France to Recognize Red China

WASHINGTON (AP)—France has formally notified the United States that it intends to recognize Red China, authoritative sources said today.

The notification came through a normal diplomatic channel. The issue was discussed by Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Herve Alphand, the French ambassador, when the latter called on Rusk earlier this month.

There has been no formal reply to the French notification so far, but Rusk and his top aides in talks with Alphand made it clear the United States takes an extremely dim view of France's intended action.

President Charles de Gaulle has had the move under consideration for several months and the United States had made strenuous efforts throughout that time to persuade him not to go through with it.

Nevertheless the recent word from France has been that the question was no longer whether Red China would be recognized, but when.

France would be the fifth North Atlantic Treaty Organization country to recognize the Peking regime. The others are Britain, Denmark, the Netherlands and Norway.

Officials in Washington are reluctant to talk about the French notification and, in general, about France's intention, saying the official announcement should come from Paris.

Russ Jets Snoop Near U.S. Fleet

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Russian jet bombers and Soviet warships boldly snooped close to the U.S. carrier Hornet and six destroyers during anti-submarine drills in the Sea of Japan early this month, it was learned today.

The Russians were spotted by radar and kept under surveillance by Navy planes and ships. There were no hostile acts or demonstrations and no contact between the Americans and the Russians.

The Navy disclosed that several twin jet Soviet Badger bombers flew over the carrier task group in two flights—under the escort of U.S. Navy jet fighters which intercepted them some distance away.

A Russian destroyer took up position about a mile from the 32,000-ton Hornet and stayed with the carrier and her destroyer screen for almost two days.

In his report, the skipper of the Hornet complimented the Russian seamanship but complained that the Red destroyer belched too much smoke.

A Soviet missile-firing submarine loitered on the surface within eight miles of the American task group, which included the Hornet and the destroyers Keys, Walker, Larson, Carpenter, Renshaw and Radford.

A Russian trawler, equipped for surveillance stood within 11 miles of the U.S. carrier force. This all happened in international waters, the Navy said.

It did not give specifics on the location, but the incident reportedly occurred between the Japanese island of Hokkaido and the Asian mainland.

This would put the scene within a few hundred miles of the Russian port of Vladivostok and well within range of Soviet airfields in Siberia.

The last reported overflight of a U.S. carrier by Russian planes occurred last June 4.

The commander of the Hornet is Capt. J. I. Hardy, who wife lives in Coronado, Calif., and whose mother, Mrs. Camilla Hardy, 2124 W. Sanborn St., lives in Winona. Minn. He messaged that the Russian destroyer "maintained good station . . . only complaint, as screened ship, he smokes too much."

Five Americans Die in Viet Nam

Will Run as Democrat

Glenn Enters Race for Ohio Senate Nomination

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. made the plunge from the space program to national politics today. He formally announced he is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for U.S. senator from Ohio.

In a packed hotel ballroom, the first American to orbit the earth made his expected announcement to newsmen that he will oppose Sen. Stephen M. Young for the Democratic senatorial nomination in Ohio's primary election next May 5.

Glenn, 42-year-old native Ohioan who made his historic three-orbit trip just short of two years ago, on Feb. 20, 1962, said that as soon as possible he is resigning his commission from the Marine Corps.

The astronaut said that Congress "is an area in which I have had a life-long interest. To serve in a body whose actions help mold the destiny of America and the free world is certainly both a challenge and a high calling."

"The purpose of this meeting then, is to declare myself a candidate for the Democratic nomination for United States senator from the state of Ohio."

Glenn never had declared himself as a Republican or Democrat. In anticipation of the question, Glenn made this statement:

"The party affiliation I have chosen is a natural one, since my mother and dad have been lifelong democrats. But aside from these family ties, careful consideration of the current positions and leadership of both parties leads me to the choice of the Democratic party."

"I believe President Johnson has presented a program for our nation which a majority of Americans will support. In the senate I would hope to be able to help him reach the objectives of that program."

The pioneer astronaut explained his departure from the space program this way:

"It could very well just be wishful thinking on my part to train for another six or seven years for flights for which I might be too old."

Glenn said he has had numerous business opportunities presented him in the last two years, but explained his entry into national politics this way:

"I have chosen this course because I feel that it provides the best opportunity to make use of the experience I have gained in 22 years of government service. Today, well over half our national budget goes toward support of our military forces, our space program and other research and development activities. These are areas with which I am well acquainted, for I have spent the last 22 years working in them. The Congress has been seeking more and more technical advisers to provide assistance in these areas. I have been privileged to receive invaluable technical experience in these fields."

Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and Indonesian President Sukarno discussed the Malaysian crises for 90 minutes today. They agreed a "favorable climate" had been created for future Asian consultations.

Spokesmen for both Kennedy and Sukarno said their first conversation was "very friendly" and paved the way for personal exchanges among the three government leaders chiefly involved — Sukarno, Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman of Malaysia and President Diosdado Macapagal of the Philippines.

An American spokesman said the talks would continue Saturday after Kennedy breakfasts with the president in Sukarno's hotel suite.

An Indonesian spokesman said the talks were "carried out in a friendly, smooth way and there were no difficulties at all in finding ways for the solution of the problems which should be solved through consultations by the parties concerned."

He added that the Kennedy-Sukarno meeting created a "favorable climate" for a still unspecified summit meeting of Sukarno, Abdul Rahman and Macapagal. Both Kennedy and Sukarno looked serious as they emerged from the first meeting.

Kennedy's objective is to dissuade Sukarno from seeking to crush the new nation, formed under British sponsorship four months ago by the federation of Malaya, Singapore and the Borneo territories of Sarawak and British North Borneo.

Sukarno, whose country holds the rest of Borneo, contends that Malaysia is a form of British colonialism and has pledged to smash it. But he joined Macapagal last Saturday in calling for a peaceful Asian solution by Asians.

Deaths Bring Total Since 1961 to 99

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE
SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Five U.S. servicemen were killed and three wounded in combat helicopter operations over the Communist-infested Mekong Delta today.

The heaviest toll was in a turbine-powered UH1A that apparently exploded in the air in an operation 90 miles southwest of Saigon. Four were killed and three wounded.

The other American killed was a door-gunner of an H21 troop-carrying helicopter. He was hit by a Communist bullet in another operation. He was a private first class.

The deaths brought to 99 the number of American servicemen killed in combat in South Viet Nam since late 1961. U.S. service deaths from all causes now total 173.

Panama and U.S. In New Deadlock

By ROBERT BERRELEZ

PANAMA (AP)—Panama and the United States remained deadlocked today in their bitter dispute over the Panama Canal. Neither government budged an inch, but neither government did anything to make the situation worse.

High sources in American and Panamanian official quarters said there was a slight hope that some formula would be found to get the two governments together again.

Reports from Washington said

U.S. diplomatic troubleshooters were working behind the scenes in the U.S. capital and in Panama.

Manuel Truco of Chile, chairman of a U.S.-Panamanian committee established under the auspices of the Organization of American States, met Thursday with Panamanian President Roberto Chiari and Foreign Minister Galileo Solis.

Later Truco reportedly met with Edwin M. Martin, the chief U.S. negotiator, in the effort to resolve the crisis.

Chiari made no move to carry out his threat to call his embassy staff home from Washington and demand the departure of U.S. diplomats from Panama. This would complete the rupture of diplomatic relations he broke last Friday during the violence along the Canal Zone in which 19 Panamanians and four U.S. soldiers were killed.

Official Panamanian sources had said Chiari would complete the break unless the United States agreed to negotiate a new treaty to replace the 1903 pact giving it perpetual control of the Canal Zone.

In Washington, the White House reaffirmed U.S. willingness to discuss all issues with Panama. But Secretary of State Dean Rusk told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee the United States would not do so "under pressure or threat of violence."

Rusk told newsmen his government feels the situation "can be resolved in the absence of violence through negotiations and discussions between the two governments."

Dallas Digging Out of Snow

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Light snow, rain and sleet dampened scattered sections of the nation today but stormy weather which hit wide areas from the southern Plains into the Southeast tapered off.

Driving conditions in many parts of the Southern storm belt continued hazardous. Areas in Texas and Oklahoma were digging out from heavy snow, ranging up to nine inches in Oklahoma and more than seven inches in Dallas. The snow depths were an all-time high in the history of the Dallas Weather Bureau, dating back to 1913.

Snow fell south of snow-crippled northern Texas until late Thursday night. Patches of ground fog shrouded areas in north central and northeast Texas, sharply cutting visibility on ice and snow-covered roads. Schools in some Texas communities, including Fort Worth, were to remain closed again today.

Light rain, sleet and snow fell in sections of the eastern Gulf and lower Atlantic states but the snow was expected to end with temperatures moderating and heading for near normal levels.

Light snow fell in parts of Michigan through the Lower Great Lakes region. Snow also was reported in the northern Rockies and in interior sections of the Far West. Rain splashed areas from the San Francisco region northward along the Pacific Coast.

Mastrian Trial Begins Feb. 17

DULUTH, Minn. (AP)—Norman Mastrian, onetime Twin City boxer, will go to trial here Feb. 17 at 2 p.m. for his alleged middleman role in the St. Paul slaying last March 6 of Mrs. Carol Thompson.

The date was set late Thursday by Judge James Underhill, who will preside over the trial. It was shifted here on grounds that wide publicity given the case had forestalled a fair trial for Mastrian in St. Paul.

Mastrian has been held in jail in St. Paul in lieu of $100,000 bond and is expected to remain there until the trial starts.

Bob Kennedy, Sukarno Talk About Malaya

By JOHN RODERICK

Associated Press Writer

TOKYO (AP)—U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and Indonesian President Sukarno discussed the Malaysian crises for 90 minutes today. They agreed a "favorable climate" had been created for future Asian consultations.

Spokesmen for both Kennedy and Sukarno said their first conversation was "very friendly" and paved the way for personal exchanges among the three government leaders chiefly involved — Sukarno, Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman of Malaysia and President Diosdado Macapagal of the Philippines.

Homestead Exempt From Judgments

ST. PAUL (AP)—The Minnesota Supreme Court ruled today that the sheriff cannot seize the tract of land and the house in which Floyd Denzer lives with his wife and six children in rural LeSueur County to satisfy judgments.

Justice Robert Sheran said in the unanimous decision that the 80-acre tract is a "homestead" and therefore exempt from seizure or sale to satisfy judgments against Denzer resulting from an automobile accident.

Raymond Lucy, administrator of the estate of Michael E. Prendergast, deceased, and Loreta Prendergast appealed from a LeSueur County ruling in favor of Denzer. The Prendergasts were awarded verdicts for damages caused by an automobile accident resulting from Denzer's negligence.

"While plaintiff (Denzer) has no right to present occupancy based on his ownership of the remainder in fee subject to the life estate," Justice Sheran said, "the house is in fact occupied by him and his family."

"A creditor is entitled in justice to be paid. The homestead exemption law does not relieve one from his moral and legal obligations to pay what he owes."

"But experience has taught that in the long run obligations are more likely to be fulfilled with those whose connections with the community are stabilized by a protected interest in a relatively permanent place of abode than by those not so anchored."

In a second decision, the City of Bloomington lost a protracted legal battle against erection of a big sign by operators of a mobile home park.

The high court upheld a Hennepin County order of Judge John A. Weeks requiring the city to permit Arcadia Development Corp. doing business as Collins Park to build the sign.

Johnson May Resign Naval Reserve Rating

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson, a Navy veteran who won the Silver Star in World War II, is thinking about resigning his commission as a commander in the Naval Reserve. He was represented as thinking the rank might be interpreted as a conflict of interest with his position as commander-in-chief of all armed services.

Justice Robert Sheran said in the unanimous decision that the 80-acre tract is a "homestead" and therefore exempt from seizure or sale to satisfy judgments against Denzer resulting from an automobile accident.

Three Honored at Plainview

PLAINVIEW, Minn. (Special) — At the annual awards banquet at the Community School here Wednesday night, Merle Bany was named as the outstanding young farmer; Sen. Robert Dunlap, outstanding citizen, and Donald Haimies was presented the distinguished service award.

The event was sponsored jointly by the Plainview Jaycees, Commercial Club and the agriculture committee of Plainview Enterprises Development Corp.

Stanley Hanna was master of ceremonies. George L. Brooks, Red Wing, was guest speaker. Miss Sharon Marie Carnes, Miss Minnesota, among the distinguished guests present, sang three selections and gave highlights of the events leading to her crown and her travels since then. She was accompanied to the banquet by Mrs. Duane Nienow, Plainview.

BANY — selected by Donald Harrington, Ted Zabel, Donald Walker, Stanley Hanna and Melvin Walters — owns a 240-acre farm near Potsdam. He started farming with his father in 1952. He uses good soil practices — testing, fertilizing, waterway construction, tilling and crop rotation. He uses sawdust to bed cows and has converted completely to drylot feeding of his dairy cattle.

His contributions to civic life include memberships in the Lutheran Laymen's League; Elgin Lutheran Church, where he is head usher; Holstein — Friesian Association, in which he was director three years, and the Rochester Milk Production Association. He has had offices and committee positions in the NFO, served two years in the U.S. Army, and has membership in other organizations. He and his wife have two children.

SEN. DUNLAP and wife came to Plainview in 1946 from St. Paul when he entered the practice of law with Alfred A. Burkhardt. He was Wabasha County attorney from 1950-52 and entered the Legislature in 1953, where he is still serving.

He is a ranking member of the Senate, where he is a member of the agriculture, civil administration, elections and reapportionment, finance, judiciary, public highways, and rules and legislative expense committee.

As chairman of the education committee he was chiefly responsible for reorganization of state education laws and author of the present formula for state aid to public schools and the junior college program.

Despite the many demands on his time as a member of several legislative interim commissions, including the state highway commission of which he is secretary, the Great Lakes Commission, and his practice of law, he is never too busy and has never refused to liberally volunteer his talents as speaker or legal adviser to local community groups. Yetzer said.

HAIMIES, 28, who joined the Jaycees in 1961, has been secretary, president, state director, and chairman of eight committees. In community affairs he is a member of the volunteer fire department, an officer the last two years in the Commercial Club; is a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church, is on the board of education of the Lutheran school, and is a charter member of the Young Republican League.

In the Jaycees he has been state chairman of community development; as president he led the local chapter to one of the top 10 in the state, and currently he is active on the "Doctor for Plainview" committee and chairman of the Wedgewood Park picnic shelter and community survey committees.

"I AM SPEAKING to a community which is on the move and is known as such all over the state," Brooks said.

"The next five years will see stabilizing among the farmers," he said. "They are going to consolidate, decreasing the number of farms. This will happen in two years — by farmers and by communities."

The county agent and soil conservationists are ready to help, he said.

Brooks urged Plainview to concern itself with its current industries and look to the future. Face it with reality, practicality and common sense, he said.

He urged businessmen to check their personnel in their treatment of the public. "The golden rule is the best way to increase register receipts," he said. "Your community will shine as business progresses."

CLUE NO. 5

Children's Treasure Hunt

Today's item for children entered in the Winter Carnival Treasure Hunt is a picture of the entrant, which should be placed in the container with other items. The photo should be a small black and white print.

Boys and girls entered in the hunt are to report Saturday at 9:30 a.m. at Lake Park Lodge.

He divided the group of nearly 300 attending into groups of six. Each elected a president and secretary. In six minutes of deliberation on what five things are needed most in Plainview, most often repeated were the needs for more adequate medical facilities, all weather roads to town, recreation for young people, and municipal electric service.

SEN. DUNLAP in his acceptance speech said, "I am so impressed with what Plainview has accomplished and can accomplish I promise to do everything I can so Plainview and the county will receive all just and deserving awards possible."

Guests introduced besides those participating in the program were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stassen, friends of Miss Minnesota, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Zabel, the Rev. and Mrs. Rodney Riese; Mrs. Haimies; Mr. and Mrs. Duane Schultz, and Mrs. Hanna.

The outstanding citizen award has been conferred the last three years. This and the distinguished award winner were chosen by many organizations. The outstanding farmer candidates were chosen by Allyn Stoltz, Joseph Leisen Jr. and Bany, the winner.

Decorated clue containers will be judged and the last clue given for the final item.

As previously listed, other required items are: A picture of last year's Miss Snowflake, a picture of a 1964 candidate and a cutout paper snowflake.

Finder of the final item in the hunt will win a $25 Savings Bond.

Roses for 1964

This is the season of the year when gardeners are looking over the highly colored rose catalogs trying to decide on the particular varieties for spring planting, not without some trepidation.

To those who always try one or two of the All-America rose award winners each year, the choice will not be too difficult to make this spring. Only two rose varieties receive the coveted awards for 1964, one a hybrid tea and the other one a floribunda.

The new hybrid tea award winner is Granada, an unusual bicolored rose comprising a luminous scarlet, nasturtium red and lemon yellow colors, all wrapped up in one beautiful flower. The buds are long and urn-shaped, opening to graceful, round four-inch blooms. The plants are vigorous, upright growers with dark green foliage, bearing single blossoms on long stems fine for cutting. Granada is an entirely new color in a bi-colored rose and is certain to be a spectacular addition to the rose garden.

The other All-America rose winner for 1964 is Saratoga, a white floribunda with all of the qualities that a white rose should have and which have been so difficult to obtain in rose propagation. It is the fifth white rose to be honored as an AARS winner, the highest award a rose can receive. We hope the next white rose to receive the award will be a hybrid tea. The buds have a slight creamy tinge and open into pure white double flowers about four inches across; in clusters as well as on individual stems. The blossoms are said to have a typical "old rose" fragrance. The plant is a vigorous grower, a profuse bloomer and the foliage is a dark glossy green.

THESE TWO roses are worthy award winners for 1964 and either one, or both, will add unusual color and beauty to your garden.

Now, let us look for a moment at the roses that won the All-America awards for 1963, both of which were hybrid teas. Tropicana is perhaps the more noteworthy of the two, according to the acclaim it has received. It is the only rose ever to receive 14 top International awards. The color is a radiant orange-red, brilliant, glowing and non-fading. Gardeners who have grown this beautiful rose, or have seen it in bloom, consider it to be one of the most outstanding roses ever introduced.

The other award winner for 1963 is Royal Highness, a clear light pink in color with deeper shadings toward the center. The blossoms are of the exhibition type, fragrant and borne singly on long cutting stems. The bush is upright in growth, vigorous and has pleasing dark glossy green foliage.

WHILE WE are on the subject of All-America roses, it might be well to review briefly the award winners for 1962. First to be mentioned is Christian Dior, a red hybrid tea with light fragrance. It is an upright grower, very vigorous and bears an abundance of very double blossoms. The second winner for 1962 is King's Ransom, a yellow hybrid tea rose with large fragrant blossoms on long stems fine for cutting. The third 1962 award winner is John S. Armstrong, a grandiflora of an intense dark red color. The blossoms are borne generally in clusters, but the stems are long enough for good cutting.

In reviewing the award winning roses of recent years, gardeners should not let their glamorous overshadown all of the other good roses that have proven the test of time and still win a big share of the prizes at the shows across the country. Many of these are equal to, and many may outperform in individual gardens, some of those that have won the highest awards.

THE GARDENER may find it difficult to make selections from the many beautiful varieties offered in the brilliantly colored catalogs. Perhaps, the best way is to decide on the colors and types desired and then select the ones with the greatest appeal from the standpoints of growth, foliage, vigor, fragrance and hardiness.

Police Check 2 Breakins; Candy, Cash

Breakins Thursday night at the YMCA and the College of Saint Teresa Tea House were being investigated today by police detective and juvenile division.

Thieves who entered the Tea House, Wabasha and Gould streets, took two boxes of candy bars and a package of cookies from the refreshment bar, detectives said. Burglars used a rock to break the glass in a west side door and then unlocked it.

Obviously not strangers to the premises were persons who broke into the YMCA and took small amounts of money sometime during the night, officers said.

Frying open a table tennis ball vending machine, thieves got about $30 in cash. A peanut vending machine, also pried open, yielded about $5. Candy and pop vendors were damaged by the prowlers' unsuccessful efforts to open them.

Several locks on cabinets were broken off, YMCA officials said. Also broken into was a locked cash drawer in the basket room. There was no money in the drawer.

Janitors discovered the break-in today at 7 a.m. Glass in a south side door had been smashed, allowing thieves to reach inside and turn the lock.

Winona businessmen were hosts Thursday to 13 area mayors and their wives during the Winter Carnival Mayors' Day luncheon held at Hotel Winona.

Sixty-three persons were on hand for the first of what is hoped will become an annual feature of the carnival. Sponsors of the luncheon were the Chamber of Commerce and its Ambassadors.

Winter Carnival also was present at the luncheon.

The hosts and the visitors met informally at a cocktail hour which preceded the luncheon. Mayor Rudy K. Ellings—who was named by Stenehjelm as "Royal Ruler of the Roost"—welcomed his visiting counterparts from throughout the area.

50-Unit Parade Set Saturday

For a change, it looks as though the weatherman is going to let us enjoy the Winter Carnival parade Saturday.

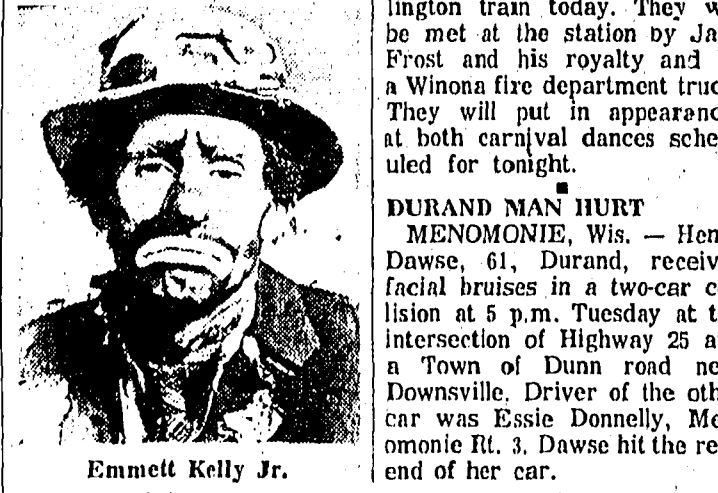

The parade will include more than 50 units, T. Charles Green, parade chairman, said. This is about the same size as the parade has been in previous years, he added.

IN MANY of those past years, however, not too many persons braved the cold to watch the parade.

Acting Police Chief James W. McCabe said today that cars would be cleared from 3rd Street, between Johnson and Liberty streets, Saturday beginning at 12:30 p.m. McCabe said clearance would be made to accommodate the Winter Carnival parade which starts at 2:30.

The temperature hovered below the zero mark last year, and only about 1,000 persons watched the parade go down 3rd Street.

Marshal of this year's parade will be clown Emmett Kelly Jr. He will ride in a car near Assault Count Dismissed in Buffalo Co.

By RUTH ROGERS
Daily News Area Editor

ALMA, Wis. — An assault charge against Irvin H. Przytarski, Buffalo City, was dismissed in county court here today upon motion of the defendant's attorney, La Vern G. Kostner, Arcadia.

Przytarski was alleged to have assaulted Stanley A. Apel, Buffalo City, in the restroom of the Mississippian at Buffalo City Dec. 3.

KOSTNER BASED his motion for dismissal upon his contention that the alleged altercation was not proved by direct testimony to have occurred within Buffalo County, nor was there any clear evidence as to who was attacking whom.

His motion was granted by the presiding judge, Pepin County Judge John Bartholemew. Bartholemew was sitting in place of Buffalo County Judge Gary Schlossstein, who disqualified himself.

Apel, Buffalo County game warden, was called to the stand first by District Attorney Pat H. Molley, Alma. Apel testified that he entered the Mississippian around 10 p.m. Dec. 3, and sat at the bar with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Scholl, Cochrane. He did not see Przytarski in the tavern, he said.

He had three glasses of beer, Apel testified, then went to the rest room. While he was there, he said Przytarski entered and said, "Oh, there you are."

Apel testified that he replied, "How are you?"

Przytarski then swung at him, Apel said, and began hitting him about the head and face. He testified that Przytarski said, "I'll get you this time."

Apel said that he called for help and Gerald Duval, proprietor of the tavern, entered the rest room and stopped the fight. Apel said that Duval said "Let him alone" when he entered the restroom.

THE GAME WARDEN testified that he was unable to defend himself because he had had four operations, the last one Sept. 16. He was not in uniform and was not armed, he said.

Asked by Molley if Przytarski could have been angry because of something, Apel had done in the line of duty, the game warden testified that in 1960 he had been with a group of wardens, one of whom had arrested a person driving one of Przytarski's boats without lights after sunset.

Przytarski, a former Winona city policeman, operates a boat rental service and marina at Buffalo City.

UNDER CROSS-examination by Kostner, Apel said that he did not know what Przytarski was angry about. He said that he asked Przytarski why he was angry and wanted to fight.

Apel said that Przytarski replied, "You don't have a friend in the world and I want to kill you."

"I am not angry at him," Apel said to Przytarski this morning.

Ray Scholl, questioned by Molley, testified that he and his wife were drinking with Apel. They knew Przytarski was in the tavern, he said, but Apel had his back to the defendant.

When Apel went to the restroom, Scholl said, he heard scuffling coming from it and then heard Apel call for help.

Under cross-examination, Scholl said that he wanted to go to the restroom to help Apel, but his wife told him that they should leave instead.

DUVAL TESTIFIED that Apel had about two glasses of beer. Przytarski had a martini, Duval said. The tavern operator said that he did not have to physically stop the two men, who were "in a clinch" when he entered the restroom.

He could not tell when he entered the restroom who was fighting and who was being attacked, Duval told the court.

Upon completion of Duval's testimony, the prosecution rested. Kostner then entered his motion for dismissal.

Frosty the Snowman To Help Name Queen

A talking Frosty the Snowman and Posture Queen Valerie Dahl together will announce the names of the 1964 Miss Snowflake and her two attendants during the queen coronation dinner Saturday night at the Oaks.

The large figure of Frosty will set the theme for the affair, which will begin at 6:30 p.m.

The crowning of the queen of this year's Winter Carnival and of her two princesses will be the highlight of the event—particularly for the 10 hopeful young ladies entered in the queen competition.

JUDGES WILL be Miss Dahl, who as the American Chiropractic Association's posture queen has had a great deal of experience in the royalty game; Neil Aslin, who works in the promotion department of a Twin Cities television station, and E. L. (Ernie) Larson, cabin service manager for Northwest Orient Airlines.

Aslin is especially well qualified to judge a contest of this kind. As fiance of the current Miss Minnesota, he is familiar with the queenly qualities a girl needs to win a title.

Singer Patty Clark will be featured on the program during the coronation dinner, along with Emmett Kelly Jr., son of the famous clown and now a well-known comic in his own right.

Miss Clark, who began singing at a Fargo, N. D., radio and television station, now works out of Chicago, where she frequently works on the Don McNeill Breakfast Club program, heard over the ABC radio network.

She also makes frequent television and night club appearances.

KELLY BEGAN clowning only a few years ago when he took over his father's act. Like his father, he uses grotesque makeup, a tattered costume, strongly hair and a pathetic attitude to create a comic mood.

T. Charles Green will be master of ceremonies for the event.

He was last year's Jack Frost. After the dinner and program, there will be dancing to the music of the Louis Schuth Orchestra.

Tickets still are on sale at Ted Maier Drugs and the Holden Drug Store, and also are available from any past carnival royalty or from any member of the Winona Activity Group. They also will be available at the door Saturday night.

For the queen candidates, the coronation dinner will climax a day that will begin at 8:30 a.m., when the girls will gather at the Hotel Winona. The rest of the morning will be occupied with practicing for the coronation in the evening.

AT NOON, all the girls will be guests at the queen's luncheon in the Captain's Quarters of the Williams Hotel.

After this, they will change into warm ski clothing for their appearance in the Winter Carnival parade. A quick change and private interviews with the judges will keep the 10 girls busy after the parade.

As soon as the interviews are over, the candidates will leave for the Oaks. They will arrive as equals, but when they leave, one of them will have been singled out to reign during the coming year as Miss Snowflake, and two others will have been chosen as her princesses.

It Happened Last Night

Midnight Snow Job on N.Y.

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — "Jingle Bells, Jingle Bells" ... Ooops! ... Right weather but wrong date ... Actually, this "semi-blizzard" (what was "semi" about it?) that you read about came on Russian New Year's Eve. Serge Obelensky and those other white Russians sure did get themselves a white New Year's ... I rushed around in the snowdrifts on B'way, freezing and shivering and getting my feet wet ... "not one of my shrewder moves," as George Gobel says ...

Egyptian movie star Omar Sharif sat in Gallagher's talking about the beautiful weather in California — and Egypt. "I hate this," he said. "In Egypt we never have snow." ... True, but then in America we never have Nasser.

A midnight blizzard ... all right then, "semi-blizzard" ... is especially fascinating in N.Y. The rental limousines look long and black against the fresh snow. Chauffeurs cluster in doorways.

Ava Gardner looks far from blizzard-tossed, stepping from her limo into Basin St. E. with movie publicist Greg Morrison. She's wearing red or orange. Who says she's fading? She must be the world's most beautiful 40-year-old (which she became last Christmas Eve).

"Are the Rex Harrisons still in there?" I ask outside 21. "They'd better be—I'm their chauffeur," a chap says. Inside Rex is drinking a midnight ale talking to Rachel Roberts about his next movie for Darryl Zanuck, "The Agony and the Ecstasy," in which he plays a Pope.

I TRY walking to the Americana a couple of blocks away but have to duck into a doorway to get a rest from the bite of the wind ... Pearl Bailey's got a crowd at the Royal Box. So her husband Louis Bellson at the Metropole. "Them two cats got 7th Ave. locked up."

Three Copacabana girls getting beautified at the Larry Mathews salon couldn't get a taxi but managed to get a hansom ... Robert Preston, star of that wonderfully funny show, "Nobody Loves an Albatross," tells the crowd there, "Thank you brave souls for coming out."

Gary Stevens phones Jack Carter who was sitting around the pool at the Deauville in Miami Beach and tells him the snow depth, temperature, etc. Carter gets on the loudspeaker and reports it — and gets screams of laughter (from the New Yorkers happy to be vacationing there).

THEN THIS windblown columnist bucks the snow all the way over to the Plaza (to Juliet Prowse at the Persian Room and to "Plaza 9")—and was I ever glad to finish the difficult walk back to the Stage Deli—tessen where I got out of that overcoat and into a hot pasty! What a collection of Banner Year In Space Seen for U.S.

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Cape Kennedy's launching pads are bulging with rockets primed to ignite what could be a banner year in space for the United States.

Three are scheduled for launching during the last 10 days of January. They are the Relay 2 communications satellite, Jan. 21; the first two-stage test firing of Saturn 1, believed to be the world's mightiest rocket, Jan. 27; and the planned flight of the Ranger 6 spacecraft to snap closeup television pictures of the moon, Jan. 30.

The Titan 2 rocket is being groomed for the first flight in this nation's next man-in-space program, Project Gemini. The launching in March will attempt to hurl a dummy model of the two-man spacecraft into orbit. Two other unmanned launchings are scheduled before the first astronaut orbital mission, set for November.

Star of David To Come Off Official Seal

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House of Representatives is about to remove the Star of David from its official seal and take cognizance of the statehood of Alaska and Hawaii.

A resolution passed without opposition last Dec. 18 called for an outlay of about $700 to cut the die for a new Great Seal and procure a new mechanical gadget to impress the seal on official House papers and documents.

The old seal, the House Administration Committee pointed out has been in continuous use since 1912, when it was cut after the admission of Arizona as the 48th state. Around its edge are 48 stars—one for each state—and all are of the six-pointed variety known as the Star of David. The resolution that provided for the old seal said the stars should have six points.

The new seal will have 50 stars, the two extra ones being for Alaska and Hawaii. While the resolution didn't say how many points the stars shall have, they will have five points.

There will be another change. The old seal bore a view of the Capitol as it looked in 1833, when it was far from finished. The new view will show the Capitol as it now looks, with its extended east front. It also will show the Statue of Freedom which tops the Capitol dome but wasn't there in 1830.

DEAR ABBY: Dentist Talk Frightens Him

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: In plain words, how does a woman get a full-grown baby (her husband) to a dentist? I would hate to tell you how long I have been fighting this problem without success.

DEAR STUMPED: Your husband (like thousands of other "full-grown" babies) is terrified of the dentist's chair, but he's ashamed to admit it. You could make an appointment for "yourself" for a general check-up. Tell your husband you want him to go along and hold your hand for moral support. Once there, you could ask your dentist if he had a few moments to look at your husband's teeth. In this way the anticipation, which is 99 percent of all "suffering" endured in connection with dentistry, is reduced. You'll need the cooperation of your dentist, of course, but it's worth a try.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have been married four years and have a year-old son. We go to a dance every Saturday night. It usually winds up in an argument after the dance because I happen to have mentioned that we are married, or I make some remark about the baby. He claims it ruins his chances to dance with some of the women because they don't want to make me jealous. After last Saturday night he said a couple of girls refused to dance with him when they found out he was married. I am thinking seriously of letting him go alone in the future. Would it be wise?

DEAR CONFUSED: No. It would be otherwise. A married man who poses as a bachelor usually wishes he were one, or is acting like one.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 16-year-old girl who has been sitting regularly for a woman who lives in our neighborhood. Her husband is on the road a lot and she likes to go out in the evenings. She never tells me where I can reach her in case of emergency. She says she will call me during the evening to see how things are, but she never has. She has two children. One had an asthma attack once when the mother was gone and I had to call the doctor. I was frightened to death. I'm afraid if I told my mother and asked her advice she wouldn't let me sit for this woman any more, that's why I'm asking you, Abby. Should I continue to sit for this woman?

DEAR WELL PAID: You could just as well have asked your mother. My answer is the same as hers.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "RED": A man is not likely to look under the bed unless he's hidden under one himself. Get it off your chest. For a personal, unpublished reply, write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Geographic Society Has New Building

By JOHN A. BARBOUR

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Geographic Society — after 75 years of digging into the world's past and present secrets—has some new, proud diggings of its own.

The society—with help from President Johnson — dedicates its new headquarters building Saturday, and with it a new museum of science and discovery called Explorers Hall.

For a frontispiece, the society has reduced the world to an 11-foot, 1,000-pound sphere—unlike the real thing, completely under control. A console provides this huge globe with special effects.

The globe dominates Explorers Hall—and is set in a black granite reflecting pool, where it rotates on its axis. Among the special effects possible through the console's operation: a satellite spinning about the earth.

The operator of the control console can also project images on the globe's surface—for instance an outline map of Texas on the globe's Alaska can show that Alaska is the biggest state. The Mississippi can likewise be compared directly with the Amazon River.

Besides the globe, the museum sports life-size displays—an underground ceremonial chamber of the Pueblo Indians, a plastic face overlaying the skull of Zinjanthropus suggests the appearance of a matype who lived 1.75 million years ago.

More Junior Colleges Needed

ALEXANDRIA, Minn. (AP) — There's a need for more junior colleges because of the post-war "baby boom" impact on higher education, Ben Wichterman of Plummer told a farmers' group Thursday night.

Wichterman, vice president of the State Junior College Board, spoke at the Douglas County Farmers Union meeting.

"Junior college," Wichterman said, "provides several key roles in the education of people of all age groups in rural Minnesota."

"Without these schools many qualified and talented young people for financial reasons would be unable to go on to other colleges and universities to receive degrees."

By GRETCHEN L. LAMBERTON

THURSDAY night several of us went to the opening night of the State Theatre movie "Charade" and got a lot of hearty laughs out of it. Two of the smoothest characters in movies, Cary Grant and Audrey Hepburn, play the lead in an off-beat mystery that also has three of the goofiest crooks and a far-out villain. The whole play is so delightfully funny that even a couple of murders in it seem killingly funny.

The story takes place in Paris, and there are some beautiful and colorful scenes, particularly one of a night trip on a gaily lighted excursion barge over the River Seine. The chase through the intricate maze of the Paris subway (to the brilliant music of Henry Mancini) is the best I've ever seen since the days of the old Keystone cops chases.

It's my contention that really smooth actors with style and a delicate touch can make a comedy really funny. This is true of both Cary Grant and Audrey Hepburn who never bear down too hard. As usual Miss Hepburn wears clothes of the most beguiling simplicity and elegance, and in my books she is the most chic actress of our time.

Way back before the days of opulent mink wraps women of elegance wore seal-skin coats, capes or jackets. And most men in this climate wore sealskin caps and sometimes sealskin mittens. Today sealskin isn't particularly fashionable any more for coats, but quantities of sealskin are being used today, not to decorate ladies' backs but their eyelids!

Yes, that's right. It's been discovered that seal hair makes the best and most natural looking false eyelashes of anything yet tried. For seal hair needs no trimming or thinning. Each hair tapers perfectly into a delicate point exactly like human eyelashes, and the result is wonderfully real looking. At several of the better New York department stores you can buy strips of seal eyelashes complete with invisible glue for attaching them.

There are three different kinds of eyelashes, each in either brown or black — those for everyday daytime wear, a thicker kind for evening wear, and a very long heavy kind for theatrical use. The first two kinds cost $5, but the theatrical kind come a little higher. Several of the fancy New York pet shops also sell false eyelashes for dogs, and they cost $3.50 in case you are interested.

The winter exodus from our tough climate has begun. I have friends who have left or will leave for Africa, Japan and China, Florida, Greece, Mexico and Arizona. I don't THINK it's sour grapes, but at the moment I'm glad I'm going to stay in this climate this winter. I like cold bracing weather far better than the hot sticky kind. I like snow and being snowed in, and the stark purity of winter landscapes. The only thing I hate about winter is icy roads and trying to drive on them.

If you are making out a case for living through a Minnesota winter here's something that a life insurance company has come up with: In an exhaustive survey they found that people live longer in Nebraska, Minnesota, North and South Dakota and Iowa. Why? Several possible reasons are given: Less crowding, more healthful agricultural jobs, good public health and hospital service, and the fact that the "weaker" inhabitants move to warmer climates and leave the tougher and more adaptable ones in this more rigorous climate.

Bull Seriously Injures Man

MABEL, Minn. (Special)—A Mabel man received internal injuries when he was attacked by a bull on his farm near here Thursday.

Norman Flatland, about 53, and a neighbor, Lawrence Anderson, were attempting to get the animal into the barn when it turned on him and knocked him to the ground, trampling his stomach and chest.

Anderson succeeded in getting the animal away from Flatland, otherwise he probably would have been trampled to death. The incident occurred about 11:45 a.m.

Flatland was taken to Lutheran Hospital, La Crosse, by Mengis ambulance, the Mabel physician accompanying him. He was administered six blood transfusions and was in critical condition but was improving Thursday night.

Flatland's mother, Mrs. Hilda Flatland, 79, died at Decorah, Iowa, Tuesday. The funeral service will be there Saturday.

Frontenac Park Group Reports $2,986 Balance

ROCHESTER, Minn. — The Frontenac State Park Association has a balance of $2,986, it was reported at the annual meeting here Wednesday night. About 70 attended.

The report was made by Albert Marshall, Red Wing, who was re-elected treasurer.

Also re-elected was president Edwin Doty, Rochester. Arnold Vogel, Red Wing, is the new vice president. Mrs. C. K. Maytum, Rochester, continues as secretary.

Doty, Marshall and Dr. Earl Elkins of Rochester were re-elected to the board of directors. Hawley Foot, Red Wing, also was elected to the board.

Speaker was Robert C. Wheeler, assistant director of the Minnesota Historical Society, who discussed "Minnesota's First Business — The Fur Trading Industry."

Although it did not relate directly to the Frontenac Park, the use being made of various parks and rest stops was discussed.

Some criticized the fact that various parks will not allow overnight camping.

The state commissioner of parks, U. W. Hella, agreed that more scenic wayside stops should be built.

Board Renamed At Dover Bank

DOVER, Minn. — The six directors of the First State Bank of Dover were re-elected at the annual meeting Wednesday.

The bank by-laws provide for having not less than five directors and not more than seven.

Re-elected were M. E. Comingore, president; Mrs. Merle Comingore, vice president; Mrs. Robert Holzer, cashier; Carrol Cassel, Clarence A. Carpenter and William H. Lietz.

Mrs. Delmer Drysdale and Wayne L. Fix are assistant cashiers. Miss Carol Holzer is bookkeeper.

Sixty-Seven That Never Should Have Died

LAST YEAR, 45 Minnesotans without valid driver licenses got into vehicles, drove off and killed 67 persons in traffic accidents, according to records of the Minnesota Highway Department.

The 67 never should have been killed. They would not have been killed if the 45 without licenses had obeyed the first law of driving — have a valid license. Whatever the cause of the accident, the 45 had no right to be on the road. They ignored the law, and 67 persons died because of it.

Twenty-three of the 45 had no record of ever having had a license, 14 had had their licenses suspended, and eight revoked.

TWENTY-THREE of the 45 paid the highest price for breaking the law. They were among the 67 killed. Perhaps a few are still in hospitals. Perhaps a few are behind bars, and perhaps a few have been so badly injured they will never again live a normal life.

If the 45 had not been on the road, Minnesota's record-breaking traffic fatalities for 1963 might have been 722 instead of 792.

Unlicensed drivers are on the roads of every state. For example, South Dakota reported that in 1963, of the 230 drivers involved in fatal accidents, 119 were without licenses. They caused 128 deaths. South Dakota road officials estimate that there are 20,000 unlicensed drivers in that state out of a total of about 100,000 drivers.

Voting Age Cut Again Being Discussed

THE QUESTION whether the voting age ought to be generally lowered from 21 to 18 is being widely discussed again. The presidential commission's recommendation that the states ponder such a change was the impetus for this renewed debate of a hardy perennial among public issues.

Four states now have a minimum voting age under 21. In Hawaii, it is 20, in Alaska 19, and in Georgia and Kentucky 18. The effect of the commission's suggestion may be to prompt other states to study the matter. There can be no objection to this, though the reasons against lowering the age limit outweigh those that support it.

Traditionally the main argument for giving 18-year-olds the franchise is the emotional one that if they are old enough to fight in the nation's wars they are old enough to vote. This ignores the fact that the qualifications for fighting and voting are quite different.

THOSE WHO would lower the voting age are also now seeking to make use of the fact that the median age of our population is steadily getting lower. It is down to only a bit above 28, and still declining. The argument is that since more and more Americans are under 21 this segment of the population should be able to wield political influence commensurate with its size. Again, this ignores the matter of minimum political maturity as a qualification for voting.

The presidential commission suggested that during the period between high school graduation and attainment of voting age young Americans may lose the civic interest generated in the schools. This has some validity, but not enough to justify a lower voting age on these grounds alone. There is enough lack of maturity in the electorate as it is, without adding those who have not yet had time to form views.

Commander Foley Gives Fine Advice

WE WISH to commend the article written by National Commander Daniel Foley for the January issue of American Legion Magazine. It is one of the best expositions of "the spirit and traditions of real Americanism" that we have seen in a long time.

Nor is it just Americanism which Commander Foley is defining. For he has evoked here the essence of the best traditions of freedom — of thought, inquiry, speech — which are the foundation of the whole development of what we call the free western world . . . from the time of Socrates in ancient Greece down to today.

Commander Foley's exposition wins from us the highest accolade honest writers can bestow — "We wish we had written that." And we're doubly glad that it was a Minnesotan who wrote it, too. — The Minneapolis Star.

HOW DO YOU STAND, SIR?

U.S. Spending Under Budget

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

Because of the refusal of Congress to rush through appropriations bills, and because the Congress reduced the Kennedy requests in such areas as foreign aid, the actual spending for 1964 will be somewhere around $95 billion.

This means that President Johnson, with estimates of $97.9 billion, is talking about several billion dollars more spending next year than this year. His statement that spending will be less simply does not square with the facts.

When it comes to new obligatory authority, the Congress cut the $107.9 billion Kennedy requested down to about $101 billion. This also means that President Johnson's request of $103.8 billion is several billion more than was actually allowed by Congress for this year.

The trick is that President Johnson is using the requested and estimated figures of the Kennedy budget rather than the figures actually authorized by Congress.

This Congress is truly economy-minded. This administration is not.

In reaching for federal solutions to every problem of jobs and living standards, President Johnson is slighting and even overlooking the best answer of all — the free enterprise system.

If you look at the programs advanced in the State of the Union Message, you discover that every one of them is a hangover either from the New Deal or the New Frontier. I think that what we really have is the Fast Deal and the Old Frontier. There aren't any new ideas there at all — just new federal controls.

I AM PARTICULARLY disturbed by the tone of the State of the Union Message. President Johnson really doesn't ask the Congress to enact his program. He tells them they must. He tells them that they shouldn't even argue about it.

Living in the White House has apparently made Mr. Johnson forget what it was like to live in the Congress. Our congressmen aren't sent to Washington to rubber-stamp every proposal a President makes. They are sent there to represent the people. And when it comes to holding down spending, they've been doing a far better job than either Mr. Johnson or his predecessor.

In all of the neon-light glare of economy talk, we shouldn't be blind to the fact that the spending programs proposed by the President would commit this nation to uncounted billions of dollars in future debts.

You can't judge these programs on the basis of what they cost to get started. You've got to figure the long-range cost. For instance, the cost of starting just 11 of the Kennedy administration's new programs in 1964 would have been $2.6 billion. But the very conservative estimate for the five-year cost is more than $17 billion.

CONGRESS ONLY let four of those programs get through; but every one it rejected is back again in the State of the Union Message.

If we are ever going to get real control over our federal spending and not just let it soak up all of our resources, we are going to have to exercise restraint before the spending is permitted to begin. Once it starts, it is almost impossible to stop. Just trimming a little here and there and then calling it economizing is political sleight of hand; not real fiscal responsibility.

Fiscal responsibility means taking a long hard look at this spending before we commit ourselves to it. As it is, the White House is looking into its crystal ball, deciding what the American people should have and then tossing the bill to Congress to be paid for out of your pockets for the rest of your lives.

How do you stand, sir?

U.S. AGREES TO REVISE CANAL ZONE TREATIES

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

U.S. Has Rights for Canal in Nicaragua

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Long before the current trouble in the Canal Zone, Rep. Dan Flood, D-Pa., introduced a resolution calling for an Inter-Oceanic Commission to study a new alternative canal paralleling the Panama Canal. Flood contemplated the time when political unrest would make things difficult in Panama, also the fact that the present canal is both overloaded and too small for big U.S. airplane carriers.

What most people don't know is that the original canal bill as passed by the Senate called for the route to be through Nicaragua, not Panama. However, when the bill got to the House of Representatives, somebody yanked it out of Panama and French lobbyists and the route was switched to Panama, with a $20,000,000 payoff to Paris.

The French, led by De Lesseps, who dug the Suez Canal, had started to dig the Panama Canal but got hopelessly bogged down by mosquitoes, yellow fever, and the problem of blasting through a mountain range. It was a secret lobby in the House of Representatives which stepped in to bail out the French by switching the route from Nicaragua to Panama.

MEANWHILE, the United States still has a treaty with Nicaragua, negotiated by William Jennings Bryan when secretary of state, giving us a 99-year lease on a sea level canal route through the San Juan river and Lake Nicaragua which would be a little longer than the present canal through Panama but cheaper to build.

Says Cong. Flood: "What I want is an independent study of all the canal routes, not one by the bureaucrats and the Army engineers who have been affirming each other's findings for the past dozen or so years."

Note — The Army engineers have favored an alternative route through Panama near the Colombian border. Many diplomats believe it would be better to steer completely away from Panama and build a competitive canal through another country.

petitive canal through another country.

BARRY GOLDWATER's office has been flooded with mail complaining about his profanity. Apparently the American public doesn't like to hear a man who's running for President, or for that matter any man in high office, swear on radio or television. As a result, the protests have been what one friend described as "fantastic."

Goldwater's first bit of profanity took place when he made his announcement in Phoenix that he was going to run for President. During his press conference he was surprised by an overhead "boom"—a TV microphone which is swung over the speaker's head in order to pick up his words. "What the hell's that?" boomed Barry.

This went out over the airways. Later when Goldwater flew to New Hampshire and got off the plane, he was greeted by Sen. Norris Cotton, his local campaign manager, who said, "Barry, how are you feeling?" "Fine," replied the man who would be president, "but I'd sure like to get rid of this g. d. cold."

THE TELEVISION sound apparatus again picked up his remarks.

Later, when the candid returned to Washington, friends asked him how he felt. Again, the TV microphones were working. This time Goldwater knew they were there, but answered in a low voice which he didn't think could be heard: "I'm fine but I wish they'd turn off these . . . lights."

This time Barry's words were on tape, and one word was so obscene that it was not, and could not be, released.

When Mrs. Johnson entertains a foreign visitor she doesn't merely leave things to the chef. A good dinner is not enough.

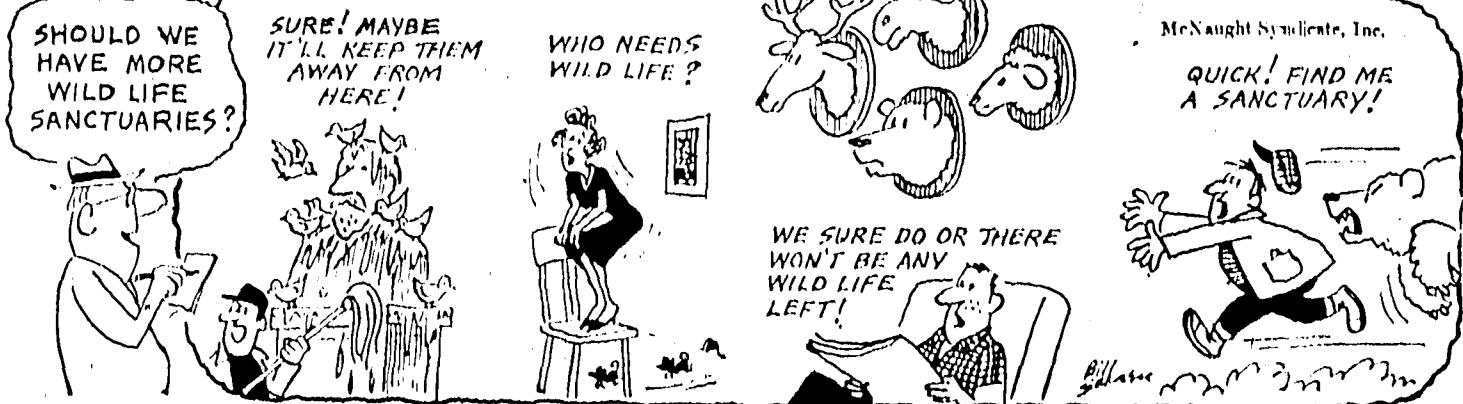

Before President Antonio Segni arrived from Italy, Mrs. Johnson asked Frank Meloy of the State Department to come over to the White House and give her a briefing on Italian problems and President Segni's background. She was interested in the fact that he had been in politics for 29 years, had been prime minister, foreign minister, and in fact had held almost every post in the Italian cabinet.

Perhaps what interested Mrs. Johnson most, however, was that Segni came from the island of Sardinia, which has suffered extreme poverty and is not unlike the depressed areas of Pennsylvania which she visited only last week.

"The trouble with most of the new hats is they make you look like you've just joined something!"

TODAY IN WORLD AFFAIRS

Events Threaten 'Year of Peace'

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — Just a few weeks ago it was being predicted that 1964 would be a year of "peace" — because the Soviet Union was in economic trouble, because Castro's Cuba was slowly "disintegrating," and because Latin-American problems were soon going to be solved by the "Alliance for Progress." Indeed, it was widely assumed that communism was on the downgrade and that the world could look forward to an era of readjustment.

But the mood of "Euphoria"—a word that emerged in the Pentagon vocabulary—has come to a sudden end.

1. Communist China has broken the truce and shell-shocked Quemoy City and the Quemoy islands.

2. Fidel Castro has gone to Moscow by invitation and has received the usual bear hug from Premier Khrushchev.

3. Zanzibar, one of the new "independent" states off the African east coast, has been abruptly converted into a pro-communist state by a revolution.

4. Ghana, in West Africa, another one of the ex-colonial states, has a abolished the two-party system, as the president has assumed the power to remove supreme court justices at will and imitated the totalitarian system of the communists.

5. Troubles in Vietnam, Malaysia and Indonesia have been intensified by the communists.

6. Any thought that Red China and the Soviet Union are at the parting of the ways seems to have been dispelled by the unity displayed by Moscow and Peking in denouncing the United States as an aggressor in the Canal Zone. Communist China, in union with the Soviet Union, has pledged full support of the Panamanians. The newspapers of Communist North Korea have echoed the same line.

In the United States, United Press International reported last Sunday that the New York State Communist Party had called for a dissolution of the 1903 treaty between the United States and Panama.

JUST WHAT goes on behind the Iron Curtain is not too clear to the highest officials in Washington. For Premier Castro's trip to Moscow caught officials here and in other western capitals by surprise. There is frank admission that Fidel Castro's influence extends beyond Cuba into other parts of Latin America.

Dean Rusk, U.S. secretary of state, in a television interview last Sunday on ABC called "Issues and Answers," declared that Castro and his agents have been taking "a direct hand in this (the Panama situation) one way or another," and added that "he had some responsibility for this."

There seems no doubt that the student movements in many countries are directed, if not financed, by the Communists regime in Moscow through Castro. It is significant how many demonstrations occur simultaneously in various Latin-American capitals whenever an event develops in which opposition to the United States can be expressed.

MEANWHILE, Cuba is arranging for large shipments of machinery and other necessities from western European countries. Dean Rusk said on this point: "Castro himself has made it clear both in words and in action that he has designs to step up the terrorism and threats against his neighbors in this hemisphere. Now, we think that we — we not only think but hope that our friends abroad will take into account the attitude of all the countries of this hemisphere toward this particular threat aimed at people here in this part of the world, and that anything which seems to shore up the economy of Cuba, other than the basic humanitarian materials of, say,

Letters to The Editor

Guenther Launches Attack on Goldwater To the Editor:

Out of the "Birmingham-Dallas - Phoenix axis" (America's hate belt) have come many so-called "I Am A Better American Than You" organizations which, together with the John Birch Society and other self-styled super-patriots, have formed a political block with questionable objectives.

Because this block of fanatics believes that any step toward peace is an act of treason, it hysterically and uncompromisingly demands that we withdraw from the United Nations, renounce the test ban treaty, stop all foreign aid and would exile Eisenhower as a Communist if presented with the opportunity. This, it declares, is the "calm voice and sane approach of conservatism."

Now that its champion, Sen. Barry Goldwater, has announced his candidacy for the nation's number one job, the "axis" will be boiling its political pots of fright, hate and suspicion with greater impetus.

1964 will indeed be an interesting year.

foodstuffs and medicine. Increases Castro's capability to cause trouble for his neighbors."

The whole Panamanian trouble doubtless will be settled peacefully. But, as a propaganda project, it will be paying dividends to the Communists for a long time to come.

THE FLAG episode itself is not important, but the memories of bitterness in the past which it reawakened cannot but have a damaging effect on U. S. relations with Central and South American countries in the immediate future.

This history of the establishment of Panama has been all but forgotten in this country, but not in Latin America. The United States, for economic and military purposes, needed a canal between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans. The voyage around the southern tip of South America was too long for naval ship movements as well as for commercial shipping. Several French groups had failed to build a canal through Colombia before 1900. The United States brought their rights and offered Colombia compensation for a canal zone.

Colombia refused to ratify the treaty in October 1903, and a month later a province in northern Colombia revolted. When it was successful in seizing a strip of territory, President Theodore Roosevelt immediately extended recognition and made an agreement with the new Panama Republic to allow the canal to be built. It wasn't until 1921 that the United States paid an indemnity of $25 million to Colombia and formally "expressed regret" over the unfortunate episode.

Goodview Trinity Church Women Hear Pastor Talk

Women of Goodview Trinity Lutheran Church Guild meeting Tuesday evening at the church heard the Rev. David Ponath, pastor, speak on the topic, "Women's Role in Providing Workers."

The term "housewife," Pastor Ponath said, "too often implies something dull and uninteresting. She is in a position to teach the love of God to her children by her own action and faith."

MRS. HAGEN in her talk related her personal experience with the Shriners Hospital. She told how her son, now a senior in the University of Minnesota Medical School, became a victim of Legg-Perthes disease, or softening of the hip, when he was eight years old.

Through the family doctor and other Shriners, the child was admitted to Shriners Hospital as an outpatient for four years, during which time he was equipped with expensive braces and special shoes in the treatment of the disease.

Mrs. Hagen said the boy was X-rayed and examined once a month during that time and his equipment adjusted to his growth, all free of charge. He eventually was completely cured.

"Thanks to God and the Shriners Hospital my son is now straight and tall and undeformed," Mrs. Hagen said in closing.

now unto you

- little minds, I speak with whatever wisdom age has to offer. But Paul more wisely said it, "Though I speak with the tongues of angels, and have not Charity, I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal." The wise lady offers good council but youth, it seems, must learn by experience, by precept, by example. That makes it all the more important for adult life to give its best to the basic needs of our youth. Keep good books before them; let your word of mouth be clean; make church attendance and Christian living a "must" at your house, for, Charity must begin at home. And truly, we are as nothing without Charity. Then come with me to church, let us abide in the will of God, obey His voice and march to victory.

NASON ON EDUCATION

One Paragraph At a Time

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed. D., Professor of Education, University of S. C.

Dear Dr. Nason: Please advise us as to the best procedure to improve a child's "paragraph meaning" phase of reading.

Our boy is in the seventh grade. Recent Stanford achievement tests registered a reading level of seventh grade but the paragraph meaning fell behind 1½ grades and vocabulary ½ grade.

Our son is bored with remedial reading class. Are there other corrective measures I could take to help him?

Mrs. J. S., Sacramento, Calif.

Answer: With the combination of vocabulary and paragraph meaning to be improved I suggest the following procedure:

Have your son read a selected paragraph from a newspaper or textbook, studying it carefully so he can recite the meaning either to you, or to himself when he's finished. If he is puzzled by too many words, the meaning of the paragraph may not be clear until after a second reading.

Have him read the paragraph again, trying to understand it without concentrating on the words, one at a time.

Practicing and thoroughly mastering one paragraph a day in this fashion soon will bring results.

Bergerson Spends Day Off Painting House, Thinking of 300

By GARY EVANS
Daily News Sports Editor

WHITEHALL, Wis. — If you are the person who ascended bowling heights as astronomical enough to make you a vital statistic in the American Bowling Congress library, set two alley records in one night of kegling and became the second man in the history of Trempealeau County to turn in a perfect 300 game, how do you spend your day off?

If you happen to be Gerald (Java) Bergerson of Strum, you relax, savoring the memory of the alley treat that came the previous night. You also spend some time painting a house that you and your bride will occupy in a few weeks.

It was Bergerson, a tall, husky, good looking man who takes to the alleys three times weekly, who turned in the first 300 game in the history of Lyle Pavak's Whitehall Lanes Wednesday night while bowling for Strum's Gravgaard Insurance in the Classic League.

The perfect count came in his first game and set the stage for a 702 which followed after a 248 second game and a 154 third game.

But while you are busy painting a house, other people are busy working for you.

As Pavak said late Thursday afternoon: "I can tell you it takes an alley proprietor and an association secretary five and one-half hours of combined work to put everything in order for the ABC."

Why?

There are such matters as filling an extensive form with answers, weighing the pins, taking a crosswise check of alley tilt in six different spots, using a feeler gauge to check the depth of alley level, computing the number of lines the pins have been used for and, finally, posting bright red numbers at least five inches high behind Bergerson's name on the scoreboard.

When you're finished, the numbers read: "J. Bergerson—300-702." But it doesn't end there. You think to yourself that a 700 scoreboard complete with Bergerson's name and score would look good hanging above the alleys. You then decide to do something about the plan.

"I'm going to make one and hang it right there by the clock," said Pavak, pointing to a spot midway between No. 2 and 3 alleys in the four-lane house. "Then I'm going to put Java's name on it and sit down and wait for the next one to come along."

Hopeful, now that the ice is broken, the next national honor count won't be 15 years in the making. Bergerson's scores were the first 300 and 700 totals at Whitehall since the alleys were erected in 1949.

But back to Bergerson who meanwhile has been accepting congratulations and deciding which ABC prize he should choose and then finally picking a ring with a bold 300 sharing its face with a diamond.

Did the pressure get to him? "Not particularly," he answered. "It's something you think about, but never expect to happen to you. I figured after I got the tenth strike that I had a chance."

"I had had Brooklyns on No. 4 alley in the sixth and eighth frames and I wasn't too enthused about finishing on that one. But the balls were right in the pocket."

What about the 700?

"Well, I knew after the first game that I had a good chance of getting one," he smiled, "and then after the second game (a 248) I thought I had it easy. But then I hit the splits in the third game (three of them in the fifth, eighth and tenth frames). The 700 was anticlimactic, but I thought it would be a shame if I didn't get one. I wasn't too nervous, but after I threw the 12th ball in the first game, I was shakin' pretty good."

"I told him no one could tell him how it would feel to get up on the approach in the tenth," recalled Pavak, the only other Trempealeau County kegler to hit a 300. That came at Bisek's Lanes in Independence March 24, 1950.

What was the reaction of his fiancée, Jane Hulberg of Strum whom he will marry Feb. 23?

"She was elated," he said quickly.

What type of ball does the 37-year-old rural mail carrier throw?

"I like to call it a snake ball," he said. "I try and throw a hook, but it doesn't break much. In fact, some of them were backing into the pocket Wednesday night."

The 300-248-154 — 702 raised Bergerson's Whitehall average to 187. He carries a 181 in the Big 12 League at Eau Claire and a 186 in the Indianhead League. Both roll at Wagner's 40½ Lanes.

"That's a little over my head," he said. "I've had mine. Now someone else can hit theirs."

When? Who knows. But the scores Pavak has posted on his board tell a grim tale to the Brunswick lumber. It doesn't look as if it will be 15 years.

Cotter, Hawks Travel Tonight

Ramblers to Test Benilde

In John Nett's estimation, every basketball game his Cotter quintet plays is a real test, but tonight, most will agree, will separate the men from the boys.

The Ramblers are dancing along on a nine-game winning streak and a 10-1 season record. Nett has come up with solid reserve strength, and the Ramblers appear headed for their annual trip to the state tournament.

But there is a snag in Cotter's path, and it comes tonight when the Winona cagers jaunt to St. Louis Park to take on the Red Knights of Benilde. Benilde is the defending state champion, and this year's squad appears equal to the 1962-63 group.

The Red Knights dumped the Ramblers twice last season, both by 11-point margins. In those two games, Benilde showed a balanced attack which featured a bevy of big men and fine shooting guards.

This season's team started the same way, but, according to Nett, "A couple of their big men were injured early in the season. They have some more big men on the bench, but I don't know if they play or not."

Even without the services of a towering forward wall, Benilde still boasts a potent attack led by a pair of lettermen guards, Jim Flick and Kim Vogelsang. This pair of 5-11 cagers have led the Red Knights to a 9-2 season mark, dropping decisions only to Minneapolis De La Salle and St. Cloud Cathedral.

Cotter will counter with a pair of fine guards of its own. Rick Starzecki, the playmaker of the team who has shown flurries of scoring ability, and Gene Schultz, the teams leading scorer with a 14-1 average, man the back court for the Ramblers.

Even a victory over Benilde won't bring Cotter into a bed of roses, however. The Ramblers must return to the Twin Cities for a battle with St. Paul Hill Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Cotter downed the Pioneers 56-51 at St. Stan's gym earlier this season, but had to come from behind to pull out the verdict.

Carnival Fishing Contest Sunday

The annual Winter Carnival Ice fishing contest will be held Sunday at Straight Slough, Latsch Prairie Island Park, from 1 to 4 p.m.

Holes will be drilled. Attendance prizes will be given along with prizes for the biggest fish in each category. Syl Kosidowski is the contest chairman.

WARRIORS AT ST. CLOUD

Meisner Will Open Saturday

With one change in its starting lineup, Winona State attempts to take sole possession of the Northern Intercollegiate Conference lead when it treks northward to St. Cloud Saturday night.

Coach Bob Campbell made sure the friendly Clouet rivalry would make its appearance in the contest when he moved Dave Meisner into the starting guard spot formerly held by Darrell Schuster.

"I felt it was the thing to do," said Campbell. "He (Meisner) played a fine game against La Crosse and earned his chance to start."

The other four starters will remain the same. Gary Petersen and Lyle Papenfuss will be at forwards with Dave Rosenau at center and Dave Goede opposite Meisner.

To that group falls the chore of keeping St. Cloud's elongated cagers away from the backboards.

"We had a fair practice last night," said the coach. "We're getting things lined

MANKATO PROVIDES OPPOSITION

Hawk Mat, Swim Teams at Home

With the basketball squad out of town, Winona High sports fans won't be without action to attend on the local front.

Both the Winhawk wrestling and swimming squads will be at home against Mankato teams in events starting at 6:30 tonight.

For the tankers, it will be a return match of the one last Friday night when the Winhawks won 66-25. Coach Lloyd Lake plans to use as many as 40 swimmers in the competition.

Both the A and B squad meets will be run simultaneously.

Saturday, the Winhawk swimmers host a powerful Hopkins team, which is coached by another Luke. Elmer, Lloyd's brother. Hopkins is ranked as one of the top two teams in the state, but five swimmers will not make the trip south because of relay competition at the University of Minnesota.

Luke, Winona's coach, says his team has been looking sharp in practice this week, and looks for top efforts from John Sanders in the backstroke and Larry Anderson in the 200-yard freestyle.

In wrestling Coach Gene Nardini's words, "Mankato is always tough."

The Scarlets will bring a strong squad to the Winona arena featured by a pair of undefeated 120-pounders. He will be matched against the Winhawks' Len Dienger, Pete Woodworth of Winona, who wrestles at 165, will go up against Anderson of Mankato. Both grapplers are undefeated. Woodworth in 11 matches.

The rest of the Winona lineup will have Jim Overring, 95, Steve Miller, 103, Gerry Ellis, 112, Ken Gausich, 127, Larry Pomeroy, 133, Cliff Verus, 138, Barry Arenz, 145, Bill Roth, 154, Byron Bohnen, 175, and Bob Huesinger, heavyweight. Miller returns to the Winhawks, one.

Winona High At Mankato

Faced with the indefinite problem of knowing who to play on who at Mankato, John Kenney takes his team into the first of a six-game Big Nine Conference test run that could lead the Hawks into the throne room.

But the one big problem staring at the Hawks is who Mankato Coach Orv Schwankl might start.

The Scarlet guards could be any combination that five men can give you. There are two center prospects and three for the two forward spots.

And Schwankl has been alternating with every game.

"We won't know what to do until we get over there," said Kenney. "We're just going to have to wait and see who he starts."

Game time at Mankato will be 8 o'clock. Bob Lee's "B" squad will play the Little Scarlets in the preliminary.

Kenney has a set lineup. Steve Keller and Gary Addington will be at guards with Jim Kasten at center and Bill Squires and John Duell at forwards. A second platoon would feature Pat Boland and Tony Kreuzer at guards, Bob Urness and Bruce Holan at forwards and John Brandt at center.

"I don't know yet whether I'll two platoon," said the coach.

At Mankato, it's a case of take your pick.

In the running for guard berths are juniors Chuck Helling, Tom Jaax and Nick Francis. Senior candidates are Mark Schaffler and Dennis Sandell. Helling and Francis appear the likely choices at present.

At center it most likely will be 6-5 Dave Lillard, but 6-1 Tim Leonard could get the ball.

A certain starter at a forward will be the team's leading scorer, Paul Anderson, who stands 6-1. His mate will be either Lillard, classed as a better outside shooter than pivot man, or 6-1 Vince Johnson.

Petes, Trojans Clash Tonight

For the second time in a week, basketball teams from two cities only a stone's throw apart collide in the top cage encounter in the Daily News area.

Bernie Benson's Peterson team, picked as the class of District One but missing star guard Murton Boyum, will play host to Ward Huff's Rushford Trojans in a crucial Root River Conference contest.

Although both coaches feel their teams have a chance, both agree that it should be a down-to-the-wire struggle.

"RUSHFORD appears to be a good all-around team," says Benson. "With Dale Olstad as the hub of its attack. If we play the right kind of game, we'll win even without Boyum. It will be one of our toughest games. The natural rivalry always makes it a tough game." The two cities are just four miles apart.

"It should go down to the gun," says Huff. "Our team is really coming along. We wouldn't be afraid to play them even if they had Boyum."

How much effect will Boyum's absence have on the outcome?

"You'll always miss a player like Boyum," said Benson of his star guard who underwent an appendectomy and will be out for at least two more weeks. "But if we put out, we should win. Every game is like that. If you don't put out, you don't win."

IN PLACE of Boyum, Benson will start 5-6 freshman guard Wayne Hasleiet. Teaming with him in the back court will be 5-10 junior Don Gudmundson. The forwards will be 6-2 senior Stan Olson and 6-1 senior Stan Gudmundson at center.

The two top reserves are 5-10 sophomore forward Gerald Agrimson and 5-8 junior guard James Hatlevig.

For Rushford, four juniors and one senior will get the call. The only senior is 6-0 guard Craig Johnson. The other guard will be 5-8 Vern Bunke with 6-0 Rick Manion at center and 6-2 Ed Sandness and 6-1½ Dale Olstad at forwards.

THE TOP reserves — all juniors — are 6-0 center-forward John Kinneberg, 5-6 guard Doug Rislove and 5-10 forward Dennis Elleson.

In a pair of games—a year ago in conference play, the two teams broke even, each winning at home. This year Peterson is 7-1 overall, the only loss coming at the hands of Lewiston Tuesday night, and 4-0 in the Root River.

Rushford is 4-5 overall and tied for third place in the loop with a 3-2 record.

WEST GIVEN EDGE SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—The West merits an edge over the East in the annual American Football League All-Star game Sunday off its greater speed and explosive attack.

Finley to Fight American Loop Order

NEW YORK (AP)—Charles O. Finley has been ordered by the American League to remain in Kansas City but the embattled owner of the Athletics baseball club vowed today to continue his fight to move the club despite a threat of expulsion.

The American League, by a vote of 9 to 1 Thursday night, turned down Finley's request to move the club to Louisville, and, by the same vote, ordered him to sign a lease in Kansas City by Feb. 1 or forfeit the franchise.

"No one can and no one will take my ball club away from me," the fiery Finley roared defiantly. "I am not accepting the league's decision without a fight."

"I don't think they have the right to force me to stay in a city where I have been continuously losing money. I will go to court to find out if the American League legally has the power to restrain me from moving my ball club to Louisville or any other place."

In an informal press conference conducted minutes after he had stalked out of the nine-hour league meetings, Finley declared he intended to get an injunction, if possible, enabling him to go to Louisville. The embattled baseball executive had signed a contract, subject to league approval, to play in Louisville in 1964 and 1965.

Finley conducted the conference while perched on the top of a bureau in the suite of Kentucky Gov. Edward T. Breuninger, who headed a Louisville delegation supporting Finley.

"If it is legally possible to get an injunction whereby I can go to Louisville, you can rest assured I will do that," he said. "If I can't, I will go back to Kansas City and sign a lease for only as long as I have to—no more than one year."

Later in the conference, he amended this defiant attitude. "The more I think of it, the more I believe I may sign a longer term lease with Kansas City," he said. "What difference if the lease is for one year or five or even ten if it's subject to the court's decision? If the court rules in my favor, I can get out. If it rules against me, I'll stay stuck in Kansas City and like it."

The announcement of the American League's drastic and unprecedented action was made by President Joe Cronin.

MEN'S ENTRIES CLOSE SATURDAY

Polish up the bowling ball boys, the Winona Men's City Tournament is just around the corner.

Wait a minute! The entry deadline is Saturday, and WMBAA secretary Jim Schneider urges every kegger interested to submit his entry blank immediately. In order to be eligible for the competition, all bowlers must have an ABC number.

Each entry blank contains a number, and bowlers without one are urged to contact their league secretary and obtain one.

Walking Contest Scheduled for Winter Carnival

The Winona Winter Carnival has added something new to its activity curriculum this year.

Beginning from the American Legion Club at 1:30 p.m. Saturday will be the heel and toe walking competition, open only to couples from the three Winona colleges.

The event will take place just before the parade. Any team wishing to enter should contact John Votava at St. Mary's or Ron Troke at Winona State. Ed Spencer is in charge of judging and Jack Frost will award the prizes.

The walking route is nine blocks long.

Rules for the contest are:

1. Only couples (boy and girl) may enter.
2. All couples must start and finish together.
3. Decisions of judges on all rulings shall be final.
4. Basic walking rules:
 - a. The most notable factors differentiating the run from the walk is the period of double support. Characteristic of the walk, but NOT present in the run. In running there is a period of no support not present in the walk.
 - b. All contestants must walk the established distance. Any form of running will immediately disqualify competitors.
 - c. This is the heel and toe walk (Olympic style), thus the heel must hit the ground first, then the ball of the foot and then the push off the toes.
 - d. There must never be a period of non-support. That is, one foot must always be in contact with the ground.

REDMEN SQUADS TAKING REST

St. Mary's basketball and hockey teams take a rest from their inter-school competition this weekend.

The Redmen winter sports teams will go back into action next week, after the completion of semester tests. St. Mary's basketball team goes into non-conference action Thursday night at Stevens Point, while the unbeaten ice-men wait until Saturday before hosting St. John's in an MIAC tilt.

return from a long tank vacation to host Plattville at Memorial Hall pool Saturday at 2 p.m.

Michigan Tech will provide another tough test for the Warrior matmen.

"They stand 2-1 so they have a few dual meets under their belts," said Gunner. "That was the big problem at Luther. It had already wrestled five meets."

Luther now stands 5-1 with only a loss to State College of Iowa marring its slate.

Warrior victories came from Perry King on a pin over Bob Willner at 137 and a draw between Larry Wedemeier and Rich Moline in the heavyweight division.

"Dave Haines (who lost a 5-4 decision at 167) is our most improved wrestler," said Gunner. "He did a terrific job. He wrestled one of their best boys."

Michigan Tech will feature the talents of heavyweight Rog Hettinga who holds a 25-5-2 dual meet mark. One of those five losses came at the hands of Jerry Wedemeier. Tonight he wrestles Jerry's younger brother, Larry. Only one change will take place in the Warrior lineup. Dale Nelson will move in at 191.

RUSHFORD CLUB TO HOST MEET

RUSHFORD, Minn. — The Hillcrest Lions Ski Club will be host to an invitational ski jumping tournament to be held on Magelssen Hill here Jan. 26.

Entries are expected from Westhy, Eau Claire, Madison, and Iowa, Wis., and also from Minneapolis, St. Paul, Duluth, Dalton and Rushford, Minn. This Class B meet is sanctioned by the Central U. S. Ski Association.

OFFICIALS WILL BAND TOGETHER

There definitely will be a Winona sporting officials association. It is just a matter of how it will operate.

That was the decision that came out of a special meeting held at Shorty's Hiawatha Room Thursday night. Twelve Winona and Goodview officials attended the meeting, with eight others indicating interest.

Another meeting is scheduled for Jan. 30. It appears that every official in Winona and Goodview will be included in the new association.

LORTSCHER INKS PACT

LAKE CITY, Minn. — Lake City's contribution to professional baseball, Dennis Lortscher, has signed his 1964 contract with Minnesota Twins.

Lortscher was a standout prep hurler for Lake City, and after signing with the Twins last year, posted a 4-3 record for Orlando, Fla.

The 18-year-old right-hander will be the only first-year player to be counted on the parent club's roster this season, although he probably will be farmed to a minor league team to gain experience.

Gophers Can Move Into Third Place

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Minnesota's Gophers can move into third place in the Big Ten basketball race by beating Northwestern Saturday afternoon in a game to be regionally televised from Williams Arena. Game time is 3:30 p.m.

Both the Gophers and Wildcats are 2-1 in conference play, tied for fourth place behind Michigan, Ohio State and Illinois — all 2-0. Ohio State plays Michigan Saturday, however, and the loser will drop behind the Gopher-Wildcat winner. Illinois doesn't play.

Northwestern boasts the player many coaches consider the Big Ten's best outside shot — Rich Falk. He's averaging 20.7 points in three conference games, eighth best in the league.

Gopher Coach John Kundla indicated Thursday he plans to have sophomore Archie Clark guard Falk in a bid to hold him down.

The Wildcats also will start Marty Riessen, a tennis star who was on the U.S. Davis Cup championship team this year. Northwestern has the conference's No. 4 scorer in Rick Loppa with a 25.7 average.

Northwestern, which has a 4-5 season record to Minnesota's 9-4, has beaten Indiana 79-65 and Wisconsin 76-63 in the Big Ten in addition to bowing 85-73 to Michigan.

Kundla plans to start Lou Hudson and Bill Davis at forwards. Mel Northway at center and Terry Kunze and Clark at guards.

Mondovi Bowling Meet Opens Monday

MONDOVI, Wis. (Special) — The city bowling tournament, sponsored by the Mondovi Bowling Association, will be held at Don's Country Club Lanes from Monday through Jan. 26. Cash prizes will be given for the winners in the singles, doubles, and team events. A trophy will be awarded the winner of the all events.

Officers of the association are: Vendor Steirke, president; Gene Higley, vice president and Bernie Gruber, secretary-treasurer.

Fishing Contest

Four fishing contests including the Winona Winter Carnival event are on our fishing calendar for Sunday. Three of these prize-offering events will be held on boundary waters of the river zone where Minnesota and Wisconsin residents may fish with their state resident 1964 fishing license. The other, at Black River Falls, is on Wisconsin inland waters.

The Winona contest follows the annual pancake breakfast, a part of the Winter Carnival, served by the members of the Will Dilg Chapter of the Izaak Walton League. Their breakfast runs from 8 a.m. until noon. Their cabin is the headquarters for the afternoon contest. Carnival Royalty will attend each event.

Probably the big contest of the day is the annual Lake City one. This year it is being sponsored by the Lake City Chamber of Commerce which alternates every other year with the American Legion post. It is practically downtown, or on the lake between the pier and the harbor. Sandpiper is usually the common fish caught in this event.

New pheasant pens at Arcadia, Wis., is the goal of the Arcadia Sportsmen's Club. The club is sponsoring a contest on Third Lake, Trempealeau, from 1 to 3:30 p.m. Sunday. There will be an abundance of prizes and good fishing.

In all three of these contests, holes will be drilled in advance, and bait made available on the ice as well as lunch and refreshments.

Lucas Scores 29 As Royals Romp

CINCINNATI (AP) — Jerry Lucas boosted his chances for National Basketball Association Rookie of the Year honors in leading the Cincinnati Royals to a 108-95 win over first place Los Angeles of the Western Division Thursday night.

Lucas' performance was in the second game of a double-header—the only action in the NBA—in which the New York Knicks won their first game this season at Cincinnati Gardens with a 124-116 triumph over the Detroit Pistons.

He's Proud Papa, Bowling Leader

DALLAS (AP) — Tom Hennessey became the proud father of a baby boy Thursday night and also scored best in the opening day of qualifying at the All-Star Bowling Tournament.

While the rugged Irishman was compiling a four game series of 928 in the $100,000 world series of ten pins, his wife was delivering an 8 pound 8 ounce son 642 miles away in a St. Louis hospital.

Hennessey, current American Bowling Congress Classic singles and all-events champion, soared to the head of the 288 man field with games of 247, 218, 237 and 224.

freshments. Fishermen from each state can fish with their resident 1964 fishing licenses.

The purpose of the National Guard contest at Black River Falls which starts at 11 a.m. is to help to make up the shortage in the local Community Chest. It will be held in a good fishing spot just above the dam. This is an all-day contest.

Weather conditions, the weatherman tells us, are going to be favorable for outdoor activities over the entire weekend. So all the Winter Carnival activities, such as a fishing contest, ski meet, and skating events, should be enjoyable. Get out and enjoy them.

Boating Big Business
Spending on recreational boating reached an all-time high in 1963, according to the annual year-end report of the Outdoor Boating Club of America and the National Association of Engine and Boat Manufacturers.

In their new report, "Boating—1963," it is estimated that $2,581,000,000 was spent for new and used boats, motors, trailers, accessories, fuel, insurance, docking, launching, storage, maintenance and repairs. The figure topped last year's mark by some $75 million and exceeded the previous high—set in 1960—by $56 million.

The two associations estimated that 38,390,000 persons went boating on a more-than-casual basis in 1963, an increase of more than a million over 1962.

The report placed the number of recreational craft of all types in use on the nation's waterways at 7,678,000. The 1962 figure was 7,468,000. The report shows the make-up of the mammoth fleet as follows: 813,000 inboard boats, including auxiliary-powered sailboats, 4,239,000 outboard boats, 495,000 sailboats without auxiliary power and 2,131,000 rowboats, canoes, dinghies and other miscellaneous craft.

A late-season surge in the sale of outboard boats and motors was enough to offset sharp declines recorded in the early months of the year and gave the outboard segment of the boating industry its best year since 1960. Preliminary data indicates outboard motor sales of 362,000 units, compared with 350,000 in 1962; outboard boat sales of 257,000, compared MAPS PREPARED by the United States Weather Bureau indicate that for the next 30 days the Upper Midwest may expect warmer temperatures than usual, but about normal precipitation.

It'll Be Warm This Weekend

The bitter cold of many years will be lacking and generally mild weather will prevail for Winona Winter Carnival activities Saturday and Sunday.

This is the word of the weatherman who predicts clearing and colder weather tonight with a low of 15-22 and increasing cloudiness Saturday with an afternoon high of 25-35. Sunday, he says, will see temperatures a little above normal with no significant precipitation.

IN FACT, for the period Saturday through Wednesday, area temperatures are slated to continue mild with daily averages 6 to 10 degrees above normal. Normal daytime highs are 18-25 and nighttime lows 2 below to 7 above.

Precipitation is expected to average one-tenth to one-fourth of an inch in snow, mostly next week.

The Winona temperature rose to 33 Thursday afternoon, dropped to 20 during the night and was 34 at noon today.

A year ago the Winona high for the same day was 9 and the low -14. All-time high for Jan. 17 was 56 in 1894 and the low -30 in 1873. Mean for the past 24 hours was 26. Normal for this day is 15, lowest mean of the winter.

Temperatures over the state continued mild, too, with a low of 12 at International Falls where it was snowing.

Rochester had a high of 26 and a low of 21 while La Crosse posted figures of 26 and 21.

A warming trend developed in WISCONSIN today, bringing light snow to some sections of the state.

The northwestern corner of Wisconsin reported snow during the night. The State Highway Department said a one-inch snowfall in Bayfield County made driving hazardous this morning.

Precipitation also was reported in the Superior-Duluth area, Green Bay, Wausau and Park Falls during the night. Light snow and freezing mist made roads slippery in the Madison, Monroe and Dodgeville areas. Amounts generally were negligible, however.

Racine registered the state's high temperature reading of 31 Thursday. Lowest in the state during the night was 5 above zero at Lone Rock.

The National extremes were Fort Myers and Key West, Fla., 75, and Limestone, Maine, 3 above zero.

Armin Boettcher was elected president; Robert Young, vice president; A. J. Kiebusch, secretary; David Sauer, treasurer, and Norman Schellhas, trustee. Elected to the board of directors were Norman Girtler, George Krage Jr., Gaylord Aldinger and Millard Warneke for two-year terms.

Coal, Wood, Other Fuel

PROBLEM? A BTU is the amount of heat it takes to raise one pound of water one degree. Each pound of "COMMANDER" coal contains 14,500 BTUs. Lake Winona, according to careful calculations, contains 130,000,000 gallons of water. How many tons of "COMMANDER" coal would it take to heat all the water in Lake Winona to the boiling point? Find answer elsewhere in this paper. EAST END COAL & FUEL OIL CO., 501 E. 8th. "Where you get more heat for lower cost."

OAK WOOD Good oak slabs sawed in stove lengths. Suitable for range and furnace. Price reasonable. Haul it yourself or we will deliver.
