U.S. Plane Reported Shot Down by Reds

BONN, Germany (AP) — A U.S. official said today he had a report that a U.S. Air Force plane had been shot down over Communist-ruled East Germany. He said he had no precise information on the location. At Wiesbaden, Air Force headquarters said a two-man T29 trainer is missing.

Reds Won't Recognize Two Chinas

BULLETIN
PARIS (AP) — A French spokesman today said France has no intention or desire to break relations with the Chinese Nationalist government of President Chiang Kai-shek.

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China declared today it does not recognize the "two Chinas" concept in establishing diplomatic relations with France. A statement issued by the Communist Chinese Foreign Ministry said "according to international practice, recognition of the new government of a country naturally implies ceasing to recognize the old ruling group overthrown by the people of that country."

The text of the statement was broadcast by the New China News Agency monitored here tonight. "Consequently, the representatives of the old ruling group can no longer be regarded as representatives of that country to be present side by side with the representatives of the new government in one and the same country or international organization," the statement said. "It was with this understanding that the government of the People's Republic (Communist) China reached agreement with the government of the French Republic on the establishment of diplomatic relations and exchange of ambassadors between China and France."

If the Red Chinese gave any indication of moderating their policy in return for French recognition, officials here say they have no evidence of it. Nor do they think De Gaulle will find important markets for French goods in China.

General Realistic
About Red China
By HARVEY HUDSON
PARIS (AP) — For President Charles de Gaulle, the Chinese mainland is a reality of 700 million people, and the control of the Communist government is a fact. He thinks the time has come to base France's diplomatic policy on reality.

Schlesinger Leaving
White House March 1
WASHINGTON (AP) — Arthur Schlesinger Jr. today became the second key White House adviser to the late President Kennedy to submit his resignation to President Johnson. Schlesinger will leave the White House staff March 1.

Won't Desert You, Rusk Tells Formosa

Russia Urges All Nations To Destroy Bomber Forces

GENEVA (AP) — The Soviet Union proposed today that all nations destroy their bomber forces as a step toward disarmament. The proposal was submitted to the 17-nation disarmament conference by Soviet delegates Semyon K. Tsarapkin. Western officials immediately expressed interest in the idea, first put forward by the United States last year to prevent bombers from falling into the hands of small but potentially trouble-making nations as they become obsolete in the Air Forces of the major powers. The proposal was part of a nine-point memorandum suggested by Tsarapkin as a working plan for the conference. Asked what planes he had in mind for destruction, Tsarapkin told newsmen: "The entire bomber force of all countries."

President Johnson at the resumption of the conference last week proposed a five-point program. Tsarapkin said Johnson's proposal for a treaty to ban the spread of nuclear weapons is unacceptable to Russia unless the United States agrees to scrap the proposed NATO multilateral nuclear force. American officials have repeatedly stated that the NATO force is not subject to negotiation at this conference.

U.S. Loyal to Commitments, Secretary Says

By ROBERT EUNSON
TOKYO (AP) — The United States "will never abandon the 12 million people on Taiwan (Formosa) to Communist tyranny," Secretary of State Dean Rusk declared tonight. Rusk spelled out the U.S. attitude towards Peking's Red rulers at a dinner winding up a U.S.-Japan Cabinet conference on trade and economic problems. "Peking still insists upon the surrender of Taiwan as the sine qua non of any improvement whatever in relations with the United States," Rusk said. "We are loyal to our commitments to the government of the Republic of China."

In a detailed indictment of the Communist regime, President Johnson's No. 1 Cabinet official declared:

"Peking has violated the Geneva agreements of 1954 on Indochina and the Geneva agreements of 1962 on Laos. It incites and actively supports aggression on Southeast Asia."

"Peking attacked India and occupies a position from which it continues to threaten the subcontinent of South Asia."

"Peking is attempting to extend its tactics of terror and subversion into Latin America and Africa."

"In other words, Peking is demonstrating every day that it has nothing but contempt for the most elementary condition of peace: namely, leave your neighbors alone."

"Free nations must not reward the militancy of Peking or give Communists anywhere any ground for hope of profit from the use or threat of force."

Rusk said the American people have deep sympathy for the plight of the people on the Chinese mainland. "Look forward to the time when it will be possible to resume our historic ties of friendship with them."

"When mainland China has a government which is prepared to renounce force, to make peace and to honor international responsibilities, it will find us responsive," he said.

Rusk met with Japanese Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda earlier today but there were conflicting reports over how deeply they went into the Red China issue.

A U.S. spokesman said Rusk and Ikeda agreed to state publicly that they discussed "the French recognition of Communist China." Yasuni Kurogane, secretary of the Japanese Cabinet, told newsmen the recognition question was not raised since it had been examined by Rusk and Foreign Minister Masayoshi Ohira.

The conflicting reports supported belief that the United States and Japan do not agree on what to do about French recognition. Rusk has made two unsuccessful attempts to convince Ohira of the desirability of working together to prevent the spread of the recognition move.

Minneapolis Bar Robbed of $2,500

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Two masked gunmen forced the owner and 30 customers into a rear storage room at Arone's Bar early today and fled with between $2,500 and $4,500. Savory Arone, 59, the owner, said the men wore ski masks and one pointed a shotgun, as they forced him to empty two safes, a cash drawer and two tills. They passed up $3,500 in checks.

Anderson's presence at the dinner came to light when a chaffing dish caused an explosion that burned seven guests. "All Minnesotans regret the unfortunate accident that occurred at the party," said Etzell. "But Minnesotans should also regret that a member of the FBI was drawn into the partisan fund raising effort."

The seven victims were still in hospitals today being treated for burns. Official observations for the 24 hours ending at 12 m. today: Maximum, 6; minimum, -4; noon, 11; precipitation, none.

De Gaulle Move Raises New Challenge to U.S.

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials argue that French President Charles de Gaulle is making a great mistake in establishing diplomatic relations with Communist China.

They say he will be disappointed in the benefits he expects and that the result of his action will be to strengthen the Chinese Communists in their struggle for revolutionary influence around the world.

U.S. officials reason this way: The Chinese Communists are still in the stage of development in which their need for controls on their own people seems to require a policy of hostility toward non-Communist powers, particularly the United States.

To counter this posture the best policy for the Western allies is to withhold — so far as they can — all trade and diplomatic relations until the Chinese Reds are willing to improve their behavior in exchange for the things they want from the world's great industrial and trading nations.

It is true that Britain and a few other allied countries recognized Red China years ago. The French action introduces a new element and opens up all kinds of possibilities to Peking's advantage. It breaches the partial blockade which the United States has maintained with the cooperation of most allied powers for more than a decade. It confers a new degree of acceptability and prestige on Peking. It sets an example likely to be followed by other countries, particularly those responsive to French leadership.

If the Red Chinese gave any indication of moderating their policy in return for French recognition, officials here say they have no evidence of it. Nor do they think De Gaulle will find important markets for French goods in China.

Somebody forgot to pull a plug. Monday's mistake, which caused postponement of the test launching until Wednesday, also cost American taxpayers several thousand dollars.

Neither the National Aeronautics and Space Administration nor the Air Force could produce the exact amount the neglect cost the taxpayers. Estimates of salaries involved for the 200-man launching pad team was $18,000.

The operation ties up five Air Force Service aircraft assigned to recover performance-recording cameras which are to be ejected from the rocket during flight. No estimate was available on the cost.

The Air Force emphasized that all agencies which use the missile range are geared to absorb such costs because of the number of missile shot postponements, caused by technical or weather reasons.

The countdown on the Saturn 1, which is to boost the heaviest satellite ever sent aloft, had been under way 11 hours when it was discovered that a line which funnels liquid oxygen oxidizer to the fuel tanks was not delivering. Technicians then found that someone had forgotten to remove a test device called a "blind flange."

The flange, an aluminum plate, was inserted in the line two or three days previously during a line pressure leak check.

"It was carelessness on the whole (200-man) team, a human error," said Rocco Petrone, a project official. "It was a routine procedure that we've done many times before. This time, we didn't do it. We make mistakes."

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI today set Feb. 16 for the start of the broad reform in Roman Catholic public worship promulgated in the Vatican Ecumenical Council's decree on liturgy.

Human Error Delays Saturn

By HOWARD BENEDICT
CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The first two-stage Saturn 1, believed to be the world's most powerful rocket, sits on its launching pad today because

More Mass Protests Set For Atlanta

By DON MCKEE
ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Militant civil rights leaders planned today for more mass protests of segregation after more than 100 persons went to jail Monday in street demonstrations.

A siege of the downtown area for the third night by marching, milling demonstrators, mostly Negro students, heightened the worst racial crisis in years for this city.

Despite mounting arrests, now nearly 200, youth leaders said they would continue the mass onslaught, centered on a segregated restaurant.

Police officers declared a state of emergency Monday night in the busy downtown area surrounding Le's, a restaurant which refuses to serve Negroes.

Demonstrations began with about 50 pickets walking around the block on which Le's is located.

When they refused to disperse they were hauled off to jail. Cheers and applause came from hundreds of white spectators.

Three hours later, demonstrations resumed.

About 150 circled city jail twice, then walked several blocks to join about 50 others in marching around the block at Le's for nearly two hours. Police stopped them.

Chanting and singing, the demonstrators massed in a narrow street a block from Le's. Paddy wagons drew up and near-bedlam ensued.

Some of the crowd leaped eagerly into the vehicle.

FIRST IN CONFUSION

New Hampshire Primary Crowded

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — Its come-one-come-all aspects indicated today that New Hampshire's March 10 presidential primary may end up ranking first in confusion as well as first in the nation.

Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, R-Maine, 66-year-old veteran of somewhat more limited political wars, joined the overflowing list of GOP presidential nomination aspirants with the announcement Monday her name will go on the primary ballot.

What was perhaps more disturbing to New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., was the filing of a delegate candidate for former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

John L. MacDonald, a Manchester advertising man, predicted a full delegate slate for Nixon. The man who lost a headline decision to late President John F. Kennedy has said he would accept a draft for a second nomination but wouldn't campaign for it.

With this in mind, MacDonald said that Nixon's name may not go on the preferential ballot list where those of Rockefeller, Goldwater, Mrs. Smith will be listed. But he added that there may be a write-in for Nixon.

Secretary McNamara
WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara expects more U.S. military men to be withdrawn from South Viet Nam this year despite some serious reverses to Vietnamese forces in the war against Communist guerrillas.

This was disclosed today by sources close to McNamara after the defense chief acknowledged to a House committee that the Red Viet Cong had made considerable progress since a Vietnamese military junta overthrew the Diem regime in early November.

McNamara's description of the military situation as "gray" cast his evaluation of the Vietnamese war in a pessimistic light.

Informants said the defense secretary's congressional testimony recognized that there have been setbacks but did not reflect any deepening gloom.

Recent field reports to the Pentagon have told of a slowdown in Viet Cong operations after a high point of terrorism and attacks during the weeks after the early November coup.

Rightly or wrongly, the informants said, U.S. military men in Viet Nam continue to tell McNamara that the Viet Cong are not capable of maintaining a high level of operations.

Sources noted that the McNamara statement Monday mentioned a number of signs which are considered hopeful.

The defense secretary contended the new Vietnamese government "has considerably more popular support than its predecessor and is beginning to take action to intensify military operations and to improve civil administration."

Pentagon officials said that McNamara still believes, as he has for some time, that the course of the war under the new Vietnamese leadership will not become clear for several months.

NASON ON EDUCATION

Work to Build Up Your Grades

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed.D.
Professor of Education
University of S. C.

Some questions and answers:

Dear Dr. Nason:

Our daughter liked school and did fairly well through the second grade. Her work in the third and fourth grades showed a decline. Now, in the fifth grade, she has given up trying. She does poor work in all her subjects. Her worst is arithmetic; in fact, she is a complete failure.

How can her interest in school be revived?

A. D., Los Angeles, Calif.

Answer:

Your daughter needs help in many areas so be careful not to overwhelm her by expecting improvement in too many subjects at the beginning.

Ask her teacher or the school counselor to go into great detail as to just how she should read her arithmetic text and practice solving problems before the next test.

If your daughter tries one new scheme that proves successful she will be willing to try other experiments.

Little by little her counselor can show her how to meet the challenge to school life.

Dear Dr. Nason:

My mother sends me your articles on education including the one titled "Car Can Detour Even Good Student". I was "controlled" by a car but have been able to shake the "habit" and return to my books before it was too late; of course it is never too late.

I quit high school and joined the Air Force and now I am impressed how much an education is worth these days. I'm nearing the end of my enlistment and plan to return to school.

I wish I had listened to people who knew the value of an education but failed to insist I get one.

Do you feel, as I do, that parents are too lenient in cases such as mine?

A. M., Jr. AFB, Fla.

Answer:

Parents are negligent when they do not insist with greater vigor that children put education in its proper place of importance. I have heard many young adults say "I wish my parents had insisted", and have yet to hear one say "I wish my parents had been more lenient."

Dear Dr. Nason:

Our daughter failed to make a "C" average her freshman year and cannot return to the same college. She did not fail in a subject but received several D's. I realize it is difficult to enter another school after being refused because of grades at the one previously attended.

She is interested in speech therapy and has worked with retarded children. We need some professional advice.

Mrs. N., Indianapolis, Ind.

Answer:

Before your daughter can begin to help others she must solve her own problem, although she has chosen a rewarding career objective.

Have her get a copy of my book "You CAN Get Better Grades." Then have her analyze her past study techniques and plan a new procedure based on my book.

An application, accompanied by a letter in which she sets forth the fact that she has analyzed her problem and is now ready to solve it, will bring sympathetic consideration.

Whether the new school offers a major in speech therapy is beside the point. Her present problem is to demonstrate her ability to do college work.

Owatonna Man Buys Control Of Vulcan

Controlling interest in Vulcan Manufacturing Co. has been sold to J. C. Verplank, Owatonna businessman, who took over Jan. 21 as the firm's general manager.

He replaces Harold Fehr, Minneapolis, who became president of the firm Dec. 1, 1963, after a reorganization of Vulcan management.

R. E. Lange, who had been president prior to this reorganization, and who then became chairman of the board of directors, will continue to work in the firm's sales department for the present, Verplank said.

Vern Soper, former president of Electrical Service Systems, Minneapolis, has been named sales manager. David Lange is assistant general manager.

These appointments are subject to confirmation at the firm's annual meeting Feb. 20, Verplank explained.

The new manager said that Vulcan plans to expand its present line. It currently manufactures automotive and aircraft equipment.

VERPLANK, WHO has had 15 years experience in manufacturing, was president and general manager of North Central Plastics in Owatonna until recently.

He has three daughters attending high school in Owatonna. He plans to move his family to Winona eventually, but will make his home in Owatonna at least until the end of the current school year.

Wabasha Firemen Win State 2nd For Prevention

WABASHA, Minn. — For the third consecutive year the Wabasha volunteer fire department has been awarded second place in Minnesota in the national fire prevention contest.

Competition was among municipal, industrial, military and government departments, paid and volunteer.

The Wabasha department was judged on the scrapbook entry of Chief Earl Schnirring. Judging is on fire prevention, clean-up campaigns, training, drills and other activities.

Willis Kruger, retiring from the department after 21 years, was honored at a dinner at the Anchor Inn recently. Curtis Goltz, former mayor, presented Kruger with a check and card with the names of present and past members. The dinner was served to present and former members and wives.

Pipes Spill on Whitehall Street

WHITEHALL, Wis. — There might have been serious consequences when 30 big pieces of cast iron water pipe fell off a load being hauled through Whitehall, but there was no other traffic so there was no damage.

The pipe — each piece weighing 800 pounds — fell off a low boy trailer being pulled by a tractor as the vehicle, proceeding to Onalaska on Highway 53, rounded the curve from Main to Irving Street. The pipes, part of a load of about 50, piled up on the highway between the Eydin Peterson and Floyd Dahl residences.

The 18-foot pipes, 8 inches in diameter, were being transported by Norman Cook, Eau Claire, for H. P. Radant, Inc., Eau Claire, contractor and owner of the vehicle. A side bar became loose, allowing the chain holding the load in place to slip. The driver heard the noise and stopped immediately.

Many of the pipes were damaged. The only other casualty was a bent guy wire from a light pole on the street. Ben Mahle, chief of police, investigated the accident last week.

Trials scheduled for today and Wednesday in municipal court have been continued to Feb. 5 and 6.

William G. Peper, 19, Zumbrota, will appear at 9:30 a.m. Feb. 5 on a charge of parking too close to a fire hydrant. He was arrested Jan. 20 on Sanborn Street at Winona State College.

In a court appearance last Wednesday, Peper pleaded not guilty, contending that his car was pushed in front of the fire hydrant by a car attempting to get out of a parking space in front of him. He is free on $10 bond.

Peper was arrested at 11:12 a.m. Monday — same charge and same place. This charge, however, was dismissed this morning at the request of the arresting officer.

Two persons will appear Feb. 5 to stand trial on charges of violating the city's rubbish ordinance. Wayne Noska and Miss Lois Gensmer, 23, both living in apartments at 977½ W. 5th St., entered pleas of not guilty last Wednesday. Both posted $15 bail.

The trials set for today and Wednesday were continued until next week because of the death of Assistant City Attorney James Soderberg's father. Soderberg is out of the city attending funeral services.

College to Get 'Birds' From Central Park

Bronze turtles and pelicans, once part of the Central Park fountain statuary, may be incorporated into the decor of Winona State College's new arts building now nearing completion on the campus.

Park-Recreation Board members, meeting Monday, voted to donate the figures in response to a request from the college art department made last fall. The bronze figures were put in storage in 1962 when the statue of Wenonah was removed and the surrounding fountains and reflecting pool dismantled to make way for a new post office.

Commissioners said offers to buy the turtles and pelicans had been received from several prospective purchasers. A request for the figures also was received from the Winona County Historical Society, which proposed to put them on permanent display in its museum. City Attorney George M. Robertson Jr. had advised the board against selling them.

Dale Lauritzen will be arraigned before County Judge A. L. Twesme Wednesday. He will be charged with breaking into three Galesville business places Friday morning. Sheriff Klundby signed complaints against three Houston juveniles, who have been implicated in the same burglaries. They will appear in Houston County juvenile court. Two reportedly have been in trouble before.

Houston County Sheriff Byron Whitehouse, who tracked down the youths Saturday, placed the juveniles in custody of their parents.

Most of the merchandise was taken from the Midland Co-op. Manager Byron Olson estimated his losses at $400. About $10 in cash and merchandise was taken from Frank Howe's service station. The total loss there was estimated at $75.

All but a few cartons of cigarettes, one radio and the money was recovered. Sheriff Whitehouse found the loot in an abandoned farm building.

Chest Hits Record, But Misses Goal

Cash and pledges to the Winona Community Chest for 1964 have reached the highest total in the organization's history, members were told at the annual Chest meeting Monday night.

The Chest received commitments totaling $129,087 in its fund campaign which ended last month. Although it was $8,613 short of the $137,700 quota, the sum would enable the Chest to furnish participating agencies with 98 percent of their allocations, outgoing President Frank Allen Jr. reported. The general fund campaign was headed by G. M. Grabow.

Last year's gifts totaled $125,555, Grabow reported.

DESPITE THE fact that 1963 was a year of record prosperity, the number of subscribers was down from 7,067 in 1962 to 7,015 for 1963. Average gift amount rose slightly, from $17.75 to $18.39, the report said.

Of the three major divisions in fund solicitations, only the advance gifts section showed increases, both in total gifts and number of subscribers. For the drive concluded, 758 donors contributed $87,072, compared with $81,886 given the preceding year by 726 individuals.

In the residential section, 357 persons gave $3,067, compared with $2,885 given the previous year by 364 persons.

The fund's second biggest division, the classified section, also fell off from its preceding year's totals. In the current campaign, 5,902 persons gave or pledged $38,948. A year ago, 5,977 contributors subscribed a total of $40,784.

The fund's largest division, the blue lights out of snow removal trucks will be removed jointly by park-recreation department and street department crews. Park-Recreation Board members voted Monday.

Commissioners authorized temporary assignment of two men for duty with street crews, cutting overhanging branches to a height of 12 feet or more. Tree limbs in some areas have damaged or broken cab and warning lights from street department trucks engaged in snow removal. The park-recreation men will not be members of the department's regular four-man tree crew.

Street department trucks will be used to haul the trimmings. Park-recreation men, working from street department loaders, will perform the cutting and trimming operations.

In other action, commissioners approved payment of January bills totaling $2,562.93 and voted to install temporary telephones at east and west recreation centers for emergency use during the skating season. Commissioners also indicated that additional supervisors may be added at several of the skating rinks maintained by the department.

KELLOGG, Minn. (Special) — Leo Graner, son of Francis Graner, who received three fractured and one crushed vertebrae in an accident Jan. 8, will be in a body cast for six weeks.

He is employed by Northrup King and Co., Minneapolis. On the day of the accident he was accompanied by a company salesman on a business trip to Iowa. Their car skidded on the icy pavement and the car traveled over a steep embankment. The passenger was not injured but the car was badly damaged.

Graner was in St. Francis Hospital, Grinnell, Iowa, three days before being taken to Mercy Hospital, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, for further X-rays and the body cast. He was brought to Rochester by plane and then to his father's home here.

Van Heflin Still Aloof to TV

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — There's one actor around now who shies from doing TV . . . Van Heflin, star of the Broadway show, "A Case of Libel."

Right now he's embarrassed about having to appear on a show that somebody else committed him to do. "I've only been on four TV shows," he told me at Toots Shor's. "I like to sell entertainment — not some product other than entertainment. I don't like to be a pitchman . . . nor do I like to act before a camera and then have some pitchman push me aside and say, 'Very good, now I'll take over.'"

Tina Louise is spearheading the movement of gals wearing men's shirts as pajamas . . .

"Where's everybody?" the nightclubs are asking. Maybe in Puerto Rico. Marty Allen and Allen & Rossi phoned me from the San Juan Americana, screamed "Hello dere!" and then reported that his act's playing to capacity, that Milton Berle's at El San Juan, and Keely Smith's at the Caribe Hilton. Martha Ray's there, too, as a spectator, but is flying back for her daughter's wedding. Said he, Puerto Rico is jumping and swinging.

When NBC sent a TV crew to cover a party at the Lexington marking his 30th year with CBS, Arthur Godfrey was touched and said, "It's the biggest thrill of my career. Now if the UN would just work like that!" . . . Jodie, the French poodle heroine of Jacqueline Susann's book, "Every Night Josephine," is in a vet's hospital with a possible fractured ankle after jumping off a bed. Friends are sending her (Josephine) get well cards.

My B. W. told me to print it: Seven-year-old Tommy whimpered to his mother, "Cathy's breaking our engagement. She gave me back my frog."

OUR FAVORITE new comedienne Kay Stevens recorded an album for Liberty at the Copacabana the other a.m., while doing her show. When she sang "As Long As He Needs Me," she explained about "Oliver," saying: "Nobody loved him, nobody wanted him, nobody understood him. He was kinda like a married man."

Liz Taylor and Richard Burton have established residence in Mexico to strengthen the legality of their anticipated marriage and actually plan to live there permanently . . . Merv Griffin may do a big daytime comeback on NBC. The Network's going to tape a game show of his, "Double Jeopardy." . . . Great line by Johnny Carson: "Television is a precarious business, as I was saying to my waiter, Jerry Lewis." . . . Because native Las Vegas don't gamble much, whereas visitors usually do — and lose — Las Vegas Columnist Forrest Duke says, "Las Vegas is a nice place to live but I wouldn't want to visit there."

ROBERT MERRILL took his son to the Met to hear "Il Trovatore," and explained the opera's tremendous amount of bloodshed and violence: the strangling, beating, the setting afire and the throat-cutting. "Isn't it wonderful?" exclaimed Merrill.

"So how come," said his son, "you won't let me watch 'The Untouchables'?"

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: The typical New Yorker is a fellow who rents a car, rather than give up his parking space.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Arnold Glasgow described a nervous Broadwayite: "He is so tense he twangs in a high wind."

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "The biggest drawback to being a fellow people can depend on is that so many of them do." — Pic Larmon.

EARL'S PEARLS: Henry Stamper suggests the ideal gift for husbands who insist they're the boss at home: Tweed dish towels.

A scientist has predicted the earth will explode in five million years, and Bob Orben says some guys are already using it as an excuse not to look for a job . . . That's earl, brother.

Two Guns Stolen From N.J. Police

They are also looking for the lock on the station's front door. Police Chief Louis Sipple said he discovered the thefts when he arrived to open the station Monday.

Recreational Parks
In this age when every community is devoting its energy to the fostering and developing of industrial parks, Burt G. Brickner, president of the national Izaak Walton League, sounds a warning to these communities that at the same time, a recreational park should be provided, within easy access to the community's citizens.

Stressing the theme, "Don't Fence Me In," Brickner points out that industrialists seeking an expanding location in a modern industrial park also look into the recreational possibilities of the community. Employees, to be happy, must have opportunities to play, he contends.

Under his signature, there has gone out to the some 500 Izaak Walton League chapters in the nation instructions to make the establishment of such a recreational area within easy distance of every home, one of their major projects — some place with a wide variation of recreation, such as boating, fishing, sports and hiking.

The Winona chapter need not do much on the national president's proposal other than exert continuous pressure on the various governmental agencies to preserve what this city now possesses. It is one of the richest in the nation in places to play.

Prairie Island, where the like's clubhouse is located, is an enviable area. It has most everything anyone would desire. There is fishing off the island shore in Straight Slough, an excellent picnic area, camp grounds, a fine deer park, a field for retriever trials.

Probably the free camping area there deserves expansion and the whole area should have additional lighting. But as a whole this is an ideal play spot which is extensively used the year around. We saw four boys, probably Scouts, we could not tell from their winter dress, frying hamburgers up there the other day when we braved the cold for a bit of crappie fishing.

Winona, of course, in its Lake Park and Lake Winona, has one of the more attractive spots in the state. Its beach, its ball parks, its playgrounds, its picnic facilities, tennis courts, and its clean management makes it outstanding. It is extremely popular as its big attendance figures indicate.

But Brickner's letter is directed at those communities that have little or nothing to offer its industrial workers within a half hour journey from their homes. No Mississippi into which a boat can be pushed off a trailer and a picnic enjoyed on an isolated sandbar.

Brickner's thought is an excellent one. Perhaps every community that takes its recreation for granted, gets along with facilities that are just good enough, but not satisfying, should listen. Not the kind youngsters who go away to college boast about and long to return to use. There are many thousands of teenagers who envy the happy Winona youngsters who spend long hours in the summer time with boats and water skis on our sandbars.

But Winona, although it is blessed with recreational opportunities galore, should not go to sleep at the switch. It must keep pace with today and the local chapter of the Ikes should remember the national slogan — "Preserve our natural recreation" — it is a non-replaceable resource.

Cookies Sold To Buy Jeep For Missionary

FOND DU LAC, Wis. (AP) — It took 58 pounds of shortening, 150 pounds of flour, 25 bushels of apples, 100 pounds of sugar and several pounds of butter and cinnamon to get a jeep for Sister Mary Anne Jude, a Roman Catholic missionary sister in Nicaragua.

Now Sister Anne Jude has a jeep, or she will have it as soon as the Capuchin missionaries find a way to get the jeep over a mountain.

The listed ingredients went into the making of 700 pies, sold to complete fund raising for a jeep to aid the nun in her daily visits to the sick in the area.

Nuns of the Congregation of St. Agnes in Fond du Lac did the baking to aid their fellow nun, Sister Anne Jude, who graduated from the St. Agnes School of Nursing in 1955, is the daughter of the Frank DanLans of Wrightstown in Brown County.

More Cigarette Taxes Asked to Combat Poverty

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Gaylord Nelson, D - Wis., proposed Monday a five-cent per pack increase in the federal tax on cigarettes to finance a 10-year, $10 billion campaign "to destroy poverty as it now exists in America."

"This is a tax which will do no harm whatsoever," the senator said, contending that despite a current five-cent per pack federal levy cigarettes are under-taxed. He said state taxes average 4.9 cent per pack.

Nelson said taxes have rarely discouraged cigarette smoking, and added, "If this substantial increase should, however, cut down on cigarette consumption, the reduction almost surely would come among young people, to whom the five-cent increase would be most significant."

Nelson said he was certain that President Johnson was right in declaring war on poverty. "I am enlisting to serve in that war for the duration," Nelson said, adding, the American people are "ready for a truly major effort in this direction."

"Let's give him (the President) the tools he needs to finish the job he had begun," Nelson said. "We can wage all-out war on poverty without in any way upsetting the carefully designed budget which the President has just submitted."

Nelson said only a program of the scope of $10 billion over a 10-year period could make a significant attack on poverty. He said the fact there were 35 million poor people in America was a danger to the future of the nation.

When Nelson was governor of Wisconsin he won approval of a $50-million, 10-year outdoor development program financed by a one cent per pack increase in state cigarette taxes.

Johnson-De Gaulle Meeting Remote

PARIS (AP) — The possibility of President Johnson and President Charles de Gaulle meeting this year seems to be remote, informed sources said Monday.

Diplomatic exchanges on a possible meeting were said to have stopped about three weeks ago. At that time Johnson declined a French suggestion that he go to the French island of Martinique to meet De Gaulle when he travels there in March after his trip to Mexico.

DEAR ABBY:

Just Walk Tall And Straight

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: An elderly neighbor lady and dear friend of mine recently passed away, leaving a bachelor son sort of helpless for his meals. I have been giving him his evening meal in my home and then inviting him to watch television with me afterwards as I am a widow and lonely, too. He in turn does some chores around my house, takes me to church and sometimes to shop (as I have no transportation and he drives a car). His mother and I were very close friends, and when she knew she was growing weaker, she asked me to care for him. He is a good Christian man and there is no marriage or love talk between us, as I am 18 years older than he. We have our separate means, and consider one another just good companions, and nothing more. But, Abby, dear, the gossips are going at us so fiercely. If you think I am doing wrong, please tell me in your column.

A BELIEVER IN FAITH

DEAR BELIEVER: Continue helping one another and enjoying the mutual companionship. When one walks tall and straight, he should not worry if his shadow is crooked.

DEAR ABBY: I am in the ninth grade and the dentist has told my parents that I need braces. I don't think I do. I like my teeth the way they are and none of my friends thinks they are so bad, either. My parents say I will be glad later on, but I still don't want them. I am popular in school and am afraid I wouldn't be with wires on my teeth. Please tell me what you think.

AGAINST BRACES

DEAR AGAINST: Get the braces. Your popularity rating won't go down if you have to smile through a bird cage. And the rest of your life you'll have an attractive mouth and a song in your heart.

DEAR ABBY: I read somewhere that the gentleman should always precede the lady INTO a taxicab so she won't have to climb across his feet. How about getting OUT of a taxi? Should the man let the lady out of the taxi and then get out himself so he won't have to climb across HER feet?

CONFUSED

DEAR CONFUSED: The gentleman should let the lady get into the taxicab first, and she should slide over so that when he gets in HE will be near the door. That way HE can get out of the taxi first and help the lady out.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "BUFFALO BILL": Do not resent growing old. It is a privilege denied to many.

Get it off your chest. For a personal, unpublished reply, write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Memorial to MacArthur At Norfolk

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — This port city, long a center of military activity, has opened its memorial to General of the Army Douglas MacArthur, hero of two world wars.

Norfolk's century-old courthouse building, which has been converted into a memorial building, was opened informally Sunday on the general's 84th birthday. The formal opening will be May 30 with MacArthur in attendance.

Former Mayor W. Fred Duckworth, who heads the MacArthur Memorial Foundation, said a nationwide campaign will begin soon to collect more than $5 million to build a second memorial building; establish a $3 million endowment fund to establish history professorships throughout the nation, and erect an American history building at old Dominion College here.

The memorial building, which contains MacArthur's decorations, and other memorabilia, eventually will house the bodies of MacArthur and his wife.

Goldwater to Be In Minneapolis

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., an announced candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, will be in Minneapolis next Monday to meet with a state committee promoting his candidacy.

In the afternoon, Goldwater will confer with state Republican leaders and the committee boosting him.

Meeting on Argus Departure Set At Spring Grove

SPRING GROVE, Minn. — Representatives of the state Department of Business Development will attend a Development Corporation meeting at Spring Grove High School auditorium Wednesday at 8 p.m.

All people in Caledonia, Spring Grove and Mabel areas were urged to attend to hear what progress is being made toward getting another manufacturing concern here when Argus, Inc., leaves in June. The buildings will be for rent by Argus.

William Farrell, state development commissioner, and James Clark, director of business and industrial services, also are inviting Gov. Rolvaag to come, if he has no previous commitments.

The newly organized corporation already has some leads which it is following up and is hopeful that there will be no break in the employment which the factory has provided over the last several years.

Alarming Fact:

Rejectees Rising

IF EVERY American male who turns 18 today were examined this afternoon for induction into the armed forces, one of every three would be rejected — about half for medical reasons and the remainder for mental or educational shortcomings.

These are disturbing figures. They say, in effect, that at the threshold of adulthood one of every six youths in this country is likely to be suffering some physical ailment, and another one of every six is mentally deficient or poorly educated.

These are not new figures. They have been widely discussed among certain circles in the military establishment and among labor conservation men for several years. It was not until early this month that they were brought to national attention by being placed in unmistakable context by a special 90-page report linking them to the ever-present unemployment problems plaguing America.

AFTER STUDYING the report, President Johnson ordered a counseling program set up for the voluntary rehabilitation of all men who fail the tests for entering the armed services. He also ordered that the testing — though not the induction — take place near the Selective Service registration age of 18 rather than the current drafting age of about 22.

The portrait of rejectees painted by the task force is not pretty.

Rejectees, the study shows, come from every section of the United States. But those rejected for medical reasons are spread considerably more evenly geographically than those rejected for mental reasons.

MOST OF the states with higher rates of mental failure are concentrated in the southeastern United States, whereas those with the lower rates tend to be in the Far West, the Great Plains and the Rockies.

What are some of the factors?

Perhaps the most important is family background. In the case of the average rejectee this usually means a background of poverty.

Rejectees often come from abnormally large families, families broken by divorce or separation and families getting public assistance. The heads of these families often are poorly educated, and many are unemployed.

Such family life offers little, if any, stability or incentive to young men.

BECAUSE OF scanty education, rejectees find it difficult to find work. About a third are unemployed — a rate four times that found among others in the 20 to 24 age group.

The authors concluded:

"A major proportion of these young men are the products of poverty. They have inherited their situations from their parents and unless the cycle is broken, they will almost surely transmit it to their children."

Harold Deserves Merit

Badge for Endurance

DESPITE MANY bruising disappointments on the political tracks, Harold E. Stassen can't quite shake the urge to run for something — and preferably for president.

Rarely does Mr. Stassen break into the public prints these days, but there, under "Names in the News," was his picture and a search for the reason disclosed a prediction that Mr. Stassen would enter the California and New Hampshire primaries this year. Since then he has confirmed in a formal statement that he would enter the New Hampshire primaries March 10.

What does he propose to do — become the middle-of-the-road GOP candidate in a warmup campaign that so far is dominated by Sen. Barry Goldwater and Gov. Nelson Rockefeller?

WHATEVER ONE may think of his political judgment and know-how, if he actually enters the primaries he ought to be awarded his merit badge for endurance.

Senator Goldwater is both a candidate for president and for the job he has now. He's considered a shoo-in — for senator.

A California 17-year-old went 11 days without sleeping. Congress went for a year without waking up.

But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you. Luke 12:31.

WASHINGTON CALLING

Between Devil, Deep Blue Sea

By MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON—"I'm between the devil and the deep blue sea."

That is the lament not of a conservative looking for a chink in the Johnson double-faced armor but of one of the most articulate of the liberal critics of the Kennedy economic policies.

"I want to believe in the President's war against poverty. But then I look at the figures and I simply don't see how with the amounts he has allocated to this end there can be any substantial result."

Because he wants to believe in the new President and the goals he has so articulately set out this critic on the left of center is holding his fire. His dilemma is one reflection of Mr. Johnson's masterful political approach to the problem of poverty and deprivation in the affluent society.

To the right of center many conservatives find themselves in a similar dilemma. How can you oppose a President who says he will carry out extensive economies and then use the savings — or part of the savings — to raise the dispossessed out of the slough of despond? A banker-economist in New York who was one of President Eisenhower's ablest advisers put it this way:

"WHAT WE are seeing may well be something entirely new in modern American political history. We have as President a liberal from the South who sees no need to bait business. It may be that he feels so completely confident that his own left-of-center following has no place else to go that he can be independent. But whatever the reason he is not using the old familiar attack on the business community."

Calling in the Business Advisory Council for a White House dinner and a preview of his State of the Union message, the President proved a superb salesman. You've got to go out and help me, he told his skeptical audience. I need your help. These were familiar words and most of the Council members left ready to spread the word that here was a President you could work with.

For unreconstructed critics Mr. Johnson is using double talk in an effort to be all things to all men. He is facing both ways at the same time and sooner or later he will trip himself up. You can't promise everybody everything and not have events catch up with you.

BUT EVEN if this should prove true, the doleful critics overlook one important factor. It is ten months to the election. While the rosy prophecies of the President's economic report for a continued upsurge in the economy may be discounted somewhat, there is wide agreement that '64 will be another prosperous year. Something approaching a boom in capital expenditures is in sight and the administration's problem before '64 ends may be one of budding inflation rather than a decline.

Here the President has been cautious in his use of adjectives. He has warned against unneeded price increases and unjustified wage rises. That is far from closing the door. It does not preclude Walter Reuther of the United Auto Workers from pressing strong demands for more wages and bigger fringe benefits in a third year of high automobile production.

THE SKEPTICISM is greatest on the score of unemployment. The percentage of those out of work in 1963 was slightly larger than for 1962. The widely held belief is that despite the Johnson optimism it will be a fraction higher in '64.

And the liberal critics come back to those figures for the war on poverty—roughly $500,000,000 spread over a variety of programs. That is less than the increase spent on those same programs annually during the Eisenhower years, they say. It will be too little to make anything more than a public relations dent on the deep and stubborn structure of American poverty as it is embedded both in the cities and in towns and rural areas.

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Humphrey Enjoys Close Relations With Johnson

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — President Johnson was walking into the White House conference room where congressional leaders awaited him, when he spotted his press secretary, Pierre Salinger.

"Pierre," said Johnson accusingly, "you are beginning to look like a candidate. So many pictures of you have appeared in the papers that it looks as if you're running for vice president."

This brought a mock protest from Sen. Hubert Humphrey, D-Minn., who charged that the White House was favoring other vice presidential candidates over him, Humphrey. It had assumed the proportions of a conspiracy, he said.

"Sargent Shriver (Peace Corps director) has taken a message from you to the Pope," Humphrey reminded the President. "Bobby Kennedy (attorney general) has been dispatched to the Far East to save the peace."

Humphrey went on to enumerate what the White House has done to glorify the whole list of vice presidential prospects, winding up plaintively: "What have you done for Humphrey?"

Suddenly the senator's face brightened. He noted that the President's teenage daughter, Lynda Bird, was transferring from the University of Texas to George Washington University.

"Who," he asked hopefully, "is going to register Lynda Bird at George Washington? Do you mind if I volunteer?"

"Humphrey," replied the President, "you have got jobs for so many Minnesotans you have practically occupied the government."

JOHNSON ticked off the names of a dozen Minnesotans in the federal service, from Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman to Carl Rowan, the new U.S. information chief.

"All I have to do is mention a job," the President told Humphrey, "and you have four people for it."

On this note, the kidding ended and the serious session began.

All too often, the press reports the bad deeds but not the good deeds of public officials. This column has just learned of a quiet good deed that four Illinois congressmen have been keeping to themselves since Christmas.

During the great rush to get home for Christmas, the four congressmen were about to board their flight to Chicago when they noticed four GI's who had been unable to get seats.

THOUGH IT upset their own Christmas plans, the congressmen gave up their seats so the four GI's could get home on time.

The four good Samaritans, who sought no credit for their kindness, are: Congressmen Harold Collier, Edward Derwinski, Robert Michel, and Donald Rumsfeld, all Illinois Republicans.

According to confidential cables from Moscow and Havana, there was much more than got into the newspapers about that meeting between Fidel Castro and Nikita Khrushchev.

On the surface, everything was harmony. But behind the closed doors of the Kremlin, it was stormy.

Khrushchev made it clear to his bearded comrade that the Cuban economy would have to pick up or more

Russian aid would not be forthcoming. The sugar crop has fallen to its lowest level in history and although Castro blames this on the hurricane, inefficiency is part of the reason.

CUBA'S GROSS national product has dropped 25 percent and food rationing has reduced the Cuban diet between 15 and 25 percent. All this since Castro took over.

Khrushchev is reported to have sounded somewhat like the lectures which the State Department has been giving Korean leaders and others when he talked to Castro.

Khrushchev is also reported to have warned Castro not to tangle with the United States or cause any complications which might endanger American-Soviet relations. This probably accounted for the statement

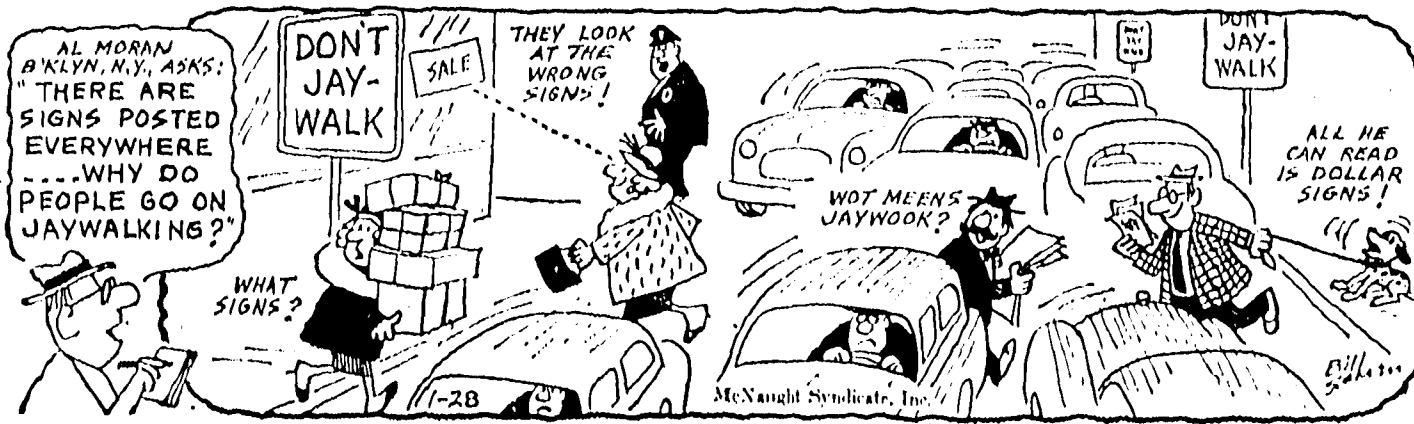

Castro made in Moscow that he wanted to resume friendly relations with the U.S.A. Moscow newspapers have continued to bury the story of Panama on the inside pages and latterly have not printed it at all. Aside from one irritated blast from Khrushchev regarding Panama, there's been no Kremlin disposition to goad the United States over its Panamanian headaches.

OPINION-WISE

TODAY IN NATIONAL AFFAIRS

Aid Necessary In Emergency

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — The word "poverty" has been in the headlines a great deal recently. President Johnson has stressed plans for relieving poverty. But apparently an acceptable definition of just what the word means has not emerged.

There are, of course, various degrees of poverty, just as there are various kinds of prosperity. This correspondent has come into possession of a rather remarkable letter which discusses poverty. It was written a few days ago by a woman who lives in a small town in the Middle West. She is the mother of 11 children and her husband earns a modest income. She poses an interesting question which indicates the wide area of human relationship which is sometimes covered under the heading of "poverty." Excerpts from the letter are as follows:

"Poverty, wherever it exists, is very real; and, except where it is self-induced, it is very wrong. Under proper investigation, many cases will be found where rehabilitation and temporary outright hand-outs could prove to be the wisest course of action, even by the federal government."

"I don't like the present drift toward the welfare state, but I don't like implications that poverty is a political hallucination."

"I am aware, through personal observation, that many cases of poverty are self-induced and deliberately propagated. I am also aware that many other cases are the result of misfortune or illness. There are those who not only have no 'bootstraps' but don't have the ability to pull themselves up by the same. Some means of aiding this group should be found — preferably outside the government."

"It would be quite humane at least to provide people with the opportunity for self-help."

"To give you some background of what kind of reader takes this kind of attitude, I am informing you of the following:

"(A) I have 11 children — four sets of twins.

"(B) Our income has been as low as $5,000 a year and sometimes up to $7,000. Because of deductions, we have not had to pay federal income tax for 15 years."

"(C) We almost entirely own our very modest four-bedroom home."

"(D) We own two cars — well, they do sort of run. We have modern household appliances, adequate clothing, four bicycles, many books, a bed for everyone (complete with bedding), stereo-radio-phonograph (our only debt, besides the house and a couple of patient doctors)."

"(E) Our diet is simple but adequate and well balanced — usually. Occasionally we receive surplus food — due to seasonal employment."

"(F) My husband is a nominal Democrat. I am a nominal nothing with strong leaning toward the Republican party."

"(G) We are both disturbed by the labor press. They do the country a grave injustice by deliberately fostering a hostile attitude towards business. Their critics are always inaccurate and highly misleading. We can't imagine where our family might be if business were not permitted to make money."

"(H) We are disgusted with our lower-middle-class friends and neighbors who complain loud and long about the 'high cost of living' while relaxed in a lovely living room, after a lovely meal, planning to polish one of their lovely cars. What they really resent is the high cost of living high."

debt. Temporary county aid helped some, but had we continued for any length of time we would have become truly poverty-stricken with long-range ill effects, particularly on the children. To whom could we have turned?"

The foregoing letter illustrates the problems that confront some citizens of the country, who would be at a loss to know where to go for help in an emergency. The tendency nowadays is to turn to the government, either federal, state or local. There are a number of persons who do not like to "go on relief" or to accept aid from the government.

In many communities, private charitable organizations, with a staff of case-workers, have assumed the responsibility of looking out for families afflicted by misfortune. Unquestionably, community responsibility is difficult to assert effectively in some instances, especially in areas where the population is large and the means of communication are unsatisfactory. All too frequently, a long time elapses before the plight of a poverty-stricken family becomes known even to neighbors.

Letters to The Editor

Reduce Taxes — Don't Substitute One For Another

To the Editor: I noticed in your column that someone else—this time a spokesman for the Jaycees—has come out in favor of a general sales tax as a "replacement tax."

Allow me to raise the question: "Is it possible, in the long run, to have any such thing as a replacement tax, for the personal property tax or for any other?"

In my opinion, the notion that one tax can be replaced by another is nothing but wishful — though sincere — thinking. It seems to me that it is almost an axiom of some sort that, once you get a tax, you keep it. Though personal property taxes might be temporarily lowered as a means of making a new sales tax more palatable, in the long run you would probably end up having both kinds.

Now it may well be that the personal property tax is bad for business. But is shifting any of the burden involved to the individual taxpayer by in effect raising the prices on the things he buys any better? Clearly, it is a matter of where your personal interest lies.

It would be more to everyone's benefit if attention were to be directed at reducing taxes—or at least curtailing their rise—rather than at arguing the "merits" of substituting one kind of tax for another.

4 Missionaries Killed in Congo

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — U.N. helicopters and missionary planes continued desperate efforts today to rescue Christian missionaries threatened by rebel guerrillas in the southwest Congo.

At least four missionaries, including an American woman, have been killed by bands of warriors armed with poison arrows, spears, homemade bombs and primitive guns.

Creamery Gross $2.6 Million at Pigeon Falls

PIGEON FALLS, Wis. (Special) — Gross value of manufactured products of the Pigeon Falls Cooperative Creamery during 1963 totaled $2,698,500.

Net proceeds for the year are $69,204, which will be returned to the patrons in the form of stock credits. The patronage dividend for the year 1956 was redeemed during 1963 for cash in the amount of $47,100.

The report was presented at the annual meeting of the creamery Thursday at Evangelical Lutheran Church. About 350 attended. Dinner was served by the church women.

Clarence Sturim, Manawa, guest speaker, stressed that food is a greater medium for peace than guns and bombs, stating how beneficial the CARE project is to starving people throughout the world today.

Ed Ackerman, Dairy Maid Products sales manager, Eau Claire, complimented the management and directors on the cooperation and successful operation of the plant.

Knut Thorson, Orvil Eid and Byron Berg were re-elected to the board of directors for three-year terms. Holdover directors are Joseph Staff, Arden Skadahl, Myron Nestingen, Milo Rongstad, Arnold Hanson and Ervin Giese.

Prizes awarded for the lowest bacteria count: Frank Scholze, Hixton, first; Lawrence Nelson, Whitehall, second; Ray Knutson, and Arthur Ringlien, Whitehall, and Arthur Knutson, Blair, honorable mention.

About 150 Americans and Canadians, including several children, have been stationed at Protestant missions in the threatened area. The U.S. Embassy in Leopoldville said 21 Americans and 14 Canadians, including 10 children, had been rescued.

As the terror spread, the Congo government said it had documentary proof Communist China is supporting the uprising. The leader of the rebels is former Education Minister Pierre Mulele, 34, who spent several months in Peking last year.

Mulele was ambassador to Cairo under the Communist-supported Stanleyville regime of Antoine Gizenga, who was imprisoned after the collapse of his secession. Mulele slipped back into the Congo last summer after a year and a half of exile.

Diplomats fear Red China may try to turn the jungle uprising into a major revolt by arming Mulele's men with modern weapons.

The rebellion is centered in agricultural Kivu Province, 250 miles east of Leopoldville, but the terrorism is spreading to the neighboring Kasai and Kwango regions near the Angola border. Fewer than 600 government troops are in the province opposing several thousand guerrillas.

U.N. helicopters airlifted 16 persons from a Catholic mission at Kisandji Monday in the third mercy flight since the attacks began. Unconfirmed reports say a priest and nun were killed at Kisandji last week.

The confirmed victims of the roving bands were three Belgian Roman Catholic priests and an American Baptist missionary, Irene Ferrel, 43, of Jerome, Idaho.

Miss Ferrel was killed by a rebel's arrow at the Baptist mission's center in Mangungu last Friday night.

A companion, Ruth Hege, 58, of Wellington, Ohio, was wounded in the arm during the attack. Miss Hege sent a letter by African runner disclosing her friend's death and pleading for rescue.

Commission To Question Mrs. Oswald

WASHINGTON (AP) — The presidential commission investigating John F. Kennedy's assassination plans within two weeks to question its first witness: the Russian-born widow of Lee Harvey Oswald.

Chief Justice Earl Warren, who heads the inquiry, announced she would appear before the commission or some of its members as part of the group's study to fill in the gaps surrounding Kennedy's murder last Nov. 22.

Oswald, an ex-Marine who called himself a Marxist, was shot to death two days later after having been arrested and charged with the assassination.

For Marina Oswald, 22, it's all still hard to believe.

"I don't want to believe... but I have too much facts, and facts tell me that Lee shot Kennedy," Mrs. Oswald declared in a copyright interview. Monday night with radio station KRLD in Dallas.

Since the death of her husband at the hands of Jack Ruby in the Dallas jail, the blonde Mrs. Oswald and her two daughters have been in seclusion under the protection of the Secret Service.

Oswald's mother, Marguerite Oswald, 56, said her daughter-in-law's statement showed she had been in seclusion too long.

"Where does she get these facts," she said in an interview with radio station KBOX of Dallas. "Who has been talking to Marina?"

"For a long time I have believed that a profound effort has been made to change her belief in Lee's innocence."

"My son has not had the opportunity to be able to prove his innocence," she declared, "and he will always be the accused."

Warren said lawyers for Oswald's widow will be present and be free to ask any question. He said the commission had rejected the request of Oswald's mother for the right to have lawyers present at the questioning of her daughter-in-law and other witnesses.

Tri-County Hospital Progress Reviewed

WHITEHALL, Wis. (Special) — Progress on the Tri-County Memorial Hospital, largest building under construction in the area, was reviewed by the hospital board of directors at a monthly meeting.

Administrator Wayne Alleman reported that architects and contractors say construction is ahead of schedule. All concrete work and most of the outside brick work has been completed. The contractor is waiting for precast concrete panels that will complete the sidewalls. When these have been put in place the building will be completely enclosed.

More than half of the basement windows have been walled in. Stairways have been completed from the basement to the second floor. Boilers, electrical switchboards, auxiliary generators, air exchangers and ventilating fans have been installed. Several pieces of laundry equipment have arrived and are in storage. The board was advised that it's time to order other equipment.

Dr. N. S. Simons and Floren Hegge, Whitehall, and Omar Austad, Blair, members of the property committee, with one member of the medical staff, were appointed to make a study of equipment needs and method of purchasing.

The directors decided to purchase new X-ray equipment. The present equipment is nine years old, and average life of X-ray units is 10 years. Alleman said. During construction Hill-Burton funds will pay 40 percent of the cost.

Other types of equipment — telephone system, nurses call system, hospital beds, kitchen, laundry and laboratory were discussed and how it should be purchased.

FRED GARDNER, general fund drive chairman, reported that out of approximately 4,000 families in the area the hospital will serve, about 1,400 families have pledged to help build it. He said that in reviewing the area, it was found that many families had not even been called upon. He said there are area business firms that have not yet pledged their support.

The board voted to continue the drive for funds. An effort will be made in the near future to complete the campaign.

Alleman reported that representatives of Hill-Burton funds and the state Board of Health made a project inspection and audit of the hospital last Wednesday. Expenditures to date were found in order, and within five or six weeks the hospital will receive about $126,000 from the Hill-Burton fund as its share in the cost of construction to date.

TRACY Rice, hospital board president, said the project will need continued support of the people until the building is ready for opening in November or December.

Rochester Youth Admits Attack

ROCHESTER, Minn. (AP) — Officers said Monday a 19-year-old Rochester youth gave them a statement admitting he tried to kill another with a pistol at an all-night party.

Allen E. McKenney was to be charged late today in the wounding of Michael Root, 16, who was shot in the abdomen early Saturday.

Police had said their preliminary reports were that the shooting was accidental, during a fast-draw demonstration.

Officers quoted McKenney as saying, "I had an uncontrollable urge to kill."

Root is in satisfactory condition.

Southern Minnesota Women Note Fashions At Olympic Games

INNSBRUCK, Austria (AP) — America's Olympic ice hockey wives delivered their verdict on the fashions at the 1964 Winter Games today.

The Austrian girls look the most feminine and the French the most chic.

"I definitely think the outfits of the Austrian girls are the most feminine," said Mrs. Tom Martin of Milton, Mass. "They have dark green skirts over dark brown nylon leotards, knobby biege wool coats and tan Tryolean hats."

"The Austrian girls seem to take the most care about their appearance too," said Mrs. Tom Yurkovich of Rochester, Minn. "They are always neat, with nice hairdos."

Mrs. Yurkovich, a striking blonde, said the sealskin coats worn by the Russian women and men seemed the most appropriate for winter sports activities. The coats blend yellow, gray and white colors.

Mrs. Paul Johnson of St. Paul, Minn., plumped for the parade outfits of the American team as the most eye-catching at the Olympics.

Best of Two Worlds of Music Presented by Beloit Singers

By GEORGE MCCORMICK
Daily News Staff Writer

The best of two worlds was presented by the Beloit College Madrigal Singers in their Monday night concert at Winona State College.

This is true both of their material and of their presentation of it. The former included too-frequently-heard gems representing the world of the Renaissance and that of the present—with a brief stopover in the 19th century.

The latter, for all the well-disciplined polish that bespoke hours of careful rehearsal, yet retained a spontaneous quality that allowed the listener to share the singers' evident enjoyment of what they were doing.

The program opened with a group of English madrigals that reflected in their variety the extravagant changes of mood that seem so much a part of the Elizabethan spirit. They ranged from the affected melancholy typified by the beautifully-controlled "Weep, O Mine Eyes," to the completely natural, gay exuberance of "The Messengers of the Delightful Spring."

The harmonic freshness of this antique music was continued in two motets on texts from Virgil, written by the 16th century composers Willaert and Desprez.

The chorus sang these as it sang everything — without a director, and all but three of the groups on the program were performed a capella. Despite this, the singers added to the remarkable blend they achieved, an admirable control over rhythm and dynamics and an almost uncanny sense of pitch.

The program after intermission consisted of three songs by Ravel — brief, often dissonant settings for the composer's own texts — Paul Feller's settings for three contemporary texts, Irvin Fine's settings of two choruses from "Alice in Wonderland" and three choruses from Carl Orff's boisterous and humorous "Carmina Burana."

The singers succeeded well in maintaining the detached, yet often emotional attitude Ravel demanded. Their performances of the Feller works, particularly the rhythmic "Drum" (text by Langston Hughes) and the evocative "Snow Toward Evening" (to a descriptive passage from the writings of Melville Lane), brought out their similarity-in-spirit to the madrigals that preceded them.

The Fine works were done with an unpretentious good humor, and the Orff choruses had an almost bawdy quality that certainly suited the texts.

Women in Legislature Described By Mrs. Torgerson for Sorority

Mrs. Virginia Torgerson, representative of the City of Winona in the Minnesota House of Representatives, spoke on the topic, "Women in the Legislature," at a dinner meeting of the Delta Kappa Gamma, Monday evening at the Central Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Torgerson described her introduction to news media and the other women in the legislature, their backgrounds, and similarities. She listed some of the bills the three women signed as authors, all of which passed the House of Representatives.

She described the ideal legislative temperament and stated that one should be extrovert enough to campaign and introvert enough to spend hours reading, and reading bills and other material, and enjoy it.

MRS. TORGERSON said that she was glad not to be the only woman in the Legislature, "for is patterned after several she has staged around the state, including the Twin Cities where a month-long educational drive on Dairy Sour Cream was conducted by the state and national ADA units and local dairies recently.

Mrs. Birt indicated her entire program will stress "the extra touches of flavor and elegance that can be added quickly, easily and economically with dairy sour cream and butter."

"THE VERY best cooks make no secrets that their 'magic formula' usually starts with one or another of our wonderful dairy foods," Mrs. Birt says. "Butter and dairy sour cream are two of the most-used ingredients among better cooks."

Mrs. Birt also indicated she will have some seasonal tips for parties and entertaining to pass along.

Printed recipes for the dishes Mrs. Birt prepares on stage will be made available to all who attend.

The personable and trim-figured Mrs. Birt has worked in the past with Northern States Power Co., the Minneapolis schools system and the Poultry Institute.

Aiding Mrs. Birt on-stage during the program will be Princess Kay of the Milky Way, Audrey Meyer of Clarks Grove. Advance arrangements for the event are under the direction of Mrs. Kay Goergan, NSP's Winona-based home-economist.

200 WCCW Members Hear Bishop Speltz

The Most Rev. George Speltz, auxiliary bishop of Winona, was the featured speaker when the Parish Council of Holy Trinity Parish in Rollingstone was host to the Winona Deanery of the Winona Council of Catholic Women-Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Harry Losinski presided at the meeting attended by about 200 women. The Rev. S. N. Majerus, pastor, gave a brief welcoming address.

Highlights of the Executive Board Meeting held recently in Adams, were given, followed by several announcements. One of these that all wool, hand-woven stoles are available in five colors at the Catholic Charities office. Proceeds from the sale of the stoles will help to pay the support of widows and children in Hong Kong.

MRS. HUBERT WEIR, Diocesan chairman for library and literature committee, explained the new program being introduced in the deanery. During the coming year, books will be made available in newsstands to all members of the parish. To encourage sales, a review of each book will be published in the parish bulletin. The motto for this program will be "Better Families through Better Books."

In the main address of the afternoon Bishop Speltz gave some of his impressions and experiences at the Ecumenical Council in Rome. The Bishop's day began before six every morning, and after Mass and Communion, they set out by bus to St. Peter's, arriving some time before nine, Bishop Speltz said.

Bishops from all over the world would begin to congregate from their quarters all over the city — 200 to 2,500 each day. He was especially impressed by the bishops of the Eastern Church with their traditional black garb, head gear suggestive of the desert people of the East, and their long, flowing beards. Also noticeable was the great affection shown among the Bishops for each other, expressed by the Kiss of Peace.

ONCE INSIDE, Bishop Speltz said, he made a daily visit to Michaelangelo's "Pieta," "The Pieta." This statue His Excellency feels is one of, if not the most beautiful thing, in

Red Cross Meeting Set for Whitehall

WHITEHALL, Wis. (Special) — A meeting of the Trempealeau County Red Cross chapter will be held at the courthouse here Thursday at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. A. T. Twesme, chapter chairman, will preside.

Ted Benzler, American Red Cross field representative, will direct discussions in making plans for the year.

Eleva Church Film

ELEVA, Wis. — "Men of the Wilderness" will be shown at 8 p.m. Wednesday at Eleva Lutheran Church in the Living Christ series of pictures. The film begins with John the Baptist's testimony that Jesus is the son of God. The public is invited.

St. Peter's. It will be traveling soon to the World's Fair in New York City, he said.

Following the Mass at the great altar which each day was celebrated by a different Bishop from a different part of the world, the announcement of the topic of the day was made, and the speakers were introduced. The Cardinals of the Church were seated closest to the main altar, faced by the Patriarchs, opposite. The Archbishops and Bishops came next according to Seniority.

Bishop Speltz told the WCCW members that the purpose of the council is unity. The Pope recognizes the fact that the church must be up-dated while still supporting the essential structures. It is not just a matter of faith and morals, but also a matter of prudence to know just how far the church will be able to move.

CHRISTIANS must get back to a better realization of their faith and renew a fervent reception of the Sacraments, Bishop Speltz emphasized.

A new image of the Church is coming forth from the council he believes. A new view towards the layman is emerging. "If we really try to see the Christian good in each other, God will in His time, give us this much desired Unity. The Council did work toward Christian Unity, and it is up to us to continue this locally. This can best be done by a renewed Christian action in the home," said the speaker.

A social hour concluded the meeting. Members of the faculty of Holy Trinity School were honored guests.

Winona One of 10 Cities Showing Good Jobs Gain

By ALBERT MARSHALL

Winona was one of ten major cities in Minnesota outside the Twin City metropolitan complex which showed a better rate of gain in employment during 1963 than did the state as a whole.

The other nine cities with better than average performance in supplying new job opportunities for the citizens of its community were Brainerd, Fairmont, Faribault, Fergus Falls, Montevideo, New Ulm, Rochester, Willmar, and Worthington. Winona, along with Faribault, Fergus Falls, New Ulm, Rochester, Willmar, and Worthington, also ranked up another noteworthy accomplishment. In 1963, a new peak high in the number of those gainfully employed by local enterprise was recorded.

These ten cities with performance records better than the state average were among the 24 cities outside the Twin City and Duluth areas with state employment security department offices from which figures were obtained for this report.

NINE OF the cities surveyed also reported employment gains—but below the state average. These cities were: Austin, Bemidji, Mankato, Marshall, Moorhead, Owatonna, Red Wing, St. Cloud, and Thief River Falls.

Although members of this group did not make as impressive a showing as the ten top performers, four of them, Bemidji, Mankato, Owatonna, and St. Cloud, provided a larger number of job opportunities than they had ever done previously.

In five out-state cities, and in Duluth, the average number of people employed in 1963 was below that recorded in 1962. These cities were Crookston, Grand Rapids, Hibbing, Little Falls, and Virginia.

WHILE TOTAL employment in the state of Minnesota was up by 1.7 percent over 1962, the statistics point up a trend that should cause concern to business and professional residents of the smaller cities and villages throughout the state.

The figures show that most of the growth in jobs came as a result of the expanding economy of the Twin Cities and their suburbs and a few of the larger out-state communities.

Actually, fewer people were gainfully employed in jobs other than farming in 1963 than in 1962 in Small Town Minnesota.

Data gathered by the state employment and security office shows that while employment in the five county Twin City area was up three percent in 1963 over the previous year, and employment in the 24 major out-state cities covered in this report was up by 1.3 percent, there were fewer jobholders in Duluth and in the smaller communities scattered through the state.

The average number of those employed in this last mentioned group shrunk from 215,709 to 212,600—a drop of 1.2 percent from 1962 to 1963.

GAINS IN employment made during the past year in the 24 city group can be attributed to increased industrial activity plus a generally healthier climate affecting commerce in the following cities: Brainerd, Faribault, Fergus Falls, Marshall, Montevideo, New Ulm, Rochester, Willmar, Worthington, and Winona.

In Bemidji, Owatonna, Red Wing, and St. Cloud, the increase in jobs came about largely because of a sizeable increase in manufacturing. Gains in employment outside the industrial category were insignificantly small—in the case of St. Cloud, a slight loss was suffered largely due to a building slump.

Five cities—Austin, Fairmont, Mankato, Moorhead, and Thief River Falls—made their overall job gains in the face of a decrease in industrial employment.

Of the cities where employment losses were recorded, Grand Rapids, Hibbing, and Virginia could rightly point to the depressed condition of the iron mining industry as the source of their adversity. However, the picture is brightened a bit there with promises of new activity in taconite and low grade ore processing.

CROOKSTON seemed to suffer from general economic conditions affecting many agricultural trade centers. And Little Falls' employment loss came about because of the closing down of one of its two-boat-building plants.

Industry Discusses Locating in Pepin

PEPIN, Wis. — The head of an industrial concern from Minneapolis, Richard Clemmer, talked to interested persons here last week about moving his plant to Pepin. The meeting was in the village hall.

Clemmer is head of the Apache Rescue Corp. which manufactures special rescue-type guns, flares and safety equipment. The business is seeking support of Pepin people. Glen Moline, rural Pepin, and his brother, Kenneth, Minneapolis, both are associated with the company.

It takes a gas water heater to keep up with the Joneses.

Nothing could be worse than a hot, soothing shower turning into a shuddery, shivery stream. The Joneses won't stand for it.

That's why they've got a gas water heater. Because on any night, the Joneses can shower away 75 gallons of hot water. And modern gas keeps up with them.

Every time they touch the tap, the little blue flame is ready to go to work immediately. And the water they use is replaced in a flash.

That's why you'll never find a frosty father, a chilled child or a mad mother at the Joneses.

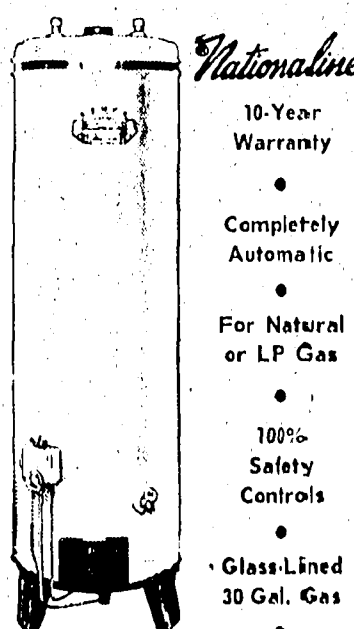

If shuddery, shivery showers bother you, get a gas water heater. It's the one that delivers hot water in gallons, not trickles and dribbles or drips and drops.

Heating water by gas costs less and performs best.

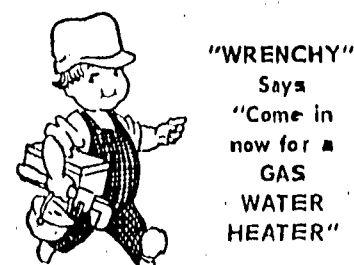

Chances are, it's one that can keep up with your family. Let your plumber or gas appliance dealer show you how to live modern for less—with gas.

Mrs. Kennedy Dines Out With Sister

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy dined out Monday night with her sister, Lee Radziwill, and actor Marlon Brando at a restaurant on Embassy Row.

It was a quiet occasion in which the group, with Brando's business manager, George England, making a fourth, had a corner table.

As they left after their three-hour dinner they tried to avoid newsmen and photographers.

The former first lady and her sister left together in a chauffeur-driven limousine. Brando and England left a few minutes later.

An obvious attempt was made to keep the small dinner party from attracting the attention of other guests in the restaurant, which specializes in French cuisine.

Secret Service men assigned to protect Mrs. Kennedy since the assassination of President Kennedy last Nov. 22 remained close by. Other diners came and left. From all appearances they failed to notice that Mrs. Kennedy and friends were at a corner table.

8 Jap Youths Dead at Hostel

TOKYO (AP) — Eight Japanese youths died during the night from gas poisoning at a hostel beside Lake Shirakaba, a resort 100 miles west of Tokyo. The victims, ranging in age from 19 to 23, were found in their beds. A faulty oil stove was blamed.

Senate Confirms Rank for Rickover

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has confirmed the retirement with the permanent rank of vice admiral of Hyman G. Rickover — the father of America's nuclear submarine fleet.

But the 64-year-old Rickover is not retiring. President Johnson said he will remain as head of the naval reactors' program.

Sen. George Aiken, R-Vt., told the Senate "there can be no retirement for a man of the heart and spirit of Admiral Rickover."

Young Rochester Woman Indicted In Record Fraud

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — A young Rochester woman faces a federal mail fraud charge today, following her indictment by a federal grand jury late Monday.

Mrs. Darlene Bybee, 28, is charged with using dozens of fictitious names and addresses to mail-order phonograph records and greeting cards. Federal officials said up to $3,000 worth of merchandise was involved.

Information on the case was turned over to the grand jury by a postal inspector at Rochester.

Also indicted were four men accused of taking mail from the railroad station at Wadena, Minn., and cashing Treasury checks in the mail.

They are George H. Bryant, 41, and Fred J. Gerhardt, 29, Minneapolis; Francis X. Spinley, 41, of Buffalo, N.Y., and Jay H. Wagner, 23, who gave no address.

3 Brothers Fight Disease That Killed 2 Brothers

ROSEAU, Minn. (AP) — Three sons of the Henry Halvorson family are expected to take a trip to Minneapolis this week that possibly could save their lives.

On the advice of doctors, the trio will undergo tests at University of Minnesota Hospitals, seeking a possible answer to what may be a rare blood condition that already has claimed the lives of two of their brothers.

Local physicians had attributed the deaths to cerebral hemorrhages in both cases—but with reservations, they reported.

Funeral services were held Monday for Laverne Halvorson, 19. He died last Wednesday while playing hockey at Thief River Falls, where he attended a vocational school. He died on the rink.

A year ago to the day, Jan. 22, 1963, Curtis Halvorson, 20, dropped dead in a barn on the Halvorson farm near here. The three surviving sons are Kenneth, 17, Allen, 23, and Harvey, 26.

Harvey served a tour of duty in the Army, but Allen was rejected for military service.

The family doctor here had strongly urged the three surviving men to go to Minneapolis for examinations to try to determine if they are afflicted with any condition which is possibly fatal.

They are expected to do so, possibly late this week.

The doctor here who examined Curtis and the doctor at Thief River Falls who examined Laverne both were unable to pinpoint cause of death other than the hemorrhaging in the brain. But cause of the hemorrhage remains a mystery.

BUSINESS MIRROR

Splits, Dividends Fodder for Bulls

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock splits and increased dividends are fodder for bulls. And recent weeks have seen a rush of these forms of corporate activity.

Mixed in with reports of rising profits and predictions of an improving business climate, they have done much to incite the bulls to push stock prices on average to record highs.

Tradition has it that stocks are split when growth prospects are brightest and that the new issues will rise in price. This doesn't always happen, but it does happen often enough to make the average stockholder look on a stock split as a gift from the gods rather than a bookkeeping readjustment of the percentage of assets expressed in each share.

In 1963 there were 83 issues on the New York Stock Exchange and the American Stock Exchange that split their stock or paid a stock dividend of 20 per cent or more. At least seven other issues traded either on the Midwest or Canadian stock exchanges also were split, and many others traded over the counter also were in the swim.

So far this month there has been a rush of new splits or announcements of splits to be voted upon by stockholders. They include some big names: IBM, A.T.&T., CBS, RCA, Royal Dutch Petroleum, Abbott Laboratories and Campbell Soup.

Directors also have been busy in recent days voting increases in dividend payments. And this comes on top of a rush in December that pushed cash payments to a record $3 billion.

For the year the cash dividend total was a record $16.2 billion, up 7½ per cent from 1962. Shareholders are dreaming that January is setting a pattern that will see 1964 payments top 1963.

These are the dollar and cents, tangible reasons the bulls cite to justify their optimism and the rising stock price averages.

But old hands in the market preach caution—and careful selection of issues. They wonder if price rises hadn't already anticipated many of the stock splits and the higher dividends.

They worry because a number of newer and untested issues seem to be attracting too much speculative interest. And some are nervous because of the increased trading accompanying markets labelled churning because of rapid ups and downs and diverse currents.

408 Pints Blood Given Red Cross In Trempealeau

WHITEHALL, Wis. (Special) — A total of 408 pints of blood was collected during the visit of the Red Cross bloodmobile in Trempealeau County last week.

Of the total, 119 pints were donated at Arcadia; 105 in the Whitehall-Pigeon Falls area; 105 at Eltrick, and 79 at Eleva-Strum.

Edward Ausderau, Whitehall, county chairman of the blood program, said this has been one of the most successful years. He credited the local chairmen, volunteer workers and donors for this achievement.

Sen. Proxmire Says Inflation Growing in U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., said Monday there were facts to prove that the inflation President Johnson called upon the government to prevent was already under way.

The senator said in a statement released by his office "a dangerous omen" was found in price increases at the wholesale level. He said such boosts tend to precede consumer price increases.

Earlier in the weekend, Wisconsin's junior Democratic senator, Gaylord Nelson, said a section of the tax cut bill approved by the Senate Finance Committee would amount to a $300 million "giveaway" to private utilities.

Nelson wrote Leonard Bessman, chairman of the Wisconsin Public Service Commission, that one portion of the bill resulted from "tremendous lobbying on the part of utilities" and provides that tax reductions for utilities could not be passed on to consumers.

"This section of the bill is unwise, unfair, unjust and inequitable," Nelson said. "In 10 years this would cost consumers at least $3 billion."

Nelson also said that if the bill is enacted, Congress would be interfering with the principle of independent regulation of public utilities.

Proxmire continued in his statement that there was justification for concern over recent price increases. "The tax cut bill may frustrate true economic growth by simply encouraging general inflationary forces which are apparently already under way."

"Textile prices generally have risen nearly one per cent since September," Proxmire

HAVANA (AP) — More than 25,000 persons attended a demonstration Monday night at which leaders of the Cuban Workers Federation demanded that the United States get out of the Panama Canal Zone.

Ambition Undoing of City Hall Janitor

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Ambition was the undoing of Rubin R. Cannady, 32, a city hall janitor.

He applied for a better job in the custodial department at police headquarters and landed in jail. Officers who interviewed Cannady for the new job discovered he had been sought since last March on a larceny charge.

said. "Wood prices rose by almost four per cent in 1963, prices of metal products increased by two per cent."

Proxmire added that "some of the greatest increase in prices have been for specific farm products. Farm machinery prices rose by one and one-half per cent and manufactured animal feeds increased by more than three per cent."

Badger Justice Urges 4-Year Terms in State

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Legislative approval of a constitutional change to permit four instead of two-year terms for Wisconsin's governor and lieutenant governor was urged Monday by Justice Thomas E. Fairchild.

The State Supreme Court member made the plea in a talk prepared for delivery before the Milwaukee Junior Bar.

Fairchild is co-chairman of a commission set up in 1960 to study the constitution. He said the state is fortunate in having a constitution which does not need to be wholly rewritten.

He noted that the Senate has adopted a resolution proposing an extension in the terms of governor and lieutenant governor. The proposal will be before the Assembly in April.

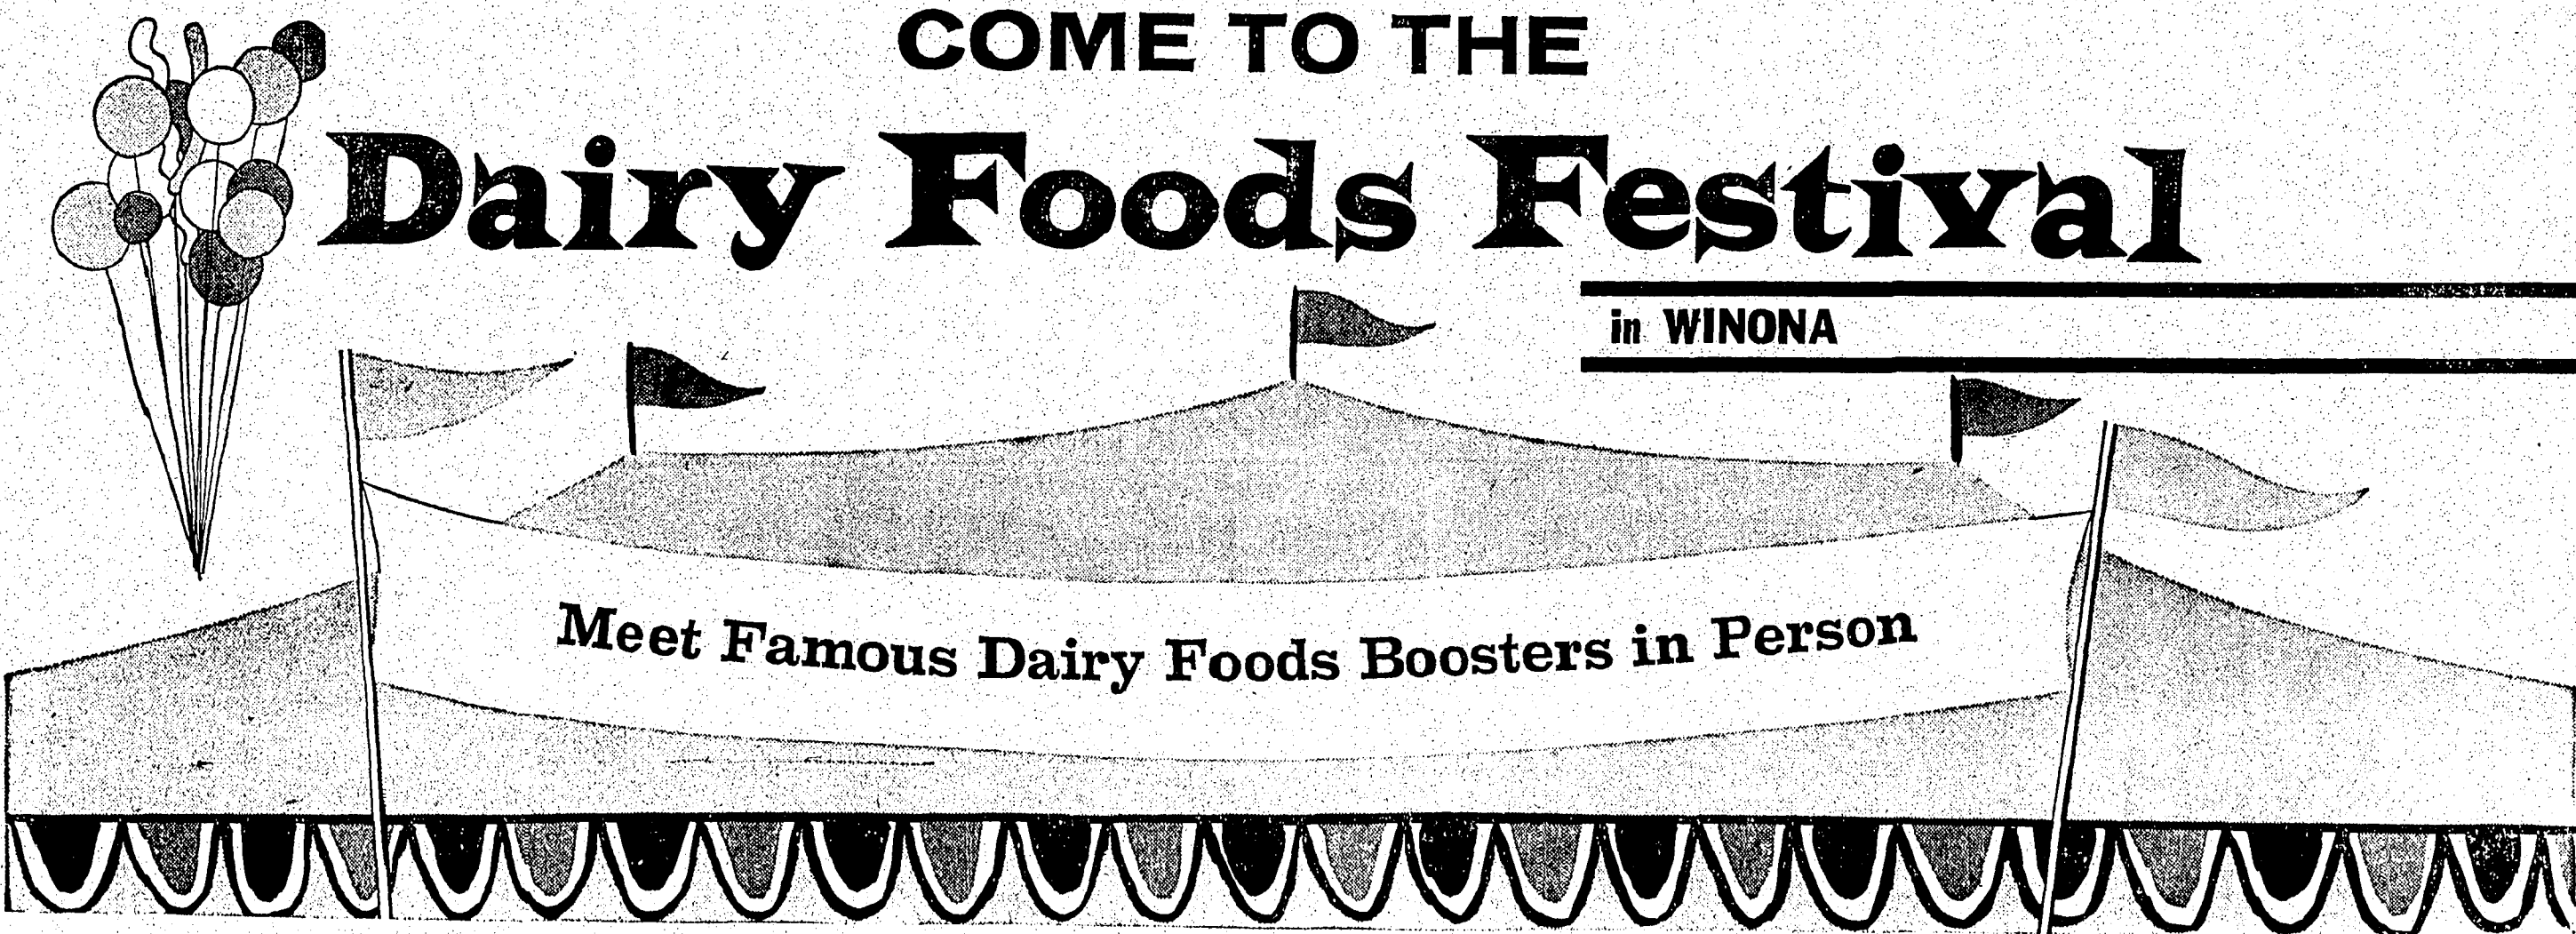

If the Assembly approves the resolution in April and if it is adopted by both houses again in early 1965, it will be voted on in a referendum in 1965. Approval in the 1965 vote would make provisions applicable to the governor and lieutenant governor elected in 1966.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, with a friendly nod from the state's leading Republican officeholder, opens his quest for California's big bundle of votes in the presidential race today.

Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, R.-Calif., lined his long-awaited endorsement of the New York governor for the start of a three-day visit by Rockefeller to get his state campaign going.

Rockefeller's arrival from New York shortly before noon launched him on a busy round of activities. He'll open his San Francisco headquarters, attend a private lunch and then drive across the Golden Gate Bridge for a country club reception in Marin County. He'll leave by train tonight for two more days in the Los Angeles area.

Kuchel, 54, opposed for renomination in 1962 by many of the Republicans now backing Sen. Barry Goldwater, declared in his statement that Rockefeller offers the "constructive forward-looking alternative" the GOP needs to defeat President Johnson.

Bus Systems
In Trouble
In Most Places

By JOHN LUNDQUIST
Associated Press Writer

What the automobile did to the horse and buggy it's threatening to do to public buses.

While local transit systems are far from extinct, they've been disappearing from many smaller communities, and they're having serious problems in cities big and small.

Private cars that whisk commuters to work just when and where they want to go aren't entirely to blame for the trouble. But they're the major factor.

The pattern is the same in Minnesota as in other states. Public bus riders have deserted in droves since World War II. With fewer passengers, and to meet increased operating costs, transit companies have had to raise fares time and again. Service is trimmed to cut costs.

With each new fare bite, more riders desert. The alienation grows during strikes, when people find other means to get around. And so the cycle goes.

Figures compiled by Lloyd Wanduke, statistician in the State Railroad and Warehouse Commission, show that bus lines have been abandoned in 17 communities since World War II.

They are Owatonna, Wilmar, New Ulm, Albert Lea, Chisholm, Crookston, International Falls, Worthington, Thief River Falls, Breckenridge, Fergus Falls, Detroit Lakes, Fairmont, Two Harbors, St. Peter, Montevideo and Dilworth.

Local bus lines now operate in only 15 communities, reports filed with the commission indicate. They are Minneapolis-St. Paul, Duluth, Austin, Bemidji, Brainerd, Faribault, Mankato, Hibbing, Moorhead, Red Wing, Rochester, St. Cloud, Virginia and Winona.

Even burgeoning population, as in the Twin Cities metropolitan area, is no insurance that bus lines will thrive.

Alma, Area Get
Dials Wednesday

ALMA, Wis. (Special) — Tenney Telephone Co. will cut the city of Alma and rural subscribers to automatic dial service Wednesday noon.

Tenney is providing service to approximately 700 subscribers. The new system will give improved service and reduce the number of parties on all rural lines.

These lines have been under construction the past year. Most of them are in buried cables, the latest in telephone service, and will be a large factor in making service as trouble free as possible.

THE COMPANY is moving into its new building. An open house will be held in the new switchboard, office and garage area later.

One of the older privately owned companies in the area, it was established in 1904 by Dr. J. S. Tenney of Alma, who worked with August Hitt in building the lines and setting up the switchboard facilities.

Members of the Hitt family have been active in operation of the company ever since.

Edmund Hitt, Alma mayor, is manager. His son, David, is a maintenance man. Another member of the family, Miss Lavina Hitt, has been a switchboard operator more than 44 years. The change-over will mark the end of her long service to the community. No longer will people hear her pleasant, deep voice say "Alma," they will dial direct and not through the familiar central office.

TENNEY COMPANY has made the conversion with a loan from the Rural Electrification Administration. The engineering work was done by W. P. Benheimer, Inc., Tomah. Cable and wire were installed by Systems Installation, Inc., a division of I. T. T. Kellogg Co., Chicago. The automatic dial switchboard and equipment were installed by Automatic Electric Co., Chicago.

Toll-free service will be provided from Alma to Nelson, Cochrane, Gilmanton-Modena and Waumandee.

Alvin Vollmer is Tenney president. Miss Hitt is vice president.

Watkins Mary King, Schmidt's Win Team Titles

TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS... Watkins Mary King, which staged a last night showing of power to dethrone defending champion Watkowski's, took the Class A championship of the Winona Women's Bowling Association tour-

Watkins Mary King, which competes Monday nights in the Pin Topplers League at Westgate Bowl, and Schmidt's Beer, which rolls in the Thursday night Ladies League at Red Men's Club, reign today as new Winona Women's Bowling Association champions.

The Watkins team nailed down the Class A title on the final night of competition with a 2,784 total to dethrone Watkowski's, which vaulted into first place during Saturday's first round with a 2,680 total.

The winner's formula was simple: Carrying only a 182-pin handicap, the team swept to the title by shooting a scratch total of 2,602.

Esther Pozanc was the individual standout for the hot-shooting quintet with a 218-602 for Winona's 13th national honor count of the current season and a tenth-place tie in the city's top 10.

Marianne O'Brien ripped a 549 on games of 201, 165 and 183 and Marge Moravec came up with Watkins' other 500 — a 536 on games of 188, 171 and 177.

Irene Trimmer fired a 471 on 10-frame totals of 107, 162 and 202 and Ruby Brang rounded out the team score with a 444 on games of 160, 160 and 124.

Watkowski's, which drove to the Class A title a year ago with a 2,753 at Winona Athletic Club, wound up in second place with its 2,680.

Schmidt's kept its lead with only three Class B teams in action Monday night, winning the championship with a scratch 2,188 total and upping that score with a 488-pin handicap.

Schmidt's used the services of two subs to nail down the title. Judy Knapik, who shot a 437, and Ruth Konkel, who tagged 403, were filling in.

Taking second place in the Class B competition was E. B.'s Corner with a 2,627 total. Super Saver, which took the title a year ago with a score of 2,599, finished in eighth place this time around with a 2,543.

Rolling into first place in the singles division after first-night action in that division was Joan Sievers, who registered 591.

Joan hit a 479 scratch total on games of 155, 132 and 192 and used a 112-pin handicap to stretch that to a 591.

Ranking in second place is Dianne Walters with a 585 and Jill Schuminski and Judy Strommer follow with 582s.

The Vera Bell-Yvonne Carpenter duo leads the doubles division with a 1,160 total to 1,157 for Sue Czaplowski and Dianne Walters.

The duo duo posted a 1,042 scratch total to go with a 118-pin handicap. Vera hit games of 169, 176 and 147 for a 492 series and Yvonne totaled 189-187-174-550.

Doubles and singles shifts will continue through tonight and Wednesday.

In addition to Esther Pozanc's 218-602 in the team event, other bowlers to hit in the 500 or 200 circle while competing with a team were: Marianne O'Brien, 201-549; Yvonne Carpenter 213-540, Marge Moravec 536, Mary Ann Stalka 530, Shirley Squires 521 and Shirley Gehlhaart 502, Irene Trimmer 202 and Florence Loeving 202.

In doubles competition, the following 200-500 totals were posted: Carol Mlynecak 211-583, Yvonne Carpenter 550, Betty Englerth 543, Janet Wiczorek 541, Evelyn Tripp 524, Lorraine Bauer 514, Helen Nelson 509, Shirley Squires 502, Vivian E. Brown 203-502, Betty Biltgen 500 and Jill Schuminski 205.

In singles the following hit 500s and 200s: Lucille Jackson 24-525, Judy Strommer 201-513, Helen Nelson 503, Marge Poblacki 501 and Grace Burley 501.

LET'S TALK SPORTS

WINONA STATE'S basketball team nearly pulled an upset early this season when it forced State College of Iowa into a down-to-the-wire race.

The Warriors bowed 86-75 after trailing by just 76-73 with three minutes remaining in the game.

There were plenty of individual heroes, but the player that really stood out for his basketball ability was the Panthers' Pete Spoden, a talented 6-6 center.

Spoden scored 20 points against the Warriors. Now he is through with basketball.

He has been declared ineligible for second-semester action, but he wound up his collegiate career in a blaze of glory Saturday night at the SCI Field House.

He pulled down 15 rebounds to run his career mark to 1,104, a new SCI record, and scored 19 points to give himself a career total of 1,239, another record.

Spoden, who finished his days as a collegian with nine SCI records, was honored at halftime ceremonies during which he received a five-minute standing ovation from the capacity crowd of more than 4,000.

Some North Central Conference coaches insist the giant pivotman should have been ineligible the first semester. Had that happened, where would Bob Campbell's cagers be now? They might have a 10-7 record.

THEN THERE IS Austin. The Packers are in the midst of a three-game losing string. It's been a long time since anyone can remember anything as rare as the Packers losing three in a row.

The team to hang No. 3 on Ove Berven's group was Mankato. For the second straight week, the Scarlets hit 50 percent, dropping 32 of 64 shots.

VIC GISLASON, high school athletic director, and Superintendent A. L. Nelson will attend meetings at Owatonna Wednesday. Gislason will enter a confab with the other eight Big Nine athletic directors to discuss the proposal made earlier this year by Northfield and Faribault.

Those two cities want to play a six-game football schedule, meeting only two of the loop's four largest schools. Those four, according to the proposal, are Austin, Albert Lea, Rochester and Winona.

It's a bit of a mystery just why Winona was picked. The senior high here has an enrollment of 1,025, Mankato High School's is approaching 1,400.

Also discussed will be a schedule, submitted by Albert Lea, designed to begin with the '66 season.

Albert Lea has proposed that, with the addition of a second Rochester high school, the five largest schools meet each other and the five smallest meet each other.

In addition, each school would meet three teams of the other bracket to form a seven-game conference schedule.

WITH LAST WEEKEND'S games included, the Swami has picked 283 of 416 games correctly for a .680 percentage. With handicaps, he has 235 of 416 for a .565 percentage.

This is what he says for tonight: Mankato over Winona State by 6, Cotter over Arcadia by 13, West Salem over Mindoro by 3, Gale-Etrick over Holmen by 4, Trempealeau over Melrose by 15, Bangor over Onalaska by 5, Caledonia over Canton by 11, Peterson over Mabel by 14, Houston over Spring Grove by 6, Lake City over Zumbrota by 7, Stewartville over Kasson-Mantorville by 5, Fairchild over Pepin by 8, Taylor over Onalaska Luther by 4, Gilmanton over Lima Sacred Heart by 6, Mondovi over Fall Creek by 9, Alma Center over Neillsville by 4, Eleva-Strum over Altoona by 3, Grand Meadow over Preston by 6, Elkton over Chatfield by 5, and Lewiston over Byron by 11.

RAMBLERS TEST RAIDERS

Two Streaks Go on Line At Arcadia

By BOB JUNGHANS
Daily News Sports Writer

A pair of streaks will be on the line when Cotter High's basketball team makes the trek to Arcadia tonight for an 8 p.m. clash.

The Ramblers are in the embryo stage of another of their elongated winning skeins, while the Arcadia Raiders have a longer string going — but in the reverse direction.

COTTER SAW a nine-game winning string snapped two weeks ago in a 57-51 loss to St. Louis Park Benilde. Since that time they have chalked up three straight easy triumphs with the closest margin being 16 points.

Meanwhile, Arcadia is nursing a meager 1-10 season record and has dropped eight in a row.

To top it all off, neither coach has seen the other. Rambler mentor John Nett said, "I don't know much about them. We'll go with the same five. What we do will depend upon what they do."

Nett's familiar starting quintet will have 6-5 Mike Jerecek at center, with John Nett Jr. and Bob Judge at the wings in the forward wall, Rick Starzecki and Gene Schultz will be at guards.

Raider Coach Don Lee said it this way, "I haven't seen them but I know they're a good team. We'll try to run if we can, and probably use both a man-to-man and zone defense against them."

LEE WILL counter with 6-3 Larry Sobotta at center and 6-1 Pat Maloney and 5-10 Jerry Blaha at the forwards. Bob Brownlee, 5-9, and Roger Moe, 5-10, will be in the back court.

Blaha and Brownlee have paced Arcadia in scoring this season with 12- and 11-point averages, respectively.

After tonight's tilt, Cotter will return home to host St. Thomas Academy of St. Paul at St. Stan's gym Friday night.

Finley Must Deal With KC, Says Griffith

ST. PAUL (AP)—Minnesota Twins President Cal Griffith says owner Charles Finley of the Kansas City Athletics had better do what the other American League owners instructed him to do before he goes making deals with Oakland.

"Finley has one thing to do," Griffith said Monday. "That is to negotiate a reasonable lease with Kansas City by Feb. 1."

"He is supposed to see if he can get a fair lease at Kansas City. Of course, what he considers fair and what the city considers fair is the issue."

"They're a good ball club, we've got to be at our best to beat them tonight."

That is the way Coach Bob Campbell summed up his team's chances against the Mankato Indians in an NIC affair scheduled for Memorial Hall tonight at 8 o'clock.

Winona State takes a 9-8 record into the game, with one of the victories coming over the Mankato club. The Warriors opened the Northern Intercollegiate Conference season with a 70-67 win, spoiling the Indians' debut in their massive Highland Arena complex.

This fact alone, it would seem, will make tonight's scrap even more interesting.

For Mankato, the Hagen brothers, Jon and Joe will be the top threats, with Les Sonnabend posing an additional problem.

This trio combined for a total of 37 of Mankato's 67 points in the initial encounter with the Warriors, and will be expected to carry the load tonight for Coach Bill Morris' club.

The Warriors will counter with the same starting lineup that Campbell hit on in the Beloit tournament. Lyle Papenfuss and Gary Petersen will man the forward slots with Dave Rosseau at center and Dave Meisner and Dave Goede at the guard positions.

"Darrell Schuster is still nursing an infected foot and will not see action tonight," said Campbell. "Tom Stallings will take up Schuster's spot as one of the No. 1 reserves." Schuster's availability for the swing north this weekend for games with Bemidji and Moorhead is termed "doubtful" by the Warrior coach.

A freshman preliminary between Winona's frosh and the Mankato yearlings will precede the varsity tilt.

Trainor's Hat Trick Helps Comets Win

Redmen Travel To Holmen Tonight

Winona area prep cagers start out the basketball week with light action Tuesday night as four conferences have title-bearing games on tap.

The Cascade circuit has a full slate with all eyes focused on Holmen where the Vikings (6-2) play host to high-flying Gale-Etrick (7-1). A win for the Redmen would practically clinch the title, but if Holmen pulls out on top, the race will go right to the wire.

Other games will have Bangor (5-3) playing host to Onalaska (3-5) as it tries to hang on to third place in the loop. Mindoro (4-4) is at West Salem (3-5) and Trempealeau (4-4) entertains winless Melrose in other games.

The Hiawatha Valley league has only half its teams in action, but one of the games has second place on the line. Lake City, currently in second with a 7-2 mark, will have Zumbrota (6-3) coming to town. The other tilt will find Stewartville (5-4) entertaining Kasson - Mantorville (4-1).

Peterson attempts to remain unbeaten in the Root River Conference as it plays host to a surging Mabel team which has won two in a row. Caledonia (5-3) hosts Canton (1-5) and

Redmen Skaters' String Ends

Tumble to Bemidji

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (Special)—If the old cliché "a day late and a dollar short" could be changed to read "a man short and a few minutes late" it would fit the circumstances of St. Mary's first hockey loss of the season Monday.

The Redmen saw their unbeaten skin stopped at eight as they dropped a 6-5 decision to Bemidji at Aldrich arena.

"IT WAS no disgrace to lose to that team (Bemidji)," said St. Mary's ice coach Keith Hanzel. "They're a real good team, but the worst part of it was, we lost it on mistakes."

The Redmen had forged into a 3-0 lead early in the first period on a pair of goals by Dick McCormick and one by Bob Paradise, but here the first half of the revamped cliche came into play. Bemidji tallied three times on power plays as a St. Mary's skater sat in the penalty box.

The Beavers took the lead in the second period, firing in a pair of scores while the Redmen could counter with only one by Andre Beaulieu.

"We played a real good third period," said Hanzel. "We kept the pressure on them, but time just ran out."

"When you play that type of pressing game you have to take chances," Hanzel said explaining Bemidji's final goal. A Beaver front-line got behind the St. Mary's defensemen early in the third period to up the count to 6-4 before McCormick completed his hat trick to bring the score to its final count.

St. Mary's will have only three days to contemplate the loss, however, before taking dead aim on a pair of weekend clashes that can decide the MIAC crown. The Redmen run head-on into a strong Macalester sextet at St. Paul Friday and Saturday.

ST. MARY'S is 6-0 in the conference, while Macalester ranks right behind with a 5-1 mark and 8-2 overall.

The Redmen may be without the services of defenseman Bob Magnuson and will be definitely missing Don Berrigan, a wingman on the veteran line. Both skaters missed the Bemidji tilt, Magnuson with an injured knee and Berrigan because of scholastic ineligibility.

"We found out we could get beat," commented Hanzel. "They (Bemidji) were real strong, but we could have beaten them."

FIRST PERIOD: St. Mary's: McCormick (Beaulieu) 5:39, Paradise (McCormick) 6:22, McCormick (Paradise) 7:34, Berrigan (McCormick) 10:36, Hopkins (Thompson) 13:05, Cocco (Peterson) 13:46. Penalties: Bemidji: Thompson 5:55, St. Mary's: Cocco 8:34, Paradise (McCormick) 8:42, Bemidji: Miller (Mahlman) 9:21, Penalties: St. Mary's: Belchenbach 1:50.

THIRD PERIOD: Bemidji: Budge (unassisted) 12:41, St. Mary's: McCormick (Desbain) 12:50.

SAVES: Archambault (St. M.) 12 10 4-24, Robertsd (B.) 12 10 3 3-10.
