a large portion of Georgia. Some towns were without lights and water. Power companies from Alabama and Florida have sent in crews to help restore utility lines. (AP Photo-fax)

Deep South Battles More Snow, Cold

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Unaccustomed to the bite of severe winter weather, parts of the Deep South remained in the grip of a storm Thursday that dumped as much as 16 inches of snow on some areas before moving up the Eastern Seaboard New Year's Day.

Moderating temperatures were expected to give some relief to the paralyzing ice and snow that swept northward from the Gulf of Mexico across Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia and into the Carolinas, Tennessee and Virginia.

There were 13 deaths directly attributed to the weather.

Schools were closed in many sections and some colleges postponed registration for the new term.

Driving conditions remained hazardous in areas where re-freezing left patches of ice on highways.

In Georgia, Civil Defense headquarters received requests for aid from several north and middle Georgia towns as broken power lines left some communities without electricity and communications were disrupted.

About 300 persons were fed at an emergency kitchen set up in a school at Warner Robins in middle Georgia. High winds wrecked a fishing pier at Savannah Beach on the Georgia coast.

Huntsville, Ala., recorded one of the heaviest snowfalls in Dixie—16 inches. Eight inches at Birmingham, Ala., was the heaviest snowfall on records there dating back to 1895.

Snowmen appeared in the French Quarter of New Orleans.

site of the Sugar Bowl football game, where more than three inches of snow ushered in the new year—again the most since 1895. A warming trend over Louisiana and Mississippi left deep slush that was expected to turn to ice during the night.

The 10-inch snowfall at Nashville, Tenn.—deepest since 1929—resulted in closing the city's airport until noon today. Lawrenceburg recorded 16 inches and Columbia had 15.

Weather Stops Parade, Averts Civil Rights Row

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Leaders of the Mummies, civil rights groups and the city seek today to resolve a controversy that threatened to flare into a demonstration before weather forced postponement of the traditional New Year's Day parade.

Mummies leaders, fearing the snow, ice and sleet would damage the flashy costumes, postponed the parade until Saturday.

Civil rights groups oppose use of blackface makeup by some marchers.

Despite the postponement, an informal group called the Second Streeters marched briefly and many wore blackface. There were no incidents and the Second Streeters said they would march again Saturday.

Magistrate Elias Myers, the parade director, banned use of blackface makeup this year, but rescinded the order after some clubs protested.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and the Congress of Racial Equality then protested. The city said it would not award prizes to participants who wear blackface.

CORE and the Committee for Freedom now threatened to physically block the parade unless blackface marchers are banned.

Brandt describes the pass agreement as a purely technical, humanitarian arrangement without the implications of an international agreement between states.

A gay and happy throng returned from East Berlin early New Year's Day after welcoming 1964 with a frenzy of song and drink. East Berlin's Karl Marx Allee was aglow with fireworks.

As stragglers met the extended 5 a.m. deadline for returning on New Year's morn, new visitors lined up for visits during the day. Several thousand persons had passes for both days and were allowed to spend the night in East Berlin.

Postal Payroll to Be Cut 5,000 in 6 Months

World Starts New Year Full of Hope

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Revelry, prayer and hopeful messages of peace marked the start of the new year around the world.

Times Square had its biggest crowd in years for the countdown to 1964 — an estimated 300,000. A few blocks away, 3,000 persons dined and danced in Grand Central Terminal in one of the largest New Year's Eve parties. It was a benefit ball for the National Association for Mental Health.

Fireworks illuminated the skies over the Berlin wall. Parisians leaned on automobile horns on the Champs Elysees. Spaniards ate 12 grapes at midnight. Italians threw crockery from windows. And residents of Buenos Aires tossed tons of ticker tape and old calendars from windows.

President Johnson waltzed out the old year at one of four parties he attended in Austin, Tex. He returned to his ranch near Johnson City, Tex., less than an hour later.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev raised a toast at a Kremlin party and sent traditional New Year's messages to world leaders.

Pope Paul VI began the new year with a Mass in his private chapel. At noon he held a throng of 30,000 in St. Peter's Square the new year "seems to inspire serene wishes of peace and well-being for all."

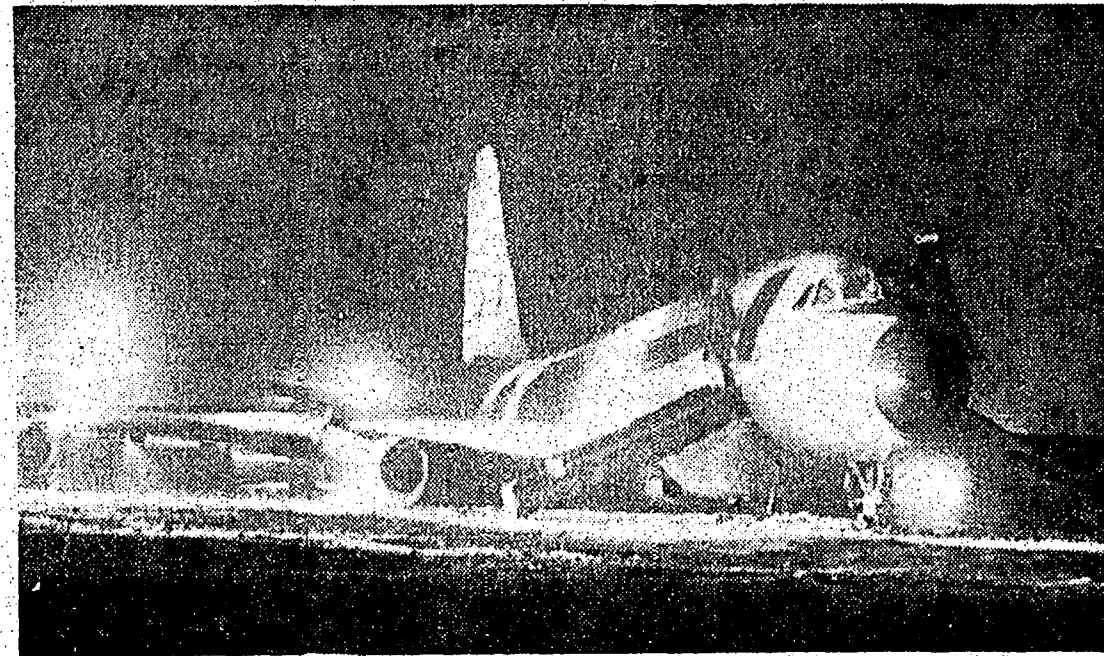

Khrushchev Sends Note To Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev sent a personal message to President Johnson today in the midst of increasing talk on both sides of the East-West conflict about an easing of cold war tensions during the new year.

Soviet Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin met with Secretary of State Dean Rusk for 15 minutes, then told newsmen: "I delivered a personal message from the chairman (Khrushchev) to the President."

He declined to discuss the contents, other than to indicate that the nature of the message would be made known shortly.

A report from London said the Soviet government was delivering notes in several Western capitals dealing with the need for peaceful settlement of territorial disputes.

LANDING GEAR OF JET COLLAPSES ... A Trans World Airlines pilot brought his jet airliner with 71 persons aboard in for a safe landing Wednesday night at Logan airport in Boston after the landing gear collapsed as it touched down. There were no injuries reported from the 63 passengers and crew of eight. The plane was ending a Denver to Boston run with an intermediate stop at New York. (AP Photofax)

Final Plans Made for Pope's Visit

By BENNET M. BOLTON

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The Vatican and the Italian government worked today on final details for Pope Paul VI's flight to the Holy Land Saturday.

The Italian government planned a big send-off for the Roman Catholic pontiff as the head of the tiny Vatican state.

A squadron of Italian air force F84 jet fighters was assigned to escort the Pope's special Alitalia Airlines jetliner to international waters. The military planes also will greet the Pope's return flight from Jordan and Israel Monday.

Romans who attended New Year's Day masses at churches along the papal route to the airport were told the time to gather to cheer the pontiff on his way.

Bells in Rome's 450 churches will peal at the moment of take-off.

Pope Paul was in the midst of a 3-day period of intensified prayer to prepare for his historic trip.

An afternoon spiritual retreat, or period of withdrawal from normal routine to pray and meditate, was scheduled in a Vatican chapel for the three cardinals and 30 other Vatican aides who will accompany the pontiff.

The Pope, in an appearance before a New Year's Day crowd of 30,000 in St. Peter's Square, said his trip "may have an impact for many years to come."

"We will remember you and will pray for God to give you grace," he said.

6 Republicans Have Own Plan On Medical Care

By JOSEPH R. COYNE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Six Republican senators say they hope to crack the stalemate on health care for the aged legislation by introducing their own plan when Congress reconvenes next week.

They described it as the most comprehensive health care program ever prepared for Congress and said it would make use of both Social Security funds and general government revenues, and private insurance companies.

Health care legislation will likely set off one of the big battles in Congress this election year.

President Johnson is expected to press hard for passage of the bill—or a version of it—which the late President John F. Kennedy was unable to push through Congress.

The six Republicans said in a statement Wednesday that GOP votes will be needed to pass a health care bill this year and "we sincerely believe that the bill we are preparing will offer the effective basis for such an agreement."

"We feel," they added, "that the health care needs of our 18 million citizens over 65 have been too long neglected, and that the Congress must resolve this problem in 1964."

The six Republicans are Sens. Clifford P. Case of New Jersey, John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, Jacob K. Javits and Kenneth B. Keating of New York, Thomas H. Kuchel of California and Margaret Chase Smith of Maine.

The senators' statement said their plan would provide hospitalization, nursing care and home care for all citizens 65 and over through Social Security financing or from general federal revenues if the person is not covered by Social Security.

It would also permit health insurance companies to team up and offer a nonprofit mass plan for low-cost insurance to cover doctor bills and other medical expenses. Antitrust laws now do not permit such private combinations.

Carrier Price

Because of no publication on New Year's Day the short-week carrier delivery price will be effective.

Parcel Post Rates to Be Up $77 Million

By FRANK CORMIER

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson got a pledge from Postmaster General John A. Gronouski today that the postal payroll will be cut by 5,000 workers within the next six months.

Gronouski, after a meeting with Johnson, told a news conference that this and other moves, including a proposed $77-million hike in parcel post rates, will result in a cut of $100 million in the annual postal deficit.

The department chief said the economies may require some reduction of postal service. But he said these would not be significant.

Johnson turned his attention to domestic concerns after an aide reported Wednesday that the President favors an unrelenting peace offensive in 1964. In this connection, Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev sent Johnson a new 20-page personal note today.

Gronouski made these major announcements at his meeting with newsmen at White House press headquarters in Austin.

He has ordered a reduction by June 20 of 5,000 postal workers—a move that would drop the total number to 590,000. He said no employees would be fired but that some who quit or retire will not be replaced.

The postal deficit for the 1963 fiscal year which begins July 1 will be about $100 million lower than the fiscal 1964 deficit, estimated at $650 million.

The department's fiscal 1965 budget will be $200 million lower than the total originally sought by postal officials.

There will be a sharp cutback in plans to expand and modernize postal facilities. The department will seek only $10 million for such purposes in 1964, compared with the 1963 appropriation of $43 million. The subject of Khrushchev's note was not made public immediately.

New Caretaker Government Meets

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—The new caretaker government met today on the Cyprus crisis and authoritative sources said it had asked for an extraordinary meeting of the Atlantic Alliance's Permanent Council in Paris.

Shortly after the Greek Cypriot-Turkish Cypriot rivalry on Cyprus exploded into violence last month, the Greek government asked for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization meeting. Later it withdrew the request when it appeared the conflict was being resolved.

Now the crisis appears to be heating up again.

Air Force Plane Reported Down

HONOLULU (AP)—The Air Force said a C124 military cargo plane went down in the Pacific today about 450 miles west of Honolulu and there were survivors among the eight aboard.

The big cargo plane, flying 2,300 miles from Wake to Hawaii, also carried the body of a Navy man.

The report climaxed a series of confusing ones: that the plane lost communications, then ran out of fuel and was assumed down; later that it was airborne and within 600 miles of Hawaii; then that it was within 70 miles of Midway Island which is 1,200 miles northwest of Hawaii.

Maj. W. M. Millar, the Air Force spokesman, said the report that the plane is down at sea came from the Honolulu air route traffic control center. Four aircraft were reported

Slayer of Lewiston Girl Tries Suicide

STILLWATER, Minn. (AP)—Sex slayer Hugh Blom Morse, 33, was in serious condition at Stillwater Prison today after trying to commit suicide Tuesday by cutting his wrists with a knife blade.

Morse confessed the Sept. 19, 1961 rape-murder of Carol Roman, 34, St. Paul social worker and a native of Lewiston, Minn., in her apartment, and was serving a life term.

600,000 Have Crossed Wall

By JOHN O. KOEHLER

BERLIN (AP)—A new rush of West Berliners crossing the wall is expected with only four more days remaining on the agreement allowing visits to East Berlin.

A total of 172,740 West Berliners greeted the new year with relatives behind the wall, pushing past 600,000 the number of visitors to the Red sector since the visits began Dec. 19.

The huge flow of West Berliners placed new pressure on Mayor Willy Brandt's West Berlin government to discuss an extension of the visiting arrangement with the Communist East German regime.

The agreement expires at midnight Sunday.

Brandt said he will try to renew the agreement, which has given West Berliners their first chance to see relatives in East Berlin since the Communists built the wall in August 1961.

He also is under opposite pressure from Allied and West German officials and West Berlin newspapers who regard any negotiations with the East German regime as recognition and fear such talks can only strengthen the Communist concept of a divided Germany and a neutralized West Berlin.

Brandt describes the pass agreement as a purely technical, humanitarian arrangement without the implications of an international agreement between states.

A gay and happy throng returned from East Berlin early New Year's Day after welcoming 1964 with a frenzy of song and drink. East Berlin's Karl Marx Allee was aglow with fireworks.

As stragglers met the extended 5 a.m. deadline for returning on New Year's morn, new visitors lined up for visits during the day. Several thousand persons had passes for both days and were allowed to spend the night in East Berlin.

The Associated Press count showed that nearly 200 traffic fatalities were reported during the 30-hour period defined by the council.

There were 316 highway deaths during last week's 48-hour Christmas holiday while 382 persons died in traffic accidents during the 1962-63 New Year's weekend holiday of four days.

The holiday traffic death toll compared to a total of 170 fatalities reported in a nonholiday period of 48 hours, from 12:01 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 10 to 12:01 a.m. Thursday, Dec. 12.

Johnson Is Pushing For Peace in 1964

By FRANK CORMIER

Associated Press Writer
JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson is said to favor an unrelenting peace offensive in 1964.

A White House source reported that Johnson is determined to seek new breakthroughs on peace and does not think the United States can or should wait until after the November presidential balloting before pressing ahead in this area.

The source made available to newsmen Wednesday a summary of what was described as Johnson's views on a broad range of topics. Some of the material was provided on condition it not be made public until today.

Among key attitudes attributed to Johnson were these: The President plans to propose a comprehensive housing program and will discuss this today at his ranch home with Administrator Robert C. Weaver of the Housing and Home Finance Agency.

Johnson expects Congress to pass a civil rights bill this year, as well as an $11 billion tax-cut. He also would like to see passage of a program to provide medical insurance for the elderly.

Government officials will be expected to work hard and avoid the cocktail party circuit.

Johnson is pleased with the results of his economy-in-government drive and believes the stage is set for further savings in the budget that will go to Congress in January 1965. He believes fiscal prudence is, in the informant's words, "no longer a rich man's issue."

The President has profound respect for Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and also is greatly impressed by

Gen. Maxwell Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Earlier Wednesday Johnson told Soviet Premier Khrushchev in a message that the time for talking peace has passed and "1964 should be a year in which we take further steps toward that goal."

"In this spirit I shall strive for the further improvement of relations between our two countries," Johnson said in a reply to a New Year's message from Khrushchev and Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev.

The two Russian leaders had said in their personal message to Johnson that the old year saw "a significant improvement in the approach to the solutions of urgent international problems and in the development of Soviet-American relations."

They voiced hope that the new year "will be marked by further significant success."

Alma Center Child Chokes On Toy Part

BLACK RIVER FALLS, Wis. (Special) — An Alma Center child who choked on a wooden Christmas toy about the size of a marble was dead on arrival at the Black River Community Hospital here Tuesday at 11:45 a.m.

Phillip Ripp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Ripp, was six months old. He was born at the hospital here June 27.

Besides his parents, survivors are: Three brothers, Gregory, 6; Daniel, 5; and Gavin, 2; and two sisters, Mary, 8, and Maurine, 3. His mother is the former Wanda Hefty.

The funeral service will be Friday at 11 a.m. at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, Alma Center, the Rev. Charles Herbers officiating. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Friends may call at the family home this evening. Langlois-Galston Funeral Home is in charge.

There are about 1,000 different kinds of known cactus plants.

Passenger Hurt At Buffalo City

ALMA, Wis. (Special) — The drivers of two cars which collided on a curve north of the Buffalo City Cemetery Friday escaped injury but one passenger was bruised and treated by a doctor.

William Bjork Jr., 22, Alma, accompanied by his brother, Jeffrey, 9, was returning from skating on Spring Lake at Buffalo City at 3:15 p.m. Bjork was driving east toward Highway 35. William Rosenow, Cochrane, driving a 1961 car, was going west. Because of the slippery highway, the cars slid into each other.

Jeffrey received a bruised hip and elbow when thrown against door of the car. About $1,000 damage was done to the Bjork vehicle. The Rosenow car also was damaged.

The accident was investigated by Robert Sing, Mondovi, Buffalo County traffic officer. No charges were filed.

LAKE CITY, Minn. (Special) — Miss Edna Klindworth, a patient at St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester two weeks, was released Saturday.

681 Winona Co. Firms Listed in Dun & Bradstreet

Business growth and industrial development in this area continues at a favorable level, according to figures released by the St. Paul office of Dun & Bradstreet, Inc.

The January 1964 edition of the firm's reference book shows that there are 681 manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers in Winona County.

In the area, Olmsted County leads the list with 797 such business firms in operation. Fillmore County has 485, Houston County has 252 and Wabasha County has 306.

As might be expected, Hennepin County leads the state, having 11,658 businesses operating within it. Ramsey County has 6,241.

Dun & Bradstreet's reference book is revised every 60 days to provide manufacturers and wholesalers with up-to-date credit information about other business firms.

Stepdaughter and Father Wounded

RICHLAND CENTER, Wis. — Gerald Parduhn, 27, of Sextonville and his 4-year-old stepdaughter were hospitalized with wounds received in a shooting at the family's house trailer Wednesday.

Parduhn suffered face wounds and the child, Mary Beth Pulvermacher, was hit in the face by a ricocheting bullet.

Hager City Girl On Serious List After Transplant

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — A young Wisconsin girl who received a transplanted kidney remained on the serious list at University of Minnesota Hospitals today but doctors said she was doing well.

Roxanne Johnson, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Johnson of Hager City, Wis., underwent the operation Dec. 27.

The transplant came from Roxanne's aunt, LaVonne Doerr, 20, Red Wing, Minn. Miss Doerr was released from the hospital Wednesday.

The transplant was decided upon when Roxanne's life was threatened by a kidney disease.

Castro Shows Russ Weapons In Big Parade

HAVANA (AP) — Premier Fidel Castro rolls out his Soviet-built military hardware today at a huge parade marking the fifth anniversary of the overthrow of dictator Fulgencio Batista.

Thousands of Cubans are expected to watch the display of tanks, artillery and ground-to-air missiles.

Castro planned a major policy speech, probably pegged to his government's theme that 1964 is "the year of the economy," an all-out battle to increase production.

Visiting Communist delegates from Europe, Asia and Latin America were to join Castro on the parade reviewing stand.

The Soviet delegation is led by Nikolai Podgorny, a secretary of the Soviet Communist party and a member of its Presidium.

In a new year's greeting to Castro, Soviet Premier Khrushchev and President Leonid Brezhnev promised:

"We again declare that revolutionary Cuba will not remain alone if it is attacked by United States aggressive military circles."

Castro said Wednesday night he believed President Kennedy was "beginning to think of the possibilities of normalization of relations" between the United States and Cuba before he was assassinated Nov. 22.

In a Havana-to-New York telephone interview with ABC he said he wanted to normalize Cuba's relations with the United States but "it belongs to the United States government to take the next step to help that normalization."

"But of course, it can never be over conditions of renouncing our political ideas," Castro said. "Never can we renounce our marxism."

3 Dead in Fire At Nursing Home

COLUMBIA, Miss. (AP) — Fire swept a nursing home in this small south Mississippi town early today, killing three of the 17 occupants.

The blaze destroyed the one-story frame building.

An employee of the home, Mrs. Boyd Hamm, said she believed the fire started from a floor furnace.

None of the survivors was reported injured.

Sixteen of the occupants were men, most of them veterans of World War I.

Rural U.S. Has Problems, Freeman Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman said Wednesday rural America moves into the new year still facing serious problems of low farm incomes and deep poverty.

The secretary said in a New Year's Day statement that more than 15 million rural residents—farm and non-farm—are adversely affected. He added that these problems must be the concern of every citizen interested in the future of the nation.

"While net farm income has been generally higher than was the case in most of the middle and late 1950s, the farmer's return is still not what it must be if agriculture is to share fully in American prosperity," Freeman said.

The secretary said he is particularly concerned by the prospect of a decline in farm income in 1964. He said he is hopeful Congress will enact legislation to strengthen the market, price and income situation for producers of wheat, cotton and dairy products. These are the major commodities affected by overproduction and surpluses.

Freeman said that the present farm income situation would be much worse than it is if it had not been for new farm programs adopted under the Kennedy administration. He estimated these programs had added around $8 billion to gross farm income during the past three years. Gross income has been averaging about $41 billion annually.

"The American farmer is deserving of a better shake in the economy—especially in view of his unparalleled success in providing for the needs of his fellow Americans as well as for millions of other people around the world."

"Related to the farm income problem—but with much wider ramifications—is the general problem of rural poverty. The existence of deep pockets of rural need is something that must not be tolerated by the greatest nation in history."

The secretary said some gains were made last year in helping rural areas create jobs for 110,000 persons under the department's rural areas development program.

The first commercial brewery in the New World was built in 1612 by Adrian Block and Hans Christiansen in a log house on the southern tip of what is now Manhattan Island.

Postal Receipts Rise With Hike In Mail Rates

Total receipts at the Winona post office during 1963 were estimated at $677,367—a new record—by Postmaster John W. Dugan.

This is an increase of $89,612 over the 1962 estimate of $587,755.

DUGAN POINTED out, however, that the hike in receipts was due to increased postal rates throughout most of the year, rather than to any increase in volume of mail handled here.

The new postal rates went into effect Jan. 7, 1963. The new scale raised the cost of mailing a regular letter from 4 cents to 5 cents an ounce. Air mail was raised from 7 cents to 8 cents an ounce.

Christmas business at the post office was greater by 42,400 pieces than during the holiday rush season last year. The increase was especially evident during the second half of the period—the final week before Christmas—when the total was 225,600 pieces greater than during the comparable period during 1962.

The rising totals are due to a heavy flow of incoming mail. Outgoing mail—mail deposited here for delivery elsewhere—was down from the total last year by 121,400 pieces.

DURING THE second half of the rush period, however, even the volume of outgoing mail increased over last year's total. From Dec. 15 through 24 last year, 853,900 pieces of mail were sent from Winona. During the comparable period this year, the total climbed to 873,400.

Overall totals for mail handled at the post office during the Christmas rush periods were 1,378,300 for 1962 and 1,256,900 during 1963.

Despite the declining figures for volume of mail, estimated receipts for December this year are up slightly from those last December. The 1962 estimated total was $68,184, while the 1963 figure is $68,213. As is true of the total for the year, the rate increases account for this.

POSTAL receipts from 1907 through 1963 follow:

1907	$677,367	1934	$248,895

Governor Names Staffer at WSC

Reappointment of G. E. Fishbaugh, director of teacher education at Winona State College, to a state advisory group was announced today by Gov. Karl Rolvaag.

Fishbaugh is on the education committee of the Governor's Advisory Council on Children and Youth. He has been on the WSC staff since 1926.

Stolen Auto Hits Parked Car

Winona County Sheriff George Fort said today that the citizens of his jurisdiction were a relatively peaceable lot over the New Year holiday.

Deputies investigated the complaint of Dennis Kowalewski, Minnesota City, that his car was stolen Wednesday night, taken for a joy ride and damaged. The juvenile who took the car hit an auto belonging to Kenneth Breitsprecher, Canton, which was parked at the Acorn Motel, Minnesota City. Each vehicle received about $25 to $30 damage.

Fort said the boy's father agreed to pay costs of fixing Breitsprecher's car.

A college student and a secretary have joined the ranks of 1964 Winter Carnival queen contestants, Jim D. Mohan, Winona Activity Group queen selection chairman, announced today.

The new entries are Rose Marie Abts, 20, 267 E. King St., who is sponsored by the Country Kitchen, and Joan Marie Walske, 21, Galesville, whose sponsor is the Oaks.

MISS ABTS is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ervan Abts. She is a junior majoring in biology at the College of Saint Teresa, and hopes to be medical technologist after she is graduated. She is 5 foot 6; weighs 120 pounds; wears a size 10 dress.

Fire Destroys Home at Alma; Little Saved

ALMA, Wis. (Special) — The Alma fire department was busy during the holidays, answering calls to a house whose insides were burned out, a chimney fire and small blaze in the Farmers Union building here.

The residence on the Melvin Mork farm, about seven miles northeast of here, off Highway 37 was ruined. Most of its contents were destroyed. Mrs. Mork and her two youngest children, a baby and 3-year-old, escaped with their lives when Henry Haacker, hired man, came out of the barn from doing chores and saw the roof in flames.

HE HAD been getting his car ready for leaving when he saw the blaze. He rushed into the house and summoned firemen while Mrs. Mork got her children into his car. Neighbors and firemen got the kitchen appliances and table from the residence but everything else was lost, including clothing.

Loss of the brick home and contents, estimated at $20,000, was covered by insurance, the family said. Only the walls and chimneys are standing.

The Mork place is the former Melvin Accola farm near the Tell School on Highway 37. The family purchased it three years ago. The Morks are living temporarily at the Ray Accola farm. Mr. Mork and children Joan, 8, and Roger, 11, were at church when the fire started.

The department was called to the Ewald Hartman farm in Mill Creek, to put out a chimney fire Monday at 9 a.m. No damage was done. The place is about six miles northeast of Alma, also off Highway 37. Both are in the Town of Alma.

WEDNESDAY at 1:30 p.m. firemen were called to the Farmers Union building where sparks from an arc welder set corn husks on fire and heat from the blaze scorched the new crib for corncocks.

Manager Ralph Polivka said a contractor was in the building repairing the corner crib and put in the alarm.

STILL AT WORK

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — At 82, Edgar Nickols scoffs at retirement by continuing to sell life insurance.

He's been in the business 50 years and during that time has placed more than $14 million of life insurance.

"There's no age ceiling for the agent who keeps active mentally and physically," he says.

PLENTY OF FARMS

AUBURN, Ala. (AP) — There's little chance of America running short of farmland for the next 50 years, says an Auburn University economist, Foy Helms. He thinks that agricultural technology will keep ahead of population growth for centuries to come.

More than 3,000 Americans are being kept alive today by electronic pacemakers in cases where the patients own heartbeats are undependable, specialists in this new medical field estimate.

Boy, 9, Gets Leg Caught In Auger

LAKE CITY, Minn. (Special) — Martin Kehren, 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kehren, Lake City Rt. 2, is being treated for a severe compound fracture of the right leg which he received on New Year's Day.

The family had attended services at St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Belvidere, and were hurriedly doing their chores so they could leave to visit Mrs. Kehren's sister at Dodge Center.

Martin was helping with the chores and got his foot caught in the auger of the automatic feeder which carries feed to the cattle. The machine did not shut off and his leg was pulled in.

The father carried him to the house and improvised a stretcher for Martin and then drove him to Lake City Municipal Hospital.

The doctor said Martin is in satisfactory condition.

Christmas Trees To Be Collected Sunday Afternoon

The Junior Chamber of Commerce's "Operation Treeclift" Sunday will afford instant Christmas tree disposal for residents of Winona and Goodview.

Families are asked to place their Christmas trees near the street. Pickup will start around noon. The collection of trees will be burned about 5 p.m. near the junction of Mankato Avenue and Highway 14-61.

Contributions, which will be used to defray expenses of the project and for other Jaycee Christmas programs, may be attached to the trees. They are not necessary, however, according to Gay Fox, treeclift chairman.

He Started Confused

By GEORGE MCCORMICK
Daily News Staff Writer

The huddled figure stood in the darkness in front of the store and watched the clock in the window.

As soon as the hands of the clock indicated midnight, he took a small tin horn from beneath his coat. Raising the horn to his lips, he blew.

A RAUCOUS "bzaanap" shattered the still night air. Replacing the horn, the huddled figure drew out another little tin instrument. He shook it, and a harsh rattling filled the street.

A window above him flew up, and a head was thrust out. Looking up at the head, the huddled figure un-buddled long enough to wave and shout.

"Happy new year!" he cried. "Shuddup, you nut. I'm trying to sleep," the owner of the out-thrust head replied.

"No holiday spirit," the huddled figure sniffed. He blew another blast on his tin horn, and gave his other noisemaker a vigorous shake.

Tavern Owner Convicted of Sale to Minor

Found guilty today in municipal court of selling beer to a minor was Alvin Ronnenberg, owner of the Garvin Brook Tavern at The Arches.

Ronnenberg had pleaded not guilty Dec. 20 to the charge of selling beer to a 16-year old Utica youth Dec. 10. He posted $100 bail for his appearance today.

SEVEN WITNESSES including the youth and two companions, were called to the stand by Richard Darby, assistant county attorney, prosecutor. Ronnenberg was not represented by counsel.

The youth said he and the two other boys had gone to the tavern the evening of Dec. 10. He had purchased the beer, he testified, and had not been asked to prove that he was of legal age.

Ronnenberg did not cross-examine witnesses or call any witnesses of his own. He told the court he does not know the youth and does not remember selling the beer, although he admitted the possibility.

Other testimony was given by Deputy Sheriffs John Schneider and Vernon Spitzer. William Kilmer, Lewiston village marshal, and Kenneth Wiese, a pharmacist and chemist.

In passing sentence, Judge McGill said the law makes sellers responsible for determining whether a buyer is of legal age. He fined Ronnenberg $50.

THE STATUS of Ronnenberg's 3.2 malt beverage licenses was not clear. Darby said state liquor control laws, Section 340.023, provide that conviction on such a charge is a misdemeanor and "shall be cause for revocation or suspension of license." He said further action would probably be up to the county board of commissioners.

Beef Prices Steady to Lower in '63

CHICAGO (AP) — Except for a few brief periods of firmness, the trend of slaughter steer prices for 1963 was steady to lower.

They began the year already in retreat from the highest levels in three years and showed no reversal of consequence until early summer. The recovery was limited, though, and rather brief. From then until the end of November, prices ranged consistently under the comparable period in 1962.

The decline in prices of livestock products for the year was about 3 per cent from 1962. For the third quarter of the year, beef cattle averaged 5 per cent below the same period a year earlier.

The top price of the year, $30.50, was paid on Jan. 9. A month later it had fallen to $27.25 and remained under that level almost every day thereafter.

The weakness was ascribed to larger supplies of cattle on feed and to some extent the heavier weights at which they were marketed.

The market for butcher hogs reached $20 a hundredweight on only six days during the year compared with four days in 1962 but prices most of the time were well below the comparable periods last year.

The market reached its peak late in July when supplies dropped to their lowest levels of the year. For one week during that period, offerings amounted to only 24,000 head compared with 30,000 or more for earlier and later weeks. As the movement to market increased in the

'64 Business Outlook Linked to Tax Cut

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP) — You can take your choice from two business forecasts for 1964—one good—and one better.

The difference is tax reduction. The consensus of government and private economists holds that:

If the late President Kennedy's $11-billion tax cut program is enacted soon, 1964 will be a banner year. National output may rise by 5 per cent or more to a record $615 billion, give or take a few billions.

If the tax bill is killed, or hangs fire in Congress until the nearly 3-year business rise runs out of gas, it is generally agreed that second-half 1964 will see a downturn.

But even if there is a late-year sag, over-all 1964 output will crack this year's record of $583 billion.

That's because the upswing—which has accelerated in recent months—seems to have enough momentum to keep the indexes rising through the first and probably the second quarter, most economists agree.

The production rate will top $600 billion a year this winter or spring, the President's Council of Economic Advisers predicts. But its chairman, Dr. Walter W. Heller, has warned that the immediate prospect is for a gradual rise—no boom, and no appreciable drop in joblessness.

Concurring with the view of private industry experts that current gains are due partly to the expectation of investors, business managers and consumers that tax cuts are coming, Heller warned:

"The disappointment of expectations if the tax cut were unexpectedly to falter and fall by the wayside would make a sharp difference in the 1964 outlook."

"To say that it would pull the rug out from under the expansionary expectations for the year would not overstate the economic realities."

Twice in 1963 the expansion spluttered and almost faltered—in February, when personal income sagged and unemployment climbed to 6.1 per cent, and in August, when industrial output took its first and only tumble of the year.

But by Nov. 22, when the assassination of President John F. Kennedy rocked the nation and its markets, the basic strength of the economy was so visible that the sudden panic of the exchanges was quickly clamed.

Within 37 minutes after the news from Dallas that Friday, huge blocks of stocks were dumped and prices plunged 21 points on the Dow-Jones industrial averages. The New York exchange shut its doors early to halt the nosedive.

By the time trading resumed on Tuesday, buy orders has begun to pour in—encouraged by the firm grip taken by President Johnson on the affairs of state and stimulated by his pledge to 30 assembled governors that he would push the Kennedy tax cut and restrain federal spending. In one record day, the average rose 32 points.

As the year neared its close, business confidence ran high. There was evidence that many industrialists and financiers considered Johnson more pro-business than Kennedy.

Some clouds overhang the generally rosy vista, these among them:

1. Unemployment continues to be a drag. It still clings close to the high rate—5.5 per cent—the labor force—which has prevailed for two years.

Unless national output climbs even faster than its $30 billion-a-year pace in 1963, the rising tide of young entrants into the labor force will bar any significant improvement.

2. The increase in federal spending is scheduled to slow down. State and local government outlays will rise rapidly enough to prevent a total net decline. But government spending won't be as potent a propellant as it was last year.

3. The booming auto industry foresees its third banner sales year in a row, but cannot be expected to exceed greatly the 7 million-car mark. So also with housing—another fine year in sight, but little if any better than this year's 1.5 million new home starts.

An economy doesn't grow much when the basic industries merely hold their own, and neither the Commerce Department nor the Economic Council can identify any single major buoying force looming ahead—unless tax reduction provides fresh stimulus.

4. Industry's planned increase in spending on new plant and equipment—perhaps the most important generator of jobs and income—is disappointingly smaller than government economists had hoped. The annual survey by McGraw-Hill Publishing Co. indicates a 4-per cent rise from 1963's $39-billion rate.

Again, this would be an all-year record. But it is below the $41.2-billion annual rate achieved in the quarter just closed; unless it is stepped up, there will be a slackening of momentum.

Street Too Straight, Narrow

An unidentified motorist apparently found 2nd Street a little too narrow New Year's Eve. Police discovered Wednesday.

Indications are that the driver, headed west between Johnson and Washington streets, knocked over a 1-hour parking sign in the north side, then weaved across and flattened a similar sign on the south side. Taking a small fling at urban renewal, the motorist also knocked four bricks from the corner of the Winona Motor Co. building, 162 W. 2nd St.

Police are investigating.

early fall, prices fell into a steady decline and sold mostly around the $15.50 level in late November.

Buyers expressed belief the hog market was affected considerably by large stocks of pork in storage and by weakness in prices of other meats, including poultry.

Prices in the sheep market followed rather closely the pattern of 1962.

Couple Driving To Hospital Now Patients

ST. CHARLES, Minn. (Special)—A St. Charles couple was en route to St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester Wednesday night to see Thomas Smith, St. Charles, hospitalized since a collision Dec. 14, when they, too, were in a collision and became patients at the hospital also.

Bernard Boettcher has a concussion and lacerations about the head and his wife, Violet, has a fracture of the left arm and facial cuts. Both are in satisfactory condition, according to a physician's report this morning.

LEONARD KONKEI, Winona, driving the semi with which the Boettchers collided, was checked at the hospital and dismissed.

All three are 40. Konkei's children, Michael, 3, and Mary Ann, 10, who were with him, weren't injured.

Mrs. Boettcher was driving a 1961 station wagon toward Rochester on Highway 14. At 7:25 p.m., about three-fourths mile east of the junction of Highways 14 and 52, she hit the right shoulder. In attempting to return to her driving lane her car skidded on the slippery highway, crossed the center line, and crashed into the left side of the tractor.

When it came to a stop the 38-foot semi was headed down into a 30-foot ditch on the south side of the highway, with part of it still on the shoulder. The car, smashed beyond repair, hit the guard rail on the north side, according to the Highway Patrol.

IT TOOK rescuers a half-hour to get Boettcher from the car. Konkei said, Konkei was hauling a 40,000-pound load of butter from Owatonna toward Winona in an H. C. Christians Co. Truck. It was headed for Chicago. The cargo, not damaged, was transferred to another semi Wednesday night.

The fuel tanks were torn off his tractor, Konkei said, the left front fender was damaged and the dollies were knocked off the trailer. The windshield was popped out of the station wagon and the front pushed back.

Stone formations which hang from roofs of caves are called stalactites, while those built up from the floor of caverns are called stalagmites.

Mild Weather To Continue; In 40s Friday

Winona is slated to go into the first weekend of 1964 with generally mild weather.

Occasional cloudiness and continued mild is the forecast for tonight and Friday with a low temperature tonight of 24-28 and a high Friday of 42-48. Continued mild with no precipitation is the outlook for Saturday.

WITH THE exception of some slipperiness caused by melting and freezing weather, the city had a good New Year's Eve and day, weatherwise. The temperature rose to 24 Tuesday afternoon, dropped to 16 New Year's Eve and rose to a pleasant 43 on New Year's Day. However, it was generally cloudy and there was little melting.

This morning the low was 28 and by noon the thermometer was up to 36.

A year ago today the Winona high was 26 and the low 19. All-time high for Jan. 2 was 44 in 1933 and the low—22 in 1879. Mean for the past 24 hours was 35. Normal for this day is 17.

In the far north where it is often coldest, Bemidji had a Wednesday high of 38 and International Falls 39. At Rochester the holiday high was 40. Low there this morning was 29. At La Crosse figures of 36 and 26 were recorded for the same times.

Climbing temperatures and melting snow gave a late winter touch to WISCONSIN'S new year weather picture today.

The mercury headed for the high 30s and low 40s today, and the weekend outlook called for continued mild weather.

Temperatures early this morning ranged from a low of 13 at Lone Rock to 26 at La Crosse and Eau Claire.

Superior set the state high of 42 Wednesday. Other maximums ranged down to 23 at Green Bay.

A FEW TRACES of light snow fell Wednesday at Wausau, Eau Claire, Park Falls, Superior, Madison and Sussex.

Pasadena, San Gabriel and Miramar, all in California, topped the nation New Year's Day with 85 degrees and Logan, Utah, set the low of 1 above zero early today.

Flood Control Projects Oked

Funds for flood control projects in Winona, and along the Root and Zumbro rivers were included in a bill signed by President Johnson Tuesday.

The Winona appropriation of $200,000 will begin construction on better flood defenses along the Mississippi River.

The same bill provided $15,000 for a survey of the Zumbro in the Rochester and of the Root near Rushford.

Police Check Two Accidents

An alley collision Tuesday at 4:30 p.m. damaged cars belonging to H. B. Nathe, 41, 1289 Lakeview, and Paul B. Placchetti, 39, 463 Washington St.

Nathe's car, moving from a parking lot into the east-west alley between 5th Street and Broadway, High Forest Street and Mankato Avenue, was struck on the right side by Placchetti's car, moving west. Placchetti said slippery conditions made it impossible for him to stop in time. Nathe reported $100 damages, while Placchetti had $10 damage.

John J. Fuller, 64, 227 Market St., told police his parked car had received $50 damages on its left side after being hit by an unidentified vehicle. His car was parked on Market Street near 5th Street. The collision occurred at 11 p.m. Wednesday, he said.

Pentagon Will Release Some Classified Data

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon has issued a new standard rule under which classified defense information may be opened to "trustworthy" scholars and others engaged in historical research, it was learned today.

The rule, in effect, requires such private citizens to pass the same kind of a security check as is given to civilian workers for the Defense Department.

This means a search of their background for any possible criminal or subversive record or connection.

"It treats these researchers from the security standpoint as though they were employees of the department," one official explained.

Until recently, each of the armed services and defense agencies imposed its own standards on outside researchers seeking access to classified material.

Some standards were stiff, some lenient. Some caused needless embarrassment, officials said.

The new rule applies throughout the Defense Department and is aimed at laying down uniform security clearance re-

Mondovi Business Group to Meet, Elect Directors

MONDOVI, Wis. (Special) — The annual meeting of the Mondovi Agriculture, Business and Professional Men's Association will be held Jan. 14 at Don's Country Club.

Three directors will be elected. A noon luncheon will be followed by the business meeting.

The budget committee has recommended that dues remain at $10.

The association supported or promoted the following projects last year: Junior Dairy Days, Crazy Days, Junior Livestock show, Little League baseball, UNICEF Halloween show, Christmas holiday promotion, and outdoor decorating contest.

Requirements for researchers.

It was inserted about two weeks ago into a 1957 directive on "safeguarding official information in the interests of the defense of the United States."

Officials said the clearance requirements will be minimum. The new regulation calls for steps "to assure that classified defense information is not published or otherwise compromised."

It requires that any historical notes and manuscripts based on research in classified records by persons outside the government shall be submitted for a security censorship review.

Quie to Address Soil Meeting

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Rep. Albert Quie, R-Minn., will speak on conservation issues in Congress at the annual convention of the Minnesota Soil and Water Conservation Districts next Monday and Tuesday.

Among other speakers will be Gov. Karl Rolvaag; Bert Bergland, Midwest Director of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service; and James Kimball, Minneapolis Tribune writer and former director of the Game and Fish Division of the State Department of Conservation.

Bergland will give a keynote address at a Monday luncheon. His topic will be "Working Together on Resource Conservation and Development."

Rolvaag addresses the luncheon session Tuesday.

DEAR ABBY:

In Defense Of Dallas

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I know there isn't one chance in a million of getting this in the paper, but I am going to write it anyway. I am eleven years old and I feel terrible. I live in Dallas and I want the whole world to know that not everybody in Texas is like the man who shot our wonderful President. It isn't fair that Texas should get a bad name because of one crazy mixed-up killer. Both Abraham Lincoln and James Garfield were assassinated in Washington, D. C., and nobody held it against that city. McKinley was shot in Buffalo and they didn't blame everybody in the state of New York. Please print this, Abby, because it will mean a lot to so many good people!

DAVID IN DALLAS

DEAR DAVID: I'll print your letter, but intelligent people all over the world already know that what you say is true. The ignorant we can only hope to educate. Those we can't educate we can pray for.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a lady who asks her dates to pay her baby sitter and she tells the dates that her sitter charges 75c an hour, but the sitter charges only 50c an hour, and the lady keeps the extra 25c herself!

DEAR SITTER: Not much!

DEAR ABBY: I recently attended a large church wedding, and I saw something I had never seen before. When the bride came down the aisle, everybody in the church stood up and faced her! Now, I have attended many weddings in my lifetime, but I have never seen anything like this. Is this a new style, or did everybody stand up to get a good look at the bride because a few started it? BAFFLED

DEAR BAFFLED: There are so many variations on wedding ceremonies (and all are "correct") that one does not dare to say that there is only one proper procedure. I personally have attended only one wedding where all the guests rose and faced the bride when she appeared.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "E.B." IN SALT LAKE CITY: Sometimes the easiest way to get around something is by going through it!

Big Movie Year for Jim Garner

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — No doubt about it, this was James Garner's year of arrival.

The question of whether a television star can make it as a movie attraction has been answered. It can be done.

Garner's record for 1963 disclosed three highly successful films, with another apparent winner coming into release.

During a break in his current film, "The Americanization of Emily," Garner was asked for an accounting of the year's releases.

His reply: "They figure 'The Great Escape' will draw between 14 and 16 million worldwide. 'The Thrill of It All' is figured to make 11 million. 'The Wheeler Dealers,' which I thought was okay but the weakest of the three, will make about half of that."

Another Garner film, "Move Over, Darling," is a holiday attraction. A comedy with Doris Day as costar, it seems certain of success.

The prosperity of these films is gratifying to the tall Oklahoman, but his interest is not financial. Unlike most top stars nowadays, he does not share in the profits.

"I prefer to work for a straight salary," he said. "Yes, I know that everybody else is taking a cut of the profits or spreading the payments out over a period of years. But I'd rather take a salary, pay my tax and put the remainder into a depreciable investment."

"Taking a spread wouldn't work for me. Supposing I got $200,000 a picture—that's a hypothetical figure because I'm not going to tell you how much I make. If I made three pictures a year, that's $600,000, part of which I'd spend over the next years. I'm 35 now; if I kept spreading the payments, I'd be making too much money by the time I was 40.

"So it's better to take the dough now and put it into something like the 32-unit apartment house I bought. The initial investment is not so great, and the depreciation is excellent."

"Besides, by taking a straight salary—which I have not changed by the way—producers consider me a better buy than other actors who want a piece of the action."

In today's market a star as hot as Garner would be a good buy at $200,000—if that is indeed his neighborhood. The former "Maverick" is a versatile performer who can bounce from comedy to adventure. His television training makes him a fast study.

Jamestown, N.Y., Building Collapses

JAMESTOWN, N.Y. (AP)—A 3-story building collapsed Wednesday and flying debris injured three persons in a passing automobile.

Police said heavy snow and ice caused the roof of the building to collapse.

Injured were Ira Wellman, 66, of Jamestown; his wife, Helen, 41, and their son, Daniel, 8. Firemen and police used hacksaws and crowbars to pry open the automobile and free them.

Year Winds Up With Strong Surge at Home

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—This year began with storm clouds in the domestic skies and setbacks abroad. It ended with a strong business and industrial upsurge at home marred only temporarily by a national tragedy and with apparent clearing of international skies.

A dock strike had East and Gulf ports tied up in January. Worse, than average, winter storms ravaged both North and South. The government worried lest unemployment rise more rapidly. The business upswing was stalled and many talked openly of a coming recession. The late President John F. Kennedy plugged for his tax cut proposal as an antislump measure.

America's grand scheme for an Atlantic trading union was set back on its heels when France blackballed England's entrance into the European Common Market. The United States braced for possible trade wars.

But there was an early spring for the economy. When new problems appeared during the year, as they always do, general confidence recovered steadily.

Steel production rose rapidly, largely because customers were stocking up in fear of a strike. But a new contract stressing fringe benefits rather than wage boosts cleared the air. It also made way for selective price rises later in the year. And after a slow summer while customers worked off their inventories, steel output closed the year in a strong upturn.

Chrysler celebrated its profit comeback by announcing a two-for-one stock split and increased dividends in February, and repeating this in October. Autos in general racked up their second straight seven-million car year and saw a third one a very likely bet. There was a sad note—closing of Studebaker production in its American plants.

The stock market weathered a three-part report by a Securities and Exchange Commission study group that found many practices to criticize but was less upsetting than most had expected at the start of the year. Popular stock price averages recovered all lost ground from the 1962 crash and by September were topping their late 1961 record highs. In December they went to still loftier heights. Raising of stock credit margins to 70 per cent cash from 50 per cent didn't faze the bulls.

Commodity markets were rocked by a scandal in vegetable oils which spilled over into the securities markets and into international banking. This is still on the unfinished business list as the year ends.

A railroad strike was threatened at intervals during the year, each time postponed by government intervention, but major problems remained unsettled at year's end.

The federal minimum wage went to $1.25 an hour from $1.15 in September, benefitting 2.6 million workers. Total employment rose during the year, but the percentage of the labor force out of work stayed between 5.5 and 5.9 per cent.

Business profits rose steadily, with the year setting a record. Many leading corporations celebrated by either splitting their stocks or raising dividends or making liberal year-end bonuses. In the final months of the year Communist nations were dickering with the United States for surplus wheat and other grains.

On Nov. 22 the nation and the world were shocked by the assassination of President Kennedy. The stock market had a few minutes of time to break sharply before it was closed. The rebound was even greater. Business and consumer assessment of President Johnson's leadership was quickly manifested in rising confidence.

Retail trade set a record for December. Industrial production continued to rise. So did personal incomes. Surveys of consumer intentions showed confidence would be translated into more buying in the new year. Business executives issued more than usually optimistic predictions, and many announced increased spending plans.

Problems aplenty remain. But in general, business is ending the year with relief that fears were overcome and is looking ahead to:

A Happy New Year.

State Doctors Tell How To Treat Frostbite

FROSTBITE IS fairly common in these parts during an average winter, and the Minnesota State Medical Association is concerned about it.

Commonly held notions about first aid for frostbite are useless, says the association, and a Saint Bernard coming to the rescue with a cask around his neck is not the answer, neither is rubbing the affected part with ice or snow.

Instead, the state doctors say, it is better to administer a hot, nonalcoholic liquid such as coffee, and thaw the tissue as soon as possible. Rubbing with ice or snow only delays thawing and increases the chance of gangrene.

The first signs of frostbite are a "pins and needles" prickly feeling and then numbness. The affected part is first white or gray. It turns bright pink just before frostbite develops. The victim feels cold and usually is not aware of the frostbite. When the affected area is warmed, it becomes red and swollen, and large blisters may develop. Usually it is best not to open blisters.

IT'S IMPORTANT to warm the frozen part rapidly. This can be done best by getting the victim indoors into a warm room and immersing the part in lukewarm — not hot — water. A warm wet towel can also be applied. Lacking heated water, use warm blankets.

Treat the frozen part gently and let circulation re-establish itself naturally. Don't massage. When the part is warmed, dry it gently and encourage the victim to exercise fingers and toes. Don't use hot water, hot water bottles or heat-lamps over the area.

Until the victim can be moved inside, cover the frostbitten part with a warm hand or woolen material. If fingers are frostbitten, have the victim hold his hand in his armpit, next to his body.

The untrained person cannot determine the seriousness of frostbite, so it is important to get medical help quickly. Control of the often severe pain is required and injections against pneumonia and tetanus may be needed.

FROSTBITE IS usually due to insufficient clothing and protection. Guard against it by dressing properly for cold weather and by keeping heavy clothing and boots in the car to be ready for a possible breakdown that requires a long hike. Use common sense this winter and dress for warmth and protection as well as fashion.

Change Needed in Legislative Setup?

THE ANNOUNCEMENT by State Senator Robert R. Dunlap that he won't seek re-election to the legislature next year revives a subject that sometimes has been discussed. It involves the makeup of the legislature and its status as a professional or part-time body.

Senator Dunlap is one of the state's best lawmakers. He possesses a good grasp of the functions and operations of the legislature and is a strong leader. But he will leave the Senate after this term because he is planning to join a new law firm in Rochester, 25 miles from his present home in Plainville. This will put him in a new legislative district if he moves there and he has said he has no plans to seek political office in that location.

It is apparent his decision is based on personal and business considerations and he has given up the idea, if he ever had one, of pursuing his political career. Serving in the legislature is a demanding assignment that offers only part-time compensation.

IT CANNOT be said without qualifications that Senator Dunlap is planning to leave office for the reason that the remuneration isn't enough, yet it is plain his move to a new district is based on financial and business considerations. He can't afford to let his political career influence his personal decisions.

Except for those officeholders who plan later to seek higher office, Dunlap's situation is not unlike that of most of the other senators and representatives. Service in the legislature is not in itself financially rewarding enough to make it a career. Senators and representatives must be in a position where they can afford to give up a sizable percentage of their time to legislative duties or they cannot continue to serve. And in the case of those who find an opportunity to better themselves in their professions, they must give precedence to their personal vocations over their duties as public servants.

UNDOUBTEDLY THIS costs the legislature the services of many good officeholders every year, both those who do not seek positions in the legislature because of its interference with their duties and those who leave for much the same reason. Perhaps it is time to take another look at the legislature to ascertain if some changes ought to be made. — Mankato Free Press.

GOP Campaign

Strategy Must Be Changed

By WILLIAM S. WHITE

WASHINGTON—The men responsible for directing the Republican congressional campaign in the new year are undertaking, perforce, a total reconsideration of their strategy now that Lyndon B. Johnson and not John F. Kennedy is to head the Democratic ticket.

How Mr. Johnson's succession to the presidency may affect the Presidential race itself is the subject of great disagreement.

One set of politicians considers him likely to be less strong nationally than would have been Mr. Kennedy. Another set argues that he will in fact be the stronger. The theory is that while he may not run relatively so well in the East and urban North, he will run much better in the South and West, and possibly the Midwest, and so wind up actually carrying more states than would the dead President.

THIS ESTIMATE assumes that while Johnson's Eastern and urban pluralities may be below what Kennedy could have expected, they will nevertheless be enough to win, whereas Southern and Western states more or less inevitably lost to Kennedy will be probable gains for Johnson.

Whatever the truth may be, in all this, there is no dispute in private among realistic politicians in both parties that President Johnson will make the task of the Congressional Republicans far harder than it would have been. President Kennedy himself recognized his comparative weakness in the South and West — and it is precisely these two areas on which the principal Republican Congressional hopes had been centered.

THE REPUBLICANS had believed that with Mr. Kennedy heading the ticket, half a dozen Senate seats in the West, Midwest and South were clearly endangered for the Democrats. They do not now believe this; seats heretofore all but counted for the GOP are now seen as real battlegrounds.

Indeed, it was always the presumed strength of Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona in these sections — South, West and Midwest — which, from the viewpoint of the Congressional Republicans, had made him so attractive as a potential Republican Presidential candidate. It is no secret that those whose primary task is to try to elect a Republican Congress next year have always been in the van among the pro-Goldwater Republicans. This was not always because they personally agreed with him; it was because they thought he could do their own mission the most good.

IT WAS widely assumed that whatever his own fortunes might be nationally, Goldwater would pull heavily for the Republicans in Senate and House seats in these areas. The assumption is no longer automatic; nor is it now nearly so widespread. For Johnson's Southern and Western, and possibly Midwestern, ties — though it is a more iffy situation as to this latter area — are strong to about the degree that the late President's were weak.

At all events, the present national political situation illustrates with a rare and striking clarity the profound actual difference between a presidential and a congressional campaign. While both are of course conducted simultaneously, they present vastly different problems. They are alike only in the sense that technically they are fun together.

While a presidential campaign is truly national, a congressional campaign is really a series of largely independent localized actions, interconnected only in the loosest way.

TIME TO DECIDE, BARRY

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Many Americans Find Ways to Help Country

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — A lot of people during the year 1963 carried out John F. Kennedy's plea, "ask not what your country can do for you — ask what you can do for your country." They ranged from little people like Charlie Kohen, the Georgetown antique dealer, to the giant New York Central Railroad.

Here is a cross-section of some of them.

Charlie Kohen, who picks up everything from Indian arrowheads to the rare letters of famous statesmen, was able to locate one of the rarest rifles in American history — the first rifle presented to President Lincoln for use by the northern army in the Civil War. Kohen could have bought it cheap and resold it for $25,000. In fact, a Texas collector later offered more than that. Instead he arranged to have it presented to the Smithsonian Institution without charge to the government.

Earlier Charlie had presented to the Library of Congress the Calvin Coolidge letter collection, 9,000 of them, acquired by Coolidge's White House secretary, Ted Clark. Kohen had also arranged for the first airplane flown by Orville Wright to be given to the Smithsonian. This is what one man did for his country.

The New York Central Railroad — You don't generally expect a big, unwieldy thing like a railroad to be asking what it can do for its country. But on New Year's Eve, the Central made its famous Grand Central station available to a charity ball to raise money for mental health.

To put 1,000 guests in the rotunda dancing to the tune of Guy Lombardo's Royal Canadians in place of the usual commuters' sprint took a lot of organizing, and some of the railroad's operations men were skeptical. So were some of the concessionaires who at first figured on making a killing during the mental health ball, but learned they had to close down.

MOST CATERERS refused to handle the dinner because they were afraid of the cause they had no time to set up tables until after the main rush of railroad traffic eased late in the evening. Finally the Brass Rail took on the job. The waiters union would not waive its usual triple time charge of $60 a night, but otherwise almost everyone else chipped in to ask what they could do for their country by way of raising money for mental health.

Hostages to Bolivian miners — When Americans were held hostage by rebel Bolivian tin miners, the public did not know that the United Auto Workers used its backstage influence to help secure their release.

It happens that Walter and Victor Reuther have long known Juan Lechin, former head of the Bolivian miners union, now vice president of Bolivia. Lechin held the key to the miners' revolt. The Reuther brothers bombarded him with cables and phone calls. Finally all the hostages were released.

Pen Pals — people all over the world like to know about other people. The vast majority also believe in peace. The other day, Pravda's correspondent in Washington wanted to know how my mail was running regarding peace. I was able to report that it was running strong for the coexistence policy set by the late President Kennedy and followed by Lyndon Johnson. I gave Pravda a cross section.

TODAY IN NATIONAL AFFAIRS

Wise Decision Picking Warren

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — President Johnson made a wise decision when he designated Earl Warren, chief justice of the United States, to serve as head of a commission to investigate all the circumstances surrounding the assassination of the late President Kennedy. There has been some criticism expressed that a member of the Supreme Court should be asked to perform duties outside the scope of the court itself, but in this case the advantages far outweigh the disadvantages. For in Europe — especially in England, where the pronouncements of a chief justice are looked upon as almost sacrosanct — the selection of America's chief justice has already created a feeling of confidence that no party or faction will control the final summation of the facts.

All over the world there have, for instance, been questions raised as to whether Lee Harvey Oswald, the assassin, was tied up with some group inside or outside this country and whether all the facts have been revealed. In Europe, some absurd theories have been advanced that Oswald himself was promptly killed in order to suppress his connections with various groups.

Under these circumstances, it is fortunate that not only is the investigating commission to be presided over by the highest judicial officer in the land but also that representatives of both parties in Congress have been appointed to the commission. It will be noted, too, that J. Lee Rankin, who served as solicitor general during the Eisenhower administration, was appointed chief counsel of the investigating group. He is an able lawyer and is known for his objectivity in dealing with controversial cases.

What can the report of the commission do for America and the world? It can assemble the facts on which there is clear proof. Obviously, nothing will be gained by indulging in speculation as to the impact of national politics or factional strife on the disordered mind of an assassin. This doesn't come under the head of proof.

THE EVIDENCE that has been published thus far shows plainly that Oswald was a psychopathic case from early youth. He was in trouble in school at the age of 13, and psychiatric treatment was recommended then but not carried out. It will do no good to attempt to blame society as a whole for failing to have every psychopathic individual put behind bars or otherwise incarcerated.

It is unfortunate that there has been speculation in the press concerning the reasons why Oswald wasn't locked up after the FBI interviewed him last September. But there happen to be on file in the hospitals and institutions in the Dallas area the names of at least 4,000 persons who have been treated for mental troubles. Could the FBI have imprisoned them all for a few days? What then becomes of the legal rule that suspects cannot be held without arraignment?

NOR WILL it serve any good purpose to lay part of the blame to the fact that Mr. Kennedy himself permitted the parade route to be changed four days before the tragedy so that the procession would pass through an area of which the FBI and the Secret Service didn't approve because of dangers from persons in high buildings. The fact is that the President gives the final orders, and chief executives have always taken such chances. Only ten days ago many a member of the government services charged with protecting Mr. Johnson on his trip to the funeral of Herbert Lehman in New York City would have been greatly relieved if the President had decided not to go. An assassination happens so rarely that world-wide interest has naturally arisen concerning the motives of the assassin. Some superficial-minded persons in the clergy and in political life promptly accused the "extreme right" of having fomented the crime. The Russian press was quick to grab the idea and broadcast the charge that American "reactionaries" had plotted the deed. But in a day or so it became known that Oswald had been to Russia and had once been anxious to embrace communism. This afforded an opportunity for those on the "right" to turn the tables and accuse the "left," especially when it was disclosed that Oswald had actually tried to kill General Edwin A. Walker, who has been aligned with "right wing" causes.

SOME MEMBERS of Congress, along with prominent clergymen, have unwisely insisted that "hate" waves produced the assassination. But it is hard to accept such a thesis about someone who has been on both sides — one day for Russia and the next day against. Such a person apparently didn't really know what he was doing. The more evidence comes in, the more it appears that a mentally unbalanced man with a fascination for marksmanship bought a rifle by mail, began practicing with it, and eventually decided to kill someone riding in an automobile in the vanguard of a street procession.

Government agencies here have collected all the facts available. They will be made public in due time by the Warren commission. This will give the world the truth for the sake of history. The report will be intensively read by governments everywhere. It is fitting, therefore, that the document should bear the signature of the chief justice of the United States.

To Your Good Health

Questions To Your Answers

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M. D.

Dear Dr. Molner: What is the difference between diverticulosis and diverticulitis?

The "osis" means that an out-pouching exists, usually in the lower bowel. If it becomes inflamed, the result is the "itis" form. Just having the "osis" is rarely of much consequence to you; the "itis" needs attention.

Dear Dr. Molner: I am a woman in my middle 80's. About two years ago I noticed a swelling on the side of my neck under my left ear. The doctor said something about glands and told me not to worry.

It has now gotten larger and I am concerned, but I would hate to have anything done at my age. — S. L.

The first swelling would not necessarily mean very much, but the continued enlargement merits attention regardless of age. Removal of the gland (biopsy) is not a serious procedure and will be invaluable in making an exact diagnosis. If your doctor deems it necessary, consult him. You should not be upset over having anything done at your age.

NOTE TO D. S.: There is hardly any difference in vitamin content between fresh orange juice and freshly mixed frozen orange juice.

Wisconsin Has 13 Deaths on First '64 Day

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Optimism resulting from a reduction in traffic deaths in Wisconsin last year was shattered New Year's Day by the grim toll of 13 persons killed on state roadways on the first day of 1964.

The deaths raised to 16 the total in Wisconsin during the New Year holiday period, and contrasted with a total of five on the first two days of 1963. The toll for all of last year was 902, down substantially from 1962 figure of 955.

Donovan Miller, 22, of rural La Crosse, died early Wednesday as a car overturned on Highway 33 about five miles from La Crosse. He was thrown from the auto, which rolled over on him.

Mrs. Barbara Tobin, 23, a former Marshfield resident who recently moved to Milwaukee, and Patrick O'Connell, 19, of Appleton, were killed Wednesday night in a Wood County crash involving four autos. Five others were injured, including Mrs. Tobin's husband, Ronald, 21, and their 18-month-old daughter.

Police said two autos had been involved in a minor crash on Highway 10 outside Milledore. The investigating officers said O'Connell's car nicked one of the stalled cars, swerved and crashed head-on into the Tobin auto.

Mrs. Katherine Becker, 59, and her daughter, Mrs. Susan K. Gehri, 27, both of Janesville, were killed at 1 a.m. Wednesday in a two-car crash in Janesville.

Five minutes later, Mrs. Avis M. Crotty, 49, of New Berlin was killed when a car driven by her husband crashed into an empty car left without lights on a Waukesha County road.

Milton Pfeiffer, 43, of Kohler, was killed at 2:13 a.m. Wednesday when struck by a car in Sheboygan. Police said he had avoided a southbound car and leaped into the path of one going in the opposite direction.

A Racine man, Edward J. Murphy, 68, was killed about the same time when he was struck by a car while crossing a downtown Racine street.

Separate accidents killed two 19-year-old youths before dawn in Milwaukee Wednesday.

Paul Gnas of Milwaukee died when a car in which he was riding climbed a median strip on Milwaukee's South Side and hit a light pole. Thomas Cope land of Cary, Ill., died when the car in which he was a passenger hit a tree after crossing the median strip on a highway in northwestern Milwaukee County.

Harold H. Eid, 38, of Bayfield died early Wednesday as his car left a road two miles east of Bayfield and overturned four times while rolling 410 feet.

Robert P. Koebe, 19, of Merrill suffered fatal injuries when the car in which he was riding left a Merrill street and overturned.

Kenneth Beauchamp, 16, of Eau Claire died Wednesday after being struck by a car on a street just outside of Eau Claire's west limits.

The last reported victim of 1963 was Harold Bower, 75, retired treasurer of Employers Mutual Insurance Co. of Wau-

Big Jet in Landing Mishap

BOSTON (AP) — A Convair 440 jet, carrying 71 persons and crippled by a collapsed landing gear, skidded on a runway, spun around and came to rest on a wingtip Wednesday night. None of the 63 passengers and eight crewmen was injured. A Trans World Airlines spokesman said damage to the plane was minor.

Snow and sleet had fallen intermittently during the day.

The plane had made stops at Chicago and New York.

Hundredweight Urged as Unit in Grain Trade

By OVID A. MARTIN Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A move will be started in some states in 1964 to get the hundredweight adopted as the standard unit for trading in grain. The bushel is the unit now used almost exclusively.

The American Farm Bureau Federation, in its recent meeting in Chicago, urged its 49 state Farm Bureau organizations to sponsor legislation in their states to make such a change. Some states require use of the bushel as a trading unit.

Hence, before the hundredweight could be substituted for the bushel nationally, state laws establishing the bushel as the legal unit would have to be changed.

The Agriculture Department considered a proposal several years ago to use the hundredweight unit rather than the bushel in its various operations. It decided against a change largely because of the conflicting state laws.

The bushel has come under criticism because of its lack of uniformity as to weight. A bushel of ear corn, for example, is defined at a weight of 70 pounds, a bushel of shelled corn at 56 pounds, cornmeal at 50, oats at 32, wheat at 60, sorghum grain at 56, barley at 48, rye at 56 and rice at 45.

To help get the proposed change into operation, the Farm Bureau convention recommended that the Agriculture Department begin immediately to publish important grain statistics in terms of both bushels and hundredweights.

Use of the bushel in measuring farm products is not as extensive as it was a number of years ago. The Agriculture Department has abandoned the bushel in the measurement of potatoes and sweet potatoes. It uses the hundredweight instead.

He was struck by a car as he crossed a street in front of his Wausau home Tuesday night.

Holiday period victims listed earlier were two Delavan executives, Jerome H. Matson, 44, and Malcolm E. McNamara, 36, who died in the collision of their car and a train in Delavan Tuesday.

Stockton Youths May Use Gym on Saturday Nights

STOCKTON, Minn. (Special) — Teenagers of Stockton school district will be welcome to use the gym of the elementary school here two Saturday nights a month as the result of a school board meeting Monday night.

A community playground between the village hall and the school also is in the planning stage.

Gerald Roberts, Marie Daniel, Lois Wadewitz and Harold Daniel represented the young people in asking permission to use the hall. The social evenings will be sponsored jointly by the village and school district. Two adults must be present as chaperones. Teenagers attending must be between 13-19. Guests from outside the district may attend by invitation only.

The youths will form a club and elect officers at their party Saturday, when Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Benicke will be chaperones.

Mayor George Hinton, Mrs.

Benicke and Joe Daniel attended the board meeting as a committee appointed at the annual village meeting to discuss tentative plans for a ball-diamond, playground, equipment and a small picnic area. An insurance representative will be invited to the Jan. 23 meeting of the village board to discuss the project further.

Cuban Army Busy With Sugar Harvest

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Havana Radio indicates the forthcoming sugar cane harvest has a higher priority on the Cuban army's time than today's Havana observance of Fidel Castro's fifth anniversary in power.

A broadcast Wednesday, monitored in Miami, said "we thought of saluting this anniversary with a military parade, but decided that to frighten the reactionaries wandering around, it would be best to hold a rally of workers and peasants."

YEAR OF MAYHEM

Thompson Case One of Several

By LEW FERGUSON
Associated Press Writer

ST. PAUL (AP) — Although the number of murders and homicides in Minnesota did not increase to any extent in 1963, it might have seemed like the "year of mayhem" to Minnesotans who kept up with the headlines.

Never before in history has Minnesota had so many highly-publicized slayings in one year.

The reason for this, believes State Crime Bureau chief Roy T. Noonan, was the sensational Carol Thompson murder case in St. Paul.

"With the Thompson case," he said, "everybody was looking at the other cases more and giving them more publicity. There was nothing unusual in the number of homicides this year."

The Thompson case topped them all, of course. Starting on March 6 when an intruder entered the fashionable St. Paul Highland Park home and killed Mrs. Thompson, that case dominated state news.

Daily headlines splashed details of the case before readers once her husband, T. Eugene Thompson, went on trial in late October accused of masterminding the plot.

Interest in the case continues as Thompson's attorneys maneuver in court to appeal the guilty verdict which placed Thompson in Stillwater State Prison under life sentence.

The case undoubtedly will continue to attract attention for years. In January, Norman Mastrian — the alleged go-between in the killing — will go on trial in St. Paul, also for first degree murder. Following that, Dick W.C. Anderson, the admitted actual slayer, also will be tried for first degree murder.

Another sensational case was that of Mary Louise Bell, 15-year-old babysitter found dead of more than 30 stab wounds in Minnehaha Park in south Minneapolis last Feb. 27.

Ronald Steeves, 19, is serving a life term in Stillwater Prison after being convicted of murdering Mary Louise. He was afraid she would tell her parents that Steeves and the girl's sister still were seeing each other after the parents had forbid it.

Early in September, two little Minneapolis girls — 5-year-old Melissa Ann Lee and 4-year-old Barbara Ann Foshaug — were reported missing one Saturday night. Three and a half weeks later, on Oct. 1, their bodies were found in a wooded area of suburban Plymouth Village. Police still have not found the killer.

Last July 4, Ottertail County officers were called to a bloody scene in a Fergus Falls home. They found 21-year-old Velda Stangvik and her two children, Lynn, 3, and Scott Philip, 11 months, with their throats slashed. The husband and father, Philip L. Stangvik, 25, a mental patient, was indicted for first degree murder. He had been on leave from Fergus Falls State Hospital.

The Rev. B.E. Nyjordet, pastor of a small Lutheran church at Silver Lake, Iowa, was found dead of bullet and stab wounds in a game refuge near Albert Lea May 23. Sheriff's officers later secured a confession from Robert Eugene Chapman, 22-year-old unemployed laborer, who twice had been paroled from state correctional institutions. Chapman said robbery was the motive, but it yielded only $5 and some change.

The case of the St. Peter mother who suffocated her two young sons started in 1961, but wasn't concluded until this fall. Mrs. Margaret Ellen Adolphson pleaded guilty in the deaths of James Robert, 14 months, and Timothy John, 26 months, and was sentenced to 15-to-40 years.

Another such case involved Mrs. Inge Downer of St. Paul. Police said she smothered Steven, 5, and Gregory, 10 months, on Feb. 5, 1963, because she feared she was losing a divorce action.

In Luverne, Minn., a teen-age love triangle resulted in a slaying. Harvey Hitch Jr., 18, was convicted of second degree murder in the killing of 17-year-old Edward Ketterling over the attentions of a girl.

In Stearns County, officers said Henry Tretter shot his wife and two children to death Feb. 3, then fatally wounded himself. A south Minneapolis altercation this month left a policeman dead. James Hendricks was cut down by a volley of pistol shots as he entered an apartment where a shooting had been reported. Auburn Hare, 32, who was wounded in the gunfire, still is held.

At Faribault, Minn., two 17-year-old high school seniors were involved in the strangling death of Rolene Madison, also 17. Indicted by a Rice County grand jury were Ray Van Straaten and Leslie Hammond. Officers said the girl was pregnant, and allegedly asked one of them to marry her. Her body was found in a shallow grave.

Wife Busy Painting Furniture

By JOY STILLEY
NEW YORK (AP) — I may not be an artist, but I certainly am a painter.

I don't paint still life, though, or landscapes or abstracts or even portraits. I paint furniture.

My husband isn't surprised anymore to find that the chest of drawers which was an unobtrusive gray when he left for work has become shiny black by the time he returns home.

I have to restrain myself in redecorating the living room, because upholstery and paints aren't very compatible, but I did once change a gray chair into a green one with a fabric spray.

In the rest of the house anything is fair game. When I get in a painting mood everything from door knobs to switch plates are likely to take on new and strange hues.

When my daughter decided that she had outgrown her pink room and wanted something more sophisticated as befitting her 13 years, I was really beside myself with enthusiasm.

Out came the spray can and on went the paint. At present everything from her desk to her television set is white, flecked with gold, including a few things which looked better in their natural state, such as a shelf full of books and my hair, both now speckled.

As for the walls, she decided they should be turquoise.

After I found out that the paint I was using was the kind that will cover anything, there was no stopping me. Every object in the room which wasn't white became turquoise.

As for my son's belongings, his bookcase, chest and desk started out a cheery bright red, but as he grew older I altered them to gray when his walls were gray, and to sandalwood when the room was repainted that color.

Hardly a piece of furniture in the house is so poor that it can boast only one coat of paint. But I'm sure the laundry hamper I've had most of my married life can claim the record.

It was pink when I got it. I made it a nice clinical white. Then I went through a phase of having the bathroom color scheme tones of gray and black. The hamper spent a year or so in mourning, but finally I decided to brighten things up with yellow towels—and a yellow hamper.

Recently there was a little paint left when I finished my daughter's room, and it seemed like a shame to waste it. So now that hamper is turquoise.

$94,000 Phone Job Set at Fountain City

FOUNTAIN CITY, Wis.—General Telephone Co. of Wisconsin has announced a $94,000 improvement project at the Fountain City exchange, which it purchased in August from Buffalo County Telephone Co. for $180,000.

According to R. A. Bohling, Galesville, manager here, additional central office equipment costing $27,300 will be installed in the first quarter of next year.

ALSO TO BE completed in the first quarter will be a completely new cable from Fountain City to Bluff Siding to Winona. This will cost about $50,000.

This cable will provide additional extended area (free service) circuits to Winona and facilities to provide a graded service to Bluff Siding customers.

At the time the cable is installed Bluff Siding customers will become part of the Fountain City exchange and will be offered their choice of 4-party, 2-party or 1-party residence service, and 2-party and 1-party business service.

"As present customers in the Bluff Siding area are served out of the Winona exchange, with only rural service available, so with the additions, Bluff siding customers will have improved service," Bohling said.

DURING the third quarter of 1964 a new cable will be placed from Fountain City to the Cochrane exchange boundary for additional extended area (free service) circuits to Cochrane. The cable will be large enough to deload some of the rural lines in the north part of the Fountain City exchange.

The cost of this improvement will be $17,500.

BUSINESS MIRROR

Over-Counter Prices Vary

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—The price paid for a stock on the huge over-the-counter market—OTC—can vary in several ways. A dealer may pay a wholesale price for it, while the public pays a retail price, which is the wholesale price plus some additions. And these can be figured more than one way. If your broker acts as an agent, he buys the stock for you at the best wholesale price he can get at the time by phoning around to other dealers and consulting a wholesale listing he gets every morning. Then he adds on a commission, and this also can vary among brokers. If your broker acts as a principal, he presumably carries active OTC stocks in inventory and sells you one plus a markup as he determines. The National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.—NASD—set up by Congress in 1939 to regulate its more than 4,000 member dealers operating in the OTC, keeps an eye in a general way on both the commissions and the markups charged and also on publishing of OTC retail price ranges for the guidance to the public. The OTC is much larger, both in number of issues available for trading and in volume of sales, than the nation's formal stock exchanges where only listed stocks can be bought and sold and where listing is subject to strict rules.

But some of the large brokerage firms charge commissions for OTC trading comparable to those prescribed by the nation's formal stock exchanges. Others may charge commissions that range higher than this, especially for the lower-priced stocks, of which there are an abundance among the OTC's some 40,000 issues available, nationally or regionally, for purchase by the public.

A Securities & Exchange Commission study group reporting this year on many phases of the securities market noted of the OTC: "Principal markups ordinarily run higher than agency commissions and they are even higher in so-called riskless transactions which constitute a substantial proportion of retail transactions."

A deal is dubbed riskless when a dealer sells as a principal to his customer—charging the wholesale price plus his particular markup—but at the same time buys similar shares in the wholesale market. Thus he avoids the risk of actually carrying a large inventory, although he appears to be selling from such an inventory and acting as a principal for profit. Brokers can get wholesale price lists from a private organization, the National Quotation Bureau. It collects most of the quotations by telephone as dealers report at what prices they'll buy or sell specified issues—known as bid and asked.

The NASD says that most of its dealer members are ethical and abide by its standards for a fair markup or commission. It also says it's only fair to the smaller dealers that the wholesale, or insider, bid and asked list be kept private, while the retail price list is made public. The argument: the small dealer couldn't afford the lower markup a big firm might charge and such publicity could force the smaller ones to the wall.

Critics of the NASD system contend that the public should know at what price an issue actually was traded. The argument could reach Congress if it takes up recommendations for new regulations for the securities markets in general.

Scent of Roses Lingers Over Pasadena Today

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—The scent of roses lingered over Pasadena today from the millions of blossoms that gilded floats in the annual New Year's Day Tournament of Roses parade. The flower-bedecked floats, marching bands and horses in gleaming trappings drew more than 1.5 million persons to the city. The parade also was televised nationally.

Former President and Mrs. Eisenhower were in the lead in a gleaming white convertible. He was grand marshal and a special guest at the Rose Bowl football game afterward.

Curbside watchers, including the celebrities in VIP boxes, basked under sunny skies and temperatures which soared into the 80's. It was the first Rose parade for astronaut Col. John H. Glenn Jr. and his family. Other special guests were Chief Justice Earl Warren, former California governor, and Senate majority leader Mike Mansfield, D-Montana.

Sponsors estimated 10 million blossoms decorated the floats which they estimated cost $750,000.

William Stern, Mr. Republican Of N.D., Dead

FARGO, N.D. (AP)—Funeral services will be held Friday for William Stern, a director of Northwest Airlines who also was widely known in business, veterans' and Republican circles. Stern, 77, died Wednesday at Rochester, Minn., where he had been under medical care about six months.

Stern, virtually "Mr. Republican" in North Dakota, was a former national GOP committeeman and attended four national conventions.

He was a founder of the Fargo American Legion post and was so influential in veterans' affairs a national magazine once rated him as one of the "ten king-makers" in the American Legion.

Stern had been president of Dakota National Bank in Fargo since 1934 and was president or vice president of three real estate firms and a men's clothing store.

Double Anniversaries Celebrated By Two Houston County Sisters

EITZEN, Minn. (Special) — Two sisters who were married in a double wedding ceremony Dec. 23, 1913, celebrated their golden wedding anniversaries during the holidays. The daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. A n d r e w Myhre, Wilmington Township, who grew up in Houston County, were married at the home of their parents.

Although they were not together for their celebration, possibly because of the ill health of Mrs. Oscar L. Roble, Eitzen.

each of their families feted them at parties.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Fossum, former residents of Spring Grove, Minn., and Minneapolis, celebrated their anniversary in Santa Barbara, Calif., where they lived since 1947.

Open house at their home was given by their children: Lt. Col. Adolph Fossum, Mount Pleasant, Mich., and Miss Kathryn Fossum, Honolulu, Hawaii. Present were their three grandchildren, a granddaughter and twin

Mr. and Mrs. Roble were honored at a Christmas Day dinner at their home. Present were their children and spouses: the Amos Moens, Platteville, Wis., the Lester Buchholtzes, Eitzen; the O. Lloyd Robles, Edina, Minn., and the Gordon Robles, Spring Grove. The Robles have 12 grandchildren.

The Robles lived on a farm in Wilmington Township until 1950, when they moved to their present home in Eitzen.

Mary Jo Berger Becomes Bride Of Neal Lang

The wedding of Miss Mary Jo Berger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilmen Bergh, Hixton, Wis., and Neal C. Lang, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lang, 467 Kansas St., took place at High Noon Saturday at St. Pius X Catholic Church, Rochester. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Barnard Mangan officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of peau de soie, styled with a scoop neckline trimmed with seed pearls. The fitted bodice had elbow-length sleeves and the A-line skirt extended into a chapel train. Her veil was held by a crown of pearls and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

MRS. DAVID Joswick, Winona, was matron of honor. She wore a gold brocade gown with a bateau neckline, three-quarter length sleeves and a floor-length overskirt, caught up at the sides with tiny bows. She wore a hat of matching fabric in a leaf pattern with a veil. Her flowers were white pompons.

Kathleen Richter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Richter, Rochester, was flower girl. She wore a gold velvet frock, and carried rose petals in a gold shell basket. Bruce Lund, son of Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Lund, Rochester, was ring bearer.

Bergie Lang, brother of the groom, was best man. David Thomas, Steven Joswick and David Mertes were ushers.

A RECEPTION was held in the Royal Coach Room at Kahler Hotel, Rochester. The bridal dinner, given by the groom's parents, was held at Michel's Supper Club, Rochester.

Shower luncheons were given by Mrs. Richter and Miss Rita Cunningham Rochester, and Mmes. Esther Richter, Mertes and William Moore Winona.

After a wedding trip to New York City, the couple will be at home in Owatonna.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's School of Nursing, Rochester, and traveled extensively in Europe after her graduation. Her husband is a grad-

C. W. Thorpes Visit Grave Of President

A visit to the grave of the late President and a tour of the White House highlighted the Christmas vacation in Washington, D.C., of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Thorpe of 1122 W. Mark Street.

Visiting their daughter, the former Mary Ellen Thorpe, and their son-in-law, Raymond E. Kitchell, of Mount Vernon, Va., the Thorpes enjoyed their Christmas with their two granddaughters Cherie and Melinda.

They joined the thousands who daily pay homage to the late President John F. Kennedy, and waited in the long line at Arlington Cemetery to view the grave site. The Presidential Seal and the eternal flame were very impressive as were the four military hats from each service which adorn the grave, the Thorpes said.

Mr. Kitchell, who is on the staff of the executive office of the President, arranged for Mr. and Mrs. Thorpe to take a special tour of the White House. The tour included many rooms not normally shown to the public and a guide, a White House Secret Service Officer, who explained the works of art and antique furniture recently added to the White House by Mrs. Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. Thorpe were gone for 10 days.

Badger Road Jobs Listed

MADISON, Wis. — "Several of Wisconsin's most congested traffic corridors will be substantially improved in the coming year," said Harvey Grasse, chairman of the state Highway Commission in a review of projects planned and projects completed last year.

Among the projects to be improved will be completion of the 45-mile Wisconsin Dells-Tomah section of I-90-94 in Juneau and Monroe counties.

Among other major projects scheduled for 1964 completion on the rural state trunk system will be dual roadways for U.S. 12-16 at Tomah.

Projects in progress are the Mississippi and Black River crossings for I-90 in La Crosse County.

Among major projects completed last year were relocation of U.S. 14 in Vernon County, a main artery from La Crosse to Madison and points south.

"All the projects together for both 1963 and 1964 and beyond add up to less than 300 miles," Grasse said, "barely two percent of our total of nearly 12,000 miles of state trunk highways."

Carlsbad Caverns, in New Mexico, were discovered in 1901 by Jim White, a cowpuncher.

Beef Prices Bidding for Shopper Dollar

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Beef prices are low this week-end and this bodes well for price prospects in the coming year.

Cattle prices are at their lowest in almost a decade. This encourages supermarkets to feature roasts and steaks as bargains extra often.

Among the specific cuts being promoted are ribs of beef, chuck and rump roasts and stew meat.

Pork products also are featured this weekend, though marketings have begun to taper off. Smoked hams, picnics and bacon are among the attractions, with loin roasts highlighted in some markets.

In 1964, pork prices are likely to average a little higher than in 1963 because consumption is growing a little faster than production.

Veal and lamb prices are likely to run a little higher in 1964 too, industry sources estimate.

Production of broiler-fryers is up, which should bring lower prices in the weeks to come.

Egg prices are currently a little below year-ago levels and are likely to continue relatively lower for the months to come, thanks to a boost in production.

Supplies of fresh and canned vegetables will be somewhat smaller this year than a year ago, but there's a record supply of frozen vegetables on hand.

This weekend, fresh vegetable attractions include potatoes, yellow onions, cabbage, mushrooms, turnips, sweet potatoes and celery.

A visit to the grave of the late President and a tour of the White House highlighted the Christmas vacation in Washington, D.C., of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Thorpe of 1122 W. Mark Street.

Visiting their daughter, the former Mary Ellen Thorpe, and their son-in-law, Raymond E. Kitchell, of Mount Vernon, Va., the Thorpes enjoyed their Christmas with their two granddaughters Cherie and Melinda.

They joined the thousands who daily pay homage to the late President John F. Kennedy, and waited in the long line at Arlington Cemetery to view the grave site. The Presidential Seal and the eternal flame were very impressive as were the four military hats from each service which adorn the grave, the Thorpes said.

Mr. Kitchell, who is on the staff of the executive office of the President, arranged for Mr. and Mrs. Thorpe to take a special tour of the White House. The tour included many rooms not normally shown to the public and a guide, a White House Secret Service Officer, who explained the works of art and antique furniture recently added to the White House by Mrs. Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. Thorpe were gone for 10 days.

Badger Road Jobs Listed

MADISON, Wis. — "Several of Wisconsin's most congested traffic corridors will be substantially improved in the coming year," said Harvey Grasse, chairman of the state Highway Commission in a review of projects planned and projects completed last year.

Among the projects to be improved will be completion of the 45-mile Wisconsin Dells - Tomah section of I-90-94 in Juneau and Monroe counties.

Among other major projects scheduled for 1964 completion on the rural state trunk system will be dual roadways for U.S. 12-16 at Tomah.

Projects in progress are the Mississippi and Black River crossings for I-90 in La Crosse County.

Among major projects completed last year were relocation of U.S. 14 in Vernon County, a main artery from La Crosse to Madison and points south.

"All the projects together for both 1963 and 1964 and beyond add up to less than 300 miles," Grasse said, "barely two percent of our total of nearly 12,000 miles of state trunk highways."

Carlsbad Caverns, in New Mexico, were discovered in 1901 by Jim White, a cowpuncher.

Beef Prices Bidding for Shopper Dollar

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Beef prices are low this week-end and this bodes well for price prospects in the coming year.

Cattle prices are at their lowest in almost a decade. This encourages supermarkets to feature roasts and steaks as bargains extra often.

Among the specific cuts being promoted are ribs of beef, chuck and rump roasts and stew meat.

Pork products also are featured this weekend, though marketings have begun to taper off. Smoked hams, picnics and bacon are among the attractions, with loin roasts highlighted in some markets.

In 1964, pork prices are likely to average a little higher than in 1963 because consumption is growing a little faster than production.

Veal and lamb prices are likely to run a little higher in 1964 too, industry sources estimate.

Production of broiler-fryers is up, which should bring lower prices in the weeks to come.

Egg prices are currently a little below year-ago levels and are likely to continue relatively lower for the months to come, thanks to a boost in production.

Supplies of fresh and canned vegetables will be somewhat smaller this year than a year ago, but there's a record supply of frozen vegetables on hand.

This weekend, fresh vegetable attractions include potatoes, yellow onions, cabbage, mushrooms, turnips, sweet potatoes and celery.

WITH KNIVES AND FORKS
FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—Prisoners at Kentucky's two state reformatories will be able to eat their meals with a full set of utensils soon.

In the past, prison officials have refused to permit prisoners to use knives and forks at the table because of the security risk.

Corrections Commissioner Joseph G. Cannon, who took over the job recently, says there is little risk and has ordered knives and forks on the tables. It helps prisoners maintain human dignity, he says.

zone. He was arrested by police Tuesday at 11:40 p.m. on Highway 61 near the junction of Highway 43.

Bernice M. Walders, Arcadia, Wis., $10 on a traffic light violation charge. She was arrested Wednesday at 5:32 p.m. at 4th and Main streets.

Even Nikita In Love With San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Ah, San Francisco—cable cars, bridges, Chinatown, Fishermen's Wharf.

Even Soviet Premier Khrushchev fell in love with the city by the Golden Gate, spawned back in 1849 by a capitalist rush for gold.

Let's have a closer look.

Now about those cable cars: at the turn of the century, 13 lines sent dozens of them clucking and clanging over the hills. Today there are 27 cars in daily service. And they are one big financial headache.

All repairs and all spare parts have to be homemade. It would be cheaper to use buses. A hard core of defenders, known as the Citizens' Committee to Save the Cable Cars, stands firm at the turntables just daring anybody to junk them.

Bridges: More than 21 million car trips are checked off yearly at the toll gates of the 4,200-foot $35-million Golden Gate Bridge. More than 40 million are recorded over the 8¼-mile $77.2 million San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge. They're a life blood trade artery, no question about that.

But there's another side of the picture. They doomed a city approach which was relaxed and eye-gripping—the ferries. And patrolmen are busy trying to keep people from jumping off them. Since the Bay bridge opened in 1936 and the Golden Gate in 1937, the known total death leaps exceed 300. It's an unavoidable price of progress.

Chinatown? You haven't really lived until you've been packed like a sardine amongst thousands in narrow Grant Avenue, at the Chinese New Year parade—the man-toothed, cloth-covered, dragon, popping firecrackers splitting the ear drums.

Maybe you were among the couple of million who poured more than $115 million in tourist money into San Francisco this year. But if you stopped in a Chinatown store to pack off an oriental tidbit as a souvenir, turn it over and look at the bottom. The Red Chinese "bamboo curtain" being what it is, chances are you will read: "Made in Japan."

Over at Fishermen's Wharf, only the wharf stays the same. The fish and the men change. Time was when the bay shrimp were so succulent and distinctive that maestro Arthur Fiedler swore he could tell by the taste the difference between North Bay and South Bay shrimp. He can't any more. The bay shrimp vanished.

There's one other thing. If you are talking about a railroad, okay; but if about the city don't call it Frisco.

FIRE WATER
RICHMOND, Ky. (AP)—Water was partly to blame for the fire in Mrs. Woodrow Hinkle's auto.

She had left several jugs of water on the floor behind the front seat and several hours later smoke began pouring from the vehicle.

The Fire Department said sunshine filtering through the window and a water-filled jug ignited the carpet.

Cedar Creek Group Works for Watershed

Lamoille, Minn. — Flooding and erosion damage was estimated at more than $9,100 annually in the Cedar Creek area, it was revealed at a meeting of the newly organized Cedar Creek Watershed committee.

The committee reported there are 59 farms in the watershed drainage area with a total of 11,377 acres. Forty-seven percent of this land is cropland, 17 percent pasture and 36 percent woodland and other.

This figure did not include damage to county roads and damage to the creek itself by reducing fishing and recreation possibilities.

COMMITTEE members include Norton Hanson, Halbert Erickson, Donald Buege, Ralph Frick, Richard Frickson and Otto Braatz, all of Lamoille. They are assisted by William Sillman, county SCS work unit conservationist; Oliver Strand, Winona County agent, and Clinton Dabelstein, soil conservation district supervisor.

Drought Ended Just in Time

By FRANK BRUESKE
Daily News Farm Editor

Area farmers, after harvesting a bumper crop this year, sit back and look over the past months which almost saw their crops destroyed by drought.

Record yields were harvested in most areas during 1963. Farmers also took matters in their own hands: They voted down a federal government wheat referendum and some participated in National Farm Organization's movement to sell milk only to cooperating creameries.

THESE WERE the top stories that made headlines in the farm pages during the year 1963.

In July area farmers were wondering if there would be any harvest. It was dry—real dry. The second crop of hay hadn't started to grow, corn was wilting under the sweltering sun, and pasture grass for livestock grazing was short. Peter Beir, Trempealeau County agent, reported: "We need rain soon, especially on the light soils or the crops will be affected. Continued dry weather will hurt crops."

But the rains came and turned what could have been a very poor year into one of the best crop yielding years on records.

THE NFO, IN AN attempt to secure better milk prices for the farmers, attempted to sign master contracts with area creameries for higher milk prices. When creameries didn't sign, NFO members threatened a haul their milk to creameries with NFO contracts, and many of them did.

Friday, Sept. 13, a group of NFO farmers formed a blockade at the Marvin Moy farm, rural Mondovi, and prevented the milk hauler from taking milk from the farm. Moy sold milk to a Twin Cities Milk Producers Association, which had not signed a contract. The meeting was spontaneous and after a 2 1/2-hour discussion, the group disbanded and the milk hauler continued on his route.

The Mondovi Cooperative Creamery, for the second time within seven months, rejected the NFO milk marketing contract. NFO did sign contracts with several of the creameries. Other creameries said they would join if all creameries did.

FARMERS TOLD the federal government what they thought about wheat controls when they voted it down in a nation-wide election in June. Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman had predicted the defeat of the plan would result in chaotic wheat marketing conditions.

Wheat farmers in the Winona area followed the Midwest voting trend as a majority of the voters approved the wheat referendum but failed to reach the two-third majority needed to pass the program.

Chickens at Blair, considered one of the top egg-producing centers in Wisconsin, suddenly look a back seat in June as the Preston Cooperative Creamery remodeled its building and changed into a cheese producing plant. The plant today employs about 75, and processes more than 600,000 pounds of fresh milk daily into more than 60,000 pounds of Wisconsin Cheddar cheese.

Egg production in the area has about stayed the same but cheese was the talk of the town last summer.

Farm girls were in the limelight during 1963. Carol Lynn Meyers, 19, a Wilson 4-H'er, was named Winona County Dairy Princess. Ruth Sherry, 18, Houston, was named Houston County Princess; Marion Stehr, Lake City, won the Wabasha County title and Mary Miller, 17, Granger, captured the Fillmore County title.

Miss Miller, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miller, went on to capture the Region 10 Dairy Princess title and competed in the state contest during the Minnesota State Fair.

THE COUNTY fairs took their share of the headlines during 1963. The Winona County Fair captured a new look this year, changing to a free gate in hopes of drawing a crowd.

And it did. More than 32,000 people poured through the gates, the largest crowd in the history of the fair, almost doubling the old record. A large carnival, a top recording star, a talent show and a thrill show billed this year's fair as one of the best ever.

The fair lost money, but much of the money was put into improvements on buildings, grandstand and race track. Warren Magnuson, Winona, 1963 fair board president, recently handed the reins over to Russell Renfrow, St. Charles, who will head the association during the next year.

All area fairs gave the 4-H'ers a chance to "Show their best," as they competed for top honors with their projects.

DURING JULY grasshoppers reached a crop-damaging point, the extension service reported. Fifteen hoppers per square yard will eat 50 percent of the forage and 35 per square yard will consume everything. Some fields in Trempealeau County were found with more than 40 hoppers per square yard.

Dr. J. P. Skroch, Arcadia, Wis., a mushroom hunter, discovered a monster that weighed 18 pounds, one of the largest ever found in the area.

In Winona County Dennis Kluever, assistant county agent, resigned in June. He was replaced in November by John Halvorson. Pauline Poehler, Buffalo County home agent, resigned in June to enter the Lutheran Bible Institute at Minneapolis in preparation for the Mission field. Mrs. Lowell Doenier, Independence, was hired as a part-time replacement.

George Schwartz, assistant Wabasha County agent, resigned this fall to continue his education. Allen E. Hangartner, Buffalo County 4-H agent, resigned his position in December to accept a position with the U.S. Food Department at Detroit.

SOIL CONSERVATION progress was made during the year as contracts were let on the Rose Valley Watershed near Alma. Hearings were held on watersheds in the Cedar Valley area, the Zumbro River and Crooked Creek areas. Progress is continuing on these sheds. The Garvin Brook shed proposal was revived.

The Burns-Homer-Pleasant Soil and Water Conservation District, the first one set up in an eight-state area, was honored by the Winona District Oct. 21. Members of the original board attended the banquet.

Two area Future Farmers of America received the highest award obtainable at the national convention at Kansas City.

Walter Nahrung, Lewiston, and Joseph Schieber, Caledonia, were presented with the American Farmer Degree. It was the first time in eight years a Winona County FFA'er received the honor.

WORLD SCIENTISTS continued their efforts to find bigger and better things for the world's farmers. And one of them, a German scientist, discovered this summer that stresses and strains of modern life are showing up in the hog lots. Yes, hogs are now getting stomach ulcers.

Eleva Herd in Top 5 Wisconsin Producers

WHITEHALL, Wis. (Special) — Athol and Florence Jackson, Eleva, have reached their DHIA goal by owning one of the top five dairy herds in the state of Wisconsin.

Their 32 Holstein cows in 365 days averaged 14,778 pounds of milk and 632 pounds of butterfat with a 4.3 test.

THEY ALSO placed second in the five highest producing cows by breed and age groups in the junior 4-year-old class, according to the DHIA Class Leader Directory for the state. One of their Holstein cows in 305 days produced 17,050 pounds of milk and 674 pounds of butterfat with a 4.0 average test.

Cordell Herbert, Trempealeau County DHIA supervisor, says Jackson has had the top herd in the county since 1961. His yearly rolling herd average has been over 600 pounds of butterfat every month for the last 12 consecutive months. Every cow in the herd displays both high production and outstanding dairy type. Mastitis is practically unknown in the Jackson herd. Athol started artificial breeding in 1947 and has not had a bull on the farm since.

The Jackson farm was home-steaded by his grandfather, John Jackson, about 90 years ago. The elder Jackson, who came from Dane County, was reportedly the first settler in the territory, and built the first house and barn in Eleva, located where the post office is now.

The farm consists of 360 acres which Athol rented from 1929 to 1936 when he purchased it. He uses no outside help except during the haying season. A good quality haylage is the main roughage fed the cattle, plus a 13 percent dairy ration using home grown corn and oats.

Crop Predicted Record Broiler

MADISON, Wis. — The nation's output of broilers has been climbing fast ever since 1946, and another record is in sight for 1964, according to W. P. Mortenson, University of Wisconsin agricultural economist.

United States broiler production passed the two billion mark in 1963, almost six times the production average for 1945-49, says Mortenson. Even greater production in 1964 can be expected due to a large hatchery supply flock. The bulging supply of hatching eggs has lowered broiler chick prices. Growers were paying $9.92 per hundred for broiler chicks in October 1963 compared with $10.90 in October 1962.

Pressure for increased broiler output may depress prices enough to discourage some growers from expanding production. Mortenson expects larger beef supplies to compete with poultry meats and hold down broiler prices.

Slightly higher feed prices can also be expected to restrain broiler production. Even so, per capita consumption of chicken may exceed the 30.6 pounds per person consumed in 1963. Broilers account for about 87 percent of the total chicken meat consumed.

An increase in exports to Common Market nations cannot be expected, but exports to other countries may be stepped up, says Mortenson.

Agriculture Dean Cites Need for Rural Education

ST. PAUL, Minn. — Rural people may need to change many of the concepts regarding higher education, says Sherwood O. Berg, dean of the Institute of Agriculture at the University of Minnesota. He points out that youth must be made aware of skills needed in a highly integrated economic society for successful employment.

Historically, a low proportion of rural youth has gone to college — only 28 percent of the males and 26 percent of the females from rural farm backgrounds. This compares with 56 percent of urban males and 43 percent of urban females who seek higher education.

Gene R. Snyder New Watkins Dealer

Gene R. Snyder of Lamoille, Minn., announces that he is the new Watkins Dealer serving the Townships of Homer, Richmond, Wiscoy, Pleasant Hill, New Hartford and Dressbach in Winona County and Houston, Mound Prairie, La Crosse and Hokah in Houston County.

As the new Watkins Dealer in this locality, Mr. Snyder will bring his "Shopping Center That Comes to Your Home" to families in La Crosse, Hokah and other communities as well as 1,000 farm families in this area.

Mr. Snyder, together with his wife and six children, reside 2 miles southeast of Pickwick in Little Trout Valley.

Before taking this position with Watkins, Mr. Snyder attended Ohio State University majoring in Dairy Science. He has owned and operated a dairy farm in eastern Ohio for the past seven years.

According to Mr. Snyder, he is ready to supply all families with a complete line of nationally advertised consumer products, multi-vitamins and mineral supplements, medicines, insecticides, animal health products, feeds, supplements, splices, extracts and other high quality Watkins Products.

Mr. Snyder will be calling on customers soon; however, if there are any urgent needs he may be contacted by telephone by calling Dakota 443-2121 or by writing to him at Lamoille, Minn.

NASON ON EDUCATION

Junior High Years Tough

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed. D.
Professor of Education,
U. of Southern California

Junior high years are the years of decision. And unless some planning takes place during the seventh or eighth grades, the ninth grade comes as a shock!

At this point, whether a student goes to college may depend on the kind of courses he chooses.

In Europe, a student's educational future is mapped out by the state or the school authorities. In the United States, all paths are left open to those who can qualify.

Junior high pupils who choose goals and work out plans for their future in cooperation with their parents are happier and more successful than those who drift. Drifting leads to lack of responsibility, poor mental health and lower grades.

GOALS NEED not be unchangeable. In fact, our flexible society necessitates shifting of aims throughout life.

At the start of junior high, a student loses the guidance of teachers who have had him in charge throughout the day. He now needs a new teacher each class period.

These new teachers are primarily concerned with subject matter. Overall organization of the day's work is in the hands of the student for the first time. Unfortunately, these changes come suddenly. For pupils who are, at the most, two months older than when they left the close supervision of the sixth-grade teacher. Now they are expected to be quite mature and make important decisions on their own.

There is still another hazard. At this age they are often too influenced by what the gang thinks. Then, too, they see only the immediate situation. These things are normal at this age. Faced with all these new responsibilities of planning for the present and future, the student needs the help of his parents. Here are some things parents should keep in mind:

THEY SHOULD expect their children to be goal-minded. Schools provide counseling and guidance, aptitude tests and interest inventories to help students choose goals best for them.

Homework becomes more important. An interested parent can urge students to plan their homework and insist that the student take this responsibility seriously.

A review of a student's work and/or a conference with the teacher may bring to light deficiencies in learning skills and know-how. If the student has gotten by with inefficient skills up to this point it would seem futile for parents to relax and assume that the school will now solve the problem without their help.

Schools cannot give the individual program guidance unassisted. Junior high children are not ready to make their own decisions as to selection of courses nor the allotment of study time.

Parents, students and teachers can solve the problem working cooperatively.

Closing Door Injures Fireman

NEW YORK (AP)—Just trying to be helpful, a 12-year-old fire buff closed the overhead door of a firehouse as a hook and ladder truck was leaving Wednesday night.

The door landed on the windshield of the rear driver's seat, injuring tillerman Joseph Almon, 36.

Firemen said the boy who tripped the lever closing the door often visits the firehouse. They called the incident an accident.

American car makers turned out 4,192 vehicles in 1960 but didn't start producing trucks until 1964 when they made 700.

New Envoy Seen For Argentina

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson plans to nominate Edwin M. Martin, a veteran Foreign Service officer, as ambassador to Argentina. The 55-year-old native of Dayton, Ohio, will succeed Robert McClintock, who, in turn, is expected to be appointed to another important post in the near future, a White House announcement said Wednesday.

Buses Run Despite N.Y. Strike Threat

NEW YORK (AP) — It was touch-and-go, but New Yorkers weathered another threatened strike against the city's subways and buses on New Year's Day.

The biennial New Year's Eve question, "Will they run or won't they?" wasn't answered until 4½ hours after the original strike deadline. They ran.

It was the third time since 1957 that Michael J. Quill, president of the AFL-CIO Transport Workers Union, and Transit Authority negotiators pulled a cliff-hanger.

The settlement also brought an agreement between two political foes. Democratic Mayor Robert F. Wagner and Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

The added cost of the new 2-year contract, estimated at $38.6 million to $42 million, will be absorbed by the city. Rockefeller will support legislation to authorize the transfer of some city assets to the Transit Authority and speed up reimbursements for electricity, among other things.

The fare will remain at 15 cents, at least for a year.

Quill dropped his chief demand, a 32-hour, 4-day work week, in return for a pay boost for the 35,000 workers.

David L. Cole, chairman of the mayor's transit labor board, said the employees will receive an 11-cent an hour raise in 1964, 6½ cents more on Jan. 1, 1965 and another 8½ cents on

Father of Five Slain in Row

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—Juan Alvarado, 30, the father of five children, was shot to death and his father wounded early Wednesday after an argument broke out at a New Year's party at the home of a friend.

Alvarado was killed by a single .22 caliber pistol bullet in the heart. His father, Herminio, 57, was in critical condition after being shot twice in the chest with the same weapon.

Police were holding a 28-year-old man they said had attempted to get Mrs. Juan Alvarado to go for an auto ride.

Ax Slayer Kills Two

SMALLWOOD, N.Y. (AP)—The killer, ax in hand, waited in a closet.

He heard his victims return home late from New Year's Eve parties, waited for them to finish coffee and go to bed.

At dawn he crept into a bedroom and chopped Joseph McAdams, 49, to death as he slept.

Next he went upstairs, where McAdams' daughter and a girl friend, Judith Meddough, 19, were sleeping in twin beds. He killed Miss Meddough with his ax and strangled Florence McAdams, 20, into unconsciousness, leaving her for dead.

Then he called police.

July 1, 1965. Fringe benefits to cost 7 cents an hour will be added Jan. 1, 1965, he said. Average pay under the old contract was $2.83 an hour for a 40-hour, 5-day week.

Russia, China Exchange Usual Holiday Greetings

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union and Communist China have exchanged their usual New Year's Day protestations of friendship — without a word about the bitter ideological dispute that strains their relationship.

Both greetings predicted the estranged allies would march together to new successes in 1964.

"The friendship between the peoples of China and the Soviet Union is everlasting and unbreakable," said the greeting from Peking.

The message was signed by Communist Chairman Mao Tse-tung, Premier Chou En-lai and other leaders. It was sent to Premier Khrushchev and President Leonid Brezhnev.

Man Killed in Silo Chipper

HANCOCK, Minn. (AP)—John H. Boon, 38, was fatally injured when he became caught in a silo chipper on his farm near this western Minnesota community Tuesday night. Authorities said he managed to get out of the silo but died shortly afterward.

BLAIR MAN HURT

BLAIR, Wis. (Special)—Orvin Stay is recovering from injuries received in a fall downtown. He dislocated a shoulder. Mrs. Archie Runnestrand, rural Blair, is a patient at Lutheran Hospital, La Crosse.

Pair Found Dead in Parked Auto

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—A man and woman were found dead in a car outside her suburban home Wednesday, the victims of accidental asphyxiation, the Hennepin County medical examiner's office reported.

The victims were Leslie Groves, 42, Minneapolis, and Mrs. Della Joan Nelson, 49, rural Orono, both divorcees. Authorities said they were found by her son, David, 16, who noticed the car's engine running.

Tomah Youth Killed in Kansas

JUNCTION CITY, Kan. (AP)—Army Spec. 4.C. Gary W. Kuehl, 21, of Tomah, Wis., who was stationed at Ft. Riley, Kan., was killed Wednesday when his car overturned after leaving icy U.S. Highway 77. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Kuehl of Tomah.

The first class of the United States Air Force Academy started training on July 11, 1955, at Lowry Air Force Base, Denver, Colo.

WHAT ELSE? FULTON, Ky. (AP) — When school pupil Diana Lewis suffered a fractured wrist. She slipped — on a banana peel. The International Banana Festival was held in Fulton, grade peel.

ROBERT C. RUARK

Let Younger People Vote

NEW YORK — The extremely slim margin by which the late President Kennedy squeaked to victory over Richard Nixon argues loudly in behalf of the value of the individual vote in the final mass result. And it is pretty well-established that Americans are considerably less fanatic about rushing to the polls than are people in some other democracies.

We do not hamper our voters with very much in the way of intelligence tests, and nothing at all that might reflect lack of knowledge of political process or the workings of a government. A lot of the ladies will vote for one candidate because he is cuter than the other boy; a lot of ladies will also vote against the other boy because they don't like the way his wife does her hair.

Ideally, the voter ought to know something about the issues at stake, as represented by various candidates, and he should be made to prove on paper that he is as capable of voting as of driving an automobile. The process doesn't work that way, more's the pity, and even the closing of the saloons on polling day doesn't improve the caliber of the over-all vote-caster.

It would seem to me then that the proposition to lower the voting age from 21 to 18

Ruark is sounder than it seems at first blink. A 21-year-old is not all that much smarter or experienced than an 18-year-old, and, as the Presidential commission on vote age recently pointed out, a great portion of the population is so far removed from the educational apparatus at 21 that their interest in public affairs has dwindled. Not everybody gets to wear a coonskin coat while acquiring political consciousness in college. So if you catch your voter young, say two years after his first hot rod, and make it easy for him to mark his ballot, he might be just a touch closer to habitual good citizenry than if he breathed the idle air of hiatus between high school and majority.

A SLIGHT revision of high-school curriculum might be useful here. It seems to me that all I learned of what we called "civics" was early in grammar school, and nobody at all hit me with any political indoctrination when I was old enough to understand what the business was all about.

Saying that the years of 17-18 are fairly average for high-school emergence, a really stiff cram course in the final year of pre-college education might pound a little knowledge of how the country's run into the most resistant skull. So far the anatomy of a nation's management has been largely lacking in middle education.

I am not endorsing the popular conception of tall-demonstrators who demonstrate noisily against things they know little about merely because demonstrations are popular in the spring of the year. But voting as a habit can be made more enticing if the voter cuts his political teeth on some of the more fascinating aspects of politics, good and bad.

SOME OF the seamier sides of current events could be made more entrancing, it seems to me, than the old standbys of Latin and Mr. Chaucer — at least for use in a modern age. We have come in the last few years to a highly political time — locally, nationally, and internationally — and I sadly fear the devotees of the idiot box fancy Westerns over political debate, even though they might just possibly wind up in a war because of the winds from the candidates.

We pay enough taxes now to where every man is really a portion to his government, as opposed to the old, slow days when it didn't make a great deal of difference who was in or who was out. I can truthfully say that I got into my junior year in college without knowing or caring anything at all about the machinery of government.

MR. ROOSEVELT's election changed that. I think for the first time the executive office established a truly personal contact with the faceless little man who is usually pictured clad only in a barrel and a bowler hat.

We're all in the government business now, taxed at source and hit over the head with the problems of the world as well as our own municipal middle with snowplows and garbage collection. If they're going to give the vote to 18-year-olds, it would be nice idea if they fed them a little indoctrination before the fact. You don't really have to be a mechanic to drive a car, but it's nice at least to know how to change a tire.

'Louie the Dip' Dies Broke

CLEVELAND (AP) — Louis Finkelstein — "Louie the Dip" to police officers throughout the country — is dead at 68. He died broke.

His body was found in his automobile Wednesday on Cleveland's east side. Doctors said he died of a heart attack.

For 50 years, Finkelstein pursued his career. He slowed down about 10 years ago when arthritis stiffened his nimble fingers. In 1959, he applied for relief.

Police Inspector Michael J. Blackwell said Finkelstein must have "stolen thousands of dollars in his lifetime, but he died penniless."

Finkelstein was arrested 120 times and served more than 10 years in prisons as the result of 20 sentences.

NO LOYALTY
NEW YORK (AP) — "Times have changed," says Chief One Arrow, a 67-year-old Cherokee who heads the United Association of American Indians.

The chief, a Brooklyn resident whose name for social security purposes is Jules Haywood, explains:

"You ought to see our little Indians at a cowboy-and-Indians movie. Every blessed one is rooting for the cowboys."

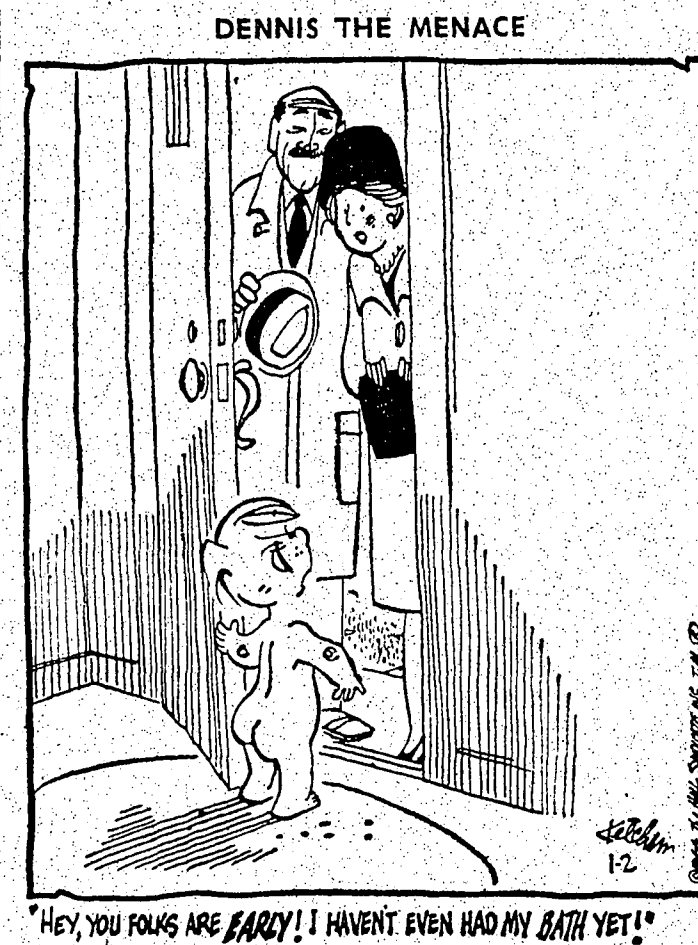

ROLY POLY SANTA
PITTSBURGH (AP) — Most men playing Santa Claus have to allow extra room in the costume for padding. Not so Charles Wolfe.

Before he could take the role of Santa at a shopping center in nearby Leedsdale where he's regularly employed, Wolfe had to have a special costume made at a reported cost of $150. Wolfe weighs 350 pounds.

Grabowski Rips Huskies to Give Illini 3rd Bowl Victory

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Rugged Big Ten champion Illinois still owns a perfect Rose Bowl record, riding to success on the shoulders of a brawny fullback for the third time in the granddaddy of all bowl games.

It was Jim Grabowski, a 207-pound sophomore who did it Wednesday, leading Illinois to a 17-7 come-from-behind triumph of Big Six titlist Washington.

To 100,000 fans, sun-drenched in 85-degree weather and countless TV fans, perhaps the first quarter injury of Washington quarterback Bill Douglas might have been the determining factor in the punting of the game award given by the Helms foundation.

It was not a game of spectacular offense and it had a lot of errors.

There were 10 fumbles, five by each team, and three stolen Washington passes. But it also had Grabowski ripping through the stubborn Huskies for 125 yards on 23 carries.

That alone wore down Washington, which led 7-3 at halftime, and won Grabowski the outstanding player of the game award given by the Helms foundation.

Assistant Coach Bill Tate won the same honor for his hero's role in Illinois' 40-7 Rose Bowl rout of Stanford in the 1952 game. Fullback Tate carried 20 times for 150 yards in that one-sided contest.

But Tate acknowledged in the gleeful Illini dressing room later:

"Grabowski was better than I was and maybe better than Julie Rykovich was in the 1947 Rose Bowl game."

In the 1947 Illinois 45-14 beating of UCLA, fullback Rykovich and Buddy Young shared outstanding player honors.

Douglas' severe wrenching left knee, coming after he guided Washington 41 yards on an opening drive, brought in still rusty quarterback Bill Siler.

Although a regular in the 1962 season, Siler had a tough time of it, with three interceptions, two of which were snagged by defensive star George Donnelly and led to both Illini touchdowns in the second half.

Donnelly's final fumble late in the third quarter came on the Illini 14, not only squelching the final Huskie threat but also precipitating an 85-yard Illinois scoring drive.

Siler took over for the injured Douglas and entered a second quarter touchdown drive, capped by Dave Kopay's seven-yard run. Illinois got three points back on Jim Plankert's 32-yard field goal, then intercepted a Siler pass in the third quarter to set up the go-ahead touchdown.

Donnelly picked off the pass and Mike Taliaferro eventually lobbed a pitch out to Warren, who dashed the final two yards. Grabowski, eating up time and yardage, rushed 11 times in the final drive before cracking over from the one.

REDMEN AT CONCORDIA SATURDAY

Warriors Gain Favorite Tag In Tournament

By BOB JUNGHIANS
Daily News Sports Writer

With a 4-6 season record, and its first win on the road under its belt, Winona State will head for Sheboygan, Wis., and the Lakeland College Holiday Classic Friday. And surprisingly enough, the Warriors are labeled with the favorite tag.

A quick glance at the records of the other three teams in the tourney shows why Winona is favored. Northland, which Winona State has already beaten once this season 99-89, is 0-7. Eau Claire State is 1-5, and the host school is 3-4.

THE WARRIORS will open against Northland and for the first time this season, Coach Bob Campbell has his starting lineup set. In the backcourt will be Dave Goede, 5-8, and Dave Meisner, 5-9. Handling the forward duties will be Gary Peterson, 6-0, and Darrell Schuster, 6-3, while Captain Lyle Penfuss, 6-5, has moved to the pivot position. That five went all the way in Winona State's thrilling 71-70 decision over Carroll in the Beloit Tourney last weekend.

"I think we've finally found a group that's going to get the job done," said Campbell. "We still had our lapses, but I think that was mostly because they were tired."

Campbell wasn't as positive about his defense. Saturday night, the Warriors used a zone for the first time, and they might throw the same thing at Northland.

"It has several things to offer," commented Campbell. "It cuts down on fouls, helps our fast break, and gives us a better advantage under the boards." Despite the apparent lack of size on the State quintet, Dr. Campbell feels that with a little more help from Schuster, the Warriors won't be hurting in that department.

WINONA STATE and Northland will open the tourney Friday night in a 7 o'clock game, while Lakeland and Eau Claire will battle in the night-cap at nine. The consolation game will be the first tilt Saturday night, while the championship playoff will be at 9 p.m.

After one swing at tournament competition, St. Mary's barges back into MIAC competition in hopes of ending a dismal four-game drought. The Redmen are 0-2 in the Conference, but are aiming to get back on the winning track at Moorhead Saturday night against Concordia. St. Mary's dropped both ends of its holiday competition at La Crosse, but Coach Ken Wiltgen was not discouraged after the tournament was over.

"The only trouble with a long losing streak is that the boys start doubting themselves," said Wiltgen. "But we played a real fine second half against Ripon, so we didn't come out of it feeling as badly as we might have."

THE REDMEN dropped a 75-68 decision to Ripon, but came back to outscore the Wisconsin team 42-38 in the second half, after trailing 37-26 at the end of the first 20-minute span.

Wiltgen felt his cagers learned something from the tournament. Jim Rockers, talented 6-7 pivot man, had the finest night of his career in the first game 94-79 loss to La Crosse. He poured in 33 points. Saturday night, freshman guard Jerry Sausser came into his own, hitting 16 points, and playing the entire game. In addition, outside shooting made its re-appearance.

"I'm not really worried about the losing streak," said Wiltgen. "We never get enthused over non-league games, and I know the boys have the ability."

RAMBLERS HOST PACELLI

Hawks, Cotter Face Big Tests

By GARY EVANS
Daily News Sports Editor

Neither of Winona's two high school basketball teams will have a chance to work off their holiday lethargy in easy fashion.

Both are confronted with giant tests Friday night.

Cotter offers the only court action on the home front when it plays host to the high-flying Shamrocks of Austin Pacelli at St. Stan's at 8 p.m.

Weber with 6-5 Roy Campbell at center and 5-10 Steve Sofia and 5-11 Jerry Rurice at guards.

Sofia is leading the team in scoring with 118 points. Johnson has 95, Weber 80, Campbell 54 and Rurice, who recently broke into the starting lineup, 21.

Top Central reserves will be 6-4 Steve Cline and 6-0 Jack Prietig. Prietig, an early season starter, has scored 72 points.

End Joe Mancuso of the Washington Huskies makes a leaping sensational catch of a Bill Douglas aerial in the Rose Bowl Wednesday, then almost lets the ball slip from his grasp (right) as an Illinois defender smashes into him. Mancuso held on and Washington scored a few plays later. (AP Photofax)

WINONA HIGH'S Winhawks will make the trip to La Crosse for a tilt with Central without Coach John Kenney, who is recuperating in Community Memorial Hospital after an asthma attack.

In Pacelli, Cotter will meet a team that rates as one of the finest all-around parochial squads in the area, according to Rambler Coach John Nett. "I saw them play De La Salle," said Nett. "They led in three quarters, before losing by five or six. They're a good tough group with good size. The center is their best player, but they're a tough all-around team."

The center the Ramblers will have to contend with Friday night is Chuck Von Feldt, a 6-5 senior who weighs 195 pounds.

Nett plans no changes in the starting lineup that has carried Cotter to eight victories in nine outings and a Cotter High Invitational Tournament championship.

To 6-5 center Mike Jerecek will fall the task of stopping Van Feldt. Bob Judge and John Nett Jr. will be the forwards with Rick Starzecki and Gene Schultz teaming in the back court.

Cotter, which worked out Monday and Tuesday before breaking to observe Wednesday's holiday, resumed practice this morning at St. Stan's.

Nett today offered this challenge to his team: "If we hustle and really work, we can beat them, but we can't goof off like we did against Lourdes."

Cotter gained its holiday tourney championship by spitting past Lourdes 32-26 Saturday night.

MEANWHILE, at Winona High, assistant coach Bob Lee has assumed command of the varsity because of Kenney's illness. To him goes the duty of trying to steer the Winhawks above the 500 mark.

The Hawks dropped their final two outings before vacation and take a 3-3 record into the game with Central.

The Red Raiders are riding the crest of a seven-game victory string and will field a starting lineup equal to the Hawks in height.

The forwards will be 6-3 Gary Johnston and 6-3 Craig

Texas Proves It's No. 1 in Nation

IN ORANGE BOWL 13-7

Nebraska Uses Muscle To Move Past Auburn

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Nebraska's big Cornhuskers, playing before an eager audience of American and National Football League scouts, muscled their way to a 13-7 victory over smaller Auburn in the Orange Bowl Game New Year's Day.

And when the final whistle blew, professional contracts were waved in the faces of numerous players, especially the prosized Cornhuskers—who had been forbidden until after the game from entering into negotiations in the play-for-pay leagues.

Nebraska needed all its muscle to save the win over Auburn against a fierce late surge led by Tigers quarterback Jimmy Siddle.

With two minutes to go, Siddle had the Tigers on the Nebraska 11 in a furious bid for a winning touchdown, but a fourth down pass was batted away and the Cornhuskers escaped with the first victory a Big Eight team ever scored over a Southeastern Conference foe in seven Orange Bowl games.

For a time, it appeared that Nebraska, the national champion rushing team, was going to use its 16-pounds-a-man weight advantage up front to crush the SEC runners-up.

On the second play, with a formation Nebraska designed for use in a short yardage situation, quarterback Dennis Claridge broke the bowl's record for a long run by speeding 68 yards to a touchdown.

Twice more in the first half, Nebraska thrust close to the Auburn goal to set up field goals by Dave Theisen of 31 and 36 yards. Up to then, with the Nebraska ends containing their wide runs, the Tigers hadn't made any kind of a threat.

But the second half was a vastly different story. Nebraska's awesome running attack began to crumble against the small but courageous Auburn line and Siddle finally found the way to get the Tigers moving.

Siddle hit Buck Waid with a 20-yard pass, then swept 13 yards wide to his left for the first touchdown, that put Auburn back into the game with only a six-point deficit.

Rips Middies In Cotton Tilt

DALLAS (AP)—Smirking and word-eating were the major activities in the vicinity of the Cotton Bowl today.

The satisfied smile was pasted on the face of national champion Texas.

If there was any doubt—and Navy, for one, had some—that the Longhorns were the No. 1 college football team in the land, the Texans removed it swiftly with a 28-6 trouncing of the Middies Wednesday.

The word-eating was not completely confined to Navy, although there haven't been so many red faces around the fleet since they laughed at Gen. Billy Mitchell when he said he could sink battleships with airplanes.

There were those who had called the Texas offense: "Left tackle, right tackle—and punt." And the ones who said that Texas "doesn't beat you, it bores you to death."

Coach Darrell Royal's Texas team came up with a fabulously resourceful offense, guided by a quarterback named Duke Carlisle.

Carlisle, whose real name is Emmett Augustus Carlisle III, took Texas 78 yards in six plays from the opening kickoff. That stunned the No. 2 ranked Middies almost as much as the way it was done.

Carlisle sent his runners into the line twice and then ran for 19 yards. Three plays later he threw to wingback Phil Harris on a play that covered 58 yards for a touchdown.

In the second quarter, Carlisle passed on first down from his own 37, again to Harris, again for a touchdown.

Then the Texas defense detached the football from Navy's Jolly Roger Staubach on the Navy 34, and Carlisle took the Longhorns in again. He scored this one himself on a keeper from nine yards out.

That made it 21-0 at the half and the 75,504 people sitting in 45-degree sunshine might as well have staged their game-end traffic jam early.

Carlisle played a little less than three quarters and established a Cotton Bowl record for

HARDIN HAS TROUBLES TOO

DALLAS (AP)—At the banquet following the Cotton Bowl game, Wayne Hardin was introduced as "the only Navy coach who ever has beaten Army five straight."

The red-haired Hardin smiled and said: "Don't forget that Navy has only lost two bowl games in history, and I was the coach both times."

Somehow They Didn't Meet Expectations

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It's about time for Utah basketball Coach Jack Gardner to start changing his tune.

The likeable coach of the Running Redskins had good reason for such pre-season comments as these:

"We know we have a long way to go."

"I can't be optimistic about this year compared with many others."

"We have to be considered in the role of underdogs."

Sure, it's very understandable. He had only one regular returning from last season's team, was loaded with sophomores and appeared to be hurting for size.

So now the Utes have an 11-1 record, finished their pre-conference season with a 87-68 upset of fourth-ranked Cincinnati Wednesday night, and are gunning for national recognition.

The swift, spirited Utes barged out to a 39-31 halftime lead, increased the margin to 32 points after intermission then fought off a Cincinnati rally that closed to within two points, 66-64, with less than two minutes to go.

Only a handful of games were scheduled Wednesday as the colleges took a deep breath from the rigors of the holiday tournaments before jumping into conference play.

In the only other major games Georgia edged Alabama 49-47, Louisville romped over Marquette 85-67, Rhode Island upset Memphis State 68-66 and Toledo routed Kent State 75-57.

Packers Look To Future, Ink 3 Draft Picks

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The Green Bay Packers, with one more game before closing out the fading National Football League season, devoted part of New Year's Day to looking to the future.

The Packers got signed contracts from two of their choices in the last collegiate draft, including their first pick—Nebraska's 247-pound tackle Lloyd Voss.

The Packers announced the signing of their fifth choice, tackle Steve Wright of Alabama's 12-7 winner over Mississippi in the Cotton Bowl at New Orleans.

The Packers also talked to Nebraska quarterback Denis Carlucci, who was drafted in 1962 as a future choice. He said, "I'll talk to the Packers soon. Maybe they'll give me some ideas I don't have now and I'll certainly listen." But he added dentistry still looks like a promising future.

Duke Carlisle, quarterback star in Texas' 28-6 victory over Navy in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas, said he planned to listen to offers by the Packers and the Kansas City Chiefs of the AFL.

The Packers have been in Miami since Monday, preparing for the NFL Nanner Up Bowl game with the Cleveland Browns on Sunday. The game is expected to draw a crowd of about 50,000, largest since the game was inaugurated in 1961.

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Carla Boeskin hit a home run and Gail Barret pitched a no-hitter, but the game is officially scored as a 1-0 forfeit to the other team.

The girls were recruited by coach John Tatum of the pee-wee league Lions when he found himself short of a nine-man team for a game against the Jackson squad.
