Restoring Rent Controls

British Steel Firms to Be Nationalized

LONDON (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II told Parliament today that Prime Minister Harold Wilson's new Labor government will renationalize Britain's steel industry, restore rent controls and open the way for the abolition of capital punishment.

The queen formally opened the Parliament elected Oct. 15 with the first speech from the throne written for her by Wilson and his Cabinet. The speech outlined the government's legislative program.

In international affairs the queen promised the government's support of the United Nations and the North Atlantic alliance and other collective defense organizations to which Britain belongs. She said the government would attempt to reduce East-West tensions and "to encourage further progress toward disarmament."

The queen delivered her speech from the throne in the House of Lords after driving through London in a coach accompanied by a glittering cavalry escort.

Members of the House of Commons, summoned with great ceremony, stood around the edges of the chamber as the queen spoke.

In a key passage she said: "My government will initiate early action to re-establish the necessary public ownership of the iron and steel industry."

This policy is expected to touch off a major parliamentary battle.

Wilson's government has only a five-vote majority in Commons. Sir Alec Douglas-Home's Conservatives and the small Liberal party oppose nationalization of the steel industry.

Clement Attlee's Labor government took the steel industry under state control in 1951 after nationalizing the coal, gas and electric power industries, the railways, the airlines and the Bank of England.

44 Cubans Ask Asylum

OTTAWA (AP) — Forty-four Cubans are seeking admission to the United States after walking off a Cubana airliner at Gander, Nfld.

Arrangements are being made to fly the defectors to Canadian immigration detention quarters at Halifax, where they will wait until the United States admits them.

The Immigration Service said the Cubans defected after their plane, bound for Czechoslovakia, made an overnight stop at Gander Sunday.

Two Cubans asked for political asylum in the United States Sunday and the other 42 announced their decision Monday.

Their plane left for Prague with 36 other passengers aboard.

New Russian Leaders Ask Chinese Accord

MOSCOW (AP) — The Kremlin's new leaders are going ahead with Nikita Khrushchev's plan for an international Communist meeting next month, but instead of setting the stage for a showdown with Red China the emphasis apparently will be on unity.

There have been hints Red China might send representatives to try to find out if there have been any Soviet policy changes since Khrushchev's ouster. Peking had said it would boycott the meeting Khrushchev had called to lay the groundwork for a conference of the world's 90 Communist parties.

A Danish Communist leader who returned home from Moscow Monday told newsmen in Copenhagen Soviet leaders intend to stand firm toward Peking but would try to get back on "speaking terms" with the Chinese.

The Kremlin decision to hold the December meeting was disclosed in a communiqué after talks with Austrian Communist leaders.

Rebellion In Bolivia

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP) — A regiment rebelled today in La Paz in an uprising of undetermined proportions, a radio broadcast announced.

The uprising was in the Ingavi regiment of Lapaz, the broadcast said. There were unconfirmed reports the high command of the armed forces was involved.

Minneapolis Policeman Wounded, Gunman Slain

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — A man armed with a revolver and a switchblade knife and wearing a black ski mask, was shot to death Monday night by a policeman who was wounded in the gun battle.

The Hennepin County medical examiner's office identified the dead man as Harry Gassett, 29, of Minneapolis.

The wounded policeman, Jon F. Prentice, 28, was part of the department's "flying squad" which had been combing the city nightly in a quest for a rapist who had attacked 17 women since April.

Officer Donald Pelkey, another "flying squad" member, spotted a man in a south Minneapolis alley and followed him. Pelkey said he saw the man peer through a window.

The man spotted Pelkey and dived behind a car, and the two exchanged shots around the car. Pelkey said "three or four shots" were fired before the man ran away toward Franklin Steele Square, three blocks away.

Prentice, who had been in the area with four other members of the squad, followed the man on foot into the park. Police said Prentice told them he was shot as he went around a corner of a park building.

Prentice said he then shot the man as he turned and ran, police related. Prentice fired other shots into the air while calling to the pursued man to halt.

The wounded Prentice was taken to a hospital, and other policemen found the shooting victim dead in the park. A .38 caliber bullet had gone through his back and heart.

Prentice, shot in the right hip, was described today as in serious condition in a hospital following surgery.

Clearwater Co. Precinct Gives Big Lead to LBJ

BAGLEY, Minn. (AP) — One precinct in Minnesota's Clearwater County gave President Johnson 18 votes and Sen. Barry Goldwater one.

The Hangaard Township also reported these totals: For Senator, Democratic incumbent Eugene McCarthy, 18; Republican Wheelock Whitney, one. For 7th District congressman: Democrat Ben Wicherterman 16, Republican incumbent Odin Langen, 3.

In 1960 Hangaard gave Kennedy 10 votes and Nixon 3 for President and Humphrey 9 and Peterson 4 for senator.

9-Month Earnings Of 'Big 3' Motor Firms Set Record

DETROIT (AP) — Boom year 1964 of the nation's auto industry now boasts record nine-month earnings from each of its "Big Three."

General Motors, biggest of the trio, made it complete Monday by reporting a $1.36-billion profit and announcing a $569-million dividend payment.

The GM dividend, a $2-a-share payment to 1.15 million common stockholders, will help to swell the pre-Christmas flow of money. The $2 is $1.35 above the usual GM quarterly payment.

Earlier, both Ford and Chrysler had reported record nine-month earnings.

General Motors made its profits report as the giant automaker was getting up headway again in production following a crippling United Auto Workers Union strike.

Key Facts In Election

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Here are some key facts on today's general elections:

At stake: The presidency, governorships of 25 states, 35 Senate seats, all 435 House seats.

Turnout: About 71 million expected to vote.

Hours: First polls opened one minute after midnight in some rural New England areas, voting extends to 2 a.m. EST Wednesday in western Alaska.

Weather: Generally fair and mild predicted for most of the nation.

Pre-election polls: Most polls indicate victory for President Johnson.

WEATHER

FEDERAL FORECAST WINONA AND VICINITY — Partly cloudy and cooler tonight with scattered showers or thundershowers. Low 38 - 41; Mostly fair and cooler Wednesday, high 55-60.

LOCAL WEATHER Official observations for the 24 hours ending at 12 m. today: Maximum, 72; minimum, 59; noon, 68; precipitation, none.

Mild and Fair Weather for Most of U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Americans got out early and in big numbers today to register their choice between Lyndon B. Johnson and Barry Goldwater for president.

A morning spot check by Associated Press member newspapers and bureaus across the nation brought reports of moderately heavy voting. The weather generally was favorable and it appeared probable that the advance forecast of a record 71 million ballots would be reached, it not surpassed.

In 1960, when there were fewer voters, the national total was 68.8 million ballots cast.

Since there are more registered Democrats than registered Republicans, backers of Johnson believed a heavy turnout was favorable to their candidate, the overwhelming favorite in all the polls.

On the other hand, Goldwater's supporters have argued that in past elections many conservative-minded voters have stayed at home, believing there was no great choice between the candidates. Their hope was that a big turnout meant many past stay-at-homes were taking the opportunity to vote for a conservative candidate.

As always, there was a race by a few isolated precincts with only a handful of voters to be the first in the nation with all votes in and counted.

Johnson was the first voter to cast his ballot in his precinct—No. 4 in Blanco County, Texas. Mrs. Johnson was second. They voted the straight Democratic ticket.

Johnson seemed to be confident of victory. Asked by a newsman what he would do to heal the wounds of the campaign and unite the nations, the President replied: "I'm going to try to make the government as bipartisan as possible."

The nation's first returns came from the tiny mountain community of Dixville, N.H. Its eight voters, all registered Republicans, finished balloting at 12:01 a.m. EST. The tally: Goldwater 8, Johnson 0.

While they're picking a president, American voters will also be electing 25 governors, 35 senators, 435 House members and a host of state and local officials.

Right down to the wire, almost every opinion poll and political sign pointed to President Johnson in a walkaway, possibly by the largest popular-vote margin in modern presidential history.

But Sen. Goldwater is used to being behind — he had a long uphill battle to win the Republican nomination — and he is still hoping for a political miracle.

Both candidates wound up their campaigns Monday night with a pledge.

In his home state, Texas, Johnson said:

"I pledge my total commitment."

GOP Protests Humphrey Ad On Today Show

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — A five-minute Democratic political commercial featuring Sen. Hubert Humphrey appeared on Twin Cities and Rochester television stations this morning and brought an immediate protest from Republicans.

Robert Forsythe, Republican state chairman, said the announcement, appearing on KSTP-TV, "clearly violates the Minnesota corrupt practices act." (KROC-TV, Rochester, carries the same program.)

Humphrey, the Democratic vice presidential nominee, was to vote at Waverly, Minn., near the Twin Cities this noon.

Stanley Hubbard Jr., vice president and general manager of KSTP, said the station had no prior knowledge that the program was to be fed to the station by National Broadcasting Co.

"It came at the end of a segment of the Today program and caught everyone flat-footed," Hubbard said.

"We know that the state law forbids political advertising on election day, but in many states it is permitted and apparently NBC fed the program to us without checking the Minnesota law," Hubbard said.

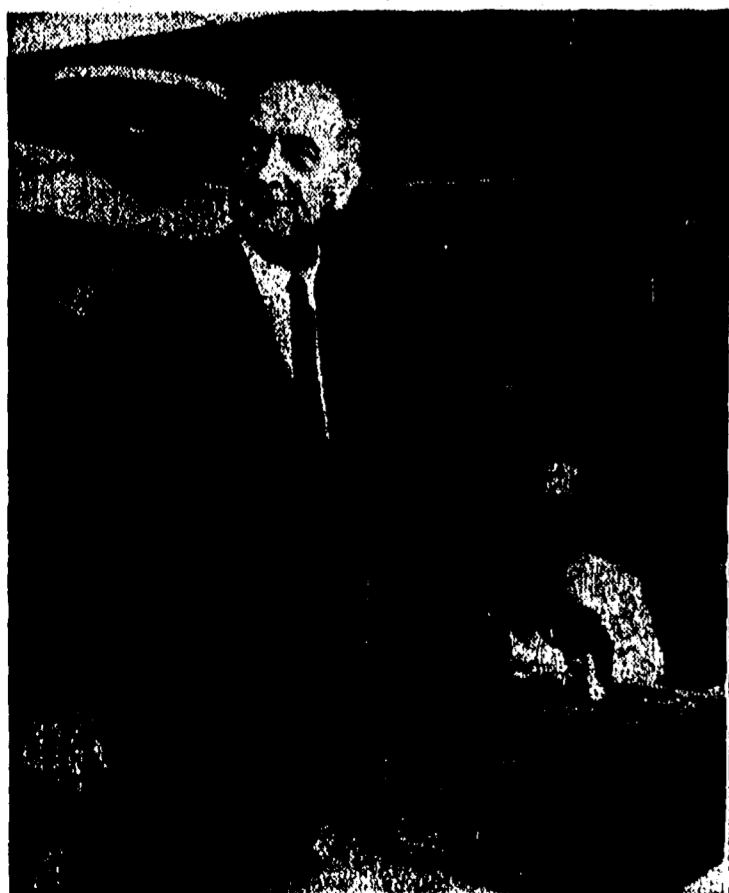

Hubbard said he was at his home when the program came on and tried to call the station. "All the phones were busy and by the time I got someone it was too late," he said.

George Farr, DFL state chairman, said no paid local campaign announcements had been placed with television stations.

"It's some sort of a network goof-up," Farr said. "We wired all radio stations in Minnesota a day or so ago reminding them that no 'spot' announcements could be carried on election day."

Violation of Minnesota's corrupt practices act constitutes a gross misdemeanor, punishable by up to a year in jail or a fine up to $1,000 or both.

The Minnesota attorney general's office received a number of calls about the broadcast. A spokesman said the office was taking note of the complaints, but that enforcement of the law is up to county attorneys.

DEAR ABBY:

How to Avoid Difficult Pair

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: We are new in town. Last evening my husband's foreman and his wife dropped in on us unexpectedly. We were not prepared for company. When I served some soft drinks, the man hinted that he wanted something "stronger." We didn't have anything in the house, so my husband took him to the corner bar and left me with the wife. She talked bad about everybody at the plant. I didn't even know half the people she gossiped about. She told me I ought to "do something" with my hair, which hurt my feelings because my hair is very thin and there's not much I can do with it. Then she asked me when I waxed my floors last and I told her I had waxed them that morning. She said, "They looked terrible. You should try my brand."

The men were gone three hours. When they came back this couple stayed until 1:30 A.M., although I said several times my husband had to get up at 6:00 A.M. for work. Do you think it was right of my husband to have left me there all evening with that woman? What if they drop in again? I don't care to associate with her. My head still aches from last night. HEADACHE

ABBY

DEAR HEADACHE: Tell your husband that if he likes the man, fine, but you don't want a foursome-type friendship with them. If they drop in again, you go lie down and let your husband answer the door and tell them that you are "resting." And if he wishes to entertain the pair of them, tell him he is welcome to.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 14-year-old girl and I was wondering if you think it is fair for a girl's mother to judge a boy by the way he dresses. My mother doesn't like a certain boy for that reason and I don't think it's fair. JR. HIGH GIRL

DEAR GIRL: A boy's dress is an indication of his home environment, his character, personal hygiene and self-esteem. Listen to your mother, Honey, and you won't go wrong.

DEAR ABBY: I wish you would write something about bossy women who rule the roost and ruin their children. My sister is the mother of three boys. If her husband tells them to do something, she tells them to do the opposite. Many times I have heard her say, "I don't care WHAT your father said, you'll do as I say!" And they do, too. No wonder those children are confused and nervous. Is there any way I can help? SISTER MARY

DEAR SISTER: Perhaps, but this is NOT your problem, so be careful. I would tell both your sister and her husband what you have observed and how you see the effects of their (probably unintentional) conflict. Having done that, say no more and hope for the best.

CONFIDENTIAL TO SYLVIA: There is nothing wrong with putting all your eggs in one basket — if you keep your eye on the basket.

2 Women, 94 And 99, Vote

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — Among Delaware voters today will be two Wilmington women — aged 94 and 99.

Florence E. Crumlish, "99 and 9 months old," says, "I've never missed a presidential election and I've always voted Democratic. Why, my granddaddy voted Democratic with a quill pen."

Emily Washington, 94, says, "I'm just a little old woman. Politics is men's business." But, she adds: "I'm going to vote Democratic."

The "blackout" period experienced by alcoholics is not a period of unconsciousness. It is never missed a presidential election and I've always voted

Directors Take Look At Wage Panel Report

Formal action on findings of an adjustment panel which investigated Winona public school teachers' grievances in connection with last spring's Board of Education action on adoption of a salary schedule for 1964-65 is expected to be taken next Monday by the school board.

The panel report studied by the board Monday recommended certain adjustments in the salary schedule — the major one being an increase of $200 to each step on the master degree schedule — and a number of suggestions on establishment of a procedure for school board-teacher salary discussions in the future.

Hit-Run Driver Uses Stolen Car

A stolen car and a hit-run accident have police searching for an unidentified person today, according to Capt. Marlowe L. Brown.

The chain of events began when Mrs. James D. Cole, 362 W. Howard St., parked her car in the lot at the Cathedral of the Sacred Heart about 5:15 p.m. Monday. Mrs. Cole entered the church to attend Mass, which takes about 45 minutes.

ABOUT 5:27 p.m., an unknown person called police to report a hit-run accident at 523 E. Wabasha St. Police went to the address and found a parked car belonging to Alex P. Pelowski, a total wreck. It had been hit head-on.

Patrolmen George M. Liebsch and Richard L. Peterson were

City Reinstates Requirements on Subdivisions

A resolution putting responsibility on subdivision developers for sewer, water, curb and gutter improvements was passed Monday night by the City Council.

Previous moves in this direction have been withdrawn when complaints about alleged unfair treatment arose. Aldermen agreed that now is the time to get the policy officially on the books, since no money for such projects was put in next year's budget. Action now on the much-discussed proposal will give advance notice to all developers well ahead of the next construction season, said Council President Harold Briesath.

A letter outlining the policy will go the Planning Commission which, according to ordinance, is the first municipal body to review new plans.

Two Injured At St. Charles

ST. CHARLES, Minn. (Special) — Two St. Charles men were injured in a collision on Whitewater Avenue about 8:15 p.m. Monday.

Delvin Ruhberg, proprietor of Del's Cafe, is at St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, for observation although he is believed to be not seriously injured. He received cuts and bruises when he was thrown from his station wagon as the driver's side door flew open at the impact.

John Nintemann Sr. also was taken to St. Mary's but was treated and released.

Ruhberg was driving north on route from the American Legion hall, where he had presented Boy Scout awards, to a meeting of the firemen.

Nintemann had been driving south and was making a left turn onto East 7th Street when Ruhberg hit him broadside, officers said.

Should We "X" Him Out?

By GEORGE MCCORMICK
Daily News Staff Writer

"The end of Democracy is at hand," the little man in the red, white and blue suit shouted as he entered the Daily News newsroom this noon.

"Our American Way of Life is being threatened," he added shrilly.

"What's the matter?" asked the Daily News Patriotism and Motherhood Editor, before whose desk the little man had stopped.

"I JUST CAME back from the polling place in my precinct," the visitor explained, "and I was informed by the person in charge that voting machines probably would be in use in the next election."

"What's the matter with that?" the editor asked.

"Matter?" the little man cried. "Why, it's the diabolical conclusion of the trend that started with the introduction of the power loom. Machines are taking over. I thought teaching machines were bad enough; now they've got machines that vote for you."

"No, no," the editor put in. "The machines don't vote for you. You still cast your ballot, but the machine registers it and totals all ballots cast on it during the election."

"THAT'S WHAT they say," the little man said. "How do we know what's really happening in that machine, though?"

Report Asked On Housing Code Activity

The City Council asked Monday night for an early report on enforcement of the city's new housing code, as requested by the Housing and Home Finance Administration, the federal agency associated with urban renewal grants.

A letter was read at the council meeting, reminding the council that systematic enforcement is required in order for the city's Workable Program for Community Improvement to be recertified by HHFA. Passed last year, the code has not been applied thus far. The Workable Program was reinstated in August and comes up for renewal again next year.

City Attorney George M. Robertson Jr. said Roy Vose, sanitary inspector, has been studying the new code and will recommend enforcement procedures. Vose will be asked to report sometime next month with his suggestions.

For the present, enforcement has been held off for lack of available city personnel. In previous meetings it has been proposed that enforcement of all codes — housing, electrical, building, and others — be the responsibility of a planning coordinator. The post, a new one, will be created and staffed next fiscal year, which begins April 1, 1965, and for which $20,000 was budgeted.

Leaf-sweeping machines now are on their last rounds of the season, Street Commissioner Arthur Brom said today.

Brom urged car owners not to leave their vehicles parked at curbs in the work areas. The crews now are on east-west streets.

When east-west streets have been gone over, the north-south streets will be swept. Brom asked that as many cars as possible in the Winona State College area be parked on off-street spaces this weekend. The cross streets will be swept beginning about Thursday.

Two Drivers Fined $110 Total

A total of $110 in fines was levied on two local traffic offenders by Municipal Judge John D. McGill today.

James A. Critzman, Minnesota City, was trying to arrange payment of $35 and $25 fines for driving after suspension of driver's license and speeding charges, respectively. Critzman pleaded guilty to the charges today in municipal court.

Judge McGill ordered Critzman to pay the fines or spend a total of 20 days in jail. He further ordered that Critzman's license plates and registration certificate be impounded by the clerk of court, John Carter.

Donald J. Fort, 18, 709 Wilson St., was making arrangements to pay a $50 fine after pleading guilty to reckless driving today. The alternative is 17 days in jail. Fort was charged with driving 60 m.p.h. in a 30 zone on Broadway from Wilson to Olmsted streets Monday at 11:56 p.m.

Critzman was charged with speeding 75 m.p.h. in a 55 zone on U.S. 61 east of Huff Street today at 1:37 a.m. After being arrested on the speeding charge, Critzman also was cited for the driver's license offense.

Labor Banquet Slated Nov. 19

Winona Central Labor Union's sixth annual banquet will be Nov. 19 at the Labor Temple.

The 1964 union man or woman of the year will be announced during the banquet.

Program chairman for the event is Mark F. Cysewski, 1963 winner of the union man of the year title.

Winona State College students cast 768 ballots for president, St. Mary's 185 and Saint Teresa 295. These proportions were carried over in the voting for senator and representative.

Out of the 1,248 voting, about 175 indicated they were independents. In addition, three students avowed preference for the American Nazi Party, two for the Socialist Party and one for the Christian Socialist Democrats.

THE SIX WHO did not line up with the two major parties or declare their independence are all at Winona State. It may have been from their ranks that one write-in each for Robert F. Kennedy, George Wallace and George Lincoln Rockwell were counted in the presidential balloting.

David Vale, Winona State

Incumbents Win Mock Election At 3 Colleges

The incumbents for President, U.S. Senator and 1st district U.S. representative were substantial favorites of the voters in a mock election staged at Winona's three colleges.

Lyndon B. Johnson "won" the Presidency 820 to 420; Eugene J. McCarthy "remains" as senator by 775 to 431, and Rep. Albert Quie "defeated" George Daley 683 to 469.

Voters were asked to indicate their party affiliation or preference on their ballots. Results indicated about 110 cross-votes, with a bias again in favor of the incumbents in each race.

Early Voting Here Trails Brisk Pace of 4 Years Ago

Despite election judges' claims of heavy voter turnouts this morning, the percentage of registered voters casting ballots by noon was down from the comparable 1960 rate.

A total of 3,983 of the 13,325 registered voters in the city's four wards had cast ballots by noon today. This is a fraction less than 30 percent of those registered.

FOUR YEARS ago, 4,648 persons had voted by noon. This was about 38 percent of the 12,331 registered voters that year. When polls closed in 1960, 87.8 percent of the eligible voters had cast ballots, short of the record 90 percent that voted in the 1956 presidential election.

The total number of persons going to the polls in 1960, however, was greater than in 1956, when fewer had registered.

Although figures indicate that the voter turnout thus far today is somewhat behind that of the 1960 race, election judges were almost unanimous in saying that the voting rate was "very much ahead of schedule."

In the 3rd Precinct of the 1st Ward, in fact, judges planned to take a shorter-than-usual lunch hour because the influx of voters was keeping them busy.

In RURAL AREAS of Winona County, few precinct polling places can be reached by telephone. In those called late this morning, however, returns were reported as running either a little ahead of or about the same as the normal rate.

Election judges in these precincts said most voters would come to the polls this afternoon or from early evening until the time the polls close at 8 p.m.

Voting at noon today compared with four years ago:

COTTER ELECTION... Students of Cotter High School Monday participated in a mock election with the student body voting for state and federal candidates on today's ballots. Voting booths were set up in the former Cotter office and a tabulation of ballots cast Monday was to be made this afternoon. Vicki Speck is seen here in the left foreground placing her ballots in the box, while at the right Diane Palubicki is receiving her ballots from the election judges. At the table, left to right, are Dan Pelowski and Sue Bernatz. At the voting booths at the rear are, from the left, Jack Weimerskirch, Terry DeGrood and Harold Thiewes. (Daily News photo)

It's 123 to 21 For Democrats At Grade School

Winding up their mock political campaign and election in the same fashion as their elders, Cathedral Elementary School pupils today voted overwhelmingly for the Johnson-Humphrey ticket, according to Jon Kosidowski, social studies instructor.

Participating in the governmental exercise were 144 grade 7 and 8 students. Directed by their teacher, the pupils began last week with voter registration, carried through with campaign debates and finished up today with an election.

Results of the voting were:

President-vice president — Johnson and Humphrey, 123; Goldwater and Miller, 21.

U.S. Senator — Eugene McCarthy, 115; Wheelock Whitney, 29.

1st District Congressman — George Daley, 101; Albert Quie, 43.

Taconite Amendment — 128 yes; 16 no.

Incumbents Win Mock Election At 3 Colleges

The incumbents for President, U.S. Senator and 1st district U.S. representative were substantial favorites of the voters in a mock election staged at Winona's three colleges.

Lyndon B. Johnson "won" the Presidency 820 to 420; Eugene J. McCarthy "remains" as senator by 775 to 431, and Rep. Albert Quie "defeated" George Daley 683 to 469.

Voters were asked to indicate their party affiliation or preference on their ballots. Results indicated about 110 cross-votes, with a bias again in favor of the incumbents in each race.

WINONA STATE College students cast 768 ballots for president, St. Mary's 185 and Saint Teresa 295. These proportions were carried over in the voting for senator and representative.

Out of the 1,248 voting, about 175 indicated they were independents. In addition, three students avowed preference for the American Nazi Party, two for the Socialist Party and one for the Christian Socialist Democrats.

THE SIX WHO did not line up with the two major parties or declare their independence are all at Winona State. It may have been from their ranks that one write-in each for Robert F. Kennedy, George Wallace and George Lincoln Rockwell were counted in the presidential balloting.

775 Absentee Ballots Cast in Winona Co.

A total of 775 absentee ballots were cast in this year's general election, Winona County Auditor Richard Schoonover said this morning.

This number is about the same as was cast four years ago, he said.

All absentee ballots now are in the hands of election judges in the county's precincts. No absentee ballots may be cast today.

2 Area Towns On TV Reports

Winona Township is one of three "microcosm" precincts in Minnesota that will be used by NBC radio and television network in its attempts to predict the outcome of the election.

A direct line has been installed from the precinct polling place in the St. Mary's College student union to network headquarters in Chicago.

The network plans to project the election outcome not only on the basis of data fed through its computers, but also on the outcomes in a few precincts in each state selected as being representative of the state as a whole.

In FILLMORE COUNTY Sumner Township is one of the check centers for CBS television.

CBS personnel are at the township hall reporting the returns. Warren Hess is chairman of the township, which is west of Chaffield near the Olmsted County line.

Council Hears Complaints On Sidewalk Repair Work

A complaint about sidewalk damage brought on an extended discussion Monday night by the City Council relating to progress of work and similar comments from other city residents.

Aldermen instructed the city engineer to discuss alleged damage to sidewalk at the Edgar Lynch residence, 278 E. 4th St., by the Ralph Scharrer contracting firm. Scharrer has the contract for citywide sidewalk repair. Lynch wrote the council that work would be done. For further information, they may call the city engineer's office, he said.

Ald. Henry Parks voiced a common complaint: That walks damaged by tree roots are simply replaced in many cases, leaving the possibility that the same thing will happen again. The park-recreation department should be instructed to remove such roots, he said, when they are boulevard trees owned by the city.

Ald. Daniel Bambenek noted that the department is buying a root-cutting machine. Ald.

Sewer Cost Rules Out Armory Site

A suggested armory site in Wincrest, near the Winona TV Signal Co. tower, would be impractical unless $20,000 in sewage facilities were installed, the City Council was told Monday night.

Under consideration was a tract in Skyline Manor, proposed by the property owner, Owl Realty Co., and offered free to the city. The area was inspected last month by officers of the 47th Division, Minnesota National Guard.

City Engineer James Baird said a lift station would be needed at that point to get sewage into city mains serving other parts of Wincrest. He said the $20,000 was a rough figure. An alternate site, farther west, nearer to existing facilities, also was low, said Baird. A lift station would be needed there also, he said, estimating cost at about $12,000.

Under standard terms laid down by the state armory building commission, the city must furnish a site, completely serviced by utilities, without cost to the state.

Council President Harold Briesath said the state would be notified that the sites are impractical because of expense and that further explorations would be made.

James Stoltman suggested that "we profit by these mistakes next time and have the park-recreation department work closely with contractors on these things."

Stoltman said Bellevue Street residents, east of Hamilton Street, suggested waiting until spring for new sidewalks in their area. They fear concrete poured late in the fall will not stand up, he said.

IF LATE-season work jeopardizes the quality, observed Council President Harold Briesath, the city engineer should decide whether remaining work should be held over until spring. Sidewalk reconstruction is still in progress, he noted, despite the fact that the contract's specified completion date is Sept. 15. No payments have yet been made on the $45,135 contract.

Briesath asked the city engineer, James Baird, to determine whether the city is empowered to order suspension of further work until spring.

Latin Quarter Beauty a Hit

By EARL WILSON
NEW YORK — It's an old story — but around B'way we still like it.

There's a tall, slim, beautiful, 21-year-old dancer named Nina Wayne at the Latin Quarter, who didn't attract great attention among those lusty beauties at first because she's a bit Audrey Hepburnish.

Then she was picked to do a dance in Van Johnson's act . . . and people began noticing that she looks like Jackie Kennedy.

We wrote about her just a week ago . . . Nina went on the Johnny Carson show a couple of nights later . . . Producer David Swift of Screen Gems, watching from Hollywood, gave her a contract to film a TV pilot, and she's given her notice at the Latin Quarter and will fly to LA in a few hours. It all happened in a week. She has the best wishes of the girls who are much busier.

Nina, a Chicagoan, formerly in the Icecapades, may have got her break because of her Johnny Carson interview. He asked her how she felt walking around on stage without clothes and she said:

"Naked."
It's certainly been drunk out. We saw a man putting coins in a parking meter—and he didn't even have a car. He may have thought he was in a phone booth or a men's powder room.

MICKEY HARGITAY — Jayne Mansfield's ex-muscle-man husband — must be the last of the gallants. Mickey told me in Lindy's (en route to Italy to do two movies) that in the divorce, "I gave Jayne everything, though under the California community property law we could have split it. I didn't have to give her everything, but I wanted to." One of Mickey's advisers urged him to take half, but Mickey insisted on giving her his all, financially. "I devoted eight years of my life to her and I enjoyed it," said Mickey. As I've been saying, Jayne must have something.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Noting all the English rock 'n' roll groups, Chuck Barnett asks, "What did we put in those Bundles for Britain in the '40s—guitars?"

WISH I'D SAID THAT: It's a good thing the election campaigns are over — the candidates were beginning to run out of promises.

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "It's a funny thing about life. If I refuse to accept nothing but the best, you very often get it." — Somerset Maugham.

EARL'S PEARLS: Some women suffer in silence a little louder than others—Arnold Glasow.

Chita Rivera's role in the musical "Bajour" is that of an exciting gypsy girl. "I'm just like the girl next door," she says. "— if you live next to an empty store." . . . That's earl, brother.

25 Governors Will Be Elected

WASHINGTON (AP) — Twenty-five governors will be elected today, with the races in Illinois, Michigan and Arkansas getting most of the national attention.

In Illinois, Republican Charles H. Percy, 45, is trying to turn back the second-term bid of Democratic Gov. Otto Kerner, 56.

Percy, a protégé of former president Dwight D. Eisenhower, has endorsed and supported GOP presidential candidate Barry Goldwater but has pointed to differences he has with the Arizonan.

National interest in Arkansas stems from the fact that a Republican, Winthrop Rockefeller, 52, is given an outside chance to turn aside the bid of Democratic Gov. Orval Faubus, 54, for a sixth two-year term.

Faubus, who won his first term in 1954, has been governor almost as long as Rockefeller, brother of New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, has lived in the state.

In Michigan, Gov. George Romney, 56, one of the new faces who scored Republican victories in 1962, is after a second term in the State House. Romney has not endorsed Goldwater.

Neil Staebler, 51, long a prominent figure in Democratic politics in the state, is Romney's opponent.

Of the 25 governorships at stake today, 18 are held by Democrats, 7 by Republicans.

Including holdovers, the national lineup now is 34 Democrats and 16 Republicans.

Tornado Over Southern Sicily

PALERMO, Sicily (AP) — A tornado swept over the southern coast of this Mediterranean island Saturday. First reports said eight persons were killed and 30 injured.

The twister struck in the area south of Ragusa, especially around the town of Santa Croce Camerina.

Reports reaching Palermo said about 100 rural homes were damaged or destroyed.

St. Mary's Lecturer To Discuss Extreme Groups Wednesday

Gordon Hall, lecturer and enemy of extremists, both of the political right and left, will lecture at St. Mary's College at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

He is an avowed enemy of George Lincoln Rockwell, leader of the American Nazi party, Robert Welch of the John Birch society and numerous right- and left-wing organizations, a number of which he has exposed with evidence he himself gathered and published.

Hall estimates there are 1,000 hate groups of ultra-rights and 150 on the far left. He was featured recently in a "Saturday Evening Post" story, "Battle Against Bigotry." His St. Mary's lecture, "An Analysis of Political Extremism in the U.S.," will be given in the lower gymnasium.

Horicon Hunt

Goose hunters in the Horicon marsh registered 13,010 geese in 11 days of hunting this fall or 2,000 more than the harvest quota established by the Fish and Wildlife Service. The overrun was a result of delay in transmission of the closing order. The 2,000 overrun was taken in the last two days, according to Dr. W. E. Green, refuge biologist, who supervised the Horicon public hunting grounds for the federal government.

There were 88,000 geese on the refuge when the season opened this fall, a week later than a year ago, according to Green. This is a marked increase of the number, on the opening day a year ago. Hunters are allotted state blinds under a lottery plan. A quota is set before the season opens and when it is attained the lid goes on, closing the hunting of geese in the area.

This closing date came rapidly this year, according to Green, due to the late opening of the Wisconsin season, the large number of birds present, and their heavy feeding on the grain fields provided for them in the area. The geese almost eat themselves out of grazing areas.

Among the successful hunters was Ralph G. Boalt, 722 Main St. (above) who spent a week hunting there in his brother Ben's cottage, located near the preserve line. It was a marvelous sight to see the great flock of big honkers, he said. He had no trouble selecting his limit of 100 geese each day. The area is intensively hunted. In the picture with Ralph is St. Mary's Golden Retriever, and three big honker heads.

Iowa Pheasants
In the past couple of years, more Southeastern Minnesota small game hunters have been going to Iowa instead of South Dakota. Here is the Iowa's publicity man's dope on the season:

Hunting prospects are excellent for Saturday's opening of the pheasant and Hungarian partridge seasons, according to the State Conservation Commission.

August roadside pheasant counts indicate this year's population is nearly equal to last year's bumper crop of ring-necks. The counts showed a substantial increase in birds in north central Iowa and a marked population decline in the northwestern and southeastern portions of the state.

The pheasant season is open statewide except for an area in southeast Iowa. The closed area is south of State Highway 92 from Muscatine to Knoxville and east of State Highway 60 from Knoxville to the Missouri line. Shooting is allowed from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily. There is a daily bag limit of three cock birds and a possession limit of nine cock birds. Iowa's pheasant season closes Jan. 3.

Hungarian partridge counts made in northwest Iowa during the August pheasant counts showed hun populations are down slightly from last year. Indications are, however, that the population is one of the highest in the last 10 years.

Partridge hunting is allowed in an area west of U.S. Highway 65 from the Minnesota line to Iowa Falls and north of U.S. Highway 20 from Iowa Falls to Sioux City. The remainder of the state is closed. Shooting hours and the season closing date are concurrent with the pheasant regulations. The daily bag limit is two hun with a possession limit of four.

GOP Denies Plot to Split Negro Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Republican National Committee has disclaimed any knowledge of a campaign to write in Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. for president.

The Negro integration leader repudiated the drive Monday, telling a news conference in Atlanta. "I am willing to risk a guess that it was supporters of Sen. Goldwater who contrived this venomous act."

"This is a cruel and vicious attempt to confuse Negro voters and nullify their votes," said King. "I am not a candidate. Please do not write in my name."

In Washington, a spokesman for the Republican National Committee said: "We know nothing about it. The Republican National Committee has no knowledge of this."

What drew the GOP disclaimer and the King repudiation were leaflets, first reported on the West Coast Sunday night by Democratic party officials, telling "all Negro voters":

"We can vote for Dr. King for president. A write-in vote for Dr. King shows that Negroes are united. It will prove that Negroes will vote for the greatest Negro in America for president."

The leaflets bore the name of the Committee for Negroes in government of Louisville, Ky.

In Washington, John M. Bailey, the Democratic national chairman, said the leaflets represented a "desperate last-minute effort by Goldwater supporters to get Negroes to waste their votes."

In Trenton, N.J., Atty. Gen. Arthur J. Sills, a Democrat, said he was investigating a printer's statement that an official of the Republican National Committee had ordered 1.4 million copies of the leaflet. But Lee Edwards, assistant press secretary of the Republican committee, said: "We certainly have no knowledge of it. We didn't order the leaflets."

Hubert Home To Vote and Get Some Rest

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey came home today, never revealing by word or deed the slightest doubt he will be the next vice president of the United States.

The Minnesota Democratic senator's two-month campaign trickled to an end in a drab television studio in Utah Monday night.

For a brief moment, Humphrey let show the fatigue that has rarely shown in his ebullient public appearances.

He slumped in a metal folding chair, legs crossed, chin on his chest, gazing tiredly at twin television screens from which President Johnson was making his final appeal of the 1964 campaign. He seemed pleased as he stared at himself delivering a filmed introduction of the President.

Then Humphrey summoned up a final burst of campaign enthusiasm and gave Sen. Frank Moss, D-Utah, a helping hand with a half-hour television tape. He talked enthusiastically and knowledgeably of Utah's water problems, deplored the kind of campaign it has been, and called it a night.

For the last time in a campaign that took him through 41 states, Humphrey marched to a limousine and to the Salt Lake City airport for a flight home to Minneapolis.

Humphrey, who has professed utter confidence in a Democratic landslide that would overshadow Franklin D. Roosevelt's 1936 triumph, was accompanied by his wife, Muriel.

Minnesota Gov. Karl Rolvaag led a reception by a crowd that had stood more than two hours at the Minneapolis airport.

Humphrey goes today to Marysville Township, outside of his home town of Waverly, to cast his ballot in an unheated wooden town hall. He will be in a Minneapolis hotel tonight to await the returns.

Stockton Council Explains Dropping Annual Meetings

STOCKTON, Minn. (Special) — A group of Stockton residents met with the village council Monday evening to question the council's decision to discontinue annual village meetings.

Mayor George Hinton explained that law no longer requires annual village meetings. The annual budget and other annual items of business, previously considered at the village meeting in December, now will be handled at the January council meeting. New officers will be installed then. All persons are welcome at any and all of the village meetings, said the mayor, and their suggestions and recommendations will be considered by the council.

A motion was made to renew the lease with C. P. Daniel for a supervised dumping area at the cost of $124 a year. Refuse may be dumped the second Saturday of the month from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. No garbage may be dumped. There is a small fee for refuse to be dumped any other time.

The election board for the Dec. 8 village election is: Otto Fritz, chairman, and Mmes. Arthur Ziebell and Hilary Jozwick, judges.

While at the two-day session he discussed the high school Red Cross program with James B. Jackson, right, director of the Red Cross educational relations for the 16-state Midwestern Red Cross area. Charles is one of 16 Midwest youth leaders named to the council.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Nixon, 463 Center St., Charles is a senior at Cotter High School. Associated with Red Cross three years, Charles has been active in recruiting blood donors and providing entertainment for parties for retarded children. He is a member of the school band and co-editor of the school newspaper and last year was named the outstanding debater of Cotter. For the past two summers he has been a counselor in a day camp for handicapped children. In September of this year Charles received a National Merit Scholarship letter of commendation.

DURAND, Wis. — Durand High School debaters compiled a 4-2 record at the Seaway Classic debate tournament sponsored by Superior State University Saturday.

Next Saturday the squad splits up, with beginning debaters going to River Falls for a practice tourney and two experienced teams entering the Stillwater, Minn., invitational.

At Superior the affirmative team of Barbara Morey and Kenneth Smith won 2-1, defeating Tony and Menomonee and losing to the undefeated Duluth Denfeld team.

The negative team, Jackie Buckholtz and John Hess, won 2-1, defeating Merrill and Grand Rapids and losing to Rhinelander.

In individual performance, Barbara scored 43 points; Ken, 40; John, 38, and Jackie, 37.

The hospital and the Wisconsin cancer and heart societies will benefit from the money. Each has been left about $25,000. Five grandnephews and a grandniece will inherit his 320-acre farm.

Mr. Morud, a bachelor, lived on the farm all his life. His sister was with him until she died in 1961. A hired man, Leonard Amundson, had worked there the last 32 years.

The farmer disliked leaving his farm, but was a frequent and generous contributor to his church and to other charities.

The estate is being administered by Ingval Syverson, 68, who has lived all his life thus far on a farm next to the Morud property. The farm cannot be sold or mortgaged until 1973, when the youngest of the six heirs becomes 21 years old.

Syverson is selling some of his old neighbor's personal property and is trying to find out if Mr. Morud had more money in other banks.

Directors Plan Tours of New High Schools

The process of selection by the Board of Education of an architect for the proposed new Winona Senior High School building is expected to move soon from the "listening" into the "looking" stage.

Board members Monday night heard a presentation from the seventh architectural firm interested in being retained for the multi-million dollar project, Ellerbe, Inc., St. Paul.

School Board

AFTER A two-hour meeting with Ellerbe representatives Raymond Olson and Donald Wright, directors scanned the list of inquiries received from architects and decided to arrange for meetings during the next week with members of two or three additional firms.

Then, they agreed, some visits should be made to schools that have been built in recent years.

Tentative agreement was reached on a plan for tours of selected schools of relatively recent construction and of approximately the same size as that contemplated for Winona.

THE BOARD decided that it might be a good idea to make trips to the Twin Cities and Chicago areas where the greatest number of schools might be visited in the shortest time.

This would be preliminary to the final selection of a firm which would begin preparing preliminary drawings of a new school building.

These will be necessary in obtaining data for the determination of the amount of the bond issue for financing school construction. The request for authorization for a bond issue is to be made at the next session of the state Legislature which opens in January.

IN ADDITION TO discussing projects for which Ellerbe has been retained, Olson and Wright Monday night also showed detailed drawings for a new St. Paul vocational-technical school now in its early stages.

The Winona board also is looking ahead to the construction of an area vocational-technical school recommended for the city in findings of a University of Minnesota survey team earlier this year.

Historically Significant Turns in Few Hours

THE WORLD made some of its most historically significant turns of the decade in a space of relatively few hours.

At the time the British were counting the votes which changed control of their government for the first time in 13 years, the world was taken by surprise by the ouster of Nikita Khrushchev after 11 years of ruling Communist Russia.

At a time the Americans were winding up a long political campaign to determine the next President of the United States, Communist China exploded its first atomic bomb.

Within hours, two of the leading powers of the world changed governments. And in a period of a year, Germany, India and the United States, in addition to Britain and Russia, have new leaders. There have been others and will be more.

The world enters a new era, waiting only for the result of today's American election.

And packed in the middle of these great events was the disclosure that a White House aide of President Johnson had been arrested on morals charges in 1959 and Oct. 7. The effect of all these events on the presidential election won't be known until the votes are counted and analyzed.

THE WORLD is now busy attempting to analyze the overturn of the Khrushchev regime, including the Red Chinese. And presidents, prime ministers, premiers, as well as all the people, are looking at the Red China bomb and Britain and everything, trying to figure it out.

The new Russian leaders have pledged to work for peace and indicated they will continue Khrushchev's ways including the splitting of Vietnam to China. But time will tell the significance of these events, not what new leaders say immediately after a takeover. A new era of history starts with the election of an American president.

It is a proper time to contrast the ways of government in the Free World and the other side of the Iron Curtain.

In the British and American elections, the political opponents state their criticisms openly and as loud as possible during the pre-election time. And then the electorate is encouraged to have their say at the polls.

BUT IN RUSSIA, and who knows in how many other Communist lands, the criticisms are held secret until a very few number of rebel strongmen make decisions for the entire nation. Then they verbally tear apart Khrushchev, but only then. After they get rid of him, they accuse him of "hair-brained scheming, immature conclusions and hasty decisions and actions, divorced from reality, bragging and phrasemongering, commandism, and unwillingness to take into account the achievements of science and practical experience."

The accusations are not too unlike what was heard in Britain or in America now. The U.S. campaign has had too much smearing and name-calling, but at least the people go to the polls and make a free choice for America.

China's Bomb, Planes Threat to Asia

OFFICIAL WASHINGTON seems not to have been much disturbed about Red China's atomic explosion. Both Secretary of State Rusk and Secretary of Defense McNamara have made a point of noting that there must be a substantial gap — in any case a gap of a good many years — between such an explosion and the development of a nuclear arsenal and the means of delivering the bombs.

There is wisdom in not getting unduly steamed up about China as a military threat because of the blast in Sinkiang province. It may be, however, that McNamara somewhat understated the case when he declared that many years would pass before the Chinese were able "to inflict nuclear damage on this country or our allies." To take that at face value might induce unwarranted complacency.

If we think in terms of the Western allies, McNamara is doubtless precisely correct; Communist China will not be able, for a long time, to mount any effective threat against Europe or America. The Chinese menace seems much greater, however, if one considers relatively nearby potential targets among the free nations of Asia.

PEKING HAS A small air force, including some bombers with a combat radius of from several hundred to a thousand miles or more. Peking will build up a small arsenal of bombs during the next two or three years. The combination is a threat, so far as Asian nations are concerned, not to be regarded lightly.

TODAY IN NATIONAL AFFAIRS

GOP Winding Up in Black

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — A revolution in the methods of financing a presidential campaign has just been achieved by the Republican national finance committee. A formal report to be filed in Congress by the committee 12 days after the election will show a balanced budget and, in fact, a considerable surplus. This is the first time in many years that either party will present such a record to Congress.

The Republicans have spent approximately 70 percent more money than in any previous presidential campaign — a total this time of around $12,500,000 — but, amazingly enough, this has been accomplished without as much support from persons in business and finance and the wealthier people of the country as in previous years.

In fact, gifts above $100 were few in number and amounted to much less in total than in the 1960 or 1956 campaigns. But the surprising development is that, while total national contributors of record in the Republican party in 1960 numbered about 37,000, the contributors this year increased to the unprecedented total of 800,000. And even these figures do not include women contributors giving $1 each.

THE SIGNIFICANCE of this is not wholly on the side of finance because most of the contributors are young in years and, as one Republican leader says, while frequently the voter who gives $1,000 feels he has done his whole duty, the giver of a smaller sum — ranging from $1 to $25 — is likely to give his time and energies to working among other voters.

Much of the money was raised by direct-mail solicitation, which resulted in hundreds of thousands of contributions at an average of approximately $11 each. The official figures to be submitted also will show that the money came mostly from new or previously non-contributing voters.

The Republicans had an abnormal situation to face, since in some of the states with large populations the money that would normally go to national headquarters from state organizations did not materialize. But this difference was made up by an increase in receipts from the smaller contributors who supplied more than 75 percent of all the money received by the Republican national finance committee this year.

MOST OF THE money was collected after the campaign began, and the Republicans had a deficit of approximately $600,000 on Aug. 1. They have no deficit now. The Republican leaders themselves say that they were helped by various campaign issues and a feeling that the Democratic party had advantages due to the power and influence of the incumbent administration. When the major television and radio networks refused recently to give "equal time" to the Republican nominee, the Republicans could get the Goldwater view transmitted only by buying time. This meant an appeal for funds. The public response in contributions to the Republican committee was overwhelming.

'THEY'RE NOT EVEN MAD AT EACH OTHER!'

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Goldwater Dodged Press In Winding Up Campaign

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—This 1964 election campaign will set at least one interesting record. It is rumbling to a close without one press conference being held by the Republican candidate for president.

Up until San Francisco, Barry Goldwater was the most accessible man in Washington. When newsmen came around he was as affable and accessible as a collie pup. He strewn remarks right and left to newsmen along the corridors of Congress.

But for the past two months he has shut up tighter than a cherrystone clam off the Long Island coast. Barry hasn't held a press conference since Aug. 26.

Other presidential candidates in the past have always met the press, with the exception of Eisenhower, who was decidedly press shy until finally Jim Hagerly took him in hand. Then he became one of the best actors on the presidential stage. But the others, ranging from Nixon, Kennedy, Tom Dewey, and Adlai Stevenson, to Harry S. Truman and LBJ, all held press conferences.

During the Goldwater campaign newsmen have asked for conferences, have also sent questions to him for answers. They've received no response. The Republican candidate remains as silent as the Sphinx.

Reason is the advice of Stephen Shadegg, one of Barry's first ghost writers, who, in his book "How to Win an Election," warns: "If your candidate has a tendency to pop off, to give an opinion which is based on real understanding, the wise manager will minimize the opportunity for such interviews."

AMONG THE questions newsmen have been wanting Goldwater to answer were such embarrassing ones as whether he still believes, as he has said in the past, that "war can't be avoided five, ten years from now" and whether he still believes "that word brinkmanship is a great word."

Traveling around the United States during the current election campaign, one of the most frequent questions I was asked was whether the State Department was loaded with security risks. Obviously, right-wing propaganda aimed at the State Department had sunk home. It so happens that I covered the State Department as a young newsman when I first came to Washington, and I have kept in fairly close touch with its officials ever since, having watched them work in many parts of the world.

I have frequently criticized the State Department for bad judgment but I have never found its members to be disloyal to their country.

Partly because it's difficult for diplomats to defend themselves, they are considered fair game for every right-wing senator who wants to make headlines. The late Sen. Joe McCarthy, for instance, made the wild charge that there were 207 "Card-carrying communists" in the State Department. Subsequent investigation showed there were none.

MOST RECENT charge against the State Department is that 150 security risks have been secreted inside its walls and are being protected by the career men. Personally, I don't believe it.

Most important rebuttal of this charge, however, is the very thorough survey made by the American Legion of all the Staff Department's operations. At the investigation of Secretary of State Dean Rusk, the Legion appointed former National Commander J. Preston Moore of Oklahoma City, together with John Edward Davis, former governor of North Dakota, to head a committee of five to scrutinize the State Department. They found that it had some faults, and criticized the fact that the department's building does not have the same system of guards hanging around the walls and corridors as does the Central Intelligence Agency.

But, on the main point of loyalty the Legion found:

"The department is made up by and large of capable and dedicated public servants in whom the nation can place much confidence. The personal attitude of these department leaders toward communism is tough and realistic."

WITH THIS conclusion, I, who happen to be a member of the Legion, heartily concur.

As the election campaign rolled toward a close last week, the Democrats, who started with what they considered a healthy treasury, found themselves with hats in hand trying to collect $60,000 to pay for LBJ's Saturday night telecast. They had to raise it by Friday night.

WASHINGTON CALLING

Incumbent Has Big Advantage

By MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON — Right down to the wire the advantages of a President in the White House, as against his challenger, have been evident. Above all in the shape of things to come — the form and the face of a new administration — this is obvious.

President Johnson gives a promise of continuity. Both in public and private he praises his Cabinet and especially Dean Rusk at State and Robert S. McNamara in Defense. The strong indication is that the team will stay on intact even though there is a certain restiveness among players who would like other positions.

One of Sen. Barry Goldwater's chief problems has been to present a credible picture of a Goldwater administration. This is, in part, because of his break with so much of the Republican past. Many of the leading figures in the last Republican administration under President Eisenhower are either supporting the Johnson-Humphrey ticket or they are sitting out the campaign in silence.

But a worse handicap, in the view of most observers, is Goldwater's failure to discuss specific issues in specific terms. This has been the private complaint of G.O.P. candidates around the country. Without a clearer picture of where he stands, so the complaint runs, it is impossible to visualize how and with what helpers he would conduct the office of the Presidency. The image of a leader prepared to assume the highest office in the land with a corps of responsible men around him is missing.

GOLDWATER says he is considering naming Richard M. Nixon as his Secretary of State. This seems to have come as a surprise to Nixon who is devoting a month to campaigning intensively around the country for the candidate. He indicated he would prefer to remain in his New York law practice.

At the Hershey, Pa., session shortly after the San Francisco convention, where the theme was harmony in one big happy Republican family, Goldwater said he would submit his proposed choices for Cabinet and other high offices to Eisenhower and Nixon. But that pledge has been lost sight of as has the harmony the Hershey meeting was meant to promote.

Of the whole Goldwater range of accusation the charge that hits the President hardest is the wheeler-dealer who begins and ends with politics. One way he has set out to refute this is by developing a relationship of mutual trust with the distinguished Cabinet that President Kennedy put together. That Cabinet with two exceptions — Justice and the Postmaster General — has remained intact under President Johnson.

ANOTHER WAY he has deliberately sought to answer the charge is by the appointments he has made in his 11 months as President. Some are frankly political — paying back old debts and winning new allies. That is true in every administration with the offices, a comparatively small number to-day, that fall outside civil service.

But he has made outstanding appointments and especially of women. One was Dr. Mary Bunting, president of Radcliffe College, to be the first woman member of the Atomic Energy Commission. Another was Mrs. Elizabeth S. May, with a long background in economics in the academic world and as a consultant, to be a member of the board of directors of the Export-Import Bank. These were imaginative selections opening up new ground.

In naming former Gov. LeRoy Collins of Florida to be director of community relations under the new Civil Rights Act the President won wide praise. Collins, who was head of the National Association of Broadcasters after he left the governorship, has a dedicated sense of public duty and a way with people that ideally fits him for a difficult post. Edward J. Brenner, former head of patent law for Standard Oil of New Jersey, a lawyer and a chemical engineer, was named Commissioner of Patents. THESE ARE the kind of

Letters to The Editor

Post Office Employee Complimented for Honesty To the Editor:

In these days when the papers are full of various crimes, it's nice to hear of an honest act. Most generally, these acts are not given enough publicity.

For instance, last Wednesday at your local post office occurred one of these incidents.

A Winona businessman came into the post office to buy some stamps. As he pulled some money from his billfold, he accidentally dropped a $100 bill.

About a minute later, a post office maintenance man found the $100 and returned it to the owner. You can imagine how surprised he was to be told he had lost this, and to have it returned so promptly.

Later, after returning to his downtown store, the businessman called the postmaster and thanked him for having such honest employees.

It takes an incident like this to show that honesty is not a lost word, and that the golden rule still applies.

Mrs. E. A. Bean, Rt. 18, La Crosse, Wis.

public servants, willing to work endlessly hard and sacrifice higher pay in private business, who must be attracted to government if an administration is to be more than mediocre. If he is elected that will be one of Johnson's main concerns — to hold able people and bring others into important posts where talent will tell. In the event of a landslide he will have few political debts to repay with jobs.

The President has an enormous advantage. The voice on the telephone that says, "This is the President, I want you to . . ." is hard to resist. An administration already in being is some assurance of what the future will be like. As governments around the world change with kaleidoscopic swiftness the voter may more than ever want this reassurance.

Extension Cord Key to Cape Kennedy Tests

By HAROLD R. WILLIAMS

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Included in the new $150-million Air Force Titan 3 complex at Cape Kennedy is a long, electrical extension cord with a big plug at one end.

Somebody has to plug the cord into a huge socket before a mighty Titan 3 rocket can blast off from its pad.

Li. Don M. Spradlin, Air Force launching pad construction officer, grins about this extension cord rocketry.

"I get a big kick out of it. Seems incredible that an old-fashioned extension-cord would play such a role in the space business," he said.

The cord and plug aren't the ordinary household types found around most housewives' ironing boards. They are a monstrous cable and a huge drum powered by a winch.

The Air Force said the cord saves a big chunk of money in wiring costs.

The new rocket launching complex is nearly finished and a Titan 3 rocket is scheduled for firing next spring.

Tall buildings and 250-foot high service towers sit unobtrusively on islands built of shell and sand pumped up from the Banana River.

Building the complex in the middle of the Banana River wasn't the only startling move made by the Air Force.

The concept of putting a rocket together for space flights in buildings instead of on the pad is another.

Putting the control center on the third floor of the 23-story Vertical Integration Building—VIB—instead of a traditional blockhouse is another.

The Air Force calls its new program Integrate Transfer Launch—ITL. The theory looks so good the National Aeronautics and Space Administration is patterning its Merritt Island Apollo facilities after the Titan 3 complex.

Air Force Brig. Gen. Joseph S. Bleymsier, deputy commander for manned systems, explains the new spaceship philosophy:

"If we continue to tie up launching facilities for weeks at a time for each payload, it will not be long before present facilities are saturated and more must be constructed."

"Since there are few areas in this country which fulfill the requirements for launch sites, there is a limit to the number of launch complexes that can be built."

The Air Force would bring a Titan 3 rocket into the VIB and install all the instruments, payload and equipment needed for a flight. The rocket would be mounted on a mobile launcher and taken to the firing pad seven miles away.

Four Titan 3 rockets can be assembled at once in the gigantic VIB.

Two launching pads are being constructed, each independent of the other.

Three launch control centers are located on the third floor of the VIB, with platforms for spectators to watch the firing three miles away.

Gone is the familiar equipment associated with a launching. No more periscopes, or rows of television sets. The control room is so bare of equipment that it seems austere.

Most of the monitoring instruments are in four rooms away from the control center.

The Titan 3C is the booster the Air Force plans to use to orbit its manned orbiting laboratory.

There are more than 8,000 automobile wrecking companies in the United States. During 1962, nearly 4,700,000 vehicles were scrapped in this country.

Plane Ditched, 2 Pilots Safe

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — A U.S. cargo plane from the Philippines with two pilots aboard developed engine trouble Sunday and the pilots ditched it in the Formosa Strait about 15 miles south of the Pescadore Islands.

The U.S. Taiwan Defense Command said Chinese Nationalist and U.S. search planes located the pilots and a ship picked them up unhurt less than three hours after they ditched.

Banker Free Under Bond in $1.5 Million Theft

VALENTINE, Neb. (AP) — Banker Richard Davenport, free under $50,000 bond, was going back to his office today to help auditors untangle records of the State Bank of Valentine. County Atty. Richard Splittler said the figuring was expected to turn up manipulations involving as much as $4 million.

Splittler, who filed an embezzlement charge against the 45-year-old bank president, said actual loss was not expected to exceed $1.5 million.

The bank is the largest of two in the Cherry County community of about 3,000 population, hub of Nebraska's most expansive ranching and cattle feeding area.

The bank was taken over by the state Thursday. The next day a state charge of embezzlement was lodged against Davenport, one of Valentine's most respected citizens.

Two federal counts of making false entries were filed against Davenport in U.S. District Court in Omaha.

Splittler quoted Davenport as saying he manipulated the books by increasing the amount of loans applied for by borrowers.

The county attorney said Davenport told him a borrower would sign a note, leaving the amount to be filled in. Davenport would make the amount larger than it actually was, Splittler said.

Passenger Shot Pilots, Wrecked Plane, CAB Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — A passenger deeply in debt and insured for $105,000 pumped bullets into the two pilots of an airliner during a flight last May, the Civil Aeronautics Board said Monday. The plane crashed into a low California hill, killing 44 persons.

As the Pacific Air Lines plane was going down, a high-pitched voice cried into its radio system: "Skippers shot! We're been shot! I was try 'in ta help'" (sic).

The somewhat garbled message, recorded on tape and made public earlier, was the last word from the plane before it crashed and exploded.

In reporting today on its investigation of the tragedy, the CAB said that its crash experts, working with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, had concluded that the probable cause of the May 7 crash was "the shooting of the captain and the first officer by a passenger," Francisco Gonzales, 27.

Gonzalez was a native of the Philippines who was working for a San Francisco department store. Along with his 40 fellow passengers and three crew members, he died in the crash near San Ramon — only 21 miles from the Oakland Airport. The plane was bound from Reno, Nev., to San Francisco.

Reds Allow Older Persons To Visit West

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — The Communists for the first time let large numbers of East Germans visit the West Monday for tearful reunions with relatives. The visitors are old persons who no longer work.

The first group of pensioners arrived by train in central Germany from Leipzig shortly after midnight. During the next year as many as 3.2 million of them are expected to enter West Germany in the largest East-West crossing since the Iron Curtain came down at the end of World War II.

East German Communist leader Walter Ulbricht approved "Operation Oldster" last August in an apparent bid to improve relations with the Lutheran Church, which reportedly suggested the visits. The East German press hailed the arrangement as proof of the Communist regime's "humanitarian attitude."

The pensioners, men over 65 and women over 60, had permission to remain in the West a month. The Red regime did not appear concerned over the possibility of defections, presumably because the old people are no longer a factor in East German production.

Previously, elderly East Germans were permitted to leave only if they renounced their pension payments. Now if they defect they can get West German pensions. West German officials said all who wanted it would be given asylum, but no official effort would be made to get any to defect.

Terrorism in Mississippi as Negroes 'Vote'

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Negro leaders said the total vote was limited by "terrorism" but that President Johnson won a big victory in their mock election in Mississippi.

The Freedom Democratic party said about 57,000 ballots were cast in the 59 counties included in the four-day effort — 25,000 less than the total reported in a previous mock election.

The landslide victory was expected for President Johnson and other candidates backed by the FDP, which has no legal standing in Mississippi.

The reverse was predicted for today's real election.

Republicans, backed by conservative "Democrats for Goldwater" figured the state would vote GOP for the first time in its history and give Barry Goldwater a big majority.

A big factor in Goldwater's Mississippi appeal was his vote against the Civil Rights Act.

An FDP spokesman said Goldwater and others on the mock election ballot with him "drew only a handful of votes" among unregistered Negroes, who cannot vote in the real election.

FDP headquarters here was swamped with poll reports, officials said, and the exact count was not expected for some time. In addition to protesting the number of Negroes who cannot vote, the mock election also aimed at laying the basis for a challenge to the Democratic party credentials of the state's congressional delegation.

Big Vote Expected In Minnesota

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Chairmen of both major parties professed optimism today as Minnesotans trooped to the polls to help elect a president and to choose a United States senator, eight congressmen and other officials.

An expectation of widely scattered showers was not considered likely to affect the vote turnout very much. Officials estimated about 1,600,000 of the state's two million eligible voters would cast ballots.

That would be a record. The highest turnout in history was 1,577,509, in 1960.

This time Minnesota had one of its citizens on a national ticket, for the first time ever. Sen. Hubert Humphrey was the Democratic candidate for vice president.

Both President Lyndon Johnson and Humphrey campaigned in Minnesota, as did the GOP's standard bearers, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona and Rep. William Miller of New York.

George Farris, Minnesota Democratic Farmer-Labor chairman, predicted Johnson and Humphrey will win Minnesota's 10 electoral votes by a large margin.

"We think the kind of campaign Goldwater conducted will be reflected in the vote," said Farris.

Likewise optimistic was Robert Forsythe, Minnesota Republican chairman. Forsythe said he felt Goldwater had been "closing the gap."

The GOP head forecast victory for Republican Congressman Albert Quie, Anchor Nelsen, Odin Langen and Clark MacGregor and for two GOP congressional aspirants, Robert Odegard in the 6th District and John Johnson in the 5th.

Forsythe said he was confident conservatives will maintain control of the legislature and that P.K. Peterson will be elected railroad and warehouse commissioner over the DFL incumbent, Ronald Anderson.

Noting the strenuous campaign conducted by Wayzata Mayor Wheelock Whitney for the Senate, Forsythe said he felt the GOP candidate would be rewarded by victory over Democrat Eugene McCarthy. McCarthy seeks his second six-year term in the Senate.

Also at stake were a Supreme Court post and two constitutional amendments. While 135 state House of Representative seats are to be filled, only four state Senate jobs are on ballots. The Senate races result from vacancies caused by three deaths and a resignation; three are in the Duluth area and one is in the St. Cloud area.

The state ballot is short because the offices of governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, secretary of state, treasurer and auditor are not at stake. These officials serve four-year terms and are in mid-term now.

Much state interest has focused on Amendment No. 1, backed by party organizations and leaders of both parties. The amendment, if passed, would provide a 25-year constitutional clause requiring the Legislature to keep tax rates on manufacturing business.

Amendment No. 2 would remove eight obsolete sections from the state Constitution. While there has been some opposition to the taxonite amendment, Amendment 2 has drawn none.

For passage, amendments must receive a majority of all votes cast in the election, not merely a plurality of "yes" votes on the amendment issue itself.

Polls generally opened at 7 this morning and all must close at 8 p.m. Towns with less than 1,000 inhabitants were permitted to open polls up to two hours later than others if resolutions changing the starting time were passed 30 days before the election.

Elections Seen as Person Contests

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — British humorist Malcolm Muggeridge says elections in the United States and Britain have evolved into personality contests between identical candidates.

Muggeridge, former editor of Punch, told a news conference Monday there is a lack of issues because of mass communications.

Rev. Edstrom, Graham Personnel Director, Dead

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham was to fly from his North Carolina home today for the funeral service here of the Rev. George L. Edstrom, personnel director of the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association.

The rites will be held Wednesday at the Minneapolis First Baptist Church. Dr. Graham and the church's pastor, the Rev. Curtis Akenson, will officiate.

Edstrom, 58, died in a hospital here Monday of an apparent heart attack. A former pastor of the First Baptist Church in Rochester, Minn., Edstrom joined the Graham group in 1953. He was assistant to George Wilson, executive vice president.

Miller Has 12-Mile Trip To Vote

LOCKPORT, N.Y. (AP) — After 60,000 miles of campaigning, Republican vice-presidential candidate Rep. William E. Miller will travel about 12 miles today to vote in nearby Olcott.

Although Miller is a native of Lockport his legal residence is in Olcott, where he maintains a home overlooking Lake Ontario. Miller concluded his 40-state election campaign at a welcome-home party Monday night at the Park Hotel.

He told about 600 Republicans that although his campaign travels covered 60,000 miles and took him to 135 cities, "I can still say to you, I still like Lockport, N.Y."

"If Lyndon Johnson has his way I'll be back here very shortly," he quipped.

He called his campaign "an experience I shall never forget."

Miller urged the election of GOP presidential candidate Barry Goldwater and several local Republican candidates who were present at the reception.

Miller, his wife, Stephanie, and two of his daughters, Mary Karen and Elizabeth, arrived at Greater Buffalo International Airport Monday evening. They were greeted enthusiastically by about 300 persons.

Wisconsin Has 100,000 at U Or in Colleges

MADISON (AP) — University and college enrollment in Wisconsin has passed the 100,000 mark, Prof. L. Joseph Lins, coordinator of institutional studies for the University of Wisconsin, said Monday.

Lins said that total enrollment at public and private institutions of higher education in the state for the fall semester was 110,946, an increase of 12,189 over 1963.

Enrollment at public schools was 81,720, an increase in one year of 10,417. Private school enrollment rose from 27,454 to 29,226.

The University of Wisconsin has an enrollment of 41,853 at its various branches and centers and the nine state universities have 30,572 students. Marquette University, the state's largest private school, has an enrollment of 10,868.

Four Youths Attacked While Awaiting LJB

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Four Sam Houston High School students told police Monday night they were shoved to the ground and three of them said they were burned with an acid-like solution as they awaited the arrival of President Johnson at their school.

Five men were arrested following the attack and two more men were taken to the police station for questioning. All were being held in custody on suspicion of aggravated assault.

The boys said the liquid, sprayed on them from a plastic squeeze bottle, did not actually burn their skin, but caused a burning sensation.

Three such containers — much like plastic ketchup or mustard bottles — were taken from the men when they were arrested, police said.

City chemist Floyd McDonald analyzed a container of the liquid taken from one of the men and determined the fluid to be oil of mustard. He said such a liquid could be painful but not harmful.

U.S. People Do More Than Elect President Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — The people do more than elect a president today — they elect a Congress that can make or break his legislative program.

And, while electing a Congress, they put the political spotlight on men who may figure dramatically and powerfully in presidential elections to come.

Robert F. Kennedy, should he defeat incumbent Kenneth B. Keating for a New York Senate seat, might become a force on which all Democrats would have to reckon in future national conventions.

In the Republican party, Robert Taft Jr. might reach the same heights of influence and power should he defeat incumbent Stephen A. Young for an Ohio Senate seat.

All mathematical odds foreshadow a Democratic-controlled Congress after today's vote. That, of course, would mean legislative trouble for Republican Barry Goldwater if he were elected president — as it would for any president if Congress were controlled by the opposition party.

But a Democratic Congress would not necessarily mean all roses for a triumphant President Johnson. Democratic Congresses, in recent years, have refused to accept more than a part of the program tendered by Democratic presidents.

Both sides predict modest gains in the election of 35 of the Senate's 100 seats. Barring a violent upheaval by the electorate, the Senate should maintain much the same character it had in the last Congress. The breakdown then was 66 Democrats and 34 Republicans.

At adjournment, the lineup of the House was 257 Democrats, 178 Republicans, including five vacancies. With all 435 seats at stake this year, both sides are predicting gains of at least 15 seats.

West Allis Man Killed by Friend While Hunting

JEFFERSON, Wis. (AP) — Richard Strykowski of West Allis was killed Monday when struck in the head at point blank range by pellets from a 12-gauge shotgun held by a hunting companion.

Jefferson County Coroner Edward Reichardt ruled the death was accidental.

Authorities said Kenneth Luedtke, 24, of Milwaukee, had fired one blast at a flock of ducks from a blind, whirled around and fired again, hitting Strykowski.

The two had been hunting on the Mill Pond Marsh between Rome and Sullivan.

Martin, 80 Today, Expects 21st Term

NORTH ATTLEBORO, Mass. (AP) — Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr. expects to celebrate two events today — his 80th birthday and election to his 21st consecutive term in the U.S. House of Representatives.

Martin, once speaker of the House and five times the chairman of Republican national conventions, was confident of retaining his seat. He's beaten his Democratic opponent, Edward F. Doolan, in seven other elections.

School Boards Ask Restoration Of Aid Slash

DULUTH, Minn. (AP) — Directors of the Minnesota School Boards Association have urged immediate elimination of the 4.5 per cent cut in state aid ordered by Gov. Karl Rolvaag.

The request was made at a meeting of the group here Monday.

Rolvaag ordered the cutback because, he said, state funds are inadequate to meet full payments to school districts.

In other action, the association's board approved resolutions:

Calling for a $10 million increase in state aids to education;

Urging establishment of a 46 per cent ratio between the legislature's appropriations for public school districts and the total expenditures of the districts (presently the ratio is 44.5 per cent);

Calling for the legislature to include non-homestead valuations in the state mill levy supporting the employers' share of the payment to the state teachers' retirement fund; And urging the legislature to enact measures of taxation which would bolster the state's general fund.

South Korea To Insist on Unification

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — President Chung Hee Park said today South Korea will "accept nothing but the United Nations-proposed formula" for unification with Communist-governed North Korea.

A U.N. resolution calls for free elections in both parts of the country.

Unification has become a hot political issue in connection with recent world events, including Red China's detonation of a nuclear device.

North Korea's Communists have demanded an immediate meeting with South Korean officials to discuss the means for reuniting the country.

Man, 84, Voting For the First Time

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — Joseph F. Davis, 84, expects to vote today for the first time in any election.

Until two years ago Davis lived in Washington, D.C., where residents received the right to vote in 1961. There are no municipal or congressional elections because the city is run by Congress.

Davis, a retired printing pressman, lives with his daughter and son-in-law.

Social Center Worker Slain In Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE (AP) — A young man working at a North Side social center was shot fatally Monday night by one of three men who attacked him, police said.

Milton Pate, 20, of Milwaukee died Tuesday morning in a hospital following the attack Monday night at the Lapham Park social center.

Police said two men arrested when they tried to buy bus tickets for Chicago have admitted assaulting Pate. A third man was being sought.

Police quoted the two men in custody as saying they were seeking "revenge" for a beating one of them received Saturday night at the social center. Police said one of them carried a gun and the other a iron pipe.

Witnesses told police the attackers chased Pate into the first floor of the center about 7:20 p.m. The three attempted to beat Pate with the pipe, he called for help and then was shot, police said. The assailants fled.

Teacher and Parent Conferences Slated At Durand Nov. 11

DURAND, Wis.—Classes will not be held in either Durand public elementary or high school Nov. 11.

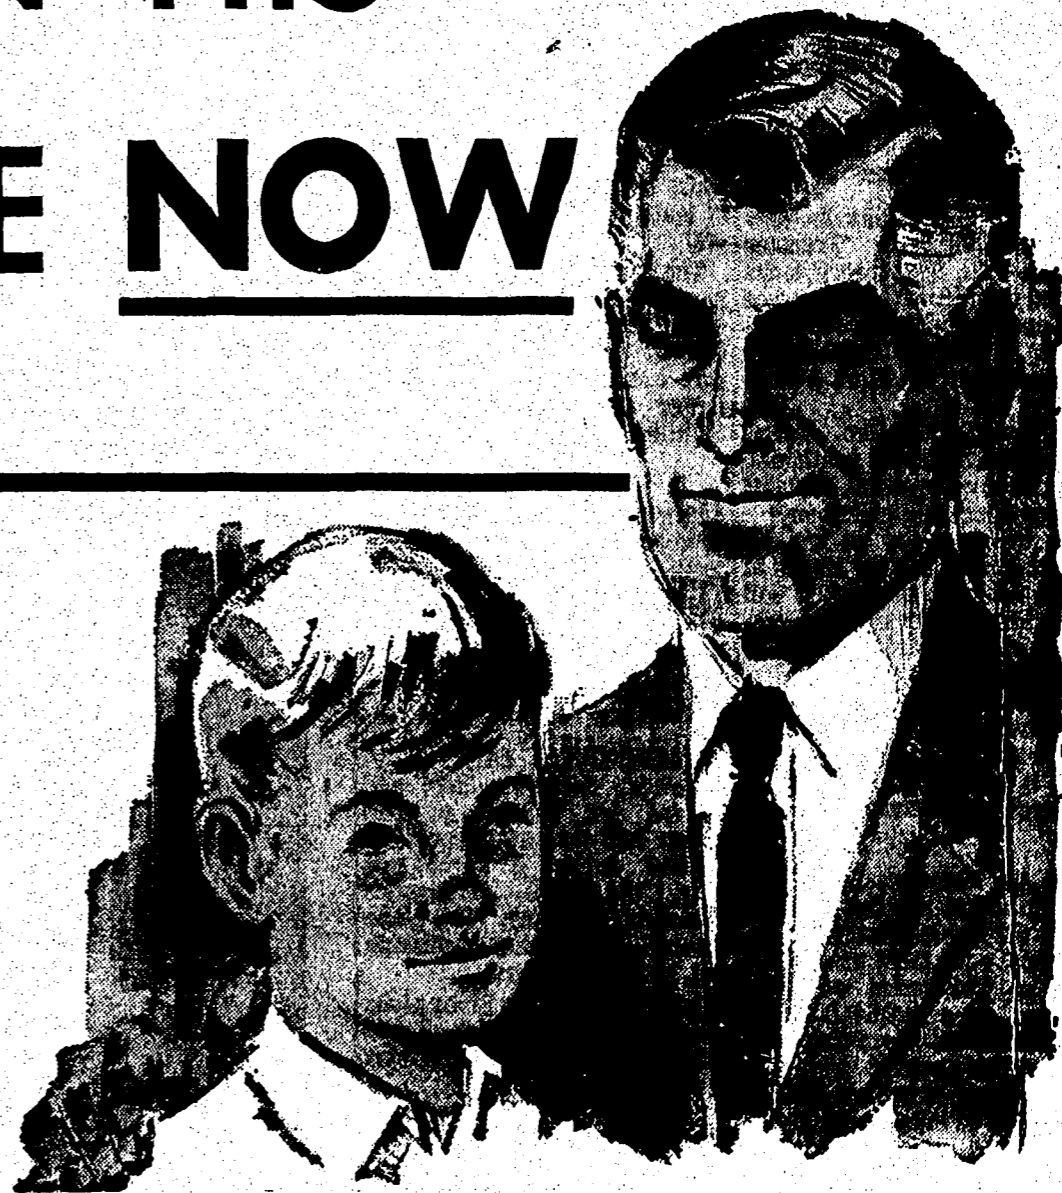

Instead appointment schedules are being sent to parents for conferences with teachers. It will be impossible for teachers to meet every parent, but those who wish to talk to their child's teacher may call the school to arrange for a conference some other time.

Student council members will be guides during the conferences.

LAKE CITY REFORMATION

LAKE CITY, Minn. (Special) — The Rev. Norman Sauer, Hutchinson, Minn., was speaker at the joint Reformation festival at St. John's Lutheran Church Sunday evening. It was sponsored by all congregations of the Hiawatha Valley, Lutheran Churches, Wisconsin Synod. The local pastor, the Rev. Ralph A. Goede, was liturgist and lecturer. More than 400 attended, including people from Zumbrota, Goodhue, Red Wing, Frontenac, West Florence and Bear Valley. Mass choirs, juniors and senior choirs participated in the service. Gerald Bunkowske directed the senior choirs, Mrs. Richard Ellison was organist and Mrs. Roy Zillgit accompanied the choirs.

UNICEF Drive Exceeds $511

Contributions to this year's UNICEF Halloween fund solicitation, in which nearly 1,000 children in the first six grades of all public and several parochial schools participated, totaled $511.80.

A small additional amount is expected from canisters which have not yet been returned. Last year slightly more than $450 was realized from the fund drive.

Schools participating this year, in addition to all public elementary schools, were Cathedral, St. Martin's Lutheran and St. Mary's. Canister return stations were maintained at most of the participating schools as well as one at McKinley Methodist Church.

The volunteer effort was made possible through the cooperation of several men's service clubs, the YWCA, Altruus Club, Council of Church Women, and the Future Business Leaders of the Winona Senior High School under the overall supervision of the UNICEF in Winona Committee.

Receipts from the Winona campaign will be forwarded to the national UNICEF as soon as the final results are determined, for use in supplying the needs of children and mothers in some 70 foreign "have not" countries where medicine, food and other wants are lacking.

More Needed In Peace Corps, President Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson Monday marked a Peace Corps anniversary and said that applications are needed from about 10 percent of the graduating classes of our colleges and universities for the next stage of the Peace Corps.

In a White House statement, the President noted that it was just four years ago Nov. 2 that the late President John F. Kennedy proposed the Peace Corps which now has 10,000 volunteers serving in 46 countries.

IN the next four years, the President said, the Peace Corps must double in size because nearly every country where volunteers are now serving has asked for more.

Johnson said more applications are needed, not only from the colleges, but from skilled workers in our factories and on our farms. The Peace Corps, he said, also needs experienced teachers, more doctors, more nurses, and more senior citizens.

Press Coverage Eminently Fair, Goldwater Says

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater — sometimes critical of the press — has wound up his campaign with praise for reporters who covered it.

"On the whole, I think press coverage has been eminently fair," Goldwater said Monday night at a party for campaign aides and reporters.

The Arizona Republican said he knows many reporters privately disagree with his political views.

"I like many of those who have opposed me better than some who have supported me," he said. "I know many of you don't agree with me and I couldn't care less."

"Win, lose or draw, we have enjoyed you," the senator said.

Secret Service Guard Ordered For V.-President

WASHINGTON (AP) — With today's election will come an innovation in security precautions — protection of the vice president-elect and his family whether they want it or not.

Thus, under a 1962 law, sometime tonight Secret Service agents will begin guarding either Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey and his family at Minneapolis or Rep. William E. Miller and his family at Olcott, N.Y.

Win or lose, a guard will be kept on President Johnson. If Sen. Barry Goldwater wins the presidency, the guard that has been on him during the campaign will be maintained. If he loses, that guard will be dropped.

Willkie Button Biggest Sellers

NEW YORK (AP)—Wendell Willkie buttons are the big sellers at Ben Kaplan's Ye Junk Shoppe.

"I've sold about 1,000 Wendell Willkie buttons so far this fall," he said Monday.

Kaplan gets 50 cents for Willkie buttons, left over from the 1940 campaign when Republican Willkie lost to Franklin D. Roosevelt.

CATCHES BIG WALLEYE

Rain Delayed Until Tonight

Relenting a little, the weatherman agreed that the showers predicted for today probably won't appear until tonight and that the area would have a pleasant shower day.

Scattered showers or thunderstorms are forecast for tonight for Winona and vicinity along with a dip in temperatures into the 30-45 range. Wednesday, he said, would be fair and cooler with an afternoon high of 55-60.

MONDAY afternoon's bright

sunshine brought the high for the day to 72, only three degrees below the all-time record for Nov. 2, established in 1938. During the night the thermometer dropped to 59, but was back up to 69 at noon today.

Fair with above normal temperatures is the outlook for Thursday and the rest of the week. A year ago today the Winona high was 50 and the low a freezing 23.

All-time high for Nov. 3 was 68 in 1904 and 1914 and the low for the day 13 in 1879 and 1951. Mean for the past 24 years was a surprising 65, far above the normal figure of 42.

Duluth's 44 today was the lowest reading in Minnesota. Rochester had a low of 54 and La Crosse posted a 58 this morning. Only rain in the Northwest was .38 of an inch at Calgary, Canada.

Generally favorable weather greeted early morning voters today in WISCONSIN'S election. Heavy fog and a very light drizzle was reported in the Superior-Duluth area, while partly cloudy to cloudy skies ranged over most other areas. However, the temperature was mild.

The weatherman said that showers were expected to fan out over many sections of the state during the afternoon and evening.

Showers swept through Wisconsin Monday and Monday night, with the heaviest amount of precipitation in the Beloit-Rockford area with 1.94 inches.

Various other states vote on emergency government proposals in case of nuclear attack, repeal of so-called railroad full crew laws and a number of multimillion-dollar bond issues for state construction.

California's housing amendment was attacked as sinful by Negro leader Dr. Martin Luther King. It was also opposed by Gov. Edmund G. Brown and California's two U.S. senators, Republican Thomas H. Kuchel and Democrat Pierre Salinger.

The California Real Estate Association supported the amendment, saying the present anti-discrimination law "amounts to seizure of private property."

The Arkansas gambling proposal would legalize casinos only in the resort city of Hot Springs. Washington's would allow licensing of bingo, card games, punch boards and pinball machines all over the state. The Massachusetts vote on whether to continue allowing counties to hold horse or dog races with parimutuel betting comes up every two years.

Proposals for emergency government procedures in case of nuclear war were being voted on in Florida, Illinois, Massachusetts, Nevada and Utah.

Burglars Enter Store at Eyota

EYOTA, Minn. (Special) — Roy's Grocery, operated by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Duckson here, was burglarized Sunday night.

Shoes and other articles were taken. Duckson didn't give an estimate of the loss.

The burglars threw a rock through the glass in the front door and reached in and unlocked it. Duckson discovered the break-in when he opened the store Monday morning. The Olmsted County sheriff's office investigated.

Gordon Melby, Donna Gaulke Are Married

St. Martin's Lutheran Church was the scene of the Oct. 24 wedding of Miss Donna Gaulke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Gaulke, 910 E. Broadway, and Gordon Melby, son of Mrs. Jane Melby, 352 E. Mankato Ave., and Gordon Melby.

The Rev. Armin Dye officiated. F. H. Broker was organist and Mrs. Harold Engler sang. Miss Kay McGuire was maid of honor and Miss Cheryl Engler was bridesmaid. Laurie Rolbiecki was flower girl.

Robert Nogosek was best man and Gerald Engler was groomsmen. Ushers were Daniel Stueve and Richard Schmidt. Ring bearer was Donnie Gaulke.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of lace and tulle over taffeta. The long-sleeved fitted bodice had a scoop neckline accented with sequins. The bouffant skirt featured tiers of lace-edged ruffles. A princess crown of pearls held her veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and stephanotis.

Her attendants wore turquoise satin du charme street-length gowns and open pillbox crowns with shaped veils. They carried blue mums and pompons.

The bride's mother wore a royal-blue dress and orchid corsage.

A wedding reception was held at the Winona Athletic Club. The wedding cake was made by Mrs. Gene Schumacher.

The bridal party was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Engler following the rehearsal.

Cotter Parents Go Through School Day Like Students

Parents of Cotter High School students, totaling about 300, had a special meeting Monday evening at the school. They attended the classes of their children, going through the entire schedule, with classes shortened to about 12 minutes.

While in the classes the parents had an opportunity to learn of purposes of each course, the objectives and the subject matter which their children will be studying during the coming year.

At a meeting afterwards in the Activity Room, the Rev. James A. McCauley, principal, talked briefly and announced that the Rev. Lawrence C. Gavin will conduct a Day of Reflection for students Nov. 13.

Victor Bertel, president of the Cotter Home-School Association, presided during a short business session.

During a social hour, when refreshments were served, the parents and teachers talked together about school affairs.

BROTHERS NIGHT

ALMA, Wis. — Brothers Night will be observed Friday at Alma Order of Eastern Star. A 6:30 p.m. dinner will be served by the men, followed by a program.

Phelps PTA Meets Faculty, New Officers

New officers for the current PTA year were introduced at the Phelps School PTA open house Monday evening in Phelps-Howell cafeteria.

The new president, Robert Winters, presided and presented Mrs. LeRoy Steber, treasurer; Mrs. Archie Halverson, hostess chairman, and Mrs. Armond Ruppel, assistant hostess chairman. Mrs. Raymond Barz returns as secretary and publicity chairman and Donald Fick as program chairman.

Mr. Fick introduced Miss Carrie Anderson, music instructor, who played piano accompaniment for eighth grade students, Donald Nelson, who played two saxophone numbers, and Mark Seim, who played the trumpet.

Dr. Howard Munson, principal, presented the teaching staff to the parents, including one new teacher, Miss Judy Wilsie, art instructor.

Parents toured classrooms, after which lunch was served by the kindergarten mothers.

The Little Lena attendance mascot, a toy kangaroo, was awarded to Miss Doris Pennell's first grade room.

Madison PTA Hears Talk By Principal

Members of Madison School PTA, at a meeting Monday evening, discussed plans for the Fun Frolic, which will be Nov. 13, and afterwards heard a talk by Robert Smith, Winona Senior High School principal.

Richard Falt presided and asked for volunteers for the frolic. Lars Granberg introduced the speaker.

"Helping Young People Make Choices" was Principal Smith's title. He emphasized the importance of allowing young people to decide about matters when they are capable of making decisions. This builds up their confidence, he said.

"Don't tear down their heroes. When they are ready, tell them the truth and let them decide for themselves. Teach them to make choices, being sure they are the right kinds at the right times," he said.

Dennis Ludwizke's fifth grade won the attendance trophy. Coffee was served by mothers of the fourth grade.

John A. Gage Takes Friends Out to Dinner on Birthday

John A. Gage, a lively gentleman of 92 years, carried out his annual tradition of entertaining a friends, neighbors and relatives at a birthday dinner at Wally's Supper Club, Fountain City, Wis., again this year.

His birthday was Oct. 18 and for the 17th year he was host at the party. It was attended by 20 guests, who showered him with gifts and good wishes. After the dinner, everyone returned to Mr. Gage's home at 181 E. Sanborn St. for a pleasant evening of visiting and reminiscing.

Mr. Gage has many interesting tales to tell, for he is of a pioneer Winona County family and has lived here all his life. He was reared on the farm southeast of Lewiston to which his grandfather came in 1855, when Mr. Gage's father was seven years old.

The grandfather was a plasterer by trade and Mr. Gage says he plastered the first house in Winona. His name was Mortimer Gage and he lived to be 96 years of age. His wife was 95 when she died. They were Yankees, Mr. Gage says.

Mr. Gage worked as an automobile mechanic and steam engineer until his retirement. He came to Winona in 1907 and a few years later bought the house he still lives in. He now is alone, his wife having died several years ago. They had one child, a daughter, now Mrs. Carl (Ethel) Jensen, who lives in Washington, D.C.

She did not come for his birthday, because she had been here three months ago when her father broke his ankle. She plans to come again at Christmas time. He now has recovered from his accident and is as lively and spry as ever, his neighbors say. Sunday evening he went out to dinner and spent the evening playing cards, one of his favorite pastimes.

All meetings start at 8 p.m.

Chautauqua Club Hears AFS Student

Dorothy Meyers, an American Field Service student, who went to Bogota, Colombia, was the guest speaker at the Monday afternoon meeting of the Chautauqua Club. The group met at the home of Miss Stella Halderon. A new member introduced was Mrs. Richard Smith.

Miss Meyers showed slides taken during her stay in Bogota as she talked. She said that although the city is located only a short distance north of the equator, it has a cool climate because it is 8,000 feet above sea level.

She lived with a family of four in a modern apartment. The father is a sales manager for a chemical company, she said. Miss Meyers described her visits to the markets, bull fights and the beautiful gardens.

One of the highlights of her stay, she said, was a party the family gave for her 18th birthday. About 30 young people attended and a tiered birthday cake with candles was featured.

Miss Meyers displayed some of the things she brought home, such as wool scarves, wood carvings, beads and silver pins.

City Prepares For Problems With Machines

Use of voting machines at next year's city elections will bring a host of new problems, City Recorder John Carter told the City Council Monday night. Carter asked that lists of election judges be submitted to him by Dec. 7. Judges must be thoroughly schooled, he said, so selections must be made early. The city primary will be in February.

City Council

The recorder said state law is quite specific in the matter. Judges are required to attend special courses on procedures necessary where voting machines are used. Their number must be evenly divided between Democrats and Republicans, Carter said, a provision which will require the council to consult county political chairmen for names of prospective judges.

Making up a committee for judge selection are Ald. James Stoltman, Harold Thiewes, Neil Sawyer and Harold Briesath. Carter said he had been invited by the Minneapolis city clerk to inspect voting machines there and learn about their operation and attendant problems. Aldermen voted to pay expenses of his trip. The Minneapolis machines are the same models as those to be used here.

Clay Tile OK At Miracle Mall

Studies of soil conditions have shown proposed clay tile sanitary sewer to be satisfactory for the Miracle Mall shopping center, City Engineer James Baird told the City Council Monday night.

Baird said underlying blue clay, in which the line is laid, will help prevent infiltration of ground water. Joints are sealed by a newly developed process, he said, and will protect against the area's high water table.

Originally the engineer had specified welded cast iron pipe for the sewer, which connects with a 21-inch trunk main at Gilmore Avenue.

SCHOOL BOARD SAYS:

Nonresidents Pay Share Of Tech School Operations

By C. GORDON HOLTE
Daily News Staff Writer

Efforts should be made, the Winona Board of Education agreed Monday night, to dispel any misunderstanding among the public that nonresident students aren't carrying a fair share load in the financing of operation of the Winona Area Vocational-Technical School.

The state pays the full cost of nonresident training — including capital outlay and debt service — Superintendent of Schools A. L. Nelson assured board members during a discussion of the proposed construction of a new building to house the vocational-technical school.

HIS COMMENTS were made in response to a statement by

4th Ward Director Franklin Tillman that "the objection that I've heard most frequently since we began talking about the new vocational-technical school is that we're paying the cost of the students who come in here from outside the district."

Nelson pointed out that just about the opposite situation exists. Over the past few years, he noted, about 26 percent of the students enrolled in the vocational-technical school have been resident students from the Winona district. For each of these resident students, he said, foundation aid in the amount of about $137 a student is received. For the nonresident, the full cost of training is realized.

In addition, other financial aids for payment of instructional salaries, equipment and supplies and miscellaneous items results in the state and federal government paying virtually 87 percent of all costs of operation.

THE BOARD right now is contemplating the construction of a new vocational school estimated to cost — exclusive of site — in the neighborhood of $1.6 million.

Inquiries have been made to determine what funds may be available for new school construction under federal law for which funds have been approved by not yet allocated.

S. K. Wick, state director of vocational education in the state Department of Education, wrote the board Monday that he has been advised that the state plan for construction funds for area vocational schools under provisions of the Vocational Act of 1963 has been approved. "I have been advised," Wick said, "that we will be notified within a week or 10 days that allocation of funds can be made in Minnesota."

JUST HOW MUCH this will be and how much can be allocated individual schools still remains a question mark although it is known that St. Paul will receive about $400,000.

"Now that we have direct building aid under the Vocational Act of 1963, we expect to be able to contribute directly toward building costs from this fund," Wick said. "The amount that we can supplement to your school is difficult to estimate at this time."

"The budget for the fiscal year of 1965 is approximately $1.9 million. We hope that the amount will be appropriated for the next fiscal year will be considerably more. The authorization is for about $3 million for the fiscal year in 1966 and $3.9 for 1967."

Board President Lawrence Santelman said that he and members of the administrative staff had met recently with Wick in St. Paul to obtain information about probable allocation of newly approved funds.

HE SAID that the Winona delegation had explained to Wick that early information as to Winona's possible sharing in the funds would be helpful in planning for construction of the new building.

"We just about have to have this information before we can know exactly where we're going," Santelman told fellow board members Monday.

St. Charles Child To Get Free Book

ST. CHARLES, Minn. (Special) — Some child from 6-13 who checks out a book from the public library this week, children's book week, will receive a free book Saturday at 3 p.m. It will be autographed by the library board.

2 Cases Heard In Houston Co. District Court

CALEDONIA, Minn. (Special) — In Houston County District Court Monday, Judge Leo F. Murphy heard a collection and a divorce case and took them under advisement.

A pre-trial conference was held in the case brought by Almor H. and Harry A. Heintz and Wilmina Stull against A. L. Higgins as guardian of the estate of Marie L. Heintz, et al, carried over from the spring term.

COURT CASES are scheduled for Wednesday morning, and the jury is called for 1:30 p.m. Scheduled is the suit brought by John L. Schell against John Fuchs as the result of a car accident in March 1963. The defendant has entered a counterclaim.

The court heard Monday the case brought by Midwest Restaurant Co., La Crosse, represented by Thomas A. Flynn, Houston, against Robert Elsenman, La Crescent, who was not in court and not represented by counsel.

Testimony by Hans Kleven, La Crosse, president of the equipment company, disclosed that most of the equipment sold to the operators of the Pier, a La Crescent restaurant, had been recovered by the sheriff's office here and returned to the La Crosse company because it hadn't been paid for by the former restaurant owner.

MRS. MARILYN H. Schroeder was not in court in her suit against Eugene H. Schroeder, Caledonia, for divorce. L. L. Duxbury, attorney for the defendant, called him and his father, Herbert Schroeder, Caledonia, to the witness stand. The couple lived at Houston. Under a stipulation, defendant will receive custody of their one child if the divorce is granted.

Area Assessors To Attend Course Here

Winona will host one of eight three-day property tax short courses for local assessors conducted by the University of Minnesota during December and January.

The course will be held here Nov. 30, Dec. 7 and 14. It also will be offered at Waseca, Marshall, Willmar, St. Paul, Brainerd, Grand Rapids and Crookston.

OBJECTIVES of the course are to help local assessors understand the importance of their jobs, to demonstrate tools for assessing and how they can be used cooperatively with county assessing officers, and to familiarize local assessors with helpful sources of information. A one-day session will be held each week for three consecutive weeks at each location.

Instructors will include county and local assessing officers, university staff members and officials from the Minnesota Department of Taxation, the Association of Minnesota Counties and the League of Municipalities.

David Sauer, Winona County supervisor of assessments, said the sessions will begin at 9:30 a.m. at the American Legion Club at 285 E. 3rd St.

Included in the first session, according to Sauer, will be comparison of various forms of taxation; what happens to assessments after an assessor completes his duties; importance of good communication in assessing; rights of the taxpayer, and the county's role in the assessment process.

The second session will include discussion on appointment of the local assessor (in the past they were elected officials); personal property listing forms; inventory assessment; manufacturers equipment; business equipment and road machinery assessments; use of schedules in assessments of livestock; appraisal of grain elevators and assessments of farm machinery.

DISCUSSED during the third session will be the use of aerial photos in determining farm land values; assessment of land and buildings on odd number years; use of aerial photos in finding omitted property; the future of the small community; building schedules; proposed legislation and rural residential assessment.

Attending the sessions with Sauer will be Donald O'Dea, city assessor, and his assistant, Lyle Haney.

Sauer said he expects more than 100 from the area, including village and township assessors and members of village councils to attend. Lunch will be served at noon during the sessions.

Open House Set For St. Charles School System

ST. CHARLES, Minn. (Special) — The St. Charles public school will observe American Education Week Nov. 8-14 by scheduling visiting days for parents.

Elementary rooms will be open to the public Nov. 10, 11 and 12 from 8:30 to noon. At 10:30 a.m. Nov. 12 visitors are welcome to attend an assembly program on "Honolulu U.S.A. and the Magic Isles," scheduled for the primary grades.

Open house is scheduled for next Tuesday for people interested in junior and senior high school. Miss Judith Wozny is chairman of the observance, sponsored jointly by the PTA and American Legion with the NEA and U.S. Office of Education.

Council Buys Plow, Accepts Street Land

Purchase of a mounted snow plow from the Public Works Equipment Co., St. Paul, was ordered Monday night by the City Council.

The council accepted a low bid of $898. Three other bids were opened: Charles Olson & Sons Inc., Minneapolis, $1,079; Hayden-Murphy Equipment Co., Minneapolis, $1,195; and Hall Equipment Co., Minneapolis, $1,143.

In its relatively short meeting, the council also accepted two street dedications and paid two contractors' estimates.

A 243-foot link in West Broadway was completed with acceptance of a quit claim deed for the south half from Redeemer Lutheran Church. The north half previously was given by Lawrence Mertes, 1731 W. 5th St. The new segment permits completion of West Broadway from Hilke Addition to Pelzer Street.

Acceptance was voted for 600 feet of street extending eastward from Mankato Avenue along the north border of Linahan's Inn, Inc., property.

The first estimate of P. Earl Schwab Co. for Gilmore Avenue curb and gutter installation, $15,138, was allowed by the council. The full contract price is $17,810.

The fifth estimate by Doyle Conner Construction Co., $10,949.95, for Mankato Avenue widening, was approved. Full contract cost for the six-block project was $150,063. Previous estimates, totaling $125,006, have been paid.

Buck Hit on 61 At Wabasha Cafe

WABASHA, Minn. — A 170-pound buck was killed by a car early Sunday morning in Wabasha.

The driver of the car didn't notify authorities, Deputy Sheriff Everett Lorenz said, so no estimate of damage is available. The accident happened near the Idle Hour Game Farm shortly after midnight.

About the same time another deer was killed in the county. Lorenz said here was only minor damage to a car that struck and killed a deer near Minneapolis.

Lorenz said deer are crossing highways at night in increasing numbers in Wabasha County. He warned drivers to watch out for them.

Altura Man Asks Trial on Charge Of Nonsupport

Duane M. Savoy, 24, Altura, Minn., pleaded not guilty today in municipal court to failing to provide child support.

The state, in a complaint sworn out by Mrs. Savoy, alleges that Savoy has failed to provide support for his three children, aged 1 to 3, since Oct. 1. Savoy is separated from his wife who lives in Winona.

Judge John D. McGill set trial on the nonsupport charge for Nov. 12 at 9:30 a.m. Bail of $100 was posted by Savoy at the court's order.

Savoy told Judge McGill he "would pay if I knew where to pay it and how much to pay." He said that the county welfare department, which took the children away from his wife June 1, had not approached him about support payments.

Birders to See Two Color Films

The Hiawatha Valley Bird Club of Winona will meet Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at Lake Park Lodge.

The program will consist of the showing of two color films: "Birds of the Prairie Marshes," concerned with the year-round and transient birds of Lake Manitoba, Canada, and "Life in the Grasslands," which depicts bird and animal life in the prairie regions of the United States. Plans will be made for the local club's participation in the annual bird census, made throughout the United States and Canada and scheduled this year for Dec. 27.

Guests will be welcomed at the club's meetings.

ST. CHARLES CONFERENCES

ST. CHARLES, Minn. (Special) — Conferences between teachers and parents of juniors and seniors will be held Nov. 16, 18 and 19 from 2-5 p.m. Friday is the end of the first quarter. Report cards will be out Nov. 11.

LET'S TALK SPORTS

IT'S TOO EARLY TO congratulate the politicians and besides they seem to have done that themselves already anyway.

Because of that, we would like to convey our hearty praises for a job well done to the coaches and athletes of the teams that won our area conference championships — Stewartville, Lanesboro, Mazeppa and Wabasha, Peterson and Rushford, Mondovi, Independence and Gale-Eitrick.

But even more than that, we salute all our teams for fine work, for it takes more than a champion to make a conference.

Along the same lines, our vote for the biggest sacrifice but best lesson for future reference would have to go to Plainview.

It takes GUTS, that's the word pure and simple, for a team to throw away a title.

Because of academic deficiencies three halfbacks were dropped from Jim Ricklick's Hiawatha Valley Conference team, including the team's leading scorer and two first-team players.

All this came about before Plainview's title battle with Stewartville, one the Gophers lost 13-6. Certainly it was a bitter lesson, but there's no time like the present to teach that work has to come before play.

THERE WERE 44,278 PEOPLE at the Viking-Packer game Sunday, a new Metropolitan Stadium record, but you didn't have to look far to see someone from Winona.

Executive Editor Gordon R. Cloway reported that at a motel near the Met he counted 42 Winonans in less than an hour and a half.

On our drive to the Met, 1L and 1M license plates were in command by numbers alone. Not only that, but we also saw a Winona Transit bus heavily loaded with grid fans.

Ed Rivers of the Kewpee Lunch Annex, headquarters for Viking tickets in Winona, reports that this has been his heaviest year by far.

"There definitely have been more people than ever going to the games," he said. "We are allowed 65 game and we've had two sellouts. For the rest, we've had about 40 percent."

John Thompson, Vikings public relations director, reports that ticket sales for the 49er game are as heavy as they were for the Steelers and that there has been heavy ordering for the remaining two home games.

There's no question, the Vikings have caught on — and BIG!

THE HOT FISH SHOP team that rolls in the Classic League at Winona Athletic Club is sure of one thing, it's going to keep pretty close tabs on Jim Yahnke from now on.

A member of the Fish Shop group, Jim used his night off last Tuesday to compete with Hamm's in the same league.

He came up with his highs of the year 256-600, the game tying for eighth place in the city.

Fish Shop posted 3,064 to win three games, but that didn't prevent Jim from taking some good-natured ribbing.

"Thank gosh they did win three," kidded Jim. "They were calling me Benedict Arnold that night."

Timberlake Gets Lead in Big 10 Scoring Race

CHICAGO (AP)—Bob Timberlake, Michigan's versatile quarterback, took over the Big Ten all-games football scoring lead with a 16-point burst in the Wolverine's 35-0 victory over Northwestern Saturday.

Timberlake has piled up 57 points to pass up Iowa sophomore Dalton Kimble, held scoreless by Ohio State last week. Kimble dropped to second place with 48 points and Illinois' Jim Grabowski took over third place with 42 points.

CHICAGO (AP)—There was good news for next Saturday and next year from the troubled Wisconsin football camp Monday. There also was more bad news.

Linebacker Bob Richter, who has been sidelined with a dislocated elbow, and defensive back Tom Brigham, slowed by a shoulder injury, returned to the lineup and may see action Saturday against Northwestern.

But defensive halfback and punter Dave Fronek, defensive tackle Mike London and end Jimmy Jones were bothered by injuries received in the 22-6 loss to Michigan State last Saturday. It will be several days before their status is known.

Other defensive player who did not see action last Saturday remained sidelined and may be lost for the season.

Halfback Ron Frain, who has a knee injury, and line-man Nate Jenkins, who was hurt in pre-season practice, probably are through for the year. The cast was returned to Frain's knee Monday while Jenkins was undergoing knee surgery.

As Bruhn reviewed the Badger's fourth defeat in six games, he was able to find something to smile about in the play of a pair of backs, sophomore Vic Janule and fullback John "Kim" Wood.

Janule made his debut against Michigan State and returned a pair of kickoffs 19 yards each and got off a 23-yard run from scrimmage to set up the Badgers' only touchdown.

"He's a ray of hope for next year," said Bruhn, adding, "he'll play some more this year, probably Saturday against Northwestern, but he has a lot to learn."

Bruhn explained that the 6-foot, 193-pound Janule is from Toronto and played all of his previous football in Canada.

CLAY TO WIN? PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Joe Frazier, 1964 Olympic heavyweight boxing champion, picked world heavyweight champ Cassius Clay to defeat Sonny Liston in their return bout this month in Boston.

THE rumors were given added impetus by the disclosure that Berra's contract has a clause stipulating he is free to break the contract if he wants to.

Ford, the 36-year-old ace left-hander who lost the opening game of the World Series and did not pitch again, finished hospital tests on his ailing left shoulder and will undergo an operation in Houston next week to correct a condition diagnosed as "an arterial blockage."

Sophomores Could Key St. Mary's Season

By GARY EVANS
Daily News Sports Editor

Although four lettermen, including 1963-64's leading scorer return, St. Mary's Coach Ken Wiltgen feels that the big thing confronting his basketball club right now is how well his sophomores come through.

The popular coach hailed out the equipment Monday and began work in earnest for the season which will open with a non-conference game at Stout University, Menomonie, Wis., Dec. 1.

"We lost a lot of experience from last year's team," he said before sounding the opening whistle. "Right now I feel a lot will depend on just how well our sophomores come through. We have good potential talent."

When Wiltgen speaks of his sophomores, the prime candidate who could help is 6-0 guard Jerry Sausser, a letterman.

"If he comes through and plays the type of ball he is capable of playing it will really help," he said. "He could be our take-charge man."

Captaining the Redmen this year will be lettermen Mike Maloney, 6-4 senior guard-forward, and George Valaika, 6-5 senior forward-center.

Maloney led the Redmen in scoring a year ago with 347 total points for a 13.3 average.

Missing from the team that compiled a 17-9 overall record — the best at the school since 1954's 21-7 finish — Al Williams, Tom Hall, Dennis Burman and Jim Rockers. Williams, a guard, Hall and Burgman, forwards, went via graduation. Rockers, a 6-7 center, isn't in school this year, but would have had another year of eligibility remaining. Rounding out the list of lettermen is 6-6 forward-center Rog Pylewski, a junior.

Others counted on to help are Dennis Ludden, 6-0 sophomore guard; George Hoder, 6-4 sophomore forward-center; Jim Buffo, 6-2 sophomore forward-guard; Jim Murphy, 6-5 sophomore forward, and Ward Hersted, 6-3 sophomore forward.

Hersted won't be eligible until January. "Our depth is real slim," said the coach. "Since I will be using at least one non-letterman sophomore and possibly two, I feel we'll be a slow starter."

A year ago St. Mary's finished 9-7 in the MIAC.

"I'd like to think we can improve on last year," said Wiltgen, "but Augsburg and Duluth are going to be real tough. Concordia is always pretty good and St. Thomas shouldn't be too bad."

St. Mary's wound up its loop season last year by copping an 80-73 victory over the champion Auggies, but three one-point losses earlier in the season in the cozy confines of the Terrace Heights gym left Wiltgen a bit dismayed.

"But then we had real good success on the road to make up for those," he said.

Right now St. Mary's is in the process of constructing a new gymnasium. The hope still is that it may be ready by Feb. 6, but bad weather between now and then could push that off until the 1965-66 season.

Irish Storm to 1st Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Notre Dame, assured of its first winning season since 1958, stormed to the top of The Associated Press major college football poll today, gaining a narrow margin over Ohio State, leader for the previous two weeks.

The revitalized Irish, unbeaten in six games, drew 29 of 48 first-place votes and 460 points in the weekly poll of sportswriters and sportscasters. The Buckeyes, also 6-0, received 11 votes for the top spot and 424 points over-all.

Notre Dame moved to the front with a surprisingly easy 40-0 triumph over Navy last Saturday. At the same time, Ohio State had trouble outlasting Iowa 21-19.

The next four teams in last week's rankings held their positions—Alabama third, Arkansas fourth, Nebraska fifth and Texas sixth. Oregon, No. 7 last week, dropped from the Top Ten as a result of its 10-8 loss to Stanford.

Georgia Tech climbed from eighth to seventh, Louisiana State ninth to eighth and Florida 10th to ninth. Purdue took over the No. 10 spot.

The Irish have four games to go in their bid for their first unbeaten season since 1953 and their first unbeaten, untied year since 1949 when they last won the national championship.

Coming dramatically to life under Coach Ara Parseghian after an extended period of mediocrity, Notre Dame has won six games for the first time since 1958 when its final record was 6-4. The Irish will try and make Pitt their seventh victim this Saturday at Pittsburgh. Michigan State, Iowa and Southern California follow on the schedule.

The Irish have moved to the head of the nation's major college teams behind the record-breaking passing combination of quarterback John Huarte and end Jack Snow, neither of whom did anything outstanding last season.

"The ability was there, of course," said Parseghian, "but they never were able to distinguish themselves."

Top Ten teams with first-place votes in parentheses and points on a 10-9-8 basis:

1. Notre Dame (29) 460
2. Ohio State (11) 424
3. Alabama (7) 385
4. Arkansas (1) 310
5. Nebraska 259
6. Texas 175
7. Georgia Tech 174
8. La. State 116
9. Florida 90
10. Purdue 85

Last Lopes Toward Spot In Gopher Record Book

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Ken Last is a lanky Minnesota Gopher sophomore who runs with a bent-over loping motion that brings good-natured taunts from his teammates.

He didn't get to play much in the Gophers' first three games because there wasn't a spot for him offensively.

Yet Ken Last may be the best sophomore pass receiver in Minnesota history. He's got a head start on it — although playing full-time only three games so far.

In those three outings, Last has caught 14 passes, good for 179 yards and a touchdown. He caught six for 94 yards in the Gophers' 21-0 triumph over Indiana last Saturday.

That lifted him to second place in Gopher pass receiving this season. Only Aaron Brown, the big junior who has caught 21 aerials for 197 yards and two touchdowns, leads him.

Last passed the other regular offensive end, Kent Kramer, who has 12 receptions for 239 yards and two scores.

Last was inserted in the Gopher lineup as a flanker when Bill Crockett got hurt and Coach Murray Warmath decided to turn to the passing arm of John Hankinson for the main Gopher offensive weapon. He wanted another sure-handed pass receiver in the lineup and Last, from Bloomington, got the nod.

He'll be starting at flanker Saturday against Iowa here.

Hankinson still is firing at a record pace for the Gophers. He now has 58 completions in 108 attempts for 727 yards and five touchdowns. He's had five interceptions. Hankinson is only 13 yards short of Duane Blaska's total passing yardage record set in 1962.

Fred Farthing still tops the Gopher rushing with 269 yards on 71 carries for a 3.8 average. Mike Reid is next with 124 on 42 carries, while Hankinson has 123 on 46 tries.

Reid, Minnesota's top scorer with 35 points, ranks ninth among Big Ten scorers.

At Iowa City the Iowa Hawkeyes held their usual light scrimmage Monday in preparation for Saturday's game at Minnesota.

Iowa will have to beat the Gophers on their home ground to keep possession of the traveling pig trophy "Floyd of Rosedale."

Iowa hasn't won at Minnesota since 1958. Coach Jerry Burns pointed out that Minnesota not only has a much better team than was forecast in September, but is gaining momentum each week.

Quarterback Gary Snook picked up three more season passing records Saturday, in Iowa's losing struggle with Ohio State.

After just six games, Snook has thrown for 1,506 yards on 112 complete passes, and picked up 1,544 total offensive yards.

Richter, Brigham Return

Braves Firing At County Now

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Braves, checked by a temporary restraining order in attempts to move to Atlanta, have claimed in a court reply that Milwaukee County broke an agreement that requires the National League baseball team to play its 1965 home games in County Stadium.

The Braves said an "unwelcome, antibaseball atmosphere" was developed (in Milwaukee) as a result of reckless, irresponsible statements by county leaders and others.

The Braves' arguments were contained in an answer filed Monday in U.S. District Court in Milwaukee, and made public at the Braves' offices in Chicago.

In related developments: John McHale, the Braves' president and general manager, said the club's 1964 tax return will show a loss estimated at half a million dollars.

Rep. Henry Reuss, D-Wis., asked Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick to "take the leadership" in presenting to a special meeting of major league owners this week a three-point plan for expansion of baseball by next season, for a player draft and for pooling television revenue.

And Milwaukee County Board Chairman Eugene Grobschmidt discussed possible antitrust developments in a letter with Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., chairman of a House judiciary subcommittee.

The Braves said in their court reply that while rental contract for County Stadium runs through Dec. 31, 1965, there was "an implied covenant that the County of Milwaukee would not interfere with, obstruct or frustrate the Braves' enjoyment of the lease."

They argue that Grobschmidt, "in malicious disregard of such covenant, broadcast public statements implying that persons of responsibility in the Braves' management were deliberately trying to have the Braves not win games."

The club also said that McHale had moved his family from their suburban home after "flagrant, open and notorious public hostility to this defendant engendered by this (county's) attitude."

The Braves said that by "these various breaches, the County of Milwaukee deprived the Braves of its lawful rights and relieved it from any further performance under the lease."

Grobschmidt and other county officials declined comment.

The National League has put off until the court actions are completed any decision on the Braves' plans to move to Atlanta.

Under the terms of the deal, Topping remains president of the Yankees with a five-year contract while Ralph Houk, who was raised to vice president, also will continue as general manager.

Berra, who was not allowed to continue as manager and was replaced by Johnny Keane, signed a two-year contract with the Yankees to serve as a special field consultant.

However, rumors still persisted that Berra might wind up reuniting with Manager Casey Stengel of the New York Mets by serving as a coach under the former Yankee field boss.

The rumors were given added impetus by the disclosure that Berra's contract has a clause stipulating he is free to break the contract if he wants to.

Ford, the 36-year-old ace left-hander who lost the opening game of the World Series and did not pitch again, finished hospital tests on his ailing left shoulder and will undergo an operation in Houston next week to correct a condition diagnosed as "an arterial blockage."

Fenske's Body Shop Smashes 2,769

Thanks to Fenske's Body Shop, Winona has a new top score in the women's series department today.

That was just one of six major happenings in city pin circles as Westgate Bowl's female keglers juggled all the top ten departments Monday night.

Led by Elaine Wild's 532, Fenske's swept to 2,769 to top first place by two pins over the 2,767 posted by Ed Buck's Camera Oct. 20 in the Ladies City League at Hal-Rod Lanes.

THE TEAM ALSO moved into eighth place in the game department with a 981.

In addition to Elaine Wild's 171-532, the team got its topers behind the following individual scores: Jan Wiczorek 197-526, Arlene Kessler 136-502, Carol Fenske 197-495 and Gerry McLaughlin 189-441.

The series score amounted to a 2,496 scratch as the team was carrying a 273-pin handicap or 91 pins per game.

Sue Plait of Curley's Floor shop had the top game in the league with 202. She then hit 526. Audrey Maul had 516 and Carolyn Gerth 515.

Meanwhile, in the Westgate Pin Topplers circuit it would be an uneventful Monday evening if the girls didn't do their best to realign the top departments.

LAST Night was no exception as Irlene Trimmer came up with a top individual effort.

I. Trimmer B. Englert

walloping a 246 game for Watkins Mary King to tie for third place with Larry Donahue.

She also rattled a pair of 146s to smoke a 538 series.

Then there was Betty Engler who walloped 586 to take seventh place while leading her Main Tavern team to sixth with 2,745.

Lincoln Insurance climbed into fourth in game with 998.

The Lincoln quintet, carrying a 55-pin per game handicap, got a 216 from Leona Lubinski. 190s from Doris Bay and Yvonne Carpenter, 176 from Audrey Gorecki and 171 from Jean Lubinski.

For the Main Tavern team, which used 117 pins of handicap or 39 per game, Betty led the way with 150-200-236-586 (The 236 is good for eighth place). Pat Rozek posted 542 behind games of 181-182-179. Helen Englert turned 172-188-145-505. Delores Wicka 178-165-160-503 and Vivian E. Brown 191-153-148-492.

Other top scores came from Carol Ives with 204-224-152-580, Irene Bronk 232-560, Leona Lubinski 203-216-556, Doris Bay 536, Marge Moravec 529, Vivian H. Brown 517, Alfrida Fuglie 507 and Yvonne Carpenter 502.

Leading the men in the city was Jack Critchfield, who competes for Wally's of Fountain City in the City League at Hal-Rod.

With Critchfield hammering 619, Wally's socked 1,041-2,958. Mich Schewe cruised to 238-

Will SEC Ask Tulane to Quit Conference?

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — The Southeastern Conference probably will ask Tulane University of New Orleans to resign or disassociate itself from the league when it meets in Atlanta in January, the Birmingham Post-Herald said in today's editions.

In a story by sports editor Bill Lumpkin, the newspaper said the action probably will be taken because Tulane does not meet the requirement of a minimum of six SEC games on its 1968 football schedule.

Tulane meets the specification for 1965.

Article 10 of the SEC by-laws says "Each member institution must schedule a minimum of six conference football games each year."

SEC Commissioner Bernie Moore said he would have no comment.

Tulane Athletic Director Rix Yard said of the Post-Herald story: "I know of no official word from SEC Commissioner Bernie Moore or President Ralph B. Draughon of Auburn."

"Tulane's position regarding remaining in the conference is the same today as it was last week. I know of no plans for Tulane's withdrawal from the conference."

615 for Country Kitchen. RED MEN'S CLUB: Monday — Gerald Christopherson tripped 190 and Steve Belisle 491 for Bub's while Schmidt's was socking 943-2,705. WESTGATE BOWL: Community — Bub's Pilsen swept team honors with 978-2,885 while Al

Ruppert and Mark Warren of Sunbeam had 212s and LaVern Senty of Schlitz slid 550. Ladies — Mary Jo Grukowski walloped 193-530 to lead Grukowski Beauty Shop to 2,532. Midland had 900. WINONA AC: Go-Getters — Graham & McGuire cruised to

858-2,488 while Ruth Kukowski of E.B.'s Corner was waxing 167 and Irene Hermann of Kramer Plumerettes 452. Monday — Leon Edel with 201 and Rich Chuchna with 560 led Schlitz Beer to 942-2,803. HAL-ROD LANES: VFW — Al Bittner's 218 paced Bernie's

DX to 2,877. Joe Stolpa topped 574 for Wason's and Winona Milk 1,020. Park-Rec Junior Girls — Beales hit 698-1,347, but had their series total tied by All-Stars. Jane Wiczorek tripped 154 for Pin Busters and Bonnie Springer 266 for Four Fours.

Royals Without Oscar For No. 3 Games?

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Royals may have to play their next three National Basketball Association games without Oscar Robertson, the team's all-star player.

Robertson suffered an eye injury Sunday night when a Detroit Pistons player jammed his finger into his left eye. It required 10 stitches to close the wound.

WINS JURY AWARD . . . ## Artificial Legs For Prep Gridder

BARRACKVILLE, W. Va. (AP) — Jack Rice is an average teen-ager except for one thing — he plays football with artificial legs.

Jack, 16, lost his legs just below the knees seven years ago when he was run over by a Gulf, Mobile & Ohio Railroad freight train near Nilwood, Ill. Despite that, he has been a regular on the Barrackville High School football team for three seasons. A Circuit Court jury in Chicago awarded Jack $115,000 Monday in a personal-injury suit against the railroad.

Jack moved with his family to this northern West Virginia coal-mining community three years ago. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rice, who also have five daughters.

After the accident, doctors fitted Jack with a plastic sleeve just below each knee, over the remaining part of the lower leg, and joined it with an artificial rubber foot.

Each limb has only one joint, at the arch of the foot. The artificial limbs are lined with rubber socks. Regular size eight shoes fit over the artificial feet.

"They don't bother me a bit," Jack says, "I'm just not quite as fast as some of the other guys."

Jack started as a defensive guard but now is a linebacker.

An A and B student, he hopes to attend college next year and take a pre-medical course.
