By WALTER MEARS
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater's top New Hampshire backer said today he thinks the conservative lawmaker will win that state's first-in-the-nation presidential primary despite the early campaign launched by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller. Sen. Norris Cotton of New Hampshire said he looks for "a fine aggressive" Rockefeller campaign.

Rockefeller Seeks Votes in N. Hampshire

By ROBERT T. GRAY
NASHUA, N.H. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller continued today his all-out campaign to "get out and meet the people and discuss the issues" in the highly strategic New Hampshire primary.

But the Goldwater lieutenant added: "We don't want an early campaign. We want a campaign that steadily intensifies until the end. And I'm just optimistic to think that we can carry New Hampshire."

Rocky Brings Rain

MILFORD, N.H. (AP) — Rain fell in sheets on this town, ending a protracted dry spell, as Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York campaigned for votes in New Hampshire's presidential primary.

Goldwater, who tops polls in the nation on the 1964 Republican presidential nomination, stuck to the no-comment policy he has followed since Rockefeller declared himself a candidate Thursday.

driving rain. But he kept a fast-moving pace.

Dewey—who made two unsuccessful bids for the White House—said Rockefeller's leadership "and remarkable achievements in New York make him the logical Republican candidate for president and I wish him every success."

The New York governor's schedule contained visits to three industrial plants to meet workers and the opening in Concord of the first, official Rockefeller—for-president headquarters.

And if he does become a candidate, Goldwater said in Concord, N.H., 10 days ago, he will enter the March 10 New Hampshire primary and campaign actively in the state.

The governor, 55, announced Thursday at the New York capital in Albany his official candidacy for the Republican nomination for president.

Cotton, top name among Goldwater supporters in New Hampshire, said he always has believed Rockefeller would be "a very formidable candidate" in the primary. But he added: "I feel that Sen. Goldwater will carry New Hampshire."

He then plunged immediately into his campaign to win the New Hampshire presidential preference primary next March 10.

Allied Convoys Pass Freely

BERLIN (AP)—A small U.S. military convoy crossed the autobahn from West Germany to Berlin today without incident as the Western Allies opened a new test of Soviet intentions on the superhighway.

Rockefeller entered the campaign a decided underdog. Goldwater is rated the favorite for New Hampshire's GOP convention support.

A French military convoy cleared the Soviet checkpoint at Marienborn at the western end of the autobahn to begin the 110-mile journey across Communist East Germany to Berlin. A British convoy was right behind.

Rockefeller conceded at several points Thursday that he was far behind but said he felt he could win with an intensive, personal campaign in which he would meet as many New Hampshire voters as possible and present his views to them.

The U.S. convoy consisted of only six vehicles and eight men.

Man Killed Moving Loaded Gun in Auto

ZIMMERMAN, Minn. (AP)—A Zimmerman man died Thursday night of a gunshot wound suffered in what the Sherburne County sheriff described as a deer shining accident.

Douglas Kluge, 23, of Zimmerman, married and the father of two children was shot through the heart.

Sheriff Chester Goerner of Sherburne County said Kluge's two companions, his brother, Dennis, 19, and Richard Roiz, 25, also of Zimmerman, admitted the trio had been shining near the Sand Dune State Forest about six miles west of here.

Douglas Kluge was in the car when the others outside, spotted a deer, the sheriff said. Douglas was trying to hand a high-powered rifle to Roiz when the weapon discharged, the sheriff said.

The car lurched forward, the shooting victim fell out, and the auto went into a ditch. Authorities theorized Douglas may have had his foot on the clutch when he was shot.

Sheriff Goerner said the car, guns and shining equipment were confiscated.

The Minnesota deer season begins Saturday.

Holy Office Under Attack at Church Council

By EUGENE LEVIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

VATICAN CITY (AP) — A German cardinal's attack on the Holy Office, the Vatican's administrative guardian of doctrine, today sparked the liveliest debate so far in the Roman Catholic Council.

Joseph Cardinal Frings of Cologne, a leading progressive, said Holy Office procedures are often unfair and unjust. He said—according to council press spokesmen—that Holy Office methods "are badly in need of updating."

There was a burst of applause in the council hall in St. Peter's Basilica, although council rules forbid it.

The debate on the Holy Office came as the council continued discussion on relations between bishops and the curia, the central administration assisting the Pope.

Council press spokesmen gave this account: Cardinal Frings said: "It is not fair for the Holy Office to accuse, judge and condemn any individual without his having a chance to defend himself at a hearing."

"With due deference to those carrying on this Holy Office work, there must be an updating more in keeping with the mentality of today."

William Randall
Ramsey County Attorney

is accused of instigating the death of his wife last March to collect $1,055,000 in insurance.

"In our conversation it is indicated that it would not be necessary to notify the following companies of the total amount of insurance in force on my wife," the letter continued.

The letter dealt with two general accident policies, with Time Insurance Co. and Zurich Insurance Co.

Over the defense's objection, Randall succeeded in having a copy of a policy for $30,000 on Mrs. Carol Thompson admitted into evidence.

It was admitted while Theodore D. Gray, of suburban New Brighton, was on the witness stand. Gray was the underwriter on the policy for General Accident Life Insurance Co.

Winter told the court Thompson, 35, had applied for a quarter million dollars worth of policies on Mrs. Thompson but that the three firms concerned finally had granted a total of $105,000 on the slain woman's life.

The witness, known to both Thompson and his wife since the three were students at Macalester College in St. Paul, said the final of the three policies—issued by General Insurance Co. for $30,000—was delivered in late January.

Senate Bans Aid To Tito, Arabs

SENATOR GETS IN BAD

Flays Senate's Hours

WASHINGTON (AP) — Declaring he "felt like a skunk at the lawn party," Sen. Thomas Dodd has offered his regrets for steaming up the Senate's decorous atmosphere.

And the senators welcomed the abashed member back in the club with a round of applause.

So ended two days of harsh words that began with Dodd's charge Wednesday that the Senate leaders are maintaining Wall Street hours of 12 to 5 while legislation is gathering dust.

Neither of the leaders, Republican Everett M. Dirksen or Democrat Mike Mansfield, was present at the time.

But Thursday Dirksen was almost waiting at the door, his temper ruffled, his usual mellow tones brassy.

"If you want night sessions, we'll keep you here, and then you will know what's going on," Dirksen shouted at Dodd.

Dodd explained that when he first spoke out he was "upset by all these delays we have been having" but that he wanted to tell his fellow senators "we do have wonderful men to lead us."

Mansfield took it easy on his Democratic colleague and said he is not going to turn the Senate into a sideshow to "give the appearance of being busy for the purpose of impressing the boss—the American people."

Home Wins Commons Seat by Large Margin

margin, of the Commons seat for the district of Luton.

British Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home won a seat in the House of Commons today by a whopping 9,328-vote margin which he hoped would take some sting out of a bad Conservative party defeat in another special election.

Defeat of the prime minister in the safe Conservative district of Kinross and West Perthshire would have been unprecedented disaster for the Conservatives and would have plunged Britain into a government crisis.

The Perthshire vote was: Douglas-Home, 14,147; Alastair Duncan Millar, Liberal, 1,819; Andrew Forrester, Laborite, 3,752; Arthur Donaldson, Scottish Nationalist, 1,801; Ian Smith, Independent, 78; William Rushton, Independent, 45; and Richard Wort, Independent, 23.

Instead Douglas-Home's big victory was a psychological counter to his party's loss Thursday night, by another big

In a three-sided race in the 1959 general election, the Conservatives won the same district by a 12,000-vote margin. No one had expected them to come anywhere near that figure this time.

The 60-year-old prime minister was a member of the House of Lords until he renounced his earldom to succeed Harold Macmillan.

Rain Breaks U.S. Drought

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
More rain splashed across parched areas in Eastern sections in the nation today, alleviating drought conditions and replenishing dwindling water supplies in many states.

A storm off the Delaware coast during the night set off rain storms over broad sections from Virginia northward. Rainfall amounts tapered off in some areas but some locally heavy downpours were reported in parts of New England. Nearly two inches of rain doused Rumford, Maine, in a six-hour period.

He prepared to return to London today for the clash with Harold Wilson's Laborites that will come with the opening of the new parliamentary session Tuesday.

A rain storm that swept New York City from Tuesday night until Thursday midnight dumped 4.30 inches, more than any storm in the past eight years. Nearly three inches fell Thursday, the biggest amount for a single day in more than three years.

Central Pennsylvania, hit hard by drought conditions and forest fires, had the heaviest rainfall in more than a year and amounts in New England were the biggest this year.

Rusk Hopes Viet Nam Can Be Free Now

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today the new government of South Viet Nam brings hope that the troubled nation can be "free and secure."

Rusk told a news conference on the day following recognition of the new government by the United States and Britain, that this country has no special interest of its own in Viet Nam and never has had a selfish concern there.

The American interest from the outset, he said, has been to insure survival of the nation against the threat of Communist takeover.

"Luton was the last page of the chapter and Kinross-West Perth was the first page of the new."

The prime minister predicted a victory for the Conservatives in the next general election, due to be held within the next year.

Results of the Luton race, announced just before midnight, were a shock for the Conservatives.

Two Dead in State Fires

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A St. Paul man and a small Park Rapids, Minn., girl lost their lives in fires Thursday.

James Hanson, 43, suffocated Thursday night when fire heavily damaged an old frame apartment house in St. Paul. Three other tenants were treated for smoke inhalation and released.

Lori Schmitt, 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Schmitt, died earlier Thursday in a fire that destroyed a neighbor's machine shed two miles west of Park Rapids. The child wasn't missed for an hour following the fire, and then her body was found in the ashes.

The judge was charged in a complaint signed by Lawrence Kabage, father of Jenny Kabage, the girl he is accused of slapping.

Debate Will Be Resumed On Monday

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
WASHINGTON (AP) — Turning its back on the White House and on its own leaders, the Senate has voted to ban aid to Yugoslavia and the United Arab Republic.

Despite administration wishes for a free hand, the Senate Thursday nailed these prohibitions into the foreign aid authorization bill and approved another amendment to keep the lid on assistance to Indonesia.

For good measure, the Senate approved still another ban on aid—this to nations whose fishing policies "violate freedom of the seas."

Administration forces clearly were reeling as the Senate closed up shop after its first night session since taking up foreign aid a week ago Monday.

The slow and rocky road to passage of the $3,742,365,000 measure is strewn with 47 additional amendments, aimed either at paring the authorization or restricting how the funds be used.

A voice vote brought home the amendment to deny Presidential aid to Communist Cuba.

dent Kennedy any discretion to provide military or economic assistance to Communist Yugoslavia.

Administration forces plan to fight later to restore the President's discretion to provide most-favored-nation trade treatments for Yugoslavia and Poland, barred last year by Congress.

Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., put through the amendment to cut off all aid to Communist Yugoslavia except for some surplus food and for assistance to American schools, libraries and hospitals.

And Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, said he will offer an amendment to wipe out completely the President's discretion to aid any Communist country under any circumstance.

Under present law foreign aid cannot be given Yugoslavia, Poland and other Communist countries unless the President determines the assistance is vital to the security of the United States, the recipient is not controlled by the Kremlin and that the aid will promote the country's independence.

Earlier the Senate voted 57-29 to ban foreign aid to any nation that asserts fishing jurisdiction beyond limits recognized by the United States.

Judge Who Spanked Kasson Girl Charged

KASSON, Minn. (AP) — A Mantorville, Minn., municipal judge, claiming he was "holding court in the street" when he slapped an 11-year-old girl for throwing fireworks on the pavement, has had a misdemeanor assault charge filed against him.

The judge was charged in a complaint signed by Lawrence Kabage, father of Jenny Kabage, the girl he is accused of slapping.

Paulsruide said he is empowered "to hold court anywhere in the county." He said he slapped the girl on the face once, and "patted her little bottom" last Friday.

Judge L.A. Paulsruide, 49, appeared before Mrs. Rose Beaver, Kasson municipal judge, Thursday. He refused to enter a plea, but Mrs. Beaver entered a plea of innocent for him, and set his trial for next Friday.

The Dodge County attorney declined to prosecute the case, and asked state Atty. Gen. Walter F. Mondale to appoint a prosecutor. Mondale named J. Earl Cudd of his office.

Fountain City Native Killed In Plane Crash

FOUNTAIN CITY, Wis. — Dr. Clarence C. Witmer, 29, a resident here 20 years, died Monday when the private plane he was piloting was forced down and crashed in rain and fog near Willow, Calif.

He was returning to his home in Redding, Calif., where he was a dentist. With him, and also killed in the crash, was a fellow dentist from Red Bluff, Calif.

Dr. Witmer, son of the Rev. and Mrs. M. C. Witmer, was born in Zwingle, Iowa, Aug. 19, 1934, and moved to Fountain City in 1936. He attended grade and high school there. After attending the University of Wisconsin, he was graduated from the Marquette University dental school in 1958. He received his master's degree in orthodontia from Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., in 1960, and opened practice in Redding the same year.

Survivors are: Parents, Juneau, Wis.; a brother, David, Middleton, Wis., and a sister, Mrs. John (Margaret) Cross, Winona.

A memorial service was held Thursday in Redding. Another will be held later at Emanuel United Church of Christ, Franklin, Wis., where he will be buried.

Plainview Bus Hearing Slated

PLAINVIEW, Minn. (Special) —As a result of 14 area farmers attending the Plainview Board of Education meeting Monday night, a public hearing will be held in the public school library Nov. 18 at 8 p.m. on the question of bus transportation.

Parents complained of the change of bus routes, making it necessary for rural children to walk farther. This is a hardship, particularly in winter, they said, with no protection from wind and no warming stations.

The routes were changed to cut the cost of transportation. Because of legal problems, the board denied a request by students requesting that a 4-H group practice plays in the school gym without charge.

Superintendent Ray Pearson discussed a new concept of education, the nongraded high school. The board advised Pearson to continue a study of the nongraded school, involve the faculty in further investigation of it, and advise the state Department of Education of the study with the possibility of moving into this kind of program in the future.

Pearson was authorized to rent a garage for the school-owned bus at the best possible figure.

Lanesboro Parents To Attend School Next Wednesday

LANESBORO, Minn. (Special) — In observance of American Education Week, parents of students at Lanesboro High School have been invited to attend Back to School Night next Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

900 on Petition In Trempealeau For Les Johnson

STRUM, Wis. — More than 900 Trempealeau County residents have signed a petition urging Cong. Lester Johnson (D-9th) to seek election in the 3rd District next year. The signers, pledged him their support.

John Radcliffe, Strum, announced this grassroots "Keep Johnson in Congress" movement Wednesday. Radcliffe is a former chairman of the Trempealeau County Democratic party and an ardent supporter of Johnson. The petition was sent to Johnson.

Last month the party's executive board adopted a resolution urging him to run in the 3rd District next year.

NSPA Gives Paper At Eleva-Strum Highest Rating

STRUM, Wis. — Central Hi-Lites, newspaper of Central High School, Eleva-Strum, won the All American award for the second semester last year.

The rating was given by the National Scholastic Press Association. The newspaper has won it six times.

Hi-Lites received 3,495 points, with 3,400 needed for this superior rating. Carolyn Maug was editor. Only one other newspaper in its class made All American.

Central's 1963 Cardinal, the annual, and Hi-Lites both placed in competition at the Chipewa Valley School Press conference at Eau Claire State College recently. The Cardinal received second in the B division. Marilyn Johnson and Gerry Lou Olson were editors, with Mrs. Howard Rose, adviser. B division includes schools with enrollment of less than 300.

John Dinkel of the newspaper staff received a prize for an article. Mrs. Sylvan Olson is adviser.

Chest Receipts Increase; 80% Mark Passed

"Things are beginning to roll," G. M. Grabow, Community Chest general campaign chairman, said today. Collections now have passed the 80 percent mark, he said.

As a result of appeals to donors whose returns were still unreported, Grabow said, the fund drive picked up momentum this week with receipt of a number of contributions from firms and individuals.

Some contributors have reconsidered and have upped their gifts, Grabow said, following suggestions that this action is necessary for achievement of the $137,700 goal this year.

Chest officials said they are optimistic that the quota will be reached within the next few days. A progress report will be released Sunday.

Fire Damages Private Garage

Fire of an undetermined origin destroyed most of the contents, roof and east wall of a garage on East Howard Street Thursday evening.

Owner of the garage Arthur W. Schroetke, 723 E. Howard St., said this morning that a complete listing of the damaged and destroyed property is not available. All of the family's winter clothing, which was stored in a closet in the garage, and five bicycles were lost.

Fire Chief John Steadman said the cause is unknown, but said it probably was spontaneous combustion. There was no wiring or heating plant in the garage.

When firemen arrived shortly after receiving a call at 8:55 p.m. the fire was nearly out of control. It seemed to be burning from the roof down. Fourteen firemen worked an hour, using 2½- and 1½-inch hose.

Schroetke was not home when the fire started.

Schroetke said since his house doesn't have a basement, much of the family's property was stored in the garage. Lumber and storm and screen windows also were lost. The loss was partly insured.

Chief Steadman said there was one gallon of kerosene in the garage. The door was closed when Schroetke left.

Shingles on the roof of a summer kitchen or shed owned by a neighbor, Roy Vose, 715 E. Howard St., were scorched.

FOR WEEKEND:

Cloudy and Warm Weather Predicted

Some rain but no cold weather. That's the forecast for Winona and vicinity for the weekend.

Considerable cloudiness and continued mild tonight and Saturday is forecast with a low of 30-40 tonight and a high of 55-62 Saturday. There is, said the weatherman, a chance of a few light showers through Saturday. Occasional cloudiness and continued mild is the outlook for Sunday.

THE EXTENDED forecast for the next five days continues the good news with a prediction of average temperatures 6 to 10 degrees above seasonal normals through Wednesday.

Normally Winona can expect daytime highs of 40-45 at this time of the year and nighttime lows of around 28.

Precipitation is expected to average .20 of an inch in occasional rain about the middle of next week.

The temperature rose to 55 Thursday afternoon, dropped to 42 during the night and was 49 at noon today. The heavy fog of Thursday morning was not repeated today.

A year ago today the Winona high was 40 and the low 32. All-time high for Nov. 8 was 69 in 1931 and the low 13 in 1892 and 1925. Mean for the past 24 hours was 48. The normal mean for Nov. 8 is 39.

Temperatures generally were mild across the state today with usually cold International Falls and Bemidji posting morning readings of 42. It was 41 at Rochester and 37 at La Crosse.

Most motorists in WISCONSIN didn't have the foggiest notion of what was a few yards ahead of them this morning.

Fog so thick it slowed down traffic and halted airline operations blanked most of the state as temperatures continued mild.

Heavy fog zeroed in on Green Bay, Lone Rock, Madison, Beloit, Clintonville and Stevens Point. Some light drizzle was reported at Madison and Clintonville.

The fog moved in shortly after darkness Thursday night and persisted through the night.

Beloit was the warmest spot in the state Thursday with 64 degrees.

Ashland set the low of 33 early today.

LAREDO, TEX., set the national high of 92 degrees Thursday, compared with the low of 21 early today at Burns, Ore.

Illegitimate Births Up In Minnesota

ST. PAUL (AP) — The illegitimate birth rate in Minnesota rose 8.3 per cent to reach an all-time high in 1962. The State Department of Health reported Thursday.

There were 2,965 illegitimate births reported in the state in 1962, compared with 2,737 in 1961. In the Health Department's base year of 1951, there were 1,600.

The rate of illegitimate births also went up, from 31.6 per 1,000 live births in 1961, to 34.9 per 1,000 births last year.

The health department said 75 per cent of the mothers bearing illegitimate children ranged in age from 15 to 25, and 39 per cent of the mothers were 15 to 20.

The department's report on 1962 also showed that fewer babies died than in any previous year in state history—only 21 babies out of each 1,000 live births.

Minnesota's divorce rate jumped 7.7 per cent in 1962, from 4,175 in 1961 to 4,495 in 1962.

Estimated state population rose from 3,456,784 to 3,492,716 during the year.

Rash of Flats After Truck Loses Nails

GENEVA, Minn. (AP) — Motorists along a stretch of county highway just east of here complained about a rash of flat tires Thursday, with one driver reporting five tires punctured — including the spare after it was put on the car.

Mower County highway crews using a magnet, picked up 28 pounds of nails along a four-mile span of the road. They later learned their haul had come from a barrel of nails, accidentally overturned on a moving truck.

Twenty lawyers, accountants, phone company officers and PSC personnel have been working on the case. Testimony Wednesday showed that General offered to buy Beef River for $4,000 in January 1961. In January 1962 it upped the figure to $17,000 because of improvements made. ACCORDING to testimony, Robert Prosser, vice president of Beef River, told D. E. Anderson, Plymouth, then General's division manager at Black River Falls, the stockholders might approve an offer of $75,000 plus a contribution to the nursing home. In February 1962 Prosser said $50,000 plus a contribution to the nursing home might be approved. During a recess Prosser said Beef River has offered to sell its property to the city of Osseo, Northwest Telephone Co., or Tri-County Telephone Co-op if General will agree to sell in the

Four Charged With 'Shining' In Hart Area

Four Wyattville area hunters appeared in municipal court here today on gross misdemeanor or game violation charges. All are charged with using car's headlights to hunt wild animals.

Three of the four are brothers. They are John A., 21, Wayne W., 20, and Willard V. Wenzel, 19, Lewiston Rt. 1. The fourth is a neighbor, Norman H. Eggert, 33, rural Rushford.

They asked for preliminary hearings and Judge John D. McGill set the date for the hearings for next Friday. He set bail at $300 for each.

Game Warden Francis Teske arrested the four at 10:10 p.m. Thursday in a field in Hart Township about three miles south of Wyattville.

Teske claims that they were using the headlights of a car to shine or spot wild game for the purpose of hunting and shooting the game. An 8 mm. Mauser rifle, 300 Savage rifle and Stevens 30-30 caliber rifle were being used, he said.

Eggert had posted $500 bail and $200 was refunded. The others also posted bail.

Richard D. Raby, assistant county attorney, represented the state this morning.

Welfare Board Gets Audit Report

A report on the recent routine state audit of welfare department financial affairs was given at Thursday's meeting of the Winona County Welfare Board by William P. Werner, department director.

The board reviewed one case questioning the ability of a child to contribute to his mother's support, then ordered Werner to send the child notice to so contribute.

Werner also reported to the board that his department had completed eight studies for the probate court involving cases of alleged mental illness.

Werner told the board that the department had completed one adoptive placement since the last meeting of the board. Five babies were referred to private agencies for adoptive placement, and two adoption studies are now being made, the director said.

The board increased Werner's bond from $20,000 to $25,000. It also approved payment of October bills and settlement of four claims against real estate.

All board members were present at the meeting. They are, in addition to Werner, who is the group's secretary, Leo Borkowski, Goodview, president; Adolph Spitzer, St. Charles; James Papenfuss, Dakota; Leonard Merchlewitz, Winona; Carl O. Peterson, Fremont Township; Roy Swett, Dakota; and Mrs. Paul Michalowski, Winona.

Next meeting was set for Nov. 21.

First Aid Class Set for Lewiston

LEWISTON, Minn. (Special) — At the request of Ray Johns, Winona civil defense director, Walter Stellwagen, Lewiston CD director, has scheduled a Red Cross first aid class for Lewiston area people.

Red Cross personnel from Winona will instruct the class. A good response is anticipated. Registration will be limited to 20 persons. If more are interested another class will be conducted later.

Persons wishing to join should call Mrs. Nancy Kieffer, local Red Cross chairman, or Stellwagen. No charge will be made for the course. The CD says there should be at least one first aid graduate in every home.

STANLEY E. Gilbertson, Madison accountant estimated the return on computed equity for the Beef River company after improvements would be approximately 3.8 percent, which he described "on the low side."

Brynelson charged that Prosser had actively sought to swing customers from General by waging an "aggressive" newspaper advertising campaign. Prosser testified that many of the advertisements had been purchased by residents of Osseo.

Clarence Gore, Beef River president, was on the stand much of Tuesday.

Most Offices Closed Monday

Governmental offices at all levels will be closed Monday in observance of the Veterans Day holiday. Banks, retail and commercial establishments will remain open for regular business hours.

Postmaster John Dugan said the only postal service will be that for box patrons. Windows at the post office will not be open, mail will not be sorted and there will be no delivery on city or rural routes.

Also closing for the day will be the Winona County courthouse, City Hall offices, offices of the Minnesota State Employment Service, the Federal Social Security Administration and other state and federal offices.

Lake City Woman Still Unconscious

LAKE CITY, Minn. (Special) — The Lake City woman injured Saturday in a car accident remains unconscious at St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, although her condition is improving, according to a report.

Mrs. Harold Sommerfield's car struck loose crushed rock, swerved in front of a car she was passing, and was struck broadside. Her vehicle was knocked into a roadside ditch and wrecked. Her son, James, 2, wasn't seriously hurt.

Mrs. Sommerfield's father, Reinhart Miller, rural Lake City, was driver of the other car.

Cataract Man Sentenced at BRF

BLACK RIVER FALLS, Wis. (Special) — Stanley D. Peters, 31, Cataract, was sentenced to concurrent terms totaling about 25 years in Jackson County Court Tuesday. He was taken to Green Bay Reformatory.

He was charged with issuing bad checks, theft of a car and violation of parole. Peters was the driver of a stolen Cadillac which was demolished in an accident near Melrose Oct. 9. Two girls from Blair, Alice Crivits, 19, and Clarice Stone, 16, were critically injured in the accident and are hospitalized at Madison, where they may be confined until spring.

Big game hunters will take a minimum of 5,000 deer off the farms of Southeastern Minnesota this weekend.

Game authorities base this estimate on license sales, past years' bags and prevailing favorable conditions. The deer population in the river counties shotgun zone is placed "about the same as last year."

WINONA COUNTY leads in license sales with slightly more than the $3,000 sold in 1962; Olmsted County runs approximately the same total; while Houston, Wabasha and Fillmore counties each will put at least 1,000 resident hunters afield.

Hunting success runs about one deer to every three hunters. Deer license sales are the big source of game and fish revenue funds from Southeastern Minnesota. This year the license costs $5 compared with $3.50 last year.

Shooting opens at sunrise Saturday in this zone (Zone 6 on the game and fish map of the state) and closes at sunset. The three-day season will end Monday evening.

Minnesota has an any-deer law. A hunter may take one deer of either sex. However, in Zone 6 hunters are restricted to single slug shells in shotguns.

There is a nine-day rifle zone covering the greater part of northeastern Minnesota to which there is a limited migration from this corner of the state.

The best deer country is the wooded areas of the counties along the various streams. In Winona County, the tributary smaller streams leading to the Mississippi River are heavily hunted.

THE MISSISSIPPI river bottomlands, including the lands of the Upper Mississippi River Wild Life and Fish Refuge, produce many deer each season. All refuge lands, including the "closed area," are open this year, Donald Gray, refuge manager, announced.

Another popular deer area is the Whitewater Wildlife Refuge, along the Whitewater River between Weaver and Elba, and up the three branches of this popular trout stream. Here wilderness conditions prevail, and there is plenty of food and cover. Sections of the refuge is preserves where no hunting is allowed. Such areas are well posted.

Root and Zumbro river bottomlands, with their numerous wooded tributaries, also are excellent deer territory that are productive annually of a good deer take. In fact, there are probably deer in every square mile of rural area in Fillmore, Houston, Olmstead, Wabasha and Winona counties.

WISCONSIN areas on the opposite side of the Mississippi have similar deer territory but there the season opens two weeks later, or on Nov. 23. There is a two-day, any-deer season there, following by a seven-day buck season, during which rifles may be used.

It Happened Last Night Friendship Title For Hollywood

By EARL WILSON

HOLLYWOOD — The hospitality of the New York World's Fair had better get cracking with a junket for the Press. Or they'll forfeit the all-time Friendship title to Hollywood, thanks to Stanley Kramer's $250,000 party for his $9 million "It's a Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World" movie premiere. He was so generous he allowed 210 reporters to make prepaid long-distance calls — and no questions asked.

Free long-distance calls! We-we!

Mothers heard from sons who hadn't phoned them in years. One guy walked into the Beverly Hilton pressroom and talked to Switzerland for almost an hour, about $200 worth.

Oh, the shame of it. After he'd left, they found the name he'd given was phony. He wasn't a reporter... just a stranger proving that Hollywood's really hospitable.

"L.A." is trying to establish itself as the world entertainment capitol — shoving N.Y. out. But I noticed as a loyal New Yorker-via-Ohio that in this already controversial comedy classic about a treasure hunt, they used practically an all-N.Y. cast:

MILTON BERLE, Sid Caesar, Phil Silvers, Ethel Merman, Dick Shawn, Buddy Hackett, Jonathan Winters and Paul Ford.

Barrie Chase looked so good coming out of that Bikini, I was sorry she's not a New Yorker.

Jim Backus was enormously believable playing a rich clubman drunk who owns a plane that Mickey Rooney and Buddy Hackett crave to borrow.

"Give me another Bloody Mary—that's the only way to fly," he hiccups. When they get him sober enough to fly the plane, he turns the controls over to them — and they can't

Deer Opening

Although no rain is predicted for the weekend, damp, foggy weather has reduced the fire hazard, locally. Northern Minnesota still has a high hazard condition. The weather will continue to be on the warmer side on Saturday.

Fog can make the opening morning's hunting hazardous. In fact, a morning like Thursday's would be real dangerous. Caution, of course, should be observed at all times. However, local deer hunting deaths have been at sunrise. This is the bad period. In fact, state wardens have been alerted to "crack down" on any hunters who push ahead the opening minutes.

Hunting pressure is going to be heavy locally, Francis Teske, local warden foresees. Last year, 3,000 licenses were sold in Winona County. The increase in price from $3.50 to $5.00 this year may cut this total slightly. However, more than 10,000 local hunters will buy licenses in the five Southeastern Minnesota counties. Add to this total a migration of deer hunters from the area west of the river counties, such as from Austin, Albert Lea and Mankato where only a one-day season prevails.

Duck Season Ends

The curtain goes down on the 1963 waterfowl season at sundown today and for most hunters it will be entered on the hunting books as a poor to fair season. Low limits, late flight and "blue bird" weather will harvest the blame.

However, Herb Kleyla, back today from a three-week duck hunting trip in Manitoba, north of Lake Manitoba in the Grand Rapids area, reports many thousands of ducks, including big fat mallards in the larger lakes there. The potholes have frozen over, and the birds are now rafted up on the large open lakes.

The duck season there runs through Nov. 23, with the limit now six a day. It was boosted up from five last week due to the abundance of birds still in Canada. Even where Herb was, he said, the big movement of ducks was still in the north.

Geese were flying north, Herb said. He observed many large flocks headed north as he flew out. Probably headed for a more attractive area. There has been no snow yet, but duck hunters have to break shore ice.

There are lots of moose in the area. On one flight of 40 miles Herb counted 24 moose. The moose calf crop has been good this year. He counted 10 moose in three square miles. He will head north early in December for the Manitoba moose season which opens on Dec. 2, running through Dec. 7. He suggests Grand Rapids as a jumping off place.

Shiners Busy

Balmy fall evenings and a large deer population have brought out illegal deer shiners in record numbers this fall, says Fran Johnson, Minnesota game warden supervisor.

Game wardens have been busy, too. Arrests have been numerous and several cars have been seized.

Airplanes are being used and game warden forces are being deployed in an enforcement drive, Johnson said.

Four persons were arrested early Wednesday near Island Lake in the Duluth area. A 1963 car, driven only 6,000 miles and containing two deer, was seized. The previous day four other persons paid fines totaling $1,500 on illegal deer hunting charges. Other recent arrests included two deer shiners near Ely and six in the Virginia area.

A highway patrolman, spotting a car moving at a crawl, stopped the vehicle. The driver said blood on his hands came from a pig he had just butchered. After further questioning he admitted he had a deer in the trunk. A game warden took over.

Johnson said wardens had received excellent cooperation from farmers and others who have seen poachers' lights in operation.

DEAR ABBY:

Help Mother Learn English

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am in the sixth grade and my problem is I am ashamed of my mother. Please don't think I'm a bad person, Abby, but it's hard for people who have American mothers to understand when somebody else's mother is a foreigner and doesn't speak much English. When she comes to school it is very embarrassing when the teachers ask her what she said so many times. My mother has been in this country since I was a small baby, so I don't know why she never learned to speak English. My father is a good-looking American man and I think sometimes he is ashamed of her, too. She is a good and kind mother, but I can't help how I feel. How can I solve my problem and not hurt my mother?

DEAR HALF AND HALF: Ask your father to encourage your mother to enroll in an adult education class and study English. If she agrees, wonderful. And you could help her study. If she will not, she is probably too shy. But don't be ashamed of her, honey. Inability to speak English is no reflection on your mother's character, and she probably suffers more humiliation than you know.

DEAR ABBY: A new girl came to work in our office. She is a sweet girl, and we like her, but Abby, here is the problem. She brings her lunch in a brown paper bag (as we all do) and she sets it up on the closet shelf with the other girls' lunches. She always brings salami, sardines, dill pickles, or something that smells up the entire closet. My coat has started to smell of garlic! Is there a nice way to tell this girl about the unpleasant situation she has created without hurting her feelings?

DEAR ONE: One of you girls should get next to her (literally, if possible) and tell her of your complaint.

DEAR ABBY: I am very much in love with Pete, but I don't want to marry him unless I can be a good wife to him, and I don't think I can. You see, he is a "night person" and I am a "day person." Pete plays in a band, which means he is up all night, and he sleeps days. I can't change 30 years of habit, and I can't expect Pete to change jobs because this is the way he makes the best living. Don't tell me to try to sleep days because I've tried and it doesn't work. I am NOT tired in the daytime. When night comes I can't hold my eyes open. If you can solve this, you're a genius.

DEAR DAY PERSON: How were you two awake long enough at the same time to fall in love? If you really love Pete, force yourself to stay up at night, and you won't have any trouble sleeping the following day.

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Durand Meeting To Discuss New Buildings Need

DURAND, Wis. (Special) — "Attend the informational meeting" regarding school building plans of Durand United School District. That's the plea of the Durand Commercial Club, Board of Education and others.

The meeting will be held Monday at 8 p.m. at Durand High School.

OFFICIALS feel that as the total of 1,278 votes cast in the referendum Oct. 8 didn't represent 50 percent of the possible votes, some may have lacked information or they would have voted.

The meeting replaces the regular PTA meeting for November.

Answering questions will be architect John Steinmann, Monticello, members of board of education and school officials. The public also will be encouraged to participate.

The fundamental need for the project, round versus conventional structure; cost in terms of taxes to each taxpayer; the opinion of the state Department of Public Instruction as to the adequacy of present facilities, and questions from the floor or placed in a question box will be discussion material.

A $700,000 bond issue for a new circular elementary building for grades K-6, and new high school science, mathematics and home economics departments, to be constructed over the present gymnasium addition was defeated 843 to 435 Oct. 8.

The board of education has indicated another referendum will be held, but has withheld definite action until after this meeting.

Open house will be held in the high school division at 7 p.m. Monday. Lunch will be served following the meeting.

Jackson Board Votes to Pay Deficit of Fair

BLACK RIVER FALLS, Wis. — The Jackson County Board of Supervisors Thursday afternoon voted to provide funds sufficient to cover the deficit incurred by the Jackson County Fair this year.

The amount voted was $6,300. Of the 28 votes cast, 18 were for the resolution. Among supervisors voting against it were M. C. Ringlien, Curran, Albert Regez, Town of Hixton, and Sidney Jensen, Village of Hixton.

Ole Gilbertson, Taylor, is absent from the session.

EUGENE SAVAGE, Jackson County agent and fair secretary, said receipts of the fair were $18,684, including $4,000 in state aids for premiums. He said if the board didn't cover the deficit, the fair had three alternatives: Turn it over to the county, close it entirely, or borrow money and try to make it up, which would be difficult because the City of Black River Falls owns the land and the association only the buildings.

Savage said engaging a tent show this year was a mistake; too much had been spent for entertainment.

Highway Commissioner Edgar Olson was re-elected, as were Edwin Peterson, Northfield; William Harkner, Millston; and Leo Martin, Melrose, to the highway committee; Gibson Gile, Merrillan, and Selmer Hulett, Taylor, to the school committee; Price Peterson, infirmity trustee, and Louis Gardipee, Black River Falls, Carl Messelt, Albion, and William McNulty, Adams, public welfare committee.

THE SUPERVISORS voted unanimously to have the conservation committee open the fire lanes two days prior and two days after each deer hunting season.

Four cemetery associations received permission to withdraw funds deposited with the county: Northfield, $2,850; Trout Run, $575; Shamrock Union, $3,975, and Upper North Beaver Creek, $850.

THE GREAT RIVER ROAD Project was endorsed by members of Wenonah Tribe 20, Improved Order of Red Men, in a resolution adopted at a tribal meeting at the wigwam Thursday night. Letters urging action on early completion of the project will be sent to Minnesota Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey and Eugene McCarthy and all Minnesota congressmen.

A raccoon dinner for Red Men and their guests will be Nov. 21 at 6:30 p.m. with the Fall Festival scheduled for the following evening. A class of candidates will be adopted by the tribe following the annual turkey dinner Dec. 19.

Appointed to a committee to arrange the annual kiddies Christmas party Dec. 22 and roast beef dinner Dec. 10 were Edgar J. Lynch, Alfred Fratzke, Ronald Vondrashek, Albert Peterman and Alfred Berndt.

Seventh Graders, Indian Guides to Meet at YMCA

Seventh grade fun night and a meeting for new Indian Guide fathers and sons will be held at the YMCA tonight.

The fun night for seventh graders from Central, Phelps and Jefferson schools will begin at 7:30 with gym activities, in charge of Donald Klagge, followed by mixers and dancing from 8:45 to 9:30. Miss Cleo Wolfe will be in charge of the mixers and the Tom Underdahls, Robert Greens and Richard Baylons will be chaperones for the dance.

The Indian Guide meeting for the five new tribes will begin with swimming at 7. At 7:45 there'll be a demonstration of an Indian Guide meeting followed by lunch.

Proposed Levy For Whitehall Down $29,401

WHITEHALL, Wis. (Special) — The proposed budget for 1964 for the City of Whitehall is $117,811. This is $29,401 less than this year's expenditures of $147,213, the last three months estimated.

The budget adopted for 1963 totaled $104,548. Expenditures this year were greater than anticipated, principally for public enterprise.

TAX LEVY on the proposed budget is $50,930 — $193 less than the $51,123 tax levy for 1963.

The budget hearing will be held at the City Hall Tuesday at 7 p.m., prior to the regular monthly meeting of the Common Council.

The decrease in the budget is mainly possible by a decrease in the public enterprise and contingency fund, which is proposed at $8,419 compared with $48,819 spent this year.

The money was used this year principally for a water improvement project, which has been completed. This money will be returned to the city from revenues from the water department.

The proposed budget carries $15,000 for city promotion and industrial development, which will include expansion of the city's sewage disposal system.

OTHER PROPOSALS in the budget are $10,200 for general government, about $2,000 less than this year; $19,600 for protection of persons and property, approximately $1,000 more; $6,050, health and sanitation, about $2,000 more; $1,000, charity, more than $2,000 less; $32,000, highways, bridges, machinery and garage, approximately $1,000 more; $6,900, education and recreation, about $2,000 less; $11,000 long term indebtedness, same; unclassified, $100, about $35 more; $1,000, expenditures for outlay, $47.50 higher; $4,923, interest, loans and cemetery perpetual care, approximately $1,000 less, and $1,619, city share of employee benefits, about the same.

Anticipated revenue, other than property tax, is $65,881.

115 at Lake City For Two-County Teacher Institute

LAKE CITY, Minn. (Special) — About 115 attended the institute for elementary public and parochial teachers in Wabasha and Goodhue counties at the Jefferson School here Wednesday.

Social security was the main topic. Speakers were Loren Winch and Miss Margaret Malson of the state Department of Education. Mrs. Verma Olin, Lake City, superintendent of schools for both counties, presided.

Superintendent D. D. Karow extended the welcome and Mrs. Florence Anderson, Wabasha, responded.

Several numbers were played by the Lake City High School band, Walter Gludt directing.

Conferences Set At Gale-Etrick

ETTRICK, Wis. (Special) — Robert Howard, superintendent of the Gale-Etrick School district, has announced elementary and high school teachers will have two parent-teacher conferences in addition to report cards.

The first conference is scheduled Monday and Tuesday afternoons. High school teachers may be consulted Monday evening by parents unable to come during the day.

The first quarter ended Nov. 1. Report cards will be issued to parents of elementary school children when they come to the conference. They will not be issued to the pupils, said Clayton Olson, Ettrick, elementary supervisor.

All pupils will be dismissed at noon on the two days. Conferences will begin at 12:30 p.m. If it is necessary to bring younger children, they will be cared for by upper grade girls. Coffee will be served.

Parents who have more than one child in the same building will be scheduled the same afternoon. Parents unable to come at the scheduled time may confer with the teachers at another time, perhaps in the evening. They will indicate on the schedule form a time that will be convenient.

No specific time is being set for the high school conferences, but all teachers will be available from 1 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday and Tuesday and from 7 to 9 p.m. Monday.

The faculty and administrators of the Gale-Etrick Schools are anxious to have 100 percent attendance at the conferences.

Eyota Salaries Up

EYOTA, Minn. (Special) — The village council Wednesday night voted to raise the salary of Leonard Hissam, manager of the Eyota municipal liquor store, to $400 per month. His assistants were raised $15 per month. No action was taken on request by a fire department committee for additional equipment.

Lake City School Open House Slated

LAKE CITY, Minn. (Special) — In observance of National Education Week, Lake City schools will have open house for parents and friends Tuesday through Thursday.

Coffee hour will be held at Zambro Falls School, part of the district, Tuesday from 2-4 p.m.

Jefferson Elementary School will have open house Wednesday from 2-4 p.m. Washington Elementary will entertain guests Thursday from 3-5 p.m.

Lincoln High will have open house Thursday from 8:10 p.m. In all schools opportunity will be given for interested persons to tour the building, visit with teachers, and have lunch.

Nurses Conduct Business Meeting

LAKE CITY, Minn. (Special) — Members of the Lake City Nurses Club met Tuesday at the hospital dining room. A final vote on the revision of by-laws was taken, and accepted as presented. Members of the by-laws committee were: Mrs. Marvin Dammann, Mrs. Robert Gillen, Mrs. Ben Eickholt and Mrs. Otis Farmer.

The group decided to purchase the book "Medical and Surgical Nursing," for use of all hospital personnel.

Mrs. Dorothy Nygren and Miss Tena Muhle were appointed to buy Christmas gifts for patients at Pepin View Nursing Home.

Hostesses were: Mrs. Gillen, Mrs. Farmer, Mrs. Eickholt, and Mrs. Dammann.

Lanesboro Club Changes Name

LANESBORO, Minn. (Special) — The Lanesboro Commercial Club decided at its meeting this week to change its name to the Lanesboro Community Club.

The group's recently elected officers are: Robert Hanson, president; Charles St. Mane, vice president; Mrs. Lloyd Morgan, secretary, and David Solberg, treasurer.

Members of the board of directors are Virgil Bothun, Donald Capron, John Clay, Lawrence Danielson and Keith Burmeister.

Committees appointed for the year are: Christmas program — Burmeister, Joseph Herrick and Dr. R. B. Johnson; Santa Claus Day — Clarence Crawford, Clarence Johnson, John Solberg, Orris Hanson, Daryl Northouse and Gilmer Ellingson; trade promotion — Adolph Halvorson, C. W. Hanson and Olaf Rustad; and parking — Capron, Robert Gosselin and Stanley Johnson.

Mondovi Elementary Schools to Close

MONDOVI, Wis. (Special) — Elementary schools of the Mondovi School District will hold their first scheduled parent-teacher conferences of the year Monday.

Parents will be given the first nine-week report card. There will be no school at any of the elementary schools that day.

The high school will hold open house from 7 to 9 p.m. Monday.

Rich Would Gain Most Under New Tax Law

(Editor's Note: This is another editorial in a series explaining the effect of the proposed new tax reform passed by the House. Today's editorial article deals with corporations and their top executives.)

Only 200,000 of the nation's 51 million income-taxpayers fall into the $50,000-and-over bracket, but they are highly important in the government's eyes.

They represent part of the "venture capital" which the government theorists hope to stimulate into forming new private enterprise.

The present tax liability of this group is 4.1 billion dollars, which under the proposed law would be reduced to 3.5 billion.

This saving of $525 million is only a small part of the total of 8.8-billion-dollar individual income tax savings expected from the bill, but economists put a lot of hope into what will happen. This is "rich man's money" which it is hoped will spark new investments.

TAKE THE CASE of President Thomas Clarke of the Alpha Co., who will be able to keep 7.4 percent more of his $110,000 annual income, under changes proposed in the 11-billion-dollar tax cut bill.

Clarke's 1963 tax bill of $37,560 would drop to $34,616 in 1964, and to $32,897 the following year.

This would mean an increase of $4,663 in his take-home pay by 1965. It would be a bigger increase, percentage-wise, than

Monroe Doctrine Far From Dead

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

The Monroe Doctrine is far from dead, despite numerous complaints to the contrary. It simply has changed hands.

It now seems to be the exclusive property of Nikita Khrushchev, having been turned over to him gratis by the Kennedy administration.

The Doctrine, announced by President James Monroe on Dec. 2, 1823, for nearly a century and a half was the foundation of our Latin-American policy. In effect, it said simply that this nation would not brook any interference in Latin-American affairs by European powers.

It says the same thing today, except that it applies to us instead of to the Europeans. Now, Khrushchev flatly tells us he'll not allow us to interfere. When the Russian leader declared the Doctrine dead, he meant it only insofar as U.S. policy was concerned, not as it could be applied by him.

Because of the Soviet capture of Cuba and its infiltration of other hemispheric nations, the manner in which this transfer took place is of particular interest as a lesson in awkward diplomacy. Perhaps never has the policy followed by a nation throughout its entire history been reversed with so little hesitation or misgiving.

Actually, President Monroe's statement did not reflect anything new or startling, for the points made in the Doctrine had been our policy since this nation gained its independence from Great Britain. It was, to use a bureaucratic expression, simply a formalization of our position in regard to European intervention in what we wanted to preserve as a hemisphere of free nations.

THERE WERE some exceptions to our opposition to foreign rule in the hemisphere, but they concerned only those colonies, particularly the Spanish, which already existed. George Washington clearly enunciated these same principles in his Farewell Address of 1796, when he declared that we should have "as little political connections as possible" with Europe.

Thomas Jefferson, John Adams and other early American leaders expressed similar sentiments concerning the necessity of isolating ourselves politically and otherwise from Europe. Our kinship with the new republics of Latin America tacitly extended our protection to the rest of the hemisphere.

President Monroe's document, to be specific, forbade future colonization by Europeans on this hemisphere, forbade European nations from extending their political systems to the new World and promised that we would not interfere with existing Latin-American colonies of European nations.

THE DOCTRINE specifically pointed out that the United States would consider it "dangerous to our peace and safety" if any European nation sought to violate any of the lands to our south and that we, therefore, would fight if necessary to prevent such incursions.

The Doctrine later was strengthened by the so-called "corollary" of Theodore Roosevelt, which pledged our own intervention to prevent Latin countries from committing acts which could provoke aggression by foreign powers and the Platt Amendment of 1903.

Under terms of the latter, Cuba obligated herself not to enter into any treaty which would impair her independence and recognized our right of intervention in Cuba to (1) preserve and protect her freedom and (2) to prevent her from committing acts which would invite aggression.

How do you stand, sir?

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Foreign Aid Backfires On American Business

By Jack Anderson

WASHINGTON — Foreign aid has bubble-gummed in Uncle Sam's face, and he's now unhappily picking it out of his whiskers.

But plainly, aid money has built foreign factories which today are forcing American firms out of business and American workers out of work.

This is a development senators can no longer overlook as they debate this week how much more money to ladle out to needy nations.

For our income-tax payments already have helped to build up competitive industries overseas, often providing them with more advanced equipment than our own.

Result: At home, one industry after another has been forced by foreign competition to cut back production, thus adding to our 4,000,000 unemployed and a multimillion-dollar gold loss.

This plight reaches all the way down from such giants as steel and textiles to mushroom growers. Yet Uncle Sam, perhaps out of habit, is still building plants for nations that may take markets away from us.

Few seriously suggest that foreign aid should be cut off. With two-thirds of the world living on the starvation line and easy prey to communism, the United States in the interests of its own security must continue to help the underdeveloped nations to help themselves.

Yet in the last five years, foreign aid has built, expanded or modernized: 31 pulp and paper plants, 24 chemical plants, 13 aluminum plants, and 22 rubber processing plants. It has given another 27 loans or grants for studies or construction of petroleum refineries.

OUR TAX money has also built foreign shipyards, plastic plants, pottery works, engineering labs, and industrial research centers. It has been spent to develop foreign mining, manufacturing, and even merchandising.

A reported $2,000,000,000 has gone out of the U.S. treasury to build or expand 179 foreign steel mills. This American generosity has helped to reduce our share of the world's steel market from 17 percent in 1950 to less than 6 percent.

Result: Our steel mills are operating today at only about 60 percent of their capacity.

Cong. Bob Casey points a finger, for instance, at Mexico across the border from his native Texas. In 1960, Mexico exported only 65 tons of steel plate to the U.S. Two years later, the figure had risen to 12,000 tons, which has already been more than doubled this year.

"Whose tax money," cries Casey, "do you think built the 22 Mexican steel mills under our aid program?"

FOR THE textile industry, the aid-pampered competition has been even more disastrous. No one seems able to say exactly how many rival mills Uncle Sam has built around the world.

But South Carolina Cong. Robert Hemphill told this column: "In our efforts to revitalize Japan as a bulwark against communism, we participated technically, financially and otherwise in creating a Japanese textile industry that today threatens our own with ruin."

On a trip to the Orient, Hemphill also saw U.S.-financed textile plants in India, Korea, Formosa, and Hong Kong. He saw in Hong Kong mills the latest American looms, far finer than most American mills have been able to afford.

He was hardly surprised later to find, in a South Carolina department store, men's dress shirts from Hong Kong offered for $1.99 alongside American-made shirts priced at $5.95. Few consumers are so patriotic that they will pay the extra $3.96 for an all-American shirt.

IN THE PAST 10 years, nearly 4,000,000 cotton spindles have been closed down and 290,000 mill workers have lost their jobs. Another 350 woolen and worsted mills have been closed, putting an additional 105,000 people out of work.

Textile leaders have begged the government for a little of the aid that has been given to the Japanese industry. But they have been largely ignored.

An ailing factory apparently can't qualify for U.S. aid unless it is located overseas.

Foreign shipyards built with aid money and cheap foreign steel are pushing our own shipbuilding industry to the wall. Since 1948, more than $600,000,000 in aid has gone to build or modernize foreign yards. Add the assistance given to foreign steel mills, and American shipbuilders are working under a $1,000,000,000 handicap.

EVEN AMERICAN mushroom growers have hired a Washington attorney to seek relief from the competition of the U.S.-financed mushroom industry in Formosa. Uncle Sam's experts looked around for some way to help the Formosan economy and decided mushrooms might do the trick. They sent over prize spores, taught the peasants how to cultivate. The new industry literally mushroomed.

The first Formosan mushrooms started coming into this country in 1960. Exports doubled the following year, doubled again in 1962. Now Formosan mushrooms account for 25 percent of American consumption of the edible fungi.

It is hard to disagree with those American businessmen who are plaintively asking a rather deaf Uncle Sam: "Isn't it time some charity began at home?"

WITH ONE TWIRL ROSE HILL, Kan. (AP) — A twirling baton caused sparks to fly and lights to go out in about half of this southern Kansas community.

Linda Cox, 17, was showing neighbors her twirling ability when a hefty toss sent the baton among electric carrier lines in front of her house.

Maintenance men worked for two hours to restore electric service in the town.

HAND IN GLOVE NEW YORK (AP) — Down-to-earth engineers at Honeywell have found a way to reach into "space" by simply thrusting one arm into a pressure suit glove attached to a small Plexiglas vacuum chamber. The unit aids engineers who have never experienced the handicap of wearing a pressurized spacesuit yet must design equipment to be used by space-suited astronauts.

TODAY IN NATIONAL AFFAIRS

Everything To Gain

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — Gov. Rockefeller has everything to gain and nothing to lose by declaring himself a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination as he did on Thursday.

Whether or not the New York governor is successful in getting the nomination in 1964, the lessons of national politics would seem to indicate that anyone prominent enough to try for the nomination in 1964 is likely to try again in 1968 if his own party should lose.

But there's another reason why Mr. Rockefeller probably has decided to make an active campaign irrespective of whether he is likely to win. It is that for several months now the Rockefeller candidacy has been frowned upon by many women voters. Previously, he was easily the front runner. The explanation of his drop in popularity usually given is the fact that the New York governor was divorced and then almost immediately afterward remarried. This occasioned widespread comment, and political analysts have referred to the expressions of disapproval noted in previous political campaigns when one of the candidates happened to be a divorced man.

In this instance however, the adverse criticism of many women voters has centered not only on the divorce and remarriage aspects but on the legal arrangements for divided custody of the young children involved.

What was the New York governor to do? Should he accept any such judgment on his personal affairs and abandon national politics, or should he express himself unequivocally on public questions and issues and let the American people judge whether he is capable enough to be their President, thus subordinating personal issues?

From Mr. Rockefeller's standpoint, the latter thesis makes sense, because to abandon the campaign for the nomination might imply that he accepted personal aspects of the situation as controlling and that he felt the electorate would not judge him fairly on his actual qualifications to handle the office of President. But whether the New York governor has made a political mistake on the personal side is something that might be viewed differently in 1968 than 1964, especially if someone else is nominated this time and doesn't make a good race and if the issues four years later turn toward those on which Mr. Rockefeller will have made an effective exposure. Time often heals many a political ailment.

WHILE MR. Rockefeller's strategy can therefore be analyzed as logical from his own standpoint, the biggest error he has made — one which may really cost him the nomination in 1964 — is the position he has taken on public issues. He leans toward the so-called "liberal" side, and that doesn't happen to be the majority sentiment in the Republican party today. He would be forgiven for even this by some voters but, unfortunately, he recently said, in effect, that, unless Sen. Goldwater or any other aspirant is willing to run on a platform that suits the New York governor, he may not support the national ticket.

This has not been spelled out explicitly, but many observers have certainly gotten the impression that the New York governor wants the nomination and the Republican platform to conform to his views or he will bolt the ticket. He hasn't used the word "bolt," but the implication is there. Unless it is cleared up, many Republicans will assume that the New York governor is getting ready to split the Republican party, which, of course, as in 1912, would merely result in an overwhelming electoral vote for the Democratic presidential nominee.

THE VOTERS comment a man who stands on principle.

By Sakron

ciple, but they don't like to see one of the leaders of a party assume what appears to some to be an all-or-nothing attitude. If the course is persisted in and the Republicans lose, it could doom a Rockefeller candidacy in 1968, as he would then be regarded as the man who wrecked the Republican party's chances and made easy the re-election of John F. Kennedy.

Theoretically, the Republican party, in choosing a nominee and adopting a platform, operates on a representative basis. If the national party convention makes a decision, it is customary for defeated aspirants to accept the verdict in good sportsmanship and campaign for the successful nominee. Sooner or later, Rockefeller will doubtless state clearly whether he will accept the judgment of the convention on the platform and nominee. His speeches prior to the national convention advocating particular reforms or changes in governmental policy will receive much more dispassionate consideration inside his own party if he announces that he will support the national ticket.

Answers To Your Questions

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: A friend of mine gives her 15-month-old baby almost daily doses of "children's aspirin,"—three or four a day—to "slow him down" or to "make him go to sleep." The baby is not ill but he can't see very well. Could these tablets be responsible? — M.M.

I doubt if the aspirin is affecting his eyesight, but after such prodigious amounts (for a baby) he may well be partially poisoned by it. I am appalled that a child should be so drugged. The aimless use of aspirin should be stopped at once. The baby should have a thorough physical examination.

MRS. B. V.: Cancer occasionally attacks a child, and it often grows at fantastic speed.

Caledonia Catholic Daughters Meet At St. Mary's

CALEDONIA, Minn. (Special)—Catholic Daughters of America, Court Caledonia, met Monday in the club room of St. Mary's school. Grand Regent, Mrs. William Murphy, presided and heard the reports of various committees. A letter was read from Modanna House asking for aid. The Mission House is selling Christmas cards to raise funds. The court voted to send them $10. A thank you card from Mr. and Mrs. August Klug for greetings sent to them on their golden wedding anniversary was read.

A letter was read from Mrs. Evelyn Koppi, state grand regent, in which she thanked the court for its part in making the anniversary celebration at St. Peter, Minn., so successful. She also reported on the girls scholarship. Mrs. Victor Jaeb gave an interesting report on the anniversary celebration at St. Peter. Mrs. Jaeb and Mrs. Murphy took part in a skit depicting the organization of the state court 40 years ago. Mrs. L. L. Roerkohl also reported on the anniversary. She received a plaque engraved with the year and day of the beginning of the state court. Each past state regent received a similar gift.

Miss Stacia Burg of the auditing committee reported. Miss Mary Malay reported on a retreat she had attended in Winona in August. She read several chapters from "One of Many Sparrows," a book she had read while in retreat. Miss Burg also reported on the retreat.

It was announced that the Gordy Boyum orchestra will furnish music for the Charity Ball to be held in December.

After the business meeting an impressive memorial service was conducted. Roll call of former members was read by historian Mrs. Gerald Noel. A Rosary was recited with each decade being led by Mrs. Victor Jaeb, Mrs. George Stadler, Mrs. Edmund Lee, Mrs. Peter G. Schiltz, and Mrs. Sylvester Reisdorf. Lunch was served by Mrs. Arden Krueger, Mrs. Bernard Gardner, Mrs. Robert Lager, Mrs. Edward Olinger, and Mrs. Leland Klug. Prizes were given to Mrs. Susan Lovett, Mrs. Francis Januschka, and Mrs. Glenn St. Mary and Mrs. William Murphy.

CHOIR PROGRAM

ALMA, Wis. (Special)—Members of the St. Paul and Luke's Church had a potluck supper Sunday in the church basement preceding the choir program. Theme of the program was "Praying Hands." After the program special recognition was given to Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Accola who recently moved to Brodhead, Wis. Miss Selma Braem gave a resume on her tour to the Holy Land and Africa.

New Girl Scout Volunteers to Get Basic Training

Basic leadership training for all new Girl Scout leaders, troop organizers, consultants and any other volunteers in the Sixth District interested in receiving information and instruction on the new program in Girl Scouting on the four-age level has been scheduled for Winona. There will be four sessions, all to be held in St. Paul's Episcopal Church Parish House. Schedule for the sessions is as follows: Monday from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. and from 1 to 3:30 p.m.; Tuesday from 10 to 11:30 a.m. and from 1 to 3:30 p.m. Films on the new four-age level program will be shown, outlining the training for each of the groups: Brownies, Juniors, Cadettes and Seniors. Also offered will be instruction in songs, dances and flag ceremony procedures.

To date about 25 new volunteers have offered to work with Girl Scouts and more are welcome to attend the meetings and help in the program. Leaders already in Girl Scout work also may attend the training sessions to learn about the new program. Those planning the event anticipate an attendance of about 60 women. Those who attend are requested to bring notebooks, pencils and Girl Scout songbooks, and it is suggested that the women bring their own nose bag lunches.

Blair High School To Give Plays

Winona Art Group Members Attend Regional Show

Four members of the Winona Art Group attended the opening and judging of the regional nonprofessional art exhibit Tuesday in Rochester.

Winonans exhibiting in the show included James Heinlen, Ronald Buck, Mmes. A. S. Morgan Jr., Keith Inman, Earl Ragar, John Barrett, Kenneth Jungmans, Edward Holehouse and Mavis Eskelson of Pepin, Wis. Winners whose paintings will go to Chicago for the national exhibit were first, D. A. Serpos of Rochester, second, John Laci of Albert Lea and third, J. Stanley Beatty of Rochester. Mrs. Barrett, Mrs. Ragar and Mrs. Mary Owens of Chatfield received honorable mention. The exhibit will be open to the public through Nov. 16.

Winona Women In Girl Scouts Attend Council

Winona was represented at the River Trails Girl Scout Council's third annual meeting in Rochester Wednesday by a sizable group of adult members of Girl Scouts.

They witnessed the honoring of two of their members and the election of several to the board of directors and as district chairmen.

Mrs. Laird Lucas reviewed the National Council business meetings and subsequent decisions to complete area council jurisdictions, enabling all communities to have Girl Scouting. She was a RTGS delegate to the national Girl Scout convention in Miami, Fla., Oct. 21-23.

Mrs. L. E. Brynestad was recognized for 38 years of Girl Scout service. She is currently senior adviser of the Senior Girl Scout Troop at Central Lutheran Church and is also a trainer of Girl Scout leaders. Miss Helen Klein, Rochester, was similarly honored.

Mrs. E. S. Kjos, Winona Girl Scout volunteer, was cited for having served the greatest number of years (12) as a leader. Mrs. Lucas was elected second vice president of the Council board of directors. Mrs. G. R. Hoesley and Mrs. John Woodworth were elected board members-at-large. Mmes. A. G. Burleigh and John A. Grams were named to the nominating committee.

Council president Kenneth G. Lauffe conducted the business meeting. A proposal to change the Articles of Incorporation to provide a tax-free status was passed.

It was announced that the next Girl Scout Roundup will be in Idaho in 1965 and an East-West conference will be held in Hawaii in 1966, both for Senior Scouts.

GIRL SCOUTS

RUSHFORD, Minn. (Special)—Rushford Senior Girl Scouts will hold a regular meeting at the clubhouse Tuesday, at 7:15 p.m.

March Bonnet Boutique Plans Made by Club

Preliminary plans for the Bonnet Boutique sponsored by the Soroptimist Club were discussed at the luncheon meeting of the club at the Steak Shop, Wednesday noon.

Tentative date will be the first or second Sunday in March, since Easter Sunday is on March 29. Mrs. Mary Crane discussed table decorations and announced a workshop meeting will be called by Mrs. Florence Baab, general chairman of this event.

Miss Harriet Kelley, president, presided at the business session.

Mrs. Virginia Torgerson discussed a proposed project for the club and also urged members of the club to write to senators and representatives in Congress, asking them to support action on S. 1672, and a companion House bill, which would appropriate $2 million in 1964 and the same amount in 1965, to help in the completion of the Great River Road.

This has been a dream of dedicated men and women for over 50 years, and will mean that thousands of people will see the Mississippi in its entire length. Mrs. Torgerson said. It would aid the economy of all the states in the general area of the Great River Road and is an asset to the entire nation, she pointed out. The club has already written letters about this matter as a club, but will urge members to participate individually also.

Sanford Tyler Talks on Birds At Garden Club

"Winona is one of the most fortunate communities in the state for seeing and watching birds," Sanford Tyler told Winona Flower and Garden Club members Thursday in his talk "Bird Watching." Overlapping of three types of environment, alpine, prairie, and southern account for the many bird species seen in this area. Identification is made by location, movement, pattern of coloring with clues often found on wing and by general profile.

MR. TYLER listed various books, bulletins and pamphlets and records available to bird watchers but stated that nothing beats watching the birds yourself. Slides and a film were used to illustrate the talk. Bird check cards were given to club members.

Leo Brom showed a sound film entitled "Fairland of Flowers." It told the story of the growth, care and beauty of tuberous begonias as Ghent Belgium growers produce bulbs for export.

MRS. R. M. STEPHAN gave a report on the public forest playground now being developed in Southeastern Minnesota. Officially designated as the Minnesota Memorial Hardwood Forest, the project is aimed to develop a great public recreation area along the 130-mile stretch of the Mississippi from the Iowa border to Hastings, Minn.

Mrs. Sylvia Paulson was introduced as a new member. Mrs. James Walz, Mrs. Irvin Blumentritt and Miss Maude Gernes were in charge of the surplus plant sale table.

POSTNUPTIAL SHOWER

ALMA, Wis. (Special)—A postnuptial miscellaneous shower was given at the Alma Hotel by the Mmes. Wilfred Herrick, Ralph Grob, Grant Seitz, and George McCormick honoring Mrs. Duane Carrothers (Donna Pank) Tuesday. Games were played and refreshments were served. Miss Pank and Mr. Carrothers were married Nov. 1.

The conference is sponsored by the Fillmore County Council of Churches.

On Sept. 29 the church's Sunday school children, in a promotion effort titled "One Million Contacts," released 75 gas-filled balloons with names of the school's students inside.

Balloon Lands In Illinois

How far will a small gas-filled balloon go if you release it?

At least 300 miles, reports the Rev. D. F. Moehlenpach, minister of Winona Gospel Church.

On Sept. 29 the church's Sunday school children, in a promotion effort titled "One Million Contacts," released 75 gas-filled balloons with names of the school's students inside.

Only one balloon was returned — from a woman at Hamilton, Ill., about 300 miles south of here. She found the balloon in her back yard Oct. 9, 11 days after it had been released here. The balloon contained the name of Melanie Aaron, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Dale Aaron, Winona.

"I didn't think the balloons would go so far," said Rev. Moehlenpach.

The church during its promotion program made 1,658 local contacts. Winner of the Sunday school contest was Rita Decker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Decker, 609 Center St. Her older sister, Jenene, placed second.

An award night will be held Nov. 16 at the church. A film, "A Cry in the Night," will be shown.

Badger Vote On Rabinovitz Seen Monday

EAU CLAIRE, Wis. (Special) — Francis Wilcox, president of the State Bar of Wisconsin, said Thursday night that results of the organization's poll on the judicial qualifications of David Rabinovitz will not be announced until Monday.

Wilcox said "great care" will be taken before the results are announced because he wanted to be sure "no erroneous implication" was formed. He said a conference of the bar's executive committee may be held before the results are made public.

Rabinovitz, of Sheboygan, is President Kennedy's choice as U.S. District Court judge for Western Wisconsin. The nomination has been criticized because of Rabinovitz' reputation as a labor lawyer and his post as Wisconsin Democratic national committeeman.

The way for the bar to complete the unprecedented poll was cleared Thursday when the Wisconsin Supreme Court refused a request that it intervene to halt the quiz and lifted an earlier restraining order.

Circuit Supervisor For Witnesses To Make 3 Talks

Charles J. Miller, circuit supervisor of the Watchtower Bible & Tract Society for southern Iowa, will be guest speaker at Jehovah's Witnesses at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday; at 8 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 16, and at 2 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 17.

His Sunday talk, "Building a Happy Human Family," will be open to the public.

"As time passes and conditions become more difficult, Jehovah's Witnesses believe the Bible could be utilized to a greater degree in combating problems," says Miller. "If the Bible would be used and followed by more people these conditions would improve."

He will also be making house-to-house visits during his stay here.

RUSHFORD VFW POST

RUSHFORD, Minn. (Special) — Joseph M. Johnson Post 5905, Veterans of Foreign Wars and its auxiliary will meet Tuesday instead of Veterans Day. The meeting will be at the post home at 8 p.m. The membership supper will be held Nov. 16.

FIREMEN AT ARCADIA

ARCADIA, Wis. (Special) — Arcadia firemen will meet Tuesday evening, instead of Veterans Day.

Musicians Union To Consider Dues

Resolutions calling for increases in dues and a revision of the scale and price list will be discussed by members of the Winona Musicians' Association at 8 p.m. Monday at the Labor Temple.

The measures were made necessary by two actions taken last June at the international convention of the American Federation of Musicians. The group voted to raise the per capita tax to $6 per member, providing that each local must increase its dues to compensate for this higher tax.

At the same time, the convention moved to eliminate the 10 percent surcharge paid to a local by an outside group playing an engagement in the local's jurisdiction. This cut out a large source of revenue for many locals.

Blair Club Plans For Christmas

BLAIR, Wis. (Special) — Plans for Christmas took up most of the time at the meeting of the Commercial Club this week.

For the first time since 1956 the city will have a Christmas lighting contest. Howard Turk is committee chairman.

Prizes of $5, $3 and $2 in each of two categories, religious and traditional, will be given. Turk will be assisted by Roger Herrick and Raymond Steuermagel.

Members voted to increase from $100 to $200 the amount to be spent yearly for improvement of holiday lighting. Herbert Allen, Roy Molstad and Melvin Hjerleid comprise the lighting committee.

Evening shopping hours were tentatively set for Dec. 18, 19, 20 and 23. Dec. 21 is a Saturday.

Members voted to give $10 each to the Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts.

A letter from the Rev. L. H. Jacobson, pastor of Zion Lutheran parish, was read complimenting the club for the excellence of the 1963 Egg Festival and thanked the club for the parade prize won by the First Lutheran Zion and Faith Lutheran Church float.

LANESBORO VFW CITED

LANESBORO, Minn. (Special) — Delmar Fredrickson, Albert Lea, 1st District senior vice commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, inspected VFW Post 3888 here Wednesday night. He presented two department citations for 10 percent membership increases in 1962 and 1963 to Donald Capron, local commander.

Rushford Legion To Hold Dinner

RUSHFORD, Minn. (Special) — Murphy-Johnson Post 94 will hold its annual membership dinner Monday at 7:15 at the American Legion Hall.

Ed Herman, Lake City, 1st District commander, will be speaker.

This dinner is free to all paid-up post and auxiliary members. Commander Wallace Himle and Mrs. Jack Keeler, president of the auxiliary, urged all eligible members to attend.

The program chairman, James Corcoran, said Leon Rostvold will entertain during and after the dinner. Dinner chairman is Mrs. Warren Miller.

The auxiliary has reached its quota of 97. Marvin Manion, membership chairman for the American Legion, asked all Legionnaires pay their dues by Monday. No reservations are necessary for the dinner. Dues may be paid at the door.

Parent Conferences Scheduled at Blair For Education Week

BLAIR, Wis. (Special) — American Education Week, Nov. 11 through Nov. 16 will be observed at the Blair school system with afternoon conferences and coffee at the school buildings, according to Chester E. Meissner, supervisor of the district.

All teachers will be available to visit with parents Thursday from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. Coffee will be served in the school cafeteria at 2:30 p.m. Friday afternoon will be reserved for conferences by appointment with the teachers.

Gale-Ettrick Lands 6 on All-Coulee Conference Grid Squad

By BOB JUNGHANS
Daily News Sports Writer

D. Nichols

Coulee conference Gale-Ettrick, which posted a perfect 8-0 season record and stretched its winning streak to 26 games, dominated the All-Conference grid selections with six players named to the squad.

Twelve seniors and nine juniors were picked in the voting that saw three players named on both the offensive and defensive teams. Two of the two-way gridders were from the victorious Redmen.

John Sacia, a burly 210-pound senior, was chosen as both a guard and a linebacker. The other Gale-Ettrick gridders who excelled both ways was Doug Nichols, a hard charging fullback who doubled as a linebacker.

Standing out in mediocrity was Larry Hertzfeldt of Melrose. The Eagles finished dead last in the conference and were winless throughout the season, but Hertzfeldt was a shining star. He was chosen both as a linebacker and an offensive halfback. He was the lone Melrose gridders named to the squad. The other four Redmen who were chosen were Jerry Johnson, John Nichols, Gary Severson, and Dick Corcoran. West Salem finished third in the final conference standings placed four of its standouts on the team. Paul Cox, Steve Zantow and Marc Ranger made the offensive unit, while Conrad Kinder was picked as a defensive tackle. Bangor and Onalaska were represented by three gridders each. The Cardinals placed

Richard and Mark Favre along with Gary Blashaski. For Onalaska, Tom Evert, Larry Lee and Gary Drake represented the Hilltoppers. The other four positions on the 21-man team were split evenly between Trempealeau and Holmen. The Bears' Dan Leavitt was named to the offensive backfield, while Bob Welch was his counterpart in the defensive secondary. Holmen gridders were Bill Freier and Arlan Anderson. For eight of the gridders, it was the second time around. Severson, Sacia, Johnson, Doug Nichols and Corcoran, all of Gale-Ettrick, were named to the 1962 All-Conference squad. Kinder and Zantow of West Salem were both honored for the second year in a row, as was Hertzfeldt of Melrose.

The offensive squad sports a big line which averages 181 pounds, and a speedy backfield which goes a spritely 157 pounds per man. The biggest lineman while on the attack is Sacia at 210. In the ball-handling department, Hertzfeldt is the biggest at 165 and Ranger the lightest at 148.

MIGHT HAVE BEEN TITLE GAME

Badgers, Wildcats Try To Patch Up Poor Marks

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Northwestern and Wisconsin meet Saturday for a football game that finds each team trying to touch up season records tarnished by Big Ten Conference defeats.

Both the Wildcats and the Badgers are reeling from two straight conference beatings and the game billed in preseason estimates as a possible title clash has turned into a struggle for survival.

Northwestern is 2-3 in league play, but boasts the conference's total offense leader in quarterback Tom Myers, the passing whiz who triggers the Wildcat attack.

Myers has been hospitalized with the flu this week and may see only limited action, however. Northwestern's top ground gainer, halfback Dick McCauley, has returned to the lineup after missing the Michigan game last week with a twisted knee.

The game is Wisconsin's 56th homecoming and Coach Milt Bruhn hopes the spirit will once again ignite his Badgers. They have been beaten by Ohio State and Michigan State in their last two outings.

Wisconsin is 2-2 in conference play and a return to winning ways in their remaining conference games could give the Badgers a respectable season although their title hopes are shattered.

Bruhn may install sophomore quarterback Dave Fronek in his starting lineup in an effort to perk up Wisconsin's erratic offense. The Badgers ran well against Ohio State, but the passing was poor.

A week later against Michigan State, Wisconsin rushed for only 29 yards, while Fronek and Harold Brandt passed for 288.

Bruhn would like to get both attacks functioning at the same time and is shuffling his lineups this week in an attempt to solve the problems.

Cocaptain Ken Bowman was demoted as first string center along with left guard Jon Hohman, but during a week of spirited drills both men have regained their starting berths.

"I think we'll come back,"

TONGUE-IN-CHEEK PROPOSAL

Pappas Wants Oriole Job

BALTIMORE (AP) — Milt Pappas offered today to take over as manager of the Baltimore Orioles and end speculation over who will handle the baseball club next season.

The brash 24-year-old pitcher admitted he hasn't been approached by Oriole General Manager Lee MacPhail.

But his tongue-in-cheek proposal included these qualifications:

1. "I've had more major league experience as a player than some of the men being considered for the manager's job."

At 24, Milt ranks first in continuous-service seniority among the Orioles. He has been with Baltimore since graduation from high school in 1957.

2. "I have background as a manager . . . with a winning record."

He referred to the intrasquad game in spring training involving two teams of pitchers — before the main squad arrived on the scene.

3. "I would save the club money because my combined pay as player-manager would be less than for both me and the new manager. And the front office wouldn't have to make long distance telephone calls during the winter, since I live in Baltimore."

4. "Everyone says the Orioles need color. I'd give it to them by going back to my original name — Miltadis Pappasdelgus. Even Casey Stengel can't top that one."

Pappas said he wouldn't sign anything less than a seven-year contract, so he would have security as a player in the unlikely event he would be fired as manager.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) —

They laughed when guard Jerry Kramer lined up to do a little place-kicking for the Green Bay Packers. So did he.

That was midway in the 1962 season when Kramer won the title, "The best knuckleball kicker in the National Football League."

But a year has passed, and now Kramer leads the league with 15 field goals and is second in scoring with 71 points, all of them scored with his toe. He's only a point behind the scoring leader, Cleveland fullback, Jim Brown, who has scored 12 touchdowns.

Kramer is still laughing. "That's one for Ripley's Believe It or Not," Kramer said Thursday. "Imagine me leading the league. Why, a couple of weeks ago I couldn't even remember how many I kicked."

Kramer, who also is one of Green Bay's quickest and hardest hitting offensive guards, said he has no goals—"I'll just keep kicking and see what happens."

Something will. He's only one short of the Packer field goal record set by Fred Cone in 1955. It was an injury to Paul Hornung, who kicked 15 field goals in each of the 1960 and 1961 seasons, that started Kramer kicking last year. With Hornung suspended this year, Kramer kept on kicking.

After missing three attempts in a game five weeks ago,

Kramer has booted 12 field goals, ranging from 12 to 46 yards.

He explained the surge saying, "I'm keeping my eye on the ball. All it takes is concentration."

Cannon Back on Injury List

HOUSTON (AP)—The Houston Oilers of the American Football League have returned fullback Billy Cannon to the injury deferred list.

The action was taken after the former Heisman Trophy winner reinjured his right ankle Thursday.

PARK REC LOOPS WILL ORGANIZE

The Winona Park Rec basketball leagues will organize at meetings Saturday morning.

The Bantam League, which is composed of nine-year-olds, will meet at Central Elementary School at 9 a.m. A clinic will be held. Bill Hargseimer is the league director.

The Pee Wee League, 10-11-year-olds, meets at Lake Park Lodge at 9:30 a.m. and the Midget League, 12-13-14-year-olds, at the Lodge at 10:30 a.m.

FLOYD OF ROSEDALE AT STAKE

Burns Promising Wide Open Tilt

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP)—The Iowa football team hasn't scored a touchdown in its last two games, and coach Jerry Burns is willing to try just about anything to snap the Hawkeyes out of the slump. "We'll try everything we have against Minnesota Saturday," Burns said. "And if you have a play you'd like to give us we'll even try that."

However, Minnesota is one of Iowa's keenest rivals and the game has been a sellout for six weeks.

Jenke Tops Big 9 Scoring, Boland 4th

Noel Jenke, who doubled as both an end and halfback for the Owatonna Indian football team this season, topped the 1962 Big Nine scoring championship with 72 points.

Jenke, a junior, took over the lead on the final night of the season when he tallied twice in a 34-7 rout of Faribault. Dave Nelson, Rochester quarterback, finished second with 66 points after leading the race most of the season.

Pat Boland, hard driving Winona High fullback, claimed the fourth spot with 50 points behind Austin's Dave Hartman who scored 54 points.

Kit Monrud, last year's scoring champion, finished tied for 13th in the 1963 season with 24 points.

Baylor, Texas Will Scuffle

Trull Gets Chance to Show Talent

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Baylor football Coach John Bridger is an ebullient man who wants to tell the world about "my boy Trull." He does so at every opportunity.

And some of the comparisons he makes involving Baylor quarterback Don Trull are at once refreshing and a little awe-inspiring. Listen:

"My boy Trull," proclaims Bridger, "is the best quarterback I've ever seen anywhere or anytime or on any football field. And that goes for Baugh, O'Brien, Lujack, Graham, Unitas or even Tittle."

Which is rather rarefied company. But Trull's credentials are all in order. He leads the nation in passing and total offense. In six games he has a total of 1,491 yards and has completed 106 of 185 passes for 1,408 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Trull gets his chance to prove all this Saturday at Austin, Tex., when he leads the bulky Bears against unbeaten Texas, the nation's top-ranked college team.

The game looms as the top attraction on the national schedule and probably the last really big stumbling block on the Longhorns' path to the national championship. Their only other games are against Texas Christian, 3-2-1, and Texas A&M, 1-5-1.

The Bears are unranked, but have an impressive 5-1 mark, losing only to Oregon State. They've beaten Houston, Arkansas, Texas Tech, Texas A&M and TCU.

The Longhorns have won seven in a row, but the margin of victory in the last three totals only 13 points.

Each, of course, is unbeaten in the Southwest Conference and the winner probably will get the host spot in the Cotton Bowl. Baylor hasn't won the title in 40 years.

Most of the rest of the ranked teams also have their work cut out for them, with only No. 3 Mississippi scheduled for a breather. Ol' Miss, 5-0-1, has a home game at Little Rock, Miss., Nov. 7.

Second-ranked Illinois, 5-0-1, is at home to a Michigan team that may be better than its 2-3-1 record would indicate and No. 4 Navy could have its hands full with Maryland, 2-5. The Middies, led by Roger Staubach, take a 6-1 record into the game at the Naval Academy.

Anbourn, at 6-0 one the three remaining unbeaten, untied teams in major college circles, risks its No. 5 standing against tough Mississippi State, 4-2-1, at Jackson, Miss.

Oklahoma, pounding along toward another Big Eight title and ranked sixth at 5-1, is home to Iowa State, 4-3. No. 8 Pitt, 5-1, is at Notre Dame, 2-4; No. 9 Michigan State, 4-1-1, is at Purdue, 3-3, and No. 10 Ohio State, 4-1-1, is host to Penn State, 5-2, in one of three games scheduled for regional television coverage.

The other television games are Northwestern, 4-3, at Wisconsin, 4-2, and Arkansas, 4-3, at Rice, 4-2.

Women Keglers Again Jolt Top 10 Standings in City

It's almost becoming a nightly occasion as Winona's women keglers powered into the top 10 again Thursday night.

This time the individual single game was in their sights. At Winona Athletic Club in the Ladies circuit, Donna Kujak leaped into the second spot in the year's list as she hammered 248-574 to lead Hot Fish Shop to 933-2,584. The 248 single is only six pins short of the season high shot by Shirley Dietrich in the Pin Drops League at Westgate Bowl Oct. 17.

Esther Pozanc nudged into a ninth place tie as she tagged 230-551 for Marigold Dairies in the Powder Puff loop at Hal-Rod Lanes. Hal Leonard Music topped group efforts with 888-2,551. Joyce Locks cracker 515.

The lone honor count in the city came in the Westgate Classic League. Willard Critchfield used games of 212-189-205 in bagging 606 to spark Dale's Standard to 2,898. Bob Stein and Dick Neimeyer halved single game laurels with 237s for Hot Fish Shop and Ruth's Restaurant, respectively. Hot Fish Shop totaled 1,007. Gordy Fakler and Lambert Kowalewski had errorless series for the Fishmen. Gordy's was a 560, while Lambert counted 553.

WESTGATE: Bay State Men's — Bob Dennis socked 554 and Ralph Hubbard 209 both for Boxers, but Old Doc's and Blockbusters took team laurels with 956 and 2,745, respectively.

Stock Prices Rebound in Active Trading

NEW YORK (AP) — A stock market rebound continued early this afternoon in moderately active trading.

Gains of key stocks went generally from fractions to about a point.

The trend was generally higher among aerospace issues, steels, utilities, rails, electrical equipments, drugs, electronics and office equipments.

Xerox, which proposed a 5-for-1 stock split and a doubled dividend after trading closed Thursday — was up about 10 points.

CBS, recovering from recent selling, came back a couple of points.

Delta Air Lines, up more than 2, was conspicuous in its group, most of which gained fractions.

Radio Corp. advanced more than a point. Texaco and AT&T rose a point or so. Polaroid gained 5, IBM 3 and Control Data 2.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 2.83 at 748.49.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 1.0 at 280.0 with industrials up 1.2, rails up .8 and utilities up .4.

Chrysler, up more than point, was the best performer among the autos. General Motors, selling "ex dividend" its $2 payout just declared, showed a net loss of a point.

Prices were mixed in quiet trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate bonds declined. U.S. government bonds were steady.

Card of Thanks

HOYT—Our sincere and grateful thanks are extended to all our friends, neighbors and relatives for their various acts of kindness and messages of sympathy shown us during our recent bereavement. The loss of our beloved husband and father, we especially thank the Rev. C. Merrill LaGrone for his services, those who sent floral offerings, the palbearers, organist and singers, those who donated the use of their cars, Dr. Roemer, Dr. Garber and the nurses at Community Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Percy Hoyt and Carlton Meisch—Words cannot express how much we appreciate the kindness, sympathy, floral and spiritual tributes received during our darkest hours of sorrow, the death of our beloved husband and father, Dr. Roemer, Dr. Garber and the nurses at Community Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. James Winkelman

Mondovi Sets Hearing on Higher Budget

MONDOVI, Wis. (Special) — A proposed budget for 1964, totaling $137,487 and calling for a general property tax levy of $63.536 was approved by the Mondovi City Council Tuesday night. The budget hearing will be Nov. 19 in the council rooms at 7:30 p.m.

The proposed budget is $2,521 higher than the $134,966 expenditures this year, the last three months estimated.

The proposed levy is $5.207 higher than the 1963 levy of $58.328, according to the official publication.

Revenues other than tax levy are anticipated at $73,951. They have totaled $76,637 this year. No appropriation was made for outlay for next year. This year, $17,353 was spent.

PROPOSED appropriations for next year are: $19,560, general government, about $3,000 higher than last year; $29,531 for protection of persons and property, approximately $3,000 higher than for the current year; $5,960, conservation of health; $3,100, recreation; $1,250, public service enterprise, and charities, $3,000, all approximately the same; $38,150 for highways, about $7,000 higher; education, $5,115.62, about $1,000 higher; unclassified, $7,305.01, about $2,000 higher; and $24,515 for municipal indebtedness, about $5,000 more.

Auditor Arthur Lund reported 1962 books were satisfactory, with funds accounted for in all departments.

On request of Police Chief, Marcel Thoma, the council authorized the police committee to approve purchase of a suitable used typewriter for the police department when located.

Thoma and Attorney Jack Whelan were authorized to attend a police traffic school at Eau Claire.

THE COUNCIL discussed methods of raising money to supplement federal grant funds for operation of the Mondovi Youth Center. Federal funds soon will be depleted.

The Rev. Roger Brooks reported a great deal of interest in this youth-promoted center and said a heating plant will be in operation soon.

From a slate of adult advisers proposed by the youth group, the following were chosen by the council: Mrs. Nick Cook, Rev. Brooks, Jerry Dahms, Lloyd Tomten and Richard Pariso. With Mrs. James Schmittfranz, James Deetz and Harold Zittle, alternates.

Bids received for purchase of a new police squad car were opened and referred to the police committee for recommendation at the next meeting. Bidders: Fisher Auto Co., Ford custom tudor, net bid $1,382 with trade-in; Ede Motor Sales, 1964 Chevrolet Biscayne 2-door, net, $1,298, to add $55 if supplied with two Town and Country snow tires and one extra wheel, and Elkinton Auto Co., 1964 Plymouth two-door Savoy, net, $1,400.

A WRITTEN request by Dudley D. Dewey for a pro-rated refund on his liquor license was approved. A special beer license was granted the American Legion post for Sunday.

The clerk was instructed to notify Mrs. Cora Chambers that the city has no use for the Andrew Redt property in the city which she offered to see to the municipality.

Jerome Benson, director of the Buffalo County welfare department, gave a brief summary of his office in relation to various units of government in the county.

Small households spend more per person than large families on meat, poultry, fish, eggs, fruits and vegetables.
