China Out to Dominate Asia—That Means Ousting U.S.

By JAMES MARLOW Associated Press News Analyst WASHINGTON (AP) — When Americans stop being mad at Fidel Castro long enough to reflect about the shoe on the other foot, Red China comes to mind — and it isn't pleasant. Since the Red Chinese are not the mousy type, this country can be sure its desire to eliminate Castro and communism from this hemisphere is matched by Red China's ardor to rid all Asia of Western influence. The more so since this country has some history of doing to others what it doesn't want others to do to the United States. The classic example was in missiles. The Russians were irritated to no end when the United States put missiles in their backyard, in Turkey and Italy. But when Russia put missiles in Cuba the United States screamed and there was a crisis. This was resolved when Russia pulled its missiles out of Cuba and this country took its missiles out of Turkey and Italy. One of this country's great embarrassments of the century was to see communism not only get a foothold in its backyard, in Cuba, but survive and, more or less, flourish. Castro is more than embarrassment. He's a danger. While he lasts he is an inspiration to other Latin American Communists to try to do likewise in their countries. Besides, Cuba can be a training school for Red guerrillas and agents from all over Latin America. When they get their diplomas they can return to their own countries to practice their special kind of scholarship. No wonder the United States wants Castro out. Meanwhile, the United States is up to its neck in Southeast Asia, in the Chinese Communists' backyard, trying to keep the people there pro-Western and anti-Communist, or, if not anti-Communist, at least neutral. This is as insufferable for the Red Chinese as Castro is for the United States. So they can be expected to try to dominate their continent as soon as they feel ready, particularly since they seem to have an even fiercer Communist missionary zeal than the Russians. But the two giants, the United States and Red China, are momentarily frustrated in their ambitions. As of now the United States clearly doesn't seem to know what to do next about Castro. A direct attack on his island would risk some gruesome possibilities, like war with Russia, alienating the rest of Latin America, and losing trust, respect and influence elsewhere. As for the indirect method of attack—by Cuban exiles with American backing—this country has painful recollections of what happened when it was tried. This was President Kennedy's disastrous failure in 1961. Right now in Southeast Asia's South Viet Nam—where this country has put over 15,000 troops and more than $5 billion in aid—the United States is trying to prevent a takeover by North Viet Nam's Red guerrillas. The Red Chinese, who have split with Russia and respect American nuclear weapons so long as they don't have any, so far have avoided direct participation in South Viet Nam and the rest of Southeast Asia. They don't have to hurry. They tower over their neighbors, as this country does over its neighbors in this hemisphere. When they feel strong enough, and that the time is right, it seems inevitable they will move. Even now, despite all its efforts, the United States isn't making much progress in South Viet Nam. But if tomorrow the Red guerrillas from North Viet Nam abandon the fight, it could hardly be more than temporary truce.

Tax Cut Ready for Final Formalities

By JOE HALL WASHINGTON (AP) — An $11.5-billion tax cut, largest in the nation's history, is ready for the final formalities expected to put more money into the pockets of 80 million American taxpayers by mid-March. Senate and House conferees completed work on the 400-page measure Wednesday. The House is expected to pass the compromise bill next Tuesday, with Senate action coming either the same day or next Wednesday. Little opposition is anticipated. President Johnson is then expected to sign the bill early the following week. The first effects of the bill will come in reduced withholding of taxes in paychecks dated eight days after the measure is signed—either March 11 or 12. The reductions average about 19 per cent of present individual taxes. Rates for some 550,000 corporations are also being cut. Conference agreement climaxed a solid year of concentrated work in rewriting dozens of provisions in the U.S. tax code. House hearings began on the bill in February last year, just after the late President John F. Kennedy asked Congress for a massive tax cut to try to solve many of the nation's economic problems. Johnson followed his predecessor in putting the tax cut measure at the top of his legislative agenda along with civil rights. The reductions are expected by the administration to provide a stimulus aimed at boosting the 1964 economy and providing healthy long-run effects on unemployment and other problems. The new withholding rate is expected to pump an extra $800 million into the economy each month. The biggest administration victory came in the last-minute decision Wednesday to knock out a House provision reducing the capital gains tax on assets held two years or more. There might have been trouble with the compromise measure in the Senate if this cut had been retained. It would have lowered the capital gains rate to 40 per cent of the normal levy, with a 21 per cent ceiling, on profits made from sales of stock and other property held two years or more. The present rate is 50 per cent of the regular tax with a 25 per cent maximum. Elimination of the provision saved a $260 million annual revenue loss in the long run. The major provisions in the bill were the same in both Senate and House bills. The new personal rate schedule will run from 14 to 70 per cent compared with 20 to 91 per cent now. About two-thirds of the cut is effective this year, retroactive to Jan. 1, and one-third in 1965. For corporations, the present 52 per cent rate is reduced to 50 per cent in 1964, 48 per cent starting in next year. The wage and salary withholding will drop from the present 18 per cent level to a new permanent 14 per cent rate eight days after the bill becomes law. There also is an expectation of a windfall by income tax states which allow their taxpayers a deduction for federal income taxes they have paid. A lower deduction would have more taxable income for the states. Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York has promised there will be no tax increases in 1964. He presented a $2.92-billion budget last month and said he is counting on the federal tax cut to stimulate business. As a result of better business, he estimated, state revenues would rise seven per cent. Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California has submitted a $3.66-billion budget for the 1964-65 fiscal period along with an opinion that no new taxes are required. He said the prospect of a small surplus enabled him to recommend a $2.75-million income tax cut in the lowest brackets.

States Benefit From Tax Cut

By WILLIAM J. CONWAY CHICAGO (AP) — States, as well as taxpayers, expect to enjoy benefits from the slash in federal income taxes. There is a widespread disposition in state capitals to hold the line on state taxes. There are hopes that the federal reduction will set off an upsurge of consumer spending that will boost revenue from such state levels as the sales tax.

What Tax Cut Means To You

WASHINGTON (AP) — This table shows how much more take home pay some average U.S. wage and salary earners will receive, beginning probably in the first week of March, when the new tax bill is in effect:

Weekly Pay	(x) Number of Exemptions	Take home Pay
$50	1	$1.50

(x) Everyone is entitled to one exemption for himself and one for each dependent. A married couple has two, a married couple with two children four, etc.

(xx) There is no withholding at this level, under present law or the new bill. This table reflects the difference between the new and old withholding rates. How much tax you actually will owe depends on a variety of factors and the withholding is only roughly gauged to your tax bill—it may come out right at the end of the year, or you may get a refund or have to pay a difference. To compute the difference on wages and salaries above $200 a week, take the appropriate figure for $200 and add 4 per cent of the excess over $200.

Cut Means More for Minnesota

ST. PAUL (AP) — The federal income tax cut won't be all gravy for Minnesotans, says Rolland Hatfield, state tax commissioner. For as Washington cuts its withholding rate, Minnesota immediately will boost its take out of payroll checks. Hatfield said new deductibility tables already were being prepared, based on the contemplated reduction at the federal level, and would be in the hands of employers very soon. The commissioner estimated that the average Minnesotan would find his state tax hiked by $5.15 this year and $8.07 next. The increase is expected to yield the state an extra $5,647,687 for the rest of 1964 and bring in $8,049,569 next year. He estimated that about a million taxpayers would be affected in the state.

Woman Fires At Candidate At Dallas Field

By TOM JOHNSON DALLAS (AP) — A distraught divorcee took a wild shot in the busy Dallas air terminal Wednesday at a man she mistook, by her later account, for radio executive Gordon McLendon. The bullet, fired from 15 feet at W. W. Dyer, 48, of Dallas, lodged in a small handbag carried by D. A. Peterson of Park Ridge, Ill. Both men were walking to board a 4:45 p.m. flight to Chicago. Dyer's wife shoved the woman, Mrs. Elizabeth Stone, 47, to the floor, police said, as she tried to shoot again and the weapon jammed. An airline employee wrestled the 32-caliber automatic pistol from Mrs. Stone. McLendon, a candidate for U.S. senator in Texas' Democratic primary May 6, described the incident as an obvious attempt to assassinate him. He said he would ask Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy to order an FBI investigation. City Detective Frank Mote said Mrs. Stone told him she had been upset since a hidden rifleman killed President Kennedy here Nov. 22. She intended to kill McLendon, questioners quoted her as saying, because "he is a Communist and fools around with Cosa Nostra." Mrs. Stone, who moved here recently from neighboring Fort Worth, bought the pistol last week in a Fort Worth department store, police related. She said she had never seen McLendon. As the shot was fired in busy Love Field Terminal, McLendon was visiting at the home of a friend.

Goldwater Would Fire McNamara

WITH GOLDWATER IN NEW HAMPSHIRE (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater said today that if he were president he would fire Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara for saying long-range missiles are more reliable than manned bombers. Campaigning for votes in the New Hampshire presidential primary, Goldwater said it was "probably the stupidest statement ever made by a secretary of defense." "If he were my secretary of defense he'd be back making Eiseles for Ford the next day," Goldwater said. McNamara formerly was president of the Ford Motor Co.

Late Bulletins

DALLAS (AP) — Five more prospective jurors in the Jack Ruby murder case were dismissed for cause in rapid order today. This brought to 21 the total of jury candidates who have been rejected. GENEVA (AP) — The United States and the Soviet Union agreed today on the need to reduce military spending, but disagreed over proposals to achieve the goal. LIBREVILLE, Gabon (AP) — President Leon Mba of Gabon resumed office today after French troops put down a two-day military revolt in his West African country. Unconfirmed reports said 27 persons — 25 Gabonese and 2 Frenchmen — died in the fighting Wednesday that ended the rebellion.

Storm Slams Into Eastern Seaboard

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS A snow storm spawned in the Gulf of Mexico slammed into the Eastern Seaboard Wednesday, with gale-force winds piling drifts up to six feet from North Carolina to Maine. The affected areas were expected to have a "breather" today, with snow flurries, light rain or just cloudy weather forecast. The storm closed many schools and slowed plane, train, auto and bus traffic. Numerous sports and social events were canceled. Drifts were six feet deep in northern Virginia; five feet on Maryland's secondary roads. Near Carlisle in central Pennsylvania the snow measured 25 inches, as it did in Martinsburg, W.Va. The Baltimore and Washington, D.C., areas were practically bypassed. Baltimore got only a few inches of snow and rain prevailed in the nation's capital. Trains from Washington to Philadelphia were up to a half hour late. New York City escaped with 4 to 6 inches of snow, but gusty winds up to 32 miles per hour caused some power failures. Westchester County, north of the city, and the Catskill Mountain area were hit hard, with snow accumulations of up to a foot. In Upstate New York the snow depths were: Albany, 6 to 8 inches; Glens Falls, 4 inches; Syracuse and Rome, 2 inches; and Rochester and Utica, 1 inch. Bergen County in New Jersey had 8 to 10 inches. Also in New Jersey, the storm prevented refueling operations at McGuire Air Force Base, canceling air lifts for 1,500 troops headed from Texas to Germany and the same number headed the other direction. The airlifts were to demonstrate U.S. ability to rush troops to trouble spots. Connecticut called it the winter's worst storm, with up to 11 inches of snow in some inland spots. The coastal areas had up to 6 inches. Snow and strong winds which swept through the northern and central Rockies and into the northern and central Plains caused hazardous driving conditions in many areas. Snow flurries continued in sections of the Great Lakes region but fair and dry weather prevailed in most areas west of the Rockies. Snowslides closed two major transcontinental highways in the Colorado Rockies for a period Wednesday night. U.S. 6 over Loveland Pass in central Colorado was closed by a snow slide 12 feet deep and 75 yards long. U.S. 50 over Monarch Pass in southern Colorado also was closed for a time because of heavy snow.

Thomas and Welch Debate In Minneapolis

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Norman Thomas, patriarch of America's Socialist Party, and Robert Welch, founder and head of the John Birch Society, debated long-distance and to a no-decision conclusion Wednesday night. In the windup to the University of Minnesota's "Great Issues" Symposium, Thomas and Welch sparred halfway across the United States on this nation's right and left in politics. Thomas accused Welch of dealing in generalities, while Welch confined his remarks to espousing the Birch philosophy. They ried head-on over the role and size of government. Their debate finally focused on civil rights and the part the U.S. government is playing. "I agree on our debt to our Negro citizens," Welch said, "but we were making tremendous progress until the government stepped in to mess things up." Countered Thomas: "I would like to think we could depend on the brotherhood of man to solve our racial problem. But I'd like to know how far we would have got without the government." Welch, grounded in Boston by a snowstorm, spoke via amplified telephone hookup. As Welch talked from Boston, his picture was flashed on a screen for an audience estimated at more than 4,000, most of them students. District Court Judge Donald C. O'Brien indicated he expects choosing of the jury to consume the next two days, at least. He informed the pair named Wednesday they need not return until Monday.

14 Missing From Battered Vessel

NEW YORK (AP) — A Coast Guard cutter and planes continued searching the North Atlantic today for 14 men missing from the storm-battered British grain ship Ambassador, but their survival was considered improbable. Twenty of the 35 crew members have been rescued. The captain died. Coast Guard area headquarters reported that a Dutch tugboat today took over the listing and abandoned Ambassador as a prize of the sea. The Coast Guard cutter Coos Bay radiated early today that the tugboat Elbe put men aboard the Ambassador, they stopped flooding in the ship and the tug started towing her to the Azores Islands. The Elbe had sped to the Ambassador for salvage purposes and arrived Wednesday night. The Coos Bay and the planes continued to look for liferafts. Weather in the vicinity of the Ambassador improved considerably before dawn. Twenty-one of the men aboard the vessel when she began to take on water and listed badly were dramatically picked up by crewmen of the cutter and the Norwegian freighter Fruen. But Capt. Harry Strickland, master of the Ambassador, was dead when brought aboard the Coos Bay. Tuesday morning, about 660 miles southeast of Halifax, N.S., the Ambassador radiated for assistance, saying its engines were dead and it was helpless in the heavy seas.

Britain Flying More Troops Into Cyprus

By A. I. GOLDBERG UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Diplomats negotiated privately today on proposals to keep the peace in Cyprus as Britain began flying nearly 2,000 more troops to the eastern Mediterranean island. Security Council debate on the Cyprus crisis was in recess until Friday afternoon, and there were no sure prospects for agreement on proposals for an international force to take over enforcement of the shaky cease-fire between the Greek and Turkish Cypriot communities. U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson called on the council Wednesday to endorse a Western proposal to bolster the British troops on Cyprus with soldiers from other nations. Seeking to avoid Soviet intrusion into the dispute, Stevenson pointedly added that composition of the force would require the approval of Cyprus and her three guarantors under the 1960 independence treaties — Britain, Turkey and Greece. Stevenson also urged the council to call on Cyprus and her three protectors to designate U.N. Secretary-General U. Thant as an impartial mediator. The U.S. delegate spoke after Chief Soviet Delegate Nikolai T. Fedorenko charged the 1960 treaties had been imposed on Cyprus and denounced the British force as a Western plot to establish a North Atlantic Treaty Organization bridgehead in the eastern Mediterranean. Backing the Greek Cypriot government of President Makarios, Fedorenko demanded that the council first give guarantees for Cyprus' territorial integrity and against aggression.

DEAR ABBY:

Why Get Mad About It?

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Would you get mad if someone asked you if you were wearing something false? CURIOUS

DEAR CURIOUS: Only if I were.

DEAR ABBY: I am on the verge of losing my senses. A neighbor of ours has become a pigeon fancier and he is literally driving me insane. Those birds are so dirty I can't even hang my laundry outside. And I am forever hosing down my sidewalk. Parking my car in my own driveway is out of the question. There must be 50 or 60 pigeons, and this man and his wife feed them popcorn and bread all day long. I just can't take it any more. I have heard that pigeons carry disease. Is this true? Is there anything I can do? I hate to be a poor neighbor, but this is too much.

PIGEON HATER

DEAR HATER: It has been established that a harmful fungus (Cryptococcus neoformans) is found in pigeon droppings. Health officials everywhere are waging a war to rid cities of pigeons for this reason. There should be a special breeding ground where pigeons are kept under control. Call your local health department.

Abby

DEAR ABBY: My brother and his wife are the world's biggest tightwads. They have no children and are both holding down good paying jobs. They pulled a few strings and got a heating system for their home — wholesale. Then they talked my husband, who is a crack furnace and air-conditioning man, into installing it for them. When he finished the job, they said, "Thanks a lot." Don't you think my husband was entitled to something for his time? He wouldn't have charged them his regular price, but he wasn't given one dime! How's that for cheap? I would give them a piece of my mind, but we aren't speaking.

MAD AS HOPS

DEAR MAD: Before anyone performs a service (be it for a customer, relative or his best friend), there should be an agreement on price. Your brother is cheap — but your husband should have learned a cheap lesson.

Get it off your chest. For a personal, unpublished reply, write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col. (AP)—Jack Connelly Jr. got a Municipal Court jury summons in the mail Tuesday.

Weapon That Killed Kennedy Used on Walker

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Dallas police say their ballistic tests of a mail-order rifle believed to have killed President John F. Kennedy indicates it was the same one used in an unsuccessful attack on former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker.

Chief of Police Jesse Curry and Chief of Detectives M. W. Stevenson made the report public Tuesday.

"The ballistics report cannot be final or conclusive, but generally the comparison points of the slugs were good," Stevenson said.

Walker, a former Army division commander, was near a window in his home last April working alone on his income tax return when a sniper fired at him.

The slug tore through a window casing, narrowly missing Walker, pierced a 9-inch wall and fell on a stack of packaged pamphlets in the adjoining room. The slug tore a golf ball-sized hole in the wall.

Mrs. Marina Oswald, Russian born widow of Lee Harvey Oswald, the accused assassin of Kennedy, has told investigators and the Warren commission that her husband came home that night and told her he had killed the controversial former Army officer.

She said her husband had written her a letter before leaving home the night of the attack on Walker telling her the location of the city jail if something should happen to him and also instructed her how to contact the Russian Embassy if he should be arrested.

Minnesota Redistricted In 1961

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Although Justice John M. Harlan did not list Minnesota as meeting the requirements of Monday's Supreme Court decision that congressional districts must be mapped so as to give "equal representation," the state was redistricted in 1961.

The redistricting was formally enacted at a pre-Christmas special session that year after the regular and one special session failed to reach agreement.

In dividing the state, legislators did it without splitting counties.

In the 1962 general election, this was the vote by congressional districts, for candidates for Congress:

1-157,588, 2-131,100, 3-145,795, 4-157,285, 5-167,867, 6-154,272, 7-135,707, 8-154,563.

The district with the largest vote has the smallest area—the city of Minneapolis.

Liberal Wins House Seat In California

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Liberal Democrat Phillip Burton topped a field of seven and won a seat in the House of Representatives in a special election Tuesday.

He claimed his triumph "is a resounding victory for the Johnson administration out here in the western part of the United States."

Burton had to gather more votes than his seven opponents and any write-in candidates combined to win the special election in California's 5th Congressional District and avoid a run-off.

The election was called to fill the vacancy created when Democrat John Shelley was elected mayor of San Francisco last November. The term expires Jan. 3, 1965 and Burton must run for re-election in the November general election.

The troop will present a skit "The Laws of the Pack" under the direction of the den mother, Mrs. Lawrence Overring, and will sing "Be Game, Be Square" and "My Country 'Tis Of Thee."

The primary grades under the direction of Mrs. Pershing Coy will give a physical education demonstration.

MEMBERS of grades 4, 5 and 6 under the direction of Mrs. A. A. Eggers will participate also. Grade six will present a choral reading "America For Me", the sixth grade boys will recite Lincoln's Gettysburg Address and the upper grade girls will sing patriotic songs. Miss Margo Gehres will play selections on the piano.

A silent auction will be held. The Mmes. Kenneth Prodzinski and George Maul are on the lunch committee.

'64 Corvair Monza by Chevrolet

It's got a frisky new engine
(that puts superior traction under you)

Ever see a Corvair wearing tire chains? Not likely.

And it's not often you'll find a Corvair owner bothering to switch over to snow tires either.

Why? Rear-engine traction. The engine weight over Corvair's rear wheels gives them remarkable gripping power without any assist from special winter driving paraphernalia.

Reassuring to know this time of year—and also in the months to come when all that tidy white countryside turns into a melting pot that's likely to add to the misery.

Another thing about Corvair's engine: It's bigger this year.

Meaning of God's Gift Lenten Topic

"The Gift and the Giver" was the title of Dr. Arnold T. Olson's topic at the fourth in a series of five sermons at the United Lutheran Church.

Wednesday evening Dr. Olson, continuing to base his sermons on the dialogue between Jesus and the Samaritan woman, said, "If thou knewest the gift of God and who it is that said to thee, give me to drink, thou wouldst have asked of him and he would have given thee living water."

Dr. Olson said, "The value of what Christ offers is determined by who he is. It is true even here the gift without the giver is bare. Before the true import of what Jesus offered was realized, the woman went through a process of recognition."

"FIRST SHE CALLED him a Jew. To many, Christ is no more than a human of some particular culture and race. Later she calls him a prophet. This was highly complimentary. To some Christ is still human but a very special human who speaks for God," said Dr. Olson.

"Finally she calls him the Christ. He was one who could probe the recesses of her heart and the sins of her past as he told her all things she had ever done."

"The gift of God has meaning only in so far as we recognize it coming from the Son of God," Dr. Olson stated. "He is more than a human, more than an extraordinary human. He is the eternal 'word made flesh and dwelling among us.' His death upon the cross has meaning for each one not just because of a man dying but God offering to men a life which satisfies the deepest longing of the heart."

THE REV. LaVern Swanson, Lakeside Evangelical Free Church, was pre-service hymn leader Wednesday. The Rev. Phil Williams, Church of the Nazarene, presided. The Rev. Oscar Monson, Evangelical United Brethren Church, read scripture and prayer. The Church of the Nazarene choir sang.

Dr. Olson, Minneapolis, president of the Evangelical Free Church of America, will conclude the Lenten services at 7:30 tonight at First Congregational Church with the sermon "The Forgotten Waterpot."

Rev. Williams will be pre-service hymn leader; the Rev. Wilmer Frieseth, Central Lutheran Church, will preside. The Rev. Walter Meyer, St. Paul's United Church of Christ, Lewiston, will read scripture and prayer. The central Lutheran choir will sing.

The organ prelude will begin at 7 p.m. with the pre-service hymn at 7:15. The public is invited to attend this final Lenten service, sponsored by the Winona Ministerial Association.

Welfare Unit Studies Foster Home for Aged

The Winona County Welfare Board Wednesday discussed licensing of a foster home for the aged, one of the first in the county.

The home would be able to accommodate no more than two elderly persons, who would be treated like members of the foster family, according to William P. Werner, director of the county welfare department. Procedure for such licensing must be determined, Werner said.

THE GROUP ALSO discussed a public hearing to be held March 18 in Minneapolis. It will be concerned with state regulations for the new medical care for the aged program that becomes effective in Minnesota July 1.

Federal legislation instituting the program (the Kerr-Mills Act) leaves determination of administrative procedures up to the states. Such rules, however, are subject to federal review and amendment.

After examination by the federal government, the state regulations must be subjected to a public hearing. The March 18 hearing marks this step in organization of the medical care program in Minnesota, Werner explained.

WERNER REPORTED to the board that his department had handled 12 referrals to University of Minnesota Hospitals in the last month and worked with courts on nine cases involving mental illness.

One new old age assistance grant was approved, and three were cancelled. The department has six new cases of aid to families with dependent children (formerly called aid to dependent children) and one new aid to the disabled case, Werner said. All become effective March 1.

Death came from suffocation, according to Dr. D. A. Davidson, Caledonia, deputy county coroner.

WHEN GOETZINGER'S 1958 car went out of control and into a ditch, it tipped partially on its left side, pinning the driver's chest under the car door as it leaned against the bank.

Runaway Horse Struck by Car

A spirited three-year-old Palomino didn't want to go into the barn for his supper Wednesday night. He galloped away from Anton Thesing and his two sons, rural Lewiston, and was injured when he ran in front of a car on Highway 14. The horse suffered a broken left rear leg and had to be shot.

Thesing and his 10 and 12-year-old sons were putting the two horses in the barn when they broke away and ran towards Highway 14 and a half mile away about 6:15 p.m.

The Palomino ran before a car driven by Allyn J. Frahm, Rochester, and owned by Gene Bemel, Rochester. The driver was not injured but the impact caused about $150 damage to the left front of the car. Sheriff's deputies investigated. The accident happened one mile east of Lewiston.

Courthouse Repair Costs To Be Studied

Specific costs of modernizing the courthouse here will be considered Saturday by the committee formed to evaluate structures in the proposed downtown urban renewal area.

The group will meet at 1:30 p.m. at the Winona County Historical Society headquarters, 125 W. 5th St.

The courthouse is the first building studied by the committee, which was formed by the historical society at the request of the Winona Chamber of Commerce.

The group toured the courthouse Feb. 8, guided by Joseph Page, clerk of District Court, and County Commissioners Leo Borkowski and Carl O. Peterson.

The committee will hear from a representative of a Dubuque, Iowa, firm, who will inspect the building's exterior Saturday morning. He will report his findings regarding the condition of the courthouse and possibilities of cleaning and renovating it.

The Dubuque company has worked on several Winona buildings.

Edwin O. Eckert, architect and member of the committee, has asked for more time to prepare a study of the courthouse. He originally had been scheduled to report his findings at Saturday's meeting.

Propane Gas Tanks

Winona Harbor to Be Distributing Point

Barge loads of steel tanks for propane gas will begin arriving at Winona this spring for distribution to five states by the Master Tank & Welding Co., Dallas, Tex.

Kenneth McQueen, president of the Winona Industrial Development Association, said the company will occupy 12,000 square feet of area at the city's commercial harbor. Tanks brought here from Quincy, Ill., will be stored for later delivery by trucks to points in Minnesota, the Dakotas, Wisconsin and Montana. The Dallas firm also has a plant at Petersburg, Va., McQueen said.

his farm in Crooked Creek, 2 1/2 miles southwest of Freeburg, when his car went out of control just as he was entering a slight curve on the crushed rock road. Officers estimate the accident happened at 1 a.m.

The loose gravel left no indication of how far the car had traveled on the highway before it veered left and went down into a wide three-foot ditch peppered with rocks and small boulders.

BY THE TIME the car came to a stop after it had traveled 100 feet in the ditch, the left front and rear tires had been chewed up and the rims bent and twisted. The damage apparently was done by the frozen clumps of rock, the sheriff said. The tires may have blown out the sheriff said, causing the accident.

Goetzinger was dead on arrival of Sheriff Whitehouse, Deputy Lawrence Kulig, Dr. Davidson, and Haugen ambulance.

Goetzinger was born May 14, 1921, in Crooked Creek, son of John and Lorena Roth Goetzinger. He lived on farms in Crooked Creek all his life except the four years he served with the U.S. Army in combat in Germany and in France. He was being sent to Japan for further service when word came to the ship he was on that Japan had surrendered.

He returned to farming and was operating the farm of his parents, who lived there before retiring to Brownsville.

He married Agnes Noel of Freeburg, Jan. 29, 1948.

Survivors are: His wife, five sons, Larry, the oldest in the family; Dean, Curtis, Scott and Ricky; six daughters, Vicki, Donna, Diane, Patty, Debby and Cindy, the youngest in the family; his parents; four brothers, Alvin, Brownsville; Alton, Caledonia; Arnold, living near Freeburg; and John Jr., with the armed services in France, and one sister, Mrs. Ervin Wohlers, Brownsville.

Funeral arrangements are not complete but are being made by the Haugen Funeral Home. Services will probably be held at the United Church of Christ, Crooked Creek, where Goetzinger was a member. Burial will probably be in the church cemetery.

Rotary Wives Guests at Annual Program

A varied musical program, including a bagpipe solo and the Triple Trio from the College of Saint Teresa, provided the entertainment at the 41st anniversary "Ladies Night" program of the Winona Rotary Club at Hotel Winona Wednesday evening.

Opening with a cocktail hour, followed by a special steak dinner, the Rotarians and their "Rotary Anns" heard Leo C. La France narrate a brief history of the club. Chuck Williams, of KWNQ was toastmaster.

Clarke Dobbs, Mapleton, student at Winona State College and a member of that community's famous bagpipe band, demonstrated the playing of a bagpipe and explained the different types of bags before playing several numbers. He marched off the stage playing the "Wearing of the Green."

The Triple Trio, an organization of nine students, entertained with a group of numbers ranging from classical to popular.

Thomas Raine, program chairman for the month, was assisted by Williams and Lars Granberg.

City's Bank Debts Gain 5% in January

Bank debits in Winona in January were up 5 percent from the same month of 1963, according to a report released today by the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis.

In dollars, the city's bank debit volume for the month was $29,874,000. Last January's figure was $28,449,000. This represents a dollar increase of $1,425,000.

BANK DEBITS represent the dollar volume of checks drawn by depositors against their accounts. Since most of these checks go to pay for local goods and services, the debit figure is regarded as a fairly reliable indicator of general changes in business volume within a particular city.

Throughout Minnesota, the volume of bank debits increased 18 percent from the figure for January 1963. An 8 percent increase was seen in the part of Wisconsin (the northwest counties) included in the ninth federal reserve district.

The increase throughout the entire district was 16 percent over the debit volume for the same month last year.

Montana's increase was 16 percent. North Dakota had a 13 percent rise. South Dakota's was 9 percent and Upper Michigan's, like Wisconsin's, was 8 percent.

Mondovi Lions Plan Minstrel, Variety Show

MONDOVI, Wis. (Special) — Mondovi Lions Club members voted unanimously at the meeting Monday night at the Methodist Church to sponsor a minstrel-variety show to be directed by the Rickard Production Co. Tentative dates have been set for the latter part of May.

The show is a home talent production. Lions members and their families will appear in the cast. Residents of the community and the surrounding area also will be invited to participate in the show.

Edward Robinson and Allen Lehman were guests. Gordon Kjelvel, president, presided at the meeting. The secretary read the minutes of the last regular meeting, which were approved.

Ladies of the church served a 6:30 dinner. The next meeting will be March 2 at the church.

Purse-Snatcher Leaves Woman Critically Hurt

A Rosary, a house key and 35 cents were the spoils of a young man wrested Wednesday night from an 86-year-old Winona woman on her way to church.

She is in critical condition today in Community Memorial Hospital. Physicians administered oxygen all night to relieve her state of shock. As yet, they have been unable to determine her head and hip injuries.

Mrs. Katherine Lewicka, 556 E. 2nd St., was walking to St. Stanislaus Church about 7:15 p.m. so she would arrive early for the special Lenten service at 8 p.m.

She said she reached the alley on Vine street between 2nd and 3rd streets when a young man suddenly appeared and asked for the time. The next thing she knew he wrenched her black crocheted purse from her hand, breaking its strap in the struggle. Then he knocked her to the ground. The purse contained her Rosary, house key and 35 cents.

Mrs. Lewicka crawled on her hands and knees to a neighbor's home where she complained of a head cut and a painful hip. She was taken by ambulance to Community Memorial Hospital.

Police are investigating.

Personal Property Tax Deadline Near

Feb. 29 is the last day to pay the first half of your personal property taxes without penalty, Mrs. Teresa Curbow, Winona County treasurer, reminded county residents today.

Her office in the courthouse will be open from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday next week, Mrs. Curbow said. She emphasized that the office would be open during the noon hour and would remain open until 5 p.m. Saturday.

The treasurer's office, along with all other courthouse offices, will be closed this Saturday, Washington's birthday.

An 8 percent penalty will be added to taxes not paid by March 1, Mrs. Curbow said. She also reminded taxpayers that when the amount of their taxes exceeds $10, one half may be paid before March 1 and the other half by July 1.

Pepin Traffic Officers Voted Salary Hikes

DURAND, Wis. (Special) — The Pepin County traffic officers, George Plummer and Roger Britton, were voted a $25 monthly increase of salary by the County Board of Supervisors this week, effective March 1.

The increases endorsed by 11 of the 13 board members, raised the salaries to $425 monthly. The last increase for this department was March 1, 1962.

The annual report of the traffic department showed a total of 146 arrests made last year, most of which, 83, were for car speeding. Other violations bringing arrests were for truck speeding, stop sign violations, illegal passing, driving after revocation, no driver's license, reckless driving, drunken driving, non-registration, failure to report accident, overload, inattention driving and miscellaneous.

A total of 1,401 warnings were given on minor violations and 320 five-day tickets on vehicle discrepancies.

The traffic department traveled 52,145 miles for Pepin County; assisted with 700 license applications and titles; investigated 78 accidents, and served as escorts for 95 funerals and over 500 five-day tickets on vehicle discrepancies.

The greatest number of accidents in the county last year involved persons in the 16-33 age range, seven 18-year-old having accidents. This age range had more accidents than all persons from 34-80.

Eid, an Egyptian, testified that he and two companions had been in Winona with Robert Thaldorf, Gilmore Valley Road, on business and were returning to La Crosse. He said that as he turned his 1964 model car left from Mankato Avenue onto Highway 14-61, he set his Cruiseomatic device at 55-miles an hour and joked with his companions about the automation.

The device, he said, enabled a driver to reach a desired speed and then remove his foot from the accelerator. The car is supposed to remain at that speed until either the brake or accelerator is touched.

Eid further testified that Heister had no arrest slips but asked him to voluntarily appear in Dakota justice court on the speeding charge.

EID SAID that later Heister called him at home, expressed surprise that Eid had entered a plea of not guilty in Dakota and volunteered not to press a charge of an invalid driver's license against Eid if he'd change his plea to guilty on the speeding violation. The question of the driver's license arose because Eid had established a Minnesota residence since October but retains a Wisconsin license.

Eid's two passengers, James Hubbard, Onalaska, Wis., and James Spathus, La Crosse, both salesmen for Lindsay Soft Water Co., testified that they were aware the Cruiseomatic device was set at 55-miles an hour, and were unaware of speeding at the time of arrest. One witness testified that he noticed the speed device set at 55-miles an hour after the officer stopped them.

Mrs. Eid also took the stand to say she had listened to her husband's conversation with Heister on the downstairs telephone. She said that Heister asked why a lawyer had been called and that he threatened to press the driver's license charge unless the plea was changed to guilty.

Eid was represented by C. Stanley McMahon and the state by Richard Darby, assistant county attorney.

BLAIR POST OFFICE

Driver Found Not Guilty Of Speeding

It took a six-man jury just 25 minutes in municipal court Wednesday afternoon to decide that a driver who claimed he had set an automatic speed device in his car was not guilty of a speeding violation.

Aladdin Eid, La Crescent, a salesman and employee trainer for Lindsay Soft Water Co. out of La Crosse, was arrested Jan. 17 at 12:15 a.m. on Highway 14-61 at Homer, Minn. Arresting Minnesota Highway Patrolman Allison Heister charged him with driving 70 miles an hour in a 55-mile zone.

In opening testimony Wednesday morning Heister told the court that shortly after midnight Jan. 17 he was returning to his Minnesota City home to pick up a pad of arrest slips, which he had neglected to bring to work with him at 5 p.m. the preceding day.

HE SAID that when he spotted an approaching car apparently traveling too fast, he turned his marked patrol car around and began clocking the car at 65 miles an hour. Suddenly, he testified, he noticed the Eid car in his rear view mirror. Heister said he abandoned the first chase and paced the Eid car to 75 miles an hour. Still, he said, the gap between the patrol car and the Eid automobile narrowed.

Eid, an Egyptian, testified that he and two companions had been in Winona with Robert Thaldorf, Gilmore Valley Road, on business and were returning to La Crosse. He said that as he turned his 1964 model car left from Mankato Avenue onto Highway 14-61, he set his Cruiseomatic device at 55-miles an hour and joked with his companions about the automation.

The device, he said, enabled a driver to reach a desired speed and then remove his foot from the accelerator. The car is supposed to remain at that speed until either the brake or accelerator is touched.

Eid further testified that Heister had no arrest slips but asked him to voluntarily appear in Dakota justice court on the speeding charge.

EID SAID that later Heister called him at home, expressed surprise that Eid had entered a plea of not guilty in Dakota and volunteered not to press a charge of an invalid driver's license against Eid if he'd change his plea to guilty on the speeding violation. The question of the driver's license arose because Eid had established a Minnesota residence since October but retains a Wisconsin license.

Eid's two passengers, James Hubbard, Onalaska, Wis., and James Spathus, La Crosse, both salesmen for Lindsay Soft Water Co., testified that they were aware the Cruiseomatic device was set at 55-miles an hour, and were unaware of speeding at the time of arrest. One witness testified that he noticed the speed device set at 55-miles an hour after the officer stopped them.

Mrs. Eid also took the stand to say she had listened to her husband's conversation with Heister on the downstairs telephone. She said that Heister asked why a lawyer had been called and that he threatened to press the driver's license charge unless the plea was changed to guilty.

Eid was represented by C. Stanley McMahon and the state by Richard Darby, assistant county attorney.

Mrs. Walter Brown, jury forewoman, reported the unanimous decision of not guilty after the jury deliberated from 2:30 to 2:55 p.m.

Other jurors were Mrs. Robert Ahrens, 1288 Randall St.; Mrs. Donald Bauer, 520 Sunset Dr.; Mrs. Clair Jennings, 951 E. King St.; Frank Wineski, 875 E. 5th St., and William Kaehler, 625 W. King St.

No Official Notice on NC Ruling

City and state aviation officials said today they had not yet received official notification of the ruling Wednesday by Edward T. Stodola, Civil Aeronautics Board examiner, rejecting the single airport theory for La Crosse and Winona.

Stodola's ruling, which becomes binding in 30 days unless appealed; was based on hearings held last July at Wausau, Wis. The CAB had proposed consolidation of commercial air service facilities for 13 cities served by North Central Airlines into a half dozen regional terminals. North Central actively supported the CAB position on the grounds that its operations would thereby be more economical.

WINONA WAS the only Minnesota city involved in the investigation. Other complexes were in Wisconsin and Michigan. The CAB had proposed to make La Crosse airport the regional passenger and freight terminal for that city and Winona. Stodola's ruling Wednesday called for retention of these facilities at both airports.

Along with his ruling, Stodola recommended relaxation of minimum stop regulations for some North Central routes. He held the airline should be permitted to eliminate one stop—unspecified—on present flights between the Twin Cities and Chicago. Stodola also said the line should be allowed to fly between Duluth-Superior and Chicago, either nonstop or with a single stop at Madison, Wis., or with stops at Milwaukee and Green Bay.

NO information was available on the examiner's three-stop recommendation for Twin Cities-Chicago flights, two of which include landings at Winona. Last April, North Central changed a morning flight to Chicago and an evening flight to the Twin Cities to eliminate Winona and substitute Eau Claire as a stop on each. In place of this, a midday turnaround flight from Chicago to La Crosse was extended to make Winona a terminal point.

Winona now has one daily Twin Cities-Chicago flight in each direction.

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — David O. Selznick, famed producer of "Gone With the Wind," who has been considering a return to the Hollywood scene, wrote to Ben Hecht in N. Y. urging him to do a movie script of the best-seller, "Dorothy and Red," to star his wife, Jennifer Jones. Hecht pounced out a reply in strong language explaining he wasn't in the least bit interested in doing a movie about the late Dorothy Thompson and the late Sinclair (Red) Lewis.

To Hecht's astonishment, he received a reply from Selznick, saying, "Jennifer and I are fascinated by your approach to this story, and cannot wait to see your first draft."

House Clash Expected on Bomber Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House clash was expected today over a $16.9-billion military authorization bill that includes funds for bomber and intercept development which are opposed by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

The House Armed Services Committee, over McNamara's objections, added $92 million—$52 million for research on the bomber, the rest for the intercept—to the huge authorization bill for the fiscal year starting July 1.

The dispute pits McNamara and his faith in missiles against the Air Force and the majority of the Armed Services Committee and their faith in manned bombers.

Mabel Lutherans Name Committee

MABEL, Minn. (Special) — Mabel First Lutheran Church has named a committee to survey the congregation's needs in preparation for the proposed new educational building.

Appointed to the committee were: Duane Boyum, Duane Christensen, Marilyn Dahlen, Jerome Gunderson, Robert Riple, Herbert Haakenstad, Mrs. Henry Hagen, Paul Housker, Mrs. Arden Johnson, Lorraine Kingstad, George Kruse Jr., Mrs. James Schroeder, Earl Spande, Mrs. Alvin Swenson, Sverre Ulvestad and Mrs. Leonard Walhus.

Allen Alberg, district director of parish education for the ALC, spoke on the important considerations in parish education. At the meeting Friday he stressed the importance of the home and the family in planning for education. Too often students learn one way of life in Sunday School and quite a different life in the home.

"There are indications," he said, "that the country is more and more turning to the church for leadership in getting the country out of the wasteland it is in today." He pointed to such things as "shared-time programs" with public schools as one answer that is being tried by church-state relationship.

Voice of the Outdoors

Waterfowl 1964

Duck hunting conditions in the Mississippi flyway will not improve much in 1964 over 1962 and 1963, according to data in a press release from the Minnesota game and fish division. The continued drought is the reason.

As in Winona where the rainfall is roughly 10 inches below normal for the last 12 months, the drought has continued over the entire Northwest and into Canada where most of the ducks that travel this flyway in the fall are hatched. Here is the release:

The 1963 duck hunting season is history. Although hunter success was better than in 1962, the 1963 season was marked by unseasonably warm, mild weather that continued throughout the fall and well beyond the duck season closure on Nov. 8.

With the mild fall weather, late season hunting was slowed down considerably as the ducks settled down in protected areas or in the center of large lakes. More hunters and more local ducks, however, combined to increase the duck harvest according to the Minnesota division of game and fish.

Early estimates based on hunter response to cooperative hunter-surveys suggest that the kill of ducks may have nearly doubled from the low of 1962. Final tabulation of hunter report cards is not yet complete, and until these are tabulated the exact duck harvest will not be known.

Examination of mallards taken by hunters this past fall indicated that the number of young ducks produced was still disappointingly low.

If Minnesota observations on the ratio of young to old mallards reflects the entire Mississippi Flyway, it would mean that this most important species had about the same nesting success as it had the preceding year.

Families in Viet Nam May Return to U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Families of U.S. personnel in South Viet Nam are being permitted to return home in the face of stepped-up communist terrorism.

But U.S. officials have no plans at present to order home the 1,339 American wives and children still in the embattled Southeast Asian country. Dependents are still being allowed to accompany personnel newly assigned to South Viet Nam.

So far, only a few American dependents there have asked to be sent home.

There are indications, however, that the possibility of evacuating dependents is under consideration. In the past three weeks, 6 Americans have been killed and 85 wounded in the terrorist drive.

Present opinion here is opposed to any all-out evacuation.

"There are no plans to bring dependents of U.S. military personnel back from South Viet Nam at this time," the Defense Department said today. "There are no plans to forbid travel of dependents to South Viet Nam."

A similar view was expressed by State Department sources.

Constitution Changed 90 Times in State

By ADOLPH JOHNSON

Minnesota's 107-year-old constitution — currently in the limelight because of a controversy over the taconite amendment — has been amended 90 times so far. Eighty-five other proposed amendments have been rejected by the voters.

Amendments have covered a wide variety of subjects. One of the relatively early ones changed the provision about amendments. Originally the constitution provided that an amendment would be adopted if the affirmative vote on the question of adoption exceeded the negative vote.

Since 1898, when this section was amended, in order for an amendment to win adoption it must receive the affirmative vote of at least a majority of all the votes cast at the election at which the amendment is submitted.

An amendment adopted in 1871 provides that any change in the railroad gross earnings tax must be submitted to a vote of the people. This was approved 41,814 to 9,216.

An amendment which became part of the constitution in 1920 — called the Good Roads Amendment — established the state trunk highway system and wrote into the constitution descriptions of 70 specific routes.

Another amendment in 1936 eliminated the list, but described the trunk highway system as generally following the routes listed in the 1920 amendment.

In 1922 voters approved an amendment providing for an occupation tax on iron mining and in 1948 they approved writing into the constitution authorization for payment of a state bonus to veterans of World War II.

The amendment to be submitted to voters on Nov. 2 provides that for the next 25 years taxes on the taconite industry will not be raised unless taxes on industry generally are raised, and in no greater proportion.

A group of opponents, led by State Sen. Leo Mosier, Minneapolis liberal, argues that such a matter should not be made a part of the constitution.

Supporters of the amendment say that only in this way can investors be persuaded to invest the huge sums needed to build taconite processing plants.

While quite a number of amendments have been adopted in recent years, the requirement that a proposal get a majority of all the votes cast still makes adoption of constitutional changes a relatively delicate matter.

Assets of State Banks $2.3 Billion

ST. PAUL (AP) — Minnesota's 515 state banks reported net assets of $2.3 billion as of Dec. 31, 1963, Banking Commissioner Gerald L. Bryan said Tuesday. This is an increase of about $251 million over the 1962 year-end.

Total deposits went up during calendar 1963 by a net of $136.5 million, to a total of $2.1 billion.

The principal change reflected since Dec. 31, 1962, is an increase of $108 million in time deposits and a jump of $22.9 million in demand deposits.

Total capital accounts increased by $11 million during 1963 to a total of $186 million.

Mansfield Expects Senate to Debate Rights for Month

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said Tuesday he expects months of debate in the Senate on the civil rights bill.

Talking with newsmen after the weekly White House breakfast meeting of Democratic congressional leaders, the Montana senator said:

"I rather anticipate that when we take up the civil rights bill we will be on it not for weeks but for months."

But he gave 10 minutes for taking up the measure.

The party chiefs from the Capitol had been expected to seek a decision from President Johnson on whether to deal first with wheat-cotton legislation — which the administration also wants — or move quickly into the Southern filibuster the civil rights measure is certain to set off.

The months of talk on civil rights which Mansfield predicted, would push the farm measure back too far for much effect this year.

Army to Have Special Nuclear Medical Terms

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army is creating special medical teams for emergency service in the event of a nuclear accident or incident within the United States.

There will be four such "radiological emergency medical teams," it was disclosed today.

Each will be headed by an Army Medical Corps officer and will include three other specialists "qualified in the management of nuclear casualties" and evaluation of radiation hazards.

"The plan is designed to handle nuclear accidents and to respond to disaster situations should they arise," the Army said.

Creation of the teams was disclosed in a regulation signed by Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, Army chief of staff.

We're A Talking Lot

Winonans were a talkative group during 1963, averaging 554.8 telephone conversations per person that year.

The figures were released by Robert C. Olson, Northwestern Bell Telephone Co. manager here, and give an indication of how residents of the city compare in loquaciousness with their fellow Americans — and with persons around the world.

LOCAL FIGURES are for 1963, but other statistics given are for 1962. Olson explained that national and world figures come from the recently-released

"The World's Telephones," published by American Telephone and Telegraph Co.

Because of the time needed to gather data, the figures are as of Jan. 1, 1963. This is a year behind the Winona statistics, but Olson said that local figures for the two years differed little, so fairly valid comparisons still could be made.

With that in mind, Olson pointed out that Winonans were less talkative than Americans as a whole, who averaged 556.6 telephone conversations per person during 1962.

The most talkative nation seems to have been Canada, where each person averaged 613.4 telephone conversations, an increase of more than 60 conversations a piece since 1961's average of 551.6 conversations.

ICELAND WAS third, with an average of 527.1 conversations per person.

The report also indicated that more telephones were put into service in 1962 than in any other year. More than 9 million phones were added to the world's communications network, bringing the total number of phones in use to 159,200,000.

The United States ranked first with 80,969,000 telephones in use. The United Kingdom (8,911,000) and Japan (7,356,097) followed. Other nations in the top 10 were West Germany (7,047,031), Canada (6,330,000), Russia (an estimated 5,769,200), France (4,977,797), Italy (4,654,744), Sweden (3,953,752) and Australia (2,382,478).

Winona had 12,758 telephones in use in January of this year, more than 2,000 above the total in use in Monaco in 1962.

NEW YORK City's 4,789,391 telephones at the beginning of 1963 outranked 20 of the 27 countries on the list. Almost 86 percent of the world's telephones were concentrated in North America and Europe.

The United States had 43.1 telephones for every 100 persons. Sweden had 40.3; Canada, 33.7; New Zealand, 33.6; and Russia, only 2.6.

Winona was above the national average, with 50.8 telephones for every 100 persons.

NW Bank Unit Names President

John Moorhead, president of Northwestern National Bank of Minneapolis, recently was elected president of the Federal Advisory Council.

He is the first representative of the Ninth Federal Reserve District ever elected to this position.

The Federal Advisory Council is composed of representatives of each of the twelve federal reserve districts. Its members are elected by directors of the reserve banks and meetings of the group are held in Washington at least four times a year.

As provided by the Federal Reserve Act, the council confers with the board of governors on banking and business conditions.

Moorhead is a native of Minneapolis and was graduated from Central High School and the University of Minnesota. He has been associated with Northwestern National Bank of Minneapolis since 1930 and has been its president since November 1957.

He first was elected to the Council in 1962. Immediately preceding this election, he served as a Class A director of the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis.

Tents, Food Rushed to Sao Jorge Homeless

ANGRA DO HEROISMO, Terceira, Azores (AP) — Tents, medicine and food were rushed to homeless thousands on Sao Jorge today after a wave of earthquakes crumbled the island's main town to rubble.

An emergency evacuation that brought more than 1,000 Sao Jorge islanders to nearby Terceira was stopped Wednesday when the six-day series of quakes subsided. The other 19,000 inhabitants chose to stay on the island.

The American freighter Steel Director joined nine British, Norwegian, Italian and Yugoslav ships in removing dazed refugees. Two landing craft from the U.S. Air Force Base at Lajes, on Terceira's eastern shore, brought the refugees from the larger ships to shore. Most of the 1,600 buildings in the area of Velas, Sao Jorge's chief town, were reported destroyed.

"The news we have is that all is desolation and ruins in that once happy sector of the island," the district governor said.

Rosais Township also was reported heavily damaged. Portugal, which rules the volcanic Azores chain 1,000 miles west of Lisbon, sent troops to Sao Jorge with relief supplies.

Congress Not Likely to Try Redistricting

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST WASHINGTON (AP) — Outside of some complaining and possibly a committee hearing for the official record, Congress isn't likely to do anything this year about the Supreme Court ruling that congressional districts should be more uniform in population.

"For one thing," a highly placed House Democrat said privately, "we just don't have time this year to deal with such a complicated subject. For another thing, most of us think it's none of our business how the states map out their districts."

Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., of the House Judiciary Committee long has advocated that Congress take the lead in trying to get more uniformity in congressional redistricting. He introduced a bill to do that more than a year ago but has been unable to obtain action in his own committee.

He said he would try again this year but wasn't optimistic about success.

Another proposal not expected to gain acceptance came from Texas congressmen. They are seeking legislation that supports the Supreme Court decision but preserves present districts until state legislatures can act in their regular sessions. Such a bill would prevent the 23 Texas congressmen from having to run at large this November.

Johnson Asked To Step Up Poverty War

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The AFL-CIO Executive Council drafted resolutions today calling on President Johnson to step up his war on poverty in general and on unemployment in particular.

Federal measures to reduce the nation's 4.6-million jobless total are "the key factor in the whole fight against poverty," said a spokesman for the council, which sets policy for AFL-CIO unions and their 13.5 million members.

"We are in favor of the idea of the war on poverty," the spokesman said, "and we want to see some action. It is not enough just to say this. There has got to be some legislative action."

He said demands the AFL-CIO will make on Johnson and Congress include:

1. An accelerated public works program "translated into immediate jobs."
2. An increase in the minimum wage, now $1.25 an hour, to $2 and expanding its coverage to millions of workers.
3. A shorter work week, with double pay to discourage overtime and spread employment.

Johnson already has proposed double pay for overtime in some industries and expanding minimum wage coverage but he has not acceded to labor demands to cut the work week to 35 hours. Labor considers this the essential measure to reduce unemployment.

Man Has Eighth Brush With Death

AURORA, Minn. (AP) — An Embarras, Minn., man is recovering in an Aurora hospital after his eighth brush with death.

For Harold E. Wright, 51, a heavy equipment operator, troubles began 39 years ago. A shotgun blast from a hunter's gun peppered the head of Wright, then a lad of 12.

Since 1957, this is what has happened to him:

His shoulder muscles were torn when Wright's car struck a deer. He was struck, again, by a hunter's shot and required leg surgery. Next came a heart attack. Then his left leg was crushed by a road grader, putting Wright in the hospital for 75 days. Another heart attack followed. Later, back on the job, his wrist was crushed when a tractor lunged over him. Recently he suffered another heart attack, his third.

Wright is the father of 13 children.

Kandiyohi County Solved Courthouse Problem

ATTENTION IS being focused on the Winona County courthouse again, with a citizens' committee currently engaged in studying the building's "historical, architectural and functional worth." It seems an appropriate time for the voters of the county to do a bit of evaluating on their own, and to ask themselves how they can get a dollar's value for every tax dollar spent.

It's becoming more and more obvious that some tax dollars will have to be spent on a courthouse — and fast. The present building, in its present state, is grossly inadequate and even dangerous. Its proponents say that it's structurally sound, but they always add the word "basically." That's an important distinction. It apparently means that although the building's exterior will have to be renovated almost completely and the inside virtually rebuilt, the main, weight-bearing walls will continue to stand, even if allowed to remain in their present deteriorating condition.

We've long maintained that the building simply is not large enough for the county's officials to carry on their business as well as being a fire hazard. Workers in most offices are elbow to elbow now, there is no room for expansion without the cost becoming prohibitive and every available corner has been crammed with records. In addition, the heating system is in need of major repairs, the wiring system could cause trouble at any moment, floors are buckling from the building's continued settling and walls are pulling apart.

IF THE BUILDING is to be used any longer, large sums of money would have to be spent on it. The important question in this regard, however, is this: What would the county have after this repair work was completed? The answer is that it still would have a courthouse that is too small and inefficient to be of any value.

There are those who say that the building should be preserved as a reminder of a bygone era. This seems reasonable, but it becomes unreasonable when we are asked to continue to use it as a working courthouse. We have preserved the steamboat Wilkie, for example, but no one expects it to be used as a passenger carrier. We also are inclined to take a dim view of those who say the courthouse should be preserved for its architectural or esthetic value. At best, it is typical of an era when bad art and ugly buildings abounded.

THE COUNTY'S voters also should ask themselves what they could have instead, and how much it would cost. They should consider Kandiyohi County, which last December approved a $1,550,000 bond issue to build a new courthouse and jail in Willmar, the county seat. This was done despite that county's total taxable valuation is about $10 million less than Winona County's.

Spread over a 30-year period, the new building will cost the taxpayers only 12 cents for every $100 of taxes in the rural parts of the county, and 76 cents for every $100 of taxes in the city of Willmar. The difference is due to city taxpayers having to pay for a city jail, to be included in the new building. The Willmar City Council, the Kandiyohi County Board and a group of interested citizens found that the total increase to the county's tax bill will be less than $5,000 a year.

IT APPEARS to us that someone should ask that old question: If they can do it, why can't we?

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

Murray Robinson tells about a time when John L. Sullivan, burly heavyweight champion, was downing a few beers in a Bowery saloon. A skinny little runt who had had a few too many, staggered up to the champ and challenged him to a fight. John L. picked him three feet off the ground by the back of his coat, and grumbled, "Listen, you — if you hit me just once — and I find OUT about it . . ."

The enterprising driver of an interstate bus was heard to deliver the following oration. "Folks, we'll be stopping here for 20 minutes. This line has a strict policy never to recommend an eating place by name, but if anybody wants me while we're here, I'll be eating a wonderful T-bone steak with french fries at Tony's first-class, bargain rate, spotlessly clean diner directly across the road."

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. Matthew 5:8

ROBERT C. RUARK

Writer Comes Bearing Gifts

NEW YORK — I am writing for the record, for all the Republicans to note. I am going to give the President of the United States a present — or presents — and, with luck and the President's indulgence, I shall deliver them personally.

These presents are of considerably more intrinsic worth than a stereo — at least in terms of what they cost me in time, money and physical pain. I should reckon the net expenditure, over the past 15 years, at about $100,000.

It is necessary to point out here that I do not represent any commercial operation: I never was, and am not now, but certainly will be, a Democrat. (Grandpa, forgive me!)

I have never held public office, nor do I know Bobby Baker except from the usual inaccuracies in Time magazine. (Note to Time magazine: as this is going to be an African piece, "Babu" as stated, in reference to the Zanzibar chap, does NOT mean "father" in Swahili. It means "clerk" in Hindi. "Father" in Swahili is "baba," like in "baba au rhum." Thank you.)

THE PRESENTS that I wish to give Mr. LBJ, and Mrs. LBJ, come from an Africa unknown to Soapy Williams. I wish to state here categorically that I do not represent Africa, and that includes the wart-hog trust and the wildebeest-tail industry. (Note to Time: A wildebeest is commonly called a "gnu" in the crosswords — not Madame Nhu — just a plain, bisonlike, ugly, bearded animal with a tail that made Jomo Kenyatta what he is today.)

Here we go, Senate investigating committee, Mr. Attorney General, and gentlemen of the jury:

I intend to give Mr. and Mrs. Johnson two wart-hog tusks and a gnu tail. They are the best wart-hog tusks I have shot in about a hundred grand's worth of safari-ing. They are mounted in silver. One is a corkscrew. The other is a bottle opener. There are no handsomer bar implements in the world, as the President will learn if he asks two of his close friends who've been on safari with me. (Except the President's wart-hog tusks are bigger than those these other two chums shot.)

THE QUESTION now occurs, as I approach Washington laden with gifts for our new President, what does Ruark want out of the White House? What sinister gamesmanship is Ruark up to?

Well, I ain't selling insurance. I ain't selling TV time. I am uninterested in ambassadorships, because I can't afford that kind of work and still keep the help fed. As mentioned, I have never represented the wart-hog-ivory business, or even the wildebeest-tail industry. And, basically, I hate Washington.

But I am on a pilgrimage. I am campaigning. I am campaigning against all candidates in the Republican party, to which I have been attached all my life. I am only one of the Three Wise Men, and since I ain't got no myrrh or frankincense handy, all I can offer to the Man in the Chair is a couple of wart-hog tusks and a wildebeest tail.

I KNOW THAT the Republicans, in an election year, will make great fodder of my gross effort to sway the White House to my evil intent. And I say make the most of it. Because there ain't never been no President who has owned as noble a pair of exotic ivory gadgets to pull a cork or open a bottle, and not even in the great state of Taixus have they got albino badges of authority which are also capable of dispersing a blue-tailed fly. On this I positively refuse to plead the Fifth. I will come willingly to the inquisition.

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

An Ex-Senator From Texas Winning Friends in Mexico

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — For almost one hundred years any Texan was always suspected, "sometimes hated," by Mexico. Its people remembered — just as vividly as Texans remember the Alamo — the war of 1848 when a good slice of Mexico was chopped off by fire-eating, pistol-packing, land-hungry Texans.

Fifty years ago, perhaps even 20 years ago, no one would have believed that a president of Mexico would sit down on American soil to confer with a Texan — born President of the United States.

The fact that this is happening this week is due in part to more common sense by nations: in part to the two men who are meeting in Los Angeles: in part to the people of San Antonio who elected a Spanish-American, Henry Gonzalez, to Congress; and to the people of El Paso who elected a Spanish-American, Raymond Telles, as their mayor.

President Adolfo Lopez-Mateos is a moderate who has continued the land and economic reforms of the Mexican revolution — at first bitterly opposed by the United States. Lopez-Mateos has realized that American tourist trade and American investments mean the difference between prosperity and poverty; so, without sacrificing anything in the way of Mexican pride and sovereignty, he has definitely gone out of his way to work at friendship.

He was the first Mexican president in history to cross into Texas to visit the LBJ ranch when Lyndon was vice president. And previously he had conferred with Johnson at Acapulco when Lyndon was Senate majority leader.

PRESIDENT Johnson, in turn, is revered in Mexico as perhaps few other American presidents. Mexicans remember how he toured San Antonio in an old pickup truck campaigning for Henry Gonzalez, and conceived the brilliant idea of bringing Pepe Cantinflas, star of "Around the World in Eighty Days," to San Antonio to help Gonzalez.

But most of all, Mexicans remember an event which occurred during the Korean War when the people of Three Rivers, Texas, refused to bury a Mexican-American boy killed in battle.

The brother of the governor of Tanco told the story when Johnson went to that city in 1958. Tears streamed down his face as he spoke, and Johnson, who doesn't speak Spanish well, couldn't understand the reason. But here is what the Mexican said:

"When a Mexican boy, drafted into the American army, was killed in Korea, his body was brought back to Three Rivers, Texas, where he had lived. But the one funeral parlor in that little town would not give him a burial because he was a Mexican."

"WHEREUPON the senator from Texas who is with us today telephoned from Washington: 'I can't make the funeral parlor bury this boy, but I can bring his body to Arlington National Cemetery in Washington and bury him alongside presidents.'"

"And that," said the Mexican speaker, "is what the senator from Texas did."

It's a long time before the November elections, but the question of whether California sends a Republican senator to Washington will probably be decided this week.

The issue is one which tugs on the heart strings. It involves the question of whether ailing Democratic Sen. Clair Engle, a fine public servant but hopelessly ill, should be nominated again.

Sen. Engle has now limped back to his Senate desk and is going through the motions of representing the state of California on the Senate floor. It is necessary, however, to have Chuck Bosley, his administrative assistant, at his side all the time, and even then some of Clair's votes have not been like that of his old former vigorous self.

SENATE colleagues have been sympathetic, but also, shocked at the attempt to prop up a man obviously too sick to carry on.

Just what is wrong with the senator has remained a mystery to the public. There has been a great deal of speculation.

His illness, it can now be definitely reported, is glaucoma, a disease described as malignant though not cancerous. It responds to radiation treatment, but is always recurrent and there is no permanent cure.

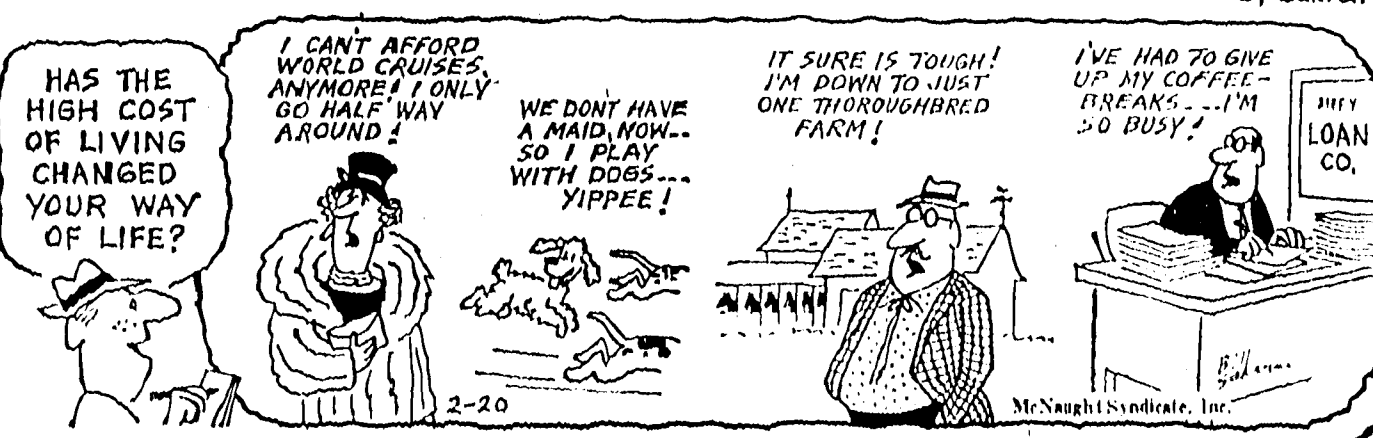

Reason why the die will be cast this week regarding a Democratic or Republican senator from California is because the potent California Democratic clubs are holding their annual convention this week and will be called upon to endorse a candidate. Some of its leaders want to endorse Engle out of sympathy. Others argue that Engle will not be able to campaign and that his nomination is sure to throw the election to the Republicans.

Beat of Heart Speeded

By J. G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: What is paroxysmal tachycardia? My 16-year-old son has been told not to take gym or swim after a doctor found this condition in a checkup. — A. D.

"Tachycardia" means a speeding up of the rate of the heartbeat. "Paroxysmal" means that this comes on in sudden bursts.

The condition may be more of a nuisance than anything else, it may indicate that treatment is necessary.

From your letter I can't be sure whether this condition was noted in a routine, mass checkup at school, or whether your physician discovered it.

If it was the former, you should take the boy to your own doctor, or perhaps to a heart specialist.

However, if your own physician already is in charge of the case, he will continue periodic checking.

It may be that your son can return to athletics; again, it may be necessary for some program of treatment.

Dear Dr. Molner: I had rickets as a child and am slightly swayed. Is there any way to correct this? — A. A.

Usually not, after you have reached maturity, so I suggest that you let an orthopedist determine whether exercises will help; whether a brace or special garment will help; or whether you should accept the condition — and forget it.

Dear Dr. Molner: Please describe epilepsy. My grandson, eight years old, was found on the floor at 7:15 a.m. in front of TV. Don't know how long he had been there but he was jerking all over. Later he got up and went on as though nothing had happened.

He has always made good grades in school. The family doctor advised my daughter that it was epilepsy, but not to tell the boy — to treat him just like they had always done. — P. V.

Epilepsy is a condition involving the nervous system — part of the brain — so that the muscles go into convulsion. There are many degrees of this. Sometimes the sufferer falls to the floor. In another type, petit mal, there may be only very brief moments: the person merely pauses in the middle of a word, then continues as though nothing had happened. Sometimes, the flickering of the TV screen may trigger an attack.

There is no reason why this little fellow shouldn't be good in school. Epilepsy (with some exceptions) isn't related to intelligence; noted geniuses have had it.

The boy should not be burdened now with trying to understand epilepsy. That can come later. The doctor may prescribe daily medication to prevent the convulsions, even though this can't "cure" epilepsy. Modern drugs (non-habit-forming) have been developed to the degree that many epilepsy patients get along for years without an attack.

Dear Dr. Molner: I have been troubled with gouty arthritis for five years. Recently I have been taking one colchicine pill daily to ward off attacks. Is this too frequent? — Robert T.

It is not too frequent. Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

Dear Dr. Molner: I am 48 and have had this trouble for many years but now it is getting worse — an undesirable discharge from

Foreign Policy and Communism's Advance
To the Editor:

The American people are entering upon a serious state of world affairs which could result in the destruction of our heritage. We find that in Latin America, Southeast Asia and the newly independent nations of Africa freedom is in retreat, forced back with communism's advance.

Communist revolution is gradually turning the international balance of power in the favor of the Soviet Union. Just in the past few months Russian, Chinese and Cuban terrorism have placed the United States' foreign policy on the defensive all over the world. Cuban exportation of militant socialism has resulted in the establishment of a communist beachhead in East Africa with the recently successful takeover of the island of Zanzibar. Ghana, Cambodia and Indonesia have moved closer to the Soviet orbit despite generous American economic and military assistance. South Viet Nam, however, may well fall to communist aggression should present trends continue.

Bolstered by the Soviet Union, Cuban dictator, Fidel Castro, has gained enough power to challenge the U.S. with the instigation of unrest in Panama and by spreading communism's chains over Central and South America. To be sure with its "red" eyes upon the unstable republics of the Western Hemisphere the Cuban government's current theme is, "Have Marxism, will travel!"

Americans once felt secure behind the protective shield of the United States' military forces. Now it has become evident that American strength is diminishing in relation to that of the communist bloc. Our military leaders have warned Congress that Russia is moving ahead in the development of advanced strategic aircraft. We, on the other hand, do not have a modern airplane to replace our aging fleet of B-52 and B-58 nuclear bombers. The basis for our future defense, Atlas, Titan and Minuteman long-range ballistic missiles, have become a subject of grave concern by leading Department of Defense officials who fear that these weapons are not as reliable as Defense Secretary McNamara may claim them to be.

Sen. Barry Goldwater, among other prominent Americans, has stated that it is time for a change in our present defense and foreign policies. It is the senator's strong contention that America must have the will and the strength to stand up for its rights in the world before there are no more rights to protect.

In closing, the current defense and foreign policy philosophies of the United States might well be compared to two horses, insecurity and retreat, with the American citizen trapped on their backs. Unmanaged these horses will lead in opposite directions leaving the American people without a bulwark against communist enslavement. Let us grab those reins this July and November!

Such a discharge is always undesirable. It means a chronic infection of some sort, fungus or bacterial. Not knowing what kind of infection it is, I can't give you a ready answer. But it's well worth telling your doctor about, and getting it cleared up.

FAT OVERWEIGHT

Available to you without a doctor's prescription, the ODRINEX diet. You must lose ugly fat or your money back. One of the basic problems of having weight in your body is that it is a burden. The ODRINEX diet contains a new tablet and is easily swallowed. When you take ODRINEX, you simply don't have the urge for extra portions because ODRINEX depresses your appetite and decreases your desire for food thus making it easier and more comfortable for you to diet. Your weight must come down because as your own doctor will tell you, when you eat less, you burn less. Get rid of excess fat and live longer. Of course ODRINEX can't do all the work for you alone. But if you really want to cut down on your eating, and lose weight ODRINEX can be a powerful helper. The ODRINEX diet costs $1.99 and is sold in this quantity. If not satisfied for any reason just return the package in its original wrapper and you'll get your money back. No questions asked. # Baker Balks At Questions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators push ahead today with the Bobby Baker investigation, but the former Senate aide has flung a wet blanket over the inquiry by his refusal to answer questions.

There is substantial opinion around the Senate that while a lot of smoke still may pour out of the investigation, most of its low-burning fire may have been snuffed out.

A Republican member of the Senate Rules Committee, unwilling to be quoted by name, said that Democrats were talking about a speedy windup of the inquiry but that Republicans have around 40 prospective witnesses they want interviewed and possibly called to testify.

Baker, who resigned under fire last Oct. 7, as secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority, is under subpoena to appear for questioning at a public hearing next Tuesday.

But he said Wednesday, after a closed hearing at which he refused to surrender subpoenaed documents, that he would follow the advice of his lawyers and decline to answer the committee's questions.

The committee said that after Tuesday's hearing it will consider whether to recommend to the Senate that he be cited for contempt of Congress, punishable by a year in jail, a $1,000 fine, or both.

Hartman, Wednesday asked the court to hold the case open until 11:30 a.m. Monday. Bail was set at $5,000 or $10,000 signature with the approval of the court.

The alleged rape occurred Feb. 15.

Renewal Week Observed in Local Parishes

This week the Catholic parishes in Winona and Winona County are conducting a spiritual renewal program. The purpose: to renew understanding of the Church's liturgy, Mass and especially the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist; that Catholic homes may be renewed through Bible reading, family religious instruction and prayers; and that Catholics better understand honor and responsibility as "people of God" as spelled out by the Council.

THE PLAN and purpose of this Week of Renewal was spelled out in the sermons given by Bishop Edward Fitzgerald and Auxiliary Bishop George H. Speltz Sunday at the Cathedral of the Sacred Heart.

Weeks of Renewal will be conducted in the various parishes across the diocese of Winona during the remainder of this year. The idea for diocesan and parish renewal came as a result of the present Ecumenical Council which voted for a Universal Renewal of Catholic worship and teaching methods, said Bishop Fitzgerald.

The Christian renewal program locally corresponds with the diamond jubilee year of the founding of the diocese of Winona in 1889.

THE DIOCESE of Winona includes all of the parishes in the two-county wide area across southern Minnesota from the Wisconsin to the Dakota border. Special Scripture devotions are being held each evening in the parishes of the city of Winona at 7:30 p.m. The renewal program will conclude with closing services Friday evening. Bishop Fitzgerald conducts the Bible service at the Cathedral. He explains how the laity must take their part in the new Pentecost inaugurated by the Second Vatican Council. The public is invited.

Drive Against Delinquency Set At La Crescent

LA CRESCENT, Minn. (Special) — A group of La Crescent citizens has formed a committee to combat delinquency of parents and teenagers. Their first meeting will be Monday in the La Crescent Public School multipurpose room at 8 p.m.

It will be open to all parents and teenagers. The parent group will meet under the chairmanship of Warren Weidman to hear a talk by Dr. Fredrik C. Middlefort, La Crosse psychiatrist. The youth group under chairman Michael Klug also will have a guest speaker.

Edgar D. Pilow, community services and prevention consultant with the state departments of Corrections, St. Paul, will serve as a special consultant to both groups.

The purpose of this committee is to work out a community teen-age code, establish guiding principles, and achieve cooperation among parents and students for a safe and acceptable program of social activities for young people.

The code will be based on parent and student surveys here and elsewhere, according to Mrs. Erskine Steele, who is on the organizational committee. She said it is important that groups of parents and teenagers work out these agreements for themselves. The code, rather than substituting for family-made rules, should stimulate discussion on issues and be a springboard from which family agreements may be reached.

Board to Hire SCS Engineer

WHITEHALL, Wis. (Special) — The Trempealeau County Board of Supervisors in special session Wednesday voted to appropriate $1,500 from the general fund to the county Soil Conservation Service for the purpose of hiring a local engineer on a part-time basis.

Henrik Herness, office manager of the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee, told the board about 48 farmers have asked for cost sharing on erosion control structures.

Herness, introduced by Lee Sack, board president presiding, said 15 of the 48 were selected by the county committee for the work this year. Selection was made on basis of greatest need for erosion control, he said.

Federal funds will supply 75 percent of the cost and the farmers, the remaining 25 percent.

HERNESS SAID additional engineering service is needed to complete surveys of the farmers to comply with federal regulations so building of the structures can begin this summer.

The engineer is to receive $2.25 per hour.

No action was taken when Howard Mohrk, Cochrane, Buffalo-Trempealeau County Civil Defense director, explained necessary physical changes in the county jail to use the old coal bid room for a shelter area and control center. Auxiliary power should be provided here for the center and the sheriff's office and living quarters, he said.

Mohrk said Federal government architects and engineers, who have surveyed the building, recommend changes estimated at about $1,000.

THEY WOULD involve removing present cast iron covers from manholes and filling with concrete; installing an auxiliary power unit and fuel tank; increasing ventilation and installing better lighting; cleaning the area; and providing tables and chairs.

Substitutions on the board were: Lester Brennon for H. D. Briggs, first ward, Whitehall; George Larson for George Winick second ward, Blair; John Bisek for Joseph Roskos, second ward, Independence; William Micek for the late Dr. W. E. English, third ward, Arcadia; Hugh Ellison for the late Bert A. Gipple, first ward, Galesville; and Basil Arneson for Omar Austad, Town of Preston.

Whitewater Park Expanded for Trailer Camp

ST. CHARLES, Minn. (Special) — Sixty-five acres were added to Whitewater State Park for a new trailer campsite, Wayne Kontola, park manager, told the St. Charles Chamber of Commerce Tuesday.

The land was bought from Ellsworth and Roger Hildebrand, Elba. Kontola explained that under terms of the sale the Hildebrands will retain full use of the land the first year, will plant trees the second and will turn the land over to the park the third year.

Kontola said that last year more than $7,000 in fees was collected from campers in the park, and many persons had to be turned away because of a lack of facilities. During his first year at the park, 1964, Kontola said, campers' fees totaled $248.

The greatest number of campers using the park came from the Minneapolis area, Kontola reported, with the Chicago area providing the second greatest number. A total of 175,000 persons visited the park last summer, the manager said.

The park maintenance budget for 1964 will be $35,478, some of which comes from Minnesota's cigarette tax. Spring plans call for construction of rain shelters on the golf course, wiring group camp buildings, building a new woodshed, modernizing buildings on camp grounds and enlarging workshop space, Kontola said.

The chamber decided to contribute $10 to an American Field Service dinner. Purpose of the event is to raise funds to help finance a foreign exchange student for St. Charles.

Distribution of letter-sized maps to aid travelers also was discussed.

Thirty-one members were present at the dinner, which was held at Del's Cafe.

Lyga-Pelowski Wedding Held At Arcadia

ARCADIA, Wis. (Special) — Miss Ann Pelowski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Pelowski, Arcadia, carried a cross shape bouquet of red and white roses for her marriage to Raymond Lyga, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy R. Lyga, Independence, Wis., on Feb. 8.

The marriage vows were exchanged in the Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church here in the presence of the Rev. John P. Trant, who performed the ceremony.

The music was played by the church organist, Sister Mary Alvin, who also accompanied the children's choir of the St. Aloysius Catholic School, who sang during the nuptial High Mass.

THE BRIDE'S floor length gown of peau de soie had a scoop neckline, detailed with lace at the back and front and the long tapered sleeves. Her bell-shaped skirt had three unpressed pleats on each side and a flat bow at the back of the waistline. Her open queen's crown of sequins and seed pearls, held a silk illusion net veil.

The bride selected as her only attendant, Miss Marilyn Smick of Rochester, who was attired in a turquoise blue taffeta floor-length gown, fashioned with a fitted bodice with scoop neckline. She wore a matching head-dress and carried a cross-shape bouquet of red and white rose buds.

Attending the groom was the bride's brother, Allyn Pelowski, Arcadia. The bride's brother, Aaron Pelowski, Arcadia, and Ernest Lyga, Independence, ushered.

The mother of the bride wore a silk navy-blue dress with winter white hat. Mrs. Lyga wore a green and brown checked jersey dress. Both mothers had corsages of red and white roses.

THE BRIDAL party was entertained at a breakfast at the home of the bride's parents with Miss Karen Dworschak as hostess. A dinner-reception was held at Club Midway in Independence for 325 guests. Assisting at the reception were the Misses Shirley Flury, Winona; Shirley Taplen, Janice Lyga, Arcadia; Kay Zeller, Waumandee and Mary Ann Lyga, Independence.

The bride is a graduate of the Arcadia High School and is employed as a Lay-out Artist for the Winona Monument Company. The groom is a graduate of Independence High School and is employed at the Peterson Implement Company, Whitehall, where the couple will make their home at the Kuhn Trailer Court.

Truck Overtakes, Driver Uninjured
INDEPENDENCE, Wis. (Special) — The driver of a milk truck escaped injury Monday when the vehicle flipped on State Highway 93 north of here.
Donald Sessions, 20, rural Eleva, was proceeding north en route to Mondovi after delivering milk at the Preston Cooperative Creamery, Blair. He apparently hit melting snow and ice on the edge of the blacktop and the vehicle rolled over into the roadside ditch.
The accident happened at 3 p.m. The driver of a bulk truck driving in front of Sessions saw the accident and went to his assistance. Sessions was examined by a Mondovi doctor and released.
Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Nelson, Mondovi, owners of both the bulk truck and the can truck being driven by Sessions, said the highway had been built up at the point of the accident, apparently because of marshy ground, and there were no shoulders. It happened about a mile north of Elk Creek.
About $1,000 damage was done to the vehicle. The van is a total loss, the Nelsons said, but the rest of the truck can be repaired.

$500,000 Found In Home of Dead Gambler Suspect

CHICAGO (AP) — Police seized a cache of money which they said could possibly total $500,000 from the South Side home of a reputed gambling operator Wednesday night after a tip by an alert policeman.

Eleven policy presses, two policy wheels, a quantity of type, five pistols, a shotgun, a rifle and two check-writing machines also were found in the home of Lawrence Wakefield, 60, who died Wednesday night in a hospital of a heart attack.

Police identified Wakefield as a policy game operator for three decades.
The windows to the house were barred and five watchdogs padded about the premises, police said.

The money, mostly $10 and $20 bills with a few $50 and $100s, was found in a bedroom.
One policeman who saw the money said he almost fainted when he opened the bedroom door.

The strange episode started Tuesday morning when Mrs. Rose Kennedy, 66, summoned a fire department inhalation squad and said Wakefield, a Negro, had suffered a heart attack. Policemen William Charles and Stanley Wiatrowski went to the home to make a police report.
Police loaded the money into 32 bags and took it to headquarters.

Two Sportsmen Awards Offered In Minnesota

LEWISTON, Minn. — Winona County youths and farmers are eligible for two special awards for outstanding conservation efforts this year. County Agent Oliver Strand announced today.

Farmers are eligible for the well known Farmer - Sportsman Award and youth for the Frank Blair Junior Conservation Achievement award. State winners will receive plaques and trips to the Northwest Sports Show March 27-April 5 in Minneapolis. Conservationists and sportsmen are urged to enter candidates in the competition.

Strand explained the two awards:

Farmer-Sportsman Award — Any interested group or individual may make a nomination for the award. The award is based on the nominee's reputation as a successful farmer; leadership; wildlife, conservation and forestry practices; soil conservation activities and good land use; farm practices; and community activities. The latter includes work with youth, sportsmen organizations and farm groups.

Nominations for the award are due in the county extension office by March 13. The county winner will receive a special certificate and will compete for regional and state honors.

A winner and "runner-up" will be selected in each of four regions. One of these will be named Minnesota's Top Farmer-Sportsman and will be honored at the Northwest Sports Show, April 5, in Minneapolis. He and his wife will receive an all-expense weekend vacation to attend the event.

Winona Co. Resources Studied

By OLIVER STRAND
Winona County Agent

The agriculture, forestry and conservation subcommittee of the Winona Resource Development Group met at Lewiston to review and discuss possible plans for action.

The primary interest of the group is to make the best use of each acre of land and every available resource in the county, making possible the greatest potential economic and social gain.

CONSIDERATION of multiple - use floodwater retention dams which might control water runoff and have wildlife and recreational value was one area discussed. The middle branch of the Whitewater River affecting the land area near Elba, the Garvin Brook Watershed near Stockton and the Cedar Creek Watershed area near Lamelle are current areas of watershed development and interest.

Better land use also will serve to reduce siltation and flooding damage to the important trout streams in the county, adding greatly to recreational and wildlife potential.

The need for rural zoning was discussed. It was agreed a set of guidelines to establish some uniformity and system to land-use would be desirable. Expansion of cities and villages into the rural areas, highway construction and development of industry and other construction make this an area of great need for the future.

THE Mississippi River road and the future interstate highway will be main arteries leading numerous tourists and travelers through the area. With planning for recreational possibilities and camping and tourist accommodations, considerable economic gain could be realized locally by attracting more tourists.

The committee agreed that the natural scenic beauty and unlimited natural resources of the area can be much more fully developed and utilized if local private enterprise can be organized for action.

Camp ground and resort development, riding stables and trails, picnic and family outing area, hiking and nature trails are just a few of the possibilities mentioned.

Development of markets for better utilization of low-grade hardwood forest products and better timber management is also needed.

THE COMMITTEE agreed that the first step should be an inventory of all the resources of the county. This will include all present facilities such as parks, trout streams, recreational areas, tourist attractions, boat harbors, geologic and scenic educational interests areas.

Eventual survey by the whole committee will include all resources, including the people, land and water, agriculture and industry, public facilities, and all pertinent economic and social activities. This inventory should be sufficiently detailed to serve as a basis for appraisal and analysis.

When this survey is completed, the county can be appraised in terms of the nature of its problems, its resources and its potential, and an evaluation made on the impact on income, employment and economic opportunities for rural and urban families of the county.

CHAIRMAN of the group was Marvin Simon, Lewiston. Committee members present were: Clint Dabelstein, Loyel Hoesch and George Robertson Sr., Winona; Don Buege, Lamelle; Paul Kleifer and Elmer Simon, Altura; Jerome Majerus, Plainview, and "Pepper" McMartin, Stockton.

Technical advisers present were William Sillman, Soil Conservation Service; Robert Schutz, State Forestry Department; Gordon Fay, county highway engineer, and Oliver Strand and John Halvorson, county extension service.

Another meeting will be held Tuesday at the SCS Office in Lewiston. Interested citizens are asked to give their ideas on county resource development to one of the committee members or attend the meeting to present and discuss possibilities.

Directors whose terms expire are Laverne Asleson, Paul Gohl and Merlyn Holst. Russell Breuer is president of the association and Howard Pick is secretary.

Total Resource Planning Considered in Pepin Co.

DURAND, Wis. (Special) — Although agriculture is the foremost resource in Pepin County, total resource development was a major theme in all extension meetings last year, according to Garfield Stock, county agent in his annual report to the County Board of Supervisors.

Township committees with the Regional Planning Commission formed at La Crosse last year will identify the direction in which every resource of the county will take. Besides the watershed program, recreational enterprises and scenic corridors in various valleys where people may rest and relax are planned.

Proposed Ivan Park and Maiden Rock Over-Look are among projects under study by local committees as recreational potentials of the county.

ALTHOUGH Pepin County has no reported cases of Dutch Elm disease and there appears to be none closer than the Twin Cities and Eastern and Southern Wisconsin, there are many elms in the area, particularly in Durand. They should be watched closely, cut, trimmed and kept in top condition, Stock said.

Any diseased trees must be cut and destroyed, he said. Persons owning property with infected trees must stand the cost of removal.

Last year's 4-H program consisted of 15 clubs with 182 members and 39 volunteer leaders.

Open house will be in March. Midland Products will have representatives here. The board of directors in-

Forestry Topic At Last Caledonia Farm Discussion

CALEDONIA, Minn. — The last of a series of farm meetings in the Caledonia area will be held in the agriculture room of the high school Monday at 8 p.m.

The meeting will include recommendations for farm forestry in Houston County. Joe Hudspeth, Minnesota state forester, will discuss what conditions are needed to produce a profit under tax structure, fertility of land and interest rates.

If you are considering a woodlot for possible forest products, it would be advantageous to come to this meeting.

All farmers are invited.

clides: Harlan Platt, Clifford Nyre, Erhardt Schultz, Milfred Molland and Leslie Knecht, Mondovi, Elder Rustchow, Alma, and Charles Bilderback, Gilmanton.

DAIRY HERD improvement records, one of the weakest areas in agriculture here, received special encouragement. As a result, 20 new members were added.

The Sears swine project was continued to encourage purebred breeding animals. Steven Seyfer and Albert Kosok, Pepin; Tom Lindgren, Stockton; Dale Weiss, Mondovi, and Steven Frissel, Durand, are in the project this year.

County and home agents made 737 farm, home and business visits last year, received 1,173 office calls, presented 184 radio and television programs, distributed 5,360 bulletins and released 248 news articles.

Wabasha Youths Ask for Degree

WABASHA, Minn. — Three Wabasha High School seniors have applied for the State Farmer degree.

Insecticides, Herbicides

By MATT METZ
Wabasha County Agent
WABASHA, Minn. — Insecticides and herbicides have become an important and economical part of the agricultural industry.

Insecticides come in many different formulations. This is important in their use. The main forms in which insecticides are available:

Dusts are dry powders ready for use. The chemical content of dusts may vary from one-half to 20 percent. Dusts don't mix with water and should never be used as sprays.

Wettable powders are designed to be used as sprays. Powders may contain from 15 to 85 percent actual ingredient. Powders contain a wetting agent which permits them to form a suspension in water. They can be used on vegetation without damage. High volume hydraulic sprayers with mechanical agitators are best suited for applying wettable powders.

Soluble powders are chemicals that readily dissolve in water. They can be applied with low pressure, low-volume sprayers.

Emulsifiable concentrates are liquids carrying the insecticide in a suitable solvent and emulsifier. The label on the container designates the weight of active chemical per gallon. Emulsions can be applied with a low pressure, low-volume sprayer. Be sure to use only on the crops listed on the label because emulsions are harmful to some plants.

Oil solutions are ready for use, and contain one-half to ten percent active ingredients. You shouldn't use oil sprays on plants or animals except for special situations, such as fly sprays for cattle.

Granulated materials are ready-to-use insecticides in or on particles of a carrier. Granules are useful for controlling soil insects because they last longer than other formulations. They also are for controlling the corn borer. Granules can be applied with fertilizer spreaders, seeders, or special granule applicators.

Aerosols and spray bombs contain one or more insecticides, an oil solvent, and a propellant gas. The bombs produce a fine mist or a coarse spray. Fine mist (aerosols) are used to control flying insects, such as flies and mosquitoes in a closed area. Coarse spray bombs are used to deposit a residue of the insecticide. Spray bombs can be used on certain plants but check the label carefully before using.

In addition to these seven forms, there are several special types of formulations. Baits, insecticide-fertilizer mixtures, insecticide-herbicide mixtures, and mothproofing agents are a few of these special types.

Directions for use of insecticides must be followed closely as to dosage, time of application, crops or livestock to be treated, waiting periods between treatments and harvest, and other limitations as stated on the label. Insecticides are essential but they can be hazardous if used carelessly.

Hog Contest Deadline Set

PRESTON, Minn. — Entries in the Fillmore County Market Hog Carcass Contest are due Monday. Hogs must be delivered before 4 p.m. to the Hormel yards at Preston, Rushford or Chatfield.

This year no live show will be held since facilities are not available. All awards will be given on the carcass contest.

Each family or firm may enter two hogs but must designate the contest hog. The other hog will be used as a comparison hog. Hogs may be barrows or gilts and weigh between 200 and 240 lbs.

All contest hogs will be purchased at 50c per hundred over the Monday's market and will compete for $100 in carcass awards. All carcass contest hogs must meet certification standards. Winners will be picked on the basis of ham loin index.

Exhibitors will have an opportunity on Wednesday to view the carcasses and make comparison with the other Fillmore County hogs.

Swine producers should contact Tom Kibury, Preston, show supervisor or the Hormel yards at Chatfield and Rushford for further information.

PLAINVIEW OFFICERS... The Plainview Future Farmers chapter held its annual banquet recently when Mary Mussell, center, was named chapter sweetheart. ## Plainview Youth Wins 4-H Contest

PLAINVIEW, Minn. (Special) — Frank Lynch, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Lynch was named winner of the Plainview Chapter Future Farmers speaking contest.

Raymond Mussell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mussell, was second. Third place went to Bob Lyons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lyons, and Joe Wartheson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wartheson. Lynch will represent the chapter at the district contest March 7 at Northfield.

The winners were named at the chapter's banquet held at the school cafeteria.

JOSEPH MALINSKI, assistant supervisor of agriculture education, guest speaker, said farmers seem to feel they have to apologize for their profession. This is not true as it is not in any other specialized area, he said. The farmer is specialized.

Malinski said the young men who are taking four years of vo-agriculture are increasing in number returning to the farms. About one-half of them are engaged in farming.

He offered advice to the FFA members. "Instead of getting big, the first thing is to get good-getting bigger can mean going broke sooner if you're not good."

DON LAMMEERS, chapter secretary, gave a report on the year's activities. Each year the chapter contracts for a piece of land and raises corn. The money from the corn is put into the chapter's treasury.

The chapter's star greenhand award was presented to Joe Wartheson. The chapter's star farmer award was presented to the chapter's outstanding senior, John Houghton.

Vernon Yetzer, FFA adviser, presented officers pins to Houghton, president; Robert Lamprecht, vice president; Don Lammers, secretary; John Koepsell, treasurer; Eldon Lamprecht, reporter and Jerry Trudup, sentinel.

Mary Mussell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mussell, was named chapter sweetheart.

Brueske to Discuss Photography at Lewiston Monday

LEWISTON, Minn. — Frank Brueske, Winona Daily News farm editor, will attend a meeting here at 8 p.m. Monday at the city hall to give 4-H photography project members tips to improve their pictures.

John Halvorson, assistant county agent, reports photography is a new and interesting project available to 4-H'ers. How to take good pictures can be a challenge, he says.

Care of a camera and how to take good pictures will be discussed. Club members are encouraged to bring their cameras to the project meeting. All interested persons are invited.

Set Fillmore Co. Brucellosis Test

PRESTON, Minn. — The Minnesota State Livestock Sanitary Board will assign a group of doctors of veterinary medicine to Fillmore County Friday, March 6, to conduct a brucellosis test. All herds in the county will be tested, reports Milton Haberg, county agent.

The test will be conducted to recertify Fillmore County a modified certified brucellosis county and to reduce brucellosis to a lower degree. The last recertification test was conducted approximately three years ago. The test will be conducted at state and federal expense. There will be no direct expense to the county or to the cattle owners.

'Brain Barrier' Gets Credit for Stopping Winter Borer Growth

MADISON, Wis. — A "brain barrier" may keep corn borers from growing during hibernation, according to University of Wisconsin entomologists Stanley D. Beck, Elmer J. Cloutier and Nancy Alexander.

The corn borer's growth and development is controlled by hormones. Nerve centers in the brain cause a brain hormone to be released. This hormone activates the prothoracic gland which then produces and secretes a growth hormone. During hibernation the growth hormone is not produced or secreted.

The entomologists formerly thought that arrested growth was caused by the insect's failure to produce the brain hormone. However, close examination of the insect's brain during hibernation showed that brain hormone was still present.

The researchers theorized growth was stopped by failure to secrete the hormone, rather than by failure to produce it. This theory suggests that there is a physical or physiological "brain barrier" stopping the hormone from entering the blood stream.

The test will be conducted to recertify Fillmore County a modified certified brucellosis county and to reduce brucellosis to a lower degree. The last recertification test was conducted approximately three years ago. The test will be conducted at state and federal expense. There will be no direct expense to the county or to the cattle owners.

GOVERNMENT'S ROLE

Farm Bureau Speaks Against 'Fun Land'

(Editor's note: This is part of an editorial appearing in the Feb. 10 issue of the Badger Farm Bureau News titled "More Federal Land... Just For Fun." It is reprinted here for the interest it may have, not as an endorsement of the views.)

A major crisis seems to be developing in this country over the lack of public recreation areas, a crisis which the general public, as well as farmers, is concerned over. This great need has already developed to the point that there is legislation pending in Congress that would allow the purchase of needed private lands for recreation purposes.

With a shorter work week and more and more people with more and more leisure time, it is absolutely essential to their mental health that they have a place to play, according to certain government experts.

IN ORDER to accommodate this horde of potential mental cases and all the other people who like to enjoy the great outdoors, the suggestion is that the federal government purchase hundreds of thousands of acres to provide hunting, fishing, picnicking, riding, boating, golfing, and bird-watching sanctuaries throughout the United States. Some of this land will be farm land.

At present the federal government already owns outright 770,800,000 acres of land in the 50 states or more than one out of every 3 acres of the land areas of this country. All of it is tax free. This does not take into account the thousands of acres owned and controlled by state and local branches of government.

It seems ironic to many taxpayers that the government should take tax money to purchase land from private sources to further erode the tax base and diminish the ability to provide for our schools, roads and other public supported institutions.

The voting delegates of the member states of the American Farm Bureau Federation have held that "development of resources for recreation purposes should be primarily the responsibility of state and local units of government and private enterprise." In addition the delegates point out that adequate demonstration of need and specific legislation authorization should be required for acquisition of additional land for wildlife purposes.

THE PRIVATE sector of this country has amply demonstrated its ability to develop recreational facilities, where there is a demand, and where they do not have to compete with the federal treasury. The private sector pays taxes.

No one argues the need for recreational areas and most thinking people believe in preserving certain historical sites and some of the nation's natural beauty. The question arises — with 234 million acres of federally-owned non-urban recreation areas — do we need the extra half million acres requested in bills introduced in the first six months of the 88th Congress? Or will the purchase of a few million acres of private lands alleviate the mental strain of our nation's inhabitants?

Farm Electricity Course to Begin

I CAN GET IT FOR YOU WHOLESALE

You sure all of you have sometime in the past had this offer made by a well wishing friend or relative with "corner items" or a catalog. It did mean a saving on something you wanted or needed. Even though the supplier may have been many miles away which meant extra charges for freight and handling, it still amounted to a small saving, but if something went wrong it was not easy to get an adjustment.

Now, I CAN GET IT FOR YOU WHOLESALE. I've got to reduce my inventory and am offering cameras, projectors, and many camera accessory items at substantial savings. Tape recorders are also priced to save you money and you have the advantage of all the service and personal attention and instruction that you could never get by mail.

All the special items have been marked with a RED TAG showing the regular price as well as the special price so you can count your savings.

February is the month you can GET IT FOR WHOLE-items will not last long at these prices. Yes, you can buy on time.

29 Cuban Fishermen Start Home

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — Twenty-nine freed Cuban fishermen boarded their four trawlers today to sail for their homeland but were delayed, apparently by mechanical trouble on one of the boats.

The Coast Guard cutters Cape Darby and Cape York and a patrol boat stood by to escort the trawlers into international waters. The Cubans and their Castro-owned boats were captured 18 days ago for poaching in U.S. waters.

Czech diplomat Frantisek Telicka of Washington paid fines of $500 each Wednesday for the four captains of the boats on behalf of the Fidel Castro government. The captains were given suspended sentences in addition to the fines. Judge Thomas Caro dismissed similar charges against 25 crewmen, saying they merely took orders.

The Coast Guard took the fishermen into custody Feb. 2 off Florida's Dry Tortugas Islands and turned them over to the state since the applicable federal statute provided no penalties.

He was selected for the honor by the executive committee of the State Board of Vocational and Adult Education last summer and received a cash prize at the time.

DANNY MIKELSON, with a project in dairying, also received his award as the other State Farmer from Durand High School who attended the State FFA convention at the Baptist Assembly at Green Lake last summer.

Two Outstanding Farming Program Awards were presented to Clark Johnson for dairy cattle and Rodney Hurlburt for beef.

A total of 14 qualified FFA members received awards at Tuesday's banquet: Jim Moody, Bob Emerson, Norbert Stewart, Larry Meixner, Larry McRobert, Eugene Schlosser, Clark Johnson, Anton Schuh, Lloyd Helland, Garry Rinholden, Rodney Hurlburt, Wayne Kraleski, Steve Lindstrom and Garry Leach.

Speakers included Ed Phelan, Menomonie, Thomas R. Paterson, G. C. Schiefelbein, Gordon Heuer, superintendent, and Vaughn Hoffman, principal.

Pattison, State FFA director, discussed FFA loans for projects and the angles of farming where it may be desirable to make a change from the traditional aspect of farming.

The 120-acre former Lorie Drier farm is to be used for an experimental farm for soil improvement and a tree farm by the FFA boys of Durand. This farm, which is one-half paid for now by the organization, has had continuous crops of beans planted on it by individuals renting it for many years.

The boys will begin the process of building up and improving the soil this year with a 10-acre corn plot. They also plan to plant 5,000 evergreen trees, both white pine and Norway, this spring and in following years. The farm adjoins the 40 acres of school property where the proposed building project is planned.

Loretto, St. Felix Grab Region Six Tournament Victories

By GARY EVANS

Daily News Sports Editor

Wabasha St. Felix, the mighty giant of the Bi-State Conference, flexed its muscles in the first round of the Region Six Catholic tournament for the benefit of Coaches John Nett of Winona Cotter and Gene Biewen of Rochester Lourdes who were viewing the opening round.

Duke Loretz' Yellowjackets ground Hokah St. Peter into bits with methodical simplicity that featured every player on the team, and wound up in Friday night's semifinals by the score of 78-45.

A mild surprise occurred in the first game as Jim Oldenburg's Caledonia Loretto Bluejays grabbed the lead from the outset, erupted from an 18-18 halftime tie and toppled Rollingstone Holy Trinity 44-41.

The victory was Loretto's second against 16 losses while Rollingstone now stands 10-12. St. Felix is 13-7 and St. Peter 2-16.

Wednesday night's winners, which played before a near-packed St. Stan's gymnasium, will meet at 7 p.m. Friday at the Rochester Mayo Civic Auditorium.

Winona Cotter and Rochester Lourdes, which drew byes through the first round, tangle at 8:45. Friday night's winners will compete for the Region Six berth in the State Catholic Tournament at 4 p.m. Sunday.

Hokah and Rollingstone square off in the consolation battle at 12:45 p.m. Sunday and Friday night's losers will meet for third-place honors at 2:15.

Loretto 44, Holy Trinity 41

With one game out of the way and one upset already in the books, more and more emphasis was put on a technical foul called on Rollingstone with just under four minutes to play in the third quarter.

Trinity, attempting to get a substitute into the game, was penalized for having six men on the floor and Loretto captain Joe Keefe ripped home a free throw. The pass-in wound up in Keefe's hands and he dropped a long jumper from the right side.

That three-point play made the difference as Caledonia Loretto gained its second victory of the season, 44-41 over a hard-fighting but cold-shooting Rock-et team.

And when it was all over, it was through the efforts of a pair of tournament veterans that Loretto began a tournament surge that had court-side fans reminiscing over the Blue-jay 1963 tournament surge in baseball.

"This is the same bunch of boys," chortled Coach Jim Oldenburg. "There's no better time to start winning them than right now."

Keefe, a blond haired 6-0 forward, stuffed through 17 points to go with 14 from back court fireball Mike Mulvanna, who kept the Rockets at bay in the first 16 minutes with booming one-handers from long range.

Through a lackluster first half that saw both teams lose the ball on many occasions, Loretto took a 9-6 quarter lead before a Rollingstone rally that featured Jim Reisdorf and Jack Schell knotted the score at 18-18 at intermission.

With the three-point play on the technical foul, Loretto went ahead 25-19 and then staved off a Rocket rally to lead 27-23 at the quarter.

The Bluejays stuffed it safely out of reach by the time the 46 second mark rolled around in the final period, holding a 42-35 lead and then holding on though bothered by a Rollingstone press.

Jim Reisdorf was the only Holy Trinity player in double figures with 12 points, most from short range on spinning drives.

OPEN TOURNAMENT FRIDAY

Mabel, Canton Set in District 1

Mabel tangles with Canton at Spring Grove Friday night to open Minnesota Public High School tournament play in the Winona area.

Both teams are members of the Root River Conference and have been holding second-division spots for most of the season. Mabel has the most impressive record of the two. The Wildcats have posted a 4-8 slate in the Root River and 7-11 overall, while Canton is 2-10 in the circuit and 2-13 on the season.

THE RIVALS have played each other twice this year, with each team boasting a win. Canton won the first meeting 56-52 and Mabel bounced back to notch its win on Tuesday, by a 55-41 score.

Coach John Gannon of Canton is rather optimistic about the affair. "They can be beat," says Gannon, "they have a fairly good team and possess a strong man-to-man defense. But they can be beat! We proved that in our first meeting."

Gannon is relying on seven men to get the Raiders past their first test in District One. Lynn Dale Turner will start at center along with Norm Gillund and Derrn Jones at guards and Don Halverson and Curtis Johanson at forwards. Turner is the tallest Raider at 6-1.

Counted on for help will be reserves Larry Soiney and Allyn Brenno.

MABEL will put Jim Gundersen and Robert Rommes at forwards, Paul Johnson at center and Dennis Usgard and Rick Ruehmann in the back-court positions.

"We had a home court advantage Tuesday night and Canton had two men fouling out," said Wildcat mentor Jerome Miller. "The final score certainly didn't indicate the closeness of the game."

Miller has gotten good scoring balance from his squad, with each starter sharing in honors at some time during the year. He also possesses bench strength, which may be a factor in the tilt.

Evansville Lead Cut to One Point

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Evansville's first place lead over Grambling was cut to a single point and Assumption's Greyhounds advanced two more places to fourth in this week's Associated Press small-college basketball poll.

Evansville polled five first places and 72 points in the poll, while Grambling had 71 points. A week ago, Evansville had 72 points and Grambling 68.

St. Felix 78, St. Peter 45

The Yellowjackets of Wabasha St. Felix increased the confidence Coach Duke Loretz has in them by trimming outman-ned Hokah St. Peter 78-45.

Loretz, pulling no punches in an attempt to gain the tournament finals, saw all 11 of his players break into the scoring column as the Wabasha group dismantled the Indians with ease, leading at all the quarter turns in romping to the victory.

With Bill Glomski pumping through three long one-handers from the corner in the first eight minutes, the Yellowjackets raced to a 16-8 lead and were never headed after a 2-2 tie in the early going.

Things got no better for Rolie Tust's quintet in the second quarter and the score mounted to 25-18 at halftime.

Fourteen straight St. Felix points in a three minute span in the third period made the victory a certainty and the Yellowjacket reserves raced through the closing minutes in an attempt to gain the scoring column.

During the third-period flurry, Jerry Arens started it with a short jumper and Gene Wodele followed on a drive. Two stolen ball layups by Glomski made it 33-19 and reserves Tom Foley and Doug Kennebeck dropped home short jumpers to send it to 57-19 before Ed Horihan made the law of averages look good with a one-hander from close range with 2:46 left in the period.

The fourth period brought about a St. Peter surge that featured the scoring of Dave Feuerhelm. Relying mainly on an outside jumper, Feuerhelm dropped five field goals in the final eight minutes to finish with 15 points, high for the Indians.

Glomski led St. Felix with 14, Dick Peters got 14 and Jerry Arens 13.

For St. Peter, Ed Horihan wound up with 11 in a supporting role to Feuerhelm.

Hawks, Warriors Will Face Enemies at Home

Winona High and Winona State are at home in basketball activity this weekend, and St. Mary's is on the road testing Hamline in MIAC play.

The Hawks, contented after a 64-57 win over La Crosse Central Tuesday, return to action in a Big Nine finale at-fair with Red Wing at the Winona High gym.

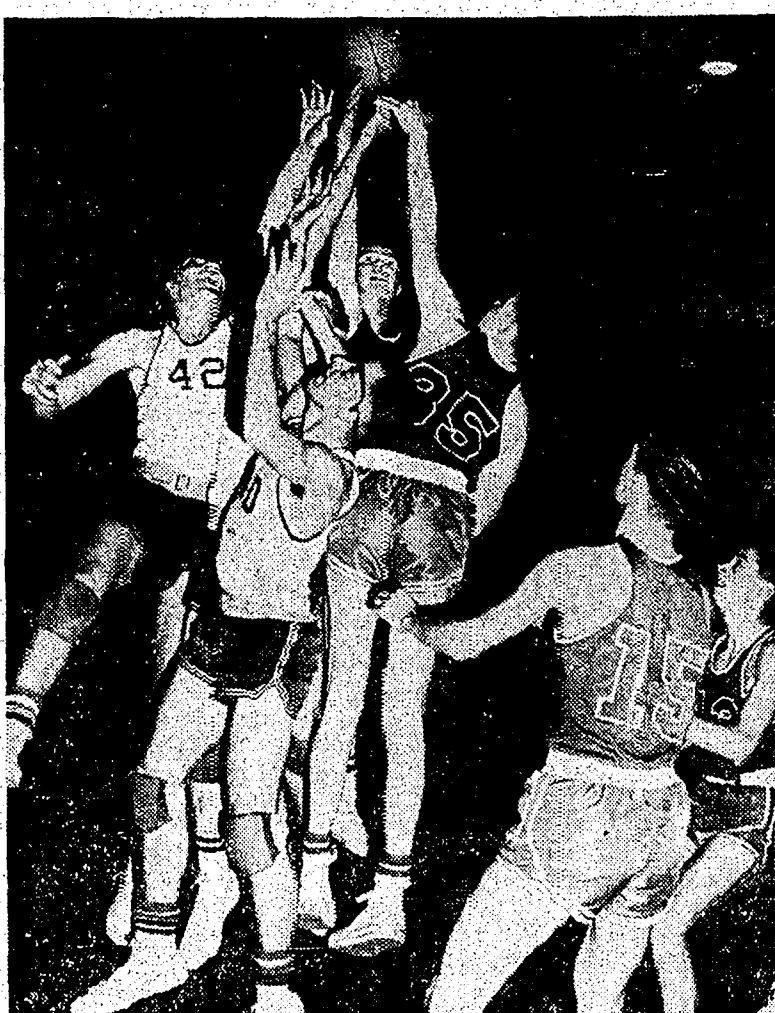

Winona State meets luckless Michigan Tech in an NIC game at Memorial Hall on Saturday night.

Coach John Kenny was well pleased with his charges as they upset Wisconsin's then 12th-ranked school. The Hawks now hold a 7-8 record with two games remaining on the irregular season schedule.

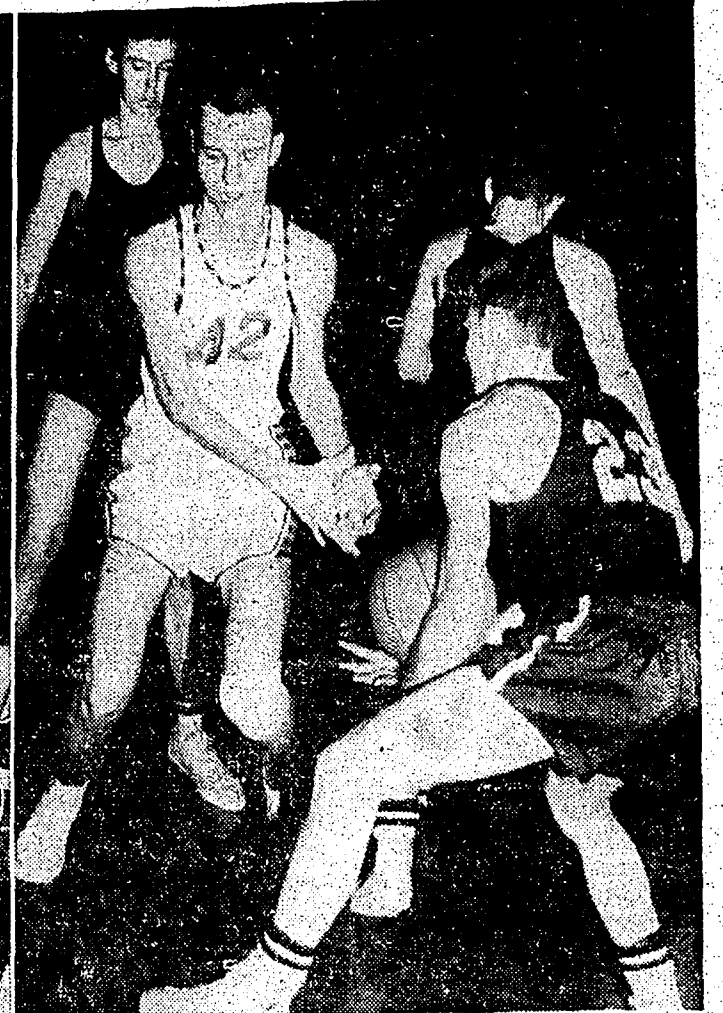

A home date with St. Paul Monroe remains on the card prior to tournament action on March 3 against Rochester.

Kenny's men walked away with a 65-60 overtime victory over the Wingers in the first meeting. In that game, Bill Squires, the Hawks' leading scorer, whipped in 19 points. Denny Duran added 15 and Pat Boland 12 in the win.

The game is set for 8 p.m. at the Winhawk gym. Bob Campbell's Winona State Warriors are setting their sights on a 5-5 finish in

SCRAMBLING . . . For a while during the first round of Region Six Catholic Tournament at St. Stan's Wednesday night, it seemed keeping control of the ball was a bigger problem than putting it in the basket. In the photo at left, a tangle of Caledonia Loretto and Rollingstone Holy Trinity players battle for a rebound. For the Rockets, No. 42 is Jim

Reisdorf and No. 40 is Jack Schell. Bluejays are Dave Augedahl (15), and Tim Eikens (35). At right, Chuck Lindgren (42) of Wabasha St. Felix appears to be making a neat handoff. The only problem is, Francis Stemper (23) of Hokah St. Peter has the ball. (Daily News Sports Photos by Merritt Kelley)

ANNUAL MANIA ARRIVES

'Tournamentitis' Hits St. Stan's

Page 16

SAILING . . . This Wabasha St. Felix cheerleader sails high into the air while cheering the Yellowjackets to their 78-45 victory over Hokah St. Peter.

By ROLLIE WUSSOW
Daily News Staff Writer

The annual mania that sends every basketball fan into ecstasy when his favorite team scores a point has arrived.

The mania, known as "tournamentitis" made its 1964 debut at St. Stan's gym Wednesday night when the Region Six Catholic Tournament kicked off.

The participating schools were Hokah St. Peter, Wabasha St. Felix, Caledonia Loretto and Rollingstone Holy Trinity.

Things started out on the blink. That's right, on the blink. One side of the scoreboard didn't light up, so the public address announcer had to periodically announce the "home team's" score to the fans.

The Caledonia Loretto cheerleaders didn't mind, though. Their team was ahead most of the way (they were the "visitors"), and wound up on the long end of the first game score, edging Trinity, 44-41.

The Loretto and Trinity cheerleaders were first to take to the floor and cheer their teams on.

Loretto's aggregation, decked out in white sweaters and skirts, went to the middle of the floor and introduced themselves — Kathy, Carol, Suzie, Mary and Joni by name — and proceeded to cheer their team to victory.

St. Felix brought the largest rooting section to the games, complete with drum section and one lone bugle. The Yellowjackets must have been inspired by their fans and cheerleaders, for they coasted to a 78-45 win over St. Peter.

The St. Felix cheerleaders were snappily attired in purple skirts and sweaters with bright white numerals, socks, tennis shoes and collars.

TOURNAMENT QUOTABLES: GENE BIEWEN — Coach of Rochester Lourdes, the team that meets Cotter Friday in the Region Six semifinals and has lost to the Ramblers three times so far this year: "According to form, we're supposed to be playing Caledonia Sunday afternoon in the third place game. Of course, the first game (Caledonia 44, Trinity 41) didn't go according to form either."

JIM IRABE — Trinity coach, after his team's loss to Loretto. "Our fundamentals hurt us. We also missed a lot of shots underneath the basket that we should have made."

MIKE W'GNER — former star Loretto guard, now at Winona State. "The team could trip up St. Felix Friday. When I was a sophomore (1960) we beat them for the consolation championship." Wagner was an all-conference selection as a junior and senior at Loretto, and being a guard himself, "liked the play of Mulvanna (Mike), he looked real good tonight."

JOHN NETT JR. — A forward on Cotter's crack squad, slated to meet Lourdes Friday. "The pressure is on us, that's for sure, but I don't think it affects the team as a whole. It's nice to be No. 1 (Sports Illustrated Magazine gave Cotter the top nod in the state), but that doesn't mean anything unless we go all the way."

DUKE LORETZ — Whose team tangles with Loretto in the semis Friday. "I think that the Arena floor (Mayo Civic) will be to our advantage. We like to run, and we will have more room there. Caledonia certainly is a better club than it looked tonight. It will be a good game Friday."

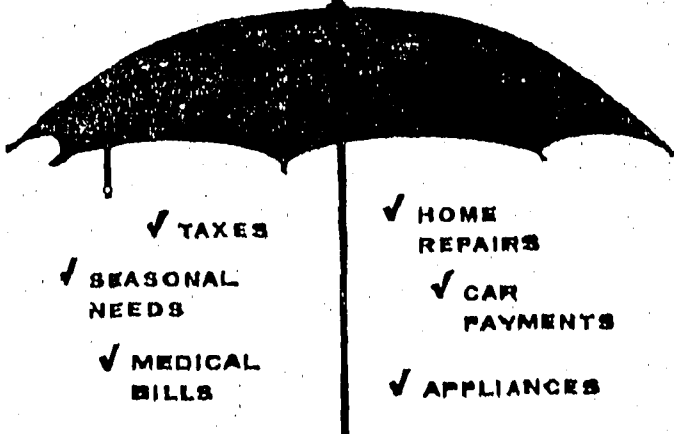

JIM OLDENBURG — Loretto coach who just won his second of eighteen ball games. "It was a tough one. The boys looked good in the second half. Augedahl (Dave) put the skids to their big man Reisdorf (Jim). I'm real happy."

And so it was at St. Stan's gym Wednesday night. The cheerleaders looked sharp, the coaches and players had their best say; the fans are warmed up and the 1964 Catholic Basketball Tournament is off and running!

Williamson in 654 for Topper

After smashing int. the top ten departments with reckless abandon Tuesday night, Winona's jowlers came up with some top scores Wednesday, but failed to climb into the top categories.

Kiki Williamson was the big scorer during the evening's action, topping a 233-654 in the Men's League at Westgate Bowl for Hot Brau Bar.

Williamson thus led four keggers who climbed into the hon or count circle in the loop. He had games of 207 and 214 to go with the 233 topper.

Len Strange posted 193-217-202-612 to spark Winona Abstract to 2,946. Baab's Standard had the high team game of 1,046.

Howie Hanson topped a 608 on games of 214, 225 and 169 for Federated Mutual and Bill Vogel came up with a 605 on sets of 211, 176 and 218.

On the distaff side, Mary Douglas was the big scorer with a 207-536 for BSMC-ettes in the Bay State Women's loop at Westgate. Her team cracked a 911-2,619.

WINONA AC: Majorette—Gert Gabrych and Marie Ellison propelled Sloppy Joes to 852 with their 188 and 434, respectively. Ed Phillips and Sons topped 2,445.

Ace—Ken Poblocki posted 225 for Merchants Bank and Don Werner 583 for Hamernik's Bar, which hit 1,055. Jerry's Plumbers waxed 2,884.

WESTGATE BOWL: Sunsets—Lora Kan 198 game helped Winona Toolettes to 910-2,552. Marion Tullius pushed over 199-524 for Mankato Bar and Helen Englerth tripped 528 for Home Furniture.

SENIOR GIRLS: Dawn Brandes sparked Cornbolls to 771-2,092 with her 174-429.

RED MEN CLUB: Class A—Erwin Dulek spanked 219 and Don Knapik 541 as the pair led Winona Boxcraft to 1,021. Kalmes Tire topped 2,717.

ST. MARTIN'S: Wednesday—(Popeye) Morrison spilled 214 for Winona Bolter and Steel while Jerry Timm was rifling 500. Western Kool Kids tagged 972-2,720.

Griffith May Cool Viking Seating Plans

ST. PAUL (AP)—The Minnesota Vikings stepped forth Wednesday with a bold plan to make Metropolitan Stadium more palatable to them and their fans, but got something less than an enthusiastic reception from their co-tenants, the Minnesota Twins.

Viking directors proposed to foot the entire bill of about $1.3 million dollars to install movable, double-deck stands in left and center field to improve the lot of Viking patrons sitting on the east side for football.

Contacted in Orlando, Fla., Twins President Cal Griffith viewed the plan a little skeptically — if it involves the Twins losing any seating capacity in the coming baseball season.

"We're not going to lose seats for anybody," Griffith said.

Two Changes In Top 10 Departments

Only three new faces appear in the singles and doubles categories today after Wednesday night action in the City Bowling Tournament at Hal-Rod Lanes—a night that saw leaders in both departments hold their positions.

Jack McDonald rolled into third place in the singles division with a 846. He rifled a 536 scratch total behind games of 178, 171 and 187 and built that up with a 110-pin handicap.

Still leading is Henry Ernst of Fountain City with his 661 and second is Donald Wolfe, also of Fountain City, with 655.

Mankato Bar wrapped up the Catholic Rec Indoor Softball title Wednesday night by smashing Watkins 17-0 behind a two-hitter from Ed Jerowski.

In the only other game played, Oasis got a six-hitter from Tom May and nipped Lang's Bar 3-1 despite Pete Jerowski's three-hitter.

Marigold forfeited to Sunshine.

Playoff action begins Wednesday with Mankato Bar meeting Marigold at 6:30 p.m. at the Rec. Sunshine playing Watkins at 7:45 and Oasis and Lang's tangling at 9 o'clock.

The playoff winner will receive the league trophy.

Ed Jerowski handcuffed the Walkers hitters, striking out seven and walking three and giving up only a double to Don Ender and a single to Cliff Kan.

Jerowski aided his own cause with a pair of doubles. George Wenzel slapped two home runs and Roy Hazelton, who had three hits, one. Joe Brabbit and Wenzel each had three hits.

Pete Jerowski struck out six, but walked five and hit four while May was fanning five and passing three.

Mark Dilley, Jeff Kremer and Brad Dyerbach had the Oasis hits while Tom Nelson got three for Lang's and Jerowski two.

Warriors End Royals' Win String at 12

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

San Francisco's championship minded Warriors are receiving valuable aid from a couple of highly unexpected sources.

The Warriors have moved further ahead of their two game Divisional challengers the past two nights, thanks to the National Basketball Association's cellar teams—New York and Detroit. San Francisco now leads second-place St. Louis by two games and third-place Los Angeles by 5½ games.

The Warriors stopped Cincinnati's 12-game winning streak 108-101 Wednesday night while last-place New York of the Eastern Division outscored St. Louis 120-114 and last-place Detroit of the West edged Los Angeles 116-115.

New York sneaked by Los Angeles Tuesday night 118-117. In the other NBA game Wednesday night Philadelphia whipped Baltimore 130-122.

San Francisco used an unusual defensive maneuver in halting the league's longest winning streak of the season.

Wayne Hightower, who normally plays up front, guarded Oscar Robertson, a backcourt man.

Robertson still scored 29 points, not a bad night given the Royals' ace, but the move seemed to bother Cincinnati's offense at the start.

A VICTORY?

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Manuel Ycaza, one of America's great jockeys, will go after his first Flamingo victory aboard Roman Brother on Hialeah's closing day March 3.

WRESTLERS AT REGIONAL

Winhawk Swim Team in Big 9

With the exception of Winona High, city swimming and wrestling squads are prepping for conference meets with a few final encounters in dual competition slated.

The Winhawk swimmers travel to Rochester Friday for the Big Nine Conference meet. Four schools are entered in the fray—the host Rockets, Austin, Mankato and Winona.

Hawk Coach Lloyd Luke feels that defending champion Rochester should dominate.

"THEY SHOULD sweep all the events with the possible exception of diving," stated Luke, "needless to say, they are strong."

Luke has hopes for a possible second or third place finish. "I think that either Austin or Winona will place behind Rochester, with Mankato finishing fourth."

Winona will have to rely on third, fourth and fifth places to amass points against the Rockets. "Rochester has about four strong men in each event," mused Luke, "we will be strong in the medley relay and possibly in the 200-yard freestyle relay."

John Sanders, Greg Gerlach, Mark Johnson and Gary Grabow formulate the medley relay team, while Larry Anderson, Grabow, Roger Pegre and Bill Kane make up the 200-yard freestyle squad.

GERLACH ALSO has a chance to show in the 100-yard breaststroke, as does Anderson in the 100-yard freestyle and Sanders in the backstroke. All the events will take place at the John Marshall pool starting at 4 p.m. Friday.
