Goodfellows Open Drive

TODAY the Winona Goodfellows organization is 53 years old. Every year since 1910, through the volunteer contributions of Winona area citizens, the city's needy children have been given the things they need as Christmas gifts.

Unlike many other fund-raising drives, the Goodfellows campaign is entirely voluntary. No one will solicit you. But if you feel you are able to help a family less fortunate than yours, your contribution will be most welcome.

Even in the best of times, there always are some families with difficult financial problems. Many of them are in trouble because of the inability of the normal wage earner to work, often through poor health. When temporary and permanent layoffs occur, the size of this group increases.

Goodfellows money is spent for new clothing for the children of local needy families. Goodfellows workers see to it that each child is given the items he needs most, whether it be a warm new jacket, new shoes, overshoes or underwear.

All clothing is purchased from Winona merchants who provide the Goodfellows with substantial discounts. The dollars from a Goodfellows contribution go farther than if you were to directly contribute clothing articles to a needy family.

It is important to Goodfellows workers to have an early idea of how much money will be available. That way they can project the average amount they can spend for each child, so it would be appreciated if you would make your contribution early.

Now that Thanksgiving is over, Christmas is in the air. What better way can you participate in the true meaning of Christmas than by helping a needy child face the harsh winter properly clothed? Send a contribution today to The Goodfellows, in care of the Daily News. Contributions are tax deductible.

Canaveral Now 'Cape Kennedy'

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Cape Canaveral today bears the name of Cape Kennedy, honoring martyred John F. Kennedy, who designated it as the blastoff point for trips to the moon.

Churchill, 89 Saturday, Feeling Fit

By EDDY GILMORE
LONDON (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill, still fond of a hearty meal and a good cigar, will be 89 Saturday.

"He's feeling very fit," said a family spokesman, "better than in a long time."

Churchill dined Thursday night with London's exclusive The Other Club, which he and Lord Birkenhead founded in 1911. Its members get together to indulge their taste for good food, drink and conversation.

Churchill presided at the dinner for 20 men. The menu included smoked salmon, oysters, dressed crab, fillet of sole, saddle of lamb, sliced pears and ice cream with chocolate sauce.

Since he broke his hip in a fall in 1962, Churchill has been much less active. His hearing is bad. Often his mind wanders back to events of long ago while he forgets those of yesterday.

But occasionally there are flashes of the brilliance and clarity of mind so characteristic of his long career, say close friends.

This has been a year clouded with sadness.

His oldest child, Diana, killed herself. The husband of his actress daughter, Sarah, died of a heart attack.

His happiest moment probably came when he and his wife celebrated their 53th wedding anniversary Sept. 12.

A few relatives will gather at Churchill's London home Saturday for a family celebration.

"Nothing special," said the family spokesman, "yet very special as all 89th birthdays must be."

Thompson Takes Stand

Johnson Asks Full Value for Defense Dollars

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson told the Joint Chiefs of Staff today that he wants "a dollar's value for every dollar spent" on national defense.

In his first meeting with the military high command as commander in chief, Johnson emphasized the insistence on economy which he mentioned in his address to a joint session of Congress Wednesday, the White House said.

The conference with the joint chiefs headed a long list of appointments on Johnson's first full day of uninterrupted work in his White House office, aimed at his newly declared goal of "a new American greatness."

The new President set that target for his administration Thursday night in his Thanksgiving address to the nation. The brief speech coupled an announcement of new honors for the slain President John F. Kennedy with an appeal to put "this midnight of tragedy" into the past and look forward to the work that must be done.

Rejected Suitor Kills Woman

VIROQUA, Wis. (AP) — A rejected suitor killed his former fiancée and then took his own life, Vernon County Sheriff Morris Moon said today.

The body of Mrs. Irene Wilder, 51, a divorcee of rural La Farge, was found Thursday on her parents' farm where she had been living recently. The discovery was made by her parents on their return from a trip to Milwaukee.

The body of Dewey Cox, 63, of Union Center in Juneau County was found in his trailer home Wednesday. He apparently shot himself in the chest, Moon said.

Thanksgiving Pilgrimage

Mrs. Kennedy, 200,000 Others Visit JFK Grave

WASHINGTON (AP) — More than 200,000 Americans put aside their Thanksgiving dinners for a while and made their way on a bleak and gray day up a hill to a grave.

Four little sisters picked chrysanthemums from their grandmother's garden and dropped them by the grave. Mrs. Kennedy came once again and prayed. Thanksgiving Day became a day of homage to John F. Kennedy in Arlington National Cemetery.

Traffic slowed and jammed as the thousands drove toward the cemetery overlooking the Potomac River. Many parked their cars and began to walk to the cemetery.

They carried faded roses and ferns, bought in stores the day before.

Silently, they paid their respects at the picket fence that surrounds the drive and the eternal light burning over the body of the president, who was assassinated a week ago today.

Mrs. Kennedy made her fifth trip to the grave since the burial Monday. Dressed in black, she knelt, crossed herself, and moved her lips in silent prayer.

Later she flew to Cap Cod for a Thanksgiving reunion with the Kennedy family.

Others joined the pilgrimage to the President's grave, includ-

Dispatcher Prevents Train Wreck

ROUND LAKE, Ill. (AP) — A worried dispatcher is credited with averting a possible head-on collision 35 miles northwest of Chicago between two speeding Milwaukee Road passenger trains.

A railroad spokesman said that although signal lights were working properly Wednesday night, a dispatcher in Milwaukee feared that they might be "misinterpreted" because one train, the Varsity, was running late out of Madison, Wis.

He said the dispatcher in Milwaukee thought both engineers might think they had a green light, and that a northbound commuter running from Chicago to Fox Lake would not pull onto a siding, as assigned.

As a precaution, the spokesman said, the Milwaukee dispatcher alerted a dispatcher in Round Lake, who telephoned Round Lake police.

Case May Reach Jury Next Week

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — St. Paul lawyer T. Eugene Thompson told a jury trying him for murder today that he talked freely with his late wife about an affair with another woman and the insurance he bought on his wife's life.

Thompson, 35, took the stand early in today's session. He is on trial for the March 6 slaying of his wife, Carol, 34, with the state charging Thompson planned the killing. Norman Mastrian arranged it and Dick W. C. Anderson carried it out.

Speaking freely, but without much expression in his voice, Thompson told the jury:

He had told his wife on a Chicago trip in January 1962 about Jackie Olesen, his onetime secretary with whom he admits an affair.

He had never discussed marriage with Jackie, and had made it "very clear" he would not marry her.

He did not consider the $1 million insurance on Carol an unduly large amount.

Under questioning by defense lawyer Hyam Segell, Thompson said he admitted to his wife: "I've been doing a little running around for quite a while."

The discussion was brief, he said, with his wife replying: "That's enough. I know all about it. I've known about it for some time. I was quite sure you'd come to your senses and would handle it in your way."

As to insurance, Thompson said he discussed programs thoroughly with his wife, and did not consider the amount excessive. The state contends the extra-marital affair and the insurance were keys to Thompson's motives in the slaying.

He carried $460,000 in policies on himself, Thompson said with all the premiums amounting to $159 a month.

Anderson admitted earlier this week he carried out the death pact. Mastrian was not called by Prosecutor William Randall, who rested the state's case Wednesday.

Earlier today, the defense continued to build for the jury a picture of Thompson as a happily married man, loved by his family and incapable of carrying out such a crime.

Called by defense counsel Hyam Segell was Mrs. Otto Swoboda, mother of the murdered woman.

Mrs. Swoboda reminisced about her daughter fondly, calling her a person "always on the run" and "very happy in her home life." As for Thompson, the kindly appearing, gray-haired woman said:

"He's welcome in my home at any time."

Mrs. Swoboda said her daughter and Thompson "were both a little Bohemian in nature," preferring to do things on the spur of the moment to get out of a rut.

She knew about heavy insurance on Carol's life, the woman said, but admitted some surprise after the murder when she learned the amount — about $1 million.

"I knew he had a fear of losing Carol. He had discussed this with me from time to time," said Mrs. Swoboda.

Calling of Thompson to the stand led to speculation the defense might rest its case after he testified. Segell told the court Wednesday his presentation would be brief.

Randall took more than three weeks and called 88 witnesses to support the state's charge against the crew-cut attorney who is known to close friends and family as "Gene" or "Cotton."

Three Killed Near Faribault

FARIBAULT, Minn. (AP) — Three Minnesotans were killed and three were injured in the grinding collision of two automobiles on Highway 60, about four miles west of Faribault, late Thursday.

The deaths raised the state's 1963 traffic toll to 724, compared with 633 a year ago.

Sheriff Charles Carver identified the dead as Shirley Sauk Hill, 59, Elysian, Minn.; Adolph Herman Schultz, 55, Waseca, Minn.; and Schultz' wife, Margaret, 51.

Russ Plan Rocket Tests in Pacific

By ELTON FAY
A.P. Military Affairs Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, exponent of a vigorous national space program, found himself confronted today with dramatic new evidence of Russia's intensified pace in the race.

The Soviet Union Thursday night announced a new series of rocket tests in the Pacific Ocean beginning next Monday and lasting almost two months.

The tests, said the Soviet news agency Tass, will be made "in view of the enlargement of the program of scientific research in the further exploration of outer space."

The series presumably is part of the Soviet Union's program to land men on the moon—a program on which the United States also has embarked, with the support of Johnson.

The Moscow announcement came at almost the exact moment Johnson, in his speech to the nation, announced he was honoring the late President Kennedy by renaming the launch area and missile test center at Cape Canaveral the John F. Kennedy Space Center and renaming the cape itself Cape Kennedy.

During the course of his address, Johnson, without elaboration, also said that "our defenses are secure."

The United States is expected to keep close on the new Soviet rocket tests.

It has become custom for U.S. ships, aircraft and radar stations to track Soviet rocket firings into the Pacific.

One of the impact areas designated in the Moscow announcement is in the vicinity of the Marshall Islands, where previous rockets have been directed. The other is northward in the Pacific, generally east of Tokyo.

Will EVERY Winona child have a happy Christmas this year?

Each pre-Christmas season since 1910 the Winona Goodfellows have asked for contributions in the columns of this newspaper to see that EVERY Winona child has a Christmas.

The Goodfellows volunteer workers buy underprivileged youngsters the things they need most as Christmas gifts. Goodfellow gifts are items like snowsuits, underwear, overshoes, warm caps and mittens - - - all the things the children must have to keep warm and dry during the cold winter months. No Goodfellow money is spent for toys, but when toys are received they are distributed.

Without Goodfellow help, several hundred Winona children --- through no fault of their own --- will face the winter dressed in inadequate clothing. They will go without the essential clothes which most of us take for granted. With YOUR Goodfellow help, all will be properly dressed.

Public and parochial school teachers, who see the condition of children's clothing every day, draw up lists of children they believe to be needy. Names of pre-school children are obtained from city and county welfare departments and from letters received by the Goodfellows.

All names submitted are put on file with the Christmas Bureau of the Council of Social Agencies, which provides a screening opportunity and serves to prevent duplication of giving by another agency.

Needy children are taken from the schools to Goodfellows headquarters downtown where they are fitted with clothing items according to individual needs. Goodfellows volunteer workers stock up on "good buys" at Winona stores before the children come, and if possible, they are fitted at the headquarters to save time. If a proper fit cannot be made there, however, the children are taken into the stores, which provide discounts on all Goodfellows merchandise.

If you intend to make a Goodfellows contribution, the volunteer workers would appreciate it if you would do it as soon as possible. If contributions come in early, it makes it a good deal easier for the workers to project the average amount that may be spent for each child, and in cases where a child needs many items, they may buy them for him at the time. Because of the work pressure between now and Christmas, there is no chance to call back a child a second time if it appears later that more money is available.

Send contributions to The Goodfellows, in care of the Daily News. Each contribution will be listed in the Goodfellows column. Contributions are deductible for income tax purposes.

Don't let the tragedy of an empty Christmas happen to any Winona child this year. Give generously, won't you?

December to Begin Mild; 38 Saturday

Unless all weather predictions fail, Winona and vicinity have a pretty good chance of welcoming December with generally pleasant and fairly mild weather.

Mostly fair tonight and Saturday, possibly a little warmer Saturday is the Weather Bureau's prediction for the area. A low of 20-25 is forecast for tonight and a high of 38 for Saturday.

On Sunday, Dec. 1, the outlook is for little temperature change and little or no precipitation.

AND THE extended forecast, likewise, is almost unbelievable, for it predicts temperatures 6 to 14 degrees above seasonal normals for the next five days.

A brief cooling is indicated for Monday, warming again Tuesday and a slight cooling off Wednesday. Normal temperatures at this time of the year are around 28 to 34 in the afternoons and 10-18 at night.

Precipitation averaging .10 of an inch or less in rain or snow is predicted for Sunday and Tuesday.

Although a stiff northwest wind blew Thanksgiving Day, travelers reported good driving conditions with temperatures around the 50 mark in the afternoon. The Winona thermometer rose to 51 Wednesday afternoon and 46 on Thursday. Low Thursday morning was 44 and this morning 27. At noon today the reading was 34.

THE TEMPERATURES were about the same as a year ago today when the high was 53 and the low 30. All-time high for Nov. 29 was 55 in 1881 and 1941 and the low for the day a freezing 21 below in 1875. Mean for the past 24 hours was 36 as contrasted with the normal for this time of the year of 27.

After a fairly comfortable Thanksgiving Day in which temperatures in Minnesota rose to near 50, freezing weather returned today with the thermometer dropping as low as 19 at International Falls and 21 at Bemidji. Rochester had a low of 23 after a Thursday high of 42 and La Crosse posted figures of 27 and 45 for the same times.

Only precipitation in the past 24 hours was .09 at International Falls where an inch of snow fell.

Winter began slowly to tighten its grip on WISCONSIN today. Cold air and strong northwesterly winds remained in the wake of a cold front that pushed through the state Thursday. A few snow flurries were reported in northern areas.

Temperatures early today were mostly in the 20s. Wausau, Eau Claire and Superior all had a low of 23.

Burlington and Beloit set the state high of 52 Thanksgiving Day.

THE WINTRY weather is expected to continue through the weekend, with occasional snow flurries predicted for most of the state. Snow may be heavy near Lake Superior Saturday, the weatherman said.

Idaho Falls, Idaho, set the nation's low of 6 above zero early today, compared with the high Thursday of 82 at Clewiston, Fla.

State Payrolls May Level Off During Winter

Rising employment rates in the state may level off during the winter, according to a report issued by the Minnesota State Employment Service.

The service reported that seasonally adjusted employment figures for Minnesota show a definite pattern since 1954-55.

During the 1954 recession, employment rates dropped consistently until they reached a low point in February 1955. From there, employment rose steadily for 25 months, then started to level off in March of 1957.

It decreased again during the 1959 recession, reaching a low point in November. Following another 25-month cycle, it increased until December 1960, when it again leveled off.

Employment decreased from January through October of 1961, then turned upward again in November of that year. If the past two recovery cycles of 25 months are any indication of what might happen in the present cycle, employment might level off starting in December.

Layoffs in outdoor activities, postponed because of the unusually warm weather during October and November, also might be expected to contribute to a drop in employment figures.

Banks Told How Holdup Men Work

Local bank employees were told Wednesday how an average bank robber might go about his business.

Federal Bureau of Investigation agents described typical procedures at a conference at Central Junior High School auditorium. About 75 bank employees and Winona police officers attended.

THE CHANCE of such a robbery occurring is greater now than at any time of the year, said FBI Agent Tony Shay, because November and December are peak activity months for bank thieves. Although they may be all ages and types, the criminals usually follow a general pattern, Shay said.

An average holdup would be by a lone man, usually disguised, who walks to a teller's cage between 1 and 3 p.m., makes an oral demand for money, backed up by a handgun. He usually gets away in a stolen car which is abandoned a short distance away. Statistically, the holdup men are likely to choose a Monday or Friday, though few of those subsequently caught and questioned know why they picked a particular day.

Suburban banks are favored because the getaway is easier, Shay said.

Perpetrators of 152 bank stick-ups last year averaged $6,000 per robbery. Amounts of loot taken ranged from $102,000 down to $5.

AGENT George Burton, who showed movies of actual holdups in progress, said indoctrination is conducted for the protection of employees and customers and to help produce better witnesses. Employees in a victimized bank should do as holdup men tell them, volunteer nothing and keep watching the robbers in order to memorize descriptions, he said.

"You are the only connection between us and the bank robber. If we don't have good witnesses, we can't solve bank robberies and apprehend the guilty persons," Burton said. A special effort should be made to watch the holdup man's getaway, he said.

The FBI men were introduced by Winona Police Chief George Savord, who explained emergency actions taken by his department when an alarm is received.

Fire Destroys Strum Cafe

STRUM, Wis. (Special) — Fire virtually destroyed a 60-by-140-foot two-story frame building here Thursday night. Fire or water damaged all contents.

The structure, owned by Chester Peterson, housed the Corner Cafe. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hanson, Osseo, had operated the restaurant since last spring when they purchased it from Mrs. Dell Halverson.

MR. AND MRS. Hanson and daughter, who lived upstairs in a four-bedroom apartment, left for Osseo at 5:30 p.m. About an hour later Genard Strand, passing by on Main Street, thought he saw smoke in the restaurant and alerted the Strum fire department. Assisted by the Eleva and Osseo fire departments, Strum firemen worked more than three hours before getting the blaze under control.

When firemen arrived and opened the front door, smoke poured from the building so they couldn't get in. The fire went up the chimney, took the roof and left a partial shell of the walls. Nothing was saved from the living quarters, and Thursday night it was impossible, because of the heat, to get into the restaurant and remove what was left of the kitchen equipment.

A 500-pound tank of cooking gas behind the building was detached and moved to avoid a possible explosion. Firemen wetted down the Erling Johnson locker plant just to the south, which was endangered by a strong north wind. Later the flame switched, blowing the flames to the north and away from other structures.

MRS. Gunda Hawkeness lives in rooms over the locker plant. All her furniture was removed and placed further up the street in case her quarters became ignited. She, her son, Mayor Glenn Hawkeness and family, who had been in St. Paul for Thanksgiving, arrived home during the fire.

Water from Strum's Lake helped prevent possible further destruction. Osseo and Eleva departments strung their hoses to the water about two blocks to the north.

Hanson and Peterson both reported they had partial insurance.

Board Names $300 Taken New Fireman From Home

The Board of Fire and Police Commissioners in a short meeting Wednesday afternoon approved employment of a new fireman.

Fire Chief John Steadman recommended Arthur A. Speltz, 27, 884½ E. 5th St., to replace Alvin Pagel, who died Oct. 26.

Speltz, who began working at the West End station Nov. 2, is married and has a 2-year-old child. He has been a maintenance man at Bay State Milling Co.

He is a graduate of Winona Senior High School and was in the Air Force four years, receiving his discharge in 1960. A native Winonan, he was city golf champion in 1960 and 1961.

CHIEF STEADMAN said purchase of new parts for the department's reserve pumper truck, a 1937 model, would be too expensive and that more expense might be incurred next year. Steadman had been authorized in July to purchase new parts.

He advised that the pumper be kept in its present condition and that it possibly could be traded on a new model in 1964. Commissioners took no action.

The commissioners approved a motion by Commissioner Harold Streater that something should be done about the number of sick leaves taken by policemen during the past month. Streater said 28 sick leave reports were filed. Chief George Savord had been present at the beginning of the meeting. He said he had nothing to discuss with the board and commissioners said they had nothing to discuss with him. Savord then left for the bank robbery conference at Central Junior High School.

COMMISSIONERS approved payment of bills of $1,583.66 for the fire department and $4,300.98 for the police department and overtime of $82 for the police department.

Hardware Store At Caledonia To Hold Opening

CALEDONIA, Minn. (Special) — Claude and Robert Danaher will hold a grand opening in their new hardware store building tonight and Saturday.

The new structure replaces a building that for a century served the business life of Caledonia. It first housed a blacksmith shop. Later the front was changed and Chris Blewred used it for a hardware business. The place was sold to Jeremiah Seuffert and in 1914 was purchased by James E. Danaher of Dorchester, Iowa. In 1947 Danaher sold to his sons.

Rebuilding began last spring. One section was razed and replaced, then the other half, so business was not disrupted.

The new building, 60 by 60 feet, is of concrete block, with full basement for stock, service repair and sales room with toys. The building is air conditioned.

The Danahers also operate an automatic laundry here.

City Centers Count 4,056 In November

Total attendance at East and West Recreation Centers was 4,056 for the Oct. 28 to Nov. 25 period, a Park-Recreation department monthly report shows.

Most of the attendances are registered for children's game rooms. West Center reported 1,775 and East Center 1,969. Children's arts and crafts drew 120 youngsters at East Center, 65 at the West Center. Townsend Senior Citizens meetings and an East Center Textile painting class made up the balance of attendance.

The social room at Lake Park Lodge was reserved 27 times, with total attendance of 785. Three senior citizens' clubs meet once a month under sponsorship of the Winona Council of Church Women.

Holzing Lodge was reserved 12 times during the reporting period, with a total attendance of 380. The Park-Rec Squares held 12 sessions of instructional dancing. Regular club square dances are held every week at Lake Park Lodge.

Maintenance crews noted the onset of colder weather by reading ice skating facilities. A ramp for easy access to the ice has been set up at Lake Park Lodge and a supply of firewood and kindling is on hand at all times.

Park tables are getting the annual paint job, playground equipment has been collected for checking and repair and outside water lines have been drained.

Flowers and bulbs have been removed from beds and roses killed up and covered with leaves. A new rose bed also has been laid out with space for 100 new bushes.

University Alumni Meet Postponed

The annual meeting of the Winona chapter of the University of Minnesota Alumni Association, originally scheduled for Tuesday at Hotel Winona, has been postponed.

Dr. O. Meredith Wilson, president of the university, was to have been the speaker at the banquet meeting.

In announcing the postponement, chapter president William F. White said that no new date has been set for the meeting but that efforts would be made to bring Dr. Wilson to Winona for a meeting at another time.

Taylor Man Killed in One-Car Crash

TAYLOR, Wis. (Special) — A 47-year-old Taylor Man became Jackson County's third traffic fatality of the year early this morning.

Elwood W. Woodhull received a severe concussion, fractures, severe chest injuries and fractures of both legs. He died at 12:30 a.m. today at Krohn Hospital, Black River Falls.

Authorities said he was alone in his car and was en route from Taylor to Hixton about 11:30 to have a lunch. About 1½ miles west of Hixton, on Highway 95, he apparently went to sleep. The car left the highway to the right and slammed into a machine shed on the Alfred Letson farm.

About 12:25 a.m. today two Taylor teenagers, Robert Strand and Terry Stevens, about 18, noticed the car when they were en route home from Hatfield. They called Sidney Jensen, Hixton, who took Woodhull to the hospital after getting him out of the smashed car with the boys' help. Woodhull never regained consciousness.

Dr. John Noble, Jackson County coroner, Sheriff Julian Larkin and Edwin Christianson, deputy, investigated.

Woodhull was born Oct. 13, 1916, on a farm near Taylor, son of Frederick Woodhull and wife. He had been working with a silo erecting crew for Madison Silo Co., Winona, since 1960 but was laid off for the winter.

Survivors are: His wife, Rose; three children, Randy, Lori Ann and Joe; his father, Frederick, living in Taylor; one brother, Merlin, Mondovi, and four sisters, Mrs. Deyo (Helen) Relyea, Taylor; Mrs. Frank (Vivian) Dalby, Black River Falls, and May and Freda, Milwaukee.

Funeral arrangements are being completed by Jensen Funeral Home, Hixton.

Three others have died in Wisconsin traffic crashes since the Thanksgiving Day holiday period began Wednesday night. Their deaths raised the state's 1963 highway toll to 895, compared with 861 on this date last year.

Calvin J. Early, 24, Two Rivers, was killed early today when a car ran off Highway 147 two miles west of Mishicot, sheered off two utility poles and struck a tree. Richard A. Meink, 26, the driver, and Sheldon Domnitz, 24, both of Two Rivers, were hospitalized at Two Rivers.

Mrs. Marion Herrmann, 22, who lived near Oshkosh, was killed Wednesday night when the car she was driving and a semi-trailer truck collided on Highway 41 and Fond du Lac County Trunk Y, south of Lac du Lac.

Mrs. Alex S. Rzakiewicz, 47, of Milwaukee, was killed Wednesday night when struck by a car as she crossed a street on the city's South Side.

It Happened Last Night Broadway Hopes Johnson's a Fan

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Broadway and Hollywood are wondering whether President Lyndon Johnson can ever become as Show Business-conscious as John F. Kennedy.

"We've never had a President," Kirk Douglas was saying, "who was such a fan as Kennedy."

The stars who knew the late John F. Kennedy — and they all felt they did — still cherish in their memories certain fragments of conversations they had with him in his most fateful years. He was so approachable, so wise, so "with it," they felt he "was almost a part of Show Business."

"He must have been the first President who would just walk out of the White House and drop in to see a movie," Douglas said.

"One snowy night he walked into a theater in Washington, unannounced, to see 'Spartacus.' No preview... no opening... the picture was just playing there. I was flabbergasted."

Only 10 days ago, John F. Kennedy dined with the Kennedy family in the White House, and met with Lena Horne in the State Dept., to plan the Jan. 23, 1964 "inaugural anniversary celebration" which was to kick-off his re-election campaign.

He had frequent meetings with Harry Belafonte, his "cultural adviser" to the Peace Corps... and the mind goes back to happier days when Frank Sinatra sang of "that old Jack Magic" and the President complimenting Frank, said, "We saw excellence tonight."

"BUT THE Kennedy hospital..."

Kirk Douglas was speaking of it in his dressing room at the Cort, where he's starring in "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest."

"I'd helped M.C. the second gala in Washington last January. We were at a party at Lyndon Johnson's afterward. President Kennedy was saying how much he liked our show."

"My hands were sweaty and I was mad at myself for being nervous. Then Mr. Kennedy said, 'Oh, Kirk, I see you bought "Seven Days in May" for a picture.'"

"He began talking about the

Traffic Death Toll About Same As Non-Holiday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Thanksgiving weekend moved through its second day Friday with traffic fatalities running about the same as a normal nonholiday weekend.

The fatality toll, which began at 6 p.m. (local time) Wednesday and ends at midnight Sunday, reached 146. On nonholiday weekends this year 100 persons have died daily in traffic.

The National Safety Council made no estimate of the number of traffic deaths. A spokesman said the Thanksgiving holiday has less highway travel than most holiday weekends.

An Associated Press survey from 6 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 13, to midnight Sunday, Nov. 17, showed 477 traffic deaths. The survey was made for a comparison with the Thanksgiving weekend.

A Thanksgiving fatality record was established last year when 514 persons died on the nation's highways and roads. It was the highest for Thanksgiving since the Associated Press began counting in 1958. The lowest toll for a Thanksgiving four-day weekend was 442 in 1960.

Finger Caught Installing Aerial

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Edward De La Violette, attempting to install a radio aerial in his new automobile, reached under the dash board Thursday to push out a metal plug. His finger became caught.

Firemen and a metal expert were called to the rescue.

De La Violette, 40, was freed after more than an hour, but the car's right front fender and some inner metal had to be cut away.

The cigars. They were good ones, too.

It was at that lunch that Berle exhibited pictures of his adopted son, Bobby, not yet 2, and said, "He's going to be the first Jewish President." Berle remembers that the President replied, "I'd be the last person in the world to say it's impossible."

Those things they remembered on Broadway as they wondered about tomorrow.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: A young office boy in a law firm (according to Quote) boasts that he's getting $2,000 a year. "Ten dollars a week in salary, and the rest in legal advice."

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "The most disappointed people in the world are those who get what's coming to them." — Mark Twain.

EARL'S PEARLS: A local cafe serves a potent drink called The Cardtable: two of these and your legs fold up under you.

The young men of today aren't really greedy, as some people insist. In fact, most of them would be satisfied with a single wedding gift — a very rich father-in-law... That's Earl, brother.

Voice of the Outdoors

Wisconsin's Biggest Youth adventures where aged runs. That might be an excellent subhead for the picture, right. Linda Lunsman, 16, Danbury, Wis., high school student went into the woods near Danbury last weekend after deer. She carried a 30-30 rifle and knew how to use it.

When a huge black bear stood up in front of her, Linda, a true daughter of the North, walked right forward to meet the rearing animal and when she got in sure killing range pulled the trigger.

"I walked right up to him," Linda said afterwards. "He was looking right at me. I got scared. Then I shot him." Six men helped Linda and her father drag the carcass out of the woods. It was weighed on the local lumberyard scales at 635 pounds, Wisconsin's heaviest recorded black bear.

Off for Camp Ripley Sixteen Winona bowhunters left this morning for a weekend deer hunting camping trip on Minnesota's National Guard reservation at Camp Ripley. The December season for bowhunting opens Saturday, running through Dec. 22 with hunting from sunrise to sunset each day. It is one deer of either sex for the hunters who have not already harvested their deer during the early bow season or the recent firearms season.

ler bucks through Sunday, Dec. 1. The official registered total will thus not be completed until after Monday.

"On the surface," Stan said, "less hunters got more deer. Our survey on Saturday indicated a noticeable reduction in the number of hunters. On Sunday it seemed normal. Since then I have checked local checking stations and the figures they have show an increase in deer harvested over the 1962 two-day season."

It is now rifle hunting generally in the county. There are very few hunters out, mainly skilled deer hunters who have hunted deer before with rifles. The only ones still using shotguns are hunters who do not own a deer rifle.

Up to Wednesday evening April had no reports of illegal deer kill. Does and young deer could legally be taken the first two days of the season. After that any deer with horns less than three inches, and all does are illegal deer.

Teacher Leave Benefits Checked

Sick leave benefits for Winona's public school teachers are similar to those offered in other school systems of comparable size throughout the state, a survey report by the Minnesota Education Association research service reveals.

Of 458 systems which participated in this portion of the survey, 336 allow 10 days sick leave each year as Winona does. In 81 systems in Winona's enrollment category over 1,500—16 allowed more than 10 days annually. The median number of days for all schools has increased from 5.8 in 1953 to 10.4 in the current year.

Winona and 48 other systems among 443 that answered the question permit sick leave to be accumulated to 90 days. This is the most common practice among schools systems of Winona's size while in smaller

Woman Tosses 5 Children to Safety

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. S. Rivera, 27, tossed her five children from the second-story window of a burning Brooklyn tenement into the arms of a passerby Thursday night. Then she jumped.

The unidentified hero vanished. The children range in age from 6 months to 11 years. They were treated at a hospital and released. Mrs. Rivera escaped with cuts and bruises.

Winona is in the majority with its allowance of up to five days leave for funerals in the immediate family and provisions that sick leave benefits are available immediately to new teachers.

Winona and a majority of the other systems allow time off with pay for teachers to attend professional meetings, make authorized school visitations and serve on juries.

Rushford Honors Employee

RUSHFORD, Minn. (Special) —A long-time city employee, Peter Peterson, was honored at the annual Rushford firemen's dinner.

About 116 attended the dinner last Saturday. All firemen and their wives were present. The council and city employees and their wives and Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Peterson were guests.

FIRE CHIEF Alfred (Foxy) Cordes honored several long-time members of the department. Among them were Peder Rislove, long-time chief and still a member of the department after 55 years of service.

Twenty-year service members honored were former chief Clinton Virock, Seth Rislove, Harry Dubbs, Harvey Bendel, Berger Halvorson, Eldon Engel, George Grover, Leonard Helleland, Karol Jaastad, Clarence Niggle and Edwin Berg, who is in Veterans Hospital, Minneapolis.

Mayor Arthur J. Miller spoke for the guests, complimenting the firemen on the department's service to the city and community and the chiefs with whom he had served — Arthur Swenson, now residing in California, Virock and Alfred Cordes.

COUNCIL honored Peterson, who began his municipal service part time in 1925 and on a full-time basis as electrical, street and water commissioner in 1930. His first job was assisting in the construction of the electrical distribution system. He was hired on a permanent basis on recommendation of Jule Jacobson, who had resigned.

At that time the city force consisted of two: Ed Johnson, marshal, and Peterson in charge of utilities. "Pete" handled all street work, electrical maintenance and sewage and water problems, the mayor said. Things were on a much smaller scale at that time as the electrical department of the total city consumed about 17,000-20,000 kilowatt hours a month compared with 250,000-300,000 now.

It was the custom of the council at that time to discuss the monthly kilowatt hours consumed as they apparently gauged the city's prosperity on this.

PERHAPS one of the hardest parts of Pete's duties was collecting overdue electrical bills. In the depression years there were many of these, creating much unnecessary work as the subscribers always paid AFTER their electrical supply had been disconnected.

In the depression years the

Singer Too Slow for Law

VENTURA, Calif. (AP)—Police said western singer Johnny Cash told them he stepped on the gas when he saw a patrolman coming up behind him because:

"I just wanted to find out if I could still outrun a police car."

After a 6-mile chase up the Ojai Freeway at 90 m.p.h., officers said, he discovered he couldn't.

Cash, 31, was cited Thursday for speeding and for driving without having his operator's license with him.

Burglar Just Too Friendly

CINCINNATI (AP) — Anna Bosse came home from church Thursday and found a young man sitting on the couch with his shoes off and talking on the phone. He'd fixed himself a hamburger and was drinking beer.

Mrs. Bosse, 57, said he told her not to worry—he wasn't a burglar. He was just having trouble with his wife and had no place to go.

He then asked her to fix him a cup of coffee and after she brought it, he said everything had been patched up and he was going home.

Mrs. Bosse told police she gave him 50 cents for bus fare—and then discovered he had taken $3.50 from her purse while she was fixing the coffee.

Man Fired at Near Cemetery

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—A motorist told police two bullets hit his pickup truck Thursday night as he drove past the cemetery where Lee Harvey Oswald, accused slayer of President Kennedy, is buried.

J. B. Ardrey, 40, of Fort Worth, said he halted the truck and "just took off" on foot. He was unhurt.

Police found bullet holes in the right window and the windshield of the truck.

Cardinal Remembers Kennedy's Farewell To Son Who Died

BOSTON (AP) — Richard Cardinal Cushing has described the late President John F. Kennedy's tearful farewell to his son, Patrick Bouvier Kennedy, who died last August less than two days after his birth.

"I'll never forget the day we buried his little child from the chapel," the Roman Catholic archbishop of Boston said Thursday.

"Jack was the last to leave the chapel. I followed him. The little casket containing the body was at the head of the aisle.

"Jack put his arms around the casket as if he wanted to carry it with him. Then the tears watered his cheeks."

The cardinal, a lifelong friend of the Kennedy family, officiated at Kennedy's funeral.

PVT. GENE D. BAKER, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Baker, 550 W. Bellevue St., is undergoing basic training at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo. His address is: US 55732650, Co. B, 4th Bn., 2nd TRB, Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo. 65475.

SFC. ALBERT OHMANN, Winona Army recruiter, says that he has received vacancies for men to enlist for direct assignment to overseas duty in Europe, the Far East, Alaska and Hawaii.

Those who choose to enlist for overseas assignment will depart for their chosen overseas area upon completion of basic and technical training in the U.S. This training usually takes a minimum of five months, said Ohmann.

After arrival at their overseas assignment, they will perform duty with an Army unit in the specialty for which they were trained.

Persons enlisted under this special program undergo comprehensive testing and assignment counseling at the basic training center and then are assigned to specific advanced technical training based on aptitudes and desires.

Ohmann says that individuals enlisting for this program during December also will have the opportunity of taking a leave at home during the Christmas holiday season.

The enlistees then will return to their assignment for completion of training prior to departure for their chosen overseas assignment.

Further information about the program may be obtained at the Winona Army Recruiting Station, Exchange Building, Room 105.

A New Day and A New Order

THE UNITED STATES today, after the blackest week in its history, is virtually back to normal and while politics, we hope, won't rear its ugly head until after the holidays, there are a few significant points worth dwelling over:

First, the smooth and orderly transition of power from one man to another, was something of which every American can feel proud despite the stigma of the ruthless act which brought it about.

Second, the stock market's reaction. There was no panic but stocks began to slide heavily after first reports of the President's assassination. When the market opened Tuesday morning, however, sell orders had been canceled and the strong market of throughout the fall began to climb steadily upward.

Third, the remarkable, almost incredible, efficiency with which all of the events and details resulting from the President's death were handled by government people in Washington. So far as anyone could observe after long hours of watching television, there was not a hitch in any of the funeral arrangements, the vast detail and protocol in welcoming visiting heads of state and other dignitaries and the formalities so necessary during such an occasion.

Fourth, the charm of new President Johnson in receiving the visiting foreign dignitaries, representing some 53 countries of the world, and the self-composed manner in which he went about his new task as head of the world's most powerful nation.

Fifth, the almost unbelievable composure of Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy throughout the entire ordeal from the moment of the bark of the assassin's rifle to the fading notes of taps in Arlington National Cemetery. The courage, compassion and the dignity shown by this beautiful woman will be something the nation will not soon forget.

TODAY INDEED IS a new day and with it there is a new order.

The orderly transition, accomplished barely an hour after Mr. Kennedy's death last Friday, as one editorial writer pointed out, is a testimonial to the great men who met in Philadelphia so long ago "to render the Constitution of the federal government adequate to the exigencies of the union." Thus adequate has this instrument always proved.

Under it a new constitutional executive has replaced the man who is gone. The American people accept the transfer of power as normal and expected, under the constitutional provisions prescribing order and continuity in the conduct of the national government.

This is a nation of sober and sensible people, despite the aberrant behavior of the erratic few. Presidents may come and go, but there is solidarity behind our institutions, and loyalty to the nation and the liberties which our Constitution has so well conserved through a century and three-quarters.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON will have the good will of all of his countrymen. As he marched in Monday's funeral procession, there was the sense that there was a man, first among equals, but still only a steward charged, as any President is, with acting for the general welfare of us all.

How Mr. Johnson will interpret this mission no one can say. He will have support and approval according to the wisdom with which he discharges the vast responsibilities of the presidency. He will labor under the checks and balances of a wise federal system. Under that system, no man can expect, as no man would deserve, unquestioning obedience, for every citizen has the same independence and the same right to his private judgment as the highest officer of the land.

MR. KENNEDY'S program is on the agenda, says the Chicago Tribune, but Congress has had deep reservations about much of it, so that after 11 months of continuous session the record of legislative achievement has been slight. Perhaps now is a time for reflection and reconsideration. Certainly the most unfortunate thing that could happen would be an attempt at whirlwind dispatch of the nation's business in a climate of emotionalism.

"It is our judgment that Congress would be wise to deal with the appropriations measures necessary to keep the government running. The great controversial topics which are part of Mr. Kennedy's legacy, such as the tax cut proposal and the portmanteau civil rights legislation, would be better carried over into the next session of Congress, beginning in January.

"A prompt adjournment would give the new President time to consider his course, to think through the problems piled on his desk, and to develop order and proportion in his proposals. It would give an exhausted Congress a chance for recuperation and an opportunity to return to Washington with some hope of achieving a sober consensus on what needs to be done.

"MOST OF ALL, IT would give an emotionally drained people a chance to consider what direction the country is now to take."

A letter Edgar Allan Poe wrote to Washington Irving was auctioned in London for $5,000 — which is a lot more than Poe ever was paid for one of his stories.

For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. 1 Corinthians 6:20.

HOW DO YOU STAND, SIR?

Conservative Not Against Change

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

It becomes more important every day, I find, to clarify the conservative position in American life.

Despite all we have done or tried to do over the years, there still exists a vast misunderstanding of how the American conservative views the present and the future.

The conservatives I regard as representative are among today's greatest and most effective proponents of progress. They are constantly seeking progress, and they are just as constantly looking to history for the lessons needed to make certain that the progress we make is sound and worthwhile.

And it is this regard for history that has misled many people into thinking that the conservative wants to live in the past. The true conservative does not want to return to the past or live in the past.

He doesn't even want to go back in time to this morning. But he reserves the right to learn from the past. He believes that through a study of history we can discover what has worked and what has failed in our handling of problems which have an application in the present or may have an application in the future.

The conservative does not buy the idea that vast technological changes and the growing tempo of American life require that we scuttle all of our historically-valuable concepts. He does not believe that because the American Constitution was adopted 180 years ago it has outlived its usefulness or has become inapplicable to the changing world in which we live.

HE DOES NOT believe that times and conditions have altered so radically that debt, personal or governmental, is something to be sought after as a desirable state of fiscal affairs. He does not believe that the lessons we have learned about the dangers of disarmament down through the years must be jettisoned merely because weapons today have taken on a terrifying efficiency and destructiveness.

The conservative of today is not against change when that change is needed and soundly based on past experience. He very definitely is, however, opposed to the idea of change for the mere sake of change. This is where the conservative runs into a head-on clash with today's liberal.

THE LIBERAL approach too often is based on manipulation to meet a given set of existing circumstances and without regard for its long-range consequences as measured against past experience. For example, when the economy is temporarily disrupted for almost any reason at all, the liberal rushes in with his demand for federal money, for federal regulation, as the only possible answer to the problem. He sees only the immediate problem. And for this he is quick to offer a governmental answer. Too often he gives little thought to the ultimate consequences of too many governmental answers to too many problems.

In the domestic sphere, the extension of government into areas of economic activity on an ever-increasing scale brings us, as a nation, to a type of socialism which encroaches dangerously on individual freedom. The word socialism, of course, is never used by the American liberal for the panaceas of governmental action which he is prone to offer. More often, the solution is offered in the name of proper "economic planning" in the "public interest."

Johnson's Health OK Despite Heart Attack

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — There are four big questions the American public is asking about their new President: Will his health stand the strain of the presidency? What will be the Cabinet changes? Will he run again? Will he continue the policies of John F. Kennedy?

The answers to these are such that, in my opinion, the American people can be thankful that they had Lyndon Johnson waiting on the sidelines in case of tragedy.

The job of waiting on the sidelines, incidentally, is probably the toughest part about being vice president and is the reason why there has been friction between almost every president and vice president in American history.

The relation between JFK and LBJ was a notable exception. Some people figured that Johnson, a human dynamo, would never be content to be the tail on the Kennedy dog. But Lyndon, long trained in politics, knew where the political power was. He knew the vice president couldn't run the country. So, despite the wisecracks about "what's become of Lyndon Johnson?" he concentrated on being obscure. It was hard for him to do it. Yet he did it with good grace.

Kennedy, in turn, brought him into more policy-making conferences, into more vital decisions than any other vice president in history.

THAT'S THE background. Here is an attempt to answer the four big questions: No. 1 — Johnson's health? — When Jack Anderson queried the vice president about this, Lyndon referred him to his physician, Dr. Samuel Clark, who reported that six months after Johnson's massive heart attack he was normal in every way. His pulse was normal, the size of his heart was normal. Some scar tissue remains, but the doctor said there was no reason why Johnson could not lead a completely normal life.

KENNEDY WAS considered a great man to use the telephone, but he didn't compare with Johnson. I have sometimes received calls from Johnson as late as 1:30 a.m. He was still working in the Senate.

No. 2 — Changes in the Cabinet? — After the first period of White House transition and adjustment passes, Bob Kennedy may well resign as attorney general. His was a very close relationship with his late brother. He will want to retire. Johnson will urge him to stay and will be sincere about it. If he insists on retiring, Johnson may well appoint his own attorney, Abe Fortas, former under secretary of the interior.

The Cabinet member Johnson will lean on most heavily will be Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

THE CABINET member who will come under heaviest fire will be Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara. Before the year is over, probably all members of the Kennedy Cabinet, except Dean Rusk, will retire.

No. 3 — Will LBJ run again? — The answer, unequivocally, is yes. Johnson can no more stay away from government and politics than a race fan can stay away from the track.

IN MY OPINION, Bob Kennedy will not contest that nomination. He is too saddened by his brother's death, too realistic to take on the race — even if he wanted to.

Lyndon Johnson will be renominated and, barring acts of God, elected. It will be extremely difficult for the Republicans to defeat him.

No. 4 — The policies of the Johnson administration: — In general they will follow Kennedy's. Lyndon, a past-master at congressional legislation, will take pride in passing the Kennedy program as a personal monument to the late President.

He may have to modify the civil rights bill somewhat, but he will not detract from its long range effectiveness. And he will get it passed without much more than token opposition.

Foreign policy remains the real question mark of the Johnson administration. Generally speaking, Johnson will attempt to follow the co-existence policies of the Kennedy administration. He will try to restrain his natural Texas impulse to wave the flag. If so, and if he uses his great gift of negotiation that he has used so effectively in the Senate, he could lead the nation a long way down the road to peace.

Change Comes Over America

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — A change has come over us in America and perhaps over the world. It's an involuntary change, to be sure, precipitated by the sudden passing of a world leader, the late President of the United States John F. Kennedy. But it could be a change that forges a new unity in the world. It could be a change that brings stability to our home front of friction and emotional controversy.

The mood of this country and the peoples abroad today is one of serious contemplation. Hundreds of millions of persons on this continent and on other continents saw by television or heard by radio the funeral services for the American President. The impact of this solemnity cannot be measured as yet, but it may have put into perspective the fateful forces that tear nations apart or threaten to destroy human lives in a military conflict between powerful countries.

Representatives of more than 50 nations came to attend the final rites for the dead President, including President Charles De Gaulle of France, Chancellor Ludwig Erhard of West Germany, Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home of Great Britain, Premier Hayato Ikeda of Japan, Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan of the Soviet Union. Heads of state walked in silence for a half-mile behind the caisson which carried the casket bearing the man who strove so earnestly to further the cause of world peace. Nearly 100 dignitaries from all over the world were present at the church and burial services.

What must have been the thoughts of these leaders as they mediated of the meaning of mortal life and its lost opportunities?

Thanks to the inventions of man, instantaneous communication throughout the world has been made possible. No such wide coverage on the same day, simultaneously with the occurrence of a news event, has been achieved in the past. The total watching and listening audience was probably the greatest ever assembled.

BUT SINCE communication has been so effective once on this occasion, it challenges man to employ it in the future in the cause of self-preservation and human survival. For the death of millions by nuclear war has been envisioned as feasible with today's weapons. While treaties and agreements to ban certain nuclear tests have been signed, and there is no assurance that small wars will not provoke bigger ones and lead to tremendous destruction of human life.

As one man passed so quickly from our midst to the world beyond, this single death could encourage the peoples of this world to reach out for unity and a better way of communicating with each other in order to restrain the ambitions and evil purposes that arise in the minds of thoughtless rulers.

Within the United States, too, the tragedy can have a strange sequel — a turning toward the ideals expressed by the departed leader. Opinions will differ as to the efficacy of particular proposals. Debate will continue on the merits of various legislative programs. But there will be a new awareness of the depth of feeling throughout this country about the importance of national unity.

THE NEW President, Lyndon B. Johnson, fortunately is a man of long experience in congress and particularly in the post of senate majority leader. He has an intimate friendship with many members on capitol hill and acquaintance with their state problems—even closer perhaps than his predecessor happened to enjoy.

Mr. Johnson is a skillful negotiator and mediator. He knows how to win support for the measures he campaigns. He has a keen understanding of public-opinion trends. Like every vice president who has been given the task of filling out a presidential term, he will seek to maintain the administration's basic policies.

As for world policy, President Johnson will be under a strain in getting familiar quickly with all the nuances of our delicate relations with other governments, but he can apply the same perceptive qualities to foreign affairs as he does to domestic policies.

Above all, the influence of John F. Kennedy will remain to spur the new President on to achieve the unfinished task — an understanding between rival powers which could give assurance of an era of peace.

IT WILL be recalled that the words of the 86th psalm proclaim that "all nations whom thou has made small come and worship before thee, O Lord, and shall glorify Thy name." The poet Elizabeth Barrett Browning wrote, "And life is perfected by death." Longfellow's famous verse comes to mind. He wrote:

"There is no death! What seems so is transition; 'This life of mortal breath' is but a suburb of the life elysian.

"Whose portal we call death."

As Cardinal Cushing said on Monday at the final mass for the late President Kennedy, "Life is not taken away, but is transformed."

The whole world listened on Monday. Maybe it will continue to listen to words that challenge man to fulfill his mission and bring peace to a distraught world.

STRATFORD, Conn. (AP) — The American Shakespeare Festival will celebrate its 10th season and the 400th anniversary of the bard's birth next summer with "Hamlet," "Much Ado About Nothing" and "Richard III."

Two of the plays will be performed for student audiences for nine weeks prior to start of the season for the general public. Joseph Verner Reed, festival producer said a fourth production, yet to be selected, may be a non-Shakespearean work. Let's Get Growing

By A. F. SHIRA

Lime In The Garden

Inquiries about the advisability of adding lime to the garden soil, as well as the lawn, come up from time to time and this seems to be an opportune time to talk a little about it.

Calcium, of course, is the primary constituent of lime and is absolutely necessary for the proper growth and well being of most plants. Unless the gardener understands the true function of lime and the form in which it should be applied, along with the proper amounts, it may be wasted, or in some cases, prove to be harmful.

Rainfall removes some of the calcium from the soil, just as it removes other soluble nutrients. If excessive, the rains may leach out so much of the calcium from the soil that it may become what is known as "sour". Such a soil may be unsuitable for certain plants such as clover and some legumes, but favorable to others such as azaleas and the native and hybrid types of rhododendrons.

In limestone regions where ample disintegration through natural causes takes place there is usually no deficiency of calcium. That which is leached out of the soil by rainfall is replaced by the addition of fresh amounts which are slowly released from the soil. Under these conditions, there is little need for the further addition of lime.

ON THE OTHER hand, if the calcium which is lost cannot be replaced by that which is in the basic soil materials, lime should be added, but only for crops that may need it. As a rule sour soils are unsuitable for vegetables. Yet, the general run of cultivated trees and shrubs will do well in soils somewhat deficient in lime. As far as we can learn, there is no scientific evidence that lime is of any direct benefit to fruits, raspberries and similar crops.

Since lime is chiefly obtained from limestone, it is of value from this source, only when finely ground. In buying lime, it might be well for the gardener to specify "hydrated lime" of about 70 per cent calcium.

Before applying lime, the gardener should have a soil sample tested in order to determine whether lime is needed and, if so, how much. The arrangements for such a test can be made by getting in touch with your county agent.

IF THE ADDITION of lime appears to be necessary, it should be scattered evenly over land that is to be spaded, or plowed, or to be raked over soon after application. Just enough to whiten the ground is usually enough.

The clematis is one plant which some garden writers state is benefited by the application of some lime. Other authorities advise that it has not been determined whether lime, or the texture of the soil, is the principal requirement for the best growth of the clematis. Most varieties of the clematis will do well in a soil free of lime, if it is well-drained. We have never applied additional lime to our clematis vines.

We are mentioning the clematis with special emphasis because several inquiries have been received about adding lime to the soil. We have replied that the application of a small amount may be beneficial, but large quantities should be avoided.

GARDENERS SHOULD understand that lime is not a

TV Coverage Of Jack Ruby Trial Sought

DALLAS (AP)—Jack Ruby's lawyer says television viewers who saw his client kill the accused assassin of President Kennedy also should have a chance to watch as Ruby is tried for murder.

"In this case I think there are strong arguments for live telecasts from the courtroom and I can see no reason why we should object," defense lawyer Tom Howard said Thursday.

Dist. Judge Joe Brown, in whose court the case will come up Dec. 9, said he had not decided whether to admit TV cameras. Under Texas judicial rules, this is a matter left to the judges' discretion.

Ruby, 52, a Dallas night club owner, fired a single bullet into the midsection of Lee Harvey Oswald, a pro-Communist charged with killing Kennedy, as police started to transfer Oswald from one jail to another Sunday.

He is being held without bond in the Dallas County Jail, a few yards from where a sniper's bullet mortally wounded the late President a week ago today.

Howard, a veteran Dallas criminal lawyer, said:

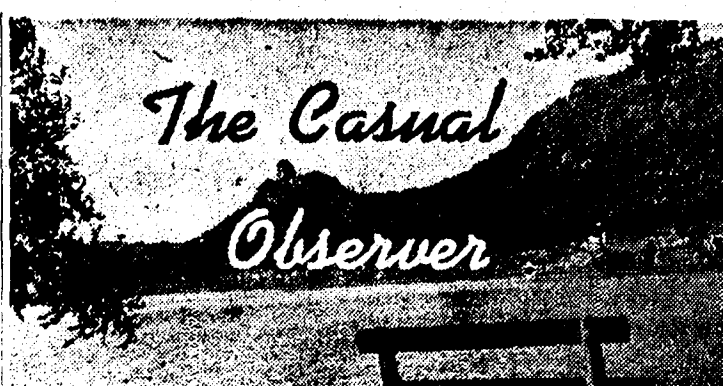

"I know it is customary for a continuance to be granted if requested by the defense, but at the present time we have no plans to ask that the trial be delayed."

"We are handicapped because of the limited funds available. Mr. Ruby is not a wealthy man—in fact, he is a man of modest means. On the other hand, 50 FBI investigators are working against us in addition to many other government investigators."

It was a mournful Thanksgiving Day in Dallas. A steady stream of cars moved slowly past the scene of the assassination.

Texas Gov. John Connally, wounded by the same sniper, ate Thanksgiving dinner with his wife, three daughters, a brother and sister-in-law.

A physician's statement said Connally's "overall condition is improving encouragingly, but convalescence naturally will require some time, due to the critical degree of the wounds."

By GRETCHEN L. LAMBERTON

FOUNTAIN GLEN FARM, Peru, Ind. — Here I am, spending Thanksgiving on my son Harry's farm. Somehow a farm seems to be the perfect place to spend Thanksgiving, for on every side one sees evidence of the Good Lord's bounty. Sleek cattle graze in the pasture, the corncribs stand full, the barns are filled with sweet-smelling hay for feed and yellow oat straw for bedding, the broad cornfields undulate in stalks waiting to be plowed under in spring — no plowing is done until spring because of wind erosion.

The three children had grown like weeds since last time I saw them in May. There was one new dog, a handsome Golden retriever named Charlie. The other two Golden retrievers — sleek young Winnebago, granddaughter of my own Shoshoni, and Trampas who is almost 12 years old. His face looks as though he is wearing a white mask, and he hobbles stiffly on his small aristocratic feet.

Last August the family took Charlie with them on a trip west, and while they visited some friends on a big Wyoming ranch Charlie took off after a jack rabbit and got lost in a pasture of several thousands of acres.

Three of the ranch cowboys on horses and my son in a car searched for Charlie for a day, then my son hired a coyote hunter's plane to look for him before Charlie was found.

The black Angus cattle are striking against the still-green pasture, but to my disappointment there weren't many calves yet. All the sheep were sold this fall, and I miss the lambs. My daughter-in-law told me why they were sold. In the September County Fair the three children entered their lambs that they had raised themselves, feeding, grooming,

The youngest Tennessee Walking horse named Even Song (or Eve) is a stunning blue-black colt of a little over a year old. She seemed like such a fine show-ring horse that the family decided to have her trained as a show horse. One of their neighbors has a good Negro horse trainer who was to train Even Song. Then just before the training started Harry and Joanna met this neighbor riding a young horse that was being trained in the flashy high-stepping technique of show ring Tennessee Walkers. Blood was flowing down the horse's feet from the heavy chains worn on the hoofs and the horse was restive and miserable.

Not only must the show ring Walkers wear these cruel chains (so that they can't bear to put a foot down and quickly pull it up high) but their sore feet are rubbed with smarting oil of mustard to intensify the action. Harry and his wife took one look at the puddles of blood and canceled the training of Even Song. So she will be just a fine smooth-riding horse for riding around the farm.

Stenographer Course Delayed

Start of the stenographer training course to be given under the Manpower Training Program has been delayed to Dec. 9. The series had been scheduled to start Monday.

Ray H. Brown, manager of the State Employment Service office here, and Thomas Raine, director of the Winona Area Vocational-Technical School, said the postponement was made because of a delay in receiving necessary office equipment.

Applicants for the course are now being interviewed and tested by the employment service. Processing of enrollees will start next week.

"There are still a few openings left, Brown said, "but the time is running short and anyone interested in entering the course should apply immediately at our office."

The training class is a part of the nationwide program financed by the federal government. The aim is to train unemployed and under-employed people who want to improve their skills for earning a livelihood. There is no charge to the student for the schooling. Central Lutheran Advent Service Sunday Evening

The junior high and senior high department of Central Lutheran Sunday school will present an advent service Sunday at 7 p.m. entitled "Lo, He Comes," written by Katharine Weller.

It centers around the symbols of the Advent season — the rose, the tau cross, the sun, the septre and crown, as well as the advent wreath with the four candles of prophecy, Bethlehem, shepherd and angel.

Mrs. James Carlson has prepared the symbols. Several women have prepared the 6-foot Advent wreath. The large wreath will be used throughout the Advent season at Central Lutheran. It will be suspended near the front of the church.

This Advent service will replace the usual Christmas program the department presented in the past. Mrs. T. Charles Green will direct the combined youth choir.

Bethany Moravians To Hold Lovefeast

Salvation Army Sets $1,800 Goal

A goal of $1,800 has been set by the Winona Salvation Army for its kettle and Christmas Fund. Brig. George Williams reports. Last year $1,200 was donated to the fund.

Brig. Williams reports people who send donations should mail them to the Winona Salvation Army, Box 132, Winona. Clothing and toys are now being accepted at the Salvation Army headquarters.

ed for the support of a native helper in Nicaragua, a special project of the Bethany Sunday School.

One of the charms of being young, is the ability to forget. That is, to forget quickly, what might appear to be a hurt, a wrong, a slight, an injury. Then, as we grow older, there is a tendency to brood over hurts, and wrongs, and injuries — real or imaginary — and sometimes we lose that beautiful mental balance, between forgetting and remembering.

There is a place to take all your hurts, your memories, your injuries of spirit; that place is your church. There you will find peace and contentment. Tie a string around your finger, now! Remember church this Sunday!

George Thorson, 32, of Exeland, Sawyer County, died when shot while hunting with four companions about 15 miles northwest of Ladysmith. A bullet accidentally was discharged as a member of the party ejected shells from his rifle.

Fountain City Church to Show Movie Wednesday

FOUNTAIN CITY, Wis. (Special) — "Question 7," a motion picture of conscience under test in East Germany, will be shown Wednesday at 8 p.m. at St. Michael's Evangelical Lutheran Church.

The title refers to a questionnaire that children in East Germany are forced to answer before they can continue with advanced studies. Only those whose answers are politically reliable are chosen. Thus the questionnaire becomes a supreme test for a boy who is forced to choose between what is right and expedient and what is right and honorable.

The incidents depicted in "Question 7" are true. They are based on interviews with thousands of refugees who have fled to West Germany and hundreds more still remaining behind in East Germany. It is a motion picture which has won 22 major awards and has been selected "best film of the year" by the National Board of Review. The showing of "Question 7" at St. Michael's is being sponsored by the Youth League of the congregation in connection with German Mission Night.

Branch Breaks Power Line to Garvin Heights

Electrical service to the Garvin Heights area was disrupted for more than an hour Thursday night when a tree limb, blown down by high winds, broke a power line.

A Northern States Power Co. spokesman said this morning that power was off in the area from just before 9 p.m. until the break was repaired at 10:04 p.m.

Radio Station KWNO was off the air until service was restored, and TV-Signal Service was interrupted. The police radio transmitter, however, continued to operate. Police explained today that an emergency generator at the transmitter begins to work automatically whenever regular power drops.

The broken power line caused a grass fire, and the Winona fire department was called at 9:01 p.m. Swatters were used to extinguish the blaze.

Sam is in good health and still reads the daily papers without glasses. He makes several trips to Main Street each day. He is a man of enduring energy.

VA Sending Income Forms

Veterans and dependents of deceased veterans on the Veterans Administration non-service-connected pension rolls will again receive annual income questionnaires with their Nov. 30 checks.

The questionnaires are punched cards which must be filled out with the required information and returned to the VA before the Jan. 31 deadline or payments will be suspended.

If no questionnaire is received after suspension, then pensioner will be required to pay back all payments received in 1963.

The VA requests that the cards be handled with care. Because they must be processed through tabulating machines, they must not be folded, trimmed or mutilated in any way.

This early distribution of the questionnaires will permit those with fixed incomes to return the cards at once. Those with changing incomes may still wait until they get W-2 forms or other information they need to know in order to report. Laws governing non-service-connected pensions require that the VA receive this income information every year. Payment of pensions depends on the individual's need as determined by the amount of income received annually from sources other than the pension.

Can YOU Identify This House?

Homeward Steps at the entrance of a house immediately exemplify the owner as a person of smart, stylish and practical tastes. These top quality Steps have proven themselves to be a wise investment because they need no ordinary maintenance, even after years and years of wear. They're constructed to a full 2" thick reinforced concrete. This is important to you because there are some "skimpy" steps now on the market that are only a little over half as thick (and naturally can't be expected to last as long nor be as strong).

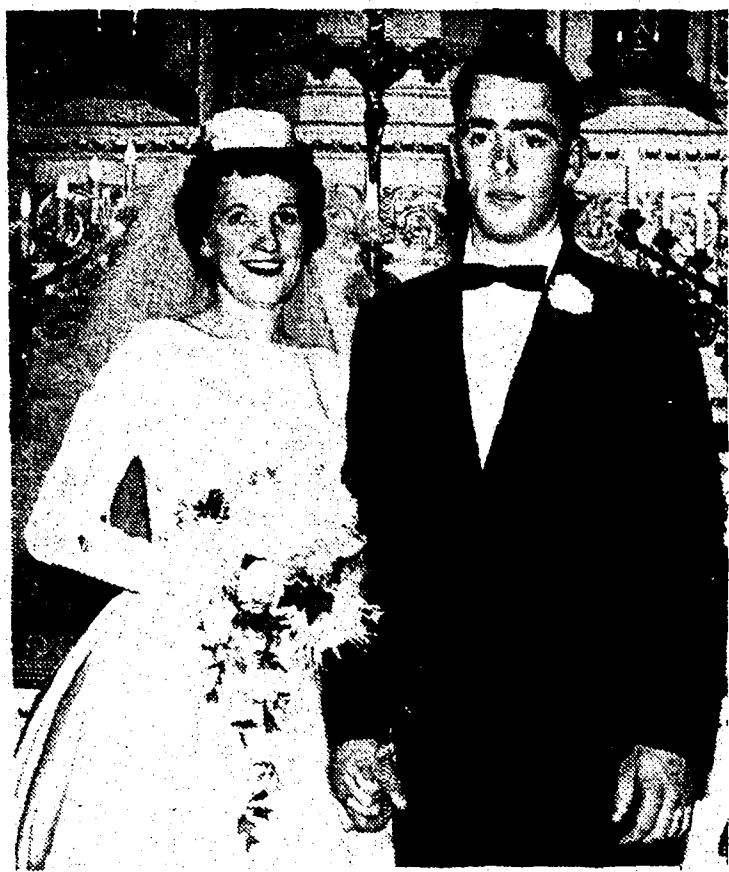

Homeward Steps are easier to install, too, because they are separate sectional construction instead of a cumbersome, awkward entire unit to wrestle into place. It is also important to remember that should a step be damaged (perhaps a truck backs into it or someone drops a heavy object on it) it is practical to replace ONLY the damaged section NOT THE WHOLE EXPENSIVE UNIT!

Through extensive testing and nationwide research it has been found that Homeward 6-inch risers are the best walking and climbing height for elderly people and children... with patented non-skid surfaces for increased safety. INSIST ON THE FINEST—insist on Union-Made HOMeward STEPS. THEY COST NO MORE! Phone 8-1533 for a Free estimate.

FOLLOWING THE Mass a family dinner was held at the Fountain City Auditorium with an open house and buffet from 1 to 5 p.m. The couple's four sons and two daughters and their spouses were hosts.

Their sons are Emil, Muskego, Wis.; Wilmer, Milwaukee; Simon, Mondovi, Wis.; and Leo Jr., East Troy, Wis. Daughters are Sister M. Fredulpha, OSF, Chilton, Wis., and Mrs. Theodore (Oliver) Wantock, Fountain City. One son is dead. There are 11 grandchildren who assisted with the anniversary open house.

Patricia Wantock, cut the cake. Mrs. Wilmer Pronschinske was in charge of the guest book; Marvin Pronschinske played a violin solo; and granddaughters Patricia and Pauline Wantock with Sandy Knutson, Sandra Ruben, Cleo Braatz, and Betty Franzwa sang a group of songs.

DEAR ABBY:

Play It Real Cool, Lady

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am 53 and have been married only eight years to a man who is 66, short, fat and bald. He chases women of 35 and 40. For the past six months he has been going around publicly with the worst kind of women. He has even brought them to the house in my absence, knowing I would arrive and catch them. He admitted to my face that he is trying to get me to divorce him, but I am not going to let him off the hook so easy. I made a bad deal and, at my age, I am content to sit with it. How would you handle him in the future?

WRONGED

DEAR WRONGED: Tell him to quit chasing before he drops dead. And that if he wants a divorce, he'll have to catch YOU.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have been going to our pastor for marriage counseling for the past three months. He's not a regular marriage counselor, but he serves the same purpose, and is doing us a lot of good. Nothing was ever mentioned about a fee. Should we wait for a bill? What if he never sends one? Or should we just send him a check? Please help us, but if you use our letter, don't use our names.

CHURCH MEMBERS

DEAR MEMBERS: Since no "fee" was mentioned, there probably is none. However, since you have had several sessions with the pastor, his services should be rewarded. Make a contribution to one of the special church funds (building fund, missionary, Sunday school). Every church can use money.

DEAR ABBY: I met a wonderful young man this summer. He asked me out and I accepted. At the end of the evening he told me how much he enjoyed the evening and said he'd call in a few days. It has been months and he has never called. I am heartbroken because I was so sure he'd call me. Abby, why does a boy do this? If he doesn't intend to call a girl, why doesn't he just say, "Sorry, Honey, you're not my type"? That would be a real kindness, instead of leading a girl on. Please print this. A lot of guys need to learn that lesson.

"FELL"

DEAR ABBY: Do you really think life is worth living?

PHILOSOPHER

DEAR PHILOSOPHER: It all depends on the liver.

NASON ON EDUCATION

Auto Detours Good Student

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed. D.
Professor of Education,
University of Southern California

Dear Dr. Nason:

My son is almost 17 and feels quite grown up. He is a junior in high school with a B average. His intentions have been to be a history teacher and a track coach. He has been told by two colleges that he could possibly get a scholarship. However, in the past months things have changed. Now, he wants to quit sports and get a job after school to buy a car.

S. J. R., Redding, Calif.

Answer:

Keep your son working toward being a history teacher and a track coach.

Grades go down almost automatically when high school students are allowed to own automobiles. If he maintains a B average he should be allowed to drive the family car occasionally.

Be firm. He will resent it now, but later he will thank you for it.

Dear Dr. Nason:

As a boy I did well in school. All I had to do was glance over my assignments and bring the picture to mind when called upon. Every word seemed to be there. Now I have lost my photo mind. I have failed two employment tests. Can I get my photographic memory back and how?

D. M., Sacramento, Calif.

Answer:

A photographic memory did make it easier for you as a boy. It also made it possible for you to get satisfactory grades with out rethinking the ideas in your own words. Now you are paying the penalty for overworking this good memory.

Instead of trying to get it back, practice understanding the ideas you read. In time this will build a solid foundation of knowledge from which you can draw when taking tests.

Dear Dr. Nason:

We have a so-called "gifted" youngster. Yet, with high school algebra, he looked at the complex fraction problems and said "I can't do it." When it can be solved mentally he is happy to do the problem. After a quiz last May when all answers solved mentally and merely written down correctly netted him a "D", he just quit trying and finished the year with a 64. He took the course in summer school with a 13.

The newspaper article says to have the student write out the solution step-by-step. This I cannot do as I do not know the step-by-step solution.

Mrs. G. A. G.,
Valley Falls, N.Y.

Answer:

Cooperation of the school counselor, the algebra teacher, yourself and your son bring about a solution.

The algebra teacher must take time to show your son how to think out algebra problems in words. Next, he must show him how to write the step-by-step solutions while continuing to think out each step in words.

The counselor should discuss with your son the fact that his faulty learning procedure is one that often trips gifted youngsters, not stupid ones. He'll have easier going again once he's established procedures.

You can provide the moral support he needs in attempting to substitute an efficient learning habit for his faulty one.

Reds Losing In Venezuela Election Battle

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—Despite spectacular last-minute exploits, pro-Communist terrorists in Venezuela appear to have lost their fight to force the army to call off Sunday's presidential elections.

There are increasing signs that the extremist Armed Forces of National Liberation (FALN) have lost both their physical punch and their appeal to urban masses.

Chances are considered good that the elections will go off with a minimum of trouble.

Apparently indifferent to the terrorists, some 15,000 people attended a political rally this week in the same Caracas square where a few days before guerrilla snipers staged a spectacular battle and 24 persons were killed.

Noisy political caravans roam the capital streets each night without incident. President Romulo Betancourt is barred by the constitution from succeeding himself, but Raul Leon, the candidate of Betancourt's Democratic Action party, is expected to defeat six opponents.

The pro-Castro FALN had hoped that its campaign of terrorism would cause the army to oust Betancourt and cancel the elections. The Communists figured this would solidify the anti-military opposition behind them.

The FALN is believed to have

Service Clubs Meet

A religious tone prevailed at the joint Thanksgiving meeting of the Kiwanis and Rotary clubs at Hotel Winona Wednesday. The Rev. William King, Grace Presbyterian Church, delivered the Thanksgiving message, the Encores, a Sweet Adelines unit, sang, and after a silent minute memorializing President Kennedy, several hymns were sung by members of the two clubs.

been first weakened by the Cuban missile crisis in October 1962, which revealed Cuba as just another Iron Curtain satellite.

A U.S. Army officer was kidnapped Wednesday. Thursday five men and a woman hijacked a Venezuelan airliner and forced the pilot to fly to Trinidad. No one was harmed. Authorities handed the hijackers over to Venezuelan officials.

They were flown back to Caracas today for trial.

Caracas police continued searching for the kidnapped U.S. officer, Lt. Col. James K. Chenault of Sherman, Tex. The FALN has said it would release him unharmed Saturday.

GARY PETERS
AL Rookie of Year

Peters Picked Top AL Rookie

BOSTON (AP) — Persistent Gary Peters, the left-hander who began to feel like a yo-yo between the minors and the Chicago White Sox, was named the American League Rookie of the Year for 1963 today, beating out teammate Pete Ward.

The 25-year-old Peters received 10 of the 20 votes cast by a committee of the Baseball Writers Association of America. Third baseman Ward of the White Sox received six votes. Minnesota Twins center fielder Jimmie Hall drew the other four.

Peters, the first White Sox rookie winner in half a dozen years, wouldn't have drawn a single vote had the balloting been conducted at mid-season. He had won only five games in his fifth attempt to stick with Chicago.

But the 6-foot-2, 200-pound Pennsylvanian went fast after that. From July 4 to Labor Day the never-say-die southpaw won 11 consecutive games, setting an American League record for freshmen hurlers.

St. Felix Rips Rivermen 59-56

Still suffering from early season woes, Alma dropped its third straight basketball decision 59-56 to Wabasha St. Felix Wednesday night.

All was not joy in the Yellowjacket camp either, as stand-out guard Gene Wodele, who led all scorers with 21 points for the night, broke his wrist early in the fourth quarter.

It was an ice-cold fourth quarter that spelled doom for Alma. The Rivermen trailed only 31-30 at the half, but could manage only six points in the frigid spell while St. Felix was hitting for 15.

Following Wodele, who will be lost for most of the season, in the Yellowjacket scoring was Bill Glomski with 13. Larry Kreibich topped Alma with 19 markers. John Stohr scored 12 and Craig Kreibich and Orlyn Hoksich 10 each.

LET'S TALK SPORTS

TWO AREA CONTRIBUTIONS to the University of Minnesota football team spent the 1963 season nursing injuries. Now it appears that both will be granted another year of eligibility by the Big Ten Conference.

Bob Grausnick, ex-Winona High star, was forced out of action for the '63 campaign when he aggravated shoulder injuries in spring practice. Arcadia's Chuck Killian was the victim of a knee injury early this fall and was forced to the bench.

According to Bob's father, Roy, both have applied for an extra year of eligibility. "Everyone at the University seems to think that they are a cinch to get an extra year," said Roy.

Grausnick underwent surgery on his right shoulder in June and Tuesday had the same treatment done to the left shoulder.

"The operation shifts some of the muscles of the shoulder area around the socket," explained Roy. "This keeps it from jumping out of place. The doctors are confident that this will correct the difficulties."

DEL-TONE COLVIN, a Black Labrador familiar to Winona dog enthusiasts, is the National Field Trial Champion for 1963. The retriever, owned by Louis J. Snoeyenbos of Baldwin, Wis., has competed in Winona trials four or five times, according to Gerald Feils, past president of the Tri-State Hunting Dog Association.

Del-Tone Colvin also won the national title in 1961.

Also qualifying for the competition held in Sacramento, Calif., was a dog formerly owned by Winona Bob Abraham.

Stilrovin Luke Adew, now owned by K. Williams of Milwaukee, was one of 63 dogs to qualify for the national competition, but, according to Feils, he did not run.

"Six of the dogs that qualified didn't run," said Feils. "Stilrovin Luke Adew was one of them."

ALTHOUGH A WEEK or so ago it appeared that Winona State's chapter of Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity had a record for basketball dribbling, all that will pass by Dec. 7.

The Winona State members and pledges dribbled a ball from Winona to La Crosse, a distance of 29 miles.

The reason the record—if it was a record, for it was never officially confirmed—will be broken is the fact that Marquette University students have announced plans to begin a dribbling marathon Saturday.

Throughout most of next week, relays of students plan to devote most of their attention to dribbling a basketball the 90 miles from Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, Mich., to Milwaukee where Marquette will open its season against the Broncos Dec. 7.

The trip will be made over highways and streets, and during a seven-hour crossing of Lake Michigan on a ferry.

Ken Wiltgen, St. Mary's College cage coach, spoke at the Chicago Catholic League coaches' clinic today in Chicago.

The 22nd annual clinic marks a homecoming for Wiltgen who formerly played and coached in the circuit.

On the program with Wiltgen, who will speak on man-to-man defense, will be Chicago Loyola coach George Ireland and University of Michigan coach Dave Strack.

AS BASKETBALL SEASON continues, our percentage of games picked correctly keeps dropping. Tuesday night we managed to hit on eight of 16 (seven of 16 with handicaps). With that, we now stand with 29 of 52 right for a 558 percentage.

Tonight and this weekend there is more fun on tap. We foresee: Winona High over Albert Lea by 8, St. Mary's over Stout by 7 and St. Ambrose by 8, Austin over Owatonna by 12, Mankato over Northfield by 3, Rochester over Red Wing (a toughie) by 1, Houston over Caledonia by 1 (Dick Papenfuss may have a surprise up his sleeve), Cannon Falls over Zumbrota by 5, Lima Sacred Heart over Follingstone Holy Trinity by 2, Goodhue over Randolph by 1 (could be the championship clash in the Centennial Conference), Onalaska Luther over Cashton by 1 (another toss-up), Peterson over Spring Valley by 3, Mondovi over Fall Creek by 5, Lanesboro over Rushford by 9, Spring Grove over Harmony by 4 (another toughie), Lima Sacred Heart over Caledonia Loretto by 9.

Following Wodele, who will be lost for most of the season, in the Yellowjacket scoring was Bill Glomski with 13. Larry Kreibich topped Alma with 19 markers. John Stohr scored 12 and Craig Kreibich and Orlyn Hoksich 10 each.

Skaters at Madison

Both St. Mary's winter sports teams get into action for the first time this weekend in what promises to be fine seasons for both squads.

The Hockey team gets the jump, opening tonight against the University of Wisconsin in Madison. The skaters stay in the Wisconsin capital for another encounter Saturday evening.

The basketball squad gets its first taste of action Saturday night also, when the Redmen host Stout State College of Wisconsin at Terrace Heights. Sunday night, the cagers go at it again as St. Ambrose comes to town.

HEAD BASKETBALL Coach Ken Wiltgen begins his 10th season at the helm of the Redmen, and many think it will be his finest. St. Mary's has size, experience and speed and in Wiltgen's own words, "they should be the answer."

With eight lettermen returning, it would sound impossible for a freshman to crack the starting lineup, but Jerry Sausser, a Chicago product, may do just that.

The 6-1, 175-pound cager was an All-State honorable mention in Illinois.

Seven lettermen are the other candidates to open the season for St. Mary's. Jim Rockers, a 6-7 skyscraper, or Denny Burgman, who scales 6-5 have been battling for the pivot slot. It seems that Captain Tom Hall, 6-3, and Roger Pytlewski, 6-5 have the other two slots in the front line nailed down.

BATTLING with Sausser for a guard position is the Redmen's leading scorer of last year Al Williams. Because of his size, 6-3, 240, he is one of the best rebounding guards in the MIAC. He is accurate from both short and long range, and his deceptive speed makes him a threat to drive every time he has the ball. He was deceptive enough to riddle opponents for an average of 15.3 points per game last season, hitting on 48 percent of his shots.

The key to St. Mary's ice success at the beginning of the season was an all-freshmen front line. If the frosh could come through, the Redmen appeared to be well on their way to a good season. The freshmen came through all right, in fact they came through so well that Coach Keith Hanzel will start them instead of his veteran line.

The "rookie" line will consist of Dennis Cooney at center with Phil Reichenbach at right wing and Brian Desbiers at left wing. The lettermen line will have two-time MIAC scoring champ Andre Beaulieu at center with Don Berrigan on his left and Dick McCormick on his right.

FOUR SKATERS will rotate on defense. They are Bob Paradise, a converted front liner of last year, Bob Magnuson, Mike Bishop and Jim Clarkin. In the nets on opening night will be Jack Scott, who saw limited action last year. Saturday night, freshman Jerry Archambeau will be counted on to start.

NITSCHKE HURT IN 13-13 TIE WITH LIONS

Packers Slip Full Game Behind Chicago in West

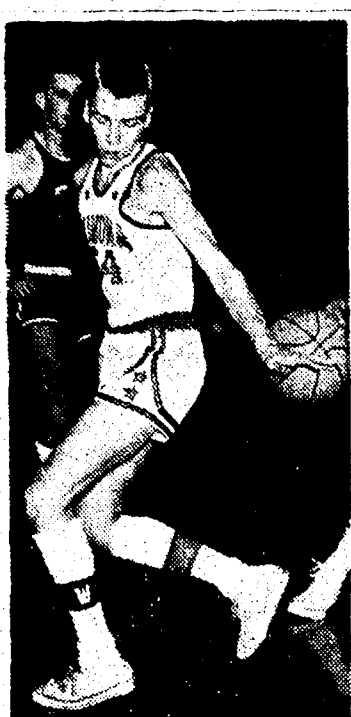

DETROIT (AP) — Mighty Green Bay needs help from three other Western Division clubs in order to get a crack at its third National Football League championship.

Thursday, the Packers slipped a full game behind Chicago, the division leader, when the Detroit Lions tied them in the waning seconds 13-13 in their annual Thanksgiving Day battle.

Compounding Green Bay's problems is an injury suffered by linebacker Ray Nitschke. He said he broke a bone in his right forearm in the fourth quarter of the game and won't see any more action this season.

"Win or tie, we still have to depend on someone else to beat Chicago," said Green Bay coach Vince Lombardi.

The Packers, now 9-2-1, meet Los Angeles and San Francisco in their final two games. Chicago, at 9-1, faces Minnesota,

Rambler Press Routs Aquinas

By BOB JUNGHANS
Daily News Sports Writer

Coach John Nett had a little extra to be thankful for Thanksgiving Day.

The night before the annual turkey holiday, his Cotter basketball team made its season debut, and Coach Nett was a little worried prior to the game. And there was good reason for the consternation, for the foe was old rival Aquinas and the game was to be played on the Mary E. Sawyer Auditorium court in La Crosse.

Thanks to a torrid second half and an overwhelming full court press, the Ramblers turned what appeared to be a tight game into a rout, and won going away 73-44.

"I EXPECTED Aquinas to be a tougher opener than St. Paul Hill would have been," said Nett. The Cotter-Hill clash was postponed because of the death of President Kennedy. "It sure is a nice way to open the season though," he continued.

"The press did it," the Rambler mentor went on. "We started doing things right in the second half." It might be more appropriate to say that two presses "did it." With Cotter holding a 27-20 edge going into the second half, Aquinas Coach John Michuta elected to try a full court press in order to stop the Ramblers. Time after time, the Cotter cagers penetrated the press for easy layups. Midway in the third period Nett instituted his own press and from then on it was all Cotter.

There was jubilation in the Cotter locker room after the contest as some 20-odd coaches, players and well wishers banded back and forth about what had won the game for the Ramblers. Off to one side Nett commented, "I guess I have to be happy with the way things turned out." But from the wide smile and tone of voice of the veteran mentor it was evident

WIN 53-48 OVER KASSON-MANTORVILLE

Winhawks Travel to Albert Lea Tonight

By GARY EVANS
Daily News Sports Editor

It was Wednesday, a few minutes before 10 p.m. and the scene was the Winona High School Winhawk dressing room.

Moments before the Winona team had made its 1963-64 debut in the gym one floor above the locker room by spurring and sputtering its way to a 53-48 victory over the Ko-Mets of Kasson-Mantorville High School.

BUT NOTICEABLY missing in the locker room were the frivolities accorded a winner. The players hurried through showers, dressed silently and made their ways out of the building.

Shortly the room was empty except for a small group huddled around coach John Kenney in the coaches' room.

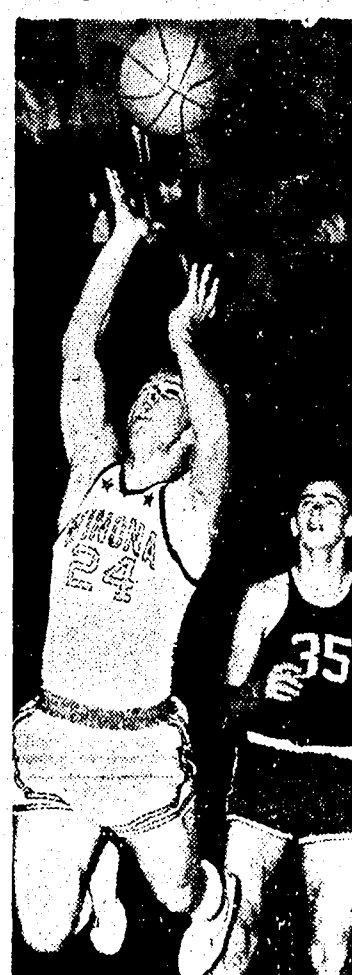

"A comedy of errors," summed up the coach before looking to the future and tonight's Big Nine Conference opener at Albert Lea.

"We were experimenting out there," he continued, "and it looks like we'll have to be doing the same thing at Albert Lea. The kids were tense, but they should be over that now. They're going to have to prove themselves at Albert Lea."

NOT THAT THERE weren't bright spots in the opening contest. Bill Squires proved a tenacious rebounder and a top scorer, hitting seven field goals—four came in the final quarter and proved vital to the outcome—and four of seven charity tosses for 18 points. Another junior, Denny Duran, also came through in the clutch with 11 points.

But the overall play appeared dissatisfactory as the Winhawks committed 13 mechanical errors and had to fight to come out of the tilt with a victory in a typical night of "opening game jitters."

Things started off well despite the mechanical miscues as the Winhawks rolled in front 14-8 at the end of the first period and 26-18 at halftime.

Kenney played his first unit of Squires, John Dull, Jim Kasten, Steve Keller and Pat Boland in the first period and then went to an underclass group made up of Duran, Bruce Holan, John Brandt, Tony Kreuzer and Gary Addington in the second period.

IT WAS IN THE third quarter, with the starters back in the game, that trouble befell the Hawks.

Behind Dennis Segar, who paced the Ko-Mets with 18 points, and guard Ron Olson, who wound up with nine, Kasson-Mantorville slowly closed the gap. They came within 35-33 and 37-35 late in the period before Squires hit a layup to give the Hawks a 39-36 advantage heading into the final period. Keller tallied eight crucial points in the third quarter.

The Ko-Mets weren't through. With 5:30 to play in the game, a long jumper by Tom Currier gave them their first lead since early in the first period. They led 42-41, but a rebound shot by Squires put it at 43-42. Kasson-Mantorville got the advantage back at 44-43 on a driving shot by Segar.

Then the Winhawks rallied. Squires hit a long jump shot, Duran scored and Squires pushed through another one-hander for a 49-44 lead and the game was over.

TONIGHT WINONA gets into earnest business at Albert Lea. Kenney scheduled a practice for Thanksgiving Day morning. Did he plan any changes?

"The juniors looked better than the seniors against Kasson-Mantorville," he said. "But I'm not going to make any decisions after only one game. We'll see what happens at Albert Lea."

Gophers Make Season Successful, Whip Badgers 14-0

CHARGE!... With battle lines drawn, Minnesota's line charges toward the Wisconsin line and specifically Jim Purnell (38) who is returning the opening kickoff in their Big Ten football game Thursday in Minneapolis.

Goal Line Stand Numbs Wisconsin

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Hard-hitting Minnesota, erasing in one day the stigma of a football season of fumbles and frustration, crushed Wisconsin 14-0 Thursday.

The Gophers used two swift scoring forays to ring up touchdowns, and a stirring goal line stand to numb the Badgers' enthusiasm.

Minnesota struck for touchdowns in the quarters when it had a stiff wind gusting over 30 miles an hour to its back — the first and third periods.

The Gophers stormed 44 yards in nine plays after taking a punt late in the first quarter. Fullback Mike Reid slashed three yards through right tackle for the touchdown 1:14 from the quarter's end, and added a conversion kick.

Late in the third stanza, Minnesota ripped 66 yards in eight plays for another score. Reid also scoring this one on a two-yard plunge over left tackle. Reid again converted.

The Badgers came within an eyelash of scoring as the first half ended. The near-miss appeared to take some of the fire out of them.

Wisconsin had marched 73 yards to get a first down on the Gopher one-yard line when pass interference was called on Paul Ramseth as he grabbed Fred Reichardt's arm at the one. Thirty seconds remained on the clock before half-time.

Badger fullback Ralph Kurek hit the left side of the line on the first play, but was smacked for no gain by Gopher Joe Pung. Then two quarterback sneaks by Harold Brandt were crushed by the Minnesota line led by Carl Eller and Milt Sunde, as time ran out.

Wisconsin never got closer to the Gopher goal than the 34-yard line the second half. That threat was ended when Minnesota intercepted a Brandt pass.

The crowd was estimated at just over 50,000, although Minnesota officials said it would be officially counted as a crowd of 55,271 because that was the number of tickets sold and unrefunded.

The university had received some criticism for the 10:30 a.m. starting time from clergymen. The morning starting time on Thanksgiving Day was postponed from last Saturday.

ed a dozen before fouling out with 5:50 left in the game. Captain Louis Ballin paced the Bluegold scoring with 13 points. He left the game with five personal fouls just a minute after Jersek.

The lone blemish on the fine Rambler performance came from the charity stripe where Cotter could hit only 11 of 27 attempts, compared with 20 of 29 from the field in the second half.

With the big one out of the way, and with the confidence instilled by the resounding opening win, the Ramblers head for Minneapolis to take on a strong De La Salle team Tuesday night.

Eller Concludes Brilliant Career

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — It was the Minnesota Gophers' day of atonement for narrowly missing the 1962 Big Ten championship, and nobody relished it more than the Big Bear, Carl Eller.

The massive Minnesota tackle, the object of the affection of every pro scout and the tower of the Gophers' defensive strength, made this matter of redemption a Thanksgiving Day to remember.

Eller concluded his brilliant collegiate career for the Gophers in a proverbial blaze of glory as Minnesota trounced Wisconsin 14-0 Thursday.

He led a miraculous Gopher goal line stand that smacked down three Badger rushes from the one-yard line to prevent a touchdown just before the first half ended.

He threw Badger quarterback Harold Brandt for an eight-yard loss when Wisconsin stormed to the Minnesota 15-yard line early in the second quarter. The Badgers then missed a field goal.

He deflected a Brandt pass which teammate Bob Brugger intercepted to end Wisconsin's last threat in the fourth quarter.

And he caught a 12-yard pass from Bob Sadek late in the game on a tackle-eligible play.

Did Eller, who had vowed to avenge last year's 14-9 loss to Wisconsin, do everything he had wanted to do?

"I think so," he replied, "except to get a touchdown." The Gophers wanted the Bear to get one, but he was brought down after catching the pass.

"Yes, we got matters settled," the 6-foot-5, 245-pound North Carolinian drawled. "I think it was my best game. It was the one I enjoyed the most."

Eller was married the night before the game to Adrienne Coleman of St. Paul, but spent the night with the team. The couple has delayed any honeymoon until Carl plays in the Hula Bowl in Honolulu in January.

ROOT RIVER

Rushford 103, Canton 49

A pair of games inaugurated the Root River Conference basketball season Wednesday night.

Rushford ran up a big score in smashing Canton 104-49, and Spring Grove topped Mabel 51-43.

Spring Grove built a 27-12 lead and then hung on to down Mabel 51-43.

The score was tied with three minutes remaining at 41-41, but the Grover came through with 10 quick points to wrap up the victory.

Mel Homuth led the winners with 15 points. Gary Glasrud added 10 to the cause. Bob Rommes and Dennis Usgard hit 14 and 13, respectively for Mabel.

The Spring Grove "B's" also won 25-24.

RUSHFORD 103, CANTON 49

Hitting better than 20 points in every period, Rushford squashed Canton 103-49.

Five Trojan cagers hit in double digits in the well balanced attack. Ed Sandness paced the victors with 18. Dale Ostad tallied 16, Craig Johnson and Rex Manion 15 each, and Don Eller 10.

Dean Jones paced all scorers for the night with 23 for Canton. Norm Gillund counted 10. The Trojans held leads of 23-8, 45-20, and 71-33 at the end of each period, and then topped it off with a 32-point fourth quarter.

Rushford swept evening activities with a 47-35 win in the "B" contest.

Wabasha Rolls Over Mazeppa

Wabasha 79, Mazeppa 40

A hot shooting offense and a stingy first half-defense propelled Wabasha to a Centennial Conference victory Wednesday night, 79-60 over Mazeppa.

The Indians roared to a 20-4 first quarter lead, and then built it to 40-15 by halftime. Jim Glynn smacked in 22 points to top all scorers.

John Reinhardt and Pete Ekstrand followed up with 13 each for the Indians.

Don Wobschall had 12 for the Indians.

MERMAN HOST ROCHESTER

Hawk Swimming, Mat Teams at Home Tonight

Although John Kenney will take his Winona High School basketball team to Albert Lea for the Big Nine Conference opener for both teams, Winhawk sports fans will be able to view plenty of activity on the home front tonight.

Lloyd Luke will send his varsity swimming team against defending state champion, Rochester, and Gene Nardini will watch his wrestlers open the new campaign against Albert Lea.

Both meets will be preceded by "B" squad action. The preliminaries will get under way at 6:30 p.m. with the varsity meets to follow.

SWIMMING

A giant task facing Winona High's swimming team tonight when Rochester, state champion a year ago and rated as Minnesota's best in pre-season forecasts, invades the Winona High pool.

While Luke will send his "B" team against the Rocket "B" team at 6:30 o'clock, the varsity meet is scheduled to get under way at approximately 7:30 p.m.

The Rockets return a host of individual state champions and appear a cinch to go untouched for the 1963-64 campaign.

And while the Winhawk coach realizes that beating the Rockets appears out of the question, he does hope that his team will be able to rack up some points of its own.

The best bet at present seems to be John Sanders, a backstroke.

Other boys performing well in early season practice sessions are Gary Grabow, in the short sprints, Lee Edstrom, a diver, Greg Gerlach, a breaststroke, and Mark Johnson, a ninth grader who swims the individual medley.

WRESTLING

With two, and possibly three, competitors out of action, Winona High's mat team debuts in the High School Auditorium against Albert Lea tonight.

The "B" squad match opens action at 6:30 o'clock with the varsity going on stage immediately after.

Nardini has Billy Roth, regular 154-pounder, out of action for a week with an ear infection.

Allen Hazelton, reserve at 154, may also be out of commission with a twisted ankle. Also lost is Jim Girtler, 95-pounder, who also has an ear infection.

"Except for that, I think we're ready for Albert Lea," said Nardini. "We expect some real fine competition."

A year ago, the Winhawk matmen went into the final two matches against the Tigers with an 18-18 tie. Two pins won it for Albert Lea 28-18.

Nardini will use this varsity lineup: Dennis Lande, 95; Steve Miller, 103; Pat Anderson, 112; Leonard Dienger, 120; Jim Dotzler, 127; Ray Spies, 133; Cliff Vierus, 139; Barry Arenz 145; Hazelton, 154, but a question mark; Pete Woodworth, 166; Byron Bohnen, 175, and Bob Haeussinger, heavyweight.

That group of boys also will compete for Nardini's varsity in the Rochester Area Invitational Saturday. The Winhawk "B" team also will compete.

CHICAGO (AP)—Shooting in to full contention for college football coach of the year is Pete Elliott, boyishly 37.

And his Illinois team should have an inside track on sports comeback of the year.

In 1961, Elliott's record was 0-9, the first winless season in Illinois history. In 1962 it was 2-7.

By smothering Michigan State 13-0 Thursday, the Illini won the Big Ten championship outright for the first time since 1951 and will go to the Rose Bowl for the third time.

They finished with an over all record of 7-1-1, and 5-1-1 in the conference, the only loss being to Michigan, coached by Pete's brother, Bump.

Capping the rags-to-riches drive was the defensive stilling of Michigan State.

Michigan State 13-0. The Tar Heels edged Duke 16-14 on a 42-yard field goal by Max Chapman with 33 seconds remaining.

Five major college teams now have firm bowl commitments—Texas, Illinois, North Carolina, Nebraska and LSU. Nebraska previously nailed an Orange Bowl spot and LSU a place in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Other bowl assignments will come from Saturday games, with most interest centering on the West Coast Rose Bowl situation. Two games hold the key—Washington State at Washington and UCLA at Southern California.

A long vote will decide the entry.

Also spotlighted on Saturday's scheduled is the 80th meeting of Harvard and Yale. In other games bearing on bowl bids, Auburn is at Alabama, Georgia Tech at Georgia, Mississippi at Mississippi State and Pittsburgh at Miami, Fla., for a night game.

One other game Thursday may have had bowl ramifications. Syracuse, looking for a bid, finished an 8-2 campaign by defeating Notre Dame 14-7.

In other games, West Virginia blasted Furman 38-7, Minnesota blanked Wisconsin 14-0, Cornell defeated Penn 17-8, Maryland whipped Virginia 21-6, Columbia beat Rutgers 35-28, Clemson edged South Carolina 24-20, William & Mary belted Richmond 20-6 and Miami of Ohio nipped Cincinnati 21-19.

Junior Hawks Triumph Easily

Winona High School's "B" squad basketball team under the direction of Bob Lee got its season off to a successful start Wednesday night by rolling over the Kasson-Manitowish "B" team 68-30.

The Junior Hawks scored an almost unbelievable 32 points in the first period to six for the Ko-Mets. After that the rest was easy. Winona led 42-17 at halftime and 36-24 heading into the final period.

Larry Larson pushed home 17 points for Winona and John Walski 15. George Pappas had 11 for Kasson-Manitowish.

Texas Completes Perfect Season

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The phone jangled. Texas Coach Darrell Royal picked it up.

"Was it too much for you to watch all the time?" he asked. "Well, Nellie, I wouldn't have watched it either if I hadn't had to."

The caller was the wife of John Connally, talking from the hospital where her husband is recuperating from his bullet wounds.

Mrs. Connally was calling to offer the governor's congratulations to the Cotton Bowl bound Texas team, which had just wrapped up its first perfect season in 43 years and virtually clinched the national championship.

NEW YORK (AP) — Aerospace and airlines issues were strong in a generally higher stock market early this afternoon. Trading was moderate.

Although there were some losers, most key stocks advanced from fractions to a point or so. A few of the trading favorites did better.

Aerospace issues were spurred by news of the successful launching Wednesday of the Centaur rocket which is expected to breed more enthusiasm for the U.S. moon flight project.

Attention on the airlines appeared to be focused by a published article that major airlines have ordered 33 all-cargo jets.

Cooper stocks took some sharp losses amid speculation about Communist gains in Chile where U.S. companies have mines.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 2.13 at 743.13.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 4 at 277.4 with industrials up 4, rails up 2 and utilities up 5.

General Dynamics, prime contractor for the Centaur project, was up more than a point. North American Aviation spurted 2 while gains of more than a point were scored by Boeing, Douglas Aircraft and Lockheed.

Martin-Marietta and United Aircraft were fractional gainers.

Pan American World Airways advanced more than a point as did Eastern Air Lines. Delta gained about 3/4. Braniff and American Airlines rose nearly a point each.

A 2-point drop by Kennecott and a loss of nearly a point by Anaconda accompanied the report about Chile.

South Puerto Rico Sugar and American Crystal Sugar rose about 2 each. Holly Sugar added nearly a point.

Xerox recovered 9 points. Polaroid rose 3. High Voltage Engineering and Control Data added 2 each, IBM and U.S. Smelting a point or so.

Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. government bonds were mostly unchanged.
