Rescue Crews Bring Out Plane Dead

By THOMAS J. STONE

LIMA, Peru (AP) — Rescue workers labored today at the slow and arduous task of bringing down from a rocky peak the bodies of 97 persons killed in the crash of a Los Angeles-bound Brazilian jetliner. It was aviation history's eighth worst disaster. Nineteen of the dead were listed as Americans. There were no survivors—and no immediate explanation of the crash in good flying weather minutes before the Boeing 707 was to make a pre-dawn landing at Lima's airport Tuesday.

A Peruvian cabinet minister, a high Cuban economic official and a California oil executive were among the 80 passenger victims. The plane carried a crew of 17. The U.S. Civil Aeronautics Board in Washington announced it was sending a high official to join Peruvian authorities in the investigation of the crash. A spokesman said the U.S. agency wants "to learn anything we can from an accident, no matter where it occurs, because these are our planes."

An official of the Brazilian airline, Varig, said "everything was apparently going normally" when the captain suddenly declared, "This is an emergency." Nothing more was known of the plane until its wreckage, scattered over a smoke-blackened area about 200 yards square, was found about 10 hours later on a 2,400-foot hill near the Inca ruins of Pachacamac, 15 miles south of Lima. Twenty of the bodies were brought to a Lima morgue Tuesday night. Rescue workers left until morning the difficult task of lowering the others down the steep sides of the mountain.

Among those who died in the crash was Raul Cepero Bonilla, Cuba National Bank president and a top economic advisor to Prime Minister Fidel Castro. The Peruvian agriculture minister, Maj. Gen. Jesus Melgar, and his wife also were killed. The American victims included Paul A. Best, president of California Crude Sales Co. of San Francisco, subsidiary of Standard Oil of California. A resident of Palo Alto, he would have been 52 today.

Most of the victims were burned or mutilated beyond recognition. The flight originated in Porto Alegre, a southern Brazilian city, but the major pickup of passengers was at Rio de Janeiro. The airline said 10 of the passengers had tickets for Los Angeles. The rest were bound for Latin-American points.

3-M Employee On Peru Jet

ST. PAUL (AP) — Carlos F. Alvarez, 30, St. Paul, an executive at Minnesota Mining & Manufacturing Co., was among the 97 persons killed in the jet airliner crash near Lima, Peru, Tuesday. Alvarez, father of three, was Latin American sales manager for Thermofax copying and microfilm products of 3M-International. He had been employed by the St. Paul firm a year.

Alvarez was a native of Cuba and left there during the Castro revolution. Nineteen North Americans were among those killed in the crash. Others included Robert Morris, 40, and his wife, Helen, of Menomonee Falls, Wis., and Walter Curtis Gardner, 43, Milwaukee.

Kennedy Meeting Mikoyan Thursday

By ENDRE MARTON

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy and Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan are expected to discuss not only Cuba but the full range of the cold-war problems when they meet Thursday at the White House. U.S. officials said the Soviet troubleshooter sent word through Soviet Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin that he wanted to confer with Kennedy.

Dobrynin met Mikoyan Monday on his arrival in New York from Havana and rushed back to Washington that night with the message to the White House. For weeks Mikoyan was in Cuba reportedly trying to prod Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro into accepting a settlement in the crisis. The White House announced Tuesday that Mikoyan would call on Kennedy Thursday, but officials added it was safe to assume they would meet again on Friday.

Indian Troops Move to Front

By ALAN KENNEDY

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—India rushed more troops to strengthen her border defenses today while engaging Communist China on the diplomatic front. U.S. Air Force transports moved men and supplies toward the lines where the Chinese cease-fire continued in effect for the seventh day. Prime Minister Nehru's government was trying feverishly to rebuild Indian forces shattered by the lightning Chinese offensive in the Himalayas. Diplomatic missions were winging to capitals of key African and Asian neutralist nations to plead India's case and to counter Peking's massive propaganda drive. Law Minister A. K. Sen was due in Cairo today to confer with President Gamal Abdel Nasser and was to go to Ghana Friday. Nehru's top deputy for foreign affairs, Mrs. Lakshmi Menon, flew to Rangoon to talk to Burmese leaders before going on to Cambodia, Indonesia and Ceylon.

An hour before Mrs. Menon arrived in Rangoon, Chinese Vice Foreign Minister Huang Chen left for Indonesia after an overnight stay during which he met high army officials and the head of Burma's military government, Gen. Ne Win. Observers waited to see if the Chinese troops would withdraw from the northeast frontier territory and parts of Ladakh on Saturday as they promised to do in their cease-fire proclamation of Nov. 21.

Wilhelmina, Netherlands Queen for 50 Years, Dies

By HENDRICK KERSTING

APELDOORN, Netherlands (AP)—Former Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands, the last of Europe's Victorian queens, died in her sleep at her Het Loo palace early today. She was 82.

Queen for 50 years, she reigned through the zenith of the Dutch empire and exile during the Nazi occupation of her homeland. She abdicated in 1948 as Netherlands' ruler in the East Indies neared its end. Her daughter Juliana became queen.

The former queen had suffered from diabetes and in recent weeks developed a heart condition. A medical bulletin said "despite a slight improvement her condition took a turn for the worse yesterday" and death came at 12:59 a.m.

Queen Juliana was at the palace with her mother, but other members of the family were scattered. Prince Bernhard was with the youngest Princesses Margriet and Marijke at Soestdijk Palace. Princess Irene was visiting in England and Crown Princess Beatrix was in Hong Kong on a world tour.

Princess Beatrix, it was announced, will return home at once cutting short a trip that was to have included Japan and the United States.

Like England's Queen Victoria, Wilhelmina was called to the throne at the age of 18, married a German consort, was a stickler for the formalities and conventions, and practiced homely virtues as an example to her people. Despite her wealth she made a point of thrift, darning her own stockings and taking up needlework.

She devoted almost equal time to the study of theology and supervision of her industrial shares. World War II was a turning point in her life. She escaped to England by warship four days after Hitler's armies invaded her country and spent the war years there except for a trip by bomber to the United States to address Congress and a trip to Canada in 1943 to visit Juliana and her daughters.

She took readily to the democratic way and opened her home in England to the Dutch men and women who flocked from all corners of the globe to join the exile army.

She encouraged the Dutch army to exile and rallied the resistance at home. Sir Winston Churchill called her "the best man among all the kings in exile."

At the war's end she put on her oldest coat and rode a jeep for her triumphant return to the island of Zeeland where bombing had left the sea waters through the dykes.

Conservative officials called her a "Red" when she went on the island and declared that the Dutch East Indies must be given their independence. One of her last official acts was to declare Indonesia equal with the homeland under the crown. But this did not prevent the Indonesians from breaking away finally, setting up their own nation in 1949 and seizing all Dutch businesses in the dispute over New Guinea.

In 1948, after celebrating her golden jubilee, the aging queen abdicated in favor of Juliana and went into retirement. So there would be no question as to who was queen, she took the title of Princess Wilhelmina.

Born Aug. 31, 1880, Wilhelmina was the only child of King William III of the royal house of Orange-Nassau and Princess Emma. She was only 10 when the king died and her mother served as regent until Wilhelmina became 18 and ascended the throne in 1898.

Three years later she married Prince Hendrik, royal duke of Mecklenburg, who died in 1934.

Machinists On Strike At Lockheed

BURBANK, Calif. (AP)—Lockheed Aircraft Corp., one of the giants of the aerospace industry and a key defense contractor, was struck today by the International Association of Machinists.

Even before pickets appeared at more than a half-dozen Lockheed installations there were reports the federal government may intervene by invoking the strike-suspending provisions of the Taft-Hartley Act.

Only two of Lockheed's nine divisions are involved in the strike, but these two employ about two-thirds of the company's work force.

The struck facilities include Lockheed-California Co. plants at Burbank and Van Nuys, and Lockheed Missiles & Space Co. installations at Sunnyvale, Van Nuys and at the Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., missile test center.

Also struck are Lockheed facilities at the Cape Canaveral missile test center in Florida and at Honolulu, Hawaii.

The union says about 20,000 union members are taking part in the strike. It says 31,000 Lockheed employees, including union and non-union workers, are affected.

The company says work on the Polaris missile and other defense items will be slowed but not stopped.

Slight Drop Reported in Living Costs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs as measured by the government declined one-tenth of one percent in October. It was the first retreat recorded during 1962 in consumer price costs.

Somewhat lower store prices for meats, reversing part of a large increase in September, were primarily responsible for the slight decline announced by the Labor Department today in the living cost barometer.

The index dropped to 106.0 percent of the 1957-59 average. On the former 1947-49 base the index was calculated at 130.1.

Arnold E. Chase, price division director of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, said various shifts in prices should result in a further slight decline in November living costs.

Despite the October decline, the living cost increases in immediately preceding months were sufficient to require pay increases for approximately 1 million workers whose wages are partly geared to a quarterly living cost adjustment.

Rise of one cent an hour will go to about 780,000 workers in the auto and auto parts industries, the bulk of them employees by General Motors, Ford and Chrysler.

Court Begins Untangling Minnesota Governor Race

Attorneys Ask Certification For Candidates

ST. PAUL (AP) — Preparations were completed this morning for today's hearing before the State Supreme Court on the Minnesota governorship question.

Two petitions filed by attorneys for Democrat Karl Rolvaag asked, in effect, that he be declared the winner by 68 votes over Republican Gov. Elmer L. Andersen.

Petitions were filed on behalf of Andersen Tuesday, asking that he be named winner of a four-year term by 142 votes.

The crucial question is the disposition of amended vote totals from 10 counties, where errors were detected and new counts submitted to the state canvassing board.

Sydney Berde, attorney for Rolvaag, asked in his petition today that the recounts favoring Andersen in eight counties be thrown out. A separate petition asked that the court uphold a 100-vote clerical error found in Stearns County that reduced Andersen's total by that amount.

Berde made no mention of a 10-vote change in Otter Tail County in Rolvaag's favor. Thus, if the court were to grant his request, Rolvaag would win by 168 votes. Original totals from the 87 counties had Rolvaag the winner by 58 votes. The changes from all 10 counties put Andersen in the lead by 142 votes.

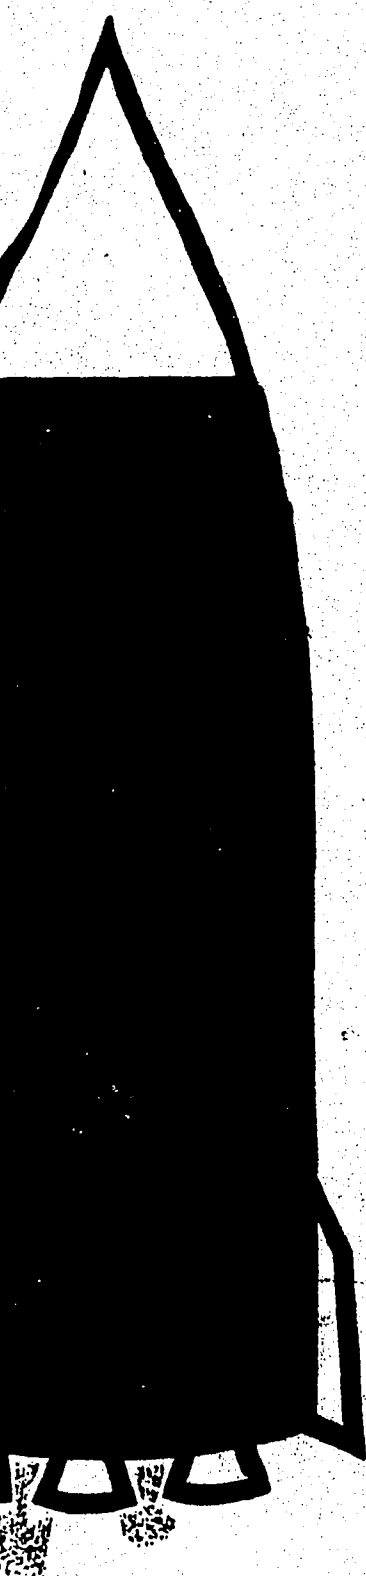

The Supreme Court was to hear arguments on both petitions at 2 p.m.

The matter went to the Supreme Court after the canvassing board failed to declare a winner in the governor race.

The five-member state board was itself unable to agree. Two were for accepting the amended returns and declaring Andersen the winner. Two were against such action and fifth called for immediate referral of the matter to the state high court.

Whatever the court, or board, decides about the winner, a recount is regarded as a certainty because of the narrow margin turned up either way out of the nearly one and a quarter million ballots cast in the Nov. 6 election. Chief Justice Oscar Knutson set the case for 2 p.m. before what, for this hearing, will be a five-member court. Two justices, Martin Nelson and Thomas Gallagher, disqualified themselves because they also are members of the canvassing board.

It was expected study of the questions, arguments by both parties and deliberations of the court could take as long as a week. After the legal problem is resolved, the state canvassers then must make their decision. And the loser has 10 days after to initiate action for a recount. Assuming that a winner cannot be certified by Jan. 8 in view of the probable recount, Gov. Andersen said late Tuesday that he would proceed with plans for the legislature, meeting that day, as though he had been re-elected. Andersen said he would have a departmental budget message ready for the early weeks of the session and also probably would contact individual legislators by letter on the state building program.

$21,400 TO GO . . . With $114,900 reported to date, the Community Chest was within 16 percent of its goal of $136,300 today. Solicitations still are in progress and a special effort is being made to wind up the drive this week. The work of 15 agencies depends on full subscription in the campaign.

Wall Street In Smiles

By JACK LEFLER

AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — They're wearing smiles on Wall Street these days instead of worried frowns.

A sharp change of sentiment has occurred during the last month in the nation's financial center.

The stock market has rocketed ahead, people again are actively buying and selling stocks and brokers are making money.

No one is willing to bet this will be a long continuing situation but some brokers say the public has returned to the market in force after being scared into a prolonged stay on the sidelines by the crash of May 28 and the subsequent price slide. In addition, there has been increased activity by institutions (mutual funds, pensions, etc.) and professional traders.

This seemed to be borne out by high volume on rising prices as the market, measured by the popular averages, made—since Oct. 29—the fastest and steepest rise in history.

Brokers' board rooms are jammed with people, intently watching the ticker tape's jerky march across the translucent screens.

"Last September you could shoot a shotgun in here and wouldn't hit anyone," remarked Eldon A. Grimm, a partner in the brokerage firm, Walston & Co.

Brokers are happy at the rise in trading. If it keeps up through January, some feel they will be able to re-employ staff members and restore services which were cut when the market was in the doldrums.

"A lot of money that was just plain scared to death is coming back in," said Grimm. "The investors want to get on the bandwagon before it runs out of music."

Why the sudden turnabout in sentiment?

Grimm offers this answer: "The Cuban crisis. Suddenly we made a stand at the brink of war and the Communists pulled in their oars a bit. In the last few weeks the idea has taken hold that we don't have to worry about a recession. "Another thing that's helped considerably is the flood of increased dividend rates and extra dividends. It's a happy factor that's restored interest."

Pope Has Flu, Work Lightened

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII's usual Wednesday general audience was canceled suddenly today. The Vatican press office said the 81-year-old pontiff has influenza.

Vatican sources Tuesday night denied reports in Rome newspapers that the pontiff would undergo an operation for prostate trouble before Christmas.

The Vatican sources reported that the Pope had canceled some private audiences with bishops

Tuesday afternoon due to a slight cold. The Vatican press office said today the cold had gone into influenza.

Despite the unofficial denials, Rome newspapers continued to give big headlines to the report that the Pope would undergo surgery. Il Messaggero said an operating room was being prepared in the Vatican Palace and the operation would take place Dec. 11 three days after the Ecumenical Council goes into recess for nine months.

Lyons Recalls 1934 Recount

Believes Runoff Best Answer in Close Race

By ADOLPH JOHNSON

ST. PAUL (AP) — The loser in Minnesota's last statewide recount believes a runoff election would be the proper way to settle the confused state contest for governor.

John T. Lyons, St. Paul businessman and political figure, admitted as he recalled the 1934 recount of votes for state auditor that he was not sure there is any provision by law for another balloting for governor.

Lyons was the 1934 Farmer-Labor candidate for state auditor. He later managed several statewide campaigns and is perhaps best known for his postal card polls.

He discussed the situation from a bed in St. Joseph's Hospital, where he is recovering from a broken hip suffered early this month.

"I really believe the best way to settle the question of who won the office of governor would be another vote," he said.

He recalled that the 1934 recount, started on his petition after Republican Stafford King beat him by a few hundred votes, there were 16,000 ballots counted for neither candidate.

"These were the disputed ballots," he explained. "These were the votes challenged by one side or the other during the recount. And, in the end, neither of us got them because the judge on the case couldn't decide what the voters intended."

Lyons said he knew before the recount was half finished that "I didn't have Chinaman's chance of winning but I had to go through with it. If I had stopped, people would have said I had sold out to the other side."

John T. Lyons

In the 1934 recount, all the ballots from all over the state were brought to St. Paul and stored in the basement of the Commerce Building. Lyons recalled that the man who guarded the ballots was a football player and wrestler named Bronko Nagurski.

A number of teams of counters were employed and they took between two and three months to do the job. As the petitioner, Lyons had to pay the bill, a total of $25,000. Some came from his own pocket and some was raised at party benefits.

"I paid King's counters $1 an hour, the neutral counters also got that rate, but my own work was 75 cents an hour," he remembered.

Lyons said he was satisfied with the results, which increased

King's lead substantially, but that he and others involved were disturbed by evidences of what they believed was fraud and dishonesty in handling ballots.

Lyons remembers that those involved submitted recommendations to the legislature — which were never acted on — and that he concluded that the only way "to be sure that you have an honest election with an honest result is to have voting machines all over."

Mankato Recount Upsets Incumbent

MANKATO, Minn. (AP) — The Blue Earth County canvassing board wants a judge to study 39 disputed ballots before an official declaration is made as to who won election in Mankato to the state House of Representatives.

A recount completed Monday did not satisfy the canvassing board. It showed C. A. (Gus) Johnson Sr., 72, who describes himself as an independent, received 3,616 votes while incumbent Donald E. Swenson, conservative, received 3,579.

In the first official tabulations from the Nov. 6 election, the two candidates tied with 3,598 votes. Swenson won in a drawing and Johnson then requested the recount.

The 39 disputed votes, split about half and half between the two candidates, will be ruled on Thursday by District Judge Milton D. Mason. Swenson would have to pick up all 39 to change the outcome, since Johnson's lead following the recount is 37 votes.

County 4-H Leaders Receive Recognition

Mrs. Harold Cady, Lewiston, received a diamond-studded clover pin and certificate for her 20 years of 4-H service at the 4-H leaders recognition banquet Tuesday night.

The banquet, sponsored by the Winona Chamber of Commerce agriculture committee, was held at the Cathedral of the Sacred Heart.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Felsch, Minnetonka City, were awarded a letter opener and a pin respectively for their 18 years of 4-H service. Mrs. Simmons Pierce, Utica, a leader completing her 15th year, received a pearl-studded clover pin and a certificate for her service.

ABANDONMENT OF Berlin might well lead to the permanent eclipse of democracy in Europe, Gordon R. Cloway, executive editor of the Winona Daily News, told the 200 persons attending. Cloway, a lieutenant colonel in the U.S. Air Force Reserve, described his recent trip to Europe with a group of reservists during which he visited USAF and NATO bases in England, France and Germany, West Berlin and the Berlin Wall.

"OUR DEFENSES in Europe are not perfect," he said, "but are getting better every day, our missiles are pointed and our aircraft are manned by alert young pilots who have their targets memorized and can be airborne in a matter of minutes."

"Khrushchev knows this," he said, "and that no doubt was a big factor in his rapid withdrawal from Cuba. The West Germans, who are prospering but who live in West Berlin under a constant state of tension, are relying on us to support them and were happy about our stand in the Cuban crisis."

"Berlin," he said, "is like an island 120 miles behind the Iron Curtain and with the Russian military buildup all around, probably could be taken by the Russians within a matter of minutes. But our defenses outside the Iron Curtain and our determination to defend freedom on the continent are a deterrent to such a step."

Other leaders honored at the banquet included: Thirteenth year — Malcolm Hobbs, pocket knife, and Mrs. Malcolm Hobbs, 4-H pin, Winona Rt. 3.

Twelfth year (earrings) — Mrs. Cleon Frisch, Minneiska. Eleventh year (tie clasp) — Tim Waby, St. Charles.

Ninth year (letter opener) — Mrs. Cecil Ellsworth, Utica. Eighth year (memo pad) — Mrs. Henry Heublein, Lewiston; Ellsworth Hrkke, Utica; Mrs. Claude Kratz, Stockton; Mrs. Ervin Ahrens, Lewiston; Mrs. Donald Simon, Altura; Mrs. George Schmidt, Winona Rt. 2, and Mrs. Herbert Kreibing, Lewiston.

Seventh year (fingernail file with 4-H emblem) — Henry Teten, Lewiston; Mrs. Leonard Prigge, St. Charles; Ervin Bonow, Lewiston; Claude Kratz, Stockton; Cecil Ellsworth, Utica; Joseph Duane, Lewiston, and Mrs. Joseph Duane, Lewiston.

Sixth year (nail clippers with 4-H emblem) — Mrs. Paul Nahr, gang, Lewiston; Mrs. William Thicke, La Crescent; Mrs. Norman Schossow, Winona Rt. 3, and Mrs. John Waldo, Winona Rt. 3.

Fifth year (silver clover pin and certificate) — Mrs. Wayne Dabelstein, St. Charles; Mrs. Ervin Blumentritt, Winona; William Thicke, La Crescent; Mrs. John Stock, St. Charles; Mrs. Philip Lucking, St. Charles; Wayne Harrison, St. Charles; Mrs. Raymond Kammerer, Winona Rt. 2; Mrs. Darwin Todd, Altura; Cleyson Schultz, Elba; George Meyer, Elba, and Mrs. Cleyson Schultz, Elba.

Those who have served fewer than five years also were honored.

Warm Weather To Continue; Rain Possible

The pleasant weather continues despite the weatherman's prediction of occasional light rain or drizzle.

The precipitation prediction, first made Tuesday, is repeated for tonight and Thursday. Considerable cloudiness and a little cooler through Thursday is forecast with occasional light rain or drizzle tonight and Thursday. A low of 32-38 is seen for tonight and a high of 45-50 for Thursday.

A little cooler with no precipitation is the outlook for Friday.

THE EXTENDED forecast says temperatures Thursday through Monday will be 8 to 14 degrees above average, indicating daytime highs will be 36 to 49 and nighttime lows 18 to 34. Precipitation is expected to average .10 to .25 of an inch in occasional light rain or snow, occurring mostly over the weekend.

The temperature again hit the 50-mark in Winona Tuesday afternoon, dropped to 30 by this morning and was 43 at noon. These temperatures compare with a high of 34 a year ago today and a low of 15.

All-time high for Nov. 28 was 56 in 1881 and the low -19 in 1887. Mean for the past 24 hours was 40, contrasted with the normal of 28.

Winona won a rare distinction today, being the coldest spot in Minnesota. Winona's reading of 30 was the lowest in the state. La Crosse, in Wisconsin, equaled this figure. Even Rochester was warmer, 35, and Bemidji with 40 and Duluth with 39, were far above.

There was only one somber note today in WISCONSIN'S pleasant weather picture — at this time of year it just can't last.

The weatherman, however, said it would last through Thursday. Temperatures would continue unseasonably mild, hitting the 40s and low 50s as they have the past few days.

A high of 51 was recorded at La Crosse Tuesday. Superior had 50, Madison and Park Falls 49, Lone Rock and Eau Claire 48, Beloit and Wausau 47 and Milwaukee, Green Bay and Racine 46.

MINIMUMS early today ranged all the way from 18 at Madison and Lone Rock to 39 in the Superior region. A low of 25 was reported at Green Bay, Wausau and Milwaukee, 26 at Beloit, 28 at Park Falls and 31 at Eau Claire.

Brownsville, Tex., set the national high of 85 Tuesday, compared with the low of zero early today at Butte, Mont.

Lake City Polio Clinic Postponed

LAKE CITY, Minn.—The Type III Sabin oral vaccine clinic to have been held here Friday has been postponed until after Jan. 1.

As there has been a question about the advisability of giving this type and since there is no urgency to give it now, local doctors said they felt waiting until January would be a good idea. No date has been set.

Type II oral polio vaccine will be given in the Mapeza school lunch room Saturday from 5-9 p.m. This follows Type I given Oct. 13. Lake City doctors will be in charge. The cost will be 25 cents per person. All who wish to take it should attend the clinic during the hours designated. No make-up clinics will be held.

'61' Group Urges 2-Cent Increase in Gasoline Tax

WABASHA, Minn.—The Highway 61 Association's steering committee passed a resolution at Wabasha Tuesday afternoon urging a 2-cent increase in the state gasoline tax—from 5 to 7 cents a gallon—so that Trunk Highway 61 and other important state highways can be modernized soon.

The resolution came after Charles E. Burrill, Rochester, Minnesota Highway Department district engineer, said the Kellogg-Wabasha segment of TH 61 couldn't be constructed until the fiscal 1966 year (starting July 1, 1965) because funds won't be available until then.

DELAY IN modernization of TH 61, one of the oldest paved highways in the state, was strongly protested by delegations from Wabasha, Lake City and Red Wing at a luncheon meeting at the Idle Hour Game Farm.

"This year I am spending more than $3 million of my district allotment on Highway 61," Burrill said. "It is going into the La Crescent-Dresbach Dam sector and the Minnesota City-Minneapolis project recently put under contract. This is approximately half the funds made available to the Rochester District for state highway construction. In addition, approximately $8 million in interstate work a year must be done to complete the district program on schedule."

Burrill said detailed plans are available for the Minneiska-Kellogg segment of TH 61. Contracts could be let on short notice if funds were allocated, he said.

His office also is working on preliminary plans for the Kellogg-Wabasha segment of TH 61.

STEERING COMMITTEE members discussed ways of raising money for highway construction—the gas tax increase and Gov. Elmer Andersen's proposal for a $60 million bond issue.

The gas tax increase resolution was introduced by Phil Driff, spokesman for the Red Wing delegation. The resolution, passed unanimously, also pledged the association to wage a campaign in behalf of the gas tax increase.

Burrill said the four-lane Minnesota City-Minneapolis project will involve complete grading and a temporary blacktopped surface on the future two south-bound lanes. Until future contracts complete the job, one of these lanes will be for south-bound traffic and the other for northbound. The present contracts will permit completion of most of the grading on the future two northbound lanes but traffic won't be able to use these lanes until future construction is completed.

FUTURE CONTRACTS are expected to include four-lane bridges over the Whitewater and Zumbro rivers, Burrill said. A possible 1963 project is widening of TH 61 from the end of the present four-lane pavement east of Minnesota City to the junction with TH 248, the Rollingstone road, with a four-lane underpass under the North Western Railway tracks. Charles H. Miller, recently elected Wabasha County representative, pledged his support to the association. Community representatives included:

Red Wing—C. M. Burlin, W. S. Holter, J. M. Adams, Phil Duff, Irving Vick and Robert A. Nybro.

Frontenac—O. V. Holter and Wallace R. Berlin.

Lake City—Glenn Dwell, Victor Bouquet and George Wise.

Wabasha—Peter Drysdale, Harold H. Buckman, B. A. Hennings, Dran L. Plank, Arthur Carlson, Donald and Frank Yaromilek, Joseph Halverson and Ray Young.

Kellogg—Charles H. Miller and Matt Arens.

Winona—H. G. Hymes, who presided, A. J. Anderson and S. N. Kohner.

Minnesota Highway department—Burrill, H. C. Kraus, Goodview, and George M. Sabean, Red Wing.

Sen. Keith Cites Growth Potential in Wabasha Talk

WABASHA, Minn. (Special) — Wabasha has facilities for expansion and unlimited opportunities because of its location on the Mississippi River, Sen. A. M. (Sandy) Keith, lieutenant governor elect, told 40 members of the Chamber of Commerce and their wives at a dinner at Anderson Hotel here Tuesday night.

He complimented the city on its fine St. Elizabeth's Hospital and urged the chamber to take advantage of and develop its facilities.

SPEAKING ON "Minnesota State Government," he deplored the lack of knowledge of governmental processes throughout the state.

The agricultural revolution is destroying small towns, he said, and serious unemployment in the northern part of the state is caused by lack of industrial diversification.

Better travel facilities will be the salvation of Minnesota, he said. He credited the state's fine educational system with the progress the state has made but said more junior colleges are needed. They will help bring industry to Minnesota, he said.

There is no guarantee that taxes can go lower, because of the need for more roads, better education and other needs, he said.

SEN. KEITH said he traveled 30,000 miles by car and 5,000 by air during his campaign for lieutenant governor.

Keith was introduced by Robert Fitzgerald, who was on the dinner committee with Normal Scheel and James D. Abbott, chairman. Dean Plank, chamber president, presided.

Traffic and Game Sentences Set in Buffalo Co. Court

ALMA, Wis. (Special)—A rural Independence man was fined $100 and costs on a charge of drunken driving in Buffalo County police court here Monday.

John R. Dalleska, 760 E. Mark St., Winona, charged with speeding over the nighttime limit of 55 m.p.h., at Alma, driving up to 95 m.p.h., Thursday, was fined $50 and costs. He license was revoked.

GARY L. Flury, Cochrane Rt. 1, was arrested at Alma Nov. 4 on a charge of operating an unregistered vehicle, was fined $16 and costs.

Norbert Burke, Minneiska, Minn., arrested Nov. 11 on Highway 35 at Fountain City on a charge of an arterial violation, was fined $10 and costs.

Joe Schaefer, Cold Springs, Wis., arrested Nov. 17 on County Trunk Y at Fountain City on a charge of inattentive driving, was fined $35 and costs.

Richard Waldum, Black River Falls, arrested Oct. 18 on Highway 35 in Town of Buffalo on a charge of driving 55 miles an hour in a 45-mile zone, was fined $17 and costs.

Doris Ann Killian, 125 E. Broadway, Winona, arrested Nov. 5 in Town of Buffalo on a charge of driving 50 miles an hour in a 45-mile zone, was fined $7 and costs.

Robert Van Beukon Ahrens, 1268 Randall St., Winona, arrested Nov. 5 in Town of Buffalo on a charge of driving 50 miles an hour in a 45-mile zone, was fined $7 and costs.

George Kietzke, Fountain City, arrested Nov. 13 on Highway 35 in Town of Buffalo on a charge of driving 55 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone, was fined $7 and costs.

Michael J. Coz, Wabasha, Minn., was arrested Nov. 17 in Alma on a charge of inattentive driving thereby causing an accident, was fined $50 and costs.

ROBERT SCHULTZ, Gilmanston, arrested in Town of Naples Nov. 1 on a charge of having in his possession a deer carcass with no tag, was fined $50 and costs.

Lyman Peterson, Gilmanston, and Loren Parr and James and Harold Knudston, Mondovi, all arrested Nov. 17 on charges of unlawful transportation of a firearm not enclosed in a case in a car, each was fined $15 and costs. Peterson and Parr were arrested in the Town of Dover, the Knudstons in the Town of Mondovi.

Gerald Jacobson, Chippewa Falls, arrested Nov. 17 on a charge of transporting a loaded firearm, was fined $25 and costs.

Alvin Fehnholz, Arcadia, arrested Nov. 17 on a charge of carrying a firearm in his car not enclosed in a case, was fined $15 and costs. He was arrested in Town of Montana.

Herman Oesau, Mondovi, arrested in Town of Lincoln Oct. 24 on three charges—transporting a firearm in his car not enclosed in a case, transporting part of a deer at a time other than the open deer season and possession of parts of a deer carcass to which a tag was not attached—pleaded not guilty and trial will be Dec. 10 at 1 p.m.

These cases were heard at MONDOVI last Wednesday: Bryan S. Sweeney, Mondovi Rt. 2, arrested at Mondovi Nov. 15 on a charge of running a stop sign, was fined $10 and costs.

Donald Bursaw, Mondovi, arrested Nov. 10 on a charge of reckless driving on Highway 10 near Mondovi, was fined $100 and costs.

Paul Walker, Mondovi, a minor, arrested on a charge of operating a motor vehicle with only a temporary instructor's permit, had his license suspended for 90 days. He will not be permitted to have the right to apply or right to have a permit during this period.

Eyota Mother, Child Injured

EYOTA, Minn.—Serious injuries were received by an Eyota woman and small daughter on an Olmsted County road nine miles east of Rochester Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Kenneth Heim, 25, Eyota Rt. 2, received a brain concussion, bruised chest and cuts about the eye and knee. Nancy, 6 months, received a fractured skull, broken upper arm, and concussion. Both were reported in fair condition at St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester.

A son, Lyndon, 2 1/2, is under observation at the hospital but apparently was uninjured.

According to the sheriff's office, Mrs. Heim was driving west on CSAH when her compact car left the road and slammed into a farm driveway, flipping over on its top. The accident occurred around 8:30 a.m. near the Fred Grasskamp farm 1 1/2 miles from the Heim place.

Rescuers worked about 30 minutes freeing Mrs. Heim from the car, which was nearly squashed.

Elgin Eagles 4-H Wins at Wabasha

WABASHA, Minn. — "Keep It Under Cover," a play presented by the Elgin Eagles 4-H Club, won first place in the second series of Wabasha County 4-H one act play semifinals.

The play won the semifinal contest at the Wabasha High School auditorium Monday night. Approximately 100 attended.

In second place was the Wabasha Girls in Action 4-H Club, which presented "What Are You Going to Wear?" In third and fourth place were the Happy Hoosiers 4-H Club and the Up and Corners.

The last of the semifinal matches is tonight at Plainview High School. The finals will be held in Plainview Saturday with winners from the Wabasha contest, a contest at Lake City Saturday and tonight's semifinals at Plainview.

Nancy was thrown and found a few feet away. Lyndon crawled from the wreckage.

Mrs. Heim is a nurse at Methodist Hospital, Rochester. Her husband is employed by the state Highway Department.

SPEEDER CAUGHT

Police Guard Put On Hospital Room

Winona police today were guarding the hospital room of Richard J. Harwood, 19, 270 E. 5th St., who they say they found on a wild chase through the city at 3:25 a.m. today in what police say was a stolen car.

The youth, with police in hot pursuit, went down Huff Street in excess of 100 miles an hour.

POLICE CAUGHT the youth — a student at Winona State College — only after he had lost control of the car on Stockton Hill, two miles east of the village.

The youth was found 150 feet from the wreck, where apparently he had been thrown, but he has only a slight head injury and it was possible that he might be discharged from Community Memorial Hospital later today. His home is at Chalfield, Minn.

Police Chief George Savard said that Harwood may face a variety of charges when he is discharged. In addition to the possibility of interstate car theft, said Savard, Harwood may be charged with these offenses: Failure to yield the right of way to an emergency vehicle, speeding on Huff Street, driving in the wrong lane of traffic, reckless driving and running three stop signs and two traffic signals.

In addition, said the chief, Harwood has been linked with a truck theft earlier in the evening by fingerprint identification.

Chief Savard said that the car, belonging to Byron Grossell, Fountain City, apparently was taken there not long before the chase. It came to a grinding halt on Stockton Hill after being out of control for 975 feet. For 246 feet of that distance, the car was sliding on its top.

THE NIGHT BEGAN at 1:40 a.m. today when Fountain City police called Winona police to inquire whether a Gamble-Robinson Co. truck found on the street there had been stolen here. It had been.

Later Fountain City police awakened Grossell to tell him that his car was missing. Winona police were alerted and they put a squad car at the Interstate bridge.

The missing car appeared at 3:25 a.m., the chief said. It traveled to 4th Street, turned right on 4th, left on Huff, sped out on the Highway 14-61 intersection, where it turned right but, instead of entering the northbound lane, went into the southbound lane.

Police followed the car west and then out on Gilmore and up Stockton Hill.

On the hill the car went onto the right shoulder and slid sideways, rolled, slid on its top for 246 feet and ended in the right ditch on its wheels.

Sheriff's deputies were called and took Harwood to the hospital.

POLICE ALSO reported finding Frank Uhlig's car, Uhlig, 371 Wilson St., had reported his car stolen Tuesday.

Police found it on Wisconsin Highway 35, one-half mile west of County Road G, near Marsh land. The car, which apparently was not damaged, was found on the north side of the road.

Meanwhile, another car was stolen and found, Richard Radalen, 169 W. Howard St., told police at 12:55 a.m. today that he had parked his car near Charlie's Bar, 117 Main St.

He said that he went into the bar for a package of cigarettes and left the motor running because he did not think that he would be in the bar long. He came out of the bar only moments later and found his car gone.

Police found it just west of Main Street on King Street at 6:17 a.m. today.

AGENCIES COUNCIL TOLD:

Who Can a Social Worker Help?

"A person cannot be helped unless he wants help," Ben Hayenga, executive director, Family Service of Margaret Simpson Home, told the Winona Council of Social Agencies Tuesday night at a meeting at St. Anne Hospice.

Hayenga said a person who wants help should continue under the guidance of a counselor until the person has made a satisfactory adjustment.

"THE FAMILY caseworker is not a psychiatrist. He helps the individual understand himself and to make an adjustment to his own particular life."

"The caseworker acts primarily as a listener and guides the individual to discover his own problems and help himself."

Hayenga said treatment is directed toward the emotional balance of the client. The speaker, whose subject was "Family Counseling in Action," said his agency is ready to serve any family case in Winona on a nonsectarian basis. Families are referred to the Family Service by all local agencies and by individuals. Hayenga said his agency's service did not duplicate services of other agencies. He invited any family having difficulties to come in for counseling.

The agency is a member of the Community Chest.

"MORE AND more families are coming to the Margaret Simpson Home for guidance and counseling," Hayenga said. "Not only are adults seeking solutions to problems for themselves but also for their children. This shows the great need of an agency of this kind in a community of the size of Winona."

The speaker, who urged participation in the Council of Social Agencies program, said the group "is most important in this community, and provides a channel through which discussions and education in the field of social welfare can be discussed on a professional level. This council can be invaluable in informing the public of the services of all agencies."

Hayenga said a mental health center will be an invaluable asset for this community. The center would assist area agencies and schools, he said. He urged members to support a center when one is established in the county. (Last July the County Board of Commissioners decided to establish a mental health center next year on a one-year trial basis.)

MRS. Katherine Lambert, chairman of the Christmas Bureau, urged agencies to send her lists of persons to receive food baskets and other gifts. The council members Mrs. Lambert for her services. She has been bureau chairman since the unit was established by the council 11 years ago.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. J. Richard Felten, chairman of the Committee on the Aging, reported on the Governor's Conference on the Aging. James Anderson, newly elected chairman of the Group Work Association, reported a record registration of 450 at the Christmas Workshop at the YMCA. Anderson's association will study the family and plans to invite the public to meetings.

Mrs. Milton Spencer Sr., council secretary, read these aims and purposes of the council for the benefit of the new members of the council and guests:

"The purpose of this organization shall be to promote the general welfare of the community through such activities as:

"Study of community needs and resources in the field of health and social welfare.

"Cooperative planning of health and social welfare services.

"Promotion of social improvements.

"Development of public understanding in these fields."

SISTER M. JUDE, O.S.F., local superior at the hospice, was hostess at the council meeting. She welcomed guests on behalf of the hospice. She and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. D. D. Tierney, hospice chaplain, conducted a tour of the building. A social hour followed the meeting.

Introduced at the meeting was Miss Effie Barnholt, administrative assistant, Community Memorial Hospital, who invited the council to hold the next meeting in the hospital auditorium.

More than 100 persons attended — council members, directors of the Community Chest and guests.

It Happened Last Night Bloodless Battle Over Zsa Zsa

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Zsa Zsa Gabor and her new husband Herbie Hutner were in P. J. Clarke's 3d Ave. bar when Bob Straile, the man Zsa Zsa didn't marry, came over talking and swinging — and missed.

It was a bloodless battle. People sort of parted them. Nobody got hurt — or hit.

A well known society blonde was nervous about the whole thing. She said her family would not approve of her being in a fight. Especially her husband, who was home waiting up.

"Was nutting," Zsa murmured later. "Was just Bob was upset I married. Is not a bad boy, just his heart was broken."

"To make a go of my marriage," Zsa added, "I called off my movie with Paul Newman and Joanne Woodward. Wasn't easy!"

Straile says she's just trying to make him jealous.

Robert Goulet expects the amicable divorce within a few months, then he'll be eligible again.

Mervyn Guffin's got a funny but friendly remark about "what Jack Paar's really like" on his TV warmup.

Connie Towers and husband Gene McGrath are here, quite happy, and astonished at rumors they weren't. "Goodness!" says Connie. "A B'way stage star is about to be barred from his favorite saloon — again."

We hear the "Girl Talk" TV show with Virginia Graham m.c.'ing is likely to open up a lot of ears.

SHAPELY JULIE Newman's proving one of the most eloquent apostles of the Actors Studio these days. "It's the dominating acting influence in the world today!" she says excitedly. "Theaters have been archaic until now. Can you imagine how much better opera would be if opera singers had studied 'The Method' instead of being so stiff, screwing up their eyebrows and all that?"

Julie and Tina Louise are both selling tickets to the big Actors Studio closed-circuit benefit at Carnegie Hall, July 10. Julie says, "The studio is kind of like a church — we call it 'The Shrine'."

Vaughn Meader and the entire "First Family" (17 people — the whole family including Caroline!) will do a personal appearance Jan. 5 at Carnegie Hall. "The 'Little Me' ticket advance sale, $900,000 when the show opened, has now passed $1,000,000."

"When I was in Paris," says Jackie, "I didn't waste my time going to art museums. I did something important—learned to drink wine."

Foreign Students Visit Blair Area

BLAIR, Wis. (Special) — Two foreign students who are studying at church schools in the Midwest were guests of friends here during the Thanksgiving recess.

Lawrence Chor accompanied Paul Johnson from Forest City, Iowa, where they are students at Waldorf College to be a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Johnson. Chor's home is in Hong Kong, China.

James L. Tobing, student at Luther College, Decorah, Iowa, was a guest at the Ray Bluske home. Tobing is married and the father of two children. The family lives in Indonesia where Tobing's father is a pastor. He was sent by the church to study languages at Luther College.

Lana Bluske, daughter of the Bluskes, is also a student there.

Taking School Post

Kellogg Policeman To Make Last Round

KELLOGG, Minn. (Special) — Kellogg's policeman for 25 years is giving up his lonely night job for an entirely new kind of life—he will be janitor at the new elementary school here beginning Saturday.

Jesse Schouweiler will patrol the quiet streets of the sleeping village for the last time Friday, hoping they will be as quiet as most of them have been for more than a quarter of a century. But

IN SEASON, a flock of geese may squawk overhead; buildings creak in frosty air, the sound magnified many times by the stillness, and a semitrailer north of southbound on Highway 61 through the village may give him a short blast on the horn.

Fortunately, his record of break-ins is small. There have been only six in town during his 26 years on the job. The major one was the time four men broke the window in the old liquor store one night and took a couple of half-pints.

Schouweiler heard them and one shot three times at him. Then they took off in a car but they were apprehended later in Minneapolis.

Most exciting and busy nights for him were dance nights or during slippery weather when semis failed to make the sharp curves over the viaduct and he would summon help to get them righted again after they rolled over the steep bank.

Schouweiler took the job as policeman when an emergency arose. The village needed someone for the job and he accepted it. He has taken a short course for policemen sponsored by the FBI at Winona.

KELLOGG's policeman is leaving the lonely and sometimes unhappy life of keeping watch during the dark hours of night for one that is sure to be much livelier among the young fry attending the new school.

Schouweiler always has lived in this area. He and his wife have two sons, Kenneth, employed in St. Paul, and Ronald, at home, and one daughter, Mrs. John (Carol) Braun, Kellogg.

City of Whitehall Levy Down, But Total Taxes Up

WHITEHALL, Wis. (Special) — With the adoption of the proposed 1963 budget for the city of Whitehall, the general property tax was set at $51,123, which is $85 less than the 1962 tax of $51,208.

The state tax is $1,164, $5.31 more than the 1962 tax. The school tax, which includes the state trust fund loan, is $92,334, an increase of $7,199 over the previous year. The county tax levy is $55,236, an increase of $4,028 over the 1962 tax of $51,208.

The 1963 total is $199,558, an increase of $9,875 over the last year's total of $189,683.

Expenditures in the 1963 budget are $115,417, including $10,750 for general government; $20,000, protection of persons and property, and $38,400 for highways, bridges, machinery and garage.

Revenues other than property tax for the coming year are anticipated at $64,294.

In other business at the Monday evening meeting of the Common Council, it was announced that the city has purchased a one-way snow plow at a cost of approximately $600. The plow is to be mounted on one of the city-owned dump trucks.

Voice of the Outdoors

Unsafe Ice
A fisherman who walks on unsafe ice and gets his feet wet has no one to blame but himself. He should and does know better. He also has the means of testing the ice, with his spud, as he advances to that selected crappie hole near the big stump.

However, Carl W. Moen, state water safety director, has asked us to publish a warning, mainly aimed at parents, so they will point out the hazard of newly formed ice to their children. It is the venturesome youngster who is in the greatest danger.

Monday afternoon when there was a plastic-like coating over Lake Winona, not strong enough to hold some of the gulls there, we observed several groups of youngsters along the edge testing the ice with their weight. Most of them probably got wet feet.

Quite a few river sloughs had an ice covering Sunday although we saw no ice fishermen out. Open water fishing is still the main attraction. Walleye and sauger have been hitting below the dams and in the holes directly below the windmills. The deep holes cut by the current around the end of these old sunken structures appear to be best. The dams can be located easily at the present stage of the river which is slightly below pool level.

Refuge Open
Despite the announcement of the State Conservation Department that the closed areas of the Upper Mississippi Wild Life and Fish Refuge will be closed to deer hunting during the coming bow and arrow season, Don Gray, refuge manager, declares the closed areas will be open.

"Restrictions, heretofore in effect during the duck season," he said, "were lifted with the close on that season on hunting and trapping but are in effect on geese until Nov. 29."

in Wisconsin and Dec. 4 in Minnesota when the goose season ends." So the coming weekend is the last one for cornfield goose hunting.

Fire Proofing Trees
After testing several products and chemicals designed to make Christmas trees fire resistant, research workers at the federal forest research center at Madison, Wis., have concluded that the best method is to render the tree as turgid (water filled) as possible.

Best method found was to saw off one-half inch or more of the bottom of the trunk and place the tree in a pail of water for two or three days before decorating it.

It was also found that it helped to spray the tree with water several times while it is soaking since trees take in water through their leaves or needles and through the bark as well as through the roots and trunk.

13 Warning Signs
Put Up in Kansas
OLATHE, Kan. (AP)—Thirteen warning signs were installed Tuesday at an intersection of U.S. 56 and U.S. 169 where three have been killed in smashups this month.

Seven signs warn of the up-coming four-way stop.

Two spell out the 30-mile speed limit.

Four outside stop signs were added, including one with a flashing warning light.

After the work was done, 12 vehicles failed to heed the stop signs in a 15-minute period.

Stills Being

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Hunters in Florida's woods have been asked to keep an eye out for moonshine stills as they look for game. State beverage director Tom Lee said hunters' tips helped the department destroy 671 stills last year.

Caledonian Wins 4-H Scholarship

CALEDONIA, Minn. — Houston County has a national winner in the 4-H poultry awards program. He is 21-year-old Gordon Sylling, Caledonia Rt. 1, one of six winners in this program, and the recipient of a $400 college scholarship donated by Heisold & Nelson Farms, Inc.

Sylling received the award during the 41st National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.

The national winner who is presently farming is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. Sylling. A 10-year member of 4-H, Gordon is a charter member of his club, the Caledonia Rockets, which was founded in 1952.

Turkey raising has been the most profitable enterprise for Gordon during his 4-H career. During the eight years that he has been a turkey farmer, he has realized a profit of $9,700. In seven years, he has grown some 13,600 turkeys in his project.

Among the numerous awards and recognition he has received in competition in poultry is a purple ribbon, won for the champion poultry demonstration at the Minnesota State Fair, plus three blue ribbons and one red ribbon awarded for other state fair demonstrations.

The national winner has been a Junior leader for six years working with a club ranging in membership from 19 to 36. He has served his local club as reporter, secretary and president, and the county 4-H Club as 4-H beef supervisor and vice president.

Co-op to Meet At Waumandee Hall on Saturday

WAUMANDEE, Wis.—Two directors will be elected Saturday at 11 a.m. at the Garden Valley Co-op Creamery's annual meeting at Zeller's Hall here.

Terms of Elden Schmidtmeyer and Lloyd Haigh have expired. The financial statement for the year ending Sept. 30 will be presented. Amendments to the by-laws will be introduced. These amendments would make the by-laws conform with the new tax laws now in effect.

A free dinner will be served at noon by the women of St. Boniface Church.

Pleasant Hill FU To Meet on Friday

Members of the Pleasant Hill Farmers Union will hear reports on the 1962 state FU convention, see a film on Hawaii and discuss local issues at a meeting Friday at 8:30 p.m. in Pleasant Hill Town Hall.

After the meeting there'll be a social hour and lunch will be served.

Workers Invite Boss to Dinner

CHICAGO (AP)—Workers treated their bosses to a dinner Tuesday night in a friendly spirit fostered by 52 years without a strike.

The union and the company drew a salute from President Kennedy.

They received word that they will be the first entrants in the U.S. Department of Labor's new Hall of Honor.

The Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America (AFL-CIO) put on the dinner in the Drake Hotel to celebrate the 75th anniversary of Hart Schaffner & Marx makers of men's clothing.

The union fought the bill and played host to 500 diners, including company officials, civic leaders, Gov. Otto Kerner of Illinois and Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago.

President Kennedy sent a message saying that within a man's lifetime "we have achieved the prospect of labor and management working together for the benefit of both in an atmosphere of mutual respect."

Secretary of Labor Willard Wirtz told the guests that the Hall of Honor will be established in a paneled third-floor corridor of the Labor Department to commemorate notable chapters in the history of labor-management relations.

Chest Still $25,000

Short of Goal

AS THIS IS WRITTEN, Winona's 1962 Community Chest fund drive is some $25,000 shy of its goal of $135,370.

This is about 82 percent of the budget set months ago by a frugal and hard-headed budget committee for the Community Chest agencies for 1963 operations.

This is good, very good—but not good enough.

Hundreds of volunteer workers have given uncounted hours to bring this drive to the 100 percent mark. Many hundreds more, individual and corporate, have given generously for the same cause. No doubt others still plan to give, or have made pledges not yet turned in.

But we are still short of the goal.

In this season, when our own blessings and good fortune are bought home to us, it would be a good time to write those Community Chest checks or complete the pledges and get them counted.

THE SERVICES of 15 fine health, welfare and recreation agencies are counting on your support. It's not too late to give. Do it now, won't you?

Highway 61 Interests Should Bear Down

OUR BUSINESS took us the other day into the Minneapolis headquarters of the Minnesota State Automobile Association (AAA). So we sought out the travel routing department and brought up a question which has bothered many tourist-conscious businessmen along the Wabasha-Lake City-Red Wing-Hastings route.

"Is it true," we asked, "that you advise motorists against routing their trip along this part of the Mississippi because U.S. 61 is such a poor highway?"

Absolutely not, came the reply, and with a good deal of emphasis, Minnesota AAA insists that, when a member shows up asking travel advice from the Twin Cities east to Chicago or beyond, he is given three alternate suggestions with the pros and cons of each. These are:

- 1) Interstate 94 and U.S. 12, through Hudson and points east. The double-lane divided highway makes for easy driving, but there are still 137 miles of old, unimproved two-lane U.S. 12. Since the big trucks generally hit for interstate highways, big semis really clog up those 137 miles where the interstate highway isn't yet built.
- 2) U.S. 61 down the Mississippi to Winona, then U.S. 14 to La Crosse and east. This is labeled the scenic route, but motorists are warned of the narrow, curving pavement and possible fog conditions in winter.
- 3) U.S. 52 to Rochester, then U.S. 14 east. Slightly longer, this route is described as an alternate but a preferred winter route.

CURIOUSLY ENOUGH, there's very little difference in miles. AAA figures the Minneapolis to Madison distance at 281 miles on No. 1, 282 on No. 2, and 293 on No. 3 with the current detour to Hastings.

Most annoying to Minnesota AAA is the way a lot of eastern agencies route motorists from Chicago to the Twin Cities. They are advised to drive straight west to Dubuque, Iowa, and then up U.S. 52 through Rochester. That's the worst possible route in the eyes of Minnesota AAA because the long Iowa stretch of U.S. 52 is just plain lousy.

Answering our query about U.S. 61 routings, however, our AAA informants made it clear that these new interstate highways are powerful magnets. Interstate 94 pulls a lot of motorists up through Hudson instead of Hiawatha Valley. And that attraction will get stronger as more of the Chicago-Twin Cities interstate route is completed through Wisconsin.

WHAT SHOULD Highway 61 interests do? Bring all your influence to bear, AAA's travel routers replied, to get U.S. 61 rebuilt the whole distance as soon as possible! — Red Wing Daily Republican Eagle.

How Do You Stand, Sir?

U.S. Authority Grows Rapidly

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

Unlimited government and the prodigious growth of federal authority has confined American freedom in many different ways.

For example, it has resulted in the obviously unconstitutional shackling of the American farmer. This has been done with so-called aid-to-agriculture laws that aid nobody, but swallow more than $5 billion annually of the taxpayers' money and create high prices for the consumers.

The problem, when the federal government first invaded the agriculture industry, was declining farm income. Now we have production controls that restrict individual freedom and create huge crop surpluses, high consumer prices and the gigantic farm-subsidy tax burden as well. But the lot of the farmer has not been improved.

The federal government in recent years has usurped many powers wrongly through various measures evading constitutional mandate. But in this instance—agriculture—distortion of the Constitution's plain meaning is perhaps the broadest and most flagrant on record.

In the field of relations between the men who work—management and labor—the federal government has disgracefully weighted the scales of political and economic power in favor of the sometimes corrupt and grafting heads of the great labor unions. Today, as a consequence of federal law and federal executive policies these union leaders control the economic power to halt factory production—defense industry included—on a national scale with a nod of the head. They hold political power to elect almost any candidate for political office they choose, or to unseat good public servants as well.

ARMED WITH THE vast powers created by our drift toward socialism, the federal government has executed, and persists in continuing, policies visible leading to disaster. A relationship between government and business has been created—the so-called business climate—which is so unhealthy that unemployment persists and economic growth has slowed to a crawl.

And no wonder. On the one hand, the federal government now in office pushes through an increase in the minimum wage structure; on the other, it urges business to hold down prices to prevent further inflationary pressures. On one hand, it proposes balancing of the national budget; on the other, it proposes a gigantic schedule of new government-spending projects which make such a balance impossible.

WE SEE ALL these legislative and executive measures carried forward in the name of progress, the humanities, the New Frontier, and of a drive to stimulate economic growth and provide more jobs. The proponents cry that to frustrate their blundering is to commit the mortal sin of being old-fashioned, out of step with changing times or unfeeling and cold to the welfare and prosperity of American citizens.

Yet the patients in whose behalf the New Frontier doctors claim to function—job expansion, national economic growth and inflation control—never seem to get well.

The angry critics of basic Republican doctrine—who charge Republicanism with living in or wanting to return to the past—are badly confused. They confuse the intelligent process of examining the past, or learning through hard experience clearly recorded in history, with a standstill status and attitude which no good Republican advocates.

WE REPUBLICANS know that the entire human race, no less than the individual, must learn from the past, for we have no other guideline by which we can project the future.

The lesson, clearly to be learned, brings the conviction that true doctrine of the Republican Party, made effective in government, will restore and maintain individual freedoms through the limiting of big government.

How do you stand, sir?

WHITE ELEPHANT?

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Ex-Newsman, Now Brass, Tough on His Profession

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — There is much more than meets the eye in the row between the press and the Pentagon over news censorship for which the President is getting his ears pinned back by some irate members of the fourth estate.

On the surface it is a feud between Arthur Sylvester, assistant secretary of defense, and his former buddies of the Gridiron Club et al. of which he was an alert and eager member while covering Washington for the Newark (N.J.) News.

When the shoe is on the other foot with newspapermen they are always tough on their own profession, and Art Sylvester, now the harassed but dedicated bureaucrat, has been both efficient and tough in cracking down on military news leaks to his former colleagues.

In this he has the full support of the President, with whom he toured New Hampshire in the snow and sleet of that early 1960 primary when nobody really took John F. Kennedy seriously except himself, his father, and a few people like Art Sylvester. JFK remembers this and is not one to go back on old friends.

But much more important with JFK than friendship and more important to the country than a mere squabble between an ex-newspaperman and his former colleagues is the basic question of whether the U.S. military remain part of the civilian government loyal to their commander-in-chief.

Let it be noted at the outset that, in my opinion, some 90 percent of the military are loyal, devoted, underpaid public servants ready to give everything for their country. But there is a small, vocal and at times powerful minority which has grown of late, which has barged into the job of foreign policy as if they considered themselves the secretary of state and have undercut their commander-in-chief as if they were generals of the Argentine army undercutting President Frondisi.

This has just happened just as much under Republican presidents as under the present Democrat; though Republican congressmen who now accuse Kennedy of censorship forget that fact.

I vividly recall Adm. Joseph M. Reeves leading to the press during the Coolidge naval conference in Geneva and together with William Baldwin Shearer (paid $40,000 by the steel companies and the shipbuilders) trying to undercut the disarmament policies of the civilian commander-in-chief, a Republican.

And I recall in the Hoover administration how Adm. Hilary P. Jones growled privately to newsmen about the arms reduction policies of his commander-in-chief, also a Republican, thereby causing disruptive news stories to be published such as those which President Kennedy and Assistant Defense Secretary Sylvester today seek to prevent.

Under both Truman and Eisenhower this bargaining of the military into foreign policy increased. The most spectacular case was Gen. Douglas MacArthur's undercutting of President Truman's foreign policy regarding Formosa which ended in his dismissal.

Much more important, though less spectacular, has been the huge public relations budget handed the military to promote more armament and disruptive news that justify armament. The military this year has $31,000,000 to spend on public relations to educate the country on war while the State Department has a budget of only $1,500,000 to educate the country on ways to win the peace.

This vast military public relations budget is why some editors, chiefly of the Scripps-Howard chain, are crabbing because newsmen were not given junkets to Guantanamo during the Cuban crisis. In the past the Pentagon has been so lavish with these public relations junkets that a correspondent could get a personally conducted tour to Thailand and back, all expenses paid, in order to glorify American armed might.

This is not by way of saying that much of our military achievements should not be praised or even glorified. I repeat that some 90 percent of the American military are devoted, and dedicated.

But I also repeat that they have no business leaking stories either to the press or to congressmen who undercut the peace efforts of their commander-in-chief and his secretary of state during a delicate negotiation over missiles in Cuba, or for that matter at any other time.

Astronaut John Glenn stopped off at a Washington restaurant the other day with press aide Ford Eastman. The waiter took their orders, scribbled something on his pad, then thrust a note under Glenn's nose.

"I'm just an ordinary American with seven kids, and I'd like to have your autograph for them," the note read.

As Glenn wrote his autograph for the waiter, he declared: "There's no such thing as an ordinary American."

White House Dictatorship?

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — America today has a virtual dictatorship in the White House.

For, "by one stroke of the pen," President Kennedy has just put into effect a "law" of his own to ban discrimination in housing.

Congress six times has refused to pass such a law, and Sen. Sparkman of Alabama, Democrat, warned on Oct. 9 that such an executive order as has now been issued would be unconstitutional because an executive order cannot supersede a plainly expressed wish of Congress. Mr. Sparkman told the Senate at the time: "If there is a prevalent national desire to kill our federal housing programs, this would be a way to do it."

The President's action is not authorized under any previous law of Congress or by any provision in the constitution. Yet, under the new order, citizens now will be subject to "such civil or criminal action" as the attorney general "may deem appropriate" if they do not conform to the rules and regulations to be issued by "each executive department and agency subject to this order."

The order itself prohibits discrimination because of "race, color, creed, or national origin in the sale, leasing, rental or other disposition" of certain residential properties and related facilities — though privately owned. The discrimination is prohibited if federal funds have been involved in the purchase, construction or operation of any of these properties. This applies also to the insuring or guaranteeing of loans by the federal government.

Nearly half of the houses and apartment projects built nowadays are financed by FHA or veterans administration loans. So the construction industry may soon feel a serious impact from this order.

Today the "law" concerns only mortgage money obtained under programs insured or guaranteed by federal agencies, but tomorrow the same "authority" may be invoked to bar a citizen from getting a mortgage loan at a bank or at a savings and loan institution unless he agrees to give up his inalienable right to dispose of his property to whom he pleases or to lease it to persons of his own choosing.

THE UNFAIRNESS of racial discrimination is widely recognized, but the remedy does not lie in an unconstitutional or illegal use of executive power. There are lots of difficult problems that face the executive, but solutions will never be found in "an audacious usurpation of power," as Sen. Stennis of Mississippi, Democrat, calls the new executive order. Sen. Robertson of Virginia, Democrat, characterizes it as "absolutely unconstitutional," and as having been issued for reasons of "political expediency."

Sen. Jacob Javits of New York, Republican, applauds it as do others in Congress who believe "the end justifies the means."

The phrase "by one stroke of the pen" was frequently used by Mr. Kennedy in the presidential campaign of 1960 when he criticized President Eisenhower for failing to issue the same kind of executive order that now has been promulgated. Mr. Kennedy evidently feels he has the right to sign such an order barring discrimination in any private project that receives a federal loan or federal assistance of any kind. Does it also become a President's privilege to specify how many employees of each race or religion or color or national origin shall work in a defense plant, or how many pupils in those categories shall attend private schools that happen to have mortgages directly or indirectly financed by banks or private institutions which are under federal supervision—as most of them happen to be?

THE NEW executive order doesn't cite a single federal statute as legal authority for the action taken. It mentions instead such broad phrases as "the public policy of the United States as manifested in its constitution and laws." The President's order also says that the executive branch of the government has the "abil-

Former Resident Enjoyed Stories of Waumandee

To the Editor:

Just yesterday I received a copy of the Nov. 4 Sunday News. Your articles about my home town of Waumandee were magnificent! A copy was forwarded me by my brother, Roland Hogan, at whose farm my husband and I spend a month each summer.

When you mentioned Wisconsin's richest valleys—may I add one of our country's most beautiful valleys, too. We have traveled throughout the United States and Canada and there is no place comparable to Waumandee's green rolling farm land. I am partial to Irish Valley as this is where I spent my childhood.

Kindness and hospitality rank first among the many other good qualities of this community. It is rewarded by the true "community feeling" that is present there. The wonderful interest in their churches reflects a confident community. It expresses the thoughtfulness in giving back to God what he has given us in the first place. Waumandee's blessings are countless!

Father Hudnik and the many others whose names and faces are very familiar to us, mentioned in your paper, are to be congratulated for the fine work they are doing in keeping with the traditions of the Waumandee Valley, the greatest place in the world to me.

Our thanks for the very fine article. Your newspaper is an excellent addition to your community. It is people like those who live in Waumandee and the surrounding community that make America the greatest land of all.

gation and duty to assure that those laws are fairly administered and that benefits thereunder are made available to all Americans without regard to their race, color, creed, or national origin."

But once the federal government has any connection, however remote, with a loan to a contractor or prospective owner of a house, does the fact that such a loan has been made give the executive branch of the government authority for all time thereafter to regulate the sales and leases made by tenants who may become owners of the property? When the federal government guarantees or insures a loan, does it have the right to coerce contractors and citizens generally to do its bidding—assuming that the terms of the loan have been met by the payment specified?

NASON ON EDUCATION

Method of Study Aids Confidence

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed.D.
Professor of Education,
University of Southern California

How much study is enough? The most successful students have learned from experience that it's the method of study rather than the amount that produces satisfactory grades on an examination.

Yet, when exams approach, pre-test jitters will lead many students into frantic study. Many stay up all night just before the tests.

They go over their textbooks and notes time after time, searching for some detail they may have missed. They fear they will arrive at the examination to find they have studied the wrong things.

This is scarcely the frame of mind in which to write a good examination.

There are three ways to tighten up your study methods and help eliminate much of the nervous apprehension that precedes exams.

• First, all study should start with an overall review of the materials that have been covered. The student must have some general organization such as an outline to serve as a guide.

• Second, the student should get some idea of what his teacher considers important and, if possible, the type of exam to be given.

• Third, he should enter the examination rested and with a definite plan of procedure for taking it.

Here are some procedures that will help you enter exams confident that you have studied enough.

• In courses such as economics, sociology and psychology, the author's table of contents and major headings within the chapters may be used as a guide.

Formulate and answer questions from each topic and you will be sure that you have not omitted any major concept.

Check your notes for ideas not covered in the textbook.

• In courses such as mathematics, physics, chemistry or accounting, problem analysis is the key to test mastery.

When you can lead through the test from problem to problem and answer the following questions in each case, you can enter the examination with confidence:

What principles were used in solving these problems?
How can I tell from the wording of the problem the principles to be used?
What are the processes of solution and how should it be written?

I have known students who checked each assignment in this manner and completed the final review in as little as 20 minutes, entered the exam with confidence and attained high grades.

• In biological science, organic chemistry and other courses involving many details, a short outline of major concepts is essential to a systematic review.

Once this outline has been constructed, it forms the basis for a review which will leave you with a feeling of having fully covered the subject.

U.S.-Russian Talks Resume On Cuban Crisis

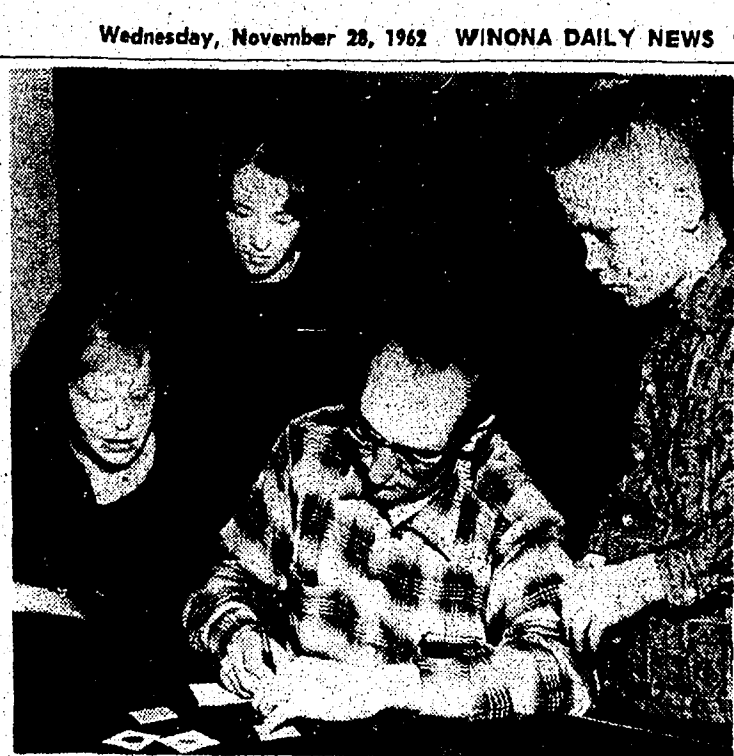

By TOM HOGE
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — U.S. and Soviet negotiators on the Cuban crisis return to the bargaining table today for the first time in six days.
U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson discussed the situation with President Kennedy in Washington Tuesday, then flew back to New York for the meeting with Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov and possibly First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan.
Mikoyan is scheduled to meet Kennedy in Washington Thursday on the Cuban crisis and probably will confer later with Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

Stevenson and John J. McCloy, head of Kennedy's Cuban coordinating committee, were reported anxious to find out what stand Mikoyan would take before he meets with the President.

The U.S. negotiators talked with Mikoyan Monday night at a dinner given by Acting Secretary-General U. Thant, but Stevenson said it was mainly a social gathering.

The Soviet troubleshooter returned to New York Monday after 24 days in Havana.

Havana radio said Mikoyan, in a farewell letter, told Prime Minister Fidel Castro: "The complete support of the Soviet Union, of the brother family of the socialist countries and of all progressive humanity is at your side in this noble fight."

Stevenson was expected to press the Soviets to carry out Premier Khrushchev's proposal for international inspection to insure that all Soviet missiles have been removed from Cuba and the missile bases dismantled.

you never know, he said, you have to be prepared for anything.

2 Iowans Take Tops Honors in Livestock Show

CHICAGO (AP) — Iowans captured the two top spots in steer competition in the International Livestock Exposition. A South Dakota steer placed third.

The grand champion was shown by Lyle Miller, 33, of Osceola, Iowa, winning over more than 700 entries in the annual competition Monday.

Kaye Pollock, 17, of Mount Auburn, Iowa, took reserve grand champion honors with her 900 pound shorthorn senior calf. Miss Pollock had the grand champion in 1960.

The third steer, a summer yearling Hereford, was shown by Don Geppert, 23, of Kimball, S.D. The steer was named champion of the Hereford breed.

The heaves go on sale Thursday. Grand champions at the exposition have brought as high as $30 a pound or a total of $31,050.

BOYLE'S COLUMN

Eye Trouble For Half of Americans

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Half the American people have some sort of eye trouble.

One big reason why only 20 per cent of medical students plan to become general practitioners is that they make only about $16,000 annually but specialists earn about $35,000.

Weather forecasting by kites was introduced in 1700 by Dr. Alexander Wilson of Glasgow. The U.S. Weather Bureau also sent its thermometers aloft in kites until 1930, when it switched to high-altitude balloons.

There was such a thing as a 53 bill. It was issued by the Republic of Texas in the 1840s.

If America ever adopts the metric system, think what it will do to some of our familiar expressions: "A miss is as good as 1.6093 kilometers." "I wouldn't touch him with a 3.049 meter pole!"

Only 9 per cent of the U.S. employed population works on farms, and our problem is food surpluses. In the Soviet Union 48 per cent of its workers labor on farms, and their problem is food shortages.

"Man is an animal that makes bargains; no other animal does this—no dog exchanges bones with another"—Adam Smith.

Among new paper products being developed are fire-and-water-resistant uniforms; shirts that can be worn once and discarded; non-skid, long-wearing, frost-proof coatings for highways.

Some 40 viruses are believed involved in the common cold. That's why science is having such a hard time coming up with an all-purpose cure.

Researchers have found that, because of poor listening habits, most people forget in two days up to 75 per cent of what they hear. But is that such a bad idea—considering what they hear?

Frogs can catch athlete's foot. The king of hearts is the only king in a 52-card deck who doesn't wear a mustache as well as a beard. The cleanest air is over deserts. President Zachary Taylor never voted until he was 62.

It was Don Herold who observed, "Pleasure is more trouble than trouble."

Why "Good-Time" Charlie Suffers Uneasy Bladder

Unwise eating or drinking may be a source of mild, but annoying bladder irritations—making you feel restless, tense, and uncomfortable. And if restless nights, with nagging backache, headache or muscular aches and pains due to over-exertion, strain for emotional upset, are adding to your misery—don't wait—try Doan's Pills.

Doan's Pills act 3 ways for speedy relief. 1—They have a soothing effect on bladder irritations. 2—A fast pain-relieving action on nagging backache, headaches, muscular aches and pains. 3—A wonderfully mild diuretic action thru the kidneys, tending to increase the output of the 15 miles of kidney tubes. So, get the same happy relief millions have enjoyed for over 60 years.

For convenience, ask for the large size. Get Doan's Pills today!

DEAR ABBY:

Mother! Slow Up Your Daughters

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: I'm mad! I hope you'll publish this. It might wake up some of these pushy parents. Why don't they let their children enjoy their childhood instead of rushing them into adulthood? My daughter is barely 12. She is in the sixth grade in public school. Every Friday is "dress up" day. I let her wear her good silk dress, little heels, no makeup. Bless my soul if some of her little friends didn't show up in spike heels! One girl admitted they were her mother's. They wore scoop necklines, make-up, mascara, nylon and the works! Now my daughter thinks we are "babying" her because she can't dress like the other girls. How does a mother fight this trend?

DEAR ABBY: One of the most difficult jobs of a responsible parent is to follow his own convictions and ignore the persistent pleadings of a child who wants to "be like the other kids." This letter, from a reader, says it better than I.

DEAR ABBY: Please tell mothers whose daughters beg to "be like the others girls" to take care. My mother was "old-fashioned." No make-up until I was 16 and then very sparingly. No heels or nylons until my last year in high school. I wasn't allowed to "go steady" in high school and I had to be in my midnight when I had a date. I wept and felt "babied," but now I am grateful for my mother's good sense. The girls I envied and who were allowed to look 20 when they were 15 are now bored, bitter and burned out. Many are already divorced at 22! I graduated from college in June, and am engaged to be married at Christmas. If a mother wants to do her daughter's action? Respectfully,
NOT SORRY

DEAR ABBY: Our son insists on sending us Mother's Day and Father's Day cards signed by both himself and his "girl friend." This is very irritating to both his mother and me as we do not care for his "girl" and he knows it. They are not officially engaged, thank heavens, and we consider their combined signatures on his cards improper and a breach of etiquette. If a mother wants to do her daughter's action? Respectfully,
MY WIFE AND I

DEAR ABBY: Call a spade a spade and admit that it's the GIRL who irritates you, not the breach of etiquette. You could throw the etiquette book at your son, but I wouldn't advise it, because if they are serious his next card could be signed "Mr. and Mrs. . . ."

DEAR ABBY: If you read the papers as well as write for them, you saw the article about the judge who gave a husband permission to spank his wife when she needed it. All I can say is, "It's about time!" I was beginning to think the women were taking over the country. If more men turned their wives over their knees and showed them who was boss, society would be in better shape. Spanking should be legalized everywhere.

DEAR MAN: There are at least two things wrong with legalizing wife-spanking: (1) When does a spanking end and a beating begin? (2) Who is the final authority on when a wife "needs" a spanking? When she repeatedly puts starch in his collars? Or passes his mother in the face with a coconut cake? Sorry, but spankings are for children.

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Newcomers From Abroad Help Fill Labor Shortages

WASHINGTON (AP)—Almost as many engineers immigrated to the United States in the past decade as were turned out by the nation's engineering schools in their 1961 graduating classes. The figures are included in a Labor Department study of the occupational distribution of the more than 4.5 million immigrants arriving in this country in the 15-year period of 1947-61.

The study concludes that instead of glutting the U.S. labor force which has experienced high levels of unemployment in recent years the newcomers from abroad have helped fill shortages in such skilled occupations as engineering, science and the medical profession.

"There can be no doubt," Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz commented on the study, "that by providing a haven for the oppressed, the nation has reaped great profits."

Wirtz cited the contributions of such men as scientist Enrico Fermi, mathematician Albert Einstein, Felix Frankfurter, recently retired Supreme Court Justice; Igor Sikorsky, airplane designer, and Eugene Ormandy, symphony conductor. The nation is not so awash with talent of benefits received.

BUSINESS MIRROR

Unskilled Hurt By Machine Age

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Machines doing the work of men. The open sesame to an age of greater productivity in America? Or a problem that will bring on bitter management-labor fights and keep unemployment a drag on the economic growth of this nation, already up to its neck in world rivalry? Automation, increasingly characterizes the business era. For some companies it means cutting rising production costs. For others it means a necessary in the competitive race with rivals. For most it raises financial problems, especially in an era when the profit margin is squeezed.

For workers, automation often seems a growing threat—loss of present jobs, or inability or lack of chance to learn how to master the complicated devices, or a generally shrinking labor market when the labor force itself will soon explode greatly.

Put these divergent management and labor views against each other and you have one of the most striking reasons that today's economy differs sharply from that of recent years. Of course, automation wouldn't be as acute a problem today if the economy were still expanding fast, if wages and prices and profits went up year after year.

"We've lived with mechanization for years. Automation is just faster and takes in more lines of work than the Industrial Revolution of 100 years ago. Some say it will change the economy in the years just ahead the way the slower-paced earlier revolution did. Automation is a chief point for those preaching that business and labor are destined to take on a new look."

When machines do the work that men once did, those who are chiefly hurt are the unskilled whose manual labor isn't needed, the young and untrained who find the available new jobs beyond their experience, the middle-aged who have their ideas of how this problem of the 1960s is to be met.

Union leaders urge spreading the available jobs among more workers by shortening the work week, lengthening vacations, encouraging earlier retirement with pension benefits. Management counters that all of this costs money, just as much as wage scale hikes do. And they argue that with profit margins already squeezed, any higher production costs would cripple business and hold down the number of jobs rather than increase them. Management's favorite solution would be to encourage business by cutting taxes, holding down production costs, fostering profit making. This, it is argued, would mean more jobs in the long run, with everyone the gainer.

Government officials are all for boosting the growth rate of the economy. Some say more government spending would speed this, along with tax cutting to build consumer demand and business outlays for expansion. And many officials rely on guidelines that would hold down both wage and price increases to keep consumer demand rising.

Rebecca Olson, C. Dale Rustad Wed at Peterson

PETERSON, Minn. (Special)—Bouquets of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums and lighted candles were used as the setting for the wedding of Miss Rebecca Elaine Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Olson, Peterson, and C. Dale Rustad, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Rustad, Peterson, in a double-ring ceremony performed by the Rev. James W. Asp at Grace Lutheran Church Nov. 17 at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Jacob Lee, Huxley, Iowa, aunt of the bride as organist, played "Trumpet Voluntary" as the processional and "Wedding March" as the recessional. She accompanied Clair Churchill, Spring Valley, Minn., who sang "Song of Ruth," "Wedding Prayer," and "Crown With Thy Benediction."

THE BRIDE given in marriage by her father, wore a brocade satin floor-length gown with a court train, styled with basque bodice, high neckline and three-quarter length sleeves, and a wide-swept skirt. Her pearl necklace was a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white prayer book with a white orchid and streamers, and a white handkerchief, used by her aunt, Mrs. Ole Rustad, Lanesboro, at her wedding. Her veil of imported English silk illusion was held by a princess crown of seed pearls with aurora borealis crystals. Her veil was previously used by her cousin, Mrs. Maynard Thompson, at her wedding in July. Mrs. Thompson, Peterson, was matron of honor; bridesmaids were the Misses Maxine Olson, Peterson; Lucille Jacobson, Peterson, cousin of the bride, and Cleo Anderson, Rochester. They wore street-length sheath dresses of green satin with overskirts. The bodices were fashioned with scoop necklines and three-quarter length sleeves. Their matching headpieces were pillbox hats with face veils. They carried cascade bouquets of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums.

WAYNE RUSTAD, Peterson, brother of the bridegroom, was best man; Stanley Olson, brother of the bride, Richard Rustad, brother of the bridegroom, and Maynard Rustad, cousin of the bridegroom, all of Peterson, were groomsmen. O. V. Helgemo, Minneapolis, cousin of the bride, Curtis Rustad, cousin of the bridegroom, Roland Wussow, Winona, and Merlin Bratberg, Rushford, ushered.

Hostesses for the reception held in the church parlors were Mrs. Jaymour Lee and Mrs. Orran Jacobson, aunts of the bride. Mrs. Lee Loerch, Winona, and Mrs. Robert Neesen, Minneapolis, were in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Gerhard Oistad, Whalan, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Burton King, Fargo, N.D., aunt of the bridegroom, served the cake made by Mrs. LaVerne Hegland. Assisting at the reception table were aunts of the bridegroom, Mrs. Hillard Torgerson, Esterville, Iowa; Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Rustad (Camera Art Photo)

Clarence Rustad, Mrs. Raymond Rustad and Mrs. Lester Rustad, Mrs. Charles Ruess, Lanesboro, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Arthur Helgemo, aunt of the bride, poured coffee. Mrs. Orvin Helgemo and Miss Lila Johnson, Minneapolis, served punch. Waitresses were Mrs. Earl Sveen, Miss Joan Engeström, Miss Rachel Lee, cousin of the bride, and the Misses Elaine and Judy Rustad, cousins of the bridegroom. Mrs. Carrol Johnson, Northfield; Elene Rustad, cousin of the bridegroom; Sharon Lindelin and Linda Wahl, Rochester, were in charge of the gifts.

THE BRIDEGROOM'S parents were hosts at supper at Golfview near Rushford prior to the rehearsal Friday evening.

The bride is a graduate of Peterson High School and attended the Elaine Martin School of Modeling, Rochester. The bridegroom is a graduate of Rushford High School. For travel the bride wore a green wool sheath with brown accessories. The couple is at home in Rochester where the bride is employed at Rochester State Bank and the bridegroom at Mayo Clinic.

Dennis Carney Wedding Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Blume, Worthington, Minn., announce the marriage of their daughter, Carol Ann, to Dennis Carney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Carney, 676 Winona St. The Rev. Russel Tate officiated at the double-ring ceremony at Westminster Presbyterian Church, Worthington, Nov. 2. The couple will be home at Little Falls, Minn., where the bridegroom is employed by the Little Falls Daily Transcript.

NEW WAY TO BE SUDDENLY SLIM

Are you a woman whose figure is on the good side but might look perfect? You'll be thrilled by the new easy way science has discovered for you to become Suddenly Slim. If you're more than 15 pounds overweight, then this idea is not for you. If your weight problem falls within this range, then you can realize a new, smoother figure today, without diet or exercise.

Suddenly Slim is a small new kind of 4-oz. girdle constructed of science fibers. One startling innovation is the sheer nylon front panel. This is permanently stiffened by a science process and cannot give or sag. It's surrounded by a slimmer action border. A featherstitched panel down each side of this girdle will contour your hips if they are a problem. The girdle itself is of a "wonder" Lycra spandex blend. It's a new power net consisting of nylon, acetate and spandex. It feels like nothing on but has such amazing strength, it gives your figure everything that's possible with a foundation.

"Suddenly Slim" is the peak achievement of the designer-genius, Olga.

Have you looked at the windows at BROWN DRUG lately? We have them full of gift suggestions in the better class merchandise — most of them just a bit different than the usual — our GLOBE SILVER pieces in jewelry boxes, hand mirrors, dresser trays, etc. are the finest — gold or silver plated, guaranteed non-tarnishable — also in white with a beautiful flower trim — Revlon's new little brocade purse including lipstick and petite compact — just right for the Holiday parties — Carry-all cases to carry your jewelry in style — of embroidered quilted satin — lined in velvet and zippered — 6 inches in diameter, with room for bracelets, necklaces and rings — assorted colors to $5.00.

Not wearing snow boots! — but it won't be long — take your shoes along in your Shoe Tote — handy zippered — keeps your shoes perfectly — Tote them to the office, on your travels or to the repair shop, and doubles nicely as a knitting bag — at Brown's in tapestries or velvet.

Many, many people have found just the "little" gift they have been looking for on the two tables at the front of the store — one a dollar and the other things under a dollar — remember they have different things added from day to day so why not look these things over each time you are in Brown's.

Does your hubby smoke a pipe? A good gift is a pipe lighter — looks like a cigarette lighter, but throws a flame to the side for lighting the pipe — uses regular lighter fluid — a good stocking gift.

Brown's has a very nice assortment of miniature sets, containing instruments, for both ladies and men — these instruments are guaranteed for life.

Have you seen our array of pipe racks — these have recesses for many pipes — the wood is mahogany with oil finish — some of them have glasses for the tobacco — why not see them?

For the finest in Cosmetics and Gifts visit Brown Drug. Watch for this column every Wednesday.

Arcadia Lutheran Women Set Party

ARCADIA, Wis. (Special)—Women of the American Lutheran Church will hold the annual Christmas Party, Sunday in the church parlors at 2 p.m. Each member is asked to bring a wrapped Christmas gift for a man, woman, juvenile or older boy or girl and states its contents on the outside. Suggestions of gifts are listed on the church bulletin board. Gifts will go to persons at the Northern Colony at Chippewa Falls, Wis., and the Wisconsin Child Center at Sparta, Wis. A film, "Christmas in Hong Kong," will be shown. Guests may be invited.

Legion Auxiliary Meets at Rushford

RUSHFORD, Minn. (Special)—Murphy-Johnson Post 94 American Legion Auxiliary voted Monday to have a membership Christmas party Dec. 11. Members are to bring a 50-cent gift for exchange and something for a pot-luck lunch. It was decided to send the local weekly newspaper to sons or husbands of Auxiliary members, who are serving in the armed forces.

The Auxiliary voted to buy a $5 Christmas Seal Bond and to send $10 for the Forgotten Child Fund. Christmas baskets will be delivered again this year. Annual dues were raised from $2 to $3 effective Jan. 1. Membership chairman, Mrs. Maynard Dubbs reported a paid up membership of 90. The quota is 97. The door prize was won by Mrs. Earl Anderson. Hostesses were Mrs. Adeline Engraver, Mrs. Bud Nesheim and Mrs. Darrel Erickson.

PACK CLOTHING

BLAIR, Wis. (Special)—Twelve women from the Zion Lutheran Bible study circles packed clothing Friday afternoon for the Lutheran World Relief Thanksgiving clothing appeal. About 40 boxes were transported to Whitehall to be shipped to Minneapolis.

Past Matron's Club Meets

England was the theme used by the Past Matron's Club Tuesday evening at the dinner meeting at the Masonic Temple.

A committee, in costume, including Mrs. Davis Christensen, chairman, as Anne Boleyn Miss Doree Gilham, King Henry VIII; Mrs. Winifred Tanberg, a Pilgrim; Mrs. Anton Steinke and Mrs. Maud H. Johnson, members of the court and Mrs. H. J. Busdicker, Queen Mother Elizabeth, presented the entertainment. They represented periods in English history.

Mrs. J. E. Stenhjem, gave devotions, concluding with quotations from early English literature. Nut baskets in the shape of crowns, a globe, maps, and national cups and saucers were used to decorate the table.

Miss Elsie Sartell presided at the business meeting after which Miss Gilham told of her trip to England and Europe last summer.

Past matrons and past patrons of the Order of Eastern Star and their husbands and wives will be guests at the next meeting, Jan. 22.

Traveling Whist Meet at Blair

Soup Pot at Hospital Shown To Auxiliary

The operation of a 40-gallon stock pot for making soups, a 60-quart egg beater-potato masher and other quantity food preparation and service equipment at Winona Community Memorial Hospital kitchen were demonstrated to over 50 representatives to Community Memorial Hospital Auxiliary at the meeting Thursday afternoon at the hospital.

Mrs. Erickson, dietitian, was in charge of the tour and explained that selective menus are now used at the hospital, so that patients on regular diets have a choice of foods. The kitchen serves from 80 to 100 patients at each meal, and the cafeteria serves from 16 on a weekend evening to as many as 110.

MRS. J. L. Jeremiassen, president, conducted the meeting preceding the tour. She announced that a profit of $1,300 has been realized from the Book Fair held in October. Mrs. M. A. Goldberg, tour chairman, reported that Tuesday have been designated as tour days, but that special days can be arranged by notifying the hospital switchboard well in advance. Tours will be offered to the public Thursday and Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in conjunction with the Gift Shop Christmas Sale.

The formal hospital dedication will be Dec. 7. A special volunteer training meeting is scheduled for Dec. 14 at the hospital, with Mrs. L. R. Woodworth and Mrs. Philip Baumann, volunteer service chairman, in charge.

MEMBERS OF the auxiliary board met at 11 a.m. and voted to recommend an annual Birthday Ball, commemorating the opening of the new hospital. Mrs. Jeremiassen read a letter of appreciation from E. W. Hagberg, hospital administrator, to the auxiliary for the half-payment of $5,000 toward the automatic X-ray film processor.

The date for the annual auxiliary meeting has been tentatively set for Jan. 29. The next board meeting will be Dec. 27.

Members of the hospitality committee served coffee during the representatives meeting, with Mrs. Roger Schneider, assistant chairman, in charge.

WOMEN'S CLUB
LAKE CITY, Minn. (Special)—Mrs. Hans Peters gave a Thanksgiving reading and Mrs. Merrill sang two solos at the Lake City Women's Club meeting Wednesday afternoon, at the First Methodist Church parlors during the program, following the business meeting. Hostesses were Mrs. A. J. Ward and Mrs. Eugene Meyers. The next meeting will be a Christmas party in the form of a silver tea, at the home of Mrs. W. C. Cheney, proceeds will be used for buying small gifts for the patients at the Nursing Home.

ELEVA, WIS., children who might not otherwise receive a visit from Santa Claus will be remembered by Eleve Civic Club members who have gathered and repaired toys to be distributed at Christmas time. Repainting, sewing and the purchase of new toys has been done this year for the first time as a project by the club. The Civic Club Christmas party will be held in Eleve grade school Dec. 8 with husbands of members as guests. Shown putting the finishing touches on toys that have been repaired are from left, Mrs. Melvin Skogstad, president; Mrs. Selmer Severson, Mrs. John R. Skogstad, Mrs. Clarence Craven and Mrs. Leona Mulvaney, committee members.

DUPLICATE BRIDGE CLUB

Winona Duplicate Bridge Club met Tuesday evening at the Teamster's Club. Four tables of Howell Movement bridge were played with Mrs. Helen Vold and Miss Josephine Steinbauer and Mrs. Clifford Grajczyk and Willis Smith tied for first place; Mrs. Louis Feiten and Walter Sullivan, second; and Pat Glynn and Harold Kuhn, third. The next meeting will be Dec. 11 at the Teamster's Club with registration at 7:30. Each member is asked to bring a new partner to the play on that date.

LAKE CITY REUNION

LAKE CITY, Minn. (Special)—Plans for a fifth reunion of the 1957 graduating class of Lake City Lincoln High School are being made for Dec. 22. The reunion will be held at the Terrace Supper Club starting with a cocktail hour at 5 p.m. followed by dinner and dancing. All members of the class are being contacted by the committee. In case a 1957 graduate is not contacted by Dec. 10, he or she should report it to Jackie Mobley.

ROSARY SOCIETY

ARCADIA, Wis. (Special)—St. Stanislaus Catholic Church Rosary

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES G. ROEMER, Wabasha, Minn., were guests of honor Sunday at a reception for 100 friends and relatives at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Fick, Lake City, Minn. The reception followed a family dinner party at the Idle Hour Game Farm, Wabasha, Mr. and Mrs. Roemer were married Nov. 26, 1912, at Hastings, Neb., and have resided in Wabasha since that time.

Society will hold its meeting Sunday in the church recreational rooms, beginning at 2 p.m. Hostesses will be group 7 with Mrs. Stanley J. Sonsalla, chairman.

Others in the group are the Mrs. Albert Galuska, Joseph Grossman, Joseph Kampa, Joseph Kotlarz, Connie Rohn, Aloysius Slaby Sr., Steve Slaby, Frank Sobotta, Mary A. Sobotta, Kenneth Sonsalla, Albert Soppa, Joseph Suchla, Margaret Suchla and Ray Walters.

A BOONE DIED

MT. OLIVET, Ky. (AP)—The last battle of the American Revolution was fought near here on Aug. 19, 1782, between Kentucky pioneers and British and Indian troops. The pioneers won but one of those killed was a son of Daniel Boone.

Sea Monster is Called Marvin

LOS ANGELES (AP)—That sea monster might be a ctenophore, a siphonophore or a salp, experts say.

They don't know which, so they call him Marvin. Marvin is the strange, spiraling creature that first popped up about a month ago on a television screen by which Shell Oil Co. technicians were watching underwater drilling equipment.

The playful creature seen was 15 feet long but only 6 inches in diameter. He frolicked about on the screen while Shell took pictures of him.

Shell asked some fish experts. One said maybe he is a ctenophore, a member of the jellyfish family. Another said he might be a salp, a group of small animals that fasten themselves together end-to-end like a daisy chain.

Or, said another, he could be a siphonophore — jellyfish that link themselves together the same way the salps do.

Until somebody catches the monster and identifies him, he'll remain just plain Marvin—which means sea friend.

Bear Stolen from Car Top in Wisconsin

SUPERIOR, Wis. (AP) — Leo Cariveau of Chicago told police Tuesday a 325-pound bear he killed while hunting was stolen from the roof of his car parked here. Police later apprehended three men trying to return the dead animal to the car.

The men said that, under the influence of a few drinks, they planned to prop the bear against a friend's door and let it fall into his arms when he answered their knock. They said they thought better of the idea on sobering. Cariveau declined to prosecute.

Student Leaves Oxford After Meal With Negro

OXFORD, Miss. (AP)—A freshman student whose room was ransacked after eating supper with Negro James H. Meredith has withdrawn from the University of Mississippi, officials disclosed Tuesday. John Craig Knobles III of Meridan left the campus more than two weeks ago under the advice of university officials and decided not to return. Along with seven other students—including one girl—Meredith was arrested after he ate supper with Meredith Nov. 12. Shortly afterwards, the dormitory room of Knobles and Bill Temple of Washington, D.C. was ransacked. University police investigated but made no arrests. Temple also left the Ole Miss campus after the incident but returned after Thanksgiving holidays.

ROBERT C. RUARK

Rump-Sprung Critic Irked by TV Medics

NEW YORK — Your rump-sprung correspondent — I started to say "fractured," but remembered the double meaning in time — has been sitting tall in the wheel chair for better than a month now, listening to his arteries harden and his bones knit. While the bones knit one, the spirit purts two, because frankly I am scared to death.

I blame my state of constant quake, my sweaty sheets and palsied fingers on nothing more nor less than television, a medium to which I had never before been exposed in massive doses. It took a tall white horse and a tumble to make me into a captive audience while the powdery old pelvis nudged itself back into one piece.

For something over 40 years I considered that no ill was unresponsive to plenty of aspirin and whisky. But today I am a full-fledged hypochondriac, a feeble fellow who sees symptoms in stones and traumas under every toadstool.

I am considering suit against Doctor Ben Casey, Doctor Gillespie, Doctor Kildare, Young Doctor Malone, and all of those really nutty women who are loosely grouped under the title of "The Nurses." How anybody ever gets cured in the hospital infested by "The Nurses" is a mystery, because the girls spend all of their frustration time defying doctors, ignoring orders, and tearing each other to shreds in the ladies' room. But they sure as hell throw their symptoms to the winds for anybody to catch.

Austin Sheriff Loses Recount

AUSTIN, Minn. (AP) — Doyle D. Lindahl, his former deputy, defeated Sheriff Albert Reinartz by 89 votes, it was disclosed Tuesday night as a recount of Mower County ballots for that office was completed.

Auditor Graham Uzlik said the final, certified totals gave Lindahl 8,694, Reinartz 8,605. Reinartz had asked the recount after the original tabulation had showed him a loser by 117 votes. He has been sheriff here for 16 years.

I AM certain I could pass a state board of materia medica, in brain surgery, in psychiatry, in diagnosis concerning bone, nerve, vascular system; in sarcoma, carcinoma, and any evil involving liver or kindred lights. I am a shark in the cardiac department and if you happen to run across just a touch of calcification in the old aorta, don't jump to any rash conclusions about diabetes until you're sure that a liver malfunction hasn't been scattering an overdose of carbohydrate into the major arterial walls.

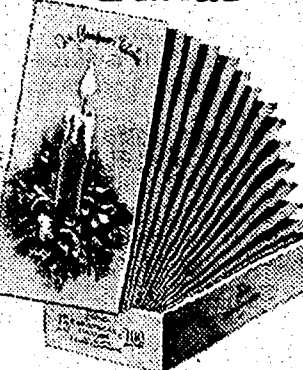

Believe me, teacher, I did not plan to be a hypochondriac, or even a lay physician, but after a solid month of these medical shows it is clearly indicated that I am constructed of the stuff of which fine physicians are made.

AFTER MY internship — if I don't die of some self-diagnosed hangnail of the medulla oblongata — I will either wind up in a nut house or with a Park Avenue practice. I know also that sometimes it's hard to tell the difference, since a fine bone man went stark staring nuts on Dr. Kildare only the other evening.

I cannot imagine that all this medical mumbo-jumbo, fired haphazardly at a few million susceptible self-diagnosticians, is going to improve the mental health of the nation. A simple headache suddenly becomes a tumor on the motor section of the brain lobes; a pain in the back magnifies into a tubercular spine. Nor does watching the rival interns falsify each other's charts imbue me with any great faith in the apprentice Arrowsmiths, although the fledgling healers do have a Raymond Massey or a Sam Jaffe to make everything come out right in the end, even if it kills the patient.

THE ONLY way I can conquer my traumas is to switch over to the cowboy section of the set, and

Tax Valuation Compared In Western Wisconsin

SPARTA, Wis.—With other counties in the state, Buffalo, Pepin and Trempealeau counties at their annual county board sessions this month adopted equalized valuations on real and personal property which form the bases for apportioning state, county and school taxes to be collected next year.

The equalized or full sales values were compiled by the state Department of Taxation's supervisor of assessments office at Sparta, which covers 20 counties in Southwestern Wisconsin. The valuations were determined from municipal assessors' reports and general sales prices.

There'll be more work for municipal clerks this year because of credits on personal property accruing from the sales tax which went into effect in February. Harley E. Turk, chief of the Sparta office, will meet with Pepin County municipal clerks Nov. 29 to instruct them in figuring the credits.

Real estate values have leveled off in this area, with minor exceptions. One of these exceptions is small farms near prosperous or growing villages or cities. This type farm can no longer be valued as ordinary farm property, officials say; it has added value caused by residential influence. Many residential homes are built in outlying rural areas. Lands adjoining lakes or rivers continue to be in great demand and bring higher prices.

Total real estate increase in Buffalo County this year is $1,105,600, 2.86 percent over 1961. Of this amount $524,700 or 1.36 percent is due to new construction, compared with $501,100 last year.

Real estate increase in Pepin County this year amounts to $843,200 or 4.26 percent over 1961. Of this total $153,700, or .78 percent, is due to new construction, which totaled $356,200 last year.

Total real estate in Trempealeau County increased $1,703,600, or 2.79 percent over last year. Of this amount $942,200 or 1.54 percent resulted from new construction. Last year $1,001,200 represented new construction.

Buildings on leased land have been removed from real estate and are carried as personal property.

Cattle prices as of May 1, the assessment date of all property, were lower than a year ago. The number of cattle in the Sparta of-ice area increased 1.7 percent over last year. Sheep decreased in value and number. Hog prices remained about the same. Merchants and manufacturing stocks showed an increase in value.

Total valuation of Buffalo County increased from $49,423,960 in 1961 to $50,199,050 this year; in Pepin County the increase was from $24,052,645 last year to $24,621,410 this year, and in Trempealeau County the increase was from $77,120,605 to $78,409,390.

Tables of the variations in valuations this year and last in the three counties indicate the drops in farm area valuations except in towns like Nelson, Buffalo County, which includes an unincorporated village; Pepin Town, partly on the Mississippi River, and Trempealeau, also in a resort area.

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—The Minnesota School Boards Association delegate assembly went on record Tuesday for sharply increased state aids for the biennium starting next July 1.

But the 120-member group had no immediate suggestions on how the added costs would be financed.

The suggested increase would boost aid costs from $255.7 million for the current two-year period to an estimated $354.2 million. State aids now are fixed at $285 per pupil unit for formula A, including smaller schools, and $90 for Formula B, both figures minus whatever is raised by a 19-mill local levy on the basis of equalized property values.

The assembly would hike Formula A aids to $321, Formula B to $97 for 1963-64, set tops of $333 and $101, respectively, for the following year. Both figures would be subject to the local levy adjustment.

The assembly, however, voted down a resolution by Charles Berg, Chokio, urging the legislature to meet the increased costs with a sales tax. The vote was 59-32 against the proposal which opponents termed premature.

A second motion urging lawmakers to insure "an adequate new source of revenue" failed by a narrow 50-49.

Although the delegate assembly is not binding, it is expected to win approval from the general MSBA convention meeting in January.

The assembly did go on record favoring dissolution of all non-operating school districts by next year's end and the inclusion of all state areas in high school-supporting districts by 1965.

In 1961, the supervisor of assessments recommended average valuations in its 20-county area of $190 for grade and $200 for purebred dairy cows; $160 for beef cows; $15 for sheep, and $55 for sows.

Manufacturing real estate in Trempealeau County totals $3,095,000 and manufacturers' stock, $756,035. Manufacturing real estate in Buffalo County was listed at $1,204,200 and manufacturers' stock at $185,950. In Pepin County, manufacturing real estate is listed at $525,000 and stock at $171,100.

Merchants' stock in the three counties is valued at $1,260,050 in Buffalo County; $840,000, Pepin, and $2,909,950 in Trempealeau. Boats are valued at $7,300 in Buffalo County; $900 in Pepin, and $3,000 in Trempealeau County.

Infrared Spectra To Be Discussed At College Seminar

"Infrared Spectra and Molecular Vibrations" will be discussed by Dr. Bryce Crawford Jr., dean of the University of Minnesota Graduate School at the 13th Intercollegiate Science Faculty Seminar at 9:30 a.m. Saturday at the Roger Bacon Center, College of Saint Teresa.

A native of New Orleans, he received his B.A., M.A. and Ph.D. in chemistry at Stanford University. From 1937-39 he was a National Research Fellow at Harvard. From 1939-40 he was an instructor at Yale. He joined the University of Minnesota faculty in 1940 as an assistant professor of chemistry. In 1943 he became associate professor and in 1946 full professor.

From 1950-51 he was a Guggenheim Foundation Fellow at the California Institute of Technology and at Oxford University. He remained at Oxford in 1951 as a Fulbright Fellow. In 1944 Dr. Crawford was a civilian investigator for the National Defense Research Committee, directing research on rocket propellants and receiving the Presidential Certificate of Merit.

Man's Hand Caught In Sausage Stuffer

Allan Forhan, 25, son of Mrs. M. H. Warnken, received a crushing injury to his left hand while cleaning a stuffer at Warnken's Market, 477 W. 5th St., about 3 p.m. Tuesday.

Stitches were taken in the little finger at Community Memorial Hospital, but the second knuckles in the other three fingers and the hand appeared to be crushed. He was undergoing further examination.

Forhan was cleaning the sausage stuffer when he accidentally pushed the pressure lever instead of the draining lever. Mr. Warnken rushed to the back room when he heard Allan's screams and released the machinery, then took him to the hospital by car.

Aerobee Rocket Soars 126 Miles

WHITE SANDS MISSILE RANGE, N.M. (AP)—An Aerobee rocket soared to an altitude of 126 miles Tuesday to get a look at the sun and measure its radiation rays, unhampered by the earth's atmosphere.

The rocket, fired by the Navy, carried a Harvard University spectrometer to record the sun's radiation.

Boards Seek More State School Aid

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—The Minnesota School Boards Association delegate assembly went on record Tuesday for sharply increased state aids for the biennium starting next July 1.

But the 120-member group had no immediate suggestions on how the added costs would be financed.

The suggested increase would boost aid costs from $255.7 million for the current two-year period to an estimated $354.2 million. State aids now are fixed at $285 per pupil unit for formula A, including smaller schools, and $90 for Formula B, both figures minus whatever is raised by a 19-mill local levy on the basis of equalized property values.

Dranow Back In Minneapolis

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Benjamin Dranow, former owner of a department store here and one-time associate of Teamster President James Hoffa, was back in jail here today.

He was brought early this morning from Miami by federal officials to face charges of bail bond jumping and wire fraud. He already is under sentence for mail fraud.

He had been the object of a six-week international search since he failed to show up Oct. 16 for a Federal Court hearing. He was arrested Monday in the luxurious Miami home of William C. Ware Jr. where Dranow had been occupying a maid's room.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., (AP)—The Jacksonville Tourist and Convention Bureau has become the Jacksonville convention and visitors bureau.

Retiring President Cooper Cubbage said persons coming into the state prefer to be called visitors rather than tourists.

Mousetrap Ads Help Phoenix Loan Firms

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—To plug its new industrial loans department, the Arizona Bank recently ran a newspaper ad displaying a baited mousetrap.

The copy read: "For rent—money for better mousetraps. Whether you are building a better mousetrap or components for the space age be sure to consult our industrial experts."

Industrial borrowers nibbled. So did a host of mousetrap inventors.

One proudly showed a trap he said would catch six mice at a time. Another said his would grab 27, one at a time or all at once.

Still another contrived a trap of transistors and electronic relays.

Vice President T. C. (Bud) Basmeh said, "If we ever run another mousetrap ad, I quit."

PACKED-OFF PACHYDERM

DENVER (AP)—Timbo ate himself out of his happy home at the City Park Zoo.

At 3½ years of age, Timbo was 3,000 pounds of elephant with an enormous appetite who in time should stand 11 feet tall and hit the scales at 10,000 pounds.

So he was shipped to the Cheyenne Mountain Zoo near Colorado Springs, which has ample quarters for the largest pachyderms.

Severe Storm Off South Atlantic Coast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A severe storm off the South Atlantic coast continued today, causing rough seas and threatening further beach erosion from North Carolina to Florida.

Gale warnings remained displayed from Daytona Beach, Fla., to Cape May, N.J. Major effects of the storm, which is about 300 miles east of the Florida coast, have been to exposed shore areas with high tide flooding and beach erosion from the pounding seas.

Light rain fell in eastern parts of the Carolinas and east-central Georgia while it was generally cloudy and mild in most other sections of the Southeast.

Notice of Special Meeting of Stockholders

of

Lewiston Co-op Association

LEWISTON, MINN.

DATE: THURSDAY, DEC. 13

PLACE: VILLAGE HALL, LEWISTON, MINN.

HOUR: 1:30 P.M.

Notice is hereby given that a special meeting of the stockholders of Lewiston Co-op Association will be held at the Village Hall, in the City of Lewiston, on December 13, 1962, at 1:30 o'clock p.m., for the purpose of considering and acting upon a resolution to amend the Bylaws of the association as adopted by the Board of Directors and recommended to the stockholders for adoption, which said resolution reads as follows:

RESOLVED, that Article VIII of the Bylaws be amended by adding thereto a new section which shall be numbered Section 4A, the same to read as follows:

Section 4A. Each member of this cooperative as of the effective date of this Bylaw who continues as a member after such date, and each person who shall after such date become a member shall, by such act alone, consent that the amount of any distributions with respect to his patronage occurring in any fiscal year of the association beginning after December 31, 1962, and which are made in written notices of allocation (as defined in 26 USCA 1388), and which are received by said member from the cooperative, will be taken into account by him at their stated dollar amounts in the manner provided in 26 USCA 1385 (a), less any amount which may be excluded under 26 USCA 1385 (b), in the taxable year in which such written notices of allocation are received by him.

This amendment to the Bylaws is necessitated by provisions of the Revenue Act of 1962. In order to receive the full benefit of the amendment under the Law, it is necessary that it be adopted prior to January 1, 1963. No other business will be transacted at this meeting, and it will not be necessary for you to attend the meeting if you wish to cast your vote on the resolution by mail. In that case, ballots are available at the office of the Lewiston Co-op Association.

Respectfully,
Edwin Burford, Secretary

Dated at Lewiston, Minn.,

4 Airline Pilots Pay $300 Fines For Inefficiency

WASHINGTON (AP)—Four airline pilots accused of inattention to duty on the evidence of flight engineers' snapshots have paid fines of $300 each and been identified by the Federal Aviation Agency.

The FAA records listed the four, all Eastern Air Lines captains, as J. V. Webster, New York; E. L. Foss, Port Washington, N.Y.; W. C. Ludington, East Quogue, N.Y., and J. C. Mitchell, Cross River, N.Y.

Administrator N. E. Halaby announced Nov. 9 that the FAA had fined 13 Eastern pilots for inattention to duty.

Halaby said the pilots—nine captains and four copilots—were identified in photographs taken secretly by D. K. Carson of Hicksville, N.Y., an Eastern engineer.

The other pilots are not known to have paid their fines yet and officials said it was likely some had asked for more time.

'Aw-Fellows-Let's Start-Over-Again'

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—It will be a kind of "aw-fellows-let's-start-over-again" meeting when President Kennedy confers at the White House Thursday with Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan.

The last time Kennedy met with one of Premier Khrushchev's right-hand men, Foreign Secretary Andrei Gromyko, the Russian lied to him. He said Soviet weapons in Cuba were defensive when Kennedy already knew they were offensive missiles.

If nations acted like people, one lie would be enough for a lifetime and the United States would sever all relations with the Soviet Union. But nations don't since they're all realistic enough to know none of them is perfect.

The biggest embarrassment a nation can suffer is to be caught in a lie, as Russia was on the missiles and the United States was when it first lied by saying the downed U2 plane in 1960 was not a spyplane.

Besides, a lot happened since Gromyko saw Kennedy last Oct. 18.

Kennedy called Khrushchev's hand on the missiles. The Russian backed up sheepishly like a man caught with both hands in the cookie jar and carted his missiles away. He didn't apologize and nobody called anybody names.

This must have been, despite the tremendous sense of crisis, one of the quietest showdowns and backdowns in history. And just because it worked out that way the door was left open for both sides to go on almost as if nothing had happened and in the end—although this seems barely possible—might make for better relations.

"Almost," is a very important word in the relationship because those who never quite trusted Khrushchev will have even a harder time doing so now since his game with the missiles could not have been more deadly.

He was the one who preached peaceful coexistence which, in view of what happened, now sounds like a kind of sleepy-time song intended to lull the children to sleep while the old witch came and blew their house down.

It was a bewitching trick he tried: installing missiles in next-door Cuba to be used anytime thereafter to blackmail, and even try to demolish it if that became necessary, the United States.

The two powers have a batch of unsolved problems, and Kennedy and Mikoyan can talk about some of them. But no one is daring enough, or maybe giddy enough, to predict they'll solve any of them.

To the surprise of both sides, no doubt, they now find they have a mutual problem where before only the United States had it. This

Bull Moose Attacks Alaskan 707 Jet

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—The bull moose lowered his head, pawed the ground, charged and clobbered his opponent right between the No. 1 and No. 2 engines. The roaring Boeing 720 jet, taxiing for a takeoff Tuesday, wasn't staggered very much by the blow, but airport officials were.

"It gets expensive," Tony Schwamm, Anchorage International Airport manager, said. The plane was delayed about 30 minutes for a checkup.

The moose, apparently unhurt and unimpressed, walked away.

U.S., Belgium Put Pressure Upon Katanga

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and Belgium are ready to clamp strong economic pincers on the secessionist Katanga government if it doesn't agree soon to unity with the Congo.

President Kennedy and Paul-Henri Spaak, Belgium's foreign minister, said in a statement after a White House meeting Tuesday that they had agreed "severe economic measures" must be applied soon if voluntary efforts to unify the Congo fail.

This unusually tough wording pointed up mounting concern here that the massive two-year effort to save the Congo will collapse unless unification is achieved soon.

U.S. authorities freely acknowledged that the Kennedy-Spaak warning was aimed mainly at Moise Tshombe, Katanga secessionist who has spurned efforts by Acting U.N. Secretary-General U. Thant to unify the Congo.

At the United Nations, Thant was reported nearing completion of a revamped plan for ending Katanga's secession. There was no word on the status of talks centering on the prime issue of siphoning part of Katanga's rich mineral tax revenues into the central government's undernourished treasury.

Thant may release Thursday a comprehensive Congo report to the U.N. Security Council, including details of his unity plan. This proposes a 50-50 split of Katanga's mineral taxes. It also calls for adoption of a federal constitution under which Katanga would return to the Congo fold.

American and Eastern Lines Seek to Merge

By VERN HAUGLAND

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two of the nation's largest airlines—American and Eastern—pursued their plans for a merger today despite a sharp rebuff from a Civil Aeronautics Board examiner.

Spokesmen for both airlines said they would continue to seek CAB approval of a merger despite the adverse recommendation Tuesday by examiner Ralph L. Wisner.

Wisner, who heard arguments on the proposal for several months, said the merger would tend to create a monopoly.

He said neither airline is a failing business or unduly weak. Thus he said, the merger could not be justified on the basis of business necessity.

American is the nation's second largest carrier. Eastern is the fourth largest.

The five-man board will consider Wisner's recommendation and present its findings to President Kennedy who has responsibility for the final decision because international routes are involved.

The airlines' statements that they will continue to fight for the merger approval brushed aside industry speculation that they might give up.

Under terms of the agreement, either party could withdraw if the merger was not approved by Nov. 30.

An Eastern spokesman said the financial condition of the industry was so critical due to competition that unnecessary duplication of routes and facilities must be ended.

A spokesman for American, which lost its size leadership last year when United and Capital Airlines merged, said the American-Eastern merger proposal "is in the public interest. We are therefore confident that it will be approved."

The U.N. Security Council, including details of his unity plan. This proposes a 50-50 split of Katanga's mineral taxes. It also calls for adoption of a federal constitution under which Katanga would return to the Congo fold.

Cotter Rally Nips Aquinas by 47-46

Knopick Hits Winning Shot

LA CROSSE, Wis. (Special)—Winona Cotter has its first basketball victory of the season today, thanks to a last-minute jump shot by Dave Knopick and a sharp second half defense.

Those two commodities gave the Ramblers a 47-46 triumph over La Crosse Aquinas at Mary E. Sawyer Auditorium Tuesday night.

ONCE AGAIN it was an uphill battle for the Ramblers. They trailed by nine points at the half, by ten at one point in the third period and by eight to start the final quarter.

Knopick, a 6-1 reserve center, scored six of Cotter's 12 points in the final eight minutes. His short jump shot with 70 seconds to play put Cotter in front 47-46, the Ramblers' first lead since a 4-3 advantage in the opening minutes.

The Ramblers, down 33-24 at the intermission, allowed the Bluejackets only 13 points in the last half, only four field goals in that span and only three points in the last period.

"OFFENSIVELY we didn't play as well as in our opener Sunday," said Coach John Nett. "But defensively we were much better."

Nett said he made no defensive adjustments in the second half, adding the "boys just sharpened up their defensive play."

"We seemed a little tired at the start," he said. "It might have been the bigger court."

The Ramblers hit at a 40 percent clip from the field on 10 for 25 in the first half and 10 for 34 in the second. Aquinas, which had won its opener Friday, was 13 for 27 and 4 for 20.

On the boards, the shorter Ramblers plucked off 32 rebounds, 19 on the defensive end.

A BASKET by Chuck Bigley and a free throw by Louis Ballin represented all of Aquinas' points in the last half.

With Knopick leading the way, the Ramblers drove hard for the victory. Russ Fisk, Gene Schultz and Rich Starzacki each chipped in buckets around Knopick's trio.

After going ahead, Cotter almost threatened to throw it away, taking and missing two shots before calling a time out. With 22 seconds to go, John R. Nett was fouled, but blew the 1-and-1 shot.

Aquinas got possession and got four shots off before Schultz came out of a melee with a jump ball with three seconds to go.

BOB JUDGE wound up with 13 points for high scoring honors for the Ramblers. But eight of Nett's 10 players contributed points. Starzacki and Sam Czaplinski each bagged eight.

Larry Hodgden scored 12 for Aquinas, all but one in the first half. Bigley added nine, seven in the first half.

Cotter makes its home debut Friday night against Eau Claire Regis at St. Stan's gym.

THREE MAPLE LEAF TEAMS WIN

Harmony, Boros Easy Victors

Chatfield Roms 58-26

Three Maple Leaf Conference squads flexed their basketball muscles with non-conference victories Tuesday night, but two others fell by the wayside in warmup encounters for league action.

Harmony was the biggest winner in the three lopsided affairs, trouncing Canton 81-35. Lanesboro had no trouble subduing Caledonia 71-46, while Stewartville presented no problem to Chatfield, bowing 58-26.

Spring Valley encountered a different fate, though, losing to Leroy 55-50, while Root River member Houston downed Preston 57-52.

HARMONY 81, CANTON 35. Harmony jumped to a first quarter lead of 25-8 and was never headed in dealing Canton a sound defeat by an 81-35 count on its home floor.

The host squad led 44-18 at the half and 68-27 after three periods.

Keith Asleson fired in 19 points to lead the Cardinals, and Chuck Berning added 14 to the Harmony coffers.

Don Halverson with 19 points and Norm Gullund with 10 were the big guns in the Canton arsenal.

Harmony also captured the "B" game, downing Canton 54-24.

LANESBORO 71, CALEDONIA 46.

Balanced scoring added up to an easy 71-46 victory for Lanesboro over Caledonia.

Larry Danielson netted 18, Jim Vigness tallied 13, and Brian Bell had 12 to lead the Burros.

Lanesboro started strong, piling up a 16-7 first period bulge, and widening it to 37-19 at halftime.

Caledonia trailed 50-29 after three periods.

Jim Harris registered 15 points to pace the visitors, while John Ask and Mike Percuoco each had 11 for the Warriors.

The "B" game also went to Lanesboro 42-20.

CHATFIELD 58, STEWARTVILLE 26.

Dick Tuohy found the range for 23 points to pace Chatfield's 58-26 rout of visiting Stewartville.

Tuohy's output was backed up by Wayne King's 10 points as the Gophers marched to a 34-6 halftime advantage and coasted in.

Stewartville edged Chatfield 36-35 in the "B" game.

LEROY 55, SPRING VALLEY 50.

Despite Les Ernster's 24-point production, Spring Valley went down to defeat 55-50 at the hands of Leroy.

The Wolves, down 28-24 at the half, rallied to within one point of the host squad at 36-35 going into the final period.

Darrel Grabau posted 16 points for the losing wolves. Ron Drum garnered 15 points for Leroy.

WYKOFF 45, ELKTON 38.

Wykoff staged a come-from-behind scoring spree and stopped Elkton 45-37, in a non-conference battle. Trailing 22-11 at halftime, the winners poured 22 points through the hoop to take a narrow 33-31 third quarter lead.

Wykoff outscored Elkton 12-6 in the final stanza.

Merlin Hare gained game scoring honors for Wykoff with 16 points. Chuck Haag led the losers with 10. Elkton won the "B" contest 30-26.

THIS WAS the most controversial play in last Saturday's Minnesota-Wisconsin football game that decided the Big Ten championship. Gopher Bobby Bell (78) charges in (No. 1) to tackle Badger quarterback Ron VanderKelen who is about to pass. The ball is still on VanderKelen's hand in No. 2 and then is in flight (No. 3). A game official called Bell for roughing VanderKelen (No. 4) before Minnesota intercepted the pass. A 15-yard penalty after Wisconsin was awarded possession of the ball and another

15-yard assessment against the Gopher bench for protesting gave the Badgers the ball on the 13 from where they scored. (AP Photo-fax)

Lake City Tips St. Felix 62-50

Bi-State Conference basketball teams needed a double overtime victory to avert three losses in Tuesday night action.

Lima Sacred Heart edged Arkansasaw of the Dunn-St. Croix Conference in the two extra periods 46-44 for the loop's sole victory, while two other schools were being decisively whipped.

Lake City downed Wabasha St. Felix 62-50 in a warmup for Hiawatha Valley action, while Gilman of the West Central Conference toppled Rollingstone Holy Trinity 50-42.

LAKE CITY 62, ST. FELIX 50. A strong first half carried Lake City to a 62-50 victory over St. Felix in the season opener for both teams at Wabasha.

The Tigers clawed to a 16-4 first period lead and stretched their margin to 35-13 at the half, more than enough to offset a second half Yellowjacket surge.

Lytle Peters netted 20 points for Lake City from his center post, while Don Rothgarn had 15 and Don Lotzcher 10 points.

Scoring honors for the game went to Wabasha's Dick Peters, a 5-11 forward, who scored 23 markers. Dave Kennebeck also stood out for the Yellowjackets, playing an outstanding floor game.

GILMANTON 50, ROLLINGSTONE 42. Gilman overcame an early Holy Trinity lead and held on to register a 50-42 victory at Rollingstone.

Trailing 14-11 after one period, the visitors rallied to take a 24-23 halftime lead and widened the gap to 38-33 going into the final frame.

Darrell VanBrunt bucketed 14 points to lead the visitors. Jerry Duckman and Wayne Loomis chipped in with 11 apiece for Gilman.

Dave Rinn's 10-point output paced Holy Trinity, while Jim Reisdorf was high rebounder for Rollingstone.

The loss evened Holy Trinity's season mark at 1-1.

LIMA 46, ARKANSAW 44. Lima Sacred Heart outscored Arkansasaw 5-3 in a second overtime period to gain a 46-44 non-conference victory.

Regulation play ended 37-37 and the first overtime 41-41. Lima had led 22-17 at the intermission.

John Bilderbach scored 17 points and John Bauer 10 for Lima, which had lost twice this season. High for Arkansasaw were Scott Herbst with 14 and Joe Yingst with 13.

Minnesota, Badgers Cop Loop Honors

CHICAGO (AP)—Wisconsin's champion Badgers finished as the top offensive team in the Big Ten this year and runner-up Minnesota, as expected, was No. 1 on defense.

Wisconsin posted the highest scoring average in the league with 28.4 points a game. Minnesota allowed opposing teams 58.2 yards per game. The Gophers yielded 1.5 yards per play on the ground and 2.8 yards a play overall.

Five records were broken during the season. Single game marks included Ohio State's 517 yards gained against Illinois and Illinois' 42 passes attempted against Minnesota.

Season records included Minnesota's 59.2 yards rushing per game, Northwestern's average of 199.5 yards a game passing and Michigan State's 3.7 average in most fumbles lost.

Wisconsin, in gaining its eighth championship and fifth undisputed title, average 5.0 yards per play and 337.0 yards a game.

Oregon's Baker Adds Heisman to Trophies

NEW YORK (AP)—Heisman Award winner Terry Baker, Oregon State's brilliant quarterback, today was named the Associated Press Back of the Week for leading his team to its eighth victory in 10 starts last Saturday.

Baker threw two touchdown passes — both boldly on fourth down — in Oregon State's comeback from behind 20-17 victory over Oregon. His second touchdown pass provided the margin of victory in the fourth quarter and cemented a Liberty Bowl spot for the Beavers.

Further Baker, a standout mechanical engineering student who was named the Heisman Trophy recipient Tuesday after a close race with Louisiana State halfback Jerry Stovall, also gained 117 yards against Oregon.

This belted him past Frank Sinkwich as the second all-time single-season offensive leader with a total of 2,276 yards. Johnny Bright of Drake set the all-time record of 2,400 in 1950. Baker's 4,980 career total offense mark also is exceeded only by Bright's 5,903.

Baker, 6-foot-3 and 191 pounds, also enabled teammate Vern Burke to set an all-time record with 67 passes caught. Baker's first period scoring pass against Oregon was a 3-yard pitch to Burke.

In the Heisman voting by 1,109 sports writers and sportscasters, Baker compiled 707 points to 618 for Stovall. Then came Minnesota tackle Bobby Bell, Alabama center Lee Roy Jordan, Miami quarterback George Mira, Wisconsin end Pat Richter, Michigan State fullback George Salmes, Georgia Tech quarterback Bill Lothridge, Wisconsin quarterback Ron VanderKelen and Brigham Young tailback Eldon Fortie.

The Heisman Award is presented annually to the outstanding performer in college football. Athletic Club, which sponsors the trophy, on Dec. 5.

Only one league game was slated in the Dairyland Conference Tuesday night, with Osseo defeating Eleva-Strum 47-42 to post its first loop triumph in two starts.

ES is now 0-2.

In other action involving Dairyland quintets, undefeated Alma Center downed Taylor 63-53, and Independence halted Arcadia 54-44.

OSSEO 47, ELEVA-STRUM 42.

Osseo used balanced scoring and a fourth quarter rally to post its first league victory 47-42 at Eleva-Strum.

The Cardinals rallied from a 14-5 first period deficit to tie the game at 19-19 at the half, then moved into a 35-34 lead going into the final stanza before Osseo took charge.

Steve Vold and Gary Otfedahl each had 14 for the victors, while Dan Olson added 13.

Jerry Vetterkind potted 13 in the losing Cardinal cause.

ALMA CENTER 63, TAYLOR 53.

A good zone press spelled the differences as visiting Alma Center Lincoln knocked off Taylor 63-53 in a battle of undefeated squads.

Taylor held a 21-16 lead after one period, but Lincoln moved into a 35-32 halftime advantage. Alma Center iced the tilt by outscoring the host squad 13-6 in the third period to take a 48-38 lead into the final stanza.

Dave Arndson, Ray Ransorn, and Bob Hart shared scoring honors for Alma Center with 15, 14, and 13 points respectively.

Arlin Sten was Taylor's big gun with 16 points. Bob Strande potted 12.

The victory was the second in as many outings for the Hornets, while the loss was the first for Taylor after three triumphs.

INDEPENDENCE 54, ARCADIA 44.

Independence used a big third quarter to dump visiting Arcadia 54-44.

The Indees outscored arcadia 19-7 in the third period to snap a 21-21 halftime tie and take a comfortable 40-28 lead into the final stanza.

Butch Bauch led a trio of independence cagers in double figures with 15 points. Connie Marsolek had 13 and Duane Pape had 12.

Larry Sobotta and Bob Brownlee each canned 11 for Arcadia.

The victory moved the Indees' season mark to 3-1, while the contest was the season inaugural for the Raiders.

Houston, Peterson Post Cage Verdicts

Two Root River Conference squads posted victories in non-conference tests Tuesday night.

Houston downed Preston 57-52, while Peterson crushed Elgin 76-41 practice matches before league play opens.

HOUSTON 57, PRESTON 52.

A balanced scoring attack opened the door to victory for Houston as the Hurricanes swept by Preston 57-52.

After playing the first period to a 16-16 deadlock, the Hurricanes took a 31-28 halftime lead and widened their bulge over the visitors to 49-41 entering the fourth quarter.

Four men hit double figures for Houston, paced by J. O. Benson's 18 points. Steve Bremseth netted 13 and Ron Anwash and Tom Runnigan each had 12.

For Preston, Joe Specht dunked 19 points and Rich Rislove tallied 18. Rich Milne chipped in with 10.

Preston captured the "B" game 33-28.

PETERSON 76, ELGIN 41.

Peterson's high-flying offense coupled with a tenacious defense spelled a lopsided victory for the home squad over Elgin 76-41.

The victors sprinted to a 23-7 lead after one period and pushed it to 42-19 at the half. After three quarters Peterson was ahead 65-27.

Stan Gudmundson scored 27 points for Peterson, while Merton Boyum notched 20 and Stan Olson tossed in 15.

Dave Gjerdengen netted 16 to lead Elgin, while Dave Prescher had 10.

Elgin upended Peterson 30-24 in the "B" game.

RAIDERS WIN; SCARLETS TUMBLE

Big Nine schools split Tuesday night in a pair of non-conference games.

Northfield opened its season with a 57-47 romp over Hastings as Terry Frederick scored 26 points.

Mankato made its debut by dropping a 58-41 decision to Fairmont. Top scorer for the Scarlets was Craig Quiseth with 15.

Milwaukee Deals Adcock to Tribe

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—Lew Burdette today was expected to follow Joe Adcock to other pastures in the unloading of Milwaukee's well-seasoned stars of the old glory days.

Adcock, a key man of the 1957-58 National League champions, was shipped to Cleveland Tuesday night in an inter-league trade that brought pitcher Frank Funk, outfielder Don Dillard and a third player to be delivered at a later date.

The Braves also sent along Jack Curtis, a left-handed pitcher, whose contract was assigned to Cleveland's Jacksonville farm club in the International League.

Then in the wee hours of the morning, the Detroit Tigers solidified their sagging bullpen by acquiring right-handed pitcher Bob Anderson from the Chicago Cubs in exchange for third baseman Steve Boros.

It was the third deal in a week for Detroit, which is expected to use newly acquired John (Bubba) Phillips at Boros' position next season. Phillips came from the Cleveland Indians earlier this week for pitchers Ron Nischwitz and Gordon Seyfried.

The Tigers also have acquired veteran catcher Gus Triandos from Baltimore along with outfielder Whitey Herzog for catcher Dick Brown.

"This is just the start," said Bobby Bragan, new manager of the Braves.

Bragan did not specify that Burdette, who hurled three victories over the New York Yankees in 1957 in one of the greatest pitching exhibitions in World Series history, would be the next man to go. It is understood, however, that the Braves are committed to rid themselves of all their older big name players except Warren Spahn.

Burdette, 36, last season experienced his poorest campaign since the Braves moved to Milwaukee in 1953. The canny right-hander won only 10 of 19 decisions and completed only six starts.

"Both Funk and Dillard are young players who figure to help us," said Bragan. "Funk will be our No. 1 reliever."

Bragan said he expected to play Tommy Aaron at first base. Aaron hit .231 in 141 games as a rookie in 1962.

Funk, a 26-year-old right-hander did a fine relief job for Cleveland in 1961 when he won 11 games but slumped to a 2-1 record last season before he was shipped out to Salt Lake City.

Dillard, 26, is a left-handed hitter who was used as a utility outfielder and hit .230 in 95 games for the Indians.

Adcock, right-handed slugger with 270 home runs and a .282 lifetime average, dropped off to .248 last season but cracked 29 home runs and drove in 78 runs in 121 games. The 35-year-old first baseman played under Tebbetts when Birdie managed Milwaukee last year.

"Joe is the top banana Cleveland didn't have last year," said Tebbetts. "He's the guy who can deliver the long ball for us."

The Cincinnati Reds traded rookie infielder Octavio (Cookie) Rojas to Philadelphia for veteran pitcher Jim Owens. The New York Mets purchased right-handed pitcher Wynn Hawkins from the Indians for a reported $25,000.

Lake City Mat Team Triumphs

LAKE CITY, Minn. (Special)—Lake City captured eight out of ten matches en route to an easy 40-16 wrestling victory over Pine Island here Tuesday.

It was the first dual match of the season for the Tigers.

Lake City winners included Steve Richardson, 95 pounds; Church Hulse, 103; Don Brunner, 127; Roger, Sharette, 135; Rick Kindworth, 145; Jerry Dahling, 154; Bruce Wohlers, 175; and Byron Bremner, heavyweight.

Ronnie Berg, 112, and Jim Selstad, 120, were the only Pine Island grapplers to register pins.

HOST ROCHESTER FRIDAY NIGHT

Winhawk Tankers Rebuild Around Three Lettermen

By FRANK BRUESKE
Daily News Sports Writer

"This year will be a rebuilding year for us," says Lloyd Luke, coach of the Winona Winhawks swimming team. "We have only three returning lettermen as we lost several top-flight swimmers through graduation."

Pacing the returning lettermen will be John Sanders, a junior backstroke and current holder of the school's backstroke record set last year. Other lettermen include junior backstroke Graham Jacobsen and Greg Gerlach. They top a field of 83 candidates trying for berths on the tank squad.

LOST THROUGH graduation were John Van Winkle, Frank Braun, Dick Rydman and Larry Olson. Van Winkle, a freestyler, is swimming for Macalester this year; Braun, a relay swimmer, is trying out for the Eastern New Mexico tank squad, and Rydman and Olson will compete for berths on Winona State's team.

Several non-lettermen look promising to Luke. They include two seniors, Jerry Rusert, a 200 and 400-yard freestyler, and Chuck Rogers, a breaststroke. Brent Rossi, a junior will compete in the breaststroke event.

"Fegre should be one of the school's better sprinters," he said.

JOHN EDSTROM and Tom Stever, both juniors, will head the diving events. They will be backed up by two eighth graders, Robert Staricka and Fred Williams. Larry Anderson, a freshman, and Billy Braun, an eighth grader, will battle for top honors in the butterfly event.

Other promising candidates include junior Tom Murray; sophomores, Rick Storsie, Don Staricka, Allen Kralz, Gary Mahlie, John Hoelt, Terry Spatz, and Dick Heise; freshmen, Roy Berger, Tom Findlay, Jim Grant, Bill Kane, James Murray, and Tom Sanders; and eighth graders, Sam Gaustad, Mark Johnson, Craig Savord, Rick Cox, Ken Armstrong and Robert Rydman. Eighteen seventh graders and 27 eighth graders reported for practice.

Luke picks Rochester, last season's defending state champion, as the toughest team in the state. And the Winhawks host the Rockets in their first meet of the season at 7:30 p.m. Friday at the Winona pool. Swimming with Rochester will be John Salassa, a tanker who holds many school and several state records. Luke regards him as the outstanding swimmer in the state.

Luke picks Austin, Edina, Hopkins and St. Louis Park as the other top teams in the state. Winona meets all four schools.

LUKE WHO has been swim coach at Winona High since 1954, would like to improve on last season's 2-7 mark, but he admits it will be tough.

"There are only three schools in the Big Nine who field swim teams—Winona, Austin, and Rochester. We meet other strong teams throughout the area," he said.

The Winhawk swimmers will battle in 12 meets before entering the conference tourney at Rochester Feb. 22 and the state meet March 1-2 at Minneapolis.

"We will be strong in the backstroke," Luke commented. "I have some good material in the breaststroke and short sprints, but it takes time to develop good swimmers."

Dwayne Bucher is assistant coach.

Lewies Meet Preston Five Friday Night

LEWISTON, Minn. (Special)—Lewiston's Cardinals, minus six of last year's key players, face a 17-game basketball schedule this season.

Coach Pete Polus' team, which opened at Plainview last Wednesday, travels to Preston Friday night and Dover-Eyota Dec. 7 before opening at home Dec. 14 against Rollington Holy Trinity.

Jim Matzke, a 6-4 sophomore forward, and 5-9 guard Steve Nahrang form the nucleus for this year's squad. Nahrang is a junior.

Along with that pair is 5-10 Gene Sim who saw considerable action last season.

Battling for other positions are Jim Duane, 5-8; Tom Schultz, 5-11½; and Dave Mueller, 5-11.

Rounding out the "A" squad are several members of last year's "B" team. These include Rollie Burt, Tom Ihke, Lee Ladewig and Jerry Mueller.

Of the 28 who reported for drills, three are seniors, six juniors, nine sophomores and 10 freshmen.

The Cardinals last year compiled a 13-5 record and averaged 59 points per game to opponents' 49.1.

Rebels May Cop Offense, Defense Crowns With Win

NEW YORK (AP)—Mississippi, the major college defensive leader, has an outside chance of winding up the current season as both the offense and defense king of the major colleges.

Ole Miss needs only to beat Mississippi State Saturday to complete the first undefeated-untied season in the school's history. Its 131.8 yards-against defense average appears safe. Second place Memphis State, which already has finished its season, has a 147.1 average.

In the total offense department, Ole Miss is rolling along in third place with a 370.3 yards-gained average. Arizona State, the leader, has a 384.4 mark and second place Oregon State a 375.2 average.

The target for Mississippi against Mississippi State will be 498 yards in total offense. That would give Ole Miss the crown. The Rebels' top effort this season was 545, so they are not shooting at an impossible target.

Minnesota is first in rushing defense (52.2) and New Mexico in forward passing defense (66.8). Ole Miss is third in rushing defense (70.4) and second in forward pass defense (61.4).

Offensively, Wisconsin leads the team scorers with an average of 31.7 points per game.
