RIOTING IN DOMINICANS

President Resigns, Military Will Rule

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Pressured by bloody rioting, President Joaquin Balaguer resigned Tuesday and a new civil-military junta was sworn in to rule this troubled Caribbean island nation.

The junta was installed at the National Palace several hours after air force tank troops fired into a defiant crowd of hundreds in the heart of the capital, killing at least four persons and wounding a score more.

The shooting touched off the most violent rioting in the city in months, and demands mounted for the resignations of Balaguer and his armed forces chief, Air Force Gen. Pedro Rodriguez Echavarria, who had been accused of planning to set up a military dictatorship.

(News dispatches from Santo Domingo were subject to censorship and made no mention of the fate of Gen. Rodriguez Echavarria. However, he told newsmen of the government change and Balaguer's resignation after a long emergency meeting of the State Council, and it was assumed he was still in control of the armed forces.)

The junta — four civilians and three military men — took over the government from the all-civilian seven-man council which had ruled for only 16 days. The council, headed by Balaguer, was installed Jan. 1 to guide the nation for 18 months toward its first free elections after 31 years of iron-fisted rule by the late dictator, Generalissimo Rafael L. Trujillo.

The change in government drew immediate fire from the National Civic Union, the largest anti-Trujillo faction, and leader of the opposition to Balaguer. A spokesman called it a military coup d'etat and said all Civic Union members in government posts would resign. However, associates of one of them, Foreign Minister Antonio Bonilla Atilas, said he had no plans to step out.

Radio Caribe, a government station, said the new junta will rule until Feb. 27, 1963, the date Balaguer had set for an elected government to take over.

(In Washington, a State Department spokesman described the situation in the Dominican Republic as fluid and withheld immediate comment. The United States resumed diplomatic ties with the Dominican government after the installation of the State Council.)

The junta, to rule without a president, retained two members of the deposed council—Antonio Imbert and Luis Amiana, prominent businessmen and the only survivors of the band of 12 that plotted Trujillo's assassination last May.

The other members are Maj. Wilfredo Medina Natal, Lt. Col. Neil Rafael Seja and Rear Adm. Enrique Valdez Vidaurte, and two government officials during the Trujillo era, Armando Oscar Pacheco and Huberto Bogart.

Unconfirmed reports said three members of the old State Council were placed under arrest. They are Rafael Bonnelly, lawyer-teacher who had been scheduled to replace Balaguer as head of government; Dr. Nicolas Pichardo, president of the University Professors' Association and a Civic Union member; and Eduardo R. Bareras, second vice president of the council and former president of the Supreme Court.

10 on Rigged TV Shows Plead Guilty

NEW YORK (AP) — Ten cash-winning contestant on rigged TV quiz shows, including Charles Van Doren, today pleaded guilty to perjury charges and were given suspended sentences.

Their pleas constituted admission that they had been coached in answering the television quiz questions.

All of them had been scheduled for trial in Special Sessions Court today. But when they appeared, the court permitted them to change their pleas of innocent to guilty.

Justice Edward F. Breslin, adjudging them repentant and saying that they already had been deeply punished by humiliation, suspended sentence.

Van Doren, who won $129,000 on the now defunct TV program, "Twenty-One," was the first to switch his plea to guilty to a second-degree perjury charge, admitting that he lied to a Grand Jury probing the affair.

Van Dorn, 35, is the son of the noted poet and writer Mark Van Doren. He lost his job as a Columbia University instructor after the quiz show hoax was exposed in 1959.

The others receiving suspended sentences were:

Henry Bloomgarden, 31, a young medical research consultant who won $98,500 on "Twenty-One."

Elfrida von Nardoff, brunette Brooklyn student who won the record quiz total of $237,500 in 21 weeks on "Twenty-One."

David Mayer, 40, Manhattan psychologist, who won $47,500 on "Twenty-One."

Morton Harelik, 37, a Brooklyn salesman, who won $500 on "Tic Tac Dough."

Richard Klein, 41, an administrator of Brooklyn, who won $1,000 on "Twenty-One."

Neil S. Wolf, 22, of Hoboken, N.J., a student who won $13,000 on "Tic Tac Dough."

Terry Curtis, 31, Manhattan film producer who won $78,000 on "Hi-Lo."

Paul Bain, 43, Manhattan music teacher, who won $2,500 on "Twenty-One."

Patricia Nance, a housewife of Glen Head, N.Y., who won $5,800 on the "Tic Tac Dough" program.

The case against an 11th defendant, Ruth Klein, 30, a Manhattan housewife who won $2,200 on "Tic Tac Dough," was adjourned until Jan. 24 because she failed to appear today. Her attorney said she was ill.

The 10 cases handled today brought to 17 the number of contestants who have received suspended sentences after pleading guilty to lying to a grand jury investigating charges that the quiz shows were "fixed."

A spokesman for the district attorney's office said the suspended sentences carry no probationary period because the judge did not fix any length of jail term in suspending it.

Goldwater Wants U. S. to Pull Out Of United Nations

OXFORD, Ohio (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater says he would like to see the United States pull out of the United Nations.

He also criticized anew the Kennedy administration, but the Arizona conservative said Tuesday night he has no intention of running for the presidency.

Goldwater said, "There are too many extremists or people on the left in government. There are never any on the extreme right in government."

The Republican senator spoke to an audience of students and townspeople at Miami University. He said, "Let's forget the whole thing and join up with our allies and induce the neutrals to join us."

"The world isn't ready for the United Nations."

One Man Dead In Fire at Austin

Rooming House Burns, Six Others Flee

AUSTIN, Minn. (AP) — Fire leveled a two-story rooming house in Austin early today, killing one elderly man. Six other roomers fled into 17 below zero cold.

The body of Charles Fossen, 73, who had been reported missing, was found in the smoldering ruins shortly before noon today. Fossen was a retired packinghouse worker.

Earl Sloan, 40, a roomer, smelled smoke shortly before midnight and routed the five other men, including Alvin Maguire, 50, caretaker. Two other residents of the seven-room dwelling were not at home.

First-arriving firemen found the two-story frame structure filled with heavy fumes. They said the blaze apparently started near a chimney.

The house, owned by Mrs. Elizabeth Watt, is located near the Hormel packing plant.

Business Building Burns in Duluth

DULUTH, Minn. (AP) — Fire that sent up flames visible for miles swept upper stories of a three-story business and apartment building in Duluth's West End early today. One woman suffered burns and one elderly man was led to safety from the apartments.

A general alarm brought out all available Duluth fire equipment in 25 below zero cold that caused hoses to freeze and affected efficiency of equipment.

Grace Johnson, 67, an apartment dweller, was hospitalized with burns about the face and arms.

Dale Stockman, 23, another apartment occupant, led an elderly man to safety after he heard cries for help in the smoke filled hall.

The first alarm was turned in at 6:10 a.m. Burning fiercely, huge flames shot through the roof at 7 a.m. Firemen soaked down nearby buildings to prevent the fire from spreading.

The brick veneer building, located at 19th Avenue West and Superior Street, has several businesses in the ground floor including two paint stores, radio and TV shop and pool hall. The upper two floors contain apartments, some of which were vacant.

U.S. to Press For Talks on N-Test Ban

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States plans a determined new effort in the next round of disarmament negotiations to get the Soviet Union to agree to a treaty banning nuclear weapons tests under an international inspection system, officials said today.

The United States will go ahead, meanwhile, with its program of underground test explosions, and the probability is that in the next couple of months President Kennedy will make a final decision to conduct nuclear tests in the atmosphere.

Informants said today that the present trend of administration thinking is strongly in favor of atmospheric tests aimed at improving U.S. nuclear weapons performance and developing an anti-missile missile.

The next round of disarmament negotiations is expected to open in Geneva March 14. The date and place are tentative pending approval of the 18 nations which will participate in the conference under U.N. auspices.

Nuclear test ban talks, which opened at Geneva almost three years ago, came to a dead end Tuesday.

'400' Hearing Ends at Madison

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Public sessions in an Interstate Commerce Commission hearing on an application by the Chicago & North Western Railway to drop its "400" passenger trains ended Tuesday.

The commission plans a ruling in April, according to Hearing Examiner John Bradford, who set Feb. 19 as the deadline for filing briefs.

The North Western seeks to abandon its "400" route between Chicago and Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minn., and another passenger route serving Madison and the Minnesota cities of Winona, Mankato and Rochester. The line contends the service has been losing $2.2 million a year.

Inter-Americas To Charge Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP) — An inter-America peace committee report due today or Thursday is reported to condemn Cuba for acts of intervention, human rights violations, and Communist ties.

The Organization of American States report is based on the committee's investigation of Prime Minister Fidel Castro's regime in Cuba. The investigation was requested in a resolution introduced by Peru.

Authoritative sources have said the report contains these major points:

1. Citation and condemnation of Cuba for acts of subversion and political intervention. This reportedly is backed by nine examples of political intervention on the part of the Castro government. In each case, sources said, evidence is presented by the government concerned.

2. Condemnation of human rights violations. Six broad categories of these violations are cited, including executions, jailings, deportations, and deprivation of property.

3. Condemnation of Castro's proclaimed ties with the Sino-Soviet bloc.

Latin American experts regard the report as one of the strongest documents ever presented against a country. One diplomatic source said the report is "a serious document that makes no affirmation that is not backed by fact."

The committee chairman is Ambassador Francisco R. Lima of El Salvador, whose government, with other Central American states, plans to seek sanctions against Castro at next week's foreign ministers' conference at Punta del Este, Uruguay.

The other members of the committee are Colombia, the United States, Uruguay and Venezuela. The committee approved the report unanimously.

Knight Quits in California Race

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Goodwin J. Knight's exit from the 1962 campaign tightened up California's race for governor today.

Political leaders differed on the eventual effect, but most agreed it enhanced Richard M. Nixon's already bright chances for the Republican nomination.

Knight, 65, announced Tuesday he would not file for his old job in the June 5 primary. He was stricken last November by infectious hepatitis — a liver disease. His doctor, he said, advised against a strenuous campaign.

The decision by the colorful ex-governor removed the prospect of a Republican slugfest between Nixon and Knight, who had pledged a "real gloves-off fight."

It installed a hard-charging state assemblyman, Joseph C. Shell, 43, of Los Angeles, as Nixon's chief challenger on the Republican ticket.

Shell, an avowed conservative, has been making evident headway against Nixon's early commanding lead in polls. A wealthy oilman, he has delivered at least 400 talks throughout the state while Nixon has been busy on a book and other matters.

A third GOP candidate, former Lt. Gov. Harold J. (Butch) Fawcett, made a pitch for Knight's votes, saying "he and I always saw eye to eye." Knight, governor from 1953 through 1958, remained silent on whether he'll take sides in the Republican primary.

"I'm strongly for reduced tariffs," he said. "Michigan is one of the largest sellers of goods abroad. Had we reduced tariffs long ago, the huge auto industries in some foreign countries would never have been born. I'm astounded at the tariffs abroad against American cars today."

Mrs. Griffiths will have her chance to debate the matter where it counts—on the 25-member tax-writing Ways and Means Committee. Elected to the post by a party caucus Tuesday, she is the first woman ever to serve on the committee.

Congress Set To Accept New Army Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress appears willing to accept President Kennedy's plan to streamline the Army's high command.

The reorganization program caused little surprise and no declared opposition when it was announced by the Pentagon Tuesday. Its major provisions were known beforehand to key members of both House and Senate, either of which could kill it by passing a resolution.

The plan—the first major Army reorganization in nine years—involves creation of two new commands under which will be concentrated (1) research, (2) development, (3) procurement and (4) other functions now performed by such individual technical services as the Ordnance, Quartermaster and Signal Corps.

It does not affect the Army's combat structure or any of the field command organizations.

"The prime purpose of this reorganization is to develop an army with the best possible command structure, management, training, doctrine, weapons, equipment and morale," said Secretary of the Army Elvis J. Stahr Jr.

NAMED TO COMMITTEE... Rep. Clark W. Thompson, D-Tex., left, and Rep. Martha W. Griffiths, D-Mich., pose after being named to the powerful House Ways and Means Committee, the group which has jurisdiction over major portions of President Kennedy's legislative program. Glenn Space Flight Jan. 24

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The attempt to launch astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. into orbit about the earth has been postponed one day until Jan. 24, it was learned today.

Informed sources reported the delay was caused by a faulty valve in a cooling unit in the Mercury capsule. This unit feeds coolant into the astronaut's pressurized space suit while he is in the capsule about the Atlas booster awaiting the launching.

Originally set for Dec. 20, the launching was called off until Jan. 16.

No Place for Quick Cup

N.Y. Coffee Houses Increase

By ANDREW MEISELS

NEW YORK (AP) — If all you want is a quick cup of coffee, don't go to a New York coffee house. It's not the place for it.

The scores of coffee houses and cafes espresso that have mushroomed in this city are places to sit and linger over such exotic brews as cappuccino, cafe mocha and, of course, cafe espresso.

An increasing number of them are places to go for a variety of off-beat entertainments. At the Cafe Manzini, for example, you can see avant garde plays. At Phase 2, you can watch original musical reviews. At the Exodius, you can hear songs in many languages. At the Figaro you can attend a concert.

The single element that ties all of the diversified coffee houses together is the espresso machine that sits in each one like a benevolent Buddha. His hissing and puffing produce a strong black brew called, logically enough, cafe espresso. Additions of various ingredients to this basic brew produce the different coffees.

Contrary to popular belief, few beatniks frequent the houses. You will see students and their dates, serious artists and writers gathered to discuss their works and a considerable number of solid citizens out with their families for an evening's diversion.

The price for this diversion is reasonably enough. The various coffees usually cost from about a quarter up to 75 cents. There is rarely a cover, and a minimum, if any, usually runs only about a dollar or two.

There are now about 100 coffee houses in Manhattan, more than half of them concentrated in the Bohemian Greenwich Village area. They now also thrive in San Francisco, Chicago and other major cities as well as in university towns.

POLICE PREVENT A THEFT
LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Not every day does someone drop in at the Lincoln Police Station to borrow a pair of handcuffs.

But Assistant Chief W. H. Manchester was understanding when the request came from a pair of newlyweds.

"They're trying to steal me," the bride explained. College friends planned to separate the bride and groom as a prank.

Jury Awards $4,000 to Lanesboro Man

A verdict was returned in District Court late Tuesday afternoon in one personal injury case and a second jury was drawn this morning for the trial of two more automobile accident cases.

Yesterday's verdict awarded Robert Connaughty, Lanesboro, $4,000 in his suit against Roy Haake, Lewiston, brought as a result of a Feb. 21, 1961, accident involving cars driven by the two men on Highway 14 near the junction with the old Goodview Road.

Represented by Duane M. Peterson, Winona, Connaughty asked damages for injuries he suffered in the accident. Haake was represented by Clayton Narveson, St. Paul, and Judge Leo F. Murphy presided at the trial.

THE JURY drawn Monday afternoon began its deliberations after two witnesses called by Narveson—Dr. E. G. Callahan, a Winona osteopathic physician, and Dr. R. H. Wilson, physician and surgeon—had completed their testimony.

The jury went out at 3 p.m. and returned shortly before 5 p.m.

ANOTHER JURY, meanwhile, was drawn this morning to hear testimony in suits brought by Mrs. Ralph Waldrop, Fridley, Minn., and her three children against L. L. DeJarlais, La Crescent, and Anchor Casualty Insurance Co.

Damages totaling more than $175,000 are sought by the Waldrops in the two actions consolidated for trial.

Mrs. Waldrop charges that Donald Heishman, West Salem, Wis., Rt. 1, became intoxicated at DeJarlais' Supper Club at La Crescent June 27, 1958, before his car and an automobile driven by Waldrop collided on Highway 61 near Lamolite.

WALDROP and Heishman were killed and Mrs. Waldrop and her children, Peggy, Barbara and John, injured in the crash.

In one suit Mrs. Waldrop is asking $100,000; in the other, brought by the mother in behalf of her children, $75,000 damages are claimed.

'Fillers' in Guard Units Did Gripping, State Official Says

The gripping coming from the National Guard units called to active duty in October came from the "fillers" not from the men who had been with the units, the Minnesota adjutant general said here Tuesday night.

And some of the gripping was justified said Brig. Gen. C. J. Moeglein.

SOME OF THE grippers had just returned from the military service after two years and they couldn't understand why they were back in uniform when others were still at home awaiting military service.

To that extent the gripping may have been justified, Gen. Moeglein told an American Legion meeting.

The publicity given investigation of the grips caused the reserve

No one was injured in the latest incident. The passenger coach was empty, according to E. J. Borstad, agent here.

W. M. Lambert

forces great harm, the general declared, and he sought to correct some of it in his talk.

He said he wanted to correct one other impression. That was linking the publicity about unhappy Guardsmen with more recent reports of a reduction in the reserve forces.

THIS REDUCTION had been discussed before the callup, he said. It was not related to poor performance.

As a matter of fact, he continued, callup of the two National Guard divisions, plus smaller units, resulted in a demonstration that they "were in a high state of readiness." They have provided "full justification for the reserve program."

Gen. Moeglein, however, is convinced that the nation must revise its views on manpower needs. "We must soon come to some type of universal training," he declared. "We may never be able to enjoy luxury again of insisting on good physical specimens for the military service, he added. He feels that a position can be found for nearly all male citizens. This might include industry.

Changes such as these are required in our times despite the fact that they may be distasteful; "we must face reality," he said.

THE REALITY of the civil defense program also must be faced, said Gen. Moeglein. People cannot look to the federal government to provide civil defense; it can only help solve the problem, showing people how to solve it. "Survival is a very personal problem," he added. "You have to provide the answers."

Gen. Moeglein does believe that the destructive force of nuclear weapons has been overemphasized. They're not nearly as destructive as a hurricane, for example, he said.

"Too many have panicked before a shot is fired," he declared in decrying such recent slogans as "I'd rather be red than dead."

Before 1952 such a thing would not have been said in the United States. He contrasted this "survival better than annihilation" attitude with the fighting attitude when the Germans plastered them with bombs.

GEN. MOEGLEIN was introduced to the Leon J. Wetzel Post 9 audience by David Lueck, vice commander of the post who also is a first lieutenant in the Guard and on the staff of the 1st Battle Group, 135th Infantry. He also introduced representatives of military services present at the meeting.

The meeting was preceded by a dinner served by the Legion Auxiliary and attended by 175. At the meeting Ray Dorn, vice commander, reported a 1962 membership of 925. Dr. Donald T. Burt, commander, presided.

Following the post session, the 24-hour Club held its annual meeting. Arthur G. Steffes Sr. was re-elected governor and John Curtis was elected to succeed Bernard F. Boland, the retiring president. New president is LeRoy Roth; Adolph Brenner is vice president; Kenneth Poblocki was renamed secretary-treasurer.

Fidelity Officer Slate Unchanged; Assets Increase

No change in the board of directors or officer slate was made at the annual meeting of the Fidelity Savings & Loan Association in the Exchange Building Tuesday.

A. O. Stabstad is president; James T. Schain, vice president, and F. G. Schilling, secretary-treasurer. Stabstad and Schain were re-elected directors.

Other directors are Ervin Pearson, Clarence Totman, Harold Libera and C. E. Linden.

Schilling reported that assets gained nearly a half-million in 1961. They are now near $2 million.

Veterinarian, Hurt at Utica, Dies of Injuries

An Austin veterinarian who suffered multiple injuries late Monday afternoon in a two-car collision about six miles south of Utica, died at Winona General Hospital about 7:10 a.m. today.

Dr. Lawrence Burton Hines, 60, became Minnesota's 20th traffic fatality of the year, 14 less than last year's pace.

DR. HINES was injured fatally when his car and one driven by Marcelles G. Qualey, 37, Lanesboro, collided at the intersection of county roads 6 and 33 about 5:30 p.m. Monday.

Qualey suffered a fractured right pelvis. His passenger, Byron Randall, 48, also of Lanesboro, suffered head and facial cuts and complained of chest pains. Both are listed in good condition at Johnson Hospital, Lanesboro, where they were taken directly after the accident.

AN AUTOPSY was scheduled for today to determine exact cause of death.

Dr. Hines never fully regained consciousness, although for a time Tuesday afternoon he seemed to respond to his name, the hospital said.

The Hines car was traveling west on 6 and Qualey was going south on 33 when the two collided, apparently near the center of the intersection, according to Sheriff George Fort, who was continuing his investigation today.

The sheriff said the front of the Qualey car collided with the right side of the Hines car. The cars came to a stop about eight feet apart nearly 100 feet southwest of the point of impact. Dr. Hines was found lying unconscious between the two cars.

DR. HINES, a veterinarian for the federal government, had lived in Austin since 1941. He worked for the state Department of Agriculture until last February, when he was employed by the federal Department of Agriculture to test dairy herds for disease.

He was married in 1923. Survivors include his wife, Marian; a daughter, Mrs. Edwin O. (Rose) Eckert, Winona; a son, Terry, St. Paul Park; four grandchildren; and a sister.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at Jordan Mortuary, Austin, and burial will be at Belle Plain, Iowa.

He was a member of the Masons, the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion.

Wabasha County Taverns Entered

WABASHA, Minn. (Special) — Burglars who broke into the John Dondinger liquor tavern at Millville and Greg & Marcy's tavern at Mazepa Monday night got $14 for their work.

Entry to both places was made by prying open the front door. Both are on Main Street.

Dondinger notified the sheriff's office at 5:45 a.m. Tuesday when he entered the building to clean. Deputy Ed Lager said about $14 in change was taken from the cash register.

Deputy Jerry Olson said nothing apparently was missing from the Mazepa tavern. He was not off duty at 7 a.m. Tuesday by Greg Haugen. A dollar bill and some change still were in the cash register although it had apparently been opened, the officer said.

Both taverns are open until midnight.

Housing Authority Renames Officers

The Winona Housing & Redevelopment Authority re-elected all its officers at a meeting Tuesday.

They are: Frank Cunningham, chairman; Joseph E. Krier, vice chairman, and William J. Thurow, secretary. Arthur Gallien is executive director.

Gallien reported that construction of the homes for elderly is 34 percent complete, ahead of schedule. Target date is Sept. 5.

Fillmore Co. Welfare

PRESTON, Minn. (Special) — At a meeting of the Fillmore County welfare board here Tuesday, three old age assistance applicants were approved. Other action was approval of six general relief applications; denial of one for general relief, and two, pending.

The board's next meeting will be Feb. 6, according to Holf Haggenvik, executive secretary.

Arcadia Truck Driver Not Seriously Hurt

ARCADIA, Wis. (Special) — Driver of the flatbed truck which was smashed by a Green Bay & Western Railroad freight train here Tuesday morning was reported in excellent condition this morning at St. Joseph's Hospital, Arcadia.

Lee Andre, 25, escaped with a fractured nose and broken finger. He has no head or internal injuries, his doctor said.

A TOTAL of 1,800 chickens—out of 2,400—were killed in the crash which occurred at 9:45 a.m. on the Harrison Street crossing, a block south of Main Street. Some of the surviving chickens could be used, according to Darrell Schultz, manager of the A-G broiler plant here. The truck was carrying 3,000 pounds of broilers from the Allyn Kaste farm, Galesville.

The freight, headed north toward Independence, was slowing for switching in Arcadia. Andre was driving a broiler plant truck.

The engine hit the middle of the truck and carried the back wheels and crates of chickens with it until it stopped about four blocks from the scene.

THE LEAD ENGINE pulling freight No. 2 had a damaged air line. After it was repaired, the train got under way at 12:28 p.m., according to Marvin (Sonny) Wolfe, depot agent. No other trains were held up.

On Feb. 24, 1953, James Fetting, 14, was killed on this same crossing while riding in a truck with his father, Norbert Fetting. Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Tyvand, Whitehall, were killed on the Main Street crossing, where there are automatic signals, in 1955.

assessed valuation of personal property to a father and son, Wallace and Warren Dubbs, partners in a Hart Township farm, because of an assessor's error concerning the value of turkey poults. Assessed valuation for 1961 taxes was reduced from $647 to $161 for Wallace and from $540 to $54 for Warren.

Presiding at the board meeting was Chairman Paul Baer, Fremont, 4th District.

New County Garage Cost Tops $200,000

The Winona County Board of Commissioners accepted Tuesday afternoon low bids totaling $199,260 for construction of a County Highway Department garage and office building in Goodview.

However, one of the low bidders—Elmer C. Evanson, proprietor of American Plumbing Co., Winona, told the board after the bid opening that he had erred on the low side in calculating his bid of $7,475 which was $12,525 under the second lowest plumbing, heating and ventilating bid and $16,249 under the highest. Therefore he said he wanted to withdraw his bid.

After consulting Richard H. Darby, assistant county attorney, the board decided to accept Evanson's low bid together with two other low bids for other parts of the project. However, if Evanson refuses to sign the contract, as he indicated he would do, the contract will go to the second lowest bidder for plumbing, heating and ventilating—Winona Plumbing Co., $50,000.

IF WINONA Plumbing get the contract, this would make the total low bids for the project $211,785. Under the law, Evanson and other bidders had to post bonds with the board covering 5 percent of the bid amounts. In Evanson's case that's $1,873.75. The law provides that the bond is forfeited to the county board if the bidder fails to accept a contract. Deducting this bond from the $211,785 total would make the net cost to the county for the project $209,911.25.

Evanson did not tell the board how much his correct bid would have been.

WMC, Inc., Winona, was low bidder for general construction with a bid of $146,800. Winona Electric Construction Co. submitted a low electrical bid of $14,965.

Other bidders follow: General—Weis Builders, Inc., Rochester, $180,800; Keller Construction Co., Winona, $149,500; Nels Johnson Construction Co., Inc., Winona, $157,000, and Larson Construction Co., Rochester, $152,900.

Electrical—(All Winona)—Bauer Electric, Inc., $16,999, and Best Electric Co., $17,233.

Plumbing, heating and ventilating (all Winona)—Kramer & Toye Plumbing & Heating Co., $53,723; Sanitary Plumbing & Heating Co., $52,274, and Frank O'Laughlin Plumbing & Heating Co., $50,700.

THE COMMISSIONERS did not accept contractors' bids on alternate features of the project. For general construction, this would have involved substituting an additional cost a pre-stressed concrete roof instead of steel joists. Some of the other contractors said there would be extra cost if their electrical or plumbing-heating-ventilating work were done with a concrete roof.

No bids were received for a water well and pump. County Engineer Gordon M. Fay said the board would consider what to do about this later.

Construction will start about two weeks after contracts are awarded and be completed in 250 calendar days.

THE BUILDING, which will be built on a 4-acre site the county owns, was designed by Flad-Smith & Associates, W. Wayne Smith and Willard Ward of the firm attended the bid opening.

Some persons favoring use of the county building fund for construction of a new courthouse fear paying for the new Goodview building will seriously deplete the building fund.

A recent check of the building fund showed a total of $240,694.48. Deducting the $209,911.25 net cost to the county of the project would leave $30,783.23 in the building fund. This sum would diminish further when a bid is accepted for a well and pump and also for payment of architects' fees and other expenses.

THE SITE of the new building is east of the Minnesota Department of Highways building on Trunk Highway 61. The new building will replace the county garage on West 3rd and Winona streets, the county yard across the street, and office quarters in the basement of the courthouse.

Commissioner Adolph Spitzer, St. Charles, 3rd District, said recently the county board would sell the 3rd Street building and yard when the new building was ready. Spitzer said he personally favored putting proceeds from the sale into the building fund.

The new highway building will be 116 feet wide on the Highway 61 side and 176 feet deep. It will be a one-story building except for a garage mezzanine for storage. Facilities will include an office and two garage areas to house highway department vehicles.

JACK N. WALZ of Western Motor Sales, 225 W. 3rd St., received informal board approval to lease a 30-foot wide strip of county land west of the jail which adjoins the auto dealer's used car lot. Walz wants to use the strip to expand parking facilities. The informal approval was for a 5-year lease at a $300 annual rental with renewal options for four 5-year periods.

The length of the strip has not been measured precisely yet. It's about 150 feet long and runs south from the northern end of the county's property line on 3rd Street to the sheriff's garage.

Renting the 30-foot-wide strip to Walz would leave about a 2-foot-wide strip immediately adjoining the jail. However, the agreement will provide an easement so county maintenance employees can enter the rented property to repair the jail. Final approval will be given after the county board inspects the lease.

Walz offered to buy the property, but the board said the law required a proposed sale be advertised so bids could be received.

It Happened Last Night Young Bride Gives Him a Free Rein

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Handsome 6-foot-5 Forrest Tucker, 43, has celebrated the second anniversary of marriage to pretty little Marilyn Fisk, 22, a dancer in his show — and he consented to let me reveal the secret of their prolonged contentment.

"It's just by her letting me have a lot of loose rein," Tucker told me just before the veteran Hollywood star and his California-born bride moved on to Boston.

"She never pounces on me and says 'Where you been' or 'Who'd you see?' She says things like 'How'd you feel?'"

"A guy can't trap himself too much answering questions like that," Tucker philosophized. "She's such a cute little pixie — she was only 18 when she came on the show" — which is "The Music Man" road company. "Before I started dating her, I dated other kids on the show, and I don't think she'd object if I still did. I really don't."

"Now, Tucker," I said, as I am still very Ohio.

"Not that I ever would!" hastened the trimly-tailored star who has beaten Ben Hogan at golf, whom Walter Hagen thinks should play the Walter Hagen story. "But she knows all guys have a lot of little boys in them, but they always come home."

"MY GRANDFATHER was a pretty good goer," Tucker smiled. "My grandmother said, 'They always come home.'"

I asked him what the little girl from San Jose who'd never been in a show before thought of marrying the star last Oct. 23 in Chicago, which he considers his lucky town.

Tucker smiled. "All she said," he answered, "was 'I decided not to leave the show till I got you.'"

(Aside to Tucker: You'd better always come home!)

Simple Feeder
With more snow and zero weather coming, the need for artificial feeding of game birds and song birds grows, according to wardens and conservationists. Most Wisconsin wardens have launched extensive pheasant and quail feeding programs. In Minnesota, the conservation department does not encourage feeding or furnish free feed.

Stanley Appel, Buffalo County warden, is now feeding 300 pheasants and about 50 quail in the Buffalo City and Fountain City areas.

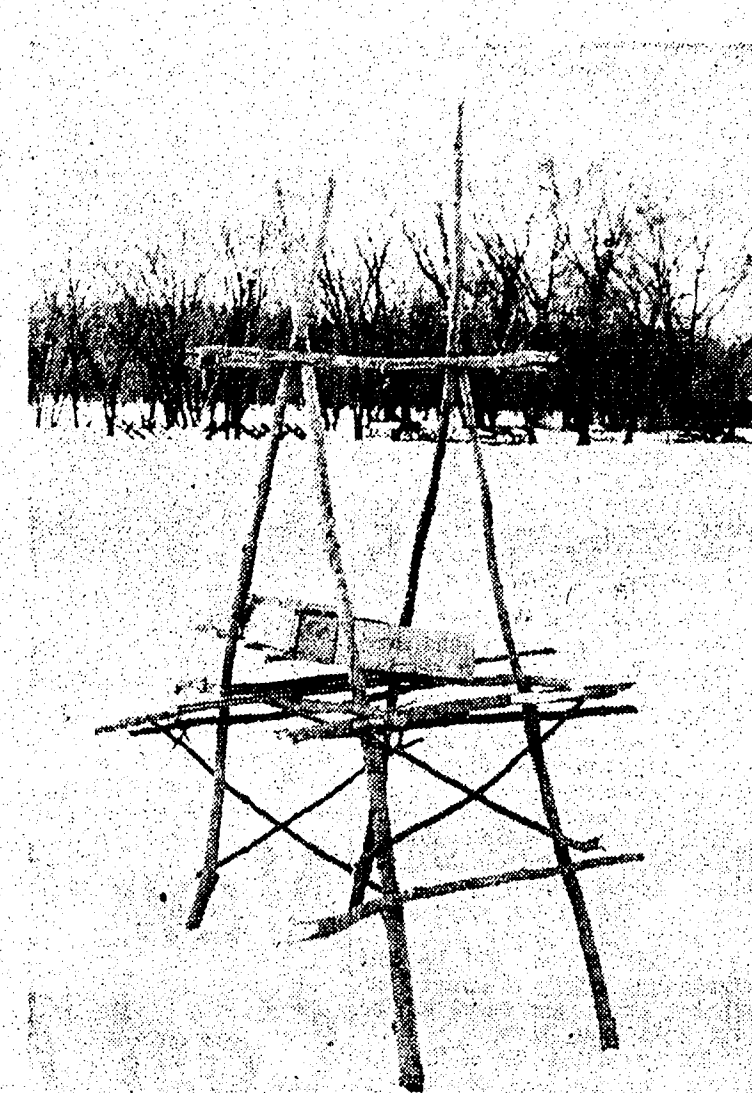

Over the immediate Winona area, however, considerable feeding is under way. Sportsmen's clubs, 4-H units and farmers have been providing the hungry birds with a meal quite regularly. In Winona, there are bird feeders in every block at least and other residents throw bread or other bird feed on clean areas or walks.

Boy Scout troops, 4-H groups and others who want to increase the carrying capacity in winter for birds, can get in on the act by building simple constructed feeders like the one pictured above. It is a modified teepee type. Any willow patch will furnish the sticks, a low box can be secured without difficulty. It can be fastened together with wire or binder twine. The picture of the one along the road on Prairie Island shows how it is done. Ear corn is being used there as food. It has to be cleaned and restocked after a snowstorm.

Fishing Complaints
Fishing is not only poor locally but statewide, according to press dispatches, reports from fishing contests, and fishermen who have gone north after walleyes.

In the Buffalo County Rod and Gun Club contest last Sunday, about 450 fishermen got 24 fish. At the Third Lake contest of the Trempealeau County organization, 38 fish were caught by 400 fishermen on the ice. The big fish was a two-and-a-half-pound largemouth bass.

Here are the comments on Mille

Lacs fishing by an outdoor writer who was there last weekend: "If something doesn't break soon this ice fishing season may go down into the record books as one of the worst in years. There isn't much doubt that action on the walleye front in Minnesota, and for that matter Wisconsin, has slowed down to a walk and it's puzzling a majority of the state's anglers and conservation experts. We returned from a two-day trip to Mille Lacs and the take was a few perch and a pair of tullibees today. And ours was not an isolated case. We checked fishhouses in the vicinity and could find no one with walleyes. Most of the houses were landing perch and a straggler tullibee here and there. But Mille Lacs is not the only lake not producing at the present time. The story is much the same throughout the state. Hjalmar Swenson, state fisheries supervisor, admitted that statewide fishing reports were poor. 'We have had some good reports,' he said, 'but generally fishing success is down.' 'We don't know why they aren't biting better. There just doesn't seem to be any answer.' Cold Weather Blamed Locally, fishermen have been blaming the cold weather. 'One can walk across the river anywhere now,' Leltoy Backus, one of Winona's top winter walleye fishermen, told us. 'Let it warm up and fishing will be good again.' Henry Kowalewski, Hot Fish Shop, said, 'He fishes every day. Another reason is the abundance of whad-in-the-river. The river is full of them,' a commercial fisherman told us. 'A pike don't have to move to get a meal.' Fishermen who have found 'hot spots' like the one across Lost Island or away back on Lawrence Lake, laugh at all this. 'You've

Fillmore Co-op Sales Hit Peak

HARMONY, Minn. — Sales of Fillmore Co-op Services reached a record $401,000 in 1961. It was reported at the 30th annual dinner and meeting here Saturday. More than 300 persons attended the event at Harmony High School auditorium.

Roy Schall, Harmony, manager, reported net savings after other income of $20,000 or 5 percent of the sales. The resulting patronage refund is 4 percent. Sales for 1960 were $391,797 with net savings amounting to $16,399 or 4.19 percent of sales.

Henry Pederson, Harmony, president, and Henry Ostrem, Lanesboro, were re-elected directors for three-year terms.

Stanley Mahland, Minneapolis, merchandising specialist, discussed soil management programs and explained how the new Midland Fertilizer Co. in Harmony would help meet the needs of the co-operatives. He introduced Maynard Sexe, manager, of the new plant.

Ray Kornmann, central area manager of Midland Cooperative, Inc., discussed improvement in co-operatives and emphasized the growth and merging of co-operatives to meet the demands of an economy dominated by national and international companies.

Bruce Storhoff, Lanesboro, and Peder Gihle, Norway, reported on the Youth American Institute of Cooperatives held in Minneapolis last August. The Fillmore Co-op Services sponsored their trip to the conference.

The film, "The Real McCoy," was shown depicting the story of the effectiveness of co-ops as applied by a group of poultrymen. Instrumental groups from the Harmony band played.

DEAR ABBY:

Can You Top This Situation?

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: The man I love is married to someone else — but not by choice. He has begged his wife for a divorce ever since he met me eight years ago, but she will not give in. She uses her children as her first line of defense. I would like to surprise him with a divorce as a gift, but don't know how to go about it. I have plenty of money for the lawyer, and am willing to pay whatever it costs to get this done in another state fast, without any public notices. In what state can I do this? NO TIME TO WASTE

DEAR NO TIME: The only state in which a woman can "surprise" a married man with a divorce is the state of delirium. If you want to give him a present, why not give him something his whole family can enjoy? His freedom — from you!

DEAR ABBY: I like a boy who I am sure likes me because all of his friends have told me so. We are both 15. He comes over to see me very often, but he never comes alone. He always brings anywhere from one to six boys with him. When he is with his boy friends, he usually ignores me. But once in a while, if I get him alone, like last night when I asked him to come in the kitchen and help me get the ice trays loose so I could make lemonade, he was just marvelous. How can I tell him I would rather see him alone without hurting his feelings? GOT A CRUSH

DEAR GOT: You can't. And if you could, I would advise against it. The boy needs his friends around him to give him courage. He's a bit shy. Don't try to get him alone or you'll be the one who's alone.

State Precinct Caucuses Will Be in February

By ADOLPH JOHNSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

Minnesotans get their chance to get in on the ground floor—politically speaking—next month.

That's when the state's two parties hold their precinct caucuses. Republicans will hold caucuses throughout the state between Feb. 5 and 17 and Democratic-Farmer-Laborites will have their neighborhood meetings on Feb. 27.

Often caucuses are held at regular polling places. The law requires that the gatherings be held in each election precinct at least once every general election year.

Caucuses are open to those who are qualified voters or who will be qualified by general election time. Persons who agree with the principles of the party or intend to vote for its candidates may attend the caucuses of the respective parties.

Prime purposes of the caucuses is to elect precinct officers and to choose delegates to the county convention, but in practice the meetings often do much more.

They frequently become wide open discussions along the town meeting or forum pattern. They offer a real opportunity for every citizen to speak his mind about political and party matters.

Discussions frequently involve possible candidates and endorsements may be voted for presentation to county conventions.

The same is true of issues. Discussions at the precinct level often produce resolutions to county and district conventions which eventually wind up as planks in state party platforms.

The race for Congress in the new 5th District—the city of Minneapolis—promises to be an interesting one with the early announcement by State Sen. Donald Fraser of his candidacy for the Democratic-Farmer-Labor nomination.

In the Senate, Fraser, a Minneapolis lawyer, has proved himself an effective debater and an able advocate of his party's programs.

If he seeks re-election, Republican Rep. Walter Judd is generally conceded the inside track on the basis of his long service during which he has established a national reputation, especially in connection with the Chinese question.

Fraser is counting on the addition of DFL territory to the old 5th District and a long, intensive campaign to help him.

This appears to be the year for early candidate announcements.

Look for another DFL candidate to open his campaign soon in a district now represented by a Republican. This also is expected to involve a liberal legislator.

Archbishop of Canterbury Welcomes Russ to Council

LONDON (AP)—The Archbishop of Canterbury told the convocation of Canterbury Tuesday that he welcomed the admission of the Russian Orthodox Church to the World Council of Churches at its recent meeting in New Delhi.

"It is hard to guess what might be the effect upon Christendom if the stores of spirituality in Eastern Orthodoxy, long isolated from the West and represented by historical experience utterly unlike our own, came into vigorous contact with the other parts of Christendom," said Dr. Arthur Ramsey, head of the Church of England.

Minnesota Law and The Precinct Caucus

(Editor's Note: This is the second of a series of three editorials on the background, the importance and the purpose of political party precinct caucuses.)

IN A REPORT to the 1959 session of the Minnesota Legislature, the Interim Commission on Election Laws had this to say about laws relating to political parties:

"For the most part they are obsolete, as they were passed at a time when there was no primary election and parties nominated the candidates for election. That part of these laws which governs the conduct of the precinct caucus is obscured by the terminology used and is largely ineffective. In drafting laws governing political parties, the commission was mindful of the policy established in this state permitting parties the utmost freedom from interference in their internal affairs. . . . It is intended of the revised sections that they set out the basic structure for the parties, and it is only in the case of the precinct caucus that there are detailed provisions for the conduct of the caucus itself."

The election law revision was passed that year, and it meant two major concepts were upheld for politics in Minnesota. First of all, the parties were given the utmost freedom in determining their internal affairs. Unshackled by interfering laws, the parties are free to determine their course of action for the voters to approve or reject.

Secondly, and at the same time, the basic right of individuals to participate in their political party was upheld through the precinct caucus law which makes it clear that the smoke-filled room is unwanted in Minnesota politics. The individual is protected in this law.

VERY BRIEFLY, this law says:

- 1) Each election precinct shall hold a caucus at least once every general election year.
- 2) All caucuses within a county must be held on the same day, must be convened between 2 and 9 p.m., and must be open for at least one hour.
- 3) A published notice must be made two weeks before the caucus and a notice of the place, date, and time must be posted at the regular polling place at least six days before the caucus.

4) Persons may participate and vote who: a) are qualified voters in Minnesota or who will be at the next general election, and b) are in agreement with the principles of the party and who either voted or affiliated with the party at the last general election or who intend to do so at the next general election.

5) Persons who voted or participated in the caucus of another party in the same year may not participate or vote in the caucus of another party.

6) If an individual's right to participate is challenged, the question must be decided by a vote of the caucus.

7) Each caucus must elect officers for the precinct and delegates to the county convention and may also discuss issues, candidates, or other business.

8) Nominations must be open for at least the first half hour and all voting shall be by secret ballot.

That is the essence of the Minnesota caucus law. As you have seen, every effort is made to protect the individual's right to participate and the party is held to certain legal requirements it must meet.

Each party can meet the intent of this law if every effort is made to get a good turnout for their caucuses. Why should you attend? That will be taken up in Thursday's editorial.

DFL CAUCUSES in this county will be held on Feb. 27. Republican caucuses will be held on Feb. 5. Watch for the announcement of time and place.

Leon Bronk Was A Solid Citizen

WINONA lost a solid citizen this week in the sudden death of Leon Bronk, East End businessman, community booster, politician and former postmaster.

He was a member of many organizations and long active in church, civic and fraternal affairs—but those who knew him well said his life was best marked by the help he gave, without publicity and in his own quiet way, to many who needed help. Although not a man of wealth, his small personal philanthropies carried an unknown number of persons along the way to a happier life.

Mr. Bronk served as a member of the Board of Education for several years and was one of the first board members to give unqualified support to the ten-mill building levy which assured our city its fine public schools plant on a pay-as-you-go basis. Most of the buildings now in use were constructed during his regime.

HE WORKED for the city's recreation program, good government, was a strong believer in home industry, devoted to Winona and believed in his city. It was always a pleasure to have him greet you, whether it was in the post office, on the street, in the church or at a club or Legion meeting.

The fool hath said in his heart, there is no God. Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity: there is none that doeth good. Psalm 53:1.

Conservatives Resist Tyranny

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

LOS ANGELES—Whenever an apostle of the big brother welfare state encounters a conservative, he invariably levels the charge: "You want to abolish Social Security and unemployment insurance," and, I presume, by saying this he expects to give validity to that off-repeated, ridiculous accusation that conservatives want to wind back the calendar and the clock.

To put this discussion in the proper frame of reference, let us first establish this fact: Conservatives are opposed to compulsion. We resist tyranny in any form, from any source, and because Social Security employs compulsion, we are opposed to the compulsory aspects of the program. Conservatives likewise find fault with the false promises of the present Social Security program. It is, we believe, immoral to say to a youngster just entering his productive years, "We are going to make you pay into Social Security all of your productive life in order that we may provide for you a sufficient retirement income to live in dignity when you have reached a specified age." The present contributions which are collected by force from the employee and the employers are not sufficient to provide the retired worker with an adequate income.

Conservatives are also committed to basic equity, and we find much to criticize in the present program which awards the Johnny-come-lately, with a history of only three or four years of contribution, precisely the same benefits given to the man or woman who has been a participating contributor over a span of 25, 30 or even 40 years.

THE FACT that we cannot agree that the present Social Security system is perfect does not warrant the assumption that it is our desire to abolish Social Security.

In our industrialized, urbanized, credit society, with inflation and high taxes adding an almost unbearable burden to the life of every citizen, it has indeed become difficult, if not impossible, for the individual to accumulate a sufficient nest egg to provide for his retirement years.

Private industry, prodded by the labor unions, frequently has recognized this fact, and most big corporations provide a retirement or pension system. But these benefits are not available to everyone, and there is room for an actuarially sound adequate program of retirement benefits.

CONSERVATIVES HAVE no desire or intention of abolishing Social Security. It is our hope that the program might be made more effective and truly beneficial by (1) permitting the employee to voluntarily increase his contribution and thus acquire the right for an adequate retirement pension, (2) adjust the present system of benefits to at least partially reflect the contributions made by the participants and (3) set up machinery for reserves and deposits in order to fund at least a portion of the obligation.

The Model T Ford by today's standards would scarcely be described as an adequate automobile, but it is ridiculous to say the engineers responsible for the 1962 series of Ford automobiles are opposed to and would like to destroy and do away with all automobiles.

WHA'D I DO WRONG, MR. CARNEGIE?

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

McCone Did Not Sell Stock While AEC Chief

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — In June, 1958, John A. McCone, the new would-be Central Intelligence chief, wrote a letter to Sherman Adams, later kicked out of government for a conflict of interest, to see whether he, McCone, might have a conflict of interest as new chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission.

Ignoring the fact that the Goldfine charges against Adams had not made him the best man to act as judge, McCone listed the Utah Construction Company, Kaiser Engineers, Dow Chemical, Union Carbide as doing large business with the Atomic Energy Commission, and simultaneously doing business with his own privately owned shipping companies.

Significantly, two of these companies, Kaiser and Union Carbide, showed the pattern of business links McCone has kept with his old associates and war profiteers. McCone was president and a partner with Henry Kaiser and associates in running the California Shipbuilding Company during the war when they rolled an investment of $100,000 into an over-all profit of $44,000,000.

Later, when he was under secretary of the Air Force, McCone gave his old partner a quickie flying boxcar contract at three times the cost the Air Force was paying Fairchild. Incidentally, Senate hearings conducted by the late Sen. Styles Bridges of New Hampshire showed that Kaiser and his subsidiaries got a total of $219,011,919 in government RFC loans; received $6,568,000,000 in government contracts and got approximately half a billion dollars in quickie tax write-offs.

KAISER HAS also been one of the biggest contractors with the Atomic Energy Commission including the period when Kaiser's old partner, John McCone, was AEC chairman.

The company which operates under the all-inclusive name of Utah Construction is also part-owned by Kaiser and actually is a big seller of uranium to the AEC through its subsidiary, Lucky Mc Uranium Corp.

Union Carbide is one of the biggest contractors with the Atomic Energy Commission. It not only sells uranium to the AEC, but operates AEC plants at Oak Ridge, Tenn., and Paducah, Ky. Both Union Carbide and the Kaiser interests benefited from the AEC's decision not to buy uranium from "underdeveloped countries." This obviously played into the hands of established American companies such as Union Carbide and Kaiser.

YET McCONE, before he became chairman of the AEC in 1958, admitted that he personally owned shipping line, Joshua Henry, handled "inter-coastal and coastwise transportation of chemicals, transports products for Union Carbide, Dow Chemical, Standard Oil of New Jersey, Standard Oil of California, and others."

"I have some business relationships with," he also testified, "inasmuch as a jointly owned company, 25 per cent of which is owned by Wendy and 50 per cent by Kaiser aluminum, has a long-range contract to transport Kaiser's bauxite."

"Would your firm continue to deal with these firms in the atomic energy field, such as Union Carbide?" asked Sen. Clint Anderson of New Mexico.

"Yes, I would expect they would continue," replied the future AEC chairman.

"UNION CARBIDE is a large customer of Wendy's," Anderson reminded him.

"Yes, they are," McCone agreed.

However, he insisted that placing the stock of his shipping companies in trust with the Bank of California, in which he is also a stockholder, cleared him of any conflict of interest. This left him, however, with the profits which would accrue from the contracts his shipping companies made from Union Carbide, Kaiser, and the other firms which did business with the AEC of which he was chairman. In other words, while he was AEC chairman, his shipping companies would benefit from business with AEC contractors.

On the basis of this, Sherman Adams, that great judge of conflict of interest, OK'd the arrangement; and the Senate, diverted by the Sherman Adams-Goldfine headlines, also OK'd it and confirmed McCone as AEC chairman.

However, now that McCone is coming up for another, even more important, post, head of Central Intelligence, the Senate might take time to review the record and study the law.

The conflict-of-interest law gives no choice either to McCone or to the Senate. McCone said he had done "a great deal of soul-searching" and had concluded he could handle the AEC chairmanship without any favoritism. However, the AEC law does not permit a man to search his soul and make the decision. The law makes the decision for him. It gives no alternatives other than get out of any conflict with private business interests.

"NO MEMBER of the commission," it reads, "shall engage in any business, vocation, or employment other than that of serving as a member of the commission."

The law was passed not to be rationalized after soul-searching, but to make sure that men like McCone did not serve on this powerful commission with the power to make tremendous profits for certain companies, unless they gave up their stock in the companies which benefited.

This McCone did not do, and in an early column, one significant result affecting McCone's shipping line will be reported.

ONLY ONE MISTAKE

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Mary Samuel had to admit the St. Petersburg Independent did a pretty good job of spelling the name of the Welsh town. But she said one "llan" had been left out of "Llan-fa-rlawg-yngyl-gogerych-wyndrobbell"—"llantysillogogoch." Wales-born Miss Samuel furthermore, could pronounce the name, having learned as a girl to earn a shilling from her uncle.

The town with the jaw-breaking name, she said, is very pretty.

"It has a church, railway station, service station, a few houses and three or four tea-rooms," she said.

TODAY IN WORLD AFFAIRS

U.S. Needs Realism, Too

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — This is the season of "review and outlook." Yet nobody today really knows the future of American business for even a year ahead. All that can be of guidance is what has actually happened in the past few years, and it is evident already that the Kennedy administration has decided to ignore the lessons of the past and to try again the same devices that haven't worked before.

Basically, the present administration is often advised by theorists who sincerely seek solutions based on economic factors, but these come into collision inevitably with the demands of pressure groups and politics.

If it weren't for the fact that politics rules above all else, there would be grounds for optimism about the future of business. But because politics, with its irresponsibility in government, is the controlling force, the chances are that more recessions, more unemployment and the "quick" remedies of "pump-priming" may be expected to dominate the headlines within the next 6 to 18 months.

Businessmen are supposed to be "hostile" to the administration. Secretary of Commerce Luther Hodges is running around the country trying to butter them up. But, unfortunately, he is regarded as a man without any real influence in the Kennedy administration. He got in wrong with many businessmen when he virtually wrecked the Business Advisory Council, which had for many decades served a useful function in the Department of Commerce. As a result of Mr. Hodges' private sessions with businessmen in various cities in recent weeks, the United Press International has just reported as follows:

"On the basis of eight off-the-record discussions in seven big cities and other contacts with businessmen, Hodges has concluded that it is mainly the officers of big firms, not small businessmen, who are hostile to the administration or who accuse it of being hostile to them. That hardly surprises the white-haired ex-governor of North Carolina, for he figures that big businessmen are pro-Republican anyway."

UNFORTUNATELY, this country is supposed to be divided between "big business" and "big labor," and the administration usually takes the side of the trade unions, though in the long run the interrelationship of the two has more to do with the ups and downs of the curve on the chart of business conditions than any other single factor.

Thus, over the weekend, the same old story bobbed up again in print. All the leading trade journals that report in detail the flow of orders in the steel industry came out with forecasts of a "boom" in steel for the early part of 1962. But there's a fly in the ointment. One dispatch says that consumer inventories are expected to rise before June to 11.5 million tons, which constitutes "three months' supply." This is but another way of saying that steel users are preparing to protect themselves against a prospective strike. In fact, almost every one of the reports in the trade journals attributes the sudden upsurge in steel orders to the expected steel strike in June. If there is no strike, of course, steel production will drop considerably after June, and a "slowdown" in related industries will begin, as it did when the 1959 strike came to an end. This time, however, if there is a wage increase, there will be a price increase.

EVER SINCE President Kennedy wrote last autumn to the steel companies and labor leaders warning them against factors that would upset price stability, the country has been aware of an unsolved problem of serious proportions. Mr. Kennedy had an opportunity in his addresses last month before the National Association of Manufacturers in New York and the AFL-CIO in Miami to come to grips with this very issue. But he really sidestepped it. The political pitfalls evidently were too risky.

Statesmanship is more than ever required. The country does not expect businessmen to be "hostile" to the administration, and certainly the administration should not be "hostile" to business. Yet the news from Washington regularly tells of plans that can upset business.

From every side, moreover, comes the story of the "profit squeeze" in business due to rising labor costs. The Treasury expects a balanced budget—if business thrives. But to get $10 billion more tax receipts from business and individuals in the next fiscal year would seem to be out of the question if a serious recession hits the country.

THE BALANCE of payments situation is also grave. It is not being aided by reports of tax measures aimed to restrict American enterprises which have plants overseas and which are competing effectively with foreign companies and also bringing back huge dividends to the United States. There are news dispatches, too, telling of administration plans to ask Congress to give the President the power arbitrarily to raise or lower taxes in the United States. Nothing could be more calculated to frighten business and disrupt long-range planning.

Meanwhile, European industry, with its lower wage costs, is threatening to cut down America's export trade. It's a time for realism as well as statesmanship.

To Your Good Health

Eczema Due to Irritants

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

"Dear Dr. Molner: My two-year-old son has eczema on his cheeks. Could plastic toys, dishes and pants irritate this condition?—Mrs. E. H."

Yes, it's possible.

But let me get it straight: Do you mean irritate or do you mean cause?

Eczema actually is a pretty broad term, meaning a number of varieties of breaking-out. In babies, such a rash on the face is most likely what we call atopic dermatitis—a rash caused by the baby coming in contact with something to which he is sensitive.

It might be from a single cause; it may be due to several irritants. Irritants, that is, to him. They may not be irritating to anyone else. That's the annoying thing about allergies.

IN INFANTS, some food or other may be the cause, and oddly enough some of the most healthful foods, including wheat, milk and eggs, are fairly often found to be the culprits.

Wool and fur are two other common causes, and for quite some time pastics have been known to "rigger" eczema. Later in life, emotional tension comes more and more into the picture in atopic dermatitis, which makes the problem much more complex, of course.

However, a good many children outgrow this problem, although they may be around the age of 20 before it disappears.

IN ANY EVENT, eczema fluctuates a great deal. That is why some people buy a patent medicine, happen to apply it when the rash is subsiding, and are thereupon zealously convinced that they discovered a cure.

ministration should not be "hostile" to business. Yet the news from Washington regularly tells of plans that can upset business.

From every side, moreover, comes the story of the "profit squeeze" in business due to rising labor costs. The Treasury expects a balanced budget—if business thrives. But to get $10 billion more tax receipts from business and individuals in the next fiscal year would seem to be out of the question if a serious recession hits the country.

NASON ON EDUCATION

'Round & 'Round Study Needless

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed. D.
Professor of Education,
University of Southern California

Lose something? Well, don't look in that drawer again. You've checked it 10 times and it isn't there! You're just going 'round and 'round!

You can go 'round and 'round studying for tests, too.

Sometimes students say, "I went over these materials for hours, and I still got a low grade." What happened? Probably their study habits are wrong.

Habit patterns can lead to some pretty silly repetitions of futile actions. They can cause you to spend as much study effort on the unimportant things as on the important ones. You're literally spinning your wheels!

IF YOU REALLY want to make higher grades on examinations and can't understand why you don't, try changing your pattern of study. You may hate to change if you are already "squeaking by," but at least try a new system. Who wants to be satisfied with just "squeaking by?"

First, stop to think. What are the sensible things to practice? The answer should be easy. Practice the things you will be expected to do on the tests, of course.

If you listen for it, most teachers will give you a pretty good idea of the kind of test they are going to give. Figure out what they could ask on that kind of test. Then practice answering those questions.

Let's suppose you are worried about an upcoming history test, and you have a pretty good idea that it will be an essay-type examination. Stop to think of the key words used in these tests: trace, outline, compare, contrast. What do they mean?

IF YOU MUST trace the development of democratic government, you will be expected to give a description of its progress from the beginning. When and where did it start and what were the important gains? Try jotting down the events in such a sequence. If you can write them, you understand them.

An outline is a systematic arrangement of key points. To compare, you must emphasize similarities. To contrast, you must emphasize dissimilarities, differences or unlike qualities.

Now, if you know what the words mean, check the table of contents, chapter headings and your notes. What could the instructor ask you to do? Take a pencil and paper and practice tracing, outlining, or whatever you feel you may be required to do. I knew one student who guessed five out of six questions on a test in advance. He had the answers down cold. Botany, biology or life science tests are almost sure to call for sketches. Practice making the sketches most likely to be asked with the book closed. Put on as many labels as you can remember. Check your sketch with the book, then throw the sketch away and try again. Each new sketch should become more detailed and more accurate.

MATHEMATICS, physics, chemistry or any course calling for problem-solving requires the analysis of problems. Tests present a mixture of several kinds of problems. Your first task will be to determine the kind of problem each presents and how this kind is solved. Lead through your text, stopping at each set of problems. Ask yourself, "What kind of problem is this? How is it solved? What principles are used? How can I recognize these things by reading the problem?"

If you are able to identify quickly the type of problem you get in an examination you will find the correct answer much more easily—and more quickly.

Each course has its own rough spots. Gear your approach to them and stop spinning your wheels!

Growth Unlimited Subject for Toastmistresses

"Growth Unlimited" was the subject of a talk given by Mrs. Karl P. Grabner at the meeting Tuesday of the Winona Toastmistress Club held at 6:15 p.m. at Hotel Winona.

Mrs. Francis McShane, topic-mistress, asked members to tell of some community project in which they would like to participate after gaining self-confidence and experience in the Toastmistress club. Among those mentioned were teaching for the American Red Cross, assisting organized labor, particularly public relations, hospital work, helping with rehabilitation of the mentally ill, working in PTA organizations and some type of service to the aged of the community.

Mrs. John Somers who served as toastmistress introduced all program participants. Vocabulary practice was the educational feature chosen by Mrs. Henry Langowski, education chairman.

Miss Sadie Marsh who presided at the meeting also gave the thought for the day. Other members with assignments were: Mrs. Ralph Kohner, pledge to the flag; Mrs. Irvin Teasdale, inspiration and individual evaluation, and Miss Katherine Wasnoska, timing.

MR. AND MRS. Leslie Inglett, Caledonia, Minn., announce the engagement of their daughter, Eileen Lillian, to Dale Kruse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kruse, New Albion, Iowa. Miss Inglett is employed at Schroeder's Jewelry, Caledonia, and Mr. Kruse is employed by Western Electric Co., Davenport, Iowa. The wedding will be March 3 at 7:30 p.m. at the Caledonia Methodist Church.

Panel Discusses Decent Literature

A panel discussion on "You and the Problem of Obscenity" was presented to the Cathedral Council of Catholic Women Monday night by Mrs. Hubert Weir, diocesan chairman of the National Organization for Decent Literature (NODL).

Members of the panel were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. George Speltz, diocesan director for NODL, Lewis Schoening, past chairman of the citizen committee for decent literature in Winona, and Mrs. Weir. Mrs. Weir emphasized the need for members to become active in the fight against obscenity in the community by becoming more informed and then by acting.

THREE POINTS were brought out in the discussion:

1. "The growth of this industry to $2 billion in the last year with the prediction it will again double in the next two years;
2. "The weakness that exists in our laws to combat this evil;
3. "The entire racket is aimed at youth thus weakening their moral fibre and affecting our society."

According to the panel 70,000 copies of obscene literature are peddled to newstands every month. Msgr. Speltz likened it to "a slow poison seeping thru the body, slowly destroying it." He pointed out that a perfectly healthy child can be perverted by indecent literature, according to eminent psychologists. He quoted J. Edgar Hoover saying that this type of literature is making moral shipwreck of our nation as evidenced by the increase in juvenile delinquency and crimes particularly of violence and sex.

Mr. Schoening urged members to fight a more offensive battle. He suggested several positive actions—stop at newsstands and examine the books and magazines offered for sale and available to young people and protest to the dealers if the reading material is objectionable, write letters to TV network stations and advertisers and become more informed by reading articles on the fight against obscenity.

MRS. HAROLD Thiewes, president, introduced the Rev. Joseph La Plante who reminded members that the success of the inquiry class depends on their prayers and support and urged them to remember this project in their family prayers.

Mrs. Bernard Boland, guild coordinator, reported on coming guild activities as follows: St. Martha Guild will hold a bake sale Feb. 4. St. Bernadette's Guild is planning a spring rummage sale, and St. Elizabeth Guild will serve the Holy Name breakfasts for the coming season.

A coffee hour followed the meeting with St. Monica's Guild, chaired by Mrs. Robert Northam and Mrs. James McCabe, as hostesses.

MR. AND MRS. Maurice Twelto, Spring Grove, Minn., announce the engagement of their daughter, Cynthia Ruth, to Stephen Walters, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stokman, Eitzen, Minn. Miss Twelto is a junior at Winona State College. Her fiancé is a senior at Wisconsin State College, La Crosse.

Still cold! Last week Henry wrote the column — guess I should stay home more often — no worries — he does a better job than I — very versatile!

Hard to get back to regular routine after all the glamour of Christmas festivities, then again seems nice to have things a bit more leisurely—a good time for you to visit BROWN DRUG and let us have more time to devote to you — your questions and wants forecast by the Cosmetic Companies by having some wonderful Winter Specials at this time—Keep the name Dorothy Gray in mind for fine cosmetics—Cellogen Hormone Cream, regular $5.00—now $2.50—also the Dry Skin Lotion and Dry Skin Cream at half price —

While thinking of fine products for winter skin troubles, think of the wonderful DuBarry Cleansing Cream now on special — companion item Skin Freshener — remember, if you wash your face with soap you wouldn't think of not rinsing off the soap — likewise, when you wash your face with cleansing cream, you always rinse with skin freshener, to finish the job of cleansing. For firming and tightening the skin why not try DuBarry's Skin Firming Lotion at a good buy? You will find all of these items on our front display tables—it pays to check these tables!

Last but not least this week —are you missing that wonderful buy of Dorothy Gray Lipsticks, 2 for $1.00 — a wide assortment of shades from which to choose — now is a good time for you to pick up a shade you may have wanted to match that one particular color of dress — bring your samples of material with you—surprising how closely they can be matched — then, why not use the money you were able to save on the lipsticks, and buy a new lipstick brush—surprising the difference it will make in the way your color stays on — and perhaps something you haven't thought about — you can use that extra part of the lipstick that has always stayed in the bottom of the tube — let me show you—

Low Down Payments — Small Monthly Payments at Salet's

Subzero Weather Expected to Continue

The temperature dipped to -17 in Winona this morning and more of the same is promised for tonight. The cold wave was part of a widespread high pressure area which sent the mercury to -40 at Bemidji, lowest in the nation. Cloudy tonight, mostly fair Thursday and continued very cold with a low tonight of -18 and a high Thursday of 5 below is the forecast. It was -12 at noon.

THE -17 READING this morning was the lowest of the winter and the coldest in the city since Feb. 2, 1959, when the official thermometer slid to -20. Coldest reading so far this winter was -13 on Jan. 12 and -15 on Dec. 13. The day felt a lot colder than the thermometer indicated because of the piercing northwest wind of 10-12 m.p.h. This is expected to diminish by tonight.

However, only slight temperature moderation is expected Friday with no precipitation except a possibility of occasional light snow.

TODAY'S READINGS were a far cry from those in Winona a year ago when the high for the day was 43 and the low 20. Alltime high for Jan. 17 was 56 in 1895 and the coldest ever registered was -30 in 1873. The mean for the past 24 hours was -3. Normal for this day is 15 above.

The weatherman had no hope of relief in his extended forecast. He predicted temperatures the next five days will average 15-25 degrees below normal. The normal daily range is -20-24 to 0-6. He forecast very cold weather except for a slight moderation during the weekend. Occasional light snow was held possible over Saturday and Sunday.

Preston Getting $91,335 Grant For Sewage Plant
PRESTON, Minn. — The U. S. Public Health Service announced Tuesday that Preston will receive $91,335 aid for construction of a sewage disposal plant.

Mayor Edward Steinkopf said the amount will pay for about 20 percent of the total estimated cost of $338,189 for construction of the plant. Work is to begin sometime next summer. Bids have not been let.

The plant will be located on the east edge of town. Present sewer lines will be used in most cases but some branch lines will be needed.

Swiss Attorney Studies in Wabasha
WABASHA, Minn. — A young Swiss lawyer, invited to the U. S. for one year of intensive study and training in the workings of an American corporation, is spending two months at International Milling Co. here.

Karl Dobler, 28, Appenzell, Switzerland, is studying the production phase of the flour mill under Manager W. A. Palmer. During the balance of his year here Dobler will work in several departments in the company's general offices in Minneapolis. Dobler graduated from the law school at Berne University, Switzerland, in 1958.

Evening Courses Offered at Blair

BLAIR, Wis. (Special) — Evening classes for adults again are being offered at Blair High School, according to Chester E. Meissner, supervising principal.

The courses will start the week of Jan. 22 if there are enough people enrolled. Courses offered are typing, office practice, shorthand, arts, crafts, wood finishing, furniture repair, welding, machine shop, clothing and home furnishing. There will be a small fee for all courses except clothing and home furnishing. Anyone interested is asked to drop a card to the school office. The minimum is 10 people in any class.

Recipe Correction

An error has been noted in the recipe for light potato rolls which appeared in last Sunday's Fun With Food column in the Sunday Magazine section. The error was in the amount of yeast to be used.

The correct list of ingredients follows: One 2-cup cake fresh or 1 to 2 packages granular yeast. One-third cup sugar. One cup mashed potatoes. Six and one-half to 7½ cups sifted flour. One cup lukewarm potato water. One cup scalded milk. One tablespoon salt. Two beaten eggs. One-half cup melted lard (scant).

Females of many mosquito species need blood to enable their eggs to mature.

Bitter cold prevailed at all Minnesota reporting points today. Bemidji was coldest with a reading of -40. International Falls had -38 and Duluth -33.

It was -27 at St. Cloud and -21 in the Twin Cities. Rochester posted a low of -19 after a high of 7 Tuesday and La Crosse had a low of -14.

In Canada Winnipeg had a morning reading of -35. Fargo, N. D., had a low of -40.

Sub-zero weather was reported everywhere in WISCONSIN and there was little encouragement in the outlook for the next couple of days. Hurley, Rhinelander and Park Falls recorded 29 below zero. Eau Claire 25 below and Wausau 22 below. Other minimums: Stevens Point -22, Green Bay -17, Oshkosh -16, Marinette -15, Madison -12, Milwaukee and Lone Rock -9.

Maximum readings Tuesday ranged from 4 below at Superior to 15 above at Racine. Skies were sunny throughout Wisconsin at mid-morning today, but all temperature readings were still below the zero level.

FORT MYERS, Fla., topped the nation Tuesday with a peak of 84 degrees.

Freezing weather chilled Southern sections as far as central Texas and eastward through Arkansas, Tennessee, much of North Carolina and in parts of Georgia and Alabama.

The subzero belt stretched across the northern and north-central Plains, the Upper Mississippi Valley and the western Great Lakes region.

No immediate break in the severe cold was indicated. Even colder temperatures were expected in the frigid belt. Cold wave warnings were issued for northern Ohio, western Pennsylvania and western New York.

Weather Bureau forecasters said the icy air will hold tight through the middle Mississippi Valley, the Ohio Valley and the middle Atlantic states.

CHICAGO HAD its second straight morning of subzero weather with the mercury dropping to -5. It was 5 degrees lower in nearby Joliet, Ill.

Temperatures in the South ran from 20 in Crossville, Tenn., 27 in Birmingham, Ala., 29 in Augusta, Ga., Memphis, Tenn., and Asheville, N. C., to 31 in Atlanta.

Temperatures dropped into the 30s in parts of northern Florida, mild weather continued in southern sections, with readings in the 60s.

CIVIL DEFENSE SURVEY . . . Two members of a Civil Defense engineering team arrived in Winona this week to begin a survey of large buildings in Winona and Houston counties to provide possible fallout shelters against nuclear radiation. Shown checking blueprints and other data at St. Mary's College Tuesday afternoon are Charles Anderson, left, and Don Suppes, members of Interstate Engineering Co., Minneapolis.

Anderson, who is in charge of the local survey, said the survey is expected to take about a month. The data-gathering phase of 13 South-eastern Minnesota counties is expected to be completed by March 31. A second survey to check possible modifications necessary to increase protection against fallout should be completed by June 30.

The survey is seeking buildings which can house and protect 50 or more people for two weeks without outside contact. The federal government is paying for the surveys; it also will provide food and water supplies. It will be the responsibility of the local government to carry out the program by training shelter leaders and providing funds for possible building modifications. (Daily News photo)

Accrediting Group Sets Cochrane-FC Check

COCHRANE-FC, Wis.—The 11 members of the visiting committee of the North Central Association plus H. Clifton Hutchins, University of Wisconsin, Madison, state chairman of the Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, will attend a dinner at Cochrane-Fountain City High School this evening prior to spending the following two days evaluating the school for membership.

The faculty, custodial and office staffs, board of education and wives also will attend the dinner, according to Superintendent Richard Peterson. It will be served in the hot lunch dining room.

A MEETING of the school board and the studies committee will follow the meal. Thursday the committee will start visiting classes, inspecting the building, studying the curriculum, examining the bus routes and observing the office staff routine and the hot lunch program, among other things.

After completing their study at 4 p.m. Friday the committee will report findings in generalities to the faculty and school board at a meeting in the school library.

The committee will recommend membership, membership with reservations, or recommend denial of membership to the state committee, which in turn will give its recommendations to the national organization. The school will not know until the national association's meeting in Chicago in March whether it has been accepted.

AT THE dinner Superintendent Peterson will explain the philosophy of education followed by this school, which has been preparing two years for his evaluation. Ralph Leahy, high school principal, will give the history of the school system and its present program.

Committee members attending will be Louis Berg, Baldwin-Woodville High School, chairman, and the following: Allan Siemers, director of secondary education, River Falls State College; Francis Herrell, superintendent, Bloomer High School; Marvin Berg, principal, Glenwood City High School; David Davis, associate professor of education, University of Wisconsin;

Pershing Missile Fired 400 Miles

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The Pershing artillery missile has scored its longest test flight success to date, racing more than 400 miles down the Atlantic range.

Longer burning of both solid fuel stages and a reduction of instrumentation gear enabled the rocket to travel the longer route Tuesday. Longest previous Pershing flight was about 250 miles. The weapon is scheduled to be deployed in Western Europe later this year.

Fillmore County Sells Bonds for Road Work

PRESTON, Minn. (Special)—A $500,000 bond issue to finance construction of bridges at Peterson and Lanesboro and funds for other work on county-state aid roads in Fillmore County was awarded by the County Board of Commissioners Tuesday afternoon to American National Bank, St. Paul, and others. Average interest rate bid was 2.5964.

Other bidders were: E. J. Prescott & Co., Minneapolis, and others, 2.7928 percent average interest; Northern Trust Co., Chicago, 2.7348; Northwestern Bank, Minneapolis, 2.65; Barcus, Kindred & Co., Chicago, 2.8768, and First National Bank, St. Paul, and others, 2.73767.

THE BOND ISSUE will be paid over a 10-year period beginning in February 1963. Principal and interest will come from state aid for county roads.

Legislation was passed last year to enable counties to bond on future state aids to complete projects sooner than they would otherwise be able to do.

Last year Fillmore County received $217,000 for state aid roads plus $35,957 for state aid roads in villages. Payments on the bonded debt will come out of regular state aids until the issue is retired.

Bond issue funds will help finance projects which have been set up for a three-year period.

IN THE 1962 program, largest program will be work on county-state aid highway 25, bridge and approaches at Peterson. Others will be the following: Grading from County Road 26 to 22, starting four miles west of Harmony and extending 3 1/2 miles north; base and bituminous surfacing on County-State Aid Road 23 from State Aid Highway 12 to 10 west of Highland, approximately two miles; grade and bridge on County-State Aid 23 in Amherst settlement, one mile; grading from Trunk Highway 74 to County-State Aid 4 north of Spring Valley, 1.5 miles; County State Aid Road 33 in Fountain, base and bituminous surfacing; No. 28, bituminous surfacing and traffic signals in Mabel; No. 27, bituminous surfacing from Trunk Highway 43 2.3 miles to the north county line north of Rushford; No. 5, bituminous surfacing from Trunk Highway 52 to County Road 102 south of Chalfield; three miles, and bituminous surfacing on No. 5 in Wykoff.

AMONG THE four projects for 1963 is the Lanesboro bridge, plus base and bituminous surfacing on County State Aid Roads 17 and 23. This will include surfacing 5 1/2 miles in Amherst Town.

The 1964 program will be on County State Aid Highway 15 from

Trempealeau Commissioner Seriously Hurt

WHITEHALL, Wis. (Special)—Trempealeau County Highway Commissioner Jens Klavestad, 64, was injured in a one-car accident on Highway 93 in Eau Claire County at 5:45 p.m. Tuesday and is a patient at St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester.

A report from the hospital this morning said he has a possible fractured neck but no other injuries. His condition is fair.

Klavestad was a passenger in the 1960 car driven by Alfred G. Moessner, 1730 Barnabee Rd., La Crosse, salesman for Nagle-Hart machinery company, Eau Claire. Moessner told Eau Claire County authorities he was proceeding south and making a slight curve to the left when he was blinded by an approaching car and pulled to the shoulder.

Moessner said he saw the guard posts and turned sharply. The car skidded onto the shoulder, crossed the highway to the left shoulder and slid sideways on its wheels over the embankment.

The vehicle then rolled over once and slid backward halfway down the steep hill.

The accident occurred on the ridge two miles north of Eleva in Pleasant Valley, which varies from 200-500 feet deep along the highway in that area, the traffic report said. The Eau Claire sheriff's department was called to the scene shortly after 6 p.m.

Moessner was not injured. Damage to his car was estimated at $2,000.

Klavestad, who remained in the car, was brought to Whitehall Community Hospital by Mondovi ambulance and moved by the same ambulance to Rochester.

Speed Promised On Tax Refunds

ST. PAUL (AP)—Those who have state income tax refunds coming and make early returns will get speedy service on the rebates.

That was the promise Tuesday night of Rolland Hatfield, state tax commissioner. He suggested that those desiring speed on refunds make their filings well in advance of the April 15 deadline.

Hatfield said office currently was clogged with declarations which were due Jan. 15 from those not subject to withholding or had incomes of $200 or more outside withholding.

Britain Will Go Ahead With Sale Of Jets to China

LONDON (AP)—Overriding American objections, Britain will go ahead with sales of six Viscount jet airliners to Red China, government officials report.

They said a reported U.S. ban on an American firm's supplying certain parts for the six planes will not hold up the sales since the equipment can be obtained from other suppliers.

Frederick G. Dutton, U.S. assistant secretary of state for congressional relations, said in a letter to Sen. Kennedy B. Keating, R-N.Y., that an American firm whose British subsidiary supplies navigational and radar equipment for Viscounts had been warned not to supply the equipment for the six airliners.

Dutton said the parts are strategic materials banned from sale to Red China.

The British position, sources here said, is that the gear is subject to such control only in a quantitative sense because it would only be disadvantageous to sell it to the Reds in large numbers. The airliners themselves are not embargoed for sale to the Communist bloc.

The United States and Britain have long been at odds on the matter of trade with the Communist Chinese regime, which Britain recognizes and the United States does not.

SPRING MUST really be on its way.

The Very Rev. Msgr. D. D. Tierney of Minneka, who will become chaplain at St. Anne Hospice in Winona, is an enthusiastic golfer.

He recently, however, suffered a fall which kept him off his feet for awhile. Now being up and about, though limping, he was in need of some support while walking.

He didn't even look for a cane. Just got out his golf bag, grabbed his putter by the blade and went merrily on his way.

VERN SMELSER reports that another 25 adults, both men and women, or young people over high school age, can be accommodated in the Park-Rec "Learn to Swim" and "Swim for Fun" sessions from 7 to 9 each Thursday at the Winona High pool.

Lloyd Luke, Winhawk swim coach, and his assistant coach, Stuart Miller, are directing the program which runs to March 22. The fee for the course is nominal.

BOXING MATCHES down through the years have been staged in various types of arenas, but there probably haven't been many where the fighters dressed in the produce department and spectators hung their coats on the meat case.

Yet the 300 fans who watched Monday's amateur card at Goodview didn't let that bother them, nor did the fighters, who when they entered the ring, passed under a sign which read: "Try Our Quality Meat."

Nobody got chopped up in the ring though, and all in all it was a good fight program which should lead to future attractive amateur shows.

Most experts were betting that there wouldn't be 50 people out to see the fights. They were wrong.

IT'S SURPRISING the change time has brought to the Keglers Klub, or "Keglers Lanes" as Vern Mahaffey prefers to call his bowling establishment.

Made my first visit there Sunday, first time I've been in the place since bowling for Nick Cierzan's old Seven-Up team in 1950. Those were the days when Lloyd Dreas was burning up the league.

Mahaffey has done wonders with his pin plant and lacks only the automatics.

THE "THURLEYS" made their annual pilgrimage to the March of Dimes bowling tournament Sunday at the Athletic Club . . . and did all right, that is, Elsie did.

Bob and Fred Thurley, their wives, and their sisters, Elsie Dorsch and Mrs. Woody Livingston, and Woody always shoot the tourney in family style.

Elsie teamed with Bill Chuchna to take a share of first place this year.

The Livingston didn't bowl this year because they felt they weren't hitting too well. Which is what exactly happened to me, and my spouse. Not only did Elsie beat me . . . so did Bob.

OFF THE CUSHION: Hermond Hubbard, 22, promising Braves' farm-hand and outfielder with Eau Claire in the Northern League last year, died of carbon monoxide poisoning Tuesday in Delaware . . . The second annual winter Karling Sweepstakes will be held at Waseca Kart Raceway on Highway 14 west of Clear Lake near Waseca Sunday . . . Floyd Joyner, who fights on the Rochester card Thursday night, served as a second to Mayo City boxers here Monday night . . .

Tuttle Signs Twins Contract

MINNEAPOLIS (U) — Veteran Bill Tuttle returned his 1962 contract with the Minnesota Twins today, bringing to eight the number of players signed.

Tuttle, a strong defensive centerfielder, held down third base for the Twins last season after coming over from the Kansas City Athletics.

Manager Sam Mele said he would like to put Tuttle back in the outfield this year. Tuttle hit .249 with both clubs last season.

GOPHER-BUCKEYE TILT TO SELL OUT

MINNEAPOLIS (U) — There is an assured sell-out of seats for Minnesota's basketball game against Ohio State, the nation's No. 1 team, at Williams Arena Saturday night.

Only tickets left are 1,700 for general admission to go on sale at the arena Saturday at 5:45 p.m. Advance estimates place the crowd at about 18,500.

Warriors in 89-67 Victory

By GARY EVANS
Daily News Sports Writer

It was a somewhat worried Winona State Coach Bob Campbell who said before the Warrior-La Crosse State game Tuesday night, "No matter what happens, we won't be using Ken Stelplig's injury as an alibi."

Campbell's fears weren't justified, however, as the Warrior reserves came through like champions to lead Winona State to an 89-67 victory at Memorial Hall.

BOB JAMES AND Bob Lietzau, two players relegated to bench duty for the first nine games played their finest games of the year to lead the Statesmen to their sixth win in 10 starts.

James, starting in Stelplig's place at forward, turned in a top rebounding game in playing the position with authority.

Lietzau was the backcourt sparkplug as he came off the bench midway in the first period to get the attack rolling in time for a 47-34 halftime lead.

The officials whistled 56 personal fouls and two Warriors left the contest via the foul route as did one La Crosse player.

LA CROSSE LED throughout the first seven minutes of the game as the Warriors' rejuvenated lineup seemed to have trouble getting its attack underway. But once the starting five got acquainted with each other the issue was never in doubt.

With James leading the way in the rebounding and assist departments, the Statesmen moved in front 14-13 with 13 minutes to play in the first half and they were never headed again.

With seven minutes left the score was 28-18 as James hit two field goals and a free throw, Jim Vinar dumped in two layups and Arlen Klinder, who scored 13 points, hit on a long jump shot to run up the count.

In the waning minutes of the half it was Lietzau setting the pace as he hit two layups and eight straight free throws to run the score to 47-34.

THE SECOND HALF was all Winona State. Arlen Klinder cut loose for three long jump shots in the opening minutes to make the score 54-40.

With 10 minutes left in the contest it was 70-51 as Lyle Papenfuss, who scored 10 points, hit on two driving shots, brother Dick, who tallied 11, and James counted on two layups and a free throw during one three-minute spree in which La Crosse couldn't score and Campbell went to his bench.

All in all it was a great night for reserves and former reserves. Chuck Weisbrod pumped in 10 points during the last half of the second 20 minutes. Lietzau ran his total to 14 points on three free throws to match James for top honors. Bruce Zellmer scored four points along with playing a top noth floor game and Jim Vinar added seven more counters.

The best La Crosse could do was finish with two men tied for top honors with 11 points. Jim Rolhe and Gary Johnson scored that many.

A FEATHER IN THE HAT of the State defense was the fact that the Indians could total only 18 field goals. Free throws kept them in the game—if you could call a 22-point margin staying in the game.

Both teams were plagued by mechanical errors as the Warriors had 19 and La Crosse 27. Once again the State passing attack was so sharp that sometimes the receivers had trouble hanging onto the ball.

This Friday when Moorhead State comes to town for a NSCC game Winona State still may be without the services of Stelplig. A mask has been obtained to protect the injury but doctors may advise him out of the lineup for ten days.

SHOOTING PERCENTAGES: Winona State—42.7 percent (19 for 45); La Crosse State—27.1 percent (10 for 37).

MECHANICAL ERRORS—Winona State 19; La Crosse State 27.

OFFICIALS: Kresowski and Sokal.

BIG THREE IDLE

Hawk Wrestlers Beat Chatfield

Winona High's wrestling team got back on the win trail at the senior high school auditorium Tuesday night by blasting Chatfield 37-11 without the services of the "Big Three."

Coach Ron White decided it would be better to rest Mike Gerlach, Jim Bambenek and Pat Woodworth for Friday's meet with Fairbault and so he inserted three "B" squad wrestlers in their places.

Byron Bohnen, 165, and Doug Blanchard, 175, came through like champions to win their matches but Dick Glaucert, heavyweight, lost a decision.

Other Hawk wins came from Don Schoening, 103, Jim Dotzler, 112, Ray Welter, 120, Frank Welter, 133, Bob Grant, 138, Strand Wedul, 145, and Chuck Deedrick, 154.

The "B" squad also won 21-6.

Lewiston Rips Loretto 74-50

LEWISTON, Minn.—Lewiston battered Caledonia Loretto 74-50 in non-conference action here Tuesday.

Lewiston led all the way. The quarter scores were: 19-5, 35-12 and 49-28.

The win was the Cardinals seventh in ten starts this season.

Lyle Nienow paced the Lewiston attack with 14 and Jack Miller led 12. Mike Wagner was the lone Loretto player in double figures with 25 points.

Lewiston also won the "B" game.

DETROIT UPSET

Cincy, Bowling Green Triumph

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The unbeatable "second wind" that separates the good basketball teams from the ordinary has kept Cincinnati's Bearcats and surprising Bowling Green rolling right along among the nation's top college teams.

It worked for tough little Western Michigan, too, as the Broncos hammered down favored Detroit Tuesday night on a sparse college program curtailed by mid-term examinations.

The paucity of games continues tonight, with 10th-ranked Mississippi State the only top team in action. The Maroons take an Alabama in a reschedule of a game postponed because of snow last week.

Cincinnati, ranked third, hit 18 of 30 field-goal attempts in the second half en route to a solid 80-61 victory over Dayton at Cincinnati. Bowling Green's eighth-ranked Falcons also got hot late as they belted down Kent State 68-56. Bowling Green nailed 16 of 28 in the second half on the visitors court, and now lead the Mid-America Conference with a 5-0 record.

Cincy, now 12-2, trailed 13-26 at halftime after a miserable 9-for-32 first-half shooting performance. A 16-2 spurt at the start of the second half sent Dayton (10-4) fleeing. Paul Hogue led the Bearcats with 21 points before fouling out and Bill Chmielewski tossed in 17 for the losers.

Bowling Green (13-1) had 16-point performances from Bob Dawson and Elijah Chatman as four of five starters hit double figures.

Soph Marney Newsome, a 5-foot-9 whiz, tossed in 20 points in Western Michigan's upset of Detroit (9-5). Dave Debuschere had 31 for the Titans, who trailed 37-32 at halftime and faded for good on a 7-point spurt by the winners now 6-6, in the final minutes.

Notre Dame snapped out of the doldrums with a 98-80 upset of DePaul but Syracuse continued its winless (0-13) ways, losing 66-78 to Cornell, which raised its record to 11-2 behind Gerry Szachara's 26 points. Soph Carl Vernick topped all scorers with 39 points for Syracuse.

Elsewhere, Bob Duffy hit 22 points but Penn State won over Colgate 80-65 behind Gene Harris' 21. Bruce Kelleher and Bill Szalady each tallied 20 in Maryland's 81-77 victory over Georgia Washington. Virginia Military defeated William & Mary in a Southern Conference game, 75-71 as Bill Blair led the winners with 27.

Los Angeles Loyola beat Pepperdine 64-54 in the West Coast Athletic Conference.

West Shocks East Stars by 150-130

Pettit Named Most Valuable

By JIM VAN VALKENBURG
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — The West holds an edge in top talent with the likes of Oscar Robertson, Elgin Baylor and Jerry West, and with youth on its side, soon may catch the East in the National Basketball Association All-Star game series.

That's the opinion of Fred Schaus of Los Angeles, who coached the West in its convincing 150-130 victory over the veteran East stars in the 12th annual game before 15,112 here on Tuesday night. The East still leads the series 7-5.

"Understand, I'm talking about individuals, not teams," Schaus said. "You have to concede the Boston Celtics still are the best team in basketball."

Bob Pettit, 8-year veteran of the game's most valuable player trophy with a record 27 rebounds. Wilt Chamberlain, the 7-1 Philadelphia who holds a 49-point scoring average, set an NBA All-Star scoring record with 42 points.

Yet most observers felt the cat-like Robertson was the difference with his smooth play making and 14-point third-quarter burst that put the West out of reach.

"Oscar got us running again in the third quarter and that broke open the game," Schaus said. "But I won't argue that Pettit deserved the MVP award. Anytime a man gets 27 rebounds over the heads of Chamberlain and Bill Russell (of Boston), you have to hand it to him."

Pettit had 27 votes from writers, Robertson 11 and Baylor 5.

Baylor, playing on an Army pass from Ft. Lewis, Wash., after a two-week layoff, led the West with 32 points. He admitted, "I was tired and a little out of shape." Robertson had 26 points and Pettit 25.

Schaus said 6-11 rookie Walt Bellamy of Chicago was a major factor with 23 points and 17 rebounds.

"Walt took over from the start," Schaus said. "You expect great ball from Pettit and Baylor, but Bellamy's tremendous game was too much to count on."

Boston's Red Auerbach, coaching the East for the 8th straight year, thought Cincinnati's Jack Twyman "really killed us" with nine third-quarter points.

The West had conceded a rebounding edge to the East, but despite Chamberlain and Russell, the West had a 95-80 bulge. New York's Richie Guerin was the No. 2 East scorer with 23 points.

The West won last year 153-131. "We are looking forward to making it three straight in the 1963 game at Los Angeles," said Schaus.

Harmony Wrestlers Drop 24-20 Match

SPRING VALLEY, Minn. (Special)—Spring Valley defeated Harmony 24-20 here Tuesday in high school wrestling, scoring two pins to one by Harmony.

Harmony won the "B" team match 14-3.

Augusta Triumphs; Thompson Hits 35

Augusta moved into a second place tie in the Dairyland Conference Tuesday by downing Osee 59-54 behind 35 points by Jim Thompson.

In the night's other loop game an Independence fourth quarter rally fell short and Eleva-Strum forced the second place tie with its 56-49 victory.

The Indians trailed 16-8 at the end of the first period and 26-22 at halftime before falling behind 41-30 heading into the last quarter. An attempted rally fell short as the closest the Indians could come was four points.

Dale Olson hit 14 points for Eleva-Strum and Barry Gunderson 12. Jerome Halverson netted 20 points and Rolie Reck 16 for Independence.

Rick Lewison of Eleva-Strum and the Indians' Butch Bauch were defensive standouts.

Frost in South Boosts Price Of Vegetables

By JACK LEFLER
AP Business News Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Vegetable prices are rising because of severe damage to crops in Texas and Florida as the result of freezing weather, the Department of Agriculture reported today.
Citrus also was badly damaged in Texas but apparently escaped major harm in Florida.
The department called the situation in the Rio Grande Valley "very serious." The temperature fell to as low as 10 degrees there last week.

The cold wave spread over 100,000 acres of vegetable fields in the valley.
The department said the anticipated shortage of supplies already has been felt on the market.
High winds added to the damage to citrus trees in the Rio Grande Valley. The department said the loss of trees under five years old was heavy.
At the time of the freeze two-thirds of the 6.5-million box Rio Grande Valley grapefruit crop remained on the trees. About one-third of the expected 1.9 million boxes of early oranges had not been harvested, and the harvest of 1.8 million boxes of Valencia oranges had not been started.
Three-fourths of the 70 per cent of winter cabbage remaining to be harvested is expected to be lost, according to the department.
Also severely damaged were beets, broccoli, carrots, cauliflower, lettuce and spinach.
Sweet corn, potatoes, tomatoes and green peppers which were above ground will have to be replanted.
Three successive freezes damaged Florida's soft vegetable crops and sent prices up in producing areas.

Taylor Warns Nation on Nuclear Plans

NEW YORK (AP) — Gen. Maxwell Taylor, echoing President Kennedy's recent rejection of "all-or-nothing" defense, says the nation must be wary of becoming "muscle-bound with our nuclear strength."
Taylor, military adviser to the President, declared "we cannot afford to gear our plans to any single weapons system or to any single dogmatic concept of how the future will develop."
He said the United States must be prepared to cope with general atomic war, limited atomic war, conventional war and guerrilla warfare.

Taylor spoke Monday night at a dinner at which he received the Franklin award for distinguished service from the Printing Industries of Metropolitan New York Inc., a trade association of the advertising, publishing and printing industries.

English Smallpox Epidemic Controlled

LONDON (AP) — The smallpox outbreak in England's industrial north is under control, health officer John Douglas of Bradford said today.
Douglas, whose Yorkshire textile town is the center of the scare, said 100,000 people living in the area have been vaccinated. More vaccine was hurried to Bradford as a precaution.
The disease was brought into Britain last month by immigrants from Pakistan, where an epidemic is raging. Five deaths have been attributed to smallpox in Britain and a sixth may have been due to the disease. A number of suspected cases are under observation in isolated hospitals.

Russians Turning Out More Engineers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union is turning out each year twice as many scientists and engineers as the United States, says a specialist on Soviet education.
The specialist, Nicholas DeWitt said the United States produces about 80,000 engineering, science and applied science professionals yearly to the Soviet's 160,000.
In this decade, DeWitt said in a report presented to the National Science Foundation, the Soviet annual rate will climb to 250,000, more than double the anticipated U.S. rate.

House and Senate Equal Branches

WASHINGTON (AP) — It's official now. The House and the Senate are equal branches of Congress and from now on will share top billing in the official Congressional Record.
No longer will the official proceedings of the so-called "upper body" appear first in the record, to be followed by a recital of what happened in the House.
At the instigation of Rep. John W. McCormack of Massachusetts, new speaker of the House, the Government Printing Office has agreed to rotate first billing between the Senate and the House.

France took Africa's Upper Volta in 1960 and made it a protectorate. Upper Volta became a republic in August 1960.

Finds Job for 'Golden Years'

NEW YORK—I have been casting around considerably, lately for a job to occupy my spare time in what they call the "golden years." I think perhaps I've found it: Teaching a mail-order course in menu-writing, which may bring us out of the Thomas Wolfe phase of emporium grocery prose, and back to the sparse, or Dashiell Hammett, school.

There seem to be two decided trends in menu-writing today. One, of course, is the fancy-schmancy, European style of either hand-scribbled illegible hieroglyphics in or else sinking the culinary signposts so deep in the menu's nap that you have to pick them out with a fork and hold them to the light to discover what the chef is mauling that day. This is not so bad, because you can always ask the waiter to ask the chef what's good, and hope that you don't receive the answer Joe Mitchell got one time for asking that same question.

The waiter came back and said: "The chef says nothin' no good," but that is another story.

Ruark

What really elevates my hackles is the comparatively new, editorially aimed, hard-sell huckster type of menu, in which frustrated novelists are set to work describing the day's indignation in prose that would make Zane Grey's ghost stop writing about sunsets. No longer do you get a stark "Steak w. mash, pot," or "Pot roast str. bns & hash br. pot." No, sir, a new day has risen in the ateliers of edibles.

WHAT YOU get now is: "Broiled Key West Red Snapper, simply prepared by broiling over Flavorful Charcoal to retain the Distinct Flavor of this Renowned Fish, served with Maitre d'Hotel Butter." Instead of a few chunks of lamb burnt on a stick you get: "Lamben brochette, Boulangere; (with a semi-colon, yet) Tender Morsels of Spring Lamb, skewered with Silver Onions, Fresh Mushrooms and Green Bellpeppers."

All vegetables, of course, are a mortal cinch to be "garden-fresh," even if they came out of your grandmother's old pantry, and I have even observed "still dew-laden," so help me, in regard to radishes. There is no such thing as a hamburger on a menu any more. More likely, is a "delicious charcoal-broiled Prime Beef-burger from Selected Texas Hereford Steers," or a "Chopped Steak Sandwich on a Toasted Sesame Seed Bun with a Garni of Ripe Rich Beefsteak Tomatoes and Brine-wet Kosher pickles."

UNDER THE HEADING of general seafood, shrimp which might be guaranteed to carry a make-up kit to hide the wrinkles come out as: "Fresh Tobago Shrimp Lamaze, $3.00," and are described in glowing terms as: "An Epicurian Delight—Plump Succulent Shrimp dressed with an Ingenious Sauce as Prepared by the late Master Chef, George Lamaze." One tops it off with a "Fresh Seasonal Low-Calorie Fruit Salad (Low-Calorie Dressing on Request)" and does not dare to scan the dessert list, for fear of sudden blindness.

I trust I am not an unduly unreasonable man — a cut off the joint and two veg. is good enough for me—but I resent the intrusion, of both public relations, hidden persuasion, screen credits and the chef's innermost secrets into the copy surrounding a simple slab of sinewy steer. What with Berlin and the Russians, it's tough enough to have to wade through the papers without toting a dictionary around to the restaurants. And if it's colorful prose I seek, I will read "The Carpetbaggers" during the rest of my lunch hour.

CARE I NOT one whit if the bloody shrimp come from Tobago or Tahiti, so long as their pto-maine quotient is low, and I will be just as pleased if you wash the dew off the radishes, together with the dirt.

If it's descriptive literature they must have, to embroil the bill of fare, let it be something like: "Stew, rassled up by chef with guaranteed clean hands," or maybe, "Clams, certified to be hepatitis free."

But I'm afraid the TV copy-writers have had us in thrall for too long. Even the "clean hands" qualifier would probably carry a plug for fallout-free, skin-nourishing soap, and the hepatitis-free cherries would carry the imprimatur of at least six unfracked physicians. We can't take anything straight any more, men.

Boyle's Column

Wife Checks Clock for Tired Hubby

By JOY STILLEY
(Substituting for Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP)—Women are always getting credit for being chauffeurs, nurses, cooks, housekeepers and laundresses.

Well, I can add another job to that list. I serve as an alarm clock too.

Not just the ordinary kind of clock that buzzes, rings, tinkles or flashes a light; either.

I pat, poke, prod, shake, whistle, groan, grumble, threaten, command and bring orange juice.

No store-bought alarm clock ever worked as long or hard to get a man up as I do, and I don't get paid overtime for it. In fact, no electrically powered clock has ever yet managed to get my husband out of bed in the morning.

He wakes up just long enough to turn the thing off and that's the extent of his dealings with the timepiece.

From then on it's my job to get my sleepyhead off to his job and I'm quite convinced he doesn't work half as hard at the office as I do getting him there. Every morning I start off hopefully with a gentle pat and murmur softly in his ear: "Honey, it's time to get up."

If this brings any response at all — which it seldom does — it comes in the form of a cross between a snarl and a growl.

Bravely ignoring the rebuff, I try a different approach: "Are you awake, honey?" This usually elicits a rather strong reply, the last word of which is "No!"

Sleepy as I am myself, long years of practice bring on the next stage automatically. I dig down under the blanket, with which he has covered his head as a defense against lights, sounds and an unsympathetic wife, and get hold of enough shoulder to shake.

This maneuver causes one eye to open wide enough to look accusingly at his attacker—but only momentarily.

By this time I have managed to get myself sufficiently conscious, I stumble to the kitchen for a glass of orange juice. This I am often tempted to pour upon my husband, but instead I put it on his night table, inform him that time, tide and the bus wait for no man, and stalk out.

Five minutes later I make a return trip to the bedroom, expecting to find the family provider dressed, wide-awake and full of enthusiasm for the challenges of the new day.

Instead I find him snoring happily in the exact position in which I left him.

Incensed, I remove my kid gloves and attack the problem—and my husband—with vigor and a firm hand. After finally capturing his attention I direct his reluctant gaze to the bedroom clock, which shows that he should have been out of the house 20 minutes before.

The realization that he lives in an unfeeling world where alarm clocks and time clocks combine to make life miserable finally jolts him out of bed and into his clothes.

Meanwhile—back in the living room—I station myself, glass of milk and vitamin pill in outstretched hands, between the bedroom and the front door. He grabs the milk and pill from me on his way out, gulps them down and mutters grumpily, "I'm going to be awfully late. Why didn't you wake me sooner?"

Even honest whiskey carries so much self-acclaim about how hard it is worked to give you cirrhosis that I am about to hit the wagon and give up food as well unless they tone down the prose, which is generally ripe enough to gag a goat.

Order of Malta Inducts 65 Catholic Knights

NEW YORK (AP)—In stately and solemn church ceremonies 65 Americans Monday became Master Knights of the Sovereign Military Order of Malta.

Membership in the organization, devoted to charitable and relief activities, is one of the highest honors in the Roman Catholic Church.

About 1,500 people, including friends and relatives of the new knights, attended the St. Patrick's Cathedral investiture rites, led by Francis Cardinal Spellman, archbishop of New York.

One by one, the inductees knelt before the cardinal and received the knight's cape and an 8-pronged white Maltese cross as he spoke these words:

"Receive this cross for your protection and salvation in the name of the Father, and the Son, and of the Holy Ghost."

A colorful procession, accompanied by the singing of a choir, opened the ceremonies. A special decree from Pope John XXIII was read conferring the status and duties on the new knights.

The worldwide organization of Catholic laymen and priests dates back to the time of the Crusades.

The number of American members is limited to 600. The rank is bestowed for "outstanding Catholic action"—service to the Church and fellow men.

Driver Stops Bus, and Dies

SIoux FALLS, S.D. (AP)—A school bus driver from Baltic, S.D., suffered a fatal seizure late Monday while returning a group of children to their homes.

The driver, Henry O. Floren, 57, Baltic, apparently felt the attack coming on and pulled the bus to the side of the road before he collapsed.

Abe Bethke, Sioux Falls, a passing motorist, witnessed the incident and stopped. He first called an ambulance, then took the 10 young passengers home.

Floren, a bachelor, was dead on arrival at a hospital here. The incident occurred north of Norton Acres in Minnehaha County.

Khrushchev Wants Old Aged to Work Nights

LONDON (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev, a busy 67-year-old, wants old age pensioners to work at night clerical jobs rather than idle their time away.

In a speech at Minsk reported today by Moscow radio, the Soviet leader said that keeping the elderly busy in this way would make them happier and would free younger people for work in fields and factories.

Restaurant On Minnesota Point Burns

DULUTH, Minn. (AP)—Flames Tuesday raced through the Oatka Restaurant on Minnesota Point and firemen said the frame structure would be a total loss.

They directed chief efforts at protecting the Surf and Sand Nursing Home, across the street from the cafe. Crews stood by to douse embers blown by a 20-mile west wind. The 30 elderly patients did not have to be evacuated into the 12 below zero cold.

The fire had gained great headway in the one-story frame building when first apparatus arrived. The cafe, a summer installation, was used as an American Legion clubroom during the winter months.

No one was in the building when the fire broke out. There was no immediate estimate of the loss.

Model Prisoner Kills Man, Attacks Woman

TUCKER, Ark. (AP)—A convicted rapist, who had been a model prisoner for 15 years, escaped and during 90 minutes of freedom killed a man and raped a woman.

The brief crime spree of Charles F. Fields, 30, also included a $94 robbery and the theft of three trucks and a car, prison officials said.

Fields was recaptured Monday without a struggle by prison Supt. Lee Henslee and Sheriff Harold Norton after the convict wrecked a pickup truck a few miles from the state prison farm.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy plans to meet Friday with U.N. Secretary-General U Thant in New York City.

They will have lunch with U.N. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson at Stevenson's hotel suite, the White House announced Monday.

President Heads Into Second Year

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — After a bumpy first 12 months both Presidents Kennedy and Eisenhower headed into their second White House year in a kind of temporary twilight between afternoon and evening storms. This was reflected Monday in Kennedy's first news conference of 1962. Neither the questions nor answers had a jumpy sense of tension. As news conferences go, Monday's was pretty dull.

It was much the same on Jan. 13 eight years ago when Eisenhower had his first 1954 meeting with the press.

Both men in their first year had been through a grinding chopper. Worse was to come for Eisenhower as it certainly will for Kennedy. The mid-January doldrums for both were an illusion of quietude.

In 1953 Eisenhower had brought the Korean War to an end but the battle between his administration and Sen. Joseph McCarthy already had begun.

Eisenhower in 1953 didn't have as much to worry about from Russia as Kennedy does now. It wasn't until late summer of 1953 that Russia had its first hydrogen explosion. It didn't have missiles then, either.

That very difference was at the root of Kennedy's most critical problem in 1961: how to keep Russia from taking over Berlin without getting into war.

Both men, by the time they had held their first news conference in January of their second year, had already delivered to Congress the outline of their second year's program in their State of the Union message.

There was a similarity between these messages. Much of both was routine although both suggested pushing the country's welfare programs forward a bit.

The response both men got from Congress could hardly be called overwhelmingly enthusiastic, particularly on Eisenhower's ideas about a new farm program and Kennedy's plea for tariff-cutting powers.

Both men delivered their messages at the beginning of a congressional election year. That explained, but only in part, the mixed reaction they got from Democrats and Republicans.

Kennedy, despite what looked like a great zest for news conferences when he took office, has lagged behind Eisenhower who made less to-do about them.

After almost precisely the same amount of time in the presidency Kennedy has held only 20 news conferences to Eisenhower's 24.

It was only a few weeks after Eisenhower's first and unexciting news conference of 1953 that his administration's knock-down-drag-out fight with McCarthy really got under way.

Kennedy at this time can only guess at what is in store for him. He knows he will have some more difficulty with Premier Khrushchev. He doesn't know how much. He doesn't know what may explode in Asia.
