Space Twins Decorated By Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Gemini 4 astronauts came to the White House today to accept medals from President Johnson and hear a presidential statement that their historic feats "closed the gap in manned space flight."

Johnson, in remarks at the medal presentation ceremony, said the walk-in-space flight of astronauts James A. McDivitt and Edward H. White II clearly indicated the United States no longer trails the Soviet Union in manned flight.

And he said their achievement had done even more by raising hopes around the world for "close cooperation among all nations in exploring and using space for the common good and peaceful interests of mankind."

McDivitt and White flew in separate planes to nearby Andrews Air Force Base. Their families were with them. Helicopters picked them up and landed them on the White House grounds.

The President planned to pin on their chests the Exceptional Service medals of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. Charles W. Mathews, manager of the Gemini program office of the Manned Space Center at Houston, Tex., was to receive the same award.

White's citation said that as "the first man to engage in self-propelled extra-vehicular activity" he expanded the knowledge of space environment.

McDivitt's: "His performance as command pilot significantly extended our knowledge of man's capabilities."

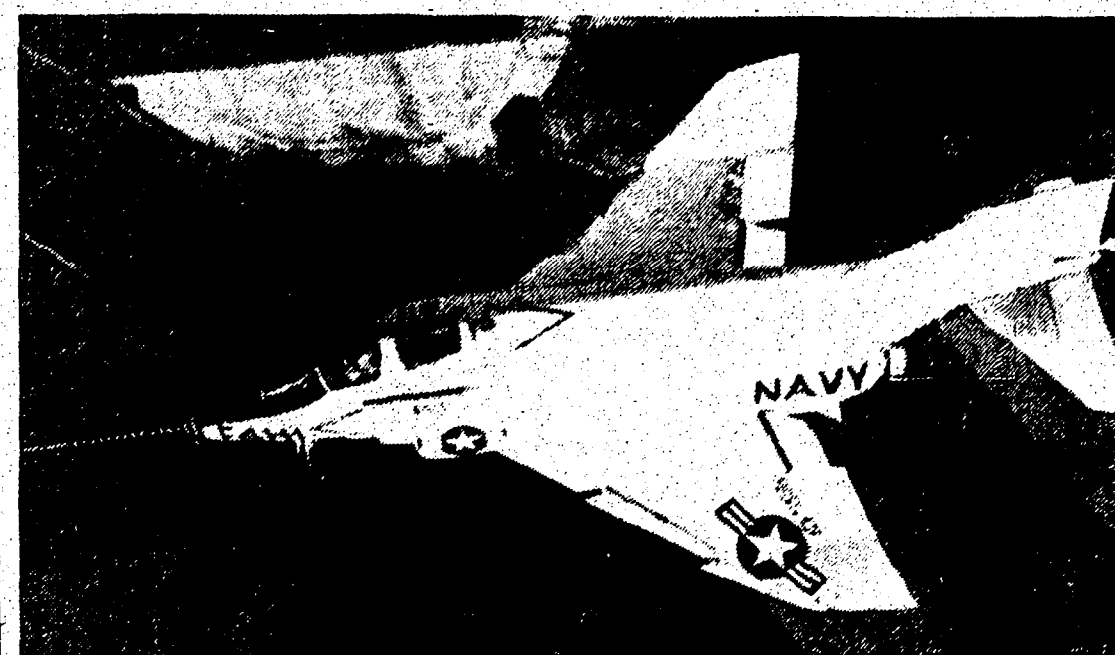

Mathews was honored for "his ability to resolve the most complex technological and managerial problems."

After the White House ceremony, the astronauts' crowded agenda for the day included: A motorcade to the Capitol; luncheon on the Senate side with Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey; a walk to the House side to be introduced to members of that chamber in the well of the House.

Tonight they are to be narrators of one of the most remarkable films ever made — a record of their four-day Gemini adventure. Watching and listening in the State Department auditorium will be diplomats of many nations. Then comes a reception at the State Department where the diplomats will greet the astronauts, Mathews and their families.

Wednesday, the astronauts' old home towns poured out tributes to them. The biggest crowd in the history of Jackson, Mich. — an estimated 125,000 — lined a parade route for McDivitt. A youngster's sign said "By Gemini, you did it."

Enemy Planes Go Down in Hanoi Dogfight

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Two U.S. Navy Phantom jets shot down two Communist MIG17 fighters in flames today in a dogfight 50 miles south of Hanoi, a U.S. military spokesman announced.

The clash occurred while the Phantoms were flying escort for other U.S. warplanes bombing targets about 20 miles north of Thanh Hoa.

The spokesman said four Communist jets appeared and turned toward the American planes as if they were going to attack. But apparently they were hit before they had a chance to open fire, he said.

One parachute was seen opening, but it was not known what happened to the Communist pilot. The other two MIGs escaped.

One plane was shot down by Cmdr. Louis C. Page of San Diego, Calif., who told newsmen in Saigon, "This was the first enemy aircraft I have shot down. Other than that, we were just doing a job."

The pilot of the second Phantom, Lt. (j.g.) E. D. Batson Jr. of Buffalo, N.Y., said: "I'm tickled to death."

The spokesman said the dogfight lasted only 29 seconds and that the Phantoms hit the enemy with air-to-air missiles.

It was presumed that the MIGs were North Vietnamese, although Navy planes have had one brush with Communist Chinese MIGs off Hainan Island, in the Gulf of Tonkin.

The Phantoms were flying at an altitude between 10,000 and 20,000 feet when they spotted the hostile aircraft.

Page was asked how they knew the MIGs were about to attack.

"If he's in your general area and headed toward you, you have to assume he's up to no good," the pilot replied.

The MIG17s of Korean War vintage, armed with one 37mm cannon and two 23mm cannons, are the most heavily armed fighters in the American arsenal. It is equipped with heat-seeking sidewinder missiles which home in on the exhaust trail of enemy jets.

The two pilots flew with their radio intercept officers to Saigon for a news conference. Page's officer was Lt. John C. Smith Jr. of Bellevue, Ill., whose wife and children live in Powan, Calif. Batson's officer was Lt. Cmdr. Robert B. Doremus of Montclair, N.J., whose wife and children live in Wilmington, Del.

Page, who served as spokesman for the group, declined to discuss the tactics used in shooting down the MIGs.

Page also declined to say whether the missiles used were Sidewinders or Sparrows. The Phantom carries both.

He said he assumed the MIGs were North Vietnamese. The four enemy planes were silver and bore the yellow and red insignia of North Viet Nam, he said.

U.S. airmen attacking North Viet Nam last reported spotting hostile planes June 1 while bombing an ammunition dump 45 miles southwest of Hanoi. Eight MIG fighters appeared but wheeled away when the American planes started to close in on them.

Excise Tax Cut Seen by Saturday

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House passed today a compromise bill to repeal most federal excise taxes and lead the way for price cuts on a variety of goods from automobiles to lipsticks.

The House whipped the bill through by voice vote after only a few minutes of discussion. The Senate was set to consider it promptly, in a double play designed to allow President Johnson—if he wishes—to put the first reductions into effect by Saturday.

The bill as passed is the result of an agreement Wednesday night between House and Senate conferees. The two houses had passed different versions.

Sen. Russell Long, D-La., one of the principal Senate conferees, said that chamber will act as soon as possible after the House votes.

Damaging Floods On Platte River

DENVER (AP) — The worst flood in more than 30 years pounded Denver and communities to the south Wednesday night and today, leaving hundreds homeless, ripping out bridges, and causing millions of dollars in damages.

Most of Denver was without power during the night and early morning as a result of flooding of the huge Public Service Co., power plant.

No loss in life has been reported.

Floodwater roaring out of mountain coudbursts raced down the South Platte River late Wednesday. The floods struck after tornadoes ripped through Palmer Lake south of Denver and also pounced down in an area southeast of here.

At the Valley Country Club, three golfers on the course were injured as terrific winds smashed flimsy shelter houses in which they had sought refuge.

Hundreds of persons living close to the South Platte River had to leave their homes. They were given shelter in schools and other buildings.

Water flowed into motels, restaurants and other business houses at the south edge of Denver.

Water from the South Platte overflowed into the railroad yards at the lower end of 17th Street. Union Pacific tracks at the north end of the yard were washed out. Passengers were transferred to buses and driven to a hotel.

The crest of the South Platte flood struck shortly before midnight. Another crest, three hours later, flattened out before reaching the metropolitan area. The second crest was reported by the Colorado Highway Patrol to be about 15 feet high — roughly the size of the initial surge — when it reached Waterton, 16 miles above Denver.

Even as the second threat melted away, the first crest was moving out onto the prairie lands northeast of Denver.

Evacuation warnings were sounded ahead of the rising waters and most residents of low-lying areas got out well ahead of the wave.

A power failure blacked out much of downtown Denver shortly before midnight. Other sections of the city also were affected.

Reds Will Ask Peace When Hurt Militarily, U.S. Believes

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the judgment of U.S. policy makers the prospects for peace in Viet Nam are more likely to be decided by the course of combat over the next several months than by diplomatic maneuvers in this and other world capitals.

Officials say President Johnson is determined to press his peace offensive at every opportunity, even while expanding military operations.

At the moment officials here are looking to a conference of British Commonwealth leaders in London for some possible new move for the negotiations. The Johnson administration will undoubtedly welcome one, if it comes.

Several other peace conference possibilities, arising from proposals made in the past by Britain, India and the United States among others, are still open. The possibility that Johnson might order another pause in the bombing of North Viet Nam is not ruled out, officials say. But the conviction in high quarters here today is that the Communist North Vietnamese, the Red Chinese and the Red Viet Cong leaders in South Viet Nam still believe they can win the war. They are therefore not interested in negotiations at this time on any terms acceptable to the United States and South Viet Nam.

This conclusion is drawn in a still secret, 13-point paper, summarizing peace moves on South-east Asia over more than four years. The paper was recently prepared by the State Department for Johnson and lists 13 major types of peace probes and proposals, all of which have faltered or failed.

The basic assessment in Washington of the current Vietnamese situation is that with the recent onset of the monsoon season the Communists decided on major offensive operations in the belief that bad weather would seriously hamper U.S. air actions. The Communists thus would hope to win extensive victories on the ground in South Viet Nam.

The U.S. counter strategy for this period is to convince the Reds that they cannot win in this manner and that the United States will throw into the fight whatever is required to prevent their taking over South Viet Nam. The U.S. hope is that after several months the Communists will be compelled to reassess their position and prospects, perhaps taking a different view of peace negotiations.

Against this background, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara announced Wednesday that 16,000 to 21,000 more American troops are going into South Viet Nam in the immediate future. They will raise total American strength there to nearly 75,000 men of whom 21,000 will be ground combat personnel. Last week it was disclosed that U.S. troops will fight side by side with South Vietnamese troops when necessary.

The State Department's 13 points on peace negotiations range from direct talks with the Soviet Union and Red China to Johnson's offer last April of "unconditional discussions" to a Canadian approach to North Viet Nam last month. In the last few days the paper has been circulated to U.S. embassies abroad, evidently to arm diplomats with information to counter critics of American policy in Southeast Asia.

The document does not say with whom the United States would be prepared to negotiate, if and when peace talks can be arranged. Washington officials say privately, however, that the U.S. peace target, like its war target, is North Viet Nam, and they assume negotiations would be conducted primarily with that country and Red China.

They say the United States and South Viet Nam do not intend to negotiate directly with the "National Liberation Front" — the Communist political arm in South Viet Nam. But the United States would not object if "National Liberation Front" leaders were part of the North Vietnamese negotiating team.

City Loses Reserve Unit; Guard Gets Armory

419th, Twin Cities Unit To Merge

Winona will lose its Army Reserve unit, and the National Guard will take over the Reserve armory, Rep. Frank Theis said today.

Theis said that announcement of the two moves was made Wednesday at Camp Ripley, near Little Falls, where legislators from throughout the state were viewing training of the Minnesota National Guard.

The information came from Maj. Gen. Chester J. Moeglein, state adjutant general, and Brig. Gen. Leon H. Hagen, assistant adjutant general, Theis said.

Plans announced Wednesday call for the Reserve unit, the 419th Civil Affairs Co., to be merged with a Minneapolis unit. The Reserve armory, 302 E. Sarnia St., will be enlarged to provide sufficient training space for the Winona National Guard company, the generals said. The federal government will pay the entire cost of this work, they added.

The present National Guard armory, 160 Johnson St., will revert to city control and ownership. It is currently owned jointly by the city and the state.

These steps will become effective as soon as federal approval is received. Theis said he was told. This should be in about two weeks, he said.

Reservists who are now members of the 419th will have two choices, the two generals said Wednesday. Those that wish may join the Minneapolis unit, while others will be allowed to drop out of the Reserve.

Those with part of their military obligation left, however, will have to become active with a unit, Theis said.

FOUR OR FIVE armories, most of them belonging to National Guard units, will be closed throughout the state, Theis said. International Falls will lose its guard unit, while other armories will be closed in the western part of the state, he said.

The decision to keep a guard company in Winona was made largely because of the federal government's agreement to bear the costs of enlarging the Reserve armory, the generals said. Because of its move to new quarters, Theis asserted, the National Guard unit here, an infantry company, will be authorized to recruit more men. It currently is training at Camp Ripley.

Throughout the state, he explained, there will be a deficiency in the number of enlisted men in the guard, but there will be an overabundance of officers because of the closing of some units.

The guard company here has five officers and more than 100 enlisted men. The Reserve unit has 30 officers and 46 enlisted men.

THE RESERVE center was completed in 1959 and was formally dedicated in the spring of 1960. Its construction cost was $125,000.

The guard armory was badly damaged by a fire in May 1964. Instead of repairing it, the guard decided to build a new armory, and it was suggested that the city cooperate in building a joint armory-municipal auditorium.

Timothy, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Rodney Riese, didn't spend all his time competing at the National Spelling Contest, however. He took time out to sharpen up on subjects like history, civics — and meeting on the steps of the U. S. Capitol with his congressman, Albert H. Quie of the First District. Earlier, Congressman Quie entertained Timothy at a luncheon at the famed House dining room.

New Steamboat Days Queen Takes Over Crown

Winona got a new Steamboat Days queen today.

Miss Marti Biesanz, one of the runners-up in last summer's Miss Winona competition, took over the title for the remaining month of its term.

She accepted the crown at 11:15 a.m. today from Mrs. James Kirk, River Forest, Ill., the former queen.

Mrs. Kirk is the former Miss Helen Stoa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold E. Stoa, 305 Winona St. She was married May 15, and — according to official rules — a queen has to relinquish her crown to her attendant should she marry during her reign.

The coronation ceremonies were held at the Steamer Wilkie.

A new Miss Winona will be selected during Steamboat Days next month.

Wincrest and the south end of Clark's Lane — extended through the summer, with guard officials making several trips here to inspect the proposed sites.

Joint use of the Reserve armory by both the 419th and the guard company had been proposed, but the idea was turned down. Reasons given for the rejection were that the building could not be enlarged enough to house both units, and that the problems of having the same building under both federal and state-city control would be too great to overcome.

All negotiations for a new guard armory site were suspended in December, however, when the Defense Department ordered guard and Reserve units to await the outcome of the merger of the two organizations.

NW Bell to Lay Office Cornerstone

Cornerstone-laying ceremonies for the new Northwestern Bell Telephone Co. business office will be conducted at 11:30 a.m. Friday, Robert C. Olson, the company's manager here, said today.

Starting Monday, the business office will be situated in the addition, which is on the east side of the telephone exchange at 3rd and Johnson streets.

"Our office (at 173 Lafayette St.) will be closed after business hours on Friday," Olson said. "On Monday morning, we will be set up in our new office to handle orders for service, payment of bills and other business transactions."

HOURS AT the new location will be the same as in the old — 8 a.m. until 5 p.m., Monday through Friday — Olson said. A depository near the entrance may be used when the office is not open, he said, and the office telephone number will remain the same.

Participating in the cornerstone-laying ceremonies Friday will be Harold Briesath, president of the Winona City Council; William Lang, president of the Winona Chamber of Commerce; William F. White, Daily News publisher; Stuart B. Wigg, president of the Communications Workers of America local here; Keith Schwab, general contractor for the building, and Olson.

Each person will place a different article in the box, which will then be sealed in the stone. Briesath will deposit a telephone directory in the box; Lang, a copy of the chamber bulletin and city statistics; White, a copy of the newspaper; Wigg, a roster of the firm's Winona employees; Schwab, a list of sub-contractors and employees; and Olson, a list of persons at the ceremony.

AFTER the cornerstone-laying, those taking part will attend a lunch at Williams Hotel, at which short talks will be given by Briesath, Lang, Olson, and C. W. Andrews, Rochester, Northwestern Bell's district manager.

The addition to the exchange, work on which began in October, is the first phase of Bell Telephone's $336,000 construction program here.

One of its features is a room equipped with a telephone, a table and chairs. It may be used by customers who wish to make private calls from the office.

Non-Support Plea Heard In Court Here

Wesley Roach, 26, Rushford Rd. 1, was released on his own recognizance today in municipal court pending his trial June 25 at 9:30 a.m. on a charge of non-support of his three children.

Roach, after pleading not guilty to the charge today, produced two receipts for $15 each which he said represented money paid to his wife during the first two weeks of this month for support of their children.

THE COMPLAINT against Roach, sworn out by his wife, charges him with failure to support the children since June 1. Mrs. Roach had signed one of the receipts produced by Roach today but not the other. The couple has been estranged for two months, Roach told Judge John D. McGill today.

Judge McGill questioned Roach about his payment of $15 per week for support of a wife and three children. The children are aged 1 1/2 to 4 years.

Roach said he still pays other family bills in addition to the $15 cash support. Furthermore, he said, $15 is about what was left out of his check after the bills were paid when they were still living together.

Roach said he is now working on the farm of a friend near Wyatville. His wife was also working till about a week ago, the defendant said. Mrs. Roach swore out the complaint Saturday.

Brown, started his vacation this week.

A new date was not set Wednesday because Ford's court-appointed attorney, Roger W. Poole, Lewiston, had planned to begin his vacation about the time Brown's ended. June 28. However, Judge McGill said today that Ford's hearing "will take place" next Thursday at the appointed time.

Uruguay Ambassador Slated To Attend Bravo Dedication

Guests at the dedication of the new Bravo Foods plant here will include the ambassador from Uruguay and Gov. Karl F. Rolvaag, the firm announced late Wednesday.

The plant will be dedicated at 5:30 p.m. June 28, according to

L. Speed Stone, public relations director for Charles A. Sayous, Inc., Bravo Foods' parent firm. The governor's party will include William B. Farrell, commissioner of the state Department of Business Development, and Russell Schwandt, Department of Agriculture commissioner, Stone said.

He added that State Sen. Roger Laufenburger, Rep. Frank Theis and Rep. Donald McLeod have also been invited.

STONE explained that the Uruguayan ambassador, Juan

Filipe Yriart, will be here because Sayous has three of its four plants in Uruguay. The other is in Argentina. The Winona plant will be its first outside South America.

Yriart has expressed hope that his visit here will lead to a sister-city arrangement between Winona and a Uruguayan city, similar to that between Montevideo, Minn., and Montevideo, Uruguay, Stone said.

Bravo Foods will begin its operations here early next month, Stone said, and hopes to employ more men eventually than did Swift & Co., which formerly occupied the plant.

Before it closed in February, Swift employed an average work force of about 175 men. Stone has said Bravo Foods' work force might reach 200 persons.

BRavo FOODS will begin processing beef here first, Stone had announced earlier, and a pork kill will be added later. Eventually, a canning operation will be initiated here, he said.

Employees, local residents, for the most part — will be hired through the Minnesota State Employment Service office, Stone said. He added that a general manager for the new plant will be named soon.

The office manager for the plant, Ricardo Cimbrelo, has been here since late April.

Since Sayous acquired the former Swift plant late in April, remodeling work, mainly reconditioning of meat coolers, has been in progress there.

Blair Students At Music Clinics

BLAIR, Wis. (Special) — Nine students from the Blair schools are attending music clinics. Faye Lee and Orin Knutson are attending the Dorian Music camp at Decorah, Iowa, this week.

Faye received a scholarship aid from Zion Lutheran Church and Orin from Blair First Lutheran.

The Blair Music Mothers Association are sponsoring Cynthia Berg, Marcia Bluske, Gerda Engbreton and Pat Paul with $30 scholarship aids at Wisconsin State University, Eau Claire. The session is two weeks.

Other students attending the Luther clinic are Joy Johnson, Mary Anderson and John E. Berg.

Nine Arrested For Sandbar, River Littering

Tourists and Winonans themselves have been guilty recently of apparent efforts to insure that no one will be able to enjoy sandbar picnic areas after they have used them, according to a report by personnel of the Upper Mississippi National Wildlife Refuge.

Nine have been arrested on sandbar and river littering charges within the last week, a warden said. All forfeited $25 bond on their arraignments in Goodview Justice Court before Lewis E. Albert.

In one case, a father was found supervising his three children—who were blowing up tin cans on a sandbar with cherry bombs.

THANKS TO HIS "supervision" the children weren't hurt, but shredded metal covered the sand and swimming area nearby.

In another case, a group of four local juveniles, 16 and 17 years old, was found to include one who enjoyed placing cold — and empty — beer bottles in their camp fire. The bottles would explode, sending glass fragments over the beach.

The four were referred to juvenile authorities on charges of possessing the beer as well as littering.

Other cases involved the tossing of beer cans into the river by careless boaters. At least one has since bought a garbage can for his boat.

Adults who forfeited $25 on littering charges during the past week are: Ron M. Steinbauer, 355 Liberty St.; Roland W. Loitz, 1340 W. Broadway; Jon E. Christensen, 280 E. 5th St.; Carl A. Burk, Pipestone, Minn.; James R. Erickson, Lamolite; Garland Fuchs and Vernon Fuchs, Kasson, Minn.; Thomas Fifeild, Milwaukee, Wis.; and Howard Tournier, Waterloo, Iowa.

Morse Reported Accepting Job At Moorhead

W. E. Morse, executive secretary of Winona Industrial Development Association, has accepted a similar job in Moorhead, Minn.

The Fargo (N.D.) Forum reported last week that the Moorhead city council had voted to hire Morse as executive secretary of the city's new business development department.

No salary has as yet been set, the newspaper said, but Morse had indicated that he would be in Moorhead to begin work around Aug. 1.

Morse declined to comment on the report this morning, saying only that he has not yet resigned his position with WIDA. He has been here since 1962.

Tells Sheriff of Hit-Run Incident

A hit-run accident and a stolen lawnmower were reported to Sheriff George L. Fort Tuesday, he said today.

Melvin Fheff, Rochester, reported Wednesday at 7:15 p.m. that he had been struck by a hit-run driver one mile west of Lewiston. Fheff said that he had tried to stop the driver of the black car that hit him, but the other man sped off in the direction of St. Charles.

Fheff said that the other man's car would have damage to its right side and would be about a 1949 model. He offered no other details of the incident.

Mrs. L. Harlan Anderson, 970 44th Ave., Goodview, told Sheriff Fort Tuesday afternoon that a lawn mower had been taken from her yard Monday. She added that someone was in their house Saturday night and that, two weeks ago, someone shot her dog.

Third Winona Civil Rights Worker Jailed

Another civil rights volunteer from Winona has been arrested in Jackson, Miss., his mother learned late Wednesday afternoon.

Robert Gilliam, son of Mrs. James O'Laughlin, Gilmore Valley, is in jail with nearly 700 others, who had been demonstrating against a special session of the Mississippi legislature, called to consider changes in state voting laws.

Mrs. O'Laughlin said she called Jackson city police Wednesday. Although they would not let her talk with her son, she said, police spokesmen did confirm that he had been arrested and was being held.

The office of the Freedom Democratic Party in Jackson, the sponsor of the demonstrations, also told Mrs. O'Laughlin that her son was in jail. An FDP worker said he apparently was not hurt.

Some of the demonstrators had been injured when they were arrested, according to other Winonans involved in the action in Jackson.

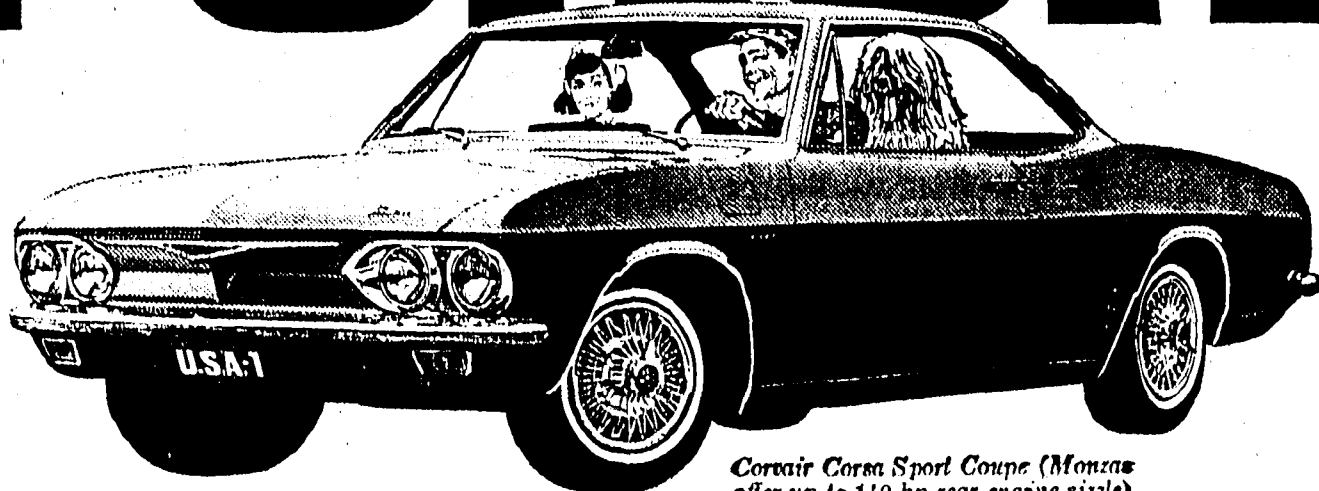

Miss Phyllis Cunningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cunningham, 635 W. Broadway, a nurse, was arrested earlier this week, but was released on bond in order to help care for injured demonstrators.

Joseph Morse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marius Morse, Dakota, also is in jail for taking part in the Jackson demonstrations.

House Passes Bill for New Cabinet Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate is expected to pass within a month the administration bill aimed at turning a national spotlight on city problems by creating a Cabinet-level Department of Housing and Urban Development.

If it does, Senate sources wouldn't be too surprised if President Johnson names Robert C. Weaver, a Negro who heads the Housing and Home Finance Agency, the first secretary of the new department.

This was the educated guessing on Capitol Hill in the wake of House approval of the bill Wednesday by a 217-184 vote.

Johnson has never even hinted who he would name to head the new department, which would be the 11th of Cabinet rank and the first added since the Department of Health, Education and Welfare was established by executive order in April 1953.

President John F. Kennedy, who originally suggested an urban affairs department, had announced he would name Weaver.

This was considered instrumental in House defeat of the proposal in 1962.

The bill would combine the activities of the Federal Housing Administration and the Federal National Mortgage Administration, both within Weaver's HHPA. In fact, Republicans suggested during the two days of House debate that all the legislation would accomplish would be to upgrade the housing agency.

Democrats rejected this argument.

$534,429 Bid Low on Osseo Road Project

OSSEO, Wis. — A proposal of $534,429 by Hoffman Construction Co., Black River Falls, Wis., was the apparent low bid received Tuesday by the State Highway Commission for work on U.S. Highway 10 and State Highway 27 in and near here.

The project includes furnishing and laying base course material, grading and bituminous paving for 3,098 miles immediately east of Osseo and construction of a new bridge over the Buffalo River on 10th Street.

The bid was one of a number of apparent low bids totaling $16.6 million listed by the commission at the opening.

U.S. Death Toll 23 in Dominicans

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — The toll of American dead in the Dominican Republic has risen to 23 with the announcement that three U.S. paratroopers were killed in shooting this week.

The rebel leader, Col. Francisco Caamaño Deno, claimed Wednesday that 67 Dominicans were killed and 265 wounded in the heavy firing between U.S. forces and rebel supporters on Tuesday.

The Inter-American Peace Force announced that a U.S. paratrooper was killed Wednesday morning and two other U.S. soldiers died of wounds suffered in the fighting Tuesday.

Another 33 U.S. soldiers were reported wounded in shooting Tuesday and Wednesday between the peace force and the rebels in downtown Santo Domingo. A Brazilian officer wounded Tuesday was taken off the critical list.

Firing was heavy for more than three hours Wednesday afternoon along the northern corridor of the international security zone. U.S. paratroopers fired 50-caliber machine guns, recoilless rifles and other automatic weapons at buildings in the crowded slum area where snipers were believed hiding.

Caamaño gave his report of casualties in the rebel sector at a news conference and accused U.S. troops of committing "an act of genocide without pre-

Rock 'n' Roll May Drive You to Crash 'n' Smash

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Can rock 'n' roll music on car radios lead to a different kind of rush-hour hop?

It's possible, says John Anello, cultural director for Milwaukee County parks and music director of a local opera company. Anello suggests stations should soothe the driver with soft music.

He said, "When you have music with a certain tempo and certain dissonances and you are irritated with automobile traffic, you may step it up to keep pace with the music. It's amazing how certain pulsations of music affect you."

Appendix Out For 2nd Time

DETROIT (AP) — Seven-year-old Robert Lee Carroll went home from the hospital Wednesday after having his appendix removed — again.

The Detroit boy lost an appendix two months ago in an operation here. But it turned out he had two, because he lost another one June 4 in another appendicitis operation.

His surgeon, Dr. James R. Lloyd, termed it "a comparatively rare case."

Lloyd said, "It is well known, nevertheless, that duplication of various parts of the intestinal tract can occur."

edent in our country." The previous unofficial count of Dominican casualties was 26 dead and more than 75 wounded.

Dairy Marketing Plant to Open At Preston

PRESTON, Minn. (Special) — Lenard Pfister, manager of the Preston Marketing Association, announces that the plant here will be in full operation next week.

Personnel have been busy this week installing new blending equipment for the packaging of dried milk. This part of the plant has been closed since December of 1964. This fortified non-fat dried milk is packaged under government contracts. All of it is exported under a government give-away program to furnish fortified milk to under-nourished people. Vitamins A and D are added to this powdered product.

It is sent to every country in the world except the Communist countries. Boxes are labeled and directions for the product's use are given in 15 different languages. Some of it goes through Care, World Relief, Catholic Relief, Lutheran Welfare and various other agencies.

The first shipment will be sent to Brazil through the Lutheran Welfare Agency.

To many people this product from America means the difference between life and death, says Pfister. In many countries, perhaps a mother's first child would be healthy but then with her working and caring for that child, her second child would be much weaker at birth. With each additional child the need would be greater, thus the reason for adding the blender in the factory.

Persons who have served with the Peace Corps can give first-hand information as to the value and accomplishments of this much-needed product. Money is no good when persons cannot buy food with it and are starving, says the manager. The plant here employs 35 people and operates two shifts with a weekly payroll of $2,800 to $2,900.

Will It Be Another Korean Stalemate?

ALTHOUGH THE administration says there has been no change in policy, it seems clear that United States forces in Viet Nam can now shoot at the Viet Cong without waiting to be shot at. In other words, our troops are authorized to fight "shoulder to shoulder" with the South Vietnamese.

This, in effect, is an acknowledgement that we are in a war in Southeast Asia, by administrative decision rather than formal approval by Congress.

The news, which caused the sharpest break in stock prices since the death of President Kennedy, came almost casually from a briefing officer in the State Department. The nature of the announcement caused dismay and immediate criticism and the White House attempted to soften the effect. But was this step not implicit in decisions already made and already debated?

These can be summed up in firm policy statements by President Johnson: We will not permit further Communist aggression against free governments in Southeast Asia. We will not be defeated there.

ESCALATION is certain under those conditions unless there is a conclusion by negotiation or otherwise. It is futile to argue that we should not be there. The fact remains that we are there.

The extension of our involvement in the ground war coincided with other equally disturbing developments. South Vietnamese casualties have mounted steeply in the last few days and many Americans were counted among the dead and wounded in the Dong Xoai slaughter—perhaps the worst of the war.

Our loss of life in this undeclared conflict is nearing the 500 mark. It seems inevitable this will go higher.

South Viet Nam is again going through a crisis in its government and the situation changes hourly. Earlier this week a ten-member committee was set up under the chairmanship of Maj. Gen. Nguyen Van Thieu to form a new government. It includes army corps commanders, the chief of the general staff and the air force commander. As of this writing, Phan Huy Quat was still Premier.

IS IT ALL TO be futile and dissolve into another Korean stalemate or worse? Is "world opinion" dead set against the American position? Is the bombing of military targets in the Red's North Vietnamese sanctuary an ineffective rifle shot into the heart of darkness?

There is evidence to the contrary if we examine it.

Competent sources say the Hanoi government is deeply hurt by the attrition from the air and would come quickly to the peace table if the hand of Red China were removed from its collar.

Diplomats who loudly denounce our policy say privately that it is good. Young African nations are delighted to see Red China stalemated. Public figures who deal in facts recognize the basic element is not the U.S. presence but the Communists' persistent probing; that behind South Viet Nam, should it fall, lie Burma and Thailand, and beyond them India and the Philippines.

The aggressor never stops marching until the road is blocked.

The news is ominous but the door is wide open for the realization of our goals—the integrity of South Viet Nam and the end of violence. We are fighting to keep it open.

Dean Rusk put it bluntly:

"THE TRAGEDY of it is that there can be peace, literally almost within 24 hours, if Hanoi and Peking would make it clear that they are prepared to leave these people alone."

Auditoriums Real Assets to Cities

(Austin Daily Herald)

VALUE OF an auditorium and sports arena for cities such as Austin can be measured by taking a look at what is happening at the city of Rochester.

The Mayo Civic Auditorium at Rochester, utilized for a wide variety of activities and virtually every day of the year, has become not only a real community asset but a financially sound operation.

This is so much the case that Rochester is now considering possible construction of a giant hippodrome. The idea is to use the hippodrome for sports events, exhibitions and other major attractions, and to reserve Mayo Auditorium largely for cultural events.

With that in mind, the Rochester park board has engaged a planning firm at a cost of $8,100 to make a study and give recommendations on what the city should do.

PRESENT THINKING AT Rochester now is to locate a hippodrome at the county fairgrounds. The subject has been discussed by both the county board and the fair board. The feeling is that the best interests of a community is served if fairgrounds properly, representing a substantial investment, is used as much as possible. Expectations are that if a hippodrome is constructed it would be used on a year-round basis.

Most cities today are not only engaging consultants for over-all community planning but are hiring them for studies in determining what facilities a community

TODAY IN WORLD AFFAIRS

Europe Not Told Of U.S. Policies

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — What do Europeans think of American foreign policy today? Published criticism indicates that many of the opinions expressed to visitors abroad reveal a lack of information and understanding of America's purposes.

There is always a tendency in other countries to regard the United States government as an inexperienced, if not immature, entity which would be much better off if it accepted the tutelage of its European allies. But much of the misunderstanding is due to faulty communication. Several of the influential European newspapers give more space to the critics of American policy than to its defenders. They have not emphasized to their readers as yet that the American people are almost solidly behind President Johnson in his policy in Viet Nam and in the Dominican Republic, despite the flack-picking and capricious comments from groups here that are inclined to pacifism or blind to the ravages of communism.

Similar elements helped by their tactics to bring on World War II, and indeed there were many Americans as well as Europeans who were fooled by the appeasement of Hitler at Munich.

BUT TODAY the problem of communication is no better. The foreign offices of Europe know the purpose and details of the policies of the United States in the world, but their people do not.

Unfortunately, this subject of communication has not been given enough attention. The U.S. Information Agency is run by diplomatic minds here which insist upon cautious phrasing and an indifference to the anti-Americanism being expressed overseas. Instead of using the "Voice of America" to answer forthrightly criticisms leveled against the United States government, the USIA feels that it must operate a kind of news service which includes a full report of all criticisms—as if the European press is not able to get this directly from its own correspondents in America. It's just a waste of time and money for a governmental agency to try to become a news service when its real job is to answer the propaganda attacks being made against the American government.

THERE IS need also for the Washington government to take note of European criticisms and to answer them directly in the newspapers and on radio and TV in this country. For the outlines of American policy are clear to those who really study the facts. Protagonists with an ax to grind can, of course, twist any American policy and present an image of a government that is either "trigger happy" or irresponsible. But the truth is the United States today is doing more to prevent a nuclear war than has been done by any of the countries participating in the 20 years of postwar debate.

should have, where they should be situated, and the functions they should embrace.

IF AUSTIN DOES enter into comprehensive community planning, certainly one consideration should be given to the feasibility, desirability and location of a future auditorium and arena. The trend among cities generally would seem to indicate that such a facility is virtually inevitable in Austin's future.

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

U.S. Was Tapping Phone Of Ex-President Bosch

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — During the height of the Dominican crisis, U. S. intelligence agencies were tapping wires all over the Caribbean, including the telephone of ex-President Juan Bosch of the Dominican Republic.

Having been ousted by the military in 1963, Bosch was credited with masterminding the revolution to get back in power. American intelligence agencies, therefore, wanted to find out what he was planning and who was behind him.

They picked up some interesting phone messages, including one phone call from Santo Domingo reporting that one of the rebel leaders had been shot.

"See that he is shot in the back and then announce to the press that the Americans shot him," ordered Bosch.

Another Intercept which U. S. intelligence agencies picked up was an instruction from the Panamanian government to its OAS ambassador in Washington advising him not to support the United States openly, yet not to do anything which might embarrass the United States.

THE AMERICAN embassy in Paris has warned the State Department that the United States might just as well reconcile itself to a NATO without the key country NATO was organized to protect—France.

The anti-American policy of President De Gaulle has become so bitter that cabled instructions were sent to French ambassadors in five Latin American countries to work actively against American policy in the Dominican Republic at the time the United States intervened.

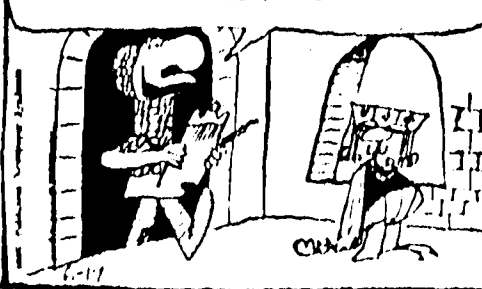

While the ordinary Frenchman is not much concerned with foreign affairs, reports the American embassy, "they would undoubtedly be up in arms if they were aware of these instructions."

"De Gaulle has become almost violently anti-American to a point that this is almost a phobia," reports the embassy. "There's no chance whatever of any compromise."

THERE HAS NOT been a serious deterioration in general French attitudes towards America, U. S. diplomatic observers believe.

Dominican Move Needed Legality

By MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON — In the frantic hours after President Johnson ordered the Marines into the Dominican Republic the search was not only for a solution to the chaos in that tortured island but for a legal and a moral justification for this radical step.

The decision was taken late in the afternoon of April 28. On the following Sunday, May 2, with criticism both at home and abroad rising to a crescendo, the President decided on a televised address.

The aim was to show that the Dominican action was not new and in no way initiated a "Johnson doctrine."

His hard-working staff began an intensive review of the files for documentation and inevitably they combed the recorded words of John F. Kennedy. One staff member produced in a hurriedly drafted memorandum a quotation the President did not use but one which would have served his purposes. Addressing the American Society of Newspaper Editors shortly after the ill-starred Bay of Pigs adventure in 1961 Kennedy said it had been made repeatedly clear that American armed forces would not intervene since "unilateral American intervention, in the absence of an external attack upon ourselves or an ally, would have been contrary to our traditions and to our international obligations." Then he added:

"BUT LET the record show that our restraint is not inexhaustible. Should it ever appear that the interference doctrine of non-interference merely conceals or excuses a policy of nonaction—if the nations of this hemisphere should fail to meet their commitments against outside Communist penetration—then I want it clearly understood that this government will not hesitate in meeting its primary obligations which are to the security of our nation."

This, as Johnson's closest advisers see it, is the circumstance with which he was confronted. He was faced, as Kennedy had not been, with the imminent peril of a "Communist takeover and he acted."

The dispute will go on for a long time over whether the facts justified action before a serious attempt had been made to get the approval of the Organization of American States. The question essentially is whether the Dominican intervention and now the rapid escalation of the American role in Viet Nam differ in kind or merely in degree from similar steps taken in the past 20 years.

IT IS A question deserving thorough exploration, since it goes to the heart of American foreign policy. That policy, in the view of an increasing number of critics, is stuck on a formula so rigid—the containment of communism everywhere—that it precludes new initiatives or any bold and imaginative approach to the perilous puzzle of a divided world.

President Johnson is following the same course as Presidents Truman, Eisenhower and Kennedy. He is resisting Communist intervention in "wars of national liberation" as defined by Nikita Khrushchev in his famous speech of January, 1961, as a "sacred" duty. This is the official view reflected by the President and everyone in his administration.

While the Khrushchev speech gave the policy a new ideological justification it does not differ from American resistance to Communist threats in Iran, Greece and Korea. Secretary of State Dean Rusk sees all these efforts as part of a single pattern and he lists the casualties in Korea and now in Viet Nam and the Dominican Republic—a total over 160,000—as part of the cost of this policy.

YET DOUBT persists over the extended reach of the Johnson application of the policy of resisting "wars of national liberation." Brazil in this hemisphere is an example. In the spring of 1964 officials here were in a flap over what they considered an imminent take-

Hair Won't Grow After Man Dies

By J. G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: I am a hairdresser and often hear stories about hair growing after a person has died. I know this is not so, but I have a hard time explaining it to my girl friends. Please help.

They also go on to say that they know of people whose hair turned gray overnight because of shock. I suppose a shock can cause this in a month or two, but not overnight. — N. U.

On your first question you are right. Hair does not grow after death, any more than other parts of the body can continue to live and grow after death.

However, this belief that the hair grows is based on more than mere imagination. At death the soft tissues of the body (fat and skin) begin to shrink somewhat. This exposes more of the hair shaft which has been below the normal surface of the skin. Thus a man's beard becomes more noticeable and appears to have grown even though it actually has not.

As to the other question, hair turns gray or white as it gradually loses the melanin, or pigment, which is the coloring matter.

THIS NEARLY always is gradual, taking place at the root, as a hair grows.

There are medical reports that under extreme shock or stress, as in battle, pigment can be lost very rapidly from the hair itself. Such cases are very rare, and I am not inclined to believe the casual reports we hear about it happening under the ordinary shocks and griefs which we encounter in civilized existence.

over in Brazil by Communist - Castroite forces. This situation was resolved when Joao Goulard was overthrown by a military junta and his wavering regime replaced by a mild dictatorship.

"Obviously while we could send 20,000 Marines into the Dominican Republic we could not send a million Marines into Brazil, a nation of 80,000,000 people," one of the President's advisers said.

THE AMERICAN nation cannot, must not and will not permit the establishment of another Communist government in the Western Hemisphere, the President declared in his May 2 speech. But circumstances will determine the form the resistance will take in a small Caribbean island or in the largest and most influential Latin nation.

Baudette Bridge Toll Collection By State Legal

ST. PAUL (AP)—A 1965 law authorizing the state highway commissioner to take over the Baudette toll bridge and collect tolls for its use apparently does not violate the state constitution, Atty. Gen. Robert Mattson said Tuesday.

State Auditor Stafford King had asked whether the law violates provisions of the constitution regulating and limiting state debt and limiting the local loaning of the credit of the state.

The attorney general said he believed the language of the law should be construed as a method of determining the toll rate, not as a pledge of such tolls to the future payment of the bond obligations.

He added that any tolls collected should be deposited in the state trunk highway fund, not in a separate fund.

Post Office Gets Its Own Address Wrong

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles post office likes to stress the importance of accuracy when it comes to street addresses.

But no one is infallible, it seems.

Postmaster Leslie N. Shaw issued a news release announcing that his executive offices are being moved today to the new Federal Office Building. It listed the new address as 300 N. Spring St.

He was wrong by two blocks. The new building is at 300 N. Los Angeles St.

"I guess we got confused in the rush of moving," a spokesman said. "Anyway, we've left a forwarding address."

three minor children by another marriage to the father but, under the divorce agreement, they will remain with Mrs. Salinger at Falls Church, Va., and he will pay child support of $3,300 a year.

The Salingers, married in 1957, separated earlier this year. Salinger, 39, announced his intention to marry Nicole Gillman, 26, a writer for a French magazine, on May 8, two days before the suit was filed.

The suit alleged general indignities.

Two Drivers Dead in Collisions

Deaths of two drivers in a head-on collision near Grand Marais and two women pedestrians in the Twin Cities raised the Minnesota traffic toll today to 267, compared with 340 a year ago.

Victims of the Wednesday accidents:

Earle West Jr., 45, Beaver Bay, a timber operator and mink rancher, driving the second car.

Mrs. Thomas Lidstrom, 32, Bloomington, struck by a car driven by an elderly woman as it turned into a parking ramp.

The Grand Marais accident was witnessed by Cook County Sheriff Emerson Morris through the rear view mirror on his car. The sheriff had just met one of the cars. A passenger in Mattson's car, Margaret Batisto, about 55, of Duluth, was hospitalized in serious condition.

DEAR ABBY:

Who's Chairman Of the Bored

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Six girls in our office go to coffee together twice a day. One girl (I'll call her Trudy) has been having trouble with her husband and for the past year every coffee break has been devoted to listening to Trudy run him down. She says he needs a psychiatrist, is involved with a married woman, etc. She asks us for advice, but never takes it. She continues to live with him and complains daily. At first we were all very sympathetic to Trudy, but our patience has run out and we would like to talk about something else for a change. How can we let her know without hurting her feelings that we are bored with her domestic affairs?

ABBY

THE OTHER FIVE
DEAR FIVE: Get together and appoint the girl who is closest to Trudy as "Chairman Of The Bored." She should tell Trudy privately that the other girls deserve a break with their coffee, and she should lay off the subject. Trudy should also be advised to take her problem to her clergyman or a marriage counselor if she seriously wants to resolve them. Some people don't really want to DO anything about their problems. They just enjoy talking about them. Trudy could be one, so don't delay.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is my father. He isn't mean to us kids or anything, but as soon as school is out for summer vacation, he takes all us boys down to the barber-shop and has our heads shaved. I am 13 years old now and I would like to have some hair over the summer. How old do you think a boy should be for his father to stop doing this?

SHAVED

DEAR SHAVED: As soon as a boy is old enough to complain out of vanity, his father should discontinue the practice.

DEAR ABBY: This is for the man who complained about his wife being too fat. He said this was the reason for many marriage breakups. I want to set him straight. He's lucky he's never had to live with a woman who constantly lives and talks diets. And in order to keep herself thin she starves, and so does her poor husband. Women like her are always crabby and irritable. THEY cause more marriage break-ups than fat women. I know because I almost lost a good husband trying to diet myself into a size 12. I woke up just in time to save my marriage. Ten years ago I weighed 115. Now I'm—

"156" and HAPPY

DEAR ABBY: In answer to the writer who signed herself "Disgusted" because her daughter-in-law's baby still had a bottle at 13 months: She must be more concerned about appearances than what the child actually needs. It seems to be "in" to have your child more "grown up" than someone else's. Many children give up the bottle at 9 months or younger. But some need it when they're 18 months and older. Most will give it up of their own accord.

I am the mother of four and each was different. In other countries babies often nurse until they're two years old and suffer no ill effects. Children suck because they need to. Take the bottle away too soon and they'll find something else to suck — thumbs, toys, blankets. Tell "Disgusted" to let the baby be a baby. It'll grow up soon enough.

This spread is brand new. It tastes exactly like peanut butter and bacon... but there's no bacon in it.

Until now, when you wanted a peanut butter and bacon sandwich you had to fry the bacon until it crisped, drain off the fat, blot up excess drippings with paper towels, crumble the bacon in a mixing bowl, and add a generous amount of Skippy® Peanut Butter. Then you got a large spoon and stirred until it was well mixed and reasonably easy to spread.

Skippy has changed all that. New Skippy Peanut Butter with Smoky Crisps has taken the work and the mess and the cleaning-up out of making a peanut butter and bacon sandwich.

New Skippy Peanut Butter with Smoky Crisps has all the crunch, crackle and old-fashioned smokehouse flavor of bacon. But instead of bacon, Skippy has created little crisps of vegetable protein with remarkably true bacon flavor. These, mixed with Skippy, make a tasty spread—perfect for snacks, canapes, and sandwiches, even on meatless days.

So, for all you people who like the taste of a bacon and Skippy sandwich, try them together in new Skippy Peanut Butter with Smoky Crisps.

Try some and Skippy will send you 50 cents in cash!

We're so sure you'll like the exciting taste of new Skippy Peanut Butter with Smoky Crisps that we'll send you 50 cents in cash for just buying a jar—any size!

Catharine Allison Hospital Library Auxiliary Holds Tea

By JEAN HAGEN
Daily News Women's Editor

The spring tea of the Catharine Allison Hospital Library Auxiliary Wednesday afternoon was a pleasant garden party. It took place on the lawn behind the hospital among the young shade trees and shrubbery in the "what is so rare as a day in June" weather.

THIRTY-FIVE volunteer auxiliary members who staff the library and book cart were present to hear reports of the last six months' activity of the library, whose purpose it is to supply free reading material for patients in the hospital.

Refreshments of canape sandwiches, little tea cakes, nuts and mints were served with coffee from a table set up under the trees and laid with an elegant Italian cutwork cloth centered with an arrangement of pale pink peonies, and from the Gift Shop garden cart.

Pouring were Mrs. Maurice Fish, secretary, and Mrs. R. J. Harkenrider, treasurer, assisted by two little girls, Cathy Kelly and Anne Laurie, who also acted as guides for the guests from the parking lot to the tea party site.

MRS. WILLIAM A. Laurie, president, gave her semi-annual report, outlining the purpose of the auxiliary and the duties of volunteers.

Mrs. Donald W. Gray, new librarian this year, reported on the library's operation since January 1. She said a total of 1,784 publications had been circulated, including 112 adult books, 71 juvenile books and 1,601 magazines.

Volunteers made 55 visits to patients' rooms with the book-laden library cart. Forty-one new books were catalogued. Five popular magazines were re-subscribed, children's Golden Books were purchased, many current magazines were donated weekly and books were given anonymously.

According to a history compiled by Mrs. Ward Lucas, the Catharine Allison Hospital Library, which has the distinction of being the first of its kind in the United States, was officially established on National Hospital Day, May 12, 1935. It was named for the woman who had been superintendent of the hospital for many years.

The first books given to Winona General Hospital were from the St. Rose of Lima Guild. Mrs. Lucas's father, S. L. Prentiss, a member of the hospital board and its treasurer, was the guiding force in the business-like founding of the library in the early 1930s, when a special room was provided with necessary equipment and the books were catalogued.

About a dozen women volunteered to visit patients twice a week, circulating the books. This nucleus has now grown to a membership of about 40 women, who sign up for volunteer service, conducted three days a week.

Jobs Office Sets Exam Saturday For Counselors

All local offices of the Minnesota State Employment Service will hold examinations at 9 a.m. Saturday for candidates interested in being trained this summer to help counsel disadvantaged youths. Robert J. Brown, state employment security commissioner, said today.

The examination is part of a national effort to recruit more than 2,000 persons with either master's or bachelor's degrees to train at 35 universities across the nation in the techniques and methods of youth counseling, Brown said.

Applications and additional information about the training program — which offers free tuition, room and board, transportation to the training site and a weekly training allowance — may be obtained from local employment service offices. Training will consist of eight weeks in the classroom, to be followed by four weeks of on-the-job experience.

Those who successfully complete the training program will be recommended for employment in the nationwide network of youth opportunity centers and local offices of state employment services.

Those who apply for the CAUSE project must be at least 21 years old, with degrees in counseling and guidance or CAMP MCCOY, Wis. (S)—With bazookas, sub-machine guns, mortars, howitzers, rifles and pistols, Wisconsin's 32nd National Guard division laid down a barrage of fire Wednesday in a weapons display for visiting legislators and employers.

Nearly 300 guests watched the demonstration as part of the guard's annual two-week encampment. The largest weapon used was an eight-inch howitzer capable of firing a 200-pound shell nine miles.

Twenty-three victims were brought in, and approximately 100 or more persons reported for the program.

Ted Kennedy's Painting Draws Artist's Praise

WASHINGTON (AP) — Talented, the eminent art director mused, as he looked at a sample of the young fellow's work. Talented. All he needs is some years to develop himself.

The young artist is Sen. Edward M. (Ted) Kennedy of Massachusetts and the sample of his work is a painting of a couple of sturdy fishing boats, one green, one blue, tied alongside a brick building at Marblehead, Mass.

Now the art connoisseur, John Walker, director of the National Gallery of Art, rendered his judgment with full recognition of the circumstances under which this and other Ted Kennedy paintings were executed.

A year ago June 19, Kennedy and friends were on a plane trip to Massachusetts. The plane came down — "like a toboggan ride through the treetops" as Kennedy later related.

Kennedy fastened his seat belt, but his back was broken. The pilot and a Kennedy aide were killed, everybody else aboard was hurt.

So it was six months in a Boston hospital for Kennedy, strapped onto a thing called a Stryker frame. This holds your back immobile but if you get tired looking at the ceiling, it will flip you over on your stomach.

So what did Ted do? For his blonde wife Joan he did a winter landscape with a covered bridge and New England farmhouse. For Mrs. John F. Kennedy a red cottage on a spit of sand with a sailboat on the horizon. And so on.

The picture of the two Marblehead boats were presented to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy. When the Washington Post printed a color reproduction of it, an Associated Press newsman submitted the print to gallery director Walker for his comment.

Walker dictated the following statement, and note what a diplomat he turns out to be: "Sen. Kennedy is a talented painter. Like Winston Churchill, he may not have all the time he wishes to develop this talent until his retirement, which we hope will be many years hence."

All told, the senator did seven paintings in the hospital.

Prison Terms Near for Three In Kenny Case

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Less than a month of freedom remain for three men convicted of defrauding the Sister Kenny Foundation of several million dollars.

Federal court notices have been mailed to Abraham L. Koolish, 72; his son, David, 45; and John B. Carnell, 53, ordering them to report by July 14 to begin serving prison terms.

The trio, associated with Chicago fund-raising firms charged with bilking the foundation in a mail solicitation campaign, were denied hearings on their conviction by the U.S. Supreme Court last week.

Federal officials said it was likely they would serve time in the minimum-security prison at Sandstone, Minn. The Koolishes were sentenced to 10 years, Carnell to 5 years on mail fraud counts.

Marvin L. Kline, onetime Minneapolis mayor who served as director of the foundation, is serving a 10-year term in state prison on another conviction.

The Kenny Foundation, originally formed to rehabilitate polio victims, has been reorganized following the scandal, and now does rehabilitation work on patients with many types of ailments.

The elder Koolish now lives in Los Angeles, David Koolish in Winnetka, Ill., and Carnell in Arlington Heights, Ill.

Farmer Injured In Fall From Manure Spreader

CALEDONIA, Minn. (Special) — An 82-year-old Mayville Township farmer, Mike Giblin, suffered a fractured skull Wednesday about 4:30 p.m. when he was thrown out of a runaway manure spreader.

Giblin and his nephew, John Giblin, were installing fences on the latter's farm, about seven miles northeast of Caledonia. The elder Giblin was riding in the empty manure spreader which was used as a wagon. As the spreader was being pulled up a hillside by a tractor driven by John, the link pin came out and the spreader rolled backward downhill.

The rolling spreader crashed into a tree, throwing the elderly man out. He was taken to Caledonia Community Hospital, then to a La Crosse hospital. Relatives said his condition was satisfactory today.

Baby Killed in Fall Against Farm Machine

APPLETON, Minn. (AP) — A baby was killed Tuesday evening when he apparently fell against farm machinery, striking his head.

He was Lyndon T. Johnson, 14 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Burton Johnson. His mother found the child in the farm yard and he was dead on arrival at a hospital.

Communists Look Bad in Dominicans

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The United States, the Organization of American States and the Communist movement all have managed to look bad in the Dominican Republic crisis.

The Communists may yet prove to have fared worst of all. When the crisis broke late in April, the immediate fear in Western hemisphere capitals was that U.S. military action in the Caribbean island would present the Communists a golden opportunity to provoke riot and confusion.

The extremists were credited with having a blueprint for Latin-American revolution supposedly drawn up last November in Havana marking priority targets in the hemisphere. Perhaps, the word was at first, they would lie low for a while to take fullest advantage of the Dominican events before striking.

The glittering opportunity began to fade, however, as the Dominican civil war bogged down into a glaring match between the two sides and efforts by the OAS and the United States to win some sort of peace. The Latin-American public recovered from the initial shock. After nearly two months it no longer is a sensation. In many areas it is regarded with fairly widespread apathy by a public intent upon its own immediate troubles.

This has provoked speculation about the extreme left and its potential. Has it been given credit for more strength and power than it really possesses? The strength of the extreme left has come from young, reckless hoodlums, some of them in their teens, some of them spoiled brats of middle- and upper-class families—products of university campus recruiting grounds.

Often, a few dozen of these hoodlums can stir up so much confusion in a Latin-American city it may seem to outsiders that a whole country is about to take fire. On domestic issues they are able to rally crowds and sometimes provoke them to violence.

But so far as violence for the sake of violence is concerned, the Dominican crisis seems to indicate such activities are beginning to lose some of the glitter which attracted young men in the past.

Watson Wins As Republican

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — Political switch-hitter Albert W. Watson carries his new Republican pennant back to Washington today, the landslide winner in a race to regain the House seat he won twice as a Democrat.

In the conservative, Republican-minded 2nd Congressional District, Watson proved that among Southerners, there is still political glitter in the name Barry Goldwater.

He trounced Democrat Preston H. Callison Tuesday, 55,849 votes to 24,781. Special election returns from the eight-county district, the state's most populous, were complete but unofficial.

With Watson's election as a Republican, the GOP holds 141 House seats. The Democrats have 294.

Watson became the first Republican elected to Congress from South Carolina since 1893.

4 Killed in Wisconsin Crossing Crash

KENOSHA, Wis. (AP) — Four youths were killed when their Jeep was struck by a train at a Milwaukee Road crossing in Kenosha County early today, raising the Wisconsin traffic toll for 1965 to 382, compared with 434 on this date a year ago.

Kenosha County coroner Edward Wavro said that a Willys Jeep, driven by Russell Sabatino, 18, of Racine apparently stalled at a crossing at Somers, about five miles west of Kenosha shortly after midnight. The car was struck by a northbound M11 w a u e e Road passenger train.

Killed were Sabatino, Perry Trybner, 16, Robert Fisher, 15, and Lenny C. Harrison, 20, all of Racine.

Altura Rex Seeks Summer Workers

Recruitment of workers for the Altura Rex turkey plant will get under way at the Minnesota State Employment Service office Tuesday.

James Whorton, production manager for the firm, will be in the employment service office to take applications, interview and hire workers for the coming season's operation. Processing is scheduled to start the early part of July, and although experienced workers are desired, there will be many job openings for persons without experience. New workers will be trained on the job.

Whorton has indicated that the firm may have some openings for students during the summer vacation months. Interviewing hours are from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Experienced persons will be interviewed Tuesday, and those without experience should apply Wednesday and Thursday.

HAS OPERATION BLAIR, Wis. (Special) — Mrs. Glen Benedict, rural Blair, had surgery at Tri-County Memorial Hospital, Whitehall.

GETS AWARD DREBACH, Minn. (Special) — Two students from here, Leslie Waas and Louis Donaldson, were graduated from Logan High School, La Crosse, recently. Linda Everson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Everson, was given a pin for scholarship upon completion of 9th grade at Lincoln School in La Crosse.

ROHRER GARAGE SOLD NELSON, Wis. (Special) — The Rohrer Garage, formerly the Castleberg Garage, has been sold to Raymond Davis, Nelson, and Lyman Manore, Pepin. The new owners expect to take over within the next two weeks.

President Gets Bill Raising National Debt

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate hurried to President Johnson today a bill increasing the temporary national debt ceiling to a new high of $323 billion.

Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler told the Senate Finance committee Tuesday the increase was essential to cover the nation's obligations in the year ahead.

The present $324-billion ceiling would drop to the permanent $285 billion limit July 1 if new legislation was not enacted.

The measure passed, 61-26, on a roll-call vote.

Oil Kills Girl

WEST BEND, Wis. (AP) — Three-year-old Kathy Hillman died Tuesday after drinking lubricating oil used for fishing reels, authorities said.

The youngster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hillman of Germantown, apparently drank from a bottle she found in a tackle box while playing in the basement of her home. Coroner Robert Boltz ordered an autopsy.

Caddy Worries Palmer More Than Nicklaus, Open Starts

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Arnold Palmer appeared to be more concerned about his caddy's welfare than he was about Jack Nicklaus today when he set out in quest of the U.S. Open Golf Championship.

The Open is one of the four major tournaments that support Palmer's throne as this country's premier golfer, a position that is shaky and insecure in the face of the challenge by the bull-strong 25-year-old from Columbus, Ohio.

Palmer, however, mentioned Nicklaus not at all and his caddy several times after his final preparations over the vast, rolling acres of the Belle River Country Club course, at 7,191 yards the longest ever for an Open.

"I hope he makes it," Palmer grinned. "He's a kind of skinny kid." The caddy is Jack Wallace, a lanky, 15-year-old who is greatly impressed with his good fortune.

Palmer's first act after sizing up his caddy was to strip his bag. He discarded a No. 4 wood and at least three irons then had the boy help it.

"How's that?" he asked. "Too heavy? Lemme see what else I've got in there." But underlying his casual banter is the certain — though unspoken — knowledge that he desperately needs to win this 65th Open; that he needs not only to finish higher than tournament favorite Nicklaus but win the whole shooting match.

The last year and a half has been a continuing frustration for the powerful, Ligonier, Pa., master — he has won only once in a year — but he mentions it only obliquely.

"My game is not as good as it has been," he said, "but it's better than it has been recently. It still needs a lot of work."

"But," almost defensively, "it's not that bad, hasn't been for about a year. I'm just finishing second instead of first, that's all. Second four times in a row."

One of the seconds was a tie with Gary Player, nine strokes back of Nicklaus' record-shattering 271 victory in the Masters, a triumph so overwhelming that many feel it vaulted the bulky blond to the No. 1 position held by Palmer.

RIDERS PREPARE FOR SHOW... Mrs. Robert Przybylski (seated on fence) and other members of the Winona Valley Riders are preparing for a quarter horse and Appaloosa show this Sunday. Nearly 200 horses are expected to be entered in the day's judging. The

Bunning Enjoys Mound Struggle

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Philadelphia strikeout ace Jim Bunning enjoys a pitching struggle. The tougher, the better — as long as he wins.

"I always struggle," Bunning quipped after he threw 154 pitches in a clutch performance. Wednesday night, as the Phils cooled off the slugging Milwaukee Braves 6-2.

"I can't remember many games in which I haven't had to fight all the way," the 33-year-old right-hander said. "I don't mind struggling, though. I just want to go nine innings and win."

Bunning, who hurled a perfect game against the New York Mets en route to a 19-8 record last season, found himself a surprise starter against the Braves when the pitching rotation was changed.

He went out, however, and battled through nine innings for the first time in seven outings against Milwaukee.

There was little question of Bunning's struggle, despite his 10 strikeouts. He surrendered nine hits and the Phils had only one assist in the field as the Braves drilled some hot shots.

"Sure, they got some good shots off me in the early innings, but they also got some bloop hits later," Bunning said. "Those things even up in this game. I don't worry about them. I have my other problems."

Other problems? "Sure, you don't think my 6-5 record is so good, do you?" Bunning replied. "So my earned run average is fairly good 3.32 and I have a few strikeouts (93). The big thing is that I could have some more victories if I had pitched better."

Bunning, who threw "50 percent curve balls in comparison with my usual 20 percent," struck out sluggers Eddie Mathews, Hank Aaron, Joe Torre and Mack Jones twice each and had special praise for Pat Corrales, who made his starting debut as a major league catcher.

"He did a very good job," Bunning said. "We worked well together. He stays very low and that helped me. And I don't have to add how he helped with his bat."

EIGHT-GAME WINNING STREAK ENDS

Pascual's Pitching Luck Runs Out

CHICAGO (AP) — Camilo Pascual's pitching luck ran out on him — and so did his eight-game winning streak.

Pascual, the ace of the first-place Minnesota Twins, absorbed his first defeat of the season as the Chicago White Sox moved to within a half-game of the Twins in the American League race Wednesday night.

The two clubs met today in the rubber match of a three-game set.

All the Pale Hose runs in a 3-1 triumph were recorded in the fourth inning when nothing went right for Pascual.

A missed foul pop, a bad hop single, and a safe, but disputed call on a tag play at third helped the Sox fill the bases before a smooth-working Pascual knew what hit him.

Two soft singles and a walk, and Pascual was out of the game in a huff and the White Sox were ahead 3-1.

Manager Sam Mele yanked Pascual with one out and the bases loaded a third time in the inning.

Camilo stormed unhappily into the dugout, but admitted later: "Sam gave me my chance in the inning. I was just mad at myself. Lady Luck quit on me."

Ironically, Mele and Manager Al Lopez of the White Sox agreed that Pascual probably had better stuff Wednesday night at the outset than frequently during his eight-game winning streak.

"Before, when he got in trouble, somebody came in to save him," Mele said. "Last night, I figured when the bases kept getting loaded, those soft White Sox hits might suddenly turn into bombs."

Fisher struck out Killebrew to end the eighth and then, after yielding a leadoff single to Jim Hall and a walk to Bob Allison to start the ninth, he got his knuckleball fluttering magically again to get the next three batters on popups.

Pascual had defeated the White Sox 6-1 in Minnesota May 9, but Lopez asserted: "He was
