Courts Asked to Block Railroad Strike

CHICAGO, (AP) — The nation's railroads have filed a petition in U.S. District Court seeking to prevent a scheduled strike 10 days before Christmas by three shop unions.

The unions, representing some 53,000 workers, called a walkout Tuesday for 6 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 15, after talks broke down in Washington over wages.

A strike would cripple 187 railroads and terminal and switching companies which handle more than 90 per cent of the nation's rail traffic, a union spokesman said.

Judge Joseph Sam Perry scheduled a hearing today on the railroad petition filed late Tuesday.

The unions — electrical workers, machinists and sheet metal workers — reinstated a strike call originally set for Nov. 23, but postponed for further negotiations.

The railroads alleged in the petition that the strike deadline is an illegal attempt to compel the railroads to bargain directly with the three unions, rather than with the AFL-CIO Railway Employees Department, which had been authorized to bargain for them.

The carriers sought a temporary restraining order to prevent a strike, picketing or other types of interference with the movement of trains. The petition also sought a permanent injunction.

The railroads charged that a nationwide work stoppage would cost them a daily loss in operating revenues of $26,752,000.

The petition called the demands for the three unions "wholly inconsistent with the recommendations of the President's Emergency Board."

A presidential emergency board had recommended a wage increase of 27 cents an hour over three years.

The petition accused the three unions of subverting their members by asking for bigger wage hikes than the Railway Employees Department had asked.

The petition named as defendants the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and two of its officers; the International Association of Machinists and two of its officers; and the Sheet Metal Workers' International Association and three of its officers; and all members of the three unions.

Joseph W. Ramsey, general vice president of the International Association of Machinists, said the union would contest the petition, but declined to elaborate.

Six shop unions were involved in the Nov. 23 strike call, but the three which represent boilermakers and blacksmiths, carmen and the firemen and oilers, reached agreements before the deadline.

The agreements followed closely the recommendations of the presidential emergency board.

The three unions still bargaining postponed the Nov. 23 strike at the request of Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz. They went from Chicago to Washington to confer with Wirtz and continue negotiations with the carriers.

The railroads have settled with 8 of their 11 principal nonoperating unions and all 5 operating unions within the emergency's boards recommendations. The carriers have refused to go beyond the pattern with the three shop unions.

The unions contend their members possess certain skills which entitle them to a larger pay boost. They contend they are underpaid in relation to comparable jobs in industry. Ramsey said the three unions now average $2.74 per hour.

The Empty Stocking

THIS CARTOON, drawn by Tom May, Detroit Journal artist in 1907 when he discovered a little girl forgotten at Christmas, has been a source of inspiration to Goodfellow organizations since that time. The publication of the cartoon at Christmastime, 1908, prompted the formation of Forgotten Clubs, an idea which other cities adopted and converted into Goodfellow organizations. They all had the same purpose — to see that little children were not forgotten at Christmastime. The Goodfellows organization was founded in Winona in 1910 when contributions were asked by the old Winona Independent "to see that Santa Claus won't forget a single child in Winona." You, too, can help keep this spirit alive in Winona by making a contribution to the Goodfellows now. Mail or bring contributions to The Goodfellows in care of The Daily News.

POLITICAL PAYOFF CHARGED

Committee Looks Into Baker's Bank Records

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators plan to explore publicly today the bank records of Bobby Baker and a witness who accused him of engineering an alleged political payoff on a government construction contract.

The Senate Rules Committee said one of its investigators,

Edward T. Hugler, would testify about an inspection he has made of the bank records of Baker and Don B. Reynolds, a local insurance agent.

Reynolds swore last week that he was the "bag man" for channeling $25,000 to the 1960 Democratic campaign fund from Matthew H. McCloskey, Philadelphia contractor. McCloskey is a former Democratic fund raiser and former ambassador to Ireland.

The white-haired McCloskey, now retired, told the committee there was "not an ounce of truth" in Reynolds' testimony. He said an overpayment McCloskey & Co. made to Reynolds' insurance firm was just "a goof."

Before Hugler and possibly others testify, the committee scheduled a closed session to discuss its future course in its politically explosive probe of Baker's affairs while he was secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority.

Baker resigned under fire Oct. 7, 1963, from his $19,600-a-year post and has refused to answer questions in two appearances before the committee about the fortune he built up while on the Senate payroll.

Reynolds testified that under instructions from Baker he billed McCloskey's firm for about $35,000 more than was due on a performance bond for construction of the District of Columbia Sports Stadium.

As the "bag man," Reynolds said he kept $10,000 of the overpayment and gave the rest to Baker in five lots of $5,000 cash for relay for the 1960 Democratic campaign.

Under instructions from the committee, Hugler examined Baker's and Reynolds' bank records in an effort to find out if he could trace the alleged payments.

Another U.S. Soldier Killed In Viet Clash

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Government forces won the Battle of An Lao today by recapturing a strategic hill from Communist guerrillas. But fighting erupted at a dozen other places in central Viet Nam and another American was killed.

A U.S. infantry officer died in a Viet Cong ambush in coastal Phu Yen Province.

The toll of Americans killed in combat in South Viet Nam in the last three years rose to 231. Deaths from other war-related causes are listed at 95. Nearly 1,500 Americans have been wounded. Ten are missing and nine are detained by the Communists.

About a dozen Americans have been wounded in various parts of South Viet Nam this week.

The An Lao Valley was the scene of a hard, three-day action.

One U.S. soldier was killed, another was missing and two were wounded at the end of the fierce fighting in the valley 300 miles northeast of Saigon. More than 50 Vietnamese government soldiers were believed killed.

The Communists suffered at least 30 dead but captured two 4.2-inch mortars—the largest in general use in Viet Nam—and 300 rounds of ammunition. They also destroyed or damaged five armored amphibious personnel carriers.

A Vietnamese division commander said American air power saved the day. "Except for the helicopters, I'm sure the district headquarters would have been lost," he declared.

The Army said Pfc. Arthur A. Shelton of Loyaltown, Calif., a helicopter gunner, was killed by small arms fire as his ship escorted a medical evacuation helicopter into the valley.

Spec. 5 William R. Hamlin of Seattle, Wash., was reported missing. He was with three armored personnel carriers that were destroyed by Viet Cong fire as they rolled into the valley.

Barry Carries Unity Plea to Ike and Nixon

NEW YORK (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater is ready to tell a Republican summit conference today he thinks the struggle over GOP leadership is tearing the beaten party apart.

That was the word from a source close to the defeated Republican presidential nominee as Goldwater prepared to talk politics with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Precise arrangements for the New York conference were cloudy. There was no word as to exactly when or where the meeting would be held. An Eisenhower aide said the three would meet in the afternoon, but that details had not been worked out.

"There is no agenda," said Republican National Chairman Dean Burch. He is here to attend at least part of the discussions that will bring together the three men who have carried the Republican colors in the last four presidential elections.

"This is a very informal conference," Burch said.

The embattled party chairman, hand-picked by Goldwater, said he does not expect the Arizona senator will specifically ask Eisenhower and Nixon to back Burch's continued service as GOP chairman.

The Republican National Committee meets in Chicago Jan. 22-23 to decide whether Burch will retain his post.

A source close to Goldwater said the Republican nominee who lost in a landslide to President Johnson, wanted to talk with Eisenhower and Nixon about the struggle now going on within the party.

The source said Goldwater would explain his views on the battle which pits his conservative followers against GOP moderates.

"He will explain that as far as he is concerned, this is tearing the party up," the source said.

Eisenhower met twice with Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania at Gettysburg, Pa., Tuesday. The talks were described as social with "no political significance."

Rep. Robert Taft Jr. of Ohio said in a telephone interview he is not interested in becoming party chairman. He brushed aside as "rumors" reports that some Republicans are rallying behind him as a replacement for Burch.

Taft called for a reorganization of party machinery and said he thinks differences between Republicans have been exaggerated.

3 New Junior Colleges Asked For Next Fall

ST. PAUL (AP) — The Minnesota Junior College Board, in existence less than six months, already is proposing three sites for new schools to open next fall and plans to ask the legislature for authorization for four more.

The action came Tuesday when the board set junior college classes for Minneapolis, St. Paul and Thief River Falls, to make use of presently available facilities.

Leaders said the move was regarded as temporary and that a campaign would be undertaken for permanent installations at those locations as well as plans for the additional junior centers.

Tentative outlines call for two of these in the Twin Cities area, a third in northern Minnesota, possibly at International Falls, and another in the southern part of the state, with Fairmont regarded as likely site.

With the 11 colleges the board took over upon its creation as of last July 1, this would give the state a total of 18 such facilities.

The 11 in being when the group took over are located at Austin, Brainerd, Ely, Fergus Falls, Hibbing, Colesburg, Rochester, Willmar, Worthington, Eveleth and Virginia.

The temporary classes scheduled next fall would utilize 11 spare classrooms in Centennial High School in Circle Pines and 8 similarly unused at Minneapolis's Central.

CULTURAL EXCHANGE

Hot Line Tests Prove Interesting

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Moscow-Washington hot line has developed a sort of cultural exchange.

In testing the circuit, U.S. military operators sometimes send excerpts from encyclopedias across the 5,200-mile Teletype link to the Soviet capital.

And, as Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko said at the United Nations, the Russians transmit sections of Ivan Turgenev's first novel, "Notes of a Hunter."

The U.S. and Soviet operators occasionally have exchanged greetings on special occasions. They swapped Happy New Year wishes for 1964 and there was another exchange on the first anniversary of the hot line last September.

The hot line was set up during the Kennedy administration as a device for instantaneous emergency communication between the Soviet and U.S. heads of state.

President Johnson has retained the link and the Defense Department said there has been no change in procedure since the recent Soviet government turnover which ousted Nikita Khrushchev as premier.

There is a great reluctance in the Pentagon to say anything about the hot line's operation.

The Teletype machines at the Washington end of the circuit are in the tightly guarded National Military Command Center in the Pentagon. When necessary, the link can be extended to Johnson's ranch or other places the President may be.

The hot line complex in the center is manned by five teams, each made up of one officer and two noncommissioned officers. All teams work eight-hour shifts around the clock.

3 County Road Job Bids Asked

The Winona County Board of Commissioners Tuesday voted to advertise for bids on two bituminous surfacing projects and one bridge.

THE SURFACING projects will involve:

- County State Aid Highway 18 from a point half a mile south of the east limits of Utica to CSAH 29 south of Lewiston, a distance of 3.5 miles.

- CSAH 5 from the south county line northeast for a distance of 1.8 miles, ending at a point nine miles south of New Hartford.

The bridge is to carry CSAH

37 over the south branch of the Whitewater River, 2.5 miles east and 2.75 miles north of St. Charles.

The board also approved final payment of $42,051.21 for work done on CSAH 26 by Ben Erwin & Son, Inc., which defaulted on the project. The money will go to Fidelity and Casualty Co., New York City, the bonding firm that had the job finished.

Payment is contingent on the bonding company's furnishing waivers from all persons or firms that furnished labor or materials for the project.

A balance of $5,835.86, constituting the amount of a federal tax lien, is to be withheld until the person or firm entitled to it has been determined.

THE GROUP approved payment of $30,000 as township road allotments for the year 1964. The money will come from the road and bridge fund. Half of the amount paid to each township is based on its levy; the other half is based on its reported road and bridge expense.

The money will be distributed as follows:

St. Paul Swift Plant to Get New Buildings

ST. PAUL — Swift & Co. is planning to construct new buildings to replace its pork and loading facilities in South St. Paul, it was reported Tuesday.

Noel Dike, Swift plant manager, said the company's existing outdated facilities ultimately will be demolished and the land on which they stand will be used as a parking lot.

The way was cleared for the new construction when Swift acquired 12½ acres in October from the St. Paul Union Stockyards Co. The deal involved Swift's turning over 10½ acres of its own property to the stockyards, according to Dike.

Unaffected by the modernization program will be the company's beef operation and its sausage facilities. In the past five years, Swift has completely modernized these two operations.

Dike said the company is now operating in some buildings that are 75 to 90 years old.

Swift employs between 2,800 and 2,900 people, including hourly and salaried workers, at its South St. Paul plant, which is the largest in the Swift chain.

Wabasha County Jury Says Man Wasn't Father

WABASHA, Minn. (Special)—After about two hours and 20 minutes of deliberation, a Wabasha County District Court jury Tuesday found Raymond L. Showers, Cannon Falls, not guilty in a paternity case involving Renolie Brown, 19, native of Red Wing, waitress at the Hiawatha Grill there. She is formerly of Lake City.

The child, Sherill Marie, was born April 21 at St. John's Hospital, Red Wing. Miss Brown testified she is unemployed now. She admitted having been intimate with other men since she was with Showers July 16, 1963, on Memorial Hill, Red Wing, but said Showers was the father.

Showers, represented by John Holst, Red Wing, said he has been working for the Chicago Great Western Railway Co., but currently is not employed.

The jury went out at 3:49 p.m. and returned its verdict at 7:10 p.m. by W. C. Drysdale, Wabasha, foreman. Other jurors were Mrs. Walter Danckwart and Frank DeFrang, Lake City; Nick Delva, Goodhue; Mrs. Walter Kruger and Donald Puetz, Plainview; Dean Plank and Mrs. Charles Theismann, Wabasha; Emory Ponto, Elgin; Frank Roberson, Millville, and Francis Sullivan, Kellogg.

The jury was called in at 1:30 p.m. today to hear the state's aggravated assault case against Larry Wayne Aslakson, Red Wing. Out on $3,000 bond, he was arraigned before Judge Kenneth Kalbrenner in municipal court May 14, bound over to District Court, and arraigned before Judge Arnold Hatfield Nov. 9, when he pleaded not guilty.

He is specifically charged with operating his car in such a manner March 31 as to force Young Tack Kim, off the traveled portion of Highway 61. Kim received a fracture of the spine. A Korean, he was a Winona State College student.

Michigan Girl In Whitehall Jail For Church Theft

WHITEHALL, Wis. (Special)—A Mackinaw City, Mich., girl was committed to the Trempealeau County Jail Tuesday for 15 days.

Sharon Ann Vieau, 18, pleaded guilty before Judge A. L. Twesme to taking $70 from St. Peter & Paul Catholic Church, Independence, Dec. 1. She was sentenced to pay a $50 fine plus costs and jailed on failure to pay.

Miss Vieau was brought to the jail here Friday night by Sheriff August Matthey from Wisconsin Rapids where she and two companions were apprehended at a motel.

Board Checks Deed Filming

Decision on whether to buy microfilming service for the register of deeds' office was put off by the Winona County Board of Commissioners Tuesday until more information is available.

The proposal was put to the board Monday by Anthony Winczewski, president of Winona County Abstract Co., Inc. The firm would furnish all necessary equipment except a storage cabinet, and would provide the county with a filmed copy of each document to be filed, as well as a device with which the films could be read. Cost would be $185 a month.

COUNTY Register of Deeds Rolfe Tust, however, told the board Tuesday that he questioned whether the microfilm would be a permanent record. He also pointed out that there is a place on each document on which to record the book in which it is filed and its page number in the book.

Were the documents to be filmed, each film would be

Winter Carnival Queen Pageant, Parade Delayed

The problem of conflicting dates—which might have kept Winona Winter Carnival royalty from taking part in the St. Paul carnival—was solved at Tuesday night's Winona Activity Group meeting.

The Winona festival had been scheduled for Jan. 16 through 24, a week earlier than the time during which the St. Paul carnival is usually held. This year, however, a bowling congress to be held in St. Paul at the end of January forced a one-week advancement of the carnival.

Had Winona's new carnival queen been chosen the weekend of Jan. 24, as had originally been scheduled, neither she and her attendants nor Jack Frost and his princes would have been able to go to St. Paul.

The group's solution was to postpone the parade, queen pageant and coronation until the last weekend in January. This will free the present royalty to represent the city in St. Paul.

Most other events will be unchanged, and carnival activities will begin Jan. 16 and continue through the 31st.

Office Entered At Brick Yards

Sheriff George Fort today reported a break-in at the brick yards in West Burns Valley.

Frank Biesanz, Gilmore Valley, said today at 8:55 a.m. that the break-in had occurred Saturday and was probably the work of juveniles. The vandals broke into the office at the yards, threw things around, tampered with an old truck and scattered bricks.

Mrs. Henry Zollman, 4145 8th St., Goodview, reported today at 9:10 a.m. that someone had left a small plastic deer in a flower box. Mrs. Zollman assumed it was a stolen article and called the sheriff to take it away.

Goodview OKs Liquor Store Financing

Goodview voters Tuesday approved a proposal that municipal liquor store revenues be pledged to pay of a $65,000 bond issue for a new store.

The measure was approved, 181 to 60, in an election in which only 241 voters went to the polls.

Approval clears the way for sale of bonds — probably Dec. 22 — and start of construction — probably early next year.

Herbert C. Kleya, operator of Shangri-La Motel, received 139 votes to become a village trustee. He will begin a three-year term in January.

Kleya was the only candidate who filed for the post. In Tuesday's election, Dr. E. G. Callahan, a former village clerk, received 36 write-in votes, and incumbent Trustee Harris Anderson received 35. There were other scattered write-ins.

Incumbent Justice of the Peace Floyd Farnholtz, who had not filed for re-election, received 39 write-in votes to win another two-year term. Among the other scattered write-ins were 12 votes for Lewis Albert, currently serving as the village's other justice of the peace, and five for George Kohner, an incumbent constable whose term has another year to run.

Lyle Jacobson, the only person to file for the post, was elected constable with 192 votes. There were scattered write-ins, including 6 for Kohner.

Police Report Two Collisions

Two collisions were reported in Winona Tuesday between 5 and 5:30 p.m. Neither was serious.

A collision occurred at Broadway and Ewing Street at 5:10 p.m. between Henry H. Kowalewski, 953 Mankato Ave., and Mrs. James Theis, 715 W. Broadway.

Kowalewski was driving west on Broadway and starting to make a left turn north on Ewing Street; Mrs. Theis was pulling away from the north curb east on Broadway.

Damage was $100 to the right rear of the Kowalewski car and the same amount to the right front of the Theis vehicle.

Fifteen minutes later, there was a collision at 4th and Market streets between Robert E. Valentine, Fountain City, Wis., and Carlyle L. Putterbaugh, 18, 118 E. Sanborn St.

Valentine was driving east on 4th Street, Putterbaugh north on Market. More than $100 damage was done to the right front of the Valentine car and a similar amount to the left front of the Putterbaugh vehicle.

Patrolman George M. Liebsch investigated.

Peterson Gets Legion Award

Roy Peterson was named "Legionnaire of the Month" by Commander Lyle Haney of Leon J. Wetzel Post 9 Tuesday evening.

Peterson is vice commander in charge of activities. In other business Vice Commander Alvin Beeman reported that the 1965 membership now exceeds 660.

The brief meeting was preceded by a joint dinner with the auxiliary and was followed by singing of Christmas songs.

Civil Service For Sheriff's Office OKed

A civil service system for the sheriff's department was established Tuesday by the Winona County Board of Commissioners.

The board voted to establish the system by a three-to-one margin. Voting for the proposal were Len J. Merchlewitz, Winona, who proposed the motion; Leo R. Borkowski, Goodview, who seconded it; and Carl O. Peterson, Fremont.

Voting no was James P. Spitzer, Dakota. The chairman, Adolph Spitzer, St. Charles, votes only to break a tie.

AT ITS NEXT meeting, the chairman will designate a sheriff's civil service commission of three members. It will have charge of employing, promoting, discharging and suspending all deputies and employees.

The commission also will have the duty of classifying all positions in the department, and will be required to keep a service register and a register of those who have applied for jobs in the department.

Terms of membership on the commission will be three years, but the first group's members will have staggered terms. It is required to meet as soon as possible after its establishment. Thereafter, it is to meet the first Monday of each February. Sheriff George Fort, coincidentally, appeared to ask the board to act on the proposal just as it was beginning to do so.

PROVISIONS of the civil service system for sheriff's departments are set forth in a state statute. Winona County's establishment of such a system, however, was authorized by special legislation passed in 1963.

The special legislation was needed because Winona County does not qualify under the provisions of the general statute, County Attorney S. A. Sawyer explained.

The general statute provides that in order for a county of this size to have a sheriff's department civil service system, it must be contiguous to a metropolitan area. The statute goes on to define a metropolitan area as two counties with a total population of more than 1 million.

Tavern Patron Pays $25 Fine

Roger J. Orlikowski, 655 E. 5th St., pleaded guilty today in municipal court to tampering with a motor vehicle without the owner's permission.

Orlikowski told Judge John D. McGill that he took the rotor cap off a car belonging to Ambrose Schwartz, owner of Amby's Tavern, 766 E. 5th St., "in compensation for" a bottle of whisky "Amby" refused to return to him.

In fining Orlikowski $25, he was satisfied out of bail, Judge McGill told the defendant, "You are responsible for your own good conduct. You shouldn't have taken the law into your own hands."

The judge told Orlikowski that if he wanted the whisky returned he could see the city attorney about swearing out a complaint against Schwartz.

The tampering incident occurred Sunday night, when, according to Orlikowski, he entered Amby's with a quart bottle of whisky, which he put behind the tavern's juke box. When Schwartz heard about it, he took the bottle and refused to return it, Orlikowski told the court.

The defendant admitted he was a little drunk and that he got angry at Schwartz, which prompted him to go out and remove the rotor cap from Schwartz's car "in compensation." He gave the cap to a patron when he re-entered the tavern, Orlikowski said.

Three Cathedral Scouts Given Eagle Badges

Three Boy Scouts of Troop 11, Cathedral of the Sacred Heart, received their Eagle awards during a court of honor at Holy Family Hall Tuesday evening.

They are Daniel Nixon, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Nixon, 463 Center St.; Richard Losinski Jr., 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Losinski, 64 E. Wabasha St., and Craig Zeches, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Zeches, 940 W. Howard St. All three are juniors at Cotter High School.

DANIEL is a member of the Brigadiers Drum and Bugle

Corps, the Cotter band, the school's track team, has participated in the Scout canoe derby and is a junior assistant Scoutmaster.

RICHARD has participated in the Scout canoe derby and is a junior assistant Scoutmaster.

CRAIG is a member of the track and golf teams at Cotter, is a member of the student council, Pep Club, the church choir and is a junior assistant Scoutmaster.

Three Scouts received Star awards. They are John Wildenborg, Steve Gappa and Eugene Richie.

Eight received first class awards. They included Mike

Belden, Steve Williamson, Joe Richardson, Don Kolles, Greg Nixon, Phil Biesanz, James Murck and Ed Hoepfner.

Second class awards were presented to Terry Gray, Gary Stolpa, Mike Malszycki and John Murck.

Merit badges were presented to Mike Belden, Steve Williamson, John Wildenborg, Steve Gappa, Dan Nixon, Eugene Richie, Craig Zeches and Jack Wera.

John Wildenborg was master of ceremonies. Harold Libera represented community and business; Robert Smith, home and school, and the Rev. James Fitzpatrick, church and family.

County Board

Assessment Supervisor Reappointed by Board

David V. Sauer was reappointed Tuesday to a four-year term as county supervisor of assessments by the Winona County Board of Commissioners.

The board asked Sauer to consider hiring a deputy as a replacement for the secretary he now employs. Sauer said he would look for a deputy, but felt he needed a secretary to take care of routine office work.

Sauer asked the board Tuesday to appoint him county assessor, rather than supervisor of assessments. This step has been recommended by the state commissioner of taxation, and only 24 Minnesota counties still have supervisors.

The chief difference between the two is that an assessor has the authority to change an assessment set by a local assessor. A supervisor cannot do this, but must take the matter to the county board.

ANOTHER appointment — this one of a county weed and seed inspector — is to be made at the board's January meeting. The group voted Tuesday in favor of advertising for applicants for the post.

The present inspector is Charles Smith, operator of Valley Nursery in Goodview.

Named to a full three-year term on the Hiawatha Valley Community Mental Health board was James Pappenfuss, Dakota, who was selected by a nominating committee composed of Len J. Merchlewitz, Winona, and Leo R. Borkowski, Goodview, his fellow commissioners. Pappenfuss had been appointed to a one-year term on the board last year, the first year the group was in existence.

Two men whose terms on the county extension committee are expiring were named to additional three-year terms. They are Ray L. Schell, Mount Vernon Township, and Herbert Haase, Hillsdale Township.

OTHER ACTION by the board included:

● Passing a resolution requested by the state, releasing lands from trust in favor of the local taxing district. The land involved is a group of parcels south of here that were sold to the Conservation Department last year for its Minnesota Memorial Hardwood Forest land acquisition program.

● Placing on file a letter from the federal Department of the Interior, calling the board's attention to the provision of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 prohibiting discrimination because of race, religion, sex or national origin in any program receiving federal funds.

The county receives federal money as its share of wildland refuge revenues.

The letter explained that no complaints against the county had been received, and the communication was merely a means of calling attention to the law's provisions.

● Voted to award a contract for workmen's compensation insurance for 1965 to Gate City Agency, Winona, the firm that had the contract this year. The premium, which will be based on the total county payroll next year, will be about $5,000.

The board had heard from three insurance salesmen Tuesday. Besides Leonard Slagge of the Gate City Agency, they were Duane Ringler, representing Hardware Mutuals, and Robert Fischer, representing Federated Insurance.

● Approved payment of $252 overtime wages to Arthur Frye, courthouse custodian, for extra work he did while his co-worker, Hans Koch, was ill.

● Placed monthly reports from county departments on file and authorized payment of monthly bills. The group first struck out one item on a bill from the sheriff's department, however. It was reimbursement for road tolls, which, the commissioners said, they felt should come from mileage payments.

THE BOARD had been asked by William Sillman, Winona County soil conservationist, to go on record as sponsoring a watershed project proposed for the middle branch of the White-water River valley.

The board postponed action until County Attorney S. A. Sawyer can find out what obligations sponsorship involve.

The oldest hospital still in existence is said to be the Hotel Dieu, founded in Paris around 650.

Remember the Lonely at Christmas

By RUTH ROGERS
Daily News Area Editor

Most of us supply ourselves with more Christmas cards and stamps than we think we might need, so that in the rush of other holiday preparations we don't have to worry about that.

Does anyone have 24 left, or even a few? We were thinking of 24, because that is the number of people at St. Elizabeth's Nursing Home, Wabasha, Minn., who just might like a cheery greeting from friend or stranger, a religious card, a note of good wishes — just some word from the outside to make life more interesting. Even the outside envelope may catch their eye, with the new holiday stamps made available by the Post Office Department. Your postmark from anywhere this newspaper is read — will add to the interest, too.

Give one of these people at St. Elizabeth's Nursing Home, Wabasha, Minn., a pleasant surprise:

Guitarist Plays Here on Sunday

Andy Nelson

Guitarist Andy Nelson will play in the Pasteur Hall auditorium on the Winona State College campus at 2 p.m. Sunday.

The appearance is sponsored by Hal Leonard Music, Inc., which recently completed a remodeling program in its store at 64 E. 2nd St. An open house there will be held Friday and Saturday.

NELSON HAS played on road shows sponsored by a Chicago radio station, WLS. He has been a staff musician for WGN radio and television stations in Chicago and has appeared on the Dave Garroway television program.

For six years he was a member of a group called the Tune Toppers. He toured the country with them. He has recorded with such groups as the Harmonicats, Ken Griffin, Ted Weems and Frankie Yankovic.

The remodeling project at Hal Leonard's has doubled the firm's retail space. The retail area, in which both band and fretted instruments are sold, now measures 40 by 25 feet, and there are two soundproof studios for teaching and recording. The firm offers guitar, drum and banjo instruction.

Interior walls are covered with peg board, on which instruments are displayed.

EXTERIOR remodeling resulted in a new display window and new facing on the two-story structure, which will be painted later.

Bruce McNally was contractor for the work. George Poljack is store manager.

Yule Concert At Eleva-Strum Thursday Night

STRUM, Wis. — Two bands, a triple trio and two other vocal groups will perform in Eleva-Strum Central High School's Christmas concert at 8 p.m. Thursday.

The concert band's program will include the overture to Handel's "The Messiah" and themes from Tschickowsky's "Nutcracker Suite."

The junior chorus will sing carols, including "Carol of the Star," for which the accompaniment will be by bongo drums and tambourine. Bonnie Christensen will be soloist for "Go Tell It on the Mountain," and Gwen Hatcher will be horn soloist.

The girls glee club will sing five Christmas songs, and the triple trio will sing "Still, Still, Still," an Austrian carol. Mrs. Myrnel Wojner will be violinist and Carol Nelson, pianist, for the triple trio's performance.

The cadet band will play four selections, including "Praise Ye the Lord of Hosts" from Saint-Saens' "Christmas Oratorio."

Mrs. Wojner is vocal director, and George Traficante is director of instrumental music.

In Ireland, Christmas eve often is called the Night of Cakes. This name is based on an ancient custom, still practiced, of baking special Christmas cakes spiced with caraway seeds for eating on the night before Christmas.

Voice of the Outdoors

Rabbit Shelter

After Christmas last year, Frank Breza, E. B.'s Corner, and a group of friends gathered up a couple of hundred discarded Christmas trees, took them out to the upper end of Prairie Island and in the adjoining willow area along the Minnesota City dike, stacked them in piles, like the one pictured above, in the experiment to bring back cottontail hunting to the area.

It worked. The cottontails welcomed the shelter and used it for nests and for protection. After the recent snow, the abundance of rabbit tracks in the area indicated the idea got results. In fact, youthful Winonans who have passed their firearms safety course, have found it a place to exercise their newly acquired skill. On any Saturday, a dozen or more boys can be observed coming out of the area holding high a bunny, an exhibit of their skill with their trusted rifles.

Now Breza has a plan to extend the program over a larger area. He suggests that the Winona Junior Chamber of Commerce, which annually conducts a drive to gather discarded trees, picks them up with trucks and holds a huge bonfire, turn the trees over this winter to a small conservation group in the West End of the city that will use them for additional rabbit shelters. The Upper Mississippi River Wild Life and Fish Refuge has approved the plan and refuge lands can be used as shelter location areas.

The idea is not new. The National Wildlife Federation distributed a pamphlet on how to build such shelters a few years back and the program got splendid results in the east where the cottontail had practically disappeared in some areas. The clubs in those areas have been purchasing trapped rabbits from states where there is an overpopulation and releasing them in suitable habitat provided with artificial shelters.

One of the reasons for the decrease in rabbit population is the lack of protective shelter. When wood was commonly used for fuel and cut in farm groves and wooded areas, the trimmings were piled up and left to rot or be burned at some future date. Most of such piles were near where the trees were dropped, and were forgotten except by the rabbits. Today, with no fuel wood cutting, such brush piles have disappeared. The rabbit population is left to become easy victim of the many animals and birds that prey on it.

Another reason for endorsement of the Breza plan by sportsmen is that fox prefer a rabbit as a meal over a pheasant. It is easier to catch and it makes a better meal. Give rabbits protection and they will maintain a huntable population in favorable habitat.

Iowa Deer Iowa's permit deer season, any deer, opens Dec. 12 with hunting hours from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. with one-deer limit. There are two zones — a two-day and four-day one.

The Conservation Department has set a population figure of 36,700 deer, the highest population since the state established its lottery system of issuing deer hunting permits. Under the lottery plan, 16,000 permits were issued this season. Landowners can hunt on their own land without a permit. Unsuccessful applications for permits are returned with registration fees.

Concert Slated At Mondovi

MONDOVI, Wis. (Special) — The Mondovi High School Christmas concert will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday in the small gymnasium.

The program will consist of holiday music presented by the grade 6 chorus under the direction of Mrs. Florence Canar, and the high school mixed chorus and the concert band, directed by Richard Putzier.

New on the program this year will be the presentation of Christmas Cantata 142, "For Us a Child Is Born," by Johann Sebastian Bach. This cantata calls for a small chamber chorus and orchestra and vocal soloists.

The orchestra will consist of two flutes, two oboes, two clarinets and two alto clarinets (substitutes for the string parts), two bassoons and piano.

The chamber chorus will consist of 30 members of the mixed chorus. Vocal soloists will be Kay and Thomas Casey.

In addition to this cantata, the program will consist of carols by the grade school chorus and by the girls and mixed chorus. The last group will also perform part of Handel's "The Messiah."

The concert band's program will include the first movement from Haydn's "London Symphony."

New Policy On Failures

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed.D.
University of S. Calif.

Once a student has been accepted in college, his success is strictly up to him!

There is a changing attitude of college authorities toward the student's success or failure.

Time was when admission to college was easy, but the percentage of failures in the freshman year was high, in some schools ranging up to 50 percent. In effect, the freshman year became the real admissions hurdle to college.

The cost in money to the college, and in frustration to the students, was enormous. Improved selection techniques have influenced a change in policy. The measure at present of a successful college is the high percentage of graduating students, rather than the high percentage of failures.

Having carefully selected students whose past records and ability ratings mark them as capable of successful work in a particular college, the authorities provide special counseling service to aid the student who is in trouble.

Counselors face a difficult psychological problem! Although it is obvious of them that the student is not approaching learning in an efficient manner, the student is apt to blame everyone but himself for his difficulties. He may feel that the college professors should teach more in the manner of high school teachers. Since the student's procedure brought high grades in high school and, since the same procedures do not bring high grades in college, he feels the college must be at fault.

The first major hurdle faced by a counselor is to convince the student that some change in his learning procedures is called for, and that the responsibility rests with him not the instructor. This is not easy, because a student is reluctant to change his procedures halfway through a semester, perhaps because of the old admonition against changing horses in mid-stream.

If the counselor is successful and the student agrees to make a change, drastic efforts can bring almost miraculous results. I have known students so convinced, to spend 25 hours in a single weekend reviewing a course from the beginning. Not only were his methods different but his written notes and problem - solutions were a record of his effort.

Student after student reported that, through such an effort, he had gained a clear understanding of a course for the first time. The isolated facts and partially understood ideas were at last assimilated into their thinking.

There remains another problem. The instructor's grade book, and the instructor's opinion of the student's knowledge of the course, are no longer a fair measure.

A conference with the instructor, during which the student leads through his new notes asking for clarification on difficult points, has proved a successful way of acquainting the professor with the new situation.

With evidence of the change and willingness to work, the instructor is happy to lend his advice and counsel to the endeavor. After all, under the new philosophy of the college, he is anxious that every student succeed in mastering his course.

Why do some students fail in spite of all this? It still holds true that you can lead a horse to water but you can't make him drink!

Minneapolis Man Will Help Shore Up Tower of Pisa

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The president of a suburban Minneapolis company has gone to Italy with a plan to shore up the Leaning Tower of Pisa. The company, Soil Solidifiers

Inc., is trying to interest the Italian Public Works Commission in using a solution the company says makes earth nearly as hard as concrete.

J. W. Alexander, company president, went to Rome Monday to spell out details. Italian officials recently invited engineers to propose ideas to keep the famed tower from toppling over eventually.

Downtown Valuation Freeze Suggested

MAYOR ALEX SMEKTA of Rochester, addressing Southern Minnesota legislators in Mankato, told them that one of the critical needs of cities is legislative authority to freeze valuations in downtown business districts. He cited a law in Wisconsin which covers this matter.

Mayor Smekta was speaking of urban renewal when he offered his suggestion. One of the real needs, he said, is renovation of central business districts. He cited his city of Rochester as an example. The downtown business area in Rochester deteriorated alarmingly a few years ago when property values there skyrocketed and resulted in the establishment of some five shopping centers on and near the city's outskirts.

The shopping centers are constructed on property that has only a fraction of the value of that in the downtown area, Smekta pointed out, and as a result do not pay taxes that are comparable to the central business district. Thus, the move to shopping centers becomes a serious matter to the city from the standpoint of tax revenues. In almost every case the downtown business district declines and numerous empty stores are found there.

IN ORDER to combat this Smekta advocated a state law which would permit a city to freeze valuations for a five-year period where the downtown property is purchased, old buildings razed and attractive new stores constructed. This, he said, is the only way to equalize taxation so the central business district doesn't suffer. At the end of five years the city could reassess the new property and put it on the tax rolls at a higher value.

Winona is only one of several Minnesota cities where the downtown business area has obsolete buildings. In some cases they are from 75 to 100 years old and need replacement. But, if the new buildings are taxed on the basis of their true value, it might be economically unfeasible to invest the added money.

The Mankato Free Press says Mankato is an example of a city where the cost of a selected site was considered too great to merit the investment that would have to be made and, as a result, a potential store owner rejected the proposition. If the city had had the authority to go to the owner and guarantee a five-year period in which the valuations would not have been increased, it might have made a difference in the deal.

THE POINT the Rochester mayor made was that no city can afford from a tax standpoint to allow its central business district to wither and die. It would be too costly to the rest of the taxpayers.

Williams Deserved Better Treatment

EVEN THE Milwaukee Journal, long a staunch organ of the Democrat party, agrees that John Williams, the Republican senator from Delaware, deserved better treatment than he received at the hands of the chairman and counsel of the Senate committee investigating the Bobby Baker scandal.

Williams is the senator whose charges touched off the investigation 14 months ago and who, after Baker had resigned and the inquiry bogged down, produced new charges last September. Last week Lennox McLendon, the committee counsel, told Williams he "ought to at least tell the truth" and Chairman Jordan (D-NC) implied — to Williams' way of thinking — that the senator from Delaware had held back his most recent charges until they might have election impact.

In his 18 years in the Senate, Williams has never resorted to lies, smears or cheap politics. He has won a deserved reputation by fighting dishonesty and uncovering corruption in both political parties.

WILLIAMS HELPED force the resignation of William Boyle as chairman of the Democratic national committee for aiding a client to obtain a government loan. Then he turned around and leveled similar charges against Guy Gabrielson, Republican chairman. Gabrielson was replaced.

Williams led the demand for an investigation of Sherman Adams, President Eisenhower's administrative chief, for gift taking.

SAYS THE JOURNAL: Sen. Williams' long record shows no justification for challenging his integrity or questioning his word. The attack on him again raises questions about the real desire of the committee majority to get to the bottom of the Baker case.

THE WORLD TODAY

Many Meanings To GOP Unity

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Somebody mention unity? There are about a dozen dictionary definitions of unity and this may explain the lack of it among Republicans who want their defeated party to unite.

Dean Burch says he wants unity although over the weekend some Republican governors said they want him fired as chairman of the Republican National Committee, a job he got through Sen. Barry Goldwater.

The governors in Denver issued a statement calling for party unity and, among other things, suggesting the national committee take a good look at its leadership.

Some of them said this wasn't aimed at Burch; some said it definitely was. Particularly Govs. George Romney of Michigan, Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania said they want Burch out.

Burch, whether or not he was a good chairman, was a terrible prophet for on election night, Nov. 3, with the roof falling in on Goldwater, he cheerfully predicted: "This picture is going to brighten considerably as the sun moves toward the West."

The final news from the West was even worse. Goldwater lost every Western state except his own Arizona.

But Monday, in a statement which some interpreted as a move to soothe his critics and keep his job, Burch called for unity.

"It now remains for all of us, governors, senators, congressmen, state chairmen, national committee members and workers, to demonstrate that the Republican party seeks strength through unity — not weakness and even impotence through needless quarreling and disunity."

AT THE SAME TIME his right-hand man — John Grenier, executive director of the national committee — quit with a statement which could hardly be considered a unifier or a pacifier.

Grenier, a fervent Goldwaterite, had been under criticism, too. His sudden departure, so soon after the governors' statement, could be considered an effort to cool off attacks on Burch and the committee.

But Grenier didn't seem obsessed by unity when he called in newsmen to announce he was leaving.

He said he will defend Burch and blamed a big part of Goldwater's defeat on "so-called Republicans": Romney, Rockefeller and Scranton. He said he was leaving to resume his law practice in Alabama.

THE URGE TOWARD unity among Republicans is not new although it has taken strange turns. It began right after the election.

Richard M. Nixon, former vice president who campaigned for Goldwater, said the party needs unifiers, not dividers, and then attacked Rockefeller, who didn't campaign for Goldwater, as one of the principal dividers. He called Rockefeller, a "spoilsport" and Rockefeller called him "peevish."

About the same time former President Dwight D. Eisenhower was saying he thought Nixon would play a great role in unifying the party. But Robert E. Smylie, Republican governor of Idaho, was just then calling for Burch's ouster.

Goldwater after the election suggested it might be a good idea to realign the Democratic and Republican parties into "two new teams" under "liberal" and "conservative" banners.

BUT HENRY CABOT LODGE, who had been a senator and ambassador to South Viet Nam, thought this was such a bad idea he called it "totally abhorrent to the American two-party system."

While Goldwater said he intends to retain the party leadership, he also said the real source of the leadership is in Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, Republican Senate leader, and Indiana's Charles A. Halleck, Republican House leader.

But Dirksen apparently doesn't want to get into any fights. He said: "I intend to stand still. I intend to do a lot of thinking and get a new perspective."

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Johnson Won't Desert Committee 'Dictators'

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — President Johnson today throws a party for freshman Democratic congressmen. It should be a salubrious affair.

Some very fine new congressmen are coming to Washington for the first time, and if they stick with the President they can be invaluable in putting across his program, especially such tight issues as Medicare.

The President will be warm and eloquent with the newcomers as only he can be. He can tell them all about the problems of Capitol Hill, and what it's like to be a very green, very lowly freshman, because he was a very green, very gawky youngster from Texas when he arrived in Washington 27 years ago.

But one thing the President probably will not tell his guests about is the frustrations of being a new congressman. He may tell them not to be discouraged with the rule that a freshman should be seen and not heard. But he won't tell them what to do when they go home after the first year and the voters ask how many bills they passed and their embarrassing reply will be: "None."

Johnson won't touch on this, because this involves one of the sacred rules of Congress — seniority. It involves the right of one man who, not by ability but by living longer and coming from a safe district such as Mississippi or Brooklyn, can outlast his colleagues and rise to become committee chairman.

IF YOU WANT to get a bill passed, therefore, you have to back-slap and boot-lick that chairman. More important, you have to trade votes — vote the way he wants you to vote on his pet projects, in return for which he'll give the green light to yours.

Or you have to bow and scrape even to get on his committee. Rep. Wilbur Mills, the charming Arkansas Democrat, who is chairman of the powerful Ways and Means committee and is opposed to Medicare, will be very careful whom he lets on his committee. He wants no liberals who oppose the AMA.

President Johnson wants to have Medicare passed, and would like to see new anti-AMA congressmen on the Ways and Means Committee. But this is a sacred subject, which he won't discuss at the very pleasant White House reception tonight.

His freshman guests will find out the score in a hurry, however, as did a courageous California freshman, Don Edwards, when he proposed a motion to censure the would-be vice president, Rep. William Miller, R-N.Y., for making speeches on a tariff measure affecting Lockport, Ill., from which Miller was drawing a salary.

When Edwards pressed his resolution, two oldtimers, John Rooney, D., who comes from safe Democratic Brooklyn, and Chet Holifield, from the safe Los Angeles suburbs, warned him he would get no more bills passed and would lose out on good committee assignments if he persevered.

EDWARDS WAS fighting for ethics, was also trying to help Democratic candidates, including a man named Johnson. But senior Democratic members of Congress urged him to pipe down. It was more important not to antagonize the establishment — than to fight for ethics on Capitol Hill.

Charley Porter, a live-wire youngster from Oregon, learned what it meant to antagonize the establishment. Waging a campaign against dictators, he cited the late dictator of the Dominican republic, Generalissimo Trujillo, and the fact that he had given decorations to various congressmen, including Speaker John McCormack. After that, Charley got no more choice assignments nor any help with his legislation. He was defeated next time around.

These are some of the unwritten rules of Congress which nobody talks about. Two years ago, the seniority system permitted two octogenarians, Sen. Carl Hayden, D-Ariz., and Clarence Cannon, D-Mo., to hold up all appropriation bills for three months because they wouldn't agree on which would walk across the Capitol to meet the other.

They were pleasant, able men, but seniority had gone to their heads.

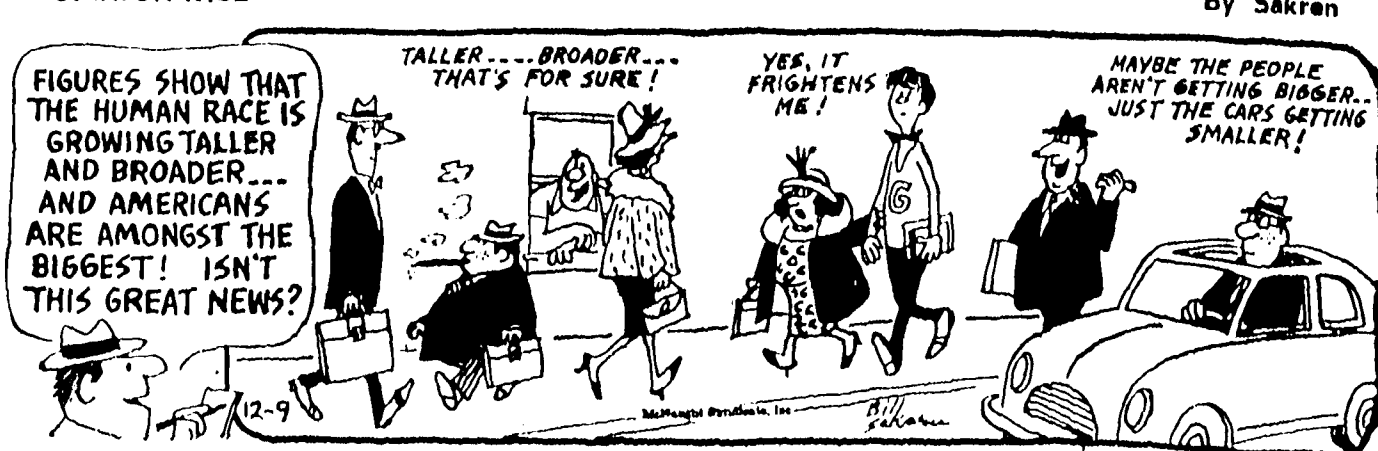

THE PRESIDENT will not tackle this sacred subject of seniority, first because he was once part of it, second because he can get his legislation passed despite it — whereas a less able and less persuasive president in the future can't. Finally, some of Lyndon's old cronies would be involved, and Lyndon made it very clear immediately after the election that old cronies, even when they kick him in the shins politically, come first.

WASHINGTON CALLING

Power, Prestige In Nuclear Blast

By MARQUIS CHILDS

NEW DEHLI — To observe even briefly the struggle of a nation to cast off the bondage of ancient poverty is to understand how enormously difficult the undertaking is. The handicaps — ignorance, inertia, caste, tradition — are so great. And when still another handicap is added the outlook must seem all but hopeless.

That added handicap is the arms race. Unless the ever-mounting burden it imposes is reduced or done away with, the end will be failure — starvation, anarchy, chaos whether with or without a large-scale war.

This has been shown in stark relief by the lurid light of the Chinese nuclear explosion. The comforting belief currently cherished is that China has been shown by this act to be a wicked warmonger. But the mushroom cloud that hangs on the horizon is a symbol of power and prestige to all of Asia. Go and do likewise is what seems to signal to nations yearning for prestige and power.

What it shows in an equally stark light is the bankruptcy of a policy that simply opposes the proliferation of nuclear weapons. The race cannot be halted by wishing it away. India is a dramatic case in point.

THE brilliant physicist-administrator, Homi J. Bhabha, who is largely responsible for this country's remarkable atomic establishment at Trombay, near Bombay, believes that within 18 months a nuclear device could be set off in India. Actually, assembling the device is a relatively simple process once a plutonium plant is constructed and in operation. Furthermore, he believes the Chinese have the capacity today to make 30 to 50 bombs a year and this apparently would not be beyond India's reach at a cost of under $100,000,000.

Bhabha says his critics are wrong in saying he wants to rush into making bombs. But he insists that China's bomb is above all a signal that no time is to be lost. Neither the United Nations nor the great powers, he went on, have succeeded in creating a climate favorable to countries which have the capability of making atomic weapons but have voluntarily refrained from doing so.

Within two years, in his view, a start must be made on nuclear and general disarmament. Particularly, the United States and the Soviet Union must make massive cutbacks. Having set such an example, the great powers could take the steps essential to prevent the further spread of nuclear weapons. Short of this, the drift will continue and the nuclear club will be steadily enlarged.

THE VITAL importance of new and bold initiatives is regarded here as the first lesson of the Chinese explosion and the situation of uncertainty and dismay it has created in Asia. New proposals are being put forward. M. R. Masani, head of India's right-wing Swatantra party, suggested that the United States and the Soviet Union agree on a joint guarantee to all Asian nations that feel threatened by China's new weapon.

Bhabha has proposed that India set off an underground nuclear explosion that would be an experiment pointing the way to the peaceful use of nuclear energy in building dams and moving mountains. This would demonstrate India's capacity and the decision to use that capacity for peaceful purposes. The initial experiment might be aimed at a specific project in the immediate future.

The Trombay operation, which began with an atomic reactor provided by Canada, is producing enough plutonium to fuel two power plants with a capacity of 1,000,000 kilowatts of power. This is a formidable achievement in view of the fact that except initially very little help has come from the outside. The first plant in Rajasthan is in the first stage of preparation for building and the second

Letters to The Editor

Urge Congressmen to Vote No on Medicare
To the Editor:

You recently published a fine editorial against Medicare. You did not go far enough. You should have told that the social security program is operating in the red so we can't afford to pay more and more taxes that are going down the drain. The President has not told how he can improve the financial condition but hints he will broaden benefits as well as add Medicare, which as you said is a duplicate to the Kerr-Mills law.

Every taxpayer should write their representatives in Washington to vote NO, NO, NO on Medicare.

4-H "Leader's Leaders"

To the Editor:

I am a 4-H leader.

A short time ago I received a note in the mail from one of my 4-H'ers. It was a nicely written "Thank You" for helping him to become a better 4-H person. My first reaction was one of complete pleasure and happiness. Then I thought "I have done only what is my job as a 4-H leader."

Perhaps that will be your opinion as I propose a toast plus a big bouquet to our Winona County extension people. Perhaps you say they are only doing their job. I would like to say they are doing far more than their jobs.

Not long ago I attended the 4-H leaders appreciation banquet sponsored by the Agricultural Committee of the Winona Chamber of Commerce. As I sat, happy and well fed, listening to praise and applause for 4-H leaders, I thought "Who deserves the title of 4-H leaders more than John, Virginia and Ollie," for they are truly the Leader's Leaders. Without their ready help we leaders would be stumbling around in the dark. Few people realize how hard it really is to always be gracious and helpful to everyone who has a problem.

We are approaching the holiday season, when we who are thoughtless at other times of year, take time to express our thanks and appreciation to each other in the ageless tradition of Good Will Among Men.

So we say thank you to John Halverson, Virginia Holmann and Oliver Strad and a very Merry Christmas.

Mrs. Henry Heublein

will be built later in Madras.

BUT HOWEVER impressive this is, it does not somehow match the raw force of what China has done. That is the irony of the present moment as the psychological fallout from Asia's first nuclear explosion continues to manifest itself in a wide variety of ways.

To assume that China had won admission to the nuclear club and that in any future conference of nuclear powers Peking would be present, this in the Indian view would be the greatest mistake that could be made. Such a conference, if it is held, must include the powers with a potential for making bombs in the not too distant future — among others Canada, India, Japan, Sweden, West Germany.

BILL MERRILL'S Something to Live by

By BILL MERRILL

What have you got on your mind? Whatever it is, it could be vital to your future. So, let's explore your mind.

Locked in the cavity of the skull is the embodiment of gray matter that has value to the individual beyond comprehension. I do not intend to delve into the amazing aspect of the mechanics of thought, and what the Creator has instilled into the organism of man to make the brain function. Let's accept the obvious and that is, that along with many other wonderful truths regarding the human make-up is the fact of thought.

The brain is a willing worker often tossing off ideas and thoughts long after an individual has emotionally surrendered to the physical desire to quit. I mention this because many good thoughts are discarded because folks have not understood what to do with them. I suppose most of us from time to time have indulged in daydreaming. The things one daydreams about we believe would be pleasant to experience, only we often submit to failure before we start, and thus, few daydreams are ever experienced.

I HAVE read that what the mind can conceive, the mind can achieve. At first, this seemed a little far-fetched, but then, once I weighed it out, it struck me. That's right. If you can conceive a thing mentally and hook it with a plan to develop that idea, and persist to the fulfillment of the plan, that idea can and will become a reality. But, it takes initiative and ambition to work out the details and the determination to accomplish the task, even in the face of obstacles, and there are usually obstacles.

Do you know why groups often fail to achieve their ends and goals? Because the element of thought has not been coordinated between them. The church board, school board, sales force, or what have you, need to learn the art of thinking together. A negative attitude in any group can cause failure before a plan is off the ground. And that negative attitude is usually born of the lack of togetherness of thought.

BY THE same token, the individual needs to boil his ideas, dreams and ambitions born of thought, down to singleness of purpose, and then let the mind develop on that particular purpose. Trouble is, most people just don't realize the value of their ideas and let them pass. The next time an idea hits you, write it down, then meditate on it at every opportunity. Very soon after you get the idea, begin doing something about it; develop a plan, and then pursue it. The value of that idea may well exceed your fondest imagination. But remember, you must do something about it. Make the first move immediately and the idea has a fighting chance to live. And who knows — that very idea could prove vital to your future.

Legionnaires, Auxiliary Members And Spouses Celebrate Christmas

Legionnaires, wives and auxiliary members to Leon J. Wetzel Post 9, totaling about 200, dined on baked ham and "all the trimmings" at the post's annual Christmas dinner and joint meeting Tuesday night at the Legion Memorial Club, and concluded the evening singing carols in the gaily Christmas-decorated club.

Serving as chef for the dinner was Legionnaire John Wambach, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Peterson, Mrs. Milton Green and the club steward, Joe Poblacki. Following the meal the Brigadiers, all-girl color guard, instructed by Richard Otto, and the Brigadiers boys' drum and bugle marching unit, instructed by Carl Neville, entertained in the main ballroom. Attired in their white and yellow uniforms, the color guard presented a precision drill and the drum and bugle unit played musical selections.

The post and auxiliary held separate meetings and one of the first orders of business for the auxiliary was to recognize and commend the members of the club Christmas decorating committee. Those who helped "deck the halls" were Messrs. and Mmes. R. V. Hammond, Alvin Beeman, E. G. Callahan, Wib Helzer and Joe Poblacki, John Wambach and Mrs. Robert Sexton.

Mrs. Herbert Honer reported receipt of a letter from the State Department of Public Welfare requesting a second Crippled Children's clinic to be held here in February. The auxiliary voted unanimously to sponsor this second clinic, which will be co-chaired by Mrs. Honer and Mrs. Frank Nottelman.

Reports were heard from Mrs. Lyle Haney, child welfare chairman; Mrs. Earle Toye, hospital visitor and memorial

Hotel Winona. Others admiring the tables of exchange gifts are, Mrs. M. J. Fleming, left, who was speaker of the evening, and Miss Alma Kemp. (Daily News photo)

Child at BPWC Dinner Party Adds to Meaning of Holiday

Christmas carols, lovely Christmas poems and a story, and a little six-year-old girl who assisted Santa Claus in the distribution of gifts to the members, were the highlights of the December dinner meeting of the Winona Business and Professional Women's Club Tuesday evening at the Hotel Winona. Dinner was preceded by a Christmas prayer devotion given by Miss Sadie Marsh.

THE PROGRAM was divided into three sections, each in charge of a committee member of the friendship and music committees, assisted by the decorations committee.

Mrs. James Werra of the Music committee introduced Marita Wolf, age 6, who sang a group of children's Christmas songs, accompanied by her father, Robert Wolf, teacher at St. Martin's School and director of the Junior Choir.

Marita added the little touch necessary to bring home to the members that Christmas is essentially a children's holiday, and a time of reminiscence to the older members of children telling of the Infant Saviour and the joy He brought to the world. Mrs. Werra also directed the members in the singing of a group of familiar carols.

Miss Alma Kemp, chairman of the friendship committee, introduced Mrs. M. J. Fleming, guest speaker, who reviewed "A Partridge in a Pear Tree" by Neville Braybrook, which contains 195 tributes to the Infant Jesus. She read "Christmas Day — A Family Sitting" by Meade Faulkner, who was headmaster at Oxford from 1850 to about 1890; "Three Kings" by John Dunn; and then told the wonderful story by O'Henry, of "The Gifts of the Magi."

MRS. J. I. Van Vranken, assisted by Marita and Miss Kemp, distributed gifts exchanged by the members. Mrs. E. A. Ferguson, decorations chairman, had carried out the theme of the season with red sleighs filled with goodies, and attractive table trees. Hotel Winona added another festive touch with an individual gift to each person at the dinner.

Miss Rose Schettler, president of the club, presided at the brief business session. She read the Christmas message from the National President, Dorothy M. Ford. Plans were discussed for member contributions to the International Congress Reserve Fund and to continue the "2 Cents Worth" giving to the five national projects, which include the Chinese Nursing Fund, the favorite project of the Winona Club. This fund has provided a home for the nurses, aided in their training, and now is setting up a dormitory in memory of Dr. Minnie Moffat who began this project many years ago. The dormitory in Taiwan will house 180 nurses when completed.

ATTENDANCE prize was won by Miss Janet Newcomb. Miss Margaret Weimer announced she has nuts for sale, as she just received a new shipment. Cards will be sent to the shut-in members of the organization by the secretary as a greeting from all club members. Gifts were brought for the needy of the City of Winona and will be distributed through the City Welfare Office by Mrs. Katherine Breitbach and her staff. A social hour of cards followed the business session.

Vic Mature Sued For $1,175,000

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor Victor Mature has been accused in a $1,175,000 damage suit of falsely representing that he intended to work in a movie in order to get a free trip to Europe.

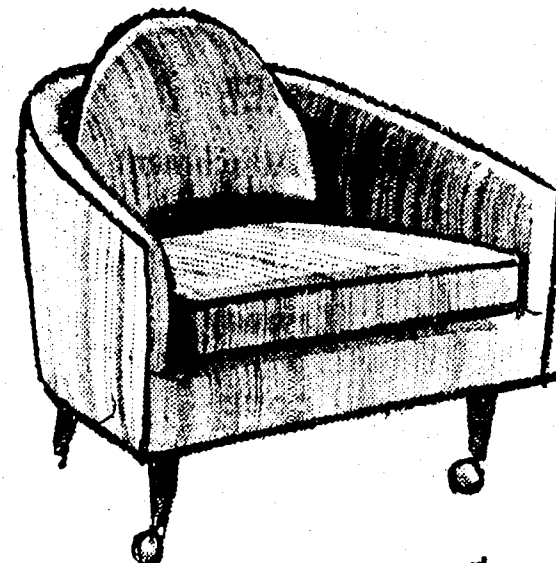

Producer Sidney Pink, who filed the suit in Los Angeles Monday, alleges Mature accepted a round-trip ticket with the understanding he was to report to Madrid last July 8. The complaint says that when Mature arrived in France, he went on to London. He finally was induced to show up in Madrid but demanded, the producer claimed that a friend be hired as a double. Pink said he met this and other demands — until it became apparent Mature had no intention of working.

Justice Explains Redistricting At La Crosse

LA CROSSE, Wis. — State Supreme Court Justice Nathan S. Heffernan said Tuesday that "rule by the majority" not only equal access to the polls, but also equal weight in the count, and equal effect in the ultimate result.

Heffernan said that recent decisions by the U.S. Supreme Court and the Wisconsin Supreme Court on reapportionment have recognized this and have done something about it.

"The decisions affording equal representation in the state legislature and in Congress have guaranteed to each citizen an equal voice in the vital decisions which affect us all," he continued.

Heffernan was appointed to the high tribunal by Gov. John W. Reynolds and is seeking a 10-year term in the spring election.

Wabasha County Cancer Society Offering Films

WABASHA, Minn. — At the quarterly meeting of the Wabasha County board of the American Cancer Society, this week, Mrs. M. G. Mahle, education chairman, announced that 16 millimeter films are available for group showings.

Information on the free films may be secured from Mrs. Mahle or any member of the society board.

Mrs. William Wallerich, Lake City, is new county memorial chairman. The society announced that more persons are sending memorial contributions to cancer research. Such memorial gifts may be sent to Mrs. Wallerich. An acknowledgement will be sent to the family by the American Cancer Society.

Although about 43,000 die in the U.S. of lung cancer annually, much is being done in research and cure, Mrs. Mahle said. Today more than a million people are living who have been cured of cancer. It is important to have periodic medical examinations — every doctor's office is a primary detection center for cancer, said Mrs. Mahle.

The meeting was held at the new home of Dr. and Mrs. Mahle on Sand Prairie.

Little Joe Rocket Tests Moon Ship

WHITE SANDS MISSILE RANGE, N.M. (AP)—A Little Joe 2 rocket hurled a dummy moonship skyward Tuesday in an apparently successful test of the launch escape system for proposed moonflight astronauts.

The 340,000-pound-thrust rocket was knocked off course by a ground signal about 37 seconds after launch, at an altitude of about 31,000 feet.

The 155,000-pound thrust escape motors then ignited and pulled the dummy moonship vehicle away in the mock emergency.

Range officials set out to recover the spaceship, which was to descend about 6½ miles from the launch pad.

CAB Dismisses North Central Plea for Funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil Aeronautics Board has dismissed a petition by North Central Airlines for a $117,360 increase in its 1964 subsidy to cover the estimated economic impact of doubling daily service at Worthington, Minn.

The CAB said North Central did not seek reassessment of its system-wide subsidy need but asked only for an adjustment related to increasing Worthington's service from one round trip to two round trips daily.

This is "a schedule change within the control of management" and is no basis for a subsidy increase, the board said. It noted that North Central made no claim that its annual subsidy payments of $7,859,000 failed to meet its need, including a fair return on investment.

"Nowhere does North Central assert or even suggest that its anticipated profits, after including a second round-trip to Worthington, will be reduced to the point where they are inadequate," the CAB said.

Democrats Want Changes in Rules for House

WASHINGTON (AP) — Leaders of the Democratic Study Group, an organization of House liberals, are backing sweeping changes in party and House rules and procedures.

In general, the changes would strengthen the hand of the party leadership and the majority of the House as against committee chairmen. At least one might help President Johnson's proposal for medical care for the aged to win House approval.

This recommendation would revise the party makeup on House committees to reflect Democratic election gains which gave it 68 per cent of the House.

The Ways and Means Committee, which has been the graveyard of the Social Security health program in the House, has remained at a 3-2 ratio; now, 15 Democrats and 10 Republicans. The division has been so close that a shift of one or two votes might make the difference.

Britain Wants To Reduce Its Army on Rhine

LONDON (AP) — Britain plans to ask its allies in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization to endorse an economy reduction in the 61,000-man Rhine army it maintains in West Germany, political sources said Monday night.

British and West German officials were meeting today to discuss the cost of the force, which takes $238 million of Britain's scarce foreign exchange each year.

Johnson Gets Good Advice

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson told Monday night of some whispered advice he had received from the First Lady.

At a White House dinner honoring British Prime Minister Harold Wilson, Johnson said: "I had some very special advice, Mr. Prime Minister, just a few minutes before you arrived. My wife whispered in my ear as we were coming out to greet you this morning, she said, 'Dear, this is judgment day and be sure you use plenty of it.'"

"I have tried to follow her advice."

Construction Outlook Good

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Winter's first onslaughts may be putting a crimp on construction here and there but not in the industry's confidence that still another good year lies ahead.

Construction poured about $62 billion into the economy in 1963, and in the first 11 months of this year was running 6 per cent ahead of that.

Once feared as a possible drag on 1965's economic growth because of a slowdown in home building, construction in general now is billed to add at least a moderate lift next year.

Housing accounts for about one-third of the total and may be less than spectacular. Many elements in the other two-thirds continue to boom.

Census Bureau figures for November show actual construction, figured at a seasonal adjusted annual rate, running at $65.6 billion, ahead of both October 1964 and November 1963.

This helps offset the pessimism generated by the October reports of another statistic, contract awards. These had dropped 7 per cent from a year ago, largely because of the sharpest decline of this year in the residential field.

Contract awards point ahead and any drop if prolonged is disturbing. But economists point out that other forward-looking signs are good. Spending for several other forms of construction seem sure to rise.

These include new highways, school building, manufacturing plants. Plans have been announced for expansion in all three fields.

Office building has topped out in some regions, continues at a fast pace in others. For the nation as a whole, office building may stay around this year's rate — far from a drag on the economy, but still no boost.

And the utilities should spend more for expansion because Americans go right on talking more on the phone and using more electricity and gas.

Much of the slowdown has been charged to overbuilding in some communities, and largely in apartment houses where vacancy rates have been rising.

All of this is expected to change in the next few years as the many who were born in the middle and late '40s become young adults and move, first into apartments, and then into homes of their own.

But next year, if construction is to help the economy grow, the accent will be more on spending by federal, state and local governments, and expansion by industries. The climb from the $55 billion of 1961 to the current annual rate of $65 billion is expected to continue.

46 Million Yule Trees for U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—About 46 million Christmas trees will add glitter to the American holiday season this year, the Agriculture Department predicts.

Most of the trees will come from domestic forests and plantations, but about 850,000 will be cut in national forests. The department said a six-foot tree may take as much as a quart of water daily to keep it fresh and fire-resistant after it is first brought indoors.

Girl, 13, Will Rejoin Mother In Poland

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — A girl's love for her mother and father has triumphed over that for her adopted land. Henia Wysocki, 13, who ran away rather than return to Poland with her parents, has decided to join them. The pretty, flax-haired seventh-grader left Hartford by train Sunday for Quebec. Today she'll sail alone on the Polish liner Batory to be with her parents in a Warsaw suburb by Christmas.

The Batory is the same ship that took her distraught parents — Leon, 43, and Jadwiga, 40 — back to Poland Nov. 13.

Wysocki spent two sleepless days looking for the girl after she disappeared Nov. 11 from their home.

She is the Wysockis' only child. Two younger brothers died of illness in Poland before the family came here in late 1961.

With $2,000 invested in ship tickets, the Wysockis finally decided to sail as scheduled and leave Henia's welfare in the hands of relatives.

Services Still Can't Agree on One Belt Buckle

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three years ago today, the chief of the newly created Defense Supply Agency beamed "at reporters and announced his first victory in a campaign to end wasteful buying practices by the armed services.

Folding his arms contentedly, Lt. Gen. Andrew T. McNamara said he had decreed that all the armed services should standardize on a single belt buckle design and that it would be made of black coated metal.

As it turned out, McNamara's victory claim was a bit premature. Since then, the general has retired from the Army, his place in DSA has been taken by a Navy admiral — and the all-service belt buckle still isn't a reality.

There are those who believe it may never be.

The Defense Supply Agency was one of Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara's earliest ideas for saving millions of dollars.

He hopes to do this by combining the purchasing of thousands of items used by all the services — clothing, foods, auto parts, and many others. The aim: To eliminate duplication of efforts, sometimes even competition among the services for the same thing.

After creating DSA in late 1961, the secretary appointed Gen. McNamara — no relative — to head the new agency. The general was once the Army's chief quartermaster.

One of the first questions to confront the general was this one: Why should the services use different kinds of belt buckles?

Army, Navy and Air Force men wore gold or silver ones. They were less expensive than the metal buckles favored by the Marines.

The Marine buckle was said to come in handy opening beer bottles, but it wasn't this feature that made it more expensive. DSA said the relatively high cost of the Marine buckle was traceable to its heavy copper content.

So Gen. McNamara stepped in and handed down his uniform ruling.

DEAR ABBY:

You Just Can't Trap This One

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a divorcee, 29, with two children and am considered attractive. About a year ago I spotted an eligible bachelor in town, so I moved into his apartment building hoping to make his acquaintance. I made his acquaintance all right, but that's about all. He says hello pleasantly when we meet in the hall, but I've never been able to get him into my apartment. I telephoned him one evening to tell him my bedroom window was stuck (it really was) so he sent a janitor up with a hammer. He's not going with anybody special and he's not a goody-goody because I've seen him entertain women in his apartment. None of them is as attractive as I. How can I get him interested without having it look like I'm chasing him?

GETTING NOWHERE

DEAR GETTING: It's not easy to chase a man without having it "look like" you're doing what you're doing. Face it. He's not interested in you. And any more moves in his direction will make your scheming so obvious that he's apt to hide when he sees you coming.

DEAR ABBY: I was one of nine children in a very poor family so I had to quit school in the 6th grade. I always wanted to get a better education but I never had the chance. I feel so bad when my 8th grade son asks me to help him with his homework and I am too dumb to help him. My husband can't help him either, as he never got through the 7th grade himself. I asked around and found out there is a night school for grownups. I could go four nights a week from 6 to 8. My husband laughed at me and said he never heard of a 32-year-old woman going back to school. My heart is broken. Please tell me what to do.

WANTS TO LEARN

DEAR WANTS: Your husband should quit laughing long enough to learn a few things. Adult education has been a lifesaver to many who have decided to complete their educations in their 40's, 50's and 60's. You are to be commended.

DEAR ABBY: I live in a very nosy neighborhood. Yesterday, the woman next door ran to her window the minute she heard a car pull up in front of my house. I saw her peeking through her Venetian blinds. And she saw me, too. Then she called me on the phone and said, "I didn't mean to be nosy. I just wanted to see who it was, and by the way, I didn't recognize him. Who WAS he?" Another neighbor stopped me in front of my house and said she had heard I was collecting Social Security and she was curious to know if I got it by the month or by the week and how much was it.

I have always minded my own business and have never seen the equal of such nerve. I am not able to cope with it. What do you suggest?

FLABBERGASTED

DEAR FLABBERGASTED: Go on minding your own business and ignore those who insist on helping you do it.

DEAR ABBY: How can my husband and I invite friends for dinner, but tactfully ask them not to bring their children? Abby, we love children, and have three of our own, but we never drag them along to the homes of friends when we are invited for dinner. Would it be rude if I said specifically please to leave their children at home? MRS. H. IN ONTARIO

DEAR MRS. H.: If you don't want people who "bring their children," don't invite people who "bring their children."

Troubled? Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Boy, 10, Takes Car on Freeway

WESTMINSTER, Calif. (AP) — Whoever said experience is the best teacher had it all wrong — at least in young Stephen Dugman's case.

Stephen, 10, took his first driving lesson — solo — Monday. He drove to his aunt's home in Pacoima, Calif., 62 miles away, police said.

That, by itself, is a considerable accomplishment, as any veteran truck driver would admit. Stephen, however, took the joy ride during the peak traffic rush hour, navigating a long distance on the San Diego Freeway.

The freeway speed limit is 65 miles an hour. Stephen's speed was not determined.

Police learned of the trip from a neighbor, who reported at 8:15 a.m. he had seen the boy driving around the neighborhood.

Police contacted his mother, Mrs. Joseph Dugman, who said that she didn't know what had gotten into the boy.

Two hours later, officers said, Stephen showed up at his aunt's home, Bernice Watts, after she recovered from the shock, called Westminster, then had her 17-year-old son drive Stephen home — to a severe greeting.

Stephen, who stands only 4 feet 9 inches, sits considerably less, and can barely peep out of the windshield of his parents' 1964 compact car, officers said.

Police said apparently no one paid any attention to the boy as he drove through the heavy traffic, but Southern California traffic is like that — everyone is intent on one thing, getting there, and fast.

Investigators said Stephen's mother was told to bring him to the station, probably for a lecture. They said Stephen had probably already encountered one lecture — one he's still smarting over.

HODER FOURTH TO COP HONORS IN FIVE GAMES

Redmen Win Has Wiltgen Smiling

By GARY EVANS
Daily News Sports Editor

St. Mary's 69-58 victory over St. Norbert Tuesday night had Redmen Coach Ken Wiltgen beaming broadly — and for good reason.

The smile was there for the following reasons:

- The victory shattered a three-game Green Knight unbeaten string and wrote into a 101.6 St. Norbert scoring average.
- It was St. Mary's fourth straight victory against an opening-game loss to Stout and will send the Redmen into the MIAC opener at Macalester Saturday under a full head of steam.

- Any rebounding problems the Redmen had in their early-season tests was forgotten as the group swept the boards at both ends, coming up with 41 ricochets.

- The shooting, both from outside and inside, sizzled under a 24-for-52 barrage that netted the team a 46.2 percentage.

And then there were the two biggest reasons:

- Sophomore center George Hoder rapped home 24 points to become the fourth Redman to capture team honors in five games.

- When St. Norbert went into a combination zone and man-to-man defense in the first half, Wiltgen was convinced his team had as much background as it could hope for prior to league activity.

"That's one thing that really makes me happy," he said. "We've seen something of everything — zones, man-to-man and now the combination. We even got to practice controlling the ball tonight."

With St. Norbert content to "sit" in its zone, the Redmen coolly controlled the ball in the final eight minutes of the game.

"I DON'T like to stall," summed up Wiltgen. "But if they don't want to come out and get us, we'll control it."

A glance at the scoreboard brought another smile. "A different leading scorer," he stated. "That's what I like to see."

St. Norbert, the team that had shot three successive foes into submission, wasn't about to blow the Redmen off the floor. That fact was demonstrated to the packed house early.

With the tough man-to-man St. Mary's has always employed taking its toll and Hoder coming up with a beautiful individual effort in the middle of the first half, St. Mary's led by 35-32 at intermission.

WITH ST. NORBERT leading 6-5 and under 15 minutes left, Hoder rolled out of the pivot and scissored in two long jumpers from the right side for a 9-6 lead before John Patterson counted for the Knights on a short one-hander.

Just to prove he wasn't a "one-spot man," Hoder moved left and drilled home two more long-range goals to up the margin to 13-8. Green Knight reserve John Zeihen hit a jumper and the score went to 16-14 before Hoder got into the act again.

He ripped home another long-range one-hander from the top of the key to make it 18-14 before sliding down the lane on a drive for another two points.

St. Norbert led at 26-25, before Jerry Sausser dropped in two free throws and Rog Pytlewski a jumper. St. Norbert got it back at 32-31 and goals by Pytlewski and Hoder rammed the halftime margin out of reach.

THE SECOND HALF was no contest as St. Mary's pulled steadily away, leading 61-47 with 6:54 left and then coasting home.

Playing supporting roles to Hoder were George Valaika and Mike Maloney with 13 each and Pytlewski with 12.

LeRoy Weyenberg led St. Norbert with 14 and Patterson and reserve Dave Gagermeier each got 10.

The Green Knights drew two technicals for talking to the officials with exuberance and St. Mary's picked up one as the wrong man went to the line after a foul.

CALEDONIA, PETES WIN

Homuth, Grovers Upset Hurricanes

ROOT RIVER

Peterson 3 0	Spring Grove 1 4
Houston 2 1	Canton 1 4
Caledonia 2 1	Mabel 0 3
Rushford 1 1

Squeakers were the order of the night Tuesday, as three

Root River league games were decided by a total of nine points.

In the topper, Caledonia's Jon Ask flipped in a basket with five seconds remaining in an overtime to take a 46-44 win over a scrappy Canton team. Houston was upset by Spring Grove 64-62 in another battle and Peterson had some trouble with Mabel, but won 65-60.

Badgers Whip Pitt 80-63

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The University of Wisconsin soundly defeated Pitt 80-63 in an inter-sectional basketball game Tuesday night, and so thoroughly were the Badgers in command they devoted the last minutes to experimenting with their tallest lineup in years.

"This is the first time we'll fly home with a victory in over a year," said elated Badger Coach John Erickson. Reminded that the Badgers swept the Milwaukee Classic Tournament last December, Erickson recalled, "We went home from that one by bus."

The Badger victory was built on the scoring of 6-foot-junior Mark Zubor and the rebounding of another junior, 6-foot-3 Ken Barnes.

Zubor matched his Badger high as he scored 28 points, hitting on 11 of 16 shots from the floor and 6 of 9 from the free throw line. Barnes added 13 points but made his biggest contribution with 17 rebounds.

SPRING GROVE 64 HOUSTON 62

Mel Homuth's basket in the last 11 seconds provided Spring Grove with a 64-62 win over previously unbeaten Houston.

Homuth meshed 31-27 at the night to lead both teams. That runs his three-game total to 111 points.

The Grovers were down by ten points, 60-50, with three minutes to go, thanks mainly to a Hurricane press. The Grovers led 31-27 at the half.

Lowell Trehus aided Homuth with 11 points. Doug Poppe led Houston with 14. Bruce Carrier added 13 and Bob Bremsted 12. Trehus and Rolf Hanson starred defensively for Spring Grove.

CALEDONIA 46 CANTON 44 (OT)

Thanks to a last-ditch basket with five seconds left by Jon Ask, Caledonia pulled out an overtime victory over Canton 46-44.

The score was tied 42-42 at the end of regulation play. Ask contributed 20 points in one of his finest nights of the season. Jack Hauser counted 16. Norm Giffund meshed 15 for Canton, while Don Fay had 11. Caledonia also won the "B" game 30-16.

PETERSON 65 MABEL 60

With Murlon Boyum leading the way once again, Peterson scored a 65-60 triumph over Mabel.

Boyum, flipping in 32 points on 15 field goals and a pair of free tosses, is averaging 35 points per game thanks to several 30-point performances and a 52 point showing earlier this year.

Don Gudmundson and Gerald Agrimison contributed 11 for the Petes, who now lead the conference with a 3-0 mark.

Robert Rommes had 28 for Mabel. Rick Reithmann got 12 and Housker 11.

Mabel won the "B" contest 38-21.

HOCKEY MEETING SET SATURDAY

Hot-Shooting Gophers Crush Warrior Stall

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Minnesota's flashy Gopher basketball team, ranked sixth in the nation this week by The Associated Press, showed the home folks the surest way there is to break up an opponent's slow-down tactics Tuesday night.

The Gophers simply shot Marquette's Warriors off the court with a blazing early volley, and went on to a 78-59 victory, their fourth straight.

Marquette's plan was to control the ball with what looked like a late-game stall. The Warriors employed a five-man roll, circulating all their players in a counter-clockwise motion around a wide circle.

The aim was to set picks that would hopefully spring a man open breaking toward the goal.

It worked for just over two minutes. Marquette managed a 4-4 tie to that point.

What Marquette didn't bargain for was Minnesota's blinding shooting. The Gophers ripped through 10 of their first 13 shots to break on top 22-11, and it was all over. Marquette never got closer than that 11-point deficit the rest of the way.

It was 31-15 with 8:17 remaining before halftime, and 44-32 at the half.

The Gopher advantage hung at that margin until a little over five minutes had elapsed in the second half when the score read 49-38.

Then Minnesota outscored the Warriors 10-1 in a three-minute span to up the bulge to 59-39. That ended the contest.

The Gopher advantage crested at 28 points, 74-46 with 4:06 left. Minnesota wound up hitting 44 per cent to Marquette's 26 per cent.

The Gophers had six players with nine or more points — Mel Northway and Archie Clark with 13, Lou Hudson 12, Dennis Dvoracek 10 and Don Yates 9.

Scoring honors went to Marquette's Bob Wolf with 18, and Billy Joe Smith added 14. Warrior scoring ace Tom Flynn played with a jammed shoulder and got only eight points. He hit only 2 of 11 shots from the field.

Erdmann's Goal Helps Wykats

WYKOFF, Minn. — Rick Erdmann scored the winning basket with only five seconds to go as host Wykoff won a spine-tling 7-71 from Grand Meadow here Tuesday night.

Erdmann wound up with 21 points for the Wykats. Steve Bicknese had 18 and Gary Nordhorn 19.

Doug Glynn of Grand Meadow totaled 23 and Paul Sven 25.

The Wykats won the "B" game 40-31.

St. Mary's took step No. 1 toward successful defense of its 1963-64 MIAC hockey championship by dealing St. Thomas a 7-2 setback on Terrace Heights Tuesday afternoon.

The victory was another personal chapter in the saga of center Andre Beaulieu, pride of the Hilltoppers and Shawinigan, Quebec.

Beaulieu stormed the Tommie nets for two goals and two assists in the victory that proved costly to Redmen hopes.

Dennis Cooney, who centered the "whiz-kid line" of a year ago but was pushed to right wing on Beaulieu's line for the clash with St. Thomas, suffered a cut foot as the result of a battle with a skate. The gash required six stitches and will keep Cooney out of action until after the holidays.

That could be an important factor in how the Redmen do against away-tough Macalester at Terrace Heights Saturday afternoon.

"He was such a good fore-checker that we're going to miss him a lot," said Hanzel, who plans to move up freshman Dave Brekken from Crookston, Minn., to fill a wing position.

The game was just 1:25 old when Beaulieu set the stage for a goal-filled first period by blazing in on an assist from Brian Desbiens and Mike Bishop. Bob Magnuson counted at 2:28 before Swenson scored at 5:10 for St. Thomas.

The Tommies got their final goal from Groebner at 10:59, but by that time St. Mary's held a 4-2 lead on goals by Desbiens and Jean Cardin and would go in front 5-2 by intermission on a goal by Cooney.

Cardin counted unassisted in the second period and Beaulieu in the third to wrap it up.

Pleased with a defense that allowed St. Mary's goalies to make only 17 stops, Hanzel said: "We hustled well."

According to the coach, Macalester is a young team that is progressing rapidly after 9-3 and 3-2 losses to the University of Wisconsin and a conference win.

"You'd have to rate it pretty much a tossup right now," said Hanzel.

Irlene Trimmer Smashes 591 to Take Fifth Place

If Irlene Trimmer keeps up her present pace, it won't be long before she owns the top ten women's series in the city.

She already has a tie for second, fifth and sixth. She took fifth place Tuesday night in the Ladies City League at Hal-Rod Lanes by smashing 206-177-208—591.

Carrying a 170 average in the Ladies City, she is tied with Shirley Squires for second with a 593 in the Westgate Pin Toppers and nosed her own 590, hit in the Ladies City, out of fifth with the 591.

"I JUST CAN'T quite make it," said Irlene, who bowls for Pozanc Trucking, referring to the 600. "I had five blows last night, so there's no excuse for not getting it. I was chopping down the strikes, but rushing on the spares."

Elsewhere in the league, Lucille Weaver came up with 208—535 for Pot's, Buck's Camera topped 941 and Linahan's 2,634.

Helen Grulkowski recorded 544, Annette Wiczorek 541, Ruth Lilla 522, Elsie Dorsch 523, Betty Biltgen 502 errorless, Lillian Thurlay 501, Betty Thurne 200-500 and Esther Pozanc 500.

The men were on target for a flurry of honor counts. Leading the way was Jerry Durek's 224-233-187—644 errorless for Fish Shop in the Winona Athletic Club Classic. His team registered 3,005.

PAUL PLAID JR. picked up 246 for Emil's Menswear and Bub's registered 1,029. Gordy Fakler tipped 237—622, Bob Weisbrod 220—612 and George Pozanc 223-223—599 errorless.

In the American League at Westgate, John Sherman Jr. labeled 258—643 (his first 600) to lead Country Kitchen to 1,022—2,941. Cliff Hoel of Earl's Tree Service hammered 601 as did Bill Silsbee for Grain Belt, which topped Westgate Bowl by a game and one-half for the first-half title.

State Swimmers Fall to Macs

Winona State's swimming team failed in its attempt to avenge last season's only loss in dual meet competition when Macalester College came to the Warrior pool Tuesday afternoon.

The Scots went home with a 60-28 victory.

Two pool records were cracked in the meet. The Warriors' Dennis Blanchard, a junior and the captain of the team, shattered the 100-yard freestyle mark with a 52.6 clocking. The old mark was 52.8.

Macalester's Jim De Weerd raced to a 2:17.7 clocking in the 200-yard individual medley to better the old record.

The Warriors host Stevens Point State University in the Memorial Hall pool Friday in their next meet. Starting time is 4 p.m. Saturday, the squad treks to Mankato State for another dual.

Bob Gibson of the Cardinals made 146 pitches in the deciding World Series game. He made 34 of them in the sixth inning when Mickey Mantle hit a three-run homer.

Injury-Riddled Warriors Take on Loras Tonight

By ROLLIE WUSSOW
Daily News Sports Writer

Injury-riddled and still spunky, the Winona State basketball team will take the court at 7:30 tonight against Loras College of Iowa in search of its first win of the year.

The Warriors will be without the services of high-scoring Dave Meisner, a sophomore guard, and his replacement, Jack Kelly, a senior.

Meisner, bothered by an infected blister since the start of the season, now has an injured toe to add to his discomfort. Kelly, who filled in ably in earlier games, suffered a severe ankle sprain against Platteville Monday and will be out for a week.

Replacing Kelly in the starting rotation will be 6-4, 200-pound Tim Anderson, a freshman from Bangor, Wis. Anderson played most of the Platteville game and wound up with ten points. He will also bolster the rebounding corps.

Loras, with bitter memories of Winona because of last Friday, when they were shellacked 81-53 by St. Mary's at Terrace Heights, will field a rangy lineup tonight.

The Duhawk front line will average a shade under 6-6, with 6-5 center Denny Haerle, who had 16 points against the Redmen a week ago; Laddie Sula, 6-6 sophomore at one forward, and Dale Timmerman, 6-6 and at the other forward.

Sula counted 15 and Timmerman five against St. Mary's.

At the guards will be 5-9 Jeff Gadiant and 6-1 Bill Cameron.

Coach Robert Zahren's Duhawks have had their share of tough luck this year in an attempt to improve upon last year's 13-12 mark.

Gerry Klimisch, 5-10 senior guard and playmaker, has pulled ligaments in his knee as a result of an earlier game, and 6-4 sophomore ace rebounder Ron Zwolinski has a cracked vertebrae. Both were starters.

A year ago, Loras beat the Warriors 88-72 at Dubuque.

Going for the Warriors will be Dave Goede and Gary Petersen at the guards, Dave Rosenau at center and Tom Stallings at the other forward position with Anderson.

Top reserves for Campbell tonight will be Bill Werner, Keith Asleson, Dallas Diercks, Denny Morgan, Clark Stanton and Terry Burton.

There will be a freshman preliminary game between the Warrior yearlings and the Loras frosh starting at 5:30 p.m.

Indees Move Past Arcadia, Taylor Wins

Three Dairyland Conference schools notched victories in non-conference play Tuesday night. Osseo nipped Fairchild 66-54, Independence slipped by Arcadia 40-33 and Eleva-Strum slipped by Fall Creek 73-65.

Trempealeau of the Coulee circuit fell to Taylor of the West Central loop 61-53 in another Badgerland game.

OSSEO 56 FAIRCHILD 54
After trailing for the first three periods, Osseo roared back in the fourth to outscore Fairchild 22-8 and eke out a 66-54 decision.

Fairchild led 29-21 at the half and 46-34 at the end of three quarters before faltering.

Lyle Sell paced Osseo with 21, while Lon Herrick bagged 15. Dennis Abrahamson counted 23 for Fairchild, with Dennis Blang getting 12.

The Chieftans also won the "B" game.

INDEPENDENCE 40 ARCADIA 33
Independence led from the outset of its game with Arcadia, and emerged with a 40-33 win.

Balanced scoring was the key, with Jack Bisek and Bob Edmundson each getting ten. Rolfie Thomas netted 13 and Pat Maloney 11 for the Raiders.

The Indees were victorious in the junior varsity contest 31-21.

TAYLOR 61 TREMPLEAU 53
Maynard Kral and Gary Chrisinger led Taylor to a 61-53 victory over Trempealeau.

Kral netted 24 while mate Chrisinger added 19. The Bears' Gary Meunier led both teams with 26.

Trempealeau held leads of 15-12 at the end of the first period and 38-33 at the half, but Taylor blitzed for 19 points in the third period, compared to Trempealeau's eight, to win.

Trempealeau ran away with the "B" game 52-25.

ELEVA-STRUM 73 FALL CREEK 65
Four men in double figures provided the spark needed to carry Eleva-Strum to its third win of the year, a 73-65 win over Fall Creek.

John Dinkel led the parade for the Cards with 23. Roger Tolleison netted 17. Jeff Haver 15 and Greg Finstad 12.

Fall Creek's Bob Henning counted 25 and Chuck Kramer added 19.

Eleva-Strum won the "B" game.
