 1961, Kennedy said, was Justice Department activity to protect the rights of Negroes.

He said he was also pleased with the work of his 31,000-member department in enforcing anti-trust laws and in less publicized fields ranging from tax law enforcement to representing the government in Indian claim cases.

The organized crime and civil rights fields were considered important enough to merit separate year-end reports to President Kennedy.

The attorney general cited the enactment of new antiracketeering legislation and the creation of an intelligence unit within the department's criminal division as major developments in the fight against crime.

One new law makes it a felony to transmit bets by interstate wire. Kennedy said this forced the majority of the nation's leading race wire services—basic to the operation of gambling syndicates—to close down. Among the casualties, he said, were two kingpins in the business, Nola News of New Orleans and Athletic Publications of Minneapolis.

Other new legislation bans interstate operations in transporting gambling material—including numbers slips, travel for criminal purposes and carrying weapons interstate after conviction of a felony.

29 Fishermen Drown When 5 Vessels Sink

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — The government reported 29 fishermen drowned Tuesday when five South Korean fishing boats sank off the eastern coast. Another fisherman was reported missing.

Six other boats with about 30 men aboard had failed to make port early today and a search was underway.

The fishermen were aboard a fleet of 244 boats that set out Tuesday morning from Sok Cho on Korea's east coast. South Korean planes and ships helped to guide 233 safely back to harbor. (NO PICKUP)

CHANGE IN MINNESOTA Elections Take On New Look

By ADOLPH JOHNSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

Minnesota elections will take on a new look for 1962. Congressmen — eight instead of nine — will be chosen from new districts set up by the legislature after a long battle.

State senators and representatives also will be elected from new districts under a reapportionment adopted in 1959 by a legislature facing a possible threat of federal court action.

And state constitutional officers — governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, treasurer and secretary of state — will be elected for new four year terms. Terms of these officers were lengthened from two years, bringing them in line with the term of the state auditor under a 1958 amendment.

Both parties will hold endorsing state conventions before filings open on June 13. The state primary election will be held September 11 to choose nominees for the general election Nov. 6.

Official primary results will be announced by the state canvassing board on Sept. 25 and official results of the general election on Nov. 20.

Besides electing eight congressmen and a full slate of state officers, voters will this year elect a state Senate of 67 members and a House of 135 members. Four members were added to the House in the 1959 reapportionment, first in 46 years.

Also to be elected is one member of the Railroad and Warehouse Commission — the term of Paul Rasmussen, present commission chairman expires this year — and two Supreme Court Justices. Associate Justices whose terms are expiring are William P. Murphy and James C. Otis, newest member of the court.

District court judges will be elected in every district except the eighth and county officers will be chosen throughout the state.

On the general election ballot will be three proposals to amend the constitution.

One would consolidate permanent school trust funds and permit their investment in corporate stocks and bonds. A second would ease the present debt limit provision of the constitution, a provision which is preventing action on the 1961 state building program.

The third proposal would make it possible under certain conditions for the legislature to continue in regular session for 120 days in place of the present 90.

Little plastic gold and silver-colored cups will be given for best decorated containers submitted by children who wish to compete. However, decorated containers are not required.

The clue to finding the treasure will then be announced and the finder will receive a $25 U. S. Savings Bond. The treasure will be within the boundaries of Lake Park between Huff and Franklin streets.

OTTAWA, Ont. — The Canadian government is in the business of making atomic machines — and business is good.

Forty salesmen seek markets for the Commercial Products Division of Atomic Energy of Canada, Ltd., owned by the people. Products are sold in 57 countries. Export sales this fiscal year are expected to exceed $4 million.

The main revenue producer is the cobalt-60 beam therapy unit, a machine developed in Canada in 1951 to treat cancer patients. Canada at one time had the world market to itself for these machines. It now competes with 30 producers, mainly in the United States, Britain, Italy, Japan and West Germany.

Since its establishment in 1952, the division has sold 253 therapy units in 39 countries. The United States has been the best customer, taking 92 machines. The main-hand Chinese have bought seven, the Soviet Union two and Czechoslovakia, East Germany and Poland one apiece.

Equipment for subjecting materials to gamma radiation also is sold, along with isotopes used in industry, medicine, agriculture and research.

Highway Department Doesn't Want to Buy Old Duluth Bridge

DULUTH, Minn. (AP) — The Minnesota Highway Department doesn't want to buy the Arrowhead bridge here.

Commissioner James C. Mitchell, in a letter to the New York corporation which is offering to sell the toll span for a company which owns it, suggested the sale offer be made to the city of Duluth.

A $40,000 price has been mentioned.

The West Duluth Businessmen's Club had proposed that the state buy the bridge and make it toll-free.

Wisconsin Death Toll 7 for 1962

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wisconsin's highway toll for the new year has reached seven, three below the figure for this date a year ago, with the death of a Minnesota man.

Francis Nelson, 59, of St. Croix Beach, Minn., died in a Hudson, Wis., hospital Tuesday of injuries suffered Monday when he was struck by a car near Hudson.

Bus Station to New Location

Northland Greyhound Lines bus station will be moved from the Park Hotel to the Keweenaw Lunch, 154 Walnut St., next Wednesday.

When the City Council approved the change Tuesday evening, 2nd Ward Ald. Lloyd Delke said that the Park Hotel will be torn down and a new building constructed.

It is understood that the hotel at 2nd and Johnson streets will be removed so that a building can be constructed for a supermarket. The national office of the chain told the Daily News last Friday that the deal has not been consummated.

Making the request for the change in the bus station location was E. G. Rivers, owner of the Keweenaw. The bus zone will extend for 60 feet from the southeast corner of 3rd and Walnut streets south toward 4th.

Part of this area now is designated as a taxicab zone for Winona Vets Cab. Its zone will be moved farther south. It will be only 20 feet wide.

Third Ward Ald. Howard Baumann proposed that since the buses are in the zone only a small portion of the time that the taxicab and bus zones be combined, but other aldermen considered this impractical.

Redistricting Vote For Mower County

AUSTIN, Minn. (AP) — The Mower County Board decided Tuesday to put the question of revising the county commissioner districts to the voters this fall.

The law requires redistricting, unless voters decided otherwise, whenever one district has more than 30 percent of the population of the county. Austin has more than 50 percent of the county's population.

Wabasha Co. Raises $806 for Retarded

WABASHA, Minn. — A total of $806.80 was contributed to the Wabasha County friendship campaign for retarded children in November, according to Arthur Funk, campaign treasurer.

Mrs. A. J. Schleicher, Millville, was chairman of the drive.

Volunteer workers who still have envelopes outstanding are asked to please turn them over to the chairman or the treasurer as quickly as possible. The final report on the drive income will be made soon. Funds collected will be used for medical research, public and parent education and local programs.

Two Captured After Willmar Gas Station Holdup

WILLMAR, Minn. (AP) — Two suspects in the armed robbery of a Willmar gasoline station were captured shortly before midnight Tuesday at Benson, 35 miles northwest of here.

Barney Nelson, Benson police chief, said that Othey Walter, Akron, Ohio, and John Harvey, Cleveland, both about 30, surrendered without resistance after he had stopped their car on the basis of a broadcast description.

Sheriff Harvey Spaulding said about $400 taken in the Willmar holdup had been found in the suspects' car. They were brought back here and lodged in the Kandiyohi County jail without charge.

Victims of the holdup were George Engelman, 36, and Robert Unwin, 35, partners in the station, about a block from the police station.

The raiders, one carrying a sawed-off shotgun, ordered both men to lie down, and tied them up with electric cords before looting the cash register and wallets of the two victims.

Spaulding said Walter and Harvey admitted the holdup and said they had thrown the shotgun away somewhere along the highway to Benson. The two said they had left Ohio Dec. 29 in the car they bought for $65 and had planned to drive to the West Coast.

The sheriff said the pair had been noticed loitering for some time in the vicinity of the robbed station and that numerous witnesses had been able to provide the license number of their car as well as descriptions of the men.

Sentence Suspended for Man Who Broke Lock

A man charged with assault after allegedly breaking the lock on a door at his sister's home Monday evening pleaded guilty Tuesday in municipal court.

Donald O. Dingleider, 26, 1063 E. Broadway, received a suspended sentence of $25 or eight days in city jail. Municipal Judge S. D. J. Bruskus suspended the sentence on condition Dingleider not be guilty of a similar violation for the next six months.

Dingleider was arrested by his sister, Mrs. Robert Cisevski, 2501 1/2 Mankato Ave., Monday at 6:36 p.m. at her home. She told police Dingleider broke the lock trying to enter her home.

FOUNTAIN CITY, Wis. (Special) — During 1961, Police Officer Robert Sing arrested 26 persons for violations of Fountain City ordinances. A total of $965 in fines was paid before Justice of the Peace Louis H. Giesen. The maximum fine was $100 and the minimum, $10, plus costs, for an average of $37.10.

Six persons were convicted for reckless driving, eight for careless driving, five for illegal passing, four for speeding, two for throwing litter on the highway, and one for driving without a license.

Driver Fined on One Charge; Trial on Other

Bernard P. Nissalke, 19, Fountain City, pleaded guilty to a charge of making an improper turn and innocent to a charge of driving after suspension of his driver's license in municipal court Tuesday.

Municipal Judge S. D. J. Bruskus sentenced Nissalke to a fine of $10 or three days in county jail on the turn violation.

Trial for the other charge was set for next Wednesday at 9 a.m. Bail was placed at $30. Nissalke was committed.

He was arrested Friday at 12:15 a.m. on Highway 43 at Winona by the Highway Patrol.

Suspension of Policewoman Held Illegal

ST. CLOUD, Minn. (AP) — A five-day suspension given Police-woman Sybil Hollen in 1960, was illegal, District Judge Walter Rogosheske held Tuesday.

The jurist said charges against the woman were confused and a hearing in the case by the Civil Service Board had been conducted in violation of its own rules.

Not concerned in the case was another 15-day suspension given Miss Hollen last September for reading a book on duty and taking unauthorized time off.

Cuba Protests U. S. Air Trips

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Cuban government has formally protested that U.S. ships and planes have violated Cuban waters and air-space "tens and hundreds" of times.

The State Department had no comment on the protest delivered Tuesday by the Czechoslovakian ambassador to the United States, Miloslav Ruzek. He has represented the Cuban government here since the United States broke diplomatic relations with Cuba, all up.

Wisconsin Court Reorganization Law in Effect

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — The Wisconsin court reorganization law, aimed at keeping large backlogs of cases from accumulating in any court, went into effect Tuesday.

The law empowers the State Supreme Court chief justice to assign circuit or county judges to temporary service in other courts where calendars are crowded.

Another provision of the law establishes a court administrator and an administrative committee to assist in the new setup. Retired Chief Justice John E. Martin of Madison is the administrator.

The law expands use of county courts, sets uniform jurisdiction and authorizes towns, cities and villages to create municipal justice of the peace courts. Special municipal, superior, small claims, and police justices have been abolished by the law. Regular justice of the peace courts, however, are retained but their jurisdiction has been cut.

What to Expect For 1962

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — What kind of year will 1962 be?

A look in the murky crystal ball discloses it will be one of the more memorable years of modern times, a mixture of national prosperity and international puzzle.

According to our annual fuzzy forecast, the American common man will earn more money than he ever did before in his life — and still be unable to understand where it all went.

He will eat both the cake of plenty and the bread of crisis, as the Russians find new strings of discord and unrest to strum.

Most people will be living more, but maybe wondering whether they are enjoying it less. Yet everybody — everybody except voters reaching 40 — will find something to be cheerful about during 1962.

Here are a few fanciful predictions that may come true during the present year:

On the international front:

Following President's Kennedy's advice on personal physical fitness programs, Premier Khrushchev will take a special correspondence course in muscle-building.

The United States will shoot a man into orbit, and the Russians will immediately orbit a beautiful female spy to keep an eye on him.

The Congolese will organize their own version of the "Peace Corps," and send their first trainees over here to help rescue Americans stranded in traffic jams.

The United Nations will seek to solve its financial woes by having itself listed on the stock exchanges of New York, London, Paris, Rome, Bonn, and Tokyo. Shares will also be sold secretly to the Russian public by stock and bond salesman parachuted into Siberia by the Allies.

On the domestic political front:

John F. Kennedy Jr., will grow some more baby teeth.

His father will ask Congress to put some more adult teeth in the present income tax laws, and everyone on an expense account will go into mourning.

A Harvard professor will decline a federal government appointment, claiming he prefers to teach. After being cleared of any taint of subversion by a joint faculty-congressional committee, Sen. Barry Goldwater will offer him a post on his staff.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's friends will offer a $25,000 reward for any ghost writer who can come up with a Republican vote-getting slogan better than "New Deal," "Fair Deal," or "New Frontier."

All in all, 1962 promises to be an interesting and surprising year. If you don't enjoy it, it'll be your own fault.

Canada Makes Therapy Unit

OTTAWA, Ont. — The Canadian government is in the business of making atomic machines — and business is good.

Forty salesmen seek markets for the Commercial Products Division of Atomic Energy of Canada, Ltd., owned by the people. Products are sold in 57 countries. Export sales this fiscal year are expected to exceed $4 million.

The main revenue producer is the cobalt-60 beam therapy unit, a machine developed in Canada in 1951 to treat cancer patients. Canada at one time had the world market to itself for these machines. It now competes with 30 producers, mainly in the United States, Britain, Italy, Japan and West Germany.

Since its establishment in 1952, the division has sold 253 therapy units in 39 countries. The United States has been the best customer, taking 92 machines. The main-hand Chinese have bought seven, the Soviet Union two and Czechoslovakia, East Germany and Poland one apiece.

Equipment for subjecting materials to gamma radiation also is sold, along with isotopes used in industry, medicine, agriculture and research.

Highway Department Doesn't Want to Buy Old Duluth Bridge

DULUTH, Minn. (AP) — The Minnesota Highway Department doesn't want to buy the Arrowhead bridge here.

Commissioner James C. Mitchell, in a letter to the New York corporation which is offering to sell the toll span for a company which owns it, suggested the sale offer be made to the city of Duluth.

A $40,000 price has been mentioned.

The West Duluth Businessmen's Club had proposed that the state buy the bridge and make it toll-free.

CHRISTCHURCH, New Zealand (AP) — Fire swept a 60-year-old wooden hotel at the tiny resort of Akaroa just after midnight, killing four persons. About a dozen were injured.

Medics Offer Advice On Tax Deductions

WHEN YOU start to figure out your 1961 income tax, the Minnesota State Medical Association has suggested some points you might want to consider when figuring your medical deductions.

Medical expenses are deductible only in the year they are paid, and generally you can deduct only to the extent that these expenses exceed 3 percent of your entire earnings without deductions (adjusted gross income).

For instance, if you have an adjusted gross income of $9000 and your itemized medical expenses for 1961 came to $480:

Adjusted gross income . . . $9,000
1961 medical expenses . . . $480
Less 3% of $9,000 . . . $270

Medical expenses to be deducted . . . $210

SOME YEARS, it's a good thing to consider borrowing money and paying medical bills before the first of the next year. For instance, if you decide to pay half of a $480 medical bill in 1962 ($240) and the other half in 1963 ($240), and you have no other significant medical expenses in 1963, then you would not be entitled to any deduction for medical expenses in either year. That's why sometimes you can save money by bunching your medical bills.

If you are paying premiums on accident and health insurance policies which provide reimbursement for hospitalization and surgical fees, these are deductible.

If your physician advises you to install a portable air conditioner, for example, as a therapeutic measure—it is deductible.

Transportation costs to and from your doctor's office are deductible. Medicine and drugs are considered a medical expense only to the extent that the costs exceed 1 percent of the adjusted gross income. The excess is listed with other medical expense.

IF YOU HAVE a youngster in college, look at the tuition bill. In most cases there is a student health fee ranging from $5 to $50. This is a medical expense which is deductible.

Freeman Plays to The Grandstand

ORVILLE L. FREEMAN, secretary of agriculture, visited an Arlington, Va., supermarket the other day. Surrounded by movie and television cameramen, news photographers, and reporters, who had been thoughtfully invited by agriculture department press agents, Mr. Freeman denied his visit was a "stunt." On the contrary, he said, it was a "serious effort to portray the fact that food costs are very low in relation to costs of other things and to help get a better understanding of the wonderfully efficient job farmers are doing."

As shoppers pushed their carts to the checkout counter, the secretary greeted them with a basket containing a two pound chunk of chuck roast, one and a half dozen eggs, ten pounds of potatoes, two quarts of milk, and a large loaf of bread. "An average hour's pay," he told the shoppers, "will buy that much more of any single one of these items than it would ten years ago."

MR. FREEMAN was right as far as he went, but he should have gone further. The price of food today must be reckoned not only by what it costs at the store. There is an additional hidden cost in the billions of dollars taxpayers are forced to spend on unsound subsidy programs that stimulate overproduction of unwanted foodstuffs and price our farm commodities out of world markets.

This is a waste of tax funds and resources which could be used to produce more of the kinds of foods, such as meats and dairy products, for which there would be a demand if agriculture were allowed to balance itself, free of unsound government programs.

Mr. Freeman, who became a farm expert about the time he became a political lame duck, likes to portray himself in the role of champion of the downtrodden farmer. Perhaps he thinks that in such a role he can ingratiate himself with the vast majority of farmers who thus far have shown reluctance to accept the kind of strict control programs he and his crowd of bureaucrats in the department of agriculture hope to impose.

SUCH PROGRAMS lead only to bigger subsidies and higher food prices. Perhaps Mr. Freeman thinks that through grandstand plays like his supermarket visit he can influence taxpayers and consumers to stand for it.—Chicago Tribune.

For whoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. James 2:10.

How Do You Stand, Sir?

Dependence on U.N. Is Issue

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

LOS ANGELES—Thoughtful students of American foreign policy have questioned the wisdom of our dependence on the United Nations as an instrument for world peace ever since the frustrating stalemate in Korea. In recent weeks, the events in the Congo have given most concerned Americans reason to regret our blind support of U. N. policy.

We now find ourselves financing armed aggression leveled at a people who asked nothing more than to be independent. At this juncture in history, no observer can predict the final outcome of this noble attempt to establish something resembling a democratic government in the Congo. But certainly future historians will question the actions of the United States in supporting a military assault against the one Congolese leader who has (1) consistently expressed friendship and admiration for the U. S. and (2) demonstrated a determined opposition to Communists.

Most of the Afro-Asian nations in the U. N. protest bitterly against colonialism. It is, to my mind, totally inconsistent to support the U. N. action aimed at subjugating the free leaders of Katanga province and compelling them, by force of arms, to accept the sovereignty of the questionable United Congo States.

IT MUST be most difficult for the friends of America throughout the world to understand and accept our participation in this military adventure which has as its objective the establishment of an unwanted authority over the natives of this particular province.

I have been particularly distressed in recent days by the dispatches coming out of Africa which invariably describe the leaders of the Katangese forces as "mercenaries." The appellation of this term is intended obviously to question the motives of any white men who are supporting Tshombe. It seems to me the entire United Nations force is subject to the same description, for certainly they are mercenaries fighting for their pay in an alien land. If we grant these forces the virtue of being sincerely motivated, then should we not also refrain from judging the motives of those who are supporting Katanga's efforts to maintain its independence?

APOLOGISTS MAY argue that this is a United Nations action and therefore not the sole responsibility of the United States government. But we have been told that the United States is paying most of the cost of this U. N. adventure, and the dispatches indicate that United States' equipment is being used by the U. N. Can we avoid responsibility for what the U. N. is doing? How do you stand, sir?

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Big Spy Story Behind Arrest of Air Force Man

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — The details have been suppressed regarding the case of Capt. Joseph Kauffman, the Air Force finance officer recently arrested for alleged espionage. When he goes on trial, however, the case will probably unfold as one of the major spy stories of the year.

The Air Force has evidence that one of Kauffman's close relatives is a Communist. There is also evidence that Kauffman arranged a 30-day leave in Germany and crossed into East Berlin in civilian clothes, in violation of an Air Force order, and with full knowledge that he would be picked up by the East Berlin police. An American military man in uniform has the right to enter East Berlin, but civilians are subject to cross-examination. For a military man to wear civilian clothes was an invitation to be arrested.

Kauffman was, when interrogated by an East German security officer, he gave information regarding Air Force facilities in Greenland. Later that same East German security officer defected to West Germany and told the story of what had happened.

Kauffman was arrested at Castle Air Force Base near Merced, Calif., and flown to Lindsey Air Force Base near Wiesbaden, Germany, to face his accusers. The Air Force will prosecute vigorously.

Gullible Americans will spend one billion dollars on quick cures in 1962. One-third of it will be on phony vitamin pills. . . . Congressmen will stage a drive to increase their own salaries from $25,000 to $35,000 a year. They'll also raise their tax-free expense allotment from $2,250 to $5,000. No one who votes on the increase, however, can benefit from it until the next term. . . . Pan American Airways means what it says about turning its airline over to the government if the airline pilots, now making $30,000 a year, go through with their strike. . . . The medical researchers are about to unveil some new drugs called "energy enzymes," which some people will dub the "fountain of youth." The new drug won't actually restore youth but may slow down the aging process. . . . Marcus Cohn set a milestone regarding radio-price monopoly when the U. S. Court of Appeals recently found the Elyria-Lorain Broadcasting Company and the Lorain Journal guilty of antitrust violation for monopolizing both the press and the airwaves.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY definitely has decided to resume atmospheric nuclear tests early in 1962, despite expected criticism by the neutrals.

The President advised Prime Minister Macmillan of his decision at Bermuda, and Macmillan agreed to support the move. He even offered to turn over Christmas Island in the Pacific to the Americans for the tests. It's probable Kennedy will accept the Christmas Island site and that at least 20 explosions in the atmosphere will be set off this year.

Gov. Nelson Rockefeller has taken elaborate polls to see whether his divorce will hurt his political career. He seems to think that he can run for governor of New York again successfully. . . . Without the influence of his liberal wife, Rockefeller will become more conservative. . . . If George Romney, dynamic head of American Motors, wins the governorship of Michigan, he is certain to become a candidate for the GOP presidential nomination in 1964.

President Kennedy will discourage his brother Ted from running against Cong. John McCormack's nephew Edward for the Senate. Instead Ted Kennedy will run for governor. The Kennedy-McCormack ticket in Massachusetts should be difficult to beat. . . . In Pennsylvania, Mayor Richardson Dilworth of Philadelphia will thumb his nose at the Democratic boss of Philadelphia, Phil Green, and run for governor. Dilworth is one of the best of Philadelphia's mayors. The other A-I mayor, Sen. Joe Clark, now running for reelection, will fill out an appealing Clark-Dilworth ticket for senator and governor. . . . The Democrats will lose Ohio this year when Mike Di Salle bows out. GOP Candidate James Rhodes will probably succeed him. . . . Ike's former secretary of the interior Fred Seaton is likely to become next governor of Nebraska. He'll defeat Democratic Gov. Frank Morrison. . . . In Utah, look for young, popular Cong. David King, Democrat, to defeat Sen. Wallace Bennett, Republican. King's daddy was a senator before him.

INSIDE WORD is that Secretary of State Rusk has decided not to cut off American aid to India, even though he's indignant over the invasion of Goa.

The question of whether to continue American aid was seriously considered last week, and the decision was made to go ahead on the grounds that India's position in the Asian subcontinent is too important. Cutting off aid, it was decided, eventually would hurt the United States worse than the Indians.

However, the scheduled trip of Mrs. Jackie Kennedy to see the Nehru family is something else again. State Department officials are definitely opposed.

New York politicians are intrigued over a trial balloon that Ralph Bunche, the Negro U. N. diplomat, might be picked by the Democrats to run against Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

Planting the trial balloon is Gore Vidal, the Broadway playwright, related by marriage to some of the Kennedy in-laws and a close friend of JFK's. Whether or not he speaks for the White House remains to be seen.

THE PRESIDENT is anxious to put a strong candidate in the race against Rockefeller, and in view of Rockefeller's divorce there is an off-chance of beating him. Whether Bunche could do it, however, is another matter. While he would run up a terrific vote among Negroes and intellectuals, he might have difficulty winning other segments of New York state's ramified electorate.

If nominated, Bunche would be the first Negro candidate for governor of any state since Reconstruction days after the Civil War.

TODAY IN WORLD AFFAIRS

No Praise for 'Smiling Mike'

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — It is disheartening to learn that high officials of our government and some members of Congress and of the Supreme Court gathered at a party at the Soviet Embassy a few nights ago to bid farewell to Mikhail Menshikov, the retiring ambassador of the Soviet Union.

Just why should any American pay homage to a ruthless agent of Stalin? This ambassador's acts of inhumanity are written in the records of the United States House of Representatives and are well known to people in Poland who were victims of his cruelty.

Menshikov was deputy-general of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration — usually referred to as UNRRA — and served in Poland just after World War II ended in 1945. His mission was to arrange for the distribution of UNRRA's relief supplies. He handled his office in such a way that the food and clothing — largely supplied by this country — went only to Communists and their followers. A subcommittee of the House of Representatives visited Poland in 1946 to check up on UNRRA's operations. Here is an excerpt from its report as filed in 1946 with the House of Representatives:

"The temporary head of the UNRRA delegation was Mikhail Menshikov, a Soviet citizen, who wielded great control and influence over the distribution of UNRRA's yet meager supplies. The distribution was limited to recipients who were active supporters of or collaborators with the provisional Polish (Communist) government.

"Upon the committee's return to this country, it lodged a strong protest with the President of the United States and was happy to learn that soon thereafter Mr. Menshikov was recalled and his place taken by Brig. C. M. Drury of Canada.

"Since the committee's return to the United States it has kept in close and direct contact with UNRRA operations in Poland and has noted a great improvement both in the operation and in the distribution of relief supplies."

In those days they didn't think of Menshikov as "Smiling Mike." In fact, one westerner who saw a lot of him on that mission in Poland described him in 1938 this way:

"The man was nothing but a hunk of wood. He wasn't amiable at all. If that doesn't match up with the way he is now, be sure it's just a mechanical surface change."

WHEN MENSHIKOV came to the United States early in 1938, the foregoing report by a congressional committee was referred to by this correspondent and by others in the press, and there was congressional criticism of the appointment. Rep. Timothy Sheehan, Republican, of Illinois, said in a speech to the House:

"The new Russian ambassador to Washington, Mikhail Menshikov, seems to have been greeted as one of the new looks in Russian diplomacy. However, in 1946, a congressional committee pointed out that this same man was running UNRRA operations in Poland and distributed the food, not to starving Poles on the basis of need, but strictly on the basis of being Communist-party members."

Menshikov in distributing this food claimed the credit for the Russians rather than for America, who gave the food. This proved a handy tool to win friends and influence many poles to join the Communist movement. Now this same Russian is being openly received and acclaimed by many people in Washington who do not remember the facts of history.

WHILE IT was widely noted at the time that Menshikov was a tough and effective agent of Stalin, the United States government unfortunately ignored his record in Poland and did not declare him to be "persona non grata," as it had a right to do when the Soviet proposal to send him to Washington was submitted to the Department of State. What is even more surprising is to find Americans prominent in official life—even in the ranks of labor—attending last week a farewell party for Menshikov at the Soviet embassy. One wonders if moral indignation has become obsolete.

It is strange that the behavior of Stalinists has not been subjected in recent months in the United States to the same denunciation which the Communists of today are themselves directing toward the Stalin regime. One wonders how during the last four years any American could have "welcomed" or fraternized with Mikhail Menshikov. He should have been isolated and boycotted from the day he arrived in Washington. He then would long ago have been withdrawn by the Moscow government.

Pacifiers Leave Him Cold

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

"Dear Dr. Molner: Do you approve of pacifiers for infants? Does thumb-sucking or the use of a pacifier hinder development of straight teeth?"—G. R. M."

Yes and no, I can't say that I approve of pacifiers, but I can't get very upset when I see a baby "chewing" on one. When teething, a baby has the urge to bite on something, whether it's a rattle, a toy, a pacifier or a thumb. It suggests the discomfort, if that isn't too strong a word.

This is perfectly normal. There isn't anything for us to worry about, therefore, unless the child manages to get hold of something that will be bad for him. That's up to us, of course. The act of chewing or biting or sucking (or whatever you want to call it) is natural. Thumb-sucking, or toy-chewing, may last a certain length of time, displace baby teeth, or even, what, sometimes, but this is of no great importance.

If the habit persists beyond the age of six, displacement of the second teeth may occur, and this may lead to the need for complicated care later.

Usually the habit is abandoned by the child before that occurs.

Don't worry about whatever a baby chooses, so long as it isn't something that is not to be chewed and swallowed.

AT THE SAME time, can't see any good reason for providing a pacifier, and popping it into a baby's mouth whenever he opens it for a healthy yell. Let him chew—but why not let him decide when he wants to? Using a pacifier won't hurt some babies, but it won't really help any. And it will be bad for a few babies because it will encourage some parents to rely too strongly on an artificial method of "pacifying" them.

After all, why does anyone give a baby a pacifier? To make him keep quiet when he wants to protest, or express his emotions, or exercise his lungs!

When this happens, either (1) find out what he wants, or (2) comfort him; or (3) let him yell. It's normal for a baby to holler once in a while. If he cries hard, he wants something.

"Dear Dr. Molner: With reference to your item about the laryngectomized (one who has had the larynx removed) who was talking and giving lessons in six or eight months, my brother had this same operation and his progress was so rapid that he was talking and giving speech instruction at the Cancer Institute in three months. Thank you for your informative column.—B. S. T."

Thank you—and congratulations to your brother. He is a whiz to be teaching so soon. Many laryngectomized learn to talk very rapidly; some have to work harder at it. I don't want to give the idea that it's easy, but I do want to repeat that anybody can do it if he or she tries.

"Dear Dr. Molner: Is there an exercise that can be done for a weak muscle in an eye? Whenever I am tired, my eyes tend to cross slightly.—J.H."

Here's one of those questions that I can at best answer with, "Probably yes." Without expert advice, I'd have to say no. In short, a specialist probably can help you.

Granddaughter Of Sgt. York Joining WACs
PALL MALL, Tenn. (AP)—A granddaughter of Sgt. Alvin C. York, the fightingest man of World War I, steals some of the spotlight from her famous old grandpa today.

Mary Elizabeth York, 18, will be inducted into the Women's Air Force in a special ceremony at the bedside of the Tennessee mountain man who won the Medal of Honor for his legendary exploits.

"I hope I can make grandpa as proud of me as I am of him," says the girl, who is called Goldie by her friends.

York, now 73 and partially paralyzed as the result of a stroke, asked to witness the induction ceremony. The Air Force agreed to hold it in his modest home in the rolling Tennessee hills.

Mary York is an unassuming girl who is giving up college plans to join the service. After the induction ceremony, Mary goes to Lackland Air Force Base at San Antonio, Tex., for training.

Miss York is a 1961 graduate of Fulton High School in Knoxville, Tenn.

"She's just a nice, light-hearted girl," said Fulton Principal W. M. Davis. "She was well-liked by all the students."

Among her activities, Davis recalled, was participation in school plays and dramatics. Other than that, he said, Miss York stayed in the background.

That betrays something of her grandfather's tendencies. York was a conscientious objector, an "I don't want to fight" man who, nevertheless, did fight.

It was in the Argonne on Oct. 8, 1918 that he killed 25 Germans and took 132 prisoners, including a battalion commander and three other officers.

Gen. John J. Pershing commended York as "the greatest civilian soldier of the war."

The Air Force sent Col. Robert G. Brown, area recruiting commander, from Charlotte, N.C., to direct the special induction ceremony.

Million Dollars Due U.S. on 2 Hamm Trusts

ST. PAUL (AP) — More than a million dollars is due the government on stock gifts Mr. and Mrs. William Hamm Jr. made to two trusts back in 1953.

That was the ruling Tuesday of the Federal Tax Court which had held hearings in the case here last year. The decision, filed in Washington, was reported here by Thomas A. Steele Jr., a regional attorney for the Treasury Department.

Steele reported the findings involved 263 shares of stock in United Properties which the Hamm family had given away. They claimed in their gift tax returns that it was valued at $100 per share.

The government, in a counter action, claimed the stock was valued at not less than $8,506 per share and the court upheld that contention.

The decision makes the Hamm family liable for $773,420 in additional taxes plus interest from March 1954 to last Dec. 31, Steele said. Accountants estimated the interest bill would continue to grow at the rate of about $127 per day until the arrearage is paid.

There was no immediate indication whether the ruling would be carried up to the Circuit Court of Appeals, as is permissible under law.

Hamm is board chairman of the Theo. Hamm Brewing Co.

Britain Plans Sharp Note To Guatemala

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON (AP)—Britain is planning another sharp informal rejection of Guatemala's claim to British Honduras—coupled with a public offer to discuss a solution of the century-old territorial dispute.

Informed sources said the British offer to talk is intended to counter threats by President Miguel Ydigoras Fuentes to break diplomatic ties with Britain and to expel all British nationals unless the Guatemalan claim to British Honduras is recognized.

The Foreign Office so far has refrained from making any formal comment on Ydigoras' warnings. Informants expressed belief the Guatemalan leader has suddenly revived the territorial issue to divert attention from domestic difficulties.

Ydigoras reportedly said he would take the drastic step of breaking with Britain because of lack of progress towards a settlement. British officials say an offer to negotiate made by London two months ago still has not been picked up by Guatemala.

British Honduras, a colony of less than 9,000 square miles with a multiracial population of 90,000, has been a source of dispute with its neighbor to the west since 1859.

Guatemala is not the only country claiming the timber-sugar-citrus producing colony on the eastern seaboard of Central America. Mexico, to the north, tacitly accepts British sovereignty but has insisted that it will be entitled to take over part of the country if there is any change of ownership.

Shipwrecked British seamen in 1633 were the first to settle what today is British Honduras. Pirates and loggers later frequented the wild coast. Until the late 18th century, the British settlers were attacked repeatedly by neighboring Spanish colonists.

Guatemala bases its claims on the fact that British Honduras in colonial times belonged to the Spanish captaincy—general of Guatemala.

An 1859 British-Guatemalan treaty laid down the frontier between Guatemala and British Honduras. The pact contained a controversial clause relating to a joint undertaking to develop certain communications. Each government has accused the other of falling down on its obligations. Guatemala contends this breach has rendered the entire treaty null and void.

Armed Forces

HARMONY, Minn. — Gaylord L. Hermanson, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman C. Hermanson, recently was promoted to specialist four at Ft. Hood, Tex., where he is a member of the 2nd Armored Division. Hermanson, a mechanic in Company C of the division's 6th Infantry, entered the Army in September 1960 and received basic training at the fort.

ST. CHARLES, Minn. — Thomas L. Fix, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Fix, recently was promoted to specialist four in Germany where he is a member of the 21st Artillery. Fix, assigned to the artillery's Headquarters and Service Battery, entered the Army in September 1960, received basic training at Ft. Hood, Tex., and arrived overseas in February 1961. He attended St. Charles High School.

High Safety Mark For Regular Lines

WASHINGTON (AP) — The scheduled airlines achieved in 1960 a flight safety record bettered only twice since flying became a major industry.

The Civil Aeronautics Board's Bureau of Safety, reporting this Tuesday, said preliminary 1961 figures indicated a fatality rate, on the U.S. international and domestic airlines, of 0.29 deaths for each 100 million passenger miles.

This was the tenth consecutive year of a fatality rate of less than 1 per 100 million passenger miles. It compared with the 1960 fatality rate of 0.75.

Passenger deaths on the scheduled airlines totaled 150, including one person on the ground struck by a propeller.

The safest year for the airlines in recent times was 1954 with a fatality rate of 0.07. Next best was 1957 with 0.21.

Truce Called in Paternity Battle

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Terry Huntington, Miss U.S.A. of the 1959 Miss Universe contest, and Hollywood lawyer Arthur J. Crowley called a temporary truce in their paternity battle Tuesday.

At the request of attorneys for both sides the case was postponed to Oct. 1. Blood tests are planned in June.

Miss Huntington, 21, says Crowley, 36, fathered the child she expects in April. She seeks $950 monthly support and medical, hospital, court and attorney costs. Crowley admits intimacy with the former beauty queen but claims he is not the father of the child.

Dietzel to Army Irks LSU Board

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP)—Despite some opposition from the Louisiana State Board of Supervisors, Paul Dietzel is expected to leave the football power he built at LSU for a new challenge as head coach at Army.

Army, which hopes to make an announcement Thursday, is believed to have offered the former West Point aide a five-year contract at $20,000 a year. There also are the fringe benefits of attractive, free living quarters at the point, and post exchange and commissary privileges, probably worth another $5,000 a year.

Dietzel, 38, one of the nation's most successful young coaches, still has four years to go on his LSU contract at $18,500 a year. Jim Corbett, LSU athletic director, said the coach had not asked for his release, but indications were the request would be made today. The New Orleans States-Item said it had learned that Dietzel would fly to West Point Thursday.

Hereabouts, the trip is being pegged as an introduction of the new coach, who will succeed Dale Hall. Hall was fired after three years and three losses to Navy.

If and when Dietzel requests his release, sparks may fly in the bayou. The personable former assistant to Army's Earl Blaik built LSU into a perennial national power in a matter of three years. Taking over in 1955, he had an unbeaten, national champion by 1958 and in seven years his overall record has been 46-24-3, including a 2-1 record in bowl games. This season LSU lost its first game (at Rice), then won 10 in a row—including Monday's 25-7 whipping of Colorado in the Orange Bowl at Miami.

Dietzel would have to receive a favorable vote from a majority of the 14-member board of supervisors to obtain his release and several members have indicated they feel Dietzel should stay.

"It's time these coaches realize they have moral obligations as well as character building obligations," said board member C. J. Dugas of Donaldsonville, La. "Most of them regard contracts as just another piece of paper."

Another member, Tom Dutton of New Orleans, said: "Frankly, I don't believe that he will break his contract. I don't believe Paul will be happy in joining the idle-footed coaches who walk off the job and have no respect for the sanctity of a contract."

BASEBALL BOOSTER BANQUET

Kralick, Dobbek Here Jan. 11

Two stars of the Minnesota Twins will headline a Twins Baseball Booster Banquet in Winona Thursday, Jan. 11, at the Legion Club. The affair, which opens with a 6:30 p.m. dinner, will be a benefit for American Legion Youth programs.

Appearing on the program will be pitcher Jack Kralick and outfielder Dan Dobbek. Accompanying them will be Don Cassidy of the Twins public relations department.

Kralick was a workhorse for the Twins in early season and finished with a 13-11 win-loss record. A sore arm hurt him. — and the Twins — in the late season. The 25-year-old southpaw is a native of Youngstown, Ohio, and starred as a collegian at the University of Michigan. Dobbek, a gifted young fly-chaser, had trouble breaking into the Twins starting lineup last year, but still figures in Manager Sam Mele's plans. He played 110 games for Washington in 1960, hitting .218.

Another feature of the booster banquet will be the showing of the new Twins' baseball film, a 20-minute color spectacular of the Twins' first year in Minnesota.

Mankato Five 72-70 Victor

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wake Forest staged a strong second half rally Tuesday night to hand the University of Minnesota a 79-70 intercollegiate basketball defeat at Winston-Salem, N.C.

In other games involving Minnesota college teams, Mankato State rallied from a six-point halftime deficit to defeat Morrisville 72-70 and Carleton College walloped Lake Forest 95-77.

Frank Christie gave the Deacons a 38-36 lead with 1:30 remaining in the first half and 6-8 center Len Chappell counted another field goal to give the host team a 40-36 halftime margin.

The Deacons pulled gradually away in the second half, at one time sporting a 15-point lead.

Chappell ended with 28 points for the winners, while Eric Magdanz again led the Gophers with 18 tallies.

Norb Walter sniped a field goal with 14 minutes left in the game to give Mankato a 47-45 lead after the Indians trailed 41-35 at intermission.

Mankato went into a stall the last three minutes. Les Sonabend's basket with 14 seconds left gave the Indians a 72-68 lead and clinched the contest.

Sonabend ended with 25 points, 15 in the second half, and Walter had 14. Bob Garretson tallied 19 for the losers.

Carleton soared from a narrow 43-42 halftime lead to overwhelm the visitors from Illinois. Dave Current collected 25 points and John Turgenon 29 for the Carls and Jerry Ziegler potted 18 for Lake Forest.

Big 10 Agrees On Bowl Pact With Big 5

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—The Big Ten and Big Five conferences apparently are in agreement over a contract for an annual Rose Bowl football game.

Representatives of the two athletic organizations discussed at length Tuesday the possibility of reinstating the old contract they operated under for 13 years before its expiration after the 1960 Rose Bowl game.

There probably will be one major difference, however. The Big Ten intends to adhere to its no-repeat rule, but the Big Five—with fewer teams—probably will not. Under the no-repeat clause Minnesota would not be eligible for the 1963 Rose Bowl game, were it to win the Big Ten title again next fall. Its last two appearances were on a special invitation basis.

Lathrop Leishman, chairman of the Tournament of Roses Football Committee, said he expected no complication in signing of a new pact because "our relations with the Big Ten have been so admirable. These things always take time."

Des Moines Downs NDU in Hockey

DES MOINES (AP)—The Des Moines Oak Leafs defeated the University of North Dakota with ease, 11-3, in an exhibition hockey game here Tuesday night.

Don Russmussen slugged in four of the Leafs' goals and George Mylenchuk punched in three. Ernie Dyda and Bob Bartlett provided goals for the losers in the final period. The Oak Leafs are members of the United States Hockey League, an amateur organization.

KONO IS SECOND

Sullivan Award Goes to Track Star Wilma Ward

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Wilma Rudolph Ward, winner of three Olympic gold medals and Associated Press woman athlete of the year for 1960 and 1961, has won the James E. Sullivan award for 1961.

"This is the greatest honor in the world for her," said Ed Temple, her coach at Tennessee State. "This is the toppest—the one I've been waiting to hear about for a long time."

Mrs. Ward herself was en route home from Linden, N.J., where she and her husband, classmate and track team member William Ward, spent the holidays with his parents. The newlyweds hope to compete together in track events.

Mrs. Ward, 23, is the third woman to receive the Sullivan Award in the 32-year history of the recognition by the Amateur Athletic Union. The Tennessee State senior collected 1,627 points, the fourth highest total ever in the poll of former Sullivan winners, amateur sportsmen, sports writers and sportscasters.

Thursday Mrs. Ward will be in Milwaukee to receive The Associated Press award.

The Sullivan Award is presented annually by the AAU "to the amateur athlete who, by performance, example and good influence did the most to advance good sportsmanship throughout the year."

She was runnerup to Rafer Johnson last year. This year Tommy Kono, world champion weightlifter from Honolulu was second followed by world broad jump record holder Ralph Boston, also of Tennessee State.

Thursdays Mrs. Ward will be in Milwaukee to receive The Associated Press award.

Wiltgen Worries; St. Mary's Faces Rangy Macalester

St. Mary's Coach Ken Wiltgen is "fearing the worst but hoping for the best," as his Redmen get set to invade Macalester tonight for their third MIAC basketball test.

"I'm afraid that maybe I've worn the kids out in the past two days," Wiltgen said. "We worked out Monday night and then twice on Tuesday and that may be too much before a game, but I had no choice as we haven't been together for three weeks."

MACALESTER IS 6-3 in the conference race thus far and the Redmen coach figures at least that much is in the Redmen's favor. "They will be a good team to start with after the break," he commented. "But don't forget they only lost to Hamline by two points in an overtime."

In the height department St. Mary's will really be on the short end—Macalester will go with Jim Weidreyer, 6-8 at center, Dennis Reynolds, 6-2, and Arlin Buyer, 6-4, at forwards and Dean Verdoes, 6-4, and Dave Poehler, 6-2, at guards.

THIS IS a team average of 65 in comparison to just under 62 for the Redmen who will start with Tom Ruddy, 6-3 at center, Dennis Burman, 6-3, and Mike Stallings, 6-3, at forwards and Al Williams, 6-2, and Bob Jansen, 5-10, at guards.

Wiltgen figures his team will be facing one of the better zone defenses in the MIAC. "Macalester is big enough to make its zone effective. With all that height against us we aren't going to get many second shots and if we aren't hitting we may as well go home."

St. Mary's has been a hot shooting five in the previous eight games with the points being fairly evenly distributed among the first six players, which includes Marty Lilling, 6-2.

STALLINGS, HALL and Burman are setting the scoring pace for the Redmen over the first two conference games. Each has 24 points for a 12 point average. Ruddy has 20 points for a 10 point average.

After tonight's contest St. Mary's will return home to play host to Gustavus Saturday night at Terrace Heights and then travels to Concordia on the following Monday. Both are league games.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

University football coach Murray Warmath was named the first winner today of the "outstanding Sportsman in Minnesota" award to be given annually by the Minnesota Daily Sports Writers association.

Warmath will receive a plaque symbolic of the award. He received 49 points, including five first place votes from the 16 participating editors.

Second place in the poll went to Norm Van Brocklin, coach of the Minnesota Vikings in the National Football League. Third went to Ed Shave, who has fostered the pheasant dinner program for hospitalized war veterans.

Others mentioned by those voting included Sandy Stephens, Gopher quarterback; Cal Griffith, president of the Minnesota Twins; Lyle Spooner, ABC singles bowling champion from St. Cloud; Vikings' halfback Hugh McElhenny; Austin high school football coach Art Hass; Minnesota Duluth football coach Jim Malosky and Duluth Central high school basketball coach Jim Hastings.

Points were tabulated on a basis of five points for first place votes.

Michigan Tech Stops Denver Icemen 5-4

DENVER (AP)—John Ivaizich bounced the winning shot past Denver goalie Larry Beauchamp after 6:34 of play in an overtime period to give Michigan Tech a 5-4 victory in a Western Collegiate Hockey Assn. match Tuesday night.

Denver scored twice in the third period of regulation play to force the contest into overtime.

Fifteen penalties were whistled in the bruising match.

Other finalists included James Ostendorf, Amherst, District 1; Lee Tressell, Baldwin-Wallace, District II; Clarence Stasovich, Lehigh Valley, District III; A. S. (Jake) Galtner, Florida A&M, District IV; Jack Swartz, Wheeling, District V; Claude Gilstrap, Arlington State, District VII, and Cecil Coleman, Fresno State, District VIII.

Davis beat out the three other All-America backs in the voting, being chosen by 43 of the 212 sports writers and broadcasters on the panel. Bob Ferguson of Ohio State and Jim Saxton of Texas tied for second in the balloting with 34 votes each, and Minnesota sparkplug Sandy Stephens was next with 29.

In three seasons at Syracuse, Davis was the key man on teams that won 24 of 29 games, captured the national title with a 10-0 record in 1959 and also posted two postseason victories, against Texas in the 1960 Cotton Bowl and over Miami, Fla., in last month's Liberty Bowl. An elusive and strong runner, the 210-pound halfback rushed for 823 yards and scored 94 points this past season, surpassing school records established by the fabulous Jimmy Brown. He finished his collegiate career with 2,386 yards running and 220 points scored.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Pittsburgh Rens, who have been in, out and tied for the lead in the Eastern Division of the American Basketball League, are in again.

They regained sole possession of first place with a victory Tuesday night over the Hawaii Chiefs at Honolulu 98-92. The triumph put the Rens half a game ahead of the idle Cleveland Pipers.

The Los Angeles Jets defeated the New York Tapers 112-104 at Los Angeles in the other scheduled league game. The defeat dropped the Tapers, who shifted their franchise from Washington on Sunday, to last place in the Eastern Division.

Bland Stops 40 Shots; Harvard Whips CC 6-4

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—Goalie Bob Bland's superb defensive play in stopping 40 shots keyed Harvard to a 6-4 victory over Colorado College's hockey team Tuesday night.

Bland kicked out 18 shots in the second effort to blunt CC's determined effort to snipe a losing streak that now extends to 17 games.

Collier Ousted At Kentucky After 5-5 Mark

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Kentucky began looking for a football coach today after the university's athletic board fired Blanton Collier, the softspoken coach who replaced Paul (Bear) Bryant.

The board voted Tuesday to buy the remaining three years of Collier's contract, saying its decision was by "mutual agreement" with Collier. His salary was reported at $17,500 annually.

The board only five weeks ago gave Collier a vote of confidence. Collier, 55, who came to Kentucky in 1954 and compiled a 41-36-3 record, said he had no immediate plans for the future.

Bryant, who came to Kentucky in 1946, pulled the Wildcats out of the football doldrums and led them to three major bowls—the Orange, Sugar and Cotton—in successive years. He left in 1953 to take the head coaching job at Texas A&M and now is at Alabama.

The Wildcats were 5-5 last season.

Arcadia Soldiers En route to Camp, Injured in Crash

ARCADIA, Wis. (Special)—Two members of the Arcadia National Guard are still hospitalized at Day County Hospital, Webster, S.D., after receiving injuries when the 1955 truck in which they were riding went out of control on icy U.S. 12 near Waubesa, S.D.; at 5:30 a.m. Tuesday and rolled over in a ditch.

John Foege, rural Arcadia, has cuts and scratches on the face and Peter Mueller, Waumandee, has a fractured collarbone. The boys were to be X-rayed for possible other injuries this morning. Mueller told his mother this morning when she called the hospital.

S. L. Maynard Olson, rural Cochrane, a mess sergeant at Fort Lewis, to which the group was returning, was driving the truck west for Lyle and Lonnie Adank, Arcadia. They left at 10 p.m. Monday. A car was traveling ahead of them occupied by Rodney Altemann, owner of the vehicle, and Mark Pronschinske, both of Independence, Charles Krueger, Arcadia, and Robert Schmidt-knecht, Cochrane. Olson went on to Fort Lewis in the Altemann car.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Mueller, Peter's parents, received word of the accident from the Red Cross Tuesday after Olson had called his wife, who resides two miles north of Waumandee. Foege, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Foege, rural Arcadia, had been employed at the home of his brother Glen in the Waumandee area when called to service.

Proxmire Asks Veto of Change In Primary Law

WASHINGTON (W)—Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., has urged the governor of his state to veto proposed changes in the Wisconsin presidential primary law.

Proxmire said that should Gov. Gaylord Nelson approve the measure passed by the Wisconsin Legislature the action would be a "national blow to popular democracy" and reduce the significance of the Badger state's presidential primary.

The bill, Proxmire said, would "end Wisconsin's proud innovation of letting the people" play the maximum role in presidential nominations.

In urging Nelson, a Democrat, to veto the proposed changes, Proxmire said that failure to do so would cause presidential aspirants of stature to be far less inclined to submit their candidacies in the Wisconsin primary than before.

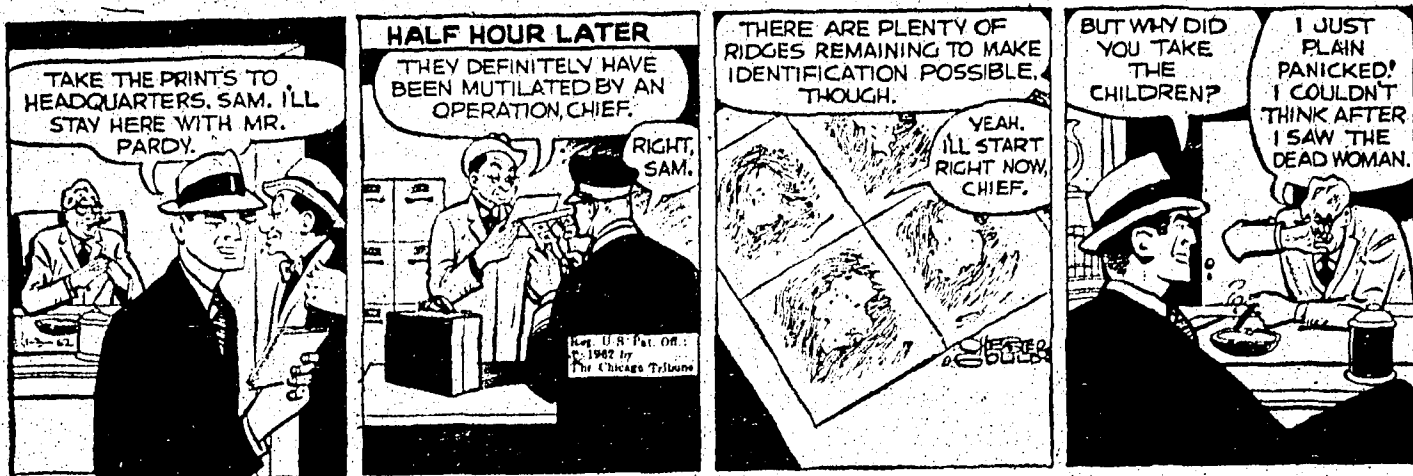

The bill would change the law to give the party organization instead of the successful presidential candidate the right to pick delegates to the national nominating convention. Proxmire said that this would vastly weaken the Wisconsin delegation support for the choice of the people of the state.

The measure also would change the law to release delegates from Wisconsin's choice after only a single convention ballot.

The state's presidential primary is one of the first held each presidential election year. In the 1960 Wisconsin primary, President Kennedy won a majority of the state's Democratic delegates in a
