Second Storm In Week Heads Into Midwest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bitter cold and the heaviest snows of the winter thus far hit a wide band of the United States from Montana through Kansas, Texas, Oklahoma and the Old South today. Northwest Florida was due to feel below-zero cold with hazardous driving conditions developing by tonight.

Two, and possibly four more, deaths were blamed on the storm in Texas, all in traffic.

The blizzard brought colossal traffic jams and left stores and offices denuded of workers. Dallas and Fort Worth appeared the worst-hit areas from the standpoint of traffic snarls and snow. But the Texas Panhandle braced for extremely severe weather by Wednesday morning when the mercury is expected to drop to 10 to 15 degrees below zero.

The Weather Bureau issued cold warnings for all of Texas, and indications were that snow, sleet or freezing rain will fall throughout the state by morning.

The U.S. Weather Bureau listed Butte, Mont., as the coldest spot in the nation with 41 below zero. It was 39 below at Laramie, Wyo., and 32 at Greeley, Colo.

Denver, Colo., digging out from a snowfall of more than 14 inches, shivered in 19-below weather. It was 7 below in Chicago, coldest weather of the winter there.

Snow drove as far south across Texas as Abilene, Texarkana and the Fort Worth-Dallas area, with sleet and freezing rain extending to Waco in central Texas.

A fall of three to five inches of snow in the upper half of north-central Texas and two to four inches in the Texas Panhandle was predicted for tonight.

In Oklahoma, snow varied from two to five inches in the northwest, with some snow also in the central, south and southwest sections.

Snow was falling over Arkansas with depths of four inches and more. Communities in the northwest had readings as low as 9 degrees early today. Many schools closed. Traffic was moving with difficulty.

At Jackson, Miss., a snowstorm accompanied by freezing temperatures closed some highways and schools.

The Weather Bureau predicted from one to three inches of snow before Wednesday with a low of 20 degrees forecast at Jackson tonight.

Winter hit Louisiana. A drop into the low 20s by nightfall was forecast as snow fell in the northern part of the state.

Icy conditions caused by the snow and rapidly dropping temperatures closed roads leading from northern Louisiana to southern Arkansas.

In Shreveport, La., all public schools were closed. About half an inch of snow had fallen by 9 a.m. and traffic was already affected. Cars were reported skidding down streets and having a difficult time climbing hills.

In Louisiana, at Monroe, snow began to stick around 8:30 a.m. By 9 a.m. nearly Ruston had half an inch and rural roads were beginning to ice over. In Alexandria, rain fell during the morning with snow predicted later in the day. The temperature was 38 at 9 a.m. but was expected to drop near 20 by night.

More than a half foot of snow fell in western Kansas. Tribune reported 7 inches, Garden City 6 and Dodge City 3.

Some of the coldest air of the season swept across the northeast plains of New Mexico westward to the Continental Divide.

In Wyoming, the mercury fell to 24 below zero at Casper and Laramie and to 15 below at Cheyenne. At Butte, Mont., in early morning it was 32 degrees. Temperatures hit sub-zero recordings in Colorado.

Bus and airline schedules were disrupted in Colorado and Wyoming as snow covered all major highways.

Two deaths were attributed to the storm in Denver, both resulting from heart attacks induced by over-exertion in trying to cope with the city's 13 1/2-inch snowfall.

Nelson Warns Legislators on Spending Bills

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Gov. Gaylord Nelson told the Wisconsin Legislature today that he would veto additional spending measures this session unless they are accompanied by revenue bills that would finance them.

The Democratic chief executive, in what he described as "almost certainly my last message this session," told assemblymen and senators that amendments to his compromise tax bill had cut estimated surpluses from $30 million to 3.5 million for the biennium ending June 30, 1963.

"The amendments have lent a narrow and risky balance," Nelson said, adding:

"In my judgment you should act to restore the revenue cuts made in the compromise tax bill since all of these revenues will be needed in the next biennium. If you do not do it now, it will have to be done the next session. It will not be easier than now."

Nelson said some 50 spending bills still before the Legislature would cost an added $39 million.

"I have reviewed carefully each one of these measures," Nelson said. "Frankly, several of them are extremely worthwhile. I endorse their objective."

"Nevertheless there are no available extra funds to finance any of these measures, however meritorious they may be."

The governor said he considered it his responsibility to advise the Republican-controlled Legislature that he would veto "any spending bill put on my desk unless it provides a specific revenue measure to pay for it."

"I will not be a party to deficit spending or any kind of fiscal maneuvering which makes commitments now and postpones the obligation to raise the revenue to a future legislature," Nelson said.

Cattle Drive Over

1,800 Steers Reach Winner

WINNER, S. D. (AP)—Rancher Don Hight punched his 1,800 steers into this South Dakota livestock center a day ahead of schedule after a 65-mile cattle drive he figures saved $2,000 in trucking costs.

A predicted worsening of the rugged winter weather that stayed with him throughout the five-day drive prompted the cattleman and his seven drovers to bring the animals in Monday night.

Despite a weight loss caused by the extended drive, Hight expects to net about $360,000 from the sale, which begins Thursday.

Hight drove the herd off his 16,000-acre ranch at Vestover in south central South Dakota Thursday morning. He had planned to arrive at this auction center tonight.

Today's weather forecast called for winds up to 40 miles an hour with a temperature of 15 below.

Wind-blown snow had cut visibility to a quarter mile by the time Hight and his drovers nudged the herd over its final 17 miles to the safety of the stock pens.

Hight figures plenty of feed and water between now and the sale time will put lost weight back on his steers.

Kennedy Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP)—West Germany's Vice Chancellor Ludwig Erhard says he strongly favors President Kennedy's proposals to liberalize trade and make across-the-board reductions in U.S. tariffs.

The European Common Market in turn should reciprocate with lower external tariffs if Kennedy's trade program wins congressional approval, Erhard told newsmen Monday night.

"This is the time now for great and imaginative ideas," the West German said in advocating broad tariff reductions.

"It is always easier to carry out bold ideas," he said. "It is easier to have across the board reductions than to fumble with each tariff position individually."

Erhard ends his two-day Washington visit today. His schedule includes meetings with Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges, World Bank President Eugene Black, Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Undersecretary of State George W. Ball.

Erhard reported that his 85-minute meeting with Kennedy Monday centered in the future of the Atlantic community.

CHICAGO (AP)—An Illinois Central Railroad passenger train was derailed near Aurelia, Iowa, today and the engineer and two other men were trapped in the wreckage.

Railroad headquarters in Chicago said emergency repair equipment, ambulances and other aid were being sent to the site, two miles east of Aurelia which is 60 miles east of Fort Dodge.

The train was the Hawkeye, No. 11, which left Chicago at 11:50 p.m. Monday and was due in Sioux City, Iowa, at 9:30 a.m. The derailment occurred at 8:25 a.m.

The two diesel units, an express car and a post office car overturned completely. The two coaches and a sleeper remained upright but listing.

Railroad officials in Chicago said they did not know whether the two trapped men were in the overturned express car or the post office car. The engineer was trapped in the lead unit of the double diesel.

Vienna Awaits Return of V. M. Molotov

By HANS BENEDICT

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—V. M. Molotov was not to be found in Vienna today, although the Soviet Foreign Office in Moscow had indicated he should have arrived. There was the possibility, however, that he was stopping en route in Warsaw or Prague.

A spokesman for the Soviet delegation to the International Atomic Energy Agency professed surprise at the Moscow announcement that Molotov was resuming his post as permanent Soviet representative to the atoms for peace agency. He said Molotov "definitely has not yet arrived."

In making the surprise announcement Monday, a Soviet Foreign Office spokesman in Moscow said Molotov left Moscow for Vienna by train "probably on Saturday." Departing Saturday, he would have arrived Monday.

Austrian police officials normally in charge of security for high Soviet resident officials had no word on Molotov's return. Austrian border police had no report of his crossing the frontier.

A score of newsmen and photographers were at the Austria-Czechoslovak border town of Hohenau today to meet the train that left Moscow Sunday. Passengers said Molotov had not traveled with them.

Molotov's journey to Vienna took on the air of secrecy that shrouded his departure Nov. 12 after Soviet Premier Khrushchev bitterly denounced the old Bolshevik as a Stalinist at the Soviet Communist party's 22nd congress in October.

Believed destined for oblivion then, Molotov apparently slipped out of the Soviet Embassy in Vienna by a side exit during a mysterious power failure in the embassy area and sped to the train station.

IAEA officials were as amazed as diplomats in Moscow by the Soviet announcement of Molotov's return.

Lumberman Admits Failure To Pay Taxes

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—"I can handle lumber, buy and sell cattle but I can't keep books."

That was the statement late Monday of William A. Healy as he pleaded guilty to charges involving non-payment of federal income taxes for 1958-59, when the government claims his income was in excess of $40,000.

Healy, 55, operates lumber companies at Fergus Falls, Minn., and Mandan and Lidgerwood, N.D. He said he once employed accountants but hadn't in recent years.

Judge Edward J. Devitt ordered a probation investigation before sentencing Healy.

James Maxwell, 21, Grand Rapids, drew three years in prison and his brother, Robert, 23, four months after both had pleaded guilty to theft of a $13,000 semi-trailer and its tractor.

The two admitted stealing the truck in Superior, Wis., and driving it to Grand Rapids, where it was dismantled. Robert Coe, garage man at Grand Rapids, has been charged with conspiracy in the case and is awaiting trial in Duluth.

Judge Dennis F. Donovan also ordered pre-sentence investigation for Frank Purness, 40, Chicago, who pleaded nolo contendere to charges of impersonating an Army officer and driving a stolen car across state lines.

Purness was arrested at Detroit Lakes, where he had posed for several days as a brigadier general at the American Legion Club. Agents said the 1961 Cadillac he was driving had been rented in Chicago but not returned.

Many Changes In Old Capitol

By GEOFFREY GOULD

WASHINGTON (AP)—Members pouring in for the reconvening of Congress Wednesday are finding many changes in the enlarged and newly scrubbed old Capitol.

Most of the changes stem from the extension of the building's east front, a project which has been under way for several years. The entire job should be finished in about six weeks — much of the new area already is in use.

The $24-million project added 32 feet to the east side of the building, and put it in balance architecturally. It was an undertaking close to the heart of the late speaker of the House, Sam Rayburn.

The new east front contains sumptuous suites of offices, ornate reception rooms just off the floors of the Senate and House, and a new entrance hall.

The Senate and House restaurants have been enlarged and rearranged, but the famous bean soup remains the same. The House members' dining room is brightened by a large painting of Lord Cornwallis surrendering at Yorktown.

Getting this 12-foot-square picture in place was a monumental $17,000 task. It was painted on plaster in 1857 by Constantino Brumidi, who also did the frescoes inside the dome.

When the House chamber was remodeled 10 years ago, the painting was covered up with paneling. Now it has been uncovered, carefully removed in one piece with the plaster stiffened by chemicals, and placed in the dining room one flight down. It required considerable retouching.

One of the biggest projects in the huge refurbishing program for the Capitol area, which will cost a total of $125 million, is the new House Office Building. The $80-million structure will be ready for occupancy about 1963 and may be named for Speaker Sam Rayburn.

The cost of the new building includes a subway from the Capitol. Heretofore, only senators have rated the luxury of an underground ride between buildings.

In the east from the joint Atomic Energy Committee already is installed in the finished attic floor. The spacious quarters include a security section, with a guard at the door to keep out unauthorized persons. Luxurious hearing rooms are provided in both the open and the security sections.

Donald Wargin, 24, a janitor, was overcome by smoke as he led masked firemen to a catwalk high above the ceiling. He was treated at a hospital and released.

The girls said they had been playing on the school grounds and became angry when the snowplow operator refused to give them a ride. The 6-year-old said she would take most of the blame.

They said they lit a long taper from a burning vigil light and used the taper to kindle hay in the Nativity crib at a side altar. Flames shot 70 feet in the air and spread the blaze to the ceiling, said Battalion Fire Chief Robert Heindl. The fire led on several Christmas trees clustered about the crib and caused extensive damage to the altar, its statues and the ceiling.

Damage appeared certain to exceed $10,000.

The girls re-enacted for their parents, church and fire officials Monday night how they set the blaze.

Macmillan and Adenauer Seek To Ease Peril

By JOHN O. KOEHLER

BOON, Germany (AP)—British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan met with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer today and informants said they would discuss a new U.S.-British proposal for an East-West standstill agreement to take the heat off the Berlin crisis.

Macmillan and the West German chancellor opened the first of several sessions in their day-long talks with only interpreters present. Their foreign ministers and other aides were to join them for lunch and an afternoon meeting.

No agenda was set, but Macmillan and Adenauer were expected to take up the British December meeting with President Kennedy in Bermuda, Britain's negotiations to enter the six-nation European Common Market, and Britain's desire that the Bonn government offset some of the $190-million annual maintenance cost of the 51,000-man British Army of the Rhine.

British officials said Macmillan brought from his Bermuda meeting with Kennedy a tentative U.S.-British alternative should current attempts to achieve a negotiated settlement of the Berlin crisis fail.

Adenauer indicated that present attempts in Moscow by U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson to set up an East-West negotiation on Berlin are getting nowhere. This bolstered reports the Western Allies are searching for another way out of the crisis.

The reported U.S.-British alternative would have both sides accept—with or without explicit agreement—the present situation in divided Berlin, divided Germany and central Europe for the foreseeable future. Each side would agree not to resort to force and to avoid provocative actions in the two parts of Berlin.

The inducement for such an agreement would be the avoidance of another world war and possible "nuclear" disaster; otherwise considered a tearfully real possibility.

The action stemmed from a request of 11 major airlines that something be done about the "no-shows."

WASHINGTON (AP)—Airlines may begin on March 1 charging passengers up to $50 when they don't show up for their reservations, the Civil Aeronautics Board has decided in a tentative ruling.

But a passenger may also collect a penalty of at least $25 if he shows up with a ticket and finds no seat available.

In a ruling Monday, the CAB said the order would be deferred for 20 days to allow the airlines or other interested parties to file comments or protests.

VOICE OF THE OUTDOORS

Last Day Deer

Most bowhunters will class Peter P. Gierok, Independence, Wis., as a "lucky guy." He went bowhunting the last day of the Wisconsin bow season with a group of friends, borrowed a bow and killed the doe shown in the picture. It was the first time he ever went bowhunting for deer.

On top of that, his friends tell us, it was a running shot at 75 yards. The doe dressed out at 110 pounds. Gierok is a student at River Falls State College, and was home on vacation when he went along with the bowhunters. For a number of years, Independence has had a very active bowhunting group.

Fishing Conditions

Dense ice, through which little or no sunlight is penetrating to make a new supply of oxygen in the water below, may be already endangering fish life in land-locked water areas where there is no current. Robert C. Nord, fish biologist of the Mississippi River Conservation Committee, stated today.

Most Mississippi sloughs where a lot of fish winter have outlets through which fish move naturally from low oxygen content waters to more favorable habitats. Fish have a sense that directs them to seek the most comfortable spot around to live in during the more or less dormant state of life in winter.

This survival instinct causes a movement to habitats containing a current which is more apt to possess more oxygen. A slight thaw can cause an inflow of surface water loaded with oxygen into such sloughs.

Henry Kowalewski, Winona's most ardent sunfish fisherman, tells of the difference in fishing after the recent two days of above freezing weather. The sunfish, he big ones, became full of life. Up to then, it was only the little ones that were biting because they require less oxygen.

On the Lake has been good. Last year, U.S. readers spent $1.2 billion for all types of books—113 percent more than in 1959.

good movement of water in it, coming down from the Black River. When it was slow last weekend, nearly everybody was catching fish there. There was a parade of cars going in and out of the area, like to a football game Saturday and Sunday, he declared. He lives on the heights overlooking the whole area.

Locally, there were a few good spots during the weekend, but most fishermen have not found these favorite places and there was not sufficient fresh snow to track good fishermen to them.

Largest walleye entered at Jackson's Tavern over the weekend was a five-and-one-half pounder. In fact, it was the only one offered. A few large crappies were brought in for the contest.

A few perch, good-sized ones, were caught out of Lake Winona where oxygen content tests were made by the Park-Recreation Board Saturday and Monday. Tests made east of Huff street showed 11 parts of oxygen to 1,000 parts at several spots. This is favorable for winter fish life. The danger point is not reached until the reading drops below five.

West of Huff street dike about 150 feet out from shore at the foot of Dakota street a reading of 8.5 was made. This was the lowest of any on the lake. M. J. Barnhaken, Park-Recreation director, declared. Regular testing will be taken to get more oxygen to the fish.

Nord told us of a new method that has been used successfully in some of the trout lakes of the West. Instead of pumping water out, pressure pumps are used to pump air into the water. This causes warm water in the bottom to rise and open areas to develop on the lake through which the wind whips air into the water. It may be tried if needed here, Mike said. The city has such pumps.

Last year, U.S. readers spent $1.2 billion for all types of books—113 percent more than in 1959.

Bids Asked on High School Remodeling Job

The Board of Education Monday night called for bids on the remodeling of corridors, toilet facilities and expansion of storage areas at the Winona Senior High School.

Final plans for the project, estimated to cost about $125,000, were submitted by W. W. Ward of Flad-Smith & Associates and approved by the board. Directors then set Feb. 5 as the bid opening date.

WORK contemplated includes construction of an addition to the court between the main wing of the high school and the auditorium gymnasium.

This would house toilet facilities in the basement, first and second floors, freeing those rooms for remodeling for other purposes.

Additional classrooms would be realized in the remodeling and electronics laboratories now in the Central Junior High School might be moved to the Senior High School building.

IN CONNECTION with the corridor remodeling, new lockers would be installed, ceilings lowered and window arrangements, in certain instances, revised.

The locker portion of the project will add approximately 100 lockers to the present number.

The job will be paid for from the school building sinking fund. Since the fund won't be adequate to cover the entire cost until tax receipts are in late this year, directors are considering the possibility of making a transfer from the school general fund to the sinking fund so that money will be available as bills come due.

There had been some question as to whether school law permitted such a transfer. (Levied specifically for new school construction and major plant improvement, the sinking fund revenues can never be used for other general school purposes.)

MONDAY the board received an opinion from the state attorney general stating that a transfer of funds may be made from the general fund to the sinking fund. Directors Monday also approved payrolls for homebound instructors totaling $673; substitute teachers, $352.50; attendance teacher, $52.50; physical education assistant, $96; noon hour supervision, $285; custodian helpers, $198.80, and student help in the cafeteria, $53.40.

Arraignment at Wabasha Delayed; Case Under Way

WABASHA, Minn. (Special)—Arraignment of Steven B. Gray, 22, Rochester, on a second degree larceny charge was postponed in Wabasha County District Court from this morning to the special session at 10 a.m. Monday. Judge Arnold Hatfield is presiding.

Also on Monday, Herman Von Essen, 22, Mazeppa farmer, will be sentenced on a charge of assault in the second degree, to which he pleaded guilty Nov. 30. Von Essen was first charged with first degree assault on his brother-in-law, Richard Sibley, Wabasha police officer, to which he pleaded not guilty. A jury was drawn and testimony was heard Nov. 29.

Following his guilty plea on the lesser charge, the judge ordered a pre-sentence investigation. A jury case was to have started this morning—Alvin E. Benike, Rochester, vs. Wabasha Sand & Gravel Co. and Portable Concrete Inc.—but it was settled. The court also announced settlement of the case brought by Matt Kohn against Ernest Wedge as administrator of the estate of Milton Funk and Home Gas Co.

A jury was being drawn this morning to hear the action brought by Robert Tri, Zumbrota, against Warren Carey, Kellogg. Tri is complaining that a tractor he purchased at Carey's auction was defective.

Wabasha Masons Install Holmgren As New Master

WABASHA, Minn.—Wabasha Lodge 14, A.F. & A.M., has installed Howard Holmgren as master.

Others installed: Peter Drysdale and John Bruenger, senior and junior warden; Frank Wachter, treasurer; Wilbur Koelner, secretary; Donald Carr and Werner Stegeman, senior and junior warden; Lyle Richardson, chaplain; Everett Marcon and Carl Lanzel, senior and junior steward; W. A. Palmgren, marshal, and August Prellsticker, Tyler.

Past Master Howard Quisenberry was installing officer and Stanley Ostrom was installing marshal.

Forty members enjoyed the annual oyster stew supper prepared by Willard Drysdale.

Bluffs Might Help In Bomb Fallout

The towering bluffs of the Hiawatha Valley may protect Winona from radioactive fallout following a possible atomic bomb explosion, Brother L. Edward, F.S.C., civil defense radiological defense officer for Southeastern Minnesota, told the Winona County Medical Society Monday.

The brother, who is chairman of the St. Mary's College mathematics department, addressed a dinner meeting of the society at the Williams Hotel.

Dr. Warren Haesly was elected society president, succeeding Dr. James V. Testor. Dr. R. H. Hartwich was elected vice president. Dr. Herbert Heise was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Dr. Dale H. Hawk, St. Charles, was elected a director for two years. Elected representative delegate and alternate delegate to the State Medical Society were Dr. Louis Wilson, Rushford, and Dr. Howard W. Satterlee, Lewiston.

BROTHER EDWARD said fallout usually follows the pattern of winds. Since area winds sweep over the Hiawatha Valley, it's probable fallout would be carried past Winona to fall elsewhere. He said radiological monitoring stations established at St. Mary's College and elsewhere in the area had not detected a significant increase in fallout following the recent explosion of large atomic bombs by the Russians.

The speaker offered a simple precaution that could save millions of lives immediately following an atomic bomb explosion. There's an interval between the explosion and the dangerous heat wave that follows. If a person falls face down immediately after the bomb explodes and covers his head with his arms—or plunges face down into a nearby ditch—he will avoid serious burns from the heat wave.

Although concrete of adequate thickness is highly effective in protecting against radiation, even hard-packed earth 30 inches thick will offer protection, Brother Edward said. Thus large numbers of persons could be protected using readily available earth.

Dr. Warren W. Haesly

THE PROPOSED neutron bomb which recently caused widespread concern—is not as lethal as is commonly believed, the speaker said. Some authorities had recommended manufacture of such a bomb since it would kill people but not damage machines or buildings. However, Brother Edward said, rays from a neutron bomb explosion would have a short effective range. The atomic bomb explosion needed to explode the neutron bomb would in itself cause considerable damage.

Dr. Testor introduced Brother Edward. Thirty doctors and their wives attended. The society has organized a speakers bureau. Thus doctors will be available to talk to organizations about such subjects as recent advances in medicine and surgery.

Winona affirmative teams were: Kathy Czapiewski and Gloria Sifferath, Bernie Arenz and Brian Aubin and Dorothy and Kathryn Deye. Negative: Jennifer Bolter and Barbara Ferguson, Jeanne Cieminski and Carole Van Thoma and Dennis Fletcher and Richard Tezak.

Winona will participate in next weekend's tournament at La Crosse State College.

La Crosse Attorney Arrested by U.S.
CHICAGO (U)—Jonathan C. Bunge, an attorney with offices in Chicago and La Crosse, Wis., was arrested Monday on a charge of failure to file federal income tax returns from 1955 through 1957.

Bunge was indicted by a U. S. District Court grand jury in Milwaukee on Dec. 19 for failing to report taxable income of $63,952 for the three years.

Bunge appeared before a U. S. commissioner, who released him on his own recognizance bond of $1,000 and set a hearing for Jan. 15 on removal to Milwaukee.

Pepin 4-H Leaders
DURAND, Wis.—Mrs. Owen Brady, president of the Pepin County Leaders Federation, said there will be a leaders meeting Saturday at 1:30 p.m. at the courthouse here. All 4-H general leaders, project leaders and junior leaders are encouraged to attend. The program will include election of officers; state 4-H band and chorus applications; entries in the 4-H speaking contest and distribution of tree trees.

Winter Carnival Royalty to Hit 'Road' Once More
Jack Frost XII, Robert P. Olson and Frosties Russ Rossi and Sandy Oskamp will leave Winona at 9 a.m. Wednesday to visit 9 area communities.

The Winter Carnival royalty has not established a time schedule to visit each of these communities. At Rochester the trio will be on television Channel 10. The other eight communities are Stockton, Lewiston, Utica, St. Charles, Eyota, Dover, Elgin and Plainview.

Enrollment at High School To Jump; Teachers Needed
There'll be more "floating teachers"—those who don't have a permanent classroom assigned to them but move from one room to another for class periods. Under ideal conditions each teacher would have her own classroom and during free periods have this room for use in preparation of class material and for conferences.

NELSON SAID that teacher placement bureaus have been informed of anticipated faculty needs for next fall and candidates are being interviewed.

The superintendent also said that replacements will be needed for five teachers who are reaching the mandatory 65 retirement age this year and for three staff positions filled this year on a temporary basis.

Nelson was authorized reasonable expenses to attend a conference for school superintendents at Columbia University, New York City, July 2-20.

THE SUPERINTENDENT reported on the school improvement program in progress during the Christmas holidays.

Class blocks were installed in east window areas of the Senior High School auditorium, acoustical tile ceilings were installed at the Washington-Kosciusko and Jefferson schools and lockers for the Washington-Kosciusko shower house have arrived and are ready for installation.

Anticipated increases in enrollments at the Senior High School in the 1962-63 school year will make necessary employment of additional faculty members, Superintendent of Schools A. L. Nelson advised the Board of Education Monday night.

Nelson said that the high school expects to graduate about 245 students this spring. The enrollment in the 10th grade next fall has been estimated at 350, making an anticipated net enrollment increase next year of 100.

THE FORTHCOMING enrollment bulge in the high school has been tracked for a number of years on the basis of school census reports and reflects the sharp

Get Ready for Elm Disease, State Man Says

"Farwarned is to be forearmed," was the theme of Donald M. Coe's talk Monday evening at the City Hall concerning the possibility of the loss of Winona's elm trees to Dutch elm disease.

Coe, director of the state division of plant industry, was here to advise members of the Park-Recreation Board and City Council on the best preventive measures to adopt to arrest this tree killing disease which in some cities has destroyed every standing elm.

SANITATION is the answer—not spraying, he explained. The disease is spread by a European beetle with a ravishing appetite. If proper pruning of healthy trees and destruction of the diseased—by fire—is not done, there is little use in applying sprays. Spraying is done but only after proper sanitation has been applied.

A colored movie showed how this little beetle goes about his destructive work—there is no other way that the disease is transported. If this bug can be controlled, the disease can be prevented, Coe said.

"I am not here to frighten anyone. You can live with it and control it," Coe said. He mentioned a city where the county and the city couldn't agree as to who would pay the cost of the preventive program. Before the argument was settled, every elm in the city was destroyed.

AT THE QUESTION and answer session, Harold Briesath, City Council president, asked how long it would be before this disease could be expected in Winona. Coe said he had no idea. "We have charts and statistics and if the bugs could read we could tell you."

The cost of a Dutch elm disease control program? Approximately 30 cents per capita if done before the disease is prevalent; about $8 thereafter. How many elms do we have in Winona? No one knows. Estimates are that 75-80 percent of all the trees in the city are elms.

Coe warned that if any type program was adopted there would inevitably be a group of "sharpies" move in who do a great deal of damage by selling improper sprays and cutting down healthy trees and that the Council should set up safeguards against these fly-by-night concerns.

HE ASSURED the Council that it has power to condemn trees which are suspected of having the disease but only after proper laboratory tests have been made. The Plant-Pest Act of 1949 allows such action.

Both the Park-Recreation Board and the City Council were in agreement that "something had to be done" but at present there are only funds available to start a survey on the number of trees involved.

There were about 30 interested spectators.

Wabasha Farm Class To Meet Wednesday
WABASHA, Minn.—The Wabasha adult farmers class will meet the second series of meetings Wednesday evening at the Wabasha Public School. Meetings will continue into early March.

Farmers will have an opportunity to discuss the "Outlook for 1962" and hear about new advancements in animal nutrition.

All area farmers are invited to attend. Detailed information can be obtained by calling Werner Stegeman, Wabasha vocational teacher. Lunch will be served Wednesday.

DOES THIS CHEER?

It Won't Get Much Colder: -15 Tonight

Cold weather held Winona in its grip today. After dropping to -11 this morning, the thermometer is slated to fall to -15 tonight and not get much higher than zero Wednesday.

The usual mid-day warmup was missing, the noon reading was -7. It was the coldest noon of the winter. On Jan. 13 when the low was -15, the noon reading was 3 above.

The below-zero weather is part of a general cold wave moving across the Midwest, bringing snow flurries and high winds to many parts of Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Mostly fair and cold with slowly diminishing winds is the forecast for tonight and Wednesday. Mostly fair and only slight moderation in temperature is the outlook for Thursday.

The thermometer started falling Monday afternoon after reaching a high of 9 and reached its low mark at 7 a.m. today. During the past 24 hours several light snow squalls passed over the area, but the snowfall was negligible.

The North Central weather station at Max Conrad Field reported a 7 a.m. low of -12 and a noon, reading of -9. The wind was from the northwest at 18 miles per hour with gusts up to 25 miles per hour. An unusually high barometer of 30.38 was reported. It was still rising. Humidity was 51 percent.

HIGHWAYS in the area generally in good winter driving condition although some drifts were reported on less-traveled roads.

Temperatures today were slightly under those of a year ago when the high for the day was 21 and the low 4. Only a trace of snow lay on the ground at the time in contrast with today's six inches. All time high for Jan. 9 was 51 in 1939 and the low for the day was -31 in 1875. Mean temperature for the past 24 hours was -1. Normal for this day is 16 above.

Alexandria was the coldest spot in Minnesota this morning with a reading of -19. It was -16 at Bemidji and -15 at Redwood Falls. St. Cloud posted a low of -14 as did Rochester. At La Crosse the low was -10. A light snow was falling at Minn. N. D., where the morning reading was -18.

Sub-zero weather swept into WISCONSIN, too, on 20 to 30 m.p.h. winds.

The mercury skidded to an official low of -14 at Eau Claire, although a mark of 19 was reported unofficially at Janesville.

Superior recorded -13. Park Falls, Wausau, Lone Rock and Madison had -11 and Beloit -10. The Milwaukee and Racine areas, which are still digging out of the biggest snowstorm of the season, had a minimum of -9 early today. Green Bay's low was -5. Scattered snow flurries fell throughout most of Wisconsin Monday and Monday night.

Continued cold weather is predicted through Wednesday.

Batte, Mont., hit the nation's low mark of -44 early Monday, compared with the high of 87 at Imperial, Calif.

Goodview Tank Work Started; Land Purchased
Excavation is under way for construction of a water storage tank tower for Goodview's new water system, Dr. E. G. Callahan, village clerk, reported today.

He also announced the village council recently bought property for installation of water mains and future street use.

The tank tower will be established in the service-drive-34th street area. Footings will be poured. Mains have not yet been laid because of cold weather.

Parts of two lots were bought in the 8th Street area. One lot is owned by G. E. LaBarre, 3777 6th St., who received about $2,400 for his parcel. Leo T. Brom, 3655 6th St., who sold a larger piece of his lot, received about $4,700, for a total cost to the village of about $7,100.

Conservationists Will Tour Lab At La Crosse
LA CROSSE, Wis.—The Upper Mississippi River Conservation Committee were touring the new U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service Fish Control Laboratory here today.

The lab is experimenting on means of developing "selective" chemicals for treatment of lakes and streams.

The committee included conservationists from Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Illinois and Missouri, the Fish and Wildlife Service, the U. S. Public Health Service and the Army Corps of Engineers.

The group, meeting at the State Office Building, is to hear technical reports on fish and game studies, law enforcement, pollution control and publications.

Americans today have 62 percent more money to spend than they had 10 years ago.

IT'S COLD OUTSIDE... Who knows better than the mailman just how cold it was today? Maybe if Robert Young knew he was delivering hot love letters he would warm to his task. (Daily News photo)

Teachers Ask For Wage Hike

A month's study of proposed revisions in the Winona public school teachers' salary schedule was agreed to Monday night by the Board of Education.

A new schedule which would raise the upper limits of the schedule by $400 a year and provide $100 to $300 boosts on the other 12 steps (the schedule is developed on the basis of increments for each year of teaching experience up to 13) had been presented for board consideration by a committee of teachers.

The teachers' proposal came to the attention of the full board for the first time last night although a teachers' salary study committee had met with board representatives Lawrence Santelman, president, Dr. C. R. Kolofski, L. R. Woodworth and F. A. Tillman on preliminary aspects of the salary situation for 1962-63.

The board usually votes on a final draft of a new salary schedule in February or March so that amendments may be made in continuing contract which must be returned by April 1.

Essentially, three points were covered in the tentative proposal submitted by the teachers.

THE FIRST is concerned with the basic salary schedule which, during the current year, runs from $4,000 for teachers with a four-year degree but no previous teaching experience to $7,700 for those with master's degrees and 13 or more years' experience. The upper limit for four-year degree teachers is $7,100.

The teachers are proposing that the salary schedule for a 39-week work year be increased $100 — to $2,500 — for the new teacher with a bachelor's degree and no previous experience and a similar amount in the master's degree category, bringing the new starting salary there to $4,700.

The suggested schedule at the four-year degree level would then range up to $7,500 after 13 years and to $8,100 for those with master's degrees.

The salary schedule provides the formula for basic teachers' salaries. Additional increments are paid for work done beyond the 39-week school year, for department heads, coaching and other assignments.)

IF THE SALARY schedule were to be left unchanged those teachers at the top with 13 or more years' experience would receive no raise. There was no change made in the top step last year.

Others, however, would receive salary increases of from $100 to $300, depending on which step they would be during the next contract year.

A teacher with a bachelor's degree and six years' teaching experience, for instance, is receiving $5,800 this year. By advancement on the schedule — if it weren't changed — the teacher would be receiving $6,000 for the next contract year.

If the teachers' proposal were accepted the salary for the same teacher in 1962-63 would be $6,300 an increase of $500.

THE TEACHERS also are asking for an increase in the weekly payment for work beyond 39 weeks.

They're now getting $30 a week for summer school teaching — in addition to the annual salary — and for other assignments which keep them in school beyond the regular work year.

The teachers' proposal calls for additional work to be paid for on the basis of 1/39th of the annual salary for each week worked in addition to the regular year's work schedule.

A limitation would be imposed, however, on the amount on which the 1/39th would be computed. The teachers suggested that the payment for extra weeks worked not exceed 1/39th of the amount at the sixth step.

THE THIRD POINT calls for $100 to be paid for the first 15 credits earned beyond the master's degree and another $100 for the next 15.

There is no provision now for increments to be paid for advancement beyond the master's degree. It was estimated that the teachers' proposal, if accepted in its entirety, would result in an additional $66,000 in teachers' salary expenditures in the next contract year. This estimate was made on the basis of the staff now employed.

Directors decided not to take any action on salary matters last night but to study salaries during the next month and discuss the matter at the February meeting.

They contemplate a committee meeting with teachers representatives prior to the final draft of the new schedule.

Four Muggers Batter Carson

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Johnny Carson doesn't run to the papers when somebody picks on him, but four guys mugged him the other 2 a.m., as he was getting into a cab. He swung back, lost part of a tooth cap, and got repaired with six stitches at Roosevelt Hospital. "It was like one of those impossible things that happen on TV, but it happened to me," he groaned later. "N.Y. is a summer festival but a winter war."

Strange story they're telling about Anita Ekberg—that she won't pose for pix now in Hollywood or come out of seclusion there even to take bows for "La Dolce Vita" cause she's grown too plump. I asked Sydney Chaplin's pretty wife, Noelle Adam, what Syd thought of Papa Charlie's becoming a father again an 8th time at 72. "Eee says 'Let's wahn more, eet's fantastek!'" she said.

Peter Lawford ("Peter the Great"), Sammy Davis, and Cahn & Van Heusen had a chapter meeting at Toots Shor's. "May Britt's been ringfencing for Sammie at the Copa."

Harry Truman will be next Fall Guy of the Circus Saints & Sinners—Jan. 30 at the Waldorf. Just everybody'll perform for our "Lights On" show for Fight for Sight Jan. 14 at Carnegie Hall: Phil Silvers, Johnny Carson, Sammie Davis, Hugh O'Brian, Teresa Brewer, Frederic March, Nichols and May, Rudy Vallee, Bobby Morse, Elaine Stritch, Johnnie Ray, Allen & Rossi, Geoffrey Holder, Michael Allison, John Raridon, Marsha Wright, Johnny Puleo and the Harmonies, Rascals, Betty Madigan, the Geo. Becker Choir—and the Peppermint Lounge Twisters—plus others to come.

ARLENE Francis and Martin Gabel found that their friend Hollywood Agent Irving Lazar was constantly using the word "eclectic." Gabel finally said, "Irving, do you know what 'eclectic' means?" Lazar answered, "Of course I know what it means! I look it up every day."

Our son "Big Earl" had to postpone returning to college due to a virus and wanted to send his professors an explanatory wire "Have Flu—Can't Travel." Mommy wouldn't let him. What can you do with parents like that? Vikki Dougan, the backless, frontless beauty, attended a B-way party in a reveal-all gown. As Mrs. J. Halpern of Dover, N. J. hears it, she was approached by a party guest, a physician, who said, "The examination is over, dear; you can get dressed now."

Haiti's all stirred up over dancer Katherine Dunham's activities at Port-au-Prince where she owns the big estate assembled in 1802 for Napoleon's sister Pauline. Miss Dunham stages open-air voodoo exhibitions at the Bar Geisha which she built. Superstitious neighbors blame even a falling coconut on Miss D.'s voodoo spirits and have claimed that her imported snakes (which are non-poisonous) have swallowed up a woman on horseback—the horse included. Miss Dunham bought the estate after first seeing in '36 while studying anthropology as a Rosenwald Fellow of the University of Chicago. She's built some hotel bungalows and is looking for a hotelman to manage the estate while she goes on a 15-month tour. But he'd better not be scared of voodoo!

WEALTHY socialite Geo. Horn, ex of Leslie Caron and almost of Rita Moreno, is marrying Annie Farge, the 5-foot French TV "Angel" in Hollywood in March. Elizabeth Seal's honeymooning in Mexico with Zack Matalon whom she met in "Irma La Douce" in which she played the bad, bad, bad girl. They just married quietly in Arlington, Va., after she divorced Peter Townsend—not the Group Capt., a British writer.

Jan Murray got the word from Danny Thomas & Sheldon Reynolds: They launch him in a big TV series next fall. Gov. Elington of Tennessee heads a big Memphis delegation coming here Feb. 11 for the Show Biz tribute to Thomas whose St. Jude's Hospital there's being dedicated. Glad to tell you that Vicky Ausler, the pretty French chanteuse much adored by the Duchess of Windsor, does a twist while playing the piano at the St. Regis. Vicky opens with a half-French, half-American song titled "I Keep Swinging." Know what it's about? Swinging! Because in French, swinging means swinging. (Like in a swing, Charlie.)

Alice Faye'll sing again, an album for Frank Sinatra's record company. Rudy Vallee will call his memoirs, naturally. "My Time is Your Time." Tony Curtis' gift to his "Taras Bulba" double in Argentina. A trip to L.A. and two weeks at the Curtis home. Actor Lou Jacoby has a double winner in "Come Blow Your Horn"—A long-running featured role, plus hefty returns as a backer of the hit.

EARL'S PEARLS: Definition of a very young boy: One who has learned to whistle—but doesn't yet know why.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Bob Hope told GIs in Labrador during his tour: "I'd tell you what's going on back in the States—but I don't want to frighten you with a lot of war talk."

A fellow explained that the only thing preventing him from getting a color TV set was the price tag in black and white. That's earl, brother.

New Premier Takes Over in Syria

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—Syria's new premier, Dr. Marouf Dawabshi, pledged Monday an internal economic policy of "constructive socialism" and a foreign policy of nonalignment.

In a policy statement for Parliament, Dawabshi, Syria's first constitutional premier since the country broke away from Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser's United Arab Republic last September, promised to cooperate with other Arab states in efforts toward a common Arab market.

Speculators Raid Yankee Dollar

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Even the Yankee dollar—long the kingdom of world currencies—is subject to raids by international speculators. Americans found this out to their amazement a little over a year ago when foreigners—most probably some Americans working through overseas banks—rushed to turn in their dollars for gold.

That discovery is what's behind Monday's announcement of a proposed $6-billion kitty to defend the dollar and the currency of nine other nations.

Other currencies—the once dominant English pound sterling, the French franc—had been subject since the war to periodic sinking spells. Americans shrugged this off as the other fellow's problem.

The dollar, they thought, would always be as good as gold everywhere. Maybe it would have a little less in the market place from year to year, but everyone would as soon have it as gold.

Then Americans found out that many people didn't think the dollar was as strong as it once was, even worried that it might lose enough prestige to force devaluation in relation to gold and other currencies.

The price of gold, legally $35 an ounce, soared for a time in October 1960 on the London free market to a peak of $40.00.

After this shock, Americans moved fast to do something about it. Both the Eisenhower and the Kennedy administration scotched the rumors about devaluation. Checks on the outflow of dollars were proposed, and some put into effect.

But one of the steps taken was to join nine other powers in forming a $6-billion pool to defend themselves against unusual drains on their gold and foreign exchange reserves.

The pool would be administered by the International Monetary Fund. The plan is subject to ratification by Congress and the other national legislatures.

The 10 would put up cash only as the funds are needed, but would be pledged as follows in dollars:

United States (two billion); Britain and Germany one billion each; France and Italy 550 million each; Japan 250 million; Canada and the Netherlands 200 million each; Belgium 150 million; and Sweden 100 million.

The proposed pool is for use in protecting the dollar and other currencies from any temporary raids. The beleaguered nation could borrow other countries' currencies from the fund to settle foreign claims without using its gold or own currency reserves. This would work temporarily. It wouldn't cure any deep seated or persistent weakness in a nation's fiscal or economic condition.

Minnesota Found Guilty at Fargo

FARGO, N.D. (AP)—Louis Butcher, 34, Ponsford, Minn. farm worker, was found guilty Monday of first degree manslaughter in the Oct. 4 death of Harry Flor, 53, tenant in a Fargo hotel.

The jury of eight women and four men returned its verdict to Judge Roy K. Redetzke after deliberating two hours. Butcher had

Frost-Bitten Alligator Gets Bid to Florida

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—A frost-bitten alligator in Arkansas has been invited to recuperate in the Florida sun with promises of chicken every day and other alligators to play with.

Laura Mae Osceola, member of the Dania Seminole Reservation tribal council, invited Big Arkie to the reservation from his cold-bound pen in Little Rock, Ark.

Big Arkie has been taking heat lamp treatments to ward off effects of cold weather.

Mrs. Osceola's invitation to 200 keepers in Little Rock promised chicken every day, plenty of Florida sunshine, other alligators to play with and lots of swimming room.

Raymond A. Squires, director of the Little Rock Zoo, said he hadn't heard from Mrs. Osceola but added that he couldn't let Big Arkie take a Florida vacation.

As to having other alligators to play with, Squires said alligators are not noted for their playfulness. He said Big Arkie is too valuable to be allowed to associate with Little Rock Zoo's 11 other alligators.

Big Arkie, who is 13 feet long and weighs 600 pounds, is suffering from a vitamin deficiency and fungus infection around the mouth that Squires said probably is due to lack of sunlight. The skylight was recently taken out of his indoor pen.

been charged with second degree murder.

Sentencing was set for Jan. 22. The conviction carries a sentence of 5 to 15 years at the state penitentiary.

Butcher was charged with striking Flor with his fists and causing a brain hemorrhage that resulted in death about 3½ days after a fight in the hotel where both men lived.

Last Half Of 'The Egg' Interesting

By WILLIAM CLOVER

Associated Press Drama Critic

NEW YORK (AP)—Let's be calm. Broadway's new play, "The Egg," may not really be a French mistake.

True, the program at the Cort Theater, where it opened Monday night, calls the exhibit a translation from Felicien Marceau's Paris hit.

The kindest possible comment on the things done by adaptor Robert Schilt, director Lamont Johnson and the busy, busy cast is that "The Egg" gets pretty interesting only during the last half hour of its blessedly brief running time.

Dick Shawn, a night club comic in his Broadway debut, carries the chief role like a valiant college fullback.

A beely man of cherubic visage, Shawn sidesteps, wheels and grimaces with enthusiasm as a Gallic youth trying to crack "the System." This, he explains, is the hard shell of earthly existence. To do it, you've got to be sly, amoral and unsentimental.

Having established this viewpoint in the first act, Shawn and his cohorts demonstrate the thesis with a love playing in the second half.

A lively courtroom finale scarcely atones for the wilted whimsy and sophomoric satire that has gone before. Schilt seems utterly unable to resist a shoddy joke or vulgar touch.

It is hardly surprising that the performance rarely attains any appreciable measure of unified style. Frederick Rolf and Michael Constantine are among the few who refuse to succumb to the prevailing torpor. Another cast member is Marcia Levant, daughter of pianist-talker Oscar Levant, who tackles three bit parts in her first Broadway assignment.

"The Egg" is an entertainment humpty-dumpty that all the king's men couldn't put together. But let's not blame the French.

Russ Test Out Crewless Tanker

NEW YORK (AP)—The Soviet

Union is now experimenting with a completely crewless tanker for operation on the Caspian Sea, Maritime Administrator Donald W. Alexander said Monday night.

Alexander, speaking before the Marine Society of New York, said the Soviet tanker Inzhener A. Pustoshkin, a shallow-draft vessel, is now being converted for fully automated operation.

"It will make experimental voyages on the open sea without any crew, being shore-controlled over great distances," he added.

Alexander said the Soviet Union also is building the first two of a series of 45,000-ton automated tankers, on which a single crewman can operate turbines and boilers and machinery can be controlled from the bridge.

Skunk Had Last Word

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—

Speaking by telephone from Whitehall Township police station, Allen S. J. Miller of Fullerton told a reporter how he had almost hypnotized a skunk and then removed it from a cellar.

"Always remember that a skunk will never let loose on you if you don't disturb it. You have to move slowly and stay in front of it. If you walk up behind one, or scare a skunk—"

A voice broke in: "Can't you cut this short and get this man (Miller) out of here? He smells to high heaven. I can't stand it," injected police radio dispatcher Edna Wescoe.

City Nurses Ask Better School Health Records

A request by the Winona Public Health Nursing Advisory Board for establishment of a policy regarding health records for new students in the public schools was referred by the Board of Education Monday night to the school administration.

Directors were told Monday that in the past difficulties have been encountered in obtaining health records from all new students entering the schools each year.

THE ADVISORY board suggested that the school adopt a policy providing that, if a health record card is not received from a new student within two weeks after his enrollment, he be required to submit a statement from his physician that the child is free from communicable disease. In addition, a recent Mantoux test result or chest X-ray would be required.

Superintendent of Schools A. L. Nelson explained that the problem cited by the nursing board arises on most instances in the cases of students who move here from other states.

School directors questioned the practicality of a requirement for a statement on communicable disease (one commented that within the two-week period designated it would be apparent whether the new student had any ordinary illness) but agreed that a policy might be formulated requiring the student to furnish a Mantoux test result or X-ray.

The superintendent was asked to discuss the matter with the nursing board and establish whatever policy would be necessary.

THE WINONA barracks of Veterans of World War I was granted use of the Winona Senior High School auditorium and gymnasium for its state convention June 9-10.

The board agreed to continue its present policy of placing all its casualty insurance on school properties with the Winona Insurance Agency, with commissions to be distributed on a formula basis among participating local agents who meet eligibility requirements.

Clerk and Business Manager Paul W. Sanders was instructed to give notice that applications from prospective participants in the program must be filed by March 1.

Driver Forfeits Deposit After Leaving Scene

A driver who struck a parked car on Wilson Street 15 feet south of 3rd Monday at 8:15 p.m. forfeited a deposit of $30 this morning in municipal court on a charge of failing to stop and identify himself at the scene of an accident.

Marvin S. Fuglestad, 420 Sioux St., was arrested by police today at 8:30 a.m. at the police station. Officers said the right rear side of Fuglestad's car struck the left front of a parked car owned by Newell Pederson, 424 Lafayette St. Damage to Pederson's car was estimated at $100, to Fuglestad's, $10.

Pederson's car was parked pointing south on the right side of Wilson Street. Fuglestad, who had been going west on 3rd, turned left to go south on Wilson when his car collided with the parked vehicle.

Armed Forces

CALEDONIA, Minn. — Army Pfc. Walter F. Gensmer, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover P. Gensmer, is a member of the 8th Infantry Division's 12th Artillery, which recently returned to its home station at Baumholder, Germany, after four months of bolstering the Allied garrison in West Berlin. Gensmer and other members of the artillery were ordered to the beleaguered city in August and traveled through Soviet-controlled East Berlin in U. S. Army vehicles. The 12th has been replaced by the 24th Infantry Division's 13th Artillery. A surveyor in the artillery's Headquarters Battery, Gensmer entered the Army in June 1960, completed basic training at Ft. Hood, Tex., and arrived overseas in October 1960. He is a 1955 graduate of Caledonia High School and a 1959 graduate of the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis.

ELGIN, Minn. — Pvt. Betty J. Adler, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isadore A. Adler, recently completed the typing and clerical procedures course at the Women's Army Corps Center, Ft. McClellan, Ala. Pvt. Adler received training in correspondence, filing, English composition, typing, Army organization and military law and security. She entered the Army last August and received basic training at the fort. She graduated from Elgin High School in 1961.

ARCADIA, Wis. (Special)—Giles P. Skroch, aviation machinist's mate airman, U. S. Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Skroch, is serving with Attack Squadron 46 at Naval Air Station, Cecil Field, Fla. He reported to the squadron Dec. 4 from Memphis NAS, Tenn.

GREENFIELD CIRCLES HARMONY, Minn. (Special)—Circles of the Greenfield Ladies Aid who will meet this evening are Ruth Circle at Mrs. Richard Johnson's home, Esther Circle at Mrs. J. H. Bergey's home, and Martha Circle at Mrs. Erick Ellingson's home.

Rice made the motion, seconded by Dr. L. L. Patterson. Voting was by ballot.

The addition to be completed by next January, will house kindergarten and the first six grades plus a library and music room.

The 5-room Sunset school, plus all-purpose room, now houses only grades 5-8. But the seventh and eighth grades will be moved back into the high school building when the new structure is completed by next January.

ADMINISTRATOR John Brown said the present high school enrollment of 325 is expected to increase to 355 next year, requiring room now occupied by grade students in the present high school building.

Dr. E. O. Wilberg, chairman of the school board, said the present kindergarten numbers 40, but the number is expected to increase to 85 as the board plans to transport rural children to Whitehall for kindergarten classes. There are 102 students in second grade now, the largest elementary enrollment in the city school, indicating that more room will be needed for the higher grades as these children advance.

In accordance with recommendations by the state Department of Public Instruction, which wishes to close on-room schools, Brown said, children from the Fly Creek School will be transported to Whitehall next year, and by 1963 he expects the Bruce Valley children also will be brought to Whitehall.

BROWN SAID financing of the new school will be by local loans until the district can secure a State Trust Fund loan. Borrowing from the state, because of many demands on the trust fund, is not always available immediately.

Members of the district were told that the present Sunset school was built at about $11 per square foot, or for a total of about $150,000. The board hopes to build the addition at not more than $12 per square foot.

Arrangements for extending the water and sewer lines and electrical circuits were made when Sunset School was constructed, and the furnace room was constructed so the addition of another boiler will heat the 10-room addition. Utility connections for a kitchen were roughed in. According to present plans, all rooms except one in the addition will be occupied, and the board thinks it probable that by the time it is completed, that room also will be necessary.

MEANWHILE, the old steel frames and windows on the high school building, installed when it was erected in 1922, are being replaced by aluminum and glass block windows. The north side of the building was completed last year. Clifford Woychik's construction crews completed the south side during the Christmas holidays and are working on the east and west sides. This is a heat conservation improvement.

Terrazzo stairs are gradually being installed to replace the badly worn and broken concrete stairs. This work is being done by Flex-O-Tile Co., Rockford, Ill., which installed the terrazzo corridor on the third floor of the building last year.

During the Christmas holidays the well at the Fly Creek School in the Whitehall district was repaired and chlorinated by Finch Well Drillers, Gatesville, to insure safe drinking water for students.

Drifting Snow, Bitter Cold Over Wisconsin

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Drifting snow and bitterly cold weather assailed Wisconsin today after the weekend's severe snowstorm. Main roads were open but many side roads were blocked.

The State Traffic Patrol reports light snow and snow flurries north of a line from Grantsburg through Chippewa Falls; Wisconsin Rapids and Oshkosh to Sheboygan. Strong winds have caused drifting in many areas. In the northern part of Ozaukee County, main roads are restricted to one lane and side roads are blocked in some areas.

All four legs of the interstate highway system report fair to good winter driving conditions with isolated slippery spots caused by drifting.

Sheboygan reported 20 below zero temperature at 6 a.m. Other temperatures, all below zero, included: Juneau 19, Medford 16, Madison 14, Janesville 11, Grantsburg 12, Stevens Point and Lancaster 10, Waukesha 8, Milwaukee 6, and Green Bay 3.

Out-of-Court Settlement Urged In McGuffey Row

KENOSHA, Wis. (AP)—Both sides in the McGuffey Row case are vying at the Twin Lakes elementary school have been instructed to try another time for an out-of-court settlement.

Circuit Court Judge Eugene M. Baker made the request Monday and asked for a report on the outcome of the effort within 48 hours.

Baker said that if no agreement is reached, a date will be set for resuming a hearing on a petition for the ouster of four members of the school board.

Settlement conferences were started last month and brought an initial report of some progress before they were broken off with attorneys saying the parties were still far apart.

After two days of testimony, Judge Baker suspended the hearing because of a death in his family. At that time he called for a conference of the parties concerned.

The ouster plea was filed by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lovely of Twin Lakes. They charged four of the board's five members with "inefficiency and neglect of duty" in introducing the 1979 edition of the McGuffey Reader into Lakewood School.

The removal action was aimed at Dennis Beula, chairman of the school board; clerk William Smeth, treasurer John Collins and John Pfeiffer. The other member, William Thorsen, opposed the books and was not included in the petition.

Judge Baker's latest request was made as school activities were shifted to a new $350,000 building. It was the first day of classes after the holiday vacation.

Also, it was the first day of full activities for Lakewood's new principal, Orville Bright, a retired school superintendent from Lake Bluff, Ill.

He was hired last month after the board fired principal Raymond Oestreich, who had opposed the McGuffeys. Oestreich, who was working under a one-year contract, had been under suspension with pay since Nov. 4.

THE WORLD TODAY

World Quiet, But Look Out

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The world's leaders are acting like automobile manufacturers who have their plants working overtime but aren't saying much until the new models come out.

At this moment the world, compared with some of the feverish moments of 1961, is in a period of tranquility which, of course, won't last.

The crisis over Berlin has died down. Southeast Asia is very troubled but not explosive. The Russians and Chinese aren't happy with each other but are keeping quiet about it. Fidel Castro is hardly doing more than mumbling. Moslems and Europeans in Algeria are still shooting and bombing one another but that's par for the course there, even in the Congo some of the noise has died down, and in this country and this election year Democrats and Republicans haven't begun calling each other names yet.

President Kennedy is almost fully occupied getting ready for the return of Congress Wednesday. French President Charles de Gaulle, never very noisy, is contemplating the problem of Algeria. West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, figuring that silence is the better part of wisdom, at least temporarily, is waiting to see what Kennedy and Premier Khrushchev work out on Berlin. British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, who had made a habit of being inconspicuous, is indulging his habit; Mao Tse-tung, the real boss of Red China, is as usual letting others do his talking for him and they're not saying much; and Khrushchev himself, most of the time a kind of international Fourth of July, including the rockets, is as quiet as a Sunday morning.

Khrushchev, in fact, at this moment is the No. 1 global mystery. Why has this man, who kept 1961 jittery with talk and tension about Berlin and creating a new status for the East German Communists, been so quiet now for months?

He has been increasingly quiet on Berlin, in fact, since last autumn when the Communists built a wall to seal off East Berlin. This move forced the West to admit East and West Berlin and East and West Germany couldn't be unified. It also shut off the flow of valuable East German non-Communist manpower and brains to the West.

It's almost as if, after the wall went up, Khrushchev had said to East German Communist boss Ulbricht: "You got enough to keep you quiet awhile so will you please shut up."

Listing this catalogue of quietudes is like writing a memo, shoved into a bottle and tossed into the sea for future generations to find and wonder at, on how for some strange and unknown reason the world for a brief time in the early part of 1962 had an almost civilized appearance.

But this seems unreal and unnatural and in a few days, perhaps in a few weeks, the world should return to normal.

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) Crooner Bing Crosby is reported steadily improving following his operation for removal of kidney stones.

His physician, Dr. Frederick Schlumberger, said Crosby probably will be released from St. John's hospital within a week.

Russia Agrees To Release Belgian Plane

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet government agreed today to release a Belgian airliner which landed Monday in Armenia while on a flight from Tehran to Brussels. Belgium, with 27 persons aboard.

First Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily Kuznetsov told Belgian Ambassador Hippolyte Cools that all passengers and crewmen were safe and staying at a hotel in Grozny, north of Yerevan, where the plane was reported forced down.

Kuznetsov delivered a routine formal protest about the violation of Soviet air space by the Caravelle jetliner.

Conor O'Brien Marries Today

NEW YORK (AP)—Conor Cruise O'Brien, who resigned from the Irish foreign service after being recalled from his United Nations job in Katanga, married the daughter of a top Irish official today. The time and place were not disclosed.

O'Brien and Maire MacEntee, daughter of Sean MacEntee, deputy prime minister of Ireland, took out a marriage license Monday. Her age was listed as 39 and her address as Cedarhurst, N.Y., on Long Island.

O'Brien, after his resignation, said he was divorcing his wife of 22 years to marry Miss MacEntee. The marriage application said O'Brien's Mexican divorce became final Jan. 3.

O'Brien, who had three children by the previous marriage, gave his age as 44. He listed his occupation as writer.

Colds and Flu Sweep Britain

LONDON (AP)—A wave of colds and influenza is sweeping Britain in the wake of the recent cold spell, causing a high incidence of work absenteeism.

At least one auto plant was forced to shut down its assembly lines for lack of workers. A hospital closed its casualty department because so many nurses were ill. The Ministry of Health said the outbreak has not reached epidemic proportions, however, and that only a mild type of influenza virus has been identified.

Mexico Likes U.S. Tourists

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Tourism is so important to Mexico that old Joe Bloke of Goose Creek has almost as much influence with the Mexican government as the big shots in Washington.

An exaggeration, probably, but it's a fact that a flurry of tourist cancellations can get quicker results than a politely worded protest from the state department.

This was proven again in 1961 when anti-American riots, demonstrations and speeches caused alarm north of the border. The government was silent until tourists by the thousands called off trips.

Then officials began issuing statements that Mexico was not pro-Castro, that it was really pro-American all along. It took steps to stop the trouble.

It isn't because Mexicans like old Joe Bloke. They like — and badly need — his Yankee dollar. Recent statistics show that exports—mainly raw materials—produce an average annual income of $750 million. Tourism brings in around $700 million.

To reach the $750-million export figure, Mexico must export 1 million bales of cotton, which requires twice that many acres of land, usually under costly irrigation; 75,000 tons of coffee; 105,000 tons of beef; 150,000 tons of lead; 42,000 tons of copper; 350,000 tons of zinc; a million tons of sulphur; 80,000 tons of hennequen fiber; millions of barrels of petroleum; large amounts of sugar and other commodities. Production of these items requires large investments of capital and labor. Profits fluctuate with world market demands.

Tourism requires only a fraction of the capital and labor invested in exports. Profits, one source says, amount to a million dollars a day. Furthermore, tourism does not exhaust national resources. It actually improves the country.

Modern Mexico inherited the things which attract tourists: scenic beauty, a wonderful climate, health-giving mineral springs, beaches; archaeological marvels left by Aztecs, Mayans, other ancient tribes; centuries old colonial cities and monuments built by Spaniards.

Mexico also is in a privileged geographic position, nesting next door to the United States, easily reached by lower-income tourists as well as the wealthy.

Intoxicated Guard Fires Gun in Truck

NEW YORK (AP)—Bang, bang, bang, bang, bang, bang! Six shots rang out and the Wells Fargo truck carrying $45,000 through lower Manhattan screamed to a stop.

Holdup? Nope. Police said the shots were fired Monday night by Victor Maher, 54, a messenger riding inside the truck. He was intoxicated, police said.

The Brooklyn man and a guard riding with him received superficial wounds from shattered glass, police said. Maher was charged with felonious assault.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM R. A. Dunlap, above are at home in New Baden, Ill., after their marriage at French Creek Lutheran Church, Ettrick Town, Wis., at 8:15 p.m. Dec. 30. Mrs. Dunlap is the former Miss Audrey E. Dahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd F. Dahl, Town of Gale, Wis., and Mr. Dunlap is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Dunlap, West Salem, Wis. Mrs. Dunlap is employed by the Greater Belleville Savings and Loan Association, Belleville, Ill., and Airman T.C. Dunlap is stationed at Scott AFB, Ill.

Irene Thompson Becomes Bride At Peterson

PETERSON, Minn.—Highland Prairie Lutheran Church was decorated with white chrysanthemums, white pompons and daisies, lighted candles, and Christmas trees for the marriage of Miss Irene P. Thompson and L. Willard Overland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Overland, Rushford, Rt. 2, Dec. 30 at 2:30 p.m.

The Rev. J. R. Gronlid performed the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. J. R. Gronlid, organist, played the traditional nuptial selections. Shelby Westby, Peterson, soloist, sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Wedding Prayer." Pastor Gronlid sang "The Lord's Prayer."

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her uncle, Elmer J. Thompson, Rushford, chose a gown of Chantilly lace over white satin, fashioned with a scalloped bateau neckline etched with sequins, long sleeves and a ballerina-length skirt with scalloped hemline. The fitted bodice closed with tiny buttons down the back below the V-shaped neckline. Her silk illusion veil was attached to a crown of lace and pleated tulle, trimmed with pearls and sequins. Her jewelry, a pearl choker and earrings, was a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums with accents of bright blue.

Mrs. Gordon Overland, matron of honor, Spring Valley, wore a gallant blue velvet street-length frock, made with square neckline, three-quarter length sleeves, and a full skirt with a bow in the back. Her short veil was held by a circle of blue velvet and she carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums accented with blue. Her pearl choker and earrings were a gift from the bride.

The flower girl, Connie Faye Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carme Johnson, Whalan, niece of the bridegroom, wore a white lace dress fashioned after that of the bride. Her tiara was made of pleated lace and white net trimmed with white flowers. Her bouquet of white chrysanthemums was a miniature of the bride's. Her pearl necklace was a gift from the bride. Ringbearer was Larry Jerviss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jerviss, Houston, nephew of the bridegroom.

ROBERT OVERLAND, Rushford, was his brother's best man. Curtis Rustad, Beaville, Texas, and Dale Rustad, Rochester, Minn., cousins of the bride; Carmen Johnson, Whalan, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Gordon Overland, Spring Valley, cousin of the bridegroom, were ushers.

The mother of the bride wore a bright blue wool dress with white hat and gloves. The bridegroom's mother wore a bright blue wool dress with matching blue hat and gloves. Both had white corsages.

A reception for 250 was held in the church parlors with Miss Mary Dahl as hostess and Maynard Rustad as host. Miss Ruth Laumb, Rushford, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Don Peterson, and Mrs. Jack R. Love, Rushford, Mrs. Charles Koeller, La Crescent, and Miss Harriet Hahn, Preston, opened gifts. Mrs. Carmen Johnson, Whalan, and Mrs. Gordon Jerviss, Houston, sisters of the bridegroom cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Lester Rustad and Mrs. Grant Wermanger, cousins of the couple poured. Mrs. Clifford Rustad, Mrs. Clarence Rustad, and Mrs. Raymond Rustad assisted with the serving. Members of the Highland Prairie Mary Circle prepared the reception lunch. Serving were: Miss Agnes Gregersen, Rochester; Mrs. Charles Austad, Cambridge; Mrs. Walter Thompson, Jr., and Mrs. Frank Rossin Jr., Winona; Mrs. Charles Ruen, Lanesboro, and Miss Irene Rustad, cousins of the bride, served the bridal table.

AFTER A short wedding trip the couple will be home on the farm at Bratsberg, For travel, the bride wore a royal blue wool sheath dress with black and white accessories and a white corsage. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Rushford High School and is engaged in farming. The bride is a graduate of Rushford High School.

New Dresses To Have Curves In Right Places

By JOY MILLER
AP Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—This spring a woman will look like the kind of girl dad might remember, although junior is possibly too young.

She'll have curves in the right places, an over-all softness in mood, a freedom of movement, a waistline as high as her spirits.

At least that's the good word that Adele Simpson, Harry Frechtel and Guy Douvlier of Christian Dior-New York put forth in the first afternoon shows of the New York group's weekly parade.

With one flounce, the underpinnings may have been knocked from under a prevailing thought of some psychologists: that an unconscious motive in fashion design is to make women helpless, hampered in movement, handicapped in trying to undertake the pursuits of men.

If anybody is going to feel helpless, it will be the men when they first look upon the new womanliness rampant this spring—or just possibly, when they first look upon the price tag.

An indefatigable traveler who gathers inspiration and fabric from around the world, Adele Simpson goes out of her way to facilitate the modern woman's movement.

She has knee-free skirts—as she calls them—to allow ladylike sitting without undue winking of kneecaps. Jackets are rarely cluttered with buttons — "there's enough trouble in the world without complicating clothes," she says.

Her costumes have ease and subtle flare, suit skirts move lightly, redingotes curve softly over pretty silk dresses.

A collection of size 6 fashions, modeled by her pretty brunette daughter, Joan—5-foot-2½, 105 pounds—reduces the new femininity to pocket-size proportions.

Consistent with the tender trend are Harry Frechtel's gently fitted clothes. Jackets hug closer and closer to the body, suit skirts wrap to the side or have front panels.

Frechtel uses handwoven blue

THE ENGAGEMENT of Miss Sigrid Helen Stetteland is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar B. Stetteland, Pigeon Falls, Wis. Miss Stetteland is the fiancée of Mr. William J. Larson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Larson, Darf, Wis. Both are students at the University of Wisconsin.

CIRCLE O Circle O of St. Martin's Lutheran Church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Joseph Kamrowski, 540 W. Mill St., Wednesday at 8 p.m.

VIRGINIA WEDDING STOCKTON, Minn. (Special)—Mrs. Dora Ogrusky, Stockton, and Miss Rose Schettler, Winona, returned home on Friday after a two and one-half week visit in Arlington, Va., where they attended the wedding of Mrs. Ogrusky's granddaughter, Miss Joan Ogrusky, Arlington, Va., to Kenneth Daugherty, Seattle. They also visited relatives in Milwaukee on the return plane trip home.

silks from India and linen from Ireland in suits, Swiss cotton brocade in two-piece dresses, French fabrics and synthetics woven in Italy in shaped or bulky coats.

In his sharply elegant second collection for Dior, Guy Douvlier let the high-bosomed princess, sweeping in unbelled at the waist and out at the hem, rule for both dresses, however, are flounced, day and evening. Some evening dresses, however, are flounced, ruffled.

DODGE, Wis. (Special)—A La Crosse resident, here Sunday with his family to visit relatives, became seriously ill, shortly after noon and was taken by ambulance to Lutheran Hospital, La Crosse. He is Bernard Kaldunski, son of Mrs. Mary Kaldunski and brother of Mrs. Walter Kratch and Andrew Kaldunski. He was hemorrhaging internally. Mrs. Ralph Muga underwent surgery at the Methodist Hospital, Rochester, not St. Mary's, as was reported previously.

Secretary Cancels Philippine Raises

MANILA, Philippines. (AP)—President Diosdado Macapagal's executive secretary has knocked out a budget provision to raise his salary.

The proposed government budget would have raised the annual salary of executive secretary Amelito Mutuc from $6,000 to $8,000. He also canceled raises for two of his assistants.

4 Soldiers Killed In Ft. Hood Crash

FT. HOOD, Tex. (AP)—A tank and a truck collided at Ft. Hood today and a resultant explosion killed four soldiers and injured 19 others, 11 seriously.

The tank belonged to the 67th Armored and the truck to the 35th Armored of the 2nd Armored Division.

They hit at the gate of the motor pool of the 67th Armored. No names have been released.

Mountain Midwife Who Helped Deliver 3,000 Babies Dies

MANCHESTER, Ky. (AP)—"Aunt Sarah" Collett, a mountain midwife who helped deliver more than 3,000 babies in this eastern Kentucky region, died of a heart attack Monday at the age of 95. She was a widow and had worked as a midwife 40 years.

In 1933 she gave the last piece of land she owned as the site for a new schoolhouse at the community of Blue Hole.

The school has been used as a meeting place for church groups. "I wanted it this way," Aunt Sarah said.

Her last wish will be granted, too. Her funeral is to be held at the new school. Her burial place is to be on a mountainside overlooking the building.

Kitchen safety: Handles of saucepans that are being used for cooking on surface range units should always be pointed to the side.

DEAR ABBY:

Merry-Go-Round All Mixed Up

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am 33, divorced and believe me, I have my problems. I am seeing a psychiatrist once a week. I met a very good-looking man (I'll call him "Mr. X.") in the psychiatrist's office. We were immediately attracted to each other and found we had a lot in common. We spent a few evenings together (he came to my apartment) and I think I am in love with him.

I told my psychiatrist everything and he said I should quit seeing "Mr. X.", because he is more mixed up than I am. If I must make a choice, I will give up seeing the psychiatrist because "Mr. X." is doing more for me than he is. I told my psychiatrist I wasn't seeing "Mr. X." any more, but I am. Should I tell the psychiatrist the truth, quit seeing "Mr. X." or quit seeing the psychiatrist? MIXED UP

DEAR MIXED UP: You sought psychiatric help because you needed it. You still need it. Your psychiatrist can't help you unless you are completely honest with him. X out "Mr. X." tell your doctor the truth and follow his advice.

DEAR ABBY: The letter from the woman whose husband didn't think he could make it down the aisle at his daughter's wedding sure hit home with me. I was a widower when my daughter married and I flatly refused to "give her away." She was all I had. She was married in the Presbyterian Church and the preacher said nobody had to give the bride away in his service. She walked down the aisle all by herself and not to the strains of Lohengrin, either. (It was too sad and sounded like a funeral march). I had them play "Pomp and Circumstance." Sincerely, MIND OF MY OWN

DEAR ABBY: Nobody believes me, but this is the truth. I had a wart on my thumb for many years. I went to a doctor and he told me to leave it alone. I was very self-conscious about it because, as you know, warts are not very pretty. A friend of my mother's was visiting one day and we got on the subject of warts. She told me to tie a thread around it, go out in the yard after dark and bury a potato upside down, and the wart would go away just as soon as the potato rotted. Just for a joke, I did it. Within one month my wart disappeared. Can you explain it? BAFLED

DEAR BAFLED: No. And neither can anyone else. There is no scientific explanation for some of the legendary "cures" that appear to work in ridding people of warts. My advice is to let a doctor decide the treatment. He is more dependable than voodoo. Of course if you want to bury a potato, too, it won't do any harm.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "DONE WRONG IN FLORIDA": Nonsense. Because one woman "did you wrong" is no reason to retire from the human race. All women are not alike.

Classes Over 12 Months Suggested

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Gov. Ernest Vandiver says a proposal to hold public school classes 12 months a year is very provocative and he hopes legislative committees will give it thorough study.

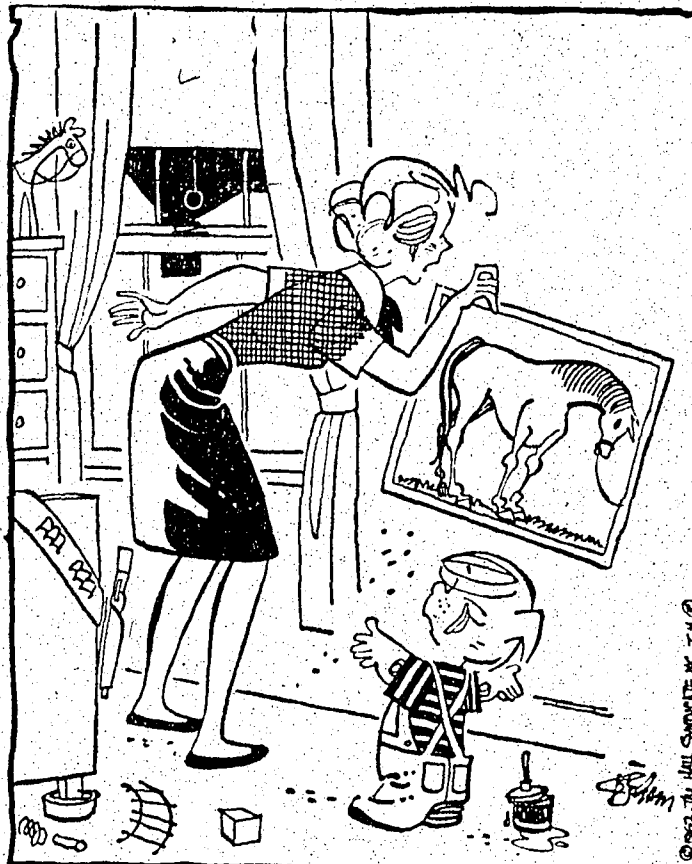

But, he added at a news conference Monday, "My 13-year-old son has very passionately requested that I veto that piece of legislation."

He was born Sept. 24, 1923, in Quincy Township, son of Paul and Rose Bedtke.

He lived in the Plainview area all his life until moving to Milwaukee six years ago where he was employed as a construction worker. He never married.

Survivors are: His parents, of Minneapolis; one brother, Michael, St. Paul, and one sister, Mrs. Phyllis Currels, Wabasha.

Funeral services will be 9:30

WEATHER FORECAST . . . Snow flurries are scheduled tonight for the Great Lakes, the Ohio valley and the eastern Rockies with some light snow in the northern Gulf area and parts of the southern Plateau. Rain is expected in the lower Mississippi valley and southwestern Atlantic states. It will continue cold or colder in most of the nation—except for the lower Pacific coast area where temperatures are expected to remain the same as Monday night. (AP Photo-fax Map)

Argentina Opposes
Collective Sanctions

WASHINGTON (AP)—Argentina apparently opposes any collective sanctions against Cuba, Latin American diplomats say.

They said that seemed to be the essence of a series of proposals forwarded to President Kennedy by Argentina's President Arturo Frondizi.

The diplomats based their estimate of the Argentine proposals, which have not been made public, on news dispatches and on attitudes expressed by Argentine diplomats.

a.m. Friday at St. Joachim's Catholic Church, Plainville, the Rev. S. E. Mulcahy officiating. Burial will be in St. Aloysius Cemetery, Elba.

Friends may call at Johnson and Schriver Funeral Home from 10 a.m. Thursday until time of service Friday. The Rosary will be said at 3 and 8 p.m. Thursday.

Fillmore to Sell
Bonds for Roads

PRESTON, Minn. — Bids for $350,000 in coupon bonds to finance construction of bridges at Peterson and Lanesboro will be opened in the office of Fillmore County Auditor Charles V. Michener next Tuesday at 11 a.m.

The two bridges will cost an estimated $435,000. Michener said it is expected that state aids will pay the entire cost, but the faith and credit of the unlimited taxing powers of the county must be pledged to the amount of the bonds. State aids have averaged $403,700 the past two years.

A NEW LAW passed by the Legislature last year made it possible to hasten construction of needed highway projects by bonding on future state aids, Michener said. From such aids the county expects to pay off the bonds at the rate of $50,000 a year beginning Feb. 1, 1963.

The Peterson bridge is estimated to cost $235,000. It will replace

La Crescent Council
Expecting Crowds

LA CRESCENT, Minn. (Special)—The La Crescent Village Council voted Monday night to install a speaker system in the Village Hall, purchase a tape recorder for a permanent record of council meetings and publish proceedings in the Times-Chief, local newspaper.

This action came following an acceptance speech by the new mayor, William Mishler, who with Phillip Utz when the village will have legal counsel. Mayor Mishler said that appointment is being made, subject to approval of the council. L. L. Duxbury Jr., Caledonia, was village attorney during Mayor Senn's term.

Myron Waldow of Caswell Engineering Co., village engineers, presented plans for the new well, pump house, pumping equipment and discharge pipe to water mains. The well has been completed at a cost of $7,920. It is 550 feet deep and has been tested pumped up to 1,000 gallons per minute.

He suggested that when bids are called on pumping equipment, council ask for prices on 500- and 800-g.p.m. per-minute units to compare the cost difference on installing larger equipment.

Herbert Stanford, president of the Taxpayers Association, asked why the council had not answered his group's question on why a larger pump in one of the present wells was not considered instead of the new well and equipment. He said council had been informed by Taxpayers Association that a used pump with a capacity of 800 gallons per minute was for sale by a La Crosse brewery.

Council conceded that the matter of a larger pump had been brought up but had no record of a specific pump.

Alan Charley, ex-mayor, said, "If you are going to put equipment 750 feet into the ground, it had better be good." He said past experience had proved it is costly to do otherwise.

The pump and equipment will be given further study by the council.

A letter from Gov. Elmer L. Andersen on a federal survey of fallout shelters for civil defense was read. Council members and Winston Leider, CD chairman, will attend a regional meeting for further information.

COUNCIL agreed to pay mileage for Donald Anderson of the auxiliary police, who will attend six radiological fallout classes in Winona.

At the suggestion of Charley, council agreed to have the village maintenance department establish a good skating rink.

A request of Clerk Robert Kies for a $300 a year raise was taken under advisement although councilman Donald Schlott voted against the delay, calling attention to the increasing duties of the clerk due to increase in population. Kies said he spends at least 100 hours a month on clerk's duties.

At the request of Arnold Frick, council will arrange a public hearing on the zoning ordinance adopted at the December meeting as soon as I. D. Shaddock, zoning expert, can be present.

Cartier, a veteran of 39 years in the government service, 34 years of it with the Bureau of Indian Affairs, said no one had contacted him about any complaints.

"I have a 39 year record without a blemish," he said. "Apparently these people don't try to get the facts. No one had contacted me about any charges or complaints."

Fire Damages Car
On Arcadia Street

ARCADIA, Wis. (Special)—Arcadia volunteer firemen extinguished a fire in a car driven by Mrs. Gaylord Hanson, rural Arcadia, Sunday morning. Mrs. Hanson was flagged down by a pedestrian as she traveled on Main Street here. Damage was estimated at $200.

Eau Claire Plant
Looks for New Defense Orders

EAU CLAIRE, Wis.—The nation's defense program could lead to renewed production of military goods at Eau Claire, Wis., by National Presto Industries, Inc., the company said in its annual report to stockholders Monday.

The company has plant facilities totaling some 900,000 square feet at Eau Claire, but except for some space leased for storage to other companies the facilities are idle.

National Presto, which has its headquarters at Eau Claire, got into defense business in World War II. In the middle 1950s it transferred its production of commercial items such as kitchen cookers to a plant in Mississippi.

Defense work at Eau Claire during the Korean War involved as many as 2,000 workers at peak periods. National Presto has made such military items as fuses, shells, cases and aircraft frames at Eau Claire.

In a preface to the company's annual report, Melvin S. Cohen, president, noted that the company in 1961 received an award of a research and development contract for "a new type 175 mm. shell."

If the shell is adopted for production after the development phase, production could be accomplished on National Presto's existing eight-inch shell line at Eau Claire, Cohen said.

Social Security Talks

Winhawks, Ramblers to Battle LaCrosse Quints Tonight

Winona Daily News Sports

Tuesday, January 9, 1962
Page 13

By AUGIE KARCHER
Daily News Sports Editor

It will be "Winona vs. La Crosse tonight in high school basketball. Winona High's Winhawks will play host to La Crosse Logan at WHS and Cotter High will travel to La Crosse to do battle with Aquinas.

For the Ramblers it will be a case of trying to avenge a 50-41 setback suffered at the hands of Aquinas Dec. 1.

For the Winhawks it will be an attempt to match the 51-44 triumph of Cotter over Logan Dec. 20.

Cotter and Winona High camps present two different pictures. The Ramblers are buoyed up by a surprise romp over Austin Pacelli last Friday night.

The Winhawks, however, had nothing to be joyful about after a severe shellacking from La Crosse Central.

The two Winona teams played their extremes in those contests. Coach John Kenney of the Hawks admits even Logan has him worried. And if he had any depth on the bench, which he doesn't, he'd be prone to sit out most of his regulars.

"The boys that should be carrying us aren't and that has been a big factor," says Kenney. Even the return of Bob Graunick, leading Hawk scorer, wasn't enough to offset the loss of Dave Hazelton.

Kenney moved two of his junior starters into the lineup of the junior varsity for Monday's game at Plainview. Wulf Krause responded with 22 points and Marly Farrell with 12. It has been his policy to use only underclassmen and seldom a starter.

Logan played a press against Cotter and is almost certain to follow suit against the Hawks, seeing the success Central had with it Friday night.

The Ramblers, who have continued to show improvement with every game, will need another top performance tonight. The Bugolds have lost only to cross-town rival Central in 11 games.

Coach John Nett's Ramblers will go with its new starting five of Larry Modjeski and Sam Czaplowski at forward, Bob Judge at center, and Gene Schultz and Rich Starzecki at the guards.

The Ramblers were able to run frequently against Pacelli and it's obvious the "fireman" game is their best style.

Cotter homes home Friday night to take on Marian of Owatonna in a Ravoux Conference game Friday night and Winona takes to the road for a Big Nine tilt with the Spartans at Mankato.

Mill City Skier To World Tournament

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. (AP) — Skiers from Colorado, Minnesota, Vermont and Maine will make up the United States team that will compete in the world ski competition in Poland in March.

Michael Elliot, 19, of Durango, Colo., Karl Bohlin of Minneapolis, Robert Gray of Putney, Vt., and John Bower of Auburn, Maine, were chosen for the team Monday by officials of the U.S. Nordic Committee. Alternates include Larry Sorenson of Duluth, Minn.

Wiltgen Raps Redmen After 69-62 Reversal

MOOREHEAD, Minn. (Special)—In the wake of St. Mary's 69-62 loss to the Cobbers of Concordia College here Monday night, Redmen Coach Ken Wiltgen promises lineup changes, "and lots of 'em."

Wiltgen said after the game, "We lack the hustle and will to win. We don't want to make the sacrifices that are necessary to have a successful ball team. We are not prepared or mentally alert. One thing is certain there are going to be plenty of lineup changes by the time we come on the floor for Saturday's game."

THE REDMEN just couldn't seem to get going against the Cobbers although they did lead 35-27 at halftime.

Four times in a row in the first few minutes Concordia brought the ball down the floor and lost it without getting a shot at the basket, but things on the Redmen's end of the hardcourt were no better.

With 16 minutes to play in the half the score was 8-4 Concordia, but St. Mary's rallied for nine points with Denny Burgman and Al Williams flipping in field goals.

The offensive machine played well enough to take the halftime lead, but in Wiltgen's opinion they should have been ahead by 20.

"WE MUST have blown eight layups in the first half," he said. "You can't play like that and expect to win."

At the outset of the second 20 minutes Concordia hit seven straight points while the Redmen counted on a lone layup by Marly Lillig, who finished with 11 points, to trail by only 37-34.

The two teams traded buckets to make the score 42-38 with 16:05 left and then the Cobbers started to roll.

Glen Wheeler, who tallied 11 points, hit three successive baskets on a layup and took two hook shots and Les Torgerson, who led Concordia with 18, contributed a layup to give the Cobbers their first second half lead of 46-42 with 13 minutes to play.

THEY MAINTAINED the four point advantage until Mike Stallings hit a jump shot and Lillig added two free throws to knot the score at 54-54 with half the period gone.

Concordia spurred away to stay behind baskets by Wheeler and Frank Johnson, who finished with 15.

With seven minutes left the score was 59-56 and the Redmen didn't score another field goal in the contest until Tom Hall hit two layups in the final 15 seconds and by that time Concordia was safely in front 69-58.

In the seven-minute span St. Mary's scored only two points on a free throw each by Tom Ruddy and Burgman, who led the scoring with 12 points.

ALTHOUGH the Redmen failed to hit from the field with any regularity, the story of the game was written at the gift line.

Both teams had 25 field goals but Concordia cashed in 27 charity tosses to 12 of 16 for the Redmen.

In the final two minutes alone St. Mary's blew six easy shots, four of them crucial layups that could have brought a victory.

And now for the Redmen, who have been up and down all season, is another MIAC test Saturday night at Terrace Heights when St. Thomas brings its quint to town for an 8 p.m. contest.

Monday's loss left St. Mary's 2-3 in the league race while the win was Concordia's third in six starts.

WRESTLER . . . Annette Palmer, above, will meet Barbara Baker in the semi-final bout on Friday's Winona Winter Carnival wrestling card at Memorial Hall. The bout is a best of three fall affair, 45-minute time limit. The ring show starts at 9:10 p.m. to allow Friday evening shoppers to attend.

Beaulieu Nets Six Goals as Redmen Romp

NORTHFIELD, Minn. (Special)—Andre Beaulieu, St. Mary's freshman iceman from Canada, turned in a double hat trick as the Redmen hockey team shut out Carleton College 10-0 here Monday.

Beaulieu was sensational as he fired in six goals, four of them unassisted, to lead St. Mary's to its third win in as many starts and the first in MIAC competition.

Dick Caldwell was the big man in the nets for the Redmen as he stopped 14 shots in recording his first collegiate shutout.

ON THE FOUR goals Beaulieu registered unassisted he skated the length of the ice and through the entire Carleton team to bang home the scores with devastating accuracy. The left defensemen also picked up assists on two of the other four scores to add to his performance.

Beaulieu got the Redmen rinks off to a fast start as he flipped in three goals in the first period when St. Mary's moved to a 4-0 lead.

The first came with 8:30 gone on an assist from Robert Magnus, the second at 12:30 unassisted and the third at 13:50 from Ed Tierney who also scored two goals himself, one at 15:43 of the first frame, during the course of the contest.

In the second period it was Beaulieu twice in a row unassisted. The first came at 4:00 and the second at 16:30 before Don Berrigan, another Canadian product, fired one home on an assist from Mike Fronter at 19:50.

BERRIGAN hit his second unassisted with 45 seconds elapsed before Beaulieu again got into the act unassisted at 3:30 in the third period.

With 8:10 remaining Tierney slammed home his second score on an assist from Beaulieu to end the day's scoring.

Five penalties were assessed during the final frame and one St. Mary's skater summed up the situation by saying, "We were so darn cold by that time that you had to slam and bang around a little to keep warm."

Next action for the Redmen pucksters comes at the hands of the same Carleton six Thursday at the Terrace Heights rink at 7 p.m.

In other MIAC action Monday Augsburg squeezed past St. Olaf 5-3.

BEHIDJI STATE College really felt the impact of the classroom deficiencies among its athletes.

Eleven Beavers were forced to turn in their togs because they lost the battle of the textbooks.

Coach Jack Vinje's basketball team was hard hit, losing starting center John Pierson, Gerald Derby, a top guard, and sophomore Gerald Finnerly, plus two freshman prospects. Vinje's reserve center, 6-6 Merv Heitschmidt, also is no longer in school because of low grades.

Behidji wrestler Dave Frank, conference 167-pound champion, also has been ruled ineligible for the season.

THE 61-YEAR-OLD Three-I baseball league, of which Winona was a member not too long back, dies an official death Jan. 15.

The oldest Class B League in organized baseball folded with Sunday's business session in Des Moines. Its $11,146 treasury will be disbursed among the six club members of 1961.

Three of the cities, Des Moines, Lincoln and Topeka, will have no teams in 1962, but Fox Cities, Cedar Rapids and Burlington are expected to switch to the Class A Midwest circuit.

MAX MOLOCK, St. Mary's baseball and hockey coach, is in Chicago today and Wednesday for the winter meetings of the American Association of College Baseball Coaches at the Conrad-Hill.

Molock hopes to complete the spring schedule for his Redmen baseballers while at the sessions.

PETERSON HIGH SCHOOL recently dispelled the theory that basketball is the ONLY sport during the winter.

Between halves of the final game at its holiday basketball tournament, Peterson gymnasts staged a well-received exhibition of gymnastics.

SPLITMAKERS IN WINONA BOWLING: Elmer Gabrych 5-10, Len Dorsch 5-7, Leo Prochowitz 5-6 and Norman Banicki 5-6, all in the Winona AC Sportsman's League, all on the same night . . . Jack Salvey 2-7, Don Hagen 3-10, Jack Kasimor 5-7, A. Gessel 2-4-10, Fred Burmeister 5-7, at St. Martin's . . .

JIM ROBERTS has resigned as manager of Westgate Bowl, effective Saturday.

Roberts joined the Westgate staff when the 16-lane plant opened this fall. He had operated a bowling center at Ladysmith, Wis. His future plans are indefinite, he says.

Paul Gardner hasn't announced a replacement as yet.

OFF THE CUSHION: Mont du Lac at Duluth has added a new T-bar tow which can handle 1,200 skiers per hour . . . The mishap which cost Winona High the services of Dave Hazelton for two weeks with torn leg tendons is an example of why John Kenney permits no skating, skiing, sledding for his eagles except during the one week of Christmas vacation . . . "Skating is worst of all for a player," says Kenney, who has nothing against the popular ice sport, except that one fall can wreck a career for the year . . . Former Winona women's bowling star Jerri Modjeski is scoring well in Tucson, Ariz., leagues. She is now Mrs. Rich Michalowski . . .

Badgers Nudge Spartans to Share First

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—The upstart Wisconsin Badgers held a share of the Big Ten basketball lead today after coming from behind on the play of Ken Siebel, Ron Jackson and Tom Gwyn to beat Michigan State 83-78.

The victory Monday night was the second in as many conference starts for the Badgers. Minnesota has won both its starts and Ohio State its only outing. The Badgers now will turn their attention to semester examinations and won't return to action until Jan. 23.

The game was rough and tough. In the final second Gwyn squared off with State's Pete Gent after the Spartan had sent the Badger sprawling.

Wisconsin won the game on the foul line.

The Spartans, 0-2 in the conference and 5-5 overall, were charged with 23 fouls and Wisconsin eight. The Badgers hit on 19 of 31 free shots while Michigan State put in 8 of 10.

The Badgers, taking their second straight victory here, had built up a 14-point lead with seven minutes left in the half.

Then the Spartans launched an aggressive attack in an attempt to catch up. They succeeded in cutting Wisconsin's edge to 35-33 but trailed 41-37 at the intermission.

Michigan State kept up the pressure in the second half and squeezed out in front 54-53.

The score was tied at 61, 65, 69 and 74 while the lead changed hands eight times.

Jackson clinched the victory with a driving layup and a free throw to make the score 81-74.

Jackson was the game's top scorer, getting 23 points. Siebel added 18, Gwyn 13 and Hearden 13. Ted Williams was high for state with 14.

Duluth Pounds Johnnies for 6th Straight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Minnesota Duluth warmed up for its Saturday meeting with Hamline University night in an 87-56 romp over winless St. John's.

UMD, now 6-0 in the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, tackled the Pipers (4-1) in St. Paul Saturday night in what may be the last chance for anyone to toss a roadblock in the path to another conference title.

Thirteen players got into the scoring list as Duluth idled along for a 31-27 halftime lead, then shattered the Johnnies with a 56-point outburst in the second half.

Tom Adams and Bill Mattson led the parade with 22 points apiece. Craig Myres managed 18 for St. John's.

In other MIAC games, Concordia topped St. Mary's 69-62 and Gustavus defeated Macalester 79-64. In a Northern State Conference tussle, Moorhead bested Bemidji State 65-54.

Big Jim Nagel flipped in 32 points for Moorhead while Bill Cline had 20 for Bemidji. 17 in the second half as the Beavers put on a strong rally.

Tonight's slate has St. Thomas at Augsburg in the MIAC and Bemidji at Valley City, N.D., in a non-conference game.

Kaehler Leads Banlam Scoring

After four games in the Park-Recreation Banlam Basketball League, the statistics show Ronnie Kaehler of Peoria leading all scorers with 83 points for a 20.3 per game average.

Bill Hornes of Red Men Club is second with 55 points for a 15.1 average and Jeff Blesanz, Central Methodist, third with 51 points and a 12.3 average.

ST. PAUL (AP)—Bernie Allen, rookie Minnesota Twins bonus second baseman, will enter the Marines Feb. 25 under the six-months plan.

Allen, 22, former Purdue athlete, will start training at Parris Island, S.C., and is scheduled for release Aug. 24. He played for Wilson in the Carolina league last season, and was on the roster to report for spring training with the Twins at Orlando, Fla.

Coach Bob Jones takes his Winona State wrestling team into its first NSCC contest at St. Cloud tonight in "cautiously optimistic" after the trip to the east prior to the holidays.

"Workouts have been going real well," Jones stated. "I think physically we are ready; now it's up to the kids to get themselves up for their match mentally."

AFL to Assess Fines on Coaches Gripping in Public

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—American Football League club owners, managers and coaches will be fined up to $1,000 if they gripe in public about officiating, Commissioner Joe Pess says.

He said Monday night he won't fine Sid Gillman, San Diego Chargers coach, for griping publicly about officials in the championship game but added:

"If they complain the press or at booster club meetings in the future, I'll give 'em the ax."

Pess said he told the unhappy AFL representatives to take their gripes to the leagues office.

Monday's sessions were taken up with a treasurer's report, player retirement fund discussion, a briefing on a $10 million suit against the rival National Football League and officiating.

Rodgers' first three rounds were 67-71-69. Most observers thought he would yield to pressure on the final round and the winning effort would come from Fred Hawkings of El Paso, Tex.; Bob Goolby, the 1961 L.A. Open winner; Lionel Hebert or possibly even a late challenging Mike Souchak.

Rodgers' round cracked the 36-year-old tournament record of 63 shared by Tommy Bolt (1956) and Ken Venturi (1959) and erased the 72-hole score of 272 set by Lloyd Mangrum in 1956.

Rodgers' previous fame was limited. He won the national collegiate championship as a sophomore in 1958 at the University of Houston. He was low amateur in the Los Angeles Open in 1960.

Last year he won the Mexican Open in Mexico City, and in October he won the Salara Pro-Amateur at Las Vegas.

Rodgers' first three rounds here were 67-71-69. Most observers thought he would yield to pressure on the final round and the winning effort would come from Fred Hawkings of El Paso, Tex.; Bob Goolby, the 1961 L.A. Open winner; Lionel Hebert or possibly even a late challenging Mike Souchak.

Rodgers' squeaked that when he moved into a 3-stroke lead in the first nine holes and never let up with his birdie-barrage. Rancho Golf Club's par is 36-35-71. Rodgers did it in 32-30-62.

For the record, Hawkings and Goolby were the runners-up at 277. It was worth $3,325 apiece.

Jurgensen Has Surgery

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Eagles' all-pro quarterback, Sonny Jurgensen, underwent surgery today to repair his right shoulder which was severely separated in the National Football League Rummage Bowl.

The surgeon, Dr. Mike Mandarino, who also is the club's team physician, said the 27-year-old star who set passing records in his first year as a regular "should be all right for next season."

"He might even be playing basketball in about eight weeks," said Mandarino.

MEET IOWA NEXT

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—The Minnesota Gophers put a new page in their school record-book today, the result of their 104-100 triumph over the Indiana Hoosiers.

The totals erased a handful of scoring marks set in the 1955-57 era—but more important it stamped the Gophers a power to be reckoned with as the Big Ten basketball season picks up steam.

The Gophers did it mainly by beating the Hoosiers at their own

WINS BY NINE

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A rookie with only six months experience on the tournament trail has won the first major prize of his professional career, the $45,000 Los Angeles Open.

Phil Rodgers of La Jolla, Calif., routed the older, more established pros Monday with a tournament record nine-under-par 62 and 72-hole total of 208. A pro barely a year, Rodgers left his nearest challengers behind by nine strokes.

It was the widest margin of victory since Mike Souchak piled up the same score over Billy Casper and Doug Ford in the Motor City Open at Northville, Mich., in August 1959.

Rodgers' round cracked the 36-year-old tournament record of 63 shared by Tommy Bolt (1956) and Ken Venturi (1959) and erased the 72-hole score of 272 set by Lloyd Mangrum in 1956.

Rodgers' previous fame was limited. He won the national collegiate championship as a sophomore in 1958 at the University of Houston. He was low amateur in the Los Angeles Open in 1960.

Last year he won the Mexican Open in Mexico City, and in October he won the Salara Pro-Amateur at Las Vegas.

Rodgers' first three rounds here were 67-71-69. Most observers thought he would yield to pressure on the final round and the winning effort would come from Fred Hawkings of El Paso, Tex.; Bob Goolby, the 1961 L.A. Open winner; Lionel Hebert or possibly even a late challenging Mike Souchak.

Rodgers' squeaked that when he moved into a 3-stroke lead in the first nine holes and never let up with his birdie-barrage. Rancho Golf Club's par is 36-35-71. Rodgers did it in 32-30-62.

For the record, Hawkings and Goolby were the runners-up at 277. It was worth $3,325 apiece.

McClendon to Get $18,000 at LSU

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Charley McClendon, a gridiron genius known as "a coach's coach," Monday won his spurs as a head football coach—succeeding Paul Dietzel at Louisiana State.

For McClendon, a 38-year-old Lewisville, Ark., native, it was a promotion from the ranks. He served seven years as Dietzel's chief assistant until Dietzel left last Friday to become head coach at West Point.

Athletic Director Jim Corbett said he polled the LSU board of supervisors late Sunday night about McClendon and is recommending a four-year contract at $18,000 annually.

McClendon joined LSU in 1953 after serving one year as an aide at Vanderbilt.

WINNER . . . Tom Nichols totaled 670 with handicap to win the singles crown in the St. Charles City bowling tournament. He topped a field of 76 bowlers to win by a 10-pin margin.

Looks Like Ohio First, Nine to Fight for 2nd

By JIM HACKLEMAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

With the Big Ten race barely under way two things seem apparent: Ohio State is clearly the class of the conference, and it's going to be a wide open scramble for the next nine places.

Ohio State's supremacy is no surprise. The deep and seasoned Buckeyes hold undisputed possession as the nation's top team, and are virtually sure shot, but to sweep to another conference title. Some other developments among the Big Ten members do rate in the surprise category.

For example, leading up to the conference opens last Saturday, Big Ten squads failed to latten up on outside opposition as they usually do. In 80 games against non-league opponents, they were 57-33—with Ohio State 10-0, Illinois 1-1 and Purdue 7-2. That left the seven others barely above the break-even point at 33-50.

For another thing, the teams expected to give Ohio State its stiffest competition haven't exact-

NCAA Requests No Probe of AAU Dispute

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association has urged the White House to hold off a possible federal investigation of its power struggle with the national AAU until "all avenues of negotiations are exhausted," executive director Walter Byers said today.

"The report I gave to White House representatives was that I, personally, felt that intervention by the federal government, from either the executive or legislative branches, should come as a last resort," Byers told The Associated Press.

"If it develops that a reasonable solution to these difficulties cannot be obtained, then I am sure the colleges will be the first to welcome the government's help."

Byers' confirmation to the Oakland Tribune's report that President Kennedy has been urged by several West Coast senators to intervene came in the wake of another step in the NCAA-AAU fight, this one involving track and field.

Opening the week-long NCAA convention, Byers announced Monday that the NCAA—had been petitioned by track coaches to take the lead in formation of a U.S. track and field federation that would greatly reduce AAU influence in the sport.

A similar federation has been proposed by the NCAA in basketball in the continuing struggle over representation to the international bodies in both sports.

Colleges, together with high schools and armed forces, have said the AAU has done a poor job in its conduct of affairs in basketball and track and field, particularly in regard to international matters.

The proposed federation would be composed of representatives of the NCAA, AAU, armed forces and high schools. A similar federation in which the YMCA would be included has been proposed by the NCAA in basketball.

If the struggle cannot be settled among the two groups, the international organizations in the respective sports would hold the final authority.

Nichols Captures Singles Title in St. Charles Meet

ST. CHARLES, Minn. (Special)—

The City League singles and doubles handicap tournament was held here the past two weeks at the Legion Community Lanes with 149 entries competing in the two divisions.

Tom Nichols of St. Charles swept to first place in the singles division with 670 while Bob Anderson was second 10 points behind at 660.

Rev. James Fasnach rolled in third with 643, Gordon Mahoney fourth with 635 and Don Turner, Chalfield, fifth with 632.

Bob Fischer and Ben Fazendin teamed to win the doubles title with 1,266 and Len Anderson and Vernon Loppnow, were second with 1,244.

Fischer and Doug Brighton finished third with 1,239. Brighton and Del Rubberg teamed for fourth with 1,201 and it was Fischer again, this time with Tom Nichols for fifth with 1,193.

The journey included entries from Chalfield, Eyota, Dover, Elba, Utica, Stockton and St. Charles.

Ladewig, Lown Lead Qualifying

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) —

Marion Ladewig slipped off her torrid scoring pace in the $100,000 all star bowling tournament but was still leading the 48 surviving women by a huge margin after the first day of semi-finals.

The 11-vincible grandmother from Grand Rapids, Mich., rolled four game series of 772 and 799. Her eight games Monday lowered her overall average from nearly 215 to 207. The seven time champion has amassed a 20 game total of 4,150 in five days of qualifying action.

Mrs. Ladewig's closest competition was two-time champion Sylvia Wene, Philadelphia who has accumulated 4,021 pins.

With one squad remaining in the men's preliminaries, Roy Lown of El Paso, Tex., continued to set the pace. He rolled an 878 series today to blot his total for 20 games to 4,385.

Dressen to Pilot Toronto; Furillo Still on Outside

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

Charlie Dressen, fiery, outspoken 63-year-old peppery, was back in baseball today for his 30th consecutive year as a manager or coach in the majors and minors.

Fired as manager of the Milwaukee Braves at the tailend of the 1961 season, Dressen rejoined the Braves system Monday, signing on as field boss of the Toronto Maple Leafs of the International League and extending an unbroken string of managing or coaching jobs that began in 1932.

While Dressen left the unemployed Braves, equally outspoken Carl Furillo, one of the stars for Dressen's Dodger teams of the early 1950s, remained on the outside after Baseball Commissioner Fredrick denied he is being blacklisted by major league clubs.

Two promising youngsters, Bernie Allen of the Minnesota Twins and the Detroit Tigers' Howie Koplitz, prepared to begin work for Uncle Sam. Allen, a second baseman, will enter the Marines while pitcher Koplitz goes into the Army, both for six-month periods.

Dressen, connected with baseball in some capacity since he began playing in 1919, said he could have had "four or five" jobs managing Triple A teams, but liked the Toronto offer best. He noted Toronto is considered as a possible addition if and when the majors expand again.

The Braves were no less happy at retaining Dressen's services. John McAlle, president and general manager of the Braves who have a limited working agreement with the Leafs, said: "We have always thought highly of Charlie as a baseball man. They (the Leafs) hired their own man and we were happy to go along with them."

Dressen has managed the Braves, Dodgers, then in Brooklyn, Cincinnati Reds and Washington Senators and has been a coach for the Dodgers (Brooklyn) and Los Angeles, and New York Yankees in a successful, but stormy career.

Furillo, dropped by the Los Angeles Dodgers midway in the 1959 season when he refused to report to their minor league club at Spokane, has been trying to hook on with a major league club as a player, coach or scout.

A former National League batting champion with a .344 average in 1953, the 39-year-old outfielder claims he "is being blacklisted by all major league clubs." "There is no such thing as a baseball blacklist," Frick said.

The New York Mets, positioned by Furillo for a job, concurred: "We reserve the right to hire our own personnel. There's no blacklist. After all, Furillo is going to be 40 years old."

General Manager Buzzie Bavasi of the Dodgers said, "The trouble is Carl wants a job as a scout or a manager. He should go to the minors to find out if he

Sports Traffic Cited in Plea For 400 Service

ST. PAUL (AP) — Major league

sports and the people they bring to the Twin Cities were cited Monday among reasons for continuing service by the Chicago and North Western "400" trains.

Alderman Donald P. Risk, Minneapolis, said at an Interstate Commerce Commission hearing that trains carry many of these fans to the Twin Cities to see the Minnesota Twins and the Minnesota Vikings.

Risk testified at the hearing on the railway's application to abandon the Chicago-to-Twin Cities 400 trains and similar trains between Mankato and Chicago.

Risk is author of a resolution opposing the abandonment passed unanimously by the Minneapolis City Council and signed by Mayor Arthur Naftalin.

Risk said population projections by the Census Bureau as well as plans for hotel and industrial construction and more conventions, as well as interest in major league sports makes continuation of the 400 service necessary.

The North Western contends it is losing $6,400 a day on the four services. Larry S. Provo, vice president and comptroller, testified Monday the road would cut its losses by more than a million dollars if the trains were discontinued.

Baby Sitter Held in Death Of 2 Infants

SHAKOPEE, Minn. (AP) — A

23-year-old Prior Lake man was held by Scott County authorities today in connection with the deaths of two infants, who died while he baby-sat with them.

M. J. Daly, Scott County attorney, said Delmer McCollum, who formerly lived in Minneapolis, signed statements in Scott and Hennepin counties admitting he caused the babies' deaths.

Latest victim was Roy, 7-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Heinrich Menning, Rt. 1, Prior Lake, with whom McCollum was living. The other infant was Linda Deloris La-Corsiere, 5 months, Minneapolis, who died April 13, 1959.

Similar circumstances of the two deaths while McCollum was baby-sitting led police to the Prior Lake man.

Detective Inspector Clarence Hawkinson of Minneapolis police said McCollum signed a statement admitting he placed a blanket over Linda's face and his hand over her mouth until she showed no signs of life. After waiting a short time, McCollum called the baby's aunt to tell her something was wrong with the baby, Hawkinson said.

The woman called police and a fire department rescue squad tried to revive the baby. Police learned the baby had been hospitalized two months earlier with pneumonia. The Hennepin County coroner, after an autopsy, ruled the baby died of "severe pulmonary adenoma and congestion."

Hawkinson said the case was closed after the coroner's report. McCollum, who was being held without charge today has been employed by Menning in trucking jobs, Daly said.

McCollum said Minneapolis detectives went to Prior Lake Monday to question McCollum after it was discovered McCollum's name was linked with the two fatalities.

County Fairs Big Business, Federation Told

ST. PAUL (AP) — Minnesota's

county fairs again grossed more than $1.7 million dollars in 1961, the state federation of county fairs convention was told Monday.

Clyde Kelsey Wadena, president, and other officers of the association were re-elected.

Robert Wells, Clinton, treasurer, and Hubert Ransom, St. James, secretary, reported 1961 a "normal year" with the fairs making an aggregate profit of $394,000.

The number of fairs was the same as in 1960. Of their total gross receipts, $951,000 came from receipts during the fairs and $416,000 from county aid.

Also re-elected were Logan Snow, Long Prairie, vice president, and directors Jesse Olson, Wadena; Walter C. Long, White Bear Lake; Don Brown, Wadena; and Norbert Harris, Grand Rapids.

Republicans in Wisconsin Want To End Session

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—The Wisconsin Legislature's Republican majority appeared intent today on calling a halt to the longest, law-making session in the state's history.

A GOP sponsored resolution proposing an immediate adjournment until Dec. 10 awaited action today by the Assembly. In the Senate, the Republican leadership made preparation for calling it quits by week's end.

And both GOP camps were ready to accept either alternative rather than risk talking their way into another new week.

The Assembly resolution carries a provision that would authorize the Assembly speaker and the Senate president pro tem to recall the Legislature on 10 days' notice any time prior to the Dec. 10 date.

Democrats rose immediately to the attack Monday. They charged Republicans with favoring a "lame duck" session of the law-making body and "shirking" several controversial issues awaiting action, including reapportionment, medical care for the aged, additional school aid appropriations, and public aid for transporting parochial school students.

Assemblyman Robert Huber, D-West Allis, noted that the Dec. 10 reconvening proposal would place the issues before a new Legislature, inasmuch as the general election is Nov. 6. The minority floor leader said the move would find "members not re-elected would find a way at all on issues because they didn't give a darn about legislation."

Democrats want to adjourn too, Huber said, but desire more "to finish our work first."

BOYLE'S COLUMN

Tough on Weight Watchers

NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks that give weight watchers a slow burn:

"Well, Elmer, you've already lost one chin—now you've just got three more to go."

"I hear he has to weigh himself on two bathroom scales—one under each foot."

"Remember, Elmer it's those little indulgences that add up. After all, an elephant eats only one peanut at a time—but look at the result."

"We ought to do something special for his birthday. How about lighting a candle on a piece of melba toast?"

"Excuse me, sir, do you want three or four lumps of sugar in your coffee?"

"You're doing fine, Mr. Wallow. You've taken off another quarter of a pound this week. Slow and easy—that's what does it. At this rate in another three years you'll be down to within 15 pounds of your normal weight."

"Would you mind taking this plate back to the kitchen, waiter? The gravy's too cold. And by the way, tell the chef to put a little more on, I like oodles of it."

"Why don't you go to my doctor, Elmer? He lets you eat all the fat you want."

"This one's for Elmer. Don't use a shot glass. Pour it from a tumbler. He's on a diet."

"Why don't you go to my doctor, Elmer? He lets you have four pieces of bread a day—and mashed potatoes twice a week, plus ice cream on Sundays."

"I don't know who the fat guy is, Joe. But every morning on the way to work he steps and puts his nose against the window and watches me toss pancakes. Wonder why he doesn't come in and have some?"

"Gee, I sure do envy you, Elmer. I eat, and eat and eat—and I can't put on an ounce to save my life."

"I'm sorry, Mr. Wallow. I've got this tape measure as tight as I can get it, and you still have a size 46 waist."

"He hasn't spoken to me since Christmas—and all I did was ask him if he wouldn't play Santa Claus at our club's annual party for kids."

"Please quit pulling in your stomach—no hard, dear. You're so red in the face I'm afraid you'll keel over."

Next time you're making white sauce to serve with cooked chicken or hard-boiled eggs, add diced raw celery to it for a texture contrast.
