Senate Finance Committee OKs Health Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Finance Committee approved today the bill establishing a broad health care program for persons over 65 and raising Social Security payments for 20 million Americans. The 12-5 vote sent the $6-billion bill to the Senate floor for expected passage in July.

Bliss Drops Top Aide for Desk-Breaking

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican National Chairman Ray C. Bliss has dismissed his top aide and long-time friend, William Cody Kelly, for violating "standards which I have established for my staff."

"There can be no deviation from these standards," Bliss said Wednesday after GOP Finance Director Frank J. Kovac had accused Kelly and three other national committee aides of breaking open his desk last Friday night.

Kovac said he had told Bliss about it Monday.

The finance director said if the committee assistants were looking for evidence that he is aligned with Barry Goldwater's new Free Society Association — an organization criticized by Bliss as a splinter group — they were disappointed.

"I told you," he wrote Bliss, "about the forcible entry into my locked desk by William Cody Kelly, Jim Baker and two other accomplices."

"This affront to my constitutional rights was perpetrated at about 9:30 to 11 p.m., Friday night, June 18," Kovac wrote. "Messrs. McAllister and Stange were parties to this invasion."

James Baker is an administrative assistant to Bliss, Robert McAllister an employee of the GOP Field Division, and Melvin Stange the chairman's chauffeur.

They said the plane went down about 25 miles southwest of Vinh and that the two men aboard were missing.

In other raids on North Viet Nam today, eight A4 Skyhawks from the carrier Midway attacked the Vinh Son supply depot about 150 miles south of Hanoi, spokesmen said, but "damage assessment was undetermined."

U. S. Navy and Air Force planes made four other strikes over a 65-mile area in North Viet Nam, U. S. spokesmen said. The pilots reported moderate to heavy damage to bridges, barges, roads and ferry installations.

Heavy air strikes also continued against Viet Cong installations or suspected Red concentrations in South Viet Nam, the spokesmen said. U. S. Air Force, Navy and Marine planes took part.

aged program tied into the Social Security system. Last year it rejected such a move 11-6.

The committee made numerous changes in the bill passed April 8 by the House and strongly endorsed by President Johnson.

But it retained the major framework, including these two new programs designed to take care of most of the medical and hospital costs of the 19 million persons 65 and over:

—A basic plan financed under Social Security covering hospitalization, posthospital nursing home care, out-patient hospital diagnostic services, and post-hospital home health visits.

—A voluntary, supplemental insurance plan covering doctors' fees for services at home, at the office or in a hospital, as well as some additional services.

In addition to the health care provisions, the bill approved by the Senate committee would make numerous changes in the present Social Security system.

Most important is a 7 per cent increase in retirement, disability and survivor benefits retroactive to Jan. 1 this year.

The maximum retirement payment for a person going on the rolls now would be boosted to $135.90 a month compared with the present $127. The minimum would go up from $40 to 44.

Pope Warns War Dangers More Serious

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Paul VI said today that the menace of war was becoming more serious and he warned world leaders that a new conflict with the "terrible instruments" of modern science could mean the end of civilization.

In a broad-ranging speech, the Roman Catholic pontiff also announced that he wanted his birth-control study commission to continue its work to a conclusion.

Pope Paul specifically mentioned Viet Nam, Santo Domingo, the Congo and Algiers as the world trouble spots.

Oleo Taste Test Fools Badger Solon

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — The oleomargarine was yellow but the senator's face was red.

It happened Wednesday when Sen. Gordon Roeschleip of Darlington volunteered to take a blindfolded taste test to prove oleo is no match for butter.

"That's butter," said Roeschleip.

Nope, it's oleo, said a delighted Sen. Martin Schreiber of Milwaukee, author of a bill to repeal Wisconsin's ban on colored oleo.

He invited Roeschleip to a free lunch.

It makes no sense to continue with it in the half dollar when we're getting rid of it in the 10- and 25-cent pieces.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., supporting the Pastore amendment, said that "the extra 40 per cent silver left in the half dollars will result in a waste of 20 million ounces of silver."

Sen. Alan Bible, D-Nev., fighting the amendment, said, "I will not be a party to debasing our coinage for the purpose of supplying any private industry with our valuable silver bullion."

Pastore declared, "There just isn't enough silver to go around."

Tax Credit Sought for College Costs

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Republicans decided Wednesday on a combined effort to get income tax credits for college education costs.

Party leaders announced the action by the conference of all G.O.P. House members, saying that an amalgamated version of 42 Republican credit proposals will be introduced by House minority leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan.

Rep. Albert H. Quie, Minnesota, head of the House GOP Education task force, estimated the proposed legislation would save taxpayers about $750 million which would go toward meeting rising costs in both public and private colleges.

Man Wanted In Wife-Slaying On FBI List

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Allen Haugsted, 34, sought in the slaying of his estranged wife and mother-in-law near Willmar, today was placed on the Federal Bureau of Investigation's list of 10 most wanted fugitives.

Haugsted is charged in a first degree murder warrant issued after his wife, Evelyn, 29, and her mother, Mrs. Olaf Dalen, 55, were shot to death in their farm home Feb. 19. Haugsted's 7-year-old daughter, Patricia, was wounded in the neck. Ingolf Dalen, 36, brother of Evelyn, suffered a head wound.

The shootings occurred a day after Mrs. Haugsted had started divorce proceedings.

Haugsted was last seen in early April in Kansas City. Richard Held, agent in charge of the Minneapolis FBI office, said the Willmar man was positively identified as the man who presented a credit card at a mail order retail store in Kansas City.

Several hundred residents of the south part of Great Bend remained out of their homes Wednesday night as a precaution. The river is expected to remain over the bank here for at least another day as the main body of water flows on toward the more populous centers of Hutchinson and Wichita. Both of these cities have extensive dike systems and are not believed in any real danger.

U.S. Weakening On U.N. Dues

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States appears to be softening its insistence that the Soviet Union and other members of the United Nations refusing to pay peacekeeping assessments must pay their dues or lose their General Assembly vote.

President Johnson's aides indicate the President still is weighing what to say about — as he put it — "the future of the United Nations" in his speech to the U.N.'s 20th anniversary session in San Francisco Friday.

The U. N. Charter's Article 19 provides that members falling two years in arrears "shall have no vote" in the General Assembly. The Soviet Union, France, and Communist bloc countries face the potential penalty because of their refusal to pay for United Nations peacekeeping operations in the Congo and Middle East. U.N. finances are more than $100 million in the hole.

President John F. Kennedy told Congress in 1962 that all members will have to pay up or lose their right to vote in the General Assembly.

The Johnson administration continued the U.S. effort to get the delinquents to pay up. But the last General Assembly meeting was hamstrung over the issue, and negotiators have yet to come up with a solution.

Project Made Major Goal Of Association

By LEFTY HYMES
Daily News Outdoor Writer

BURLINGTON, Iowa — Flood-proofing of the Upper Mississippi River was designated as the major goal of the politically powerful Mississippi Valley Association, the organization that promoted and sponsored the nine-foot channel in the Mississippi and Missouri rivers, at a special flood meeting here Thursday.

One hundred twenty-five businessmen, government representatives, civic leaders and politicians from every city on the river above St. Louis were in attendance. Mayor R. Ellings, represented Winona, Mayor Harry Johnson, Lake City.

"There is no one cure all to prevent river floods," Brig. Gen. Roy T. Dodge, division engineer, Chicago, in charge of all river work above St. Louis said in an opening address. Gen. Dodge visited Winona during the height of the 1965 flood.

"Old Man River must have room for its rampages," he said, "but the river can be controlled and flood damage reduced by work designed and planned today. The success of this program is dependent on the local communities. There is no over-all program that applies to the river."

"LARGE storage reservoirs like on the Missouri river are out," he continued. "The main stem of the valley with its topographic features rule out such projects. The tributaries of the upper river do not lend themselves to such developments."

"Levees and flood walls offer economical and practicable solution in many communities. Local communities must co-operate and offer their own programs."

"In consideration of potential measures for flood control, engineering has not yet discovered or developed any 'Magic Formula'. Floods are a natural phenomenon. We may control them to a degree in this valley; but we must recognize that 'Old Man River' must have room in which to rampage."

Zoning of flood plains of a city, flood proofing buildings and building levees, were control methods suggested.

At the conclusion of speeches, including those by Otto Kerner, governor of Illinois, and by Congressional leaders the meeting went on record for an accelerated program including the immediate construction of all authorized projects, completing planned ones and increasing the work capacity of the Corps of Engineers force in the river districts. The association will ask Congress to make all needed funds available as required.

THIS accelerated program would push flood control work ahead one to five years.

Under a work pending schedule given to the meeting, this acceleration would effect the following local projects:

1. Two miles of dike to protect the industrial and residential section of Winona not authorized.

NEW YORK (AP) — Dr. Charles L. Hudson of Shaker Heights, Ohio, today was chosen president-elect of the American Medical Association, to take office a year from now.

The physician, 61, was elected on a third ballot by the AMA House of Delegates, defeating three other candidates. Voting tallies were not announced.

NEW YORK (AP) — Mary Boland, 80, a leading actress of stage and screen for more than 50 years, died Wednesday. Miss Boland, who starred both in dramatic and comedy roles, started her career in 1901 and one of her last featured roles was in 1954.

Ammunition Dump Bombed

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Forty-six American planes flew north of the "Hanoi line" again today to blast at an ammunition depot in North Viet Nam, U. S. military spokesmen announced.

The planes — 12 Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs, eight F4C Phantoms and 26 escorts — again hit the Ban Nuoc Chieu ammunition depot 80 miles northwest of Hanoi, the spokesmen said. American planes hit the same target on Tuesday.

After the raid today, pilots reported 22 buildings destroyed and seven others damaged by 45 tons of 750-pound bombs and rockets, the spokesmen said. The strike lasted about 40 minutes.

The spokesmen said no anti-aircraft fire was reported and no enemy planes were sighted. All the American planes returned safely, they said.

The weather was clear during the strike, the spokesmen added. Military officials announced that a U. S. Air Force B57 Canberra bomber was lost Tuesday on another strike over North Viet Nam.

They said the plane went down about 25 miles southwest of Vinh and that the two men aboard were missing.

In other raids on North Viet Nam today, eight A4 Skyhawks from the carrier Midway attacked the Vinh Son supply depot about 150 miles south of Hanoi, spokesmen said, but "damage assessment was undetermined."

U. S. Navy and Air Force planes made four other strikes over a 65-mile area in North Viet Nam, U. S. spokesmen said. The pilots reported moderate to heavy damage to bridges, barges, roads and ferry installations.

Heavy air strikes also continued against Viet Cong installations or suspected Red concentrations in South Viet Nam, the spokesmen said. U. S. Air Force, Navy and Marine planes took part.

Senate Ready for Vote On Silver-Coinage Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate begins voting today on the silver-coinage bill, with a major test set on whether to retain any silver in the half dollar.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said he hoped the bill would be passed by tonight.

As submitted by President Johnson and approved in the Senate Banking Committee, the measure would eliminate all silver in dimes and quarters but retain a 40 per cent content in half dollars. All three now have 90 per cent silver.

Sen. John O. Pastore, D-R.I., whose state uses silver for industrial purposes, proposed to revise the legislation to eliminate all silver in the half dollar as well. Both sides said they expected the result to be close.

Western senators from silver-producing states not only were fighting Pastore's proposal but said they would offer an amendment of their own to keep 40 per cent silver in dimes and quarters. However, their proposal appeared to have only a slim chance.

Pastore declared, "There just isn't enough silver to go around."

It makes no sense to continue with it in the half dollar when we're getting rid of it in the 10- and 25-cent pieces.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., supporting the Pastore amendment, said that "the extra 40 per cent silver left in the half dollars will result in a waste of 20 million ounces of silver."

DEAR ABBY:

Friends Change, Widows Discover

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: As a new widow, I think I can help that widow who wrote that she has actually picked up her telephone to be sure it was still working. She complained that after three months all her friends had gone back to their own families and had forgotten her.

Widowhood is a "do-it-yourself" job. Don't expect married women to share their husbands with you during the evenings. Make plans to be with your women friends in the afternoons. Go to church and find people in the same boat — lonesome. Get a hobby, or enroll in an adult education class and learn something new.

I've been a widow for five months. My friends are still very thoughtful, but I don't expect to be included and entertained just because I'm alone. I have learned that grieving is selfish. What do we say when we grieve? "Why did this happen to ME?" Not, "It was God's will." Perhaps my words can help someone else. I know that just writing this letter has helped me. It comes from—

THE HORSE'S MOUTH

DEAR "HORSE'S MOUTH": Thank you for your fine letter. Your brand of horse sense comes from a stable mind.

DEAR ABBY: I have this boy friend whom I still like a little, but he has an older brother whom I like better. My boy friend is 14 years old and so am I. His brother is 22. Do you think I should stick with my boy friend or drop him and try to get his brother? I would like an answer soon because my boy friend is paying me a lot of attention, and his older brother is kind of shying away. Please don't tell me the brother is too old for me because my aunt and uncle have ten years between them, and I've never seen a happier couple.

ABBY

DEAR DECIDING: Sorry, but the older brother IS too old for you right now. A 14-year-old bird in the hand is worth two 22-year-olds in the bush. Stick with the minor league until you're no longer a minor.

DEAR ABBY: I don't know how you operate, but several days ago I wrote to ask your advice about a problem. I signed my real name and enclosed a stamped, self-addressed envelope for your reply. I forgot to mention that I do not want my letter printed in your column or read over the air on your radio program. I hope it isn't too late to ask this favor of you. PLEASE DO NOT USE MY NAME OR MY INITIALS. I live in a small town and if the facts I mentioned in my letter were made public, I would easily be identified, and many innocent people would be hurt. Thank you very, very much. Sign this letter.

"CAN'T SLEEP" IN LYNCHBURG, VA.

DEAR "CAN'T": Have no fear. I NEVER use a writer's "real" name or initials without his consent. Nor do I ever disclose the name of the city from which it came. Pleasant dreams!

DEAR ABBY: Let me add my support to the "lazy" daughter-in-law who refuses to take her 13-month-old child off the bottle. True, the child should be drinking from a cup at meals, but she should be allowed to keep her bottle for oral gratification at other times, until she voluntarily gives it up. I put up with bottles and pacifiers for this purpose until my children finally abandoned them at around age three. They never "graduated to the thumb," as some children do, and were thus spared possible dental problems. And perhaps by having relied on this early "crutch" to satisfy their oral needs, they will be able to resist more damaging crutches in later life — cigarettes and excessive drink. My physician husband agrees.

Tender, Loving Touching Called Best for Baby

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
AP Science Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Tender, loving touching may be one of the most important things you can do for a baby.

His soft skin is perhaps the part of the body by which he does his first great learning about his strange outside world, a psychiatrist said today.

And the skin-learning, or lack of it, apparently can be important in how the baby grows up, said Dr. Sidney Cohen of Los Angeles.

Cohen is chief of psychiatric service at Wadsworth Hospital in Los Angeles and a professor at the University of California at Los Angeles.

It's generally considered that lack of a mother, or good substitute motherly care, may have serious and lifelong impact on a child's character, he told the American Medical Association.

This is known as maternal deprivation — even by a real mother who is cold or detached — and is a complex matter, he said.

Cohen focused upon just one aspect of it — little or no skin stimulation.

For one thing, he said, the nerve endings for touch, temperature and pain are the first to develop in the infant — long before the infant develops effective nerves for hearing or seeing.

Skin contacts are the first sole means "of communicating security and affection, a need as great or even more important than the feeding process," Cohen said. "It is evidently relaxing and pleasurable to the infant to be stroked, cuddled and massaged."

What a child feels, from all senses, during the first six months of life "may have its greatest impact upon the child's evolving personality and physiology," he said.

Children reared in an orphanage, kept clean and well-fed but rarely handled, weren't considered to have fared as well, mentally and emotionally, as babies reared in a prison nursery by their own mothers, Cohen said, citing a study by other researchers.

Russ Won't Receive British Peace Mission

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet government will refuse to receive the British Commonwealth's Viet Nam peace mission which had planned to come to Moscow, Tass reported tonight.

The official Soviet News Agency reported the rejection after the ambassadors of Britain, Ghana and Nigeria, whose prime ministers are members of the mission, had asked Premier Alexei N. Kosygin to receive the peacekeepers.

"According to the available information, the Soviet government has declined this proposal, declaring that it had not been

Backing Truck Kills Worker at Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE (AP) — A summer highway worker was struck and killed by a dump truck backing up at a freeway construction project Tuesday.

Prime Minister Harold Wilson of Britain, who will head the four-man group, wanted to visit five capitals — Moscow, Peking, Hanoi, Saigon and Washington. Saigon was first to signify its willingness to receive the mission. Red China and North Viet Nam have rejected the idea, calling it a hoax.

Sandbag Removal Bids Asked at 3 Area Locks

The U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, St. Paul, will advertise for bids next week for removal of temporary sandbag barriers at three lock and dam sites in this area. Bids will be opened about July 22.

At Lock and Dam 5A near Winona, the engineers are asking for removal of about 150,000 bags along the Minnesota City dike and replacing approximately 150 cubic yards washed out from the downstream side of the spillway wing wall on the Minnesota side of the spillway.

The engineers will advertise for removal of approximately 24,000 sandbags along the dikes located between the dam storage yard and the Milwaukee Railroad grade on the Minnesota side of Lock and Dam 6, Trempealeau.

The engineers estimate about 30,000 bags will have to be removed from Lock & Dam 7 near Dresbach. The sandbag barrier runs along about 9,000 feet of dike.

The work should be completed in 30 days at each site after award of contracts.

Brothers Unhurt In Crash on 61

Two Winona youths escaped injury when their car rolled after the driver said he had swerved off U.S. 61, a mile south of Minnesota City, Wednesday night to avoid a collision with another car.

Sheriff George L. Fort said today that Robert Steffen, 18, 375 W. 5th St., and Nicholas J. Steffen, 20, same address, were wearing seat belts at the time of the accident and were not injured although their car came to rest on its top in the ditch.

The elder Steffen was driving east on U.S. 61 and had started to pass a car when he was forced to swerve to avoid a car coming west in the east-bound lane. The Steffen car went 199 feet in the right-hand ditch, rolling several times and coming to rest wheels up.

Damage was $600 all over the 1963, four-door sedan driven by the Steffens. Deputy John J. Schneider investigated.

Wabasha Reserve Unit Enlisting

WABASHA, Minn. — Enlistments of non-prior service personnel now are being taken by the 544th Ordnance Company, the local Army Reserve unit, officers said today.

Although general proposals have been advanced for combining Reserve and National Guard systems, each is continuing to recruit members independently. Orders to local Reserve units are to continue until otherwise advised.

According to Pfc. Robert R. Parrot, publicity director, the 544th office at the USAF center is open Mondays through Fridays from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. to supply information to young men interested in the 6 months active duty Army Reserve program.

General Office Clerks Course to Begin Aug. 2

Another class for general office clerks, to be offered under the federal Manpower Development and Training Act, will start here Aug. 2.

This announcement came today from Ray H. Brown, manager of the Minnesota State Employment Service office here, and Thomas W. Raine, director of the Winona Area Vocational-Technical School.

The first MDTA course for office clerks ended June 11, and the 20 graduates — all of them women — are now being placed on jobs with business firms here, Brown said. There is a need for such workers, he said.

The new course will again be set up primarily for women, he explained, but area men interested in this training are urged to apply for enrollment. Classes will be conducted 30 hours a week for 26 weeks.

The course will be highly concentrated, and Raine said: "Subjects taught will include typing, business English, office accounting, business mathematics, office organization and operation, office machine operation and other functions." Graduates of the class will have a very excellent and well rounded training in those skills needed for good performance in the modern, up-to-date office.

There is no cost to the student for the training. All materials, textbooks, supplies and equipment are furnished and paid for with federal funds. Enrollees who qualify as heads of households will, in addition to the cost-free training, receive weekly cash allowances while in training.

Recruitment for enrollment in the course is handled by the employment service office. Individuals of this area who are interested should contact the office immediately so that necessary application and enrollment forms can be completed, Brown said.

HE EXPLAINED: "The course is open to all people who reside in this area. We want to emphasize that to be eligible for enrollment, a person need not live in Winona. Residents of Winona, Fillmore, Houston and Wabasha counties and nearby Wisconsin are eligible for admittance to the class."

It is expected that the demand for enrollment will be heavy, Brown said.

Training courses scheduled to start this fall are for stenographers, welders, auto body repairmen, highway technicians and electronics mechanics.

Owl Hits NSP Line, Service Out

An unwise owl blundered into a 69,000-volt transmission line early today, knocking out electrical service to hundreds of Northern States Power Co. customers for approximately two minutes.

Most of the users were unaware of the brief interruption which occurred at 2 a.m. The short circuit cut power service to Community Memorial Hospital, Pleasant Valley, Sugar Loaf, Wilson, Witoka, Dresbach and Dakota. It also affected most of the city's northside industrial users and a number of residences near the College of Saint Teresa.

The interruption occurred near 1670 Kraemer Dr., NSP officials said, on the recently completed line which crosses the Mississippi River at Dam 5A and feeds into a new substation at Goodview.

NSP employees were able to restore service by throwing a switch at the steam-generating plant here, feeding power to the affected areas from the opposite direction.

The owl did not survive, NSP officials said.

Shrine Patrol Going to Michigan

Ten members of the Winona Area Shrine Club motorcycle patrol will ride in a parade Saturday at Hancock, Mich.

According to Dr. Donald T. Burt, patrol captain, the parade is in connection with the Upper Michigan State American Legion convention. The patrol was invited by the Hancock chamber of commerce.

The unit's cycles were trucked to Hancock Wednesday and riders will leave Friday. Members will return Sunday.

Other appearances will be made by the Shrine patrol at Steamboat Days in Winona, at the Midwest Shrine convention in Minneapolis and at festivals in St. Charles, La Crescent and Mabel.

It Happened Last Night Treatment Can Stop Hair Loss

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Don't get too excited, baldies, but that anti-baldness experiment at the University of Pennsylvania really works. Leading dermatologists, discussing it privately while the American Medical Association is in session, agree that while the scalp treatment may not grow a luxurious mane, it does stop hair loss. (And, as one doctor said, "That's quite a fringe benefit.")

Marlon Brando was very pleasant to reporters and columnists here for 20th Century-Fox "Mortuary" exploitation but canceled his visit to the Concord to spend Father's Day in Chicago with his son Christian Devlin. . . . Jokers sent Father's Day greetings to Tony Quinn. . . . Sidney Lumet's father Baruch Lumet revealed at Voisin he's producing an off-Bway play about SENIOR delinquents. . . . Secret Stuff: A famous comedian and his wife are to be congratulated. Never take a drink or a pill any more, did it by sheer will power and are very happy. . . . Christine Schmidtner of Germany went from "Ship of Fools" to "Boeing Boeing" — just talented, I guess.

At wealthy Irving Geist's 65th birthday party, so luxuriously celebrated at the St. Regis Roof, a friend asked Geist his true age. "Gross or not?" Geist answered. Toasting him, Judge George Beldock said, "Irving Geist gives the greatest parties next to Irving Geist." . . . Harry Hershfield for no reason told about Gen. De Gaulle kissing a woman who sighed ecstatically afterward. "Oh, my God!" De Gaulle told her, "YOU may call me Charles."

Farmer Who Cut Road to Relieve Flood Cleared

LITTLE FALLS, Minn. (AP) — Raymond Wilczek, Pike Creek Township farmer, was acquitted in municipal court Wednesday of a charge of digging a trench across a public road without authorization.

Wilczek told a jury of five women and one man that he had been complaining for 15 years to township officials and the Morrison County board that two culverts which carry Pike Creek beneath the road were too small to handle the volume of water when heavy rain came.

Heavy rain flooded the area again June 12. Wilczek, in his 50s, dug a trench to speed runoff of two feet of water covering the road. The township board swore out a warrant charging violation of a state statute. Wilczek said thousands of dollars of damage had been done to his fields over the years because of high water.

Judge H.M. Braggans heard the case.

Biggest Balloon Passes 1st Test

BEDFORD, England (AP) — What is billed as the world's biggest balloon has passed its first trials.

The balloon is 137 feet long, 52 feet in diameter, and has a capacity of 156,000 cubic feet. Costing $42,000, it was made and had its first test at the Royal Air Force Station at Cardington, near here.

Leslie Speed, 59, designed it with the idea of carrying timber out of otherwise inaccessible forests in Canada's British Columbia. It is designed to lift three-ton logs clear of forests and load them on trucks. It also can drag a log weighing six tons.

Hearing Planned On New Bank Interest Rates

ST. PAUL (AP) — A hearing will be held July 20 on proposed new bank interest rates authorized by the 1965 legislature.

Banking Commissioner John Chisholm announced the hearing Wednesday, noting that the legislature repealed the old law limiting banks to 4 per cent interest paid on time deposits.

The new law allows the commissioner to set the payout rate at up to the amount authorized by the Federal Reserve Board for national banks. This is now 4 1/2 per cent.

Chisholm said he will propose that the top rate be paid only on time certificates of $100,000 and over, aimed at letting Minnesota banks compete with Eastern banks for "time money."

New Dairy Princess Florida Girl

CHICAGO (AP) — The new American Dairy Princess is Suzanne Bradford, 19, a Florida State Junior from Tallahassee. She won the title Wednesday night over 25 other state dairy princesses, including Karen Bracken of Verdi, Minnesota's Princess Kay of the Milky Way.

Miss Bradford will be employed by the American Dairy Association in promotional work for the next year.

Warned Youth Drowns in Pit

VALDOSTA, Ga. (AP) — Frank James lives near a large clay pit which fills with water when it rains. It is a favorite swimming hole for youngsters. But James noticed one youth couldn't swim and had warned him to stay out of the pit.

James heard a scream and leaped into the pit to aid a thrashing Negro boy. But the boy, Willie C. West, 16, died in his arms. He was the youth James had warned.

Charley's Aunt' Opens Tonight

Heading the cast of "Charley's Aunt," the opening play in the College of Saint Teresa summer theater's season, is a Winona State College student from Wabasha.

Robert Carr will appear as the English student who tries to get out of a difficult situation by impersonating his own aunt.

The play, one of the most popular comedies in the English language, opens at 8:30 p.m. today in the Saint Teresa theater and runs through Sunday.

Appearing as Carr's fellow students will be Steven Andersen, 471 Wayne St., and Nicholas DeMartino, New York City.

Patricia Coughlin, Chicago, will play Amy, the girl in need of chaperoning by Charley's aunt, and Nancy Ackels, 544 Glenview Ct., will play her friend.

The real aunt will be portrayed by Gayle Viehman, Owatonna. Others in the cast, directed by John Marzocco, will be Victor Borgeson, St. Paul; Patricia Patterson, 362 W. Mark St.; Warren Magnuson, East Burns Valley, and Alfred Wolfram, Minnesota City.

You know, human nature can be right down explosive, and when it is, it sets up a chain reaction that as a rule does someone harm.

Let's consider this subject in today's column by reflecting the impression "Yours truly" had left upon him, and incidentally, who is anxious to see the outcome.

The setting is that of a large plant. Each work day about nine trucks pull away from the ramp with items for delivery on regular routes. The man in question is a driver of one of these trucks. He seems capable in many respects, yet irresponsible in others. Recently a family member called and said that (let's call him Mac) was sick and for someone to come get his truck.

Back at the plant, the foreman suspected that Mac was drunk, or at least having a hangover. To make a long story shorter, we'll skip a few days of this affair, along with the details that accompany the whole episode, and watch the clash of human nature when the driver and the foreman meet some four or five days later.

"O.KAY, MACK," the foreman says in no uncertain terms. "There's nothing wrong with you that laying off the drink wouldn't help. From now on you punch in at 7 in the morning and out at 5. At least I'll know where you're at twice a day." Punching in and out hasn't been required up until now. Drivers were allowed freedom as long as they fulfilled their duties.

Does Mac say, "I guess I can't blame him. I'll punch in for a few days and then when he's calmed down I'll ask for consideration." Oh, no, not Mac. Righteous indignation came forth. He said to himself, I expect, "I'll show him he can't push me around." And over to the Union office he went. The Union official assured Mac that if one driver punched in, they would make all drivers punch in. Can you see the chain reactions coming?

Now if the Union forces this issue, what are the other drivers going to say? I wager, lay odds to Mac, who in this case, is the fly in the ointment. In the meantime, the head of office becomes involved, and before you know it, the scuffle-but throughout the business will be — there's trouble in the air. ONE PERSON I haven't men-

IS IT PROPER? . . . Nancy Ackels, left, and Patricia Coughlin register shocked astonishment when Charley, played by Robert Carr, forgets he is supposed to be impersonating his own aunt and lights up a cigar. The scene is from "Charley's Aunt," opening tonight at the College of Saint Teresa summer theater. (Daily News photos) tioned in this story is the counselor hired by the plant who thinks he may have worked out an escape valve for all this human emotion, most of which is triggered by impulse. If he has, our story will end well. If he hasn't, there will be more to tell.

Before we're too hard on Mac or his foreman, we should check our own emotions under pressure and see how explosive we are apt to be. And might I now suggest that there's one thing to be said for ignorance and that is, it sure causes a lot of interesting arguments.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson nominated astronauts Walter Schirra and John Young for Navy promotions Tuesday. All the original astronauts now have been promoted since their ventures into space.

Cmdr. Schirra was nominated for captain and Lt. Cmdr. Young for commander. Each received his current rank in 1961.

The first American in space, Alan Shepard, has been recommended for Navy captain by a promotion board and is due to move up July 1. John Glenn was promoted to Marine colonel just prior to his retirement last fall and Scott Carpenter became a Navy commander last August.

NEW SUPPER CLUB . . . Just completed, the new Crest restaurant is on Highway 44 near the west outskirts of Caledonia. On the picture, it's the center building. To the left is the 14-unit Crest Motel built three years ago. To the right is the residence occupied by Paul Klug, manager of both supper club and motel, and his family, who help operate the units. C. F. Becker is the owner.

This is the only supper club in the Caledonia area open to the general public, others are private clubs. The new 30-by-64-foot dining room is opposite Ma-Cal-Grove golf course. There's seating capacity for 60 adjacent to the bar, and a room in the basement for parties of some 128. Interior decorations are in oak and Delta marbled birch paneling. The club is the latest business building in Caledonia; the red-wood siding was completed last week. (Daily News photo)

Blair Student Finalist In Dairyland Contest

BLAIR, Wis. (Special) — A Blair girl, Miss Carolyn Quammen, 20, is one of 22 finalists in regional competition at Sun Prairie today through Saturday competing for the title of Alice in Dairyland. That's a full-time job for a year.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Quammen, Rt. 2, Carolyn is representing Region 5 with Sheila Barlett of Mauston. The girls were selected at Mauston earlier this month. Carolyn is a petite blond. She is 5 feet tall and weighs 103 pounds.

A 1963 graduate of Blair High School, she participated in band and chorus and was a cheerleader here and at Platteville State University, which she attended one year.

Last fall she transferred to La Crosse State University where she is a member of the chorus, majoring in speech and minoring in vocal music. She also plays the piano.

Carolyn's father is a retired dairy farmer. Her mother will start her seventh year as teacher in the Blair elementary school. Prior to that Mrs. Quammen taught in area rural schools.

Both mother and daughter are attending summer sessions at La Crosse State.

EVENTS BEGIN today with photographs, banquet and an orientation meeting. On Friday breakfast will be served the finalists by G. J. Cremer, a Wisconsin cheeseman. Judging of the contestants continues throughout Friday.

In the evening the girls will attend another banquet and participate in a talent program. Saturday afternoon will be highlighted by a parade which is expected to draw an estimated crowd of 15,000. The evening will be climaxed with the coronation of the winner by the current Alice, Beth Bartosh, Burlington.

TO QUALIFY for state competition, the contestant had to be at least 18 years and residents of Wisconsin. Contestants are judged on poise, photogenic qualities, and the ability to express opinions. They also were asked questions about world and state problems, both social and political.

Carolyn's parents and her brother, Gary and wife, Eltrick, and their guest Cindy Graff, Bixby, Miss., and Mark Schneider, Blair, plan to attend the parade, banquet and coronation Saturday.

Guest speakers were Roy Butler, Rochester, executive of the Gamehaven Council, and Dan Foley, Wabasha, past national American Legion commander. John Wodele of Explorer Post 62 was narrator for the candle-light ceremony. The boys' fathers, who are assistants to Scoutmaster Orville Johnson, presented them with Eagle certificates. Tony Kuntz, Cannon River District executive, gave the oath.

The Rev. George Spratt of Grace Episcopal Church gave the invocation and the Rev. Alfred J. Ward, United Church of Christ, the benediction. Among the guests were Scout troops from Kellogg and Pepin, Wis.

Open House Set At Spring Grove Electronic Plant

SPRING GROVE, Minn. (Special) — Control Data Corp. will hold open house at its Spring Grove plant Saturday from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Manager Stanley W. Stegemeyer, announced.

Visitors will be taken on guided tours of the plant where the electronic component of its largest computer, the 6600, are assembled, ready to ship to the computer production plant at Arden Hills, Minneapolis.

The plant opened here March 8 in one of the three buildings occupied by Argus, Inc., which moved to Columbia, S.C., just a year ago. It employed 24 people on opening and now has 125 on the payroll, most of them are women. Eventually Control Data plans to occupy all 75,000 square feet of space in the three former Argus buildings.

Douglas Larson, director of manufacturing, Minneapolis, will be present for the open house. Several computers will be on display.

Wabasha County Crash Injures Mother, Children

WABASHA, Minn. (Special) — A mother and one of three children were injured Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. when a station wagon went out of control on a town-ship road 4 1/2 miles east of Millville.

Robert Priebe, 24, Zumbro Falls, was driving. Crushed rock was piled along the road at about 40-foot intervals. Priebe had driven about a mile down the road when something appeared to happen to the mechanism of his car. He hit a pile of rock, lost control, and veered left, going down a 75-foot embankment. The car rolled over in its descent and landed upright.

Mrs. Priebe, 22, received cuts and bruises. The second son, Danny, 1 1/2, received a concussion, lacerations and bruises. Both were taken to Lake City Municipal Hospital.

Mr. Priebe and the other two sons, Rodney, 8 months, and Ricky, 2, apparently weren't injured. The 1959 station wagon was a total wreck.

Deputy Everett Lorenz, who investigated, said there were no lighter flares at the piles of crushed rock. No charges were filed. Priebe is a machinist at the Di-Acro factory in Lake City.

Perrot Park Road Must Not Be Closed

THE STATE PARK sticker is a good thing and a painless method of raising maintenance funds which today, with the wide public use of parks, are often badly needed.

But sometimes its administration can be unreasonable and a headache, as well as irritating to park users. People don't like to be regimented and pushed around. They are willing to pay but no director or superintendent is going to put them to a lot of trouble or inconvenience to do it.

At Perrot State Park near Trempealeau, Wis., the Wisconsin Conservation Commission's division of parks has a sticker selling problem that has been a headache. A road passes through the more than a mile-long park, and there are picnic areas near each end.

A picnic party could enter from the north end and unless a park attendant was on hand to sell a sticker, might get by without buying one. To maintain sticker sales booths at both north and south entrances would be expensive.

SO SOME EFFICIENCY expert said, "Why not close the road and make them all come in at the Trempealeau end." A perfect solution, but it won't work because the residents of the area don't want such an arrangement. It would necessitate a detour for most Trempealeau County residents and for all Winonans going to the park to picnic, and furthermore, village of Trempealeau residents don't want all the park traffic on their streets.

Petitions are being circulated, state authorities bawled out, and residents say the alibi that closing the north entrance would control rowdiness is not based on fact.

THE ANSWER is apparent — the park commission expert must retreat gracefully and withstand the cost of two sticker selling stands—giving another job to some deserving teen-ager for the vacation period.

Freeman Fleeces Taxpayers, Too

(The Wall Street Journal)

IF WE RECALL aright, some of the political science textbooks used to say that one characteristic of a good law or regulation is that it applies equally to all.

Whatever they say today, it is plain there have grown up some laws — on taxes and housing, for instance — which do not treat everybody alike.

The anomaly apparently doesn't bother very many people any more, so perhaps it is to be expected that a peculiar program providing for a sliding scale of government support payments to wool growers, proposed by Agriculture Secretary Freeman, doesn't seem to disturb many people either, other than farmers and sheep ranchers.

Now the whole costly price support system as presently administered is dubious, but the wool proposal pushes the support theory over the brink of absurdity. For the administration plans to make lower support payments to larger wool growers and higher payments to smaller growers.

THUS A GROWER who markets more than 7,000 pounds would be paid between 53 and 66 cents per pound; the smaller grower who markets up to 2,000 pounds would get between 62 to 74 cents.

Possibly smarting under all the criticism that farm schemes up to now have mainly aided big operators, the planners presumably want their new proposal to aid chiefly small producers. But as so often is the case, it would only produce a new inequity. The highest support payments would go to 200,000 growers who produce less than 2,000 pounds a season, raising sheep as a sideline and getting most of their income from other farm output. The lowest would go to about 5,000 growers, mostly in the West, who produce more than 7,000 pounds and depend almost wholly upon wool for their livelihood.

JUST THIS SORT of confusion is all too common when the government seeks to impose its own economic theories on producers by one means or another. And it can be corrected only if all are treated alike, under the workings of a free market system. Otherwise, it's not only the sheep who will keep on getting fleeced.

But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.—Isaiah 40: 31.

TODAY IN NATIONAL AFFAIRS

Discrimination In Fraternities

WASHINGTON — The way has been opened to compel every fraternity in the colleges, universities and high schools, every private club and every fraternal organization to include in its membership persons of every race and religion or suffer as a penalty the loss of federal tax exemption. In the case of educational institutions, there would be a loss of federal financial aid to the university or college which permits any campus organization to practice racial or religious discrimination.

These steps are foreshadowed by the interpretation of the civil rights act of 1964 just issued by the administration here through the office of the U.S. commissioner of education, Francis Keppel.

THE FEDERAL government intervened recently when it was discovered that the local chapter of the Sigma Chi fraternity at Stanford University in California had been suspended by the national chapter for having decided to admit a Negro student. The national chapter is a private organization. It is not under the jurisdiction of the federal government, nor does it receive any financial assistance from Washington. But the U.S. commissioner of education warned in a letter that, unless the Stanford chapter were allowed to include the Negro student in its membership, Stanford University itself would be penalized.

This extraordinary threat is contained in the commissioner's pronouncement. It states first that there must be no discriminatory practices in "making available for the use of students any building, room, space, materials, equipment or other facility or property." Then the commissioner points to the regulations which were issued supposedly under the authority of the civil rights act of 1964 and which require schools to give assurances that there is no racial discrimination "in admission practices or any other practices of the institution relating to the treatment of students." Furthermore, the commissioner declares:

"THIS LANGUAGE makes it apparent that an institution which maintains a fraternity system as a part of its activities and over-all program is responsible under the civil rights act requirements for assuring that discrimination is not practiced by the fraternities in the system."

To my knowledge the suspension of Sigma Chi at Stanford by the fraternity's national executive committee is the first major test involving de facto discrimination within a national fraternity to develop since passage of the civil rights act of 1964. As such, it seems certain to attract wide public interest.

Unfortunately, though the letter was made public last Thursday, it hasn't attracted "wide public interest." But possibly this is because the American people — particularly those who are identified with clubs, fraternities or other social organizations — haven't discovered as yet that the new ruling makes a mockery of what the Supreme Court of the United States said just a few days before on the importance of preserving the "right of privacy" as an inherent part of the Constitution itself.

WHILE ALMOST everyone with human sympathy and understanding recognizes that discrimination by reason of race or religion gives the individual affected a feeling of unforgettable stigma, there is a bigger injustice in brushing aside constitutional methods and endeavoring to achieve reform by applying the doctrine that "the end justifies the means."

There is nothing in the Constitution which permits the federal government to control the educational process in America. The mere grant or loan of taxpayers' money to the states or directly to colleges or universities does not carry with it the right to exercise any jurisdiction over such matters as regulating the conduct or relationships of students to each other.

But if a regulation can be derived from the civil rights law of 1964 empowering the federal government to use its financial transactions with the citizens to impose punishment for actions which are not in themselves forbidden by state or federal law, then the way is opened to apply the same procedure to fraternal organizations of all kinds, as well as private clubs generally. It can be done by denying them exemptions from the payment of income taxes in those years in which their receipts exceed expenditures.

IT APPARENTLY would be sufficient for the treasury to declare that the civil rights act of 1964 authorizes the withholding of financial assistance to any organization or institution which permits discrimination on racial or religious grounds. Certainly in these days of official word-twisting, "financial assistance" is a broad enough term to cover tax exemptions.

Taxpayers Lose Patents They Paid to Develop

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — When 50 congressmen junketed to Europe last weekend to see the International Air Show in Paris, it made front-page headlines. But when a majority of the U. S. Senate voted to let a handful of big corporations keep any important patents derived from government-financed research, it missed the big headlines.

The junket to Europe cost the taxpayers less than $100,000. The government research voted for a few big companies cost $5 billion.

Actually the $5 billion is part of a $15 billion research appropriation which the federal government allocates each year to defense contractors, space companies, big drug companies, and a few universities for medical research. The vote on letting the drug companies keep U.S.-financed patents comes up before the Senate this week.

"There is no more outrageous thing that can be done to the public interest," entreated Sen. Russell Long of Louisiana, the Democratic whip, just before the Senate voted. "The government is being importuned to give away private patent rights on everything that the government does in the field of research."

Previously long had been successful in persuading the Senate to reserve for the public the patents derived from government-financed research on the desalinization of water, helium gas research, the mass transit bill, and in the coal research act.

But as the really profitable patents pertaining to space and national defense came up for a vote, the lobbyists began to converge on Washington. They included representatives of the American Patent Bar Association, the electronics industry, aircraft and space industries, the chemical industry, and the big drug companies.

"The pressure is too great," confided Sen. Walter Mondale, the new Democrat from Minnesota, supposed to be a Hubert Humphrey liberal.

Lobbyists for some of the big Detroit industries called on Sen. Phil Hart of Michigan, chairman of the Senate antimonopoly subcommittee, supposed to be a crusader against monopoly. He too chickened.

When the long amendment came up for a vote, the man who led the adroit move to table it was Sen. "Three-Gun" Tom Dodd of Connecticut, a crusader against juvenile delinquency.

Dodd is a member of the Space Committee, but has attended not one meeting this year and only one last year. When he successfully moved to table the long amendment, it cost the public enough money to have paid for several hundred Boys' Towns.

He got help from a so-called Republican liberal, Sen. Jack Javits of New York, who operates a law firm on the side and frequently talks out of both sides of his mouth where corporate interests are concerned.

The two Kennedy brothers also voted for the big $5 billion giveaway, as did two other ardent Kennedy backers, young Birch Bayh of Indiana and young Joe Tydings of Maryland.

Ed Long of Missouri, who filled the shoes of trust-busting Estes Kefauver on the Senate Judiciary Committee, voted for the big patent giveaway. So did Mike Monroney of Oklahoma, elected by charging Sen. Elmer Thomas of Oklahoma with speculating on the commodity market.

Sen. John Pastore of Rhode Island, who led the Senate battle to give space patents to American Tel & Tel and the Communications Satellite Corporation, voted for the big patent giveaway. This was not surprising. It was surprising that his young Rhode Island colleague Claiborne Pell joined him.

Stuart Symington of Missouri voted for the big patent giveaway. He usually votes with big business. So does Scoop Jackson of Washington state, home of the Boeing bomber.

Lister Hill of Alabama, crusader and author of federal financing for hospitals, in this case voted to finance the research of very healthy billion-dollar corporations.

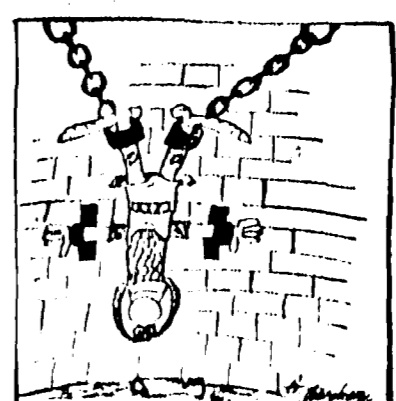

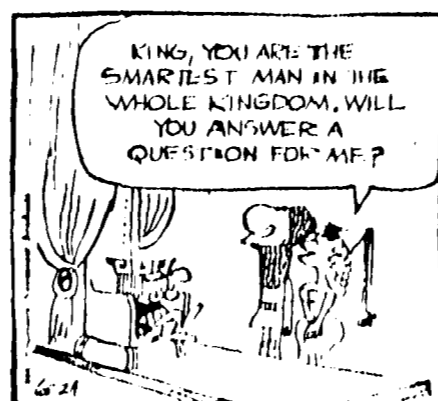

Bob Byrd of West Virginia, who quibbles over a few hundred thousand dollars going to unemployed unwept mothers in the District of Columbia, cast his vote for the billion-dollar giveaway.

No-Nonsense Guy Is Bundy

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — The little guy, any little guy who listened to the professors a whole hour on television, began to get those pains in his head. He was glad they couldn't quiz him afterward on what they said.

It was all about Viet Nam and what to do. The little guy is always impressed when he sees President Johnson's assistant, McGeorge Bundy, on television, as he did this week. Bundy used to be dean of the faculty of arts and science at Harvard.

He is strictly a no-nonsense kind of man who looks stern and to the point, like he is conducting an examination every minute and giving you marks in his head, and sometimes he gives the impression the marks are not good.

BUNDY HAD two professors on his side, which is Johnson's side. They were there to back up the way Johnson is handling the war in Viet Nam. On the other side were three professors, all critical.

All six are great talkers and during the hour all said something, but none so much as Bundy and one of the critical professors, Hans Morgenthau, who teaches political science at the University of Chicago.

The little guy thought he was going to hear a debate about American policy in Viet Nam but he wound up thinking they were arguing more about tactics than policy.

They all seemed agreed that the policy is all right: Trying to convince the Communists to sit down and talk peace. It's how to get the Communists to sit down that had the professors at sixes and sevens.

BUT THE six professors seemed to forget that maybe the Reds are on a different wave length and while they knock themselves out worrying about how to bring about peace the Communists can't hear them, or won't listen.

Just a few days ago hopes took a spurt when the British Commonwealth nations decided to send a five-man delegation to all sides mixed up in Viet Nam to sound them out on peace.

British Prime Minister Harold Wilson was supposed to lead the peace team but before it could even get its bags packed the Red Chinese heard about it and called Wilson a "nitwit," which is hardly putting out the welcome mat.

Bundy said he believes with all his heart that what the United States is doing now in Viet Nam — to persuade the Reds to talk peace — is right.

What it's doing is bombing North Viet Nam — and also South Viet Nam when it thinks it has the Viet Cong spotted — and using American troops in the fighting and building up the American forces apparently for more of the same.

The Johnson administration takes the position that this is all a rather restrained nudge to the Reds, since it could go all out in its bombing and hit places like Hanoi, but isn't.

AFTER WHAT the Chinese called Wilson, Johnson administration officials reportedly are wondering if U.S. policy hasn't been too restrained.

But Morgenthau doesn't think this is the way to convince the Communists they can't win and thus convince them peace is better. What would he do? This is where the pains in the little guy's head got worse.

Morgenthau wouldn't pull the American forces out of Viet Nam. "Our aim," he said, "should be to get out of Viet Nam but to get out with honor." How could we do that? Morgenthau had a formula:

The United States should try to hold a few strong points in Viet Nam and maybe try to talk peace with the Reds in the fall. He seemed to think holding those points, instead of getting deeper into war, would convince the Reds they couldn't win and therefore should talk peace.

THE LITTLE guy hit himself on the head with a book of synonyms to stop the dizzy feeling. The little guy

Responsibility in Government More Than a Slogan

To the Editor:

In the lead article on page 3 of the June 17 edition of the Winona Daily News, Winona's city representative Frank Theis "announced" Winona's loss of the 49th Civil Affairs Company and the acquisition of its real property by the National Guard "in about two weeks."

His statements left the definite impression of a accomplished fact until XIV U.S. Army Corps (responsible for the Army Reserve in this area) revealed that this was merely "one plan" of several now under consideration by various echelons of the defense department as a part of the reorganization proposed some months back by the defense secretary.

In view of these facts, which the city representative apparently made no effort to check, his thoroughly misleading statement must be labeled as an unparalleled act of irresponsibility. In light of clarification by responsible officials ("present status" remains unchanged), the city representative's unfortunate announcement is further evidence that he was sadly misinformed.

It is inconceivable that even someone whose articulate and knowledgeable performance is already an embarrassing legend, would not bother to verify such an important matter before recklessly releasing it with apparently no regard for the consequences. I suppose his fundamental ignorance of the situation might be overlooked, but you would think that a state legislator might have some idea of the jurisdiction of his state adjutant general.

I hope the members of the highly-rated 49th will overlook this ill-timed and callous disregard for their morale as they prepare for important summer training. I also hope Winonans will realize how ineffective and misinformative in the state legislature. Most of all, I hope the voters of Winona will remember when the time comes, that "responsibility in government" is more than just a slogan, and that they are obviously not getting their share.

Robert C. Olson, Chairman
Winona County Republican Committee

thought maybe, if he were a professor himself, he might be able to answer the questions Morgenthau raised.

But Morgenthau didn't answer them and the little guy didn't know what to do because the questions were rattling around in his head, making an awful noise, keeping him awake.

If the United States, with all its bombing and ground fighting, couldn't force the Reds to think of peace, how could just holding a few strong points convince them?

And if the Reds, while the United States was holding a few strong points, took over all the rest of Viet Nam, which they would since there'd be nothing in their way, how could this country even justify holding the strong points?

Lynda Helps Unearth Ancient Arizona Skeleton

GRASSHOPPER, Ariz. (AP) — "Pretty Yellow Canary" has helped unearth a 700-year-old skeleton in remote eastern Arizona.

"Pretty Yellow Canary" is the Apache name bestowed on Lynda Bird Johnson, the President's 21-year-old daughter, last week.

"I wish I could say I found him," Miss Johnson said Tuesday of the skeleton, "but actually a kneebone was discovered late last year."

The archaeological-digging by Miss Johnson has been part of a two-week vacation study at the University of Arizona archaeological camp on the Fort Apache reservation.

Followed by newsmen and Secret Service agents, Miss Johnson rivaled one of her father's walking news conferences as she hiked about the 160-acre archaeological field site. She was dressed in jeans, a plaid shirt and rough boots.

It has been "a worthwhile experience," she said. "The work in some stages was very tedious and we had to be careful not to scratch or damage the bones."

Lynda Bird said she would like to do some more archaeological work sometime, but her summer schedule will take her away from the digging Thursday while other students remain for six more weeks.

WASHINGTON (AP) — With President Johnson as the top attraction, more than 8,000 Democrats are paying $100-a-plate tonight for a dinner to swell the party's campaign treasury.

Johnson, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and Democratic congressional leaders will shuttle from the National Guard Armory to the new Washington Hilton Hotel to address diners at both halls.

Proceeds are earmarked for 1966 Democratic congressional campaigns. Ticket sales have already grossed a record $800,000, officials said, topping the previous high of $640,000 for an affair of this type last May.

BUSINESS MIRROR

Big Government May Help a Lot

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Big government may prove a boon for the lone wolf businessman after all.

For years the entrepreneur, part of American folklore, has tended to look upon ever-bigger government as one of the threats to his way of operating. Now he is finding that big government is making available to him production techniques and methods of doing business and fruits of its research which only it can afford to undertake.

Big government and also big business, with which the entrepreneur long has been at odds, are now seeking to revive the qualities which traditionally made the organizer, the risk-taker, and the controller of the essentially one-man enterprise, a prime force in developing the American economy.

One practical result is that government agencies are now the source for expert advice on everything from accounting procedures for small business to quality control on the production line.

The entrepreneur is the exact opposite of the typical corporation executive, the organization man. The lone operator runs his business with a tight control of all its aspects.

A government study of the lone wolf businessman describes him as a man who has the will to control, the freedom to think independently and the ruthlessness to do what is expedient, regardless of past ties or loyalties. It cites his ability to project his own experience into new situations, in which criteria do not yet exist, and to create his own standards for acceptable levels of accomplishment.

For years government borrowed techniques from business, to some extent because it was becoming so involved in business itself. But now that government has pushed into many new fields, both large and small businesses are finding many of its activities directly applicable to their own.

The Polaris submarine is an example cited by Sylvan Gollin, in charge of Walter Dorwin Teague Associates' 20-year-old program of design and quality control development for the Navy's Bureau of Weapons.

He says that Polaris and other Navy projects have required research in all aspects of management to permit successful operation. Private organizations helped develop them. But by now the Navy has established standards and methods of control over production on its own, rather than depending on those of its suppliers.

Government Art Gallery Planned

WASHINGTON (AP) — The old U.S. Court of Claims building across from the White House will be renovated and turned into a government art gallery.

President Johnson Wednesday signed a document to transfer the 96-year-old building to the Smithsonian Institution.

The red sandstone landmark, which is next to Blair House, where distinguished foreign visitors stay, was the original home of the Corcoran Gallery of Art. The government took it over in 1901.

McCoy Getting Back to Normal After Big Show

CAMP MCCOY, Wis. (AP) — Things were somewhat back to normal for Wisconsin's 32nd National Guard Division after members were entertained Tuesday night by girls, musicians, comedians, and girls.

The occasion was "Red Arrow A-Go-Go," a show presented on the parade grounds by professional entertainers.

It was a whistling, foot-stamping success.

Beth Bartosh of Burlington, Alice in Dairyland, drew a laugh when she said, "I could tell when I got to Camp McCoy, I could see the swarms of mosquitoes overhead."

A troupe presented Maj. Gen. John A. Dunlap, the division's commanding officer, with a toy rifle with the barrel bent into the shape of a horseshoe.

"I think I'll give this to the Minnesota National Guard," he quipped.

The Pentagon has proposed that the 32nd be reduced to brigade status and be merged with the 47th Minnesota National Guard Division.

CHAMPION BULL... Russell Wirt of Lewiston shows the bull — Maple Leaf Lancer — which won the grand championship at the Southeast Minnesota Guernsey parish show at Lewiston.

Lewiston Farm Ranks High in Guernsey Show

LEWISTON, Minn. — A Lewiston farmer showed the junior, senior and grand champion bulls in the Southeast Minnesota Guernsey Parish show at Farmers Community Park Monday.

The grand champion bull was Elmer J. Wirt & Son's Maple Leaf Lancer, a 2-year-old entry.

In the female dairy division Dennis Wirt, Lewiston, topped the 4-H entries and also won junior champion of the show with Maple Leaf Thelma, a heifer calf out of Wirt's record breaking Theodora cow. E. J. Wirt & Son, Russell, also took senior and grand champion honors with a 2-year-old entry, Maple Leaf Birdie.

Olaf Kjome, Spring Grove, received reserve champion placing in the senior female competition with Valleyland Allie, a 3-year-old cow. Kjome also received first placing on senior get of sire and John R. Nahrgang, Lewiston, placed first on junior get of sire at the show, with Wacholz Bros., Stockton, placing second. Olaf Kjome, also placed first in produce of dam, with John R. Nahrgang placing second.

In the competition of three best females owned and bred by exhibitor Wirts' placed first, Kjome second, Wacholz third and Nahrgang fourth.

Other exhibitors at the show were Marilyn Ford, Winona, Rt. 1; Odean Goss & Sons, James & Robert; Duane Wirt and Roger Nahrgang, all of Lewiston, and Leon Henderson, Houston, Rt. 1.

In the dairy judging contest, with 50 competitors entered, Mrs. Oliver Strand, Lewiston, was high with 147 points out of a possible 150, to win in the women's division. Mrs. Chris Skaar, Hayward, Minn., placed second with 142 points and Mrs. James Klomp, Harmony, placed third with 139 points.

In the men's competition, Ben Laska, Winona, Rt. 3, placed first; V. C. Davis, Lewiston, and Elvin Paulson, Houston, tied for second, and Jack Miller, Lewiston, placed third with scores of 138, 133 and 130 respectively.

In the 4-H division, Dennis Wirt, placed first with 142, Carl Nahrgang second with 135 and Duane Wirt third with 132. The Winona 4-H team gained possession of the traveling silver cream pitcher trophy, with the Houston County team placing second and Fillmore team third. The Guernsey Breeders provided prizes for the winners in each division.

Chris Skaar, Hayward, was the judge and George Chambers, fieldman for the Guernsey Breeders Association, was in charge of activities.

Judging Team Named in Pepin

DURAND, Wis. (Special) — About 55 youngsters participated in a 4-H dairy judging event at the Bernard Milliren farm near Arkansas.

Selected to participate in the district judging event Tuesday at Neillsville were: Richard Wayne, Edward Richardson, Daniel Stafford and Steven Milliren, all in the junior division, and Jim Manore, Terry Hartung, David Prissel and Donald Anibas, senior division.

Armin Fruechte, sire analyst of Tri-State Breeders Co-op, was the official judge. Bernard Milliren, County Agent George Oneken, Howard Duros and Keith Wolfe helped coordinate the program.

Pepin Co. Delegates

DURAND, Wis. — Pepin County's 1965 Wisconsin State 4-H Club Week delegates were: Pat Hill, Pam Strand and Chuck Markman, Arkansas; Marge Bauer, Mary Ann Poeschel and David Prissel, Durand; Kathy Scott, Rock Falls, and Mrs. Warren Patnode, Arkansas, adult leader.

Over Million Trees Planted In Trempealeau

WHITEHALL, Wis. (Special) — Henry Anderson, Trempealeau County forester, announced that 1,040,750 trees have been planted in the county this spring.

The county extension office assisted by distributing 6,000 trees to 4-H members for forestry projects. Vocational agriculture instructors received 48,600 trees for planting by FFA members. The Soil Conservation Service assisted by providing technical assistance for establishing 15,000 trees in shelter belts to protect valuable cropland from wind erosion. Other trees were planted under the supervision of the forester, establishing 950 acres of forest plantations.

Trees were provided at cost by the Wisconsin Conservation Department. Nursery stock for the county was grown and shipped from Boscobel, Wis.

The county, said Anderson, is fortunate to have landowners with enough foresight to realize the importance of establishing a long term crop. Land not suited to cropping or pasturing is not being left to grow up into brush, but coniferous and hardwood trees are being planted instead.

The establishment of these plantations is to provide work and income to local people who are connected with three planting. Students gain a working experience in addition to planting a living tree. People visiting the county admire the foresight of farmers and others in the work they have done in beautifying their land, said Anderson.

At present, Trempealeau County is within shipping distance of two large pulp and paper mills. Sawmills are located throughout the county. As trees grow in size from the many plantations established, markets will be available for the forest products harvested.

Mastitis Control Methods Vary At Beginning

MADISON, Wis. — State mastitis control programs as well as many local milk sheds routinely run screening tests on milk to check herds and cows for mastitis.

These tests can detect mastitis before it becomes serious enough to show any swelling in the udder or flakes in the strip cup, said R. P. Natke, a University of Wisconsin dairy scientist, who spoke at the annual meeting of the American Dairy Science Association Wednesday at Lexington, Ky.

But what can the farmer, who is having trouble with high positive reactions to these screening tests, do to lower them? Natke said that test results vary greatly depending on the type and method of treating milking cows that show no obvious signs of mastitis.

When either a commercial antibiotic mixture or penicillin was injected directly into the udder, it caused a temporary increase in CMT (California Mastitis Test) and catalase reading and in leukocyte count. In other words, readings were higher for about seven days after treatment than they were before the cows were treated. Intramuscular injection of antibiotics, on the other hand, showed a reduction or little change in the test readings.

The screening tests showed that after seven days, the cows that were treated by injecting antibiotics directly into the udder had returned to about the same level they were at before treatment, while those treated with intramuscular penicillin continued to show improvement.

Recommendations for mastitis control still call for the use of good milking practices and proper sanitation as the major control procedures. Natke suggests that if treatment procedures are used on sub-clinical mastitis, along with other control measures, intramuscular injection would be preferred to injecting antibiotics directly into the udder.

Woman Wins Judging Prize at State Show

ST. CHARLES, Minn. — Mrs. Lowell Babcock, Utica, won the grand prize for being the champion judge at the annual Minnesota State Shorthorn Field Day Sunday at the Kaehler Brothers farm here. She had a score of 146 out of a possible 150 score.

Mr. Babcock tied for third place with Dale Blum, Correll, and Theodore Nickel, Mound Lake, placed second.

More than 200 registered for the event which started with a family style dinner at noon. In the afternoon, Robert Heine, Denver, Colo., demonstrated the classifying of a herd of Shorthorn cattle, explaining the qualities necessary to win an A, double-A or three-A rating.

A Kaehler herd bull rated 88 points, only two points short of a three-A rating. There are only two three-A bulls in the United States.

Three classes of cattle were judged during the afternoon with prizes awarded for adults and juniors. An auction was held for the benefit of the Shorthorn Ladies organization and a Junior Shorthorn Association for Minnesota was formed and officers elected.

Elected were: James Perry, Appleton, president; Carol Stieler, Albert Lea, vice president, and Frank Kaehler, St. Charles, secretary-treasurer.

Top junior cattle judges were Wayne Bollun, Albert Lea, and Gail Perry, Appleton. Heine was the official judge. Dick Drewry, St. Charles, was in charge of the judging contest, assisted by County Agent Oliver Strand and Max Pattison, Dexter.

Party Food Freezing Suggested

WABASHA, Minn. — Weddings and special parties during summer pose the problem of hurried last-minute preparation — a problem which can be solved by freezing many foods ahead of time.

Mrs. Shirley Munson, in charge of the University of Minnesota's food processing laboratory, says fancy sandwiches, cookies, cake-type bars and ice cream balls may be prepared in advance and frozen.

She cautions, however, against freezing main dish salads. Some of the ingredients, like celery, are not adapted to freezing and the dressing may separate. Frozen gelatin salads are not the most desirable product because gelatin has a tendency to weep.

HERE ARE MRS. Munson's suggestions on freezing special occasion foods. To freeze sandwiches, spread the bread well with butter so the filling does not soak into the bread, working quickly so the bread will not dry out. Pinwheel sandwiches with olives freeze well, but do not slice them before freezing. It is best not to frost a sandwich loaf before freezing.

Tuna fish salad and chopped ham sandwiches will freeze satisfactorily, but keep the dressing to a minimum to prevent weeping. Egg salad sandwiches will not freeze well unless the hard-boiled egg is put through a food grinder. Freezing makes the egg white rubbery and the yolk hard.

Package all sandwiches of one kind together. Avoid mixing several kinds in one package because flavors transfer. Line shallow boxes with foil, put the cover on and overwrap with foil or a saran-type film. Package open-face sandwiches one layer deep.

MOST COOKIES and bars freeze well, but it is better not to frost them. Frosting does not keep well. Petit fours have a short storage life because the frosting has a tendency to dry out. Be sure to use good packaging materials and store only a short time. Cream puffs and eclairs freeze satisfactorily, but they should be frozen without the filling.

To make ice cream easy to serve, scoop it into balls in advance and freeze in muffin tins, cup cake liners or cardboard dish cups. Persons may wish to roll the balls in coconut and freeze on a tray or cookie sheet a day or two in advance of using.

Buffalo Co. Fair Books Available

ALMA, Wis. — George Jackson, president of the Buffalo County Fair Association, announced that premium books are available at the county extension office for fair officers and directors and for those wishing to make entries in the county fair which will be held at Mondovi July 15-18.

Entries can be made at the county extension office from July 6-9 with the fair clerk.

Corn Behind In Two States

The Minnesota Department of Agriculture reports that about 45 percent of the corn acreage has been cultivated once by this time. A year ago most of the corn acreage had been cultivated once by this time.

The Wisconsin Department of Agriculture reports that there is no need to look for knee-high corn on July 4.

Many farmer-reporters in MINNESOTA said last week was quite favorable for field work and crop growth. Rain was needed by last Saturday to replenish the short supply, especially on compacted soils in the southeast, the northwest, and some local areas over the state. A few reports of subsoil moisture shortages were reported in the Southeast, which may have been corrected by this week's rains.

Planting of late corn was about completed in most southern counties as more of the fields were drying enough to permit working and planting.

In a few local areas corn planting was still delayed by wet spots or low fields, but for the state less than 4 percent of the corn acreage was left to be planted by last Saturday. Included in this is about one-fifth of the rather small acreage usually planted in the Red River Valley.

This past week's exceptional haying weather in WISCONSIN kept mowers and balers rolling from sun-up to sun-down over much of the state, according to farm reporters and county agents. Perhaps a fourth of the first crop has now been cut for either barn or silo; a year ago half had been cut by this time. Most of this activity has been in the southern half of the state. The southeast has taken off about 50 percent of their first cutting; the northeast, where coolness has slowed growth, has hardly started.

Elsewhere from 10-20 percent has been mowed. Few regard yields as more than average at best. In many cases fields were hayed a bit early to encourage a better second crop.

Not uncommonly through the south a poor crop has been taken from partially winter-killed fields before plowing them up for sudan-sorghum emergency forage or for extra

Tips for Gardeners

WABASHA, Minn. — Some garden tips are suggested by Matt Metz, Wabasha County agricultural agent.

If pea vines are lying on the ground, they can easily be supported by placing long twigs or pieces of brush along the row. Strings stretched between stakes also may be helpful.

Remove blossoms from rhubarb as they cause a heavy drain of nutrients from the plant. Continue to cultivate in a shallow manner to remove weeds. Deep hoeing not only brings more weed seeds to the surface but often cuts off roots of the garden plants.

Stop cutting asparagus late this month to allow ample growth for good production again next spring.

Proper watering will help keep flowering plants in bloom. Sporadic watering causes flowers to wilt sooner. On most soils, it is necessary to supplement the natural rainfall so there is a total of one to two inches of moisture per week.

Testing Gains In Wabasha Co.

WABASHA, Minn. — Cows in the Wabasha County Dairy Herd Improvement Association produced a total of 38,988,397 pounds of milk in 1965 compared with 33,156,775 in 1964, as reported at the annual DHIA meeting Monday evening. Cows tested increased from 3,471 to 4,037.

Other statistics reported: Total pounds of butterfat in 1965 were 1,422,683 compared with 1,215,151 in 1964; average cows per herd, 33.8 and 32.2; average pounds of milk per cow, 11,822 and 11,339; average feed per cow, $167.72 and $147.66; average return over feed cost per cow $238.98 and $240.72, and total number of cows tested, 4,037 and 3,471.

Producing 200 to 300 pounds of butterfat in the DHIA program in 1965 were two herds compared with 5 in 1964: 300 to 400, 22 and 22; 400 to 500, 56 and 46; and 500 to 600, 14 and 12.

Plans Mapped For New 4-H Market Show

ST. PAUL, Minn. — A state 4-H market livestock show will be held Sept. 27-29 on the Minnesota State Fair grounds. It is a successor to the annual 4-H junior livestock show in South St. Paul.

The show will support the production of quality market livestock by 4-H'ers in tune with today's market needs and consumer demands, said Leonard Harkness, state 4-H club leader at the University of Minnesota.

The Minnesota Livestock Breeders Association will be sponsor. Cash awards will range from $200 to $300 for breed champions. Blue and red ribbon winners will receive cash awards based on animal species and the live animal placing.

Awards are planned for carcass quality in addition to those provided for live animal placings.

Size of the show is expected to remain the same, excluding the quota on lamb trials and increasing the quota on swine.

A new show arena, with additional animal washing facilities, is under construction. Seating will be provided for 1,500. An assembly emphasizing animal evaluation will be held Sept. 27, and a banquet Sept. 28. Later in the week at South St. Paul a program will focus on the marketing and processing of livestock.

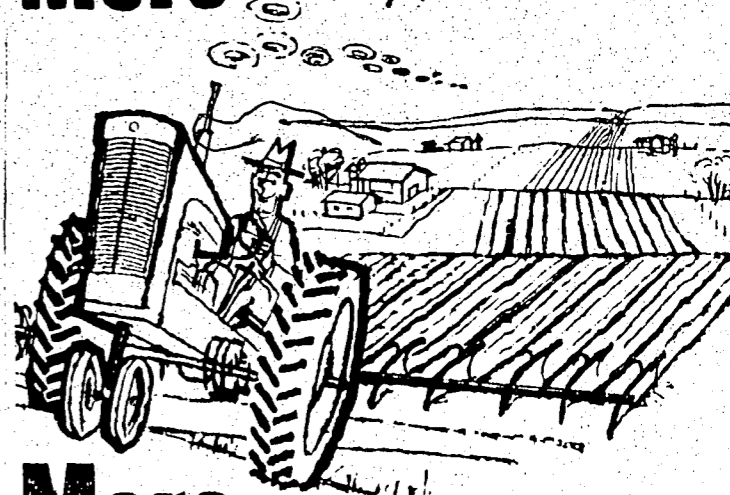

Plans have begun for the market show to be incorporated with the State Fair in 1966.

University Stations Slate Field Days

WASECA, Minn. — Visitors' days have been scheduled for the six branch experiment stations of the University of Minnesota during June and July.

Events will be: Agricultural Experiment Station, Rosemount, Tuesday, and Southern School and Experiment Station, Waseca, July 7. Continuous tours of research and facilities at Waseca will be from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Houston Co. Plots Check Weed Control

HOUSTON, Minn. — Weed control plots are located on four farms in Houston County, according to Harlie Larson, Houston County extension soils agent.

Herbicide plots on corn have been set up on the Dale Horn farm, 1 1/2 miles north of Eitzen on Highway 76. These will be visited on the farm family tour. The other herbicide plots on corn are located on the Allen Redding farm, Highway 76, one mile east of here. Plots are one quarter of a mile east of the farmstead and the plot drive-in is off of Highway 16.

Rates of actual amounts per acre, broadcast, follow the kinds of herbicides applied on corn: Atrazine, post-emergence, 3 pounds; Atrazine and Prometryne, 1 1/2 pounds plus 1 1/2 pounds; Atrazine pre-emergence, 3 pounds; Atrazine plus Linuron (Lorox) 1 1/2 pounds plus 1 1/2 pounds; Check, granular Ramrod, 5 pounds; granular Ramrod, 5 pounds; granular wettable powder, 5 pounds; granular Ramrod T, 10 1/2 pounds; Amiben, 2 pounds; and K'n-o-weed, 42 (Eptam-21 pounds; 2-4-D, 1 pound).

The plots are the same on both farms.

A soybean field with herbicide plots is on the Art W. Peterson farm, Sheldon Valley. Plots are on the east side of the highway.

Herbicides and rates of actual amounts per acre are as follows: Ramrod wettable powder, 5 pounds; granular Ramrod, 5 pounds; granular Ramrod, 5 pounds; Amiben, 2 pounds; R-1607 (Vernam) 3 pounds; and Trifluralin (Treflan), 1 pound.

Multiple plots of various combinations on corn are on the Hempstead and Sons farm, 1 1/2 miles west of Houston, south of Highway 16 across from the farmstead. This includes herbicide, insecticide and fertilizer in single and various combinations and also heavy plant population in the area.

Zinc side dressing is located on the Robert Anderson farm, 2 1/2 miles west of Houston.

These plots are in cooperation with farm owners, operators, the state extension service and the Houston County Extension Service.

Root River SCS Lays Out More Contour Strips

CALEDONIA, Minn. — Contour strips remain high on the list of conservation practices used by farmers in the Root River Soil and Water Conservation District.

Harold Dineen, work unit conservationist, said about 700 acres of contour strips were laid out during the spring of 1965.

Contour strips do a wonderful job of controlling erosion and holding water on the slope, said Dineen. With this method of farming, incomes can be increased by the rate of at least $5 an acre. Along with higher incomes, farming on the contour is easier on equipment.

This year many contour strips were plowed out because of the seeding failure. The Soil Conservation Service can assist in relaying these strips back to their proper condition in the late summer or fall.

Regional Dairy Festival Begins Friday at Preston

PRESTON, Minn. — A new Region 10 Southeast Minnesota Dairy Princess will be crowned here Saturday as the highlight of the two-day regional dairy festival in which eight counties will participate.

Activities will begin Friday afternoon with a buttered pig chase in the courthouse square and contests conducted by the Boy Scouts. There will be a pony pulling contest, a teen-age dance and a gigantic fireworks display in the evening. Music for the dance will be provided by the Asteroids, Rochester. The carnival, which will consist of 12 rides, 4 shows and 25 concessions, will be in operation.

TWENTY-FOUR dairy farm girls competing for the American Dairy Association Region 10 dairy princess title and crown will attend a Saturday noon luncheon along with the judges in the dining hall of St. Columban's Church.

The dairy princess candidates will participate in the Dairy Day Parade which begins at 1:30 p.m. They also will attend the traditional Dairy Day banquet in the dining hall of Christ Lutheran Church at 6:30 and the coronation ball in the high school auditorium at 9. Music will be furnished by the Lee Hall Orchestra. The queen will be crowned at 10 and cash prizes totaling $400 will be awarded at 11.

During the celebration, the Preston United Methodist Church women will sell lunches at their church parlors and on Saturday the Preston Methodist and Catholic women will give free sack lunches to members of bands taking part in the parade.

Cooperating in this year's Region 10 Dairy Day are the Boosters Club, Town and Country Club and Lions Club, all of Preston, all other local organizations, the dairies and creameries of the area, the American Dairy Association of Minnesota and business interests of the eight-county region.

Among those competing for regional princess:

The FILLMORE COUNTY Dairy Princess Sharon Scabeck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burdette Scabeck, Preston, and her attendants, Linda Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Thompson, Lanesboro, and Linda Kuehnast, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kuehnast, Preston.

Beef Testing Plan Offered In Minnesota

LEWISTON, Minn. — Minnesota's beef cattle breeders have an opportunity to participate in a beef testing program, a new educational offering of the University of Minnesota Agricultural Extension Service, according to Oliver Strand, Winona County agent.

The program is being initiated this spring and summer for both purebred and commercial breeders. Purposes are to help co-operators to:

- Identify superior cows and bulls that produce heavier and higher grading calves.
- Supply themselves with a stock of known background and proven gaining ability, efficiency, and carcass merit.
- Produce an end product acceptable to the consumer.

Breeders wishing to participate may do so through their county extension agents. The program is conducted, roughly as follows: First, cows, and calves. After that, about 205 days of age, calves are weighed and graded.

At about a year of age, the yearling weights and grades are recorded. Some of the progeny, usually steers, are fed out and the carcass data are collected. Selection of calves and culling of cows is done at each point. The carcass data helps primarily in progeny tests of sires. Thus, the sires that do best are the ones from which replacement heifers are selected.

The program is explained in detail in Extension Pamphlet 208 from the university. "More, Heavier, Meatier, Calves, through Beef Testing," County extension agents have copies.

Ayrshire's Record

ST. CHARLES, Minn. — In the herd of Alvin R. Nisbit and Sons, St. Charles, a junior 3-year-old registered Ayrshire cow named Glenmoor Charming Betty has completed an official milk production record of 13,070 pounds, with 504 pounds of butterfat on twice daily milking. It is equal to more than 19 quarts of milk per day for the 10-month-test period and is 1 1/4 times the national average for all dairy cows.

Two-State Hog Crop Down From Year Ago

Minnesota's 1965 spring (December-May) pig crop was 14 percent less than for the same period of time a year ago, according to the Crop and Livestock Reporting Service of Minnesota and the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

All hogs and pigs on farms in Wisconsin as of June 1, 1965, were down 16 percent from June 1, 1964, according to the Wisconsin Statistical Reporting Service.

The pig crop in MINNESOTA totaled 2,898,000 head, compared with 3,380,000 head last year. The number of sows farrowing during the period was 395,000 head, also down 14 percent from a year earlier. The average number of pigs per litter at 7.34 was slightly less than the 7.40 in 1964. Within the spring farrowing period, December-February, pigs totaled 1,008,000 head, a 6 percent decrease from the previous year. March-May pigs saved at 1,890,000 head were 13 percent below the same period in 1964.

The state's hog producers on June 1 intended to farrow 366,000 sows during the fall period (June-November) or 12 percent less than the 348,000 farrowed a year ago. For the next three months (June-August) the number of sows farrowing is expected to total 166,000 head, down 16 percent from the same period in 1964.

Intentions for the September-November period indicate 140,000 sows, a decrease of only 7 percent from a year ago and probably reflects the effect of the higher prices now being received by farmers for market hogs.

The number of all hogs on Minnesota farms on June 1 at 3,195,000 head is down 18 percent from a year earlier, as a result of the reduced spring pig crop, and present strong market demand for butcher hogs.

The hogs and pigs on WISCONSIN totaled 1,630,000. Of this number, 285,000 are being kept for breeding and 1,345,000 other hogs are being raised primarily for slaughter.

March-May farrowing produced 1,023,900 pigs. The number of sows farrowing at 139,000 head are down 17 percent from a year earlier. Litters averaged 7.36 pigs in the March-May quarter. Farmers indicate that 109,000 sows will farrow between June 1 and August 31, 1965. If these intentions are followed, 8 percent fewer sows will farrow than in the same quarter of 1964. Farmers intend to have 92,000 sows farrowing in the September-November period, down 8 percent from the comparable period last year.

Drought Feed Plan Ending In Winona Co.

LEWISTON, Minn. — No further applications are being accepted in Winona County to purchase CCC grain as emergency feed under the livestock feed program, according to John F. Papenfuss, chairman, Winona ASC County Committee.

The chairman says the program, started because of the feed shortage in Winona County is nearing its close. Requests for another month's extension of the program in the county has been turned down in Washington. As a result, the only amounts which can be approved are for the few days remaining in June. Generally, these amounts would be too small to be practical for the farmer to go through the procedures to get the corn, Papenfuss said.

The program ends June 30. Papenfuss said the program has proved to be of great benefit to the county farmers in the emergency resulting from the 1964 drought. Sales have completely removed all reserve stocks owned by the Commodity Credit Corporation in the county, including corn and oats stored in warehouses as well as government owned bins. During recent weeks, CCC grain has been shipped in by rail to meet the demand, and corn has been sold to county farmers from stocks in Wabasha, Olmsted and Houston counties.

Agriculture Called A Growth Industry

ST. PAUL, Minn. — Although the United States is becoming less and less an agricultural society, there's still no question as to which is the nation's No. 1 industry. It's agriculture — and by a wide margin.

Despite the steadily declining number of farm workers — estimated now at about 6 1/2 million — agriculture still employs more people than, for example, the steel and automobile, transportation and public utilities industries combined.

These and other points were highlighted here Wednesday night by R. B. Toole, governor, Farm Credit Administration, in depicting today's agriculture as "a growth industry." He was here to address a conference of officials of the Federal Land Bank of St. Paul and 81 affiliated land bank associations in the 4-state (Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota and North Dakota) area.

Agriculture today represents a paradox, which helps explain the many misconceptions of it held by the general public. On one hand the number of farms and farmers keeps declining each year. Even so, as Governor Toole explains it, "Agriculture is a growth industry, with output increasing at a rate of some 20 percent per decade."

'Never Again,' Clark Said After Korean War

By ROBERT EUNSON

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — "If we ever get this blankety-blank war over, the United States will never get involved in another blankety-blank war like it again."

Those words were spoken off the record by Gen. Mark W. Clark as the fighting in Korea drew to an end. Inasmuch as Clark is retired from public life and there is no security involved, his remark is worth repeating now because of its irony.

River Drops Fast; More Rain on Friday

A promise that river stages in the Winona district may be back somewhere near normal midsummer levels was contained in the Weather Bureau's predictions today for the river stage here for the next several days.

The stage here today was 8.4, down .3 of a foot since Wednesday, and slated to drop to:

Friday	7.6
Saturday	7.2
Sunday	6.9

These readings, if realized, will be the lowest since the beginning of the spring flood rise early in April to 20.75 feet April 20.

FISHING: boating and summer river activities in general have been handicapped by the high water and river enthusiasts hailed the predictions today as promising near-normal conditions for the 4th of July weekend.

The Weather Bureau coupled the prediction of lower water with the condition that the forecast could be obliterated if unusually heavy rainfall occurs in the Upper Mississippi River basin.

Stages in the main channel from Red Wing to La Crosse today were up to .4 of a foot under Wednesday readings.

Mostly fair is the prediction for Winona and vicinity tonight with a low in the 50s. Friday will be increasingly cloudy with scattered showers and thunderstorms, said the prediction. A high of near 85 is expected.

Saturday is slated to be mild with showers and thunderstorms likely.

THE TEMPERATURE in Winona rose to a pleasant 77 Wednesday afternoon; dropped to 52 overnight and was 73 at noon today.

A year ago today the high was 79 and the low 58. All-time high was 97 in 1874 and the low 41 in 1887. Mean for the past 24 hours was 64. Normal for this time of the year is 71.

Minnesota temperatures dropped as low as 40 at Duluth and International Falls this morning as fair weather prevailed across the state. Rochester had a low of 50 after a Wednesday high of 73 and La Crosse posted figures of 52 and 77 for the same times.

WISCONSIN also returned to sunny skies today but the temperature wasn't expected to exceed the 70s.

Racine had the high of 88 degrees in the state Wednesday. Low temperatures this morning ranged from 44 degrees in the Superior area to 54 at Rockford-Beloit.

The nation's high Wednesday was 105 at Presidio, Texas, and the low this morning was 40 at International Falls, Minn.

Will Contains Provision for Mourners' Gas

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP) — When J. Raymond Bryden, 86, wrote his will, he arranged for flowers to be placed on his grave twice a year and for the mourners at his funeral to receive a tank of gasoline for their autos and a "substantial meal."

Bryden, a retired hotel owner, who lived at the Hamilton Convalescent Home in his last years, died May 27, and was buried a few days later at Dunmore, Pa.

His will, recently filed for probate, showed he left an estate of about $70,000.

"Oh, yes, Mr. Bryden," said a spokesman at the Hamilton home, "He was a wonderful man and we all miss him."

"He was a bachelor and a little set in his ways and was very serious most of the time, but he could always make a joke when he wanted to make a point."

Two cousins were listed as the closest relatives.

The will left five shares of stock in the Girard Trust Co. to the Dunmore Cemetery Association for a fund for investment.

From the proceeds a pot of geraniums is to be placed on his grave every Memorial Day and a wreath on Christmas Day.

A spokesman at Merchants National Bank of Allentown, the executor, said the request for gasoline and a meal for his mourners was not too unusual.

"He had no close family, and at 85 he had outlived most of his friends."

"He felt that if anyone wanted to attend his funeral it should not be an expense to them."

The spokesman said one of the cousins, who visited Bryden from time to time, came from New Jersey.

And how many other mourners were there?

"I'd say there was less than a car load," said the spokesman.

American troops from Japan reached Korea five days after the fighting started, but couldn't stem the tide. By midsummer, Gen. MacArthur's U.N. Command was squeezed into a narrow area far to the south which became known as the Pusan perimeter.

Gen. MacArthur broke out of the Pusan perimeter on Sept. 15, 1950 in one of the boldest maneuvers of his career. The 1st Marine and 7th Infantry divisions were landed at Inchon, far up the neck of the Korean peninsula, while the 1st Cavalry came barging out across the plains for Taegu, Taejon and on up through the mountain passes to slam the back door on Seoul.

The whole North Korean army was finished, leaving the 38th Parallel undefended for a mad dash to Pyongyang and the Yalu. The threat to Manchuria, in November 1951, brought the Chinese into the fighting and the United States and the Republic of Korea had a new war on their hands.

The demilitarized zone, which divides North and South Korea, starts along the Han River estuary, on the western coast, then turns north to a spot 15 miles south of Kaesong, then east, then north again to about 15 miles north of Chonwon, once the site of bloody fighting, east again to a spot north of the Hwachon Reservoir, then northeast to a point on the Japan Sea slightly south of Kosong.

4th of July Picnic Slated At La Crescent

LA CRESCENT, Minn. (Special)—Good old family fun will be stressed by the La Crescent fire department's annual 4th of July picnic at Village Park.

Chief Robert Kies, chairman of the event, said it is held to keep residents off the highway during the holiday and provide family and community entertainment.

Letters will be sent to all residents listed in the telephone book inviting them to the picnic. Included in the letter will be a sticker with the department's number to call in case of fire and other relevant information. Persons receiving them are asked to place them near their telephones.

The stickers have been purchased by the department with funds received from past picnics and firemen's balls. Kies

Mourning Dove Count
Dr. W. E. Green, biologist of the Wild Life Refuge, and co-operating game agents and wardens in Minnesota and Wisconsin, have just completed a count of the mourning doves in their assigned territory. This is as important to the southern dove shooter as reports from Canada are to the local duck hunter.

Mourning Dove

Most residents of Minnesota and Wisconsin, part of the vast mourning dove production area, don't realize that the mourning dove in the United States is top migratory game bird. More of them are killed by hunters than any other bird. It is a legal game bird in 30 of the 50 states. In the South the opening of the dove season is a holiday event.

Since it is a migratory bird, its management, like waterfowl, is in the hands of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service which sets seasons and bird limits. It also conducts the cooperative dove counts annually.

The mechanics of the count have been worked out in great detail. Survey routes measured 20 miles in length and were run from one-half hour before sunrise to two hours after sunrise. Each route is normally run once a year. At each one mile interval, the number of dove calls heard during a three minute listening period are counted. Studies have shown that the number of calls heard is in proportion to the number of doves present.

The number of doves seen by the observer as he travels between listening points is also counted. The call count, together with the tally of birds actually seen, provides an index to the size of the breeding population. Comparisons of data with that for the same transects during the past years reflect changes in the breeding population.

In 1964, for example, the survey indicated that the dove breeding population in the Eastern Management Unit, in which Wisconsin is located, was up 7.4 percent. For the United States as a whole, the 1964 breeding population was 7.9 percent above the 1963 index, and 2.7 higher than the 10-year average.

Ike's National Convention
The national Izaak Walton League convention has just ended at Cody, Wyo. The Winona chapter of the league was well represented there. Here are a summary of the resolutions acted upon.

One of the most unusual resolutions ever presented to the Izaak Walton League was adopted by delegates to that organization's 43rd annual meeting in Cody, Wyo., June 19.

This resolution proposes a new and unique method of controlling air pollution. It calls attention to the failure of present methods of control and proposes that because of the competitive nature of the American economic system the federal government should establish as one of its tools for preventing pollution of the air, a nationwide tonnage fine on aerially dumped wastes — "an action which would bring air pollution prevention into the market place."

Other resolutions adopted call for an accurate reporting of "smoke" as "smoke," not as "haze" by the U.S. Weather Bureau; an extension of the legislation preserving "wild rivers" to include those streams that might not qualify as wild rivers but should be preserved as units of a national scenic rivers system; and a call for immediate steps to alleviate the Everglades fresh water problem to protect fresh water sources for Everglades National Park.

A move to reduce the bottleneck in pheasant production is contained in a resolution asking for earlier and heavier seeding of cover crops on federal feed grain program diverted acres and that mowing and plowing of such lands be delayed until after a date determined jointly by federal and each state's wildlife agency.

Firemen at Caledonia Take Advanced Course

CALEDONIA, Minn. (Special)—The entire personnel of the Caledonia volunteer fire department has completed an advanced course in fire fighting. It consisted of four sessions of three hours each on Monday nights. Caledonia equipment was used.

C. L. Keiper, Winona, fireman of many years' experience and associated with the state fire marshal's office in fire fighting instruction at fire schools, was the instructor.

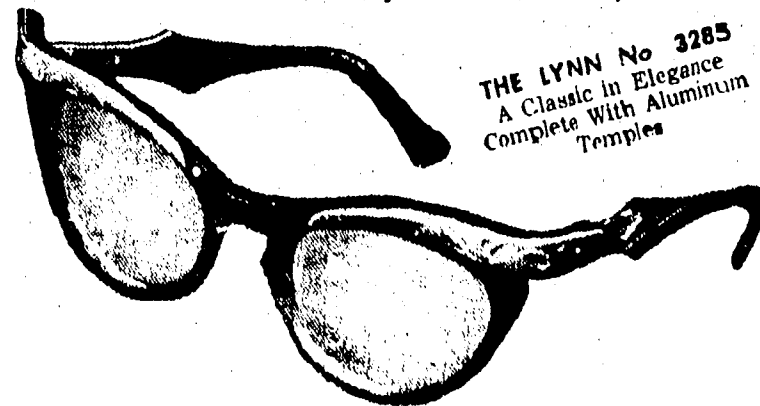

George Albert, Caledonia chief, attended a state school of instruction for fire chiefs and a meeting of the state Fire Chiefs Association in the Twin Cities, sponsored by the University of Minnesota school of agriculture.

LeJetz Lace One Hit, But Beat Houston 2-1

By DAVE HARRIS

Chalk up another one-hit pitching performance for Houston's Bob Bremseth.

The ace Legion southpaw yielded only one hit Wednesday night at Gabrych Park a single by opposing LeJetz pitcher Tony Kreuzer in the second inning.

It was Bremseth's third one-hitter this season. He also has hurled two no-hitters.

On that basis, things looked bad for Coach Bill Alaire's LeJetz and their undefeated season.

Or did they?

Despite Bremseth's superb pitching, he lost the game.

Final score was LeJetz 2, Houston 1.

Both LeJetz runs scored on Kreuzer's single through the middle. Both LeJetz runs were unearned.

With one out in the second, LeJetz center fielder Todd Spencer walked and stole second. After shortstop R. D. Boschulte drew a walk, each runner advanced on a double steal and scored on Kreuzer's hit.

Bremseth whiffed the side in the inning on his way to a nine-strikeout performance. The six walks he allowed proved his undoing. He also committed one error on a bad throw to first on a tap grounder by Boschulte in the sixth.

Houston came right back in the third to score on a single and stolen base by Ed Littlejohn, a walk issued to Bremseth and another single by Bremseth's brother, Dave.

LeJetz left fielder Loren Benz was charged with two errors on Dave Bremseth's hit when he bobbled the ball in attempting to pick it up and then threw badly to second as Bremseth dashed for the bag.

Houston nearly tied the score in the seventh after Kreuzer hit Joe Botcher on the arm with a pitch, with one man out.

In a confused rundown play, the next batter, Bruce Carrier, tapped a grounder toward first baseman Gary Addington and beat the play for a hit. Botcher, rounding second too quickly, was put out at third by LeJetz captain John Nett Jr. Carrier was out trying to go to second.

Kreuzer allowed Houston only three hits, struck out eight and walked three. The LeJetz committed three errors.

The narrow win left the LeJetz with a 3-0 Tri-State Legion League record. They are 5-0 overall.

The LeJetz travel to Austin Saturday for a double-header. The Small-Post team also will play at Austin.

A league game scheduled for Sunday with Westby was postponed by Westby Wednesday. The Westby manager claimed his team had a game scheduled for Monday with Bangor and would not be able to play both games. This morning a non-league home game with La Crosse was arranged for Sunday.

Hoffman Will Pose Problem For Athletics

By GARY EVANS

Daily News Sports Editor

ALBERT LEA, Minn.—Myron Hoffman is a weatherbeaten veteran of a lengthy career in both Southern Minnesota Baseball Leagues (with pay and without pay).

For more seasons than one can count on the fingers of both hands (and you can throw in a couple toes, too), he has been sauntering to the mound, stooped just a bit and with a slap-step shuffle.

BUT RIGHT there all sign of Hoffman's age (some claim he is in the "twilight 30" bracket) disappears. His sinewy right arm recoils with the deadliness of a rattlesnake as he works through his repertoire of fastballs, curves and off-speed pitches.

He is talented by trade and craftily by necessity, deadly by determination and the major reason Winona's Athletics may

ON TYPICAL TORRID STREAK

Mays Zooms to .346, Raps 475th Homer

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

"I can't feel a streak coming on. And I don't know I'm on one until I see those hits fall in and that average go up."

That's what Willie Mays says. Well, check the figures, Willie. You're on another one of your streaks. And this one has lifted you even with Stan Musial.

Mays sparked the San Francisco Giants to a 6-1 victory over Pittsburgh Wednesday with a home run — the 475th of his career, tying Musial at second place on the all-time National League list.

Mel Ott's 511 tops that list and there's little doubt that he eventually will be supplanted by Mays, now 34 and a Giant since 1951.

Willie added a single to his homer against the Pirates, making him 10-for-15 in his last four games and zooming his average 22 points to .346, first in the league. His season homer total of 22 leads the majors.

Also in the NL — Cincinnati whipped St. Louis 6-2 behind Jim Maloney's pitching and some hefty hitting, and Milwaukee beat Chicago 6-2 as Wade Blasingame pitched a four-hitter and Cub right-hander Larry Jackson suffered another setback. The other clubs were idle.

Mays tagged Bob Veale for his homer in the second inning, then the Giants added a run in the fourth and finally chased the prize Pirate left-hander in the fourth seventh — helped by Donn Clendenon's two costly errors.

Ron Herbel was the winning pitcher with five shutout innings after taking over in the third for Jack Sanford, who went out with a pulled groin muscle.

Maloney, who pitched 10 no-hit innings in that celebrated loss to the New York Mets last week, set down the first 14 Cardinals in order and finished with a six-hitter. Frank Robinson tripled and doubled and scored three Cincinnati runs. Deron Johnson added three hits and Vacka Pinson homered. Curt Simmons was the loser.

Rose's Shutout Paces Schmidt's

In Goodview Major League baseball, Schmidt's Beer defeated Merchant's Bank 10-0. Don Rose threw the six-hit shutout.

He also contributed to the winners' attack with three singles and Tim Curran rapped two safeties. Bernie Beeman collected two singles for the losers and Kwo-ek a triple.

Grant Goes Back to, Beats Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — Jim Grant, who won three games in the Cleveland Indians' 10-game winning streak in 1961, was instrumental in ending their latest streak.

Grant, now a pitcher for the Minnesota Twins, hurled the American League-leading Twins to a 6-3 victory over the Indians Wednesday night with ninth-inning relief help from Dick Stigman, another ex-Indian. The Indians were trying for their 11th straight triumph.

Home runs by Bob Allison, Sandy Valdespino and Jimmie Hall accounted for all the Minnesota runs. Two of them were charged to Floyd Weaver, the second of five pitchers to follow starter Sonny Siebert.

Siebert left with two out in the third inning when he developed a stiffness in his right shoulder. The Indians were more concerned about Siebert's shoulder than they were about having their winning streak broken when they gathered in the clubhouse after the game.

"It was bothering him only on breaking pitches," explained Manager Birdie Tebbetts. "I couldn't take any chances."

"I don't believe it's serious, but we'll just have to wait and see how he feels tomorrow."

Grant had limited Cleveland to five hits before Stigman came on in the ninth with two men on base and only one out. Pinch hitter Joe Azcue grounded into a double play to end the game.

The victory brought Grant's record to 7-2. During one stretch he retired 14 of 16 batters, with a walk and an error on a grounder marring the performance.

Allison put the Twins ahead to stay with his three-run pinch-hit homer in the fourth.

Valdespino's blast into the lower right field seats in the fifth followed a single to Grant. Hall's homer leading off in the second gave the Twins a 1-0 lead, but the Indians tied it in

CASSIUS WANTS OUT

Sonji's Turn To Fight Now

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Cassius Clay wants his 10-month marriage ended and his wife doesn't, so the heavyweight champion apparently has another fight on his hands, this one in court.

"I just love my husband and I want to be with him," said pretty, 25-year-old Sonji Clay when she was told that Clay had accused her of failing to be a good Muslim wife. "I will fight to keep my husband."

"It's just this religion, I have tried to accept it, and I have explained this to him, but I just don't understand it. It's very hard to change to the way they want me to be."

The 23-year-old champion, who has been a Muslim since he won the Olympic title in 1960, filed suit for an annulment in a Miami court Wednesday, complaining that Sonji had reneged on a promise to convert to Clay's Muslim faith.

He also said she did not follow Muslim dictates against the use of whisky, tobacco and facial makeup and Muslim requirements that "all female adherents cover their bodies with floor length dresses of plain and simple design."

"We've always had our little arguments about clothes," Sonji said in Chicago where she is staying at the home of her godmother. But she said she had done her best to respect the faith and its strictures.

According to the suit, the marriage began to break up the day after Clay defended his title against Sonny Liston, May 25 in Lewiston, Maine.

The next day Clay found Sonji in the lobby of the Schine Inn at Chicopee, Mass., "both attired and conducting herself in a manner contrary to tenets and beliefs of the Islamic faith," the suit said.

They had an argument and

PETERS, PIZARRO ON LONG SLIDE DOWN

P and P Pitching Partners Pitiful, Pounded, Punished

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Juan Pizarro still is a step behind Gary Peters.

The P and P pitching partners were the toast of Chicago last year as Peters won 20 games and Pizarro 19.

And Peters still is out front. He's only been relegated to the bullpen. Pizarro's been relegated to the sidelines.

Both of Manager Al Lopez' problems were in action

Wednesday night, Peters making a rare appearance as a reliever and Pizarro making one of his infrequent starts, as the White Sox split a doubleheader with Washington, losing the opener 5-1 before taking the nightcap 5-0.

Pizarro, who posted a 19-9 record with a 2.56 earned run average last season, made only his seventh start of the season in the opener and made his seventh quick exit, leaving in the second inning after surrendering three hits and two runs.

The 28-year-old left-hander has a pitiful 1-2 record and a horrendous 7.20 ERA.

Peters, who compiled a 20-8 record with a 2.50 ERA in 1964, came out of the bullpen for the first time this season in the eighth inning of the nightcap, pitched to and retired one batter, and then sat down while Eddie Fisher pitched the ninth.

Like Pizarro a 28-year-old southpaw, Peters' difficulties have been similar to his partner's. Peters has a 5-5 record but has been able to complete only one of 14 starts and has a lousy 4.00 ERA.

"If Pizarro and Peters had pitched so far as they did last year," Lopez said, "we'd be five or six games up from where we are now."

As it is the White Sox are just one game in back of the front-running Minnesota Twins, who rode three homers to a 6-3 victory over Cleveland that ended the Indians' winning streak at 10.

Elsewhere, Detroit blanked the Los Angeles Angels behind Hank Aguirre's four-hit pitching, Baltimore downed Boston 6-4 and the New York Yankees walloped Kansas City 8-3.

Doug Caillat proved Pizarro's undoing in the opener, driving in two runs in the second with a single. Pete Rebert took it from there, scattering six White Sox hits and bringing his record to 5-5.

Peters and Fisher preserved John Buzhardt's seventh victory against a single loss in the nightcap. Ron Hansen drove in three runs with a double and single and was aboard with a single in the eighth when Dave Nicholson homered.
