General Seizes Viet Lead Again

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — South Viet Nam's generals returned Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh to power in a bloodless military coup today, and the Buddhist opposition to the civilian government began jubilant celebrations.

Nixon Warns U.S. Will Be Thrown Out

NEW YORK (AP) — Unless the United States employs a new strategy, it will be thrown out of Viet Nam "in a matter of months, certainly within a year," former Vice President Richard M. Nixon says.

Nixon claims "we are losing the war in Viet Nam" and he proposes a quarantine to cut off Communist supply lines by using American air and sea power, but not nuclear weapons.

In a speech Tuesday the 1960 Republican presidential candidate described his proposal as "a very risky one," but said he doubts Red China would enter the conflict.

"The risk involved in winning the war is far less than the risk of losing it," he said.

Air Force Pilot Killed In Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A U.S. Air Force fighter pilot and his Vietnamese observer were killed today when their plane veered off a runway and turned over at Bien Hoa Airport 12 miles northeast of here.

The crash apparently was accidental and was not the result of enemy fire.

Bitter Cold Strikes Across Middle West

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Extreme cold stung the Midwest today, adding more burdens to the thousands of families in northern Illinois driven from their homes by power failures.

The cold also swept into the Northeast, accompanied by strong winds.

Texas dust was blown by strong winds as far away as Pennsylvania in what the U.S. Weather Bureau called "an extremely unusual phenomenon."

The dust billowed over Tennessee, Ohio and Pennsylvania, apparently the remnants of a huge dust storm in Texas and Oklahoma Monday.

A heavy snow struck northern Illinois Tuesday, measuring eight inches in some areas, and hampered repair work on power lines felled by ice which had formed Saturday.

The temperature dipped near zero in the Chicago area.

Winds measured at 70 miles an hour moved across western New York, toppling trees, disrupting electrical service and causing minor damage.

Frigid air crossed the Canadian border into the north central states, sending temperatures well below zero.

In northern Illinois, 3,600 power-line repair workers—including some from Denver, Minneapolis, St. Louis, northern Ohio and Philadelphia — were hampered by Tuesday's heavy snow.

Many families without lights, heat and water rented hotel rooms and others stayed with friends. The American Red Cross, Salvation Army and Civil Defense set up public shelter and mobile units.

The Illinois Department of Health issued a power generator and 200 coats with blankets and sheets for an emergency community housing center.

Commonwealth Edison Co. officials have placed the damage to power equipment at $2 million.

Hundreds of schools remained closed because of no heat. More than 2,000 telephones were out of service. Streets were blocked off because of fallen trees, limbs and power lines.

Supersonic flights over the Chicago area were canceled again to avoid the possibility that sonic booms would disturb ice-heavy trees and sagging power lines.

Five store display windows were smashed by the strong winds in Buffalo, N.Y. Power was disrupted in northern Chautauque County by downed lines.

Ice falling from antennas atop the 102-story Empire State building in New York City forced the closing of 34th street.

The Texas dust blew into the Pittsburgh vicinity, mixing with rain for a muddy downpour.

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Gov. Warren P. Knowles says he is studying bonding methods to speed the construction of Wisconsin highways and will reactivate the turnpike commission to explore ways of completing important sections of the state road system.

Knowles told the 52nd annual Highway Conference Tuesday the commission would be asked to concentrate on completion of a Lake Michigan shore route to the Wisconsin-Illinois line to the Michigan border.

The commission looked into the possibility of building toll roads in Wisconsin more than 10 years ago. It said the prospects of making toll highways self-supporting at that time appeared slight and suggested a future re-examination of the possibilities.

Rolvaag Asks 13-43% Tax Hike To Finance $810 Million Budget

Churchill's Body in State, Wilson 1st Public Mourner

Thousands Will Pass Before Funeral Saturday

LONDON (AP) — Headed by Prime Minister Harold Wilson, a host of mourners began filing today past the flag-draped coffin of Sir Winston Churchill.

The body of Britain's 90-year-old man of the century lay in state amid the cold, hushed grandeur of ancient Westminster Hall, the first commoner to lie in state there in this century.

Wilson, his wife and members of Parliament were the first of many thousands who during the next three days will pass through the hall in tribute to one of England's greatest sons.

Outside the hall a steadily growing throng waited to pay their tribute.

Churchill's body lay in a closed coffin on a high black-draped catafalque a few steps from the House of Commons which was his historic stage. The coffin will lie there until the state funeral in St. Paul's Cathedral Saturday.

Against the backdrop of great Gothic windows, the catafalque held the eye like a magnet.

Towering over the closed coffin was a golden cross, sparkling in the light of six candles in as many giant candlesticks, one at each corner of the catafalque, one at the head, the sixth at the foot.

Their heads bowed, four motionless officers of Churchill's beloved Royal Navy and marines stood at the four corners of the catafalque.

Four London police constables — two men and two women — also stood silently near the catafalque, between it and the people as they shuffled past.

Overlooking the scene, high against the west wall, was a lone naval officer.

Every 20 minutes the guard of honor changed. Army officers and officers of the Royal Air Force replaced the officers from the navy and marines.

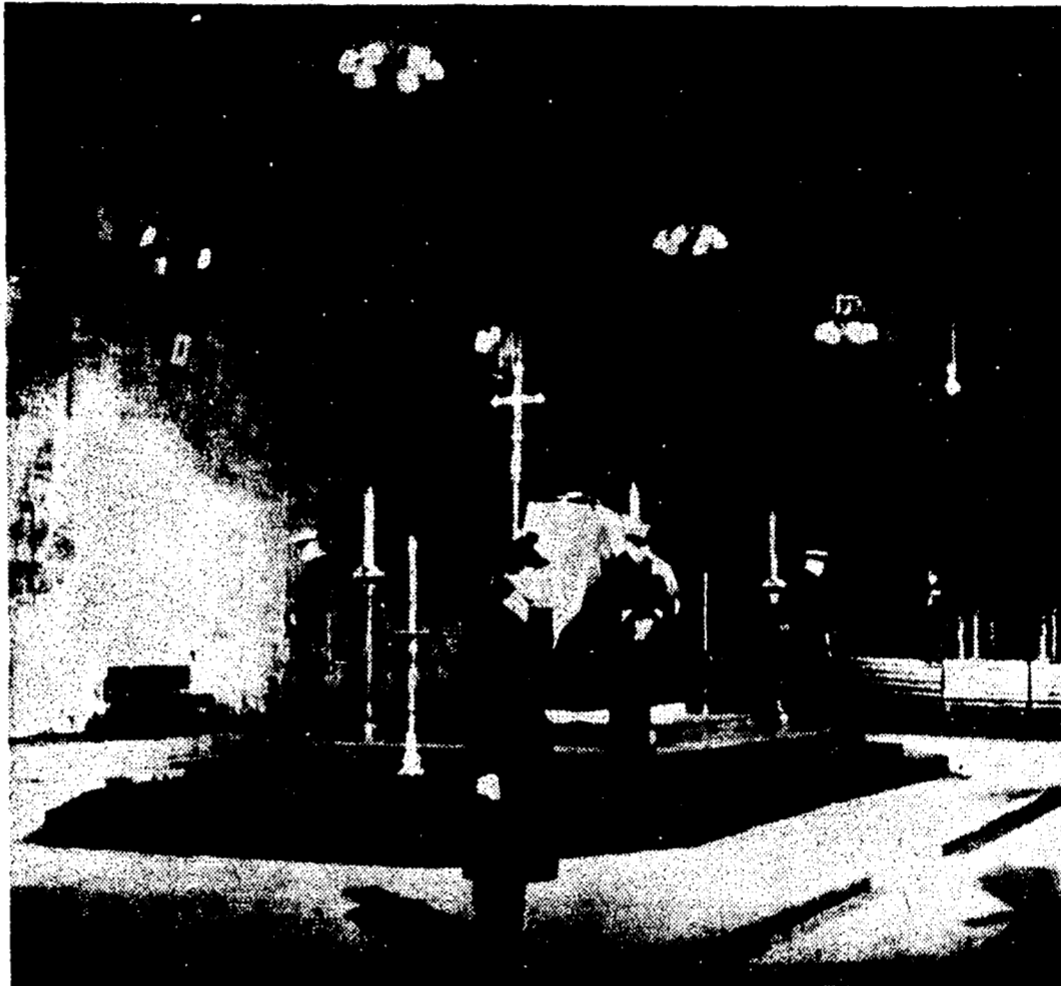

A gigantic Union Jack covered the closed coffin. Atop it was a black silk cushion. Upon the cushion rested Sir Winston's insignia as a Knight of the Garter — the collar, the star and the garter.

Before the catafalque, the prime minister and Mrs. Wilson stopped, turned and bowed.

Then they turned and walked slowly through the hall and out into New Palace Yard.

It was a cold gray morning. A northeast wind whipped in from the nearby River Thames and the distant bleak North Sea, threatened snow.

Among the first to pay tribute was Field Marshal Earl Alexander of Tunis, one of the wartime prime minister's greatest commanders.

Cadets Gagged In Cheat Quiz

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (AP) — Fidgety cadets continue to parade before a special board of officers at a secret hideout in the investigation of cheating at the U. S. Air Force Academy. The probe may stretch into weeks.

Rumors and counter-rumors fly over the picturesque 18,000-acre campus at the foot of the Rocky Mountains. Administrators have clamped a tight gag on everyone connected with the school.

A Colorado Springs newspaper reported that a faculty member was involved in the case. More than 100 cadets, including 30 members of the football team, have been implicated.

LBj Decision On Funeral Trip Awaits Checkup

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson awaited a new medical checkup today before deciding whether to fly to London for Sir Winston Churchill's funeral.

Johnson, smiling and winking, walked out of the Naval Medical Center in suburban Bethesda, Md., Tuesday after a 3 1/2-day stay with a heavy cold and sore throat.

Press secretary George E. Reedy said the President was "in very good shape" but that a final decision on whether he would fly to England was being postponed.

Dr. W. J. Gould, New York throat specialist, was flying to Washington today to join Johnson's personal physician, Rear Adm. George G. Burkley, in giving the chief executive a thorough post-hospital examination. Gould had flown to the President's bedside early Saturday morning but returned to New York Tuesday.

The delay in a decision was creating problems on both sides of the Atlantic. The British lacked definite word on whether they would have to provide for a distinguished U.S. guest at the funeral on Saturday.

U.S. Soybeans Sold to Russia

NEW YORK (AP) — Just one year after its controversial wheat sale to the Soviet Union, Continental Grain Co. has swung a soybean deal with the Russians.

The $11-million deal — the first big sale of soybeans to the Soviet Union — sent soybean futures prices to seasonal highs on the Chicago Board of Trade Tuesday.

Grain trade sources in New York expressed mild surprise that the Commerce Department granted an export license for the sale, since soybeans are not a surplus product. Wheat was.

"The question is: Will the government grant more licenses

Education, Welfare Costs Up

ST. PAUL (AP) — The biggest increases in Gov. Karl Rolvaag's budget today were education and welfare. Here are some of the details:

EDUCATION — $515 million, up $99.8 million. This includes an additional $59.3 million for school aids. Also included are the University of Minnesota, $101 million, up $24.6 million; state colleges $29.4 million, up $10.3 million; junior colleges $8.3 million, up $4.2 million.

WELFARE — $176.8 million, up $32.5 million. This includes an additional $18.8 million for categorical aid programs, an additional $10.2 million for aid to families with dependent children and $50,000 each to double the personnel and vocational training programs at correctional institutions.

The University of Minnesota budget was trimmed $8.6 million, state college requests by $10.8 million and junior colleges by $239,000.

Wisconsin Girl Slain, Young Babysitter Held

DARLINGTON, Wis. (AP) — A seven-year-old girl was found shot to death in her rural home near Benton early today when her parents returned from a card party. Authorities arrested an 18-year-old youth, employed in the home as a babysitter, who they said admitted the shooting.

Lafayette County Sheriff Edward Thompson quoted the babysitter, Donald McCollins of Elk Grove, as saying he shot the girl, Dianne Coulthard, in the chest with her father's .22 caliber revolver because she called him names.

McCollins was held in jail on an open charge, the sheriff said, and was to be questioned later today by Dist. Atty. John Schleifer of Benton.

Dianne was the eldest of six children of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Coulthard who were left in the care of McCollins Tuesday night while the parents attended a card party at the Belmont school.

$148 Million More Than 2 Years Ago

ST. PAUL (AP) — Gov. Karl Rolvaag handed the Minnesota Legislature a "conservative" budget of $810 million today for the main services of state government and asked an across-the-board income tax hike to help pay for the program.

He also suggested $33 million in tax relief for businessmen, farmers and senior citizens.

The basic budget of $810 million compares with $666.2 million fixed by the 1963 legislature.

Rolvaag asked that the two-year budget be financed by higher individual and corporate income taxes, a new pay-as-you-go plan for corporations and a 3 per cent excise tax on new cars and trucks.

He called the tax package "the fairest, the least onerous and the most productive" of the many tax ideas he had studied.

Changes in individual income taxes would furnish the bulk of the new revenue with income taxes as a whole aimed at producing 20 per cent more revenue than in the current biennium.

The income tax raise would range up to 40 per cent in some of the lower brackets but there would be no increase in the very lowest brackets.

Rolvaag's message was laid on legislators' desks late this forenoon after his illness prevented him from delivering the speech in person. A scheduled joint session of the Senate and House at noon was canceled.

Education and welfare programs account for the bulk of the budget increases—education accounting for 70 per cent of the recommended hike, welfare 21 per cent.

The main business of government would cost $105.6 million over present revenues, Rolvaag said. Property tax relief, removing the limits on old age assistance programs and other items would add another $40.9 million.

Lumping all major programs, Rolvaag is asking authority for government spending of $884.1 million in the next two years.

Here are the four major points in Rolvaag's tax program:

1. A speed-up in corporation tax collections as of June 1, resulting in a one-time windfall of $17 million. Corporations now pay the year after income is earned, hereafter they would pay in the same year.

2. Raising individual income tax rates 1 per cent in each bracket and retaining the 15 per cent surtax, netting $99 million additional revenue; tax credits would be increased $5 for all taxpayers and dependents.

3. Lowering the corporate tax rate from 10.23 per cent to 6 per cent but removing the federal tax deductibility, netting $10 million. Corporations with net income below $175,000 a year would pay less in combined state and federal taxes.

4. Adding a 3 per cent excise tax on new cars and trucks, netting $32 million added revenue. The tax would have to be paid on vehicles purchased outside the state by Minnesotans.

Rolvaag said the plan takes into account the ability to pay, protection for least fortunate citizens and limits the impact in low income groups.

"I have patiently, carefully and exhaustively reviewed possible sources of revenue including a variety of taxes currently imposed in neighboring states," Rolvaag said.

The budget will balance, the governor said, with $1.5 million left in the general revenue and income tax school funds as of June 30, 1967.

More than half—54 per cent—of his budget will be in the form of grants-in-aid to local units of government, the governor said. This includes school aids, which he asked to have increased by $18 million.

NASON ON EDUCATION

No Substitute For Understanding

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed. D.
University of S. Cal.

Johnny was a window-gazer and a short-cut artist.

While the teacher struggled valiantly to bring understanding of the arithmetic problems for the day, Johnny was looking out the window and paying no attention. But when the teacher said, "This is the way to do the problems for your homework," Johnny's quick mind became alert. If the problems were alike, Johnny could work a hundred of them in short order. Knowing the steps, he could do them practically without thinking.

Johnny, and others like him, should know that his "system" leads ultimately to confusion. Soon his mind will be filled with tricks, but Johnny will not understand the problems well enough to know when to, and when not to, use the tricks!

FAILURES in physics, chemistry and advanced mathematics can be laid directly at the door of this wrong approach. There are even proposals for new time-saving schemes, especially for arithmetic, appearing in the magazines. On the surface, they appear to have some merit.

For the student who has a thorough understanding of standard methods, short-cuts can be beneficial as well as time-saving. They enable him to check and doublecheck as he solves a problem. The more he knows about numbers, the less apt he is to make mistakes.

For example, when a student has memorized his number combinations until he SEES the result instantly without having to figure it out he can add rapidly. If, at this point, he learns to take numbers out of sequence so they can be grasped in groups of ten, he speeds the work.

However, attempts to apply this short-cut before the regular adding procedure has become automatic leads to error, since the student is attempting to carry too many processes in his mind simultaneously.

WHEN A student has learned his multiplication tables so well that his responses are instantaneous, he is ready to extend his process in multiplication through the knowledge of factors of numbers. Suppose he has learned the multiplication tables through the nines but would like to multiply by 15. He can, of

North Central Traffic Gains

MINNEAPOLIS — North Central Airlines carried the greatest passenger and freight loads of its 16-year history in 1964. This statement was issued by Frank N. Buttomer, vice president, here today.

Buttomer said a record 1,353,301 passengers were boarded last year, for an 11 percent increase over 1963.

North Central flew 230,232,714 passenger miles in 1964, a gain of 13 percent over the previous year.

Buttomer stated North Central's continuing aircraft modernization program enabled the company to provide 513,225,800 seat miles. Each year North Central adds to its fleet of 44-passenger Convair 440's and reduces its DC-3's. At present, the airline operates 23 Convair 440's and 19 DC-3's.

The airline carried 14,064,515 pounds of freight, which is 31 percent more than 1963. course, work it out in the usual manner, multiplying by the five and then by the one, adding the results. A short-cut would be to recognize that 15 is three times five and KNOW that to multiply three and ten multiply the result by five is equivalent to multiplying by 15.

University bookstores offer a surprising number of tempting short-cuts in the form of outlines and reviews. These should not be used as a substitute for systematic study. They can be helpful as a polishing agent in final reviews. IF the subject matter is already in the student's mind and available to be polished.

Manufacturing Jobs Offered Hurley's Idle

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — The Wisconsin Manufacturers Association said Monday that there are enough jobs available in the state's factories to give work to men who will be left unemployed by the closing of Hurley iron mines.

The WMA said a number of member companies have indicated they will begin recruiting in the Hurley area in the near future. The effort would be helped, it added, if the mining companies could provide lists of workers who are willing to

Right-to-Work Repeal Ready For Indiana OK

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — A bill repealing Indiana's 1957 right-to-work law was ready today for Gov. Roger D. Branigin's signature.

The measure, eliminating the Republican-written barrier against compulsory union membership as a condition of employment, was the first one adopted by the 1965 legislature, which opened Jan. 7.

The Indiana House passed the repealer 74-21 Monday and the Senate, which had approved it earlier, agreed to a punctuation change.

The Democratic governor, one-time president of the Chamber of Commerce in his hometown of Lafayette, had promised during the campaign to sign such a repeal. The overturn of the eight-year-old law became certain as soon as Democrats had captured overwhelming control of the state legislature last November.

Mental Health Center Obtains $21,875 Grant

An initial grant-in-aid of $21,875 has been awarded the Hiawatha Valley Community Mental Health Center by the Minnesota Department of Public Welfare.

Formal notification of the award was received Tuesday by Dr. M. L. DeBolt, chairman of the board here, in a letter from Morris Hursh, state welfare commissioner.

The grant-in-aid is for the center's operation from last Nov. 1 to this coming June 30. It is to be matched by funds provided by the three counties—Winona, Wabasha and Houston—participating in the center.

"We are happy to welcome you to the community mental health program and wish you success in your new venture," Hursh's letter said.

The Hiawatha Valley center, now ready to choose a site and hire a program director, is the 20th community mental health center to be chartered under the state law that makes such centers possible.

Study Commission Reports

Higher Taxes? But Which Ones?

By GEORGE MCCORMICK
Daily News Staff Writer

It has been almost a year since the Legislature's interim tax study commission conducted a public hearing here.

A total of 55 persons appeared before the commission in that day-long session last Feb. 25. Most of them favored elimination of personal property taxes — and many advocated a sales tax as a property tax replacement.

THE WINONA hearing was the fourth of eight such sessions conducted by the commission. According to the commission's report to the Legislature, which was submitted earlier this month, the consensus throughout the state was in agreement with sentiments expressed here.

The report states, "The preponderance of testimony at the public hearings was overwhelmingly in support of the need for eliminating the personal property tax on things used, usable and necessary to agriculture and industry and production and the distribution of goods and services to the people."

The report speaks highly of a sales tax. It contends that such a tax is based on ability to spend and that it is stable because it is geared to the expanding economy.

Such a tax, the report goes on, would gain revenue from non-residents who visit Minnesota. It would reach persons now exempt from income taxes, and it would be convenient for taxpayers, as well as being easy for the state to administer.

Regressivity — a sales tax's tendency to fall more heavily, proportionally, on persons of low income groups — could be eliminated by a system of income tax credits or by exempting food, the report maintains.

DESPITE THESE glowing words in favor of a sales tax, however, the report issued by the bi-partisan but conservative-weighted commission does not specifically recommend a sales tax. Nonetheless, it does declare that "the method of raising the necessary replacement revenue is for legislative discretion and determination."

Although some cracks have appeared in the hitherto-solid wall of opposition to a sales tax, its foes are still numerous enough to assure an interesting struggle when the Legislature, at its discretion, reaches a determination as to a replacement tax.

What the commission did specifically RECOMMEND is this:

- Elimination of the personal property tax on the tools and equipment of industrial production; inventories of industrial raw materials, goods in process and finished products; farm livestock, machinery and inventories; merchandise stocked by wholesalers and retailers; equipment and inventories of service industries, and household goods.

(Winona County is one of 30 counties that took an option offered by the 1959 Legislature and discontinued the tax on household goods. There is currently pressure from the township officers association to reinstate the tax here. The matter is to be considered by the Winona County Board of Commissioners at its February meeting.)

- Full replacement to local governmental units, on a continuing basis, of revenues now obtained from the personal property taxation that is to be eliminated.

- Provision of state revenues adequate to enable substantial direct real estate tax relief to owners of homes, farms and other real property.

- Elimination of the office of county supervisor of assessments in the 23 counties (including Winona County) where it still exists. Where he is competent, the supervisor would be made county assessor. (Special consideration might have to be given counties which include cities of the first class, the report says.)

- Making all property tax statements show the real and actual value as found by the assessor. Such statements now show the assessed value, which is two steps removed from actual (market) value.

- Examination by the Legislature of recent state Supreme Court decisions regarding the statutes providing for taxpayer appeals to the court, and determination whether further remedial legislation is necessary.

- Provision of tax relief for elderly persons dependent on low fixed incomes and living in their own homes.

IN THE introduction to its report, the commission stated these to be the basic questions it sought to answer by means of the hearings held between legislative sessions:

- "Are taxes fair and equi-

able? • "Do they over-burden any segment of (the) economy?"

- "Is their effect on employment conditions and economic growth favorable or unfavorable?"

- "Is today's tax structure adequate to meet tomorrow's needs?"

Minnesota is generous with tax revenues for public services, the report contends. This spending level, however, requires a tax burden amounting to $268.57 for each state resident. This is the seventh highest per capita tax load in the nation and is 14 percent above the national average.

Local government services, the report points out, are "substantially dependent on property taxation," with more than 97 percent of all locally-produced revenues of counties, cities and villages, townships and school districts coming from real and personal property levies.

State and local levies against property rose 111 percent in the last 10 years, the commission found, while the total property valuation in 1964 was only 29 percent greater than its 1954 level.

The property taxation program in Minnesota — and in only four other states — is complicated by a classification system that has been defined as "a comprehensive differentiation among broad classes of real and personal property by means of unequal rates of assessment or unequal rates of tax or a combination of the two."

THERE ARE eight classes of personal property and eight of real property under Minnesota's system. Assuming for each a market value of $12,000, a full and true value equal to one-third the market value and mill rates of 200 (agricultural property) and 225 (non-agricultural property), the wide variation among the actual taxes levied becomes clear.

Personal property taxes range from a high of $450 on $12,000 worth of iron ore stockpiles to $30 on $12,000 worth of agricultural products, except grain in hands of producers, which is exempt.

The iron ore industry bears the brunt of real estate taxes, too. The tax on $12,000 worth of unmined iron ore would be $450, while that on the homestead of a paraplegic veteran would be $80. The tax on a $12,000 rural homestead (agricultural property) would be $160, while the owner of a $12,000 urban homestead would pay $225.

These classifications, according to the commission's report, are "the result of a variety of past efforts by particular groups to gain tax relief as well as attempts on the part of the Legislature to grant concessions in order to attract new industries."

The system, however, "increases the burden on other taxpayers," the commission contends. It discourages industrial growth in school districts that have both rural and urban classifications and it adds difficulties to the job of the assessor, the report goes on to say.

THE TAX ON personal property comes under special fire in the commission's report:

"Inequities in personal property taxation are unavoidable. The tax does not conform to any of the three basic measures of ability to pay, is grossly subject to human error in assessment and to variations in assessment procedures from county to county, and invites deceptive and tax-evasive practices."

The state's tax climate, the commission maintains, drives businesses and industries elsewhere and discourages new firms from locating here. One result of this — in addition to actual loss of direct revenue from these firms — is that persons in employable age groups must leave the state to find jobs. This leaves a disproportionate share of Minnesota's population in the school age and retirement age groups.

"The impact of this type of out-migration on the Minnesota economy is difficult to assess in specific terms," the commission's report states, "but most certainly it is reflected in the high level of taxation on those who remain in the state."

THIS SAME LACK of industrial and business expansion, the commission goes on to contend, tends to lower personal income because of the resulting scarcity of jobs. The average personal per capita income here during the year ending June 30, 1963, was $111 less than the national average.

From this, the commission concluded that "Under the present tax structure, Minnesotans are carrying a 13 percent - above - average load of state and local taxes with a 5 1/2 percent - below - average personal income."

The commission concluded that there is "substantial need for revision of the state and local tax structure."

The commission's public hearings prove that many Minnesotans share this view. The next move is up to the Legislature.

Burner Explodes At Nursing Home Construction Site

A kerosene heater placed too near wooden cement forms led to a fire and explosion today about 10 a.m. at the Sauer Memorial Home construction site.

Firemen got a call at 10:17 a.m. to come to the site on South Service Drive west of Orrin Street.

They found the wooden forms, straw and tar paper blazing at the construction site. Three water streams from two pumps and a hook and ladder rig brought the fire under control in minutes.

Firemen returned to the central station within 40 minutes. They explained that one of the "salamander" heaters used to heat the basement area now under construction had been placed too close to forms used for the concrete foundations.

The wood apparently caught fire, and the intense heat resulting caused the burner to explode. The explosion only blew the top off the burner, and firemen later found that there was unburned kerosene remaining in it.

MABEL, Minn. (Special)—At a meeting of the Mabel village council Tuesday night, Burr F. Griswold was named a justice of the peace, succeeding W. B. White.

Palmer Peacock is the other village justice.

Fillmore Co. Discusses Mental Health

PRESTON, Minn. — Some 40 to 50 persons attended a meeting at the Fillmore County courthouse here Tuesday to try to solve the problem of providing a mental health program in the county.

When the Fillmore County Board rejected an offer to join the Hiawatha Valley Community Mental Health Center, comprising of Houston, Wabasha and Winona counties, pressure was applied to get some action here.

ALTHOUGH THE Hiawatha Valley Center and Austin and Rochester centers are organized, Fillmore County to date has no problem. School superintendents, principals, teachers, ministers, county commissioners and citizens interested in mental health attending were advised it would be better to join an existing center than try to get staff members from an organized center to come into the county part time.

The western part of the county favors joining the Mower County center and those in the east, the Hiawatha Valley center being established in Winona.

Mower County has invited Fillmore County to join. The Hiawatha board has taken no action but wouldn't be opposed to Fillmore County joining, it was reported. Olmsted County has said it would not take Fillmore County in.

Fillmore can't have its own center because a minimum of 50,000 persons are needed.

The meeting was an outgrowth of a study made by the county nursing board, which had been asked by the county commissioners to make a survey of mental health needs in the county.

SPEAKING AT the meeting were Dr. M. L. DeBolt, Winona, president of the Hiawatha Valley board, who discussed how to establish a board and get a center started; Dr. Paul F. Wilson, director of the mental health center, Rochester, who described the psychiatric services a center provides and how to make a center serve the needs of its people, and Dr. Robert Bloomberg, Mower County director, who described the operations of a center and what it provides.

Two Plead Guilty In Fillmore Co.

PRESTON, Minn.—Two Mantoville residents pleaded guilty to petty larceny before Municipal Judge Murray here Monday.

Mrs. Louis Nobel received a 90-day suspended sentence and was placed on probation for one year. Her son-in-law, Duane Cuthbert, was sentenced to 30 days or $100. He was in the custody of Sheriff Neil Haugerud Tuesday.

The two were accused of entering a home near Stewartville, just over the Fillmore County line, and stealing a gun, guitar and minor items.

Merchants Bank Chairman Resigns

The resignation of J. R. Chappell, who has been associated with Merchants National Bank since 1921, was announced at the bank's annual meeting Tuesday.

Chappell chose not to seek reelection as a director and as chairman of the board because he has moved to Palm Beach, Fla., and returns here only infrequently, said G. M. Grabow, bank president.

ALL OTHER directors were re-elected at the stockholders' meeting, and at the directors' meeting, which followed, all other officers were re-elected.

Added to the list of officers was Max Bunn, a bank employee since 1937, except for time spent in military service. Bunn, who lives at 325 Huff St., was named an assistant cashier in the installment loan department, where he has worked since October.

Grabow presented a report at the stockholders' meeting at which he said that new highs were reached in deposits, total assets and earnings during 1964. He also reviewed the expansion program that will get under way this year, and he discussed the data processing system that the bank plans to install.

Grabow expressed confidence in the Winona area's future, and said he felt that "the economy would continue to move forward in 1965." He predicted that "1965 earnings for the bank would exceed those of 1964."

AT THE directors' meeting, Grabow said that a stockholders' banquet would be held when the bank's expansion program is completed later this year. Chappell is to be the guest of honor at the banquet, Grabow said, and would be recognized for his "long service to the bank and his outstanding contribution to the community."

The directors passed a resolution commending Chappell for his service and accomplishments and wishing him a happy retirement.

It read in part: "Rex Chappell will actually be living in Florida, yet in a sense he will never completely leave Winona. The many good things that he has done for the community and for the bank will remain a perpetual monument to his memory. He was always willing to give his valued assistance to any project which would add to the development of Winona. He will always be remembered for the helping hand that he gave to many young men starting in business and to many young businesses in Winona."

"There was never a public project of any consequence that Rex Chappell did not have some part of. He served on many boards and many committees, all with willingness, intelligence and efficiency. He leaves behind him a record of an outstanding banker and that of a sincere, conscientious and public-spirited citizen. His monument is the bank which he developed into the largest bank in Southeastern Minnesota."

J. R. Chappell

ed citizen. His monument is the bank which he developed into the largest bank in Southeastern Minnesota."

CHAPPELL, a native of Wabasha, Mont., was the first Wabasha County recorder before joining the staff of a bank. He was president of a bank in Conrad, Mont., before coming here as a vice president. He was president here from 1943 until 1956, when he became chairman of the board.

His civic contributions included leading the campaigns to raise funds for the present YMCA building and for St. Mary's College science hall.

He served as president of the Winona Industrial Development Association, which he helped organize in 1950. He was a member of the Winona County Selective Service board during World War II and the Korean conflict, and he worked with the Community Chest and the Association of Commerce (now the Chamber of Commerce).

He belongs to Masonic bodies, and is a 33rd degree member of the Scottish Rite. He also is a member of the Arlington, Elks, Kiwanis and Athletic clubs, the Improved Order of Red Men and First Congregational Church.

Now 75 years old, Chappell last won the Winona Country Club golf championship at the age of 61 — about 25 years after he had won the title the first time. He also was city champion and Southern Minnesota Golf Association titlist.

He has been active in banking organizations and was president of the Minnesota Bankers Association. He served on the small business committee of the Federal Reserve system.

OFFICERS of the bank, in addition to Grabow and Bunn, are G. R. Espy, vice president and cashier; W. R. Thompson, trust officer; H. M. Kowalczyk, assistant vice president; N. W. Schellhaus, assistant vice president; J. H. Knopp, assistant trust officer; F. J. Chupita, assistant cashier; A. G. Grulkowski, assistant cashier, and K. A. Poblocki, auditor.

City Judge Hears Suit Over Title

Judge John D. McGill took under advisement a claim for $122 damages brought by Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Duffy, Minneapolis, Tuesday in municipal court against Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Olson, 514 W. Broadway.

The Duffys allege that they bought a parcel of land in Minneapolis from the Olsons in October 1958. However, they had to go to the expense of obtaining a duplicate certificate of title for purposes of registering their ownership.

The Duffys also allege that they were put to this expense by the Olsons refusing to turn over the duplicate they had.

The Olsons deny all the Duffys' allegations concerning the duplicate. The trial lasted about 2 1/2 hours Monday morning. Attorney Robert D. Langford represented the Duffys; Attorney C. Stanley McMahon represented the Olsons.

$76 Suit Started In City Court

A six-man municipal court jury today began hearing the suit for $76 damages of Chester Breitenfeldt, 315 Elm St., against Hilke Homes, Inc., 1678 W. Broadway.

Breitenfeldt alleges that he was put to the $76 expense for repair of a wall in the house Hilke built for him. The wall developed splitches. Breitenfeldt says.

Special Municipal Judge Loren W. Torgerson is hearing the case which was scheduled to continue this afternoon. Attorney C. Stanley McMahon represents Hilke; Attorney Robert D. Langford represents Breitenfeldt.

Sinatra Calls on Davis Backstage

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — I saw Frank Sinatra, Natalie Wood "and friends" go backstage to greet Sammy Davis after "Golden Boy" the other night — seemingly cementing the friendship of Frank and Sammy, the two kings of Show Business, who'd been rumored at odds.

Sammy, the idol-worshipper was alertly waiting for Frank at the stage door, obviously nervous.

Frank, as a gag, pretended he was there by mistake. "How do I get out of the theater?" he said.

Sammy'd assembled the cast on stage to salute the King — and they applauded him. Sammy summoned his beautiful leading lady Paula Wayne for an individual introduction and somebody in the cast cracked, "Well, we've lost her." Sammy led Frank, Natalie, her sister Lana and playwright Harry Kurnitz to his dressing room for drinks. They stayed for half an hour.

"The cast was 10 feet off the ground just meeting him!" Sammy exclaimed later. "He was nice enough to invite me to the Little Club, but I had to tell him, 'This is my bowling night!'"

Sammy, Tammy Grimes, Chita Rivers, Marsha Scott, Julie Harris and others were rolling in the Broadway Show League at 2 a.m.

SAMMY SHOT a magnificent 128. He was probably still nervous about this visit from his hero. At 3 a.m., Sammy, very calm, joined Frank at Jilly's.

Charles Addams was given a pretty weird surprise party in Acapulco by Sloan Simpson — guests were costumed as Addams' characters... then a real hearse with six pallbearers brought a birthday present for the artist: A coffin with a guest lying in it. "Just what I needed," Addams said. There was a "seven corpse" supper complete with hearse - radish, Bloody Marys and ice-cold beer.

Big Buck Came Home
The big buck with his wide, spreading antlers came home to the Deer Park on Prairie Island Monday night. He was in the pen at daylight Tuesday when the gate was closed so his escape was prevented. So now six of the nine deer that escaped are back in captivity.

The big buck was very much at home Tuesday. He had picked a sheltered spot beside the stack of hay in the enclosure and was head covered with hay, his head sticking up as he observed activities in the park. He had not been transferred to the separate pen where the other five animals are now kept.

Members of the Ike's deer committee feel that it is quite remarkable that six of the nine escaped animals came back voluntarily to the pen, where food, shelter and running water is provided. It is hoped more will return.

Incidentally, it was revealed that Francis Teska, local warden, has used the facilities of the Minnesota crime bureau in gathering evidence to present against the two Meyers brothers, arrested for butchering one of the deer. Teska said he was pleased with the reports obtained in St. Paul Monday.

No Beaver Season
The lands of the Upper Mississippi River Wild Life and Fish Refuge will be closed this spring to both beaver and other trapping. Don Gray, manager of the refuge, has announced.

Under beaver trapping regulations announced by both Minnesota and Wisconsin, the river area or zone is closed now to all trapping. Permit trappers on the refuge are urged, as required by regulations, to turn into the refuge office the summary of their trapping results for the season.

I see in the paper where a present-day educator says that millions of American children are growing up in frustration, pointing out that the fault lies — at least in part, in automatic dishwashers, modern heating systems, and motorized lawnmowers — and he has a point.

In the good old days, the very nature of things lent itself to proper bringing up. The chance of delinquency and juvenile frustration was considerably less than it is today, according to Professor Willard E. Goslin of Nashville's George Peabody College.

The professor claims that our modern advances have rendered our 20th century children "unnerved, if not useless," showing that for 300 years, American youth carried in the wood at age six, learned to work around the home place, and a farm boy was a full-fledged farmhand at 16. Today, according to the professor, the only thing our youth have to do is go to school, and at that, only a few hours a day for about half the days of the year, with time off for recreation and teachers' meetings.

AS IS usually the case with a man who thinks so deeply on a subject, Goslin had some answers, and they weren't bad. They included stronger school programs, parents finding work for children, not shielding them from it, and that the business world could help by making room for youth using their spare time.

Being the father of two teenagers and a 4½ yr. old, I couldn't help but take a look at my young'un's, to ascertain their state of frustration if any. Here's what I came up with.

The sixteen-year old is up at 6:30 a.m.; the 13 yr. old at 7:00, and from that time on, they seem to have a full schedule. Their rooms are put in order by themselves. The 13 yr. old is expected to help with dishes, as she doesn't leave for school as soon as the other girl. With music lessons, homework, and a heavy participation in church work, the only excuse these lasses have for frustration is time — the lack of it, that is.

IT OCCURS to me that the strongest suggestion the professor made was that the parents find something for the youngsters to do. I can't imagine that any home is so automated that there's virtually nothing that needs to be done. I believe parents that will busy themselves in the better things in life and raise the children likewise, will find that creative minds will not only seek worthy occupation, but will soon have all the activity that time will permit.

My wife and I have some strong convictions regarding the Christian faith. Thus our children share this conviction and take part in a very active youth group that seems to figure out what to do to a great extent on their own. My point is, frustration, idleness, and all related factors can best be checked by developing the young mind in the right direction, through example, training, and togetherness, and if it's not done in the home, it's bound to be an uphill pull with society furnishing the power.

One J. M. Walker said, "Counting time is not so important as making time count."

Leaders Named For Mothers March Sunday

Organization of the March of Dimes' Mothers March, to be held Sunday, is under way. Mrs. C. A. Kubicek Jr., city chairman, said that 47 area women have volunteered to organize teams that will make the Mothers March Sunday. She urged Winona area mothers to say "yes" when called on by one of the 47.

RESEARCH USED to defeat polio as a major menace to health is now being turned to a related area — birth defects — Mrs. Kubicek said.

And, of course, much new knowledge is needed to help the one in 16 children who are born with defects that may not show up for years, she added. Early detection of birth defects is a vital key to treatment, however. The 47 women who will be asking for help with the Sunday march are:

Author Overlooks West Wisconsin Valley

ONE KEEPS RUNNING across Minnesotans who have been born in the state and lived most of their lives here and yet are unacquainted with that part of the state that lies along the Mississippi east and south of the Twin Cities. It should come as no surprise then that there seem to be even more Wisconsin people who know little or nothing of their Minnesota borderland.

This thought came to mind on reading an article called "A Fresh Look at Wisconsin" in the current issue of Holiday magazine. The piece was written by a native who, after an absence of many years, came back to see how things had been progressing.

Quite evidently the author, Eli Waldron, is only vaguely acquainted with the extent of the Badger commonwealth. He toured the northern resort region and agreed it could be classified as a "depressed area." And he spent many hours rambling along the Lake Michigan shores and its hinterland extending as far inland as Madison.

BUT THE CLOSEST he came to the Mississippi was Tomah. And that was not close enough.

Waldron summarized the situation in his native state as follows, "Roughly a third of the population . . . lives in the highly industrialized Milwaukee-Kenosha area, and another third is contained in an arc (the dairy arc) drawn from the Sheboygan-Fox River Valley area in the east through Dane County (Madison) and Spring Green Country in the south and west. The remaining third, of course, flounders helplessly in the snows of the north."

JULIUS CAESAR, a stranger to the country, did a better job of it when he wrote his famous "all Gaul is divided in three parts." Any Badger who aspires to write intelligently of his state's pleasing possessions should include in his inventory Wisconsin's western valley. Its picturesque scenery, well cultivated fields, and attractive towns deserve some attention. An inquisitive visitor will find no "floundering" there.

Time to Face Beer-Age Question

GOV. WARREN KNOWLES has come out flatly for sensible legislative action on Wisconsin's beer-age problem, and we think legislators and their constituents should be ready to face it with equal candor.

The governor included it in his "state of the state" message, rather than in his highway safety message two days later because, as he said, it is "as much a social problem as it is a highway safety issue."

And, possibly with an eye to the "come, let us reason together" approach that Lyndon Johnson has made his formula for legislative success, Knowles gave the legislature two alternatives.

THERE IS no doubt that the governor wants a flat age-21 for buying beer or drinking it in public. And we think he is right.

This is the minimum age in all our neighboring states. Under Wisconsin's local-option system, it also is the minimum age for beer drinking in areas where 60 percent of the state's population lives.

The present situation, where teenage youths can drive from their own 21-age community (even from a neighboring state) to another where they can buy beer, is an open invitation to highway tragedy.

It also fosters, at a pretty early age, the thought that laws and their makers aren't terribly bright.

APPARENTLY Knowles would accept a uniform age of 19 or 20 if he can't get the 21. It would be a compromise, and not a very good one, especially for communities near the state border.

Of course, below-21 beer drinking is only a part of our highway safety problem. But it is one that should have been faced before now. — La Crosse Tribune.

TODAY IN NATIONAL AFFAIRS 'Hold On 'Til Spring! Maybe You Can Swim To Shore!'

What's Enough For Defense?

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — While the outline of proposed defense policy which President Johnson gave to Congress a few days ago is the formal advice and recommendation of a chief executive, it is the duty of Congress to pass judgment on whether the safety and security of the United States can be preserved either by arbitrarily limiting expenditures for national defense or by allowing any factors other than national security to receive priority in the expenditure of public funds.

The President frankly admits that he sees ahead a "leveling-off in defense expenditures." He says that outlays for defense will "constitute a declining portion of our expanding annual gross national product." He recommends that over the next several years — barring "a significant change" in the international situation — approximately the same amount of dollars should be spent annually for our national defense as is being appropriated today. He predicts that then "an ever-larger share of our expanding national wealth will be free to meet other vital needs, both public and private."

BUT WHO is to be the judge of whether the defense program is adequate and whether it can be measured primarily by the desire to spend more money on the "great society"? Some of the top men in America's military establishment do not believe that such a rigid rule can be applied to defense expenditures. They do not wish to leave a single stone unturned to obtain the most efficient armament that scientific minds can develop. Nor do they agree that, because America has a superiority in military power today, this will continue in the next several years.

On the contrary, military men say that, unless the Soviets reveal their secret plans — which is most unlikely — the United States cannot take for granted that it will continue to maintain superiority. In fact, there is a distinct undercurrent of apprehension concerning the clandestine tests being conducted by the Soviets which may have a great deal to do with the increased effectiveness of their apparatus in the future and perhaps reduce the strength of America's defense against some categories of weapons.

THERE IS a feeling here, for example, that the manned bomber should be modernized and further developed because it is not vulnerable to certain enemy operations which can be conducted against our missiles. The manned bomber, therefore, provides an alternative delivery system. Military men point out, too, that further tests are needed to make sure that some of the new missiles will actually be able to become operational and will detonate as planned.

There are other points in the President's message on defense which will certainly precipitate debate in Congress. He said: "Our military policy under the secretary of defense is now more closely tied than ever to the conduct of foreign policy under the secretary of state."

"Our military forces must be so organized and directed that they can be used in a measured, controlled, and deliberate way as a versatile instrument to support our foreign policy."

Congress has never ordained by law that civilians should direct military men how to organize national defense. It has never been intended, moreover, that the Department of State should tell the military forces how to prepare for war or how much our defense expenditures should be curtailed in order to carry diplomatic favor with other nations.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S message last week told of additional weapons, particularly certain missiles which are to be used from our submarines. He also recommended that more money be spent to improve strategic bombers. There is a serious question, however, as to whether the department of defense will be able to maintain superiority in equipment if expenditures are to be limited on the theory that America has enough strength already.

Gen. Thomas S. Power, who recently retired after seven years as the head of the Strategic Air Command, says that the United States now "has more weapons than there are worthwhile targets." He adds, however, that "there is a fundamental and basic difference between a weapon in a stockpile and a delivered weapon," and that "only a small percentage of weapons ever reach an enemy target."

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Johnson and Humphrey Have 'Understanding'

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — President Johnson and Vice President Humphrey have signed a personal letter of mutual understanding that if a long illness incapacitates the President, Humphrey will take over.

The letter was not inspired by the President's current illness, but was agreed upon several days before and actually filed with the Justice Department on Jan. 20, the day the two men took office. They considered it a common-sense arrangement to promote efficiency in government in case anything happened to the President similar to the stroke which crippled Woodrow Wilson toward the end of his term.

Wilson's illness at that time caused genuine paralysis of the government and erosion of the peace. No one was at the helm of government, and no one could reach Wilson. Mrs. Wilson served as the real president.

When President Eisenhower suffered his heart attack in 1955, he recovered fairly rapidly so there was no serious hiatus in the executive branch of government. For a time, however, there was an inner cabinet debate as to whether Vice President Nixon should temporarily take over. This was firmly blocked by Sherman Adams, No. 2 man in the White House and Secretary of the Treasury George Humphrey, a close friend of Ike's.

NIXON SAT in on cabinet decisions, but did not take over.

The exchange of letters between LBJ and HHH is designed to prevent any awkwardness or hesitation in case of a prolonged illness. The President has made it clear that the vice president is to take over.

Note — One reason for taking the President to the hospital when he suffered his bronchitis attack was to get him away from work. The President is so accustomed to working in bed — usually from midnight when he turns in, until about 2 a.m. — that his doctor figured he would only have a complete rest if he got away from the White House and the telephone.

The Navy has not banned "The Americanization of Emily," as previously reported in this column, but it has discouraged distribution of the film to naval bases.

"THIS PICTURE depicts THE WIZARD OF ID

U.S. naval officers and their involvement with female civilian and military personnel on a military establishment in England during World War II," says an official memo by the Navy's office of information. "The story and characterizations do not present the Navy accurately."

"Requests from theaters, theatrical agencies, exhibitors or others for Navy assistance in promoting public showings of 'The Americanization of Emily' should be refused. Navy cooperation of any sort is not desired or authorized."

"We think the Navy's reputation is pretty well known to the American public and that it will withstand the onslaughts of a good many films such as this one," says Rear Admiral W. P. Mack. "We do not object if anyone including the Navy wants to show it, but we see no point in encouraging or assisting them."

This column agrees about the Navy's reputation, disagrees that "The Americanization of Emily" is as bad as the Navy seems to think, is delighted to present the Navy's point of view.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON picked Angie Biddle Duke for the tough job of ambassador to Spain because he knew Duke wouldn't fall for Franco's Fascist sweet talk yet would not ignore the strategic importance of Spain . . . It was LBJ himself who barred military weapons from the inaugural parade, decreed that the floats should emphasize peace and human progress. In contrast, Moscow's May Day parades feature the latest in Soviet missile might. Johnson, as a senator, was head of the space committee, did a great deal to develop American missiles. But in his inaugural parade he refrained from missile-mongering . . . George Meany, long-time AFL-CIO president, will be given the Freedom Award dinner in New York tonight. David Dubinsky of the International Ladies Garment Workers, is co-chairing . . . When the federal government proposed 540 regional medical centers to combat the three top killing diseases — cancer, heart and stroke — Dr. Hugh H. Husey resigned from the presidential commission working on these three. Dr. Husey was the only AMA member of the commission. The AMA frowns on medical centers which might be a step toward socialized medicine.

GOV. PAUL JOHNSON of Mississippi and his friend, Ex-Gov. Ross Barnett, have been adroitly maneuvering to postpone their contempt of court showdown with the federal government as long as possible. So far, Acting Attorney General Nicholas Katzenbach and Bobby Kennedy's holdovers in the Justice Department have been falling for their strategy.

Statue on Sugar Loaf Called Revolting Idea

To the Editor:

We, too, feel very strongly as Mr. Schiller and Miss Lauer do about the suggestion that a statue of Christ be erected on Sugar Loaf. The idea with its motivation surely is revolting to all thinking people. Could a statue of wood or stone witness for us as a Christian City? Isn't that revealed only in the kind of lives we lead?

Winona has one of the most beautiful settings in the world. To attract people to our city let us look rather to our moral, cultural and economic growth — to improving our tax structure. What are we doing about our increasing vandalism? These are the things that should be our greatest concern.

The idea of the statue is both sacrilegious and senseless.

To a business as Swift's that has been a contribution to the city of Winona and surrounding communities we salute you.

Not Too Late To Revive Our Efforts

To the Editor:

I have just finished writing a report on a book called "Main Street." It is the story of a small Minnesota town in which the people became so apathetic to the town around them that its death was hardly noted because the minds of the town's citizens were dead also.

Many of the book's situations are so like those of Winona today that the writer seems to have taken a look into the future to have written such a realistic account of the death of a town.

So many of the people of Winona have closed their minds to such vital things as urban renewal, a new high school, and the bringing in of new motels that the future of Winona is becoming more and more obvious. A town never dies, it is killed.

Until the citizens of Winona awaken to the fact that the past of a town does not secure a future, Winona will be in a dangerous state.

Let us then benefit from Mr. Lewis's book. It is not yet too late to revive our efforts to keep Winona growing and alive.

Let's Get Back To Original Commandments

To the Editor:

I read the comments of the proposed statue of Christ to be put on Sugar Loaf.

Have we forgotten the second commandment in Exodus 20:4-6 "Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments."

The Douay Bible the Catholics use has it this way. Exodus 20:4-6 "Thou shalt not make to thyself a graven thing, nor the likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, nor of those things that are in the waters under the earth. Thou shalt not adore them, nor serve them: I am the Lord thy God, mighty, jealous, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me: And showing mercy unto thousands to them that love me, and keep my commandments.

Let's get back to the original commandments.

Strokes In Young Rare

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M. D.

Dear Dr. Molner: Your articles have explained so many things I have wondered about. Here is a clipping about a seven-year-old boy who died of a brain hemorrhage. Last year I had a friend whose son was 15 and died of the same thing. He had a headache, became unconscious, then had seizures and paralysis and died in a few hours. Could you explain this? — MRS. D. C.

Luckily this doesn't happen very often to the young.

The usual cause is the rupture of an aneurysm (bulge, weak place) in an artery inside the skull. This may be a flaw with which the individual is born. It can occur because of physical injury, of course, but that means a shattering type of accident. The skull protects against minor (or even pretty hard) bumps causing such damage.

When it happens, it is a "stroke," or at least one form of stroke, and precisely the same sort of thing which occurs with far greater frequency among older people, because in them the elements of high blood pressure and gradual deterioration of the arteries play a part.

BUT THE RESULT is the same. It may be a "little stroke," or one of maximum severity, or anywhere in between.

With young people, brain surgery sometimes is possible. The blood vessels in general are pliable and strong, rather than hardened and brittle. Hence, once a child has survived the original attack, such surgery can repair the ruptured area with remarkably good results.

In some instances, immediate surgery, to reduce pressures, can be attempted, but I should warn that this cannot always be done, or even tried. I stress this to avoid the possibility of someone feeling that "they should have tried to do something for this child." There are cases, heart-breaking as they are, in which nothing can be done.

But at least strokes among children are rare and that is why, when they do happen, they receive considerable notice.

House Curbs U.S. Aid to Angry Nasser

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has turned a deaf ear to pleas of administration spokesmen and voted to curb the sales of surplus farm products to Nasser's United Arab Republic.

Tuesday's action got the administration off to a shaky start with the new Congress, but President Johnson's legislative leaders didn't seem worried. The Senate could reverse the decision.

UAR President Gamal Abdel Nasser has told the United States in effect to take its aid

Two-State Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here is how Minnesota and Wisconsin congressmen voted Tuesday as the House voted 204-177 to cut off funds for shipment of surplus foods to Egypt:

Minnesota—Langen, MacGregor, Nelson, Quie for; Blatnik, Fraser, Karth, Olson against.

Wisconsin — Reuss, Stalbaum, Byrnes, Davis, Laird and O'Konski for; Kastenmeier, Race and Zablocki against.

and "go to hell," Nasser's outburst in a Port Said speech last month apparently was triggered by U.S. accusations that he is aiding Congolese rebels.

He told a cheering throng: "We do not accept any words against us and we will cut off the tongue of anyone who uses them. We do not need their money. Anyone who does not like our attitude can drink from the sea." In Egyptian slang, to "drink from the sea" is the equivalent of "to go to hell."

Despite the outburst, the United States announced five days later — Dec. 28 — that it was going through with plans to provide Nasser with $17 million worth of surplus wheat. Washington has been supplying Nasser with about $140 million in food yearly under a three-year agreement that expires next June 30.

Tuesday's 204-177 House vote followed a plea by the President's House leaders not to tie his hands in framing foreign

Subnormal Weather Seen for Five Days

A spell of colder weather appears to be moving on Winona and vicinity, for the next five days, at least.

Temperatures through Monday will average 4 to 16 degrees below normals for this time of the winter, the weatherman reported in his five-day forecast for Southeastern Minnesota and Western Wisconsin. Normal daytime highs are in a 15-25 bracket and nighttime lows 4 below to 8 above.

PRECIPITATION in the period is expected to total up to .50 of an inch (melted) as occasional light snow.

Variable cloudiness is predicted for tonight and Thursday with light snow indicated for Thursday. A low of 5 below to 10 above is seen for tonight and a high of 20-25 for Thursday.

Colder weather will set in Friday and Friday night, the Weather Bureau indicated. The thermometer rose to 26 Tuesday afternoon, dropped to —9 during the night and was 14 at noon today.

A YEAR AGO today the high was 22 and the low 5. All-time high for Winona on Jan. 27 was 52 in 1919 and the low —26 in 1950. Mean for the past 24 hours was 9. Normal for this time of the year is 16.

Slipperiness still prevailed on some streets but sanding crews had most intersections safe. Snow removal in the downtown district was generally complete.

Bemidji and International Falls were hardest hit by the new cold wave, temperatures there dropping to —18 and —14 respectively. St. Cloud had a morning low of —11 and Duluth —9.

It was only —4 at Rochester today after a Tuesday high of 23 and La Crosse had —8 and 26 above for the same times.

Most WISCONSIN residents shivered in frigid weather today, with little prospect of getting much relief.

Snow, which fell over some parts of the state, abated during the night but the weatherman promised more snow Thursday morning in the north and west portions and spreading to the south by late afternoon.

The State Highway Department reported that main state roads in an area west of a line from Lake Geneva through Beaver Dam to Kewaunee generally were icy and driving was hazardous. Roads west of the line had frequent slippery stretches.

THE SNOWFALL Tuesday at Milwaukee totaled 3.5 inches. There were only small traces in most of the other areas. Calumet and Forest counties reported snow early today, but in other areas the skies were clear.

Temperatures at 8 a.m. today ranged from 13 below zero at Lone Rock to 1 above at Milwaukee.

Highest temperature reported in the state Tuesday was 34 degrees at Milwaukee and Racine.

THE WARMEST communities in the nation were Vero Beach, Fla., which reported 88 and West Palm Beach and Orlando, Fla., which had readings of 86. The nation's coldest spots were Bemidji and Hibbing, both in Minnesota, which reported 18 below zero.

MRS. LAIRD LUCAS, who will be in charge of tickets for the show, asked the representatives to publicize the event in their groups and order tickets in advance.

Mrs. Burt announced the names of volunteer workers who have put in 100, 300 and 500 hours of service at the hospital. 100 hours of free service were as follows:

The Mmes. Alden Ackels, Ed Allen, Jack Anderson, Thomas Cavanaugh, Irwin Bittner, R. J. Brunk, H. J. Capron, Francis Farrell, M. E. Fish, John Glenn, Duncan Green, Paul Griesel Sr., Richard Hassel, Albin Johnson, Syrus Johnson, H. R. Kalbrenner, Lester Knothe, J. E. Krier, William Laurie, R. W. McCormick, Harry Meyer, Rudy Miesbauer, William Mills, Ervin Neumann, Thomas Roetzler, Lloyd E. Schultz, C. Robert Stephenson, Theodore Schumacher, A. L. Sill, William Tomachek, R. B. Tweedy, Donald Walz, H. J. Williams, Thomas Underdahl, and the Misses Olga Stever, Edith Wendt and Christine Hanson.

ELEVEN who had served 300 hours were the Mmes. Bauman, Kahl, Doerer, N. J. Fischer, John Kareau, Ralph Kohner, Herbert Putnam, Fred Fakler, Goldberg and the Misses Anna Frank and Ethel Fallows.

Nine who served from 300 to 500 hours were the Mmes. E. J. Sievers, Jerry Berthe, Floyd Simon, D. B. Robinson, J. L. Jeremiassen, Austin Morto, Ralph Bolt, Otto Haake and R. W. Miller.

Mrs. Slagge announced the new officers. Mrs. T. H. Underdahl is president; Mrs. Edstrom, first vice president; Mrs. Laird Lucas, second vice president; Mrs. Doerer, recording secretary; Mrs. Jack Andresen, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. J. E. Krier, treasurer.

In introducing Mrs. Underdahl, Mrs. Slagge presented her with a corsage, sent by Mrs. Miller from Florida.

Mrs. Stephenson, program chairman, introduced the speakers, Mrs. Goldberg and Mrs. Ward Lucas.

Mrs. Goldberg traced the history of the auxiliary, since its organization by 50 women on March 26, 1894, as the Ladies Hospital Aid Society. She spoke of the first charity ball in 1907 and its establishment as an annual event in 1910.

She listed the various services that have been given through the years and the good public relations that have been established between the hospital and the community. Mrs. Goldberg emphasized the unique form of organization membership, established in the early years and still continued, resulting in the participation of all Winona women's organizations in the volunteer work at the hospital.

Mrs. Lucas reviewed the history of the Catharine Allison Hospital Library, which officially opened on National Hospital Day, May 12, 1935. It was named, she said, for the woman who had been a "devoted" superintendent of the hospital for many years and was started by a contribution of books by the St. Rose of Lima Guild.

S. L. Prentiss, Mrs. Lucas' father, was a guiding spirit in formally organizing the library and a contributor to its upkeep. Funds given in his name after his death continue to aid the library.

Of note, Mrs. Lucas said, is the fact that the Catharine Allison Hospital Library was the first in the state and the nation to be established and staffed entirely by volunteer workers.

Success of the library, Mrs. Lucas pointed out, is the result of the cheerful personality of the volunteers, their ethical standards and their knowledge of books, as they visit patients offering them the free use of the many books and periodicals provided.

Mrs. Lucas concluded her talk by presenting Mrs. A. Grant Burleigh, who has resigned as librarian, with a gift of appreciation for her many years of service.

Tea was served after the meeting at a table centered with an arrangement of pink carnations and white mums. Mrs. Ward Lucas and Mrs. Goldberg poured.

Rochester Doctor Asks Support for Drive on Poverty

By JEAN HAGEN
Daily News Women's Editor

A plea for support of the government's plan to abolish poverty in such regions as Appalachia was made in words and pictures here Tuesday night by a Rochester physician.

DR. C. J. Bennett of the Olmsted County Medical Group, who spent several years at Whitesburg in Letcher County, Ky., on the staff of a hospital in the mining area vividly detailed conditions he saw in an address at the 52nd annual meeting of the Young Women's Christian Association.

About 100 persons were present for the dinner meeting, held in the YW auditorium. Dr. Bennett prefaced his talk on "Appalachia" by saying, "It seems impossible that people could starve to death in the United States and that children should have to walk a mile or more to school barefooted. You will find it hard to believe some of the things you will see in these pictures."

HE SAID that in his work at the hospital, he saw people die of diseases brought on by lack of proper nourishment and knew people who lived in dire poverty, with children inadequately clothed.

He suggested that it would be better to feed and clothe the people of Appalachia first before sending relief overseas.

The speaker gave statistics about the economic conditions of the area of seven or eight states in the southeastern Appalachian Mountains, where some families have been on welfare aid for three generations.

THE SOLUTION, in addition to adequate financial aid, he stated, is in education of the children to teach them a better way of life.

Dr. Bennett attributed the increased poverty of the area in present times to automation in the mines, with the result that many men who know no other kind of work have no means of livelihood.

Slides were of ramshackle homes, thin and raggedly clothed children and adults, the conditions in the mines, many of which are unsafe; and the open strip-mining which depletes the top soil. Other slides were of the beautiful mountain scenery, which he said should be an attraction to tourists if good highways went through the area. Many of the native roads are mere creek beds, Dr. Bennett said.

"IF WE CAN help other needy people in the world, why not clean up our own back yard?" Dr. Bennett concluded.

Mrs. Paul Sanders, YW president, presided at the head table, giving the opening prayer. Miss Pauline Utzinger read the devotion, which appropriately ended with the words, "We are too rich to leave anyone poor; we must love each other or we die."

Mrs. J. K. Carlson read the minutes of last year's annual meeting, and Miss Marion Griesbach gave the treasurer's report.

Board members announced by Mrs. S. A. Sawyer, chairman of the nominating committee were accepted. They are the Mmes. Carlson, Irving Geppner, E. T. Jacobsen, Bruce McNally, William Miller, Henry Williams, A. B. Youmans, W. O. Finkelnburg and Stanley Soren and the Misses Griesbach and Utzinger.

VOTED TO the nominating committee were the Mmes. Carlson, George Goodreid, M. H. Doner, J. T. Robb Jr. and David Wynne.

Elected officers by the board were Mrs. Sanders, president; Miss Utzinger, vice president; Miss Carlson, secretary; Miss Griesbach, treasurer; Mrs. Miller, assistant treasurer; and Mrs. R. J. Harkenrider, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. McNally, chairman of the membership committee, who introduced the speaker, was chairman of the evening. Mrs. William Laurie made the dinner arrangements and she and Mrs. Harkenrider served punch before the meal.

Three Chicago Men Convicted In Kenny Fraud

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The convictions of three Chicago men charged with conspiracy and use of the mails in an attempt to defraud the Sister Kenny Foundation in Minneapolis have been upheld by the U.S. Court of Appeals.

The court rejected the contention of attorneys for the men that the government had erred during their trial, that there was no prejudice in the court's decision, that the men had a fair trial and that no grounds existed for a reversal or re-trial.

Those who had appealed were Abraham Koolish and his son, David, each sentenced to 10 years in prison and fined $17,000 plus court costs of $7,478, and John Carnell, sentenced to five years imprisonment.

They were convicted in June 1963 of obtaining millions of dollars in cash and property between Jan. 1, 1949 and Jan. 30 1962 by means of false representation of the foundation, its contributors and prospective contributors.

The senior Koolish held interests in four firms conducting mail solicitations for contributions to the charity foundation, which aided polio victims.

Young Koolish had a financial interest in businesses which conducted the Kenny Foundation fund raising campaigns.

Carnell was an employee of the firms.

Three other men previously were convicted in the case. They were Marvin L. Kline, former mayor of Minneapolis who was executive director of the foundation, 10 years in prison; Fred Fadell, former head of the Kenny Foundation public relations office, one year and a day in prison; and George Zimmerman of St. Paul, former foundation accountant, five years probation.

Senate Passes Its First Bills

ST. PAUL (AP) — The 1965 Minnesota Senate passed its first bills Tuesday.

One would make sure the September primary election never falls on the day after Labor Day. In years when this would occur, the election would be one week later.

The other three bills were of a local nature. All passed unanimously and went to the House.

Among new proposals was one to double the pay of members of the Legislature — from $2,400 a year to $4,800 — and another providing for party designation for legislators.

The pay bill was sponsored by Sen. Paul Thuet of South St. Paul, leader of the Liberal minority, and Sen. Donald Wright of Minneapolis, a veteran Conservative leader.

Three Liberals sponsored the party designation bill. They are Sens. Nicholas Coleman of St. Paul, Vernon Holm of Columbia Heights and Thuet.

Restaurant Burns In Minneapolis

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Fire swept the LaCasa Coronado Restaurant and third-floor apartments Monday, with damage estimated at more than $100,000.

Three University of Minnesota students used a fire escape to flee their rooms on the third story.

The restaurant, which occupies the first two floors, had been closed since Saturday. Nine university students and a Mexican musician, a performer at the restaurant, had third-floor rooms.

Fire Chief Kenneth Hall said the blaze started at the foot of the stairway on a ground floor, or on the second floor.

Household Work Income Form Due

Household employees earn their own protection against loss of income from old age, death or disability under the social security program, according to Victor Bertel, social security office manager here.

Domestic workers who are paid at least $50 cash wages in a calendar quarter from a single employer receive social security credit for these earnings. To get this credit, the earnings must be reported.

Employers must report to the Internal Revenue Service if they pay household workers as much as $50 cash wages in the quarter.

Most household employers submit reports on Form 942, a simplified statement printed on the inside of a self-addressed envelope. These reports are filed after the close of each calendar quarter and are due by April 30, July 31, Oct. 31 and Jan. 31 each year.

Household employers on the mailing list of the district director of internal revenue receive one of these forms at the proper time.

If social security taxes are due and an employer is not on the mailing list, he should ask the district director to add his name to his mailing list, Bertel said.

The social security tax for the employee and the employer is 3 1/2 percent each of the total cash wages paid in a calendar quarter. It is the responsibility of the employer to report and send the total tax of 7 1/2 percent to the district director. He must also collect his employee's share of the tax, Bertel explained.

The $50-cash-wage test applies to each household worker, but no report or social security tax is due on any household worker to whom an employer pays less than this amount during a calendar quarter, Bertel said.

New Harmony Plant To Hold Open House

HARMONY, Minn. (Special)—Open house will be held Saturday from 1 to 5 p.m. at Harmony's new factory, Harmony Enterprises Co., Inc., better known as HECO.

The steel structure, 50 by 200 feet, was constructed by the Harmony Development Corp. for the manufacture of the patents of two local men, Wilbur Peterson and Merlin Holness. Outdoor living equipment is their specialty.

The manufacture of HECO shelters was started in the American Legion hall here Sept. 15, 1963. Production started with three models of fishing shelters, later two-man shelters were added.

EARLY THE following spring the firm developed five models of portable dressers, a two-man sleeper, two portable patio shelters, and the Bikini walking cane and folding seat combination.

HECO also manufactures the canvas type tops and other components for several camper trailer manufacturers in the east.

The principal features of the products here are that they are portable, compact when folded, lightweight, and can be erected in minutes. They are manufactured under a license agreement with the local designers.

It became obvious early last year the firm required more space. Harmony Development Corp. was organized. It purchased eight acres of land, known as HECO Park on the north edge of Harmony on U.S.

52, and constructed the factory. The production area is heated by gas-fired infra-red ceiling heaters.

AL CREMER, Harmony, is general manager. Edward S. Hinmon, Detroit, Mich., is field sales manager. He sets up distributors and calls on manufacturers of original equipment for the camping trade.

The area around the new factory has ample sites for other industrial or business developments.

HECO officers and employees will conduct tours at the open house. New equipment and production techniques will be demonstrated, affording stockholders and others an opportunity to get better acquainted with the enterprise of this Fillmore County village. Coffee and cookies will be served.

HECO has purchased the factory and site from the development corporation.

Fillmore Co. Asks Rock and Paint Bids

PRESTON, Minn. — Bids will be received for crushed rock and paint by Auditor Charles V. Michener, on behalf of the Fillmore County Board of Commissioners to Tuesday at 2 p.m. Bids call for 40,000 cubic yards of crushed rock for 1965 maintenance requirements. Bids will be received in stock piles or at the crushing plant.

Bids on paint and varnish will be for redecorating the interior of the courthouse here.

EMPLOYEES AT WORK . . . Men and women make fishing shelters and other outdoor equipment in the new Harmony factory, HECO. The new building is 50 by 200 feet.

College Students Help City's Blood Collection

Winona County's current Red Cross blood drive passed its quota by 15 Tuesday, as 159 prospective donors came to the chapter headquarters.

A total of 150 pints of blood was collected from the group, which included 47 first-time donors. There were nine rejectees. Most of Tuesday's donors came from St. Mary's and Winona State colleges.

Monday — the first day of the drive — had 106 prospective donors come to the center. A total of 83 pints of blood was actually collected, Mrs. Carl Breitlow, blood chairman, said.

SINCE REJECTEEES are potential donors, the county gets credit for them against its quota. The turnout Monday and Tuesday totaled 265, therefore, even though 243 pints were actually collected.

The daily quota during the drive is 125, and the mark set for the week-long drive is 625 pints.

More donors are needed during the rest of the week if the county is to meet its quota, Mrs. Breitlow said. The outlook is good for today, however. By mid-morning, there were 130 persons who had made appointments to give blood today.

Three persons who have given four gallons or more to the Red Cross topped the list of repeat donors Tuesday. They are Ervin Laufenburger, Sister M. Marian Cacka and Brother J. Robert Lane.

OTHERS ARE:

Three gallons or more — Alvin Gilberg, Reuben Roederske, Lewis Schoening and William Chuchna Jr.

Two gallons or more — A. G. Hegenbart, Victor W. Bohnen, Mrs. Andrew Lipinski, Mark S. Joswick, Earle Drenckhahn, Jack B. Nelson, Anthony E. Zittel, James Heer, Richard E. Maglin, Richard Burmeister and Clarence Losinski.

One gallon or more — Mrs. Leslie L. Nelson, Edward Kammerer, Mrs. Merjildo Chaves, Mrs. David Wynne, Aloysius M. Mazig, Mrs. William Chuchna, Walter Kelly, Marshall Anderson, Robert J. Hunger, Robert J. Cichanowski, Joseph Bambecek, Richard A. Ozmun, Ralph J. Carlblom and Esther B. Schmidt.

2 City Centers Count 3,921

Attendance at East and West Recreation centers from Dec. 21 to last week end totaled 3,921 adults and youngsters, the park-recreation department reported this week.

Game rooms and children's arts-and-crafts periods accounted for most of the attendance. At West Center, where total attendance was 1,407, 1,035 persons used the game room and 142 youngsters participated in four 1½-hour periods devoted to craft work. At East Center,

Wednesday, January 27, 1965 WINONA DAILY NEWS 13

2,006 persons used the game room out of a total attendance of 2,513. Crafts attracted 200 children.

Now in progress are adult and family swims at Winona Senior High School pool, junior hockey team play, in charge of Kenneth Nelson and James Flanery, and youth figure skating classes at Lake Winona rink taught by Hubert Bambecek.

Beginning Feb. 9, the Coast Guard Auxiliary will sponsor a 10-lesson course in river navigation and boat safety. The park-recreation department will participate in this series.

In the reporting period, Lake Park Lodge was used by 46 groups comprising 1,301 people. Holzinger Lodge was used by 375 people in 13 groups.

Hatfield Has Plan for Tax Assessments

ST. PAUL (AP) — Tax Commissioner Rolland Hatfield told the Minnesota Legislature Tuesday it should pursue a five-point program to get tax assessments on an even keel statewide and avoid local tax chaos caused by the Duluth case in Duluth.

That case, Hatfield said, is being watched nationwide as a key decision allowing taxpayers cash refunds where they have proved their property was assessed at a higher rate than other property.

But, he added, the case probably will benefit only large property owners unless the Legislature steps in. He said the case could cause a "drastic shift" in taxes from business to residential property.

The greatest danger, Hatfield said, is that local finances could be disrupted if iron mining companies decide to seek the same relief as afforded the 17 Duluth owners in the Duluth case.

Hatfield's recommendations to the House Tax Committee were: To legalize a standard of property assessment, perhaps at 33-1/3 per cent of market value. To make the county assessor system mandatory.

To centralize the assessment of all industrial property in the State Tax Department.

To study the impact on Iron Range communities, where $8 million in taxes would be shifted off mining property if their assessments were reduced to 33-1/3 per cent.

To establish an interim commission to study an overhaul of the whole property tax system.

Hefty Profits For Steel Firms

NEW YORK (AP) — Bethlehem Steel Corp. second-ranking producer, makes its contribution today to the story of steel industry earnings recovery.

Bethlehem's figures were sure to put the company alongside U.S. Steel Corp., Republic Steel Corp., National Steel Corp. and other firms chalking up hefty 1964 profit gains over 1963.

U.S. Steel, the industry giant, reported Tuesday an 18 per cent jump to $236.3 million or $3.90 a share, up from $203.6 million or $3.30 a share and the highest since 1960.

National Republic and Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co., all among steel's big eight, boosted earnings 30 per cent or more as the rebound continued from a slump that hit bottom in 1962.

Results were swelled by a thundering production pace that eclipsed the old output record of 117 million tons set in 1955 by nearly 10 million tons. A bustling national economy spurred demand.

Bolivia Plans Elections Sept. 26

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP) — Bolivia's military junta says it will hold elections Sept. 26 for president, vice president and congress.

Political sources said Gen. Rene Barrientos, the head of the junta, would decide next week whether to run for the presidency.

WARNING TO CHINESE

Polaris Sub in Bay of Tonkin

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON (Special) — The placing of a Polaris submarine in the Bay of Tonkin off the north Vietnamese coast is the latest move in the game of tactical played between President Johnson and Mao Tse-tung.

The game began in December when Johnson authorized the U.S. Air Force to bomb Communist supply lines winding through the jungles of neighboring Laos. This was done with the OK of the Laotian government, which, being neutral, did not want Communist troops crossing its territory.

Johnson was careful never to allow more than four planes to attack at a time, and he studied the results as carefully as a stock market addict watches the ticker tape. When the planes missed their targets, the President would fuss and fume.

"THE AIR FORCE can't even hit a bridge," he once protested.

Air Force generals respectfully replied that if they could run their own missions they could knock out any bridge in Laos. So, with presidential blessing, they finally sent 22 planes on a raid over Laos, this time knocking out the bridge, but losing two planes in doing so.

This bombing raid was too massive for Mao Tse-tung to ignore. He made the next move by shifting heavy reinforcements into Laos. The Air Force urged the President to retaliate by bombing North Viet Nam supply centers, showed him detailed aerial photographs of these

But the President decided that this would only bring Chinese ground troops pouring into Viet Nam as they once did into Korea. Instead, he tried a more subtle tack — namely, sending the Polaris submarine into the Gulf of Tonkin.

THE PRESIDENT figures the Chinese, having finally developed a nuclear weapon, are beginning to realize how frightening these weapons are and should realize the potential of the 16 hydrogen-headed missiles on the Polaris.

Dispatch of the Polaris submarine was what caused the Russians to send a stiff warning to the United States against further raids on Laos.

Goldwater May Run for U.S. House, Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Barry Goldwater is seriously considering a return to active politics by bidding for either a Senate or House seat.

Goldwater, the defeated GOP presidential nominee, has told friends he would like to go back to the Senate if the opportunity presents itself. He is less enthusiastic about seeking a

Wednesday, January 27, 1965 WINONA DAILY NEWS 15

House seat but has not rejected the idea.

The one thing he has been emphatic about, in private conversations, is that he doesn't want another presidential nomination even if unforeseen — and he thinks highly unlikely — circumstances should offer him a new opportunity in that field.

Since his defeat last November, Goldwater has been showered with advice ranging from appeals for him to start a third party to counsel that he move out of Arizona to establish a political base in a state that backs a substantially larger electoral college wallop.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon was reported to have suggested that Goldwater consider moving either to California or to New York to try his political luck in House or Senate races in one of those states.

Goldwater intends neither to encourage any third-party movement nor to desert Arizona.

The difficulty in Arizona is that there is no political opening at the moment for a man who enjoyed 12 years in the Senate and would like to return to his associations there.

His friend Paul Fannin, the GOP former governor, was elected to a six-year term last fall to fill the seat Goldwater vacated. The term of 86-year-old Democratic Sen. Carl Hayden doesn't expire until 1969.

DEAR ABBY:

Girl May Pay For Honeymoon

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: We plan to be married in June, right after my fiance finishes college. He is working to put himself through college, and even has had to help with a younger brother's education, so he hasn't enough money saved to pay for the honeymoon trip we've always hoped for. After we marry and he begins his career, it will be years before we will be able to have a trip like that. I am a practicing registered nurse and have money saved. Would it be all right if I paid for part of the honeymoon trip so we could go where we've always wanted to go? Or should we just go as far as his money can take us?

MONEY IN THE BANK

DEAR MONEY: If you want to follow conventional practices to a gnat's eyelash, the groom pays for the honeymoon, whether it's to Hawaii or Hoboken. But you've made a special case for yourselves, and admirably, too. So if it takes your "help" to swing the kind of honeymoon trip you've always both dreamed of, I say, help. And happy landings!

DEAR ABBY: I am 12 years old (nearly 13) and I have normal looks for my age except maybe I am quite a bit more developed for a girl my age. It bothers me when people make cracks about it. A lot of boys seem to notice me, but not for the reasons I'd like to be noticed. I don't wear my clothes too tight or anything like that. I hear remarks made about me that make me feel like something "dirty." It confuses me to be told that I should be proud of my build because I guess in a way I am sort of ashamed of it. Do you think it is fair for my father to laugh when he sees me with my blouse tucked in by slacks and say, "Are you SURE you're only 12?"

CONFUSED AND DISGUSTED

DEAR CONFUSED: You should be proud of your "build" — and even prouder of your wholesome attitude. Just keep wearing your clothes tight enough to show you're a girl, and loose enough to show you're a lady. Don't pay any attention to the "cracks" people make. And your father ought to be ashamed of himself.

DEAR ABBY: I just had to write you about my husband's overly critical attitude. If he isn't criticizing someone he knows, he's criticizing the performers on television. Our sons are teenagers, and they have picked up their father's habit of criticizing everybody. The boys are aggressive, domineering, obnoxious and disrespectful, and have terrible tempers, just like their father. Please, Abby, won't you tell me how to handle the situation, as I don't know how much more of this I can take? Thank you.

BEAT

DEAR BEAT: From your description of the boys' father I wouldn't advise you to become too critical of HIM. You will have to try twice as hard to influence your sons for the better in order to offset the bad example set by their father.

CONFIDENTIAL TO ELLIE: Most men who have lived alone for 40 years have developed a long list of self-centered habits that would drive any woman to distraction. Don't work too hard to land this one.

Court Contests Hold Up North Central Changes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil Aeronautics Board confirmed Monday a previous order that would have permitted North Central Airlines to consolidate services in several Wisconsin and Upper Michigan communities but court action in Chicago held up final action.

The CAB reaffirmed a Nov. 24 decision that Oshkosh and Appleton, Wis., should be served by North Central through Oshkosh airport alone. After the action, petitions for review were filed with the U.S. Circuit Court in Chicago by Outagamie County, representing the Appleton area; by Winnebago County for Oshkosh, and Clintonville and Ashland, Wis., against the proposed consolidation of service.

As a result of the court filings, the CAB held up its newest order, pending outcome of the court review which may take several months.

The CAB's ruling Monday also had reaffirmed its decision that North Central serve central Wisconsin communities through Mosinee, Wis., airport when it is completed. The original order also required North Central, starting Monday, to serve Ash-

Five Boys Dead In Colorado Fire

MINTURN, Colo. (AP) — Five boys — all sons of Mr. and Mrs. Otoniel Salas — died Monday night in a fire which completely destroyed their home in this western Colorado mountain community.

The five — Toby, 15; James, 9; Johnny, 8; Ricky, 6; and David, 5 — were trapped upstairs in the home when a stoked up coal stove broke into flames and in seconds engulfed the old frame house.

Mrs. Salas, 34, escaped from the first floor of the house with her 12-year-old daughter, Esther, after one futile attempt to make her way up the blazing stairs.

land and Ironwood, Mich., through the Ironwood airport; and Green Bay and Clintonville through the Green Bay airport. It was not determined immediately how these communities would be affected by the court action.

The CAB also added that hearings it conducted justified at this time that the Central Wisconsin communities of Wausau, Marshfield, Wisconsin Rapids and Stevens Point should be served through the airport at Mosinee now being built.

Pozanc Challenges, But Bakken, Super Saver Cop Meet Titles

By GARY EVANS
Daily News Sports Editor

Both Bakken Construction and Super Saver, team leaders in the Winona Women's Bowling Association City tournament since the first shift Saturday, had members on hand at Hal-Rod Lanes to watch Tuesday night's proceedings.

When the team event wound up at 11:30, both had cause to rejoice. The leaders had withstood the challenge of all comers over Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday to cop championships in the annual affair.

The Bakken Construction crew, which is composed entirely of Rushford keggers who compete in the Powder Puff League at Hal-Rod, had the most severe scare of the final evening.

They journeyed here to watch Pozanc Trucking fire away at the title, falling just one pin short of a tie for first at 2,606.

"They studied that sheet up and down," said Pat Brang, association secretary, "but they just couldn't find another pin."

The three Super Saver observers had an easier time of it. Their 2,590 had only to stand up through two teams. All but two Class "B" teams had wound up by the end of the 9 p.m. shift Monday.

Bakken, which carried a 344-pin handicap to help produce the 2,607 Class "A" winner, got a 527 from Sheila Rislove, 460 from Marie Bakken, 401 from Bertha Bakken and 398 from Evelyn Stensgard. The team games were 734, 797 and 732.

In challenging for the top spot, the Pozanc team, which numbers two keggers from the 1964 Class "A" champion Watkins Mary King team on its roster, got the big lift from Irene Trimmer, who pounded 157-162-221-540 from her lead-off spot.

The team, which has to be counted as one of the city's most consistent, saw Esther Pozanc shoot 479, Meta Lilla 477, Betty Beranek 468 and Janice Tropple 444. The games were 820, 752 and 836 to go with a 198-pin handicap. Irene Trimmer and Esther Pozanc are the bowlers who competed with Watkins Mary King a year ago. That group finished out of the top ten with 2,445.

A year ago, the Pozanc group fired 2,607 at Westgate Bowl to finish sixth. The Watkins team topped 2,784 for first.

Super Saver dethroned the Red Men's Club Schmidt's Beer team, which left the crown vacant by climbing to Class "A" this year.

The group was led by Jean Revoir's 490. Sharon Schubert had 476, Bernadine Revoir 462, Alice Wachowiak 356 and Elaine Pilger 258.

The team games were 599, 712 and 731 to go with a 548-pin handicap. When Schmidt's took the title last year, the group came up with a winning score of 2,676.

While Pozanc moved into second in Class "A", there were three other changes. Winona Insurance claimed third with 2,597, Cozy Corner Bar seventh with 2,546 and Golden Frog tenth with 2,527.

All five of the top Class "A" teams compete at Hal-Rod. The only Class "B" change came as Sloppy Joes of Winona Athletic Club rapped 2,476 to take seventh.

While the team event wound out its stand, the doubles and singles shooting got under way with a split 9 p.m. shift.

In doubles, Elaine Thode and Arlene Cisewski lead with 1,088, Vivian Albert and Adele Wentworth are second with 1,034 and Betty Brandes and Bubbles Wooden third with 1,020.

In singles, the leader is Elaine Lilla with 561 on games of 179, 153, 141 and an 88-pin handicap. Arlene Cisewski is second with 533, Helen Banicki third with 553 and Marcy Langowski fourth with 536.

In other individual action Tuesday, Shirley Squires rattled 233-544, Eleanor Stahl 100-535, Yvonne Carpenter 528, Irene Janikowski 524, Helen Nelson 507, Audrey Gorecki 505, Betty Bilgen 504, Ann Beranek 503 and Ruth Lilla 204.

The tournament continues with 6:30 and 9 p.m. shifts today and concludes with a 9 o'clock shift Friday.

LATE SHOT WINS FOR PANTHERS

HOMUTH HITS 35 FOR LIONS

Cards Smash Warrior '5'

Harmony's run, shoot and score tactics got the Cardinals 100 points for the second time this season Tuesday night, a 101-60 victory over Caledonia in a non-conference game.

Coach Tom Meulemans, who goes by the theory that if his boys get 80 shots a game, they'll get 80 points or better, saw three of his boys account for most of the scoring.

In other District One non-league games, Spring Grove ripped Wykoff 71-53, Chatfield blasted Elkton 70-61, and Rose Creek beat Canton 74-66.

HARMONY 101 CALEDONIA 60

Harmony piled up 101 points in socking Caledonia 101-60 Tuesday night. It was the second time this year that Tom Meulemans' Cardinals have been over the century mark. The first was a 104-87 pasting of Wykoff.

Three men accounted for 75 of the 101 points. Bill Barrett and Mike Erickson each hit for 26, while Jim Wilford had 23.

Jack Hauser equaled Barrett's and Erickson's point total for Caledonia, and Burl Haar totaled 16.

The Cardinals led 20-16 at the first period, 54-27 at the half and 77-44 at the end of the third quarter.

Harmony's "B" team copped a 61-42 decision.

SPRING GROVE 71 WYKOFF 53

Mel Homuth maintained his 30-point plus average a game in his race to become Spring Grove's highest scorer in history before the season is over by hitting 35 in the Grovers' 71-53 win over Wykoff.

Homuth now has 375 points in 11 games. Lowell Trehus added 16 for the Grovers.

Steve Bicknese hit 20 and Gary Nordhorn 15 for Wykoff.

The game was tight to the third quarter. Spring Grove trailed 10-8 at the first quarter mark, but led 28-27 at the half and 48-39 at the end of three.

The Grover "B"s won 55-45.

TUESDAY'S RESULTS

Holmen 43, Mindoro 42.
Onalaska 79, Melrose 41.
Trempealeau 73, Gale-Etrick 65.
West Salem 40, Bangor 38.

One major upset was pulled, and another almost executed in Tuesday night's round of Coulee Conference basketball.

The upset was produced when Trempealeau a second division team all year, bounced Gale-Etrick quite handily 73-65.

The upset which failed to materialize came at West Salem, where a sizzling - hot Bangor almost dumped the second - place Panthers. A last-second shot by West Salem's Ken Horstman was the difference in the contest that ended 60-58.

Pace setting Holmen rubbed out Mindoro 65-42 and Onalaska rapped hapless Melrose 79-41.

TREMPEALEAU 73 GALE-ETRICK 65

Gary Muenier's 24 points proved all that Trempealeau's Bears needed to submerge Gale-Etrick 73-65.

Muenier was helped out in the scoring column by Gary Herberg with 15 and Tom Johnson with 12.

The Redmen were led by Steve Johnson's 21, John Nichols' 18 and Bob Guertler's 11.

Trempealeau led all the way, 23-13, 41-26 and 54-44 at the quarter turns.

HOLMEN 65 MINDORO 42

Balanced scoring was once again the key for coach Dean Uhls as his team rolled to a 65-42 win over Mindoro.

Eino Hendrickson dominated the scoring as usual with 22, but Alan Knudson pitched in 18 and Dan McHugh 12.

For Mindoro, Dick Kastenschmidt rammed home 24 and Dan Sullivan hit for 12.

Holmen held quarter margins of 15-10, 37-17 and 49-29. The Vikings won the 'B' game.

WEST SALEM 60 BANGOR 38

A clutch basket by Ken Horstman a 5-10 junior guard, with just two seconds left to play gave second-place West Salem a squeaker win over Bangor 60-58.

Horstman finished with 22 points to lead both squads.

West Salem was trailing Bangor, which saw a five-game winning streak severed, 50-45 at the end of the third quarter, but outscored the visitors 15-8 in the final stanza to win.

Dave Schroeder had 14 and Dennis Seeger 10 for West Salem.

For Bangor, Gary Blashaski counted 18 and Lee Frieh 15.

ONALASKA 79 MELROSE 41

Onalaska shelled Melrose 79-41 behind the 30-point showing of Bob Berg.

Onalaska jumped off to a 28-6 margin at the end of the first quarter, then pushed the lead to 52-13 at the half.

Tom Everett chipped in 14 points for Onalaska, while Seefeldt had 13 and Jeff Byom 12 for Melrose.

Batley, Griffith Are Hospitalized

ST. PAUL - MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Two members of the Minnesota Twins organization—President Cal Griffith and catcher Earl Batley—are hospitalized in the Twin Cities.

Griffith was taken to a hospital Tuesday after team physician Dr. William Proffitt discovered a blood clot in Griffith's right thigh—described as an after-effect of the Twins boss' bout with pneumonia last week. He will be hospitalized at least a week.

Batley is under treatment for a thyroid condition.

Michigan Fears Purdue might be an apt headline in college basketball today.

The second-ranked Wolverines meet the unranked Boilermakers on Saturday. And off their close call against Michigan State Tuesday night, the Wolverines may be pardoned if they are apprehensive over their invasion of similarly unranked Purdue.

Michigan had to come from 10 points down to beat Michigan State 103-98 in overtime at East Lansing. It took a 40-point performance by Cazzie Russell to keep the Wolverines unbeaten in Big Ten play at 4-0 and 12-2 over-all.

The fourth-ranked Providence Friars, the only other team in the Associated Press top ten to see action, crushed Rhode Island 73-56 for their 13th straight victory and maintained their position as the nation's only unbeaten major team.

Texas Tech defeated Southern Methodist 107-89 in their battle for first place in the Southwest Conference. In other games, West Virginia edged Pitt 76-75, Boston Univ. nipped Dartmouth 67-65, St. Bonaventure whipped Fairfield 88-68, LaSalle humbled Lafayette 91-73 and Furman took South Carolina 81-66.

Michigan State, paced by Bill Curtis' 36 points, led Michigan 43-33 at halftime, led 12 points behind at 70-58 then rallied to tie the regulation game at 88-88 on John Schick's basket with 14 seconds left.

The Spartans twice tied the score in the extra period, but never caught up after George Pomey's jump shot put the Ann Arbor leads ahead for good.

Providence fell behind 9-2 at the start, but soon stormed into the lead over Rhode Island and wasn't threatened thereafter.

ROCKETS, LIMA FALL

Tolletson Shot Helps Loretto

Only one of three Bi-State teams in non-conference action Tuesday night, picked up a win. The lucky team was Caledonia Loretto, which upped its season slate to 2-10 overall with a 60-58 win over Lansing (Iowa) St. George.

Rollingstone Holy Trinity fell to a fast-improving Gilmanston 74-51, and Chippewa Falls McDonnell took the measure of Lima Sacred Heart 72-56.

LORETTO 60 LANSING 58

A basket with just 30 seconds left to play by Joe Tolletson assured Caledonia Loretto a 60-58 win over Lansing St. George.

Tolletson, a 5-9 junior guard, failed to finish in double figures, but his basket proved one of the most important. Mike Mulvanna, flashy senior guard, popped in 20 points. Gary Conway had 16 and Tom Weichert scored 11. Don Imhoff had 25 for Lansing.

Loretto was ahead most of the game, but a late surge by St. George produced a 58-58 tie with less than a minute left, setting up Tolletson's basket.

Loretto's "B" squad, coached by Harry Davis, took a 46-18 decision.

MCDONNELL 72 LIMA 56

Chippewa Falls McDonnell spurred to a 26-9 first quarter lead and never again was headed in taking a 72-56 win over Lima Sacred Heart.

Lima got 20 points out of Dave Bauer and 18 from Al Weiss.

For McDonnell, Tony Gelina hit 20 and Bob Rooney 15.

GILMANSTON 74 ROLLINGSTONE 51

Doug Loomis scored 22 points to lead Gilmanston's Panthers to a 74-51 win over Rollingstone Holy Trinity.

Loomis' brother, Wayne, pitched in 15 points and Jerry Dieckman added 16.

For Rollingstone, Otto Dingfelder accounted for 14 and Ken Peshon hit 12.

The Panthers held a slim 17-16 first-quarter lead, but upped it to 36-26 at the half and 62-36 at the end of three.

Rollingstone's "B" team captured a 27-26 overtime win.

Hockey Juniors, Eau Claire 'Six' Meet Tonight

The Winona Junior Hockey league team will journey to Eau Claire tonight for a 7:30 p.m. game with an ice team from that city.

Other upcoming Park-Ree sponsored ice games will find the Midgets meeting Eau Claire Saturday at Winona's Athletic Park. The game will get underway at 2 p.m.

The Midgets are scheduled for Feb. 6 action in the regional boy's amateur tournament at Austin.

In a recent Midget game locally, the East, led by Steve Strelow's five goals, spanked the West 8-2 at the East rink.

The score was knotted at 0-0 at the end of the first period, but the East went ahead 2-0 in the second and added six more in the third to take the win.

Ed Petschow scored a "hat trick" for the winners and also had two assists to account for goals. Jim Ramer had a single assist. Lee Kanz scored the West's two goals.

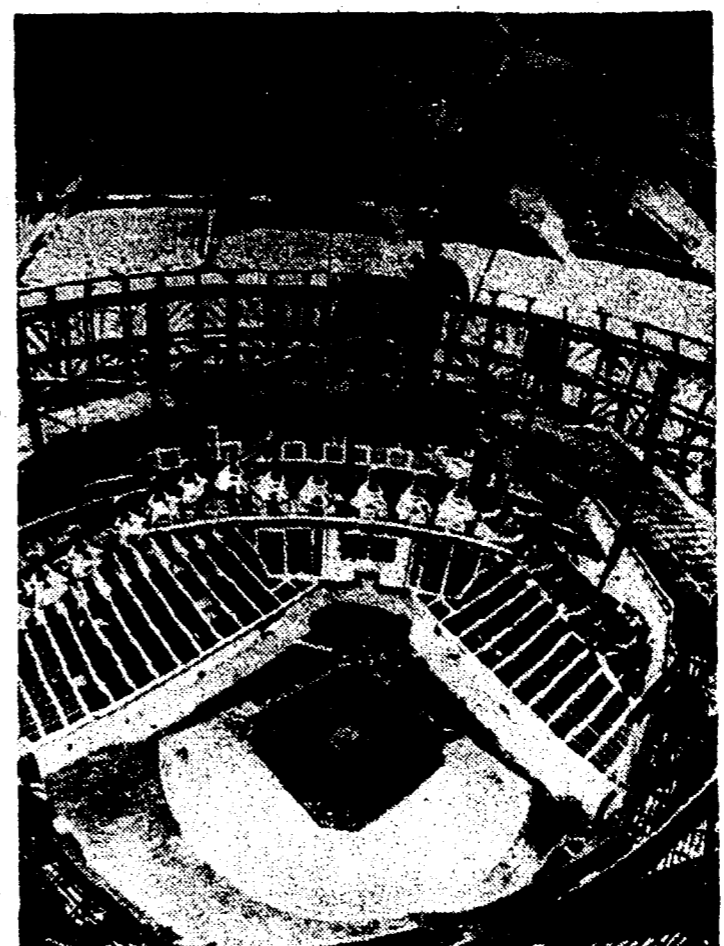

East goalie Dick Lande had 25 stops, and West goalie Chuck Hawley made 22.

WEST (G): Charlie Hawley, Dick Lande, Jim Ramer, Steve Strelow, John Brandes, L.C. Bruce, L.V. Assessor, Bill Lehnert, L.D. Phil Meyer, Ed Petschow, R.D. John Seungles, Bernadette.

C-FC Rally Fails, Alma Takes 13th

Cochrane-Fountain City scrapped all the way in a game with Alma Tuesday night, pressing the unbeaten Rivermen severely in a contest at the Pirate gym.

As it was, Greg Green's Rivermen withheld a Pirate rally in the fourth quarter to take a 74-65 decision, Alma's 13th in a row.

In other games in Badgerland Tuesday, Independence spanked Arcadia 58-37. Blair romped past Taylor 89-69, Plum City ran over Arkansas 64-48, Mondovi fell to Fall Creek 76-70 and Stanley stopped Durand 77-69.

ALMA 74 C-FC 65

In an entirely different replay of the opening game of the season, Cochrane-Fountain City rallied to within four points of Alma Tuesday night and almost upset the high-flying Rivermen. Alma took a 74-65 victory.

In the season's opener at Alma, the Rivermen blew the Pirates off the court, winning 80-50.

It was different Tuesday, however. The Pirates rallied from a 54-43 third quarter deficit to pull within four points. Clutch baskets by Dave Antrim, who finished with 22 points, and Dick Ebersold, who had 13, pulled the Rivermen out of reach.

Larry Kreibich also had 13 for Alma.

Dan Dietrich hit 19 for C-FC, while Rich Abts had 14 and Gene Baker and Hal Chedester 13 each.

Alma led 20-18 at the end of the first period, 40-34 at halftime.

Alma's "B" team won 51-35.

INDEPENDENCE 68 ARCADIA 37

Jack Bisek split the nets for 30 points to lead Independence to a 68-37 victory over Arcadia. Bob Edmundson helped Bisek out with 13 points, while Bud Benusa paced Arcadia scorers with 14.

The Indians held 20-4, 40-10 and 53-16 quarter leads before coach Carl Richards pulled his regulars in the fourth quarter.

The Indians took a 30-17 "B" team win.

BLAIR 89 TAYLOR 69

After trailing at the end of the first period, Blair stormed ahead of Taylor in the rest of the quarters to take an 89-69 victory.

The Cardinals were behind 17-16 at the end of the first, but led 47-31 at the half and 72-49 at the three-quarter mark.

Carl Aubart mashed 35 for Blair, while Dean Dale had 17 and Roger Misch 16.

For Taylor, Maynard Kral had 32 and Larry Mitchell ten. Blair also won the "B" game 37-26.

PLUM CITY 64 ARKANSAS 48

Plum City, the WIAA's 16th ranked team in the Badgerland Little Sixteen ratings, swept past Arkansas 64-48.

Arkansas trailed 20-17 and 30-29 at the end of the first two quarters, then suffered a cold spell in the third as Plum City took a 48-40 lead.

Bill Yingst had 20 and Bill Luther 14 for Arkansas, while Denny Hewitt had 18, Dick Fedie 17 and Rich Auth 12 for Plum City.

Arkansas won the "B" game.

FALL CREEK 76 MONDOVI 70

Fall Creek and Mondovi had a barn-burner on the Cricket floor Tuesday, with Fall Creek taking a 76-70 win.

Mondovi trailed 26-20 at the first quarter and cut the margin to 40-39 at the half. Each team scored 18 points in the third quarter and Fall Creek still was ahead by one at 58-57.

A lapse in the Mondovi defense allowed Fall Creek to tally two quick baskets early in the fourth period, and the Buffaloes couldn't overcome the margin.

Chuck Scharf scored 22 and Bill Hehl 35 for Mondovi, while Wally Walters had 24 for Fall Creek.

Mondovi is now 4-3 on the year.

STANLEY 77 DURAND 69

A 23-point first-quarter barrage was all Stanley needed Tuesday to take a 77-69 win over Durand.

Stanley held a 23-12 lead at the end of the first period, and Durand played the home town club on even terms for the rest of the game, outscoring them 23-14 in the third, and falling short 25-22 in the second and 15-12 in the fourth.

Dale Harschlip counted 21, Wayne Kralewski 20 and Joe Langlois 14 for Durand. Mike Edwardson hit 27, Tom Bloom 18, Ron Fandry 13 and Dick Peterson 12 for Stanley.

The Panther "B" team won 58-50.

Gonzalez Earns Split Decision Over Griffith

HOUSTON (AP) — Manuel Gonzalez, an underdog from Odessa, Tex., used an effective left jab to fashion a thin 10-round split decision over welterweight champion Emile Griffith of New York Tuesday night in a non-title over-the-weight bout.

Gonzalez, ranked third among the welterweights, weathered a furious stretch drive by Griffith and earned the verdict which could have gone either way.

Griffith weighed 149 and Gonzalez 150½.

Referee Jimmy Webb had Gonzalez ahead 97-94, judge Maxie Ross saw it 97-94 in favor of Griffith and Judge Earl Keel voted for Gonzalez, 96-95. The Associated Press card had Griffith the victor, 97-96.

Griffith's downfall apparently was a result of a cautious start during which Gonzalez scored with left jabs.

The world champion, losing only his sixth fight in 49 outings, was intent in finding a way to reach Gonzalez' midsection.

Gonzalez, an adroit boxer, used a stinging left jab and occasionally a series of double hooks to keep Griffith from finding his mark.

John McVey, an assistant football coach at Michigan State for three seasons, is the new head coach at the University of Dayton.

Redmen Skaters Bomb Mac Country Kitchen Clubs

1,122, Glubka in 259 Game

With Dan Glubka at the helm, Country Kitchen took second place on the team game list with its 1,122 hit in the Westgate American League Tuesday night at Westgate.

That gives Country Kitchen games both the one and two spots on the list. The difference, however, is that the 1,122 top was smashed by the Country Kitchen group from the Hal-Rod City League Oct. 12.

RIDING in third place after Tuesday night action, is Emil's

Menswear, which was dropped out of the second spot. The Emil's quintet speared 1,116 in the Winona Athletic Club Classic circuit Sept. 15.

With Glubka razing 259 during 223 from Tom Riska, 206 from Art Moore, 186 from John Cisewski and 180 from John Sherman Jr.

That totaled 1,054 scratch and was built to 1,122 with a 68-pen handicap.

Glubka made it a big night for himself by continuing on to 634 to lead the team to high series of 2,962. In other league action, Fran Hengel socked 621 errorless for Westgate Bowl.

IN THE WINONA Athletic Club Classic League, Fran Hengel slammed 247-641, to lead the crucial set, the group's Beer to 1,046-3,006. It was a torrid night in the circuit as Paul Platt Jr. tagged 256-619, and Joe Loshek 600 errorless.

On the non-tournament scene, a pair of substitutes in the Winona Westgate League captured honors. Leona Lubinski rattled 213-541 to lead Pin Pals to 861 and Doris Bay tumbled 505 for Alley Capers. Marcy Vanguten spotted 178-491 for Breitlow and Flintstones topped 878.

WESTGATE BOWL: Hiawatha—House of Heileman's swept honors. Rich Moham clipped 232 and Lyle Jacobson 590 to lead the quintet to 1,033-2,809.

Working Girls—Judy Cocker labeled 169-456 for Bell Chimes. Gutter Dusters cracked 520 and Sweet Sixteens 1,422.

WINONA AC: Elks—Harold Machutt topped 208-532 for Penney's and Main Tavern 983-2,866.

RED MEN'S CLUB: Tuesday night—Steve Belisle pushed over 507 to lead Gate City Insurance to 963-2,692. Dick Ott hammered 190 for Goltz Pharmacy.

HAL-ROD LANS: Lucky Ladies—Jo Blitzen's 202-497 paced Hamm's Beer to 2,499. Fountain City clipped 881.

Rushford FFA Clips Winona

The Rushford FFA basketball team scored a 74-39 win over the Winona High FFAers Tuesday at the Winona High gym.

John Kinneberg had 26, Leon Helleland 24 and Lyle Rustad 16 for Rushford. Dave Belter led Winona scorers with 23.

GIANTS GET KOY HOUSTON (AP)—Texas halfback Ernie Koy Jr., star of the recent Orange Bowl game, has been signed by the New York Giants of the National Football League right under the noses of the rival American Football League Houston Oilers.

Beaulieu in Pair of Goals

St. Mary's Redmen scored a resounding 5-0 hockey victory over Macalester College in a MIAC ice battle Tuesday on the Terrace Heights rink.

The game was one that was originally scheduled for Redmen ice on Dec. 12, but had to be reset until Tuesday because of warm weather.

The win gave the Redmen pucksters a 7-1 MIAC record, rebounding after a 5-4 loss to St. John's Saturday. The loss snapped a 17-game winning streak in conference play.

ONCE AGAIN, IT WAS the smooth skating of St. Mary's star center Andre Beaulieu, that paced the Redmen victory.

Beaulieu, the nation's top collegiate scorer as a junior a year ago, got four points Tuesday as he slammed home a pair of goals and also had two assists.

The flashy Canadian blended with the elements, storming over the wind-swept ice to score goals in the second and third periods in addition to getting assists in the same periods.

A REDMAN spokesman said: "Andre skated real well. They all did. We were in a hole the first period, because we had to play defense because of the many penalties. We made up for it in the second and third periods."

"Because of the penalties," he continued, "our line kept getting broken up in the first and third periods. At these times we couldn't skate well together."

The Redmen were caught committing eight infractions, resulting in a like number of penalties. Macalester, now 4-5 in MIAC puck play, had two penalties.

The score was deadlocked 0-0 in the first period, but Dennis Cooney slammed in a goal off Beaulieu's stick for the first Redmen score in 19 seconds of the second period. Don Berrigan scored the second goal at 14:15 with an assist from Bob Paradise, and Beaulieu got his second later at 14:58 from an assist from Mike Bishop.

BRIAN DESBIENS tallied at 1:08 of the third period, thanks to Beaulieu's second assist, and Beaulieu himself scored at 11:43, on an assist from Cooney.

Goalie Jerry Archambeau had 11 stops while Mac tender Hanson had 22.

St. John's comes to Terrace Heights Saturday to try and replay the Redmen-Johnnie match of a week ago. The game will be a part of St. Mary's winter sports weekend.

Five Michigan State football players saw action in four post-season bowl games following the 1964 season.

Mathews Goes On List of 'Untradeables'

MILWAUKEE (AP)—A couple of months ago Milwaukee third-baseman Eddie Mathews and many baseball observers felt he was on the trading block. Now the Braves list him as one of their "untradeables."

"We have no intention of trading him," Manager Bobby Bragan said Tuesday. "He's far too valuable."

Mathews, a 33-year-old slugger who ranks ninth in baseball's all-time home-run derby with 445 distant clouts, batted only .233 last season. His 23 homers equaled his personal low and he drove in 74 runs.

"Ed appears to be in excellent shape," Bragan said after seeing Mathews at a baseball writers' dinner Sunday. "I look for him to stage a great comeback. I'll say this—he's the best .233 hitter I ever saw."

Pacelli Holds No. 1 Spot

Winona Cotter dropped a notch in this week's Minnesota Catholic Education Association cage ratings, from fifth to sixth place.

The Ramblers, 9-5 on the year after Saturday's win over Wabasha St. Felix, were replaced in the No. 5 spot by St. Cloud Cathedral, which has an 11-2 record.

Austin Pacelli still retains the No. 1 rating with a 14-0 record. In second place is Benilde, with an 8-3 record. The two teams will team up against each other at Benilde Saturday night.

De La Salle is in third with an 8-3 mark, and St. Paul Hill is No. 5 with an 8-5 record.

Trailing Cotter are St. John's Preps, Marshall Central, Rochester Lourdes and St. Paul St. Agnes, in that order.

The Top Ten (with tabulated points and won-loss records):

1. Austin Pacelli (226) 14-0
2. St. Louis Park Benilde (181) 8-3
3. Minneapolis De LaSalle (107) 8-3
4. Saint Paul Hill (132) 8-5
5. St. Cloud Cathedral (130) 11-2
6. Winona Cotter (110) 9-5
7. St. John's Preps (91) 9-2
8. Marshall Central (49) 10-3
9. Rochester Lourdes (39) 6-8
10. St. Paul St. Agnes (34) 12-3

Campbell Sent To Baltimore

ST. PAUL (AP)—John Campbell, Minnesota Viking linebacker, is being sent to the Baltimore Colts as part of the deal which brought Larry Kramer, Nebraska tackle to the Minnesota team, it was learned today.

Kramer, from Austin, Minn., signed with the Vikings about 10 days ago. He was a future choice by the Colts in the 1963 National Football League draft.

The Colts selected Campbell under the option to receive a player and a draft choice from the Vikings if Kramer signed with Minnesota.

Knicks Happy Now That West, Baylor Far Away

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The New York Knickerbockers have parted company with Jerry West and Elgin Baylor for three weeks. If the Knicks had their way the separation would be permanent.

West and Baylor combined for 83 Los Angeles points Tuesday night as the Lakers whipped the Knicks 111-99 in the nightcap of a National Basketball Association doubleheader at New York. It was the Knicks' third straight loss—all to the Western Division leaders.

Patterson Gets 21 as Bulldogs Triumph 71-64

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Minnesota - Duluth and Macalester upheld state prestige in fine fashion in interstate basketball warring Tuesday night.

UMD's Bulldogs, carting only a 3-3 record in the Minnesota Intercollegiate Conference, upset Northern Michigan 71-64 at Duluth. Macalester, which is 3-4 in the MIAC, bounced

Stout, Wis., State 82-75. Duluth, sparked by Mike Patterson's 21 points, ran up a 39-30 halftime lead, saw that dwindle to one point, 65-64, but spurted again in the final three minutes to win handily.

Northern Michigan last week defeated Oklahoma. The Sooners had beaten Nebraska, which beat Michigan, which beat Illinois which beat No. 1-ranked UCLA.

Duluth now is 11-4 for the season, Macalester 8-4. Only game tonight has Concordia playing at North Dakota State.

Tommy Fibbe, a 6-foot-1 guard on Auburn's basketball team comes from Frankfort, Ky.

THE WORLD IN 1964

When the world's foremost news gathering agency, The Associated Press, in cooperation with this and other member newspapers, decided to publish a memorable book of the year, it wanted to put out more than just another news annual or almanac.

So it assigned to the task the team of outstanding writers that made an all time best seller of The Torch Is Passed, the story of the Kennedy tragedy.

The results were foreseeable—a volume that captures the excitement and immediacy of a great year and that relates it to the American newspaper reader. It's a sure bet as a collector's item—something you won't want to miss—and as a solid reference book for student or general reader.

Judge Rules for Widow In Pepin Co. Tax Case

DURAND, Wis. — In Pepin County court here Tuesday, Judge John Bartholomew ruled in favor of defendant, Mrs. Fern Hartung, Arkansaw, in a contested inheritance case brought by the state Department of Taxation.

Mrs. Hartung's husband, Leo H., was killed July 31 in a head-on collision. When his estate was probated, the value of Hartung Oil Co., a bulk business serving Arkansaw, Exile, Mondovi and the general surrounding rural area, was appraised at $144,000.

The law firm of Whalen, Morley & Morey, Mondovi and Durand, representing the estate, claimed the company was owned jointly by Mr. and Mrs. Hartung, thereby reducing the inheritance tax.

The inheritance tax division of the Department of Taxation claimed it was a business owned solely by the decedent. Appearing with an attorney from the state department was Joseph H. Riedner, Durand, Pepin County public administrator.

TESTIMONY OPENED at 1 p.m., and following arguments by the attorneys, Judge Bartholomew ruled for Mrs. Hartung at 5:30 p.m.

Witnesses with the administrator, Mrs. Hartung, were Galen Radle, Clarence Hartung, James Miles, Luetta Hill and Mrs. Hartung's children, William, Arkansaw, Mrs. Roger Kallstrom, Durand, and Mrs. Carol Mulhern, Connecticut.

Radle, assistant cashier of the Security National Bank, Durand, testified and showed evidence that Hartung Oil Co. account was a joint account of husband and wife.

Transportation Club Installs

Eugene Malay, agent for the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad here, was installed as president of the Winona Transportation Club Tuesday night.

Malay, vice president last year, succeeds John Saacker, manager of Gateway Transportation Co. here.

New vice president of the organization is David Henderson of the Bay State Milling Co. traffic department. He was a director last year.

Installed as new directors at the meeting — the annual meeting for the club — were Roy Emery, secretary — treasurer of Sunred Cherry, Inc., and D. N. Doumas, Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul & Pacific Railroad agent here.

The meeting was the club's annual dinner meeting sponsored by on-line railroad members. It was at the American Legion Memorial Club. Speaker was Weldon McGee, Green Bay, president of Green Bay & Western Railroad.

McGee, who took a trip through the USSR near the end of 1963, described his trip and showed slides he took in the Soviet Union.

He discussed his efforts to meet the Russian people, unhindered by government guides, and he spoke of railroading in the Soviet Union.

Damage Exceeds $500 in Crashes

Two collisions in Winona Tuesday caused more than $500 in property damage.

One driver's duel with a light pole would have to be rated a stand-off. There was $200 damage to both the car and the pole after a collision Tuesday at 3:05 p.m. on Lake Drive, 600 feet east of Main Street.

Thomas N. Findlay, 16, 1620 Edgewood Dr., was eastbound on Lake Drive when he lost control of his vehicle. The car spun off the north curb of the road and came to smashing rest against a light pole at the south curb.

Damage was to the right side of the Findlay vehicle. The light pole will be replaced. Patrolmen Richard D. Peterson and Lyle E. Latham investigated.

A collision sometime Tuesday on 3rd Street, 130 feet east of Olmstead Street, caused about $100 damage to the left front door of a parked car.

The parked car of Richard A. Ozmun, 410 38th Ave., Goodview, received the damage when a car backed out of a driveway opposite, into Ozmun's vehicle.

Richard Bartholm, 424 W. 3rd St., had not completed his half of the police accident form this morning, and damage to the rear of his car had not been estimated.

Woman Sued to Make Good on Rochester Pledge

ST. PAUL (AP) — Mrs. Joseph Gales Ramsay III, wealthy benefactress to ailing children in many parts of the world, is being sued to make good a $40,000 pledge to the Rochester, Minn., Civic Theater building fund.

Although the federal tax returns were made jointly, the state returns weren't, she said. She had advised Leo that he should split the income for state income tax purposes also, but when she figured them both ways and found there was little difference in the amount due, he said to continue as she had.

William Hartung, son of Leo, now owner of the company, testified that he knew that if the business hadn't been owned jointly by his parents, his inheritance would have been one-third of two-thirds of the total business. He realized this would have been a substantial sum, he said, but testified, "I make no claim to any share of it."

The daughters testified to the same knowledge and to no claim. All testified they knew their mother's work with the company. William had been operating the truck, he said, especially the last few years when his father also did combining in summer and drove a school bus.

A WITNESS from the tax department introduced state tax returns showing they hadn't been made out jointly, but business schedules attached referred to the oil business as belonging to Leo and Fern Hartung.

Mrs. Hartung, called by the state adversely, identified her husband's signature. She also had signed the state returns.

The state introduced exhibits showing Hartung individually had applied for a seller's permit under the Wisconsin sales tax law and individually applied for license to sell petroleum products.

On cross-examination by the state Mrs. Hartung said she had never drawn on the joint account of the oil company because she and her husband each had their own personal bank accounts.

A drunken driving case was stated in the Pepin County court this morning, with Emory Biggell as the defendant.

College Students Plan to Attend GOP Conference

Plans to attend an issues conference next month were made Tuesday evening by members of the College of Saint Teresa-St. Mary's College Young Republican Association.

The association also adopted a new constitution at the meeting in Loretto Hall lounge on the CST campus.

The issues conference, set for Feb. 14, is sponsored by the Minnesota Federation of College Republican Clubs. Resolutions will be prepared for the state federation convention, March 5 to 7 in Minneapolis.

Two members of the local associations have been assigned to state convention committees. Miss Marlene Puzka, CST, will be on the committee for revision of the federation constitution.

John Bedard, chairman of the association here, is a possible candidate for state vice chairman. Bedard, a St. Mary's College student, is from Brainerd.

A general meeting for all college students in the city will be sponsored Feb. 25 by the association. Dr. Walter Judd, former Minnesota congressman, will speak.

Dow Jones Average Goes Over 900

NEW YORK (AP) — A stock market advance today succeeded in pushing the Dow Jones industrial average above the 900 level for the first time but the average drifted below it early this afternoon. Trading was fairly active.

The rise was irregular with airlines, steels and rails generally lower.

The list was at its peak in the first half hour when the Dow industrials reached 900.66.

By noon the average read 899.42, keeping a gain of 1.58.

Oils, aerospace industries, cigarette stocks, rubbers and utilities were generally higher.

Selective gains by blue chips bolstered averages.

The general background of business news was good but — as expected — the market seemed to have encountered "psychological resistance" as it cleared the long-heralded 900 mark in the Dow.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 6 at 335.1. Industrials rose 1.9, rails were off .7 and utilities gained .4.

Bolstering the averages, United Aircraft gained more than a point while General Motors, Eastman Kodak, American Smelting, Du Pont, General Electric, Westinghouse Electric, Texaco and Standard Oil (New Jersey) gained fractions.

Down about a point were American Airlines, New York Central, Zenith and Pennsylvania Railroad.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange advanced in moderate trading.

Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. government bonds were mostly unchanged.

If you don't try
KING SIZE Dr Pepper soon...

everyone will beat you to it!

To the swift goes the race, you know. So "swift" yourself down to your favorite store and try King Size Dr Pepper before your friends drink it all.

You'll be glad you did. You'll discover that Dr Pepper is not just another soft drink. It's completely different, with a bright, frosty taste that feels like six million dollars in the bank. Two full glasses of it in every King Size bottle.

A real pepper-upper, too. And today's active folks--those who set the pace--need the extra energy that more-than-refreshing Dr Pepper gives them.

Try King Size Dr Pepper soon. By the bottle, by the carton, or by the carload. But for goodness sake try it before it's all gone.

"IT'S DIFFERENT...
I LIKE IT"
