Hundreds of Opponents of Franco Seized

MADRID (AP) — Hundreds of opponents of Generalissimo Francisco Franco's dictatorship have been reported arrested in a sweeping roundup of dissidents of all political shades.

Five leading monarchists were caught in the dragnet as they returned from a meeting of Spanish oppositionists in Munich, Germany. Three of them refused an offer of exile and were flown today to forced residence in the Canary Islands. Two went into exile in Paris.

Those flown to Puerto Ventura, second largest of the Canaries, were Joaquin de Sotomayor, an executive of the Spanish affiliate of the American-owned Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing Co.; Fernando Alvarez de Miranda, 40, nephew of the Marquis of Valdivia and a Madrid city employee; and Jaime Miralles, member of a prominent old family.

Families of the three men said they were not allowed to visit them or speak to them after they were arrested during the weekend.

High Altitude N-Test Near

HONOLULU (AP) — Extension of the United States high altitude danger area around Johnston Island was seen today as a preliminary to the firing of the biggest nuclear blast of the Pacific test series.

There was no official comment from Joint Task Force 8 on the precise altitude and size of the detonation but unofficial sources said it would be from 50 to 500 times as powerful as the bomb that destroyed Hiroshima.

There have been reports it will be of several megatons in force, of the explosion of a million tons of TNT.

A megaton blast is the equivalent of 1,000,000 tons of TNT.

The big blast will be set off about 200 miles high, the sources said. It will be the highest and biggest nuclear shot in U.S. history and will be seen in Hawaii, 750 miles northeast of Johnston.

The Atomic Energy Commission and the Defense Department announced Saturday that the nuclear danger area surrounding Johnston Island will be extended 60 miles by Tuesday to a radius of 530 nautical miles at sea level. It will be increased 290 nautical miles at 30,000 feet, to a radius of 990 miles.

The zone will be extended 10,000 feet in altitude to a height of 40,000 feet, where the radius will be 1,950 miles. At 30,000 feet the zone will cover the entire Hawaiian Island chain.

The zone is being extended to mark the "eye burn" area in which there could be a hazard from looking directly at the blast.

Child Killed, 219 Hurt In Wreck in Montana

By JACK ZYGMOND

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP) — A Northern Pacific luxury train shot off a mountain curve in western Montana Sunday, killing a child and injuring 219 of its 350 passengers.

Only two of the 17 cars remained on the rails in the dawn derailment, which may cost the railroad $1 million.

The other 15 cars of the Seattle-to-Chicago North Coast Limited capsized down a 100-foot embankment 15 miles northwest of Missoula.

Two of the olive-green passenger cars plunged all the way to the bottom, coming to rest in a ditch along U.S. Highway 93 and 10A.

The nose of one car smashed deep into the ditch, scooping up mud that buried Teresa Ann Dooms of Ekalaka, Mont. Teresa, who would have been 3 June 30, was the first North Coast Limited passenger to be killed in 62 years.

Investigators are looking into the possibility of air brake failure. Reports from passengers and train personnel suggested the train was exceeding the 35-m.p.h. speed limit for the curve.

The wreck happened as Northern Pacific officials, including president Robert S. MacFarlane, gathered in Missoula for the opening today of the first of four ICC hearings in Montana on a merger proposed by the Northern Pacific, Great Northern, Burlington, Spokane, Portland & Seattle railroads.

The estimate of $1 million in claims and damages was made by a division official, who asked that his name not be used.

The wreck happened as Northern Pacific officials, including president Robert S. MacFarlane, gathered in Missoula for the opening today of the first of four ICC hearings in Montana on a merger proposed by the Northern Pacific, Great Northern, Burlington, Spokane, Portland & Seattle railroads.

The question was brought up by John G. Pidgeon, Bloomington city attorney.

Pidgeon asked if it is lawful for private clubs to allow non-members to bring liquor on the premises and to serve "setups" for a monetary consideration.

Mondale said the law requires liquor to be stored and marked in a particular manner and that the private clubs may sell only to members who in turn give drinks to their bona fide guests. The guests, Mondale added, are not permitted to purchase themselves.

Pidgeon also inquired if it is unlawful for a bottle club to allow all who apply to become members.

Mondale said any club which allows all to apply to become members "appear to present a prima facie case of a scheme designed to evade requirements of the Liquor Control Act."

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — More than 100 workers walked off a Titan missile silo construction job. They just didn't like the working conditions. Inside the 150-foot-deep silo they had found two skunks.

Of the 219 persons received at the hospitals, 151 were treated and released. Sixty-eight were held for further treatment and observation.

The train passed through Winona Junction at 9:29 a.m. Saturday. There were no boardings for the Montana area.)

Most of the passengers were sleeping or just awakening at 4:40 a.m. as the train crashed a mile short of a trestle that spans a 300-foot canyon.

The body of the Dooms child was clawed out of the mud by a frantic woman. Another child buried in mud in the same car was rescued.

The train had passed over one mile of an eight-mile descent on winding Elviro Hill, which drops 1,100 feet.

"I noticed we were starting to pick up speed," said Jesse O'Connor of Chicago, a Pullman porter. "All of a sudden, I noticed such a fast rate of speed that I got dizzy."

Wendell Wardell of Billings, Mont., a passenger, said, "We were going so fast that our car leaned way over to one side. The car rocked back and forth twice, and I could observe the second car jackknife and pull the rest of the cars over the bank."

The last two cars on the train — a Vista Dome Pullman and a Pullman club car — remained upright. The others twisted in all directions over 500 to 600 feet of the wooded area.

One of the four diesel engines broke in half. All of them spilled off the tracks.

Engineer E. E. Lynn and fireman Jerry Haines, both of Missoula, suffered minor cuts. Lynn was quoted by a railroad spokesman as saying the train lost air pressure as it started downhill.

About 100 National Guardsmen plus Red Cross disaster workers and others joined doctors and nurses in helping the wreck victims. The injured were taken to three hospitals.

Of the 219 persons received at the hospitals, 151 were treated and released. Sixty-eight were held for further treatment and observation.

and clearing the wrecked cars away will take several days. Passenger trains will use a freight line.

The stepfather and mother of the dead child, Mr. and Mrs. James Yates of Centralia, Wash., were en route to his hometown of Ekalaka, Mont. With them were the victim's half-sisters, Roberta Beaber, 2, and Jacqueline Beaber, 5. Yates, 25, was discharged from military service last Tuesday.

Catholics Will Desegregate Atlanta Schools

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The Roman Catholic Church has ordered Atlanta archdiocesan schools desegregated this fall in a move supported by leading Catholic laymen and the mayor of Atlanta.

The historic decision applied to Catholic schools in the 71 north Georgia counties of the archdiocese where about 7,500 pupils are enrolled. The total includes 735 negroes, all in Atlanta.

Archbishop Paul J. Hallinan said it was up to local bishops elsewhere in the archdiocese province to decide what action to take in their areas. That included other sections of Georgia as well as North and South Carolina and Florida, all under the archbishop's titular control.

The desegregation decision was announced in a pastoral letter read during Sunday services in all the churches of the north Georgia archdiocese.

"Catholic children, regardless of race or color, will be admitted to Catholic schools of the archdiocese as of Sept. 1, 1962," the letter said.

"I think it is something long overdue," commented Catholic layman G. Albert Lawton, president of Georgia International Life Insurance Co., who moved to Atlanta from Connecticut three years ago. His two children attend Catholic schools in Rhode Island and New York.

Another Catholic layman, Superior Court Judge Sam P. McKenzie of the Atlanta Judicial Circuit, said he was confident the Archbishop "will get the support of a great majority of the Catholics in the archdiocese."

Shirley Wilmet, 10, De Pere, was struck and killed by a car Saturday as she walked with three friends on a highway near De Pere.

Also reported was the death of Clare Grynay, 27, of Neenah, early Saturday of injuries suffered May 26 when his truck left a highway southeast of Appleton.

7 Killed in 2-Car Crash In Wisconsin

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A two-car collision on a hill in Chippewa County has taken the lives of seven persons, including six young people riding in one of the vehicles.

The dead included the driver of one of the cars, who was alone, and all six persons in the second car. The crash occurred Sunday night.

Eleven other persons lost their lives over the weekend, sending the 1962 Wisconsin traffic toll to 335, only eight below the figure on this date last year.

Chippewa County Patrolman James Revier identified the dead as Otto Iverson of Bruce, 51, who was alone, and Knute Nelson, 23, Cornell, and James Richards, 17, Linda Amerson, 17, Valentine Rubenzer, 16, Juanita Ankey, 16, and Jack Roberts, 16, all of Cadott.

All but Roberts, the driver of the second car, died in the crash or before reaching hospitals. Roberts died about 2:40 a.m. today in St. Joseph's Hospital at Chippewa Falls.

The accident scene is on a straight stretch of road leading up a hill about five miles north of Cadott. The crash took place about 100 yards short of the summit of the hill.

Chippewa County authorities said a yellow no-passing line regulated traffic in the lane in which the Roberts' auto had been traveling. The car came to a stop in the left-hand ditch, on the opposite side of the road.

James D. Hall, 62, Janesville, died in an Edgerton hospital early Sunday night of injuries suffered in a three-car crash in the city of Edgerton earlier in the day.

Daniel Spelick, 37, Wheeling, Ill., died Sunday night after his car crashed through a guardrail on a railroad overpass on Highway 12 in Clark County.

Peter Hellenbrand, 34, Cross Plains, was killed Sunday when struck by a car as he directed traffic around his stalled truck on Highway 14 near Richland Center.

Daniel Raleigh, 29, Brantwood, was killed when the sports car in which he was riding left Lincoln County Highway CC and plunged into a ditch early Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Lyons, 21, of rural Oconomowoc, was killed near Sullivan in Jefferson County Sunday when the family car missed a curve and smashed into a clump of trees.

Richard Nicholson, 23, Milwaukee, died Sunday when his car left a road in Greenfield and struck a tree.

John Strouf, 17, and John Skubal, 19, both of Manitowoc, died Sunday morning of injuries suffered Saturday night when their car left a road in Manitowoc, plowed into a ditch, struck a culvert and rolled.

Mrs. Elden Ellefson, 42, Appleton, lost her life Saturday in a two-car collision near Granton in Clark County. Six persons were injured.

Shirley Wilmet, 10, De Pere, was struck and killed by a car Saturday as she walked with three friends on a highway near De Pere.

Boost Confidence In U.S. Economy, President Urges

HARVARD MAN GETS YALE DEGREE . . . President Kennedy, Harvard '40, has hood of honorary Doctor of Laws degree from Yale University placed over his head at Commencement ceremonies in New Haven. By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — President Kennedy urged today that critics, business and political, discard "wornout slogans" and join hands with the government to pump new strength and confidence into nation's economy.

Kennedy vowed his clash with the steel industry did not mean his administration is hostile toward business.

But in a speech prepared for Yale University's commencement, he said the government is obliged to exercise "watchful concern for our economic health" while business and labor must live up to their public responsibilities.

Kennedy said economic problems bearing down on a free economy cannot be solved without separating myth from reality — and he said it is mythical to contend that government is big and getting worse or to argue that deficits in the federal budget always create inflation.

Kennedy chose Yale's 261st commencement to deliver what the White House clearly regarded an important statement of his administration's domestic views.

He received an honorary degree — his 22nd — and joked about the fact that as a Harvard graduate he is now a Yale man.

"Someone has told me that I now have the best of both worlds — a Harvard education and a Yale degree," Kennedy said.

Turning serious, the chief executive said neither partisan wrangling nor "incantations from the forgotten past" can throw light on today's problems.

"It is not new that past debates should obscure present realities," Kennedy said. "But the damage of such false dialogue is greater today than ever before, simply because today the safety of all the world — the very future of freedom — depends as never before upon the sensible and clear-headed management of the domestic affairs of the United States."

Of the size and shape of government, he said the myth is that it is "big and bad — and steadily getting bigger and worse." Government spending has increased, regardless of the party in power, he said, but government has not grown as fast as the economy.

Kennedy said all sides must abandon "traditional labels and charges by Republicans, including former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, and some spokesmen for business that his policies touched off recent stock market gyrations.

Among false issues which he said are frustrating efforts to push the economy forward, Kennedy declared "is the assertion that any and all unfavorable turns of the speculative wheel — however temporary and however plainly speculative in character — are the result of 'lack of confidence in the national administration.'"

"This, I must tell you, while comforting, is not wholly true. Worse, it obscures the reality — which is also simple. The solid ground of mutual confidence is the necessary partnership of government with all the sections of our society in the steady quest for economic progress," Kennedy said.

"This administration is not going to give way to general hostility to business merely because there has been a single temporary disagreement with an industry, nor will the future belong to those who ignore the realities of our economic life in a neurotic search for unending reassurance."

"Corporate plans are not based on a political confidence in party leaders," Kennedy said, but on economic confidence in the nation's ability to invest, produce and consume. Business had confidence in Republican administrations of 1929, 1954, 1958 and 1960, he said, "but this was not enough to prevent recession when business lacked full confidence in the economy."

What really matters, Kennedy said, is the capacity of the nation as a whole to deal with problems and opportunities alike.

New Drug Formula Clears Up Pimples

HOUSTON, Texas — Successful completion of field tests of the new product, "KleerPlex" was announced today by Loesch Laboratory Consultants. Daily use of the new product, which is simply dabbed on the face with a piece of cotton, should completely control pimples, blackheads, etc., within 30 days, according to a company spokesman. Pimples, blackheads, and similar complexion problems are usually caused by excessive discharge of "sebum," a body waste which is discharged constantly through the skin. Pimples are caused when sebum at or near the skin surface dries and plugs the skin pores. Additional body wastes back up behind this "plug" of dried sebum, bacteria infest the area, and the skin irritation resulting becomes a blackhead or pimple. KleerPlex is a deep pore cleaner, designed specifically to dissolve every known chemical component of this sebum. It clears up pimples and blackheads, makes the skin soft and smooth, makes helps prevent their formation in the future. It is sold on an absolute money-back guarantee of results. As a special introductory offer, you can now order two months' supply of KleerPlex, a regular $2.00 value for only $1.99. Order KleerPlex by writing to Loesch, P.O. Box 88001, Houston 6, Texas. Your KleerPlex will be shipped immediately, C.O.D. Or we will pay shipping charges, if you enclose your check or money order for $1.99. Either way, you must be completely satisfied with results at the end of 30 days, or you may return the unused portion for immediate refund.

Need to Meet Bloodmobile Quota Cited

To meet our goal, Winona County must contribute 625 pints of blood when the bloodmobile comes to town June 18-22 Mrs. Carl Breilow, blood program chairman for the county Red Cross Chapter said.

The goal has not been met in the past year.

"Unfortunately, the Red Cross blood bank may withdraw from Winona County if our goal is not met," Mrs. Breilow said. "If this happens, any patient entering the hospital will have to pay for blood given him. We hope that this will not occur. During this drive we depend on the community to meet the 625-pint quota."

Although the slogan "The Life You Save May Be Your Own" sounds dramatic, the drama of saving lives through blood transfusions is factual and almost entirely dependent upon the Red Cross blood program.

Winona General Hospital is fortunate to be a part of the Red Cross program of blood banking. Mrs. Breilow said. This makes all types of blood and its derivatives available at a moment's notice, and provides the best emergency service for all patients. In the two great medical emergencies, hemorrhage and profound shock nothing is more important than the availability of the proper type of blood. Through the Red Cross blood program, this is always the case at Winona General Hospital. Every person who provides blood for the Red Cross program can feel that he has in most cases provided the means of saving lives.

Moist Windup For U. Grads

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Collegiate careers got a moist windup Saturday night for 2,850 University of Minnesota graduates who got well-soaked when a heavy shower disrupted commencement activities.

President O. Meredith Wilson dismissed the graduates without the traditional march across the stage in Memorial Stadium before he joined the throngs scurrying for cover.

The rain washed out public award of honorary degrees to Dr. J.L. Morrill, president emeritus of the university; Dr. Laurence Gould, retiring president of Carleton College, and Robert Gilruth, onetime university student now heading the Project Mercury space program.

Wilson had planned to announce the re-naming of the campus Administration building to Morrill Hall, in the former president's honor. This, and awarding of the honorary degrees, had to await informal ceremonies in Wilson's home.

University regents Saturday approved a $42.5 million budget for the fiscal year starting July 1, a boost of $2.5 million from the present yearly budget.

Police Charge Crash Drivers

Two one-car accidents Saturday evening resulted in the total loss of both vehicles involved and three injuries. The drivers of both cars were charged with careless driving.

The first accident occurred at 10:50 p.m. on the Prairie Island Road near the Latsch State Park, picnic area. A car driven by Dennis Konkelt, 20, 676 E. Sarnia St., was traveling toward Winona. Konkelt lost control of his car, police said, and skidded for about 225 feet across the highway into a tree.

Konkelt was slightly injured, but he was not admitted to the hospital. A passenger, Gerald Brand, 20, 608 E. Sanborn St., suffered a chest injury and facial cuts when he was thrown from the car. He was taken to Winona General Hospital where his condition was described by officials today as satisfactory.

Konkelt forfeited $30 in municipal court today.

About an hour later, at 11:42 p.m., a car driven by Clifford Stroinski, 19, 310 Mankato Ave., slammed into a tree at West 3rd and Lee streets near the Westfield Golf Course.

Police said that Stroinski was driving west on 3rd Street and was attempting to turn left onto Lee. He apparently lost control of his car before hitting the tree. He was charged with careless driving.

Stroinski suffered multiple abrasions of his face and was taken to Winona General Hospital. Officials said his condition today is satisfactory.

BOYS BEHIND BARS
AJO, Ariz. (AP) — O. A. Stokes glanced down at a storm grating on one of Ajo's main streets to see three sets of eyes staring up at him.

Recovering from the shock, he called for a crane to remove the grating and let the three sons of Mr. and Mrs. Quentin Wells out of their temporary jail.

The boys, all under 8, had entered the system via a large opening on the outskirts of town.

GET ABOUT $100

Burglars Hit 3 County Towns

Three breakins early this morning netted burglars about $100, Sheriff George Fort reported.

Breakins were reported at the Altura Lumber Co. at Altura, the Seltz Garage at Rollingstone and Lewiston Elevator at Lewiston.

Two more church burglaries at Red Wing, which also were reported this morning by Goodhue County authorities, also may be linked to the three here in Winona County, Fort said.

The burglaries were committed by men from the Twin City area who only were interested in getting cash, Fort believes.

Each of the three breakins probably occurred after 4 a.m. today, he said. The sheriff's night patrol had checked each of the towns between 3 a.m. and 4 a.m. and had found nothing disturbed.

Fort believed that the burglars first attempted to break into the LEWISTON Elevator. He said they pried open a door on the

Lewiston OKs Contracts for Streets, Mains

LEWISTON, Minn.—Work is expected to begin early next week on street improvements for which contracts totaling nearly $70,000 have been awarded by the Lewiston Village Council.

Village Attorney Roger Poole said today that work—involving base construction and bituminous surfacing of streets, concrete curb, gutter and sidewalk for approximately 10 blocks on Harrison, Lincoln, Wilson and Thompson streets—is to be virtually completed by Aug. 15 although sidewalk construction may take a little longer.

LOW BIDS on each phase of work were accepted by the council at its meeting Wednesday.

Fred Fakler, Winona, received a $16,749.80 contract for grading and base construction; Orville T. Willard, Winnebago, Minn., will construct concrete curb, gutter and sidewalk for $39,554.65 and H. J. Dunn Black Top Surfacing Co., Winona, bituminous surfacing for $10,829. There were no competitive bids.

Most of the work will be done in the northeast section of the village although some 1,400 feet of sidewalk will be laid on Main Street.

The improvement program also necessitates relocation and replacement of water mains and associated equipment on Harrison Street.

WINONA Plumbing Co., Winona, was awarded the contract for this on its bid of $2,493. The only other bidder was H. & T. Inc., a proposal of $2,797.25.

Bids had been opened by the council late last month and referred to its engineering consultants, Caswell Engineering Co., Osseo, Minn., for study.

Multhauf was arrested by police at 2:41 a.m. Monday at Sarnia and Olmstead streets.

His trial was set for 9 a.m. June 19.

Multhauf also was charged with failing to stop for a stop sign. He pleaded guilty, but the sentencing was delayed until after his trial. Judge Briski set his bond at $30 on the first charge and $10 on the second. Multhauf was taken to jail.

Wednesday's outlook is for little change in temperature and occasional showers and thunderstorms.

EVEN THE extended forecast clings to the prediction of rain, with one-half to an inch of the stuff, perhaps as much as two inches in some areas, in showers and thunderstorms Tuesday and Wednesday and again by the weekend.

Professor Wins 7th District DFL Backing

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A standoff in the 7th District Democratic . . . Farmer . . . Labor convention was ended suddenly Sunday when Prof. Harding Noblitt of Concordia College found himself without a rival for the congressional endorsement.

Rep. Ben Wichterman, Plummer, who went through 22 ballots April 29 with neither he nor Noblitt able to garner enough votes, withdrew from the race just before another ballot at the reconvened meeting.

Noblitt, 39, teaches political science at Concordia. Assuming both are nominated in September, he will face Republican Rep. Odin Langen in the general election.

Meanwhile, Republican convention delegates are back home after a weekend windup that saw State Rep. C. Donald Peterson, Edina, win endorsement for lieutenant governor.

In the only other GOP endorsement contest, Steele County treasurer Norbert McCrady, Owatonna, was tabbed for secretary of state.

The DFL executive committee will meet Saturday to make endorsements for treasurer and auditor.

Peterson won the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor in a three way contest with former State Rep. Carl D'Aquila of Hibbing and Wheelock Whitney of Wayzata.

The contest was decided, before the first ballot vote was announced, when D'Aquila threw 71 St. Louis County votes which were in his column to Peterson. At the time of the switch, Peterson had 769 votes, D'Aquila 321 and Whitney 225. The St. Louis County switches plus some others gave Peterson far more than the 803 he needed.

Endorsed by the Republicans by acclamation were Gov. Elmer L. Andersen, State Treasurer Val Bjornson and State Auditor Stafford King. Also endorsed without opposition were Robert Kunzig of Minneapolis for attorney general and Robert Johnson of Lakeville for the railroad and warehouse commission.

The slate will be entered in the September primary, as will the slate endorsed by Democratic-Farmer-Laborites earlier at their Duluth convention.

The GOP convention wound up with a 17-demonstration to which Gov. Andersen responded by urging delegates to go home and work for victory.

Combs' skull was fractured at the base and temple. He was semi-conscious this morning. He was transferred to St. Mary's by ambulance from Winona General Hospital.

MATCHES ARE MAGIC!

Yes, Mom and Dad, in the eyes of your child, matches are magic!

Turn back your mind a few years. Do you remember how brave and scary you felt when you took matches from the holder beside the stove and lit the dry grass in the vacant lot?

But the real scare came when the fire got too big and you tried to stamp it out, but couldn't! Then you knew that the soot on your clothes and the burns on your legs would give you away.

But how about the fire itself?

Every year, children playing with matches start hundreds of fires that cost thousands of dollars and untold pain and damage besides.

Smoky says this needless waste can be stopped. Won't you PLEASE:

1. Keep matches away from your little ones.
2. Teach your older children to be careful with every fire.
3. Show them the damage that fires can do.

Remember—only YOU can

It Happened Last Night Otto Preminger Needs His Humor

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Otto Preminger has a warm sense of humor—luckily.

He's going to need one. Some of the avil chorus is trying to scalp him, except that baldness scalped him long ago, over his movie, "Advise and Consent." It portrays one U.S. Senator as briefly effeminate, and another as a demagogic blackmailer.

"I don't mind what they say—I have never made a picture everybody liked," he says, with a smile, a shrug and an Austrian accent.

"Why don't you sometime?" I asked him. He laughed softly. A nice picture everybody liked—no controversy—it would die.

MACMURRAY-OLSON-WYNN-KIRK

By GRETCHEN L. LAMBERTSON

FOUNTAIN Glen Farm, Peru, Ind. — There has been so much rain every day that the seasonal farm work like hay making and cultivating has had to be shoved off day after day. In my son's fields acres of cut hay are lying sodden; the soy bean and corn fields are deep mud. So this weather farmers are repairing machinery, keeping records and listening hopefully to the weather reports. The children took me first to see little Barbie, the six-week old orphan Angus calf they are raising. This baby is pastured a small meadow with two yearling heifer calves and Joe the handsome young bull almost a year old.

The silver-striped barn cat, Dawn, and her six kittens, also six weeks old, spend much time there with the little calf, skipping around her hoofs, sniffing her inquisitive nose, and lapping up the little bit of milk she leaves in her feeding pail twice a day. The other day Joe, the young bull, got frisky and lowered his shining black head and charged at the cat and kittens, scattering them like windblown leaves.

But what the little girls were bursting to show me were the horses. We all climbed over the high fence, and the four horses came running up. Seven-year-old Sara said ecstatically, "Isn't Beauty the most beautiful horse you ever saw!"

At the same moment Liz was crying, "Just look at Jim! Isn't he gorgeous!" and Dare was saying, "Have you ever seen such a beautiful horse as my Midnight?"

Beauty is a sleek buckskin Shetland pony with an angelic disposition. Jim is a black gelding, and Midnight (Midnight Melody) is a shining black Tennessee Walking mare. All horses are groomed within an inch of their lives each day by their young owners. But the pride of the farm is Midnight's six-week-old filly, Eve. Everything on the farm seems to be six weeks old—what a week that was with the whole barn full of new little things! Eve is a strong, rangy blue roan colt with, already, the long stride a good Tennessee Walking horse is supposed to have.

Then she gave a prance and then there was a wall. "Ow! I stepped on a nail!" She limped to me. A long nail stuck upright in a board in a particularly manure spot had gone all the way through her tennis shoe and sock. In the kitchen we took off her shoe and soaked her bleeding foot in warm water. Since her mother had run into town to get groceries my son phoned the doctor to see about a tetanus shot, only to find that Sara had had a tetanus shot just six days ago when a chipmunk bit her, and another one last fall when an ice pick went through her thumb. "Those shots ought to take care of her," said the doctor.

Sara is the animal lover of the family who picks up any animal, wild or tame, or walks into any pen or pasture. She is the one who just has to see what's around the next corner, and consequently is often in hot water. She is coming home with me in two weeks, and it promises to be a lively and interesting summer.

LA CRESCENT, Minn.—Mrs. Laddie Boland and Mrs. Erwin Albrecht, co-chairman of the cancer drive, announced that $438.10 was collected in the village here this year. Mrs. Charles Kearns, Mrs. Harold Nichols and Mrs. Donald Matison also served on the committee.

NASON ON EDUCATION

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed. D.

Professor of Education,
University of Southern California

In the first high school derby for scholarships was your child

"out of the money?"

"Why," you ask, "were the Jones boys offered seven scholarships each, while mine was not offered even one? Why not spread the scholarships to include those with perhaps even greater need?"

It is the system—not the individuals—that is to blame.

A game among some high school seniors is to see who will be granted the most scholarships. They make dozens of applications. School officials sometimes are at fault too. I have heard high school principals boast at commencement of the number of scholarships offered their front-running seniors.

AS A RESULT of this sort of thing, universities and colleges have been forced to make substantial charges for processing applications for entrance and scholarships. Obviously, the Jones boys cannot enter seven colleges. They just have the dubious honor of becoming dogs in several mangers at the same time!

Awarding scholarships to the right boys and girls is not a simple task. Every September finds some scholarships unawarded and some deserving students without necessary help.

As the parent of a student who wants and needs a scholarship, you can still see to it that he takes effective action.

He should make new inquiries not only with his school counselor, but to the college he plans to attend.

Inquire among local service groups, sororities and fraternal groups about scholarships, and about the existence of scholarship funds which are not regularly advertised and are not granted on a routine basis.

BEFORE submitting a new application think carefully about the ones which did not produce results. The following items are of vital importance in swaying the persons controlling the granting of scholarships:

1. The application blank must be completely and neatly filled out. If a blank space is not applicable, write "none" to indicate that it was not overlooked.

2. Any statement of personal autobiography, of aims and goals, in answer to questions such as "Why do you wish to attend this college?" should be carefully composed. The controlling committee will try to determine from this short exercise whether the student has the ability to communicate his thought in writing in a manner which presages success in college. It is one of the major keys.

They may not try to read character through handwriting, but handwriting affects their decision.

3. The student should personally contact and obtain permission from each person to be used as a reference.

He should show these people his sincere desire to get a college education. He should give them a frank appraisal of the ability of his parents to give him financial assistance, and of his own plans for earning part of his expenses.

THE MORE alert students asking me to be a reference have presented me with a written list of these items, plus a statement of their honor, accomplishments, experiences and other specific items which can add much to the effectiveness of a letter of recommendation.

4. Parents while giving an honest statement of their ability to contribute should be careful not to over-estimate it for reasons of pride or willingness to be self-sacrificing.

The real aim of donors of scholarships is to help students obtain an education without undue hardship either to themselves or the parents.

Information on finances and scholarships can be obtained from your local library. Two good sources are "The New American Guide to Scholarships, Fellowships and Loans," by John Bradley and "Scholarships, Fellowships and Loans" by S. Norman Feingold.

Remarks Come Back to Plague Sec. Freeman

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman now wishes he never said that the Billie Sol Estes case was being ballooned out of all proportions, says Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D. Mundt, senior Republican on the Senate Investigations subcommittee that starts public hearings June 27 on Estes' operations, said he discussed the case with Freeman recently for an hour and a half.

"He indicated that the first statement that he made to the press—when he said it was being blown out of all proportion—was one of those statements all of us sometime make but we wish we could retract, because the thing is a lot more serious than he thought it was at the time," said Mundt.

Freeman made the remark at a news conference May 7. Estes, a West Texas promoter and financier, built a multimillion-dollar business on government grain storage, cotton and sales of fertilizer. He was indicted in April for fraud and he has declared himself bankrupt. The Senate subcommittee and a House group are investigating his operations and whether he received favored treatment from federal officials. Mundt said Estes had.

Interviewed by Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., on a program taped for radio and television stations in New York, Mundt contended the Agriculture Department showed favoritism to Estes by not requiring him to carry an adequate bond for storing government grain.

Estes' bond was set at $700,000 although he was storing grain valued up to $50 million. Agriculture Department officers have testified before the House subcommittee that the bond was based on an inaccurate audit Estes submitted on his net worth.

Since the 17th Century, tulip fanciers have searched for a black tulip. Growers have developed a tulip that looks black at a distance but really is an intensely dark shade of maroon.

Church-Bound Cars in Crash

TREMPEALEAU, Wis. (Special)—Nine Trempealeau residents didn't make it to church Sunday. Gerald Stelplung and his son, Kevin, 3, were traveling west in their 1958 car about 10 a.m. toward St. Bartholomew's Catholic Church.

At an intersection, before the northeast entrance to village park, their car hit broadside a 1955 car driven by Lawrence Wood. Wood was traveling south toward the Federated Church with his six children: Byron, 18; Carl, 16; LeRoy, 14; Gerald, 13; Bobby, 10; and Jane, 8.

Byron and Carl were bruised and the others shaken. None were hospitalized. The Wood car was pushed about 10 feet into the park entrance and received about $450 damage to the left side. About $500 to $600 damage was done to the front of the Stelplung automobile. Oliver Landers, deputy sheriff of Trempealeau County, investigated.

Damage $250 in Highway Accident

More than $250 damage resulted from a two-car accident Sunday evening.

Police reported that cars driven by Victor Erdmann, Rushford, Minn., and Roy Kramer, La Crosse, Wis., collided at Highway 43 and 61 at 7:03 p.m.

Both cars were traveling west on 61. Erdmann has stopped for the stoplight when he was struck in the rear by Kramer's car.

Damage to Erdmann's car was estimated by police at more than $200, to Kramer's car, more than $50.

There were no injuries and neither driver was charged.

Old Adage Not Working Out

AN OLD ADAGE, "No news is good news" isn't working out at Minneapolis with the Minneapolis Tribune and Star strike going into its ninth week.

Minneapolis is becoming virtually a clinic with surveys probing reaction of readers on the prolonged disappearance of their home-town paper.

While newspapers often take readership surveys, the actual situation that exists when there isn't any paper gives the more realistic results.

The New York Times did a roundup of the Minneapolis strike situation, and here are some of the things found:

MINNEAPOLIS DOWNTOWN department stores reported sales are down but even harder hit are the specialty shops. The proprietor of a big furniture store that relies heavily on advertising commented, "I'm dead. I might just as well close the front door."

Used car dealers, their lots crammed, are moaning loudly. So are real estate dealers, theater proprietors and employment agencies, the latter being particularly dependent on classified advertising.

A poll was conducted by the University of Minnesota Journalism school, asking readers "what they missed" in not being able to get the newspaper.

RANKED IN APPROXIMATE order of importance, the categories were:

"The news," "everything," sports, advertising, editorial page, page one, comics, TV and radio listings, women's page, business page, obituaries and advice to the lovelorn column.

"In every quarter of the city there is a sense of void, a feeling akin to homesickness," says the Times.

A cab driver commented: "A guy I know died and I didn't find out for a couple of days. But what I miss most is the general news even more than the sports."

A BUSINESSMAN commented: "I can't keep up with what the ball teams are doing."

A shoeshine boy said he was "mixed up" because he had had no notice that a bus route was changed.

A housewife active in PTA work was worried about the fate of a school bond issue because there was little information on it. A high Democrat party official said the absence of political reporting might influence an intraparty fuss simply because not enough people would have the full story on it.

WHILE A NEW NEWSPAPER has started in Minneapolis, and there are suburban and other out-of-town papers, the people seemed lost without what they considered the "hometown" paper.

A survey made by the Cowles research department showed almost three-quarters of the heads of households in Minneapolis were dissatisfied with such alternative news sources as radio, TV and out-of-town papers. Almost everyone said the lack of a regular paper made a difference and about half said they missed the papers "a great deal."

THE TIMES SAID there is disappointment among school valedictorians. Each year, the Minneapolis Tribune publishes pictures of hundreds of valedictorians in a three-state area and they look forward to it. This year the Tribune was shut down at graduation time.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERP

Dr. Pullman, society dentist, once forgot to take a large cotton roll from a patient's mouth. She phoned an hour later to complain that she couldn't swallow properly, and was getting pretty tired of holding the wad in place. "You're always helped me before, Doctor," she reminded him. "Help me again now." Dr. Pullman was equal to the emergency. "Hold the cotton wad there just ten minutes more," he told her graciously. "Then you can take it out."

A ninth-rate comedian fell madly in love with a luscious young lady appearing on the same bill with him in Waterbury. "I don't have millions like Bob Hope," he told her earnestly, "and I don't travel all over the world like Bob Hope gets to do and I can't afford to give you the kind of home and jewels Bob Hope probably could, but I adore you." "I adore you, too," murmured the luscious young lady, "but tell me more about Bob Hope."

Ye were bought with a price.—I. Corinthians 7:23.

How Do You Stand, Sir?

Kennedy Flops On Medicare

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

Public reaction in the week following President Kennedy's dramatic television plea indicates the administration's pitch for federal medical-care legislation is a flop.

Spot checks in congressional offices show that the mail is running as heavy in opposition to the administration program as it did prior to the President's sales pitch in Madison Square Garden.

My own Arizona mail, for example, is three to one in opposition to the King-Anderson bill endorsed by the President.

But what is even more curious is the fact that the morning following President Kennedy's speech, not a single telegram came into my office on the subject of federal medical care. Yet on the following morning, after the speech by Dr. Edward Annis, who spoke from the point of view of the American Medical Association, 13 telegrams were on my desk when I arrived, all opposing federal participation in medical care.

Information I have received from other offices show New Yorkers are two to one opposed to the administration plan and Californians three to one in opposition to it.

Sen. Carl Curtis of Nebraska told me his mail count following the President's speech tallied two letters in favor of King-Anderson and 288 in opposition. The reaction that Senator Capehart of Indiana reported was 274 to 28 opposing the administration. Texas, Maryland, Utah and South Carolina offices all show similar trends of constituent reaction.

YOU WILL remember that the President in his Madison Square Garden speech affirmed that the White House mail for the past several months was heavily in opposition to the King-Anderson bill. In explaining this, the President opined an unawareness on the part of the public as to just what the legislation meant to them and their lives.

Frankly, I have a slightly higher regard for the intelligence of Americans and have found the general public to be extremely aware in matters of politics. The nationally prominent pollster, Lou Harris, on whom the President himself relies from time to time, supported this in a recent Life magazine article.

"I've found people far shrewder than they're credited with being," Harris said. "Some politicians and mass media consistently underestimate the America voter. So-called articulate people have too low a view of the human race, and this talk of an average public mental age of 12 or 14 is nonsense."

WHY IS IT then that public sentiment is running so heavily against the King-Anderson bill? If we accept the facts as they are, the only conclusion that can be drawn is that the American people know perfectly well the dangers of socialized medicine and want no part of it. In fact, the President himself indicated an awareness of this public opposition to socialized medicine, although in a contradictory manner. Here is what he said at Madison Square Garden.

"I understand that there's going to be a program this week against this bill, in which an English physician is going to come and talk about how bad their plans are. It may be. But he ought to talk about it in England, because this plan—this plan, and what they do in England are entirely different."

And a few sentences later Mr. Kennedy declared:

"BUT WHAT we're talking about is entirely different. And I hope that while he's here, he—and Dr. Spock (the pediatrician) and others who have joined up—will come to see what we're trying to do. The fact of the matter is that what we are now talking about doing, most of the countries of Europe did years ago. The British did it 30 years ago."

That, according to my calculations, places us 30 years ahead of the British, not behind, and I suggest we keep it that way.

How do you stand, sir?

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

British Oppose Aid To Hong Kong Chinese

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—H. L. Hardin, the assistant immigration commissioner who was rushed to Hong Kong to expedite the flow of Chinese refugees to the United States, has run into surprising British opposition.

When he telephoned British authorities to relay Attorney General Robert Kennedy's offer to find homes for Chinese orphans, the British told him that there was no need to discuss the matter because there were no available orphans in Hong Kong. A p p r e n t l y the British don't want to give the world the impression that they have neglected Chinese children. Nevertheless anyone on the streets of Hong Kong can see homeless children begging for food.

Pearson

Attorney General Kennedy has appealed to British Ambassador Ormsby-Gore to let the American people help these needy Chinese children. Chinese Refugee Relief, headed by former president Herbert Hoover and Harry Truman, has offered to care for all the orphans the Immigration Service will permit to enter this country.

The Defense Department, allegedly and officially, has been trying to get competitive bids for its hardware; also trying to get away from sole-source manufacturers. Two or more manufacturers of any piece of defense equipment has the advantage not only of competitive bidding, but of diversified plants in case the United States is attacked.

However, the House armed services watchdog subcommittee suspects the Defense Department's alleged efforts in this direction are mere shadow-boxing.

Moral Obligation to Keep Statue, Fountain in Park

To the Editor:

The government condemned, and bought two-thirds of Central Park. The government did not condemn or buy the We-No-Nah fountain. Let us remember that what is left of Central Park is still very definitely now Central Park. In the agreement between Mr. Landon and the City Council, the We-No-Nah fountain was to remain in the center of Central Park permanently—it did not stipulate the boundaries of Central Park. To me this agreement still applies to Central Park. Therefore, it would be the moral obligation of the Park-Recreation Board and the City Council, whom we entrust to abide by agreements, to restore the complete We-No-Nah fountain. If this is not done, we can then accuse ourselves of being grown-up vandals.

The statue of We-No-Nah is not a large piece of sculpture for big open spaces. It was designed for a city square block so that when you drive around or walk around and within the block, it would be correct for the distance. The fountain was made in the form of a circle to express continuity. The circle was within the square block. Next, the turtles (pure Chinese) and the pelicans (modern art) were placed in a triangular form, with the circular shaft in the center supporting the statue We-No-Nah, intermingled with soothing sprays of water—not gushing water spouting forth under visible pressure.

Central Park is a sacred place to many people. Winona's namesake was placed there. It was and is a memorial. The Indian legends were taught to our children in the public schools. Are we doing that today? Or have we dropped them along the way? When something is precious we don't have picnics in it. We look at it, admire it, walk around it—maybe just sit and think and drink in its architectural beauty. Vandals are everywhere around us. To me, we were put on this earth by the Creator to solve problems he has created for us, problems others create for us, plus the problems we ourselves create. It is then our duty to continually educate our inheritors toward the value of respecting property. To distort the professional, artistic and architectural beauty of the complete We-No-Nah fountain for the sake of a few vandals (we have them in churches as well) would put us in a class called "weaklings." Where is our moral strength?

Does Minneapolis or St. Paul have what we had? I challenge anyone here in Winona to find a fountain of equal architectural value and beauty in any city in the United States that has a population of 25,000. How many larger cities have one equal to what we had?

Mrs. R. H. Watkins
123 E. Wabasha St.

Another Vote for Central Park Site

To the Editor:

We are with the people who want the statue and fountain kept in Central Park.

We too think our little princess, a symbol of true love, should reign over the last bit of ground she has left, and in due respect to the Landons.

B. V. Wooden 271 Wall St.

Social Security Act Could Be Done to Death

To the Editor:

I want to thank the Daily News for permitting the discussion of the King-Anderson bill in these columns. It would be well if a panel discussion could be arranged over the radio.

To pick either the Kerr-Mills act or the King-Anderson bill to pieces over details before they have had a trial can do no good. Both are only a first attempt and we hope will be improved in time.

The big thing is what principle is best. I am anxious to prevent the Social Security Act from being done to death by exorbitant taxes. Let us see how much more a man would have to pay if he earned over $3,200 a year. At the present tax this would be $312, at the proposed rate it would go to $384 or an increase of $52. Or if he is self employed, say a farmer or a small business man who just earns a little over $5,200, the difference would be $44. And remember this is an annual recurring tax for the rest of his life until he retires.

This seems to me a frightful prospect say for a young clerk or mechanic to face for the next 35 or 40 years. That is why I ask the proponents of the Social Security approach to pause. In my earlier letter I suggested that the expenses be paid out of the general fund, and I pointed out whom to tax.

To Your Good Health

Frozen Joint Can Be Freed

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: What is a "frozen" arm and is surgery always necessary?

—J.W.

A "frozen" arm is one that is stiff and cannot be moved to its usual extent. This condition can range from minor to total, and can affect the joints.

Usual causes: infection; injury (such as a fracture of the bones near the joint); adhesions or scar tissue forming in the joint. This latter may follow some types of surgery, which is an urgent reason for doctors and nurses to insist that you start moving joints sooner than you want to. They know why it's necessary!

Sometimes surgery can free a frozen joint, depending on how long it has been frozen, and the extent of the trouble. It's vastly better to prevent rather than to try to cure.

The joints most often affected are shoulder, elbow, knee, and finger.

Dear Dr. Molner: Please explain esophageal varices in my husband. They were due to liver damage and alcohol, causing a severe hemorrhage. Can such a person drink moderately? Is there danger of another hemorrhage?—M.F.

Varices are varicose veins—in this case in the esophagus, the lower part. Liver damage or disease can cause excess pressure, so blood backs up in the veins. These can break, causing the hemorrhage, and this is dangerous.

This patient should avoid alcohol entirely. It is an invitation more trouble.

Dear Dr. Molner: My 7-year-old daughter will not drink plain milk but she likes it chocolate-flavored. I let her have chocolate milk every day. But I am worried because I have heard it was bad for the heart.—Mrs. T. B.

Forget the nonsense about its being "bad for the heart." There are some extra calories in the chocolate, of course, and sometimes I repent "sometimes" it is thought to have a relation to acne in the teens, so I'm faintly cautious about letting the chocolate habit get too strong.

Why not a bargain with your youngster? Milk at breakfast and lunch; if swallowed like a little lady, chocolate milk for supper. I'm sure once a day won't hurt her.

Dear Dr. Molner: How can I get rid of ringworm? My toenails hardened and got dark?—Mrs. A.S.C.

Drugs containing griseofulvin are highly effective in treating ringworm, assuming that such is the cause of your nail trouble. If some other cause is present, that remedy won't be the answer, of course. Remember that even when the ringworm is conquered, you still must wait quite some months for new nails to push the damaged ones out of the way.

Chatfield Host to Biggest Fillmore Dairy Day Parade

By Daily News Staff Writer

CHATFIELD, Minn.—More than 100 units marched Saturday morning along Chatfield's Main Street despite rain and threatening conditions. It was the largest parade in the history of Fillmore County Dairy Days.

Also breaking a record was the number of candidates vying for the crown of Fillmore County Dairy Princess. One official, commenting on the number (24) said, "I don't think we've ever had more."

ANOTHER feature was the fact that boys out-judged the men in an open cattle judging contest. In individual competition, the boy with the lowest point total of (three top winners) scored higher than the top man.

Winners in the boys division were: Paul Eddy (also overall winner) with 184; Jerry Olsd with 182, and David Terbest with 179.

Winners in the adult division were: Frank Bailey, 178; Elmer Rupperecht, 177, and Harvey Kester, 168.

In team competition, the Scotland Merry Workers 4-H Club team took first and the Empire Builders 4-H team took second. They scored 533-478 points respectively.

MAKING UP the winning team were Paul Eddy, David and Rodney Terbest. Members of the Empire Builders team were Lynn Mensink and Steven and Jeffrey Huesinkveld.

Sally Sikkink, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Sikkink, Preston, was crowned Fillmore County Dairy Princess at the high school auditorium to climax Dairy Day festivities.

Her attendants are Joanne Young, 19, Canton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Young, and Sarah Larson, 17, Mabel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Larson.

SALLY, a 1962 graduate of Preston High School, is an only child. She lives with her parents on a 220-acre farm. Her father has 40 Holstein cows, 19 of which now are milking. She has had nine years of 4-H experience during which she participated in numerous projects. She was 1961 winner of Fillmore County good grooming contest and has won several awards at the county fair. In addition she was Preston High School's Girls State representative in 1961.

She will major either in home economics or medical technology this fall when she enters Central College at Pella, Iowa.

She enjoys spectator sports and dancing. She was a cheerleader in high school.

Six Attend State Retarded Meeting

Six area residents attended the two-day state convention of the Minnesota Association for Retarded Children at Augsburg College, Minneapolis, which ended Saturday.

Delegates from the Winona County unit were Mrs. Jerome Przytarski, Mrs. Florence Goetzman and Miss Dorothy Rick, Winona. Observers were Mrs. Thomas Kane and Mrs. Richard Callender, Levison.

There are more than 60,000 members in the national Association for Retarded Children.

"The fact that this many people have not been ashamed to stand up and say 'I am the parent of a retarded child' is proof that these meetings have a purpose," Allen Menafee, field representative for the national association, told the convention.

Dr. M. J. Carver, associate professor, Nebraska Psychiatric Institute, University of Nebraska College of Medicine, Omaha, discussed research and said:

"But we still know far too little about congenital malformations—those many things which go wrong during the months before the baby is born. We do not yet know how radiation during pre-natal months affects a baby after he is born. We also need to study the effects of the use of drugs during pregnancy."

Laird Family Gives $200,000 to Set Up Carleton Professorship

Two gifts totaling $200,000 have been received by Carleton College, Northfield, Minn., for establishment of a professorship in memory of William H. Laird of Winona who served on the Carleton board of trustees for 27 years until his death in 1910.

The gifts of $100,000 each were made by two grandchildren of Mr. Laird, Mrs. Carl Naumann, Beverly Hills, Calif., and Laird Bell, senior partner in a Chicago law firm.

Mr. Laird became a member of the board in 1883 and was elected chairman in 1900. His son, Fred, Eric S. Bell, Winona, and grandson, Laird Bell, also served as board chairmen. The member of the family now on the board is Mrs. Margaret Bell Cameron, Ann Arbor, Mich., who succeeded her father, Laird Bell, when he became trustee emeritus in 1955.

Since 1883 only three years have elapsed during which a member of the Bell or Laird families has not been a trustee. The families' total service on the board is more than 76 years.

DEAR ABBY:

Votes Still Coming In

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: Should a clergyman phone in advance of visiting? No. There is too much tiding up and making coffee which turns a minister's call into a social affair when it is intended for deeper than social purposes. I've checked with three other ministers and three housewives and they are all in favor of the unannounced call from the clergy.

Sincerely,
Reverend Earl Roadman
(Methodist Minister, Dike, Iowa)

DEAR ABBY: I think people have a right to advance notice when a visitor comes, no matter who that visitor may be. People like to be received with kindness and in a becoming manner, and surprise visits do not always permit this. Courtesy should be made easy for a hostess instead of offering a sudden challenge to her ability to receive guests graciously.

Yours sincerely,
Reverend J. F. Brady
(St. Patrick's Cathedral, Eau Claire, Wisconsin)

DEAR ABBY: A clergyman, however well motivated, presumes too much when he thinks his visit is always welcome under all and any circumstances. A visit is always more welcome when the hostess has an opportunity to prepare herself. The informal, drop-in type visit sounds folksy and charming, but it is anything but that. In any well-ordered busy household it's an arrogant nuisance. The unexpected visit went out with the quilting bee.

Very truly yours,
Rabbi Stanley Rabinowitz,
Washington, D. C.

DEAR ABBY: If I had to wait until I was INVITED, how many homes do you think I would get into? Have you ever tried to phone a dozen people in one day, with a mind to get into their homes, that is? Pastors should not be put in the same category with salesmen, campaigners, census-takers and strangers. I enjoy your column—most of the time.

PASTOR
DEAR ABBY: My Dad is a Baptist preacher and I know for a fact that preachers do not have time to call everyone they visit. If people are doing something they want to cover up from the preacher, what are they going to do when Jesus comes?

PREACHER'S DAUGHTER
DEAR ABBY: Do you know the average clergyman works 14 hours a day, including Saturdays and Sundays? He makes calls between sermon preparations, meetings, civic work, classes, weddings, funerals, hospital calls and counseling. Everyone thinks his clergyman has nothing to do. How in the world do you expect him to telephone on Tuesday to warn Mrs. X to clean her house for Thursday? Besides a clergyman wants to find the REAL person, not an artificial dressed-up one. Why should he drive himself into a nervous breakdown just to satisfy some house-proud woman?

CLERGYMAN'S WIFE

DEAR ABBY: The U.S. Court of Appeals by which the case of the "capricious and arbitrary" Freeman appealed to the highest court.

The Supreme Court order noting that it would not review the lower court decision said that Chief Justice Warren and Justice Black favored hearing the case. Justice Frankfurter took no part, making the court's vote 6-2.

Decision Against Freeman Stands

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court let stand today a lower court decision that Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman lacks authority to require that a label "imitation ham" be placed on smoked ham to which water has been added.

The decision against the secretary was by the U.S. Court of Appeals by which the case of the "capricious and arbitrary" Freeman appealed to the highest court.

You Can Install Storage Drawers

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Ask a woman whether she needs more storage and shelf space and you can be almost certain she'll say yes. Shallow compartments for wearing apparel and accessories are needed in bedrooms usually, in addition to other needs, and more drawer space is required than available in kitchens. Kitchen storage space often is wasted because original planning did not utilize properly the space that is available.

NEW INSTANT storage drawers may be installed by the home handyman in a jiffy and are the answer to many situations.

Modular drawers and slide panels molded of durable styrene plastic are available at building supply yards. The home handyman may install them by spreading cement on a panel of plywood or hardwood and then pressing a plastic panel to the backing.

Molded drawers, wood and glass shelves may slide in on the panel slides. They are adaptable to many types of installation, including pole systems and storage walls.

The drawers of beige plastic are available in a standard depth of 17 1/2 inches and in heights of three and six inches, and in five widths ranging from about 16 to 46 inches. Birch or walnut fronts are optional, and one might paint the drawer fronts to match room decor.

KITCHEN requirements for pots could be the six-inch height. These may be useful also for some small appliances.

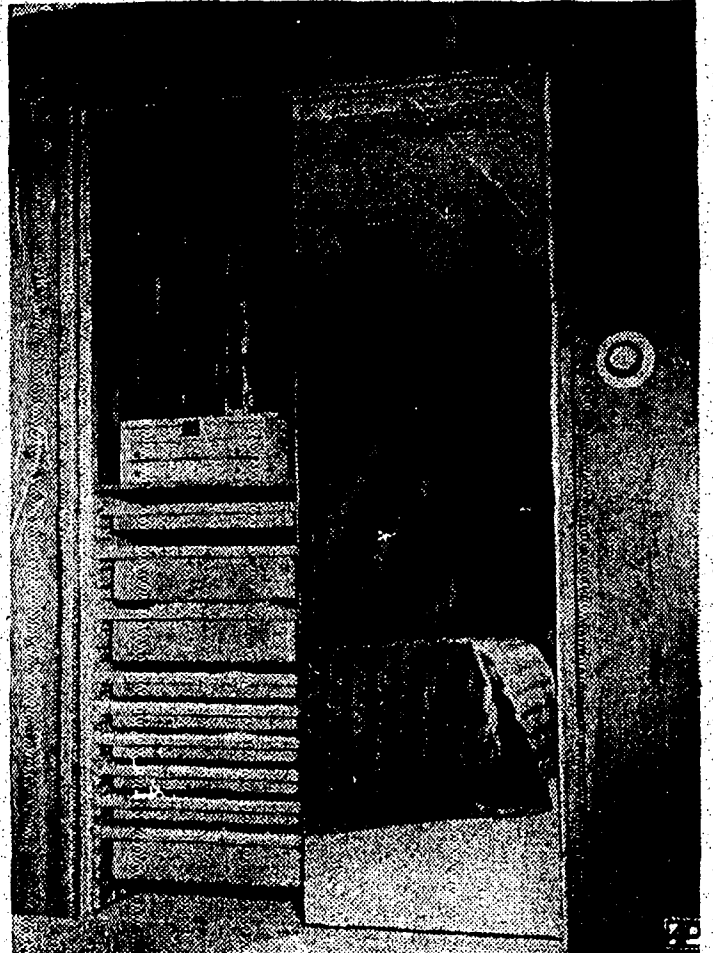

Drawers may be interspersed with shelves in a linen closet for more efficiency, and since drawers move easily on the preformed slides even in the presence of moisture, they may be used in bathrooms and in basement workshops.

Drawers may be planned to the height requirements of tall men who dislike bending down to remove clothing from dresser drawers. The easy-to-wash compartments may be used in the nursery and a teen-ager's room, ideal for collections of the moment that make for considerable clutter.

THE DRAWERS may be used without attached fronts in closets, cupboards or cabinets since they are available with molded pulls.

If drawers are to be part of a new closet in a bedroom, a wood closet frame may be installed to size, slide panels and drawers added exactly to fit requirements.

One side of a closet may be used for hanging garments, the other side for drawers or shelves, and an area above utilized for storage.

STORAGE FOR SMALL ITEMS . . . Half the closet behind the sliding mirror doors is equipped for the hanging of clothes. The half which is shown has been converted to storage space for small items by the addition of pull-out plastic drawers and a shelf.

Blinds Can Fit Any Window

By VIVIAN BROWN

Window treatments are typical of the new trend to satisfy every whim in interior design.

One solves the problem of what to do about old blinds that do not fit the windows of a new house. Jayliss blinds are built of 3-inch rigid plastic squares to that units may be removed easily to fit smaller areas or added to accommodate a larger expanse.

Surplus squares can always be stored until you can use them again, perhaps at a larger window.

Little wanted areas in the squares keep out glare and let in diffused light. While small apertures in a home furnishings product often make for a cleaning chore, these blinds are treated with an anti-static preparation that is said to repel dust for years.

The blinds are available in 22 colors and any number of interesting effects are achieved by combining colors and borders, stripes and other patterns to fit into contemporary or traditional rooms. When the blinds are drawn back they take up about one inch of space for every foot of the extended blinds.

Blinds offer many possibilities other than in conventional window arrangements. The new vented blinds may serve as room dividers, cover a beat-up wall area or extend beyond a window to give the illusion of a window wall.

Let's Get Growing

By A. F. SHIRA

Schedule For Rose Show

An event that is looked forward to with anticipation by rose growers in Winona and the area is the second rose show to be held by the Winona Rose Society on Saturday, June 16, at the Winona National and Savings Bank.

The schedule of classes giving the rules and regulations governing the show has now been issued and any persons who desire to enter the show can secure a copy of the schedule at the bank, or from Dr. C. A. Rohrer, president of the Society.

The rules and regulations are the usual ones for rose shows and those of the American Rose Society will be followed in the scoring. Any amateur grower of roses in the area may enter exhibits. All specimens for competition must have been grown outdoors and personally shown by the exhibitors.

The hours for the registration of entries are from 7 to 10 a.m. Saturday, June 16. Judging will begin at 10:30 a.m. The show will be open to visitors from 2 to 6 p.m., and there will be no admission charge.

Containers and entry tags will be supplied by the show committee for the horticultural specimens at time of registration. The exhibitors of arrangements, of course, furnish their own containers.

GOLD, SILVER and bronze certificates of the American Rose Society will be awarded in the specimen and arrangement divisions. Ribbons will be awarded to the first, second and third place winners in each class, but if quality is lacking, the judges may use their own discretion in awards.

Division I of the schedule includes the specimen classes divided into seven sections as follows: Hybrid teas in 16 color classes; floribundas in 16 color classes; grandifloras; polyanthas; and miscellaneous types such as climbers, miniatures, hybrid perpetuals, shrub roses and species hybrids.

Division II is exclusively for novice exhibitors who have never won a ribbon, or other award in any show. This covers practically the same classes as division one.

DIVISION III comprises the decorative arrangements under 8 classifications divided into two sections: First, "Roses for Our Family," and second, "Roses for Our Friends." In all of these classes the roses must predominate, although other flowers, foliage and accessories are permitted. Be sure to get a copy of the schedule for complete details.

Now, let us talk a little about the exhibition of roses. In the first place, you do not have to have a lot of plans and varieties to enter specimens. Only a few, or even one plant, may produce a prize bloom.

Specimens of hybrid teas should be disbudded and to give best result the side buds should be removed as soon as they appear. Other types such as floribundas and grandifloras are not disbudded.

A horticultural specimen should bear the variety name, and any without a name, or incorrectly named, will be disqualified. Assistance in correctly naming the specimens will be available at the registration desk.

A SPECIMEN ROSE should be in the best possible condition of beauty and form. With most varieties, this means that it should be one-half to three-fourths open at the time of judging. Any evidence of spray, or dust, on the leaves can be removed by carefully rubbing them with a soft cloth, or the fingers.

The roses can be cut with a sharp knife the night before the show, or early the same morning and immediately placed in cold water. Then when taken into the house each specimen should be labeled and marked for the section and class in which it is to be entered.

Care should be used in transporting the entries to the show room. It is best to have them in individual containers, but if it is necessary to carry several together, each one can be wrapped in wax paper.

Pakistan became a republic in 1956, though retaining British Commonwealth membership and parliamentary government along British lines.

Twins Could Grab Loop Top Tonight

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — After several months of trying to win their way into first place in the American League, Minnesota's Twins tonight have a chance to slip into the elusive lead without playing.

A two-game sweep of the Chicago White Sox Sunday, coupled with New York's double loss to Baltimore and Cleveland's split with Boston put the Twins only 10 percentage points out of first in a virtual tie with the Yankees.

Both New York and Cleveland are in action tonight, while the Twins take the day off before embarking for Los Angeles for the start of a three-game series Tuesday night.

Sunday's twin 8-4 and 11-7 victories featured everything from clutch pitching to sheer power, but the biggest attraction of the day was the sensational hitting of rookie Rich Rollins.

The red-haired third baseman leap-frogged Kansas City's Manny Jimenez in the loop batting race with five hits and two walks in eight trips to the plate. Rollins' average jumped 12 points to .356.

After going three-for-three in the first game, including his ninth home run, Rollins singled and tripled in the nightcap to bring the 33,049 fans to their feet in a wild show of acclaim for their newest hero.

Rollins led the way as the Twins put on one of their biggest hitting shows of the campaign, rapping out two doubles, a triple and six home runs in the two games. The two teams together banged nine doubles, three triples and seven home runs in the wild-hitting doubleheader.

Jim Kaat went all the way in the first game to win his fourth straight and bring his season record to 5-4. He got home run support from Rollins, Don Mincher and Harmon Killebrew and helped his own cause with a two-run bases-loaded single in the second.

Killebrew's home run was his first circuit clout at Metropolitan Stadium. He had hit 11 on the road before Sunday.

Zolfo Versalles, Bob Allison and Lenny Green got in on the long ball act in the second game to help Camilo Pascual to his eighth victory in 11 decisions. The Cuban right-hander needed relief help from Dick Stigman in the eighth. Stigman had to pitch himself out of a ninth inning jam in which the White Sox scored twice.

The Los Angeles Angels swept past Detroit into fourth place by beating Kansas City twice 14-5 and 6-5 while the Tigers were losing two to Washington 2-1 and 5-4. Cleveland downed Boston 9-8 after the Red Sox had won the opener 4-3 in 11 innings.

Rollins raised his league-leading batting average to .356. He reached base six straight times before relief pitcher Ed Fisher struck him out in the sixth inning of the nightcap. He cracked two singles, walked and hit his ninth homer in the opener and then singled and drove in two runs with a triple in the nightcap.

Home runs also sparked the Orioles to their double victory at Yankee Stadium. Whitely Herzog and Russ Snyder connected in the first game in support of Milt Pappas' sixth victory. Brooks Robinson and Jackie Brandt were the four-bagger men in the second game to smooth the way for Skippy Brown's third triumph.

Homers by Joe Hicks in the first game and Chuck Hinton and Dale Long together with tight pitching by Don Rudolph and Steve Hamilton were responsible for Washington's first double-header sweep of the season. The two victories stretched the Senators' winning streak to four games.

Second baseman Billy Moran drove in six runs, three with his sixth homer, to spark the Angels to their first game triumph. Leon Wagner's sixth-inning single broke a 5-5 tie in the second game. Moran committed his first error of the season in the nightcap.

After rookie catcher Bob Tillman's 11th-inning homer had won the first game for the Red Sox, Cleveland gained a split on the slugging of Jerry Kindall and Al Luplow. Kindall slammed a three-run homer, two singles and scored twice in the nightcap. Luplow, who also contributed two scintillating catches in the outfield, drove in runs with a triple and sacrifice fly, doubled, singled and scored once.

Rain played havoc with the season's opener for Winona's Legion baseball team. The game scheduled for Gabrych Park Sunday night with New Albion was rained out and will be made up at 8 p.m. Wednesday.

Coach John Kosidowski plans to use Russ Hassinger on the mound Wednesday with Cliff Warneken getting the nod Thursday at Westby.

The league arbitration board will meet Thursday night at Rollingstone to rule on the protest filed by Alma against the Watkins Deputies.

In a non-league game Alma bounced Cochrane 10-5. Carroll Iberg and Bruce Kallipoff had a pair of singles for the winners and Rog Roffler tripled.

Bob Stirn doubled for Cochrane, Bob Kochenderfer tripled and Walt

JUNE TAILSPIN HITS 'FRISCO

Cardinals Shell Giants; Braves Drop Two to Bucs

By JOE RIECHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

As certain as death and taxes—That's a San Francisco Giants' swoon la June.

In each of their first four seasons in San Francisco, the Giants had stormed into June in or very close to first place in the National League standings only to fall flat on their faces in the month of honeymoons and traditional bliss.

This year, their fifth on the West Coast, has been no exception. They absorbed two more defeats at the hands of the St. Louis Cardinals Sunday—6-5 and 13-3—extending their losing streak to six straight games.

The double defeat, coupled with Los Angeles' double triumph over Houston, by scores of 9-3 and 9-7, dropped the Giants 2½ games behind the league leading Dodgers.

Only a week ago the Giants led the Dodgers two games.

Pittsburgh took two games from Milwaukee 12-8 and 3-2. Cincinnati split with Philadelphia, winning the second game, 9-5 after the Phillies had won the opener, 7-3. Chicago after losing the first game, 2-1, came from behind with three runs in the ninth and one in the 10th to win the second game 5-4 from New York.

A turnaway crowd of 33,679, largest at Busch Stadium in 10 years, saw the Cardinals stretch their winning streak to seven games, which began after eight straight losses. Home runs by Curt Flood and Stan Musial highlighted the double triumph. Flood homered with one and one out in the ninth to account for the tying and winning runs in the opener. Musial's came with two on in a six-run fourth inning of the nightcap. Rookie first baseman Fred Whitfield drove in four Cardinals runs with a double and first major league home run.

Don Drysdale pitched a six-hitter for his 10th victory and first baseman Ron Fairly drove in four runs with a triple, double and two singles in the Dodgers' first-game triumph over Houston. Catcher Norm Sherry batted in four runs in the nightcap, three with a home run in a six-run sixth inning. Don Buddin hit a grand slam homer for the Colts.

Bill Mazaroski and Dick Schofield drove in nine runs between them in Pittsburgh's first-game victory over Milwaukee. Mazaroski batted in five with two home runs. Don Hoak's four-bagger proved to be the difference in the nightcap.

Andre Rodgers' run-scoring double off relief pitcher Ken McKenzie in the 10th after pinch hitter Ernie Banks' game-tying three-run homer in the ninth, gave the Cubs a split with the Mets. New York scored the tie-breaking run in the opener on a wild pitch by Dick Ellsworth in the seventh.

The Mets led 4-1 in the nightcap with two out and nobody on base in the bottom of the ninth. Then third baseman Rod Carew booted Dick Bertell's bouncer. Bob Will walked and Banks crashed his 15th home run on an 0-2 count.

Sixth-inning home runs by Frank Robinson, Gordie Coleman and Leo Cardenas ended Cincinnati's second-game triumph over the Phillies after outfielder Ben Covington had sparked the Phils to a victory in the opener with two homers and four RBI.

BADGER ATHLETE MEDAL WINNER

CHICAGO (AP) — Tom Hughes, a high-scoring basketball player for Wisconsin for three years, was named Saturday as the 1962 winner of the Big Ten Medal of Honor for the "greatest proficiency in scholarship and athletics."

Hughbanks, captain of the Wisconsin basketball team last season, was among 10 winners named from each of the Big Ten schools. A native of Green Bay, Wis., he compiled a 3.65 point average in business administration and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. An average of 4.0 is perfect.

Brown Sweeps Crown In CC Invitational

Olson Takes Second Spot

By AUGIE KARCHER
Daily News Sports Editor

Winona today can claim its first champion in the Winona Country Club Invitational Amateur golf tournament, thanks to 28-year-old John Brown.

Brown captured the 17th Invitational Sunday with a six-over par 183 to edge defending champion Dayton Olson of Minneapolis by a single stroke.

THIRD IN THE championship flight was Bob Johns of La Crosse, qualifying medalist, with 185.

Brown, who two weeks ago began employment as a production manager for a Mahkato, Minn., electronics firm, has been commuting weekends until he moves his family July 1.

Yesterday he toured the CC course in 37-37-34, two over par, to go with his opening round of 75. He started out four strokes behind the leader. On his final nine, he recorded eight pars and a birdie (on the 128-yard par 3 third hole).

Brown dropped a 2½-foot putt on the 27th hole to beat out Olson who had finished earlier.

"My chipping and putting was my strong game today," said Brown, who has been playing out of the host club since 1958. "I played well today, and I usually do on this course. I actually think the rain helped me."

BY "RAIN," he was referring to the downpour that struck in late afternoon. The Pleasant Valley layout had missed the noon-time drizzling in town but made up for it later. This was probably the wettest invitational in CC history and it helped cut the field to an all-time low entry of 59.

Olson, 34-year-old automobile salesman playing out of Meadowbrook, a Minneapolis public course, carded rounds of 35-37-38. Going into the final nine, he had

These are strong words for Little, an even-tempered quiet man who finally made the predictions of stardom for him stand up when he took the Open last year at Oakland Hills.

He banged out a 5 under par 67 Sunday, to come from a stroke back of Jack Nicklaus, and finish with 275, a four-day total of 13 under par on the 7,055-yard Upper Merion Country Club course.

Nicklaus had a final-round 70 for 277. Wes Ellis and Dow Finsterwald split third with 280.

Little's victory shot him into second spot among the pro money winners with $53,704.16, behind Arnold Palmer who has $60,531.

Palmer had a poor tournament, never contending, and wound up with a 71, for 290 and $460. He spent more than that on new golf club grips during the tournament, trying to straighten out his game.

Little, 31, never has played Oakland, the sand-speckled terror where he must defend his crown. In fact, never has seen it.

"I was in the Navy in 1953 the last time they played the Open there," he said, "and I couldn't get away. But then I never played Upper Merion before, either."

Little broke Brawny Nicklaus' heart early in the final round, with a string of evenly spaced holes in 1, 3, 5, 7, and 9. He turned in 31, and coasted home.

Nicklaus pocketed $10,000, his biggest check as a pro, for second place.

Ellis, West Caldwell, N.J., scrambled to a 71 that included

Gerard Janikowski, a Country Club caddy who shared a three-way tie for second place the first day, was 41-38-39 yesterday.

Top area shooter in the championship flight was 17-year-old John Hogden, Gale Eltrick High School junior, who wound up with a 191 and 12th place.

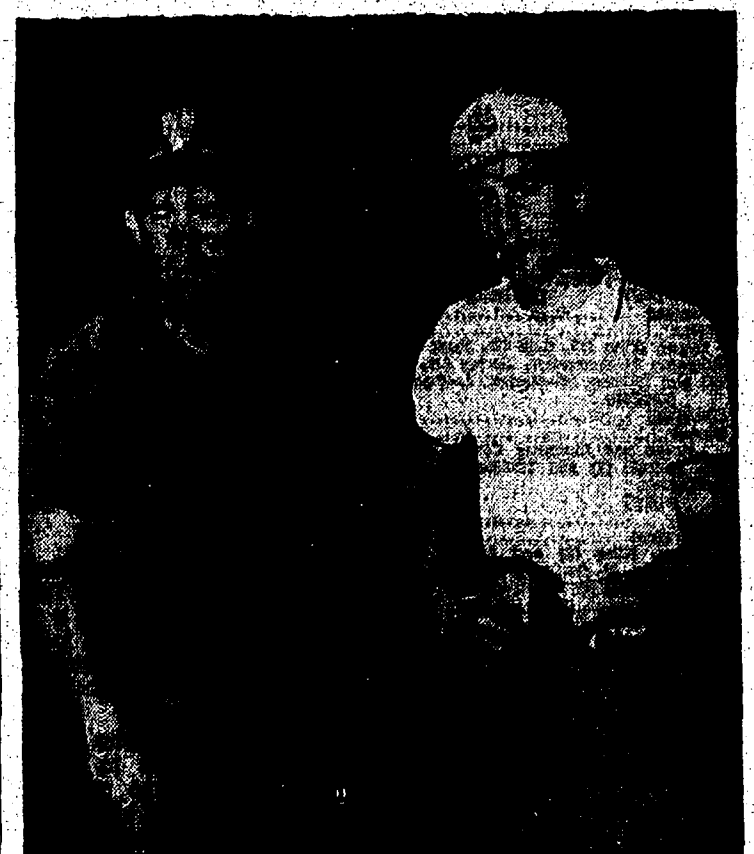

John Jeremiassen of WCC coped the first flight with a 188, scoring 38-38-36 yesterday to go with his opening 78. Bob Hogen-son, Winona State College player, also in the first flight, carded a 34 on the back nine, lowest round of the tourney.

SECOND FLIGHT winner was Gene Ring, La Crosse, former Winonan, who posted a 157 for 38 holes. Third flight honors went to Bill Holm of Winona with 269.

First four finishers in each flight received merchandise prizes with Brown earning a $100 savings bond and miniature replica of the Edstrom Plaque.

EYES REPEAT IN OPEN

Little Takes $25,000 Prize

CLIFTON, N.J. (AP)—Not since Ben Hogan did it in 1951 has a U.S. Open champion repeated, but Gene Little, the sweet-swinging from San Diego, Calif., made it clear today that he is a real threat for his second straight this week at Oakland, Pa.

"I'm pretty confident about my game," said Little, who collected the $25,000 first prize—top payoff of the year—in the $100,000 Golf Classic Sunday. "I'm playing as well as I am capable of playing. I won't be the favorite though. I never am."

Austin Faces Pine City in Prep Opener

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The field for the Minnesota high school baseball tournament was to be completed today with selection of a Region 3 entry at Granite Falls.

Ortonville and Springfield, delayed by rain last week, were to meet in the championship. The state meet opens Wednesday in Midway Stadium, St. Paul.

Here is the schedule for Wednesday's opening-round games:

Austin vs. Pine City
Little Falls vs. Bemidji
Richfield vs. Ortonville-Springfield

St. James vs. St. Paul Central
Three regional winners were chosen Saturday. St. James whipped Worthington 2-0, Austin topped Caledonia 8-1 and Bemidji stopped Thief River Falls 2-1.

The Region 3 contest, won by Bemidji, was packed into a single day after rain shuffled the schedule. Bemidji swamped Roseau 17-0 and Thief River Falls defeated Fortelle 5-1 in semifinals at Cass Lake. The championship was played at Fosston.

St. James won Region 2 on a two-hitter by Bob Truman, both hits coming in the final inning. It was the 10th straight victory for righthander Truman.

The state tournament continues through Friday. North St. Paul was the 1961 state champion.
