Late Count Indicates Rolvaag Victory; Wisconsin Elects Nelson and Reynolds

Wiley Beaten In Bid for Fifth Term

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Gov. Gaylord Nelson, a rising Democratic star with few debts to party leaders, turned back the bid of Sen. Alexander Wiley for an unprecedented fifth term Tuesday and won the seat the Senate's senior Republican has held for 24 years.

Nelson, who weathered a Republican recovery of the state house in 1960 when he became the first Democratic governor of Wisconsin to be re-elected in this century, overcame an open split in the state party organization and a conspicuous lack of enthusiasm by the Kennedy administration to score a smashing victory.

With 3,487 of 3,525 precincts reporting, the vote was:

Nelson, D, 648,832
Wiley, R, 583,258

Meanwhile, Atty. Gen. John W. Reynolds, who with State Chairman Patrick J. Lucey had campaigned hard for repeal of the sales tax adopted during Nelson's second administration, eked out a narrow victory over Republican Philip G. Kuehn in a contest for governor not decided until the last few precincts were counted today.

The vote in 3,483 of 3,525 precincts, including all 706 in Milwaukee County, showed:

Reynolds, D, 626,789
Kuehn, R, 614,422

The total vote surpassed the previous record turnout for an off-year election in Wisconsin—about 40,000 more than in 1958—and represented about 53 percent of the eligible voters.

The rest of the Democratic state ticket was swallowed up by the GOP.

Reynolds was the only winner on the Democratic state ticket.

The results in balloting for the four constitutional offices, with 3,495 precincts counted:

Lieutenant Governor—Jack Olson, R, 606,933; David Carley, D, 584,431.

Secretary of State—Robert Zimmerman, R, 676,293; Gerald Humphrey, D, 534,392.

State Treasurer — Mrs. Dena Smith, R, 663,427; John Schneider Jr., D, 536,912.

Attorney General — George Thompson, R, 627,291; William Evans, D, 561,772.

Kuehn carried 46 of the state's 72 counties to 26 for Reynolds.

Although each candidate presented detailed program papers on various proposals to revamp state government during the campaign, both parties agreed that the vote for governor would constitute as well a "referendum" on state tax policies for the next few years—whether revenue should come substantially from a general sales tax, or from increased income taxes.

The results constituted something less than a mandate. Additionally, the Senate was safely in Republican hands regardless of this year's election, and the GOP maintained a narrow grip on the Assembly.

Nelson's triumph was based solidly on his 60,000 vote plurality in Milwaukee, as Wiley carried 43 of the state's 72 counties. In a statement made when returns gave the first indication of victory, the

Judd Loses in 5th District Race

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—The Minnesota congressional picture remained in doubt today, with four Republicans and three Democrats assured of office.

In the biggest surprise, GOP veteran Walter Judd went down to defeat at the hands of Donald M. Fraser, 38-year-old Minneapolis attorney and two-term state senator.

Complete returns from the 5th District — Minneapolis — showed Fraser with a margin of 6,579 votes in an overturn of pre-election polls that showed Judd seemingly headed for re-election.

Republican incumbents Albert Quie, Anchor Nelsen and Clark MacGregor in the 1st, 2nd and 3rd Districts, respectively, were well ahead of their challengers.

Republican Congressman Odin Langen has been elected to a third term in Minnesota's 7th District.

With scattered precincts remaining uncounted, Langen, 49, held a margin of nearly 5,000 votes over Democratic challenger Harding Noblitt.

Returns from 727 of 908 precincts showed Langen 56,184, Noblitt 51,247.

On the Democratic side, incumbents Joseph Karth in the 4th and John Blatnik in the 8th disposed of GOP opponents without undue difficulty.

Democrat Alec Olson of Montevideo was the apparent winner of the 6th District Congressional election today in a hairbreadth decision over Republican Robert Odegard of Princeton.

In a race so close that it may hang in doubt until certified by the State Canvassing Board, Olson led by 381 votes with one tiny precinct still believed not tallied.

The unofficial figures showed Olson 77,692, Odegard 77,311.

Both Judd and Fraser agreed that realignment of the 5th District was the big factor that ended Judd's 20 years of service in the House.

Judd, 63, campaigned on experience and a tough stand against Communist aggression. In his retirement statement he said: "I would rather lose living by the things I believe in than win by departing from them."

Under a redistricting plan adopted by the 1961 legislature, the 5th District was altered to take in north Minneapolis areas usually counted on as Democratic strongholds.

Scranton Takes Governorship In Pennsylvania

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democrats tightened their Senate control, sank Richard M. Nixon's California comeback bid but were blacked out of New York, Pennsylvania, Michigan and Ohio governorships in Tuesday's crucial election.

The House lineup of the two parties seemed likely to depend on late tabulations from California. If these favored the Democrats who were in the lead in earlier returns, they might hold their 261-174 margin, otherwise Republicans might gain four to six.

In the Senate, the Democrats already had pushed their margin to 65-32 over the Republicans, a gain of one. They led in Alaska, Alabama and South Dakota contests in which the count remained incomplete.

President Kennedy's youngest brother, Edward M. Kennedy, 30, was an easy winner in the Massachusetts Senate race, defeating Republican George Cabot Lodge.

Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown claimed victory over Nixon in the California governor race. Nixon, whose race against President Kennedy in 1960 was a near miss, refused to concede the defeat.

On the other side of the continent, GOP Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York led a re-election parade of Republicans who wrested governors' offices from the Democrats in the politically potent industrial states of Pennsylvania, Michigan and Ohio.

These, with New York, offer a Republican launching pad for the 1964 presidential contest with 119 of the 268 electoral votes needed for victory.

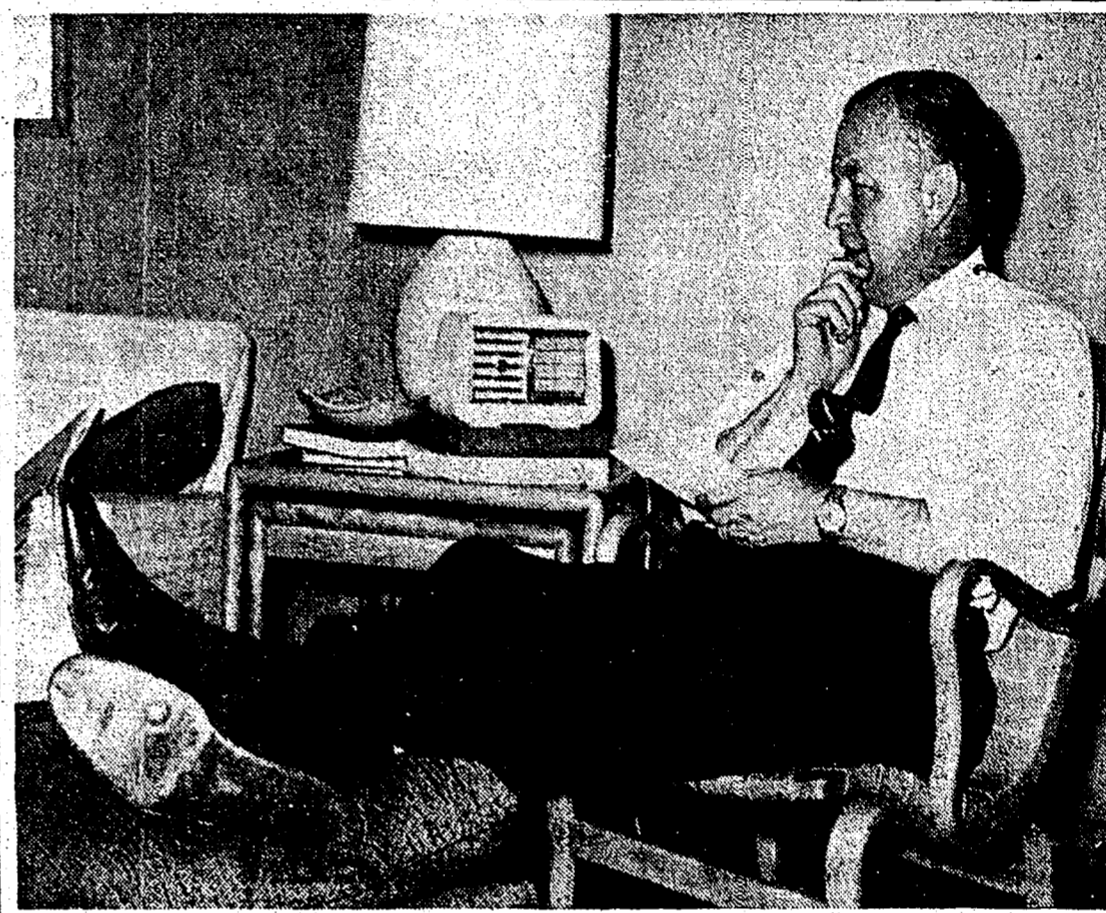

With his second-term victory, Rockefeller went to the head of the class of potential GOP nominees to oppose Kennedy in 1964. But a couple of newcomers also were possible enrollees—Gov.-elect George Romney of Michigan and William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania.

In mixed up balloting that seemed to have turned on personalities rather than issues, Republicans were jolted in California, the Midwest, and in New England. They made some order state gains and picked up a few House seats in the South.

Democrats and Republicans traded governors' jobs at a furious pace. Republicans engineered overturns in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Wyoming, Colorado and Oklahoma. Democrats retaliated by taking GOP governorships in New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, New Mexico, Iowa and Hawaii. In five undecided races, Democrats led in two, Republicans in three.

A Democratic sweep in New England seemed geared to the landslide by which Kennedy won the Senate seat older brother John F. Kennedy gave up to become president. It left the Republicans in control of the governor's office only in Maine. And that contest was so close a recount might be ordered.

There was ample evidence that the voters made their decisions on personalities rather than on overriding issues. For example, they elected a Republican governor and a Democratic senator in Ohio, Oklahoma and Pennsylvania. In Iowa, they chose a Democratic governor and a GOP senator. They picked a Republican governor in Michigan but elected a Democratic lieutenant governor and a Democrat to Congress in an at-large race.

Cuban Talks Hit a Snag

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.S. drive to get Soviet offensive weapons out of Cuba and international inspection of the withdrawal appeared today to have taken a critical turn.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson, after a five-hour meeting Tuesday night with Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov, said glumly: "This one was not fruitful."

"The missiles are moving out and the talks are moving on," Stevenson said. But he gave no indication that the missiles and atomic jet bombers were leaving Cuban soil.

Stevenson obviously was disappointed after emerging from the longest exchange he has had with the Russians since the Cuban crisis erupted more than two weeks ago.

The U.S. delegation kept a tight lid on what took place in the talks, but it was apparent that the United States was stepping up pressure on Premier Khrushchev to hold to his pledge to remove missiles and all other offensive weapons and ship them back to the Soviet Union.

Main stumbling block has been Prime Minister Fidel Castro's refusal to permit on-the-spot inspection of the missile sites by the United Nations, the International Committee of the Red Cross or any other foreign agency.

It was indicated that American diplomats would continue talks with the Russians here, but no date was set for a new meeting.

Khrushchev Says Missiles Dismantled

By GEORGE SYVERTSEN

MOSCOW (AP)—Premier Khrushchev said today 40 Soviet rockets stationed in Cuba have been dismantled and "are probably already in their way," presumably to this country. Now, he added, there is no need for a summit meeting with President Kennedy.

He confessed deep relief at easing of the Cuban crisis but warned, in talking to reporters at a Kremlin reception marking the 45th anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution, that some tensions remain.

The Soviet premier, however, seemed in a relaxed mood and appeared to be celebrating a relaxation of the Cuban tension.

"A hard policy is not always best," he told reporters in discussing conduct of foreign policy. "Flexibility is necessary."

"I was never in favor of a summit meeting. If there were a situation where there was a question of peace or war, then, of course, we would be in favor of it. But now there is no such necessity," he said.

Khrushchev, appearing in a holiday mood, made these other points as he rambled through the interview and four toasts:

Heavy Vote For Three Amendments

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Three proposed amendments to the Minnesota Constitution drew heavy "yes" vote support Tuesday, but their approval remained a question mark today.

The amendments require approval by a majority of all persons who went to the polls, not merely those voting on the amendments themselves.

Amendment One would broaden investment powers for state trust funds. No 2 would erase the state's $250,000 debt limit and permit legislators to borrow for public programs. No 3 would permit the legislature to lengthen its session by 30 days.

The vote:
1st amend 2,924 of 3,706 pcts.:
Yes 624,761 No 225,419.
2nd amend 2,925 pcts.:
Yes 550,546 No 298,094.
3rd amend 2,927 pcts.:
Yes 534,335 No 301,151.

Murphy, Otis Returned to High Court

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Supreme Court Judges William Murphy and James Otis were easily re-elected in Tuesday's voting.

Murphy held a lead of nearly 2-to-1 over William G. Dressel, Otis a slightly lesser margin over E. Luther Melin, Minneapolis, who has run for the court 11 times. Supreme Court terms are for six years. Murphy, 64, was appointed to the court in 1955. Otis, 50, was appointed in 1951.

The count on the Minnesota governor race at 3 p.m.:

(3,711 of 3,796 precincts):

The vote for lieutenant governor:

(3,470 of 3,796 precincts)

Keith (D) 557,705

Peterson (R) 549,020

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Lt. Gov. Karl Rolvaag took an 839-vote lead over Gov. Elmer L. Andersen in their hair-thin race for the Minnesota governorship with 85 precincts, mostly in Democratic territory, outstanding late Wednesday.

An early flood of Democratic votes gave Rolvaag a lead of nearly 30,000 votes at one point in the counting late Tuesday night. Bulk of these early returns featured Democratic strength in the Twin Cities and Duluth.

Rolvaag, 49, sought to step up after eight years as lieutenant governor.

Their race was a virtual duplicate of the 1960 election in which Andersen nosed out Gov. Orville L. Freeman by 23,000 in a total vote of more than a million.

Rolvaag and Andersen battled in a campaign that wound up in a flurry of charge and counter-charge over the construction of a highway. Democrats blamed the governor for overlooking shoddy construction on Interstate 35 in Pine County with Andersen ripping back with accusations of political trickery.

Also hanging in the balance was the naming of a lieutenant governor for the next four years.

If Andersen finished in front, it appeared he might carry with him a lieutenant governor of his own party.

With some 500 precincts left to tally, Republican D. Donald Peterson held a lead of around 2,000 votes over Democrat A. M. Keith. With 3,261 precincts reporting, Peterson had 524,053, Keith 522,071.

Five state officials were returned to office with DFL Atty. Gen. Walter F. Mondale collecting the most resounding endorsement of any state election race.

Mondale built a lead of near 140,000 votes over Republican Robert L. Kunzig, 43, Minneapolis attorney making his first try for office.

Mondale, 34, was elected to a four-year term after a campaign in which he virtually ignored Kunzig.

Keller, McLeod and McGill All Lose Seats

By HAROLD KNOLL
Daily News Staff Writer

Winona County's three veteran incumbent legislators were unseated in Tuesday's election.

The heaviest defeat was sustained by Winona City Rep. John D. McGill, a liberal, whose opponent, Mrs. Virginia Torgerson, a conservative, won by a 16 percent margin. The vote was 5,066 for Mrs. Torgerson and 4,200 for McGill — a difference of 866 votes. McGill was the only liberal to lose in the three legislative races.

SEN. JAMES R. Keller, Winona, and rural Rep. Donald McLeod, Lewiston, both conservatives, lost their bids for re-election to their liberal opponents by close margins.

Roger Laufenburger, Lewiston, liberal, defeated Sen. Keller, a powerful political opponent, by only a 3.29 percent margin — 7,559 to 7,310 — a difference of only 249 votes. Laufenburger was an unsuccessful candidate against Keller in the 1958 election.

Conservative Rural Rep. Donald McLeod was defeated by a 4.9 percent margin by George Daley, also of Lewiston, who said today he would caucus with the liberals. Daley got 8,006 votes — 148 more than McLeod's 2,858. Daley is a former rural representative who was defeated by McLeod in 1954.

THE THREE proposed constitutional amendments got strong support by margins of roughly 3 to 1 in Winona County.

The most important of the three is Amendment No. 2. This amendment would permit the state to raise the present $250,000 state debt limit with the approval of three-fifths of the members of each house of the Legislature. Thus the state would be permitted to borrow more money for "buildings and improvements of a capital nature."

This amendment has special significance in Winona. Approval of Amendment No. 2 would permit Winona State College to embark on a building expansion program using funds already allocated by the state but frozen because of the present debt limit.

Amendment No. 1 would make it possible to invest part of the funds held in trust for schools in corporate stocks and bonds. Amendment No. 3 would lengthen the biennial sessions of the Legislature from the present limit of 90 days to 120.

THE DEFEAT of City Rep. McGill, former Winona County DFL chairman, is significant because his victorious opponent was successful on her first try for political office. Both McGill and Mrs. Torgerson are lawyers.

McGill was seeking his sixth consecutive term in the house. He got strong support from the 4th Ward, which gave him 1,286 votes for 749 for Mrs. Torgerson, where he led in each of the four precincts. Mrs. Torgerson captured all 32 precincts in the 1st, 2nd and 3rd wards.

In the senatorial contest, Sen. Keller showed strong support in Laufenburger's home town, Lewiston. Laufenburger led with 219 but Keller was close with 201.

In Rollingstone Village, near where Keller formerly farmed, he was supported by a nearly 5-1 margin. The village went for Keller 153-31. However, Rollingstone Township, which adjoins the village, showed a narrow margin of support for Keller, 127-121. The candidates tied in Stockton village, 47-47. St. Charles city went strongly for Keller, 455-231.

Minneapolis village went for Keller by a strong 4-1 margin, but that's also how many votes — 4 — the senator gained in the small village.

KELLER IS widely regarded in the county as a vigorous champion of highway improvement, an important topic for many persons, especially in rural Winona County. But his highway efforts failed to return him to the Senate.

The senator led in eight of Winona city's 16 precincts. Among the county's 31 rural precincts, Keller led in 10 and tied in one.

The city vote was 4,636 for Laufenburger and 4,543 for Keller, a close vote representing the 50-50 split among the city's precincts. Laufenburger's city margin was a razor edge 93 — only 2 percent. The city's Democratic 4th Ward went strongly for liberal Laufenburger — 1,138 for Laufenburger and 886 for Keller.

LAUFENBURGER edged Keller 1,552-1,285 in the 1st Ward. Keller led in the 2nd and 3rd wards, respectively 1,161-1,062 and 1,211-1,084, but his margins were too small in these wards to assure victory. In his home precinct — the 1st Precinct, 3rd Ward — Keller led 553-240.

Laufenburger's percentage lead over Keller was a little bigger in the rural part of the county than in the city. The rural vote was 2,923 for Laufenburger to 2,767 for Keller — a margin of 156 or 5.3 percent for Laufenburger.

McLEOD'S DEFEAT in the race for rural representative ended his bid for a fifth consecutive term. The race was close. Of 31 rural precincts, 16 went for Daley and 15 for McLeod. Both candidates are from Lewiston which went for Daley 247-180. Daley got his heaviest ratio of support in Rolling-

Conservatives, Liberals Both Lose in SE Area

Southeastern Minnesota will be represented by some new faces in the 1963 Legislature but the net results of Tuesday's voting add up to no gain for liberal or conservative factions in the area composed of Wabasha, Olmsted, Fillmore, Houston and Winona counties.

The five-county region will be represented by one liberal and three conservative senators and five conservative and two liberal representatives. The previous lineup was the same for the Senate and one liberal and four conservative representatives.

The defeat of Sen. James R. Keller, WINONA COUNTY conservative, by his liberal opponent, Roger Laufenburger, Lewiston, will be balanced by the election of Harold G. Krieger, ROCHESTER conservative, to the 4th District seat vacated by A. M. "Sandy" Keith, DFL nominee for lieutenant governor. Krieger beat E. W. "Bill" Quirin.

Sen. Lew W. Larson, Mabel, a conservative, was elected Tuesday to his second term by his FILLMORE-HOUSTON County constituency and Sen. Robert R. Dunlap, Plainville, a conservative since 1952, was elected for four more years by voters of the 3rd district, comprising WABASHA AND RURAL OLMSTED counties.

Sen. Dunlap defeated Sophus A. Kuhlman, Byron mayor, and Sen. Larson won over Jerome O. Gunderson, Fillmore County farmer. In the House, liberals gained a seat through the defeat of WABASHA COUNTY Rep. Frank Furst by Charles H. Miller, a Watopa Township farmer. However, an extra seat, created for OLMSTED COUNTY by virtue of redistricting, was won by a conservative, Alfred Schumann, Eyota.

In the primary election this year, Quie led two opponents, Graven, his St. Olaf College classmate, and Jerome Daley, West St. Paul, in 11 of the 12 counties in the district by more than 8,000.

In Tuesday's election, the vote in Winona County was Quie 8,411 and Graven 6,576. Quie also carried Winona city. Graven is an Albert Lea attorney.

AT MID-MORNING, Rep. Quie issued the following statement: "It is with heartfelt gratitude that I express thanks for the tremendous support given me in this election. I want to take this opportunity to thank all of the people who voted for me, and to offer special thanks to all who worked so hard in my behalf during the campaign."

Now that the election is over, I want to assure all who voted — whether they voted for me or against me — that I plan to represent all the people of this district. I am looking forward to the opportunity of continuing to serve the wonderful people of the First Congressional District in the 88th Congress."

State Republicans Lead in 4 Offices In Winona County

Republican candidates led in four of six contests for state offices in the Winona County balloting.

The heaviest margin of support was racked up by Republican incumbent Stafford King in the race for state auditor. He got 8,651 votes to 6,265 for his DFL opponent, John D. Nevin. That's a margin of 2,386.

IN THE RACE for governor, the Republican incumbent, Elmer L. Andersen, polled 8,272 votes to 6,701 for Democrat Karl Rolvaag, a margin of 1,571.

C. Donald Peterson, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor, a post now held by Rolvaag, got 6,049 votes to 6,958 for Democrat A. M. (Sandy) Keith who is now a state senator. That's a margin of 1,091 for Peterson.

DFL incumbent Joseph L. Donovan got 8,150 votes in his bid for re-election as secretary of state. His Republican opponent, Norbert A. McCrady, got 6,816, a margin of 1,334 for Donovan.

Atty. Gen. Walter Mondale, the DFL incumbent, got 7,898 votes in his bid for re-election. His Republican opponent, Robert L. Kunzig got 6,951, a margin of 947 for Mondale.

THE CLOSEST race was for railroad and warehouse commissioner. Republican Robert Johnson polled 7,505 votes — a slim 159 margin over the 7,347 votes polled by his DFL opponent, Paul A. Rasmussen.

In the two races for associate justice of the State Supreme Court (without party designation), the incumbents led by strong margins.

Justice William P. Murphy got 10,177 votes compared with 3,650 for William G. Dressel, a margin of 6,527 for Murphy. Justice James C. Otis got 9,347 votes compared with 4,325 for E. Luther Melin, a margin of 5,022 for Otis.

Duxbury

Houston and Fillmore counties, represented by Conservative Reps. Lloyd L. Duxbury Jr. and Clinton Hall, returned their incumbents by nearly 2 to 1 ratios.

Duxbury, Caledonia attorney, was opposed by Arnold Onstad, Black Hammer Township, a Rushford attorney, won his second term by beating Harold Harstad, Harmony farmer.

Board to Ask Bids on Car For Sheriff

Winona County Auditor Richard Schoonover was authorized by the County Board of Commissioners Tuesday to advertise for bids for the first patrol car the county will buy Sheriff George L. Fort.

All of the sheriff's cars are now owned by him. He is paid a 10-cent-per-mile allowance from the county for use of these cars. Specifications for the patrol car have not yet been determined but are expected to be patterned after specifications for State Highway Patrol cars.

Board Chairman Paul Baer, Fremont, 4th District, telephoned Capt. Neil Deemer, Rochester, who heads the Highway Patrol district, to request patrol car specifications.

Capt. Deemer said he would mail specifications to the board. The specifications will cover a patrol car, which the county wants to buy, and a station wagon of the type used by the patrol.

Chairman Baer told the board the state patrol cars are heavy duty vehicles.

Speeder Fined $35 by Judge

Judge S. D. J. Bruski sentenced Gerald L. Knutson, 21, 1754 Kraemer Dr., to pay a fine of $35 or to serve 12 days after the judge found him guilty of the charge of speeding.

The trial was heard in municipal court today. Knutson had pleaded not guilty to the charge Oct. 30. He was arrested by police at West 5th and Ewing streets at 12:40 a.m. that day on a charge of driving 42 m.p.h. in a 30-mile zone.

Prosecutor Roger Brosnahan called one witness, Patrolman Joseph Brunk. Knutson, his wife and Thomas G. Haney, 1755 W. Wabasha St., testified for the defense. The three defense witnesses said that the car would not go that fast.

The fine and sentence were increased because it was Knutson's second speeding conviction.

15,342 Vote In County

Winona County Auditor Richard Schoonover announced 15,342 votes were cast by Winona County residents in Tuesday's election, 248 more than the 15,094 total in the comparable 1958 election.

In the 1960 presidential election, 18,282 votes were cast. Good weather and voters' interest in the Cuban situation prompted a good voter turnout in the county and across the nation.

In the city of Winona, said Commissioner of Elections Roy G. Wildgrube, 9,408 ballots were cast, or 80.2 percent of the 11,726 registered voters.

That turnout compares with 87.7 percent in the presidential election in November 1960 and 78.9 percent in November 1958.

SHERIFF RENAMED

Voters Turn Out Two Commissioners

Winona County Sheriff George L. Fort was re-elected to a sixth term Tuesday, defeating Donald F. Berg 8,811-6,392, with a margin of 2,419 votes or 27.5 percent for Fort.

Two veteran COUNTY COMMISSIONERS — Raymond G. Kohner, Winona, 2nd District, and Paul Baer, board chairman, Fremont, 4th District — were unseated in the election.

Leo R. Borkowski, Goodview, was elected 2nd District commissioner with 3,670 votes to 2,732 for Kohner — a margin of 938 votes for Borkowski. This was Borkowski's second try for the post. He opposed Kohner in 1958.

Carl O. Peterson, Fremont Township, won the 4th district commissioner's race by 72 votes — 750 for Peterson and 678 for Baer.

Results for other county races follow:

TREASURER — Mrs. Teresa M. Curbow, Winona, incumbent, got 10,868 to 4,083 for Stanley A. Wiczorek, Winona, a margin of 6,785 for Mrs. Curbow. Mrs. Curbow was elected to her first term as treasurer.

CLERK OF DISTRICT COURT — Joseph C. Page was re-elected to his 11th term. He got 9,757 votes to 5,441 for Donald Blake. That's a margin of 4,316 for Page. Both candidates are from Winona.

SURVEYOR — James J. Kleinschmidt was elected with 10,536 votes — a margin of 6,077 over the 4,459 votes polled for Edward P. Elfert. Both candidates are from Winona.

These four incumbent Winonans were unopposed for re-election.

AUDITOR — Richard Schoonover, 13,699, re-elected to sixth term.

ATTORNEY — S. A. Sawyer, 13,536, re-elected to third term.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS — Jesse B. Jestus, 4,618, re-elected to eighth term.

CORONER — Dr. R. B. Tweedy, 13,708, re-elected to seventh term.

In the sheriff's race, Fort led in 42 of the county's 47 precincts. The only precincts where Berg led were the townships: Dresbach, Hart, Hillsdale, Mt. Vernon and Warren. Winona city voters gave 5,464 votes to Fort—1,629 more than Berg's 3,836 city votes. Rural voters gave 3,347 votes to Fort—791 more than the 2,556 rural votes for Berg.

Borkowski made a clean sweep of all 13 precincts in the 2nd commissioner district. Nine precincts are in the city and four are rural. The city precincts gave Borkowski 3,022 votes to 2,416 for Kohner, a margin of 606 for Borkowski. The rural precincts gave Borkowski 648—332 more than the 316 votes cast for Kohner.

In the 4th district commissioner's race, Peterson led in four of the seven precincts—Ulita and Warren townships and Lewiston and Ulita villages. Baer led in three precincts—Fremont, Hart and Saratoga townships.

District Court Clerk Page showed strong vote-getting ability in his successful bid for reelection. He led in all but one of the county's 47 precincts. The only precinct that went for Blake was the 3rd Precinct of the 3rd Ward, 183-163.

The city vote was 5,767 for Page and 3,245 for Blake, a margin of 2,522 for Page. The rural vote was 3,990 for Page and 1,796 for Blake, a margin of 2,194 for Page.

Sophie Tucker Role Fattening

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Of all the wild Broadway stories . . . The gal who's going to play Sophie Tucker in "Sophie" has a problem — she's got to get fat.

"I have to put on 20 pounds and I'm really enjoying it," says Liba Steiger, weight 130, who's also required to stoke in calories so she'll wear a size 16 dress instead of size 10. "Now I eat French fries, with butter slopping over everything, and gravy, and chocolate cake, apple pie, and cheesecake, and . . ."

Steve Allen, who wrote the music for "Sophie," which rehearses next month, told Liba while here plugging his first novel, "Not All Your Tears," that she could wear padding beyond 150 pounds. "Sophie wasn't as fat as people thought in her younger days," said Steve. "She just weighed like it."

Liba, who's from Illinois (South Harrisburg), says her husband doesn't mind — he's a theatrical director. "He only wishes directors had to be fat."

Oh, the poor critics! Laurence Harvey's now leaped on the movie critics. "I'm shattered," he says, "to find that even though they liked 'The Manchurian Candidate,' and it's a big success, they mostly didn't know what the picture was about. The audiences know but they didn't. The critics didn't miss it by a mile—they missed it by 3,000 miles."

LOVE LETTER to Peggy Lee: You overwhelmed all of us—you were so wonderful doing an hour and a half of songs on your return to Basin St. Looked great; voice great. Lovely gown. The B.W. said you wore white foxes over a chiffon coat and then a white gown that looked like a negligee—which I liked too. Understand the five white ropes, or hawes, against the back wall, were your idea—also the clown dancing during "Oh, What a Fool Am I." And we liked it when they begged you to repeat "I'm a Woman," and you said, "Why not? I'll learn the lyrics that way."

The waiting line out on 48th St. afterward was like Radio City Music Hall. Get your flu shots, doll, and don't go getting sick; we need you around reminding us there's you and there's Judy Garland and that's it.

Irving Berlin's just about the Show Business Man of the Year. When Dwight D. Eisenhower chatted with him after "Mr. President," Berlin said, "Do you remember another show?" Ike did. During World War II, Berlin's "This Is the Army," about to disband, played a special and "last" performance for Ike in London. Ike urged Gen. George C. Marshall to keep the show going — to send it to every war theater. Marshall agreed. The show, and Irving Berlin, continued two more years. . . . Almost two decades later, Berlin's trying to get Ethel Merman for his next show in 1964 or '65 and isn't giving up just because she says she's tired and only wants to play Las Vegas and do movies. "I'm not tired!" he says.

SUZANNE LEROY, the 5-foot-9, 12-mink coat, beautiful blonde millionaire-hunting Latin Quarter showgal, has received several sizzling love letters since I wrote about her—but the sizzliest is from a Boston midget. (And Billy Rose wants to help her with her project to "bring back Ziegfeld Girl glamour.")

Wild Hollywood Rumor: That Liz Taylor slipped into California (Denied stoutly by Eddie Fisher) . . . There's been a wave of small robberies backstage at "I Can Get It For You Wholesale." . . . Tony Perkins is going to Berlitz to keep up his French while in "Harold."

Leland Hayward and former NBC pres. Pat Weaver are discussing a film-producing firm . . . TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: A fellow said he's having trouble with his cotton candy machine. "It keeps coming out 20 percent Daron."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: A nudist is a guy who sends to the cleaners both pairs of pants from his two-pants suit.

EARL'S PEARLS: The trading stamp craze is spreading. One woman traded in ten books of stamps—and got a nice box to keep stamps in.

The Public Health Service says we may have another siege of Asian flu, and Bob Orben thinks we all ought to get together and sneeze toward Cuba . . . That's all, brother.

Northern Hitting

George Kellerman, 705 W. Wabasha St., biology instructor at the College of Saint Teresa, had some exciting fishing below the Winona dam Monday afternoon. While casting with a dardevil, he landed the two fish with which he is pictured in this column.

Kellerman, a Kentuckian who had never caught a northern before, found them good fighters on light tackle. He got the 12 pounder on a black and white lure and the 10 pounder on a red and white dardevil, normally a bass lure in the reservoir lakes of his state. Bass fishing for largemouth and smallmouth dominates the fishing there.

Walleye continue to provide good fishing in most of the areas. Most of those taken run in the three-to-five-pound class. Several larger ones have been taken at Whitman out of Bass Camp. Panfish are hitting in the backwaters.

Waterfowl Closing

A disappointing duck season for most hunters closed on election day. The few hunters out found a lot of ducks but mild weather and the lack of hunters held them down, and they worked for their own, mallard and three bluebills, which was the common bag.

There is still another month in which to hunt geese. The Minnesota season runs through Dec. 4 and will give local area hunters a crack at the "Rochester" geese that to some extent move back and forth to the river. Quite a few of these big geese are bagged in late fall each year.

Keith Peterson, 97 N. Baker St., a 14-year-old Daily News carrier boy, bagged one of these big honkers while hunting in the Weaver bottomlands Sunday. He also got his mallard.

Gets a Wolf

A Fountain, Minn., trapper, Joseph Drury, got his second brush wolf of the season in the Forestville area last week. He got a female one there Sept. 19. Both animals were full-grown adults. The Forestville area is among the wilder parts of Fillmore County. It is hunted extensively for fox each winter.

Drury, who has trapped as a hobby for more than 30 years, has taken 200 fox so far this season. He runs a trapline covering several townships in the county each fall and winter. Wolf is a rarity in Southeastern Minnesota.

Montana Night
The Will Dile Chapter of the Izak Walton League will stage "Montana Night" Thursday evening at its cabin on Prairie Island. The meeting will get under way at 8 p.m.

Four members of the chapter, Willard Matzke, president, Clifford Murray, Leon Inman and Stanley Hammer, will provide the program. They will tell of their big game hunting trip to Montana and show movies taken during the trip. At the conclusion of the meeting a wild Montana game lunch will be served. The game meat will be provided by the hunters.

An important meeting of the Winona Rod and Gun Club will be held at the organization's clubhouse, Franklin and 8th streets, this evening at 8. All members are urged to be present.

Rev. Buege Says He'll Be Missouri Synod Minister

WHITEHALL, Wis. — The Rev. Richard L. Buege, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, rural Whitehall, St. John's Lutheran Church, Arcadia, and Evangelical Lutheran Church, rural Independence, said today he has been assigned by the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod, to Peace Lutheran Church, Detroit, Mich.

Pastor Buege began to serve St. Paul's and St. John's in December 1954. He was ordained into the Lutheran ministry and installed as pastor of St. Paul's and St. John's June 19, 1955. Evangelist became the third congregation of the parish in November 1959.

Following graduation from Algoma High School in 1946, Rev. Buege attended River Falls State College. He received his education for the ministry at Concordia Seminary, Springfield, Ill., and graduated from Lutheran Seminary, Thelensville, Wis.

St. Paul's also will become a member of the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod. The future plans of St. John's and Evangelist are not certain at the present time.

St. Paul's Church was formerly a member of the Wisconsin Synod which voted to leave the group when Rev. Buege was suspended as a pastor in it in 1950. Last January both the congregation and Rev. Buege applied for membership in the Missouri Synod. According to Rev. Buege, his membership and that of the Whitehall congregation in the synod, now informal, will become formal at a convention next year.

Rev. Buege received the Detroit assignment through the Rev. Lloyd Goetz, Green Bay, president of the Northwestern Wisconsin district.

Pastor Buege and his wife, the former Delores Larson of Pigeon Falls, will move to their new assignment the middle of November.

DEAR ABBY:

Start Living Now! Don't Be a Martyr

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My mother recently passed away and I am left to care for the family house and my 80-year-old father. I am the youngest of three daughters (I am 30) and the two older ones are married. I cannot go out and enjoy an evening because neither of my sisters will relieve me and my father refuses to have a "stranger" stay home with him. I asked our doctor and he said it was my duty to care for my father as long as he lives and, when he dies, the house will belong to me. Abby, I don't want this house. What good will it be with all the unhappy memories? Our family lawyer said the same thing. I held an office job and was happy then, but I am miserable now. What should I do?

PRISONER

DEAR PRISONER: Tell your sisters (AND the family doctor and lawyer) that you do not intend to wait until your father dies to start living. If neither of your sisters will sit with your father one or two nights a week, ask the family doctor and lawyer if they would like to. Expect a negative answer and line up a "sitter." If you remain a prisoner, you have no one to blame but yourself.

DEAR ABBY: I have never heard of a Western Wedding where the bride and groom were hitched on horseback. But I did know of a wedding where the groom had a gun in his back.

Abby
BEST MAN

DEAR ABBY: The woman signed "NEAT AND CLEAN" — who hesitated to marry a man who did manual labor because he might come home in greasy overalls — can have my husband. He is always neat and clean. He is handsome, seldom sober, has no character and he treats me like a slob. He works in an office. I have never seen him with a speck of dirt on him. After work (I work out, too) I do the housework and the gardening. My husband is so neat and clean that if I ask him to carry out the garbage he goes pale. I'm not kidding. I'd welcome the sight of dirty, greasy overalls on my husband. At least it would mean he had been doing something to justify his existence. I would be proud to say that my husband was a "common laborer." It would make him sound like a real man.

NOT AFRAID OF DIRT

CONFIDENTIAL TO RAMONA: When a woman says, "I don't want to mention any names" — it isn't necessary.

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Zsa Zsa Takes 4th Husband

Zsa Zsa and 4th Husband

NEW YORK (AP)—Zsa Zsa Gabor took her fourth husband Monday, calling her marriage to industrialist Herbert Hutter the culmination of a romance that began with love at first sight.

The Hungarian-born actress, one of a trio of Gabor sisters, explained after the ceremony: "I saw him at a ball three weeks ago. He was dancing with another woman. I decided I would have to get him away from her. Of course, I did it immediately."

In 1941, Zsa Zsa came to a similar decision. She glimpsed hotel magnate Conrad Hilton at a Hollywood party and announced to friends, "I'm going to marry that man."

Hilton became her second husband and the father of her child, Francesca, 13. She divorced him, got a $200,000 settlement and married actor George Sanders, who once compared life with Zsa Zsa to an existence on volcano slopes—"very pleasant between eruptions."

3 Dead in Wisconsin Accident

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The death of three elderly persons in one accident Tuesday raised Wisconsin's traffic fatality toll to 794, compared with 760 on Nov. 7 a year ago.

Oscar Scheck, 89, his 78-year-old wife, Lydia, and her brother, Clarence Noe, 68, all of Milwaukee, were killed Tuesday when their compact car and a gravel truck collided in Franklin, a Milwaukee suburb.

The driver of the truck, Gary Mayer, 19, told deputies he was driving northeast on West Forest Home Avenue when the accident occurred. The car was pushed 98 feet after the impact, Deputy Richard Bilda estimated that the loaded truck weighed 23 tons.

On April 19 two children were killed at the same intersection in a two-car crash.

Woman Wins In Pepin County

DURAND, Wis. (Special)—Pepin County will have a new register of deeds Jan. 1. She is Mrs. Emma Langlois.

Running on the Democratic ticket Tuesday, she received 1,364 votes to 1,103 cast for Martin Ambuehl, republican.

Mrs. Langlois, 48, will succeed Norman Latshaw, retiring at the end of the year after serving 18 years. Mrs. Langlois, native of Phillips, Wis., came to Durand in 1944 and served as clerk of the Pepin County selective service board for a year. She's a widow and the mother of eight school-age children.

Seline Mrs. Langlois

Largest vote getter in the county was Victor Seline (R), sheriff, who polled 1,855 to defeat Bert Brown (D), who received 626 votes.

Joseph H. Riedner (R), who had been serving as district attorney by appointment, won over Karl J. Goethel (D), resident of Durand since 1961, who polled 1,150.

Incumbent Guy H. Miller defeated Robert M. Hulverson for treasurer, and John Simpson defeated Mrs. Hazel Kezar. Simpson, only Democrat among current elected officials, will be joined by Mrs. Emma Langlois at the beginning of the new term. All other officers are Republicans.

County Clerk Martin H. Pittman with 1,776 votes and Dr. R. J. Bryant for coronor with 1,771 votes were unopposed.

Republicans Control Badger Legislature

By FRANK CREPEAU

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Wisconsin's new Democratic governor, John W. Reynolds, will face a hostile Republican majority in both houses of the State Legislature during the 1963 session.

Tuesday's election enabled the GOP to strengthen its long-standing domination of the state Senate to a 22-11 margin and gave Republicans a wafer-thin majority in the Assembly.

And it is a good possibility the leadership of both houses will comprise supporters of Philip G. Kuehn, the man Reynolds beat in the sometimes bitter fight for the governorship.

The GOP managed to enlarge by two seats the 20-13 majority by which it controlled the Senate during the 1961 session. The party hung on to its eight contested seats, topped Democrat Robert Dean of Wausau and installed a new GOP senator in the 23rd District seat vacated by Democrat Howard Cameron of Rice Lake.

Republican Charles F. Smith Jr., of Wausau, beat Dean, the Democratic Senate floor leader, in the 1961 session, by less than 2,000 votes and Holger B. Rasmussen, a Spooner Republican, won his bid to replace Cameron.

Assembly races saw 52 Republicans elected and 44 Democratic winners. In four contests still unresolved, Democrats led in three and the GOP in one.

Three Republican incumbents were beaten. They were Russell Olson, a staunch conservative from Bassett; Marvin E. Babbitt of Seymour, and Paul Luettkie of Wausau, who met defeat in his try for an 11th term.

The difficulties that can be expected for Reynolds can be illustrated in both houses. Sen. Jerris Leonard, R-Milwaukee, a chairman of the Kuehn campaign, is the best bet for Senate majority floor leader.

In the Assembly, solid Kuehn men such as Glen Hammergren of Wausau, Robert Haase of Marinette, Curtis McKay of Ozaucan and Thomas Barland of Eau Claire are expected to play a big part in the organization and work of that house during the 1963 session.

Neither house can be expected to favor Reynolds announced aim of abolishing Wisconsin's selective sales tax or to go along with the chief executive's fiscal programs.

New Republican Senators in 1963 will be Rasmussen; Smith; Alex J. Meunier of Sturgeon Bay, who replaces Republican Alfred Laun of Kiel, and Gordon W. Roseleip of Darlington, succeeding Robert Travis, a Platteville Republican. Laun and Travis retired.

On the Democratic side, new senators will be Charles Schmidt of Milwaukee, Fred Risser of Madison, Martin J. Schreiber of Milwaukee, and Frank Christoperson of Superior. Schmidt, Risser and Christoperson resigned Assembly seats to bid for the Senate.

Marilyn Dorn and Carolyn Prigge. Shirley Peterson and Diane Keichum are on the entertainment committee.

Fillmore County Sheriff, Auditor Win Another Term

PRESTON, Minn. (Special)—

Four of five incumbents running with opposition on Tuesday's Fillmore County ballot won re-election on comfortable majorities with only 4th District Commissioner George R. Bellingham losing out in his bid for a second term on the county board in a race with Oscar Garness, a Harmony area farmer.

Sheriff Neil S. Haugerud, meanwhile, won a second term with a 5,841-3,148 victory over George L. Maxon, Spring Valley; County Auditor Charles Michener was retained in the post he has held since 1925 after posting a 5,187-3,619 win over Donald D. Ray, Preston.

Haugerud Michener

Both representatives in the state Legislature polled sizeable majorities. Sen. Lew W. Larson, Mabel, topped his fellow townsman, Jerome O. Gunderson, in the contest for the Fillmore-Houston seat and Rep. Clinton Hall was a winner over Harold Harstad, Harmony.

In the sixth contest in Tuesday's election, Jean Olson, Fountain, defeated Edward Wright, Chatfield, 681-607, for election as 2nd District commissioner succeeding Theodore Tangen who did not run for another term after holding office 12 years.

Olson Garness

All other county officers seeking re-election were without opposition: Treasurer Clayton E. Fishbaugh received 8,040 votes; Register of Deeds O. H. Amdahl, 7,463; County Attorney J. F. Herick, 7,825; Surveyor Irving Bacon, 7,654, and Dr. J. P. Nehring, county coroner, 7,650.

The county appears to be without a superintendent of schools, however, after the current term of Mrs. Jeanne C. Fisher expires this year.

Mrs. Fisher didn't file for re-election, there were no other candidates and Tuesday's election produced only a scattering of write-in votes for the office.

ONE OF THE difficulties in obtaining candidates appeared to be that a person must have an elementary principal's certificate to be eligible to qualify for office.

Michener said today that inquiries had been made by the county to the state Department of Education regarding procedure in such a situation.

These, Michener understands, have been forwarded to the state attorney general's office for an opinion and none has been received as yet.

THERE WERE no candidates, either, for court commissioner for which a number of write-ins were tabulated.

The unofficial returns reported this morning did not include those for Congress from about three precincts which weren't available today.

All three constitutional amendments were approved by majorities of the voters casting ballots and on the state ballot Republican candidates scored a shutout over DFL opponents.

Sheriff Haugerud ran ahead of Maxon in each of the 10 villages in the county, while Michener in the auditor's race was in front of Ray in all but Preston where Ray had a 337-295 edge.

Optimism Over Cuba Could Be Over-Simplified

THERE HAS BEEN rather a widespread tendency to feel that the Cuban crisis was a major turning point in relations between the United States and the Soviet Union. The assumption is made that, having forced Premier Khrushchev to back down and remove the Cuban missile bases, we need only continue such pressure to keep him and his associates in the Kremlin off balance.

This is a dangerously over-simplified, and probably quite inaccurate, estimate of what may now happen. For although firmness in dealing with the Soviet Union has its merits, our resolute action with regard to Cuba does not once and for all remove the initiative from Russia.

The likelihood is that Khrushchev, both to save national face and to shore up his own wobbly position as head of the Russian government, will act somewhere else in an attempt to gain some advantage or at least frustrate the West.

Although he did not press the question of U.S. bases in Turkey during the recent crisis, he may now seek to use Turkey as a bargaining point. Further Berlin action, possibly the signing of a treaty with East Germany at last, would not be surprising. And if the hostilities between China and India continue without progress on a negotiated peace, Moscow may well forget its ideological differences with the Peiping government and provide massive aid to the Chinese.

THERE ALSO is some room for optimism as a result of the Cuban affair, however. This springs from the probability that both Moscow and Washington realize how close the world came to disaster, and may now work more diligently to reduce tensions and start arms control. This, rather than a series of confrontations, is the really promising approach to peace and world order.

In Stamps, It's Not Inflation

THIS CONGRESS has confounded the political experts by raising postal rates in an election year. The Kennedy Administration hails it as something of an achievement, which it is.

President Eisenhower got another penny on first-class mail in 1958, after years of rising postal deficits. But then, as now, the higher rates were tied to pay increases for federal workers so that the net gain on the deficit wasn't great. Later efforts to raise postal revenues were turned back by a Democratic Congress.

The latest penny increase providing for first-class service and air mail and on postcards, along with stepped up increases on third- and fourth-class mail, will bring in about $600 million a year.

But the new law will raise postal workers' pay by $370 million in two stages, and other federal workers will get $680 million—so that the postal budget is in a little better shape, and the general budget much worse off, than before.

THE ADMINISTRATION'S reasoning in all this is in sharp contrast to what happened last spring, when a half-dozen major steel companies proposed a price increase of about 4 percent on their products.

The President forced them to back down, though they had higher labor costs to justify the increase. Yet now the postal service, with a monopoly considerably tighter than even Estes Kefauver would charge the steel companies with, goes up 20 percent.

Most Post Office Department customers will agree that postal workers had a pay raise coming; most stamp-buyers will agree that the postal deficit was far too large.

But they may puzzle a bit over shouts of "inflation" and monopolistic gouging when a competitive industry tries recouping its costs, and only cheers when the government does the same.

STAMPS AND GOVERNMENT payrolls, it seems, are not inflationary.

Modern communications certainly keep you abreast of what's going on—but we have moments of wishing we lived in the old days when it took weeks to find out.

A pocket computer to help housewives do their grocery shopping is being developed. More pocket money would help, too.

And far came upon every soul; and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. Acts 2:43.

India Paying for Appeasement

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

India is now paying the price of appeasement of communism.

After years of claiming neutrality while giving lip service to Communist objectives, Pandit Nehru's country now finds itself the object of an aggressive invasion by the Chinese Communists. At this writing, Red armies are moving fast; India has declared a state of national emergency and representations are being made to the United States for help.

The case of India provides a harsh object lesson for other so-called "neutral" countries who prefer to sit on the sidelines and criticize rather than accept a share of responsibility for the freedom of the world.

For India right now is in the process of proving the hard way that there can be no such thing as "neutrality" in a world where communism seeks ultimate total domination of all nations and all peoples. The uncommitted nations in the long run have only the choice between becoming Communist satellites or remaining free. The choice is that simple when all the phony facade of "neutrality" is stripped away.

In the past, of course, India appeared to have a strong argument for remaining uncommitted in the cold war. And that argument was Nehru in the role of peacemaker.

Even some informed Americans went through a period of believing that, because of Nehru's strong protestations for peace, it might not be a bad idea to have him follow a policy of co-existence with the Communists. They argued that it might be advisable to have someone standing by who could perform in the role of a peacemaker in the event of a military showdown between East and West.

BUT THIS whole idea, of course, began going down the drain as more and more of Nehru's pronouncements leaned toward the Communist position in world affairs. One prime example, of course, was the lead India assumed in attempting to have Red China admitted to the United Nations—a lead which it is curiously maintaining at the present time, although for different reasons.

But Nehru's phony stance as a peacemaker was revealed to the entire world when he resorted to aggression to invade the tiny Portuguese enclaves in Goa. And since that time the prestige and importance of India in a diplomatic sense has almost completely disappeared.

IN RETROSPECT, Nehru's mistakes are fully apparent. To begin with, he failed to understand the nature of the cold war—that is, to understand the total nature of the Communist desire to dominate the world. In the second place, he failed to understand that in such a struggle the only force capable of protecting him from the forces of slavery was the United States and her allies. In the third place, he played up to the Soviet Union in the naive belief that Moscow would not permit the Chinese Reds to develop any territorial designs on India.

Right from the beginning, of course, there has been some doubt as to how well equipped Russia is to call the shots on Red China, even granting a Soviet desire to follow such a course. It is reasonable to believe that whatever control Moscow once held over Peiping policies, it was weakened considerably in the wake of widespread economic trouble and starvation on the China mainland.

IN OTHER words, the Chinese are after Indian food as well as Indian land. They aren't likely to be dissuaded by arguments from Moscow or by India's long-held policy of pro-Communist "neutrality."

So Nehru is paying the heavy price of appeasement and accommodation. He is beginning to understand that you can't do business with communism without being buried.

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Russian, American People Friends on Many Occasions

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—One of the amazing but healthy facts about U.S.-Russian relations is that at the very height of the Cuban crisis when the world anxiously waited to see whether U.S. naval vessels would shoot down Russian ships on the high seas, the Russian people gave the New York City Ballet the greatest ovation ever given in Moscow's Bolshoi Theater.

They stood and cheered for 20 minutes—this for an American ballet which brought to the Soviets the type of dance in which the Russians, both under the Czars and the Communists, have led the world.

Apparently they thought the New York City Ballet had done a superb job in a field in which the Russians were supposed to be supreme.

Apparently also they considered people-to-people friendship more important than the fact that the President of the United States had given their Premier Khrushchev an ultimatum and the two countries might be on the verge of war.

During the same week, the Shaw Choral, a group of singers, got a tremendous ovation in Moscow and went on to similar ovations in Leningrad.

This, despite the fact that they emphasized religious music, and religion is not encouraged in the Soviet Union.

THIS WEEK the American people will have a chance to show equal people-to-people friendship when the Russian Olympic basketball team, together with a Russian women's team, arrives in the United States.

They will play in Madison Square Garden tomorrow (Thursday), in Nashville, Tenn., Sioux Falls, S. D., Mount Pleasant, Iowa, Lubbock, Tex., and Denver. But perhaps the most significant game takes place in the nation's capital this Saturday, Nov. 10, when the team of National Association of Russians will meet the American team which will represent the United States in the world's championship in Manila in December.

Basketball is a relatively new sport in the Soviet, but they have been working at it about as hard as they work at satellites, and the Russian Olympic team was runner-up to the U.S. Olympic team in Rome in 1960.

The U.S. men's all-stars will be directed by Omar "Bud" Browning, coach of the Phillips 66 Oilers and Les Lane, coach of the Denver D-C Trappers.

THE HARLEM Globetrotters played to terrific crowds in Moscow in the summer of 1959 and an all-star team went to Russia in 1961 under the direction of Coach John McLendon of the AAU champion Cleveland Pipers, but this is the first time a Russian basketball team has toured the U.S. Coming, as it does, on the heels of the Cuban crisis, its welcome will be a real test of American sportsmanship.

An interesting drama is taking place in federal court in Baltimore, where Stewart Hopps, international insurance broker, is on trial in one phase of the Maryland Savings and Loan scandal.

The drama lies in the personalities of the opposing lawyers. On one side, trying to send Hopps to jail, is U.S. Attorney Joe Tydings, energetic, ambitious son of the late Sen. Millard Tydings of Maryland who wants to fill his father's shoes in the Senate.

On the other side in court is lean, dynamic Attorney Ed Morgan, counsel for the father of the U.S. attorney when Sen. Tydings investigated the charge by Sen. Joe McCarthy that there were "205 card-carrying Communists inside the State Department, known to the secretary of state" (Dean Acheson).

Ed Morgan at that time made a terrific defense of Joe Tydings' father, got smeared in return. Now the man who defended Sen. Tydings is on the other side of his son in one of the most important criminal cases in recent Maryland history.

One charge by Richard Nixon that Gov. Pat Brown was soft on communism was based on the allegation that Gov. Brown let Gus Hall, head of the U. S. Communist Party, speak at the University of California in Berkeley. What Nixon ignored was that his former cabinet colleague, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Fleming in the Eisenhower administration, had OK'd Hall's speaking on the campus of the University of Oregon, of which Fleming is now president. In contrast, Hall spoke one block off campus at the University of California, and the governor of the state has no right to interfere with freedom of speech in universities in any case.

SEN. CLAIR ENGLE (D., Calif.), sometimes called the senator from Telstar, got huffy when a Gov. Brown telecast cut him off after he had finished reading a letter from President Kennedy endorsing Brown. Clair expected to comment on the letter. When the TV camera shifted, Engle refused to participate in a TV panel show, exposing Nixon's campaign tactics. . . . Earlier, Engle had flatly rejected an urgent request from a Brown strategist to give a public diagnosis of the Hughes-Don Nixon $205,000 loan scandal.

Kennedy advisers are still chuckling over the manner in which they fooled the press during the hectic days leading up to the President's broadcast on the Cuban blockade.

Late one evening, Secretary of Defense McNamara was called to the State Department to confer on Cuba, bumped into curious reporters who asked why he was visiting there so late.

"I am attending the Gromyko dinner," replied McNamara, thinking fast.

On another occasion 11 top State Department planners were summoned to the White House. Rather than take their own limousines, which would have attracted attention, all 11 piled into the car of Under Secretary George Ball. Arriving at the side entrance of the White House they filed out like clowns from a car at the Ringling Brothers' circus.

As a result, consultation of the moldering Cuban crisis continued for more than a week before Washington newsmen got wise to what was brewing.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

UNICEF Chairman
Extends Thanks

To the Editor:

As chairman of the Winona Community Tricks or Treats for UNICEF Committee, I wish to publicly express my sincere appreciation for all of the wonderful cooperation and assistance provided by your newspaper, both radio stations, church leaders and the Kiwanis Club. But more important, the children who participated in the collection of pennies, nickels and larger contributions are to be congratulated for their eager acceptance of this program.

It was deeply gratifying to witness the enthusiasm displayed by the hundreds of children who unselfishly set aside their own self-interests and solicited "treats" for their underprivileged world neighbors. Of course, there were some who went "half way" and carried a sack for themselves as well as for UNICEF. To some skeptics, this was intolerable, but to me, it's a "step in the right direction." We can't expect 100 percent acceptance of any program overnight.

I'm confident that in another year, a better organized, enlarged community effort will yield even greater returns to our community, as well as the UNICEF cause—helping the underdeveloped countries help themselves provide for the needs of children. To insure a more successful program next year I'm calling a public meeting to review the 1962 Halloween and set up some guiding principals and observations. Anyone who has been in contact with this program is invited to this meeting, which will be held in the Vo-Ag class room in the basement of the Senior High School at 4 p.m. Thursday. If you have any suggestions for improving the program, please attend this meeting.

Questions Invention
Of Robert C. Ruark

To the Editor:

The article entitled "Though Tribes Despise Hindu" by Robert C. Ruark, appeared in Winona Sunday News Nov. 4, 1962) is so unimpeachably distorted and far from truth that one starts wondering about the intention of the writer.

Apart from its demerits the above mentioned article and any such writings may well prove to be a stumbling block in the path of a sincere desire for friendship and understanding between India and the United States.

Speaking of the particular position of understanding between India and the United States—because of certain bitter facts India is experiencing at the moment, there was a better possibility of closer and genuine understanding between these two great countries. But unfortunately such derogatory articles as mentioned above makes one think twice before coming closer. Mr. Ruark's article is nothing but clear insult and meaningless ridicule of the entire Indian nation.

There is no denial of the fact, as Mr. Ruark says that "India came pleading to the United States for arms" but the desire and eagerness on the part of the United States to send arms help to India is also not hidden. This eagerness was shown much before India could think of any such request for arms. This fact leaves one to think as to which is more needy—India or the United States.

In the fervor of creating misunderstanding Mr. Ruark totally forgot the 200 years background of Indian politics and administration, he neglected to mention the tremendous achievements India has made in every walk of life during the last 15 years. He does not see the philosophy of life India and Indian leaders have given to the world and he fails to appreciate the part played by India in creating, maintaining and strengthening democracy in that part of the world where the murder of democracy is witnessed every second month in one country or the other. Mr. Ruark speaks of Indian armed forces with contempt. He forgot that India achieved its independence only a short while ago and since then has so ably handled military activities where it was needed. There was no bloodshed in Goa; more than half of Kashmir was saved by the tactical handling of the military forces; and for internal disorders, too, India has never employed such a big military force as was displayed at Ole Miss.

Mr. Ruark's comments on corruption in the government are highly irresponsible. He has accused the provincial governors and other high officials of corruption without any foundation. There have never been any such charges framed from any quarter, nor is it expected from an educated person unless he has some definite proof, which I am sure Mr. Ruark cannot produce. Calling names, accusing officials, branding the entire Indian nation as "rabble," Mr. Ruark does not even spare the religious sentiments of the majority of the Indian people.

India does not want to make herself a second Korea. The Indian Army has in history proved its worth and the last two world wars stand testimony to that. She knows how to tackle such situations.

Mr. Ruark has used abusive language, I do not want to do so. A lot of bad things can be mentioned about the social, racial, political and administrative setups of any country in the world—the countries which claim to practice democracy for centuries. The country which has only experienced democracy for the last 35 years; that, too, after ruthless exploitation by the western colonialism for about two centuries, deserves more consideration. But finding fault with others should not be the motive of educators of great nations. They should not ferment hatred or misunderstanding; they should help create understanding and friendship, for which India has always stood firm.

As a citizen of India and as a student in this country I was greatly shocked by this article written by an educated citizen of this friendly and cultured country. I am confident that I am speaking for all Indian students in this country and I am also confident that the friendly people of this great country will appreciate my feelings.

No Straight Party Vote in Buffalo Co.

ALMA, Wis. (Special) — Traditionally Republican Buffalo County Tuesday favored Philip G. Kuehn (R) for governor over John W. Reynolds (D) and Alexander Wiley, incumbent, for U. S. Senate over Gov. Gaylord Nelson (D).

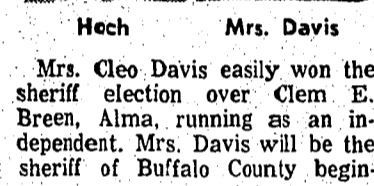

However, it crossed over into the Democratic column to help elect Lester Johnson (D) for 9th District congressman over Dennis B. Danielson (R), and deserted incumbent Assemblyman Robert Johnson (R) for re-election, giving the nod to Milton S. Buchli (D). Johnson and Buchli are both Buffalo County men.

Motley Mrs. Hetrick

Two appointees of Gov. Nelson, Pat Motley for district attorney and Mrs. Vernie B. Hetrick for register of deeds, defeated their Republican opponents, Dane F. Morey, Mondovi attorney, and Mrs. Fern F. Pearson, Alma, former deputy register of deeds.

Largest vote getter among those with opposition was Gale O. Hoch, county clerk, who defeated Mrs. Rose S. Swanson (D), Mondovi.

Hech Mrs. Davis

Mrs. Cleo Davis easily won the sheriff election over Clem E. Breen, Alma, running as an independent. Mrs. Davis will be the sheriff of Buffalo County beginning in January succeeding her husband, Glen, whose term expires. Mrs. Davis was sheriff in 1957-58 and has 10 years of experience in the office as deputy and matron of the jail while her husband was sheriff.

All re-elected county officers ran on the Republican ticket. Treasurer Richard Fahrner, Clerk of Court Vendor Steinke, and Dr. E. A. Meili, coroner, were not opposed.

According to Clerk Hoch, the vote was large for an off-presidential year — 4,050 votes were cast. At the last presidential election, 1960, the total vote was 6,300, and in the last non-presidential election, 1958, the total vote was 3,625.

RARE COMPLAINT

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) A man walked into the Pima County assessor's office in Tucson and said he had a complaint.

A weary clerk braced himself and asked, "What's the trouble?" The man answered, "I been paying taxes on 37 acres of land. Just had a survey made. I really own 40 acres. I wish you would correct your figures so I can pay my fair share."

Olmsted County Continues Its GOP Tradition

ROCHESTER, Minn. — Olmsted County remained traditionally Republican in Tuesday's general election. The county has gone Republican in 17 out of the last 18 elections and has voted for a Republican governor in the last 13 elections.

The total unofficial vote was somewhat lower than the total in the 1960 election. This year 22,102 persons voted compared with 26,988 in 1960, the record high. The county has 38 precincts, 15 of which are in Rochester.

In one of the two contests for county offices D. P. Mattson, incumbent, defeated George E. Nelson 13,158 to 7,194 for county attorney. Sheriff Gerald E. "Jerry" Cunningham defeated Allen P. "Jiggs" DeFosse 12,479 to 9,470.

GOV. ELMER L. Andersen outpolled Democrat Karl F. Rolvaag 13,799 to 8,283 in the gubernatorial race. William Braatz, Industrial Government party, received 120 votes.

Rochester's candidate for lieutenant governor, DFL'er A. M. Keith, lost in the county 10,061 to 12,156.

With one precinct missing in the congressional race Albert H. Quie, Republican incumbent, led David L. Graven 13,977 to 7,451.

Harold G. Krieger defeated E. W. "Bill" Quirin by 8,533 to 7,473 in the 4th District senator's race. For 4th District state representative Donald W. Fisher had 9,501 to Paul Kelly's 5,827.

Robert R. Dunlap had 3,145 votes in the Wabasha-rural Olmsted County state senator race to 1,911 votes for Sophus A. Kuhlmann.

25-Year Trempealeau Co. Courthouse Official Loses

WHITEHALL, Wis. (Special) — There was an unexpected upset in voting for Trempealeau County offices Tuesday when Lester Brennom (R), register of deeds for 25 years, was defeated by Mrs. Grace K. Jorgenson (D), Ettrick.

Brennom, lifetime resident of Whitehall, ran in 1936 against the late Morris Hanson and defeated him. He's been on the City Council since 1937, mayor since 1959 and is secretary of the Whitehall Electric Utility.

This was Mrs. Jorgenson's first try at politics. She's been active in Lutheran Church work in Ettrick and area, in the PTA, Girl Scouts, and has been a volunteer worker for the Red Cross and American Cancer Society.

She's worked in a grocery store, been relief switchboard operator, and substituted as Daily News correspondent when the regular correspondent was absent.

Mrs. Jorgenson

ALL OTHER incumbent county officers who had opposition won. Mrs. Louise V. Johnson, county clerk, polled the largest vote—3,977 to win easily over William N. Andre Jr., who circulated nomination papers following the primary and received 697 votes on the independent ticket.

Bennett O. Anderson defeated Clark Williams, Strum, for treasurer; James E. Garaghan bested Byron T. Hagen, Osseo, for coronor, and Basil J. Erickson, serving as treasurer by appointment since January and former sheriff, defeated Joseph P. Wozney, Independence.

Anderson Garaghan

The winners in the above offices were running on the Republican ticket, their opponents as Democrats. District Attorney Donald S. Johnson (R), was not opposed.

The tables below will show that the county went Democratic in the gubernatorial, U.S. senate, congressional and assembly races.

Klundby Erickson

A new sheriff was elected to succeed Mrs. Winifred Bijold, not a candidate. After Jan. 1 it will be Sheriff Orris Klundby. He's an Osseo man who has been a deputy sheriff and was defeated by Mrs. Bijold in a recount following the 1960 primary. Klundby won the nomination at the primary this year over former sheriff Eugene Bijold.

The vote on the statewide amendments is also in the table. Complete unofficial returns for Trempealeau County:

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The first major snowfall of the season hit the Northwest during the night, leaving roads wet and hazardous.

There was up to 6 inches of snow at Bagley, Minn., and near blizzard conditions were reported in some places. Driving still was reported difficult after the snow eased up.

Other snow readings were Baudette with 4 inches; Crookston and Bemidji with 2 and Duluth and International Falls with one inch.

Other Families Victorious in Election Races

WASHINGTON (AP) — Edward M. Kennedy's victory in the Massachusetts Senate election wasn't the only one in the country with family links.

The youngest brother of President Kennedy swamped Republican George Cabot Lodge in his bid for the remaining two years of the Senate term of retiring Sen. Benjamin A. Smith II, also a Democrat.

The Republican Morton brothers, Thurston and Rogers, were both victorious. Thurston won a second term as senator from Kentucky over Lt. Gov. Wilson W. Wyatt and Rogers C. B. Morlon defeated incumbent Democratic Rep. Thomas F. Johnson in Maryland's 1st District. Johnson recently was indicted on charges of trying to influence a federal grand jury.

In Ohio, the Bolton mother and son team of Republicans was united again in the House. Frances P. Bolton was re-elected in the 22nd District and her son, Oliver P. Bolton, a former congressman, returned to the House with a victory over Democratic Rep. Robert E. Cook in the 11th District.

In Colorado Rep. J. Edgar Chenoweth, a Republican, won another term, but his son William B. Chenoweth, also a Republican, failed in his bid to unseat Rep. Byron G. Rogers, a Democrat. Ohio voters sent a third-generation Taft to Washington, electing Robert Taft Jr., a Republican, congressman-at-large.

Village Elections

Cheaper Street Job Chosen At Trempealeau

TREMPEALEAU, Wis. (Special)—The village of Trempealeau, one of two municipalities in the eight-county area having a local referendum Tuesday, voted down an approximate $10,000 improvement project in the village and in favor of a less expensive one.

It was an advisory vote. Ten ballots, incorrectly marked, had to be discarded.

The vote was as follows:

Plan 1, providing for expenditure of $10,580 for installing storm sewer on Main Street: Yes, 18; No, 124. This project would call for an additional 15 percent for legal and engineer's fees.

Plan 2, providing for expenditure of $2,903 for carrying surface water from Main Street by changing street grades, side walk drains, etc.: Yes, 89; No, 70.

On the general election ballot, 75 straight Democratic ballots were cast and 64 straight Republican. A total of 218 ballots was counted. Democrats leading state and legislative candidates and Republicans leading in the county races in one instance: For registrar of deeds, Grace K. Jorgenson, Elrick, and Lester Brennon, Whitehall, incumbent, each tallied 100 votes.

Clerk Loses At La Crescent

Odell Lee Sr. polled 183 write-in votes to be elected clerk. Mrs. Clarence Lee received 123 write-ins for this office.

W. B. White, incumbent justice of the peace who filed, received 324 votes to be elected.

Arnold Benson received 92 write-in votes for constable. Fred Miner had filed for re-election to this office but died recently.

Eyota Voters Rename Clerk

EYOTA, Minn. (Special) — A heavy voter turnout, with 278 ballots cast, was sparked by contests for clerk and an alderman's post.

Stanley Johnson, a two-year incumbent, won re-election as clerk with 132 votes. He had filed. The seat of his rival, H. H. Holden, Brobst with 101 votes. Brobst was a write-in candidate. Running third was Harry Armstrong, who had filed, with 41 votes.

Winning re-election as assessor without opposition was Sterling Nixon. He drew 50 votes.

HOKAH, Minn. — Only one contest developed in the village election which saw 190 voters cast their ballots.

CALEDONIA, Minn. (Special)—Village of Caledonia voters decided not to raise salaries of the Common Council when they voted Tuesday on an ordinance increasing the mayor's remuneration from $175 to $300 a year and trustees from $125 to $250 a year.

The vote was 490 against the raises and 343 in favor.

2 Tied at Dakota But No 'Contest'

DAKOTA, Minn.—Dakota voters gave 15 write-in votes to both Mrs. Daryl Witt and Mrs. Howard Bearwald for clerk, but there won't be any coin tossing or recount to select the winner.

You see Mrs. Bearwald is the village treasurer and isn't interested in being clerk, too, a post now held by Mrs. Witt. Mrs. Bearwald's term as treasurer has a year to run.

Others also received write-ins for clerk.

Pair Charged With Telephone Booth Thefts

CALEDONIA, Minn. (Special)—It is expected that two men allegedly involved in dismantling public telephone booths for the money in them will be arraigned here today or Thursday on charges of grand larceny, second degree. Everet John Dayton, 16, La Crosse, and Lawrence Ernest DeCloux, alias Larry Bell, 32, Green Bay, Wis., were apprehended in a telephone booth at Freston Monday by the Fillmore County sheriff's department when it appeared that they were tampering with the telephone. No evidence was found. DeCloux was detained on a charge of having no driver's license. Dayton was released.

Monday morning Ernest Miller, farmer living three miles south of La Crescent, found a discarded telephone in his garden and notified Houston County Sheriff Byron Whitehouse. It had apparently been ripped from the booth near the rootbeer stand in the south end of La Crescent Sunday night.

Dayton was apprehended for Houston County by La Crosse authorities, and he was to be extradited to the Minnesota authority before a judge this morning. The courts weren't open Tuesday because of the general election. Sheriff Whitehouse brought DeCloux to Caledonia this morning.

129 Firms Show Substantial Gains In Chest Giving

The level of Community Chest giving still is encouraging, Robert Solover, campaign chairman, said today.
He said that 177 firms out of 800 in the city have completed their employee solicitations and 129 of them have shown gains in giving of at least 20 percent with some showing much more substantial gains than that.

Solover said that Chest officials still are awaiting reports from 840 firms employing about 3,700 persons. He urged team captains and solicitors to finish their work and get their reports in this week.

Three proposed amendments to Minnesota's state constitution were approved by substantial majorities in Tuesday's general election returns from the five-county area in Southeastern Minnesota.
In each of the counties of Winona, Olmsted, Fillmore, Wabasha and Houston the "Yes" votes outnumbered "No" votes by counts of up to more than 3-1.

However, those who did not vote either way will be recorded against the amendments. For instance, in Winona County 10,513 voted for Amendment No. 1 and 3,765 against it, for a total vote of 14,278. However, the county auditor said that, subject to canvassing board checks, a total of 15,342 votes were cast, so that on Amendment No. 2 another approximately 1,064 will be recorded as being against the amendment.

Amendment No. 1 which would permit the investment of a portion of the swampland and permanent school funds (to be consolidated) in corporate stocks and bonds rather than government securities received the most vigorous nod from area voters.
Of the more than 53,000 votes cast on the first amendment issue more than 41,000 were in favor.

The proposal for lifting of the state debt limit was favored by 37,586 of the 53,144 persons voting, while Amendment No. 3, providing for 120-day legislative sessions, was approved by an almost identical majority, 37,421-14,744.

TEEN-AID FOR TEEN-AGERS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—In two years the 200 women volunteers in an organization known as Teen Aid have extended helping hands to about 175 girl delinquents in Philadelphia.

"Many of the girls feel this is the first time anyone has taken a real interest in them," comments a judge.
With only a couple of exceptions, the program has proved tremendously successful in overcoming the girls' suspicions and resentments and putting them on the right track.

TEST FOR BOATERS

MINEOLA, N.Y. (AP)—A one-minute test for boating safety issued by Henry Hartmann, director of Nassau County Red Cross Safety Services, lists three questions for boaters:
Do you stand up while cranking a rope start outboard?
(You shouldn't); do you jump from the dock into your boat? (You should hold onto a support and step into the craft); do you tighten the transom clamp screws and check the safety chain on your motor after you leave the pier? (they should be checked before you shove off).

Boaters who miss more than one of the three questions, Hartmann says, "will be better off ashore than afloat."
The JACKSON - TREMPLEAU-LEAU district assembly contest was the closest of all legislative races in this area.
Merlin J. Peterson (R), Black River Falls, defeated Oscar T. Strand (D), Eltrick, by only 63 votes. Each led in his home county.

Peterson, Johnson Return to Assembly

Strand was an opponent of Peterson at the 1960 election also. Peterson is serving his first term in the assembly, where he was a member of the highway and veterans affairs committees. He is on the interim highway committee.

Wiley carried Buffalo County but lost Pepin and Trempealeau counties, as indicated in the table below. Wisconsin's U.S. senators will now both be Democrats—William Proxmire was elected two years ago.

Utica Set-off Hearing Scheduled for Dec. 3

The Winona County Board of Commissioners will hold a hearing at 2:30 p.m. Dec. 3 on seven petitions from Utica school district 3561 residents who want their property attached to Lewiston Independent District 857.

The petitions, received Tuesday afternoon by the county board, are the latest development in the controversy involving the Utica district, Lewiston District and St. Charles Independent district 858.

BOTH independent districts have been seeking consolidation with Utica in an effort to boost assessed valuation, thereby raising borrowing power and helping permit construction of a new high school.

(County Superintendent of Schools Jesse B. Jestus is preparing a consolidation plat for the Lewiston and Utica districts for submission to the State Department of Education.)

Also involved in the controversy was the proposed central high school to serve the Lewiston-St. Charles high school area and to be established near Utica. This proposal was defeated in a recent area advisory vote.

Last month the county board rejected a move to have the Utica district dissolved and attached to an independent district after Utica voters displayed mixed feelings about the matter.
All the petitioners, seeking set-off of their land to Lewiston district, said their children would receive a better education at Lewiston, that the Lewiston district would provide bus service which the Utica district doesn't provide, and that their land adjoins the Lewiston district.

Petitioners follow: John Swenington, 160 acres; Alvin W. Schwieder, clerk of the Utica school board, 149.84; Roger Sanders, 16.5; Gerald Brown, 18.5; Mrs. Hazel M. Seifert, 131.58; Lyle Sass, 161, and Mr. and Mrs. Argene L. Beyer, 60.

THE COMMISSIONERS replied to a questionnaire from the State Association of County Commissioners by favoring a 50-cent-per-acre payment from the state in lieu of taxes for land in the Whitewater Game Refuge. The state is now paying the county 25 cents an acre. The county in turn dis-butes this money to municipalities. 116, grading, base and bituminous surfacing in St. Charles City.

COUNTY Supervisor of Assessments David V. Sauer was authorized to buy a Monroe adding machine for $185.60 net, including trade-in, from Monroe Calculating Machine Co., Inc., Winona.
Presiding at the board meeting was Chairman Paul Baer, Fremont, 4th District.

Lewiston to Check On Propane Tanks Near New School

LEWISTON, Minn.—Members of Lewiston School Board at a regular meeting Monday night decided to defer a topographical survey of the 40-acre site on which an option has been taken for a new school until a state Department of Education and state fire marshal on the safety of such propane gas tanks stored by King Gas Co.

If the report is negative, the board has land owned by Raymond Speltz south of the present school in mind as another possible site.

The board has invited five common school districts to the south and east to a meeting Monday night to discuss consolidation with Lewiston. Wyattville, North Warren, Heublein, Little Ridgely and Hart districts have been invited.

Title at Stake in Badger-Cat Tilt

MADISON (AP)—Wisconsin football coach Milt Bruhn is laying awake nights trying to figure out how to stop Northwestern's sophomore passing ace, Tom Myers.

"I don't know yet," the coach said Tuesday. Nobody has shut him off yet, but it's due to happen and it just might be Saturday.

Northwestern plays Wisconsin at Madison Saturday in a game that may decide the Big Ten championship and a bid to the Rose Bowl.

"Indiana did a great job on Myers Saturday," Bruhn said despite the fact that he got more than 200 yards passing. The Hoosiers doubled up on the Wildcats' top receiver and they almost had the answer and came close to winning.

"We haven't really gone into specifics yet, and haven't come up with any final conclusions. But first of all we know we've got to do a standard job; not fall down anywhere, and be steady throughout.

"It is a cinch we will have to get a better rush on him than we did in the first half at Michigan. And there wasn't any Myers throwing either. Somebody has hurt us with the pass right along. Iowa did it, Ohio and even Michigan.

"We will have a lot of things to worry about besides Myers' passing. They've got power at fullback with Swingle and a fine sophomore, Steve Murphy and can hit pretty fast with Larry Benz."

The coach said his squad was in good physical shape with only center Joe Heckl and end El-mars Ezerins doubtful performers. All-America candidate end

Pat Richter was held out of practice Tuesday with a bruised leg but is expected to be in shape for the game.

"Over-all we are stronger than we have been in a few weeks," Bruhn said. Nettles hadn't played for almost a month, so we were not worried that he wasn't real good at Michigan. You can't come back in and be right immediately.

"We feel we are solid now with Ron Frain, Billy Smith and Nettles back there in the secondary. We just got to get that good rush up front."

Palmer, Snead Favorites

34 Nations in Canada Meet

SAN ISIRO, Argentina (AP)—Arnold Palmer and Sam Snead, America's twosome in the 10th annual Canada Cup golf tournament, established themselves as the early favorites after their first practice rounds.

The tournament opens Thursday with two-man teams from 34 countries competing. The golfers who solve the intricacies of the San Isidro Jockey Club's "punch bowl" greens stand the best chance of winning the Canada Cup.

The United States will be seeking its sixth championship overall and its third in a row.

Snead figured out the greens Tuesday and came in with a 6-under-par 64. Palmer, having difficulty with his irons, shot a 70. He went straight back to the practice tee.

Except for the tricky greens, the 6,746-yard course is not so tough. The fairways are narrow and most of them are bordered by tall pine trees and spotted with bunkers. But there is no rough and no water holes.

It was the greens that had such top golfers as South Africa's Gary Player and England's Peter Alliss shaking their heads along with a host of other international stars.

Many of the greens are comparatively small and have narrow entrances. But the frustrating aspect is the "punch bowl" shape of the greens that makes the putting difficult.

Putting downhill, the ball can roll and roll. Some putts are over bumps. Three-putt greens are common.

Player played nine holes after completing a three-day plane trip from Adelaide, where he won the Australian Open. He is teamed up with Denis Hutchinson.

Australia will be represented by two former British Open champions, Peter Thomson and Kel Nagle. They form the only team which has won the Canada Cup twice, in 1954 and 1959.

Snead won the individual title last year in Puerto Rico and then paired with Jimmy Demaret for the team championship.

Amateur Laver May Turn Pro

MELBOURNE (AP)—Rod Laver of Australia, the world's top amateur tennis player, has decided to turn professional, according to Melbourne Herald tennis writer Alan Stewart.

Stewart wrote today that Laver will sign a 2½ year contract for $100,760 with the International Professional Tennis Association after the Davis Cup challenge round in Brisbane, Dec. 26-28.

Tigers Win Fifth In Japanese Tour

OSAKA, Japan (AP)—Booming homers by Chico Fernandez and Mike Roarke plus tight pitching by Paul Foytack and Ronnie Kline sparked the Detroit Tigers to a 3-0 victory over the Nankai Hawks today.

The triumph was the fifth for the barnstorming Tigers in their 17-game Japan tour. They have lost two and been held to one tie.

Squires, Englerth Top City Women

City bowling records were left unblemished after Tuesday night's action but there was one near-miss.

Shirley Squires, bowling for Corner Bar in the Ladies City League at Hal-Rod Lanes, smashed a sizzling 233, which tied her for the second highest single of the season. It was four pins shy of equaling the record of 237.

In the same league Betty Englerth posted 574, the eighth highest series. Her mates, Pozanc Trucking, cracked 2,588 and Sammy's Pizza chalked up 925. Other 500s in the league were rapped by Ruth Lilla 522, Esther Pozanc 522, Ruth Novinsky 521, Irene Janikowski 518, Tess Kostuck 514, and Leona Lubinski 507.

HAL-ROD LANES: 4-City—John Schreiber, a substitute, socked a 627 errorless series for Lang's Bar. It was the third time this season he substituted in the league and the third time he blasted a 600 including the current record series of 693. Ralph Benicke posted 245—624 for Suede's Bar. Skelly Ollers clipped 96 and Del's Cafe totaled 288.

Lucky Ladies—Helen Nelson smashed 195—523 for Hamm's Beer. Fountain City hit 369 and C.C. Gals wrapped up 2,400.

Twilight—Susy Schneider tipped 169—305 for Unknowns No. 2. Merchants Tellerettes hit a 967 series.

Fortie Leads Colleges in Grid Rushing

NEW YORK (AP)—Eldon Fortie of Brigham Young leads the major-college football yardage-makers for the sixth straight week.

The slender Cougar tailback has piled up 1,738 total yards, according to the latest statistics released today by the NCAA Service Bureau. Fortie also is setting the pace in rushing offense with 999 yards.

Terry Baker of Oregon State is second in total yards gained with 1,451 followed by George Mira, Miami (Fla.) 1,290, Tom Myers of Northwestern 1,163, Billy Lotheridge, Georgia Tech 1,157 and Dick Shiner, Maryland 1,120.

Jim Pilot of New Mexico State is the runner-up in rushing with 960 yards. Then come Gale Sayers of Kansas with 865 and Johnny Roland of Missouri with 717.

Packers No. 2 In Team Offense

NEW YORK (AP)—The Green Bay Packers, showing the balance which has carried them to eight straight victories, held the No. 2 positions in the National Football League's offensive rushing and defensive statistics released today.

For the third week in a row the defending NFL champions remained second to the Dallas Cowboys in offensive yardage totals. Coach Tom Landry's Cowboys have gained 2,999 yards to the Packers 2,840. The New York Giants are third with 2,738 yards.

The Detroit Lions are only 24 yards ahead of the Packers in topping the defensive statistics. Detroit took over the top spot after allowing Los Angeles only 33 yards rushing last Sunday and have allowed a total of 1,668 yards. The Packers have yielded 1,892.

The Packers' running yardage, led by the bruising thrusts of fullback Jim Taylor, surpassed the yards passing by 1,515 to 1,325. Philadelphia, the Packers' opponents on Sunday, ranked fourth in yards gained with 2,681 and eighth in defensive statistics with 2,646.

'LINE TOO POTENT'

Gophers Picked To Beat Hawks

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—How can you see the forest when the trees always get in your line of sight? There probably are as many upsets hidden on this weekend's college football schedule as last week. The most recent visit to Upset Gulch resulted in 40 correct guesses with 14 setbacks for 746. Here goes for this week.

Northwestern over Wisconsin: The Evanston Wildcats had their sinking spell last Saturday when they barely squeaked by Indiana. That should alert the country's No. 1 team never to take anyone lightly, least of all the potent Badgers.

Southern California over Stanford: Stanford has demonstrated its ability to spill highly rated foes but the Trojans' Pete Beathard won't let it happen here.

Alabama over Miami: A pitching battle between the Crimson Tide's Joe Namath and Miami's George Mira with the Alabama quarterback getting a little more help.

Mississippi over Chattanooga: The Rebels get a weekend vacation for beating LSU in their most recent outing.

Texas over Baylor: The Longhorns' midseason sinking spell is over.

Arkansas over Rice: Billy

Moore gives Arkansas a definite edge.

Missouri over Colorado: Missouri has its eyes on the Orange Bowl.

Louisiana State over Texas Christian: Sonny Gibbs, lowering TCU quarterback, brought Texas down with a single shot last year but doubt he can treat the LSU Tigers the same way.

Minnesota over Iowa: The Gopher line, anchored by Bobby Bell, is too potent for the Hawkeyes.

Penn State over West Virginia: Dave Robinson and Robert Kochman make an awesome twosome for the Pennsylvania Lions.

Oregon over Washington State: Where is there a better lineman than Oregon's Steve Barnett?

Georgia Tech over Florida State: Tech's squad on the rise since that Auburn debacle.

Duke over Maryland: This one is for the Atlantic Coast Conference crown.

Washington over California: Washington was shut out last week. That rarely happens to a Huskie and never twice in a row.

RETIREMENT PROPOSAL GREETED COLDLY

Musial Says He'll Play Despite Rickey's Plans

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—Stan Musial said today he planned to play next season despite Branch Rickey's proposal to St. Louis Cardinals in 1963 but would be- come a club vice president when he decides to retire.

The proposal apparently set off a major disagreement between Devine and Rickey, who recently was hired as a senior consultant on player development for the Cardinals.

Cardinal President August A. Busch Jr. said Tuesday Musial not only would play with the Cardinals in 1963 but would be- come a club vice president when he decides to retire.

"We need Stan's bat. He'll let us know when he's ready to quit.

You just don't cast someone aside who figures as a vice president in your future plans," Busch said. Then Busch added, "Since when do you ask a 330 hitter to retire unless you've got his equal to replace him."

Musial is in St. Petersburg, Fla., with the Cardinals helping in the instruction league there for young ball players.

When he learned of the Rickey proposal to retire him, Musial declared, "I won't retire. If the Cardinals don't want me there are some other clubs that do."

"That retirement proposal is hard to believe because both Bing and Johnny Keane said they were counting on me," Musial said. Keane is the Cardinals' field manager.

Rickey said in New York he had suggested Musial, who will be 42 this month, retire in a discussion with Keane and Devine.

"I have changed my mind on Keane's and Devine's advice," Rickey said.

Still Rickey explained, in his opinion, it would be dangerous to regard a man of Musial's advanced baseball age as a regular.

Rickey said he was under the impression: earlier Musial was going to retire after the 1962 baseball season.

Disagreement between Rickey and Devine set off feud reports and questions were asked about who was actually running the Cardinals.

Cardinal Vice President Dick Meyer and Busch made that clear today.

"Devine is still running the Red Birds," Busch asserted. Meyer, Devine and Rickey all said reports of feuding on the club were not true.

PALMER STILL NO. 1 WINNER

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP)—Most of the professional golfers on the list of top ten money winners apparently are resting up for the start of next season.

There has been very little change in standings during the past few weeks.

Arnold Palmer still reigns supreme on the PGA list with $81,448. Gene Littler is second with $66,200 and Bill Casper Jr. is third with $61,842.

Smith Returns To End Duty With Vikings

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Offensive end Gordie Smith returned to duty with the Minnesota Vikings Tuesday after two months on the injury list.

Smith was reactivated and half-back Bob Reed, rookie from University of Pacific, was placed on the injured list for the remainder of the 1962 season. Reed sustained a chest injury in the Los Angeles game three weeks ago and this was aggravated by a partial collapse of one lung which required his hospitalization for several days.

Coach Norm Van Brocklin denounced Smith ready for duty against the Chicago Bears Sunday, but indicated rookie Steve Stonebreaker will probably start the game because "he deserves to hold the position."

Smith lamed a knee in the Vikings' last exhibition game against Dallas Sept. 8.

The Vikings got a scare when veteran halfback Hugh McElhenny (wristed at ankle Tuesday, but he said the injury "Doesn't seem serious. I think I'll be able to run all right." McElhenny also suffered a chest injury against Los Angeles and has missed the last two games.

Catholic Center Holds Cage Drills

Approximately 40 boys attended the first basketball practice Saturday for the Bantam, Pee Wee, and Midget basketball teams of the Catholic Recreation Center. Practices will continue to be held on Saturday mornings at the Center for the following age groups: 9:15 a.m., Bantams (grades second through fourth); 10 a.m., Pee Wees (grades fifth and sixth); and 10:45 a.m. Midgets (grades seven and eight).

Practice sessions consist of fundamental drills, rules explanations, and intrasquad scrimmages. Eight games will be scheduled during the season for the teams. Ozzie Loeffler, director of the center pointed out that all boys in the city are welcome to attend the drills, and team personnel is selected on their attendance record at practices. The next drills will be held Saturday.

The 1961 Arizona football team posted its best record in history, eight wins, one defeat and one tie.

Russian Team Meets All-Stars In First Test

NEW YORK (AP) — The Russians will be seeking their first victory over an American national team in basketball Thursday night when a Soviet squad meets the U.S. All-Stars at Madison Square Garden.

In the first game of the double-header, played under international basketball rules, a Russian girl's team will meet the Nashville Business College team, National AAU women's champions.

The Russians, led by Viktor Zubkov, a 6-foot-8 center from Moscow, have scheduled an 8-game tour that will take them to Maryland, South Dakota, Iowa, Texas and Colorado. The team is rated stronger than the one which lost to the United States 81-57 in Rome in 1960 for the Olympic title.

Three Americans who made the tour of Russia last spring are on the present team. They are Gary Thompson of Iowa State, Mike Moran of Marquette, and Jerry Shipp of Southeast Oklahoma State.

Others on the team include Lloyd Sharrar, 6-foot-10 center from West Virginia; Bobby Rascoe, Western Kentucky State; Larry Pursiful, Kentucky; Don Kojis, Marquette; and Pete McCaffrey, St. Louis University.

The American squad is coached by Bud Browning, head man of the Phillips Oilers, perennial basketball leader in the AAU.

Gopher Campbell Hobbled by Knee

The sometimes vulnerable Gopher pass defense got the hardest workout in anticipation of some aerial fireworks from Iowa's Matt Szykowsky.

End John Campbell continued to be hobbled by a knee injury and remained doubtful for the Hawkeye invasion. Halfback Al Fischer returned to drills after a stomach ailment, but practiced without pads.

End Ray Zitzloff, who replaced Campbell on the first unit, also turned up with a sore knee but returned to practice Tuesday apparently with no further complications.

governor said that "If I ran behind in the rural areas, I think it reflects farmer dissatisfaction with farm prices."

For Nelson, a 46-year-old attorney who was a 10-year veteran of the State Senate when elected to his first term in 1958, the decision over Wiley was another personal success.

He had led his party to a landslide victory four years ago, he held his place in 1960 to become the second Democrat in history to win re-election as governor—the first was "Peck's Bad Boy" author George Peck in the 1890s—and with a GOP-controlled Legislature managed not only tax revision but a model natural resources program.

His election makes him the fourth Democrat to win since Wisconsin began electing senators by popular vote 50 years ago, and means that for the first time in history the state will have two Democratic senators. The new senator is William Proxmire, who first won office in 1957, as successor to the late Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy.

FOR THE 78-year-old Wiley, defeat marked the likely end of a political career that had seen him serve three terms as district attorney of his native Chippewa County before Nelson was born, in the same rugged northern country and of similar pioneer Norwegian stock.

First elected to the Senate in 1938, Wiley became chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee under the Eisenhower administration and from a prewar isolationist developed into a leader of bi-parisan foreign policy. He still is the ranking minority member of Foreign Relations, Judiciary and Space committees, and has been hailed by the leaders of both parties as the "father of the St. Lawrence Seaway." In addition, he was active in the fight to ratify the North American Treaty Alliance, was a U. S. delegate to the Japanese Peace Conference, and was a member of the United Nations delegation to the United Nations in 1952.

Wiley Sees Opportunities To Serve

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Sen. Alexander Wiley, Wisconsin Republican who lost his bid for re-election to a fifth term Tuesday, said today he does not regard the results of the election as a defeat.

"One is only defeated when he admits defeat," Wiley said in a statement today. "Other opportunities will come to serve our great state and nation in the critical days ahead."

"In a world where the Pope has said it is peace or hell and where communism is on the march, there will be plenty of opportunities for service to God and country for all who sense the challenge of this hour," Wiley said.

He added: "Mrs. Wiley joins me in expressing our gratitude to the selfless group of devoted helpers and over half a million people who wanted to continue me in office."

2 Jackson Co. Officers Lose; Larkin Back

BLACK RIVER FALLS, Wis. (Special)—Two upsets occurred in Jackson County voting Tuesday.

George J. Johnson (D), county clerk since 1954, was defeated by Mrs. Adolph (Alpha) Larvick, who got on the Republican ticket in the primary by write-in votes.

Johnson, who polled 2,189 votes, is retirement age. Mrs. Larvick, receiving 2,682 votes, operated a cafe here with her husband 11 years until his health failed. She now is employed as a bookkeeper.

Mrs. Larvick

The other upset was the defeat of one-termer Alfred Peterson, (R), for sheriff by Julian Larkin, (D), former sheriff. Larkin is now with the Black River Falls police department.

To fill a vacancy Edith M. Muth (R) was elected treasurer over Howard U. Hemmy (D). Mrs. Muth, now deputy treasurer, will succeed Mrs. Georgia Sandahl, who did not seek re-election.

Mrs. Muth

Mrs. Dorothy Meek, clerk of court since 1954, was re-elected over her Republican opponent, Mrs. Martha Van Gorden.

Total Jackson County vote was 5,060, which was described as very good for an off-presidential year. The record vote in Jackson County is a little over 7,000.

As indicated in the following tables, Jackson County voted Republican for governor, U. S. senator and in the assembly race for its favorite son, Merlyn Peterson, former state highway patrolman who is completing his first term in the state legislature. But the county turned to the Democratic column to cast most votes for another resident, Lester Johnson, for Congress.

Lager Elected Wabasha Sheriff

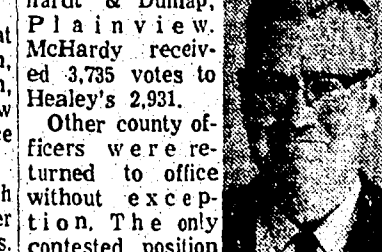

Ed Lager

WABASHA, Minn. — Wabasha County voters turned in traditional Republican majorities Tuesday, casting almost exactly the same number of ballots as they had in the off-year elections four years ago.

Voters elected Deputy Ed Lager sheriff to replace the retiring John Jacobs, a veteran of 28 years in the post. He defeated another deputy sheriff, Marilyn W. Aiken, 3,815 to 2,931.

The incumbent county attorney, Martin J. Healy, who had held the office since 1952, was upset by John A. McHardy, Plainview, a partner in the office of Burkhardt & Dunlap, Plainview.

John A. McHardy

McHardy received 3,775 votes to Healy's 2,931. Other county officers were returned to office without exception. The only contested position was that of county treasurer where Charlie Whitmore, incumbent since 1950, easily outpolled Bryce Carlson, Wabasha, 4,873 to 1,740.

Charlie Whitmore

Two incumbent county commissioners, A. G. Grobe, 2nd District, and Nick Jacoby, 4th District, were re-elected. Grobe, who lives in Millville, defeated Roy F. Heise, Wabasha, 3,755 to 2,943. Jacoby, Wabasha resort owner, 1,936 to 386.

Total votes cast were 6,600, compared with 6,700 in 1958, according to unofficial figures from the county auditor's office. In 1960 Wabasha County registered 8,400 voters.

Gov. Elmer L. Andersen led his DFL challenger, Lt. Gov. Karl Roivaag by a 4-3 margin, 3,830 to 2,913. Roivaag carried three precincts, Kellogg, Wabasha and Reads Landing, with the rest going to the Republican governor.

Cong. Albert H. Quie paced the GOP ticket with 4,039 votes to 2,595 for his DFL challenger, David Graven.

Totals for the lieutenant governorship were nearly the same with Republican C. Donald Peterson getting 3,708 and DFL A. M. "Sandy" Keith 2,934.
